

Gluey Love 701

Chapter 701

As for the Clement family!

Haven came back very late every day, just wanting to stay away from Delmont. She felt uncomfortable when she looked at Delmont's eyes.

Grandma Clement had never liked her.

She remembered that once Haven compared bags unrealistically with the classmate, who was born into a wealthy family. She bought a new limited edition bag and showed it off in front of her. At that time, she impulsively said that she would bring a bag nobler than hers the next day. Ricky, her pocket money in that month had been used up and she had no more money to pay that.

That night, Haven came back and saw her grandmother counting the money in her room. In Haven's opinion, grandma was a person who will never be short of money.

Haven's father was very filial, and grandma also had the deposit that grandpa had left for her. She couldn't use up the money at all.

Grandma put the stacks of thick money on the cabinet beside her bed. When Haven saw the money at that time, she suddenly had a thought that she couldn't lose face in front of her classmates.

While grandma was taking a nap, she went to her grandmother's room, opened the cabinet, and took away a stack of money, which was more than 10,000 bucks in total.

After that, she was discovered by her grandmother. When she knew about it, she was ashamed and scared, for fear that if grandma told others about this, she would be kicked out of the Clement family.

But when it was time for dinner, her grandmother actually didn't tell anyone about it. This mishap became a secret in their mind. Until today, grandma still didn't tell anyone about it.

She knew that grandma didn't tell anything about it, because she actually had some affection for her. But it was still too little.

For her grandma, she had always been trembling with fear. Every time she saw her grandmother, she was as uneasy as a frightened deer.

Since then, her grandmother's attitude towards her had become worse and worse. She knew the reason in her heart, but she didn't dare to do anything.

She won everyone's admiration and respect in front of her classmates, but lost her trust in grandma.

She knew that was her biggest loss.

Every year, her two brothers would have a million-dollar lucky money, while she had only one million. It was given to her by her parents, and her grandmother had not given it to her.

Haven looked at the luxurious and magnificent villa. But tonight she did not want to go inside.

"Haven, you're back."

Behind Haven, Vincent's voice suddenly sounded.

Haven looked back and saw Vincent, dressed in a gray suit, standing under the street lamp. As the autumn wind blew, revealing his handsome face. Half of the cigarette was between his fingers. The man looked lazy, and his eyes were full of desire when he looked at her.

"Yes!" Haven nodded her head with a faint expression.

"Haha..." Vincent looked at her and smiled a bit absurdly. "Haven, do we really look like a couple?"

He didn't know why he was so ridiculous that he got married with her.

Haven turned around, put her hand in the pocket, stepped on the eight-centimeter high heels, and walked toward Vincent step by step.

She looked at the handsome man in front of her. In fact, sometimes, she also doubted whether they were really a couple.

With a slight flash of her eyes, she smile and said, "In fact, I also doubt this problem."

"So, in my opinion, we don't look like husband and wife." Vincent flicked the ash off of his cigarette, a faint smoke filled his body. He knew that his entire life was f*cking difficult.

He was in a bad mood tonight and wanted to go out for a walk, but he suddenly saw Haven, who stood at the door and didn't want to go in.

Haven also said, "Yes, we are not like a couple! You are not the ideal man for me, and I am not the woman you want the most. But we become a couple. What can we do? Even if we are not share the same values, but we are on the same boat."

She was sure that she didn't love the man in front of her, but at this moment, she couldn't live without him.

Then, she added, "We're just taking what we need in every area."

Vincent squinted at Haven. She looked a little different from usual. She seemed to be a little sad tonight, and Haven's sadness appeared unexpectedly in front of them.

In his heart, there was a trace of pity. He often played outside and held a variety of women every day, but he also got tired. He stepped forward and held Haven in his arms.

"Haven, let's just live like this!" If he married another woman, it might not be better than now.

As a matter of fact, Haven's parents was not greedy.

Haven bumped into his arms. He lowered his eyes slightly to look at her, and there was a touch of tenderness in his eyes.

She was well-advised, and she will not spoil this atmosphere.

"What's wrong? Why are you suddenly so kind to me?" Haven's voice was charming and hoarse.

Vincent chuckled and fiddled with her hair. He smiled gently and said, "Seeing you, I miss you a little bit. Let's go back to the villa!" His low voice was full of temptation.

Haven nodded lightly, knowing Vincent's needs, she said, "Fine, I don't want to go home either."

Vincent took her hand and walked to the garage. "Then you don't have to go home. My villa in Valencia District will be our home from now on."

Haven looked at him doubtfully. "Don't you live in the old house?"

Vincent smiled and said, "Haven, don't tell me that you want to live with my parents."

Haven said, "Actually, I don't want to live with them."

"So, the villa over there is our home. It's enough for me to play everywhere. Now you are mine, and I can't let you be ashamed. So, in the future, you can go there except for weekend! I will tell your parents that we will come back on weekends and stay with our parents."

"Okay!" Haven agreed without hesitation. "I agree!"

"Well..." Vincent nodded with satisfaction.

Vincent said, "Haven, after we get married, you will have 2% of the shares. My father will give it to you. At that time, you ask my mother for 2% of the shares, then you will have 4% of the shares in your hand."

Hearing this, Haven looked at Vincent with a slight frown. He suddenly became so kind to her. It turned out that he had a purpose.

Haven smiled and asked, "Why would your mother give the shares to me?" She was very clear about what kind of person Rebecca was. How could Rebecca give her that shares so easily?

"Vincent, are you too confident in your own mother?" Haven sneered.

Chapter 702

Vincent opened the door and let her sit in. He started the car and said, "Haven, I will persuade my mother to give you the 2% of the shares, but you have to give me this shares."

Haven, who was fastening her seat belt, looked up at him incredulously when she heard Victor's words. "Vincent, have you even schemed against your mother?"

Vincent's smile was incomparably evil. "Haven, my mother has been in charge of everything for so long. She has been so careful. For so many years, Jotham Alwynn Group has been under my father's control. Although I have some real power, I need to get my father's approval for everything I do. You know that it feels bad, so..."

"So, do you want to take charge of Jotham Alwynn Group on your own?" Haven asked.

"Haha..." Vincent nodded with a smile. "Haven, we are a couple, and we are together. You must help me."

He had been pressed so hard by his father during this time. He hated this repressed feeling.

Haven squinted her eyes. She knew what Vincent was thinking. "Vincent, I can help you, but you have to help me get the Clement family."

"What?" Vincent was shocked by Haven's words. Where did Haven's courage come from?

She wanted to get the Clement family. This woman was vicious enough. Moreover, the Clement family was the second largest family in River City. She really had the courage to say such words.

Haven looked at him coldly. "Vincent, don't you dare?"

Vincent looked at her weirdly. She was so ambitious, would she want to annex his company in the future?

Vincent suddenly felt that it was a little ridiculous. How dared Haven to do that?

"Okay! But, tell me about your plan." Actually Vincent was quite interested in this thing.

Haven looked at him. She knew the man in front of her very well, so she told him about it. "I know that Clement family shares are distributed by about 50%. As long as we hold more than 50% of the shares of Clement Group, then we can get support from other shareholders, and we can hold the holding and acquisition of Clement Group." During this time, she had been studying books in this area.

Vincent looking at the confident light in Haven's eyes, he suddenly realized that he didn't know Haven in front of him.

At this moment, Haven's confident eyes were filled with pride. She was like a polished treasured knife, and she could create a new world on her own.

"Haha..." He suddenly laughed. "Haven, although your idea is naive, it's not impossible. Tell me how many shares of the Clement family you have now."

Haven pursed her lips and said, "I have 3% now. After I marry you, I will have 6%. So, I still have a long way to go before I can achieve my goal. But next, I will find other ways to buy the shares of the Clement Group."

"Okay!" Vincent immediately agreed. The merger of the two families would definitely shock the world.

Vincent drove to the villa area in the Valencia District.

Haven glanced at Vincent, who was excited, and her eyes were full of scheming.

What she loved, she couldn't get. What she wanted, was gone. Therefore, she didn't want what she loved. What she wanted now was what she couldn't get.

Clement family had raised her up, so she should be in charge of the Clement Group in the end. The evil smile on the corner of Haven's mouth became more and more horrible.

The next morning, Eden woke up at seven o'clock on time.

As soon as she opened her eyes, a handsome face appeared in her eyes.

Eden's pupils shrank violently. She quickly got up and kicked at Victor.

However, Victor turned over slowly and avoided the kick from Eden. He turned around and smiled slightly.

"Victor, get up." Eden looked at Victor angrily.

"How did he get to my room?"

She slept by herself last night. Why did Victor lie beside her when she woke up?

Victor look at her with bleary eyes. "Eden, what's wrong with you? Why are you so angry in the early morning?" Victor said and looked around. He frowned slightly and then asked casually, "Why am I in your room?"

"What?"

Shouldn't this ask himself?

"What's going on..."

Eden glanced at her door. She clearly remembered that it was locked, but how did Victor get in?

"Victor, get up." Eden said angrily.

Glancing at the clock, it was four past seven o'clock. She had no time to care about it. After getting dressed, she washed her face casually and ran downstairs.

She still had to make breakfast for Kenny and the others.

Victor looked at the busy figures and felt a little distressed. It was really hard to be a mother.

At this moment, he couldn't sleep anymore. He quickly got up and went back to his room to change his clothes and wash up. After that, he went straight for Giada's room.

"Knock knock..." Victor knocked on the door.

"Gia, are you up? Daddy's here to carry you down." Victor had been calling himself "father" ever since Giada called him "dad".

"Daddy, I'm up. Come in!" Giada yawned as she said.

Victor opened the door and saw his daughter sitting on the bed in a daze with a messy hair.

Victor went in and picked up the socks and shoes on the ground.

He saw his daughter's school uniform being casually thrown on the table aside.

Victor suspected that his daughter's self-care ability was not good enough.

"Gia, put on your clothes." Victor held his daughter's leggings and skirt and was a little confused.
"How could she wear this?"

Giada rubbed her eyes forcefully. Last night, she read at eleven o'clock, but she didn't sleep enough.

She stretched out her feet to put on her pants. Wearing a pair of shorts, she looked very cute when kicking her little feet.

Victor smiled and looked at his drowsy daughter. His heart was soft like water.

After a while, he knew how to wear it, but it was a little clumsy. It took five minutes to finally put on his daughter's clothes. Then he took Gia to the bathroom to wash and combed her hair.

After coming out of the bathroom, Kenneth and Henrick also came out of the room.

Victor looked at the two brothers and said, "Kenny, Ricky, let's go down to have breakfast first. Your mom has already gone down to make breakfast. I will send your sister down later." With this, Victor held Giada and went back to the room to get her schoolbag.

Chapter 703

Kenneth looked at his busy look and smiled lightly. He was actually a very good father.

"Kenneth, what are you laughing at?" Henrick looked at his brother strangely.

Kenneth suddenly looked at his younger brother and asked, "Ricky, do you like Uncle Alwynn?"

Henrick bit his lip lightly, his brother felt a little strange. "Kenneth, why do you ask that?"

Kenneth said, "You just need to answer me, do you like him or not?"

Henrick smiled and nodded. "I like him, Uncle

Alwynn is very kind and nice to us."

Kenneth didn't say anything and turned to go downstairs.

Henrick confused.

"Kenneth, what do you mean?" Henrick suddenly ran after him and looked at his brother's face. He was expressionless.

Henrick couldn't figure out his brother's thoughts.

Kenneth said, "If you like him, you can call him dad from now on."

"Er..." Henrick was confused by his brother's words. "What do you mean by If you like him, you can call him dad?"

"Kenneth, did you lose your mind when playing the computer last night? Are you still awake this morning?" Henrick couldn't believe he would hear such words from his brother.

Kenneth replied, "I'm very clear-headed now. Also, Mom likes Uncle Alwynn quite a bit."

Henrick showed an expression of "I don't understand what you mean".

The two brothers had already arrived on the first floor. Eden had already placed sandwiches and milk on the dining table, and she had prepared four.

Watching Kenny and Ricky coming down, Eden said quickly, "Kenny, Ricky, you guys eat first, and I'll carry Gia downstairs."

Kenneth put the schoolbag on the stool and said with a smile, "Mom, the future dad has gone to pick up Gia."

"Uh..." Eden was stimulated by his son's "future dad".

"Has he also been influenced by Gia?"

Henrick naturally knew what his mother was thinking?

He looked at his mother and smiled. "Mom, the three of us vote together, and we are very satisfied with the future dad."

Victor came downstairs with Gia in his arms and just heard the words of Henrick.

Victor felt a touch of emotion in his heart. "Did Ricky and Kenny both agree with him as their father?"

At this moment, he really want to tell Eden the truth.

"Eden, in fact, Kenny, Ricky and Gia are..."

"Victor, come up and help me carry Boris down. This brat is lying in bed, and he can't get up." Graciella shouted loudly on the second floor.

Hearing this, Victor looked helpless. Why every time he wanted to explain, there would be an accident?

"I'm coming, sis!" Victor said, putting Giada on the stool and let her eat breakfast.

Then, he ran upstairs in a hurry.

Kenneth looked at Victor's back view and shook his head slightly. He said in his heart, "Dad, you have missed another change."

Then he bowed his head to eat breakfast.

Eden did not care too much about Victor's words. She was busy pouring water for the three brothers and sisters.

Seeing that her daughter was dressed neatly and Gia's hair was combed into a bun, Eden was very satisfied with Victor. The anger in her heart seemed to have disappeared.

Giada glanced at her mother and asked with a smile, "Mom, dad helped me comb my hair, is that beautiful? I asked him why he could comb it. He said he did it for his mom when I was a child."

"Er..." Eden speechless. "Victor was really omnipotent!"

"I'm not going to school. I want to sleep. I'm sleepy!" Boris cried and said.

With a kick, a shoe flew directly to the door.

Eden can't stand it.

"Jesus Christ."

She ran over and picked up Boris's shoe.

"Whoops! What's wrong with you? You're almost late for school. Knock it off!" Graciella's hair was in a mess and she was wearing pajamas and also had a sleepy look on her face.

"I'm not going, I'm not going," Boris said as he struggled.

Victor put him on the stool and looked at him angrily, "Boris, shut up. Now, eat your breakfast immediately."

Boris raised his tear-stained little face and looked at Victor. "But uncle, I'm sleepy!"

Victor said, "Even if you're sleepy, you still have to go to school. Unless you can't get up from the illness, otherwise, you have to go to school." Victor's tone was stern.

Boris was frightened.

Gia on the side also said, "Boris, if you are like this, we won't go to school with you. If you want to go to school with us, you must get up on time and go out on time."

When Boris heard Gia's words, he immediately nodded and said, "Gia, I'm going to eat now. But, I have to copy your homework today."

The other six standing aside pursed their lips awkwardly, not responding to his embarrassing words.

"Had Boris been addicted to copy homework?"

Giada said, "Boris, about copying my homework, when we go to school and then we talk about it. Now, eat breakfast!"

"Okay, okay, okay. Gia, don't be angry. I'll eat now." Boris had no sleepiness at this moment. He quickly picked up the sandwich and ate it. His big black eyes shone with a strange brilliance when he looked at Giada.

Graciella was speechless. "What?"

Boris couldn't hear a word of her mother, and Gia bluffed her son with just one sentence.

Just like the saying goes, "there is always one thing to conquer another."

After another ten minutes, he finally sent the four children to the car.

As for Graciella, she went back to sleep.

Ede was preparing food for lunch.

Victor followed behind her and looked at the busy little girl. At this moment, he could not say a word about that thing.

Eden looked at him as he followed her. She was a little puzzled. Looking at his hesitant expression, she said, "Victor, don't follow me.

I have a lot of things to do."

Victor replied with an "oh" but still followed Eden.

Eden suddenly stopped trimming vegetables and looked at him. "Victor, do you have something to say?"

Victor shook his head. He looked at her and smiled. "No, Eden, following you, the air has become sweet." "Er..." Eden could not help but roll her eyes when she heard that person's words were so unpersuasive.

"Go back, just wait for lunch." Eden pointed to the kitchen door and said.

"Got it!" Victor lowered his head, just like a child who had been wronged, and walked out sullenly.

Eden shook her head helplessly. She looked at his back view and smiled softly.

Victor returned to his room and suddenly received a message from Lucian.

Victor's eyebrows twitched slightly, and his dark eyes suddenly turned indifferent. Sure enough, it was Paulina.

For an instant, the room he was in was like the coldest month of the winter.

This woman dared to scheme against his woman.

"You wanna die!"

Victor's eyes, which had suddenly turned indifferent.

He quickly returned to Lucian's message and turned on the computer to handle public affairs, and chatted with Lucian on Facebook.

His expression became tense again, and there was unprecedented seriousness in his eyes.

Chapter 704

He sorted out the messages that Lucian had passed to him.

When Victor looked at the name Paulina Clark, there was a strong sense of clod in his eyes.

Then he picked up his phone and made a phone call.

The phone was soon connected.

"Brian, help me check a woman named Paulina Clark. I want all her information, within three days."

Brian said, "Mr. Alwynn, I'll help you prepare the information right now. I'll give them to you within three days."

After Victor hung up the phone, he sent the message to Lucian, "Lucian, there will be a charity party a week later. This charity party will auction an "eternal heart" worth 200 million dollars. I want it."

Lucian said, "It's for Eden."

Victor, "Yes!"

Lucian replied, "At least you're willing to spend money."

Victor felt helpless by what he said...

Was he stingy usually? Wasn't he, Lucian, the one who was usually the most stingy?

Victor said, "Send me the list of people who are going to the charity party in advance."

Lucian said, "I'll get everything ready. Do you want to bring a female companion?"

Victor said, "Of course, my female companion will be Eden."

Lucian asked, "Are you doing this with great fanfare?"

Victor said, "What's wrong with that? They've already touched my bottom line and violated my taboo. Vincent and Rebecca won't lay down and die. Be careful."

Lucian said, "I have been paying attention to these things, but you must pay more attention to Eden's safety."

Victor said, "I got this. As soon as you have news over there, notify me immediately."

Lucian said, "I found out that Paulina had three contacts with a group of boss Mask who specializes in collecting money to do business. One of them was a few days ago. During the Fashion Week, the few people who stole the clothes were also their people. This group of people was famous in the dark. They would use any means to achieve their goals. Therefore, they will attack Eden again."

Victor's eyes became serious. "I see. I will pay attention to it. I have secretly arranged someone to protect the kids and Eden."

Victor put down his phone and began to deal with official business.

He saw that he had three business trips recently, Victor frowned slightly and he was very reluctant to go.

He checked the property under the name of Clark Group. It was real estate under the Vaughn Family.

As for other industries, there were only a few chain hotels, which were not very rich. But in the eyes of the general people, her family was still good.

Victor took a look, picked up the phone and called Lucian.

"Hey!" Lucian's voice was as indifferent as ever, but not as prickly as before.

Victor touched his nose. Fortunately, his anger was gone.

"Lucian, take a look at the operation of the five chain hotels of the Clark Group. How is the operation going?"

Lucian: "Not good! Dion is proud and arrogant. From the looks of it, he may not be very familiar with the hotel management area. The real estate section is actually doing pretty well. However, the business hasn't been good for the past few years, so the Vaughn Family is just like that."

Victor took a glance at the information on the computer and said, "Check it."

Lucian said, "Got it."

Victor hung up the phone again.

He got to know more about the other things.

Eden gave Victor a cup of hot milk. Seeing that Victor was serious about business affairs, she had planned to quietly put down the milk and leave.

But, according to the reflection of the computer, Victor had already seen her.

When she turned around, Victor pulled her into his arms.

Victor looked down at her and saw a trace of blush on this girl's face, which made her little face particularly attractive to him. "Eden, is it not good to be so quiet like this?" His low voice sounded like a cello.

Eden looked at him shyly. "I am afraid of disturbing your work."

Victor said, "Fool, how could that be?"

Eden said with a smile, "I'm cooking something in the pot, you drink the milk first." Victor suddenly sighed. It was really hard for her to take care of the four children alone when he was not at home.

She took care of the whole family all by herself and did not have any free time every day.

Victor looked at her and asked with a smile, "What are we eating today?"

Eden smiled and said, "Of course I'll cook delicious food for you. Zofia didn't go to the food stall today. Abby will also come back for dinner later. I cooked some nutritious dishes and lunch starts on time at 11 o'clock. After lunch, I'll go out with Abby."

"I wanna go too." Victor suddenly became a naughty child.

Eden rolled her eyes at him. "Women go shopping. What are you going to do with us?"

Victor thought for a moment and said, "Right, then you have to come back sooner."

"Okay!" Eden looked at the time. "Hurry up and do your work. I'll go down to cook."

"Okay!" Victor looked at her slim figure and smiled happily.

When Eden smiled, she showed a row of white teeth. Her clear eyes were full of stars. At this time, her little face was flushed and very beautiful.

Eden had always been pure and beautiful. Her unintentional movement was very attractive.

Her bright eyes could poke people's hearts. Her smile was as warm as the sunshine, and each time could bring him different feelings.

Eden smiled and left. However, Victor was still immersed in that warm smile and could not extricate himself.

Abigail arrived home on time. After breakfast, Eden and Abigail went out for shopping, Graciella and Zofia and Victor three of them stayed home.

They went back to their rooms to rest.

Eden and Abigail came to the prosperous business district of River City. Because Abigail was very busy before, they hadn't hung out together for a long time.

Abigail also came here for the first time. She looked at the luxurious shopping mall, the atmosphere of fashion came to her.

Abigail chuckled and said, "Eden, what do you want? I'll buy it for you today."

Eden looked at her with bright eyes. "Abby, no need, my brother gives me some pocket money. I can buy it with my own money."

"You little girl, you don't know what's good for you at all. Don't forget, what I have now is also earned by our son. It's only right that I buy it for you." Abigail felt quite bad when she heard Eden reject her.

Eden naturally knew what she was thinking.

She took Abigail's arm, gently shook it, and said with a bright smile, "Abby, then buy me a trench coat. I haven't bought new clothes for several years. I've been making our clothes for the past few years. Today, let you buy me a beautiful trench coat. Then I'll be even prettier this autumn."

"Haha..." Hearing her words, Abigail instantly became happy. "That's right. Let's go. It's rare for me to have time during this period. We must have a good shopping today." Abigail took her to the shopping mall.

Chapter 705

They went straight up to the second floor, which was full of women's clothing.

Eden looked at the fashionable scene in front of her and showed a strong interest. At this time, she realized that she hadn't been shopping for a long time.

Abigail glanced at JS and said excitedly, "Eden, JS, is very popular among the superstars. Let's go in and take a look, then you can get a lot of inspiration."

When Eden looked at the clothes, she was stunned. The clothes in JS were very expensive.

"Abby..."

Abigail took a look at her and knew what she was thinking. "Eden, you little bi*ch. I know what you want to say. I have told you that when you spend my money, so you don't have to worry about it."

Eden said, "I see, I see. I don't feel distressed at all. Later I will buy it with a high price."

Abigail rubbed her little face and smiled. "My baby Eden has really come to her senses. It seems that love brings you a lot of benefits."

As soon as the two entered the counter, two waiters greeted them with a decent smile, explaining the characteristics of each piece of clothing.

Eden chose a black trench coat. It had a clear outline, a straight shape, and it particularly showed her slim figure.

Eden was impressed with it at a glance. Besides, she was very confident about her figure. This kind of tight-fitting trench coat suited her very well.

Moreover, JS was considered the eternal classic of the fashion world, and its simple and elegant style would often cause a sensation. And it was a brand that could quickly become famous throughout the world.

This time, JS's main style also broke through some of the style of the past.

Moreover, Alwynn Group had also launched evening clothes, wedding dresses, and tailor-made styles of clothes this year. The customized style was particularly expensive.

And they had already received some tailor-made styles orders.

During this time, she had been paying attention to the official website of Alwynn Group and found that Alwynn Group's reputation was particularly good. Their design inspiration and creativity also won everyone's unanimous praise.

She had been waiting for an opportunity. After a period of time, there would be a brand design competition, and she had decided to participate.

Eden thought to herself. She looked at the price tag, 22050 dollars and that the new amount would not be discounted.

Eden gulped and quietly pulled her hand back. Abigail happened to see her movement.

Abigail quickly pulled up the card and took a look at it. She looked at Eden with disdain. "Baby, this amount of money is enough to scare you? Don't forget, after this fashion week, your current salary has doubled. Victor will definitely give you a lot of money."

Eden smiled. But she hadn't seen the money yet. Besides, how could a person who had never been poor know that 20,000 bucks could do many things?

Abigail glanced at the trench coat and said with a smile, "Eden, you have always had a good taste. This trench coat suits you very well. It's very beautiful."

Eden looked at her and said, "The dress is very beautiful, but the price is also very high."

Abigail looked at her and smiled. "Eden, do you know who this shopping mall belongs to?"

Eden shook her head. She really didn't know.

Abigail looked at her with a distressed face. "Eden, what should I do with you? This is your boyfriend's industry."

"Er..." Eden was surprised. "It belongs to Victor?" "Yes, all the real estate in this area belongs to him. Your future husband is very rich, but he is too low-key to show his wealth."

Eden looked at the luxurious shopping mall and suddenly smiled. "Abby, if you had told me earlier, I would have asked him to come with us."

"Haha..." Abigail looked at her. It was really a pity that Eden had not become her sister-in-law.

Eden smiled and said, "Abby, let's go to another store."

Abigail glanced at her. "Eden, let me tell you, in this shopping mall, only JS's clothes can catch your eye. If you don't believe me, you can look around"

Eden glanced at that black trench coat. Indeed, she liked it very much.

Abigail was just about to say something, but a confident voice suddenly came from behind, "I want this. Help me pack it up."

As soon as the voice fell, the trench coat was also taken away.

Eden and Abigail turned around and looked over. It turned out to be Haven, Paulina and Adalynn. And the person who spoke just now was Paulina.

The three of them were dressed in fashion and had delicate makeup.

Looking at Eden and Abigail, the three of them wore a sarcastic smile on their faces.

Eden frowned slightly and thought, "It's really a narrow road to enemies."

Paulina glanced at the clothes on the two people. She looked at them with contempt, and her tone was also scornful. "Not everyone can come in here. You have to see whether you have the ability or not, don't embarrass yourself."

When Adalynn saw Abigail, her eyes were full of jealousy. Last night in the hospital, the lights were a little dim, but she was still very beautiful.

Today, looking at her under the dazzling light, she looked even more beautiful. Even a gentle movement was enough to captivate one's mind.

Her mother had already helped her to find out the information about this woman. She was just an agent who was who was enslaved with others to make money.

"Paulina, they don't have the ability to buy it. Just take a look, right?"

"Well, well, you're right. But this dress is quite beautiful. I like it very much. But this price is not in line with my temperament. But I just like it." Paulina said, looking at Eden provocatively. "Wasn't she with Victor?"

Why was she still wearing clothes that didn't have a brand name?

It seemed that Victor did not attach much importance to her.

Eden and Abigail's faces turned angry at the same time.

Eden looked at Paulina and raised the corner of her mouth evilly. Her eyes were lifted. Her lips, which were covered with pink lipstick, were lifted slightly and she sized up Paulina's clothes carefully. She was wearing famous clothes.

Paulina also let her admire herself generously. Her brand-name clothes were worth 200,000 bucks.

But when she looked at Eden's smiling eyes, she had a feeling of uneasiness in her heart.

She did not know Eden very well. She looked gentle and weak. Her big eyes seemed to be able to see through one's heart. However, looking at such a weak person, she felt that Eden was not up to trap.

Eden suddenly turned her eyes and looked at Abigail with a smile. "Abby, did we come to the wrong place? Have we not inquired about this sh*t place before we came?"

Abigail could finally vent her frustration after hearing this. She looked at the three women, whose faces gradually turned black. She said, "Baby, it's my fault. I didn't find out what happened. But some people wear luxurious clothes, but they're actually worse than dogs. So, we've really come to the wrong place."

Chapter 706

Eden looked at her and said, "Abby, nowadays people like to represent themselves falsely, Don't you know that?"

"Eden, I got it." Abigail suddenly became cheerful, she decided to play along with Eden. "These chicks kept on messing around with Eden, but this time we must let them know that we were not cowards"

She wanted them to know "Because you are heartless, then don't blame me for my disloyalty."

Paulina was so angry. She glared at Eden, "Eden, It turns out that you can say such shameless words. I really looked down on you."

Eden looked at Paulina's ugly face. She smiled, "Paulina, aren't you ashamed? You are the only one who think you are beautiful and come out to bluff. Besides, If I embarrass you when I say something, please remember that I did it on purpose."

Paulina felt a sense of grievance. "Eden, your words are too annoying. I will tear your mouth."

Eden said calmly, "Of course, I believe it. There is nothing you can't do, right? Miss Clark. As for tearing my mouth, it's just a piece of cake." Eden looked at her contemptuously.

"It was polite to be nice to you, but that is not necessary."

Paulina looked at her in shock. She had always thought that Eden must be a coward and afraid to fight. But today, she was so wrong.

Last time in Alwynn Group, Eden's appearance messed up her plan.

"You cunninng b*tch!" Paulina said three words angrily.

Eden smiled and nodded. "That's right, you are indeed a cunning b*tch."

Abigail frowned and said, "Cunning? Saying that about her implies she's got a few tricks up her sleeve while she's actually nothing but a stupid, despicable slut."

Eden shocked. She thought she was already vicious enough. But Abby was more vicious than her.

"Who... who are you?" Paulina was so angry that she couldn't breathe.

She wanted nothing more than to tear Abigail into pieces.

And Abigail was also an evil woman. She saw Paulina almost out of breath, then she leisurely look at the ugly face.

Such a way of sarcasm was indeed quite harsh and ruthless. And it could make her suffer both mentally and physically.

Adalynn crossed her arms and looked down at Abigail. "Paulina, this is also a cunning b*tch who has hooked up with Anson."

Eden glanced at Adalynn. She was just jealous.

Paulina looked scornfully at Abigail, "People of a kind fall into the same group. You two just a couple of monkey friends."

Eden was furious when she heard that. She looked at Paulina and said, "Bullsh*t! Paulina, didn't you brush your teeth when you went out this morning? Who do you think you are? You jerk!"

"You people collude in doing evil. And make people suffer. You all f eking stupid ass*le!"

Paulina and Haven just shared the same rotten tastes.

" You b*tch, say that again."

Eden's words made Paulina completely angry.

"Do you think you can do whatever you want with Victor's protection?" Paulina had never been out of control like this moment.

In this world, she had never been insulted like this since she was born.

In fact, she was the first to insult others. It was just that arrogant people never felt they were wrong.

Abigail smiled calmly and said, "Well, you also can find a man to protect you. Why are you jealous of others?"

Abigail's face looked like that, "If you can, then go get a man to protect you."

Her actions drove Paulina crazy that she was bent out of shape.

"Shame on you! You two b*tches are too shameless. How dare you can come to this luxurious mall where only the rich can enter? You two wear the same clothes as beggars." Paulina was so angry that she spoke without thinking.

"Tsk, ts, ts!" Abigail looked at Paulina who was about to faint. "Why are you such a poser? Well, this place only allows the rich to enter. But, are you rich?" Abigail's tone was filled with the utmost contempt.

She despised Paulina very much. In her opinion, the Vaughn Family was nothing to her.

Although she didn't have much property, a few hundred million bucks was a piece of cake for her.

And she was definitely not NEET. She earned all the money by herself.

"D*mn you! Our Vaughn Family commands a lot of respect in River City. Abigail, who do you think you are?" Paulina was so angry that her whole body was shaking, she even had a blackout.

"Paulina, don't be too angry. It will be beneath you to quarrel with these cheeky people." Haven couldn't stand it anymore. She walked to Paulina and gently comfort her.

Looking at Abigail and Eden, she smiled coldly.

Abigail looked at Haven with disgust like looking at trash.

"Don't smile. Because when you smile, I feel sick. When you speak, I think it's bullshit. So please don't do anything, okay? Because everything you do is pointless. I don't want to know what's the matter with you, so don't be such a jerk." Her tone was very calm, which made everyone present stunned.

Abigail felt sick that when she looked at Haven. This b*tch was the one who often bullies Eden. Today, she finally made a big revenge for Eden.

Haven had never expected that what she said would provoke Abigail's strong irony.

What's more, Abigail's words reduced her to silence.

Adalynn looked at Abigail and said angrily, "Have you out of your mind? Why you speak so viciously? How can Anson fall in love with you?"

Adalynn had always disliked Abigail. Abigail was the b*tch who came to steal her man.

Anson was hers, and no one could take him away.

Abigail said, "Bullshit! Your words make me sick. If Anson likes you, then he was frozen stupid." Abigail knew what this woman was thinking.

Chapter 707

However, if Anson really fell in love with this woman, it meant that she had a poor taste.

"You..." Adalynn gritted her teeth in anger and she was rendered speechless.

Abigail sneered. She could always outargue others.

No matter how mean and vicious she was, she behaved like this to protect herself.

Time had changed. Sometimes, one couldn't be too arrogant though he was rich. No matter how powerful he was, he had to be polite.

Adalynn had scanty experience of life, and she was used to being flattered by others, so she would stamp her feet in anger once someone said something unpleasant to her.

Look, she went off the deep end at the moment.

However, Anson was indeed a good man.

She happened to have divorced, and he could be her next boyfriend.

Abigail smiled faintly. Looking at the three women who looked so awkward, she was pleased.

She was more than twenty years old, and she met a rival in love for the first time.

The two salesmen, who stood aside and watched them quarrel, were shocked.

When women gather together, it was always so noisy, not to mention that there were five women here.

Paulina turned around and looked at the two waiters, "Pack up everything in your shop for me."

The two salesmen had never met such a generous customer since they began to work. She actually wanted to buy so many things after quarreling.

They looked so pleasantly surprised, "Okay, Miss, I'll pack them up for you now. Please come here and write down your address and phone number. We will send all the clothes, bags and ornaments to your house today." Abigail and Eden looked at each other and smiled when they heard Paulina's domineering words.

She was angry, but why did she have to spend so much money in vain?

"What are you laughing at?" Paulina looked at them arrogantly. Being rich was such a happy thing. She could not only buy everything she wanted but also salvage her pride.

She wouldn't let Eden buy the clothes she liked.

Moreover, Eden couldn't afford to buy it!

Eden pointed at all the clothes in the shop. These were new clothes of the season. She said with a smile, "Miss Clark, you are really generous. There are at least a hundred pieces of clothing in this shop. According to their prices, at least you have to spend ten million dollars! Wow! You're too rich."

The windbreaker she liked was definitely the cheapest one in the shop.

However, most of the clothes in the shop were limited editions, and the fabrics were of high-quality. Some of them were worth about six hundred thousand dollars, and there were more than fifty pieces of clothing in the shop. The bags were all inlaid with diamonds.

In addition, the buttons on the shirts were all made of diamonds. The pair of buttons on the sleeve were worth seventy thousand dollars. Since she wanted to buy everything in the shop, at least she had to spend ten million dollars.

This was the charm of SJ, and all the clothes here were suitable for young people. They were fashionable and they were the must-have fashion item of the season. If Paulina had enough money to buy them all, she wouldn't suffer any loss.

"What?" Paulina felt a bit suffocated. Which shop did she enter?

Adalynn and Haven were dumbfounded. Paulina actually wanted to buy everything in the shop straightforwardly.

Soon, the waiter came over with a flattering smile, "Miss, it's eleven million dollars in total. Please give me your card."

Paulina was shocked.

How could it be so expensive?

Haven, who was standing aside, explained quickly, "Paulina, this is a famous foreign brand SJ."

Paulina's face instantly turned pale when she heard this. How could it be?

At that time, she saw Eden and Abigail here, so she walked in without paying attention to the brand.

Abigail looked at Paulina with a gloating face. Paulina was a quite famous designer, but she actually didn't know SJ.

But it was good. Anyway, she deserved to be taught a lesson.

"Congratulations, Miss Clark. There are so many new designs. No matter where you are, you will always be the most eye-catching one when you wear them."

Hearing Abigail's mocking words, Paulina became angrier. Her words gave her a blow again.

She was in a dilemma, because she didn't have that much money.

She wanted to give up.

No matter how rich her family was, she couldn't squander money like this.

Her father would beat her.

However, should she lose her face in front of Eden?

Paulina gritted her teeth, took out a black card and handed it to the salesman.

She could return all the goods later.

The salesman took it carefully and paid the bill quickly.

Then he came back with the card, looked at Paulina with a smile and said, "Miss, please confirm all the goods. If there is no quality problems, you can't return them."

"What?" Paulina's face turned completely pale, and she was about to faint.

Haven immediately held her. She was too impulsive. That day, she asked Paulina out to talk to her about the acquisition of the shares of Clement Group.

It seemed that she could only try to talk to Tillie. After all, Tillie was a very powerful person.

Looking at Eden and Abigail, Paulina clenched her fists tightly. She went deathly pale as she thought, "Well, I will let you kneel in front of me and beg me for mercy one day!"

She must make Eden cry and beg her to let her go.

Then, Paulina could only go to confirm the clothes one by one with a pale face.

Eden and Abigail stepped back to let her pass sensibly and then left.

Adalynn chased out. She looked at Abigail's charming back and warned, "Abigail, you'd better not be so shameless and stay away from Anson! You don't deserve to be with him!"

Abigail glanced at her, "Get out of here! You make me feel sick. I want to have my dinner with a good appetite, so don't disgust me. Moreover, do you think you deserve to be with Anson?"

"I..." Adalynn didn't know what to say, "My family is rich and powerful. Of course, I deserve to be with Anson."

Abigail smiled faintly. Her eyes curved slightly, and she looked so attractive and confident. She was coquettish, while Eden looked pure. Their temperaments were not the same, but they were both gorgeous.

"Then I can congratulate you in advance. You'll get him!" Abigail said with a smile.

She didn't think that Adalynn could compete with her.

Adalynn was just a spoiled young lady, and she was not capable at all. Once her family went bankrupt, she might starve to death.

"Humph!" Adalynn turned around and left.

Abigail looked at her back and continued with a smile, "Miss Alwynn, you'll get fat if you laugh in heart secretly. Mind your weight."

Adalynn's back stiffened, but she didn't retort.

Eden was speechless.

Abigail actually had the mood to care about Adalynn's weight.

"Abby, are you okay?" She didn't expect that Adalynn would become Abby's rival in love.

Chapter 708

Abigail looked at her and smiled, "Eden, I'm not anxious at all. Why are you so worried? Anson's taste won't be that bad." She did not want Adalynn to be with Anson.

However, Adalynn was somewhat scheming.

She'd better not think too highly of herself. Everyone could carry on their lives without her, and Anson might not love her wholeheartedly. After all, there were too many temptations in this world.

Eden looked at her with a worried expression and blinked her big clear eyes, "Abby, I know that you haven't recovered from your marriage with Joziah. But I believe that Anson is a good man, and he is very kind to you. He would rather stay with you than go back to the company when you were in trouble."

Abigail smiled faintly, "Fool, this is the trick that a man uses when he chases after a woman. Do you understand?"

Eden's eyelashes fluttered as she looked at Abigail with her bright eyes.

"Ab by..."

However, Abigail held her shoulders and grinned, "Eden, I know what you're thinking about. You really don't have to worry about me. As for my relationship, I'll do as I see fit. But I'm in a very good mood today. Let's continue shopping. Tonight, I'll get Victor to treat us to a delicious meal. He made a lot of money by selling the clothes today."

"Alright!" Eden knew that it was useless to worry about her.

In the end, Eden and Abigail left gracefully under Paulina's angry gaze.

Paulina's face was covered with sweat. She didn't know how to explain to her father when she went back.

Well, she asked for it, so she could only blame herself.

However, she had lost so much money, and it was all her father's money. What should she do?

She knew her father's temper very well, and she would suffer a lot if she went back at night.

With tears in her eyes, Paulina clenched her hands tightly and lowered her head slightly to hide all the unhappiness in her eyes.

But there was still a perfect smile on her face. She didn't forget that Haven and Adalynn were by her side.

What had happened to Paulina did not affect Eden and Abigail's moods. They were both outgoing and optimistic by nature.

"Eden, now Paulina must have learnt a lesson. In order to salvage her pride, she is pissed off by herself. She deserves it. Look at her. She almost can't stand firmly."

Eden had no sympathy for Paulina. After all, she knew Paulina's character clearly.

She was a casual person, but it didn't mean that she could be bullied at will. For those who provoked her on purpose, she would give them a lesson.

The two of them continued shopping. Eden picked out the suitable clothes, and Abigail paid for her. Although it was ridiculously expensive, Eden accepted it.

Abigail bought a lot. They did not take back the clothes by themselves, but let the salesman deliver the clothes to their house. It was less bother.

On the way, Abigail asked Eden to send a message to Victor to let him treat them to a meal.

Victor was quite generous and directly invited them to have dinner at the restaurant.

Zofia was taken away by Buddy, so only Graciella, Victor and the four children met them in the restaurant.

As soon as Abigail entered the private box, she told Victor what had happened that day.

Victor and Graciella were very pleased when they heard that.

In the past few days, Victor had been investigating the Clark Group. Although they had a lot of companies in different industries, they didn't make a lot of money. It would take them several years to make ten million dollars. The real estate industry dwindled this year.

Their hotel's business was not particularly good, either.

Victor looked at Eden and Abigail and smiled, "You did a good job!"

Eden glanced at him but did not say anything. If they could get along well, she didn't want to offend others like this. She had completely provoked Paulina.

However, Victor was her husband, and she would not allow anyone to covet him.

Who did Paulina think she was? She was just an annoying woman. How could she be compared with her man?

Then, Eden looked at Victor and smiled confidently.

Victor took a look at her and smiled unconsciously. Although he didn't know why she smiled so confidently, he was glad to see her smile.

Graciella looked at them and suddenly asked Eden teasingly, "Eden, you know what? You've really fallen in love with Victor. When you were young, you chased after Victor every day and called him intimately, saying that you would marry him when you grew up. Your voice was crisp and so pleasant to hear. Now you finally get what you want"

Eden was speechless.

"Graciella, there are children here." With a red face, Eden glanced at the four children. The children were playing themselves, and they didn't care what they were talking about.

Graciella glanced at the children. She liked Eden's three children very much.

"However, Eden, Kenny and Ricky look like Victor when he was a child!" Looking at Kenny and Ricky, Graciella said thoughtfully.

"I have photos of Victor when he was young. I'll show you some day. They're really similar." At this moment, Graciella was very serious.

Victor looked at Graciella and indicated that she should stop talking about this. It was not the right time to tell the truth.

Abigail said aside, "Graciella, I have the same idea as you. Kenny really looks like Victor." Victor's whole body tensed up as he looked at Eden nervously.

The children looked at Victor with great curiosity. After all, except for Kenneth, Ricky and Gia were very interested in this matter.

Hearing this, Eden glanced at Abigail and then looked at Graciella, and she said with a smile, "Abby, Graciella, it's unfair to say this to Victor."

"No, Eden, it's absolutely fair. Nothing is fairer than this." Before Abigail and Graciella could answer Eden, Victor said first.

He wanted to find an excuse to hate himself and feel guilty forever. Seven years ago, he did such a thing to Eden, but he did not dare to admit it.

It was not suitable to talk about this matter in such an atmosphere.

Eden was confused.

Victor felt very depressed in heart. His relationship with Eden had just become stable, and nothing could go wrong.

Eden looked at him with her heart full of gratitude. Although Victor didn't admit it, he played the role of the children's father indeed, "Victor, thank you!"

Abigail looked at Victor and found that he was a little guilty.

She narrowed her eyes slightly. In fact, she discovered it the first time she saw Victor. Moreover, Victor treated Kenny, Ricky and Gia so specially that she thought he was their biological father.

Chapter 709

Victor looked at Eden with a doting expression. He didn't like her being so polite to him, "Eden, you speak to me politely again." Eden grinned, "I just said some platitudes! I'm used to thanking others."

Victor pursed his lips slightly and did not speak.

He hated such a habit of her!

Kenneth glanced at him and sighed in heart, "Dad, you've missed a chance again."

"My godmother is here, and mom won't be so angry if you say it."

"Moreover, Ricky, Gia and I are here. We'll speak for you. What a pity..."

Abigail glanced at Victor and felt that something was wrong. Eden was innocent, but she was not.

Of course, except for Eden, all of them were a little suspicious.

Especially Abigail. She had an idea in her heart. Anson knew everything of Victor very well and she could ask him. She continued to eat silently.

At the same time, Victor looked at the three children with a guilty face.

Then, the dishes were served and they began to eat.

The dishes at the restaurant were very delicious, and the four children ate with with appetite, especially Boris and Gia. They ate very happily.

Gia had long forgotten that she wanted to lose weight when she saw delicious food.

After finishing his meal, Kenneth went to the bathroom. When he past by Victor, he whispered in his ear, "My future dad, you missed a good chance again."

Hearing Kenny's words, Victor stiffened as if he had been electrocuted. He immediately turned to look at him.

Kenny looked away naturally, as if he hadn't said such words to Victor.

"Mom, I'm going to the bathroom." After saying that, he turned around and left.

Victor stared at his back in a daze. It seemed that nothing had happened just now, but he kept thinking of Kenny's words.

An idea flashed through Victor's mind. Since Kenny was so intelligent, he was afraid that he had sensed something.

If it weren't for this, Kenny would never say those words to him.

Victor said immediately, "Enjoy your meal. I'm going to the bathroom, too."

Saying this, he got up and followed Kenneth.

Henrick saw Kenny get close to Victor just now. What did Kenny say? He smiled wickedly.

"Mom, I'll go to the bathroom."

Eden looked at Henrick doubtfully and then nodded.

Henrick followed them quietly. Kenny did not talk to others so casually in ordinary times. He saw Kenny talk to their future father clearly just now.

He couldn't be wrong.

At the door, Victor stopped Kenneth who came out from the bathroom. Kenny called him future dad just now, which made him more excited than ever.

Kenny called him future dad, which meant that Kenny liked and had accepted him. Kenny was so clever, so he couldn't compare him to an ordinary child.

"Kenny!" Victor looked at him with gentleness in his eyes.

Kenny also looked at him and blinked his clear and big eyes, but he did not speak.

He didn't expect that Victor would be so sensitive and follow him here.

Looking at Kenny who was calm, Victor was extremely satisfied in his heart. Kenny was his son, and he was as stable and brave as him at such a young age.

"Kenny, do you know something about your father?" Victor asked cautiously.

Kenneth curved his lips slightly. His smile was very shallow, but it was very different from usual.

"What do you mean?" Kenneth said blandly and raised his head to look at Victor.

During this period of time, he had been paying attention to Victor, and he knew that Victor treated Eden very well.

Victor knew that Kenny had always had his own way of thinking. He was different from other children.

"Kenny, do you know that I..."

"Are you our father?" Kenneth smiled and interrupted him, looking at him with a faint smile.

"Yes!" Victor nodded excitedly, "Kenny, I know that you are very smart, but I really didn't mean to hide it. I just wanted to find a proper opportunity to tell your mother about it."

Kenneth still looked at him with a faint smile, "If you think this way, my mother won't forgive you."

"Kenny..." Hearing this, Victor felt a bit depressed. If Eden wouldn't forgive him, he was more unwilling to tell her about it.

He was not afraid of anything, but he was coward and timid in front of Eden.

As a man, he wanted to be with Eden for a lifetime. The reason why he had been working hard over the years was that he wanted to become capable enough to protect Eden when she came back.

But he also wanted to be a qualified father and accompany his child to grow up. He learnt from his childhood that it was necessary for a father to accompany his children to grow up. This was the basic duty of a qualified father. Many men only cared about making money and their own affairs, and they never spent time with their children. They were definitely not good fathers. Children needed their father's company when they grew up.

This was how he felt as Phillip's son ever since he was young.

"Kenny, I want to accompany you to grow up. In the past, I don't know about your existence." Victor looked at Kenny sincerely and firmly. He knew that Kenny reminded him in that way because he was satisfied with him.

Kenneth's expression turned slightly serious. Although he had never thought having a father, he longed for father's love from the bottom of his heart. He wanted to have a complete home. Only when he had a father and a mother could he be happier!

Kenneth smiled faintly. He looked calm on the surface, but he couldn't hide his eagerness to have a father in heart.

He whispered, "You've been with us. What I want is very simple. I just want my mom to be happy!"

After saying that, Kenneth looked at him meaningfully and then left.

Henrick hid in the distance. He could see them, but he couldn't hear anything.

Seeing Kenny come out, he really wanted to hear their conversation. Why was there no place to hide near the bathroom?

When Kenny walked back, he was afraid of being found, so he avoided him.

Victor stood still dejectedly. It was said that everything was hard in the beginning. It was really difficult to confess the truth to Eden.

Perhaps it was because he had been too painful over the years. It was not easy for him to get his happiness, so he didn't want to lose it no matter what.

Eden finally accepted him. From being strange to being familiar to her, he had been trying his best.

"Eden, what should I do?" Victor lowered his head slightly. A few strands of black hair fell on his face and covered the expression on his face.

He turned around and looked at the luxurious hotel with very determined eyes. At least, Kenny did not hate him, and he was willing to call him dad, which meant that he had won half the battle.

When Victor went back, everyone had finished eating.

So they went home together.

That day, Darlene had something to talk to

Eden, so Eden went straight to Darlene's company.

Chapter 710

TS company

was a multinational corporation. As soon as Eden entered the company, she could feel the unique styles of international brands.

TS Company had existed for a long time. It had established a design center in this country, and it was synonymous with style. It was a successful and international company.

Darlene had been the design director here for many years. Her performance this year was very good, and she had achieved remarkable achievements. She had made more progress.

TS Company had cooperation with the world's top 500 clothing companies, and it was one of the most famous brands in this country.

Darlene sent Eden the address, and Eden went all the way to the top floor of TS company.

Darlene had a good relationship with the president of the company, and her office was also on the top floor.

When Eden reached the top floor, she found that the bright office looked very fashionable.

Darlene's team was experienced in international brand management and design. Generally speaking, designers who worked here could learn a lot. Besides, they had many sales channels in this country, which could ensure that their products could enter the shopping malls and stores of different levels smoothly.

An assistant in a black suit walked over with a pair of black high heels and looked at Eden with a smile, "Excuse me, are you Miss Bleu?"

Eden smiled and nodded, "Yeah, I'm here to meet miss Burton."

"Miss Bleu, please come with me." The assistant looked pure and cute, and her smile was very lovely. Eden had a very good impression of her.

"Miss Bleu, my name is Maxwell Swift, and I'm Miss Burton's assistant. She is now in a meeting and will come in 10 minutes. You can wait in the office and have a cup of coffee first." Maxwell turned around and looked at Eden with a smile.

"Alright, I will wait for her to come back." Eden smiled and replied.

Maxwell poured Eden a cup of coffee.

"Thank you!" Eden said.

Maxwell looked at her with a gentle smile, "Miss Burton once mentioned you, and I've been paying attention to your design. The clothes you designed this season are really nice. I took a fancy to some of them and I'm going to buy them."

Maxwell looked at Eden with admiration in her eyes. Indeed, Eden's design this season had attracted a lot of attention in the design circle and had an extraordinary influence. It was a completely new design style, and it represented a new trend.

"Thank you!" Eden smiled blandly. In fact, she didn't expect that so many people would like her design.

There were rumors about her design style and the relationship between her and Victor online.

In the future, she wanted to become a designer who had a sophisticated and innovative style, leading an elegant lifestyle with her inspiration in the colorful fashion world.

Her dream was to become a top designer and have her own place in the fashion world.

After chatting with Maxwell for a while, Eden saw Darlene come in in a black-and-white dress. Her figure was perfect and her dress was very fashionable. When she saw Eden, she smiled happily, "Eden, you're here."

"Auntie." Eden stood up and looked at Darlene with a smile.

Seeing Darlene again, Eden felt that Darlene had changed a lot. She looked more confident and younger than before. The main reason was that her whole temperament had changed. Eden couldn't describe this feeling.

"Uh huh!" Darlene looked at Eden and saw that she was wearing a simple white dress. She was gentle and not flamboyant, looking very elegant and pretty.

Maxwell looked at Darlene and smiled,

"Director, I'll do my own work first."

"Okay!" Darlene nodded slightly.

After Maxwell went out, Darlene sat on the sofa opposite Eden.

Looking at Darlene who was leisurely and relaxed, Eden said jokingly, "Auntie, you look younger and younger these days. Has anything good happened to you?"

"Anything good?" Darlene looked at her and smiled faintly.

Her smile was no longer the perfunctory and bitter smile Eden had seen before. It was a sincere smile. It seemed that she had disentangled herself from the past.

"Is it not right? I feel that you look much younger." Eden wanted to know what had changed her.

"Ha- ha..." Darlene chuckled and suddenly looked at Eden seriously, "Eden, it's indeed a good thing to me."

Saying this, Darlene lowered her head slightly and looked at her beautiful fingernails. She went to the nail salon after work last night, and she liked the red color very much. There was some glitter on the nails, which made her fingernails good-looking and somewhat eyecatching. It was suitable for her temperament.

After watching for a while, she looked up at Eden with serious eyes, "Eden, I just let go of my sad memories, and you're by my side. I don't feel lonely anymore, and I'm hopeful in my heart. Moreover, I won't care too much about my relationship anymore. There is something that will never belong to me." After saying this, Darlene looked at Eden with a bright smile. She had been stubborn, and she had to finish everything she wanted to do, but later she found that it was not worth making herself so miserable because of something inconsequential and someone unimportant.

Eden were slightly startled. Then, she smiled with relief and gentleness.

"Auntie, it's good that you can think like this. You'll live a better and better life in the future." Eden said with a smile.

Darlene nodded with a smile, "Eden, you are right. I asked you to come here because I want to show you some documents. The design competition will be held in the last half of next year. Many designers will prepare for it in advance. I have a lot of documents of the previous competitions. I won't participate in this competition. Attend it on my behalf."

Saying this, Darlene got up and went to the desk. She picked up a thick stack of documents and put them on the tea table in front of Eden.

"Eden, take these back and read them slowly. Call me if you have any problems."

"Thank you, auntie!" Eden looked at her gratefully. She did not expect Darlene to show her these documents. These things were too precious for her.

Darlene looked at Eden meaningfully. When she was at Eden's age, she was also full of enthusiasm. She was not afraid of any difficulty and only wanted to make progress. Although she had gained fame and money, she had lost a lot. Eden was her successor and she trusted Eden, so she could teach Eden all the experience she got over the years and then live a carefree life.

"Eden, is your father living a good life?" Darlene asked with a smile. Eden was very adorable, and Zaiden often praised her for being considerate. She was indeed very thoughtful.

Eden nodded slightly, "He's good. He's on a business trip with my mom, and he will be back tomorrow."
