

Gluey Love 711

Chapter 711

Her father wished that someone could take over his company so that he could travel freely with her mother. However, she couldn't take over the company at this time, because she wanted to realize her own dream. Anyway, her father was still young.

"Okay, when he comes back, let's go out and have a meal together." Darlene said. She wanted to meet Jaida.

Eden said, "Alright! I will tell him when he comes back."

Darlene raised her hand and looked at the time. Then she looked at Eden, "You haven't had lunch, have you?"

Eden shook her head slightly.

Darlene stood up happily and said with a grin, "Eden, that's good. I haven't eaten yet. Go back after having lunch with me."

"Okay! I have the same idea." Eden's face was filled with endless joy, and her bright eyes were shining with excitement.

Seeing her like this, Darlene smiled again. Eden's smile was so comforting and warm.

Darlene said, "Let's go! There is a very nice restaurant nearby. It is famous for traditional dishes of River City."

"Great! Auntie, I like the traditional dishes of River City." Eden got up and picked up the documents on the table.

When they went downstairs, Darlene introduced several state- owned enterprises around to her.

Several companies of Tillie and Paulina were on this road.

Eden had heard of it before, but she had never been here because she was too busy.

Speaking of Paulina, Eden suddenly remembered what had happened in the mall.

However, Paulina was really generous. For her own pride, she actually spent ten million dollars in order not to let her buy the clothes.

"Eden, you are developing very well now, and Victor's company has a bright future. You and your team must be more careful. I have been working in the industry for many years and have seen a lot people plot against each other." Darlene had to remind her. After all, it was inevitable that Eden would be sidelined in a big company.

Eden smiled and nodded. She had a good relationship with her subordinates.

She knew these things and had always been careful.

Eden said, "Aunt, I will be careful."

"Mm." Darlene took her to a corner and they entered a beautiful restaurant. The decoration inside was retro. There were two flourishing plants at the door, and the quiet environment made people feel very good.

Darlene was a frequent visitor here. As soon as she entered, a man walked to her with a smile.

"Miss Burton, welcome."

Darlene said, "Manager West, prepare a private box and serve some special dishes for me."

Manager West smiled and nodded, "Okay! Miss Burton, I'll take you in first."

Saying this, Manager West made a very gentlemanly gesture.

Eden took the opportunity to look at the surrounding environment. This place was really very nice. The tables and chairs were wooden, and green plants were placed on the tables. Compared to other restaurants, eating in such a place was more enjoyable.

After they entered the private box, a waiter served them tea very soon.

Darlene said, "Eden, I know you like traditional dishes. The traditional dishes here are very authentic. I often came here to eat. Compared with the dishes in River City Restaurant, I prefer the food here."

Many people ate in River City Restaurant because it was famous. The dishes there were delicious indeed, but the traditional dishes were not very authentic.

Eden looked around again and smiled, "Auntie, compared with the grand decoration in River City Restaurant, the environment here is more suitable for traditional dishes."

Darlene said, "Yeah, you can have a taste later. The plates here are very interesting."

Eden's eyes were full of expectation. When she was in Gate City, she missed the traditional dishes in River City. She could buy some of the dishes in Gate City, but she was not satisfied with them.

"By the way, auntie, how many people will participate in the design competition?" Eden wanted to know this matter better.

After all, she had been paying attention to the competition.

Darlene smiled, "Eden, the designers in the clothing companies, as well as the designers in personal studios and some students will participate in the competition. The organizer is the domestic clothing association. In a period of time, there will be a soliciting platform. You can search it online, and you can see the theme design works of the previous competitions. You will have to design three to five sets of clothing and write down your own design concepts, the practicality and promotion of the clothing, as well as its popular trend clearly."

Eden frowned slightly. In the past, she had always wanted to participate in the competition, but she did not have time. This time, she could finally participate it. If she could stand head and shoulders above all the designers, she would be closer to her dream.

"By the way, Eden, if you win the first place, you will get a cash bonus and professional resources. You have to work hard." Darlene said with a smile. In fact, she was very confident in Eden.

She could tell that Eden was more capable than she thought when she saw the new clothes designed by her.

Eden could realise her potentiality bit by bit.

She was looking forward to Eden's achievement.

Eden nodded heavily. The competition was a stage that could make more people know her. She would try her best.

"Aunt, I will definitely win the first place." Eden joked.

"Ha-ha..." Darlene looked at her mischievous face and smiled.

"Eden, you have the strength to win the first prize. At that time, you must treat me to a sumptuous meal." Darlene urged her. In fact, Eden was capable enough to win.

Eden was entrusted with an important task and nodded heavily, "Auntie, I will call forth all my energy and win the first prize, and then I will treat you."

"Okay!" Darlene laughed. She was old, and it was Eden's turn to show her talent. The world belonged to the young.

While they were talking, the dishes had been served. Looking at the characteristic plates and delicious dishes, Eden was drooling.

Darlene looked at her and said with a smile, "Eden, you look so hungry. Eat it."

"Mm!" Eden swallowed. During this time, she had been enjoying delicious food, and she felt that she had gained a lot of weight.

In the past, she weighed 45 kilograms, and she was about to be fifty kilograms at this time.

Sure enough, it was normal for a woman in love to gain weight.

Under Darlene's loving gaze, Eden gluttoned herself with delicacies. Fish and braised pork had been her favorite.

Eden was very full, but she was very delighted!

"Auntie, I'm full." Eden still wanted to eat, but she was stuffed to the gills.

Darlene said, "Eden, let's go. I have something to do this afternoon."

"Okay!"

When they got out of the private box and arrived at the door, they ran into Paulina, Haven, and Tillie, who had just come in.

Chapter 712

It was said that people were particularly annoyed when they met their enemies. Paulina felt so bad when she saw Eden.

Eden also looked at Paulina. Paulina didn't look well, and she was not as energetic and bossy as she was last time.

Her face was very haggard, and she seemed to have lost a lot of weight in a short time.

When Paulina returned home that night, she was beaten by her father as soon as she entered her house, and her cheeks were swollen.

She had known that she would be beaten before she came back.

She was too embarrassed to go to work the next day, and she didn't dare to go out until that day. The swelling on her face had been reduced, but she was listless after being locked up for a few days.

That day, she was in a low spirit. During the meeting, she had been absent- minded and was severely warned by her leader.

Her father asked her to return ten million dollars to him in a year. How could she make so much money? dad?"

It was all Eden's fault. She regretted it so much, and she would rather not have met Eden in the mall that day. In that case, she would not have lost ten million dollars and would not have been beaten so badly by her father.

Her father was famous for caring very much about money, and he doted on her in ordinary times, so he gave her that card.

As for Darlene, when she saw Tillie, her eyes were not filled with resentment like before. This time, her eyes were very calm, as if Tillie was an unimportant person who would not cause her to suffer mood swings.

"Eden, let's go." Darlene said in a low voice.

"Mm!" Eden took a look at Paulina and didn't greet her.

None of them spoke. Just as Eden was about to walk past Paulina, Paulina glanced at her coldly with her eyes full of malice, and then she reached out her foot and tripped Eden.

"Ah..." Eden leaned forward.

She staggered and was about to fall to the ground.

"Eden!" Darlene cried out in surprise. Seeing that Eden was about to fall down, she slapped the table with great strength and frowned slightly in pain.

Suddenly, someone held Eden who was about to fall down with his strong arms.

Eden looked up, only to see Victor's brooding eyes.

She was slightly shocked and didn't expect Victor to be here. Wasn't he reading books at home? Moreover, when she came out, he followed her pitifully like a abandoned child, asking her to go back earlier.

"Eden, are you all right?" Victor asked in a deep voice. It was obvious that he cared about her very much.

Eden pursed her lips slightly and smiled, "If you hadn't appeared here, something bad would have happened to me."

Eden looked at the corner of the table and had a lingering fear in her heart.

Victor glanced at Paulina, and a hint of cruelty flashed through his eyes. When he looked at Eden, his eyes turned gentle again, "It seems that I came at the right time." He seemed to be joking, but his face darkened to the extreme.

Eden stood firm and looked back at Paulina who had tripped her. However, Paulina acted as if nothing had happened. She ignored her and looked at Victor with infatuation.

"Victor, why are you here?" Haven asked with a gentle smile.

Who was the man behind Victor? Haven saw a man in suit and pretended to be very familiar with Victor.

Victor glanced at her blandly and did not speak. Instead, he looked at Eden and said tenderly, "Have you eaten yet?"

Eden said, "Yeah, I ate with auntie."

Victor nodded slightly and leaned over. Only then did Eden see a handsome man in a dark suit standing behind him.

Victor introduced, "Mr. Parma, this is my fiancée, Eden."

Eden was dumbfounded.

Others seemed to be surprised.

Eden did not expect that Victor would introduce her to his friend like this. This was the first time that Victor said that she was his fiancée in front of others.

Eden felt a little helpless when her identity was exposed!

But when she heard his words, she did not reject it in her heart. Instead, she was like over the moon.

Ned glanced at Eden and saw that she was pure- looking. Her big watery eyes were charming, and she looked so fresh, neat, and beautiful.

No wonder Victor liked her. Indeed, every man wanted to have such a girlfriend. She was as pure and bright as a fairy. Besides, her noble and unusual temperament was a kind of unworldly beauty.

He had seen countless beautiful women, but his first impression of Eden was favourable. He wanted to get close to her very much.

"Miss Bleu, hello, I am Mr. Alwynn's friend, Ned Parma. It's my honor to meet you!" Ned looked at Eden with a smile, and his eyes were as brooding as Victor's.

Victor was an eligible bachelor in River City. Everyone said that he hated women very much, and he had never a girlfriend before. However, he actually had a fiancée, which gave many people a slap in the face.

Eden blushed and looked at Ned with a graceful smile, "Hello, Mr. Parma!"

Seeing that Victor was here, Darlene was relieved. She looked at Victor and said, "Mr. Alwynn, since you are here, I'll leave first. I have something to do. Please take care of Eden." She had to hold a meeting to attend later, and there was not much time.

Victor, "Goodbye, Miss Burton."

"Eden, I'm leaving." Darlene rubbed Eden's hair softly. She could rest assured when Eden stayed with Victor.

Eden said, "Auntie, let's talk next time."

"Okay!"

Darlene looked at her with a loving smile and went out.

Victor looked at Ned who was standing beside him and said with a smile, "Mr. Parma, wait for me in the private box. I'll be there soon."

Ned nodded slightly. He looked at Eden and smiled, "Miss Bleu, I hope we can meet again later."

After that, he went inside. However, the moment he turned around, he became indifferent again.

When he walked in front of Paulina, Haven, and Tillie, he didn't even take a look at them.

But Paulina was lost in thought. Why did she feel so familiar with Ned's name? She seemed to have seen his handsome face before. She couldn't remember it anymore, but she had a feeling of familiarity.

Victor took out his phone and made a call.

After a while, Adonis, who came with him, walked with two men in black suits. The two men were much stronger than Adonis.

"Victor, what happened?" Adonis glanced at Eden and then looked at Paulina. He was a little confused.

Victor whispered a few words in Adonis's ear.

Even Eden did not hear what Victor said to Adonis.

Adonis glanced at Paulina and nodded slightly, but his eyes turned somewhat cold.

Chapter 713

However, Victor reached out and put his arm around Eden's waist naturally. Looking at her confused eyes, he said with a faint smile, "Eden, let's have a meal with Mr. Parma together."

When Eden heard this, she immediately refused, "But I have finished my meal. Although the food here is delicious, I am stuffed to the gills."

Moreover, she always felt that the way Ned looked at her was strange.

Victor looked at her and found that she burped sometimes. How much had she eaten?

This traditional dishes in this restaurant were indeed delicious. Recently, he wanted to bring her to eat here, but he didn't expect that her aunt had come here with her.

Victor said, "Then don't eat and just stay by my side."

Eden said, "What if I drool when I look at the yummy food?"

Victor said, "Eat if you want." His tone was extremely doting.

Eden said, "But I'm full now. I will feel very uncomfortable if I see them but can't eat them."

Victor finally understood. She didn't want to accompany him at all.

"Let's go there first. If you want to eat, eat some. If you don't want to eat, drink the fruit juice you like. Let's go!" Victor did not allow her to refuse. He held her in his arms and walked inside, ignoring Paulina and the other two.

His gentle expression and soft voice stunned everyone. Was he really Victor?

"Mr. Alwynn." At the moment Victor passed by Paulina, Paulina couldn't help but call him. That day, Victor wore a dark hand-made suit and looked so steady and domineering, making her infatuated.

Victor acted as if he didn't hear her and walked away with Eden.

Paulina, who was ignored, looked at Victor's back in surprise. No matter what, their families were business partners. Victor actually pretended that he didn't know her when they met outside.

"Eden, this b*tch, didn't she say that she had nothing to do with Victor? It has only been a few days, but she has become Victor's fiancée!" Paulina was so angry that she spoke without thinking.

Tillie frowned slightly. She glanced at Paulina and didn't speak.

Meanwhile, Haven looked at Eden's back with jealousy. Eden didn't come back to the Clement family, but so what? She lived a good life under the protection of Victor.

No, she had to speed up. She could not wait like this anymore.

Victor would reveal Eden's identity sooner or later, so she had to get Clement Group and take away everything that should have belonged to Eden. Only then could she rest assured.

At this time, Adonis came to Paulina with two men.

Being stared at by them, Paulina raised her head and looked at them.

She frowned and asked, "What do you want to do?"

Adonis glanced at Paulina's feet and sighed slightly. Victor felt distressed for his beloved woman, and so did he. Although he didn't want Victor to be with Eden, Victor loved her and he couldn't separate them.

Adonis said coldly, "Miss Clark, please go to the private box with us."

Paulina knew that they didn't come with good intentions. She took a step back and raised her voice, "Go to the private box? What do you want from me?"

At this time, Haven came forward and looked at Adonis with a gentle expression, "Adonis, what are you doing?" Haven looked at Paulina with her eyes full of worry. She had seen such a scene before. A lesser-known actress wanted to be the poster girl of Alwynn Group and tried her best to seduce Victor. As a result, as soon as she touched the hem of Victor's clothes, Victor asked Adonis to take her away. After that, she was banned and had never appeared on TV again.

When Victor was very angry, he would do such an extreme thing.

Did he see Paulina trip Eden deliberately?

Adonis looked at Haven with no warmth in his eyes, "Mind your own business and don't worry about others. You have the head of a moron, but the personality of a scheming b*tch. You make me sick. Every word you say and everything you do give people a feeling that you're calculating."

Haven's face changed sharply when Adonis scolded her. Her face turned red, and anger was growing, bubbling up inside her.

Recently, she didn't know why she was so unlucky. As long as she spoke in front of these people, she would be insulted harshly.

Eden, Victor, her mother, her two older brothers and even Adonis all disliked her.

"Adonis, don't go too far! No matter what, I am the daughter of the Clement family. I know you look down on me because I am an adopted daughter, but you can't humiliate me like this." Haven couldn't suppress her anger, and she felt a dull pain in her chest.

However, Adonis's firm face was so calm as he said, "As an adopted daughter, you always put your finger into another's pie. I despise you not because you're adapted, but because you're too mean." Adonis didn't have a good impression of Haven, because she once curried favour by claptrap in a party and angered him.

Adonis took that matter too hard, and he couldn't let it go.

He hadn't found out the reason yet, but he really didn't like Haven's personality.

In addition, he had found something about Paulina. Haven and Paulina were evil associates, so he disliked Haven more.

"Adonis, what right do you have to blame me?" Haven's eyes were brimming with tears. She knew that these people did not like her, and she was well aware of the reason why Adonis hated her.

She had no choice but to frame Adonis's cousin that time!

Adonis said, "I'm not qualified to blame you indeed, but don't tell others that you know me when you see me in the future."

After Adonis finished speaking, he glanced at the two men beside him.

The two of them understood and dragged Paulina inside.

"Oh! What are you doing? Let go of me!" Paulina was scared out of her wits when they suddenly pulled her.

She was not as arrogant as she was when she argued with Eden.

"Haven, Miss Elliott, call the police and call my father." Paulina could not break free and could only look at Haven and Tillie for help.

Looking at Adonis, Tillie said madly, "This is a legal society. What do you want to do?"

Adonis said, "Of course I know this is a legal society. Do I need you to remind me? You idiot! If you want to call the police or call her father and mother, call them as soon as possible! However, you'd better call an ambulance for her."

Saying this, Adonis strode over, looking so commanding and carefree.

Tillie froze on the spot in a frenzy of rage.

Chapter 714

She was actually bullied by a brat!

After Adonis negotiated with Manager West, he went directly to the private box.

Looking at Tillie, Haven didn't know what to do at the moment.

"Miss Elliott, what should we do?" Haven was very uneasy.

The reason why she didn't dare to provoke Victor was very simple. She knew how horrible Victor was.

Only then did Tillie come to sense and said exasperatedly, "How could I know what to do? I don't know her father's phone number. As for calling the police..." Tillie wanted to say something but stopped.

However, the anger in her heart did not disappear.

Adonis scolded her just now, but she could say nothing to defend herself, and her heart was filled with irritation and depression.

Haven bit her lower lip lightly. No, she couldn't wait and she must do something. Paulina was useful to her.

She looked at Adonis's back as he disappeared at the corner and followed him quickly.

"Haven, come back! Why do you go there?" Tillie looked at Haven's back worriedly. She wore high heels, so she ran with difficulty and waved her hands to keep her balance.

In a quiet private box, Paulina was brought in by two bodyguards.

They threw her aside and didn't say anything.

Then they stood at the door and guarded her.

Paulina was really scared at this time. She didn't know why they brought her here.

Looking at the two bodyguards, she was so frightened, "Why did you take me here? I'm going to sue you for illegal detention."

However, the two bodyguards stood straight and didn't even look at her.

"Are you listening to me?"

The two bodyguards still didn't move.

"Hey..." Paulina was very helpless, and she was on the verge of tears.

Eden lived a comfortable life because she had something to do with Victor, but why was she treated like this?

"Bang..." The door was opened, and Adonis walked in domineeringly.

Looking at Adonis like this, Paulina was stunned at first, and then she said with her eyes blazing with the flames of fury, "Adonis, what on earth do you want to do?"

Adonis walked to the sofa and sat down. Then he looked up at Paulina and then glanced at her foot, "You did something bad with your foot, so I want to give you a lesson."

When Paulina heard this, she couldn't help curling up her toes in the black high heels.

If she still did not know what was going on, she would really be too stupid. Victor had seen how she had tripped Eden on purpose.

As a woman, she was good at cheating others and pretending in front of other men, but Victor could always see her through.

Victor was unpredictable, so she couldn't figure out what he was thinking.

Adonis glanced at the two security guards, "Don't beat her too hard. Just give her a lesson."

Paulina took a few steps back quickly, but her back hit the wall. She was driven into a corner.

"Adonis, do you want them to beat me illegally? What right do you have to do this?" Paulina was extremely afraid of pain.

"Ha- ha..." Adonis smirked. With an unconcerned face, he leaned against the sofa with his legs crossed and looked at Paulina's scared face with indifferent eyes.

"You asked for it. It seems that you're addicted to bullying others, and you're too thick-skinned. How can you be afraid of this kind of pain? It will be over soon." Adonis said leisurely.

He could imagine how miffed Victor was since Victor asked him to beat Paulina. He had not received such a task for a long time. He remembered that he did this to a lesser-known actress last time. After that, he had not done such a thing for a long time.

If no one hurt Eden, as an upright man, Victor did not need to do this. However, since Paulina challenged his limits and hurt Eden, he could do everything cruel.

Beating woman was just a piece of cake!

Paulina trembled with anger after hearing this, "Ha-ha..." She smiled coldly, and tears ran down her face, "Is Victor going to take revenge for that woman?"

"That's right! You've got it. Beat her." Adonis had no expression on his face. He hated women who played tricks behind his back the most. Haven was such a woman, and Paulina was the same. These people were just like garbage, and they could never change.

The two security guards walked over and kicked Paulina's leg.

"Ouch..." The severe pain made Paulina scream, and she half knelt on the ground in an instant.

Her forehead was covered with sweat. She looked at Adonis who looked relaxed in disbelief. He really dared to teach her a lesson!

"Adonis, don't forget who I am!" Paulina said in a trembling voice and looked at Adonis with hatred in her eyes.

Adonis laughed, "Aren't you embarrassed to show off your humble identity? I have even beaten someone who is nobler than you. It is the first time that I have met someone so humble as you." She deserved to be taught a lesson just because she seduced Victor, and her identity was insignificant.

Last night, Lucian seemed to be out of his mind. He suddenly ran to the hospital to see Anson and showed them a video. Both of them were so scared and opened their mouth wide in shock, especially Anson whose chin had just been healed. He was so startled that his chin almost dislocated again.

Paulina had seduced Victor. She was close to Victor, but Victor actually did not get angry. He felt that Victor had really become more patient.

However, Victor seemed to have offended Lucian somehow, so Lucian showed them this video.

He and Anson looked at Lucian in disbelief at that time.

He asked, "Lucian, aren't you always very loyal to Victor?"

Lucian said, "He stole the person I like."

At that time, Adonis's jaw dropped.

How could he not know that Lucian had someone he liked?

Lucian only rolled his eyes at him. He could only rub his nose and pretend to be lost in thought!

Later, he didn't get any answer from Anson. However, he was sure of one thing, which was that Victor liked, no, loved Eden.

He had a big project to negotiate that day, and Ned insisted on meeting Victor. In order to preserve his dignity, he came with two bodyguards.

He didn't expect that such a thing would happen before he met Ned.

Originally, he wanted to behave arrogantly to gain respect.

"Woo-woo..." Hearing Paulina's crying, Adonis came to sense. Looking at Paulina, he said with an apologetic face, "Sorry, I was absentminded just now. Now they'll kick you again. You have to endure it, and it will be over soon. It's difficult for me to beat a woman."

He said that he was in a dilemma, but he acted without guilt.

Chapter 715

Paulina looked at the calm expression on Adonis's face and wanted to mock him. But suddenly, she felt a severe pain in her other leg.

"Ah..." She screamed and knelt on the ground. Tears poured down her face again uncontrollably.

Only then did Adonis sit up straight slightly. He narrowed his eyes and no longer looked so casual. In an instant, he became very horrible and fierce.

It was Paulina's first time to see Adonis's frightening look. She was so scared that she didn't even dare to cry anymore. Staring at Adonis with wide eyes, she was afraid that Adonis would kill her in the next moment.

Adonis pointed at her and shook his slender finger, saying with an evil smile, "Paulina, this is the first time I have warned you. In the future, you'd better know what you should do and what you shouldn't. Don't try to hurt Eden.

Otherwise, I have the evidence to let you be imprisoned forever. What's more, your Clark family is really not something in River City. Don't be so arrogant and show off and in front of others. There are a lot of families that are more powerful than your family."

Adonis's tone was extremely sarcastic. Last time, Paulina asked someone to steal their clothes, causing him to go berserk early in the morning. He was still angry because of this.

Moreover, he always looked down upon such a scheming b*tch like Paulina.

At this time, Paulina couldn't care about the pain. She looked at Adonis with fear. Adonis seemed to have known everything, and her heart skipped a beat. Had Victor known that she stole their clothes that day?

Adonis got up, and Paulina was shrouded in his tall and domineering figure.

Paulina was very nervous as she fell on the cold floor, looking at Adonis vigilantly.

Adonis said indifferently with a malicious smile, "Don't worry. This time, I just want to teach you a lesson. Next time, if you dare to annoy us again, your whole family will be ruined." After that, Adonis bent down slightly and whispered in Paulina's ear in an evil tone, "Paulina, if you don't believe me, you can have a try. Mr. Alwynn is powerful in the whole River City, and it is very easy for him to let your family disappear in the business world." He knew how ruthless Victor was very well.

After Adonis finished speaking, he did not care what expression Paulina had on her face, turned around and left with the two bodyguards.

"Bang!" The door was closed.

Only then did Paulina relax herself.

"Woo..." She couldn't help but cry while covering her face. How could this happen?

Why had she been so unlucky during this period of time? The person who had been tortured badly should have been Eden! But why had she been taught a lesson?

Adonis had left, so Haven pushed the door open and went in. Seeing that Paulina was sitting on the ground and crying bitterly, she walked over, looked at her and asked with a worried face, "Paulina, are you okay?"

Paulina looked at Haven with tears in her eyes. Suddenly, she stopped crying and sobbed, "I'm fine. I was just kicked twice. I didn't expect Victor to be so despicable. He actually asked someone to beat me, a weak woman." Paulina thought of Victor's handsome and charming face, and her eyes were full of grievances. Was it wrong for her to like him?

Haven looked at her with a calculating expression in her eyes, "Paulina, you don't know Victor very well. Few people know about his life. He has always been willful, and his methods are really cruel. If you want to get him, you have to think of another way. As long as Eden disappears, Victor will be yours."

"What should I do?" Paulina looked at Haven with an unconvinced face. If she gave up, she would have suffered all the grievances in vain.

Haven looked around, "Paulina, now no one knows that Eden is Victor's fiancée except for us. As long as you can become his woman before he makes their relationship public, everything will be okay."

It was impossible for her to be with Victor. She had reached an agreement with Vincent, and she would have nothing to worry about after she got the Clement family. But before that, if someone could disturb Victor and made him less concerned about the business of the Clement family, she and Vincent would have an opportunity to succeed.

Paulina felt that her words made sense. She looked at Haven and said, "There will be a charity party two days later. The organizer of this charity party is the president of the Charity Federation in River City. Victor and Eden will go there, won't they?"

Haven nodded slightly. Paulina had thought of this before she reminded her.

"Yeah, you'll have a chance at the party. I will find a way to delay Eden. You know what to do, don't you?" Haven looked at her with a smile.

Paulina had a good grasp of various small conspiracies. If she could seduce Victor, it would be very beneficial to Haven and Vincent.

Haven said, "Paulina, get up first. I'll send you back."

"Okay!" Paulina stood up slowly, and her shins were in great pain.

However, at this moment, all she thought about were Victor's intimate actions towards Eden.

She was obsessed with Victor. The crueler he treated her, the more she wanted to get him.

Paulina walked a few steps and felt that she could barely walk.

Seeing this, Haven added fuel to the fire, "Paulina, they have gone too far. This is all Eden's fault. If it weren't for her, Victor wouldn't have treated you like this. You can't let her go. You're much better than Eden. Eden has three children. Who does she think she is? What qualifications does she have to compare with you?"

Haven pretended to be so exasperated and spoke for Paulina.

However, Paulina, who was angry and jealous, did not understand the meaning of Haven's words. Being instigated by Haven, she shifted all the blame onto Eden.

Paulina's face was extremely painful. She had never suffered such hardships since she was a child.

Tillie had been waiting for them. Seeing Paulina limping, she stared at Paulina's pale face, "Did they beat you?" Tillie didn't think that Victor was serious.

"Mm!" Paulina gritted her teeth and nodded.

Haven said, "Miss Elliott, let's go back first." No one had the appetite to eat here.

"Okay!" Tillie nodded slightly. She didn't intend to eat here.

Whenever she met Darlene, she would not be in a good mood. This time, she clearly felt Darlene's change. Darlene seemed to be different from before.

Chapter 716

In the private box, Eden and Victor sat together. At this time, the delicious dishes could not arouse her interest.

She listened to the conversation between them carefully. To her surprise, Ned was a real estate tycoon second only to her father. This time, Victor happened to cooperate with Ned in a project. That was why he came here that day.

Listening to the conversation between them, Eden felt that she had gained a lot.

Whenever she had time, she would read books about real estate which her father gave her, but she couldn't understand the content. When she heard Ned's words, she was suddenly enlightened.

For example, in her opinion, the ten major problems that would appear in real estate were very serious problems.

After listening to Ned's exquisite explanation, she felt that she had attended a very expensive class.

After Ned and Victor finished talking, Eden was still immersed in their conversation and could not come to sense.

Ned looked at Eden, only to see that she lowered her head slightly, and her delicate face looked more charming under the lights. He smiled faintly and said in a pleasant voice, "Miss Bleu, you seem to be very engrossed in our conversation."

When he was talking with Victor, he saw her listening to him seriously, as if she was very interested in his topic.

Eden came to sense and looked at him with a graceful smile, "I learnt a lot from your conversation. Mr. Parma, your explanation is wonderful."

Victor looked at her and smiled warmly, but he did not speak.

"Oh! Are you also interested in real estate?" Ned still looked at her with a bright smile.

Eden smiled and nodded, "Yep, I'm interested. When I have time, I'll read books about it." Hearing this, Ned recommended some books to Eden, "Miss Bleu, if you're really interested, you can read the books written by the real estate tycoon, Mr. Calder. You'll gain a lot."

Eden suddenly looked at Ned in surprise and said with some excitement, "Mr. Parma, do you mean that I can find what you said in Mr. Calder's books?"

Looking at Eden's shining eyes and hearing her excited voice, Ned laughed more happily and nodded gently, "Right. If you have time, you can take a look! "

"Thank you, Mr. Parma!" Eden thought for a moment. Her father gave her several books, but she only read a few pages of one of them. She had not read what Ned mentioned just now.

This time, she was completely interested in the real estate.

If she had time, she should read more books.

Victor said, "Mr. Parma, I'd like to propose a toast to you. I wish we have a happy cooperation."

Victor picked up the red wine and shook it gently.

Ned nodded at him, "Mr. Alwynn, let's have a pleasant cooperation!"

After they clinked their glasses, they both raised their heads and drank up the wine in the glasses.

Eden looked at them. They were both goodlooking and had the same temperament. Compared with Ned, Victor looked much more arrogant when he raised his head. She had to admit that Victor was indeed more handsome than Ned.

Ned placed the wine glass on the table and poured another glass of wine. Then he looked up and smiled at Eden, "Miss Bleu, let me propose a toast to you."

Eden was confused.

Did he make a mistake? The business had been settled. Why should he drink with her?

Moreover, she was really not good at drinking.

She would get drunk as long as she drank a glass of wine.

Ned had raised the glass, and he was smiling at Eden.

Victor sat there quietly, and the expression on his delicate and handsome face didn't change.

Eden glanced at Victor. It seemed that he had no intention to drink on her behalf. She slowly looked away and glanced at the wine glass in front of her. There was half a glass of red wine. Although it was red wine, it had a strong delayed effect.

She reached out her slender hand, picked up the glass slowly and forced a smile, "Mr. Parma, I'm so glad to know you."

Ned said, "It's my honor to know you."

They clinked their glasses, and Ned raised his head first and drank up the wine in one gulp. His action was smooth and elegant.

He drank wine as if he was drinking water, but Eden drank as if she was taking medicine. In comparison, she felt that she had to way to drink the red wine in her hand.

Ned poured down his wine glass, indicating to Eden that he had finished drinking.

Eden naturally understood what he meant. If she kept dawdling, he would think that she was not sincere.

Making up her mind, she raised her head, endured herself and drank all the red wine in one gulp.

Victor felt a sharp pain in his heart when he saw her drinking desperately.

Ned was not hard to deal with, but if Eden didn't drink the glass of wine, he would have more excuses to let her drink more. This was a big project. Since they had reached an agreement, he could be very influential and make lots of money.

After Eden went out of the house, he received a call from Adonis and then rushed over. He did not expect that he would meet Eden here.

After drinking a glass of wine, Eden felt a burning sensation in her throat.

Her face was burning hot.

Moreover, her heart was filled with bitterness.

Ned looked at Eden and smiled more brightly, "Miss Bleu, you're good at drinking."

Eden smiled slightly. If she was good at drinking, there wouldn't be anyone who couldn't drink in this world. How could he praise her like that? Besides, she was a woman.

Shouldn't he praise her for being so beautiful?

She would feel much more comfortable when she heard this.

Under Eden's gaze, Ned picked up the red wine and filled his own cup. Then, he stood up elegantly and poured Eden's glass. Eden stared at the red wine and subconsciously clenched her fists. She knew that Ned would not stop so easily.

If she continued to drink, she could fall asleep on the table directly without lying on the bed.

However, Victor's handsome face gradually darkened, and his eyes were filled of apathy.

Ned did not look at Victor either. Instead, he looked at Eden and smiled, "Miss Bleu, I like your openness. To your health!"

At this time, Victor's face darkened to the extreme. He gritted his teeth, and it was obvious that he was suppressing his anger.

Eden knew that drinking was unavoidable in such a banquet. Moreover, from their conversation just now, she could know that this project was very important to Victor. If she refused and this business failed, it would really be her fault. Victor had helped her a lot. Although she did not have the ability to help Victor, She could not hind him.

In this case, she might as well drink!

Chapter 717

Looking at the glass which was filled with red wine, Eden smiled at Ned, "Mr. Parma, it will be boring if we only drink! How about playing games while drinking?"

Ned looked at Eden with great interest in his eyes, "What kind of game do you want to play, Miss Bleu?"

Eden smiled weirdly. No one could win her in this game!

It was not that easy to get her drunk.

"Eden..."

"Mr. Alwynn, I haven't played this game for a long time. Since Mr. Parma is interested, why don't I play with him?" Eden knew what Victor was thinking.

It was reasonable that Ned asked her to drink just now, and what would happen the next was the highlight. Since it was the highlight, she must let Ned drink to his heart's content.

Victor squinted at Eden who looked confident. Last time when he brought her to the party, she was very quiet and did not drink. But he heard her conversation with Abigail and knew that she was not good at drinking.

Ned rubbed his smooth chin with his fingers gently, smiled unconsciously and asked cheerfully, "Miss Bleu, what do you want to play?"

Eden raised her eyebrows slightly and looked at the unopened red wine on the table. She smiled, "Mr. Parma, let's play the fingerguessing game."

Victor and Ned were all speechless.

"Ha-ha..." Ned chuckled. He had never played with a finger- guessing game before. Eden was so cute!

Eden looked at Ned's expression and her eyes suddenly lit up, "Mr. Parma, don't you know how to play?"

Ned lowered his head and looked at her shining eyes, not feeling disgusted at all, "I know. Let's play this game."

As soon as he said this, he found that her eyes were somewhat disappointed.

Did she expect that he didn't know how to play the game or something else?

In fact, when he saw Eden just now, Eden was being bullied by another woman, but there was no fear and cowardice in her eyes. He was very interested in her at that time. After hearing Victor's introduction, he went to the private box and searched her on the Internet, only to find that many people scolded her online.

The online attack was much harsher than attack in real life, but Eden acted as if she was not affected and her smile was very confident.

Eden explained the rule of the game. The loser would have to drink. When all the wine was drunk up, the game was over.

Victor tried to stop her, but she tipped him a wink, indicating that he didn't have to worry about her. She was not good at drinking, but she was good at the finger-guessing game. Since she couldn't drink much, she could only be in her element at parties by playing games.

This was the experience she had learned from work.

Eden took the initiative to sit next to Ned.

Victor's face darkened completely.

Eden looked at Ned, narrowed her eyes and smiled, "Mr. Parma, come on." Eden's voice was loud and clear. It seemed that she was well-prepared.

Ned looked at her with a bigger smile. As she got closer to him, he smelled a clean and fragrant scent and had a pleasant feeling.

Then they began to play the game.

"Rock paper scissors..." Saying this, they threw their fists, and Ned lost the first round.

Ned didn't expect that he would lose. Although he knew how to play the game, he wasn't good at it.

But he had never lost the first round.

However, he was convinced, picked up his glass and gulped the wine with his head raised.

Later, Eden took the initiative to fill his glass.

The two of them started again.

"Rock paper scissors..."

In the second round, Ned lost again.

At this time, Ned's eyes became more and more meaningful as he looked at Eden. She seemed to be able to accurately analyze his habits and guess what he would throw next time.

However, since this was the finger-guessing game, he was convinced when he lost.

Victor gradually sensed something, and his gloomy eyes gradually became bright.

He had forgotten that Eden wouldn't do something she wasn't sure of.

After ten rounds, Eden had lost twice in total. Furthermore, she lost deliberately. Ned was a respectable man, and she couldn't embarrass him too much.

Victor smiled pleasantly. It was time for him to help Mr. Parma to leave.

He looked at Eden with joy in his eyes. It was the first time he had seen her like this.

Looking at her confident eyes, he was delighted. She was such a lovely girl.

Ned had drunk ten glasses of red wine and his face was a bit red. Obviously, he was drunk.

Eden looked at Ned with a smug expression in her eyes.

Ned happened to raised his head and saw her expression. He smiled faintly. What a little wily fox! He liked her, and he had fallen into the trap set up by her.

It seemed that she was good at playing all kinds of games...

She couldn't drink much, but she was good at playing games, so she could make him dead drunk.

"Miss Bleu, I'm very happy today." Ned looked at Eden with intense eyes. Maybe he was a little drunk, so he didn't hide his affection towards Eden.

Victor stood up and said with a smile, "Mr. Parma, I'm glad to hear that. I will send you back first."

Ned raised his head slightly to look at Victor. His eyes blurred, and he looked sexy and attractive.

He laughed, "Mr. Alwynn, why will you send me back? I want Miss Bleu to send me back."

Victor's face suddenly turned cold when he heard this, "Mr. Parma, you are drunk."

Ned said, "Victor, you underestimate my drinking capacity. Last year, I drank two bottles of whiskey in one breath, but I was all right. I only drank one and a half bottles of red wine today. How could I get drunk? Besides..." Ned began to talk about his glorious deeds in the past.

However, Eden couldn't see anything clearly at this time. She would get drunk after drinking one glass of wine, but she had drunk three glasses of wine that day. Before Ned left, she absolutely couldn't faint.

Otherwise, she would lose. Though Ned drink much more than her, he was better than drinking.

Victor glanced at Eden who was dizzy, took out his phone and called Adonis.

He asked Adonis to bring Ned's assistant in.

Ned's assistant was dressed in a black suit and a pair of black glasses, looking very gentle. When he saw Ned who kept talking about his glorious history, he opened his mouth slightly wide in surprise. Ned was always good at drinking. This was the first time he had seen Ned so drunk.

Adonis glanced at Ned. He knew that Ned was a heavy drinker. Why did he get drunk?

He looked at Victor with admiration, "Victor, you're indeed amazing!"

Hearing this, Eden glanced at Adonis unhappily. What was wrong with his eyes? Eden was the drunk one.

Victor tipped him a wink, and then Adonis and Ned's assistant took away Ned, who kept talking.

Eden could not hold on anymore and fell on the table.

Chapter 718

Seeing this, Victor was stunned. He knew that Eden was not good at drinking, but he didn't expect that she would be so drunk.

"Eden, are you all right?" Victor helped her up gently and looked at her with concern.

Eden looked at him with blurred eyes. Although she had no strength, she knew very well that she was all right.

"Of course I'm fine. I just drank three glasses of wine, didn't I? I drank him down, right?" After Eden finished speaking, she burst into laughter and her red face looked so adorable. She hadn't been drunk for a long time. Jasper and Abigail often said that she was not good at drinking, but she really couldn't become a heavy drinker.

Victor looked at her and chuckled, "How can you say that you're fine? Look at you. You can't even sit still."

Eden looked at him in a daze, "It's good. In this way, you can hold me, can't you?" Her voice was warm, and she acted like a spoiled child.

Victor was shocked. Eden spoke so boldly when she was drunk, but he liked her so much.

Looking at Victor, Eden rested her head on her hands and smiled, "Why are you so handsome? You made me fall in love with you. I am bewitched by you, and I want to live with you in the rest of my life."

A trace of pleasant surprise flashed through Victor's eyes. He smiled and looked at her quietly. It was said that wine was mirror of the mind. Eden really liked him.

"Eden, I also want to spend the rest of my life with you. So, remember what you said just now. Don't think about leaving me again. Understand?" Victor's eyes were full of tenderness as he reached out his slender fingers to touch her lovely cheeks gently. Her face was burning hot. It seemed that she was really drunk.

Eden felt the coldness on his fingers. She rubbed her face against his fingers greedily and promised in a daze, "Okay, I won't leave you. Even if I have to leave, I will leave you secretly and won't let you know."

Victor was speechless.

He shook his head helplessly. She was dead drunk.

"Eden, I will take you back to rest." Victor said and helped her to get up.

"Alright, let's go home." Eden chuckled.

Victor squatted down and wanted to help her up, but Eden moved and threw herself to Victor. She wrapped his neck with her slender arms, and he could feel his hot breathing.

Victor's body froze, and he felt numb all over and swallowed. Feeling her hot temperature, he subconsciously hugged her tightly.

He smile faintly and said, "My Eden is drunk. Let's go back now."

Victor carried her in his arms and walked out.

Adonis, who was waiting outside, was dumbfounded when he saw this.

"Victor, what are you doing? What's wrong with her?" He looked at Eden whose face blushed scarlet.

What the hell? Since Eden was not good at drinking, why did she have to drink so much? Look at how embarrassing the scene was! She was in his arms but she didn't know.

Victor said, "She is drunk!"

Adonis thought that it was Victor who drank Ned and Eden down and looked at him in shock.

As soon as Ned got in the car, he fell asleep. Adonis had to deal with a lot of troublesome things later.

"Victor, you're definitely God's blue-eyed boy. You're good at everything, and you're too charming. Even I've become your fan. You made the two of them drunk, which is amazing." Adonis looked at him with admiration and gave him a thumbs up.

He was well aware of Ned's drinking capacity.

Victor rolled his eyes at him, "Eden drank him down."

"So..." Adonis looked at Victor in surprise.

Victor didn't drink at all, and he overestimated him.

"Why didn't you say it earlier? I flattered you wrongly just now."

Victor was speechless.

He looked at Adonis with a gloomy face.

Seeing this, Adonis knew that he had said something wrong.

"Ha- ha... I'm sorry... Um..." Adonis looked cowardly. He couldn't be more awkward.

Victor glanced at him blandly, "Drive the car here."

"Oh!" Adonis immediately ran out very quickly.

Eden looked at Adonis's back and said with a smile, "Is he being chased by a wolf? Why does he run so fast?"

At this time, Adonis had just stepped out of the door. His mouth twitched and he almost fell to the ground. Just now, he felt that Victor was more horrible than a wolf.

"Ha-ha..." Victor looked at Eden and chuckled, "Eden, he's quite afraid of me."

"So, are you a wolf?" With a red face, Eden smiled in a daze and looked at him.

Victor was a bit puzzled. Was she serious? Did she really think so?

Humph!

If he could, he would kiss her recklessly like a wolf.

Seeing the car coming, Victor went out with Eden in his arms.

Adonis got out of the car and opened the door for him on his own initiative.

Victor put Eden on the seat cautiously. Then he got on the car and held her in his arms.

Adonis got on the car and asked, "Where are we going?"

"Windsor Villa."

Adonis said, "Are you serious?" Windsor Villa was a very precious house. None of them had ever been there. He had only been there once when the villa was being decorated. It was not far from the city, and it was next to a beautiful lake. After Victor bought the land, he built a glass villa there. It was very valuable. He built the villa for his future wife, but he was taking Eden there.

It was not appropriate!

Victor said, "Do you think I'm joking?"

The atmosphere in the car became somewhat cold and depressing.

Adonis did not speak anymore. He stepped on the accelerator hard and drove directly towards Windsor Villa.

Eden rubbed against Victor's arms, changed into a comfortable position and fell asleep.

She wanted to sleep after getting drunk.

After waking up, she would be all right.

Victor hugged her, lowered his head and kissed her on the top of her head.

There was no traffic jam. Half an hour later, Adonis parked the car at the gate of Windsor Villa.

The crystal-clear and modern glass villa was big, and there was a small courtyard at the gate, in which there were all kinds of flowers and plants. The villa was surrounded by trees, and the air was fresh and cool. It was like an otherworldly sort of place.

Victor carried Eden out of the car and glanced at Adonis, "You can go back now."

Adonis was stunned. He looked at Victor with hatred, blaming him for abandoning him because of a woman.

Victor ignored him and walked in with Eden in his arms.

The living room was spacious and bright, and the walls were made of bright glass. They could see the scenery in the courtyard in the living room.

Victor put Eden on the soft bed in the bedroom. At this time, the sunlight shone on the beige quilt through the glass, and the bedroom was very warm.

Eden was placed on the soft bed and slept soundly. The warm feeling made her sleepier and sleepier.

Chapter 719

Victor sat on the edge of the bed and looked at Eden quietly. The sun shone on him, and his delicate face was gentler than ever. The atmosphere in the room became a bit ambiguous.

He fiddled with the hair on her face with his slender fingers gently. Her red face was still hot. Under her curled eyelashes, her closed eyes looked so beautiful.

After looking at her for a while, he took out his phone and clicked the group chat which belonged to him and the three children.

He glanced at the time, and the school was over at this time.

Since he went to River City Restaurant and listened to Kenny's words, he created a group chat and invited the three children. However, since that day, Kenny had never mentioned this matter again. He beat around the bush several times, but Kenny avoided this topic smartly. Smart babies were always difficult to deal with, and Kenny was one of them.

"My dear babies, now I'm in the villa with your mom. We won't go back tonight. Can you finish your homework by yourselves?"

Gia sent a voice message. Victor glanced at Eden's sleeping face, got up and went out before clicking the voice message.

"Daddy, you don't have to worry about our homework. This is a good chance for you. You have to make use of it and win my mom's heart as soon as possible." She even sent a cheering emoji.

Then Ricky sent a voice message, "Future dad, when will you and mom give birth to a few younger brothers for us? Now you stay with mom alone. Don't miss the chance."

Victor was shocked. Were the children so precocious in this society?

Victor replied, "Ricky, I will definitely do my best and let you have younger brothers earlier."

Ricky typed, "You should take actions after promising me. My godmother said that you were too stupid. If you keep going on like this, maybe my mother will marry someone else."

When Victor saw these words, he instantly felt a sense of crisis. Abigail was obviously very rich, but she ate and lived in his house. She even stayed with Eden shamelessly, which made him miss lots of great opportunity.

Even his son had crisis awareness, so he should pay more attention to it.

He narrowed his eyes slightly and replied, "Ricky, don't listen to Abigail's nonsense. Your mother will be mine in the rest of her life. Today, she said that she would only be with me."

The three children all sent a smiling emoji.

Gia said, "Congratulations, dad, you finally won mom's heart. But are you sure that mom said so? She couldn't say those words unless she was drunk."

Victor was speechless.

Gia really his daughter. She knew Eden so well.

At this moment, Victor didn't want to chat with them anymore, "My dear babies, is it time for you to do your homework?"

Ricky said, "While chatting with you, I've finished my homework."

Kenneth, who hadn't said anything, typed, "I've also finished my homework."

Gia said, "Me too."

Victor was helpless.

Why did they finish their homework so fast?

The three children were much more excellent than him when he was young.

"What about Boris? If he hasn't finish his homework, you must help him."

Gia said, "Dad, do you think we can help someone who only plays computer games all day long?"

Victor typed, "Gia, he's your cousin. You have to save him. Even if he is hopeless, you should help him."

Gia was speechless.

"Why do you say so? He's just the son of my mom's friend."

Victor felt that he couldn't outargue Gia.

He immediately changed the name of the group chat into "My daughter is the best".

The children saw the name.

Gia sent a hugging emoji quickly.

Kenneth and Henrick said, "Dad, you don't love us anymore."

Victor took a look and found that he couldn't say anything wrong. He had three children, so he should treat them equally.

Victor thought about it and changed the name again.

"Every baby is so clever."

Gia said, "Dad, you don't love me anymore."

Seeing this, Victor suddenly felt that he could never satisfy all of them.

He said, "Gia, my love for the three of you is the same. Listen to your aunt at home and we'll come back tomorrow. Goodbye!"

After Victor finished his words, he immediately put the phone aside and did not check the messages anymore.

He felt that if he continued to talk with them, he would offend them all. Gia had a glib tongue, and she could always go straight to the heart of the matter. He was at a loss for what to do.

"Whew..." Victor exhaled and glanced at the bright glass villa. There was a transparent room in every villa he bought, because she once said that she wanted to look at the stars when she lay on the bed.

After a while, Victor picked up his phone and checked the messages in the group chat. He was relieved that the three children no longer quarreled with him.

He sent a message to the manager of his hotel and asked him to deliver some delicious food here. Then, he went back to the room to accompany Eden.

After Adonis drove back, he went back to his office. Recently, in order to help Anson get Abigail, as long as Abigail was in the company, he would immediately find an excuse to leave.

In the spacious and bright continental style office, he took out his phone and complained in the group chat as soon as he sat down.

"Victor abandoned me because of a woman." After he sent the message, Anson replied him first.

"What happened? What did Victor do to you?"

"He brought Eden to Windsor Villa." Adonis even sent a crying emoji.

"Adonis, do you know why you don't have a girlfriend?"

"Anson, what do you mean?"

"I mean that you're going to be single forever."

"Anson, are you cursing me?"

"Since you know that I'm cursing you, it seems that you're not completely stupid."

"How dare you!"

Lucian said, "Adonis, you're good at doing business, but why can't you show great discernment in your choice of girlfriend?"

Adonis said, "Lucian, please don't be jealous of me. You will never be as outstanding as me."

Lucian replied, "Well, anyway, you will never have a girlfriend."

Adonis said, "I won't argue with you over meaningless matters. You can't tell right from wrong, and those women who have a crush on you are all silly."

Anson typed, "Since you don't have a good suggestion, don't stop us from advising you normally. Don't force us to accept your opinion. Talk less so as not to bring trouble on yourself. Don't gossip about and hurt others."

Adonis threw his phone on the table with an angry look. He wanted to chat with them, not to be teased by them.

Chapter 720

Adonis was angry for a while. Seeing that his phone kept vibrating, he couldn't help but take a look at it.

Anson said, "Adonis, it's not your fault to have a poor taste, but you really can't have a girlfriend."

Lucian said, "He only cares about money." Seeing this, Adonis went berserk instantly.

"Anson, you're so stupid that I can't stand you anymore. Can't you shut up? Don't make me angry. Otherwise, I'll give you a lesson."

Then he replied to Lucian, "I care about money indeed. Money can make me happy. Can you make me happy? I don't want to see you anymore."

Anson said, "Adonis, you're so silly that you can only count the moon at night and count the sun during the day."

Adonis replied, "There is only one moon and one sun. Do I need to count it? Anson, are you out of your mind after getting injections these days?"

Anson typed, "Adonis, I hope you can be smarter."

However, Lucian did not speak anymore.

Anson didn't type again, either.

Adonis looked at the phone for a while, and both of them still didn't talk. It was time to get off work, so he grabbed his car key and left.

Although he didn't have a girlfriend, he could do whatever he wanted.

"Anson, you want to have a girlfriend, but I won't let you get what you want since you've offended me."

Adonis left with annoyance.

Eden slept until it was dark.

When she opened her eyes, she saw a strange environment and frowned slightly. Where was she?

She blinked and moved her hand, only to find that she still had no strength. Then she thought for a while and remembered what had happened. She was drunk and then Victor took her away. Where was this place?

She took a careful look outside. Outside the transparent glass wall, the lights were a little dim, but she could see the scenery in the courtyard. Under the dim light, it was very beautiful. Moreover, what surprised her was that through the window, she could vaguely see the shining stars in the starry sky.

She got out of bed slowly and became interested in this place instantly.

She had just put on her shoes when the door was opened.

Victor wore a white casual suit, which made him look even taller and set off his delicate features.

He looked at Eden, smiled gently and said in a soft tone, "My princess has woken up." His low and hoarse voice was charming and pleasant.

Eden nodded with a smile, "Victor, where is this place? It's so beautiful!"

Seeing that she liked here so much, Victor smiled more brightly, "Eden, this is our future home."

Eden was a bit puzzled.

So, would they live here after she married him?

However, since she had made up her mind, she would not change her mind easily. Moreover, she really liked this place.

"But where is this place? The scenery outside is fabulous, and I can't hear the sound of the hooting and the rolling of the wheels. The quiet atmosphere makes me feel so comfortable." Eden walked to Victor and smiled with joy. She blinked her big and bright eyes, and Victor's heart beat faster.

Victor looked at her tenderly, "Eden, we're in the Windsor District."

Eden was stunned. The land in the Windsor District was very expensive. Victor was too rich, wasn't he? He actually had a big villa with a garden in the Windsor District.

Victor walked in, took out a beige coat from the closet and put it on for her.

He was so warm, and Eden looked at him with a pleasant smile, "Have you even prepared clothes for me?"

Victor nodded slightly, "When you were asleep, I asked someone to send it here. It's cold at night. You can't get sick, or I will be distressed."

His smart and concerned words left a glow in Eden's heart. A wave of happiness flooded her and she was so excited. Her dream was that her future husband could spoil her like a princess. It finally came true.

Victor realized her dream.

She took Victor's arm on her own initiative and looked at him from the corner of her eye, "Victor, did anyone say you're very handsome?"

Victor was confused.

He didn't know what she meant and only looked at her silently.

Eden frowned, "No?"

Victor nodded and admitted frankly, "A lots of people said that I am very handsome, but you're the first one who asks me such a question."

Eden was helpless.

"Victor, you are really handsome. You are like the dazzling star in the sky, and you're attractive. It's just that you're far away from the stars."

Victor was not sure whether she was praising him or despising him.

Was she still drunk?

Victor smiled at her and didn't speak. No matter what, a lot of liked and praised him online. He seemed to have everything, looks, money, intelligence. He was brave and handsome, and no man could be more charming than him.

"Eden, am I not handsome in your eyes?" Victor asked gloomily.

Eden shook her head quickly, "No, Victor, you're the most handsome man in my eyes. I'm just afraid that other women would cast greedy eyes on you." Eden looked at him who was good-looking and imposing. It seemed that he was the most perfect and aggressive man in the world.

Such a man was the most charming.

Victor smiled wickedly and happily. Eden's words made him extremely pleasant, "Eden, the world is so big, but I only want you to love me."

Eden said, "Victor, you're the best, and I only think about you."

Victor found that Eden was a little different that day. Her voice was sweet and loud, and she even flattered him. However, he liked her this way so much.

Victor lowered his head slightly, smiled gracefully and whispered in her ear, "Eden, you are the only one in my heart."

Eden's heart trembled. His words left a glow in her heart.

She was in a good mood that day, so she said those words unconsciously.

After saying that, she felt that she was too strange.

Was it because she had been pretending to be serious in normal times? Maybe this was the real her, and she knew how to flirt with men by nature.

No, that was not right. She was just drunk that day!

"Victor, I used to have two hearts, but after I met you, I lost all my hearts."

Victor said, "Eden, why?"

Eden said, "Because you stole my hearts."

Victor was pleased.

He was so glad to hear her flattering words.

"Ahem... Eden, are you hungry?" Victor asked.

Eden pulled him gently, "Victor, you know what? Your charm overpowers me, and I don't feel hungry as long as I look at you."

Hearing her highly touted compliment, Victor had a guilty conscience.

He thought for a while and decided to go back to the topic, "Eden, I prepared your favorite dishes on the roof. We can eat while looking at the stars. Today the weather is good, and you can see the stars. This is your childhood dream."