

Gluey Love 881

Chapter 881

When Eden heard this, she looked at Kenny with a regretful face and her heart ached a lot, "Kenny, you should have told me at that time. I took a fancy to a limited edition bag designed by their company. It cost more than ten thousand dollars. It was a bargain when it only cost one dollar."

Kenneth and Victor were stunned.

Kenneth thought that Eden would be angry, but he didn't expect her to react like this.

She even wanted to buy the bag when it only cost one dollar?

"Mom, don't you blame me?" Kenneth looked at Eden with excitement, and he still crossed both of his hands nervously.

Seeing that Kenneth had told the truth honestly, Victor looked at him and gave him a thumbs-up.

Kenneth pursed her lips slightly, but he was still afraid that Eden would be mad.

Eden clapped her hands forcefully and looked at him happily, looking so cheerful, "Kenny, why should I be miffed? I always teach you to be kind, but it doesn't mean that you have to be kind to everyone."

"I'm also very angry about what Rebecca has done to your dad. They slandered your dad. Now there are still many public opinions against your dad on the Internet. I want to take revenge for your dad, but I don't have such an ability, so I have been very sad. You're really awesome!"

Hearing this, Victor was so moved that he immediately wanted to kiss her a few times.

Kenneth smiled very happily. He knew it was not right for him to do that, but he just didn't want anyone to bully his family.

It was not easy for them to reunite. No one could separate them from each other.

Eden reached out and touched Kenny's good-looking face with her slender and fair fingers. His well- shaped eyebrows, brooding eyes and perfect outline were exactly the same as Victor's. Why didn't she find that they were very similar back then?

"Kenny, I know that you are excellent, but we need to grow up step by step like walking on the beach."

"You have to promise me that you will not do anything illegal except for this."

Rebecca was indeed vicious and mean.

She knew the existence of Kenny, Ricky and Gia, so Eden had been worried about their safety.

Kenneth nodded with a smile and said confidently, "Mom, don't worry. I have a sense of propriety. I won't do anything that will make you worry. I will study hard and never affect my study."

"Mm!" Eden nodded with relief. Kenny would definitely keep his promise. She was not worried about this.

"Kenny, how much can your website earn a month?" She was suddenly curious about this.

Kenneth said, "Mom, sometimes I can make tens of thousands dollars, and sometimes I make hundreds of thousands dollars. It depends on my clients' requirements."

"Ahem..." Eden was so shocked that she coughed.

Her three children were all awesome. On the contrary, as their mother, she hadn't made great progress after so many years.

She suddenly felt that there was no need for her to raise the three children. They were capable enough to support her life.

"Mom..."

"Eden..."

Victor and Kenneth said at the same time.

Eden waved her hand, "It's okay. I was just choked."

Eden flushed a little. She was badly choked.

She was puzzled when she checked the payment every month. She clearly remembered the price of everything she bought clearly, but she didn't know how she spent all her salary.

She had been living a frugal life, but his son made much more money than she did.

It made her so embarrassed.

"Kenny, go back to sleep. You've played for a whole day, and you must be tired. But you'd better think about if you can tell Ricky and Gia about it. Otherwise, they will be curious all the time."

Kenneth smiled and said, "Mom, I will do as I see fit. Good night."

Kenneth picked up his laptop and walked out with ease.

Eden looked at his small figure which was noble and determined. Suddenly, she felt that Kenny had grown up.

Victor sat next to her, put his arm around her waist and said with a smile, "Eden, now you don't have to worry."

Eden suddenly glared at him and asked with irritation, "You knew about it long ago. Why didn't you tell me?"

Victor's eyes turned gloomy when he heard that she shifted the blame onto him. He smiled and changed the topic, "Eden, since you like bags, you don't have to buy the bag designed by Jotham Alwynn Group. Tomorrow I will take you to the shopping mall and buy you all the bags. In that case, you can carry different bags everyday."

"Forget it, I'm not as extravagant as you. I like it, but I don't have to own it. Let's go to visit Chairman Alwynn tomorrow." After they sent Chairman Alwynn to the hospital, they had no time to see him.

Victor nodded slightly, "We should go to see dad, but I must buy the bag you like for you. I make so much money just for you." It was a pity that Eden didn't like to spend money. She had been saving money for him.

A wave of happiness flooded Eden when she heard this. She never got tired of listening to sweet words, "Victor, your words have relieved all the troubles in my heart."

Victor smiled gently. His incredibly long lashes trembled a little, and his eyes were as bright as the most dazzling gems. In the depths of his mysterious and elegant eyes, there was a trace of elusive pride and gentleness, "Fool, I have told you many times that you don't have to save money for me."

Eden said, "Victor, we have extra money. Why don't we donate the money? Sometimes I want to be a volunteer in an orphanage. When I looked at those lonely children, I always thought of my childhood. At that time, I decided to help them when I became capable. I wanted them to have warm clothes and eat well, and I hoped that they could make their own livings and have a perfect life after graduating from college."

Victor lowered his head and sniffed her forehead, "Eden, in order to find you, I had been giving to charity. I have contributed to every orphanage in River City. Every year I ask the factory to make new clothes for those children, and the director of each orphanage knows me." Even so, he didn't find her during that period of time.

"Really?" Eden grabbed his hand excitedly. He did what she had always wanted to do. She was too poor to help those children.

"Yeah! If you want to go there, I'll take you to see them someday. Those children are very cute."

"Alright!" Eden nodded excitedly.

The room was filled with warmth and happiness. The soft light threw their elongated shadow on the floor. The scene was beautiful and enviable.

The next day, after lunch, Jaida and Zaiden took the four children out to play again.

Victor and Eden went straight to the hospital to see Phillip.

Chapter 882

Victor did not take her to the hospital directly but took her to the villa.

He drove the car to the garage, and the garage was filled with luxury cars.

Eden glanced around and looked at him doubtfully, "Victor, aren't we going to the hospital? Why are we here?"

Victor turned to look at her and smiled gently, "Eden, we came here to change a car first. Rebecca sent someone to keep an eye on us secretly. This is the villa where I lived before. Anson and Lucian used to live here, too. After I moved to your house, they went back to their own houses."

Eden looked at him with confusion, "Do you three live together?"

Victor nodded. Seeing the strange expression in her eyes, he could only smile bitterly.

"Yeah! I don't like to live alone, so Anson and Lucian lived here to accompany me." He was too lonely.

Anson always knew him very well, so he moved here to keep him company.

Eden was speechless. He was a man, but was he afraid of living alone?

Victor got out of the car, walked to the passenger seat, opened the car door and let Eden get off.

"Eden, let's go in and have a rest for a while. We'll go to the hospital half an hour later."

Before he found out Rebecca's backer, he couldn't let Rebecca find his father.

"Okay!" Eden got off the car with a smile. She wanted to see where he used to live.

As soon as Victor took Eden back to the villa, a black car stopped outside the villa. Two men in suits and sunglasses were sitting in the car.

One of them took out a telescope and looked into the villa.

Victor went in through the main gate. He paid attention to the outside and saw a black car, and his eyes suddenly turned cold.

This villa was also very luxurious, spacious and bright. Eden could not help but feel that it was so nice to be rich.

Seeing that Eden looked at the villa with interest, Victor smiled softly. He took the opportunity to take out his phone and sent a message to Brian. Then he put away the phone and walked towards Eden.

"Eden, sit here for a while. There are oranges in the refrigerator. I'll make you some juice."

Eden suddenly looked at him doubtfully and asked with a smile, "Do you know how to make juice?"

Being looked down on her, Victor felt a little wronged, "Eden, if I tell you that I once had a part-time job in the bubble tea shop when I was in college, will you believe me?"

Eden was stunned and looked at him. She didn't expect his life experience to be so rich.

"It's true." Eden looked at him with a trace of distress in her eyes.

Since his family was so rich, there was no need for him to work part-time.

"Yep!" Victor nodded with a smile. At that time, he never stopped in order to find her.

He shuttled back and forth between the streets and alleys just to find her.

However, he used all the money he had earned to help others.

If his kindness could make her be safe and sound, he would rather believe it and do it.

Eden looked at his handsome face. At this moment, there was a faint and warm smile in his brooding eyes. She said, "Okay, make it for me."

She liked orange juice. The sour and sweet taste suited her palate.

Victor smiled and said, "My room is on the second floor. Eden, go to the second floor and have a look."

"Okay!" Eden nodded and went upstairs obediently.

Victor's face was full of happiness as he looked at her slim back. He had never been so satisfied before.

After watching Eden go up, he went to the open kitchen, opened the refrigerator and took out the oranges. At first, he washed the liquidiser with boiled water, and then begun to make juice.

Since Eden was pregnant, he had made up his mind that he would take great care of her. This time, he would let her feel his full love.

Eden went to the second floor and opened the door. The room was decorated in grey and white. The match was extremely simple but luxurious.

His room was very large, and a French window was right ahead of her. The scenery outside was very beautiful, and there was an open balcony outside. The overall decoration was perfect.

She suddenly saw a photo frame on the bedside table. She slowly walked over and picked it up to have a look. It was a photo taken on the grass when he hugged her. They were both young at that time.

She held the photo frame more tightly. Did he rely on these photos to survive in the past few years?

Waiting for someone, especially someone who might never come back, really made people desperate, like being in the morass of despair.

"Victor." Eden whispered his name with deep affection.

In the photo, his smile was happy and shy. He lowered his head slightly to look at her. The touching smile melted her heart.

She also raised her head slightly in the photo. Her big eyes were bright and starry as she looked at him with a smile.

Eden couldn't help but smile faintly. There was intense love and warmth in her clear and bright eyes.

She didn't see this photo in her room when she was a child. There was one picture similar to this one in her room, but in the photo, they were looking at their front, not looking at each other.

She slowly put down the photo and walked to the balcony outside. The weather was not very good that day. A thick grey cloud masked the sun. The high buildings in the distance were surrounded by clouds and mist, revealing hazy silhouettes, but they still looked magnificent.

Eden smiled slightly. She reached out and gently touched her flat belly.

"Baby, you are very lucky. You have your father by our side, and a lot of people will love you when you are born."

Victor came in with the juice and heard her whispering to herself. He walked over with a smile, "Eden."

Eden turned around and smiled at him. Looking at the orange juice in his hand, she went over and took a sip. Her eyes suddenly lit up, "It's very yummy."

He was always very thoughtful. Sometimes, she was a little afraid of losing such a good man. In that case, she would definitely be unaccustomed.

He doted on her too much.

She was like a princess who lived in the castle.

"Eden, sit down!" He took her hand and sat down on the rattan chair. His eyes fell on the black car in front of the villa. Hadn't they left yet?

Why did Brian come here so slowly?

He frowned slightly and looked displeased. Eden was drinking the juice with her head lowered, so she did not notice his emotions at the moment.

Victor took out his phone and sent a message quickly, "Brian, hurry up."

"Mr. Alwynn, we are nearby the villa, and we'll solve it within 10 minutes. You won't be delayed. By the way, Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn is so beautiful."

A gentle smile appeared in Victor's eyes. Only then did he feel a little happier.

Chapter 883

Eden put the orange juice on the table, looked at Victor and said with a smile, "Victor, the rich live a good life." She always knew that the rich lived a very luxurious life. The Gienger family was a well-off family, but there was a vast difference between them and Victor.

Victor reached out to hold her waist and looked at her with lazy and casual eyes, "If I remember correctly, you're a rich lady."

Eden smiled and nodded quickly. Her tone was a little excited as she said, "I am indeed a rich lady now, because I married you and own your property legally."

Who didn't love money? She loved it, too!

Ha-ha...

"Ha-ha..." Victor chuckled, "You finally know this."

He turned his body slightly and looked at her with a faint smile, "Eden, do you like this place? When you were young, your wish was to see the stars while lying on bed. There is a glass room on the third floor. In summer, you can watch the stars while lying on bed."

Eden leaned in his arms gently and played with the buttons on his suit with her fingers, saying in a gentle voice, "Victor, as long as we are together, I enjoy my life no matter where we live."

Victor nodded with a smile. He was the same. As long as she could stay with him all the time, other things were no longer important.

Victor smiled and said, "Eden, my happiness is to spend my whole life with you warmly."

His warm words left a glow in Eden's heart.

Eden looked at him with a grin. Her bright smile was so attractive and charming, "Me too."

Victor lowered his head and planted a gentle kiss on her forehead.

Raising his head slightly, he saw a silver car hitting the black car parked in front of the villa.

Victor sneered. Brian, that idiot, actually used such a method.

However, it seemed that this was the fastest way.

Eden said, "Victor, look. An accident seems to have happened."

Victor smiled and said, "Eden, such small frictions are normal in our daily life."

Eden nodded. Indeed, such an accident would happen if a driver was not paying attention.

In less than ten minutes, the silver car and the black car left one after the other.

But there was a person left in the black car.

A trace of hostility flashed across Victor's black eyes.

He lowered his head and saw Brian's message, "Mr. Alwynn, you can set off now. I'll deal with this one."

Victor put the phone into his pocket.

"Eden, let's go to the hospital."

Eden finished the rest of the juice, nodded and said, "Let's go."

Victor took her hand and went downstairs. Then he drove a Rolls-Royce and took Eden to the hospital directly.

He invested in this hospital last year.

The hospital had been well-run. He took Eden straight to the ICU on the 11th floor.

Before Victor came here, he had contacted the doctor in advance.

Doctor Roerig was a 50-year-old expert, and he had been Phillip's attending doctor.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn, nice to meet you." Doctor Roerig smiled kindly.

Eden and Victor smiled and nodded.

Victor asked, "Doctor Roerig, how is my father?"

Doctor Roerig said in a deep voice, "Mr. Alwynn, his condition has been stabilized. Now we are trying to wake him up."

Victor's dark eyes lit up slightly, "Doctor Roerig, so, can my father wake up from the coma?"

Doctor Roerig said, "It depends on his luck. He was not sent to hospital in time, so there was extravasated blood in his brain. Now the extravasated blood has been taken out. We can only wait for him to recover slowly."

Victor breathed a sigh of relief. As long as his father could wake up.

Other things could be done slowly.

Eden held his hand lightly and looked at him with a faint smile. Although he always showed that he hated his father, she knew that he cared about him in heart.

After Phillip had an accident, he only had a smile on his face when he was facing her. When he was alone, there was always a touch of sorrow between his eyebrows.

She smiled and said, "Victor, you can rest assured now. Chairman Alwynn is blessed by God, and he will surely wake up soon."

Victor said with tenderness in his eyes, "Mm!"

Then, they changed into protective clothing and went to the ICU to see Phillip.

There were all kinds of medical equipment around Phillip, and Victor's mood became extremely complicated.

His eyes blurred with tears as he looked at Phillip, who was lying motionless on the hospital bed. His heart ached severely, as if it was being bitten by countless aunts.

His father, who was once commanding and imposing, lay down the bed like this. Whenever he thought about it, he couldn't believe it.

They stayed in the ward for about 10 minutes before they left.

Victor told Doctor Roerig some dos and don'ts. Except for him and his sister, no one was allowed to visit his father.

In this way, they could prevent Rebecca from hurting Phillip.

After they left the hospital, Victor took Eden to the supermarket.

He liked such a weekend, because he could stroll around with Eden or take the children out to play.

His life had become more and more fulfilling.

"Eden, let's go to the supermarket to buy some food and then go back to the villa. I'll cook dinner for you and then we'll go back after dinner."

When Eden heard this, she felt a little helpless, "Victor, I know you can cook, but you can only cook well under someone's guidance. Let me cook for you, so that it won't be so troublesome."

Victor smiled gently, "Eden, you are pregnant now. How can I let you cook?"

Eden retorted, "Why can't I cook? I am just pregnant, and it doesn't mean that I'm unable to take care of myself. I can do cook. But if I want to eat dumplings. Let's make dumplings."

Victor nodded immediately, and his heart was full of joy, "Eden, the dumplings made by you are really delicious. Let's make dumplings tonight."

Speaking of dumplings, he thought of the scene he went to her apartment to scrounge free meal because he suspected that she was Eden.

This kind girl really made dumplings for him.

He thought constantly of the taste of the dumplings.

Later, they went to the supermarket to buy some daily supplies and ingredients to make dumplings, and then returned to the villa together.

As soon as Eden entered the villa, she received a message from Buddy.

"Eden, Zofia has forgiven me, but I am not at ease because Haven is at home. I have discussed with granda that we will move to the apartment in Upper East Sleglund to live first. After Zofia gives birth to the baby, we will move back."

Seeing this, Eden smiled faintly, "Buddy, you'd better live in the apartment just in case. Upper East Sleglund is close to Zofia... no, my sister-in-law's restaurant. Congratulations, Buddy."

Chapter 884

Buddy replied, "Eden, during this period of time, you have been taking care of Zofia. Thank you. I bought a lot of snacks you like and put them in your room. I took away Zofia's things. I will come back to see you when I have time. Zofia can't bear to leave you. She said that the days together with you were very happy."

Eden's eyes widened slightly when she saw this. Zofia had moved out so quickly.

Then she smiled faintly. Buddy must be very happy. Zofia had finally forgiven him. He must be eager to live with Zofia.

After being with Victor, she could understand Buddy's feelings.

Eden said, "Buddy, take good care of Zofia and my future nephew. Send me an address and I'll go there to accompany Zofia on weekends."

"Okay! But Eden, mom gave Zofia so much money as a red packet. I think that's the dowry she prepared for you. She must be very sad now. Send her a message to comfort her later."

Eden was speechless. Why would her mother be reluctant to give the money to her grandson?

"Okay, Buddy, I'll talk to mom later."

"Eden, it's great that you're back. I'll send Zofia to the apartment first, and we have a lot of things to buy. I'll send you the address later."

"Alright."

After Victor put down the food, he looked at Eden whose head was lowered. Seeing that she was smiling happily, he asked, "Eden, what makes you so happy?"

Eden raised her head and looked at him with a grin, "Zofia has forgiven Buddy. He is very glad. However, my mother gave Zofia a big red envelope. Buddy said that my mom was very unhappy, so he asked me to enlighten her."

Victor smiled and said, "Mrs. Clement is such a person. She is quite willing to spend money on her family, but she feels very bad to give money to outsiders."

Eden said, "Victor, how could my sister-in-law and future nephew be outsiders? Don't you know that? The son-in-law is half a son, and the daughter-in-law is half a daughter, but I only believe that we should judge another person's feelings by our own, and we will only get other's kindness by treating them sincerely. Since my mom treats Zofia well now, Zofia will regard her as her biological mom when she is old. It depends on everyone's own ideas and behaviors. Many mothers-in-law and daughters-in-law can't get along well, but if they can humour and understand each other more, they can live a happy life together."

Victor laughed and said, "Fool, do you think everyone can be as kind as you?"

Eden got up and went to the open kitchen.

"Victor, there are more good people in the world."

She looked at the time. It was almost four o'clock in the afternoon. How time flew!

"Victor, let's make dumplings. After dinner, we should go back quickly. The children will go to school tomorrow, and we have to check their homework when we go back."

Eden rolled up her sleeves and was ready to trim the vegetables. She was going to make some fennel dumplings and celery dumplings. She liked the two flavors very much.

Eden said, "Victor, let's make more dumplings and send some to Jasper. He likes to eat the dumplings made by me."

"No." Victor refused her immediately. He was very jealous. Why should they make dumplings for him?

"Ha-ha..." Eden laughed out loud, "Victor, even if you are jealous, you have to pretend to be calm, and you can't be looked down upon by others." Victor immediately refuted, "I am not jealous." His face was full of jealousy, so his words were not convincing at all.

Eden said, "Victor, don't be so narrow-minded. Jasper are our friends." Victor glanced at her unhappily. A friend? A friend that wanted to steal his wife?

"No, I don't want him to eat the dumplings made by you." Victor looked unwilling. Anyway, she could only cook for him.

The most beautiful thing in the world was that she was with him all the time.

Eden frowned and looked at him, "Can we finish so many dumplings by ourselves? These food ingredients can make hundreds of dumplings."

Seeing that she was determined, Victor could only nod reluctantly, "Alright! Let's give him forty dumplings." Jasper would be stuffed to the gills!

He didn't dare to say so, because he knew that she would be angry after hearing that.

Seeing that he was not fussing about it, Eden began to prepare the ingredients.

At six o'clock, Eden had made three pots of dumplings. They ate one pot of dumplings and packed the rest of them.

Victor accompanied Eden to send the dumplings to Jasper.

Jasper had returned to his apartment near the company.

When he saw Eden coming to his house for the first time, he was happy and surprised, "Eden, why are you here?"

Victor walked out from aside silently. Jasper's excited face suddenly darkened when he saw Victor. Why did Victor come here as well?

Looking at Jasper's expression, Victor cursed in his heart, "I knew that you haven't given up on my wife!"

Eden smiled and said, "Jasper, I'm here to send you dumplings. Didn't you say you want to eat the dumplings made by me last time? There are lots of dumplings in the bag. Cook them when you're free."

Jasper looked away slowly. When he looked at Eden, he said with gentleness in his eyes, "Eden, now you're pregnant. Why did you have to make these?"

Didn't Victor care about her?

There was a meaningful expression in Jasper's eyes.

"Eden, come in. It's cold outside." Jasper said with a smile and took the dumplings in her hand. He could have a midnight snack by the way.

Eden and Victor walked in. Eden looked around his apartment and found that it was bigger than she had imagined.

"Jasper, nice house." Eden said with a smile.

Jasper put the dumplings in the refrigerator and said, "Eden, I live alone. It's a little messy. Sit down. I'll make some juice for you."

Jasper had been looking at Eden all the time, and he did not look at Victor.

Victor was extremely depressed. There was faint aloofness in the depth of his mysterious and elegant eyes.

Eden looked at him with a gentle expression, "Jasper, there's no need. I ate too much and I can't eat anything now. We'll go back after sitting for a while. The children will go to school tomorrow and we have to go back to take care of them."

"Alright, just sit for a while." Jasper wore a white casual outfit. He walked towards the sofa on the other side and sat down elegantly. Under the light, his face looked perfect, chiselled and somewhat gentle. He lifted his head slightly and looked at Eden, "Have you made Summer's wedding dress for her?"

Eden smiled mysteriously and said, "Yeah. Don't worry. I will do a good job. This is my first private customization, and I don't want to have any regrets."

Jasper looked at her with brooding gaze. One day, she would definitely get amazing achievement.

They were chatting happily and had no intention to talk to Victor. Victor was bored and glanced around Jasper's apartment casually.

Suddenly, a few words on a document on the coffee table caught his attention.

Chapter 885

Victor frowned and looked at the words "Shares of Clement Company" with treacherous and deep eyes.

Jasper noticed his gaze and glanced at the documents on the table. Then he got up quickly, picked up the documents and placed them beside him.

Victor's eyes darkened a little as he saw what Jasper was doing. Was Jasper investigating the shares of Clement Group?

However, there was another document below. What was it about?

Victor looked at Jasper with brooding eyes, and Jasper was also looking at him. However, the expression in his gem-like eyes was no longer gentle and warm, but shrewd and wise.

Victor looked away blandly. Jasper would never do meaningless things. He did a lot of things because of Eden.

Jasper turned his head slowly and looked at Eden's exquisite face. Since she was pregnant, she had never put on makeup. Her clean and fair face looked somewhat ruddy.

"Eden, you can't be too tired during this period of time. Don't be in a hurry to deal with the affairs in the company." Jasper persuaded her. When she was pregnant with the three children, she had never been relaxed. When she heard that she had three children, she looked happy on the surface, but it was not easy for her to raise three children.

At that time, she was under a lot of pressure, and her progesterone decreased. She had to try her best to be in a good mood and work hard to support herself. At that time, he felt distressed for her every moment.

Eden listened to his warm words and smiled very brightly, full of positive energy.

Every time Jasper saw her smile, he felt that he was energetic all over.

"Jasper, you don't have to worry about me. I'm fine." She was just pregnant.

Jasper looked at her with dissatisfaction, "Eden, you promise me on the surface, but you don't know how to take care of yourself."

Eden shook her head with a smile, "Jasper, don't worry about me."

Jasper said, "Eden, how can I not worry about you?"

Hearing this, Victor could not help but say, "Hey, Jasper, Eden is my wife. I will take good care of her. Just rest assured. You'd better worry about yourself."

Only then did Jasper look at him lazily, "Oh, I forgot that Eden has a husband."

He despised Victor's way of doing things. After all, he must have cheated Eden into getting the marriage certificate with him.

Eden was always very simple.

Victor was speechless. Did Jasper pretend that he was not Eden's husband all the time?

No, Jasper said it on purpose, and he meant that he was useless as her husband.

"Jasper, you..."

"Victor." Eden immediately stopped him when he was about to get angry.

Victor glared at Jasper. He wanted to say something but stopped on second thought.

However, Jasper looked at him provocatively.

Victor was so mad but he had no way to vent his anger.

He took Eden's hand and said unhappily, "Eden, let's go back."

Eden had no choice but to stand up. She looked at Jasper. Seeing that he didn't look so glad, she really had to leave.

Victor was always full of hostility against Jasper.

"Jasper, go to bed early. Don't be too tired." Eden reminded him.

Jasper looked at her concerned face tenderly and nodded with a smile, "Eden, I will."

Eden smiled and then left with Victor.

Jasper watched them leave. Then he returned to the sofa, sat down and looked at the document pouch beside him. Before Eden came here, he had read half of it. He picked it up with his slender fingers and continued to read it.

Clement Group was more complicated than he had thought. With Buddy's ability, he could manage the company well. But in the Clement family, Haven was scheming and Delmont was simple-minded.

He was not interested in the affairs of Clement Group, but Eden was a member of the Clement family, and he couldn't stop caring about her.

Jasper took another look at the document pouch below. He opened it, and it was the information about the shareholders in Jotham Alwynn Group. He got these information secretly.

He glanced through it roughly. Jotham Alwynn Group was more complicated than Clement Group.

Victor had something to do with both of the companies. Could he really protect Eden?

Jasper's eyes were as dark as ink as he looked out of the window. His expression was even gloomier than just now.

Why did he feel so uneasy in heart?

"Eden, you must be safe and sound."

He took out his phone and called someone. Then he got up and stood in front of the French window. Looking at the lights of the city, he was in an extremely depressed mood.

Victor took Eden back to the car. After bending down and wearing the seat belt for her, he did not start the car immediately. Instead, at the moment Eden lowered her head, he kissed her all of a sudden.

Eden opened her eyes wide. She wanted to say something, but Victor took the opportunity to kiss her more crudely. He acted recklessly, as if he was punishing her because he was too possessive about her.

He didn't become rational until Eden patted him. He slowly moved away from her and looked at her in a daze.

Eden pushed him hard and said angrily, "Victor!"

Victor's eyes were intense as he quickly held her in his arms, "You are mine."

His overbearing words indicated that he was afraid of losing her.

Eden's heart softened when she heard this. His aggressive words poured down the flames of fury in her heart.

"Victor." Eden patted his back gently. He had always been afraid of losing her, and she knew it all the time. At this moment, she could feel his fear more deeply.

"Eden, when I saw that Jasper was so good to you, I was jealous. I clearly treat you so well." His voice was full of grievances.

In this world, what he feared the most was that someone would cast a greedy eye on Eden.

Eden leaned back a bit and looked at him with a gentle smile, "Victor, I am your wife now. You don't have to worry that I will like someone else. Jasper means a lot to me. Maybe you will understand in the future."

She knew what Victor was worried about in heart. She had avoided a lot of things. She wanted to care about his feelings, but the relationship between her and Jasper was something she couldn't give up.

They needed to trust each other.

Victor stared at her quietly, "Eden, I know, but I care about it too much." His voice was deep and hoarse.

As soon as he saw that Jasper had no way to hide his deep love and concern for Eden, he lost his mind immediately.

Eden reached out and lightly touched his tough face with her slender fingers, saying with a smile, "Victor, you don't trust me."

Victor shook his head quickly and retorted immediately, "Eden, I believe you." He trusted her very much. He was just jealous of what Jasper had done for her.

Eden's smile gradually became meaningful, "Victor, you don't believe me."

Chapter 886

She didn't like to quarrel. She always thought that arguing crazily was not elegant.

Many women had fragile hearts. That was why she never hid her true feelings. She always spoke with great frankness.

"Eden, I..."

Eden interrupted him, "If you trust me, you trust Jasper. I can guarantee that Jasper is of excellent character. He will never do what you have imagined."

Victor's eyes darkened a little when he heard this. Did she trust Jasper more than him?

"Eden, you trust Jasper very much." He stared at her, not missing any trace of emotion on her face.

Eden looked at him quite helplessly. If Victor kept going like this, they would definitely quarrel one day.

She said sincerely, "Victor, he and I are friends, so we trust each other."

Victor moved away slightly, did not speak anymore and started the car.

The trust between friends?

It seemed that he was out of his mind due to jealousy.

"Eden, I'm sorry!" He felt guilty and did not dare to look into Eden's eyes.

Eden smiled, "You don't have to feel sorry for me. Everyone will be emotional."

However, when they got engulfed in hysterics, they would bring different troubles to the people around them.

Their words were even harsh and hurtful.

She had read a lot of books about psychology. No matter what riled her in life, she wouldn't think too much and would only treat it as a trifle.

Victor was jealous and possessive about her, but she still tried to understand him.

These emotions could show whether a person was mentally healthy or not.

Victor glanced at her sideways and smiled warmly again, "Fool, you forgive me so easily, which makes me feel even guiltier."

"Ha-ha..." Eden's laughter was refreshing and bright, "Victor, don't you want me to forgive you?"

"No, I want you to forgive me." His expression at this time was like that of a child who was very awkward.

Eden knew that he would only do whatever he wanted in front of her.

Eden smiled, "Victor, we would rather face this world with our smiles than let this world change our smiles."

"Eden, are you so understanding because you have read a lot of books about psychology? No, you have been very understanding since childhood." Victor said with a smile.

Eden grinned and said, "I read books about psychology to disentangle myself from the past. As for being understanding, it has something to do with my childhood experience."

When she mentioned her past at this time, she would not be as desperate as before. Her adopted mother had got the punishment she deserved, so she was actually at ease.

She was satisfied with such a life. Although her adopted mother was punished, she didn't feel very happy.

Victor held the steering wheel with one hand and took her hand with the other, "Eden, I will accompany you in the future. You don't have to be afraid of anything."

Eden said with joy, "Yeah, I finally have a feeling of exaltation upon fulfillment after marrying you."

"Ha-ha... fool." Victor's tone was extremely indulgent.

After resolving the misunderstanding between them, they chatted all the way home.

In a luxury hotel.

Vincent and Haven had just had sex.

They had a good time. After taking a shower, Haven curled up lazily in Vincent's arms.

Vincent looked at her with a satisfied face, "Haven, what's wrong with you? You called me out and then we had sex. Do you want more?"

Haven looked up at him. He was really not thoughtful. Couldn't he tell that she was sad?

Zofia took millions of dollars from her mother and left. Her blood was boiling with rage, but she had nowhere to vent her anger.

Everyone treated Zofia differently after she had a child of the Clement family, especially Grandma Clement. She regarded Zofia as a treasure.

"My mother gave Zofia eight million dollars as a red packet today. She could get so much money easily. As for me, I have been in the Clement family for so many years, but I have never got such a big red packet." Haven was filled with indignation. As soon as she thought of this matter, she went off the deep end.

"Oh! It turns out that you're unhappy because of this." Vincent was unconcerned, "Haven, you don't have to care about the money. In the future, you'll have hundreds of millions of dollars after you get Clement Group. A few million dollars is just a piece of cake. Don't think too much."

Upon hearing this, Haven got overjoyed immediately and was no longer sombre. She looked at Vincent coquettishly and pleasantly.

"Vincent, you are really not good at comforting people, but you are right. The future is the most important. In the future, I will take everything away from the Clement family. Tillie has begun to buy the shares of Clement Group. You should prepare the money and then transfer all the shares to me, and the Clement family will become ours." Haven's eyes were scheming. After all, she didn't have much money at this time, and only Vincent had the ability to help her.

When Vincent heard this, he was in a dilemma. He couldn't even stabilize his position in the company, and he had no way to make up for the losses.

However, as soon as he thought of Century Building, he suddenly had confidence, "Okay, I will think of a way."

Haven looked at him and smiled gently, "Vin, I knew that you're the most powerful." She leaned against his chest slowly. What he said made her feel much better.

"Vin, we will definitely succeed, right?" With a smile in her eyes, Haven looked forward to their beautiful future.

Victor smiled evilly, "Haven, we must succeed."

Haven suddenly asked seriously, "By the way, haven't you found Chairman Alwynn yet?"

Vincent sighed lightly, "Not yet."

He was very depressed. Where did Victor hide his father? He had been looking for him for so long, but he could not find him.

Haven felt a little uneasy, "Vin, give them more money and arrange more people to keep an eye on Victor. We should find Chairman Alwynn as soon as possible. If he's alive, we're all doomed." She had been worrying about this. Victor had been vigilant. Moreover, he went to the Alwynn family so fast that day, and they were not prepared at all.

Vincent's eyes were deep and unpredictable as he said, "Don't worry, there won't be such a thing."

In the Alwynn family.

Rebecca, who had not received any news about Phillip for a whole day, was restless.

Adalynn had been restless and heartbroken. She had a fragile heart, so Rebecca tried to stay at home and didn't dare to go out, for fear that she would have an accident.

She had been waiting for Justin's phone call.

However, Justin hadn't contacted her. According to her speculation, Victor would go to see Phillip that day unless something unexpected happened.

"Mom." Adalynn, who dressed in pink pajamas, came downstairs slowly. Her face was extremely pale, and she looked dull.

Chapter 887

Rebecca was surprised. Ever since Anson had an accident, Adalynn had been hiding in her room and refusing to come out. She looked at Adalynn with distress, "Adalynn, have you come round?" There was an irrepressible excitement in her tone.

Adalynn nodded lightly, "Mom, I've got the right idea. It is because of me that Anson has become like this. I want to apologize to him and take care of him for a lifetime."

Rebecca's face suddenly darkened to the extreme when she heard this. Was this her so-called right idea?

"Adalynn, you're crazy! Anson is now disabled! He is a good-for-nothing. Why do you still like him?"

She knew that Anson used to be elegant and charming, but he had become a good-for-nothing.

Being with a disabled man, no matter where Adalynn went, she would be laughed at by others.

"Adalynn, don't think like this. It's not our fault. Anson has become disabled because he was so unlucky. His father has been taking revenge on Jotham Alwynn Group. It's impossible for you to be with him. I have persuaded you for so many days. Can't you let me be relieved?"

Rebecca sat down on the sofa aside with fatigue, and she still looked gloomy.

Adalynn slowly walked over and sat down. Looking at Rebecca's exhausted face, she felt very upset. She hesitated for a moment and said, "Mom, I have made up my mind. I will explain it to Aunt Skye. Everything is done by me alone and has nothing to do with you."

Hearing this, Rebecca went berserk. She got up, walked over angrily, raised her hand and slapped Adalynn's pale face hard.

"Crack..." Adalynn was completely stunned. This was the first time that Rebecca had beaten her.

She even slapped her so fiercely.

She suddenly raised her head and looked at Rebecca in disbelief, "Mom, why do you slap me?" She looked at Rebecca with tears all over her face. She had been the apple of Rebecca's eye since she was a child. Rebecca had never scolded her, but she actually slapped her.

Rebecca said sternly, "Adalynn, do I raise you just to let you marry a good-for-nothing? You actually want to apologize? What a ridiculous thing! Do you think this matter can be solved by your apology? Do you think you can solve all the problems by apologizing?"

"If apology could solve so many problems, I would have gone to the Skye family a long time ago. Do I need you to tell me this?"

Rebecca was so angry that she almost couldn't breathe. She had been protecting Adalynn so well since she was born, so Adalynn had such a naive idea.

She couldn't help but say sarcastically, "You want to take care of him for the rest of your life, right?"

Adalynn nodded stubbornly.

"Ha-ha..." Rebecca sneered and looked at her mockingly, "Adalynn, how dare you say such words? Since you're so stupid, even if you want to take care of Anson forever for free, I think he will dislike you."

"Mom." Adalynn looked at her with a broken heart. How could Rebecca say such cruel words to her? She really liked Anson.

"What? Are you sad in heart? It's not too late for you to feel sad now." Rebecca sat back on the sofa slowly. Her face was still a bit red because she was too annoyed.

"Mother, we did it, so we should..."

"What do you mean by 'should'..." Rebecca interrupted her exasperatedly again.

Tears ran down Adalynn's face and she did not speak. She only looked at Rebecca with puzzlement.

"Adalynn, you have never suffered since you were a child, and you haven't experienced a lot in this society. You don't understand many things. Now you can't show up in front of Anson. Just forget him."

"He only cares about Abigail in his heart, and he will only hate you if he sees you now. Do you understand? If he wants to take revenge on you, you will be ruined."

She really didn't know how to persuade this stupid daughter.

Her last sentence made Adalynn so scared, "Mom, Anson won't ruin me." She didn't have much confidence to say this. After all, she didn't know much about Anson.

Rebecca threatened her, "He won't? You can have a try if you're not afraid."

She believed that Anson was as ruthless as Victor underneath.

Adalynn was speechless for a moment. She was not sure. After all, what she had done to Anson had ruined his entire life. Anson should hate her.

Seeing that Adalynn's expression gradually became calm, Rebecca breathed a sigh of relief, "Adalynn, listen to me. Now it's impossible for you to be with Anson. I've chosen a good man for you. He lives abroad and his family has their business in this country. If you can get along well with him, you'll live a good life in the future."

She took the opportunity to tell Adalynn about this. If Adalynn could use another man to forget Anson and marry into a rich family, she would rest assured.

Adalynn was lost in thought. What on earth should she do? Every night, as soon as she closed her eyes, she felt so guilty that she couldn't fall asleep.

She kept thinking of Anson's painful face. After thinking for a long time, she finally made up her mind, but her mother stopped her.

She liked the way Anson talked and laughed, and she liked the way he cared about people. She had no way to forget all these.

"Alright, Adalynn, go back to rest. I have something to do." The matter about Phillip could not be delayed any longer. She had to find him as soon as possible.

"Mm!" Adalynn got up and walked to the second floor slowly.

Seeing that Adalynn was so dejected and mournful, Rebecca felt distressed.

Adalynn had been living a carefree life ever since she was a child. She had never cried as much as she did during this period of time.

Rebecca took out her phone and dialed Justin's phone number.

"Hello? Mrs. Alwynn."

Rebecca asked nervously, "How is it? Have you found out where Chairman Alwynn is?"

"Mrs. Alwynn, Victor is very vigilant. We lost him outside the villa."

"B*stard, keep looking for him."

Justin hesitated for a moment before replying, "Mrs. Alwynn, we will definitely do our best to search for him."

"Mm!" After Rebecca hung up the phone, she narrowed her eyes and looked into the distance.

Since Phillip had become like this, Victor, the brat, should have taken actions. It really not his style.

The more Victor acted like this, the more nervous she felt.

No, she must think of a way as soon as possible.

All of a sudden, Rebecca sneered. She could use the public opinion to let Victor be at the eye of the storm again.

She found the number of the reporter who worked in Jotham Alwynn Group and called him.

The next morning, Victor and Eden went to work as usual.

All the people in the company knew that they were a couple, so no one dared to gossip when they went in and out together.

When they arrived at the gate of Alwynn Group, they were suddenly surrounded by a group of journalists.

Chapter 888

As soon as Victor saw these reporters, he glanced at them one by one with gloomy eyes. He seemed to be able to see them through, making those reporters surrounding him shudder.

However, they plucked up their courage under great pressure.

Eden didn't expect that so many reporters would come here early in the morning.

Victor held her in his arms gently and took her forward.

A male reporter asked quickly, "Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn updated on SNS early this morning, asking you to return her husband to her. May I ask you if you really have something to do with Chairman Alwynn's accident?"

His question was sharp and aggressive.

Victor's eyes turned intense and cold-blooded. Rebecca couldn't find where his father was, so she actually used the media to oppress him. Did she think that she could carry out her plan by doing this?

Eden lowered her head but frowned. Mrs. Alwynn was really driven into an impasse. She actually used such a method.

That was reasonable. For her, Chairman Alwynn was the biggest threat.

If Chairman Alwynn showed up, she would be utterly discredited.

Her company was deep in crisis, but she hoped against hope. She did have a combatant spirit, but she always used the wrong method.

Moreover, no one knew when Chairman Alwynn would wake up.

Seeing that Victor remained silent with his face darkened, the reporter aimed the microphone at Eden. Victor would never answer the reporters' questions.

"Director Bleu, may I ask you if Mr. Alwynn really has something to do with Chairman Alwynn's accident?"

Eden suddenly looked up at him. There was a terrifying light in her clear eyes. At the moment the reporter looked into her eyes, he suddenly opened his eyes wide, and the emotions in his eyes became extremely complicated.

Eden's voice was loud and powerful, "You can't speak without evidence."

The male reporter was sharp-tongued, "Mr. Alwynn should prove that he is innocent with evidence, otherwise we can't be convinced."

Eden sneered, "In this case, let Mrs. Alwynn show her evidence first. If you ask me this question with evidence, you reporters and other people will be sincerely convinced, won't you? When Chairman Alwynn had an accident that night, my husband stayed with me. My family and I can bear witness."

Victor's expression eased a little when he heard the word "husband".

The male reporter said, "Director Bleu, isn't it something that Mr. Alwynn should prove?"

Eden's clear eyes turned indifferent and vicious as she asked in reply, "Why should my husband prove it? He is framed, and the person who frames him should show us her evidence, because she slanders my husband just by her verbal statement. Am I right?"

Victor naturally had evidence, but she knew that Victor had his own considerations, so she did not ask much.

The male reporter did not expect that Eden, who looked gentle, weak and easy to bully, would be so eloquent.

He was rendered speechless. Indeed, they had no evidence to prove that Chairman Alwynn's accident was related to Mr. Alwynn. They made a conclusion based on the comments on the Internet.

Rebecca and Vincent were watching the live broadcast in their office.

Both of them looked gloomy.

Vincent said angrily, "Mom, why did you do this? It was not easy for us to suppress this matter, but you let so many people pay attention to it early in the morning. Do you think that Victor will be afraid after you do this? Has he ever cared about people's comments?"

Rebecca narrowed her calculating eyes and stared at Eden and Victor. The scene of Victor protecting Eden was extremely annoying and disgusting. She had once experienced how eloquent Eden was.

"Humph! I really didn't expect that Eden would show up. Victor actually cares about her so much, and he protects her well in public." Rebecca did not answer his question, and she did this just to distract Victor.

As long as she could distract him, she would be able to find Phillip in secret.

Vincent looked helpless with his hands on his hips. He was so angry that he jumped up, "Mom, it's not the time to talk about this. Eden is young, energetic, beautiful and talented. Every man will like her. It's not surprising that Victor is obsessed with her. Now the key is that how we should explain this matter. We don't have any evidence to prove that it was Victor who pushed dad."

Rebecca looked up at him and said reproachfully, "Why can't you remain calm? Don't you say that Eden is young, beautiful, and energetic? Do you think we can bribe her?"

"Ha-ha..." Vincent sneered, "Mom, why are you naiver than me? That's Victor's favorite woman! The father of her three children is Victor. Is it possible for you to bribe Eden? Don't think about it."

Rebecca nodded, "Vin, I just said it casually. We always have no way to plant an undercover detective in Alwynn Group. If Victor's beloved woman is bribed by us and he is betrayed by her, will he be desperate?"

Vincent was a little stunned and said with a smile, "Mom, Victor always attaches great importance to friendship. After he quarreled with dad and left the company back then, his three friends helped him a lot. Now he is very grateful to them. If the person he trusts most betrays him, it will really be a fatal blow to him."

Saying this, Vincent felt very upset. He didn't have any friends who treated him sincerely.

Victor was much more successful than him.

"But mom, isn't it late for us to do this now?"

Rebecca sneered and said, "Why is it late? There is a long-term war between us."

Vincent said, "It's a rare thing to see Victor sad." Victor always hid his inner thoughts with his cold appearance.

Rebecca asked, "Vin, have you received any news? Is there anyone who wants to buy Century Building?" Selling this building was a pressing matter of the moment. She couldn't deal with the affairs in the company properly before that.

Vincent said, "Mom, Justin has released the news secretly. If someone has an intention to buy it, he will call us."

Rebecca replied, "Okay!"

Victor and Eden returned to the office, and Lucian was already there.

He had watched the news just now.

As soon as Victor and Eden arrived, he said, "Rebecca wants to sell Century Building."

Victor's face suddenly darkened and he flew into a rage, "How dares she!"

Lucian said, "She wants to trade secretly. Century Building is well placed. Someone will buy it soon."

"Is that so?" Victor sneered, "I'd like to see who dares to buy it."

Chapter 889

The expression in Lucian's eyes changed as he glanced at Eden.

Eden knew what Lucian meant, so she smiled and said, "You guys talk here. I'll go to my office first."

Victor rubbed her head with doting eyes, "Eden, I'll go to see you at lunch time."

Eden smiled and said, "Mm!"

Eden turned around and left. Lucian looked at her back. It was not that he did not want her to hear it, but he didn't want her to be worried. After all, she was pregnant.

After Eden left, Lucian said, "Vincent has an employee whose name is Justin. I have told you about it before. Justin and Vincent banded together. Justin released the news on the platforms of rich people all over the country through some special means.

"Normal people don't know this news. Since they can't find Chairman Alwynn, they will take some special measures, such as selling your father's real estate."

Victor nodded, "I have thought about this. Now they want to get a billion dollars and make up for the losses very much. Century Building is the easiest to sell."

"Lucian, you keep an eye on them secretly. Once someone wants to buy it, call me immediately."

"Okay! I have been secretly paying attention to Justin's every move. Rebecca has believed the fake news that I let them see last time. This time, she will fall into your trap and never turn the table."

Victor nodded with deep and gloomy eyes. This matter finally came to an end.

"Before that, we should find the person behind Rebecca first. As long as that person shows up, we will take actions immediately." This was the only doubt in Victor's heart. Who was helping Rebecca?

Lucian frowned slightly, lowered his head and was lost in thought, "I have been investigating this matter and sending someone to follow Rebecca secretly. She is very vigilant. What's more, Adalynn is in a bad condition these days. She always stays at home."

"This is her only bargaining chip, and she must be very cautious. But this is a special period of time now, so they will definitely contact each other. As long as we keep an eye on her, she will expose herself sooner or later." Victor's eyes were filled with hatred. Every time he mentioned Rebecca, he could not suppress the anger in his heart.

"Mm! I have arranged some people to do this. As for what happened this morning, the public opinion will not have much impact on you." After all, Victor's position in Alwynn Group was unassailable.

Rebecca did that just to gain sympathy.

Jotham Alwynn Group was in a mess. After Victor took revenge on her, a complete change in the leadership in Jotham Alwynn Group would occur.

"Yeah!" Victor nodded, "Let's act according to the plan."

After Victor finished speaking, he went back to his office and prepared to have a video meeting with all the branches.

As soon as Victor sat down, his phone rang. Looking at the caller ID, he frowned slightly. Why did Rebecca call him personally?

He pressed the recording button but did not speak.

"Congratulations, Victor. You have a sharp-tongued wife. But, are you sure you don't want to send your father back? Don't you want to know where your mother is?"

Hearing this, Victor only sneered, "Do you think you can still threaten me with my mother now?"

"Ha-ha... You brat, don't you always care about your mother? I know where your mother is. As long as you can send your father back home, I will tell you where your mother is." Rebecca's tone was extremely arrogant. She spoke without politeness and even exposed her vicious mind.

Victor hung up the phone directly, turned on his computer and held a video conference.

At the same time, Rebecca looked at her phone in disbelief.

She narrowed her eyes. What was going on?

Wasn't Victor always very concerned about the whereabouts of his mother? Why was he so apathetic when he heard the news about his mother?

It seemed that what had happened in the morning did not affect him at all. After getting off work, she had to meet Victor in person.

"Mrs. Alwynn." Paulina walked in with a smile.

She was dressed fashionably, and she was not only beautiful, but also sexy and well-shaped. As soon as she started to work in Jotham Alwynn Group, a lot of people were envious of her.

She didn't learn a lesson from what had happened to her before, and she still looked proud and lofty. She wore high heels and walked to Rebecca.

"Mrs. Alwynn, this is my design draft for the winter collection. Have a look. The clothes designed by Eden are mostly simple, graceful and tight-fitting, but not everyone likes that kind of style. If we can have a breakthrough in another aspect, we can surpass Alwynn Group."

Rebecca nodded with a smile, "Paulina, you add brilliance to the present splendor of Jotham Alwynn Group. Those directors stopped making a fuss because you work here."

Rebecca took the design draft, opened it to have a look and nodded with satisfaction.

"That's good. I will show it to others when we hold a meeting tomorrow morning. If no one has objections, we will start to prepare for the winter collection. Just like you said, Eden is not a talent or an invincible designer. There are many talents in this circle. With your abilities, you will definitely defeat Eden."

She had been paying attention to Paulina's design, and Paulina was very suitable to develop in Jotham Alwynn Group.

Paulina smiled and nodded, "Mrs. Alwynn, I'm confident that I can defeat Eden." She came here just to defeat Eden.

Otherwise, with her current situation, it would be better for her to develop abroad.

However, she couldn't let go of many things here. She had suffered a lot because of Eden. She not only lost her favorite job, but also got insulted to the extreme. She was in the depth of despair.

Rebecca smiled faintly and stared at Paulina's ambitious eyes. Since Paulina was Eden's enemy, she was her friend. Choosing Paulina was the icing on the cake.

"Paulina, I believe in your ability and I'm very confident in you. Go to work first. I have a lot of things to deal with."

Paulina nodded with a smile and turned to leave.

Rebecca glanced at the design draft on the table and said to herself, "The design draft is not bad, but, nothing will be good without being packaged. Victor, Eden, a new round of war has started. Just wait and see."

Rebecca sneered, picked up her phone and dialed a number.

"Hello? Rebecca."

Alex's voice was a little excited, and Rebecca smiled with satisfaction, "Alex, we may not be able to meet each other recently. Victor will definitely doubt how I got the hundreds of millions of dollars. Let's meet when he pays less attention to me."

Chapter 890

Alex smiled and said, "Rebecca, you don't have to worry about this. I'll arrange it. Come here tonight. I miss you."

Hearing this, Rebecca looked shy, "Alex, we can't meet tonight. I have something to do tonight. Let's meet in a few days."

For men, the thing that he couldn't get was the best, and it was the same for Alex.

Alex said, "Rebecca, it's a pity that I can't see you tonight. How about the affairs in the company? Have you solved them?"

Hearing his concerned voice, Rebecca smiled and said, "Alex, I'm solving them. But I want to ask you for some help."

Alex said, "Rebecca, don't be so polite. Just tell me directly if you have anything to say."

A trace of viciousness flashed through Rebecca's eyes, "Phillip is hidden by Victor. I've been looking for him, but Victor is very cautious. It may be easier for you to find him."

Finding Phillip was a pressing matter of the moment.

He was like a time bomb, gnawing her heart all the time.

Alex said without hesitation, "Rebecca, leave this matter to me. I have a lot of private detectives and they will find him for you soon. However, will you really divorce this time? Our family must live together."

Rebecca smiled and said, "Don't worry. When I get what belongs to me, I will divorce immediately, and then we can live with our son and daughter." together."

Rebecca promised at once.

"Alex, these things belong to Vin. We can't rest assured until he get them."

Alex said, "Rebecca, I see. If you need anything, call me at any time."

"Okay! Bye."

After hanging up the phone, Rebecca smiled very happily.

"Alex, no matter what you did to me in the past, from now on, I will let you stay by my side obediently."

"Alas!" Rebecca sighed heavily. Thinking of the past, she actually didn't hate Alex at all.

Alex had always been her beloved man. When she met him for the first time, he was polite, modest and gentle. His elegance made her deeply fall in love with him.

When it was time to get off work, Eden suddenly received a phone call from Jaida.

"Mom!" Eden called her excitedly.

Jaida said, "Eden, it seems that you are in a good mood."

Eden laughed, "Mom, I seem to be in a good mood these days."

"Yeah, your life is very sweet now. Eden, you should get off work soon. I am downstairs your company. We have used up the daily necessities at home. Go to the supermarket with me. You know how to choose daily necessities very well." Jaida's tone was doting.

"Ha-ha..." Eden grinned with joy, "Mom, I'll come down after work. I'll ask Victor to go back first."

Jaida said, "Okay! I am on the opposite side of your company. I drove your father's car here. As soon as you go out, you can see me waiting for you."

"Okay, mom, I'll be right downstairs in a minute." After hanging up, Eden began to sort out the things on the table.

Amelia looked at her with a smile and said enviously, "Director Bleu, you look really happy during this period of time."

Eden looked at her envious eyes and smiled, "Amelia, you have been living very well these days, and you didn't even frown. How is your mother now? Is she better?"

Amelia nodded pleasantly with a chuckle, "Thanks for your concern, Director Bleu. My mother has been much better these days. She is in a good mood, and I also feel glad."

The most important thing for her was to cure her mother's illness. In that case, she could get married at ease.

Eden stood up and said, "Amelia, that's great. When I have time, I'll go back with you to visit your mother. But I'll get off work first today. I have to go shopping with my mother."

"Wow!" Amelia laughed with an envious face, "Director Bleu, my mom can only walk now. There is a long time left before she can go shopping with me, but I haven't given up. She will recover one day."

Eden looked at her and felt very distressed. Amelia was a woman in her prime, but she needed to pay for her mother's medical expenses, and she was under great pressure.

Eden thought for a moment and said, "Amelia, if you need any help, just let me know. I'll leave first."

"Okay!" Amelia looked at her gratefully.

After Eden left, she said goodbye to Lucian and went straight into Victor's office.

Victor was busy with his work.

Eden smiled. It was said that men who worked seriously were the most handsome. Victor was just like this. When he stayed alone, he looked very indifferent as if he isolated everything from him.

He looked lonely and cold.

There was a dull pain in Eden's heart.

Hearing the footsteps, Victor looked up quickly. When he saw Eden, his brooding eyes immediately became so gentle, "Honey, wait for me for a few more minutes. I'll get off soon."

Eden smiled and said, "Don't hurry. Take your time to work. I have to go to the supermarket with mom. You go home to see the children first."

After she was with Victor, Victor had the responsibility to look after the children, and she felt that half of her burden had been cast off.

Hearing this, Victor said unwillingly, "I want to go with you."

Eden narrowed her eyes slightly and said with a smile, "Mom and I are going to buy daily necessities. We'll come back soon. Go back and ask the children to do their homework. You can't be careless about this. What's more, I checked the messages just now, and you forgot to sign on Gia's math homework last night. The teacher has criticized you in the group chat. Don't forget to sign it tonight."

Victor frowned slightly and looked puzzled, "Really? I remember that I signed it. Is Gia unhappy today?"

When he thought of Gia's angry little face, he felt a little scared for no reason.

Seeing that he was a bit frightened, Eden couldn't help smiling. She didn't expect that Victor would be afraid of his own daughter.

"I don't know. I'll know when I go back in the evening. Now they have more and more homework. You should pay more attention while signing it."

Victor nodded quickly, "Eden, don't worry. I will check it carefully in the future." Being a father was really hard. He knew this as soon as he saw the three children.

Eden gave him a gentle look, "Then I'll leave first."

"Oh!" Although Victor was reluctant, Jaida was waiting downstairs, and he couldn't stop Eden.

After leaving the company, Eden went straight to the opposite side of the road.

Rebecca happened to arrive at Alwynn Group at this time.

She saw Eden as soon as she got out of the car.

Watching Eden walking to the opposite side of the road, she was a little curious. Why didn't Eden get off work together with Victor that day?

Rebecca had been watching Eden crossing the road and walking towards a black Rolls-Royce.

The woman who got out of the car shocked her.

How could it be her?

Rebecca's eyes were wide open and her whole body was trembling. This matter came as a complete shock for her.
