

Gluey Love 811

Chapter 811

"Victor, you really think you're powerful, don't you? Do you finally want to make it public? Have you forgotten what kind of person I am?" Rebecca muttered with her eyes full of malice.

At this time, in Alwynn Group.

Victor looked at the reporters who surrounded him, and there was no impatience on his face. Like a flamboyant king, he was surrounded by a lot of reporters.

He stood there with great patience.

Paulina, Haven, and Vincent had been paying attention to this matter. Seeing that Victor was about to explain in person, they were all somewhat puzzled.

Haven asked curiously, "Why does Victor want to explain it? Shouldn't Eden bear the consequences?"

Vincent looked at Victor's calm face and thought of what Rebecca said just now.

Suddenly, he had a nasty feeling.

He was very familiar with this kind of feeling. He always had an ominous presentiment before he was defeated by Victor.

Paulina was deep in thought. When she saw Victor holding a press conference, she was a little nervous.

"Whenever Eden encounters problems, she asks Victor to solve them for her. She is really shameless and disgusting. How dares a woman like her show her face in public?"

Vincent and Haven stood silently aside. Both of them thought that the matter was not so simple.

"Mr. Alwynn, you always refuse to be interviewed. May I ask why you suddenly hold a press conference? Is it because of Eden? Today, the news about Eden, Mr. King and the three children has attracted everyone's attention."

Victor nodded slightly, "Yeah!"

Hearing this, the reporter was extremely excited. He continued to ask, "Mr. Alwynn, I heard that you bought the eternal heart which is worth 300 million dollars at the charity party. Who did you buy it for?"

Victor suddenly smiled gently, which made all the reporters slightly stunned. Some of them even forgot to take photos.

The people who were the most familiar with Victor were the reporters who wanted to interview him. They always sought all kinds of chances to interview him.

In their impressions, Victor rarely smiled, and they had never seen him smile before.

Every time they saw Victor, he looked indifferent and lofty.

In their opinions, Victor was cold and ruthless, and he was exceptionally vigorous in work. He didn't care about the gossips and had never explained them in person.

However, this time, Victor not only held a press conference personally, but also smiled in front of them, which came as a complete shock for them.

The way he smiled was so charming. He looked eye-catching and noble, and no one could ignore his imposing temperament.

A female reporter asked excitedly, "Mr. Alwynn, may I ask who did you give the eternal heart to?"

Victor glanced at the female reporter.

The female reporter also looked at him expectantly.

Paulina, Vincent and Haven suddenly became nervous at this moment.

Then, Victor replied with a smile, "The eternal heart represents eternal love, immutable affection and my lasting sincerity. Of course I gave it to Eden, the person I love the most, as well as the mother of my three children."

"Anson..."

Everyone was surprised!

They couldn't believe what they heard!

Even Eden, who was watching the press conference, looked at Victor in disbelief.

She couldn't hide anything from people anymore.

Amelia looked at her enviously.

The reporters were all stunned as they looked at Victor. They and those who were watching the press conference on TV had no way to stay calm.

They all knew that Eden and Victor were in a relationship.

However, it was unbelievable that he was the father of her three children.

Especially Paulina, Vincent, and Haven.

They looked calmer than anyone else.

"How could it be?" Paulina clenched her fists with all her strength and gritted her teeth hard. Her eyes were blazing with the flames of fury.

However, Victor's eyes were so serious, and he didn't seem to be joking at all.

Vincent's face was even gloomier. He finally understood why his mother called him.

It seemed that she knew something that he didn't know.

After a female reporter reacted, she asked excitedly, "Mr. Alwynn, can you repeat what you said just now? Today, there is a rumor on the Internet that Mr. King is the father of Eden's three children. Seven years ago, she had a one- night- stand with Mr. King and then..."

However, before she finished speaking, Victor glared at her with apathetic and grim eyes. Feeling his anger, the female reporter shut up instantly.

Victor glanced at the crowd with sharp eyes, and the reporters all looked at him nervously and uneasily. He looked so commanding that everyone became quiet unconsciously.

"Listen to me carefully. Eden's three children are my biological children. Since Mr. King dares to frame Eden for his own benefit, I will pursue this matter to the end."

Everyone heard his sonorous and powerful voice clearly on such a quiet occasion. After saying this, he left before all the reporters came to sense. They could only see his tall and straight back.

Mr. King's whole body trembled when he saw this on TV.

In River City, he could offend anyone except for Victor.

He knew clearly would happen to him after he annoyed Victor. In the business world, he should not have talked nonsense for snob value.

"No, it's impossible!" Vincent shook his head in disbelief. How could there be such a coincidence?

That night, he chatted with Mr. King. Although Mr. King talked about what had happened seven years ago obscurely, he told him that he was with Eden.

How could Victor be the children's father?

Haven looked at Victor in shock. When he admitted that he was the father of three children in front of everyone, his eyes were filled with happiness, and she had never seen such happy eyes before.

"But, is Victor really the children's father?" Although Victor had said it in person, she did not believe it.

Paulina gritted her teeth and answered, "Even if they are not his children, who dares to question him since he has said it personally?" Vincent sneered and said, "So what? Even if they are his children, I won't let them go back to the Alwynn family." He hadn't even gotten Jotham Alwynn Group yet, and the three children would fight for the property with him. He didn't expect that such a thing would happen.

Haven's face darkened. It seemed that she had to carry out her plan as soon as possible. Eden was protected by Victor. She couldn't defeat Eden, but the Clement family could defeat her.

Phillip looked at the news released by Victor and smiled with satisfaction.

Meanwhile, Grandma Clement, Wyatt and Aisling and were all extremely excited.

Grandma Clement laughed, "This matter is simple, but Victor made it so complicated. He should have announced it earlier. In that case, Eden would not have been insulted by so many netizens." She was a little exasperated.

Aisling smiled and said, "Mom, Victor and Eden have their own concerns. They don't want this kind of thing to happen, either.

Victor has offended many people. When those people heard rumours, they used the rumors to attack Eden. Now those people have got a slap in the face. They must be very shocked and angry now."

A weird expression flashed through Aisling's eyes. She didn't know what Rebecca would think when she saw such news.

Rebecca was cruel and merciless. It was because of her that Anson became disabled.

Grandma Clement smiled disdainfully, "Those people are jealous of Eden, so they try every means to frame her. This kind of Internet violence is really terrible."

Wyatt smiled and nodded, "Mother, Eden has always been hurting by Internet violence. Now she has Victor by her side, and she can live a better life. Mother, you don't have to worry."

"Yep! Eden is very strong." Grandma Clement smiled lovingly.

She was very satisfied because she could see her granddaughter and even her greatgrandchildren before she died.

However, Aisling looked worried, "Alas! I don't know if the three children will be safe."

Upon hearing her words, Wyatt instantly understood what she worried about.

"Humph! I'd like to see who dares to hurt my granddaughter."

Grandma Clement said seriously and harshly, "If Rebecca dares to hurt my granddaughter, I won't spare her even if I have to risk my life!"

Aisling was very glad to see her protecting Eden in this way.

"Mom, let's protect our Eden together and don't let her get hurt again."

Grandma Clement nodded, "Mm! This is the first time we have reached an agreement."

Aisling smiled and didn't say anything.

After Grandma Clement returned from aboard, she had changed her temper a lot. It was easier for them to get along with each other.

Victor returned to his office and saw that Eden was waiting for him. He walked over gracefully and sat beside her. That day, he finally let the whole world know that Eden was the woman he loved most.

"Honey." He called her softly.

Eden turned to look at his delighted face and blinked her big and bright eyes, "It's rather good to make it public." When he said that she was the only one he loved, she felt his happiness though she was not by his side.

Looking at her, Victor smiled gently and halfclosed his eyes, "Eden, I wanted to tell the whole world that you are my wife long ago."

Eden thought for a moment and said, "I thought that Miss Shriver would call me, but I haven't received her phone call yet."

Victor grinned, "Fool, Miss Shriver has been in the entertainment circle for many years. She can tell whether the news is real or fake just by looking at it. It's obvious that someone released the news deliberately to ruin you, because you're really too popular recently." Miss Shriver let Eden design the wedding dress for her, which made Eden more famous.

Chapter 812

"Mm! Since this matter has been solved, I will go out to work." Eden got up. There should be no one scolding her children online anymore.

Seeing that she was in such a hurry to leave, Victor stopped her immediately, "Eden, don't go. Accompany me for a while." There was a trace of affection and reluctance in his tone.

Eden looked down at him and smiled, "Are you acting like a spoiled child now?"

He was so cute in this way.

Victor smiled and nodded, "Eden, I only act like a spoiled child in front of you."

"Ha-ha..." Eden couldn't help but laugh, "Look at you. You're like a child. If I don't leave now, I'll have to work overtime at night. Do you want to sleep alone tonight?"

Hearing this, Victor let go of her hand quickly.

"Eden, we should go to work and get off work together."

Eden smiled and boasted, "It seems that I am so charming every day."

Victor smiled, looked at her tenderly and said in an extremely tempting tone, "Eden, your every move attracts me a lot, and you're perfect all over."

When Eden heard that, she grinned from ear to ear. Recently, nothing was more pleasant.

"Victor, you're the same in my eyes. Whenever I look at you, you're so handsome, and I will love your charming face till I die." After saying this, Eden left with a happy smile.

Looking at her back, Victor rubbed his chin proudly.

"That's right. I am indeed charismatic and bewitching." He said to himself.

Just as he was about to get up and go back to his desk, he saw Lucian walking in.

He asked with a smile, "How's the investigation going?"

Seeing that he was in a good mood, Lucian teased him, "Are you that happy after announcing the relationship between you and

Eden?"

Victor nodded generously and admitted, "Yep, Eden is my wife, and Kenny, Gia and Ricky are my children. What a proud thing it is! Of course, I'm very glad."

Lucian was helpless.

It was reasonable that Victor thought so.

After all, Eden had occupied most of the time in his life.

Victor sat in the office chair, looked up at him and asked casually, "Who did it?"

Lucian lowered his head and said, "A small newspaper office, and our lawyers have gone there."

Victor sneered and said, "Those reporters had never dared to report my business. It seems that someone has ordered them. Have you found it out?"

Lucian shook his head slightly, and his every move was neat and graceful, "Not yet. They will admit it after they meet our lawyers."

"Mm!" Victor nodded elegantly and said in a clear voice, "This matter must have something to do with Vincent, and you can investigate Myra. This woman is always malicious, and she has been seeking an opportunity to hurt Eden." Victor said those words neither quickly nor slowly, looking appealing.

Lucian looked at him, and the expression on his face was extremely pleasing to the eye, "We have investigated her. This matter has nothing to do with her. She has been busy seducing the wealthy businessmen during this period of time, and she does not have time to slander your wife."

Victor frowned and said, "Could it be Vincent or Haven? Paulina could also do such a thing."

Lucian nodded, "It was Paulina."

"Bang!" Victor punched the table hard, "How bold she is!"

Lucian said, "Don't ruin our plan just because of a moment of anger. Now we're purchasing the shares of their companies. The business of their companies was not good in the past two years, and they've lost a lot of custom.

We can take advantage of this opportunity."

Lucian thought of Paulina's beautiful face. She was gorgeous but her heart was too vicious.

Victor nodded and grinned, "They have some business dealings with Mr. King. You can investigate it. I have my own arrangements."

However, Lucian smiled casually and looked at him with his eyes narrowed, saying, "Maybe tonight is a good chance."

Victor leaned on the office chair lazily and asked, "Tell me about it."

Lucian walked to the sofa and sat down, "I just received a phone call. Vincent and Haven are both in Paulina's company. They released the news today. Since something quite unforeseen has happened to them, they will definitely talk to Mr. King today. Another possibility is that Mr. King will come here in a while. At the charity party last time, when I was checking the surveillance videos, I saw Vincent and Mr. King talking aside, and Paulina was standing next to them. I'm afraid that they heard something about Eden at that time. But it's not difficult to know that Vincent and Paulina have been fooled by Mr. King."

"That old man values his dignity very much, so he wouldn't admit that he was not the one who stayed with Eden that night."

Victor nodded, and his eyes were full of hostility, "Ask Brian to pay attention to their every move. If they have a meal together, call me immediately."

Lucian nodded and stood up. His charming figure was tall and straight, and he said with meaningful eyes, "I understand what you mean. If they meet tonight, you must find some time to go over and take a look."

Victor replied, "Okay!"

After Lucian went out, Victor continued to work.

After Eden returned to her office, Amelia immediately walked to her and said with a smile, "Director Bleu, your relationship with Mr. Alwynn has caused a great stir in the company. Everyone stops me and asks me if it's true when they see me."

Eden raised her eyes slightly and glanced at her, "How did you answer them?"

Amelia smiled and said, "Of course I wouldn't tell them clearly. I let them to ask you in person if they wanted to know the truth."

Eden chuckled, "Don't care about what they say. Let's continue to work."

Eden glanced out of the window. The weather was nice and she was in a good mood.

Although she didn't know who had framed her behind the curtain, that person must be shocked by the result.

Back then, she had a vague feeling that she didn't sleep with Mr. King.

Fortunately, it was Victor, the man who had been willing to protect her since she was a child.

In fact, Amelia was a little curious, but she held back her curiosity and did not ask Eden anymore when she saw Eden's rejected expression.

Eden was engaged in her work again.

However, she received a message from Jasper.

"Eden, are you all right?"

Eden smiled faintly and felt very warm in heart, "Jasper, I am not the one who should feel anxious."

Jasper said, "That's what I thought. Victor's words gave many people a slap in the face."

"I don't know. Jasper, where are you?"

"Do you have time to come out to see me now?" His words were quite meaningful.

Seeing this, Eden thought for a while and got relieved, "Jasper, I'm busy."

Chapter 813

Jasper, "So, I know that you don't have time. I'm in the company, and later I'll go to see Abigail."

Eden, "I'll go shopping with Abby tomorrow."

Jasper, "It's good. Maybe she'll feel better after going about with you."

Eden, "I think so. Abby has calmed down a lot these days. I'm with her. Don't worry."

Jasper, "I'm relieved as long as you're here."

Eden looked at his messages and smiled happily.

Amelia bantered, "Director Bleu, are you chatting with Mr. Alwynn? You smiled so charmingly."

When Eden was smiling, no man could move his gaze away from her.

Even Amelia was stunned by her beauty just now.

Eden shook her head. "Just a close friend. My male confidant."

Amelia looked at her in slight surprise. Seeing Eden was still smiling, she said with a little envy, "Director Bleu, I'm really envious of you. I don't have any male friends."

Eden looked at her in confusion and asked, "Even no college classmates?"

Amelia shook her head, "We went out separate ways after graduation. The boys who had good relationships with me before are not in touch anymore."

She really had few friends. She only had one best friend but they had been unable to meet each other. She admired people who had true friends.

Eden pursed her lips and said, "Me too." She also had very few friends. People were running around for livings. It was hard to maintain a friendship when you spent more time apart than you did together.

Eden lowered her head and continued to work. She always smiled softly while working.

And it made the atmosphere in the office very harmonious.

Amelia felt much warmer.

Rat- tat... The door of Victor's office was knocked at again.

"Come in!" Victor said, without looking up. He was working hard, and his bangs fell on his forehead, making his charm more stunning.

Lucian came in and fixed his eyes on him. He smiled slightly and said, "It seems that my guess is right. Mr. King, Vincent, Haven, and Paulina, have made an appointment to meet at the restaurant on Fashion Square tonight. I've already booked seats and we can go there directly after work."

Victor nodded with satisfaction, and with a strange look in his eyes, he said, "Get ready. You go there first after work. I'll send my wife back."

Lucian was speechless. The corner of his lips twitched and he raised his eyebrows as he looked at Victor. "Are you insane? What's more important?"

Victor smiled proudly, "Lucian, I'm a married man. Of course, I have to watch my wife go home safe and sound. Then I can rest assured."

Lucian pulled a wry face. Looking at Victor's flaunting eyes, he roasted in his heart, "You think you're great? What a fruitcake!"

However, he had to admit Victor was much happier than single people like him.

"Well, well. I'll go first. But don't be too late. Adonis will go there too. I've made some arrangements in case of incidents."

Victor looked at him with appreciation, "I can leave everything to you with ease."

Lucian said, "Great. I'll be at ease too."

After he finished speaking, he turned around and left elegantly. But, when he turned around, the expression on his dazzling face became hard to describe.

Victor watched Lucian leaving and smiled. He could count on Lucian, and Lucian didn't need to worry about anything.

Victor was also a good boss. Lucian could receive lots of dividends at the end of the year.

After work, Victor sent Eden back directly.

He did not tell Eden where he was going but just told her that he had a social event tonight and would come back. He told Eden not to worry about him and then drove away.

Eden knew that Victor had to socialize a lot. But since they got married, he had been evading as many unnecessary social activities as he could and spent more time accompanying her.

Victor drove straight to the restaurant.

Lucian had been there waiting for him.

Victor remembered that he had been to this restaurant before when he entered.

It was when Eden came back that he and Jasper came here to eat crayfish. The environment of the restaurant was very good, with each table separated by a hollow screen, and the atmosphere was comfortable. There were not many people at night.

Victor was over 1.8 meters tall. His slim gray suit showed off his perfect figure and provided a foil for his fair skin. His flawless face was angular, making him look cold and handsome.

He saw Lucian from afar.

Avoiding Vincent's sight, he walked calmly to his seat and sat down.

He looked at Lucian and lowered his voice, "I'm not late."

Lucian shot him a glance. The dim light made his handsome face look hazy. Crossing his legs elegantly, he said in a calm voice, "Well, on time."

Vincent and the others had just arrived, but Mr. King arrived before them.

Victor stealthily glanced at the people behind him. His icy eyes didn't tell any emotion. According to the voices, he was sure that the people behind him were indeed them.

"Mr. King, I remembered that I asked you that day, Seven years ago, were you the person who was with Eden in the hotel? What was your answer at that time?"

Vincent's agitated and angry voice came from behind.

Mr. King was fat, with a flat and big face, narrowed eyes, big and snobby nose, and thick lips. He wore a crewcut, making him look even more clumsy.

He pretended a helpless expression and said. "Mr. Alwynn, I didn't admit that I was with Eden that night. To be blunt, the woman who went to my room was not Eden, but another woman arranged by your mother. That woman is still my lover."

Upon hearing this, Paulina's veins on her forehead burst with anger.

"Why didn't you tell the truth? It's too late now! Don't you know that if Victor finds out the truth, we'll all be screwed! Don't you know his means?" Paulina said seriously. Victor was cruel and merciless, he would definitely find out that she was the planner.

She had not sent the message until she had confirmed it with Vincent.

Hearing this, Mr. King was also scared. He narrowed his small eyes slightly, and there were only two lines on his fat face. He retorted, "Miss Clark, you can't blame me for this. You reported it and now Victor wants to apportion blame. You enmesh me into this. Moreover, how could I know that Eden would go to Victor's room at that time?"

"Also, that year, Mrs. Alwynn asked someone to cut off the power source on purpose. So I don't know that the woman in my room was not Eden. If we have to get to the bottom of the matter, it was the Alwynn family's fault."

Chapter 814

"You..." Vincent looked at him helplessly, and there was anger in his slender eyes. "You should tell me the truth when I asked you that day. Otherwise, I won't be in trouble and there won't be three more bastards to share my property."

He spoke without thinking, and the other four looked at him in surprise.

Haven raised her eyebrows slightly and looked at him unhappily, "What are you talking about?" It was okay to say this in secret, but in front of outsiders, he was too blunt and immature. No wonder that the chairman had not let him take over the Jotham Alwynn Group for so many years.

Vincent glanced at Haven and realized that he was too impulsive. He glared at Mr. King and did not speak.

Paulina wore a gloomy expression. She spread her hands feebly, "What should we do now?"

Mr. King said with a frightened tone, "To tell you the truth, I came here tonight because I want to know what you're going to do. It was your fault. You enmeshed me into that, and I did nothing. But now Victor blames me. What should I do now? What about my company? One of you must take responsibility! Otherwise, if my company is in trouble, none of us will be able to live well."

There was a hint of threat in Mr. King's words.

Vincent sneered, "Your company? Do you think Victor would care about your small company? You shouldn't have lied to me at that time. This is the consequence. Victor rarely won me when we were young, but now he changed a lot, I can't deal with him."

"But for me, he's not a big threat. For you... he can ruin you and your family."

Hearing Vincent shirking the responsibility, Mr. King laughed fearlessly and said, "Mr. Alwynn, don't be so mean. It was your mother who asked me to cooperate. Besides, seven years ago, she planned all the things. She asked someone to cut off the power supply so that Victor didn't know who was in his room and wanted to humiliate him in this way. The woman he arranged for Vincent entered my room, and Eden entered Victor's room. It was a mistake. And in the final analysis, it was the Alwynn family's fault."

"What do you think Victor would do if I told him about this?"

Vincent did not retreat at all, he still smiled carelessly and said, "Tell him, Mr. King. The grudge between us has accumulated for more than ten years, no, no, almost twenty years. Go tell him. See if I care."

"You..." Mr. King's face was blazed with anger, "Don't go too far. We have been friends for so many years. How can you do that to me? It's impossible for me to carry the can for you! It's none of my business!"

Paulina glanced at Vincent. Someone must take the blame for this thing. Otherwise, Victor would not make her an exception.

Haven was jealous. Why would everything be so coincidental? Eden took all the advantages. From childhood, they two had been together. Even if Eden was lost when she was young, they would still be able to reunite many years later. And they even had children after that night.

She forced a smile.

She could only feel extreme pain from the bottom of her heart.

If the Clement family knew these three children, especially old Mrs. Clement, they couldn't be happier.

Vincent squinted at him dangerously, "Mr. King, you are the one Victor is looking for, not me. Even if you tell him, I'm not afraid."

"Really?"

A cold voice came from overhead.

The familiar voice shocked all the people present.

After the shock, they all looked at Victor in disbelief.

He was standing behind Vincent, and the dazzling backlight was cast on his body, making his face a little fuzzy. His straight nose looked sharper under the light, revealing a chilling coldness. His dark eyes were aloof, and his eyes were unpredictable and unfathomable. He slightly lifted the corners of his thin lips, sneered.

"Vincent, Paulina, Haven, and Mr. King, you are really as bold as brass. You plotted against me behind me and now you're scheming against my children. Very good."

He said with a smile, but there was not a trace of warmth. In fact, there was a fatal chill in his tone.

Haven became extremely uneasy.

"Victor..."

"Shut up. I have warned you a long time ago. Don't call my name." Victor interrupted Haven mercilessly, with a gloomy look in his eyes.

Haven's face suddenly turned pale, but she still stared at Victor.

Paulina was sweating because of fear. She remembered the lesson she had learned last time. She didn't know what was waiting for her this time.

Victor took a look at Lucian behind him and said, "Lucian, call the president of Paulina's Company and let him come here to see how disgusting his staff is."

Lucian nodded and turned to make a call.

Hearing Victor's words, Paulina felt freezingly cold as if she had fallen into an ice cellar.

"Mr. Alwynn, don't do this to me, please. I really didn't mean it. I just love you too much and want your attention. Is it wrong to love you?"

"Haha..." Victor sneered indifferently, looking at her with a sarcastic look, and said, "Who do you think you are? Do you think you are qualified to talk about love?"

Paulina was stunned. His words pierced her heart.

Meanwhile, Mr. King was asking for forgiveness, "Mr. Alwynn, it really has nothing to do with me. I was coerced by them. How dare I make an issue of your children? It's them... they planned all these things." Mr. King immediately dissociated himself and pointed at the three people in front of him with his thick and short fingers.

The other three people were speechless.

This bastard, put aside all his responsibilities.

But Vincent sneered and looked at Mr. King with scheming eyes, "Mr. King, don't forget what you said to me at the last banquet. You told me that you and Eden were in the same room that night. Now you want to push aside your responsibilities? You really don't respect me." Mr. King's wanted to save himself by using this small-time trick. But how could it be useful since Vincent was here?

Chapter 815

"You... you're slandering me." Mr. King jumped up at once. He knew clearly that Vincent just wanted to entangle him in the trouble.

It was they who had caused the trouble, but now they wanted to pass the buck. He would not let them succeed.

Victor, with detached eyes, looked at them blaming each other. His eyes were darker and colder than ever before as if the souls would be stuck in them.

"Mr. Alwynn, they three planned all the things, and it has nothing to do with me. They called me here today to confirm the truth." Mr. King changed his previous frivolous look and became serious.

He, in the business circle, also had experienced a lot. Now, these three reckless people wanted him to take the blame. How could it be possible?

Victor stood with his hands folded and looked at him, "Mr. King, I have investigated this thoroughly. It indeed had nothing to do with you. You can leave now."

Mr. King was astonished. When did Victor become so easy-going?

Victor had his own consideration. Mr. Wang, as a pawn, did not participate in planning. However, he and Myra, had once cooperated. That was the reason why Victor let him go.

He would get even with Mr. King for this matter later.

Seeing that Victor did not speak, Mr. King quickly got up and left.

Watching Mr. Wang leave without punishment, Haven was more nervous with her pupils suddenly contracted.

She was scared of Victor, but she still forced herself to look straight into Victor's eyes and said, "Mr. Alwynn, I..."

"Shut up! Don't talk to me." Victor interrupted her ruthlessly again.

His gaze at Paulina was detached as if it can look through the soul, which made Paulina shiver.

Paulina couldn't help trembling, and she didn't dare to say a word.

Vincent didn't manifest any fear or anxiety. He slowly lit a cigarette, and the sparks flickered, he said, "Victor, don't put on a bad face to threaten us. We did it, so what do you want to do? Just say it."

After that, he opened his mouth and blew smoke, which blurred his face, where he wore a haughty look. In front of Victor, he never weakened his strength.

Victor sneered mockingly, "What's the rush? Don't worry, it'll be your turn. Someone will come here soon."

Lucian had already made a phone call. Vincent's father and the Clement family would be here soon.

Victor took a step forward and got a little closer to them, which brought them great unnerving deterrence.

The three instantly began to feel uneasy. This time, even Vincent was nervous. Meanwhile, he was wondering who was coming. His father?

Vincent raised his eyes and glared at Victor, "You called my father?"

Hearing Vincent saying "my father", Victor looked thoughtful.

It was Vincent's father, but also his.

He would let his father crash, bit by bit, and let him confess in regret.

The Alwynn family seemed to be glamorous.

But for him, it was a joke.

At that moment, Lucian walked over. His angular features, perfect skin, and pretty thin lips made him striking. He looked at Victor and said, "The president of Paulina's Company went on a business trip. I told him about what happened today and he said that he would come to you later personally."

"Okay." Victor nodded and looked at Paulina. His word and terrible expression almost destroyed her.

Paulina had already been transfixed. Her president would definitely punish her.

All capable people had the chance to be the president of Paulina's company because it was just a filiale.

So Paulina intended to take the position after she came back, which cause conflicts between the president and her. Now he got something on her, he would definitely not let her go easily.

"Victor, do you have to do this?" She looked at him with reddish eyes.

Victor's expression was still cold. He sneered and said, "It's you who are too heartless to me. Now you're blaming me. Knock it off. Miss Clark."

"You..." Paulina stared at Victor and she flushed with anger.

At this moment, she was somewhat like Haven.

After being hurt by Victor, Haven would also stare at him.

However, Victor didn't care at all. He was still detached and had no warmth in his expression.

Haven, sitting in the corner, was still staring at Victor. For her, Victor was like a god, who could not be ignored wherever he was.

And his gentleness, although would not show her, was intoxicating, which made her ambivalent, loving and hating him at the same time.

There were fewer and fewer people in the restaurant. Lucian paid a lot to the manager, telling him not to receive other guests, and stood at the door waiting for people he had called.

Twenty minutes later, Phillip, Wyatt, Buddy, and Aisling arrived. And there was another person that surprised Paulina, her father. Mason

Seeing her father, Paulina knew Victor was more ruthless than her expectation.

Aisling looked at Haven and asked angrily, "What on earth is going on?"

Seeing her parents and brother come over, Haven was shocked. She hadn't got her shares yet, and now she got into trouble. She was afraid that she could not get her shares in a short time.

Victor looked at them, and his expression was freezingly cold.

He swept his eyes over his father. His innate noble temperament and arrogant look overlapped that of when he was young in Phillip's eyes.

His son had always been the most outstanding.

"Victor, did you call us all here because of that thing?" Phillip's powerful voice terrorized Vincent.

He never thought that Victor would really do this.

Victor sneered and said, "Yes, Let's see what your good son has done. He can do nothing but play tricks on me behind my back." .

Eden was his beloved, his treasure. No one could hurt her.

Phillip's expression changed instantly. He just scolded the bastard who defamed his grandchildren.

He didn't expect that it would be Vincent.

"Vincent, how dare you!" Phillip roared angrily.

Vincent's eyes suddenly changed. He lowered his head and his arrogant expression disappeared, didn't dare to retort

Hearing Phillip's roar, Victor was stunned for a second. His cold eyes eased slightly. In his memory, Phillip had always been protecting Vincent. This was the first time Phillip had scolded Vincent in front of him.

Chapter 816

Seeing that Vincent didn't dare to give any reaction, Phillip became even angrier.

His look was getting colder and colder and became more and more impatient.

Vincent was not like Philip at all. He inherited his mother's vicious and petty, but not Phillip's advantages.

"Why don't you speak? This is your brother, and they're your brother's children. How dare you slander them like this?"

Hearing this, Vincent seemed to be on the verge of break down. He suddenly looked up at Phillip and asked incredulously, "You've known that."

Phillip snorted. His gaze was terrifying, and his face was full of anger. He said, "Ha. Thanks to your mom."

"Mom?" Panic seized Vincent. His mom had already known about it, but she didn't tell him. What on earth is Mom thinking? He complained angrily to himself.

Would these three children suddenly disappear just because she didn't tell him?

"Right!" Phillip replied coldly. He was totally disappointed in Rebecca.

If Rebecca had not secretly investigated this matter, he was afraid that he would not know the truth until today.

But Victor was too much, not allowing him to see the kids.

Aisling said in a deep voice, "Haven, you were also involved in this, right?"

"Mom, I didn't..." Haven didn't know how to answer her.

She was indeed involved in this, but the person who uploaded the news to the Internet was Paulina.

"I have taught you how to behave well from you were young and send you to the most expensive and best school, but what have you learn? Harm others to benefit yourself?!"

Aisling looked at Haven exasperatedly. After all, Haven was her daughter, although they were not related by blood, whom she brought up little by little. It was impossible for them to have no family affection.

However, Buddy looked grim, and he said word by word angrily, "Get out of the Clement family tonight."

"Buddy..." Hearing this, Haven looked at his brother with fear.

Seeing the cold look on his face, her heart skipped a beat. She had never seen her brother's terrible expression before.

"From now on, you are no longer a member of our family. Tomorrow I will hold a press conference." Buddy's tone was deep and without any emotion.

He witnessed Haven's every move. Ruined Eden's life, got the Clement Group, and then enjoyed the splendor and wealth without any worries. Those were her purposes.

He was also very clear about the purpose of Victor's behavior this tonight, and he was very grateful.

Victor gave him a reason to drive Haven away.

A perfectly justifiable reason.

If Haven continued to stay in the Clement family, Eden would suffer more.

Why would he let his sister stay with a monster and be harmed? If Haven did not leave, after Zofia moving in, she and the child would also be hurt.

Now, even Zofia had not yet joined the Clement family, Haven had made troubles for her.

Haven shook his head with tears rolling down her face. She looked at Buddy with a pitiful look. She couldn't believe Buddy was so heartless this time. He has been good to her when she was a child.

"No, Buddy. ..don't do this to me. I know I was wrong. I won't do this again. I was too impulsive, but I didn't really mean that. Buddy, I'm your sister, your sister who has been with you since childhood. Please don't drive me away, please..."

Buddy still stood there with a ruthless face, and his eyes were deep and cold, "I have given you many chances."

Haven was shocked, she asked bewilderingly, "What... what do you mean?"

Buddy replied, "You know what do I mean. We don't expose you because we want to give you a chance."

Haven was astonished and her heart was almost on her mouth.

Had he discovered the things she had done before?

No, it's impossible. I did it very secretly. She said to herself.

Or, had he found out the trouble I caused to Zofia?

Haven didn't want Zofia to be a member of the Clement family.

That woman, as well as the child in her belly, must be a thorn for her.

Wyatt said, "Buddy, we take a step back. Let Haven move out. As for the press conference, we can take it slow."

Buddy glanced at his father. There were many things that his father did not know, but he could not tell his father about Haven's ambition either.

Haven knew that her father had always been soft-hearted, so she got up and knelt in front of Wyatt, regardless of everything. She cried and said, "Dad, Mom, I know I'm wrong. I won't harm others anymore. What happened today is really an accident. I also feel very wronged. Don't let me move out. Dad, don't let me move out. I can't live without you..."

Haven could do everything now. She must stay in the Clement family.

Without the Clement family, she was nothing. Right now, Tillie was acting amiably towards her just because she was under the protection of the Clement family.

Victor glanced at Wyatt and knew that he was a soft-hearted person. He won't be indifferent seeing Haven begging him like this.

He whispered something in Buddy's ear. Buddy nodded but did not speak.

Wyatt looked at his son and said, "Buddy, Haven knows she's wrong. Just give her another chance."

Buddy looked at his father and looked reluctant, "Dad, all things we have done are always aboveboard. Playing tricks behind others can not be allowed in our family."

Wyatt knew his consideration but still tried to persuade him, "Buddy, I know. But now Haven repents. Give her another chance."

Haven turned to Buddy quickly, "I will behave well. I have just made progress in my work. Teacher Elliott treats me very well, and I also want to study hard. When I return to our company, I can help our family grow stronger." Haven said ambitiously, but Buddy smiled coldly.

"Well! I'll give you another chance." Buddy said. Victor was right. Sometimes it was hard for him to find out what Haven was doing. But if Haven was at home, he could set up traps and catch Haven and Vincent all in one draft.

"Thank you, Dad! Thank you, Buddy!" Haven smiled through tears. She finally stayed.

Buddy sneered. He knew that Haven would restrain herself during this period of time. But, the real action was yet to come.

Vincent felt a little relieved when he saw Haven was not driven away.

Phillip stood by the side and watched coldly.

He didn't know Haven was not simple until today.

"Vincent, you're still the general manager. But you don't need to work now. Take a rest at home." After saying that, Phillip did not give Vincent the chance to explain and left directly.

"Dad, dad! How can you do that to me?" Vincent chased after his father anxiously.

Those were what Victor wanted.

Chapter 817

Finally, it was Paulina's turn.

Mason walked over and raised his hand, striking his daughter in the face.

"Useless thing. Look at the troubles you caused for me. Apologize to Mr. Alwynn!" Mason looked at his daughter, exasperated. His daughter not only dissipated his family fortune but also caused him trouble behind him.

His situation was already very difficult, but his daughter was still making trouble for him and didn't repent.

"Dad!" Paulina burst into tears. Being slapped in front of Victor, she only felt that she was going to die.

"Apologize!" Mason glared at her. He could not afford to provoke Victor. He was even not able to ward him off.

"What? Apologize to Mr. Alwynn!"

Paulina only felt that her heart was numb because of the pain. Her father, not helping her, asked her to apologize.

He should have been on her side.

She smiled coldly and said, "Dad, even if it's my fault, you are my father, you can't be ruthless to me as others." Her mother, who had been very protective of her would let her be insulted like this.

Mason looked at her with a warning look, "You make mistakes first, should I, as your father, still cover up for you? If so, you would become a pile of rubbish!"

Hearing this, Paulina felt even more aggrieved and cried.

"I like Victor, what's wrong with that? I want to get him, what's wrong with that?" she raised his voice.

For Victor, she even didn't care about her self-esteem.

"Paulina..." Mason didn't know how to answer. He looked at his daughter in shock and didn't expect his daughter's love for Victor.

After a while, he came round from his stupor and persuaded his daughter, "Even so, you did the wrong thing. You can't get a person in this way, you won't be happy even if you get him. Paulina, apologize to Mr. Alwynn quickly." If he could not solve the event today well, Victor would not let it go.

Paulina looked at Victor with heartache and said with a bitter smile, "Victor..."

"Miss Clark." Victor indifferently interrupted her. "This thing happened in your company, so let's deal with it when your president comes back."

His overly beautiful face was full of anger, and he seemed very hostile to Paulina.

Paulina trembled. Victor didn't even give her the chance to apologize.

"Mr. Alwynn, don't be so angry. It was my daughter's fault, I'll ask Paulina to apologize to you." Hearing this, Mason was anxious. If he couldn't please Victor here, he didn't know what would Victor do to him later.

But Victor turned around without showing any mercy and left at an elegant pace.

Lucian followed him to leave with one hand in his trouser pocket.

Aisling looked at Haven and said, "Haven, if you do this again, you'll be driven out of our family. I won't be as kind as your father." After saying that, Aisling also left.

In the end, only Paulina and Mason were still at the restaurant. Mason sat on the sofa and said with disappointment, "Paulina, I am really disappointed with you. Last time, you tripped Eden and Victor has warned you for that. If you continue to hurt Eden, or her kids, the Vaughn Family will be broke. You're clever, you should know that Victor has many business partners from different industries. If he wants, no one would willing to cooperate with us."

Hearing this, Paulina was stunned for a while. Then she smiled bitterly and said in a sharp tone, "Does he really have such a great ability that he can manipulate the entire business circle in River City?"

Mason replied, "I'm tired of caring. You'd better care about yourself then! " He got up helplessly. Tonight, he was socializing nearby. After receiving Lucian's call, he had always felt uneasy.

Victor told him about this, that was, giving him a chance. If Victor didn't tell him, in the end, he would not know how their company went bankrupt.

Mason lit up a cigarette, puffed, and slowly walked out.

Paulina stood still and looked at her father's slightly bent back, also felt a slight pain in her heart.

Watching her father walking away, panic seized her.

"Dad." She hesitated for a moment and followed him out.

Mason squinted at his daughter and sneered, "It's too late now. I had the ability to help you if you lost your job. But now my business is also down, you have nothing." Just now, Paulina had missed the opportunity.

Victor did have a striking face and enormous wealth that would make women crazy. But he, at this age, didn't have the same achievements, which make him feel ashamed of himself.

Everyone in this circle wanted to have such a good performance.

Paulina finally felt the fear and desperation, filled in her head.

At this moment, she hoped that everything was just a dream. Once she woke up, nothing would have happened.

"Dad, I'll apologize to him right now." Paulina cried and said. She had always been too confident in herself.

She thought that her high educational background was her unique advantage, making her have an extremely strong sense of superiority in front of those people in the company.

Mason said feebly, "I've told you. It's too late. Observe how your president handles this thing first. Since Victor purchased Aurora Entertainment Company, and because of this fashion show, C.Y went international, his business is expanding day by day."

Paulina knew it. She had to admit that Eden's designs were very successful this time.

Her designs allowed the Alwynn Group to achieve unprecedented performance.

And the clothes of the Alwynn Group were well received abroad, which made her even more jealous of Eden.

Eden looked delicate, beautiful, and pure. She was a woman that men pitied. But in Paulina's opinion, Eden was a sophisticated woman. She could deal with her indiscreetness well and she was very astute. She always retreated to gain advantages, fighting back silently was her common trick.

In Paulina's mind, Eden deceived Victor by her weak appearance.

She had always disliked Eden like this and was always thinking of ways to teach Eden a lesson.

She was a little worried and asked, "Dad, what will Victor do to us?"

Mason replied, "The worst consequence is... he will acquire our company. You know Aurora Entertainment, it's not an ordinary company. But he managed to acquire it within a day."

Paulina was bewildered. She didn't know what she should do.

After settling the children to rest, Eden also lay down, sleepy. Just as she was about to fall asleep, she heard the sound of the door opening.

Chapter 818

Eden opened her eyes dazedly and saw Victor come in.

Seeing that Eden had laid down, Victor smiled gently.

Every day, when he came back from work, opened his eyes in the morning, woke up in the middle of the night, he could see her by his side, which made him feel very happy.

"Victor, you're back." Eden's said vaguely and sleepily.

"I woke you up." Victor's voice was very soft and his movements were very light.

"No, I just fell asleep. I've been waiting for you, and then I fell asleep." She would have a rest tomorrow and didn't have to go to work. Victor's birthday was approaching, she wanted to pick up a birthday gift for him.

Victor walked over, bowed his head, and kissed her on the forehead. "Eden, I'll be there in a minute." He said intimately.

Hearing his words, Eden was immediately awakened. She opened her eyes wide and goggled at Victor, "What do you mean? Go back to your room."

However, Victor smirked and quickly went to take a shower. Anyway, he would not be obedient to Eden tonight.

Eden understood that Victor had pretended not to hear her, but she could do nothing.

Next life, if I were a guy and married a woman like me, I must be very happy.

Eden thought helplessly in her heart.

Twenty minutes later, Victor finished washing and lay down beside Eden gently.

He gently hugged her and whispered in her ear, "Honey, do you miss me?"

Hearing the extremely tempting words, Eden brown nosed Victor, "Honey, you're so elegant and extraordinary, how can I not miss you? I can't stand even one second without you. Look at you, a man not only has strong working abilities but also is family-centered. You get up early and prepare breakfast for families. How could I not miss you?" "Haha..." Victor laughed happily when he heard her compliments.

"Sweetheart, are you satisfied with my performance?"

Eden rubbed in his arms and said, "Of course. I'm very satisfied." Her last syllable was a little prolonged, with a hidden meaning in it.

But Victor, who was in happiness, did not realize.

Eden was totally not satisfied. She could not stand him being so "energetic" every day.

Since they got married, Victor had "tortured" Eden every night. He was still very vigorous, but Eden suffered from sleep deprivation.

Victor smiled and said, "I'm very dedicated."

Eden immediately answered, "I deeply admire your dedication!"

Victor hugged her tightly, "You're so honey-tongued, my girl." He felt joyful when he heard her praising him with her sweet voice.

Eden slowly opened her sleepy eyes and looked at Victor, "Honey, you are the only love in my heart, especially your smile and voice, they seem to be able to take my soul."

Victor took a deep breath.

His heart skipped a beat because of Eden's words.

His hands holding her were tighter and he said, "Your smile and voice can take my soul too."

Eden also smiled when she heard that. She looked at him. The dim light made her beautiful features look hazy. She said, "But I'm a fool."

Victor looked at her with a frown, gently touched her exquisite nose, and asked, "Why do you say so?"

Victor's playful smile flashed across Eden's face. She said, "I can't do anything other than loving you."

Victor gave her a deep kiss on her lips. He knew that the little girl was just making him happy, and he was really happy.

"Honey, I'm actually not constant on love."

Eden suddenly glared at him and did not speak. Was he telling the truth? She wondered in the heart.

Victor looked at her angry face and laughed, "Why don't you ask me why?"

Eden's tone was low but still had unconcealable anger, "Should I listen to your excuse?"

Victor laughed in a low voice and whispered in her ear, "Because I love every side of you."

Eden,

She pinched herself hard and thought, "How can I be so stupid?"

Victor hint of cunning flashed in Eden's eyes. Victor dared to trick her.

She must teach him a lesson.

"Honey, I had a nightmare yesterday."

Victor was worried and anxiously asked, "What nightmare? Are you all right?"

Eden smiled oddly and placed her hand on his waist. And she whispered by his ear as he did before, "Dreams without you are all nightmares."

Victor: "...". He smiled slightly. His little girl really didn't give in.

Victor said, "Honey, I won't complain about life anymore."

Eden said, "What's there to complain about? You're doing very well."

Victor rubbed her face and said, "When I'm hugging you I'm the happiest man in the world. I don't need to complain about anything."

His ultimate goal was to lure her.

And then took care of her until they got old.

Eden's face turned red. Seeing that he was so passionate, she decided to let him get what he wanted tonight, "Victor fortune-teller told me that I bring fortune to my husband. Do you want to try it?"

Victor understood what she meant in an instant. He became short of breath, "Honey, you owe me 20 years of accompanying. From now on, I want you to make up for me every day."

Victor turned over all of a sudden and held her in his arms. His every movement was extremely soft and gentle.

She was his childhood sweetheart, his first crush, and his constant love, and they would never be apart in this life.

But meanwhile, the Alwynn family was in an argument.

Vincent rushed home and told Rebecca what had happened today. Now Rebecca knew that her son lost his position.

She was in utter panic.

The whole night, she haunted Phillip. She said, "Phillip, the company has a mixture of good and evil people now. How can you manage it without people on our side?"

Hearing this, Phillip looked at her sarcastically. "Rebecca, you are the evil one. Don't think I don't know what you've done behind me. Anson's father now has purchased 30% of the shares. As long as he buys another 20%, he has the right to affect the decisions of the board of directors. With just a little more, I, the chairman of the board, should give way to him. At that time, the Jotham Alwynn Group should change its name. Are you satisfied?"

Phillip was furious. Since they got married, they had never had such a bitter quarrel.

Rebecca and Vincent were getting too far.

Hearing Phillip's query, Rebecca was even more irritated. Having aroused such a nest of hornets, she actually also felt uneasy.

But compared with that, she cared more about her son's, and her own future. Before she got the Jotham Alwynn Group, it was impossible for her to give up.

Chapter 819

Hearing this, Vincent glanced at his mother helplessly.

She had not made better arrangements for Anson's matter, which was why they ended up like this.

Rebecca said, "I have nothing to say about Anson. If the board thinks it's planned by me, take out the evidence."

If she admitted it, she would be too ashamed to stay in River City.

Phillip felt extremely sarcastic when he heard Rebecca's response.

He looked at Rebecca with a mocking face. Only then did he realize that when he really hated a person, no matter how beautiful she was, she would become fierce and terrible.

"Rebecca, once they find the evidence, you won't be my wife anymore. I don't want to keep a wolfish woman at my side." After saying that angrily, Phillip turned around and went downstairs.

Rebecca looked at his decisive back, and regretted she had chosen him, who now was just a b*stard to her, at the beginning.

But at that time, only this b*stard was the easiest to trick.

Suddenly a vicious idea flashed through Rebecca's mind. She followed Phillip, unhesitatingly reached out her hands, and pushed him.

Phillip resisted unconsciously. He turned back and saw Rebecca's fierce face. Panic seized him.

Because of his panic, he had no time to react. He leaned forward and tried to grab the handrail of the stairs. But he failed, then he rolled down the stairs.

And this scene was just seen by Haven, who came to Vincent.

She stood still with fright and watched as Phillip rolled to her feet and looked at her with a bloody face.

"Oh, God!!" Haven screamed.

Seeing Haven, Rebecca was also shocked. Why did Haven come to her house at this time? She asked herself.

Vincent also widened his eyes and looked at his mother's thin figure incredulously. He couldn't believe that she would do this.

"Are you insane? That's Dad!" Vincent shouted in shock.

Rebecca looked back at him fiercely and said, "Shut up."

Then, she turned to Haven, who was standing in front of Phillip, and said, "Haven, come here. I have something to say to you."

Haven looked at her vigilantly and said, "Mom, we should call the ambulance first."

Rebecca smiled coldly and looked ruthlessly at Phillip, who was twitching on the ground. "What's the point of me pushing him if you call an ambulance? Now that you've seen what happened, we're all in the same boat. If you don't want to be in trouble, just shut your mouth. Phillip fell on his own, it has nothing to do with us."

Vincent roared with a shocked and angry face, "How can you be so vicious?" Although he was also cruel, his malice was only against Victor and Graciella, who wanted to take his property.

Hearing this, Rebecca turned around, raised her hand without hesitation, and slapped Vincent in the face. His word made her sad. She, as a mother, had paid too much for her children.

"I am such a person. Didn't you know it already? All the comfortable days you have had in the past ten years are because of me ! Now you think I'm too vicious? Now you regret being my son?"

After that, she glanced at Phillip, who was still twitching non-stop.

"Your father shouldn't blame me. He made me do this. The Jotham Alwynn Group and all the real estate can only be yours. Choosing Phillip, I was really blind. This was the biggest mistake of my life!"

Rebecca said sarcastically as if she had suffered a lot since she married Phillip.

Vincent still had some conscience at this time, so he took out his mobile phone and wanted to call the ambulance.

However, his phone was taken away by Rebecca. She glared at him with disappointment, "Vincent, you idiot! Don't you know why I did these? It's all for your and Haven's future! You can't win Victor, I know it. And now Graciella is back too. She has founded her company and is recruiting staff. She used to be a very capable president. With her previous resources, she will soon be able to get a foothold in River City. Now Victor hasn't retaliated yet."

"But Graciella would not wait like Victor."

"The Jotham Alwynn Group, to put it bluntly, is established all by Jaida and Phillip. We have been enjoying the fruits of their work for so many years..."

Speaking of this, she smiled weirdly and said, "Graciella will never let us live in peace. Victor has also been looking for evidence secretly, so we can only take the initiative to guard what belongs to us."

Hearing this, Vincent wavered.

"But what about Dad? We can't keep him like this."

Rebecca looked at Phillip venomously and said, "He has the three highs, and now he fell down from such high stairs and gushed so much blood. Who knows whether he can survive or not? Just let him lie there for some time. When he is dying, call the emergency."

Listening to the conversation between Vincent and his mother, Haven trembled slightly.

She had always known that Rebecca was a very vicious woman, but Rebecca's malevolence was over her expectation.

Rebecca had married Phillip for twenty years but had no feelings for him at all and now she even wanted to kill him.

"What if he dies?" Vincent was still very anxious. Though Phillip was very strict with him, he had always been very kind to him.

He did make mistakes, so his father was so angry today.

But his mother was too heartless.

After all, for them, his father left his ex-wife and even the children he and his ex-wife had.

Victor had been living a bad life since he was a child, mostly because of him and his mother. Graciella was sent abroad by his father when she was young because his mother pestered his father to agree.

Vincent shook his head quickly and said "I can't do it, Mom. I can't just stand by and watch Dad die in front of me. This will be a nightmare in my life."

He reached out to grab his mobile phone.

But Rebecca quickly moved the phone away and looked at Vincent with a cold and ferocious face. "Vincent, you want to save your father and let me go to jail, don't you? Think about it, how did you come to this situation today?"

"Because of your father! He still cares about Victor and Graciella. He has refused to hand over the Jotham Alwynn Group to you because of them. If I don't do this, you and Adalynn can't get the Jotham Alwynn Group. I have my own plan, now I have the final say about what to do."

Chapter 820

Rebecca was very bossy. She had planned for so long that she couldn't lose everything because of a small mistake.

"Mom." Vincent looked at her angrily. "With the property gotten by this kind of mean, my heart won't be eased. How can I enjoy it?"

Vincent roared with anger. No matter how he wanted the property, he couldn't hurt his father, but now...

Stamping his feet in anger, he could only blame himself for being incompetent.

He liked money. The Alwynn family was rich. Even if he could not get the Jotham Alwynn Group, he could still live happily. Besides, he believed that his father would not be so heartless that he would give nothing to him.

Rebecca said sarcastically, "Without money, you are less likely to enjoy. Victor learned how to make money when he was in high school, but what have you learned? He saved up a lot of wealth, what about you? Have you earned a penny yourself? I know your ability."

"Mom..."

"Shut up!" Rebecca interrupted him unhappily. "Is it the time to say these? You two, keep it in mind, Phillip accidentally rolled downstairs, by himself."

Haven nodded quickly. She regretted coming here tonight and seeing such a thing.

Seeing Haven nodded, Rebecca smiled with satisfaction and said, "Haven, you are an ambitious girl. The property of the Clement family belongs to you in the end. Vin and I won't tell the Clement family about your ambition."

Hearing her words, Haven seethed with anger. Rebecca had something on her, but now she also had something on Rebecca.

Rebecca looked at Vincent and asked, "What about you, Vin?"

Vincent took a deep look at her and then nodded hard. After all, he couldn't let his mother go to prison.

Only then did Rebecca smile. Seeing that Phillip was motionless, she handed the phone to Vincent with a smile and said, "Vin, I know you love your dad. Now call an ambulance."

Vincent grabbed his phone and then quickly dialed the emergency phone number.

Late at night, Victor slept very soundly. His phone rang suddenly.

He frowned and then slowly opened his eyes. When he saw that Eden, who was in his arms, was not woken up, his brows relaxed a little.

When he saw that it was from Jaxon, he frowned slightly. "What's up?" There was a hint of displeasure in his voice.

"Mr. Alwynn, the chairman has had an accident." Victor immediately sat up and said in a low voice, "What's going on?"

Jaxon said, "Mrs. Alwynn said that the chairman fell off the stairs accidentally and has been sent to the hospital. His head is seriously injured and now he is unconscious. He's now in ICU."

Hearing this, Victor was stunned for a moment. He never thought that his strong and overbearing father would one day be admitted into ICU.

"Which hospital?" Victor asked anxiously. No matter how he hated his father, they had a blood tie.

"Okay, I'll be right there." Victor replied and immediately hung up the phone.

Eden was also woken up by him. She asked with sleepy eyes, "What's wrong? Who is in the hospital?"

Victor looked down at her and said, "Dad fell down from the stairs. He's in a bad state. I have to go to the hospital now."

When Eden heard this, all her drowsiness ran away. She said anxiously, "I go with you. Hurry up."

Victor looked at her and nodded. They put on their clothes and went downstairs and happened to meet Graciella who also received the phone call and came out.

"Victor." Graciella looked at her brother agitatedly. It was too sudden. Before she could do anything, her father was in ICU.

Victor looked at her. "Let's go to the hospital first."

"Okay!" Graciella nodded.

After the three got in the car, Victor drove directly to the hospital.

On the way, Graciella bit her lower lip, saying nothing.

Dad was familiar with that staircase, how could he tumble down today all of a sudden? She had been thinking about this after receiving the phone call.

With a dark face, Victor told his sister about what had happened tonight.

Both Graciella and Eden felt that something was odd. Eden did not expect that the three people did not give her a break and had been secretly making trouble for her.

Graciella looked ahead. There were cars that kept passing them, making her feel even more uneasy.

Victor comforted his sister, "Don't worry, Graciella. We'll know when we get there."

Eden also persuaded her, "We still don't know the truth yet. We must be calm now. God bless the good man. Mr. Alwynn will be fine."

Graciella nodded and did not speak.

As soon as they arrived at the hospital, they went straight to the ICU.

Jaxon was waiting for Victor and Graciella.

Rebecca was crying sadly at the side.

Vincent and Haven lowered their heads and stood by the side.

"Mr. Alwynn, Miss Alwynn, you're here." When Jaxon saw Victor and Graciella, he walked toward them quickly, as if he had seen his savior.

Rebecca glanced at the three secretly with anger in her eyes. They came so fast.

Didn't he detest his father? Usually, when his father was ill, he didn't even bother to go home and take a look.

Now he was fast when he heard that his father was in ICU.

Victor took a sharp look at Rebecca, and his eyes were like an ice sword.

Being stared at by Victor, Rebecca felt chills all over her body.

However, she had to continue with her acting.

"Phillip, how could you be so careless? What should I do if something bad happens to you?" Rebecca cried loudly.

Jaxon coldly glanced at her and said to Victor and Graciella, "Can I have a word with you?"

Victor looked at Eden. He did not want her to worry. "Eden, wait for us here."

Eden didn't care too much. She just nodded and said, "Okay!"

Then, the three of them walked to the other side.

Seeing this, Rebecca felt a little uneasy.

She glanced at Vincent. He immediately got her meaning and took a few steps forward.

Eden seemed to have seen through Vincent's motives. She also moved and stood at the corner. In this way, she could see Vincent in the front and Victor on the left.

Vincent noticed her move and realized that

Eden knew what he wanted to do.

He took two steps and then stopped again.

Victor looked at Jaxon and asked, "Jaxon, I think you also know what happened tonight. My father can't tumble down the stairs for no reason."

Jaxon nodded and said with a hesitant face, "I know, Mr. Alwynn. And there is something very strange. The chairman has not been sent to the hospital in time. He's now out of consciousness for delaying treatment."
