

Gluey Love 71

Chapter 71

"It's great that Miss Bleu thinks that they are beautiful. Since I owned this piece of land, I am able to offer you an internal rate. Besides, you are also an employee of my company."

Victor wanted to help Eden and her children to settle down first. If Ricky was really his son, he couldn't let Rebecca know about it.

Rebecca could use Ricky against him.

It didn't matter if Rebecca tried to hurt him. He didn't want to put his family at risk, moreover to let Rebecca threaten him with his family.

He had used another identity to register for a company and purchased the shares of Jotham Alwynn Group. If Jotham Alwynn Group was gone, Rebecca would be powerless and could not do anything.

Eden was very excited when she heard the offer. She liked the beautiful villa very much even just by looking at it. However, she knew that she still couldn't afford it even if she was given an internal price.

She looked at Victor's smiling face. He was different from the cold and domineering Victor whom she knew in the company. He looked bright and approachable at the moment.

She looked at him and smiled gratefully. "Thank you for your kindness, Mr. Alwynn. I still can't afford it even if you give me an internal price!"

She was telling the truth and she did not care about what others think of her. Her principle was to perform tasks that were within her reach. If she was struggling to deal with the pressure of affording a house, she would lose her principle in front of her children.

The size of the house did not matter as long as they were able to live together happily as a family.

Victor suddenly looked at her and smiled. "Miss Bleu, you can take out a mortgage, right? The villas here are two-story. The area of the villas is not very big and the internal price doesn't cost much. Why don't I bring you to have a look first?"

Victor wouldn't care about such idle matters usually, especially concerning matters related to women.

But the Eden standing in front of him might be his Eden.

He must help her.

Eden smiled apologetically. Victor was rich. Money was nothing to him.

But she was different. She had been very thrifty over the past few years in order to save up for a house.

The few hundred thousand dollars from her design bonus, and Ricky's money added together was still not enough. How could she afford a villa?

She would need to get a mortgage loan even for a house of a few hundred square meters.

Eden had to weigh it in the balance before she finally decided to look for a second-hand house.

"Thank you for your kindness, Mr. Alwynn. I only have enough money to buy a second-hand house. Let's go and look for one first!" Eden smiled calmly and confidently. She did not feel ashamed. She was very grateful that Victor was willing to help her.

"A second-hand house?" Victor frowned slightly. How could Eden and her children live comfortably in a second-hand house?

It was not a good idea for Ricky to live in a secondhand house with his current reputation.

Victor's eyes brightened up and he had an idea. He spoke slowly, "Miss Bleu, let's go! Let's go to other places to have a look."

Eden thought that Victor would leave when he heard her words. After all, how would a person with such a high status like him have the mood to accompany her to look for a second-hand house?

Eden was curious about why Victor chose the fashion design business although he could make a lot of money from real estate.

Eden looked at Victor's back, feeling puzzled.

Victor walked ahead. He took out his mobile phone and sent a message to his good friend, Adonis.

At the moment, Adonis was in charge of the work in the villa area here.

He remembered that some time ago, Adonis was interested in a two-storey villa. He had already booked the villa even before the bidding process. The villa was ready to be renovated at the moment.

The price that Victor gave him was very low. It was no doubt meant as a gift for him.

Chapter 72

Adonis who was preparing to renovate the villa looked handsome. He scanned every corner of the room with his eyes and he looked extremely serious.

He was wearing a white casual shirt and a pair of black leggings. His outfit made his handsome face looked warm and soft.

While he was drawing the renovation sketches, he suddenly heard the notification of a text message.

He picked up his phone from the table, unlocked and read the message.

"Adonis, sell your villa at a price of two million dollars. Just give the reason that you need instant money to go abroad."

His eyes deepened all of a sudden and he felt that he was going to explode. The book and pen in his hand dropped onto the floor.

He read the message three times before he was finally convinced that the message was from Victor.

Anger flashed through his eyes, and his fingers quickly tapped on the keyboard.

Victor had been waiting for Adonis's reply. When his phone screen lit up, he quickly lowered his head to read the message.

"Victor, are you crazy? You know how much I like this villa and you want me to sell it for just two million dollars. That's impossible. I won't sell it! It's several million dollars less!" There was an angry emoji and a series of question marks at the end of the message.

Victor frowned. The Church family did not lack houses.

He quickly replied the message.

"You have to sell it. I'll talk to you later. Call me now and tell me that you want to sell the house and go abroad."

"That's not going to happen! That's not going to happen even if there was a knife at my throat. I've always wanted this villa." Adonis quickly replied.

Victor's eyes were fuelled with anger, and he typed on the keyboard quickly.

"Take care of this matter. I'll give you a three-storey villa later."

As soon as Victor sent the message, Eden's phone rang.

"Hey! Jasper!" Eden greeted him with a smile.

Victor became furious when he heard the word "Jasper". Why was Jasper always around?

"Eden, you don't have to look for a house anymore. A friend of mine wants to go abroad and he is in urgent need for money. He has a two-storey villa near the school area. The price is not expensive. It is two-storied and is very suitable for your family of five to stay." Jasper's happy voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Really? Jasper!" Eden was very excited. She asked again in disbelief, "Jasper, are you sure that I can buy a villa in River City at that price?"

"Eden, I knew you wouldn't believe me. The villa was built ten years ago. The price of the house was not as high as it is now. Moreover, the house was sold at this price because it was quite old and was unoccupied for many years."

"That's great! Jasper, I'll come and find you later!" Eden chatted with Jasper happily for a while before hanging up.

She looked at Victor happily and said, "Mr. Alwynn, we don't need to look for a house anymore. My friend just called me and said that he has a friend who wanted to go abroad and was in urgent need of money. He happens to be selling a villa at the moment. The price is within my price range too. I am interested in his villa."

Victor's gaze deepened. How could it be so fast? The excuse was exactly the same as his.

Was Jasper also having the same thoughts as him?

Adonis's message came through at the same time.

"Deal! You have promised me a three-storey villa." Victor looked at the message, wishing he could beat Adonis to death.

If Adonis had agreed earlier, Jasper wouldn't have got the opportunity.

That b*stard!

Victor would teach him a lesson later!

Victor was very furious at the moment that he could kill someone.

Chapter 73

"Miss Bleu, is the villa nearby?" Victor was afraid that the villa was too far away and it would be inconvenient for Eden to send or fetch her children back from school.

Deep down, Victor desperately wanted to figure out everything about Eden. He didn't even understand why he would do that.

He couldn't help feeling attracted to Eden.

He soon realized that when he fell in love with someone, he was willing to do anything for that person.

"Mr. Alwynn, the villa is near the school," Eden said with a relaxed smile.

Victor's lips couldn't help curving upwards when he saw that.

He said in a clear and gentle tone, "Congratulations, Miss Bleu!"

"Thank you for today, Mr. Alwynn," Eden said politely with a charming smile.

The present Victor was completely different from the Victor she first met

Victor was guarded up and cold to everyone previously. People would even avoid him from far.

Victor looked straight at her. He was nervous about what he was going to say next.

Victor had been working hard in the business field for many years. He had been through a lot of different situations before.

However, he suddenly felt nervous to face the pure and innocent woman in front of him.

His eyes brightened, and his lips curved into a faint smile. "Miss Bleu, why don't you invite me to dinner as a way of thanking me?"

Eden was a bit troubled when she heard this. She was going to have dinner with Jasper tonight. Ricky also needed to head back to Gate City.

Eden looked up, a trace of guilt in her clear eyes. Her eyes were beautiful and enchanting. "Mr. Alwynn, I have promised to have dinner with my friend tonight. Can I invite you to dinner tomorrow?"

Hearing this, a hint of disappointment flashed through Victor's eyes. Was she going to accompany Jasper?

Most people would care for a person wholeheartedly when they are devoted to that person.

Victor was one of them. He wouldn't even look at the things that he was not interested in. However, if he wanted something, he would do anything to get it.

Eden's short existence made him feel that half of his world was stolen by her.

A lot of people were in a hurry on the busy streets.

Victor was about to speak.

But Eden's phone rang again.

He lowered his eyes and waited at the side sturdily. There was a hint of indifference on his handsome face.

"Ricky." The smile on Eden's face grew bigger when she received a call from her son.

Victor tensed up when he heard the word "Ricky".

Victor, who had been neglected, suddenly held his breath and listened closely.

"Mom, mommy Abigail and I are not leaving tonight. We'll go back tomorrow. We won't have dinner with you tonight because we have a banquet. Please wait for me after you've finished your dinner. I'll reach home at around ten o'clock."

"Why?" Eden was confused.

"You will know everything tomorrow morning. Goodbye, Mom!" Henrick hung up the phone quickly, keeping Eden in suspense.

Eden held the phone with a puzzled look. Based on Ricky's tone, he seemed to be very happy.

Victor suddenly felt very happy. His handsome face was sparkling. "It seems like Miss Bleu's plans for dinner tonight have been canceled."

Eden looked at Victor who had a faint smile on his face. He seemed to be looking forward to her invitation to dinner.

Eden decided to invite Victor to dinner since there was time.

She smiled faintly and said, "Time for me to return the favor. Tonight's dinner is on me, Mr. Alwynn."

Chapter 74

"I was waiting for this!" Victor looked at her with a cold but charming smile.

Victor's smile made Eden feel cold suddenly.

It suddenly reminded her of the time when she had hidden herself in his arms when she met Myra and her daughter. He was brutally cold at that time.

Eden blinked her eyes. She dared not look into Victor's eyes. She said in a hurry, "Mr. Alwynn, let's go!"

After that, Eden turned and walked forward.

Victor looked at her back. He raised his eyebrows and his dark eyes glimmered.

Victor took a few steps and moved to Eden's side so that he was able to walk side by side with her. "Miss Bleu, are you used to the company's apartment?" There was a hint of concern in his calm tone.

"It's okay. I was planning to return to Gate City after staying here for a month, but now I may have to stay here for the rest of my life."

She didn't expect this result.

She had thought about coming back, but she had experienced too much pain in the city.

It gave her the feeling of being trapped in the cage and she couldn't escape!

Time would not heal all the wounds, especially the ones the wounds in her heart. They could never be healed for the rest of her life.

In the past, she did not have the courage to face it all because she was not confident as she was living under Myra's shadow.

But when she had experienced the deepest pain in the world, she suddenly realized that she would be defeated if she didn't remain strong.

"River City is great! Don't you like it, Miss Bleu?" Victor started to probe again.

Eden glanced at the busy street and smiled bitterly. "It's not that I don't like River City but I had experienced a painful past here. However, this city is giving me some hope now."

She had forgotten the things that had happened before she was six. She might get her memories back somewhere in the city.

Even if she went to ask Bethany about this matter, Bethany would not tell her.

After all, Myra and her daughter were both vicious.

But still, she wanted to find her biological parents and at least know if they were doing well.

She would like to see what her parents looked like too.

Blood runs thicker than water. She must do her best to find her parents.

She had always wondered if she looked like her father or her mother. She yearned for her parents.

"It's good as long as there is hope!" Victor didn't say a lot of comforting words. He was already in the abyss, and he needed someone who could touch his soul and pull him out of the abyss.

Eden's existence in the past few days had made him change a lot.

But he only showed it in front of Eden.

One should not worry about the past but live a happy life.

Sometimes, a big smile could not defeat the past too.

"That's right! It's good as long as there is hope!" Eden smiled confidently. She looked at the blue sky and thought of her three children. She was confident about her future.

Victor's lips curved upwards slightly when he saw that Eden became energetic all of a sudden.

There was a supermarket next to them. Victor asked Eden to wait for a while and went to buy two bottles of mineral water. He uncapped the bottles, and handed one to Eden.

"Thank you!" Eden accepted the water with a smile. She glanced at the handsome and elegant Victor. She suddenly felt that he was not as scary as rumored by the people in the company. Although he was indifferent and distant, he was still the president of Alwynn Group after all. It was understandable that he had a little temper.

Chapter 75

Eden took a sip of water and asked, "What do you want to eat, Mr. Alwynn?"

She knew that he was used to eating delicacies, but she didn't have enough money to treat him those.

Victor looked at her pure and innocent face. His eyes brightened slightly and he went into deep thought. After a while, his lips curled upwards and he said, "Let's go back to the Sichuan restaurant last time. The dishes there taste good." He and Anson often went to the restaurant to eat too.

She listened and realized that she would be able to afford it if they chose to eat there.

"Let's go then! If we go there now, the timing would be just right. There are a lot of people there during weekends." Eden also liked that restaurant very much.

The crayfish there were exceptionally delicious!

She loved eating the crayfish there!

She would bring Jasper there one day and have a blast.

"Let's go!" Victor looked up and took a sip of water.

Eden glanced sideways and was slightly stunned.

Victor looked extraordinarily handsome the moment he raised his head to drink water. His handsome face was like a sculpture with clear facial features.

He looked cold on the outside and would always give people a distant and indifferent feeling, but the light in his eyes was warm.

His body was like a majestic Greek sculpture and he exuded a domineering aura that was able to attract people. People passing by couldn't help looking at him in awe.

Victor felt Eden's gaze on him and looked at her suddenly. His gaze was deep and enchanting.

Eden stared at him for some time before realizing that she had lost her composure. She quickly looked away. Her face was blushing and her heart was beating fast.

She gulped quickly and felt extremely embarrassed for her gaffe.

She lowered her head. Eden, who had always been confident, dare not look at Victor at the moment.

She held her bag tighter with her hand nervously until her hand became pale.

Oh my god, she was actually attracted to him.

Victor looked at her awkward and blushing face with a mischievous smile. Her adorable expression left a deep impression in his heart.

At the moment Victor could see a child's face overlapping with Eden's face. The amazing resemblance made his heart beat faster and his eyes lit up with hope.

The only thing that he could do now was to wait for Anson to find out everything as soon as possible.

During this period, Adonis, who had been successfully compromised, called Victor many times, but Victor did not answer his calls.

Victor purposely switched his phone to silent mode.

Adonis was unlucky. Although he was only late for a few seconds, he was already blacklisted by Victor. It was impossible for Adonis to meet up with Victor for quite some time.

Adonis had worked very hard. However, offending Victor was like offending the Emperor.

What's more, Victor did it to help Eden.

When Adonis found out the reason, he almost burst into tears. He regretted not agreeing to Victor's terms earlier. He had let a three-storey villa slipped past his eyes.

"Miss Bleu, you attended a university in River City. Which primary school did you study in?" Victor asked casually.

Eden looked at him oddly. Why would he suddenly ask this?

Victor explained with a faint smile, "Miss Bleu, don't think too much. I'm just curious. I was just asking casually!"

Eden chuckled in her heart. That was indeed casual!

Eden thought for a moment and said, "I lost part of my memory. I remember I studied in Spiula County until grade five. I only moved and studied in River City when I was in junior high school!"

Chapter 76

She already knew that she was not her mother's biological daughter at that time. However, she could do nothing because she was still very young.

She was good at her studies because she believed in studying hard. Unlike Myra, she did not need a tutor.

She could never blend into the Gienger family. She finally knew the reason when she heard the conversation between Myra and her mother that morning.

Victor was shocked by the fact that Eden had lost part of her memory.

He did not speak and he looked serious. He pursed his lips and seemed to be deep in thought. Even his eyes, which were usually frivolous, became heavy.

After walking for a while, Victor asked again casually, "What caused you to lose your memory, Miss Bleu?"

Eden was suddenly rooted to the spot. Her face was pale and her gaze was afar. She looked unsettled.

Unconsciously, they had reached the restaurant in Fashion Square.

It was indeed a small world. She met Myra and her mother at this restaurant previously. She didn't expect to meet them here again today.

Victor sensed Eden's odd behaviour suddenly and quickly followed her gaze. When he saw Myra and Bethany, a previous incident flashed through his mind instantly.

However, Eden's expression at the moment was different from last time.

She did not look frightened. She looked confident instead.

He was looking forward to seeing her performance suddenly.

Victor narrowed his eyes and looked at Myra and Bethany calmly.

"Mom, look! Isn't that woman Cyan? The man standing beside her is Mr. Alwynn!" Myra said in shock. She glared at Eden.

At first, she thought she made a mistake. After watching for a while, she was sure that the woman who looked elegant, graceful and confident in a modern white dress, was Cyan.

She would never believe that the woman in front of her was Cyan if it weren't for her face.

Her impression of Cyan was that she would always keep her head down and was also very obsequious.

Bethany's calm gaze landed on Cyan for a while before she sneered suddenly.

Damned Cyan. She had finally appeared after disappearing for seven years.

Bethany was wearing a fashionable scarlet suit. Her outfit made her look elegant yet feminine.

Myra and Bethany walked side by side and moved towards Eden.

Eden contained her expression when they were walking over to her. Her eyes were indifferent and distant and she had a faint smile on her face. She looked competent and mature.

"Eden, you seem to be clinging on to Mr. Alwynn. Your mother is right in front of you. Don't you want to greet me?" Bethany's tone was sharp, and her expression was full of contempt.

Did she raise an ungrateful person?

Even a dog would wag its tail when it saw her.

Raising a child from another family was indeed different and difficult.

"Mr. Alwynn, I haven't seen you in a long time!" Myra, who was wearing a sexy outfit, had her eyes fixed on Victor at the moment. She looked at him with a gentle smile.

Victor withdrew his gaze languidly. He just nodded indifferently and his gaze landed on Eden's face.

At the moment, Eden looked completely different. She exuded a very attractive, mature, and competent aura.

Seeing Eden's indifference and silence, Bethany frowned and sneered at her. Bethany's tone was bitter and harsh. "Eden, have forgotten about your mother after leaving home for seven years?"

Eden smiled faintly, and a trace of puzzlement flashed through her eyes. She said calmly, "Madam, have you mistaken me for someone else?"

Victor was shocked when he heard her words. He kept his composure, his lips slowly curved into a deep smile.

Bethany and Myra were astounded and they looked at Eden in disbelief.

Myra glared at Eden and sneered, "Cyan, you are so ungrateful. You lived with the Gienger family for many years before you left us for seven years. How could you abandon your mother and sister? You are really heartless."

Myra's angry face was awfully ugly. She rolled her eyes and her arched eyebrows revealed her forehead's wrinkles.

Eden's eyes were clear. She looked at Myra with a decent and generous smile. After some time, she smiled again and said, "Miss Gienger, right?"

Myra was stunned and also suspicious. Cyan had always been obsequious in order to please them. She had never been so calm like this before.

Seeing Eden's calm smile, she could not help but nod gently.

Bethany looked at her suspiciously.

It was Cyan's face, but it was more beautiful and elegant!

If it was not Cyan, how could there be a person resembled her so much in this world!

Eden's smile gradually widened, her clear eyes were cold. "I heard that the Gienger family is a rich and powerful family. Your family upbringing had really impressed me. My name is Eden. My surname is Bleu, not Gienger. It was really eye-opening for me to see Miss Gienger barking at someone who she was not sure of."

"You... Who do you think you are? How dare you discipline me?" Myra's face turned red after hearing Eden's words. No one had ever insulted her like that. Eden was the first one to do so.

Eden's eyes brightened up. Her voice was faint and her smile was decent. She said confidently, "I dare not play tricks in front of Miss Gienger. I had really learned from you. You taught me how to behave like a noble lady from a rich and powerful family."

She knew that she would meet Myra and Bethany again after her previous encounter with them.

How could she seek revenge and find her biological parents if she did not stay strong?

She had become stronger day by day, after she gave birth to the baby. She had changed from an obsequious person to a reserved person. She was improving herself to be a better person. She was slowly becoming more mature.

When she saw Myra at the moment, she realized how much she hated her previous self. In order to blend into the life of the Gienger family, she couldn't be herself. She only did what Myra and Bethany liked.

She was so obsequious and cautious!

Thinking back now, she felt that it was unnecessary to pretend to be another person because of others.

She used to be so silly.

"You b*stard..."

"Miss Gienger! You were the one who has mistaken Eden for someone else, but you still scold her so boldly. This is Eden Bleu, the design director of my headquarters. She is not Cyan from the Gienger family!" Victor's tone was indifferent.

Myra immediately switched back to her gentle expression as soon as Victor spoke.

When she realized that Victor was speaking for Eden, she asked in disbelief, "Mr. Alwynn, is she really not Cyan? Are you sure that she didn't change her identity to steal information from the Alwynn Group?"

Chapter 78

Myra just wanted to expose Cyan. She didn't even pay attention to what she had just said.

Bethany looked at Myra and frowned. How could Myra speak in such an unrestrained manner?

Cyan had lived in the Gienger family for more than ten years. It was true that it was Cyan's face.

But-

Victor's eyes gradually turned cold, his lips curved upwards coldly. "It seems the Gienger family has a malicious intention towards the Alwynn Group. Seems like I have to investigate this matter seriously. I want to know if there is a mole from the Gienger family in the Alwynn Group."

Bethany was shocked after hearing Victor's words. Her arrogant face instantly turned pale. She quickly smiled apologetically and said, "Mr. Alwynn, you must be joking. Rara was too anxious and she spoke in a hurry. Mr. Alwynn, don't take Rara's words seriously. It seems that we made a mistake. I have a daughter who looks like Miss Bleu. She left home many years ago. I miss my daughter very much. Miss Bleu reminds me of her. I hope Miss Bleu doesn't mind!"

Bethany's expression was sad when she finished speaking.

There was even longing in her expression.

She missed her daughter very much?

Eden looked at Bethany's hypocritical face and smiled coldly. Bethany was really talented in acting. It would be a pity if she didn't become an actress.

Bethany was the only person in the world who could use her adopted daughter for her own benefits.

Eden smiled calmly and her eyes were cold. She said in an unhurried tone. "Mrs. Gienger, you're too serious. I am generous and I don't like to argue with others. I hope that both of you won't make the same mistake again!"

"Miss Bleu, there will be no next time." Bethany's smile was a little far-fetched, her eyes were dark.

"Mr. Alwynn, let's go!" If possible, Eden did not want to see these two hypocritical faces again for the rest of her life.

"Sure!" Victor nodded. He brought Eden into the restaurant without looking at Bethany and Myra.

His tall figure next to Eden made it look like he was protecting Eden.

Anger welled up in Myra's chest. Her breathing was rapid and she looked at her mother angrily and said, "Mom, she is obviously Cyan. Why didn't you expose her? She is with Victor, and it seems that they are going to have dinner together. Although I tried to meet Victor by all means, I never succeeded. If I marry him, the Gienger family would become powerful and influential in River City."

Bethany glared at her coldly. She wondered how anyone could bear with Myra's quick temper. "How can I prove that she is Cyan? Victor had already spoken for her and denied that Eden is Cyan. What else can I do?"

"Mom? Does she have any birthmark on her?" Myra didn't give up. She wanted to expose Cyan.

How could that woman be prettier than her?

"I didn't even bother to look at her when she was growing up. How could I possibly remember if she has a birthmark or not?" Cyan had always been a time bomb to her.

She was afraid that Cyan would suddenly remember her childhood. If that happened, Bethany would be sent to prison.

Bethany was a little worried about Victor.

Speaking of this, she quickly glared at her daughter. "Rara, the business world is like a battlefield. How can you speak without restraint? Victor is very influential in the business world. Do you wish for the Gienger family's hard-earned wealth to be gone?"

Chapter 79

"Mom! How can you say that? I spoke like that because I wanted to slander that woman. Mom, have you ever seen Victor have dinner with any woman?"

He must have set his eyes on the woman whom he brought out." Myra was still arrogant and furious.

The design director of the Alwynn Group.

She suddenly frowned and thought of something. She yelled, "By the way, isn't Marianne the design director of the Alwynn Group? Her designs are outstanding in River City. How could she let Eden take over? Cyan doesn't have the ability to be the design director."

Cyan was only two years older than her. She remembered clearly that Cyan did not have such talent.

She still did not believe that Cyan was capable of it even after seven years.

Unlike Myra, Bethany was not as impatient.

She looked at Victor and Eden who were talking and laughing in the restaurant instead.

Her impression on Victor was that he was a cold, indifferent and distant person.

On the other hand, Cyan had always been obsequious. Bethany had never seen her being so confident before.

It would be odd if that woman was really Cyan and she pretended not to know them.

Her eyes brightened and she sneered sinisterly. She looked at her angry daughter and said slowly, "Rara, it doesn't matter whether she is Cyan or not. She is a useless and ungrateful person anyway."

Call Haven now and tell her that Victor is having dinner with his company's design director. Haven is the apple of the Clement family's eye. She is also close to the Alwynn family. Moreover, she is determined to marry Victor. If she were to be involved, it would be very interesting."

Myra raised her eyebrows and her gaze was eerie. She said with a smile, "Mom, you always come up with ideas. I'll call Haven right away."

Myra quickly took out the phone from her bag and typed Haven's number.

Eden and Victor sat by the window. They seemed to be chatting, but they were actually observing Bethany and Myra's every move.

Eden was very familiar with Bethany's gaze at the moment.

Whenever Bethany had such a look in her eyes, she would have already come up with a plan in her mind.

Even though River City was very big, there was still a Whatsapp group among the elite women.

Eden and Victor's dinner today would be their biggest topic of conversation because Victor was usually not close to women.

She had been working hard for the past six years so that she could acquire the shares of the Gienger family.

Jasper and Abigail had already bought the shares of the Gienger family.

She had also given some of her money to Jasper. Jasper would help her buy the shares once the Gienger family sold their shares.

Although she was living in fear when she was with the Gienger family, she still devoted herself to them.

However, she was rewarded with a conspiracy that she didn't expect.

Based solely on this point, she would not hate the Gienger family as much. She truly hated Bethany because she caused her to lose her memory and her biological parents after hitting her with a car.

Victor glanced at Bethany and Myra, who were still outside. Something odd flashed through his eyes.

Victor and Eden haven't ordered anything after they entered the restaurant.

Eden said that she wanted to wait for a while. Victor seemed to understand why she wanted to do so.

She seemed to be aware of what Bethany and Myra were going to do

His calm and relaxed body made him seemed free and unfettered. He would stare at the mole on Eden's hand from time to time. He could feel his heart beating with excitement when he thought of what Eden had said.

Chapter 80

The fact that she had lost part of her memories made him more hopeful.

Eden, how about letting me find you this time?

Victor lowered his head and looked at Eden from time to time.

Eden drank her tea leisurely and also looked at Victor from time to time.

At first, she thought that Victor would ask her questions regarding Cyan, but he didn't. Instead, he chatted with her about other stuff

Realizing that it was about time to leave, Victor looked at Eden with a twinkle in his eyes. He said in a clear voice, "Miss Bleu, do you mind changing a restaurant?"

Eden nodded with a smile. That was also what she wanted. She smiled faintly and said, "Mr. Alwynn, let's go to another restaurant!"

She understood why Victor would do that. Myra had made a phone call. Even though she didn't hear what Myra had said, she knew that Myra and Bethany were up to no good.

Victor and Eden left the restaurant without Myra and Bethany noticing.

Victor was not afraid to let other people know that he had dinner with Eden.

He just didn't want his dinner with Eden to be interrupted.

He admitted in his heart that he was very interested in Eden because she had always given him the feeling that she was his Eden.

She was also Ricky's mother. Hence, Victor did not want to let go of Eden.

Victor led Eden to a restaurant with good food and an environment that was better than the previous one. They had to pass an alley in Fashion Square to reach the restaurant.

This time, Victor brought Eden to the private compartment directly.

After they had ordered their food, they chatted casually while waiting for the food to be served.

Victor's Whatsapp notification rang several times

He unlocked his phone screen and saw a message from Anson. He had already made a deal with Abigail. He would bring Henrick to sign the contract tomorrow morning.

Victor's lips curved upwards slightly when he received the news.

Anson was efficient this time.

Eden looked calm and she would look out of the window occasionally. The few roses blooming beautifully outside swayed in the evening wind. They looked extremely enchanting.

If Victor didn't take the initiative to talk to her, she would not speak.

When Victor was replying his message, she sat quietly at the side and did not disturb him.

Although the room was quiet, Eden did not feel depressed.

Although Haven rushed as quickly as possible to the restaurant that Myra mentioned, she did not see Victor and Eden.

Haven felt relieved but at the same time, she was also angry. She called Myra immediately.

Myra and Bethany went to another restaurant to have dinner. They would be able to see where Victor and Eden were sitting on the second floor. They would sit back, have dinner, and watch everything.

However, Myra received a call from Haven before they even reached the private compartment.

"Hello!" Myra beamed and answered the phone. She thought that Haven was calling to thank her.

She heard Haven's angry and sharp voice instead. "Myra Gienger, are you kidding me? Victor and Eden are not here." "How is that possible? When we left..." Myra suddenly stopped. She did not look back when she left.

"Haven, it doesn't matter whether you believe me or not. I saw them with my own eyes. I was kind enough to call and let you know but you are angry at me. Don't you feel ashamed?" Myra was also hot-tempered. She lost her temper instantly when Haven shouted at her.
