

Gluey Love 351

Chapter 351

Victor was silent when he heard that. His face was dark and obscure. He turned to the side slightly and half of his handsome face was hidden in the shadow, making him look cold.

He opened his mouth casually when Lucian got impatient and said, "Lucian, Rebecca rarely dared to make things difficult for me openly over the years. Sometimes, I think that she may not know where my mother is.

Let's gamble this time. If she has information about my mother, she will definitely use my mother's news to exchange for conditions. We can actually find my mother faster this way!"

Lucian's faint voice came from the other end of the phone, "You should've done this a long time ago."

Lucian hung up the phone after that.

When Victor heard the beeping sound, he wished that he could fly back immediately and give Lucian a hard kick on the buttock. Lucian hung up the phone before he could finish his words.

When Eden saw that Victor had not returned, she got up and went to the bathroom.

Victor called Anson again.

Anson was with Lucian at the moment.

Anson somehow felt that he did not want to answer the call when he saw that it was from Victor.

He didn't know what mission Victor would assign him if he answered the call.

Lucian glared at him in annoyance when his phone didn't stop ringing.

Anson felt that the muscles on his face twitched slightly when he saw that. He looked at Lucian and smiled faintly. His gaze turned into a glare before he picked up the phone.

"Anson, are you deaf? Why did you only pick up the call now?"

Anson moved the phone away from his ears when he heard Victor's angry voice.

"Say what you want to say. Don't shout at me every time you call me!" Anson roared back angrily. His voice was louder than that of Victor's.

Anson was the most thick-skinned among the four of them.

"Shut up and listen to me. Anson, go back to the villa immediately and find a short video. There are many clips of Rebecca setting me up. Find one and upload it online to confirm the news today."

The anger in Anson's heart disappeared instantly when he heard that. He said with great interest,

"Okay! Victor, I like to do this kind of thing the most. We should have taught the old witch a lesson long ago. Since you have the ability now, it's time to fight back!"

"Yes!" Victor replied coldly.

Victor suddenly thought of something and said, "Anson, I know what happened to Eden in the past. She was run over by Bethany and taken away by her. Go and investigate this matter immediately..."

Eden who was walking towards Victor's back, happened to hear that.

Victor kept walking forward while he talked on the phone.

Eden wanted to follow him when she suddenly saw Victor hanging up and walking back.

She didn't have time to think about it. She turned around and hurried to the dining table.

Victor's words still echoed in her mind.

"Anson, I know what happened to Eden in the past. She was run over by Bethany and taken away by her. Go and investigate this matter immediately."

Eden tried to figure out the meaning behind the words.

She didn't feel good instantly. Her chest tightened and the suffocation almost caused her to plunge into darkness.

What did those words actually mean?

Eden felt as though she had been plunged into darkness!

She needed someone to pull her out of the darkness at the moment.

"I had an accident when I was a child and I lost some of my memories." Why was Victor investigating her childhood?

"She has come back to me but she has forgotten me!"

"I couldn't find her when I went back. I haven't seen her for more than ten years!"

That meant that Victor didn't know how Eden was lost back then.

Eden recalled the things that had happened previously. She was distracted and her lips trembled slightly.

Her thin figure looked depressed, lonely and helpless.

"Eden, have you done eating?" Victor looked at her nervously and felt distressed when she saw her trembling figure.

"Eden, have you done eating?" The deep and pleasant voice struck Eden's heart.

Eden seemed to have found a ray of light that pulled her out of the darkness. She came back to her senses instantly.

She raised her head slowly and looked at the striking and handsome face in front of her. Her dull gaze became clear.

"Eden, what's wrong? You're shaking." Victor walked towards her anxiously.

Eden bit her lips forcefully and she sobered up instantly. She said, "I accidentally ate chili. It's very spicy!" She couldn't suppress the tremor in her voice.

Victor was confused. He turned back and glanced at the sauce that contained chilies on the table.

"Eden, wait for a while." Victor turned and left. He asked the waiter for a can of iced herbal tea.

He brought the can over, opened it and handed it to Eden. He said, "Eden, drink something cold so that you won't feel spicy later!" His voice was deep and doting.

Eden glanced at him and nodded. She took the drink from his hand, raised her head and drank half of it.

The cold feeling engulfed her and caused her to sober up.

She composed herself quickly before she looked up and met Victor's gaze that was filled with distress!

Was it an illusion?

Why did she see the look of distress in his eyes again?

She blinked slightly and forced a smile. "Victor, I'm full. Do you still want to eat?"

Victor shook his head slightly. "Eden, I'm also full. How are you feeling?" His voice was slightly flat but warm at the moment.

Eden shook her head. "I'm fine now. Let's go!"

Victor nodded, took her hand and walked forward.

Eden looked at their holding hands. His grip was very tight as if he was afraid that he would lose her!

They returned to the car. Victor started the car and continued driving.

When the car got to the highway, Victor said, "Eden, the Dream Cave is in front."

"Oh!" Eden responded softly.

She glanced at Victor's side face and found that his expression was gentler than usual.

After thinking for a while, she asked out of curiosity, "Victor, can I ask you a question?"

Victor nodded slightly and asked, "Eden, go ahead."

Eden hesitated for a moment and said, "Victor, did you know how "Eden" disappeared back then?"

Victor did not expect Eden to ask this question. "No. That's why I couldn't find her!" Victor replied in a very heavy tone.

Chapter 352

Eden thought for a moment and asked, "Victor, didn't you try to find her back then?" She had forgotten to ask this question last night.

Victor smiled bitterly and glanced at her quickly. "I have tried to look for her. The Clement and Alwynn family had spent a lot of money and manpower but they still couldn't find Eden. I have never stopped searching for her all these years!"

Fortunately, Eden had returned to his side safely!

Eden suddenly felt that the atmosphere in the car was tense. She felt that she was sitting in an ice cellar.

Eden didn't dare to look at Victor at the moment. She lowered her head and looked at her pale hands instead. One of the hands was clutching tightly on her wrinkled pants.

The car fell into a smothering silence instantly.

Victor felt a little strange and quickly turned his head to look at Eden.

Eden happened to look up at him at the same time. She gathered the courage and asked, "Victor, you said that she is back and you love her very much. Aren't you afraid that she will be angry when she knows you have taken me instead of her?"

She and Victor had both lived a lonely life before. Both of them had experienced loneliness in this world.

Eden would feel a sense of coldness of the world seven years ago, even though she was standing under the blazing sun.

She felt that Victor and her experience were similar when she heard his past!

Victor smiled bitterly and said, "Eden, I didn't expect you to have such a bad memory. Didn't I tell you that she has forgotten me?"

Eden's heart tightened suddenly. She pretended to be relaxed and asked, "Victor, will you still get her back even though she has forgotten about you?"

She has forgotten the way home. Will you tell her the way home?"

After that, she looked at Victor's side face quietly and pursed her lips slightly. There was a hint of stubbornness on her lips as she waited for Victor's reply.

Every second was torturous to her.

Victor nodded and said, "Eden, yes. I will bring her home when the time is right and when it is safe."

Eden, you also know that the Clement family adopted Haven, who is seditious. I will wait a little longer and take her home when it's safe. Eden and I have had a marriage engagement since childhood."

"A marriage engagement?" Eden emphasized on the word.

"That's right! We have a marriage engagement. She had always clamored to marry me. How could I not agree to my little angel?" Victor's tone was filled with happiness.

Eden asked again, "Have you been waiting for her all these years? Will you wait for her to be your bride no matter what she becomes?" Her eyes were filled with tears and her sight was blurred.

"Yes!" Victor nodded heavily without hesitation.

A trace of warmth surged through Eden's heart.

Eden suddenly remembered Aisling's mean words.

She lowered her head suddenly and looked as though she had lost her soul.

After a while, she shook her head slightly. It was impossible. She was certainly not Victor's Eden.

Eden painfully told herself that.

Victor parked his car at the parking lot of the scenic spot.

He glanced at Eden who had her head lowered and said gently, "Eden, we're here." "Oh!" Eden raised her head and looked around. She realized that she was unaware that the car was already parked in the parking lot.

She was about to get out of the car when Victor suddenly leaned towards her and unbuckled her seat belt.

She was instantly enveloped in a fresh and pleasant scent.

Eden smiled at him when she saw his heartwarming action. She teased, "Victor, you are really doing your best as a boyfriend. You even unbuckled my belt for me."

Victor didn't straighten his back completely and was very close to her. He smiled softly and said, "Eden, I have always been a devoted man. It's just that you didn't see it, which makes me very sad." Eden was the only person in the world whom Victor treated well.

"Hehe..." Eden softly laughed.

Victor looked at her bright eyes and white teeth when she smiled. Her red lips were covered with light pink lipstick. Her lustrous and smooth lips were tempting.

Victor leaned forward a few centimeters subconsciously.

The smile on Eden's face stiffened when she noticed his movement. She pushed Victor quickly when his head was very close to her forehead.

Victor came to his senses suddenly. He looked at Eden's smiling face and blinked his eyes. He still had an urge to kiss her. It seemed that he was still immersed in the temptation just now.

Eden looked at the mixed emotions in his eyes and said in a slightly cold tone, "Victor, we didn't agree that I would receive such a service as your girlfriend."

Victor came to his senses suddenly, straightened up his body and curled his lips slightly. He was so obsessed with her that he could not control himself.

However, he was particularly comfortable with this kind of feeling. He was excited and even wanted to do what he did to her seven years ago.

No way. He had to take it slow. He couldn't rush it.

He must not be in a hurry, otherwise, he would scare Eden away again.

He looked at her and said with an evil smile, "Eden, even though we didn't agree to have such a service, I still can't help myself when I see you. What should I do?"

Eden suppressed the strange feeling in her heart when she heard that. "Victor, how do I know what you should do? Let's get out of the car. We have already wasted a lot of time today!"

As Eden spoke, she opened the car door and got out.

Victor looked at her and smiled helplessly.

He was still too impatient!

He also opened the car door quickly and got off.

When he saw that Eden had come to him, a seductive smile appeared on his well-defined, handsome and charming face.

"Eden, let's go!" He closed the door, locked the car and took her hand. They walked to the scenic area after that.

Eden looked up and glanced at him lightly when Victor held her hand. There were complicated emotions in her eyes.

Both of them walked forward. The weather was not too hot and the sunlight made them feel very comfortable. The sea breeze had a damp smell.

Many people came here to have fun and everyone was smiling happily.

Eden was influenced by the atmosphere around her. The unhappiness and doubts in her heart were suppressed by her.

At the Jotham Alwynn Group!

The company was in a complete chaos. Rebecca arrived at the Jotham Alwynn Group as fast as she could.

When the employees of the Jotham Alwynn Group saw her, they all looked at her doubtfully. Some of them whispered with each other at the side.

The news about Rebecca had caused an uproar on various online platforms.

Chapter 353

Rebecca didn't care about the gossips around her. She ran straight to Phillip's office angrily.

The phone in Phillip's office rang continuously.

The secretary, Jaxon, kept answering the phone and explaining the situation.

Phillip was annoyed by that and he unplugged the phone line angrily.

The office became quiet instantly and Jaxon wiped the sweat on his face wearily.

Jaxon saw a video popping up on his computer screen when he opened his eyes. He quickly clicked and opened it.

It was the video where Rebecca slipped and fell in the living room on her own but she accused Victor of pushing her.

After that, Phillip and Vincent rushed over and accused Victor together.

"Chairman, come quickly and have a look at this." Jaxon called out in surprise.

Phillip who had a headache, held his forehead and said angrily, "What now? Is it bad news again?"

Phillip had a headache. It was very difficult to do business nowadays. The media was keeping an eye on the news every day, especially the news of wealthy families like the Alwynn family. It would be widespread if something went wrong.

Many competitors in the same field were waiting for Phillip to fall so that they could rise and gain an advantage from it.

Some people would even profit from the situation if that were to happen.

Jaxon looked at Phillip with a serious expression on his face and said, "Chairman, this video is more heart-breaking than the news."

Phillip barked in a low voice, "What?" He got up quickly and walked over.

The video was very short and it ended after the scene where Phillip lectured Victor.

His whole body was churning with anger.

"Ah..." He let out a painful cry.

He suddenly recalled that there was also a similar incident when Victor went back to the villa a few days ago.

He was rebuked by Anson but he still chose to believe Rebecca and did not listen to Victor's explanation.

He had concluded that it was Victor's fault!

Anson said that as an outsider, he was disappointed in Phillip's action, let alone Victor.

Phillip had no idea what he had done to Victor, causing Victor to treat him like an enemy.

Jaxon saw the painful expression on Phillip's face and asked worriedly, "Chairman, are you all right?"

Phillip shook his head slowly and he looked tired. "Jaxon, call Victor quickly." His voice was dry and hoarse. This matter was a big blow to him.

"Okay!" Jaxon took out his mobile phone quickly and called Victor.

He dialed three or four times consecutively but Victor did not answer his phone.

Jaxon said in embarrassment, "Chairman, Mr.

Alwynn is not answering the phone."

Phillip roared angrily, "That little brat!"

"Can't we talk about the matter at home? He actually uploaded this kind of thing on the Internet. This is so embarrassing!"

Jaxon said, "Chairman, I'll call his company to ask if Victor is there."

Jaxon dialed the secretary office's number of the Alwynn Group as he spoke.

Lucian was dealing with some matters when he suddenly heard the phone ringing. He glanced at it and saw that it was the Jotham Alwynn Group's phone number.

His gaze was dark and he waited for a moment before picking up the phone.

"Hello!" His voice was cold and was devoid of feelings.

"Secretary Ronen, is Mr. Alwynn here?"

"He's not here!" Lucian answered indifferently.

"About the incident on the Internet..."

"Jaxon, check your company's IP address and why the previous news was uploaded to the Internet from your company's address before you call and question someone else." Lucian hung up the phone after he had finished speaking.

He lowered his head and continued to deal with the things on his hands without any expression.

Jaxon's ear ached when he heard the snap of the phone. He shook his head helplessly and said, "Chairman, Mr. Alwynn is not in the company."

"He is not in the company?" Phillip smiled coldly and said, "He had poked a hornet's nest but he didn't answer the phone and hid. Isn't he trying to push me over the edge?" Phillip was so angry that his whole face was distorted.

Phillip heard the sound of hurried footsteps approaching and his face became livid.

He saw Rebecca entering the room when he raised his head and looked at the door.

Rebecca's heart quivered when she saw Phillip's cold face.

She looked at Phillip with a pitiful look on her face. "Hubby, don't believe the news on the Internet. Someone is framing me!"

Phillip looked at Rebecca who was standing in front of him and suddenly thought of what Anson had said.

He was sleeping with a wolf!

He found that it made sense when he thought about it!

"Hmph!" Phillip glanced at her coldly and his eyes were filled with rage. "How dare you come to the company? The stock is plummeting. Also, the video shows that you fell down on your own. Why did you frame Victor? What are you up to?"

"You also know that I feel sorry for Jaida and the siblings. It's fine if you don't treat Victor and his sister well but you actually used this kind of means to drive a wedge between me and Victor. Rebecca, are you even human?"

Phillip roared at Rebecca when he spoke the last sentence.

Rebecca took a few steps back when she heard his roar.

She asked doubtfully, "What video?" How could there be a video of her pretending to fall down and then accusing Victor of pushing her?

"Get out! Stay home and don't ever step into the Jotham Alwynn Group again." Phillip shouted as he pointed at the door of the office.

"Hubby..."

"I told you to get out!" Phillip was furious. A sense of disgust surged through his heart when he heard Rebecca's coquettish tone.

Rebecca looked at him sullenly. She was in a difficult situation at the moment.

What should she do?

Had Victor really started to fight back?

She looked at Phillip and suddenly shouted angrily, "Phillip, you'd rather believe the rumors than your wife? How could I do those things? Weren't you present when Victor hurt me? When did I ever accuse him?"

Phillip lost his temper and roared back angrily, "Had I ever seen it with my own eyes? I had defended and trusted you every time but you deceived me over and over again."

Jaxon was shocked by Phillip's anger.

His fingers tapped on the keyboard quickly. After a while, he said, "Chairman, I found out that the news about Mr. Alwynn and Eden was uploaded by Mrs. Alwynn's secretary, Noah."

"Ah..." Rebecca didn't expect that today's incident would end up this way!

Phillip glared at her angrily. "Why are you gasping? You look like a decent human being but why did you do things that are worse than animals?"

Chapter 354

Phillip was so angry that he spoke without thinking.

First of all, he felt that he owed Victor a lot.

Moreover, the misunderstanding between them couldn't be explained clearly!

Victor seemed to hold a grudge against Phillip every time he looked at him!

Secondly, the woman he had been protecting had been deceiving him, causing a huge blow to his dignity.

Rebecca widened her eyes and looked at Phillip in disbelief. She didn't expect that he would say such insulting words to her.

That was the first time Phillip had scolded her after she was being married to him for years. Moreover, his words were harsh.

He said she was worse than animals?

Haha...

She sneered in her heart. Those acted like a human would not necessarily do good deeds!

Her tears flowed down instantly and she seemed to be in deep pain.

She was indeed despicable and had used very despicable means to drive Victor, Adalynn and Jaida out of the Alwynn family.

If she didn't kick them out, how would she and her children live such a wealthy life?

Who could understand the bitterness, pain, exhaustion and the cruelty of reality that she hid in her heart?

She could feel the pain and felt shameful when she heard the insulting words from Phillip today.

"Phillip, how dare you treat me like this? I've been with you for more than twenty years. I've worked very hard for you and this is how I ended up?" She shouted at him with tears in her eyes.

Phillip's gaze sharpened as he looked at Rebecca's exquisite face. He felt pity when he looked at the teary expression on her face.

He wanted to express what was on his mind but the words were stuck in his throat.

All the unpleasant words were stuck in his throat at the sight of Rebecca's teary face.

Suddenly, two figures came into the office in a hurry.

It was Vincent and Rebecca's secretary, Noah.

Noah lowered his head and he had a guilty look on his face.

Phillip frowned at them and yelled angrily, "What are you two doing here? Get the hell out of here!"

Vincent glanced at Phillip who was furious, lowered his head quickly and spoke in a low voice, "Dad, don't be angry. This matter has nothing to do with Mom."

They were all Noah's doings. He did that because Victor had caused a big scene in the company last time and Mom has always been very kind to him.

Noah was angry so he uploaded Victor's and that married woman's photos by accident, causing the incident to happen today."

Rebecca glanced appreciatively at Vincent with her teary eyes when she heard that. That was the only thing he had done right all these years.

Noah raised his head and glanced at Rebecca. There were indescribable emotions in his eyes and they looked complicated and heavy.

Rebecca looked at him with a poker face. He had taken the blame today and she would be a hundred times nicer to him in the future. Noah had been with her for many years. He had always been dedicated, causing her to feel at ease!

However, he could no longer stay by her side in the future since he had admitted that it was his doing.

"Chairman, all of this is my fault. I made the decision on my own and it has nothing to do with madam. As for the short video, it may be that the other party took advantage of the intensity of the news and set madam up. Chairman, I hope you can look into the matter."

Noah looked at Phillip with a guilty expression on his face after he had finished speaking.

Phillip glared at him angrily before he turned back and instructed Jaxon, "Jaxon, hold a press conference immediately and let Noah explain to the media. We can't let the stock plummet any further!"

"Okay! Chairman, I'll do it right away." Jaxon got up, pulled the hem of his clothes slightly and strode out.

Rebecca who was terrified and anxious, became much more relieved.

She had been standing and crying at the spot. She had feelings too. She had gone through a range of emotions, from trepidation to worry to relief. The process had caused her to feel desolate.

"Mom, are you alright?" Vincent held Rebecca gently and glanced at Phillip who had a livid face. He dared not say anything unnecessary.

He and Noah had discussed the matter in advance. Someone had to come forward to solve the matter, otherwise, it would have a great impact on the company.

Noah had always been cautious. Things turned out this way because he was careless today.

"Hubby, now you know that this matter really wasn't my doing!" Rebecca took advantage of the situation and spoke gently.

She knew Phillip very well. In this world, men with statuses like him needed tenderness and attentive care.

How could they be stern in front of gentle women?

Phillip's anger had subsided considerably but he still looked at Rebecca angrily.

Anson's words which were rooted in his heart, had started to sprout.

It seemed that he had been wrong all these years. He had never seen Rebecca's true colors.

The incident of that video happened in his house. It was impossible to make it look so realistic even if someone had faked it. Moreover, he was at the scene at that time. Although the incident happened half a year ago, he could still remember it until the present day.

One of them would get hurt whenever Victor came home.

However, he had always defended Rebecca. He had always thought that Victor was rebellious and it was his fault.

When Phillip met Victor after he had a fall last time, Victor told him about the car accident. After Victor had left, Phillip called Jaxon and asked him to investigate the matter.

However, he hadn't found anything yet!

He walked tiredly to the sofa at the side and sat down. He had always thought that he was a winner in life. He had an amazing son and a wife who could run the company with him. His filial children had saved him a lot of troubles.

However, he felt like he was some kind of joke at the moment and he could not get rid of the disconsolate and lost feeling!

"Hubby..." Rebecca called out in a soft and charming tone as she walked towards Phillip.

She had to convince Phillip to believe her even though she was still very upset and angry at his words just now.

Otherwise, all the things that she had done previously would be in vain.

She had used a lot of means to drive Victor and Jaida out of the family.

For her, humiliation was temporary whereas money and power were eternal.

Phillip glanced at her and said, "Vin, ask the driver to send your mother back." "Okay!" Vincent felt relieved when he heard that.

Phillip would not look into the matter again if he let Rebecca go back.

Rebecca bit her lip gently. Phillip looked away when he saw her pitiful look.

When Rebecca saw that, she knew that she could only wait for Phillip's anger to subside a little before giving him a satisfactory explanation. He would definitely believe her.

"Hubby, I'll go back and have a rest. Don't get too tired. Come home early at night." Her gentle tone was filled with concern.

Phillip couldn't help but nod.

Only then did Rebecca go back with relief.

Chapter 355

After Rebecca had left, Phillip looked at Noah and said, "Let's go. Come with me and explain everything."

"Yes, Chairman." Noah glanced at Phillip. He sighed slightly before he followed Phillip and left.

He was indeed careless in this matter.

At the Alwynn Group!

Lucian and Anson sat in front of the computer and looked at the broadcasting news.

Anson shook his head slightly and rebuked angrily, "Uncle Alwynn is really hopeless. He found someone to take the blame and that's the end of the matter. He is actually alerting the enemy."

Lucian looked up at him leisurely and asked, "What's with that video? Did Rebecca really treat Victor like that?"

Anson smiled coldly and his expression turned cold when he heard that. He said, "Lucian, this is nothing. She had done something even worse than this.

I went back with Victor to get some things a few days ago. She fell down on purpose in front of me and accused Victor of pushing her.

She dared to make such a move because she was sure that Uncle Alwynn would believe her."

"If that's the case, let's upload more videos online. We can't really prove anything based on the short video." Lucian looked at Anson coldly.

Anson glared at him and said, "Lucian, don't look at me like that. I did what Victor told me to do."

Lucian frowned slightly and glanced at the video. He turned off the computer and said coldly, "I'm about to get off work."

Anson looked at him scornfully and said, "You make it sound like I don't need to get off work."

He headed to his office and was also ready to pack up and leave.

However, he smiled wryly. Victor was probably very happy to spend time together with Eden today.

Anson really wanted to see Victor's gentle side. Victor would not find it annoying even though he called Eden's name a thousand times a day.

It was a pity that Victor only showed his gentle side to Eden.

Anson would also show his gentle side to Abby in the future.

However, he didn't know why Abby ignored him for the past few days.

No way. He had to investigate Joziah's background.

Otherwise, he would feel uneasy.

He was about to enter his office when he suddenly remembered something. Lucian had always been mature and steady, and he rarely got drunk. It was the first time that Anson had seen Lucian drink until he passed out that night.

He leaned against the door lazily and looked at Lucian, who was packing his things. He asked, "Lucian, why did you drink so much the other day?"

Lucian, who was packing his things, paused when he heard that. He pursed his lips, continued to pack his things and ignored Anson.

When Anson saw that, he knew that Lucian would not tell him anything.

He teased, "Lucian, if you like someone, go and confess your love to her. You might turn out to be her back-up."

Lucian paused, turned his head and glanced sideways at Anson. His warm gaze sharpened and he asked coldly, "Do you really want to know?"

Anson nodded his head hurriedly. He had always wanted to know that!

It was unbelievable to see the disciplined Lucian losing his cool.

Anson laughed wickedly in his heart. He had risked his life to accompany Lucian that night in order to let him see the masterpiece he made when he was drunk.

It was rare to see such Lucian behaving like that.

Lucian curled the corner of his lips coldly and said, "You will still be single this year."

Anson glared at Lucian and said angrily, "Lucian, how dare you curse me? You actually wish that I am single. You are also single at the moment. You are cursing me but not yourself?"

Lucian picked up his laptop, took his briefcase and car key, and walked out of the office area. He took a few steps before he turned around and looked at Anson.

Anson's eyelids jumped involuntarily when he met Lucian's gaze.

Lucian, the sharp-tongued man, could not be easily messed.

"Lucian, stop. You'd better get off work quickly if you still want to say something to suppress me.

Your family has dinner earlier than mine. If you go home late, your mom will lecture and order you to go home early after work. She would not allow you to have fun outside because there are many bad guys there!

You'd better go back quickly so that you won't be lectured by your mother again!" Anson said.

Lucian frowned when he heard that.

He hadn't said anything but Anson was already scared.

"You are usually very bold. I haven't said anything yet but you are already scared.

I just want to tell you I have cleaned your car. You can go to the parking lot to get your car."
Lucian's sarcastic words reached Anson's ears. There was a trace of coldness in his faint voice.

A sarcastic sneer formed at the corners of Lucian's mouth when he saw Anson's deep gaze.

Anson's became shorter as he leaned against the door when he heard that.

He had miscalculated. He was smart but he could not figure out Victor and Lucian's characters.

He thought that Lucian was going to curse at him but he became gentle and nice suddenly.

When he thought that Lucian was easy to talk to, he would become angry suddenly, making him completely overwhelmed.

Taking Lucian as an example, his tone was very calm and polite but he was able to let others hear the anger and ridicule in his tone. He did not even try to hide it!

"Go, Lucian, just go. Don't stand in my way and be an eyesore." Anson gave in, waved his hand and sent him away.

He couldn't afford to offend him and he could only avoid him.

Lucian glanced at him faintly before he turned around and left.

Anson also turned around and entered his office. He would be so angry that he would not be able to have dinner tonight if he saw Lucian again.

Lucian met Amelia who just got off work when he reached the elevator.

Amelia smiled sweetly and said, "Secretary Ronen, are you getting off work?"

"Yes!" Lucian nodded his head indifferently without glancing at Amelia.

He closed his eyes slightly. There was a lingering sadness on his usually warm and handsome face.

Amelia glanced at him and looked at the elevator. Seeing that Lucian didn't respond, she called out, "Secretary Ronen, the elevator is here."

Lucian, who was in deep thoughts with his head lowered, came to his senses instantly. Only then did he raise his head and look at Amelia. He said, "Thank you!"

He strode into the elevator after that.

Amelia followed him into the elevator but she was a little nervous at the moment.

The door of the elevator closed slowly and the narrow space became oppressive and quiet suddenly.

Amelia thought to herself that Lucian seemed to be in a bad mood.

She raised her eyes slightly and looked at Lucian. She saw that he was still keeping his head down and there was a hint of sorrow in his eyes.

"Secretary Ronen, you don't look well. Are you not feeling well?" She asked boldly and her tone was filled with concern.

Only then did Lucian realize that Amelia was also in the elevator. He quickly composed himself and shook his head slightly.

Chapter 356

Amelia did not speak when Lucian was not speaking.

Amelia was overwhelmed by the strange atmosphere and she had a thin layer of sweat on her forehead while she was in the elevator.

She hurried out of the elevator when it reached the first floor. She instantly felt that her breathing was smoother.

"Goodbye, Secretary Ronen!" She rushed forward after speaking in an urgent tone.

"Bang!" She had her head lowered and didn't see Haven, who was not far away.

The documents in Haven's hand fell all over the ground!

Haven looked at Amelia and shouted angrily, "What are you doing? Can't you see where you are going? Are you blind?"

"Miss Clement, I'm sorry! I didn't mean it!" Amelia quickly squatted down to help Haven pick up the documents.

Haven knew that Amelia had attended the interview together with her but she didn't expect her to become the director's assistant.

She could only get close to Victor if she worked on the twenty-fifth floor.

She could not go to the twenty-fifth floor if she did not have important matters.

People really shouldn't compare with one another.

Haven became angrier the more she thought about it. She shouted in a mean voice, "Hurry up! My boyfriend is coming to pick me up soon. His time is precious and you can't afford to waste it!"

Lucian, who was walking out of the elevator, heard Haven words and his irritability turned into rage.

He strode over and pulled Amelia up.

"Thud..." The documents that Amelia had picked up fell to the ground again.

Haven frowned when Lucian suddenly showed up. She would bump into him whenever she went.

"Secretary Ronen?" Amelia looked at Lucian in confusion.

Lucian frowned and said coldly, "You've already apologized to her. Why don't you defend yourself? Why don't you return the favor when she mocked you in a snarky way?"

She can look down on you for no reason but you can also retort with contempt and indifference to the person who bragged in front of you."

"Secretary Ronen, I..." Amelia glanced at him. She was very grateful that he had come to her aid but she didn't have the ability to fight with Haven. After all, she was the daughter of the Clement family.

On the contrary, Amelia was just an ordinary person. She laughed at herself.

She looked at Lucian and shook her head slightly. "Secretary Ronen, thank you. It's fine. I'll pick up the documents for Miss Clement first."

She broke free of Lucian's grip as she spoke. She continued to squat down and picked up the documents.

Haven sneered and said, "Secretary Ronen, you want to be a hero and save the damsel in distress but she may not appreciate your help." Her tone was arrogant. She had never been on good terms with Lucian.

She didn't understand how she had offended Lucian. Lucian had been treating her coldly and he hated her very much!

A touch of disdain flashed across Lucian's eyes. He curled the corner of his lips playfully and didn't bother to talk to Haven.

Amelia who was busy picking up the documents suddenly saw a paternity test report among the scattered documents. She glanced at it quickly and was surprised to see Eden and Aisling's names on it.

She picked up all the documents silently and handed them to Haven.

"Hmph!" Haven took the documents and glared at Amelia before she walked out haughtily.

Lucian also walked out without looking at Amelia.

Amelia looked at their backs. She had complicated emotions in her eyes when she thought about the paternity test report that she just saw.

She knew that Aisling was Haven's mother and also the madam of the Clement family in River city.

But why did Haven do a paternity test on Eden and Aisling?

Amelia thought about it and recalled the scene when she came for the interview. A few women who sat beside her said that Haven was not the Clement family's biological daughter, but was adopted from an orphanage.

If that was the case...

Amelia bit her lower lip slightly and walked out with her head down.

At Eden's home!

Kenny felt slightly relieved when he saw that the situation had been reversed.

He picked up the phone and dialed Victor's number.

Victor had fun with Eden for a day.

Victor and Eden found a restaurant by the sea. They were about to dine when Victor received a phone call from Kenny.

Victor glanced at Eden, who was having fun. He smiled and said, "Eden, sit down for a while. I'll take a call."

Eden nodded slightly. "Go ahead!"

"Okay!" Victor turned around and walked outside.

Eden took out her mobile phone from her bag and glanced at the news that had popped up on the screen.

She had seen the news in the morning. She didn't expect that the paparazzi would follow them here!

However, it did not affect her mood. Fralstin had always been the place she wanted to visit and she had a very good time today.

Her phone rang suddenly. It was from Jasper.

She pursed her lips slightly and answered the call. "Hello! Jasper!"

Jasper was silent for a while on the other end of the phone before he asked, "Eden, are you in Fralstin with Victor?"

"Yes!" Eden did not deny it.

"Eden, have you forgotten what I told you? You will be involved in their family's feud if you get close to Victor. You have seen today's news. Eden, what do you think I should do with you?" Jasper's voice was filled with pain.

He wanted to fly over and tear Victor apart so badly when he saw the photos of Eden and him holding hands.

There were so many women in the world. Why did Victor have to mess with Eden?

Eden lowered her head. She understood Jasper's concerns. She smiled faintly and said, "Jasper, I know you are very worried about me but Jasper, your perception of Victor is different from mine."

"What's the difference? Eden, have you fallen for him? Eden, I have loved and waited for you for seven years. Why can't it be me? Why?

Am I worse than Victor? Am I not as rich as Victor?

Eden, tell me what I should do to make you love me?"

Jasper's sorrowful voice was filled with helplessness.

Eden who was holding her phone, almost collapsed to the ground when she heard Jasper's words.

That was the first time Jasper had spoken to her like that. It was also the first time she heard Jasper's voice which was filled with pain.

"Jasper, I'm sorry." Eden choked up. She didn't know what else to say except that.

Jasper closed his eyes in pain. He had been provoked by the news today, causing him to lose control.

He couldn't resist the urge to call Eden at night when she didn't call and explain the situation to him. He hoped to hear from her that everything was a misunderstanding.

However, Eden apologized to him instead!

Jasper could feel an excruciating pain in his heart.

After some time, he suppressed the emotions in his heart and exhaled deeply before saying, "Eden, let's continue our conversation after you come back tomorrow night."

Jasper hung up the phone after that.

Chapter 357

"Jasper, Jasper..." Eden called out anxiously but Jasper had already hung up the phone.

Eden's face turned pale instantly. She had always hoped she wouldn't hurt Jasper.

That was the man she had never wanted to hurt!

She did not expect the news today would provoke him. She had always thought that Jasper was steady and mature, and was very clear of their relationship.

However...

Eden's heart was churning with bitterness. The complicated emotions she felt had caused her entire body to tremble in pain.

She picked up the cold water on the table and took a few sips to sober herself up.

Victor walked back after he had finished talking on the phone.

He had a faint smile on his face. Kenny had called to ask him about Eden's situation because he was very worried!

Eden quickly composed herself when she saw that Victor had returned.

Her perception of Victor was different from anybody else.

Therefore, she wanted to indulge herself for once and experience what it felt like to have a boyfriend!

She was indeed very happy today!

People lived for themselves. Eden wanted to live for herself for just one day. She didn't expect so many things would happen.

Victor sat opposite her, looked at her pale face and asked, "Eden, we've had fun the whole day today. You should be tired, right?"

Eden nodded slightly and didn't say anything. She was tired but her heart was even more tired.

"Eden, let's go back to the hotel to rest after dinner."

"Okay!" Eden nodded and said, "My flight is at ten o' clock tomorrow morning."

Victor also nodded slightly. "Eden, My flight is also at ten o'clock. Let's go back together!"

"Okay!" Eden suddenly realized that Victor did not come here for business but because she was here.

She had to go back and investigate to clear the doubts in her mind.

The dishes were served quickly. Victor and Eden chatted as they ate!

Eden composed herself and did not show her emotions when she talked to Victor.

Victor felt much more at ease when he saw that Eden was not affected by what had happened today.

"Eden, here. This is the fish you like to eat. You should eat more." Victor put the most tender fish into her bowl as he spoke.

Eden looked up at him and curled her lips slightly. "Victor, you should eat too. Don't pay too much attention to me. I can eat myself. I'm not a child!"

"Hehe..." Victor felt like laughing when he saw her serious look.

"Eden, to me, you are a little girl. Eat quickly. What else do you want to eat? Let's order more!"

Eden rolled her eyes helplessly when she heard that. She said, "Victor, we already have a lot of dishes. We may not be able finish them even if there are two of us."

Victor was about to speak when Eden's phone rang suddenly.

Eden put down her chopsticks and saw that the call was from Jaida.

Her heart became slightly heavy. Jaida called her because she was probably worried about what had happened to her today.

"Hello! Mom!"

"Eden, are you okay?"

"I'm fine, Mom. I'm having dinner. Have you and Dad eaten?"

"Eden, I saw the news today. I am worried about you."

Eden smiled sweetly. "Mom, I'm really fine. The news didn't affect me at all. Don't worry. You should have fun with Dad."

"Okay, Eden. You've done a great job!"

Eden was slightly confused. Why did Jaida say something like that to her?

"Mom, you..."

"Eden, listen to me. You have to be more careful when you go to work in the company in the future. Don't work there if you really can't take it. With your current achievements, if you open a small store on your own, the business would also be great. I don't want you to get hurt!"

When Eden heard that, she smiled and said, "Mom, you really don't have to worry about me. I am having dinner with Mr. Alwynn now. How could I still have dinner with him calmly if I am affected by the news?"

You don't have to worry, Mom. People can say whatever they want. Anyway, I don't care about gossip!"

It was a fact that she held hands with Victor. She did not deny that.

She just wanted to indulge herself this time, just this time!

Jaida was still worried. She urged, "Okay! Eden, your father and I will come back in three days. You have to take good care of yourself."

"Mom, I will take care of myself. You really don't have to worry. You should have a good time when you are having your honeymoon with Dad. Don't be bothered by these trivial things."

Eden felt a little helpless. Jaida would be worried about her even when it was just a trivial matter.

"Okay! You guys continue to eat then. I'm hanging up!"

"Okay! Goodbye, Mom!" Eden hung up the phone and she didn't feel as tired as she was before.

Victor looked at her gently and said, "Eden, you have a very good relationship with your mother!"

"Yes!" Eden nodded slightly before she lowered her head and continued to eat.

Victor glanced at her. He didn't ask her any more questions when he saw that she was unwilling to discuss the subject.

After dinner, Victor drove back to the hotel with Eden.

It was already past nine o'clock at night.

Victor knew that Eden was very tired. He didn't pester her but let her go back to rest instead!

He was already very satisfied that he could spend the whole day with her and take care of her!

"Eden, good night!" Victor stood at the door with a bright and dazzling smile on his face.

Eden smiled and said, "Victor, good night." They would no longer be lovers after tonight.

Victor was about to turn around and enter his room when Eden suddenly called out to him.

"Victor."

Victor turned back and stared at her quietly. He actually wanted to accompany her for a while but when he saw her tired face, he held back the urge and forced himself to go back to his room!

His heart was filled with excitement when Eden called out to him.

Eden smiled slightly and said, "Victor, thank you for today! I'm very happy today!" Even though something happened today, she still had a good time.

As for the other things, she had already found a direction to investigate.

Victor winked at her and his lips curved into a gentle arc. "Eden, I am glad you are happy!" Victor swore that he would make Eden happy every day in the future.

He did not say his thoughts on that.

He still had many things to say to her after he brought her home.

Eden looked at him and smiled gently. She then turned around and entered her room.

Victor waited until the door was closed before he came back to his senses. He opened the door and entered his room.

The gentle smile on Eden's face vanished when she returned to her room. She regarded the smile as a final goodbye.

She changed her shoes, picked up her pajamas and went to take a bath.

When she came out to dry her hair half an hour later, she suddenly heard a notification from WhatsApp.

Chapter 358

Eden took her phone and laid down on the soft bed before she opened her WhatsApp.

Amelia had sent her a report on her work.

Amelia had reported her daily work progress to Eden so that Eden would have less work when she went back!

Eden smiled and replied Amelia with a "Thank you".

She was about to put down her phone when the notification of her WhatsApp rang again.

She picked up the phone again and her expression changed when she glanced at the message.

"Director Bleu, I accidentally bumped into Haven today and knocked the documents in her hands to the ground. I saw a paternity test report that has Mrs. Clement's name and your name on it. However, I didn't see the results."

When Eden saw the message, she felt that her guess during the day had been confirmed.

Was she Eden Clement?

She did not feel as surprised or hurt as she felt in the morning probably because she had already had her own speculations.

Eden replied to Amelia's message, "Amelia, thank you. Please keep it a secret for me. Don't tell anyone about this first!"

Amelia also quickly replied, "Director Bleu, don't worry! I won't tell anyone!"

Eden sent "thank you" to Amelia again before she laid down on the bed.

Her whole body was sore and she was exhausted. However, she tossed and turned at the moment, and she couldn't fall asleep.

Why did Haven do a paternity test on her and Aisling? Was she suspicious too?

But how did Haven get her hair?

Eden suddenly recalled that she had bumped into Haven a few days ago when she went to the restroom.

Haven would look at her from a distance without greeting her. Eden had always felt that Haven's eyes were sullen. She didn't like that kind of person.

Eden tossed and turned. She did not fall asleep until after midnight!

It was almost nine o'clock when Eden woke up the next day. She was shocked when she glanced at the time!

Her flight was at ten o'clock. Based on the distance from the hotel to the airport, she had to travel forty minutes earlier from here.

She quickly got up, put on her clothes and washed up immediately.

She got busy instantly. It was exactly nine o'clock when she packed up her things and dragged her suitcase out of her room.

She saw Victor waiting outside with a suitcase when she opened the door.

Victor was dressed in a casual outfit that made him look cool and dashing. His cold eyes suddenly became gentle and passionate when he saw Eden.

Eden narrowed her eyes slightly and regained her usual indifference. "Mr. Alwynn, good morning!"

Victor frowned slightly when he heard that and his passionate eyes became dimmer. Eden was indeed heartless. She had resumed her previous coldness when the time was up.

Victor's heart was aching slightly.

Victor said in a low voice, "Morning, Eden!"

"Let's go!" Eden walked up to the elevator.

Victor looked at her slim figure quietly. He felt helpless and distressed.

He didn't know what he should do with Eden.

He dragged his suitcase and followed her. He stood side by side with her while they waited for the elevator.

He glanced sideways at her and said, "Eden, there's a car downstairs to take us to the airport. We'll go there directly by car!"

"Okay!" Eden nodded and did not say anything else.

Victor felt very helpless when he saw Eden behaving like that.

He really wanted to get back to the relationship they had yesterday. However, he took advantage of her sympathy yesterday in exchange for a whole day of happiness!

"Eden, let's go! The elevator is here." Victor's tone was very calm but his heart was extremely bitter.

"Okay!" Eden entered the elevator without looking at him. Victor and Eden were silent throughout the whole journey.

When they reached River City Airport, both of them took a taxi home separately. They didn't talk much to each other.

Along the way, Victor suddenly felt that he had been isolated by Eden.

That put him in a very bad mood!

His heart ached even more when he thought that they could not meet even though tomorrow was a weekend.

Eden found out that Jasper was at her house when she returned home.

He was playing the Rubik's Cube with Kenny and Gia in the living room.

Zofia was tidying the house.

When Eden saw Zofia, she suddenly remembered that she might be Eden Clement. If that was true, then Zofia's child...

No way. Eden had been suppressing that possibility!

She suppressed all the emotions in her heart and shouted with a bright smile on her face, "Jasper, Zofia, Kenny, Gia, I'm back."

"Wow! Mom is back." Gia raised her hand and waved at Eden.

Eden smiled dotingly. It felt good to be back home!

Kenny also shouted, "Mom!"

Eden asked, "Kenny, Zofia, were you obedient? You didn't make Zofia worry, did you?"

Zofia who was standing at the side, smiled and said, "Eden, they are very obedient."

"That's great!" Eden smiled and looked at Jasper.

Jasper did not dare to look directly at Eden. He lowered his head and tried to avoid her gaze.

Eden walked over with her suitcase and stopped in front of Jasper.

Jasper raised his head and looked up slowly. He avoided her gaze and lowered his head slowly when he saw that Eden's deep gaze was fixed on him.

Eden looked at him helplessly.

"Jasper, come upstairs. Let's have a talk!" After that, she dragged her suitcase upstairs.

When Kenny saw that, he asked with a smile, "Uncle Jasper, did you offend my mother?"

Jasper looked at him with a resentful look in his eyes. He nodded and said, "Yes!"

He replied weakly.

He got up slowly and walked upstairs.

He had slapped himself twice when he ended the phone call last night. He was too impulsive and angry at that time!

He regretted it after he ended the phone call!

He wanted to stay quietly by Eden's side even if she didn't have feelings towards him.

At least he could still see her whenever he wanted to this way.

What should he do if their relationship was broken and Eden didn't want to see him again?

He loved her but he wouldn't stop her if she found her own happiness.

However, Victor's family was complicated and there were too many conspiracies. He really didn't feel at ease!

He knew that Eden would come back today so he came early to wait for her.

He wanted to apologize to her!

No matter how slow he walked, the two flights of stairs were coming to an end.

Eden made two cups of coffee and placed them on the table on the balcony. She sat down and waited for Jasper.

There were a lot of plants here, causing it to look like a sky garden. It was very beautiful!

It was Eden's favorite place.

She looked at Jasper who was still keeping his head low and said helplessly, "Jasper, it took you so long to climb two flights of stairs. Even a snail is faster than you!"

"Hehe..." Jasper laughed dryly at her.

Eden pointed at the wicker chair across her and said, "Jasper, sit!"

"Okay!" Jasper sat down across from her slowly.

He then looked at her and said. "Eden, I'm sorry for what happened yesterday!"

Chapter 359

Eden was slightly stunned when she heard that. She thought that Jasper came here because he wanted to confront her about her relationship with Victor.

Jasper's apology made Eden feel even more guilty!

Eden looked at him silently and smiled lightly. "Jasper, I'll pretend that nothing had happened yesterday.

Jasper, my stance is very clear and you know that too. You have a brilliant life and a better girl is waiting for you out there!"

Eden's tone was sad. Jasper was a good man who deserved to be entrusted as a boyfriend or husband.

However, she was not the woman who would grow old with him!

Jasper understood Eden's thoughts. He had been with her for seven years and he knew her very well.

He smiled bitterly and looked at her with his clear eyes. "Eden, I don't care. My parents and Abigail don't care too. I like Kenny, Ricky and Gia very much but why did you..."

"Jasper!" Eden interrupted him.

She was very grateful to him for standing by her side silently all these years but love couldn't be forced!

She knew her own heart very well. She only cared for Jasper as a friend and family but there was no love!

She added, "Jasper, that's not fair to you. I don't want our fond memories together to be filled with unforgettable pain!"

When Jasper heard that, he looked straight at Eden and said angrily, "Eden, are you being unfair to me like that? Have you ever asked me if I feel unfair?"

Will you be treating other men fairly if you are married to another man?

If that is the case, why can't you treat me fairly?"

"Jasper." Eden glared at him. "I won't marry for the rest of my life."

She had three children. She would not be treated with sincerity no matter who she was married to.

To be able to accompany her own children when they were growing up was the happiest thing in the world for someone who did not have a family since young like her.

he was very grateful to all the things that Jasper had done for her.

Life had already forced her to be like a man. She didn't want to rely on anyone anymore.

Jasper was so shocked by Eden's words that he stared at her in disbelief.

"Hehe..." After some time, he let out a painful laugh. His handsome pain was filled with a pain originating from the depths of his soul.

Eden looked at Jasper who was suffering and watched his taunts.

She had always had such a thought. That was why she agreed to Victor's unreasonable request.

She had never been in a relationship before she gave birth to her children.

She had spent the day with Victor to make up for her past regret.

"Eden, you're very cruel to yourself! You actually chose not to get married for the rest of your life!"
If Eden chose not to marry for the rest of her life, Jasper also had the courage not to marry for the rest of his life!

Jasper didn't dare to say his thoughts because he knew that Eden would definitely feel sad if he said that.

He had met Eden in a foolish way in his best times.

However, he was crushed by her words and he could not have the woman of his dream.

He had met countless beautiful women in his life but none of them were as reserved as Eden.

Eden smiled bitterly and said, "Jasper, the thing I have longed the most in my life is a home. Do you know how I grew up when I was in the Gienger family?"

I longed for that home so I catered to their lives and behaved obediently.

I hoped they could recognize me as a daughter even though we didn't share the same blood!

I had put in a lot of efforts but what did I get? I was just a pawn for them to gain benefits and a joke of the Gienger family.

When I heard Myra and Haven's conversation a few days ago, it made me realize how ridiculous my previous efforts were.

Bethany cut off all my living expenses and tuition fees when I was in college. It was very hard for me at that time.

It was so hard that I wanted to die. When I saw the cars speeding past me, I really had the thought of running into the road and hit one of them.

That was because I was alone at that time. All I could feel was loneliness and pain..." Tears rolled down Eden's face and she was unable to say anything else.

She had told herself to hold on each day and she believed that it would get better the next day!

Jasper knew that Eden had led a hard life. However, he could feel her pain when he heard her past.

He knew that she had made up her mind when she decided to give birth to Kenny, Ricky and Gia.

She really longed for a home. Her smile had become increasingly brighter ever since Jaida showed up.

"Eden, don't cry. Those days have passed. You have a home now." Jasper comforted her softly.

Eden wiped away her tears and said with a smile, "Jasper, we have known each other for more than seven years and we are very familiar with each other. Do you know that you are the last person I wanted to hurt? You and Abby are like a family to me all these years. I am very happy and satisfied!"

Jasper smiled bitterly when he heard that. "Eden, I understand what you mean. Things like that won't happen again but..."

Jasper suddenly smiled and looked at her. He was still dodging her gaze a little. "Eden, if you want to get married one day, you can marry me. Let's make do with it!" His tone was half-joking and half-serious!

"Hehe..." Eden smiled and shook her head.

"Jasper, I will not have such thoughts, nor will I give you any expectations. Sometimes, hope is harsher than despair. Hence, you'd better get rid of this kind of thoughts in the future!" "Eden... Eden..." Even though Jasper's heart ached when he heard that, he still acted coquettishly to make Eden happy.

"Alright, now that we have already made things clear, you can have a good sleep tonight." She looked at the dark circles under Jasper's eyes. It seemed that he hadn't slept last night!

Jasper pursed his lips slightly. He would find it harder to fall asleep tonight.

Forget it. He would wait for Eden patiently. No one could take the things that belonged to him away from him.

Jasper looked at Eden and smiled brightly. "Eden, make me something delicious. I was so worried about you that I didn't have breakfast."

Eden glared at him. "Look at you. You're a man but you don't know how to take care of yourself. Go downstairs and accompany Kenny and Gia. I'm going to cook dinner now."

"Okay! Eden, I want to eat boiled fish!" Jasper looked at her as he spoke. The dishes that Eden made were very delicious!

"Okay! I'll cook for you but I have to see if there is any food at home." Eden took a sip of coffee and got up to change her clothes.

When Jasper heard that, he said excitedly, "Eden, I bought some food when I came here. There's also fish."

Chapter 360

Eden looked back at him and smiled wryly, "Jasper, seems like you came here well-prepared."

Jasper grinned. "Eden, when had I come to your house empty-handed?"

Eden nodded fervently. "That's true. I have also accepted all the things you brought!"

Jasper would buy groceries, toilet rolls and daily necessities every time he visited her. She was too embarrassed to ask him to bring all the things back.

As a result, she would bring some things to him out of courtesy when she went to his house.

"Hehe..." Jasper looked at Eden's confused look and felt that it was much better than the way she looked when she cried a while ago.

"Eden, go and cook dinner quickly. I will accompany Kenny to play a few games." Jasper got up and went downstairs as he spoke. Now that things were clear, Eden would not be worried anymore and their relationship had returned back to normal. Jasper was relieved!

Eden smiled lightly and went back to her room to change her clothes.

She saw Jasper accompanying Kenny and Gia to play when she reached the first floor.

On the other hand, Zofia was already preparing dinner in the kitchen.

When Eden entered the kitchen, she saw that Zofia was looking at her phone after she had turned on the tap to wash the vegetables.

Sofia didn't realize that the water had overflowed.

Eden called out, "Zofia, what's wrong?"

Zofia looked up at her quickly and shook her head. "Eden, everything is fine."

Eden looked at Zofia's bitter smile and asked, "Is Buddy looking for you again?"

Zofia nodded slightly and she still had a bitter smile on her face. "Yes! He has been texting me and asking me where I am.

But I haven't responded to his messages. He seems to be looking for me everywhere the past few days but what could he do even if he finds me?

I've already decided not to continue the relationship with him! Just like what Mrs. Clement had said, the standards of the Clement family are too high. People like me could not fit into their family."

Eden's heart ached when she heard that.

She smiled and comforted Zofia, "Zofia, none of you betrayed each other in your relationship. It did not work out because Buddy's parents were against the relationship. However, you have forgotten something. Children are more obstinate than their parents. There is still hope in your relationship because both of you are deeply in love with each other. Don't jump to conclusions so quickly. You should wait!"

Zofia shook her head slightly and said, "Eden, forget it. I've already thought it through. I've bought a new phone number. I will change my SIM card and deal with my WhatsApp after dinner."

"Okay!" Eden felt so uncomfortable that her heart tightened a little.

It took a lot of courage for a person to face everything.

When Eden saw that Zofia was about to wash the vegetables, she walked over and said, "Zofia, go and rest. I'll do the cooking. You're pregnant. You'll feel uncomfortable and throw up if you handle the fish."

Zofia looked at Eden and shook her head. "Eden, I won't. I will normally throw up in the morning. I'll do the cooking with you. You've been working very hard all day. I've been staying at home these two days. I'm not tired."

Eden had no choice but to let Zofia do what she wanted to do.

Eden and Zofia had made a sumptuous dinner an hour later. They also cooked boiled fish, Jasper's favorite dish.

After they finished their meal happily, Jasper accompanied Kenny and Gia to play until ten o'clock before he left.

Eden did not go out for two days during the weekend.

She finished the work assigned by Darlene at home.

Those who did not put in effort in their works were perfunctory to themselves. Eden had stayed at home these two days. All she did was drawing her design besides eating. She had really put in a lot of effort in her work!

She finished her work on Sunday night and sent it to Darlene.

She heaved a sigh of relief when she sent her work to Darlene. She had really tried her best!

Victor seemed to have disappeared from her life these two days. There was no news from him at all!

The next day, Eden went to work as usual.

She wore a white dress and her soft and beautiful hair was combed into a lovely ponytail, causing her to look more competent and sharp.

She met Haven when she reached the entrance of the company.

When Eden saw Haven, she remembered what Amelia had told her yesterday.

Before she could greet Haven, Haven walked towards her with a grim expression on her face.

Haven was wearing a tight red dress that outlined her tall and delicate figure today. She raised her head high and her chin was directed towards Eden. Her initial gentle and virtuous temperament was gone and she looked like an arrogant peacock at the moment!

"Why? Eden, didn't you go back with Mr. Alwynn last night?" The first thing that came out of her mouth was a mockery and the words she said had hidden meaning.

Eden smiled and said, "Miss Clement, why should I go home with Mr. Alwynn?"

Haven smiled coldly. "Both of you stayed in the same hotel. You even strolled together while holding each other's hands. Such a relationship..." Haven changed the subject and said, "Eden, don't tell me that both of you are innocent?"

"Does my relationship with Mr. Alwynn have anything to do with you?" Eden's sharp voice pierced through Haven's heart.

If she remembered it correctly, Haven was Vincent's girlfriend now. She didn't know why Haven who had been in love with Victor suddenly became Vincent's girlfriend.

However, Haven had no right to question her like this regardless of her status.

"How could that have nothing to do with me? If you hadn't showed up, Victor would have married me..."

"He didn't marry you before I showed up. If he really wants to marry you, he wouldn't have changed his mind even when I showed up.

Don't distort the facts and slander innocent people." Eden interrupted Haven coldly.

"You..." Haven was at a loss for words.

Fortunately, Eden Bleu was not Eden Clement. Haven finally felt at ease!

"Hmph!" Haven snorted angrily. She took a few steps towards Eden and said softly, "Eden, you will never be able to marry Victor with me around. Don't even consider obtaining the things that I am unable to obtain."

She quickly took a step back after she finished speaking. She looked up and saw Victor, Anson, Lucian and Adonis entering the company.

Victor saw Haven looking at Eden coldly and whispering something in her ear when he walked in.

He knew that Haven was up to no good.

Eden quickly composed herself when she heard footsteps behind her. She turned around slightly and saw four handsome men entering the company.

Eden blinked her eyes slightly. Four of them had different temperaments.

Lucian had a gentle temperament.

Victor was domineering and his eyes were sharp and charming.

Anson gave people a romantic and dashing feeling.

Adonis who was behind him, looked cynical and imperious.

The four of them formed a perfect combination when they were together and they were able to mesmerize the crowd.

Eden slowly came back to her senses and nodded to the men.
