

Gluey Love 401

Chapter 401

Perhaps that would not lead to subsequent incidents, including the one which occurred today.

Eden ran out of the parking lot.

Dawson had been waiting for her outside. When he saw her running out crying, he shouted worriedly, "Eden, are you all right?"

Eden had just realized that Dawson was still waiting for her. She wiped away her tears and turned around to look at Dawson. She said, "Dawson, I want to be alone for a while. You can go back first. Thank you for your help today!"

Eden walked out after she had apologized to Dawson!

Dawson knew that she wasn't in a good mood so he didn't disturb her. Perhaps it was better for her to be alone!

He took out his mobile phone and called Zaiden. After reporting Eden's situation to Zaiden, he drove back home.

The neon lights and street lamps made the street look colorful and many advertisements flashed across the skyscrapers. The flickering lights landed on Eden's face that was full of tears.

Eden had formed a world on her own and was immersed in grief.

Her lonely back looked extremely heart-breaking at the moment!

Eden cried and her tears blurred her eyes.

She had suffered a lot in life. She was framed by others and looked down upon when she was at the lowest point in her life. Apart from that, she was also criticized for having children before marriage. All her pasts came flooding back at the moment.

Her most difficult time was when she was pregnant. At that time, her feet were so swollen that she couldn't even put on her shoes.

She was afraid to face the uncertain future.

However, Jaida, Abigail and Jasper had kept her company and helped her get through the darkest period of her life, thus allowing her to face the future with courage.

Time passed very quickly. In the blink of an eye, seven years had passed.

It had been seven years. She had been looking forward to this day but her heart was more painful than ever when the day finally arrived.

The evening breeze blew her soft hair. Her eyes were red and swollen due to crying and her thin body looked as though it could be blown away at any moment.

She walked aimlessly and her tears never stopped flowing. She wanted to cry all she could that night. It would be a brand-new day for her when the sun rose the next day.

She had experienced too much. Sometimes she would ask herself in front of the mirror what the most difficult challenge in her life was.

She had now understood that the most difficult challenge in life was actually her own heart.

It didn't matter if she was rich or had a plain and simple life. She would not lack anything as long as she was content and happy!

Eden exhaled deeply. She hoped that there would not be any traces of hatred left in her heart after tonight. She wanted to face the future with more confidence.

Eden's cell phone rang continuously but she did not answer her phone because she was immersed in grief.

Victor had been calling Eden. He had not seen her all day and wanted to hear her voice.

However, Eden did not answer his calls even though he had called her five to six times consecutively.

He was driving home at the moment. He dialed

Eden's number when his car stopped at the intersection of the red traffic lights.

He raised his head and glanced at the red traffic lights. He was about to lower his head and call Eden again when he saw a familiar figure.

The distant light shone over and Victor saw a distraught Eden at the zebra crossing with tears streaming down her face.

Her eyes were unfocused and she was walking distraughtly. It seemed as though she had formed a world on her own and everything around her was virtual.

Victor was shocked. Why was Eden here?

Why was she crying?

Victor saw that the traffic lights were about to turn green but Eden was walking very slowly!

She didn't realize that the cars around her had already started to move.

Victor was so anxious that he took his phone and got out of his car quickly as he ignored the sound of the horns behind him.

He called Anson and asked him to come over and deal with his car.

Anson who was drinking with Delmont and Buddy, received a phone call from Victor. He was confused because Victor had hung up before he could Speak.

All he heard was the sentence, "Go to the intersection of the traffic lights at Green Jade Road and deal with my car!"

Anson looked at his mobile phone in a daze. He felt that he was hallucinating but after checking his call record, he realized that Victor had really called him.

Victor left the car and ran towards Eden.

His car was parked on the main road. There was a long line of cars behind it and the sound of car horns were continuous.

Eden did not have any response even though she was in such a noisy environment and she continued to walk forward aimlessly.

Victor's heart ached so much that he couldn't breathe when he saw that!

At the same time, an electric car speeded towards the zebra crossing and was very close to Eden.

Eden did not seem to notice that and she continued walking in a daze!

Victor's chest tightened when he saw what was happening. He rushed towards Eden and pulled her into his arms at the most critical moment.

Eden finally came back to her senses when she was pulled by Victor. She raised her teary eyes and looked at Victor dumbfoundedly.

Victor's pupils constricted and his heart throbbed violently when he saw Eden's state. Her eyes were red and swollen, her face and lips were pale, and her gaze was blank and painful.

"Eden..." He called out to her softly and gazed at her deeply before he reached out his hand and gently wiped away the tears on her face.

Eden blinked her eyes and realized that Victor was the one who had pulled her away.

Victor looked at her deeply.

He asked softly, "Eden, what's wrong?" Eden instantly felt relaxed when his gentle and warm voice reached her bitter heart.

"Victor, how could it be you?" Her voice was hoarse and she was surprised. She had actually met Victor when she was experiencing her deepest pain.

Victor continued to gaze at her and whispered, "Eden, it's me. Tell me what has happened to you. Who bullied you? I'll help you get revenge!"

Eden's mood became better when she heard that.

She blinked her blurry eyes slightly. She had been crying for so long that her upper and lower eyelashes seemed to be stuck together, causing her eyes to feel very uncomfortable.

She lowered her head slightly and bit her lip hard.

No one could control what happened to them in life. How could life be smooth?

The sound of the car horns continued. Eden glanced behind her and saw that Victor's car was parked at the intersection of the red traffic lights.

She was a little agitated by the sound of the car horns around her.

She looked at Victor and said, "Victor, are you crazy? Why did you park the car there? Go back quickly. Look at how congested the traffic is."

Victor said, "Eden, I don't care. Tell me who bullied you."

Eden wanted to look at Victor but her eyes were very uncomfortable. She lowered her head, rubbed her eyes and said, "Victor, leave me alone. Quickly drive your car away!"

Chapter 402

Victor listened to the annoying car horns and saw that the traffic lights had turned red. He pulled Eden and walked to his car.

"Sigh! Victor, let go of me. Don't pull me." Eden followed him hurriedly.

Victor ignored her and continued to drag her forward.

"Is that guy crazy? Why would he park such a good car in the middle of the road?"

"That's right. I'm in a hurry to go home for dinner."

"That's wild. I am calling the police!"

Many other car owners came out of their cars and swore when Victor got close to his car.

Victor glanced at them coldly.

Most of the people shut up instantly.

He opened the door and let Eden get in before he helped her fasten her seat belt and went over to the driver's seat after that. The lights had turned green at the moment so he drove off.

Not long after he drove off, Victor's phone rang.

Victor glanced at it and realized that it was from Anson.

He answered the phone.

"Hello!"

"Victor, are you out of your mind? You called me but didn't say what you wanted clearly. Where did you say your car is?"

Victor said coldly, "You don't have to come over anymore. You can go back and rest!"

He hung up the phone after that.

Anson was so angry that he cursed a few times and almost threw the phone to the floor.

Even his heart was throbbing with anger.

Anson and Buddy had already left the bar but Anson glanced at Buddy and said, "Buddy, let's go back and continue drinking!"

Buddy looked at his exasperated look and teased with a smile, "You've been played by Victor again?"

Anson bit his lip hard and walked back to the bar slowly. As he walked, he said, "I've been used to this kind of thing for a long time!"

Anson's heart was filled with mixed emotions and he had a cold and furious look on his flawless face.

Even so, he had never thought of leaving Victor.

He would only be angry at Victor for three minutes. After three minutes, he would try to do his best if Victor called him again!

Buddy smiled and didn't say anything.

He frowned slightly and asked, "Anson, what's the relationship between Victor and Eden?"

Buddy had been holding back to ask that question for a night.

Anson turned around and looked at him with a complicated gaze.

The flickering neon lights at the entrance of the bar landed on Anson's handsome side face. He had an obscure expression on his face.

He smiled and said, "Buddy, let's not talk about Victor tonight. Let's continue drinking."

Anson walked inside the bar as he spoke.

Buddy felt a little helpless. Was it very difficult for Anson to answer the question?

The question was indeed very difficult for Anson to answer.

Anson and Buddy walked past the hall. The neon lights at the dance floor were dazzling and there was a group of young men and women who were dancing wildly.

Anson was glad when he saw the atmosphere.

He swung his body as he walked inside.

Buddy couldn't help but laugh when he looked at Anson's hilarious behavior.

His eyes were deep. He actually envied Victor, Anson, Lucian and Adonis very much.

Although all of them were very rich, they were not greedy and would not chase after fame and fortune.

They rarely went to high-end restaurants, cafes and saunas.

They would also not indulge themselves in sensual pleasures.

The four of them had good characters. Buddy also envied their friendship!

Victor left his family and did his own business a few years ago. He had no money at that time. Buddy wanted to help him but his family had refused to help.

In the end, Anson, Adonis and Lucian used all their family possessions to build the current Alwynn Group!

Buddy felt like he still couldn't make decisions on many things both then and now!

He was unable to make decisions even on the matter related to Zofia!

Buddy laughed at himself. He was really a coward! He was so wimpy that he wanted to give himself a hard beating!

He looked at the bartender's handsome and cool bartending actions and his heart skipped a beat. He also wanted to be brave like Victor for once.

The thoughts that he had been suppressing surged out at that moment. After he had solved the problem at hand, he would leave the Clement family and find Zofia.

No matter how hard their future was, he believed that everything could be solved as long as they were together!

Eden had not said a word since she got into the car. She looked at the scenery outside the window with a blank expression on her face.

Victor who was driving tilted his head and looked at her from time to time.

He remained silent and did not ask her any questions when he saw that she was unwilling to talk.

He pulled up to the riverside. There were very few people there and the night view was very beautiful!

Victor unbuckled his seat belt and said, "Eden, I'll get out of the car and have a stroll with you!"

Eden withdrew her gaze slowly and looked at him. She asked, "Do you have water in the car?"

"Yes!" As Victor spoke, he got out of the car and went to the trunk to get a bottle of mineral water.

Eden also got out of the car slowly.

Victor brought the bottle of mineral water to her side and handed it to her.

Eden did not drink the water. Instead, she went to the roadside, squatted down and poured the water to wash her eyes.

Her eyes felt uncomfortable after crying for a long time.

Victor looked at her and frowned in distress. He wondered how long Eden had cried.

She had gone off work very early today. Where had she gone to? Who had she met?

Suddenly, Victor asked, "Eden, did you go to see Bethany?"

Eden responded softly, "Yes!"

She slowly stood up and drank the rest of the water.

She felt hungry and tired!

She turned to look at Victor and asked with a smile, "Victor, have you eaten yet?"

Victor shook his head slightly. He hadn't had dinner!

Eden smiled slightly and said, "Treat me dinner then!"

Victor fixed his black eyes on Eden for a long time before he suddenly smiled and said, "Director Bleu, it's my honor! But you..."

Eden raised her lips slightly and said, "I am fine now!"

"Eden, are you sure you are all right?" Victor looked at her in disbelief.

He had come back late today and Eden had already got off work.

He wanted to find her when he couldn't reach her through the phone and hear her voice.

"Yes. I haven't shed a tear since I got in your car. I would only be sad temporarily. I will be fine after a painful cry."

Eden's stomach rumbled after she had finished her words. She looked at Victor in embarrassment.

She only took breakfast and had not eaten anything after that!

Victor's deep eyes seemed to be smiling at her.

"Get into the car!" Victor's voice was deep, pleasant and sexy at the same time!

Eden looked at him and saw that he had already walked to the side of the car. He was looking at her gently.

Eden blinked slightly and walked to the car.

She was so hungry that her stomach ached slightly. She opened the door and got into the car.

Victor also got into the car. Seeing that she was going to fasten her seat belt, he acted quickly by leaning towards her, pulling her seat belt and helping her to buckle it.

Chapter 403

Eden was enveloped by Victor's strong and fresh scent as he approached her.

Victor didn't smoke. His clean and fresh scent was enticing!

Eden was slightly nervous. She clung to her seat and clenched her fists tightly.

She lowered her head and did not dare to look at Victor.

Victor leaned back slightly. He didn't return to his seat completely but looked at Eden quietly from the side.

He could tell that Eden was very nervous. He felt good that she was nervous because that meant that he was important to her.

Victor thought about that confidently and his mood became slightly better.

Victor started the car and left when he heard the sound of the car horns behind him!

Eden calmed down a little after the Victor had driven the car for a distance.

Why?

Why would she always feel nervous when she was

with Victor?

Sometimes, she felt so nervous that she felt like her heart was going to jump out from her throat!

Eden was in deep thoughts when she suddenly heard Victor's voice.

"Eden, what do you want to eat?"

Eden composed herself slightly and said, "Let's go and eat crawfish."

Crawfish was her favorite food and they would no longer be sold in the market after a month.

She had to wait until the following year before she could eat them again.

She liked to eat crawfish when she was in a bad mood.

The satisfaction after eating crawfish could make all the troubles in her heart vanish.

Victor frowned slightly and asked, "Eden, do you like to eat crawfish so much?"

She would eat crawfish all the time when she was with Jasper. Wouldn't she get tired of crawfish?

"Yes!" Eden nodded. She had no intention of hiding that. Many people liked to eat crawfish nowadays!

Eden looked at him and asked, "Victor, don't you like it?"

Victor said, "I don't really like it!"

Eden said softly, "Oh!" She looked around and said, "If you don't like it, let's go eat something else then." She could eat anything at the moment as long as her stomach was full!

Victor controlled the steering wheel smoothly. He turned on his turn signal and headed to the city center.

After a while, he said, "Eden, since you want to eat crawfish, I'll bring you to eat something else which is even better!"

After saying that, Victor took out his phone and made a phone call.

Eden heard that it was a big restaurant in River City.

She was slightly surprised and said with embarrassment, "Victor, you are very rich but my monthly salary is not enough for a meal at a big restaurant in River City."

She would have to use up all her savings if she were to return the favor to him in the future.

She couldn't remember how much she had owed Victor.

Victor's eyes darkened and he said, "Eden, am I the kind of person who would ask you to return the favor to me?"

Eden looked at him and said, "Even though you are not such a person but the meal is too expensive..."

"Eden." Victor interrupted her and glanced sideways at her quickly before he said, "We have already agreed that it's my treat. If you feel bad about it, you can accompany me to watch a movie!"

While he was in the parking lot, he had planned out his future with Eden.

He wanted to do the things that couples would do with Eden.

They had traveled together, had meals together and had also gone to the beach together. However, they had never watched a movie together!

When Eden heard that, she felt as though she was being tricked by him. Victor was waiting for her to take the bait again.

Eden thought for a moment before she said, "Victor, I don't think it's appropriate for us to watch a movie together."

Victor asked with a poker face, "How is it not appropriate?" His tone was faint.

However, Eden could tell that he was angry from his tone.

Eden smiled faintly and said, "Isn't watching movies something that couples do..." "Don't we look like a couple?" Victor's tone was heavier than before.

Eden straightened up and looked at him. "Victor, do you think we look like one?"

How could he joke about this kind of thing?

"Also, don't you want your childhood sweetheart anymore?"

Eden felt sorry for Victor's childhood sweetheart if she went for a movie with Victor.

After all, Victor said that his childhood sweetheart had already...

Eden frowned slightly. The d*mned thought popped up in her mind again.

Victor had a cold expression on his face and didn't say a word.

Eden rolled her eyes when she saw that the expression on Victor's flawless and handsome face had turned colder.

Eden started to panic.

She said, "Alright, it's just watching a movie together. Let's do that tomorrow night then!"

Victor's face was not as dark as before when he heard that. He said, "Let's go on Saturday night instead of tomorrow night!"

Eden looked at him and grumbled, "Victor, don't go too far. I have to accompany my children on Saturday."

Victor said unhurriedly, "Kenny and Gia seem to like going to the library more!"

Eden smiled slightly and said, "Victor, you know my children better than me!"

Victor pursed his lips slightly and added in his heart, "They are also my children."

He still said unhurriedly, "Eden, let's go on Saturday then." He would make some arrangements for that.

Eden could only compromise since he was so stubborn. She would return the favor to him if she could. She would feel uncomfortable if she was indebted to him.

She said calmly, "Whatever you like!"

A smile appeared on Victor's sullen face when he heard that.

Eden took out her phone and saw that Victor had called her many times.

She glanced at him sideways. Why did he call her?

She had also noticed that Jaida had also made several phone calls to her.

She quickly replied to her WhatsApp and told her not to worry and that she would go back after dinner.

Jaida who had been worried about Eden, felt relieved after she saw the message.

The traffic was not congested at night. Victor reached the parking lot of the restaurant in River City after thirty minutes.

After Victor had parked the car, Eden was going to unbuckle her seat belt.

Victor was a step ahead of her again. He approached her and helped her unbuckle it.

Eden smiled helplessly and teased, "Victor, being your girlfriend is a blessing!"

Victor was slightly stunned when he heard her words and looked at her deeply.

After that, he smiled wickedly and said, "Eden, being your boyfriend is also a blessing!"

Eden was speechless.

"Well, you like to misinterpret my meaning. I am talking about your future girlfriend, not me!"

Victor did not answer her. Instead, he got out of the car, walked to the other side and opened the door gently for Eden to get out.

Victor looked at the corner of her mouth that was slightly raised. She looked different from her drained self a while ago.

She was able to smile at the moment. This meant that she was in a good mood.

Eden got out of the car and glanced at the luxurious parking lot.

It was indeed the most luxurious restaurant in River City. Even the parking lot was very luxurious!

Victor took her hand and walked forward without saying anything.

Chapter 404

Eden wanted to struggle when Victor held her hand but Victor tightened his grip.

Victor didn't seem to care about Eden's struggle at all.

He had an overbearing possessiveness and love towards Eden.

He felt as though he had been separated with Eden for a century even though they had only been separated for more than ten years.

She came back when he was thirty years old. Victor suddenly felt that time had passed very quickly.

She had returned to his side after so many years of waiting. Their children were all in primary school.

He couldn't help but lament that life was short!

All he could do now was to cherish everything he had!

Therefore, he would never let go of any opportunity to do things together with her.

When Victor and Eden entered the elevator, Eden shook Victor's hand and teased, "Victor, you bully me blatantly. Can you sleep at night?"

Victor smiled evilly and said charmingly, "I will sleep very well!"

He would sleep more soundly at night after seeing her!

He would slowly guide Eden who had been lost to come home.

He would face and overcome challenges for her from now onwards so that she could stay by his side happily.

Eden shook her head helplessly. If she did not know him well, she would have beaten him up for his actions.

She looked at Victor seriously. "Victor, I am confused by your actions."

Victor knew what Eden meant.

He looked at her quietly with his dark eyes and said, "Eden, there's nothing to be confused about."

He did not say anything after that.

Eden felt that chatting with him was very tiring.

It was the same with Lucian.

The only difference between them was that Lucian was a straightforward man. He spoke whatever he wanted and was not afraid of offending anyone at all!

On the other hand, Victor was a little wicked. It was more difficult to deal with a person like him. One would fall into Victor's trap if he was not careful enough!

She asked wryly, "Victor, aren't you going to find an excuse for your outrageous behavior? You should at least explain our two-day relationship."

At the moment, she wanted to probe Victor again.

Victor glanced faintly at her.

Eden also looked at him and saw the indifferent expression on his face. It seemed as though he didn't hear what she had said.

Eden wanted to say something when she heard the elevator ring.

Victor raised his thin lips and said in a deep and alluring voice, "We are here."

He led her out of the elevator without looking at her.

Eden was suddenly attracted by the luxurious scene in front of her.

The restaurant in River City was a place that was inaccessible to the general public.

That was the most expensive place in River City and only people with VIP cards could get in.

The business was great even though the price of a meal was more than ten thousand dollars!

The guests in the restaurant had high-end services.

The whole restaurant was decorated exquisitely. The golden hues were warm and the dazzling crystal lights were romantic!

"Wow! Victor, this place is more luxurious than rumored, especially when you see it with your own eyes!" Eden looked around curiously. The restaurant was filled with aristocrats.

The place was like a dream to women and the decorations caused people to feel great!

Victor raised his lips slightly and said, "Eden, if you like it, we can come here often in the future."

Eden almost choked and couldn't breathe when she heard that.

He spoke as though it was nothing to him to come here often.

She teased, "Victor, you shouldn't waste your money on this place even if you are rich. It is enough for me to experience this kind of place once."

Victor was about to speak when he suddenly saw Derek, the lobby manager who was dressed in a black suit, walking over with a smile.

"Mr. Alwynn, you are here."

"Yes!" Victor answered indifferently, "Is everything ready?"

Derek was surprised when he saw Victor holding Eden's hand. It was the first time Victor had brought a woman here.

Surprise flashed across his eyes and he smiled and said, "Mr. Alwynn, everything is ready."

As he spoke, he made an invitation gesture and led them to the seat by the window.

Eden knew that the building was very tall. She had seen the buttons in the elevator just now. They were on the sixty-sixth floor.

This restaurant was ranked first among the top ten luxury restaurants in River City.

It was also the most famous luxury restaurant. The fine dishes inherited a unique sense of gastronomy, allowing people to enjoy the splendor of the cuisine.

Eden and Victor entered the private room by the window whereas Derek smiled and left!

Eden sat down next to the window. She could see the entire River City and the night scene from her seat. Streams of cars travelled under the dazzling lights.

"Wow!" Eden looked at the beautiful night scene outside the window in surprise.

Victor's gaze became gentle when he saw that she was smiling happily!

He couldn't help but say softly, "Eden, do you like it?"

Eden withdrew her gaze slowly and looked at Victor with a smile. "Victor, everyone would like such beautiful scenery. I like it very much. I can see the whole River City from here. It's really beautiful!"

Eden smiled brightly and continued to look at the night scene outside the window.

The wind blew her soft hair. Her hair was very soft and it had a light fragrance of the shampoo.

Victor raised his lips slightly and smiled.

Victor swore to never leave Eden from now onwards. He wanted to spend the rest of his life with her.

He wanted to dote on her for the rest of his life.

She would always be the most important thing in his heart no matter how the world changed!

At the moment, two waiters came in with a dining cart.

One of them said with a smile, "Mr. Alwynn, greetings. The dishes are ready."

"Okay!" Victor nodded indifferently.

Eden turned around and looked at the dining cart.

Her big clear eyes lit up instantly when the waiters placed plates of delicate big lobsters on the table.

Victor had been watching her expression all the time. He felt light-hearted when he saw that Eden was surprised and happy.

Victor asked the waiters to leave. He came here to eat and didn't need to be served.

When the waiters had left the room, Eden said with a smile, "Victor, this is simply a lobster feast. There are dozens of flavors, including spicy, steamed and garlic, which are all my favorites. This is the most beautiful place among all the places that I have eaten crawfish!"

The white mist emitted by the iced lobster was very beautiful. Its strong aroma made her feel particularly appetizing.

Victor's gentle gaze landed on Eden's excited face. He said, "Eden, they are all yours. Drink some soup first before you eat. The iced lobster is lemon sake flavored. You will definitely like it. Moreover, the lobsters here are all free from pollution, fleshy and chewy."

Chapter 405

Victor also liked that lobster dish very much but not as much as Eden. Eden could eat it as a meal.

As Victor spoke, he put a bowl of chicken broth in front of Eden.

"Thank you!" Eden appreciated Victor's attentiveness very much.

Victor didn't say anything. He took the disposable gloves at the side, picked up the iced lobster and peeled its shell.

He gazed at Eden with a smile while she lowered her head to drink the broth.

When he had peeled the lobster, he put it in Eden's bowl.

Eden, who was drinking the soup with her head down, was slightly stunned when she saw the delicious lobster meat. She raised her eyes quickly and looked at Victor with a complicated expression on her face. "Victor, eat it yourself. I'll peel the lobster myself." She was not pretentious and she felt that it would taste even better if she peeled it on her own!

Victor said, "Eden, I'm here. I'll peel it for you. All you need to do is to eat."

When Eden heard that, she smiled slightly and said, "Victor, you treat me so well. I might be addicted to it."

Will you be addicted to it? It would be great if you are addicted." Victor's hoarse voice was filled with joy but it was difficult for anyone to detect that.

Eden said, "Victor, your behavior has piqued my curiosity."

Victor put another peeled lobster into her bowl and looked at her with an evil smile. "Eden, you can let your thoughts run wild and I can't control that!" There was a deeper meaning to his words.

Eden's face turned red when she heard that. She did not let her thoughts run wild.

"I didn't." She argued somewhat evasively.

After that, she lowered her head and continued to drink her broth.

Victor smiled happily. He was happy that Eden could let her thoughts run wild.

She was free and unrestrained when she was with Jasper.

That was because the only thing that existed between them was friendship and kinship.

However, Eden would let her thoughts run wild in front of Victor. Did that mean he was close to succeeding?

At that moment, he felt that all the years of persistence and waiting had finally yielded some response.

Victor thought happily as he peeled the lobsters of each flavor and put all of them into Eden's bowl.

Eden did not say anything and raised her head to look at Victor who was peeling the lobsters seriously. His head was lowered and he had a cold expression on his face. However, his eyes were domineering and gentle.

Eden was observing Victor's gorgeous and intriguing face when her phone rang suddenly.

She was slightly startled by it and sighed slightly. She really had a guilty conscience.

She took out her phone and saw that it was a video call from Ricky. She answered the call happily.

"Ricky, why haven't you slept yet?"

Victor stopped peeling the lobsters when he heard Ricky's name and looked at Eden's smiling face. She had always been patient with her children.

Ricky smiled happily and said in a soft and sweet tone, "Mom, I finished work late today. I noticed that there is still time so I want to see you!"

"Oh, my baby has grown taller. I am very happy because you love me so much." Eden looked at Ricky's delicate and beautiful features. He was handsome even though he was young.

Victor who was listening at the side, smiled faintly and his heart felt warm.

"Ricky, are you very busy recently?" Eden's heart ached for Ricky.

"Mom, I am almost done filming the movie. I will come back in about half a month. Mom, don't worry. Mommy Abigail takes good care of me."

Eden smiled and said, "With your Mommy Abigail taking care of you, I am at ease. Ricky, is Mommy Abigail unhappy recently? She took a long time to reply to my WhatsApp message."

Eden was also busy the past few days but she knew Abigail very well. Abigail seemed to be in a bad mood for the past few days!

Ricky thought for a moment and said, "Mom, I think it might be due to Uncle Joziah. I don't know what he did wrong. He came and apologized to Mommy for the past few days but she ignored him! Mommy is not happy."

Eden frowned slightly. Could there be a problem between Abigail and Joziah?

Victor narrowed his eyes slightly when he heard that. Was there really destiny between Anson and Abigail?

Anson was a jinx. Joziah indeed had other women behind Abigail's back.

Eden smiled and said, "Ricky, you have to be more obedient. Don't make Mommy Abigail unhappy."

"Mom, got it. Where are you?" Ricky looked at Eden's background curiously. Eden was not at home.

Eden smiled. She glanced at Victor and said, "Ricky, Uncle Alwynn and I are eating lobsters outside!"

Eden turned the phone to Victor as she spoke.

Victor looked at Ricky's adorable little face and greeted him with a smile. "Ricky."

"Uncle Alwynn, it's really you!" Ricky was a little excited.

"Yes!" Victor smiled slightly.

"Uncle Alwynn, I won't disturb you and Mom to dine anymore. I'll leave my mom to you. Uncle Alwynn, you must bring my mom home safely!"

"Okay!" Victor was very happy to hear that. "Ricky, don't worry. I will send your mother home safely."

"Thank you, Uncle Alwynn."

Eden was taken aback.

Why did Ricky mean by saying he would leave her to Victor?

While Eden was in deep thoughts, Ricky said

happily, "Mom, eat more. See you later!"

He ended the video call quickly after that.

Eden could only smile helplessly. She could understand that Jaida wanted her to get married as soon as possible.

But why did Ricky have the same thoughts?

Victor suddenly asked, "Eden, have you found the school for Kenny, Ricky and Gia?"

Eden nodded slightly. "Yes. It's the primary school not far from my home. It's convenient for my mother to pick up the children! I have already helped them register."

Victor felt that the primary school was not very good.

He wanted his children to go to an aristocratic school but Eden would not agree to that.

What should he do?

School would start soon!

Victor wanted to solve the problem in the best way.

He asked, "Eden, have you ever thought about... letting them study in the best aristocratic school in River City?"

When Eden heard that, she said with a playful smile, "What's the point of letting the children go there? So that they can compete with other children? Or for them to fight instead of study? Children who study there are sent in luxury cars by their parents. I don't have a luxury car. Besides, the children's tuition fees are a big problem."

Eden smiled and said, "Victor, the salary that you have given me is not enough for me to send my children to an aristocratic school."

She did not have a child but had three children.

Gia wanted to learn painting, Kenny wanted to learn about computer programming whereas Ricky wanted to learn acting. A considerable amount of money would be needed for all of these.

Chapter 406

Eden did not have the money to send her children to an aristocratic school.

Victor felt his heart throbbing when he heard that. He thought for a moment and said, "Eden, most of the donations to the aristocratic school in River City are made by the Alwynn family. Hence, it did not cost much to send children from the Alwynn family to the school."

Eden couldn't help laughing when she heard that.

"Victor, what does the children from the Alwynn family have to do with me? Forget it. You don't have to worry about this matter!

If other people know that my children use your connection to get into the school, my children will only be ridiculed and isolated by others.

The school that they will be attending is also an excellent school."

She had experienced comparison among other parents when she sent her children to kindergarten.

Besides, she would not allow her children to be affected by the bad customs of that kind of place.

They would be able to control their future as long as they worked hard.

Her three children had already worked hard enough.

However, there were still some differences between aristocratic and normal school.

Victor did not know what to say when he heard that.

There were pros and cons to study in an aristocratic school.

The reason many people wanted to send their children to the aristocratic school was because of the high qualifications of the teachers there.

He said, "Eden, the teachers there have high qualifications. This is something that other schools can't outmatch."

Eden knew that Victor was right.

In order to develop their children into outstanding talents, parents would choose this type of international high-end aristocratic school. Both the software and hardware system of the school was top-notch and the facilities were complete.

However, she had a very realistic problem. She could not afford the expensive tuition fees.

She knew that the future of her children could be influenced by the teachers in the school and the courses that they take but...

Eden smiled bitterly. She felt guilty because she really couldn't do anything about it!

She smiled and said, "Victor, I get what you mean but you understand my situation very well. I can't afford that!"

Victor narrowed his eyes slightly and said in a tempting way, "Eden, if you need not pay for the expensive tuition fees, do you want Kenny and his siblings to go there?"

Victor wanted to tell her the truth so badly.

However, the truth would make them strangers.

He was in a dilemma!

Eden was a little moved when she heard that. She asked seriously, "Victor, are you serious? I don't need to pay? Is there such a good thing?" She was aware of the aristocratic school in River City.

Even Myra and Antony, who came from a good family background were not able to enter the school at that time.

Forget it. What was she thinking?

Victor nodded quickly and said, "Eden, it's absolutely free. Let Kenny, Gia and Ricky go there!"

Victor would never let his children suffer.

Eden was slightly stunned. She lowered her head and continued to eat the lobsters without speaking.

Victor was patient when he saw that.

He picked up a lobster casually, peeled it and placed it in Eden's bowl. Eden quickly said, "Victor, don't do that! Eat it yourself. You haven't eaten anything yet because you have been serving me. I can peel the lobster on my own."

Victor glanced at her and put the peeled lobster that was in his hand into his mouth.

The lobster was chewy, fresh and tender. It was very delicious!

Eden smiled when she saw that.

After that, she took a pair of disposable gloves at the side and put them on before she started to peel the lobster herself!

Victor looked at her happy face and smiled. "Eden, do consider what I had told you just now!"

While peeling the lobster, Eden said, "Okay. I'll go back and discuss it with my mom. However, if my children go to that school, it'll be very troublesome for my mom to pick them up and drop them off."

Victor was instantly in a good mood when he heard that his mother was being mentioned. "Eden, no trouble at all. You have to make a decision as soon as possible."

Eden raised her head and glanced at him before she nodded her head without saying a word.

Victor smiled faintly and leaned back in his chair lazily.

Jaida would definitely agree if Eden told her about the matter!

He could sense that Jaida was helping him.

Victor tugged the corners of his lips slightly as he watched Eden feast on the food.

His gaze was dotting. Eden was innocent and unpretentious.

An hour later, Eden patted her belly.

She had eaten most of the lobster of different flavors on the table. She looked at Victor and said, "Victor, I can't eat anymore! Let's pack these!"

Victor was already full and had been waiting for her at the side.

Victor did not expect that she was able to eat so many lobsters because she usually didn't eat much.

He smiled and said, "Eden, if you want to eat, I'll bring you here again tomorrow. These won't be delicious if they are kept until tomorrow."

Eden glanced at him and sneered in her heart, "The lobsters are still edible if they are kept in the refrigerator even though they don't taste as nice!"

Forget it. Victor would feel embarrassed if she packed the lobsters here!

However, she felt that it was a pity that so many lobsters were left over!

She got up, took her bag and said, "Victor, let's go back!"

She felt sleepy after she was full. She had cried her eyes out today and she felt tired and sleepy at the moment!

"Okay!" Victor got up and left with her.

They went straight to the parking lot and Victor drove Eden back.

Eden did not refuse because she did not have the strength to argue with Victor at the moment.

She really wanted to go home and sleep.

Eden leaned back in her seat and looked at the brightly lit night scene outside that flashed across her eyes.

She was thinking about what Victor had told her at the moment.

She really had to consider carefully about sending her children to an aristocratic school!

She thought of her savings and realized that she only had the present month's salary!

Eden shook her head slightly and felt torn.

She glanced at Victor quickly and said unhappily, "Victor, it's all your fault. I'm going to lose sleep tonight."

Victor looked sideways at her in confusion. He asked, "Eden, are you too full? I can stop the car and have a stroll with you!"

Eden was speechless.

"Hehe..." She smiled and shook her head.

"Victor, I'm not talking about this. I only have this month's salary in my savings account but you tempted me to send my children to an aristocratic school. Aren't you deliberately making me feel torn?"

She wanted her children to receive a better education but reality made her feel a little helpless.

Victor smiled and said, "Eden, are you blaming me for giving you a low salary? I can increase your salary!"

When Eden heard that, she asked happily, "Victor, are you serious? It's so good to have a boss like you!"

"When did I go back on my words?" His tone was calm but serious.

Eden said with a smile, "Forget it. I was just kidding. The amount of salary I get depends on my ability."

Victor glanced at her and smiled helplessly. Eden was not greedy like other people.

Chapter 407

Victor said, "Eden, although I have acquired the Gienger family's company, I didn't intend to demolish the building. I want to keep it because of the shares you owned in the company.

I know that deep down, you still can't let go of the Gienger family so I didn't push them into a dead end. They are still holding some of the shares and will get dividends every year. That could help them live a normal life.

I will develop the area and focus it on children's clothing.

You will have to work hard in the future!"

Eden looked at him in surprise when she heard that.

He actually had such a thought.

She quickly said, "Victor, you don't have to do this..."

"Eden, I know you very well." Victor interrupted Eden quickly.

No matter how much she hated the Gienger family in the past, she was still kind. Bethany had reaped what she had sown.

However, Eden still would not feel good.

Eden would feel worse if he pushed the Gienger family into a dead end!

He was extremely ruthless when it came to the Gerard family because Eden was not related to the family!

He also hated Bethany for taking away Eden back then but she was the one who had raised Eden and let Eden return to his side.

He only decided to do so last night after thinking about it the whole night.

Moreover, Eden did not reveal that Bethany was the one who had run over her and took her away.

hat meant that she did not want Bethany to take on too much responsibility.

Eden was slightly stunned. She asked, "Victor, do you know me well?"

Victor said softly, "Yes!" He did not say a word after that.

Eden looked at his side face quietly. He still had the usual expression on his face. She had been observing him and realized that his eyes were filled with tenderness every time he looked at her.

She had only made the conclusion after observing him for a long time.

She tightened her grip on the bag.

The thought that had been welled up in her heart surged out.

She suppressed the thought for some time and didn't mention it in the end.

Eden smiled bitterly and said, "Victor, I don't even know myself. I didn't expect you to know me!"

She was very decisive at work but she felt like an idiot in life.

Victor glanced sideways at her and said nothing.

No matter how many years had passed, he could still read her mind easily.

Eden said, "Victor, if your childhood sweetheart suddenly remembers you one day, will you still marry her? Will you still adhere to your faith?"

"I will!" Victor answered without hesitation.

Eden smiled faintly and asked, "How good is she? Why haven't you forgotten her for more than a decade?"

She admired his behavior. She was just like him. She would never give up on the thing that she persisted!

Victor smiled gently when he heard that. Eden realized that Victor's expression would become gentle every time his Eden was mentioned.

"She is very good!" Victor's voice was gentle and sweet.

Eden smiled faintly and did not say anything.

She heaved a sigh of relief and kept quiet.

The car became quiet and Eden looked out of the window again.

Deep down, she felt torn and uncomfortable!

She was very close to getting an answer but she didn't dare to find out the truth.

Victor and Eden didn't talk on the way to Eden's house.

Victor parked his car at the side of the road.

Eden looked at him and smiled gratefully. "Victor, thank you for tonight!"

Victor smiled slightly and said, "Eden, rest early!"

"Okay!" Eden nodded, opened the car door and got off.

After closing the door, she said, "Victor, be careful on the road!"

"Okay!" Victor nodded slightly and looked at her tenderly.

Eden smiled faintly before she turned around and left.

Victor stayed in the car. He only drove home in ease after watching her enter the house.

When Eden entered the house, she realized that everyone was still awake and was waiting for her.

"Mom, you've finally come back. You have made us all anxious. It's almost eleven o'clock." Gia was holding a cartoon pillow in her hand and looked at Eden in discontent.

Eden looked at them apologetically. "Dad, Mom, Zofia, I'm sorry to have made all of you worry!"

Jaida got up, pulled her to the sofa and poured her a glass of water.

She looked at Eden in distress and said, "Eden, have you talked it out with Bethany when you met her?"

Eden nodded with a smile. "Mom, I've talked it out with her!"

Jaida knew that Eden did not reveal the incident in the past.

"You will suffer in the future if you continue to be so kind!" She knew that Eden didn't want to be too cruel to Bethany.

At the same time, she understood what kind of consequences unrestrained kindness would bring to a person.

She was a good example.

She nearly drove herself to death in the end!

Eden smiled gently. "Mom, we will have a better life if we are kind!"

Zaiden who was standing at the side said with a smile, "Eden, you are right. It is human's nature to be kind. No matter what we have experienced, we should not forget our nature!"

"Yes, Dad!" Eden looked at him and smiled.

There was nothing wrong with being kind!

Jaida stroked Eden's hair dotingly.

She glanced at Kenny and Gia before she looked at Eden. "Eden, your father and I waited for you to come back because we want to tell you about the problem of Kenny, Gia and Ricky going to school!"

Eden smiled. "Mother, what problem?"

Both Victor and her parents wanted to talk to her about this matter.

Zaiden said with a smile, "Eden, your mother and I have discussed with each other and decided to send Kenny, Gia and Ricky to an aristocratic school. I have talked to the president of the school. The children can register when school starts."

"Ah..." Eden looked at Zaiden and said, "Dad but..."

Zaiden laughed and interrupted her, "Eden, we can't be sloppy when it comes to the children's education. Listen to me."

Eden looked at Jaida when she heard that.

She wanted her children to attend an aristocratic school but she really didn't want to rely on Zaiden.

She wanted to make use of her own ability...

Eden quickly stopped what she was thinking. Could she support the family on her own?

Jaida knew Eden very well and was aware of what she was thinking at the moment. She said with a smile, "Eden, listen to your father."

"That's right! Eden, you have to take care of me when I get old in the future!" Zaiden joked.

Eden looked at Zaiden and smiled gratefully.

"Dad, Victor told me the same thing tonight. I'm considering it. He said that the teachers in that school have high qualifications."

"Oh!" Jaida smiled slightly and said, "Eden, that's great. He is very thoughtful. I told you that he is a great guy!"

Chapter 408

Eden smiled faintly and said, "Mom, why do you always speak up for him?"

Kenny glanced at Jaida quickly and narrowed his eyes slightly. He also felt that Jaida was very concerned about Victor.

Jaida laughed and said, "Eden, no but he is indeed a good person."

Gia asked with a smile, "Grandpa, Grandma, Mom, does that mean we could go to the aristocratic school at Innisree Street when school starts?"

She actually really wanted to go to that school.

She could enroll in very good painting classes as an extracurricular activity at that school.

Zaiden said with a smile, "Gia, you can go there when school starts. There is nothing that can't be solved when I am around. When the time comes, I will send a full-time driver to drop you off and pick you up at the school. I will also pick you up when I am free."

When Gia heard that, she shook her head and smiled, "Grandpa, no need to trouble you. We are attending primary school soon and we should learn to be independent. Mom has always said that to us. We are able to take the subway, take the bus and go to school on our own.

School ends at three thirty. If it's still early, we can go to the bookstore and stay there for a while."

Giada refused to Zaiden's suggestion. Her favorite place was the bookstore because there were many books that she could read there.

Besides, the quiet environment there could calm her down.

Kenneth also said, "Grandpa, Gia's idea is good. Let us go by ourselves!"

"This..." Zaiden admired Kenny and Gia's behavior. They could grow up quickly if they did that. "But Kenny, Innisree Street is quite far away from here."

Kenneth took out his mobile phone and searched the route. After a while, he said, "Grandpa, I have checked the route. The subway station is not far from here and the subway can directly reach Innisree Street. We only need to walk twenty minutes in the middle. There is no problem at all!"

"Hehe..." Giada was happy when she heard that. "Grandpa, it's decided then. I'll go to bed now. You don't have to worry about us at all. We promise to come back home by six o'clock every day."

Giada yawned as she spoke. After that, she carried the cartoon pillow and returned to her room.

Kenneth also got up to greet the adults before he went back to his room to rest.

Zofia got up and said, "Eden, Aunt Jaida, Uncle Calder, you should rest early too!"

Jaida smiled and said, "Okay! Quickly go and rest! You can't stay up late!"

"Okay, Aunt Jaida!" Zofia glanced at Eden before returning to her room to rest.

Jaida looked at Eden and asked, "Silly girl, did you sneak away to hide and cry again?"

Eden called out petulantly, "Mom!" She had indeed cried her eyes out, but she had put everything behind her now.

"You really make my heart ache for you!" Jaida hated Bethany very much.

But what could she do? Things had already happened.

Zaiden who was standing at the side, looked at Jaida and Eden happily. He said, "Alright. Eden, we have each other from now onwards and we will live together happily."

"Yes! Dad! We will be happier as time passes." Eden had a sweet and happy smile on her face.

"That's right. Our family will travel together. We would be happy."

Eden said with a happy smile, "Okay! Dad!"

That night, Eden laid on the bed and looked at the night view outside the window with a happy smile on her face.

There was no eternal loneliness and pain in life because people would always encounter joy and happiness.

She had a happy family now.

Eden did not dream at night.

The next morning, Eden went to work happily.

However, when she reached the company, she realized that everyone was looking at her strangely.

Eden frowned slightly when she saw that. Did something happen again?

"Director Bleu!"

Eden was about to take out her mobile phone to look at the news when Amelia called out to her suddenly.

Eden looked back quickly and saw that Amelia was looking at her anxiously. She frowned and asked, "Amelia, am I in trouble again?"

Amelia laughed and said, "Director Bleu, you're always slower than others. Take out your phone and have a look. You're in a hot topic again."

Eden looked at her with a frown and joked, "Amelia, I'm not a popular celebrity. Why would I be on a hot topic?"

Eden took out her phone quickly and glanced at the news as she spoke. Her pupils constricted abruptly.

Victor Alwynn held hands with the director of his company in the restaurant in River City.

The two were suspected to be in a relationship.

She scrolled down the news page quickly only to see the abusive comments directed at her.

@1 Love Victor Alwynn: I know this woman. She has children before marriage. She is really shameless to seduce my Prince Charming.

@Victor Alwynn's Beloved: My Victor, don't be ruined by this shameless woman. I'm going to buy some paint and splash it on her so that she can wake up...

Eden scrolled down the comments and realized that the post had already exceeded ten thousand comments.

At the end of the post were a few photos of Eden and Victor holding hands while walking towards the parking lot.

"Wow!" Eden shook her head slightly. There were a lot of comments from Victor's fans that were filled with many emojis.

There were all kinds of comments and all of them were marvelous!

She glanced at Amelia with a smile and joked, "Amelia, it's a pity that Mr. Alwynn isn't a celebrity.

He would definitely shock the world if he becomes a celebrity."

"I don't want to be a celebrity. I just want to ignite you." Victor's cold voice sounded behind Eden.

Eden was stunned for a moment before she turned around quickly. She saw Victor, Anson and Lucian standing behind her.

"Hehe..." She let out an awkward laugh.

"Mr. Alwynn, it's fine if these people like to post your photos but why did they drag me into it too?"

Would their phones become laggy when they post so many photos? They are wasting time and harming humans at the same time!"

Victor was speechless.

Anson couldn't stop his shoulders from shaking.

Lucian could not help but laugh too.

Victor's face turned dark when he heard Eden's words.

Amelia lowered her head slightly when she saw Victor's dark face.

Eden looked at the faces of the people around her and saw that Victor was looking at her with a sullen expression. His face was extremely dark.

She suddenly realized that she had said something inappropriate.

"Hehe..." She smiled awkwardly. "Mr. Alwynn, I didn't mean anything else. Don't take it to heart."

As Eden spoke, she noticed that the elevator had arrived.

"The elevator is here. I'll leave first."

She pulled Amelia and walked to the elevator.

Eden quickly pressed on the button to close the doors the moment they entered the elevator.

Victor smiled and strode to the elevator when he saw Eden trying to escape.

He stretched his arms and the elevator doors that was about to close, were pushed back to both sides instantly.

Eden stared at Victor.

Chapter 409

Victor strode into the elevator elegantly.

Amelia felt a sense of oppression suddenly. She couldn't help but swallow a mouthful of saliva. She was so nervous that her heart almost jumped out of her throat.

Victor was indeed as terrifying as rumored. His aura was able to send chills down people's spine.

Victor's cold gaze landed on Amelia.

Amelia felt as if her heart was going to leap out of her chest when she was gazed by Victor.

She wanted to run away. Her body was also in sync with her thought. She lowered her head and ran out of the elevator quickly with the documents in her hands.

Eden parted her mouth slightly when she saw that. To what extent was Amelia afraid of Victor?

Amelia had actually fled for her life.

Victor turned around elegantly, pressed the elevator button for the twenty-fifth floor.

Anson gave Amelia an approving look.

Amelia was able to observe the situation. Victor would have definitely held a grudge against her if she didn't get out of the elevator.

Victor was actually that petty.

He had often held grudges against Adonis who did not know how to react according to situation.

Another elevator had arrived and Anson, Lucian and Amelia entered the elevator.

On the other hand, Eden was frightened and dared not say a word since Victor entered the elevator.

She had spoken without thinking and she regretted her actions now.

Victor looked sideways at the quiet Eden next to him.

She had tied her beautiful hair into a bun today, revealing her full forehead. A few strands of fluffy bangs in front of her forehead fluttered gently, causing her to look innocent!

She wore a unique white shirt and an A-lined skirt that outlined her slender and exquisite body, making her look very competent.

Eden knew that Victor was looking at her and had the urge to escape.

"Eden, have you considered to let Kenny and his siblings attend the aristocratic school?"

His faint, alluring and deep voice reached Eden's ears.

"Ah..." Eden looked at him in surprise and realized that he was still looking at her faintly.

She didn't expect him to ask her about this.

She was surprised that he still remembered the matter.

She smiled faintly and said, "Victor, thank you. My father has already solved the matter. Kenny and the others will study there. My father has already sent someone to settle some other things there."

She had saved a lot of trouble because of Zaiden.

Victor's face darkened and his heart ached when he heard that. How could Zaiden do that to him?

Victor closed his eyes slightly. That was good in a way since his wish had been granted.

Eden raised her head and glanced at him quickly. Why did he close his eyes?

She quickly lowered her head when she saw Victor opening his eyes.

Victor did not feel good at the moment.

No way. He would think of a way to let Eden know that she was his Eden.

That way, he could treat her well openly.

He felt very wronged at the moment.

He was aggrieved that he felt like beating somebody up.

Victor walked out of the elevator elegantly without speaking when they reached the twenty-fifth floor.

He went straight to his office.

Eden looked at his tall back with a bewildered expression on her face. She couldn't figure out why Victor was suddenly unhappy.

She also walked out of the elevator and went to her office.

Eden's phone rang when she reached her office.

Eden only remembered about her design when she saw that the call was from Darlene.

Eden breathed slightly and answered the phone.

She smiled and said, "Good morning, teacher!"

"Director Bleu, I've seen your work and I like it very much. When are you free? Let's meet."

Darlene who was on the other side of the phone seemed to be very happy.

Eden cheered up instantly when she heard that Darlene was satisfied with her work. Her red lips could not help but curl into a faint smile.

She had worked hard on the design. Darlene's satisfaction was enough for her to face the future confidently.

Eden thought for a moment and asked, "Teacher, is Sunday okay?"

"Okay. I'll see you on Sunday. I'll send you the address on WhatsApp. I won't bother you from working then." With that, Darlene hung up the phone.

Eden smiled faintly and her hand that was holding the phone trembled in excitement.

She had wanted to just give it a try previously. She didn't expect Darlene to be satisfied with her work.

She smiled faintly and confidently.

Amelia saw the dazzling smile on Eden's face when she entered the office.

She asked with a smile, "Director Bleu, is it true that you and Mr. Alwynn are in a relationship? I can tell that you are in love from your expression, Director Bleu."

Eden stopped smiling when she heard Amelia's words.

She walked back to her desk casually and sat down.

After that, she looked up at Amelia and said, "Amelia, what are you thinking? Victor and I are just friends."

Amelia did not believe her. She asked, "Director Bleu, will normal friends hold hands?"

Victor and Eden's news was in the headlines today.

Amelia admired Eden's courage very much. Eden could still smile even though she had received many criticisms.

Eden smiled helplessly. She knew that the matter would become worse if she tried to explain. Hence, she did not explain further.

She also didn't care about the online criticisms.

"Amelia, the situation might not be as straightforward as it appeared. Anyway, it's not what you think it is. Let's get ready for the meeting!" She got up and prepared the documents as she spoke!

At the Clement family!

Aisling had called her friend ever since she knew that the land she had bought was problematic. However, she had not been able to reach her.

She suddenly realized that something was wrong.

She was distracted all day and did not go to the company.

She was sitting on the sofa alone at home with a dull look in her eyes.

Suddenly, her phone rang. She glanced at it and answered the call.

"Hello! Mrs. Clement, I'm sorry to disturb you so early. I called to tell you that I have seen both Miss Clement and Director Bleu's designs. However, I prefer Director Bleu's work since her work is closer to the theme I proposed."

Aisling came back to her senses when she heard Darlene's polite voice.

She answered in an indifferent tone, "That's because Haven failed to live up to the expectations. Sorry to have caused you trouble."

"Mrs. Clement, I'll hang up then!"

Aisling was stunned when Darlene hung up the phone.

She glanced at her phone.

When did Haven submit her work to Darlene? Why wasn't she aware of that?

She was so busy recently that she had forgotten about the matter.

She was about to call Haven when she suddenly saw the news on her phone. She quickly clicked on the news.

She was slightly stunned. Why was there another scandal between Victor and Eden again?

This news even overshadowed the news of the Gienger family.

Aisling couldn't help but lament about the fickleness of the world.

The Clement family would soon be forgotten if they lost power.

Aisling couldn't help but panic when she thought of that.

She had made a big gamble this time.

She closed her eyes slightly and hoped that she could get through the difficulties this time. She could not imagine the Clement family losing everything.

She glanced at her phone and dialed Haven's number.

Haven sat in front of the computer, her fingers tapping rapidly on the keyboard. Her work progress had been very slow for the past few days.

Everyone had complained about her during the morning meeting, prompting her to start paying attention to her work. She did not want to be expelled from the Alwynn Group during her internship.

Victor had been insulting her. She wanted to show her different side to Victor.

Her phone rang suddenly. She frowned and quickly answered the phone when she saw that it was from Aisling.

"Mom, what's the matter? I'm busy now!"

Haven's tone was impatient.

Aisling frowned slightly and said with displeasure, "Darlene called me just now. She said that your work was not accepted. She had chosen Eden's work. When did you send your work to Darlene? Why didn't you show it to me?"

Haven was slightly impatient when she heard that. She said, "Mom, it's fine if my work didn't get selected. I didn't show it to you because you were in a bad mood the past few days. I submitted my work to Darlene the day before yesterday."

She didn't have much inspiration. She knew that it was a rare opportunity and had done her best.

She had put in the most effort this time and she couldn't help but feel disappointed when her work was not accepted.

Was it true that she really could not outmatch Eden in every way?

Aisling said angrily, "Haven, I told you last time to show your work to me before you submit it to Darlene. Did you listen to me?"

Haven glanced at her phone and suppressed her anger before saying, "Mom, I didn't disturb you because I know you were in a bad mood recently."

"Haven!" Aisling shouted angrily, "Would I ignore your matters even if I am busy?"

When Haven heard that, she said irritably, "Mom, you have never cared about my matters. Besides, it's no use to talk about that now. I have to work. Mom, I'll hang up first."

Haven hung up the phone as soon as she had finished speaking.

She had an angry and stiff expression on her face and there was resentment and anger in her cold eyes.

Haven felt like she had met her nemesis and nothing had been smooth sailing ever since Eden showed up.

"Haven, hurry up. You have to keep up with today's work progress. Otherwise, I can't report to Director Bleu."

Irene shouted not far away and her professional tone echoed throughout the office.

Haven came back to her senses quickly and replied, "Ms. Poplar, don't worry. I will finish it today."

Haven continued with her work as she spoke.

D*mned it. The employees of the Alwynn Group were really different from that of other companies.

Nobody dared to gossip about Victor and Eden's matter in the office.

The most annoying thing was that everyone put on a smiling face when they saw Eden. All of Haven's plans were ruined.

Haven and Vincent saw Eden and Victor having dinner together when they went to the restaurant in River City last night.

Vincent took photos of them instantly but he didn't expect that they would not affect Eden and Victor.

Haven sighed slightly. She had prepared to insult Eden but she didn't expect that everything did not go the way she wanted.

"Whew!" Haven exhaled deeply before she lowered her head and continued her work.

She had to keep her job while dealing with Eden at the same time.

The bright sunlight shone into Victor's office.

Victor, Anson and Lucian were all there.

Lucian tapped the keyboard quickly with his fingers.

Victor and Anson watched from the side.

Victor's face darkened when he looked at the dreadful and insulting comments.

Rows of vulgarities and insulting emojis were all over the place.

Lucian wanted to see if the person who deleted the comments last time would appear.

Victor asked, "Did you find out the media company who had reported the news?"

He didn't mind if other people mentioned that he and Eden were a couple but the outrageous comments were definitely not what he wanted.

Lucian did not say anything.

Anson who was standing at the side, teased, "Victor, I didn't expect your news with Eden to go viral.

It's more eye-catching than the news of popular celebrities!"

Victor glanced at him coldly.

Anson continued to fearlessly challenge Victor's patience.

"You have already reached the stage of holding hands with Eden. You will get together next. Hey!

Mr. Alwynn is about to succeed."

Victor said angrily, "Shut up!"

Lucian replied, "Someone has deleted the comments." There was an unconcealable excitement in his voice.

He tapped on the keyboard quickly again.

After a while, Victor and Eden news was overshadowed by some odd news.

News ranging from popular celebrities cheating to disfigured beauties overshadowed Eden and Victor news.

Lucian seized the opportunity and tapped on the keyboard quickly.

After a while, Lucian who rarely smiled, curled his lips into a dazzling smile.

Victor and Anson looked at each other. They seldom saw Lucian smile like that.

They couldn't help but feel a little surprised.

Anson teased, "Lucian, the whole world lights up when you smile."

Lucian raised his head and glanced at him coldly. He then looked at Victor and said, "The address is Eden's address."

Victor was shocked when he heard that.

Victor said excitedly, "Is it really Kenny?"

"It's him!" Lucian's voice was firm and there was admiration in his eyes.

He had met an opponent who was actually a child.

Kenny's computer speed was actually comparable to him.

"Ah..." Anson was surprised. "Lucian, you can't joke on this kind of thing."

Anson sighed in his heart. Kenny was a determined child and could be called a child prodigy!

Lucian looked at him and said, "This has happened twice. There's no way it could be wrong!"

Victor smiled and said, "That's great. I'll send Kenny abroad in the future to further his study."

Anson smiled and patted him on the shoulder. "Victor, you're so lucky. Everyone is envious of you. However, you have to work hard to earn money. It takes a lot of money to raise three children."

Lucian also glanced at Victor.

He shut down the computer slowly and said, "A person's ability is determined by himself and not by his parents. The three children are more outstanding than I've thought!"

Victor glanced at Lucian when he heard that. He smiled happily when he thought of the three of them.
