

Gluey Love 901

Chapter 901

She bowed her head and kissed her son's head. "I love you too."

"Eww! It's so cheesy." Giada cast a glare at her brother.

Henrick was speechless. They were the family, and they were enhancing their bonding. What was the problem?

Mom loved him, and he really felt very happy.

"I was just showing my love for Mom, what's cheesy about that? Gia, I often act as someone else's son and call others mother. I want to make it up for my mother. Don't make a fuss about it." After saying that, Henrick stood up quickly. "Mom, I'm going back to my room to read the script." He did not want to quarrel with his sister so he chose to leave.

Alright." Eden smiled and nodded.

"Henrick turned around and ran upstairs.

Giada pouted slightly. She thought, "You're lucky that you ran fast. Otherwise, I'll give you a break."

Finding that there were a few questions to go, Giada started to anxious.

She lowered her head to concentrate on her homework.

Seeing this, Boris also focused on his homework and did not want to be left behind.

Eden noticed that his handwriting was much better than before.

She smiled with satisfaction. It seemed that Boris could change his bad habits within two months.

Graciella didn't have to worry about him then.

"Boris, keep going and you'll get good grades."

Boris nodded happily. "Aunt, I will. I find it's happy to do things seriously and get praised by others."

Eden smiled and nodded. "That's right. Do well at school."

"I will!" Boris nodded happily and continued to do his homework with his head down.

After all the kids finished their homework, Eden went downstairs to prepare dinner with her mother.

For several days, Eden saw the people she wanted to see. On Friday night, Victor and she came back from work early and she made a rich dinner for Victor. After having dinner together, they went to bed early.

Victor held her in his arms and whispered in her ear, "Eden, what are we going to do tomorrow?"

Eden looked at him with a smile and answered "I'm going to Taijin Hotel to send the wedding dress to Summer so that there will be no mistakes. Erin has been finding the wedding dress. I changed the wedding dress, so the wedding dress that Erin took photos of and the model dressed was not the wedding dress for Summer. I will ask Amelia to put the fake dress in a gift box and then send it out. In this way, Erin and Tillie will be misled."

What they wanted to do would be known by Summer's wedding.

Eden was looking forward to seeing Tillie's shocked expression at that time.

Aunt was right. Tillie was indeed a vengeful person.

Tillie's purpose was very simple: ruin Eden. But Eden had learned a lot from her experience of failure, so she was very careful about everything.

Victor's eyes became a little deeper, and his face was cold. He asked in a deep voice, "So, Erin picked Tillie's side?"

Eden looked at him with a bright smile and questioned back, "So, you just know that?"

Victor pinched her pink cheek and grinned, "My silly girl, how can I know if you don't tell me?"

"Haha..." Eden smiled sweetly and leaned into his arms.

"Honey, I'm so happy to have you." She said.

Hearing her, Victor was completely stunned. He had been waiting for this sentence for so many years.

Victor kissed her on the lips lightly. He should not have stopped here, but Eden was pregnant, so he could only restrain himself.

"Me too. I love you, Eden."

"I love you too." She smiled sweetly. She really loved him.

Victor replied gently, "Eden, you opened my heart, and now, my heart is full of you."

Eden reached out to hold him around the waist. She leaned against his chest and listened to his heartbeat quietly, feeling relieved and happy.

"Victor, we must be happy together forever."

Victor looked down at her, and then closed his eyes, and rubbed her smooth cheeks. "We will, Eden. I've spent the first half of my life waiting for you, and this is the most extravagant thing that I've ever done in my life. Now we can finally take our time and enjoy our happy life."

"Yeah." Eden replied with a smile. She fell into a deep, sweet, and dreamless sleep.

However, Victor had nightmares all night.

He dreamed that Eden had fallen into the water. He wanted to catch her, but he could not.

He was on the shore, watching Eden gradually sank into the water, but he did not have the strength to save her. That feeling of helplessness and powerlessness made him almost die of misery.

"Eden...!" Victor shouted and sat up.

He looked into the room, sweat dripping from his forehead. It was already daytime.

"Dad, did you have a nightmare?" Gia opened the door and asked.

Victor looked at his daughter and wiped the sweat on his forehead. He did have a nightmare.

Glancing at his side, he found that Eden was not there.

He asked, "Gia, where is your mom?"

Gia, holding a gray bear in her arms, walked in with a smile. "Dad, you can also sleep late. It's almost 11 o'clock now. Mom went out and said she would come back at noon. I'm here to ask you to have breakfast."

Victor slowly lay back and took a deep breath.

But he still couldn't calm down.

He picked up his cell phone and found out that it was already past ten o'clock.

Eden didn't wake him when she got up.

He dialed Eden's phone number.

The phone was answered quickly.

"Eden, where are you?" He asked in an anxious tone.

Eden said, "I'm with Graciella and Abby. We are going to buy some new clothes and then go to Taijin Hotel."

Hearing this, Victor breathed a sigh of relief. He said, "Eden, I'll pick you up at Taijin Hotel later." He felt uneasy.

Eden chuckled and answered, "I'm fine. I'll go back after giving the wedding dress to Summer. Don't worry."

Victor could only nod and hang up the phone.

Giada shook her head slightly and urged Victor, "Dad, hurry up, grandma is waiting for you."

Victor looked at his daughter dotingly and said, "Okay, I know. you go first. Dad will come down soon."

"Okay!" Giada nodded her head and left hugging her bear.

Victor pursed his lips slightly. Ever since he was together with Eden, it had been a long time since he had had a nightmare.

The phone suddenly rang again. He rubbed his eyes and picked it up.

Chapter 902

"Hello!" Victor's voice was a bit hoarse.

Lucian asked, "You haven't gotten up yet?"

Victor answered, "Just now."

Lucian said, "The Century Building has a buyer. Rebecca will meet the buyer at the Taijin Hotel this noon, and the buyer is a boss of an air conditioner company and is very powerful. He has always valued the building, so this deal will be done if there is no problem in the price."

"Well." Victor slowly got out of bed, put on his slippers, and walked into the bathroom. He said, "Lucian, follow them. We stop them at the hotel."

Victor said, "Alright. I'll be there on time."

After Victor hung up the phone, he was a little worried, so he called Eden again.

Eden was having breakfast with Graciella and Abigail. She felt a little resigned when she received Victor's call.

Hearing Eden's phone ringing, Abigail glanced at Eden jealously and said, "Again? He just called. You're losing your freedom. Answer it."

Eden smiled at Abigail. She was wearing a casual dress today and her soft hair hung behind her shoulders, making her look even more gentle, pure, and charming. She picked up the phone and asked, "Victor, what's wrong?"

Victor's happy voice came from the phone. "Eden, I'll go to Taijin Hotel later. I'll call you when I get there."

Eden frowned and thought, "Didn't I tell him not to come and pick me up? Why didn't he give me a break on the weekend?"

She asked, "What's the matter?"

"Lucian and I have something to deal with there. After we are done, we can go home together."

She was not with him, making him worried a lot.

Eden nodded and said, "Okay! Call me then."

Victor said in a hurry, "Honey, I love you, take care of yourself."

Eden chuckled when she heard that. "Hubby, I'm not a porcelain doll. Don't think I'm weak. I can take good care of myself. Set your heart at rest."

Only then did Victor hang up reluctantly.

Eden put the phone on the table.

She finally got time to eat.

Graciella made a playful smile and said, "He's really sweet, isn't he?"

Abigail complained wryly, "No! He's needy! Eden just left him for a while, and he calls her again and again. I'm so annoyed. We can't enjoy our own time."

"Ever since Eden and he were together, I had been jealous every day. I really wanted to kick Victor out of the universe."

"Haha..." Graciella guffawed. "Are you kidding? You jealous of Victor?"

"What? I can't?" Abigail glared at Graciella and then looked sideways at Eden. "Eden, I want to go shopping today. Can you go with me? I signed the contract this time and earned a lot of money. Let's pick some gifts for the kids."

Eden didn't want to refuse her, so she said. "Abby, I have to send the wedding dress first. I'll go to your company to pick you up later. Is that okay?"

Graciella laughed and said, "Eden, don't be silly. It's Saturday. We don't have to go to work. We can wait for you here. It's not far from the Taijin Hotel, and you can pick us up here after you're done. There is a shopping mall not far away, so I'll go shopping and buy something for Boris."

Eden smiled and said, "You're right. I'm too busy and I can't remember the day now."

Abigail looked at her distressedly. Eden had been only about 90 pounds these years. She had never gained weight because she had suffered too much. "Eden, you are pregnant now, you can't be too tired. Now you have Victor. He's also a very responsible man. So, you can give yourself a vacation to accompany the kids."

Graciella was eating steak. She wiped the corner of her mouth, and said, "Eden, you've had a happy marriage and found your parents. You and Victor are very lucky. Now you can spend more time enjoying your life accompanying your family."

"Sure, I will." She felt very fulfilling now. Such a life was also a dream for her.

Haven and Paulina also came to this restaurant for breakfast. As soon as Haven entered the restaurant, she saw Graciella and the other two.

She eavesdropped when she came to get the sushi and happened to hear Graciella's words.

She felt tense immediately.

Did Graciella know Eden's identity?

Then, what about the Clement family? Did they know?

Her parents and brothers were very strange during this period. Mother and Grandma even agreed to Buddy's excessive request, approving them to move to the apartment.

She did not have the chance to harm Zofia anymore. If Zofia had miscarried, Buddy would have no longer be obsessed with her.

The most hateful thing was that they went to Zofia's house to apologize in person, but did not take her. She was isolated like an outsider.

"Eden, grandma Clement is very rich. If you go back to the Clement family, her shares must be yours." Graciella suddenly said.

Haven's heart skipped a beat. She stared at Eden, who was smiling beamingly.

"I can't accept grandma's shares. They are my brothers'." Eden answered.

"You're too kindhearted. The Clement family is very exclusive. Especially your mother. I know her very well. Haven can't enjoy her life as a rich young lady if the Clement family doesn't treat her as their member."

This time, Eden just smiled and didn't say anything. She actually didn't know her birth parents very well either.

Hearing their chats, Haven was frozen of shocks, and the plate in her hand almost slipped to the ground.

Thinking of what she heard a few days ago, she finally understood why her mom and dad had changed.

It turned out that they had found their daughter, and she was the one who had been kept in the dark.

Didn't Victor say he would protect Eden?

How could he tell Graciella these things?

Haven didn't have the mood to eat. She walked back with an empty plate dazedly as if she had lost her soul. She was both worried and scared.

After Eden finished eating, she went to the garage, waving goodbye to Abigail and Graciella, and drove directly to Taijin Hotel.

Chapter 903

Eden drove the car to the underground parking of Marriott Hotel and then took the elevator directly to the eighth floor. Summer had already arrived, waiting for Eden in the room on the eighth floor.

Meanwhile, Amelia, following Eden's request, sent away the wedding dress that Eden had prepared.

Erin saw Amelia's every move.

After Amelia left, she called Tillie.

By this time, Tillie had taken Eden's trap as true.

Eden, taking the wedding dress of Summer, was already arrived at Room 803.

After she pressed the doorbell, an assistant in a red suit came out.

The assistant smiled and said, "Director Bleu, come in."

"Thank you!" Eden nodded and followed him in.

"Hello, Miss Shriver!" Eden's smile was very infectious and could influence people around her to be happy.

Summer was dressed in a gorgeous and elegant dress, plus her exquisite makeup, which made her look young for her age.

"Director Bleu, I've been looking forward to seeing you since last night." Seeing Eden, Summer grinned joyfully. And her red lips curved beautifully.

Eden opened the gift box for her and the top half of the exquisite wedding dress was showing.

"Miss Shriver, here is the wedding dress. As far as I know, Teacher Elliott has bribed the designer of our company. So can you please don't tell anyone about the style of the dress before the wedding?" Eden asked. This was her only request. She knew Tillie wanted to destroy her.

However, she would not let Tillie succeed.

Summer looked at the wedding dress, her beautiful fingers gently caressing the translucent pack covered the dress. She nodded with a smile and said, "I see. You have my word."

Eden beamed and said, "Thank you, Miss Shriver. I'm relieved to hear you say this."

Summer said, "Thank you for the dress, I like it very much. I will ask my assistant to pay you the balance right now."

She looked at Eden with a smile. As the old saying goes, the face is the index of the heart. Girls with kind hearts were beautiful no matter how they look.

Eden answered, "Thanks for your appreciation, Miss Shriver."

Then, she took out another beautiful paper box and placed it on the table. She looked at Summer and said, "Miss Shriver, this is a tailor-made dress specially designed for you. Red suits you well, so I made this as a blessing to you. Miss Shriver, you're bound to be very happy."

"Oh!" Summer looked at the box with both surprises and pleasure in her eyes.

Seeing Summer's happy look, Eden was also in delight. Her design could make others feel happy, which was her greatest success.

Summer couldn't wait to open the box and see the dress.

It was a fishtail dress. The top of the fishtail dress was completely close-fitting, while the hemline was loose and curvy, making the dress elegant. This kind of design could highlight the figure and gave a mature, charming, and noble feeling. This dress suit Summer's figure well, making her more dazzling.

Summer gently stroked the dress and was so moved that she was about to burst into tears.

"Director Bleu, I even don't know how to thank you. I really appreciate this dress. This is the only one, right?"

Eden smiled and nodded, "Sure, Miss Shriver. All my designs are made with my own inspiration and the owner's preferences. This dress is indeed the only one. There won't be anyone wearing the same dress as you."

Summer looked very happy, so Eden made this dress for Summer as her blessing and also a gift to thank Summer for being her first client.

Summer carefully put the dress back into the box and looked at Eden with a grateful smile.

"Director Bleu, this is so thoughtful of you. You're a kind girl, and I believe you'll be very happy in the future. It's said that happiness is infectious, so I hope you can live a happy life in the future, just like me and my fiancé."

"Thank you, Miss Shriver!"

A good life should be full of expectations, joy, and gratitude.

Eden chatted with Summer for a long time before Summer let her leave.

She could tell that Summer liked her very much. She also knew how picky Summer was. So when Eden saw Summer did not say anything unpleasant about her dresses, she felt relieved finally.

After leaving the room, Eden took the elevator to the ground floor to drive the car.

As soon as she turned the corner, she saw a man and a woman hugging and kissing each other leaning against the car.

Eden's face turned reddish. She was intending to walk away quickly but raised her head by accident. This time, she was shocked and her pupils constricted slightly. She seemed to see Rebecca.

She walked sideways to avoid the eyes of the two people who were kissing passionately and checked again. This time, she was sure. It was Rebecca.

Eden took out her phone, trying not to make any noise, and recorded the scene of the two people hugging each other.

Rebecca had a lover outside marriage, which really surprised her.

"Alex, I miss you." Rebecca flushed and leaned in the arms of Alex.

"I miss you, too. I haven't seen you for a long time. You don't know how much I miss you." Alex answered. His magnetic voice was a little hoarse, showing his excitement.

Rebecca looked up at him with a smile and asked "Didn't I tell you to meet me in the hotel? Why are you waiting for me here?"

Alex smiled mysteriously and said, "The boss here is a friend of mine. I've already asked him to turn off the camera here. And there is no one here, don't worry. I can't control myself as soon as I see you." He stared at Rebecca with deep eyes and said intimately, not hiding his lust at all.

Not only was Rebecca's face well maintained, but her figure was also perfect. No man could resist her temptation.

Rebecca smiled shyly, like a little girl in love, with blushes on her face. "Since you've made all the arrangements, I don't need to worry now."

Alex took a step towards the car and made Rebecca get more close to him.

"Rebecca, I don't want to go to the hotel. Why don't we get in the car?"

Hearing this, Rebecca looked at him in surprise and then flicked his chest. "Haha... Are you playing the young thing?"

"Do you mean I am old? We have been together since we were 18 years old. We had Vin when we were 22, and Adalynn when we were 24. Speaking of this, Rebecca, when are you going to let them know that I am their birth father? Now I have the ability to protect you and our children. I really wish you could come back to me early and enjoy our family time."

"Oh, god..." Hearing what they said, Eden's eyes were wide open and she couldn't believe her ears.

Chapter 904

Vincent and Adalynn were not Chairman Alwynn's children.

Eden was greatly shocked, feeling her heart beat faster. She tried to calm down because she could not let Rebecca find her now.

Otherwise, she would be in trouble. Rebecca was an arrogant and aggressive woman. Her most valued thing was her pride and dignity. How could she do such a thing?

"What's the rush, Alex? If I can get everything from the Alwynn family, plus your property, we can become the first richest family in River City. So, hold on. Moreover, Vin and Adalynn may not be able to accept you so soon."

"We take our time and find a chance to introduce you to them. After you get familiar with each other, we can tell them the truth."

Vincent cared about Phillip very much. If he was told about the truth all of a sudden, he would definitely not be able to accept it and cause trouble.

Alex pretended to look resigned. The Alwynn family had a lot of property. He was now gradually getting involved in Rebecca's life, and after some time, he could get involved in the Alwynn family's business. As long as he played some tricks, the Alwynn family's wealth would be in his pockets.

"I'd listen to you. I owe you and our children too much in the past years. I shouldn't have left you. I took all the responsibilities. I will compensate you for the rest of my life and will never leave you again."

Alex promised with a solemn face.

It was time for him to have a good life at his age. He did not want to waste his time indulging in alcohol and women.

Whenever he was alone, he felt lonely, and at night he even was scared, panic, and in despair. At such times, he would think of Rebecca, who had shared joy and suffering with him before. Since he couldn't forget her, he decided to come back and reconcile with her.

Hearing his words, Rebecca smiled happily. "Alex, I believe in you. You left that year because you had no choice."

She leaned on Alex with a happy face. Only at this moment did she feel that she was alive.

However, after so many years of wheeling-and-dealing, she couldn't trust others easily.

Whether or not she could trust Alex depended on his behaviors in the future.

She was different from the little girl in the past. At that time, she had nothing. But now, she was in a higher position than Alex.

Eden carefully saved the video, uploaded it to her personal homepage, and locked it. After doing these, she turned around and was about to leave.

However, she didn't notice that there was a can in front of her feet and kicked it accidentally, making a loud noise.

The noise disturbed Alex and Rebecca not far away.

Both of them were startled, especially Alex. There should be no one here.

"Who's there?" Rebecca's sharp voice came from behind.

Eden was scared and she quickly ran away.

Her car was on the other side. As long as she got in the car and drove away, she would be safe.

However, Rebecca was coming after her and found that it was Eden. Immediately, she ran back and called Alex. "Alex, get in the car! It's Eden. She heard us. We're all screwed if she tells Victor. We can't let her leave!"

She looked gloomy and her tone was full of monstrous anger.

She had thought that Alex had arranged everything, but things still went wrong.

Alex also understood that if their affair was spread out now, not only Rebecca, but also he, would be ruined.

"Hurry up, get in the car!" He shouted.

He had found Eden, and the cameras here were all off. He knew what to do.

After Rebecca got in the car, Alex immediately started the car and pressed the accelerator hard. The car rushed toward Eden at a very fast speed.

Eden heard the sound and looked back, finding that they wanted to kill her. Her pupils constricted sharply and wanted to hide behind a car not far away from her.

But because of the baby in her belly, she didn't dare to run too fast.

"Stop, Alex!" Rebecca shouted.

Then, there was a squeal of brakes, which was horrifying, echoing in the underground parking lot. After Rebecca got off the car, she chased after Eden. Eden was pregnant so she couldn't run for long.

Seeing Rebecca running towards her, Eden took out her mobile phone and called Victor.

Even if she could not survive today, she must let Victor know the truth.

However, Victor didn't answer.

She looked back, and Rebecca was close to her.

As she ran to the right, she made the second call. This time, the phone was answered. She was just about to speak when she was suddenly pushed from behind and fell to the pavement.

The speeding car hit her hard.

"Ah!!" Eden let out a miserable scream. She was hitten meters away, smashing fiercely into the ground. Blood gushed from her mouth, and her pupils rapidly dilated.

And Victor, who just picked up the phone and heard her scream, felt pain all over his body as if his heart was clenched.

He was talking about the transaction of the Century Building with Lucian and the boss of the air conditioner company.

Lucian noticed that Victor was trembling and his expression changed greatly, which he had never seen before.

"What happened?" He asked.

Lucian's question brought Victor back to reality, but the scream and the crash seemed to reverberate in Victor's ears.

He hung up the phone with a painful look and rushed out of the room, saying in a trembling voice, "Eden is in trouble."

Hearing this, Lucian quickly explained to the buyer and immediately ran out with Victor.

While Victor was running, he kept calling Eden but didn't get any response.

Great fear gripped him. He could only check Eden's handphone location on his phone but found that there was no signal.

"D*mn it!" He cursed angrily and ran faster toward the parking lot.

Lucian followed him closely.

In the parking lot, Rebecca walked up to Eden and looked down at her. "Eden, you ask for it. You can't blame me. You shouldn't have eavesdropped on me."

Eden was covered in blood and her eyes were bloodshot. Her consciousness became blurred, and the smiles of her children and Victor appeared in her mind. Tears flowed from the corners of her eyes.

"S...sorry..." After she said the word vaguely, Eden fainted.

Seeing Eden passed out, Rebecca sneered and left without any hesitation.

Chapter 905

Rebecca went back to the car, and Alex said, "Rebecca, don't worry. The cameras here had been turned off, no one would know what has happened today."

Rebecca looked at him very seriously and asked, "Alex, are you sure they are closed?"

Only one mistake, they would go to hell and would never be able to free themselves again.

She had tried to kill Victor before but had never left anything to chance. This time, she didn't want to leave any evidence neither.

Alex answered solemnly, " Don't worry, I'll confirm it again. You go to see the buyer first, I'm leaving now." Now they were on the same boat. No one could be immune from this thing.

Rebecca nodded and didn't say anything. After Alex left, she went upstairs to meet the buyer as if nothing had happened.

Perhaps, she had done too many terrible things, so she still felt calm at this moment.

If what happened today was exposed, she, her children, and Alex would be ruined, without any doubt, which she would never allow happening after being so painful for so many years, just waiting for a carefree and rich life.

Victor and Lucian came to the parking lot from another entry and just missed Rebecca.

They got in the car. Lucian drove to the exit immediately.

On the way, Victor was trembling uncontrollably, and he was wet because of fear. His palms were as cold as ice.

Lucian saw Victor in a bad condition and also felt very worried.

What on the phone made him so scared?

"Victor, calm down," he reminded.

But Victor was still trembling. He felt as if his heart had been split and was so painful that he could not bear it.

"Lucian, Eden must be in trouble. What should I do? Where is her?" His voice was hoarse and dry, with an unprecedented fear.

All of a sudden, Lucian slammed his foot on the brake and looked ahead in shock and disbelief.

Victor's forehead almost hit the windshield because of the inertia.

"V... Victor, Eden." Lucian spoke with a lisp and his voice trembled. He had never been so terrorized and fear before.

Victor also saw the girl lying in a pool of blood. His shaking hand could barely open the door. When he finally got out of the car, his legs went soft and he fell to the ground as if he had lost all his strength.

"No...!" His heart ached with pain, and he tried his best to get up and ran to Eden.

Half kneeling in the pool of blood, Victor held Eden, whose entire body and beautiful face was now covered in blood, in his arms.

No matter how he called her, she didn't respond. Holding her, Victor felt as if he had fallen into hell, and his whole world had collapsed.

"Eden, it's me. Wake up. Don't scare me. Wake up." Victor choked with fear. She said they would be together forever. How could she leave him like this?

Lucian still had sense. He called the police, took photos of the scene, and then held Victor's shoulder, saying, "Victor, I don't care how you feel now. we must send Eden to the hospital immediately. We still have hope."

Hearing his words, Victor seemed to have regained his strength. He picked up Eden carefully and walked quickly to the car.

As he moved, the blood Eden shed formed long bloodstains, making Lucian's heart sink to the bottom of hell.

After getting in the car, Lucian contacted the hospital and asked Adonis to come over and deal with the things here. Then, he drove the car very fast, running many red lights, to the hospital.

The doctors, as well as Neal, had already waited at the door.

Neal was the best surgeon of the young generation. He being the chief surgeon eased Lucian and Victor.

Eden was soon sent to the operating room.

Victor, with a gloomy face, slumped down on the stool outside the operating room decadently.

His white shirt, his face, hands, and knees... his entire body were stained with Eden's blood.

At this time, he had calmed down a lot but he was still silent. His whole body was in harsh pain, which, he could not tell, was physically or emotionally. He only knew that he was in the dark and cold hell.

To Lucian, Victor in silence was the scariest.

He glanced at him and got up to call Jaida and Abigail.

In half an hour, Jaida, Zaiden, Graciella, Abigail, and the Clement family, all rushed to the hospital.

However, Victor was in sorrow. No one present could get his attention.

He was praying for Eden. His little girl was going to be fine.

Jaida and Aisling sat together, crying silently. Grandma Clement also came because she was there when Lucian made the call. Her family wanted to hide the bad news from her, but they didn't have a chance to.

Delmont and Wyatt accompanied grandma Clement cautiously.

Seeing the bloodstains on Victor, she knew that her granddaughter was badly hurt. She shouted angrily, "Who hurt her?! You will have to pay for that!"

Grandma Clement was overcome with grief. She hadn't even had a chance to get along with Eden.

Hearing her cry, everyone present was pierced to the heart and couldn't say anything because of sadness.

Abigail leaned back in the chair with a painful look on her face. She met Eden because she drove into her accidentally. That time, her speed was not fast so Eden was not seriously injured. How she hoped that Eden was lucky this time and woke up soon.

One hour... two hours... three hours.

Everyone understood that the longer the operation was, the more serious Eden's injury was. Their looks are getting more and more anxious.

After five hours, the door of the operating room was finally opened. Neal came out with several doctors and nurses and wearily pulled down his mask.

Victor was the first to walk to Neal's side. "Doctor Sampson." His voice was hoarse. He did not ask about Eden's situation but called Neal's name, with hope.

Neal looked at Victor solemnly with a complicated mood. But as a doctor, he could not conceal the truth. He said, "Mr. Alwynn, we have tried our best. But Miss Bleu's legs are broken. Her brain is seriously injured. Although she is survived, she has no consciousness now. The baby didn't survive. We can only wait for a miracle and hope Miss Bleu can wake up by herself."

Neal looked very sorry.

Victor took a few steps back desperately, almost fell to the ground. Lucian quickly held him.

Chapter 906

Neal said again, "Miss Bleu will soon be taken to ICU. She needs to be on the life-support machine and 24-hour care. We will also try our best to find a better way to wake her up as soon as possible." Then, he left with the doctor and the nurse.

Victor stood blankly, without any expression. He was deeply hit by the accident, making people feel distressed.

"Victor, don't give up. Eden is tough. She didn't want to leave you and your children, and her family. You are all here, giving her strength. She will get well soon."

Lucian tried to comfort Victor, although he was not a person who was good at persuading others.

However, he knew that Victor wouldn't give up if there was still a little hope.

Victor was not swayed. Eden called him twice, but he did not see the first call. He would usually mute the phone when working.

If he had received the first call, Eden would have not been injured.

How was he going to explain this to the three kids? Their mother were...

Victor closed his eyes in pain.

At this time, Adonis arrived. He saw people's grave expressions, and his eyes fell on Victor's painful look, feeling shocked.

Eden must have been badly injured.

And Victor must be overwhelmed.

This was not time for jokes. Adonis looked solemn and said in a serious tone, "Victor, all the surveillance cameras in the parking lot have been turned off. The police confirm that this is premeditated murder. We checked other surveillance cameras in the building. After Eden came out of Miss Shriver's room, she went directly to the first floor underground. And after the accident, Rebecca appeared on the sixth floor and met the buyer. But as far as I know, their deal fell through."

"A premeditated murder? Who is the suspect?" Aisling looked at Adonis sternly. Her daughter was such a gentle and kind person. Why would anyone want to kill her?

Eden had been treated badly before but she still had forgiven her vicious mother.

How could such a kindhearted girl have any enemy?

Lucian lowered his eyes and looked serious. After thinking for a while, he said, "Was it really a coincidence that Rebecca appeared there at that time? Rebecca used Aunt Jaida to threaten Victor. Now that Aunt Jaida is back, Rebecca lost her chip. So, the only person who can make Victor collapse is Eden."

"As long as Eden was in trouble, Victor had no effort to care about the company."

After listening to his analysis, everyone thinks it makes sense.

The current situation of the Jotham Alwynn Group was not very good. The one-billion-dollar deal was not a thing that could be made easily.

"So, Rebecca is the criminal, isn't it?" Grandma Clement asked sternly. She had seen such a thing before.

Rebecca would do anything for money.

Wyatt said, "Mother, we're just suspecting. We don't have any evidence."

Grandma Clement pounded the table hard and said, "So what are you doing here?! Go get the evidence! And bring the woman to justice! She has harmed Chairman Alwynn and my precious granddaughter. Then who is the next victim? My great-grandchildren?" Grandma Clement's voice was loud and powerful, echoing in the hospital.

Victor took a quick look at grandma Clement, and a glimmer of hope gradually appeared on his desperate face. Eden was still alive, and he believed she would wake up, so he couldn't fall down. He must tear the people who hurt Eden into pieces.

Zaiden walked to Victor and patted him on the shoulder heavily. "Victor, no one in the world can hurt my daughter and escape unscathed. Go investigate according to your direction and get the criminal. I will support you anyway. As for Jotham Alwynn Group's shares, I can guarantee that at the last minute, you will have more shares than Rebecca. You have my word."

Victor nodded blankly.

Grandma Clement said, "Little Orange, you can't collapse now. Eden will need you when she wakes up. I have some shares of the Jotham Alwynn Group too. And I'll transfer those to you. You will be the winner."

"Thank you, grandma!" Victor's tone was dry and cold, and his dark eyes were as black as ink.

"No need. We are a family. We have always hoped that Eden can marry you. You two are destined to be together since young and finally reunited now. Even God is helping you. You have waited for her for so many years. God will not take her away from you. He will definitely return her to you in a better way." Grandma Clement looked at Victor tenderly. She believed that nothing can stop him as long as he pulled himself together.

Her words were a reassurance, which cheered Victor up in an instant.

Victor glanced at everyone and said, "You can go back first. I'll take care of Eden tonight."

Abigail looked at him distressedly and asked, "What about Kenny, Ricky, and Gia? What should I say to them?"

Victor's eyes became darker, feeling a tearing pain in his heart. "Tell them the truth."

Jaida sighed and said, "Victor, this is too much for them."

Victor looked at her. "Mom, tell them the truth. They are smart. We can't hide it from them. We have to go to the hospital usually, and they will suspect."

Jaida could only nod. Victor was right. The three children were very smart, so they had no choice but to tell them the truth.

"I'll tell them." Jaida choked with sobs. How could she say such a cruel thing to kids?

"Okay." Victor nodded calmly and then went to ICU.

He put on the protective suit and went into ICU, looking at the girl lying in the hospital bed firmly.

The girl's face was as pale as paper, and she was so thin, seeming like she could be blown away by the wind.

Eden's words last night were still in his mind. She said, "Honey, I'm so happy to have you!"

When he heard that, the only thing he wanted to was to make her happier.

He remembered his answer, "Me too. I love you, Eden."

At that time, she beamed a warm and happy smile. Vicor felt lucky because he finally made his girl happy.

He wanted to do more for her and make her happier. He really wanted to do that.

She said, "Victor, we must be happy together forever."

Her face was full of expectation and happiness as she said that.

He also told her that waiting for her was the most extravagant thing he had done in his life. He had been waiting for her for half of his life.

That night, she slept soundly in his arms. Even when she fell asleep, the corners of her mouth still curved up into a happy smile.

Chapter 907

But he had a nightmare that night. He felt nervous, but he didn't expect that the terrible accident would really happen to her.

Victor slowly sat down on a stool next to him.

He reached out his hand, trembling slightly, and held Eden's cold hand, which was covered with bruises.

He was afraid to touch the wounds so as not to hurt her. Her skin was white as snow and soft. When she was shy, her neck would become pinkish.

He loved her shy look.

Every time he saw her like that, he just wanted to hold her tightly in his arms and taste her more. But nothing can really show his love for her.

His hands wrapped around the girl's white hand, gradually getting tighter.

He lowered his head and clung her hand to his cheek. When he felt the warmth in her palm, his eyes were moist.

His long eyelashes flickered slightly, and the girl in front of him became blurred.

"Eden, if you have enough sleep, wake up now, okay? I'm by your side. I won't leave." He choked. At this moment, he couldn't hold back his sadness anymore. The warmth from her palm was like a faint light in his collapsed world, making him cry silently.

The reason why he did not reveal her identity as the daughter of the Clement family to the public was to protect her. But in the end, he failed.

.....

Rebecca had been fidgeting ever since she came back from the hotel.

The news about the accident was reported and was defined as attempted premeditated murder.

She was completely astonished. Eden was survived after being injured that bad.

She bit her nails, and she was so nervous that her face turned pale. Victor had not taken any action, which meant that he did not suspect her and she couldn't mess things up.

She didn't make the deal, and now Eden's news made her day worse. She was panic like never before. She had never left any evidence behind when she was made a set-up.

All of a sudden, her phone rang and she was startled.

"Ahh!" She patted herself on the chest because of shocks, with cold sweat on her forehead.

Alex was calling her. She picked up the phone on the table quickly and answered, "Alex." Her voice trembled uncontrollably.

Alex asked with concern, "Rebecca, are you okay?"

Rebecca glanced at Vincent's room and whispered, "Eden isn't dead!"

Alex said, "I saw the news. I call you because I was afraid that you would be worried. You can count on me. No surveillance camera recorded what we have done. You can't reveal any flaws, okay? I have already found out the hospital Eden is in. and I'll take care of everything following."

His words reassured Rebecca.

"I see. Don't worry about me, Alex." She answered.

After she hung up the phone, the hand holding the phone was still trembling.

Suddenly there was a loud knock on the door.

Rebecca was startled.

She looked downstairs and could only see the dim street lights. Who could it be at this time?

"Mom, who is it? It's so rude." Vincent just took a shower and heard the noise.

Rebecca shook her head slightly. How could she know who it was?

"What's wrong? You look bad." Vincent looked at her confusedly. He had thought that she was in bad mood because of the failed deal, but now it seemed that he had guessed wrong.

"I'm fine." Rebecca avoided Vincent's eyes in a panic.

"I'll get the door. Watch your sister and don't let her come out."

Rebecca said as she went downstairs.

Vincent was worried, so he followed her.

Rebecca opened the door and saw Graciella, who was staring at her angrily.

As soon as Rebecca saw her, the fear in her heart was instantly reduced a lot.

She put on a hostile look and sneered at Graciella, "What are you doing here, Miss Alwynn? Are you kicked out of the house?"

Graciella pursed her lips slightly and smiled strangely, stretching out her hands and pushing Rebecca hard.

"Anson!" Rebecca was pushed back a few steps and nearly fell over if Vincent didn't hold her.

However, the anger and hate in Graciella's eyes were deeply imprinted in Rebecca's mind.

The scene where Eden was slammed suddenly surged out from the depths of her Eden.

She looked at Graciella with horror in her eyes.

"Graciella, are you insane? How dare you push my mom?" Vincent glared at her and shouted.

However, Graciella still stared at Rebecca in a weird way. She said, "I've warned you not to play tricks anymore. Do you think the monitors of the parking lot had been turned off and you can escape? Tomorrow, your nightmare will also begin."

Rebecca tried hard not to show her fear and asked back, "What do you mean by saying this? I don't understand. You must be drunk."

"Drunk?" Graciella smiled coldly and looked up and down at Rebecca, who was in a panic. "Eden's poor kids are now helpless because their mom might never wake up again. You're a mom too. The day you're executed, I'll be glad to see Vincent and Adalynn collapse."

"What... What do you mean?" Vincent was confused by her words.

"What do I mean? Ask your mother what she did today. What she has done to my father and Eden can keep her whole life behind bars."

"We have found enough evidence for what you've done to my father. As for Eden, you may have forgotten that she has a smart son. Don't think you are safe with the cameras turned off. Kenny and Lucian have gone to the hotel again. We'll wait and see!"

Graciella finished her words angrily. Unable to contain her anger, she kicked Rebecca.

"Ouch!" Rebecca cried out in pain. But the pain was much less shocking than Graciella's words.

Graciella glanced at her coldly. "From now on, your days are numbered." After saying that, Graciella turned around and left angrily.

They had told the kids the truth. Kenny and Ricky tried so hard to endure their sorrow at the beginning, but Gia burst into tears when hearing the news.

She couldn't stop crying and clamored to see her mother. Finally, Zaiden took her and Ricky to the hospital.

Kenny, on the other hand, went to Lucian, taking his computer.

Chapter 908

Seeing that everyone was immersed in the sorrow of losing Eden, she could not bear but come over.

As soon as she went out, Abigail parked the car in front of her.

She smiled bitterly, "Hop in."

Graciella also smiled and get in the car.

She asked, "Did you tell Jasper?"

Abigail's hands held the steering wheel tightly. She shook her head and said, "No. He's on a business trip. I am afraid that he will not be able to accept such a whammy. He called me today, said that he felt uneasy, and asked about Eden and the kids. He had a hunch. After all, he loves Eden deeply. But I didn't tell him the truth."

"If I did, he might have come back."

Graciella forced a smile, and her eyes were moist. She looked at Abigail and said, "Why didn't we have a hunch? We could have gone with her, or stopped her." If she and Abby had accompanied Eden at that time, Eden would not have been in such trouble.

Until this moment, she still couldn't believe that Eden was lying in the hospital, relying on a breathing machine to live.

Eden's pure and bright smile emerged in her mind.

Abigail took a deep breath painfully and sniffed. She opened the car window, letting cold air in, which made her much more awake. "Seven years ago, I ran into Eden while driving too. We knew each other because of this accident and became best friends..."

Along the way, Abigail told Graciella about everything between Eden and her. At the same time, she also recalled every sweet moment she spent with Eden.

.....

When Haven returned home, she found that the atmosphere in the house was very depressing.

She had been hanging out with Paulina today. She wanted Paulina to buy the shares of the Clement family so she kept trying to convince Paulina.

On the way back, she saw the news and felt happy secretly. However, finding out that her family knew Eden's identity still made her anxious.

But what could they do? They still did not bring Eden back, and she was still the only daughter of the Clement family.

"Dad, mom, grandma, what happened? Why do you look so bad?" She asked with a worried face deliberately.

Aisling looked at Haven with an irritated expression.

However, grandma Clement answered first, "Don't worry, we won't go bankrupt, and you don't need to rush to the Alwynn family."

Haven was speechless. This old woman never had any good words for her.

"Grandma, did I do something? Why did grandma say that to me? This's my family, forever."

Grandma Clement sneered and said, "Really? You better think so. We've got a trouble, but it's none of your business. Go and have a rest."

Hearing this, Haven knew grandma was talking about Eden.

However, whether Eden would survive or not was still unknown.

She hoped that the woman would never wake up. Then, everything in the Clement family would belong to her.

Wait, she thought to herself, now they have no mood for the company, I must make good use of this period.

As thinking, Haven pursed his lips slightly and go upstairs.

Aisling looked at Haven's back, knowing that Haven must have seen the news of Eden's accident. She was furious seeing Haven appear in front of her as if nothing had happened.

Delmont said in a low voice, "Buddy has already sent people to follow Haven. Recently, she has been very close to Paulina."

"Humph! Two of a kind." Aisling sneered and said sarcastically.

"I agree. Paulina was severely punished by Victor because he bullied Eden. She was expelled from the company."

"But Rebecca liked her design and hired her." Delmont said.

Wyatt looked at him and asked, "Delmont, do you have shares of the Jotham Alwynn Group?"

Delmont shook his head slightly and answered, "No, Dad. Don't you and grandma have?"

Grandma Clement sighed, "We don't have much. I don't know if we can help Victor.

"Of course you can, Grandma. Even if it is 1% more, we will have a chance of winning." Delmont leaned against the sofa, looking depressed. "As long as Eden can wake up, I'm willing to give away all the property of our family."

"Alas!" Aisling let out a sigh but did not say anything.

In the Alwynn family's old house.

Vincent knocked hard at the door.

"Mom, open the door and talk to me."

After Graciella left, he read the news.

Only then did he knew that Eden was hit in a parking lot and was in a coma.

He remembered that his mother had said that she would do something to Eden, so he had to talk to her now.

Rebecca sat at the dressing table, looking nervous, and texted Alex.

The knock at the door made her even more distraught.

Graciella's words were like a bomb that exploded in her heart, making her feel a fear that she had never experienced before.

"Alex, Lucian and Eden's son are both computer masters. You sure you didn't neglect anything?" Rebecca confirmed again.

Alex replied quickly, "Why don't you believe me? I've checked in the security room and I'm sure that all the cameras in the parking lot were turned off! But there's another problem. The police are investigating the reason why the cameras were closed. My friend keeps calling me so I said I was doing something intimate with you in the car. I asked him not to tell the police about it. My friend owes me one and you don't have to worry that he will expose us."

Seeing his reply, Rebecca still felt uneasy.

"Mom!" Outside the door, Vincent's voice was getting more and more angry.

Rebecca went mad. She quickly got up to open the door.

"What do you want? Vincent, it's the middle of the night! Can't I have a break?"

Vincent looked at her with deep eyes and asked, "Mom, the accident. Did you really do that?"

Rebecca avoided his eyes and said, "It's none of your business. You just need to manage the company well. You must take the management right from your dad, so the company will become ours completely."

Vincent stared at his mother in front of him, as if he didn't know her. Through her expression, he knew that his mother was serious about what she had said. She really hurt Eden.

"Mom, she's pregnant. For God's sake, how could you do it?!"

Rebecca was stunned because of Vincent's angry roar.

Chapter 909

"Are you insane? Are you afraid that others won't hear you?" Rebecca couldn't do anything with her stupid son.

This was not the time to assign blame. It was time to solve the problem.

Vincent lowered his head slightly and glared at his mother in front of him. "Listen, Mom, I don't object to you fiddling with the stocks. But that's two lives! You can't wrap flames in paper."

"Shut up. I told you it's none of your business. You take care of the company. That's all." Rebecca turned around and walked into the room.

At this moment, she was also burning with anxiety. She hoped that Alex could fix everything so that she wouldn't need to worry about anything.

She always had the courage to pursue and possess anything she wanted without restraint, using all her passion. This was her, who never flinched.

"How can I manage the company with ease? Didn't you hear what Graciella said? She has found evidence of what we did to Dad! How did she find it? Didn't we close all the monitors at home?"

He could not fall asleep. One trouble followed another, and he didn't know how to deal with them. Now he didn't even have the mood to hook up with women.

Rebecca looked at him with a sneer. "Vincent, watch your mouth. Do you want people to know what we did? Don't believe Graciella. She was talking nonsense because of anger."

This time, she must let Victor know that even a worm turns.

Eden's life was payback for her billion dollars of loss.

But Vincent felt that this matter was not as easy to quell as the previous times. After all, Eden was the most important person in Victor's heart.

What his mother had done was forcing Victor to kill them.

"Humph!" With a roar, Vincent turned around and left.

Rebecca had no time and effort to consider him at the moment.

As soon as Vincent went out, Rebecca's phone rang.

However, Vincent did not leave but eavesdropped at the door.

"Hey, Alex. How's everything going?"

"Be careful and check twice. There must be no mistake. Vin has already known that we did it and he queried me just now. I could only tell him that we did it for him. We won't hurt our son anyway."

Rebecca said aggrievedly.

Hearing this, Vincent's expression changed drastically. Our son? What did she mean?

He broke out in a cold sweat. Did she cheat?

"Yeah. I told him to pay more attention to the company, and I'll take care of other things, but he's always worried about Phillip. It seems that we should tell them that you're their father as soon as possible. Otherwise, Vin won't be able to concentrate on the company."

"Ah..." Vincent exclaimed and ran away in disbelief.

Rebecca, who was talking on the phone, didn't notice his sound. Vincent stormed downstairs, still wearing his white bathrobe.

He sat in the car, thinking about what his mother just said. He and his sister were not Phillip's children.

Then who was their birth father?

How many things did their mother do behind their father?

Moreover, his sister and he had been encroaching everything of Victor and Graciella and bullying them.

His mother was not considering his future, but encroaching the Jotham Alwynn Group!

Otherwise, she would not do those ruthless things.

Vincent leaned against the seat in pain. He didn't know what would happen in the future.

He had lived a good life in the past. He was proud of being Phillip's son. Only the fact that he had never been better than Victor kept him agitated.

When he first walked into the Alwynn family's house, which was unfamiliar to him, he felt that his father had an extraordinary temperament and an amazing appearance. At that moment, he swore that he would never leave his father in his life.

He didn't know what other people's lives were like. He only knew that life with his mother at that time was very hard. They lived thriftily in old houses, shivering in winter and sweating buckets in summer. He was fed up with that kind of life, so he chose to enjoy everything in the Alwynn family.

But only at this moment did he realize that he actually had nothing.

No wonder everyone said that he was not like Phillip. While Victor, not only inherited Phillip's genes and appearance but also was very influential in the business circle, just like Phillip. But he could do nothing. Because he was not Phillip's son.

"Haha..." Vincent laughed bitterly, feeling that he was a woeful joke.

No wonder she would do this to Dad. Did he know something? Vincent thought to himself.

He closed his eyes sadly, thinking about how his life and his road in the future.

.....

At night, all the high-rise buildings in the prosperous city were ablaze with lights. Walking through the busy streets, there were all kinds of high-end hotels, clubs, and other entertainment places.

Lucian led Kenny to a good position, opposite which was the Taijin Hotel.

They sat by the window.

Watching Kenny operate the computer deftly, Lucian had to admit that Kenny was very talented. Sometimes even he felt a little ashamed of himself.

He brought up a video clip.

"Look, Kenny. This is the video that I found of traffic flowing. Can you discover anything?" Lucian pointed at the video and showed it to Kenny.

Kenny nodded with a sullen face.

After a careful examination, Kenny suddenly pointed at a black Mercedes-Benz and said, "Uncle Lucian, look at this car. It hasn't been in for a long time. And it was driving in a hurry when it came out. You said the car that hit Mom had already left when you arrived, so the time is also fit."

He looked at the video carefully twice, and only this car was suspicious.

Lucian looked at Kenny with appreciation and said, "You're very careful. I agree with you. Obviously, the driver was very flustered and almost bumped against the guardrail on the side."

"Yes!" Kenny nodded. "I'm going to send the video to Master now. Master can monitor the whole Internet of River City, and soon he will know whose car this is." By the time Kenny finished speaking, the video had already been sent out.

Chapter 910

Lucian knew that Kenny had backstage supporters.

He stroked chin, looking at Kenny's gloomy face, and asked, "Kenny, who is your master?"

Kenny looked up at him and answered in a low voice, "He doesn't want to know strangers."

Lucian was struck dumb. They would no longer be strangers after they got to know each other.

"Did he teach you these?" He had been very curious about Kenny's master.

Kenny shook his head slightly and said, "I learned it myself. I just went to him when I don't understand."

He said in a relaxed tone.

But Lucian was shocked.

Kenny taught himself.

He, Lucian, was also a computer genius, but it took him many years of study to achieve the current level. In this case, he even could not compare with a child.

Lucian gave a self-mockery laugh. He felt a little bad.

At this moment, a hint of surprise flashed in Kenny's eyes. His master was really efficient.

"Done." He opened the video quickly.

Lucian immediately pulled himself together and they watched the video carefully.

Lucian said while watching, "Alex, the corporate representative of the Witlock Group."

"Okay." Kenny nodded and switched to the next video.

Then, the video of Rebecca and Alex hugging each other, the video of them eating together, and the video of them going to the hotel together were played one by one.

Lucian was getting more and more shocked.

"It's them!" Kenny snorted. "They hit my mother!"

He pounded the glass table hard with anger.

Looking at Kenny's pained expression, Lucian was sorrowful. He said, "Kenny, these videos can only prove that Rebecca cheated on Phillip. But it can't prove that they hit your mother."

Kenny pursed his lips tightly and said, "I'll find the evidence. There are a lot of cars in the parking lot. Maybe some driving recorders have recorded."

Kenny's words reminded Lucian. He advised, "If we follow this car now and get this car's driving recorder, we will know the truth."

Kenny said, "I think so. But I'm afraid they have already thought of this and have taken the recorder away."

It was too late for him to know about the accident. If he had known it earlier, he should have found evidence now.

Lucian said, "Not sure yet. Don't let go of any chance."

Kenny nodded and quickly played a video. "Well, look, it's Alex's house. I'll ask Master to hack the surrounding monitoring system, but I can't open the car door. Can you manage that?"

Hearing this, Lucian smirked and said, "You can count on me for this, Kenny."

Kenny was speechless. Did Lucian mean that he had done it many times?"

Kenny was in a bad mood, but he smiled at Lucian's words and asked, "Well, how many times have you done such a thing?"

Lucian crossed his legs elegantly. The floor-to-ceiling window reflected his figure. He smiled and said, "Ask your father. He is the one who pays me."

"So, he asked you to do these things, right?" Kenny did not believe that his father would do such a thing.

Kenny, you're the successor of the Alwynn family. Your methods are much better than your father's."

Kenny slightly pursed his lips and asked in reply, "Why should I inherit the Alwynn family's property? I can start from scratch and I believe I can make Mom live a happier life with my own ability."

Lucian gave him a thumbs-up and said, "I like your courage. Your father didn't want to inherit the Alwynn family's property, so he started his own business. Although the process was very hard, now he can be himself and no one can interfere with his life."

"Yes, that's what I want. Let's go to Alex's house. Maybe he's been so panic that he forgot to get the driving recorder. We still have a chance," Kenny said as he packed the computer on the table.

Lucian also packed his computer. They had checked all the surveillance cameras around the parking lot and only found that Alex's car was suspicious.

They left quickly.

It was late at night. Two figures, one large and one small, were seen sneaking into an underground garage in the dim street lights of the dark night.

Kenny stood by Lucian's side and kept watch.

20 minutes later, Lucian appeared in front of Kenny.

Kenny asked in a low voice, "Nothing founded?"

Lucian nodded and said, "Yes. You're right. We're too late and they've already taken out the driving recorder."

Kenny was very disappointed. "It's okay. We can find other clues, and there must be other clues, as long as we don't give up."

"Yes! As long as we don't give up." Lucian squatted down and picked Kenny up. "Kenny, it's too late. Let's go back and rest." "Okay."

Kenny nodded slightly. He leaned against Lucian's shoulders and asked, "Uncle Lucian, we will find evidence and get the bad guys to bring them to justice, won't we?"

Lucian nodded and patted him on the back. "Yes! We will find the murderer. Alex is very suspicious. We're sure to find something on him."

Murder would out, and the truth would come to the light.

Kenny closed his eyes, hesitating for a while, then he said painfully, "Mom has been having a hard time since childhood."

He felt distressed every time he thought about it.

He wanted to grow up as soon as possible so that he could give his mother a better life. He had been restraining his playful thoughts for this goal.

He wanted to learn more.

It was too late. Kenny, who was used to sleeping early, finally could not help but fall asleep leaning against Lucian's shoulder.

Lucian gently put Kenny on the back seat and took off his suit jacket to cover him.

Then he drove home and sent a message telling Jaida that Kenny was at his house, and he would drive Kenny to school tomorrow morning.

.....

The next day, Victor came out of the ICU.

In the ICU, his eyes were as sweet as honey, his look was as gentle as water. However, once he walked out of the ICU, his face was as cold as ice.

Anson, Lucian, and Adonis were all waiting for him outside the ICU.

Anson had just been informed of the accident by Adonis this morning. He was shocked and angry then.

The first person he thought of was Rebecca. Only that vicious woman would do such a terrible thing.

Victor looked pale, glancing at his three good friends, who, no matter when, were always by his side.

These days, Anson, Dad, and Eden have had one accident after another. Now it was the turn for Rebecca to pay back.

"Lucian, did you find anything?" His voice was hoarse.

Hearing Victor's tired voice, the three of them felt extremely sad. Victor seemed to have become the man who had just come out from the Alwynn family, having no feeling or warmth in his heart.

Lucian said, "Let's go back to the office. We need some privacy."

Victor nodded.

Adonis said, "I've arranged guards here. No one can enter except us. Anyone suspicious will be investigated."

Victor looked at him and said, "You stay here. Don't let go of anyone who asks about Eden. No matter who it is."

"Okay!" Adonis didn't dare to joke at this time, so he nodded seriously.

Anson, Lucian, and Victor left together. Adonis went to the monitoring room.

They went to the office as soon as they returned to the Alwynn Group.

Amelia was worried about Eden, but looking at the serious look of the three men, she did not ask anything, so she returned to the office and continued to work.

Victor sat in the chair wearily, putting his hand on the forehead.

Lucian opened his computer and showed the video to the two of them.

"Victor, Rebecca has an affair. Besides, on the day of Eden's accident, she and the man appeared in this hotel at the same time, but this man named Alex drove away first. He was very panicked when he left and the car was not driving very stable."

"Last night, Kenny and I sneaked into his house, but the driving recorder in his car had been taken out. So, he is very suspicious."

Victor looked at the man in the video and frowned slightly. This man looked familiar, but he couldn't remember where he had seen the man.

"Haha..." Anson sneered, "This woman has an affair. Unexpected."

Victor said in a deep voice, "Have I seen him somewhere before?"

Lucian shook his head slightly and answered, "I don't think so. I have seen all your clients, but I don't know him."

Anson glanced at Victor and asked, "Did they know that Eden was going to the hotel in advance? Why did they turn off all the monitor cameras in the parking lot?"

Victor shook his head and denied, "They shouldn't know. Eden said that she threw a blanket of secrecy over Miss Shriver's wedding dress. Although Erin and Tillie knew, Rebecca didn't care about it. She just happened to go to the hotel just for business."

Lucian thought for a while, guessing, "Could it be because Eden saw something? If Rebecca has an affair with this man, they won't want their relationship to be spread out. This could destroy them."

Victor stared at Lucian with his black eyes and asked, "Go ahead. Tell me more. Your guess is very likely. Eden called me at that time and she was already in danger. Did she want to tell me something?"

"Yes! I think so. Eden called you twice within one minute. She must be trying to tell you something." Lucian agreed.
