

Gluey Love 411

Chapter 411

"Of course. That's because the children are mine." Victor was full of pride.

Anson looked at him disdainfully and said, "Victor, do you have to be so arrogant every time?

You should think about us who are still single and be kind when you speak!"

Lucian got up slowly. He looked gentle and refined as usual.

Without saying anything, he walked out with his laptop in his arms.

His movements were sophisticated.

Victor looked at Anson and suddenly said in a good mood, "Anson, you have a chance now. There is a problem between Abigail and Joziah."

"Ah..." Anson widened his eyes in surprise. At the same time, his heart was filled with excitement. His gentle, refined and handsome face turned red instantly as though he was in a relationship.

He grabbed Victor's hand excitedly and said, "Victor, give me three days' leave. I must go to Gate City for the sake of my future wife."

He would not feel at ease if he stayed here. He did not want to lose the opportunity. There was no coming back.

Life was full of ups and downs. He wanted to kick Joziah away so that he could be the only one who could be with Abigail forever.

Victor sneered when he saw Anson's excitement. He said, "Anson, I congratulate you for going to be in a relationship soon! In order not to delay you from starting a relationship, I'll give you three days off. Go ahead.

Help me take care of Ricky and treat him to a few good meals!"

When Anson heard that, he looked sideways at Victor and said, "Victor, don't talk without putting yourself in other people's shoes.

It's not cheap to treat Ricky to sumptuous meals. You should take some actions instead of just talking."

Anson rubbed his two fingers in front of Victor.

Victor had a disdainful expression on his cold face and he sneered, "Anson, how can such a stingy man like you get a girlfriend?"

Anson laughed when he heard that. "Victor, you're wrong. I won't be stingy with my girlfriend but..." Anson smiled and poked Victor's sturdy chest. "I have to be very stingy with people like you!"

Victor's face darkened and he said angrily, "Anson, what do you mean by people like me?"

"Hehe..." Anson patted him on the shoulder and said fearlessly, "Victor, you know what I mean deep down in your heart. I can treat your Ricky to a few meals but you have to transfer money to me!

I'm leaving. Don't call me these three days and don't miss me too much. I won't pick up your phone because it's too far away from here. I can't come back even if you have a big problem!"

Anson spoke as he walked and he made a goodbye gesture to Victor with his back facing him.

Victor was speechless. He glanced at Anson's back coldly before he returned to his desk and continued to work.

Anson didn't even go back to his office but hurried out of the room instead.

Lucian was answering the phone when he suddenly saw Anson walking out in a hurry. He hung up the phone and asked, "Where are you going? The legal person of the Gienger family is changing the procedures and they have to be completed by you today. You should go and take care of that!"

Anson stopped with a smile on his face. He looked at Lucian happily and said with a smile, "Go and ask the Legal Department to deal with this matter.

I've taken three days off starting from today. I am going to chase after my future wife!

Don't call me if you need anything. I will be very busy these three days!"

Anson walked towards the elevator in high spirits as he spoke.

Lucian frowned as he watched Anson's joyful figure disappear into the distance.

He was confused by Anson's words.

Wait, if he left...

Lucian raised his eyebrows. Wouldn't that make him even busier?

"Anson, come back. Why do you ask for leave at this time? I don't want to work overtime." Lucian shouted at Anson who was standing at the entrance of the elevator.

Anson turned to glance at him and smiled proudly, "Lucian, Victor had promised me that to me personally. You can go and find him if you cannot deal with all the matters alone. If you need to work overtime, he would do that together with you and you won't feel lonely."

The elevator arrived when Anson had finished his words. Anson waved his hand at Lucian and entered the elevator.

He mouthed a thank you to Lucian in the end. He looked smug, noble and dazzling at the same time.

Lucian looked at Anson coldly and scowled.

He glared at the tall stack of files on his desk before he accepted his fate and continued his work.

At Eden's home!

"Knock! Knock! Knock!" Giada knocked hard on the door of Kenneth's room.

"Kenny, what are you doing? Why are you dawdling and not coming out yet?

If you don't come out now, I'll go alone.

Are you doing anything shady again? Why do you always lock your door from the inside?"

Giada chattered incessantly as she stood outside Kenny's room unhappily.

Kenneth tapped on the keyboard quickly with his fair fingers. He glanced at the door and said, "Gia, wait for me. I'll come out in a while. I'm changing my clothes." Kenneth simply came up with an excuse.

D*mned it!!

Those b*stards were insulting Eden!

It took him quite a while to remove all the outrageous comments!

Giada frowned in disbelief and she knocked hard on the door a few more times.

She said, "Kenny, do you need to take two hours to change your clothes? You haven't come out from your room for two hours. It will take about one or two hours for a round trip to the bookstore if we take the bus and subway. We won't have much time to spend in the bookstore."

Giada was speechless. There weren't any bookstores nearby so they could only go to the one in the city center.

"Bang!" The door was pulled open and Kenneth walked out of the room.

Giada looked at Kenneth in disgust and asked, "Kenny, aren't you wearing the same clothes that you wore this morning?"

Kenneth glanced at her and said, "Let's go. Aren't you complaining that we don't have enough time?" Kenneth walked forward as he spoke.

Giada could only follow him in confusion.

Time passed by very slowly. Eden had been so busy that she felt breathless during this period.

She had witnessed reality over the years and all she could think about now was how to fight fate and took control of it.

She did not want to become weak with time and she wanted to evolve in the harsh life. Therefore, she had put in a lot of efforts and had always been serious in her work!

Her pace was very quick even when she went to the canteen to eat.

Victor was going to launch a large-scale clothing exhibition. Clothes were an important emblem of the development of arts, economics and technologies. Eden would not let go of such a good opportunity.

The focus of the Alwynn Group was on luxurious and unique women clothing.

The fashion exhibition cycle was short and changed quickly each season!

Therefore, she would be very busy every season!

No matter how busy Eden was, she would finish her work before she got off work every day.

She would bring her work home if she couldn't finish it at work. Therefore, she rarely worked overtime in the office!

She would leave her office on time when it was time to get off work!

She was not affected by the online gossip today!

She was accustomed to it now since she had experienced similar situations before!

Besides, Victor was influential and powerful in River City!

Many media reporters dared not come to the company. Therefore, she was not afraid of being blocked at the door and not able to get out of the company!

Eden left before Amelia. She walked out of the office and glanced at Lucian.

Most of the time, she would see Lucian packing up and getting off work at this time. However, he was still working today. Eden asked curiously, "Mr.

Ronen, are you working overtime today?"

She walked over with a smile.

Lucian lifted his head casually and glanced at her. He raised his lips slightly and said, "Yes! I have to work overtime today!"

"Wow! This is the first time I've seen you working overtime since I came to the company!"

Lucian looked at her quietly and said, "There are a lot of things to deal with in the past two days!"

Eden nodded understandingly. "I'll get off work then!"

Eden glanced at Victor's office as she spoke and saw that the lights in his office were still on. It seemed that he was also working overtime tonight!

"Alright!" Lucian nodded slightly and continued to look at her quietly!

Eden smiled at him and turned to leave!

The sunset that shone through the window was a little too glaring!

Eden sighed in her heart. In order to make a living, she was sometimes tortured by the challenges in life!

Eden entered the elevator. No matter what, she wouldn't lose her distinct personality!

Eden met Jasper who was dressed in a casual outfit when she walked out of the company.

Jasper had always liked to dress in a simple style. The outfit that he wore was visually appealing. He looked cool and bright in a light gray shirt and dark pants.

Eden smiled slightly and said, "Jasper, has your company launched a new style?"

Jasper looked at her and smiled gently. "Eden, how is it? I designed it myself. Don't you think it looks plain and ordinary at first glance but overall, it seems intriguing and fashionable?"

Eden checked out his outfit and said with appraisingly, "In my opinion, the outfit is able to show a person's temperament and taste, other than making the person look taller!"

"Wow!" Jasper smiled happily and snapped his fingers at her. "Eden, you're right! I designed this outfit to make the customers look taller besides retaining the lightness and comfort of the clothes.

People would seem taller if they wear the outfit, which is what I want.

I didn't expect you to notice that."

"Hehe..." Eden looked at him and smiled. "This is not bad. With such a combination of colors, the outfit is able to make someone look thinner and taller! However, the outfit is only suitable for certain figures!"

Jasper understood what Eden meant and said with a smile, "Eden, this outfit has a range of sizes. I believe it would be very popular due to its effect that made people look taller."

Eden looked at him with a smile. "Jasper, I wish you great business then!"

Jasper said happily, "Eden, I hope so. I have added the clothes to the stores that I found in various major shopping malls. The clothes would soon be up in River City market."

Eden believed in Jasper's ability. The J-X branded sportswear from his company were in high demand in Gate City. The company's new products for every season were very popular!

On the other hand, the C. Y branded clothes from the Alwynn Group were focused on women's clothing. Thus, there was no conflict between Victor and Jasper's brand.

Eden smiled and said, "I am aware of your ability."

"Haha..." Jasper had a bright smile on his face.

He laughed for a while and said, "Eden, I know I'm very capable too."

"Arrogant!" Eden glanced at him with a smile. "Why did you come to pick me up today? Aren't you busy recently?"

Jasper nodded slightly when he heard that. He said, "I am indeed very busy but no matter how busy I am, I have time for you! We haven't had dinner together for a long time. Bring Kenny and Gia along. Let's go and eat something delicious!"

Eden smiled and said, "What do you mean that we haven't eaten together for a long time? Haven't you been eating at my house all this time?"

Jasper smiled and retorted, "Eden, that is not the same. Having free meals at your home is different from me treating you to a meal!"

"Alright then. I'll send a WhatsApp message to my mother. Let's eat at Zofia's stall!" As Eden spoke, she took out her mobile phone and sent a message to Jaida.

Jasper looked at her and smiled happily. "Eden, let's go! I've told Kenny that we'll pick them up at the subway station. They're already at the subway and on their way here!"

Eden shook her head helplessly. "There's nothing I can do about them. They never get tired of going to the bookstore!"

Eden was surprised that all her three children liked to study!

Her colleagues had quarreled with their partner to the point of divorce when they try to make their children do homework every night!

There were even mothers who asked their children to do homework until they cried!

On the other hand, Eden's three children had made her feel very much at ease!

Jasper led her to the car and said while walking, "Eden, you should be very grateful. Not everyone is as fortunate as you to have raised such well-behaved children!"

My cousin's child who is ten years old plays games all day long. All his grades are below 60 marks for this year's exam. My cousin feels ashamed to face anyone!

My cousin was called by the teacher several times. She would call and complain to me every time.

Don't you feel relieved instantly after I compared your kids to my cousin's?"

Eden smiled lightly and nodded. "That's true. The three siblings have always made me feel at ease. Only Gia is a little quirky."

Jasper looked at her sideways and saw that she was smiling happily. She had intended to live happily like this.

"Eden, Gia is a girl. It's harmless!"

"That's true!" Eden smiled slightly. The two of them walked side by side. The afterglow of the sunset shone on their body and lengthened their shadows with a tinge of colors.

Vincent would come to pick up Haven every day after work. He was sitting in his car at the moment and he happened to see Eden and Jasper together.

He took out his mobile phone and took pictures of the two of them. He smiled sinisterly and as he sent out the photos.

He looked at Eden's back and said coldly, "Eden, you have made trouble to my company. I'll make you lose your reputation as a designer!"

This is the price you would have to pay for what had happened at the press conference previously!"

Chapter 413

Vincent liked those works very much. The Jotham Alwynn Group would definitely make a lot of money if they launched the works as the main styles!

It was a pity that the people from the Alwynn Group had discovered that they were going to launch them. The most annoying part was they prevented the Jotham Alwynn Group from launching the products at the last minute.

At present, the Jotham Alwynn Group had still not come up with new products. Phillip rejected the clothes designed by their design director three times.

Vincent was very anxious the past few days!

"Vincent!" Haven ran to his car, opened the door quickly and got it.

Vincent glanced at her and asked, "Why are you so late today?"

Haven did not look good. She said gloomily, "I haven't finished my work yet!"

"I see! I have also been very busy recently. I may not have time to pick you up in the next few days. I'll ask the driver to pick you up!" Vincent started the car as he spoke.

Haven glanced at him and realized that he did not care about her at all. She was very dissatisfied. Other men would make time for their girlfriends no matter how busy they were.

There wasn't much affection between her and Vincent. Furthermore, she had sacrificed a lot during this time to gain Vincent's trust.

However, Vincent was a playboy who didn't know what was good for him. He had an ambiguous relationship with other women even while he was dating her.

He had even sent ambiguous text messages to other women in front of her!

She had a sense of uneasiness that she would be abandoned at any moment!

She looked sideways at Vincent's arrogant face and asked, "Vincent, hasn't your company come up with the new products for this season? The Alwynn Group is ready for production. Everything would be ready once the fabric is confirmed!"

Vincent felt irritated when he heard that.

"No, I don't know what happened to Victoria recently. Her designs were rejected by my father three times in a row!"

The Jotham Alwynn Group did clothing business in the beginning and the earliest designer was Philip's ex-wife, Jaida.

Philip was very stubborn. He had been holding on to some outdated ideas and refused to let go of them.

Since Rebecca couldn't come to work at the company now, Vincent was trapped in the middle of Philip and Rebecca's feud, thus living a miserable life every day.

"What should we do?" Haven looked at him with some concern. "The Jotham Alwynn Group has been suppressed by the Alwynn Group for years.

Why does your company have to keep using the same design director? You can let someone else replace her if she is incapable!"

Vincent gave her an exaggerated look when he heard that. "Haven, can you take responsibility for what you say?

The design director is involved in the overall operation of the company. We can't simply change the design director as we wish. Besides, Victoria had brought a lot of benefits to the company the past few years.

I have given her three days off to find inspiration. She will definitely give me satisfactory work when she comes back."

He still believed in Victoria's ability!

Haven's face darkened when she heard that. She said in a low voice, "It would be ideal if she is capable of doing well. I'm just afraid that she would still be unable to come up with better designs when she comes back and you will be doomed for this season!"

Eden's design was famous when she was in Gate City. Now that she had returned to the head office, Victor would definitely promote her actively.

Moreover, Victor treated her very differently!

Haven would feel angry and hateful every time she thought of that!

Eden's appearance had caused her to lose a lot of things.

When Vincent heard that, he became more irritated and a trace of anger appeared on his handsome face.

He stepped on the brakes abruptly when they arrived at the intersection of the red lights. He looked sideways at her and said angrily, "Haven, what I need is encouragement at the moment! Don't you know that?"

Do you know how difficult my situation is now? My mother used to arrange everything for me previously but she is not working in the company now.

I need to handle all the things on my own. The Alwynn Group has always been dominant in the business world.

Therefore, I need to kick this business tycoon out of the business world.

It has always been my dream to make the Jotham Alwynn Group the leading company in the business circle.

As a designer and my fiancée, you should help me to get through the difficult situation instead of discouraging me!"

Vincent pursed his dry lips after he finished his words in one breath.

Victor's face darkened as he exhaled deeply. His sexy thin lips curled upwards coldly.

Haven was slightly stunned when she saw Vincent get angry suddenly. She looked at Vincent and blinked her beautiful eyes.

She could tell that Vincent was extremely annoyed at the moment.

A touch of coldness flashed across her eyes. She pursed her glistening pink lips and held Vincent's arm gently. She said delicately, "Vincent, don't be angry. It's not that I am discouraging you. I'm just worried about you.

We still have time. We just need to delay the progress of the Alwynn Group in order for your company to catch up!"

Haven leaned her head against his shoulder gently as she spoke. She knew that they would never become a romantic couple.

She wanted to marry a rich man. Vincent satisfied her requirement even though he was a rich second generation who relied on his family.

There were too many low points in her life that it was hard to get the excitement she wanted.

It was too exhausting to keep striving. It was better to get married into a decent family than to suffer alone!

Vincent's irritation subsided when he saw Haven acting coquettishly.

He felt that she was gentle when she leaned against his shoulder. Men liked gentle, beautiful and obedient women. Vincent was also the same.

He saw that the lights had turned green and said in a gentle tone, "Haven, let's have dinner first. Don't go back tonight. Let's go to the hotel!"

When Haven heard that, she raised her head and looked at his well-defined and handsome face before she nodded gently. "Okay! I'll listen to you."

Vincent started the car with a smile and continued driving. He suddenly came up with a plan.

Besides wanting to ruin Eden's reputation, he also wanted Victor's company's progress to be delayed.

He could not outmatch Victor in terms of ability.

However, Victor was no match to him when it came to using dirty tricks.

Vincent's handsome face suddenly became extremely vicious!

Haven felt much more at ease when she saw that Vincent was in a better mood.

She lowered her head slightly. Vincent glanced at her and asked, "By the way, Haven, is your work approved by Ms. Darlene?"

Haven looked embarrassed when she heard that.

She tugged at the corners of her mouth and smiled bitterly. "No! Eden's work was approved."

A touch of desolation and sorrow appeared on her face when she had finished speaking.

She didn't dare to look at Vincent and didn't want to hear his mocking voice.

At that moment, she wanted to run away.

She suddenly felt that the atmosphere in the car was so oppressive that she could hardly breathe!

Chapter 414

In the face of failure, Haven would always try to escape from sorrow and all the troubles in the world.

Vincent frowned slightly. Although Haven studied design, she was not good at it. Vincent could tell from her usual designs.

She did not put in efforts on designing at all!

He didn't have much hope when he heard the news previously!

However, it was different now since Haven was already his fiancée. If she could become Darlene's disciple, the Jotham Awlynn Group would not have anything to worry about.

"Alas!" He sighed disappointedly.

He did not speak after that. He turned the steering wheel and drove to a nearby alley.

Even though Vincent did not speak, his disappointed sigh was ironic in Haven's ears.

Haven felt very upset. She clenched her fists tightly and said, "Vincent, I will study hard so that I will be helpful to you in the future."

Vincent listened without much emotion and did not look at her.

Who was Haven?

She was his neighbor who grew up with him. He knew Haven very well. She seemed obedient, gentle and sweet, and was very good at saying pleasant words. But deep down, what was she thinking?

Only she knew that herself!

He agreed to marry her because he wanted to be responsible to the Clement family. After all, Philip was a stubborn man.

Philip would not let him take over the Jotham Alwynn Group if he didn't marry Haven.

When Haven didn't get any response from Vincent, she raised her head slowly to look at him and saw the obvious sarcasm in his eyes.

She bit her lip hard and didn't say anything.

She mocked herself in her heart. What else could she expect from Vincent?

Vincent said lazily, "It seems that Eden is indeed talented to have been chosen by Darlene."

When Haven heard that, her eyes darkened and she was jealous of Eden.

She had never hated anyone but she hated Eden to the core that she wanted to kill her!

That crazy idea would flash across her mind from time to time!

Haven said sarcastically, "Since she is so good, you can pay her a huge amount of money to get her to your company. With her around, the Jotham Alwynn Group would have the ability to compete with Victor."

Vincent smiled coldly and said, "Haven, that's a great idea. I'll ask Eden that someday."

Haven's face turned pale when she heard that.

"You..." She looked at Vincent angrily.

Vincent chuckled and said, "Haven, you were the one who said that yourself!"

Haven was trembling with anger and tears welled up in her eyes. Her eyes became blurry and she couldn't see Vincent clearly.

Vincent suddenly sensed that Haven was emotional. He looked sideways at her and said, "Why? Are you going to cry?"

Haven said in a trembling voice, "Vincent, don't forget that I am your fiancée."

Victor said with a smile, "Haven, you don't have to remind me. I know that you're my fiancée!"

She also often reminded him how much she used to love Victor.

Vincent felt pathetic because he had to marry the woman whom Victor did not want.

Eden had ruined his plan several times. How could he tolerate her?

Haven closed her eyes painfully when she heard Vincent's sarcastic words. That was a pain that she could never recover from in her entire life.

She was well aware of her cowardice and she couldn't fight the harsh reality.

However, pain would wake people up sometimes. She suddenly understood that she could only rely on herself and not others at all times in life!

She had made some plans previously. As long as she married Vincent, both the Alwynn and Clement family would give her some shares. Moreover, Aisling had promised her to give her a villa as her dowry.

That way, she had an extra safeguard!

Meanwhile, Eden and Jasper took Kenny and Gia to Zofia's food stall.

After they had finished their food, they returned to Eden's house together.

Overnight, some people were happy while some were worried!

The next day, Eden went to work as usual. It was Friday and she would be busier than ever!

She was wearing a white flowing chiffon dress that matched her fair skin. Her outfit was able to give her an extraordinary sense of spirituality.

She walked into the company confidently and was still greeted with odd stares.

Eden found it rather odd. Could it be that something had happened to her again today!

She glanced at the elevator door and saw four or five employees gathered together. All of them looked at her disdainfully when they saw her coming over.

They would normally greet her when they see her.

However, when they saw her today, they quickly lowered their head and pretended not to notice her!

Eden was confused and quickly took out her mobile phone.

She narrowed her eyes slightly when she saw the real-time comments on a video.

The title of the video was 'Eden Bleu, The Design Director of The Alwynn Group, Has an Indiscrete Life and Is Dating Two Men at The Same Time'.

The pictures showed the backs of Jasper and her as they walked towards the garage when Jasper came to pick her up yesterday!

"Asshole!" She cursed in a low voice.

She walked towards the elevator that had arrived but was blocked by Haven who came out from the crowd.

Eden sneered in her heart when she saw Haven's tall and imposing figure blocking her way. Wouldn't Haven feel tired doing this every day?

She would keep track of her movements every day!

The crowd whispered to each other and longed for a drama when they saw Haven's action.

Many people knew about Haven and Victor's relationship!

Haven looked at Eden who looked beautiful in her white dress today. She had the impulse to tear Eden apart.

She said sarcastically, "Eden, I didn't expect that you to feel that it was not enough to have Mr. Alwynn. You are still trying to seduce other men!"

Eden looked at her sharply when she heard that. She said calmly, "Haven, didn't you brush your teeth when you woke up this morning? Why do you have such a nasty breath?"

Watch what you say!

He has been my good friend for seven years. He is Jasper Joye, the president of the Joye Group and the younger brother of my son's godmother. We are close all the while!

Do I need to seduce him?"

Haven's face turned pale instantly when she heard that. She felt as though she had been slapped by Eden.

It turned out that the man was Jasper.

D*mned it. That man was not a man to be trifled with.

Vincent was an idiot. He had spread the news without even finding out who the man was!

That was bad!

The people who were watching the show at the side stopped their chattering instantly!

Everyone in the business world knew that Jasper was the president of the Joye Group in Gate City. He was also a ruthless man!

Chapter 415

Eden's phone rang suddenly at the moment.

Eden glanced at her phone and answered the call when she saw that it was from Jasper.

"Hey! Jasper!"

Jasper asked worriedly, "Eden, I saw the news this morning. Are you all right?"

Eden smiled coldly and said, "Jasper, you don't have to worry about me! I'm fine. Some people with evil intentions spread the rumors because they want to ruin my reputation!"

I'm not afraid because I am innocent. They can say whatever they want!"

As Eden spoke, she glanced at Haven purposely.

Haven was responsible for what had happened previously.

She must have something to do with this matter too!

Jasper said, "Eden, don't worry. I've already started investigating the matter. I'll find out who's behind this soon!"

"Okay!" Eden nodded slightly.

"Jasper, I'll hang up then. I have a lot of work to do today!" "Okay! Eden, go for it!" Jasper cheered for Eden on the other end of the phone.

"Hehe..." Eden hung up the phone with a smile on her face!

Envy surged through everyone's heart when they saw Eden's bright smile.

Eden looked sharply at Haven who was still unwilling to give way to her.

The hair on her forehead was blown by the light breeze and there was a hint of coldness in her black eyes.

A sense of uneasiness rose in Haven's heart when she saw that!

Eden's tone was harsh and cold, "Haven, I already told you not to mess with me last time! Get out of I" my way!

Haven looked at her mockingly and said, "Eden, you have done something shameless but you are afraid of people talking about it."

Eden smiled slightly. She was regarded shameless when she only had a meal with a male friend.

Shouldn't the person who had set her up considered sinful then?

She looked sideways at Haven and said, "Haven, if we're going to talk about shameless things, the things you did to me secretly are indeed shameless!"

"Eden, you're framing me!" Haven glared at Eden coldly. She was indeed a little flustered because she did not know which dirty deeds that she had done was Eden aware of.

"You understand very well if I am framing you or not. Get out of the way! My time is precious!" Eden looked at her coldly.

Haven stood stubbornly at the same spot and refused to let Eden go.

The two of them were at loggerheads with each other.

The people who were watching the show at the side became nervous instantly when they saw Eden and Haven's behavior!

Haven said angrily, "Eden, the news of your shameless behavior has been spreading on the Internet recently. Why? Don't you dare to admit what you have done? Who knows what is the actual relationship between you and Jasper?

Women would do anything for money."

"Hehe..." Eden smiled coldly. She glanced at the people around her and said with a smile, "Haven, it sounds like you have done such a thing before!

I still can't figure out the reason you have been targeting me since I started working in the company!

Why don't you tell me why you treated me in such a manner in front of everyone today?"

Haven was happy to answer the question. What she was going to say next would rub salt on Eden's wound.

She glanced at the crowd who was watching the show. Her gaze was weird and sinister and she said in an imposing manner, "Cyan, I can't stand someone as cruel and heartless as you. The Gienger family has raised you for more than ten years but you had personally sent your adoptive mother to prison. Everyone would be disgusted by a vicious woman like you!"

Haven looked at Eden gloatingly. The corners of her mouth curled into a vicious smile when she saw Eden's face turn pale.

It was Friday today. Victor would not come over so early because he had something to do. Hence, she would insult Eden severely today.

She wanted to make up for all the unhappiness that she had encountered previously!

Eden's face was as white as a sheet. She had done that indeed.

She had indeed sent her adoptive mother to prison.

"Cyan Gienger? Director Bleu, are you really Cyan Gienger?" Irene, who had just walked in, looked at Eden in shock.

Eden looked at her and nodded slightly.

She would not deny it. After all, her identity as Cyan could not be erased from her life.

The people around her started to whisper again!

Eden felt that her entire body was burning. The matter was a knot in her heart.

She still felt guilty about this matter before she went to sleep every night.

However, the things that Bethany had done were over the top!

Irene suddenly said with a smile, "Director Bleu, that's great. You can finally heave a sigh of relief after all the treatment you have received in the Gienger family.

You have already been tolerant of the Gienger family by only sending Bethany to prison, even after they had treated you like that.

I would have definitely sent the whole family to prison."

Eden was speechless.

She looked at Irene in confusion. How did she know what had happened to her when she was in the Gienger family?

Why was she speaking up for her too?

Irene said with a smile, "Director Bleu, some things can't be kept as secrets forever.

Don't mind other people's words. Some people don't work hard but like to play tricks behind other people's backs.

I have to remind you that you must pay attention to certain people. Otherwise, you will be screwed by them. You must look behind you when you go to the restroom. Don't be innocent!"

She had seen Haven following Eden several times but she didn't know what she was going to do.

In short, she knew that Haven was not a good person!

Fortunately, Victor didn't marry Haven.

She would be the first to resign if Victor married Haven!

Haven's face turned pale when she heard that. She had followed Eden several times just to get her hair.

There was a time where she bumped into Irene who was standing behind her when she turned her head. She was startled at that time.

Eden glanced at Haven when she heard that. Haven followed her because she wanted to get her hair for the paternity test.

It was also the same paternity test report which Amelia had seen some time ago.

Haven looked at Irene and said coldly, "Ms. Poplar, what do you mean by that? Who are you referring to?"

Irene glanced at her coldly and said with a smile, "Haven, since you say like that, I'll get to the point.

I have always been very loyal to my friends and I get along very well with Director Bleu.

That is because she is worth getting along well with.

Dare you to admit that you didn't follow Director Bleu secretly? You didn't follow her once or twice. I saw it thrice.

Therefore, I believe the online news was uploaded by someone who wants to ruin Director Bleu's reputation!

After all, Director Bleu is really outstanding!"

After she had finished speaking, she raised her eyebrows slightly and looked at Haven mockingly.

Chapter 416

Haven's face was even paler than Eden's face a while ago. Irene actually denigrated her in front of everyone.

Why was she a failure in both her relationships and the workplace?

Which part was she inferior to Eden? She was more elegant than Eden.

Victor was the one who was blind.

Haven looked at Irene coldly. "Ms. Poplar, don't slander me. What evidence do you have to prove that I did those things?"

Irene said with a smile, "That is very simple. I've been in the business world for more than ten years. You were so careful. How would you leave evidence behind for me to find?" Irene said lazily as she looked at Haven casually.

She sneered and said, "I heard that Vincent and a woman flaunted their affection during a live broadcast at the previous banquet. I'm very curious about that woman!"

Haven had a bad feeling when she heard that!

She could insult Eden wanting to befriend influential people but she would not allow other people to do that to her.

That incident had long been forgotten by others!

Others would see it as a joke if they knew that she was the woman in the live broadcast.

She took a deep breath and glanced at Eden.

Alright! She would let her off now. Eden would have to wait for her next move!

She turned around silently and walked towards the elevator!

When Irene saw that, she deliberately said loudly, "Director Bleu, you don't have to take to heart what had happened today. Some people from rich and powerful families just can't stand seeing other people doing well. Most of them will use such means to suppress those who work hard."

Eden smiled and said gratefully, "Irene, thank you!"

Irene patted her on the shoulder and said with a smile, "Director Bleu, you don't need to thank me. I'm just telling the truth. I will never favor those despicable people in the face of justice!"

Eden smiled faintly and did not say anything.

Irene glanced at the elevator and said, "The elevator is coming. You're going to be late for work!"

Eden looked at her and nodded. "Irene, see you later."

After that, Eden walked towards the elevator calmly.

Irene watched Eden enter the elevator. Only after the elevator went up, she looked at the crowd and said, "Let me remind you, don't listen to the rumors. You shouldn't look at people with your eyes but with your heart!"

After that, she also walked to the elevator!

Everyone looked at each other when they heard that and went to continue their work.

They didn't dare to speak ill of Eden. After all, Myra and Amber's incident had left a trauma in their hearts!

Victor woke up at twelve noon after working overtime with Lucian for a night.

As for Lucian, he blatantly skipped work today.

The atmosphere in the company was much more relaxed when Victor and Lucian were absent.

After Eden came back from lunch, Amelia looked at Eden seriously after she had answered a call.

He said, "Director Bleu, bad news. The Loco company said that they don't want to cooperate with us!"

Eden frowned at her and asked, "Why?"

Amelia shook her head slightly and said, "They didn't say why. They only said they don't want to cooperate with us."

Eden smiled coldly and said, "It's strange that they don't want to do business."

Eden frowned slightly and said, "Wait. Amelia, didn't we have a deal with their company previously? Have we signed the contract?"

Amelia shook her head slightly and said, "Director Bleu, all the procedures are fixed except for the fabrics. We haven't signed the contract yet!"

Eden was taken aback. She looked at the computer and supported her chin with one hand. She was the one who had chosen the fabrics from that fabric company. The quality of the fabrics of that company had always been very good!

They suddenly didn't want to work with the Alwynn Group...

No way. They have discussed everything previously and were left with signing the contract. Why did they go back on their words suddenly?

The material and colors of the fabrics she had chosen was extremely suitable for the clothes she had designed!

The company's fabrics could display the unique and strong effect of the clothes!

They didn't want to cooperate with them suddenly...

Eden quickly found the manager's phone number and dialed it.

Their manager was Mr. Leo and she had seen him once!

However, her impression towards him wasn't good!

The call was answered very quickly. "Hello! Mr. Leo, my assistant told me that your company doesn't want to cooperate with us!"

"Vo! Is it Director Bleu? I heard that things are going very smoothly for you. All the people who are close to you are rich. Why are you still working so hard?"

Eden said angrily, "Mr. Leo, could you please be a little more respectful?"

"Fine. Director Bleu, our company can cooperate with you. Why don't we go to the hotel tonight to catch up? I might agree to sign the contract with you after that."

Eden's expression changed when she heard his frivolous words!

She knew Mr. Leo. She had met him once when she was in the branch office.

He was already in his forties, yet he still spoke in such a frivolous manner!

Eden's eyes were cold and she said with a sneer, "Mr. Leo, since you don't want to cooperate with us, forget it then. There are so many fabric companies. The Alwynn Group could do without your company!"

Eden hung up the phone immediately when she had finished speaking.

Amelia looked at Eden and asked, "Director Bleu, what should we do now? If the other party doesn't cooperate with us, the working progress will be delayed."

Eden looked at her, lowered her head and pondered for a while before she said, "Amelia, don't worry. Let me look at the fabric samples of each company again."

"Okay!" Amelia turned around and went out.

Eden glanced outside her office. Both Victor and Lucian had skipped work today.

Loco Company was the largest producer of cashmere and wool. Many clothing companies valued their fabrics very much.

Eden also valued their fabrics too!!

She liked their cashmere particularly because they were soft, fine and glutinous, light, naturally smooth and had high color wear resistance.

However...

She picked up the phone and dialed Victor's number. She had to inform Victor about the matter first.

The phone rang a few times but no one answered the phone.

Eden was about to hang up when a lazy voice came from the opposite side, "Hey! Eden!"

Eden frowned slightly. Why did she feel that there was anger in his lazy voice?

She said, "Mr. Alwynn, the Loco Company suddenly refuses to cooperate with us."

Victor said carelessly, "Just switch to another company if they don't want to cooperate with us."

Eden said, "But they have the fabrics that I need badly!"

"Discuss with me when I reach the company then!" Victor hung up the phone after that!

Eden glanced at the phone. Why could she hear anger in Victor's tone?

Did he wake up on the wrong side of the bed?

It was almost two o'clock at the moment. How could he wake up on the wrong side of the bed?

She shook her head slightly, glanced at the computer and continued to work.

Her phone rang again the moment she touched the mouse.

Chapter 417

Eden glanced at the phone number and saw that it was an unknown number!

She was confused but she still answered the phone.

"Hello! Who's there?"

"Hello, Director Bleu, I am..."

Eden was still holding her phone to her ear even when the other party had hung up for a while!

She was slightly stunned for a moment before she put down her phone slowly.

She was not bothered by the rumors online but that didn't mean other people were not bothered by that!

It would affect other people even though it didn't affect her.

Jaida had been sending messages to her via WhatsApp.

Eden had replied to Jaida and told her that she was fine.

Zaiden was also very worried about her. She thought that it was sufficient that her family trusted her.

In this big society, her family could tolerate her but that did not mean that others would do the same too!

Someone must have been secretly manipulating the incidents the past two days.

Who could it be?

Familiar faces flashed across Eden's mind.

No way. She could ignore the matter but it would still affect her family's lives.

She picked up her phone and dialed Jasper's number.

"Eden, what's wrong?" Jasper's voice was always filled with concern.

Eden smiled and said, "Jasper, have you found out who did it?"

Jasper said, "Eden, I was about to call you. I've found it. I'll go and meet the person in charge of the media company later. Wait a little longer. I'll call you again at night."

"Okay!" Eden nodded slightly and hung up the phone.

Eden heaved a sigh of relief.

She touched her forehead helplessly!

The matter was potentially dangerous and would affect her family to some extent.

It was best to get to the bottom of it.

Her family members were her greatest spiritual support. She could not let them be affected because of her.

"Eden." A hoarse voice sounded. Eden raised her head and glanced at Victor who was dressed in casual clothes. He looked elegant.

He looked extraordinarily handsome too. An aggressive aura invaded the entire office with his presence.

Eden composed herself and said, "Mr. Alwynn, you are here."

Victor looked at her deeply. His handsome face was a little pale, and there were no emotions in his black eyes. He nodded gently and said, "Come to my office!"

As he spoke, his upright figure strode away.

Eden glanced at his back, picked up a glass of water at the side and drank a mouthful of water before she followed Victor.

She glanced over and found that Lucian still had not come to work.

She took another deep breath before she walked into Victor's office.

Victor was making coffee. When he heard her voice, he looked back at Eden and said in a low voice, "Eden, sit down!"

Eden looked at him. "Do you have something to talk to me about?" She had to go back to work. She didn't want to work overtime at night.

Victor did not answer her question. Instead, he asked, "Did you have dinner with Jasper last night?"

"Yes!" Eden nodded slightly. She could answer frankly since it was the truth.

It seemed like he had seen the news!

She looked at his back and thought of the phone call she had received a while ago. There were complicated emotions in her eyes!

Victor who was stirring the coffee paused when he heard Eden's direct answer.

After a while, he walked over with two cups of coffee and put a cup in front of Eden.

Victor leaned on the sofa lazily and looked at Eden deeply.

The first thing he saw on his phone when he woke up was the news about Eden and Jasper.

There was no doubt that she was still in a dangerous situation even if he didn't approach her.

He picked up the cup and took a sip gracefully.

On the other hand, Eden didn't even look at the coffee.

Victor looked at her and said, "Drink some coffee first. This is the new brewing method that I have discovered. It tastes good!"

Eden lowered her head and glanced at the coffee that was giving off a strong aroma. She pursed her lips slightly and had no intention to drink it.

She didn't like coffee very much. Hence, it didn't matter to her whether the coffee tasted good or not!

However, Victor's intense gaze made her pick up the beautiful porcelain cup slowly and took a sip.

She frowned slightly. It tasted bitter!

Victor asked, "Doesn't it taste good?"

Eden put down the cup and said, "Mr. Alwynn, I don't like to drink coffee. I could only taste its bitterness when I drink coffee. Thus, to answer your question, I can only tell you that it doesn't taste good!"

"Hehe..." Victor laughed in a low voice before he looked at her and said, "Eden, I thought you would like it."

Eden looked at him calmly. "Mr. Alwynn, let's get down to business. The Loco Company doesn't want to cooperate with us..." "It's Vincent!" Victor interrupted her.

Eden was speechless.

What did that have to do with Vincent?

Eden asked him in confusion, "What does that have to do with Vincent?"

Could it be...

Victor's eyes darkened and he said in a hoarse voice, "He knows Mr. Leo. Mr. Leo changed his mind because Vincent gave him some benefits but do not worry about this matter. Vincent only knows Mr. Leo but I know the president of their company."

I have already talked to their president about this matter. There will be news soon so you don't have to worry about that!"

Eden didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Why did Vincent do that? I don't remember when I offended him."

Victor curled his lips slightly and sneered. He exuded a noble aura and his handsome face was sharp and cold.

"Vincent has always liked to play this kind of dirty trick.

What happened today was also his doing. He saw you and Jasper leaving together when he came to fetch Haven. There were surveillance footages in front of the company's building. Everything will come to light by just checking the footages.

Vincent did that because the Jotham Alwynn Group had not come up with the new products for autumn but we already have your products ready. That was why he was so anxious.

Besides wanting to ruin you, he also wants to destroy the Alwynn Group."

Victor had already called someone to investigate the matter the moment he saw the news.

Eden couldn't believe her ears. She was actually involved in the competition between the members of the Alwynn family.

She looked at Victor with an aggrieved face and said, "Victor, I am very aggrieved. It's fine that you and Vincent compete with each other but why am I involved in it too?"

It was really tiring to live like that!

Victor raised his lips slightly and asked, "Eden, because we are in the same boat now."

Eden smiled coldly. "Who is on the same boat with you?"

She would have a target behind her back if she was not careful. Even if she was indifferent to the daily scandals, she would still be driven crazy by the cyberbullies.

Victor did not speak when he heard that and he looked a little tired.

He leaned lazily back on the sofa. After a while, he said, "Eden, don't forget that you have promised to watch a movie with me tomorrow!"

She would have forgotten it if he had not mentioned it.

She thought of the phone call she had received at noon and said, "We'll talk about it tomorrow. I'll go and continue my work."

Chapter 418

As Eden spoke, she got up and walked out!

She did not need to worry anymore since Victor had already taken care of the issue related to the fabrics.

Victor was surprised by Eden's change of mood.

He frowned slightly and wondered what was going on.

Eden had promised to watch a movie with him together but why did he feel that she was reluctant judging from her tone?

Victor closed his eyes tiredly.

His face was pale and his eyes were sharp, causing him to look terrifyingly cold.

Vincent was still troublesome even when Rebecca was out of the picture.

Victor had nothing to worry about since he had found his mother.

The Jotham Alwynn Group used to be the Alwynn Group and was founded by Philip and Jaida.

However, it had become other's people dowry.

Jaida had worked very hard to establish the Jotham Alwynn Group but it was snatched away by Rebecca in the end!

The things that happened in the past were indelible torments in Victor's heart!

Victor could still remember vividly that Philip had beaten him several times because of Rebecca.

He had no intention to remember how many times Philip had scolded him but the pain that was engraved in his heart made it difficult for him to forget!

He opened his eyes slowly and looked out of the window!

The cloudless sky outside the window was blue, clear and far away.

The gentle breeze came in from the window and brushed against his face, causing him to feel very comfortable!

Victor sat up straight, picked up the coffee on the table and took a small sip. He didn't actually like to drink coffee that much too!

He had insomnia frequently that he also didn't even dare to drink too much tea!

In the past when he hadn't found Eden and Jaida, he would be cautious and make serious considerations before he took action!

However, things had developed to an extreme and he was no longer as guarded as before!

He got up, walked to the office desk, and continued to work!

On the other hand, when Eden returned to her office, she saw Amelia pushing a cart that was filled with tons of fabrics into the office.

Eden parted her red lips slightly. She said with a smile, "Amelia, are you bringing all the fabrics here?"

Amelia nodded quickly and looked at Eden anxiously with her big bright eyes. "Director Bleu, we don't have much time so I've taken all of them here!"

Eden felt that Amelia was a responsible person when she heard that.

She was very satisfied that Amelia was her assistant.

She said with a smile, "Amelia, you can put the cart behind your desk first. Mr. Alwynn has already solved the issue related to the fabrics. You can send the fabrics back after two days."

Haven would report everything that had happened here to Vincent.

Eden knew that Vincent was still holding a grudge against her for what had happened last time!

A hint of surprise flashed across Amelia's big eyes. "Director Bleu, Mr. Alwynn is really extraordinary!"

"That's right!" Eden smiled and continued to work.

Amelia also continued to do her work when she saw that.

Eden glanced at the time when it was five o'clock.

She looked at her phone with a complicated expression on her face.

After thinking for a while, she packed up her things, bade goodbye to Amelia and got off work.

She got off work two minutes earlier today because she did not want to run into Victor.

She exited the company building and stopped a taxi.

Eden told the driver the address and the driver drove to the destination.

While Eden was in the car, she looked out of the window with mixed emotions!

The traffic was a little congested since it was the peak hour after work!

It took Eden forty minutes to arrive at her destination.

Her destination was a cafe with an elegant environment!

She took a deep breath and walked to the hall!

A middle-aged man walked towards her arrogantly the moment she entered the cafe.

It was Phillip's secretary, Jaxon.

Jaxon smiled politely and said, "May I know if you are Miss Eden Bleu?"

Eden nodded slightly. "Yes!"

"Hello, Miss Bleu. I am Jaxon, Mr. Alwynn's secretary."

Eden said politely, "Hello, Jaxon!"

The call that she had received at noon was from Jaxon.

The reason Philip wanted to meet her suddenly might be due to the recent online rumors!

Jaxon smiled politely. "Miss Bleu, please come in! Mr. Alwynn has been waiting for you for some time!" Jaxon's movements were gentle and elegant, and his gentlemanly demeanor made people feel very comfortable!

Eden said apologetically, "I'm sorry. The traffic was congested because it is the rush hour after work!"

Jaxon nodded with a smile and said, "Miss Bleu, I understand."

He led Eden into a private room as he spoke.

Eden saw that Philip who was dressed in a suit, was already seated in his chair when she entered the private room.

He had his head lowered. He had a grim expression on his face and his eyes were terrifyingly sharp!

Eden pursed her lips slightly and stood in front of him!

Jaxon said, "President, Miss Bleu is here."

"Very well! You can go out now!" His majestic voice was filled with authority.

Jaxon nodded slightly and went out.

Only then did Eden speak in an uncondescending manner, "Sorry to keep you waiting, President. The traffic was congested!"

Philip looked at Eden sharply.

He glanced at the chair in front of him and said coldly, "Director Bleu, sit down!"

Eden felt a little uneasy when she heard Philip's tone.

Phillip who was sitting in front of her, gave her a sense of uneasiness!

Eden sat down slowly. She lowered her head and waited for Philip to speak.

Phillip looked at Eden coldly. She seemed like a clever and sensible woman but he could not tolerate the fact that she had three children.

The Alwynn family was not in the habit of helping other people in raising their children.

He said in a serious tone, "Miss Bleu, I'll get straight to the point then!"

Eden raised her head and looked at him before she said indifferently, "President, you can say it directly!"

Phillip nodded slightly and said, "Haven told me that Victor is dating you recently."

"Miss Bleu, please let me finish first!" Phillip's tone was a little impatient and angry.

Eden frowned slightly but did not say anything. She met Philip's gaze instead.

Phillip continued, "I'm not against Victor dating women but I'm against him dating a woman who has children before marriage!"

I know you're doing that for Victor's money. I want you to leave him. Can you do that?"

Eden felt humiliated when she heard that. She looked straight at Phillip and said calmly, "President, I don't have that kind of relationship with Mr. Alwynn."

Her tone was extremely firm when she said that.

"Hehe..." Phillip smiled coldly. "Miss Bleu, your scandals are widely spread on the Internet recently.

I believe we are reasonable people. Hence, I won't say too much.

I understand Victor's character very well. He has never treated a woman the way he treated you!

I don't know if Victor has told you this before but he has been waiting for a girl. She is also called Eden."

Chapter 419

Eden looked at Phillip silently when she heard that. Victor had told her about this before.

Therefore, she had been guarding her heart and preventing herself from falling in love with Victor. She was truly moved by Victor when he treated her well sometimes.

Even someone would not easily fall in love like her would be captivated by him.

When Phillip saw that Eden did not speak, he continued, "That's the girl whom Victor has been obsessed with his entire life.

She is Victor's only childhood memory.

Now you know how important that girl is to Victor!

Haven was right. Victor would only cast his eyes on you probably because you are also called Eden.

In order not to let both you and Victor get hurt, I think it's best that we talk it out!"

Eden clenched her fists tightly and suppressed the anger in her heart before she said calmly, "President, my relationship with Victor is not what you think it is. I won't leave because I need the job."

She needed the job very much and she loved it at the same time.

Therefore, she couldn't leave. Otherwise, how could she raise her children?

Her children were going to start school soon. Hence, she needed more money!

Even though Zaiden and Jaida were helping her, she was still a mother and must undertake her responsibility!

Phillip's face darkened when he heard that. He threatened, "Miss Bleu, I know you need the job because you have three children to raise!"

As he spoke, he pushed a card that was in front of him towards Eden.

He said sarcastically, "The Alwynn family would not raise other people's illegitimate children. Here is one million dollars. It is enough for your family of three to live for a while. Didn't you get together with Victor for money? I'm giving you money for you to leave the Alwynn Group!"

Eden looked at the card in front of her and felt greatly humiliated.

Phillip who was sitting in front of her had already concluded that she had seduced Victor. No matter how she explained herself, the people who had gossiped in his ear had made him believe that she had approached Victor for money.

She looked straight at Phillip. No matter how humiliated she felt deep down her heart, the tough expression remained on her clean and beautiful face and she looked as though she would not be defeated easily when confronted with adversity.

She asked, "President, what if I don't want the money and I don't want to leave the Alwynn Group?"

She had used up almost all her strength just to ask that question.

Phillip's brows furrowed deeply and he twitched the corner of his mouth coldly.

Eden's chest tightened suddenly. She could tell how ruthless Phillip was from his cold smile.

She was aware of the things that were related to Phillip.

Even if she didn't go and get to know famous people in the fashion business like Phillip, she would still hear about him from other people.

Her heart nearly jumped out from her throat but she still looked at Phillip with her clear eyes.

Only then did Phillip say casually, "Miss Bleu, with the Alwynn family's power, it's easy to destroy a family or a person!

I heard that your three children are very smart. You should make a wise move and leave the Alwynn Group if you don't want your children's future to be in danger!

Leave Victor or I'll make sure that your children would not be able to enter any school before the semester starts and that you would also not get a job in River City!"

Eden's lips started to tremble!

Wealthy people were indeed capable of doing that!

"Hehe..." She smiled bitterly and said, "President, I know that rich people like you like to push people to a dead-end!

But my relationship with Victor is not what you think it is!"

"Shameless!" Phillip scolded, "You were already holding hands when you walked together. Would ordinary friends do such an ambiguous action? Do you think everyone else is blind?

Leave the Alwynn Group tomorrow, or don't blame me for being unkind!

I, Phillip Alwynn, have always been a man of my word!

I don't care about your identity and your past but you are not a decent woman based on the fact that you have sent your adoptive mother to prison." "Bang..." Eden slapped the table hard. She stood up suddenly and looked at Phillip with an agitated and cold expression.

She roared agitatedly and angrily, "Mr. Alwynn, you don't understand my past. What right do you have to reprimand me? Should a powerless person like me be accused, framed and humiliated by rich people like you?"

"How dare you!" Phillip also stood up angrily. "My purpose of meeting you today is to let you know the difference between people who are rich and people like you!"

No matter how you struggle, or what methods you used to climb to the top, you will never get what you want!

Don't test my patience with your stubborn temper. It will make your life even more tragic!

Remember my words. Leave the Alwynn Group tomorrow or don't blame me for ruining your children's future."

After saying that angrily, Phillip turned around and was about to leave.

When Eden saw that, she shouted, "Mr. Alwynn, please take your card away. I don't need your money!"

Phillip turned around and looked at her mockingly. "Eden, you are really imposing when you speak.

One million dollars is not a small amount."

Eden also looked at him and smiled sarcastically. "Sorry, my father is richer than you. One million dollars is nothing to me."

Phillip frowned and asked, "You have a father?"

Aren't you an orphan? Aren't you the adopted child of the Gienger family? Where did you get a father?"

The person who investigated Eden did not tell him that she had a father!

Eden sneered and said, "President, you will meet him one day in this circle!"

As Eden spoke, she picked up her handbag and walked out of the private room.

She felt that she couldn't hold on any longer. She needed a place to calm herself down!

Her strong and calm behavior was on the verge of breaking down!

She ran quickly after she left the private room.

She ran wildly on the road in high heels when she got out of the cafe!

"Miss Bleu, with the Alwynn family's power, it's easy to destroy a family or a person!

I heard that your three children are very smart. You should make a wise move and leave the Alwynn Group if you don't want your children's future to be in danger!

Leave Victor or I'll make sure that your children would not be able to enter any school before the semester starts and that you would also not get a job in River City!"

Phillip's words rang in her ears repeatedly.

They were like a spell that had trapped her heart.

Chapter 420

Eden ran on the sidewalk as fast as she could as the sunset enveloped her lonely and painful figure.

The passers-by looked at her worriedly.

The sad expression on her face was unbearable to look at. Her eyes were blurred by her tears but she ignored it.

Her leg ached suddenly and she fell to the ground.

Her palms were scraped when they came in contact with the ground and blood oozed out instantly.

A piercing pain surged through her entire body. However, Eden did not feel the pain in her hand as she was heartbroken!

She fell on the ground and cried bitterly as she tried to vent the humiliation and resentment in her heart. The passers-by just watched indifferently. No one dared to come forward to help her up!

That was not the first time that she had been insulted in her life.

However, she didn't know why she was hurt when she heard Phillip calling her children illegitimate.

Someone pulled her arm suddenly.

Eden raised her head slowly and saw a handsome and gentle face under the sunset.

There was a faint golden glow on his handsome face under the afterglow of the setting sun. He was like a god who had descended to the world and a savior!

When Eden saw that it was Lucian, she quickly wiped away the tears on her face and stopped crying.

Lucian looked at her deeply and smiled faintly, "Director Bleu, you only had a fall. Is it necessary to cry so sadly?"

He had actually seen her the moment she ran out of the cafe.

He understood what was going on when he saw Phillip's angry face!

He didn't expect Eden to run so fast. He was standing at the side when she fell down. He approached her as though he had bumped into her by chance after she had calmed down.

Eden smiled slightly and quickly wiped away the tears on her face. She said with a bitter smile, "You're right! It was just a fall! Why am I crying so sadly?"

Sometimes, when a person was at the point of giving up, he should think about the reason he had been holding on for so long.

Eden had bravely hold on for so long in order to survive.

The world was cruel and there were many people who could not acknowledge women who had children before marriage.

Eden had managed to survive the toughest and most painful experience in her life. What else was there for her to be afraid of?

Lucian did not say anything and pulled her to her feet.

When Eden gained her footing, she lowered her head and looked at her feet before moving them slightly.

She frowned slightly when she felt a sharp pain from her ankle. The fall was so harsh that she sprained her ankle.

She moved slightly and her whole body leaned forward involuntarily!

Lucian quickly supported her and said, "Looks like you have sprained your ankle. Let's go to the hospital first!"

Eden looked at him and smiled. "Mr. Ronen, I can go to the hospital on my own. You can go back first!"

When Lucian heard that, he looked at her deeply but he did not leave!

Eden did not know what to say when she saw that Lucian did not move!

Lucian seemed like a quiet person to her!

When Lucian was quiet, he gave people the feeling that he was isolated from the world. The clean and gentle aura he exuded caused people to keep silent, not daring to make a single sound for fear of disturbing him.

Lucian said expressionlessly, "I'll take you to the hospital!" His voice was pleasant but firm.

Even though he was reticent, cold and not close to women, he was actually a warm-hearted person.

Eden did not say anything else when she saw his persistence.

"Eden."

A loving voice sounded suddenly.

Eden looked up and smiled, "Dad, why are you here?"

Zaiden frowned slightly and felt heartbroken when he saw Eden's red and swollen eyes!

He was in his car at the intersection of red traffic lights and he saw her when he raised his head. Zaiden looked at her and asked, "Eden, why are you here? It is very far from our house. What are you doing here?

Also, who bullied you?"

Zaiden looked at Lucian as he spoke.

"Mr. Ronen, it's been a while since we last met!" He looked at Lucian coldly.

Lucian greeted him indifferently, "Hi, Mr. Calder!"

Zaiden looked at Lucian and asked, "What happened to Eden..."

"She fell down!" Lucian's answer was short and concise.

"Eden, are you injured? You have to be careful when you walk. Don't walk so fast! Do you understand?" Zaiden reminded Eden with a loving tone.

Eden smiled and said, "Dad, I didn't pay attention to the road just now. I think I have sprained my ankle!"

"I will take you to the hospital." As Zaiden spoke, he waved at Dawson who was not far away and gestured him to drive the car over.

Zaiden said, "Mr. Ronen..."

Before Zaiden could finish his words, Lucian had already carried Eden in his arms.

He walked towards the car that was not far away.

Zaiden frowned and looked at Lucian's tall and straight figure with displeasure. Did he ask him to carry Eden?

That lad!!

Zaiden followed him.

Lucian glanced at Eden who was in his arms. She looked thin but he didn't expect her to be so light when he carried her!

Didn't she usually eat? Why was she so thin?

Dawson had already gotten out of the car and opened the door.

Lucian carefully placed Eden in the back seat!

Eden smiled at him and said, "Mr. Ronen, thank you!"

Lucian stepped to the side without saying anything!

Zaiden smiled politely. "Mr. Ronen, thank you. We'll leave first then!"

As he spoke, he got into the car and sat beside Eden.

The car drove away. Lucian narrowed his eyes slightly and walked back to the sidewalk.

After walking for a while, he took out his mobile phone and called Victor.

"Hello!" Victor's tired voice came from the other end of the phone.

Lucian frowned slightly and asked, "You are still not up yet?"

"Lucian, I'm at the company. Why did you skip work?"

Lucian replied shortly, "I'm tired!"

Victor also replied faintly, "Something's wrong?"

Lucian replied with a single word, "Yes!"

"Say it!" Victor sounded a little impatient.

Lucian asked, "Should I go to the company or to your house?"

"Seems like we can't finish everything on the phone. Let's eat at the restaurant that we frequently visit in Fashion Square!"

"Okay!" Lucian hung up the phone after he had finished speaking.

He walked to the side of the road, stopped a taxi and gave the driver the address!

Eden didn't dare to reveal her feelings in front of Zaiden.

However, Phillip's hurtful words were still echoing in her mind.

She thought that she was strong but she had overestimated her ability to endure insults!

Phillip's words had hurt her deeply.

Zaiden looked at Eden and saw that she had a serious expression on her face. He had met countless people so he naturally knew that Eden did not just have a bad fall.
