

Gluey Love 421

Chapter 421

Zaiden asked, "Eden, tell me what happened to you. Who did you come here to meet?"

During this period, the news of Eden and Victor had spread all over the Internet and had been reposted many times on Facebook!

He wasn't oblivious to the news but he kept quiet because the other party involved was Victor.

He also wanted to make Victor and Eden a couple.

Eden smiled and said, "Dad, I..."

Eden, don't tell me that you are fine. I have met countless people. I could tell the reason you cried bitterly was not because you fell down. Tell me who you met.

We are a family, Eden. Your mother and I are here for you!"

Zaiden interrupted her and his tone was filled with concern.

Eden could feel that he cared for her deeply when she heard his words!

Eden brightened up a little. That's right. Both Zaiden and Jaida were her backers now!

Eden lowered her head slightly and briefly told him about her meeting with Phillip!

Zaiden's face turned terrifyingly dark when he heard that!

Eden had never seen Zaiden with such an expression before. Her eyes stung slightly and she suddenly felt bad for letting Zaiden and Jaida worry about her.

She had suffered too much pain and was highly sensitive towards all kinds of matters!

"Humph!" Zaiden grunted angrily and said, "Eden, you have always like to design clothes. Continue to go and work. If Phillip dares to do something bad to you, I will never let him go!"

Eden smiled and said, "Okay, Dad!"

She really didn't want to give up on her job!

Zaiden glanced at her and smiled before he looked out of the window.

He slowly recalled about the past. Phillip had stolen his twenty years of happiness!

Zaiden was nothing but a workman back then. He met the most important woman in his life one day!

The woman was Jaida. She was not disgusted by him and did not care whether he had money or not!

Zaiden and Jaida followed their hearts and soon became lovers!

However, Zaiden's dream was shattered when Philip appeared one day!

Jaida's parents had forced Jaida to marry Phillip.

Zaiden did not have anything at that time.

He was still a poor guy and he chose to let go because he could not bear to let his beloved woman suffer with him every day.

He had given the most precious person in the world to Phillip.

However, Phillip did not know how to cherish Jaida.

He felt heartbroken and regretful when he saw that Jaida did not live a good life!

Later on, he and his friends signed a construction site business by chance. From then onwards, his life became smooth!

After suffering for a long time, he finally earned the first pot of money in his life.

However, he realized that Jaida had vanished when he looked for her with the money he had earned. She had left her two children and had also disappeared in his life!

He worked hard to make money and searched for her whereabouts the following years. When he finally found her, she was hurt so deeply that she lost the will to live.

He had been silently guarding her ever since.

He didn't care whether she was willing to marry him or not. He only had one thought, that was to guard her for the rest of his life.

Zaiden's lips curved into a gentle smile.

They had already come back to River City. It was time for them to settle some matters!

He suddenly said emotionally, "Eden, I feel good for having your mother and you guys!"

Eden smiled warmly when she heard that. "Dad, I feel good too for having you and Mom!"

"Haha..." Zaiden laughed happily and said, "Eden, go and work for a while. You don't need to work anymore if you are unhappy."

Since you like to design clothes, I can open a clothing company for you so that you can design your favorite clothes freely."

Even though Phillip was a jerk, Victor was still a good man!

Victor was also Jaida's son. Therefore, Zaiden was happy to make Victor and Eden a couple!

He would not have let Eden suffer so much if it weren't for that reason!

Eden said coquettishly, "Okay, I'll listen to you. Don't be reluctant to give me money then!"

"Haha..." Zaiden laughed happily when he heard that. "Eden, I don't have anything but money last time.

Now that I have everything including money. Who else would I give the money to, if not my daughter?"

He was very poor when he was young. He had experienced a lot of things, especially humanity!

He longed for a home at that time!

What he had longed for when he was a youth was finally fulfilled now!

He treasured it very much!

Eden went to the hospital and was told that she had injured the ligament at her ankle. It was no big problem and she would be fine if she went home and took a rest.

The nightfall in River City was breathtaking with many houses lit up!

Victor's tall figure slowly entered a high-end restaurant.

The restaurant was very quiet. His presence caused the people in the restaurant to cast glances at him.

Victor turned a blind eye to them and walked into the reserved private room.

He was so noble and dazzling that he was always the center of attention, no matter where he went!

His face was slightly pale because he did not sleep for a night. He entered the room without any expression on his face and saw Lucian playing with his phone in his seat.

Lucian raised his head and glanced at Victor when he saw that he had arrived!

Victor pulled out a chair and sat down. He glanced at the indifferent Lucian and asked, "Have you ordered the dishes?"

Lucian replied, "Yes! They'll be here soon."

Victor looked at him and asked, "Why did you suddenly call me? Moreover, you are willing to have dinner with me."

Lucian had never liked to eat with him.

The reason was that both of them knew that they would either have nothing to say to each other or would bicker.

Only then did Lucian raise his head and look at him, "I have something to tell you!"

"What is it?" Victor leaned back in his chair lazily.

He didn't eat anything in the morning so he was really hungry at the moment.

"We'll talk about it after we've finished eating!" He lowered his head and looked at his phone when he had finished speaking. He was sure that Victor did not have breakfast this morning.

If he told Victor now, he would not have the appetite to have dinner, let alone breakfast.

"Alright. I happen to be hungry." Victor also took out his mobile phone as he spoke.

He glanced at his WhatsApp. Eden had already left when he got off work today. She had been leaving early the past few days.

Lucian seemed to know what Victor wanted to do. He said, "Victor, have you finished your work?"

With Anson not around, their workload had doubled.

"Yes!" Victor looked at Lucian coldly. No one was more daring as a secretary than Lucian. Victor could not reprimand him or ask him why he skipped work.

As the boss, he felt quite wronged.

However, as his secretary, Lucian had saved him a lot of trouble.

Chapter 422

The dishes were quickly served. They were boiled fish and shrimps and were all Victor's favorite!

Victor and Lucian did not drink. They ordered rice and ate quietly!

Both of them lowered their heads and ate their food silently with a calm expression on their faces!

The private room was surprisingly quiet. Only the sound of the two of them eating could be heard!

Both Lucian and Victor liked quiet places!

They shared a similarity in this aspect!

Twenty minutes later!

Victor put down the chopsticks, picked up the tissue at the side and wiped the corner of his mouth elegantly. After that, he picked up the tea at the side and took a sip.

He said, "I'm full!"

"I'm full too!" Lucian put down his chopsticks slowly.

He looked at Victor and said, "I met Eden two hours ago."

Victor frowned and asked, "Where?"

"Near my house!"

Victor asked in confusion, "What is Eden doing near your house?"

Lucian pursed his lip and did not say anything. He picked up a cup of tea at the side and took a sip instead.

He thought for a moment and said, "She was in deep pain when I met her!"

Victor's chest tightened when he heard that. "Why?"

He clenched his fists tightly and looked at Lucian deeply. He reminded himself that he had to be patient when he talked to Lucian. No matter how curious, angry or anxious he was, he still had to be patient with him!

Lucian said nonchalantly, "She fell down and injured her leg!"

Victor tried his best to suppress the emotions in his heart and asked in a low voice, "Why?"

Lucian knew what he meant.

Lucian looked at him and said, "Because of your father!"

Victor was taken aback by the few words. He suppressed the anger in his heart that could erupt at any moment.

Victor relaxed his body slightly. His anger was still churning in his heart.

He lowered his head and the cold expression on his face was extremely terrifying!

He said word by word angrily, "What did my father say when he met Eden?"

Lucian realized that Victor could lose control at any moment. He said slowly, "I was just passing by a cafe and happened to see Eden running out. Your father walked out of the cafe angrily after that. I don't know what they said to each other.

Judging from your father's personality, I'm afraid that he would not have said something good."

Eden's lonely, helpless and painful face flashed across Lucian's mind!

At that time, he was in a fit of anger when he saw that. He wanted to run in front of Philip to question him about what he had done to Eden.

However, he restrained his rage and chased after Eden when he saw her lonely and fleeing figure.

Victor suppressed his anger and asked, "What happened after that? Who sent Eden to the hospital?"

The only thing he wanted to know at the moment was whether Eden's injury was serious or not.

Lucian said faintly, "Mr. Calder happened to pass by. He has already sent her to the hospital!"

Victor heaved a sigh of relief when he heard that.

Victor picked up his phone quickly and called Eden.

He turned sideways slightly. The refraction of the crystal light landed on his handsome face, making him look like a demon.

Meantime, Eden had returned to her room to rest after she had dinner!

She sat quietly on the soft big bed and her clear eyes were filled with sorrow!

Suddenly, she heard her phone ringing and glanced at her phone. It was from Victor. Her face tensed up suddenly and she hesitated for a moment.

She only answered the call when her ringtone didn't stop ringing.

"Hello!"

"Eden, Lucian said that your foot was injured. How are you?"

Eden frowned slightly and lowered her head. Since when did Lucian become a gossip like Adonis?

Victor would know about the matter sooner or later anyway. She had wanted to call him to ask for a few days' leave initially.

Now that the fabric had been fixed, there would not be much of a problem with the follow-up work.

She said in a flat tone, "I'm fine but I might have to ask for leave next week!"

Also, I won't be able to accompany you to watch a movie tomorrow as promised. We can go to the movies some other time!"

Her heart actually ached for Victor. She got to know him very well when she was with him and she felt sorry for such a devoted man!

"Okay! Eden, your work is not urgent. You should let your foot injury heal first!"

"Okay! Thank you!" Eden hung up the phone when she had finished speaking!

"Hello! Eden, Eden..."

Victor glanced at the phone. He hadn't finished speaking yet.

Eden must be in a bad mood at the moment!

Lucian looked at Victor with a faint expression on his face. However, there was a trace of worry in his gentle eyes.

He asked, "Is her injury serious?"

Victor rubbed the edge of his phone with his fingers gently. His action was cold.

He said lightly, "Eden said she is fine."

When Lucian heard that, he got up suddenly, put one hand in his pocket and walked out with his head down.

Victor frowned and looked at Lucian's slightly cool and charming back.

He said, "I am the only one at home!"

Lucian stopped suddenly and said in a flat tone, "Do you want me to accompany you?"

"If you have nothing to do..." Victor wanted to say something but stopped on second thought.

He did not like to be alone. However, he would still be considered alone even if he was together with Lucian.

Anson was very noisy. Victor felt strange at home without Anson. He felt that he would be drowned in loneliness anytime soon!

He hated that kind of loneliness. He did not have enough willpower to bear it.

Lucian was a person after all!

A person who would answer if he asked him something!

Lucian said, "Let's go!"

Victor got up quickly when he heard that.

Lucian asked, "Did you drive here?"

Victor said, "Yes!"

Lucian did not say anything else and continued to move forward.

Victor followed behind him and said, "Lucian, I want to go to the old mansion!"

Lucian continued to walk forward and asked, "Is that necessary?"

Victor said, "I don't want Eden to be wronged."

Lucian replied, "She has already been wronged."

"But..."

Lucian stopped in his tracks suddenly. He looked at Victor and interrupted him. "Victor, I know what you're worried about but we can't delay the matter for too long."

Victor nodded with a serious expression on his face. "Lucian, I know what you mean."

"That's great!" Lucian continued to move forward as he spoke.

"The reason your father met Eden is to either make Eden leave you or to threaten her. You have to pay more attention to it.

Don't let Eden suddenly disappear from your world again."

That was the common trick used by wealthy families.

Victor said with a grim expression on his face,

"Lucian, I know. I will protect Eden well."

He would be extremely careful from now onwards.

Chapter 423

Victor's message alert tone suddenly sounded when he got into the car.

He clicked open the message and saw that it was a video from an unknown number.

It was a video of Phillip's meeting with Eden.

There was also a passage below the video.

[Rumor has it that you're in a relationship with Director Bleu from your company. Victor, you brat, I finally got a chance!

Look at what your father had done to her?

You'd better stay put or wait to collect Eden's corpse.]

Victor was enraged by the threat.

He quickly clicked on the video and listened to the conversation in it!

"The Alwynn family would not raise other people's illegitimate children. Here is one million dollars. It is enough for your family of three to live for a while.

Didn't you get together with Victor because of money? I'm giving you money to leave the Alwynn Group!" "Miss Bleu, with the Alwynn family's power, it's easy to destroy a family or a person!

I heard that your three children are very smart. You should make a wise move and leave the Alwynn Group if you don't want your children's future to be in danger!

Leave Victor or I'll make sure that your children would be able to enter any school before the semester starts and that you also would not get a job in River City!"

Victor's eyes were fixed on Eden's thin, helpless and trembling figure. His heart ached for her!

Phillip actually did that!

What right did he have?

"Damn it!" He cursed angrily.

He started the car in a fit of anger and drove straight to the old mansion.

Lucian who was sitting at the passenger seat held onto the armrest when he saw how angry Victor was.

He had witnessed what had happened. However, it was more terrifying to provoke Eden than Victor.

"Victor, calm down. The reason the other party sent you the video is very simple. He wants you to break your relationship with your father completely!

Don't be fooled. Otherwise, you will not be able to keep the Jotham Alwynn Group!

Your mother has put her heart and soul for the company."

Victor turned the steering wheel smoothly. His face was filled with anger and he wanted to tear everything into pieces!

He did not answer Lucian and took a shortcut instead because he wanted to reach the old mansion at the fastest speed.

Lucian sighed helplessly.

He could only leave Victor alone and hope that he would not be angry for too long this time!

Half an hour later, the sound of car brakes screeching loudly could be heard outside the old mansion of the Alwynn family!

Victor got out of the car quickly and slammed the door shut when the car was tilting forward violently.

Lucian felt sorry for the luxury car for three seconds when he saw that!

He also opened the car door quickly and got out of the car!

Rebecca was at home the whole time. She was wearing a pink housecoat and was drinking coffee on the balcony.

Judging by Victor's character, she felt that it was the right time to take action now.

She knew Victor had arrived when she heard the sound of the car brakes. She got up and looked down from the balcony. An eerie smile appeared on her face when she saw Victor's imposing figure.

Older people were indeed wiser. Rebecca believed she could deal with Victor even though she was at home and not at the company!

The Jotham Alwynn Group was what she had always wanted to get in her life!

She had planned for so many years and she couldn't let Victor ruin her plans!

She wanted Phillip to see for himself that he had raised an ingrate!

She wanted to see how Victor would infuriate Phillip!

At the moment, Victor's handsome face was dark and his black eyes were sharp. He looked like he was going to kill and he exuded a murderous aura.

Lucian's tall and slender figure followed closely behind Victor. For the first time, he looked at Victor's back nervously.

He suddenly recalled that in the past, Anson was the one who had always been by Victor's side when he acted aggressively.

He was with Victor this time and he felt like he could not handle this kind of unexpected situation.

However, he couldn't let Adonis, that big gossip, deal with this kind of matter.

Only Anson would be able to handle it.

"Bang!" Victor kicked the door open with force.

The maid who was cleaning the house was shocked by his actions!

"Oh! Big Master, you are back. What's wrong?"

Victor ignored the maid and went straight to the second floor.

"Ah... This..."

The maid looked at Victor anxiously.

Lucian also entered the mansion.

The maid looked at him and asked, "Mr. Bonen, what happened?"

Lucian replied indifferently, "Nothing!"

He quickly followed Victor upstairs after that!

"Oh, it seems that Big Master is on the verge of breaking down. How is he okay? Something big is going to happen." The maid had lost her mood to work and she was standing anxiously at the same spot!

She had watched Victor grow up and had always been nice to Victor.

In the living room on the second floor!

Vincent and Graciella [Alwynn] were playing games on the sofa!

They suddenly saw Victor barging in.

Imogen looked at Victor nervously.

Vincent had a gloating look on his face.

Victor glanced at the living room. Seeing that Phillip was not around, he quickly walked towards the study room.

"Bang!" Victor kicked open the door of Phillip's study room!

Phillip, who was reading a book, was shocked by the sudden noise!

He turned around quickly and saw Victor walking towards him angrily!

He said angrily, "Victor, what are you doing? Did the door offend you? You have broken a fine door!"

Deep down, Phillip understood the reason Victor came to find him.

Lucian followed Victor and entered the room too. He would stand at the side and watch as long as Victor did not beat Phillip up!

Victor's face was filled with anger and his eyes were deep and cold. He looked at Phillip with a sense of alienation and anger.

Phillip said coldly, "It seems you are aware that I met Eden today. I could tell you care a lot for her by just looking at your angry expression. You look like you want to tear me into pieces!

You can't marry her no matter how much you care about her! She has children before marriage and her behavior was indecent."

"Hehe..." Victor suddenly sneered painfully!

"You said that she is indecent but did you see that with your own eyes? Who are you to insult Eden when you don't even know the facts?

You are just someone who raised a woman and her children behind my mother's back.

Don't forget that Vincent is only two years younger than me. You caused that woman to be pregnant with your child the same time when you married my mother!

What right do you have to talk about others?"

"Victor, you...." Phillip's face turned red instantly. That was the first time Victor had spoken so bluntly in front of him!

"Also, why did you marry my mother if you don't love her? You've ruined my mother's entire life. Are you only willing to stop when you destroy me as well?" Victor's voice was angry and terrifying!

Chapter 424

Phillip widened his eyes in shock and looked at Victor angrily when he was scolded by him.

He had never thought that he would be rebuked by his son!

What had he done wrong?

Jaida was the person whom he had let down the most in his entire life!

He also wanted to find Jaida so that he could compensate her!

That way, Victor's hatred for him might lessen a little!

Phillip said with a pained expression on his face, "Victor, so many years have passed. Are you still unable to let go of this matter?" What happened back then was his fault!

That was what everyone in the circle did when they were young!

Rebecca pestered him and was pregnant with his child after that.

He actually regretted it at that time but it was too late!

Victor closed his eyes painfully when he heard that. He suppressed the bitterness and pain in his heart and slowly opened his eyes. He said word by word sarcastically, "You asked me to let it go. How can I do that?"

Where's my mother? Someone forced my mother to leave. She didn't dare to show up for the sake of me and my sister.

My mother has lived in darkness for her entire life. Do you think I can let it go?

Don't do anything to Eden or else I will destroy your beloved woman and son. I have all the evidence for what Rebecca has done to me.

I will expose everything one day to show you how sad your life is!"

After Victor had finished speaking, he turned and left without even looking at Phillip!

Lucian quickly followed Victor to leave as well.

Phillip stood at the same spot, dumbfounded. His entire body shook violently as he watched Victor's angry and departing back!

When Victor left the study room, he ran into Rebecca who had come down from the balcony on the third floor.

Rebecca looked at Victor with a sneer!

Victor also looked at her coldly. "Rebecca, I know you were the one who sent the video of the meeting between my father and Eden.

You're the only one in this world who would call me brat!

I'll do my best to live up to this title. One day, I will grow into a ferocious wild wolf that will bite you to death.

If you dare to lay a finger on someone you shouldn't touch, you'll end up worse than anyone else!"

Rebecca pretended to shake her body in fear when she heard that.

She pretended to be wronged and said loudly, "Victor, how can you say that about me? You are obviously sowing discord between me and your father!

Your father and I are in love with each other. Your angry words would not affect our relationship!

I don't understand what you said just now. What video?"

Rebecca smiled coldly and looked at Victor arrogantly and grimly.

She had been very unlucky recently. She felt great to find something to do occasionally!

The person who could make her happy the most was Victor who was furious but couldn't do anything to her at the moment.

He really cared about Eden!

It seemed like Rebecca had something to do again.

The veins on his forehead bulged and there was a hint of demonic aura in his sharp and cold eyes.

He smiled wickedly. "Rebecca, from now onwards, I'll slowly return the favor for what you had done to me the past few years. You had forced my mother to leave.

I will send you to prison when the time comes because that is where you belong!"

Victor walked downstairs after saying the words coldly.

Rebecca was slightly stunned. Did Victor really have evidence against her?

Victor would never do things that he was not confident in!

No way. She had to destroy Victor first before he took action.

Phillip was not stupid. If things continued that way, he would find out about all the things that she had done one day!

Lucian stopped suddenly when he brushed past Bethany. His gaze was faint and he did not look at Rebecca. He said in a flat tone, "I thought that Haven is the most despicable person in this world.

I did not expect Mrs. Alwynn to be not only despicable but also extremely disgusting. I am quite impressed that Uncle Alwynn can put up with you!"

He finished his words indifferently and was about to walk away elegantly.

He saw Vincent rushing towards him angrily.

Vincent roared angrily, "Lucian, say it again if you dare!"

Lucian's sexy lips curled up into a rare evil smile. "A person is bold to do anything when he is angry. You should practice for a few more years if you want to hit me."

"I'll beat you to death!" Vincent gnawed his teeth angrily and directed his punch at Lucian.

Lucian's warm gaze turned cold. He smirked sarcastically and raised his hand elegantly to grab Vincent's incoming fist.

"Ah..." Vincent moved slightly and found that he could not draw back his hand.

Vincent glared at Lucian angrily and pursed his thin lips tightly. He tried to draw his hand back from Lucian's a few times but failed to do so.

Lucian smiled wickedly and pushed Vincent forward, causing him to fall to the ground suddenly.

"Ah... Vin!" Rebecca ran towards Vincent anxiously and helped him up.

Lucian walked past Vincent elegantly and said as he descended the stairs, "The people who want to beat me up will usually end up in a bad state!"

"Lucian, don't leave if you have the guts!" Vincent looked angrily at Lucian's departing back.

Rebecca also roared, "Victor, you are getting more and more out of line. How dare you bully the three of us like this!"

She screamed at Victor and Lucian who had already gone downstairs.

She had purposely said that for Phillip to hear.

However, Phillip was immersed in Victor's sharp words at the moment that he didn't hear what she had said at all.

He only felt that Rebecca's sharp voice was unusually annoying!

He roared in the study room, "Be quiet or get out of here!"

When Rebecca heard that, she looked at the study room angrily before she helped Vincent walk to the sofa at the side.

Victor and Lucian had got back into the car.

Victor closed his eyes painfully.

Lucian looked at him and asked, "Do you want to drink?"

Victor shook his head slightly and said, "I don't want to drink."

He would be in more pain if he drank!

Lucian said, "Let's go home then!"

"Okay!" Victor nodded his head slowly and he still had a pained expression on his face.

He exhaled deeply and composed himself quickly.

He had already gotten used to such pain over the years!

He would be able to control his emotions when he got out of the old mansion!

He started the car and turned the steering wheel with his long and smooth fingers. His every move was tempting!

Victor and Lucian did not say a word on the way back to the villa.

Chapter 425

Victor and Lucian changed their shoes at the entrance of the villa.

The entire villa was transformed into a sparkling spectacle the moment Victor turned on the lights!

Lucian glanced at him and said nothing!

He walked towards the sofa in the living room, sat on it and tilted his head back!

There was a trace of tiredness on his face!

Victor sat across him with a tired expression on his face.

He felt very tired because he had not slept well the past few nights.

He crossed his legs elegantly and exuded an imposing aura!

There was no smile on his well-defined face.

Lucian glanced at him and asked, "Victor, you can't go on like this."

After a while, Victor said in a low voice, "I know."

Lucian glanced at him and asked after hesitating for a moment, "What do you plan to do? If you go on like this..." Lucian wanted to speak but stopped on second thoughts.

He suddenly said in a serious tone, "What else can you do if you don't go on like this? Rebecca knows that you cared for Eden now. I'm afraid that she would not be a sitting duck.

Moreover, she holds 50% of the shares of the Jotham Alwynn Group. If we take action now, we would be giving the entire Jotham Alwynn Group to her.

I know the company was your mother's heart and soul but if we continue to tolerate Rebecca, I'm afraid that things will go beyond our control."

Lucian understood what Victor was worried about.

"Humph!" Victor snorted coldly.

He straightened up, got up and walked towards the refrigerator in the kitchen.

After a while, he brought back two bottles of mineral water and placed one in front of Lucian.

He opened one bottle and drank half a bottle before saying, "I've already used other names to buy the stocks of the Jotham Alwynn Group.

Besides, we would be able to get into the market after launching our new products for this season. I want the clothes designed by Eden to be marketed abroad. Her childhood dream is to become an outstanding designer.

Therefore, I can't allow anything to go wrong with the autumn clothing this time."

Lucian looked at him deeply, unscrewed the cap of the bottle and took a sip of water.

He said in a flat tone, "I know what you're thinking! However, the more you care about Eden, the more Rebecca will have something against you!"

Victor smiled nonchalantly. He raised his head and looked at Lucian oddly. "Lucian, Eden has already suffered a lot whether I care for her or not.

I have the same thoughts as you previously but I was wrong. It doesn't matter if I care for her or not. She will still suffer because of me.

Lucian looked at him quietly and asked, "So, what are you going to do?"

Victor glanced sharply outside the window with sorrow in his eyes. "I'm trying to think of a way. You also know that it's fine to tell Eden about her identity but how can I make her accept me for what happened that night seven years ago?

That's why I've wanted to wait a little longer. I'll tell her everything once she has developed feelings for me. That way, she won't leave me!"

He was really afraid that Eden would leave him after everything was revealed.

He could not afford to suffer the pain of losing Eden again!

He had really suffered enough in the past few years. He had felt the pain of losing Eden before and he did not want to feel that again.

Lucian understood how Victor felt!

After all, Lucian, Anson and Adonis had seen Victor living a very painful life for the past few years!

Victor would never live alone in this expensive three-story villa.

Anson had been staying in the villa with him ever since he bought the place.

If Anson wasn't around, either Lucian or Adonis would come over and accompany him.

He was just afraid of loneliness!

In order to get information about Jaida, he had endured for more than a decade over the years!

It was the first time he acted that way tonight.

Lucian stared at him tiredly and said in a hoarse voice, "Go to sleep if you're tired. I'll sleep on the sofa."

Victor frowned at him.

He said, "I've always kept the room next to Anson's for you. Go and sleep in the room. You'll feel more comfortable if you sleep there."

As he spoke, he got up and went upstairs!

Lucian looked at his back faintly!

He got up and headed to the room. It would be unsightly to sleep on the sofa. Victor would see Lucian's indecent side if he slept there.

Lucian and Victor had the same temperament. However, a person could use tea and coffee to describe them.

Victor could be compared to a cup of coffee with strong aroma.

On the other hand, Lucian was like a cup of light refreshing tea!

However, some people suffered a lot in their lives.

For example, Victor had lost his happiness and fueled his hatred while he waited bitterly for Eden!

Lucian would sometimes wonder why God had treated Victor unfairly.

However, nobody was spared by God.

Things that were meant for a person would not slip away no matter how many obstacles he encountered!

Victor was not lost and had found the path he wanted to take!

The night was very quiet!

Victor's painful sleep talking could be heard from time to time in his room!

The next day was the weekend. That was the first time that Eden wanted to sleep in.

She didn't get up and slept until ten o'clock.

"Mom." Gia knocked on the door from outside.

Eden rolled over, looked at the door and said, "Gia, come in."

The door opened and Gia walked in with a smile.

When Eden saw that, she couldn't help but wonder what Gia was up to.

She asked with a smile, "Look at how sly your smile is. Is there something wrong again?"

"Hehe..." Gia laughed dryly. "Mom, you really know me so well. Kenny and I want to go to the library again today but I don't have money. Mom, give me some money."

Eden sat up from the bed and asked, "Gia, are you going there again today?"

Gia rolled her big watery eyes and walked a few steps closer to Eden. "Mom, I'm going. I haven't finished reading the book I read last time. However, I can finish it during this holiday."

Eden nodded slightly. She was very supportive of her children reading books!

She pointed to the handbag on the dressing table and said, "Gia, there is some cash in the bag. Go and get it yourself."

Gia glanced at Eden's handbag and walked over. "Mom, I can go and get it on my own since your leg is injured. Mom, are you feeling better today?"

Eden's tone was soft as she said, "I don't know. I'm lying on the bed right now. I don't know if I'm better or not?"

Gia shook her head helplessly and walked as she said, "Mom, you are an adult but you are still so careless when you walk.

Look at how cautious I am when I walk. My legs would get hurt because I wear canvas shoes when I go out.

Eden smiled and did not say anything.

Giada turned around and said, "Mom, I took two hundred dollars because I need to buy some books. Kenny isn't buying any books. He would just be reading them in the bookstore. I can't understand the books that he reads. They are all related to computer knowledge.

I really don't know how his brain works. He is able to understand the books that are very complex."

Chapter 426

Eden said with a smile, "That's because Kenny is smart. Gia, you must be careful on the way there!"

Gia asked with a smile, "Mom, are you still scared of what happened last time? Don't worry. I suffered last time but that won't happen anymore."

As she spoke, she put the money in her bag.

"Okay!" Eden could not help but think of what Phillip had said to her.

The rich and powerful families could really do anything.

She said worriedly, "Gia, on second thoughts, it's best if you don't go out."

Giada frowned and looked at Eden helplessly. She smiled and said, "Mom, don't worry. Just recuperate at home. If you're still worried, I can send you a WhatsApp message every half an hour to report my safety."

Eden looked at Giada's delicate face. The thin fringes fluttered gently near her cheeks, making her fair face look even more beautiful.

Giada had become more beautiful as she grew older. Her clear and bright eyes were captivating.

Eden nodded slightly. "Okay, go ahead. Remember not to quarrel with Kenny."

Giada chuckled when she heard that. "Mom, what's the point of worrying when you are not by our side? I won't quarrel with him as long as he doesn't interfere with my matters."

"Okay! Kenny lectures you for your own good!"

"Alright, Mom. Stop nagging. I rarely quarrel with Kenny!"

Eden said, "But you like to hold grudges against him!"

Giada pursed her lips unhappily and her flawless face was filled with invincible confidence.

"I'm leaving!" She hopped out of the door as she spoke.

Eden watched her Giada's happy back with a smile on her face. Her clear, bright and lively eyes made her look even more elegant and beautiful.

She rolled over slowly and felt that her body was sore when she got up. She raised her lips slightly and smiled. She really didn't have the habit of sleeping in!

She glanced at her foot. It was not as swollen as it was yesterday.

Jaida walked in the moment Eden got out of bed. She quickly said, "Eden, why did you get out of bed? Tell me what you want, I will get it for you!"

She put the bowl of porridge that was in her hand on the table at the side and ran quickly to support her.

Eden smiled at Jaida and said, "Mom, it's alright. I can walk!"

"No way. Eden, if you exert force with your foot. It would become worse. Eat the porridge first. I will apply medicine on your foot later." Jaida helped Eden sit on a chair at the side.

She glanced at Eden's room. The room was larger than the one they had stayed in previously!

Eden was happy with her room and would tidy it frequently.

Jaida suddenly recalled what Zaiden had said to her last night and she felt a pain in her heart.

Phillip was a heartless man.

Her whole life was ruined by a wrong decision she made previously!

She was very happy at the moment and could let go of the past.

However, Eden was different. Jaida would not let Phillip destroy both Victor and Eden.

It was just like what Eden had told her. A person would not be spared by the pain that he had suffered in the past.

His soul would only be free when he let go of the past. One would only have a better life if he was free from all the hardships!

Jaida held Eden's hand tightly and looked at her in distress. "Eden, don't take what Phillip said to heart. He can't do much with your father and me around. He can't outmatch your father when it comes to playing tricks using his power.

Your father had never attended university. He had been working hard since he was a teenager. The connections he has accumulated over the years were no less than that of Phillip. Don't worry. Kenny and his siblings could go to the international aristocratic school when school starts.

There won't be any changes!"

Eden smiled gratefully. Zaiden and Jaida were her benefactors. She had been very lucky ever since she met them.

She pursed her cherry lips gently and said, "Mom, I listen to you and Dad!"

"Okay!" Jaida walked over and brought the porridge to her and said, "Eden, eat the porridge first."

Eden said with a smile, "Mom I haven't washed my face and brushed my teeth yet!"

"That's true!" Jaida put the porridge down again. "You never sleep in. I forgot you did that today. Wait here. I will bring you a basin of water and your toothbrush and toothpaste."

Eden was anxious when she heard that. "Mom, how can I let you do such a thing? I can go to the bathroom myself."

Jaida turned back and glared at her. "Eden, why can't I do that? Didn't you do this when I was sick?

You are my good daughter. Why can't I do it for you?"

Jaida walked to the bathroom as she spoke.

Eden looked at Jaida's back. Jaida was still elegant and graceful.

Jaida returned after a while and Eden began to eat the porridge after she had washed up.

She smiled happily and said, "Mom, your pork rib porridge smells so good!"

Jaida looked at her dotingly. "Eden, you don't like food that is too light, so I made you pork rib porridge. Your father loves it very much."

Eden said with a smile, "We are indeed father and daughter. I like the pork rib porridge cooked by you very much."

"Hehe..." Jaida smiled when she heard that. "By the way, Eden, aren't you meeting Darlene tomorrow?"

We have to meet her even though it's inconvenient for you to walk at the moment.

Tomorrow is Sunday and your father need not go to work. I'll ask your father to take you there. Darlene is an international chief designer and she has a certain prestige in the design world.

You will become more successful if you become her disciple!"

Eden nodded hurriedly. "Mom, I will meet her!"

She had finally succeeded and would not give up now!

"Okay!" Jaida smiled with relief. Eden had been working very hard. This was all her own efforts.

Victor had nightmares the whole night.

When he got up, Lucian had already brought back some vegetables and was cooking in the kitchen with an apron around his neck.

Victor glanced at his back, hooked his sexy thin lips and said, "Lucian, I would have something nice to eat when you are here."

He had been eating outside this period and was sick of it that he couldn't eat outside anymore.

Lucian turned around and glanced at him before saying, "Don't sit there. Come and eat. I have something to do after the meal!"

Victor walked to the kitchen and asked, "Why are you going out instead of resting at home during the weekend? Have you figured out the matter concerning Kenny?"

Lucian placed two portions of steak on the table and said, "I am going out to read books. The environment there is great. I can read books there quietly."

When Victor heard that, he looked at him quickly and asked, "Lucian, do you mean that you are going to the bookstore in the city center?"

Chapter 427

"Okay!" Lucian nodded. He looked at the black pepper steak and smiled in satisfaction.

That was his best dish and he also liked it very much!

Victor looked at the delicate steak in front of him and smiled slightly. "Lucian, your dishes are good. Your future wife would be blessed."

Lucian lowered his head and cut the steak elegantly. He did not reply to Victor.

Victor felt that the steak tasted much better than the ones in restaurant after taking a bite of it.

He said, "Lucian, I'll go with you!"

Lucian asked uncertainly, "To the bookstore?"

"Yes!" Victor nodded.

Lucian reminded, "Okay! But I'll stay there the whole day. You better think carefully first before going there."

Victor's expression changed slightly. He said, "Eden and I have agreed to go to the movies today but she has injured her foot. I have nothing to do. Isn't it just reading books the whole day?"

We used to do that frequently. It is not difficult for me to do that for a day."

His day would be very interesting if he met Kenny and Gia.

"Alright. Let's leave after we finish our food." Lucian picked up a glass of water at the side and took a sip as he spoke.

Victor glanced at him. Lucian still looked elegant even when he was drinking water. Even men would be amazed by him. Victor smiled and said, "Lucian, what a waste that you eat steak with water.

I have red wine at my house. Why didn't you take out the wine and drink it?"

Lucian spoke without an expression on his face, "I can't drink with you around."

"Cough cough..." Victor was choked by Lucian's remark.

He quickly took a sip of water and asked uncomfortably, "Lucian, what do you mean by that?"

A man who was as steady as him would actually get angry with Lucian.

Why couldn't Lucian drink when he was around? Did he look disgusting?

Women in River City were lining up to marry him.

However, he only liked Eden.

Lucian was still eating gracefully. He continued to eat his food without even glancing at Victor.

After taking a bite of the steak, he said, "You're not my wife."

"Cough cough..." Victor was choked again.

He did not expect that Lucian to drop a bombshell.

His handsome face was red as he looked at Lucian and said, "Lucian, can you change your way of speaking?"

Lucian spoke indifferently, "I'm used to it and I can't change it."

Victor was speechless for a moment.

He felt that he was cold but Lucian was even colder than him!

Forget it. He felt that it was best to eat his food to save himself from choking again.

Victor lowered his head and quickly finished the steak.

When Lucian saw that Victor had finished his food, he took his plate and went to wash the plates.

Victor was very happy when he saw that.

Lucian was much more diligent than Anson.

Victor hoped that Anson would be able to pursue his true love in Gate City.

Lucian had tidied up the utensils and both of them drove directly to the bookstore River City center!

The bookstore had two floors in total. Both floors were extremely spacious.

The bookstore was extremely quiet. Many people were immersed in their own world and were not disturbed!

The rows of different types of books made people feel as though they were in the sea of books!

Lucian and Victor headed straight for the second floor.

Victor glanced at the bookstore. It was very quiet even though there were many people.

Only then did he remember that he hadn't been to a bookstore for a long time.

Lucian headed straight for the book he wanted when they reached the second floor.

He pulled out a book from the bookshelf quickly and walked to a table nearby.

Victor glanced at the books around him. None of them were to his liking. He took a book randomly and followed Lucian.

Lucian stopped suddenly after taking a few steps.

Victor wanted to ask why he stopped.

He raised his head and looked at the desks and benches in front.

A dozen people were reading books there and two tiny figures caught his attention.

Victor shouted excitedly, "Kenny, Gia, you are here too?"

Victor was not in the mood to read at the moment. He only cared about his son and daughter!

He walked over quickly.

Giada and Kenneth raised their heads from the book they were reading and looked at him.

"Uncle, why are you here?" Giada was very happy to see Victor.

Victor said with a smile, "Gia, I'm here to read." He felt very upset when he heard Gia calling him uncle.

Kenneth said faintly, "Hello, Uncle Alwynn!"

Victor smiled and said, "Hello, Kenny!"

He glanced at the book in Kenny's hand. Sure enough, he was reading a book related to hacking.

Lucian walked over.

Victor introduced him, "Kenny, Gia, this is my friend, Lucian."

Victor introduced Kenny and Gia to Lucian.

He knew that Lucian had always wanted to get to know Kenny. After all, Kenny's hacking speed was comparable to his.

Giada smiled sweetly and shouted, "Uncle Lucian, you're really handsome!"

Lucian instantly had a good impression of the sweet girl in front of him when he heard that.

He said gently, "Thank you, Gia."

Victor was taken aback.

His mind was filled with millions of question marks.

He was shocked to see Lucian behaving like that.

Why hadn't he seen that side of Lucian before?

Kenneth still called out indifferently, "Uncle Lucian."

Lucian stretched out his hand and said with a smile, "Kenny, nice to meet you. I'm Lucian."

Kenneth glanced at his fair and broad palm and frowned slightly. He was not used to this type of greeting.

Kenneth paused for a moment before he stretched out with his small hand and said, "Uncle Lucian, I'm Kenneth."

They shook hands. Lucian glanced at the book in his hand and smiled.

He took out his book and said, "Kenny, do you also like to read this type of book?"

Kenneth glanced at the book in Lucian's hand and casually closed the book in his hand.

He said, "I'll read it occasionally!"

Kenneth looked at Victor and Lucian oddly. He had never thought that they would come here.

Lucian did not say anything after hearing that. For a child who was striving hard, it was good enough for him to know some things.

He smiled and sat down next to Kenneth. "Kenny, since we like the same type of books, why don't we sit together so that we can discuss with each other?"

Their voices were very soft even though they were talking.

Kenneth nodded with interest when he heard that.

Kenneth and Lucian didn't say anything more and they read their own book respectively.

Giada suddenly said, "Kenny, I want to go to the toilet."

Kenneth looked at her and frowned. "Haven't you gone there a while ago?"

"But I want to go there again." Giada was helpless. She had drunk too much water.

Kenneth said in a low voice, "Didn't I tell you to drink less water when you ate rice noodles just now? You didn't listen and now you keep wanting to go to the toilet."

Chapter 428

Kenneth got up helplessly and said, "Uncle Lucian, Uncle Alwynn, you can continue reading your books. We'll be back soon."

Kenneth stood up as he spoke.

Victor blinked slightly and asked, "Gia, do you still need Kenny to accompany you to the toilet?"

Giada was slightly embarrassed as she said, "Uncle Alwynn, I have a bad temper. There's a row of seats at the corner of the toilet. I met a girl who's sassier than me when I recently came here to read.

She would always provoke me when I go to the toilet but she didn't dare to do that when Kenny accompanies me!

Kenny is afraid that I will quarrel with her so he can only accompany me there."

When Victor heard that, he got up and said, "Gia, I'll go with you. Let me see who dares to bully you."

Victor took her little hand and said, "Kenny, you can go back and continue reading your book."

Kenneth glanced deeply at him, nodded silently and didn't say anything.

Victor smiled slightly and left with Gia.

Giada who was a little embarrassed, said in a low voice, "Uncle Alwynn, thank you. I'm not afraid of her. It's just that it doesn't look good if I quarrel with her."

Victor frowned and asked, "Gia, why do you have a conflict with her?"

Giada blinked her eyes and smiled. "It's not a big deal. It's related to us fighting over a seat. I left my books on the table when I went to the toilet.

She came, moved my books away and took my seat, without showing any concern if the seat had been taken by someone else.

I argued and quarreled with her for a while after I came out from the toilet.

She would sit there every time after that. That's why Kenny and I moved to this side. However, she would always provoke me every time when I go to the toilet.

Kenny proposed to accompany me to the toilet because he was afraid that I would fight with her."

Victor realized the reason when he heard that!

Victor said with a smile, "Gia, I will go with you. If she dares to bully you again, I will help you bully her back!"

Giada smiled sweetly when she heard that. "Uncle, you re so nice!"

"Haha..." Victor smiled too. He was not nice because he had lost Eden and her three children for so many years.

He would feel guilty when he saw the four of them.

Victor and Giada chatted all the way to the corner of the toilet.

Giada saw the chubby little girl again. She was sitting together with another girl who was as fat as her.

The girl seemed to have noticed Giada for a long time. She was sitting at the same position she was sitting a few days ago and was glaring at Giada.

Giada's face stiffened and anger flashed across her beautiful eyes.

D*mned it. Why was she still here?

Giada would feel that she was very bad-tempered sometimes.

Eden didn't know how to deal with her most of the time.

Eden would bite her lip and stared at Giada when she did not know what to do with her.

Giada's heart ached for Eden when she saw that, However, she could not control herself when she lost her temper!

She didn't expect that the fat girl in front of her was worse than her.

Giada had mentally prepared herself and didn't want to argue with her!

Otherwise, she would lose her temper!

Victor walked all the way with Giada.

The little girl's eyes were filled with jealousy as she looked at Giada's beautiful face.

Victor and Giada were about to walk past the girl.

The girl said in a jealous tone, "Hey, you can only afford to eat a bowl of rice noodles worth ten dollars. You are really suitable to use the toilet frequently."

Giada stopped in her tracks when she heard that.

Victor frowned and quickly turned to look at the little girl.

She was the girl whom Gia had mentioned?

Victor checked her out with a serious expression on his face.

He was about to speak when Giada suddenly said, "It seems that you've been following me for the past few days. What's wrong with me eating rice noodles that cost ten dollars? I didn't eat it with your money. Why do you feel distressed?" "Hehe..." The little girl laughed sarcastically and placed her hands on her cheeks. She said arrogantly, "You really don't understand what I mean? I mean you can only afford a bowl of rice noodles that cost ten dollars.

Kentucky Fried Chicken is right next to the rice noodles stall but I've never seen you and your brother eat there before. Therefore, I know that both of you are so poor that you can only afford to eat rice noodles.

How dare a person like you fight for a seat with me? Don't you know whose daughter I am?"

Giada narrowed her eyes instantly and her eyes were filled with anger. She was indeed poor and could only afford a bowl of rice noodles worth ten dollars at the moment.

However, that was not something to be ashamed of. She and Kenny liked to eat rice noodles.

Moreover, both of them knew that Eden did not have much money after she bought the house.

Giada had sold her painting for hundred thousands of dollars. She had given the money to Eden so that they could use it for their school expenses.

She was studying hard now so that she could let their family live a happier life!

Giada was very unhappy when the girl said that she was poor!

Victor could feel Giada's change of emotions and his heart ached for her.

He curled his perfect thin lips slightly and said angrily, "Whose daughter are you? Why are you so powerful at such a young age?"

Giada could afford to eat in a high-end restaurant every day.

"Humph! Are you her father? My father is richer than you. He is Douglas Evenbrace, the younger brother of Mrs. Alwynn from the Jotham Alwynn Group. Humph!" After saying that, she raised her head and looked at Victor arrogantly.

Victor cursed in his heart, "F*ck, she's actually the parasite of the Evenbrace family."

The Evenbrace family had grudges against the Alwynn family. Their grudges had actually extended to Giada's generation.

The people from the Evenbrace family were indeed similar to each other.

Victor's handsome face was filled with anger. He sneered, "I don't know your family but if you dare to bully and insult my daughter like this again, I will make your father's company bankrupt."

Victor didn't have any good feelings towards Rebecca's family at all.

Rebecca's family's condition was not good previously. They only soared after Rebecca got together with Phillip.

Rebecca's two brothers' lives improved tremendously after that. Victor knew very well where they got the money from!

Douglas' daughter was now annoying Giada.

Humph! Victor kept Douglas in mind.

Giada looked at Victor in surprise when she heard Victor calling her his daughter.

She really felt that she was being protected by her father.

The little girl dared not make a sound when she saw the cold and angry expression on Victor's handsome face. She just stared at him.

Victor said in a low voice, "Gia, you can go to the toilet first. I'll wait for you here."

"Okay!" Giada glanced at the little girl deeply. She had wanted to insult her but felt pointless on second thoughts!

She walked towards the restroom.

Victor stood at the same spot coldly as he waited for Giada.

The two little girls sat quietly and dared not make a sound again!

They were actually scared when they heard Victor saying he would make Douglas' company go bankrupt.

Chapter 429

In a family like hers, they never really taught her how she grew up.

They only cared about if she appreciated the wealth they had right now and never lose them again!

"Diane, it's time to go home. I'm going back to play mahjong." A chubby woman came over and said impatiently.

At this time, Diane burst into tears when she saw her mother.

Then she pointed to Victor and said, "Mom, he is bullying me. He said if I dare to bully his daughter again, he will let Dad's company go bankrupt."

Hearing this, Victor frowned and turned his head to Diane.

He couldn't believe what she had said. He hadn't even got a chance to teach her a lesson of bullying his daughter yet.

The guilty party always filed the suit first!

After hearing that, the woman glanced at Victor. However, she was immediately shocked by his handsome face. When she saw her daughter who was still crying, she looked at Victor again with contempt. "You look like a decent man, but how can you bully a child?"

"Who's bullying her? It's your daughter who bullied us first." Giada heard her words the moment she walked out of the bathroom.

"Why is it you again?" The woman frowned and looked at Giada unhappily.

Giada snorted coldly, "I'm surprised that you still remember me. You're the one who taught your daughter how to bully me, and you're also the one who incited your daughter to sit here and oppose me every day."

I heard your conversation in the bathroom the other day. You are really a good mother."

Giada only knew that her mother taught them to be humble and polite, but should not be bullied by others when even though they should be kind to others. She had never taught them like this before!

"You... at such a young age, how could you be so glib? When did I say that to my daughter? Do you believe that I'll tear your mouth apart?" The woman's face was flushed red as she looked at Giada.

Being told off by a child, she instantly flew into a rage out of humiliation.

Victor said angrily after hearing this, "What did you just say? What would you do?" "I..." Looking at Victor's cold face, the woman was a little scared, so she shrunk her neck and couldn't say a word.

She pulled Diane to her side and said, "Let's go."

This man was well dressed, so she must not offend any powerful and important personage.

And what he had said just now really panicked her!

"Hey, why are you so slow? I have been waiting for you for a long time down here.

My sister called us and asked if we want to have dinner with her. She asked us to continue to buy the shares of the Jotham Alwynn Group. This is an important matter. We have to go to discuss it first." A big-bellied middle-aged man came over with an unpleasant look on his face and said in an unpleasant tone.

Hearing this, the woman got happy instantly, then rushed over with the two chubby little girls.

"Wow, Douglas, according to what you said, Jotham Alwynn Group will soon belong to your sister.

And then, we will also become the major shareholder of Jotham Alwynn Group, and we also have the right to speak in Jotham Alwynn Group in the future, won't we?" The woman sounded very excited.

"Of course. My sister has stayed in the Alwynn family for so many years, if she still couldn't get Jotham Alwynn Group, why would she stay with that old man?"

That old man is such a weird person, but we have to thank my sister that she really knows how to keep him. Let's go over and have a good talk with my sister!"

When they walked away, their voices still echoed in Victor's ears.

He stood where he was and sneered. He didn't expect to hear such good news in this bookstore.

At this moment, he really felt that his father was a big joke!

He didn't know that he was being fooled by Rebecca and her family!

He even guarded his own son as if his own son was a wolf. He would never believe what his son said.

Giada looked at Victor and smiled sweetly. "Thank you for what you did just now! I don't have a dad, but you make me very touched by speaking for me just now!"

Hearing this, Victor felt sorry for her and squatted down. He gently pinched Gia's tender little face.

"Little fool, how come you don't have a dad? I'm going to marry your mom. So I'll be your dad."

Giada chuckled. "This is a good idea. I like you very much too! But, do you really not think that my brother looks like you?" Giada asked the question in her heart once again.

She liked Uncle Alwynn to be their father, and she liked him from the bottom of her heart!

He was handsome and rich, and he treated her mother very well!

"Really? Gia, I think so too. Let's go back and carry on reading our books." Victor took her hand and walked back.

There was a look of expectation on his handsome face.

Did children always say what they wanted and never lie?

Even Gia thought that they looked like each other.

He really wish he could tell Gia now that she would get back with her father soon.

The two of them returned to the place where Kenneth and the others were.

Kenneth turned around and looked at them. He frowned and thought, "Why have they gone for so long?"

Victor whispered, "Kenny, shall we have dinner together tonight?"

Before Kenneth could make a sound, Giada said, "Kenny, let's go back home after having dinner with Uncle Alwynn. I'll call mom later."

Kenneth frowned slightly and glanced at her. Then he glanced at Victor and said nothing.

Victor looked at his son's expression, feeling that his temper was even really similar to his. So Kenny didn't say anything and agreed to it tacitly.

Victor smiled happily and said, "Alright, that's a deal!"

Kenneth pursed his lips and said hesitantly, "If my mom agrees, we will go."

Giada said happily, "Don't worry. Mom will agree."

Kenneth took a deep look at her without saying anything, then turned around and continued to read.

Giada said, "Uncle, let's continue reading."

"Yes!" Victor smiled and nodded.

On the other side, Lucian was totally focused on his book. He didn't even look up when they spoke.

Victor slightly raised the corners of his mouth and sat down next to Gia, looking very noble and elegant.

There were a few girls on the opposite side who looked at him frequently and then talked with each other in a low voice with smiles.

Victor glanced at them, and a cold sneer appeared on his slightly upturned lips. At this time, his dark eyes were shining with chilling coldness.

Those girls instantly shut up, and an invisible chill made them dare not make a sound.

Victor took out his phone and sent a message to Adonis.

Everyone knew that there wouldn't be any good news if they receive Victor's message and phone call on the weekend!

At this time, Adonis was decorating the villa.

When he saw Victor's message came through, he felt nervous all of a sudden.

Since Anson was not at home, he had to take over his business.

Adonis instantly felt bad about the days he was having. His handsome face showed a painful look, and then clicked open the message.

Chapter 430

When Adonis read the message, he almost threw the phone away.

He raised his hand angrily and tried to smash his phone on the ground.

However, after he tried a couple of times, he suddenly stopped. On second thought, he realized that this was a new phone he bought not long ago. He couldn't bear to throw it away!

"Fk!" He shouted angrily. Why wouldn't Victor even let him have a good rest on weekends?

Even though he was angry, he still went out.

"Victor, you b*stard. You can't even let people have a good rest on weekends. Are you still a human? I have to work overtime this month, so I can make you pay me a more salary." Adonis complained while walking.

He quickly went to the first floor, took the car keys, and made some phone calls.

Victor asked him to check out where was Rebecca and what she was up to, but how could he find out about all that?

He was not like Anson.

This was something that Anson and Lucian were very good at.

He was only responsible for real estate, not Victor's daily life.

Why Anson was not around when he really needed him?

Thinking of this, Adonis went to the garage to get the car and called his friend in the traffic bureau.

Then he drove out quickly.

He said to himself while driving, "Victor, you are so lucky that my friend happens to be at work today. It's not difficult to find out where Rebecca is now.

No wonder you are the young talent of River City."

Adonis's lips curled up into a smile, looking slightly evil.

He thought that there must be something good as Victor came to find him!

He was quite bored at the weekend anyway, so it wasn't too bad to have something to do.

In recent days, he was a little bored of hanging about all the time.

And it was more interesting to do this than to hook up with girls.

As soon as Adonis stopped the car at the red light, Victor's message came again.

'Adonis, after finding Rebecca, record their conversation.¹

Adonis smiled evilly when he read it and replied to Victor.

'This mission is a bit difficult. When it's done, you will have to treat me to a good meal.

Victor also replied quickly. 'No problem! I will treat you to a roast whole lamb dinner. That's your favorite. Then we can add a pot of mutton giblets to settle your stomach.' Then he added a throwing-up emoji.

Adonis frowned and widened his eyes when he read it. Victor knew that this was what he liked to eat, yet he still disgusted him like this.

He drove the car to the next red-light intersection and stopped before he replied to Victor.

'Victor, I know you don't eat mutton giblets. You, a guy who doesn't know how to enjoy life! So you don't understand food! I can eat it every day if you buy it for me.'

Victor's message came back very quickly. As long as you get things done, I'll buy it for you every day.'

This time, Adonis laughed happily.

He couldn't get sick of it even if he ate it every day.

"Victor, you will have to keep your words!" He said to himself again.

After a while, his phone rang. The voice was very familiar.

"Hello!"

"She's at River City Restaurant." Then, the other party hung up the phone.

Adonis immediately called Victor.

And Victor had already switched the phone to silent mode.

Seeing Adonis's call coming in, he answered the phone without saying anything.

"Victor, I've found her. She's at River City Restaurant. Do you want me to arrange it?"

Victor answered with a hum and hung up the phone.

Then, he took a look at his daughter who was reading quietly. He didn't expect that she could be so quiet. He had been moving around all the time, but she still could read her book.

Then he turned his eyes to Kenny. He totally focused on his book as well!

He smiled and got up, ready to make a call.

At 5:30 p.m., Giada, Kenneth, and Lucian finally looked up from their books.

Victor looked at the three of them and was impressed. The three of them could sit for a few hours in a row and read books without even moving.

He took a deep breath. He had been busy dealing with things all day and hadn't seen a word.

However, he was also very happy that he had spent the whole day with his son and daughter!

He smiled and said, "Gia, Kenny, let's go for dinner!"

Hearing this, Gia stretched herself and smiled brightly, "Uncle Alwynn, wait a minute. I'll have to call my mom."

"Okay!" Victor smiled and glanced at Lucian. It seemed that he had come at the right time today.

Lucian glanced lightly at him and did not say anything. But it could be seen that he was also in a good mood.

Giada took the book she had chosen and went to check out.

But Victor took the book from her hand and said with a smile, "Gia, call your mom now, and I will take care of this."

After that, he left with the book straight away, regardless of whether Gia agreed or not.

Kenneth looked at him slightly and did not say anything.

Giada didn't say anything either and just walked to the side happily to make a call.

When Eden got her daughter's call, she and Jaida were sitting in the living room chatting with each other.

She picked up her phone and smiled, "Hello! Gia, are you back?"

"Mom, my brother and I will come back later. Uncle Alwynn invited us to dinner."

Hearing this, Eden frowned deeply. She did not seem very pleased about it.

"Gia, I don't..."

But before she could finish her words, Gia interrupted her and said, "Mom, that's it. We will come back later. Don't worry!"

Then, she hung up the phone.

Eden looked at her cell phone with her beautiful eyes wide open.

Why would Victor be with Kenny and Gia?

Had he been meeting them behind her back?

Jaida saw that her expression was not right and asked worriedly, "Eden, what's wrong? Kenny and Gia haven't come back yet?"

Hearing this, Eden looked at her with some concern. "Mom, Gia just called me and told me that she and Kenny are going to have dinner with Victor, and she said that she will come back later."

Jaida was a little shocked when she heard this.

Then, she soon smiled and said, "You don't have to worry about it. Kenny, Gia, and Ricky are all very nice kids, so you should just let them spend more time with each other!"

Jaida lowered her head slightly and thought, "You must grab this good opportunity this time."

Gia, Kenny, and Ricky still have a long way to go in the future.

They all needed the company of their parents.

Eden was a little confused.

She looked at her mother and wondered why she wanted them to spend more time with Victor.

She just really couldn't get along with Victor, although she knew he was a good person.

Eden had mixed feelings in her heart. She had always wanted to know one thing, but she had sprained her ankle again, so he was afraid that she would have to wait for a few more days.

Seeing that Eden was not speaking, Jaida asked carefully, "Eden, don't you like Kenny and Gia to spend time with Victor?"

Eden shook her head slightly. After thinking for a while, she spoke out her doubts. "Mom, I just don't understand Victor sometimes. Why does he always want to spend time with Kenny and Gia? You know that Mr. Alwynn is looking for me.

We are not afraid of anyone, but I'm worried he would do something secretly. It would make it impossible for us to guard against them."
