

Gluey Love 991

Chapter 991

Eden suddenly raised her head and stared at Kelsi. Her eyes were sharp as swords.

Kelsi was a little scared by Eden's stare, but she still summoned up the courage to look straight at her.

Eden was still very calm. "Great, I appreciate your ambition. But don't flaunt so quickly. For now, he is still mine." She said in a neutral tone of voice.

Kelsi was speechless. Eden's sarcasm was a huge rock pressing down on her heart, making her breathless. She didn't know her next step.

Eden was a person who didn't care about little things but was very cautious about big things. She wouldn't allow herself to be careless about principled issues and to misunderstand a person easily.

The harm that misunderstanding brought to others was sometimes fatal.

She was not an "an-eye-for-an-eye" person. she thought tolerance and kindness were better.

Kelsi clenched her fists tightly. For the first time, she could not turn around gracefully.

Eden said in a deep voice, "You should leave. I'm busy."

Kelsi gritted her teeth. "Madam, if Mr. Alwynn chooses me, will you leave on your own?" She asked.

She had more than enough tricks up her sleeve.

Eden looked up at her with a smile. "Sure, I always think that those who cheat on their partners are rubbish. I don't mind if you like to collect rubbish. But my husband is not one of them. Let's see whether you can get him or not."

"What if I make it?" Kelsi gritted her teeth, staring at Eden.

Eden smiled and said, "How? You don't even know his preferences. By your family? Or by your beauty? Beautiful and rich girls bounds in River City. But they can't even touch my husband's clothes by all means. You're so confident, maybe you can have a try."

"Haha..." Kelsi sneered and said sarcastically, "Then what about you, Madam? What do you have?"

Eden answered her proudly, "I have nothing, only his love for me."

"Hope you can remain your confidence." Kelsi turned around and left after speaking.

But suddenly, she stopped, holding the cup of coffee in her hand, and looked at Eden with a cold smile.

Eden thought to herself, "Idiot."

It was not a good time to act as a lord.

How could she be so stupid?

Wish she could use her stupid to seduce men. Eden sneered in her heart.

Eden looked at her sharply and warned, "Think twice, Miss. If the coffee is poured on me, you can't afford the consequences. You've been warned."

She had been splashed with red wine many times, now it was coffee?

She didn't like the smell of coffee.

Kelsi's hand, which was holding the cup of coffee, tightened slightly. Victor was not here. So she could argue that it was an accident. Her chance would come when Eden was furious.

Seeing that Kelsi didn't change her mind, Eden sighed silently. Did she look like a pushover? Maybe she was too kind.

"Director Bleu." Amelia's pleasant voice came from outside the door.

Kelsi was startled. She frowned and left in anger.

As soon as Amelia entered the door, she saw Kelsi being angry.

Kelsi asked unhappily, "Amelia, where is Mr. Alwynn?"

Hearing her unfriendly tone, Amelia answered coldly, "How could I know? Go find by yourself!" She hated Kelsi very much although they had been working together for a long time.

Now she dared to vent her anger on her. Did she think she was meek?

When Eden was watching them two narrowing her eyes, she received a call from Kenny.

She answered the phone, "Kenny."

Kenny asked, "Mom, are you in the company?"

Eden answered, "Yes. Dad has things to do and has to go out."

Kenny said, "Mom, the L.P company is preparing for the release of their new products. Master just called me and said their designs are the same as those of Dad's company."

"What?" Eden was slightly stunned. It seemed that Haven had told Tillie so they advanced the meeting.

She said, "Yeah, Kenny, Dad has already known about this. But he may need an hour or two to deal..."

Kenny interrupted Eden quickly and said, "Mom, tell Dad that I will help him hold them off for two hours and let him finish it as soon as possible."

Eden said, "Okay. Thank you, baby."

After hanging up the phone, she looked at Amelia and said, "Amelia, go to the eleventh floor immediately and inform Margery to hurry up. She'll understand what to do." Margery should have received instructions now.

But they must speed up.

She had cooperated with Margery several times so she trusted her ability.

"Okay! Right away!" Amelia did not ask anything. She had just returned from the factory with new products and had sent them to the 11th floor. Sean had also come with many cosmeticians. She felt a little uneasy, knowing that something must have happened.

The new product release meeting was advanced by three days, which meant that there was a problem.

After Amelia left, Eden took out her phone and called Victor.

Victor would answer Eden's calls no matter how busy he was. He was in a meeting on the eleventh floor and walked out of the conference room to answer the phone.

"What's wrong, Eden? Are you not feeling well?"

Eden felt warm when she heard his concerned voice. "Victor, they know we have found out and they've taken actions. Kenny said that he can help us hold them off for two hours. We have to hurry up."

Victor smiled and said, "Oh, our Kenny is really awesome. Two hours are enough. Everything is ready here."

Eden chuckled and said, "I see. I'll call you if anything happens."

"Okay! Eden, I have to go back to the meeting now. Take care of yourself."

"Go ahead! Don't worry about me."

After hanging up the phone, Eden was very worried. The L.P Company had already prepared and would be faster than them in action.

She was waiting in a hurry and at the same time comforted herself that she should believe in her husband's capacity.

Kelsi looked at her doubtfully. "Madam, what's going on? I am the manager of the Alwynn Group." She asked.

Eden looked at her coldly and felt a little angry. "What, Miss Manager? You want to take the position of the president's wife? Can't you tell I was being sarcastic? Idiot. Get out now!"

"You..." Seeing Eden's cold expression, Kelsi didn't know what to say so she turned around angrily and left.

Chapter 992

Eden leaned against the chair slightly. She hadn't come to the company for half a year, but she met an arrogant home-wrecker as soon as she came back and even argued with her.

"Ha-ha..." Eden smiled helplessly. If Victor hadn't stayed with her in the hospital all the time, her sixth sense would have told her to believe the woman's words.

There were many accidents in life. Everyone had the right to love, and it was up to their own decisions.

At the same time, after Anson entered Lucian's office, he saw Abigail lying on the sofa and sleeping.

He sat next to her quietly and did not disturb her. She didn't look so lofty when she was asleep. Her skin was fair, and her face was slightly ruddy. Opening her mouth slightly, she was breathing evenly. This was the first time he had seen her sleeping. She was so beautiful!

Didn't she sleep well last night? He didn't sleep well, either!

What she had said made him feel that he was living in hell.

It was because of him that they had become so painful. He wanted to find a solution so that they wouldn't live in sorrow anymore.

Anson had been guarding Abihail quietly.

Kelsi was extremely angry when she returned to the office.

She argued with Eden for the first time, but Eden actually won.

She lost so awkwardly.

"What nonsense was she talking about? What did she mean by that? Oh my god, she's really..."
Kelsi kicked the desk angrily.

There was a sharp pain in her toes. She gritted her teeth and hopped a few times.

She didn't know if Victor would see the note she put in the documents when he came back.

Her phone suddenly vibrated. Kelsi took a look and found that it was a phone call from Tillie. She took a deep breath and answered the phone.

"Hello? Aunt."

"Kelsi, what are the people in Alwynn Group doing?"

"Aunt, what could they do? Everyone is busy with their own work."

"Is Victor in the office?"

"No, he seems to have gone out to do something. However, his wife came here. I wanted to deal her a head-on blow at the first encounter, but she is not so easy to deal with."

"Aunt, you are the most experienced in this aspect. Just teach me. I like Victor so much."

"You said that Victor is not in the office. Where is he?" Tillie's voice was obviously very anxious.

Hearing this, Kelsi was a little mad, "Aunt, how could I know where he is? But as long as you help me, I will know where he is soon."

"Shut up! I have told you that Victor is only infatuated with Eden. Why haven't you given up?"

"Aunt, I am attracted to him just because he is loyal in love and he is charming."

"Forget it. I am very busy. Behave yourself. I only tell you this once. Don't provoke Eden."

"Humph! I have provoked her today. I told her directly that I liked Mr. Alwynn."

"What happened then?"

"Aunt, you don't need me to tell you what happened then, do you? She was very calm, and she trusted Victor very much."

"Humph! Being with Victor is just your wishful thinking."

After hanging up the phone, Kelsi was stunned and then smiled. Was it her wishful thinking?

She didn't believe that she couldn't get Victor if she lowered herself and no longer behaved so arrogantly and willfully.

In the past six months, she had been wanting to get close to Victor. However, he seldom came to the company. As long as he came here, she would have a chance.

In L. P Company, Tillie felt a little uneasy in heart and walked back and forth.

At this time, Haven walked in. Tillie asked her with a cold face, "How's the preparation going?"

Haven said, "Miss Elliott, everything is ready, and we can hold the press conference now."

"Humph!" Tillie glared at her madly, "How could you be so careless? Eden is a designer, and she has better memory than ordinary people. If you make the same mistake again, leave here on your own."

Haven bit her lip hard. Everything that had something to do with Eden would not go smoothly.

Eden was born to be her nemesis.

"Miss Elliott, I see. I won't make such a mistake again."

"Alright! Let's go there first." Tillie took the documents on the desk and left the office with Haven.

As soon as Haven went out, she received a phone call from Malcom, "Hello? Malcom!"

Their communication improved their relationship, so they called each other by their names directly.

"Haven, bad news! All the electronic equipment in the company paralyzed all of a sudden."

"What?" Haven couldn't believe that such a fatal thing had happened at the critical moment.

"Malcom, hurry up and investigate it! What has happened? The press conference is about to begin." Haven's tone was anxious. Why was everything going against her?

"Haven, we can't solve the problem immediately. All of our computers go dark. That person is a computer expert, and he attacked our company on purpose."

Haven frowned, "Do you mean that he did this to stop us from holding the press conference?"

"Yes! Don't worry. I'm trying to deal with it."

Malcom hung up the phone, and Haven looked at Tillie uneasily, "Miss Elliott, all the electronic equipment in the company is paralyzed."

"D*mn it!" Tillie threw the information on the ground with great strength and went off the deep end.

Haven was very disturbed. She was really unlucky that day. At first, she met Eden in the mall.

After she came back, she told Tillie about it and Tillie scolded her harshly.

She was in a very bad mood at this time.

Did Eden really have such good a memory?

Could she know that it was the design draft of Alwynn Group just by seeing a part of it?

Eden had just woken up for a short time. Was it because Tillie was too nervous?

What could Eden do with just a few pictures?

"Miss Tillie, the technical department has been working on it. The problem will be solved soon."

Tillie said, "Let's go there and wait first. I hope nothing bad will happen, otherwise..." Tillie didn't finish her words, but Haven understood what she meant.

"Okay!" Haven nodded.

She prayed in heart that everything would be fine. A hint of coldness flashed through her vicious eyes.

She would let Victor know that he had done everything in vain.

In Victor's office, Eden received a phone call from Kenny.

"Hello? Kenny."

"Mom, the electronic equipment in L. P Company has paralyzed completely, but their technology department is awesome. I'm afraid that they will solve the problem in two hours, but I have called my master and asked him to help me. Mom, don't worry."

He called Eden to tell her not to worry too much. She was in poor health. Whenever he thought that Eden would be anxious, he felt distressed.

Chapter 993

Eden smiled and said happily, "Kenny, I'm relieved to hear that. Just now, your father said that you were really amazing! He is right and you surprise us a lot."

Hearing this, Kenny felt warm in heart. He was very glad to help Victor and Eden, and he would try his best to be stronger.

"Mom, if there's any change, I'll call dad."

"Okay!" Eden hung up the phone with a smile. She was very delighted. When Kenny sat in front of the computer in the past, she felt that he was mysterious. At this time, she finally realized how excellent he was.

Eden went out with the electric wheelchair.

She felt a little uneasy in the office, so she took her phone and went out.

It had always been quite on the 25th. Time went by quickly, and she missed the days when she worked here in the past.

She went to her office. There was not much change and it remained the same as before.

She raised her head and looked at the blue sky outside the window, feeling that life was so unpredictable.

So many things had happened after she came to River City.

Anson watched Abigail sleep for a long time. Just as he was about to leave, he saw Abigail open her eyes slowly.

He looked a bit nervous. If he left at this time, it would make her feel that he tried to avoid her again and again.

Last time, she said that she wouldn't contact him anymore and he didn't have to hide.

Abigail blinked her eyes and looked at Anson in a bleary way. She thought that she had made a mistake, so she took a closer look. Then she confirmed that it was really Anson.

Her entire body was feeble as she glanced at the warm blanket on her. Did he cover her with the blanket?

She raised her eyebrows slightly and said, "Why are you here?" Her voice was hoarse and drowsy.

She stretched her uncomfortable feet lazily. She didn't sleep well on the sofa, and her feet were a little numb.

Anson pursed his lips and said in a clear voice, "I'm here to look for Lucian. He's not here."

"Oh!" Abigail glanced at the office. Lucian was really not here. When did she fall asleep?

She didn't sleep last night because of Anson.

She sat up slowly and felt uncomfortable all over because she didn't sleep enough.

Anson could tell that she hadn't slept enough.

"Abby, sleep longer." Anson couldn't help but say with concern.

However, his words touched Abigail's sore spot. Her heart suddenly ached, and her lips looked dry and coarse. She said in a painful voice, "Don't you want to abandon me? Why do you always care about me? You don't want to see me, do you? Why did you appear in front of me? Are you happy to see that I feel desperate and sad because of you every night?"

"Woo-woo... You b*stard, how can you treat me like this?" Abigail covered her face and sobbed. How could he do this to her?

Anson looked at Abigail's sombre face. His heart ached so much that he almost could not breathe. He didn't know that she would be so mirthless.

A mood of melancholy descended on him every night, and he missed her so much.

"Abby." Anson called her with grief.

Tears streamed down Abigail's face as she looked at him. She got up from the sofa, sat on the ground slowly and suddenly held Anson's hand.

Seeing how mournful she was, Anson wallowed in his own sorrow. He moved his lips, but couldn't say a word.

"Anson, why do you treat me like this? Tell me. Why?" Abigail kept questioning him. Her eyes were brooding and gloomy as she stared at Anson's expression.

It had been more than half a year. She always woke up in tears while sleeping at night.

She was worried about him. Her heart ached for him, and she missed him. However, he was so cruel to her. He avoided her and didn't see her, but he protected her secretly.

Since he didn't love her, he should leave her world completely. What did he mean by doing those things for her?

She didn't need him to protect her in private.

She knew it when he followed her and hid in the dark to watch her. It was just because she knew all these things that she couldn't forget him.

These days, the desperation in her heart almost drove her crazy.

She was really going to have a nervous breakdown.

If she hadn't fallen in love with him, she would have been very happy. But at this time, she lived a hard and bitter life every day.

Being questioned by her, Anson had no words to defend himself. It was his ruthlessness that had hurt her heart.

"Abby, I'm sorry. I'm just... I..." Anson suddenly wanted to say something but stopped on a second thought. At this moment, words couldn't describe how he felt. No matter what he said, it was useless, because he had broken her heart.

Seeing that he wanted to say something but stopped, Abigail felt furious and sombre. She looked at him with a sneer, "Anson, do you know what is the cruelest thing you have done to me? You made my love become humble and hurt my feelings to the maximum. We love each other, but we can't be together, which is the most vicious hatred in the world."

Anson grabbed her hand and held it tightly. The fact that they couldn't be together was like a thorn, stabbing his heart and making him extremely painful.

In this world, many people lived in regret because they couldn't be with the ones they liked. If he couldn't spend the rest of his life with her, he would feel regretful as well.

"Woo-woo..." Tears kept pouring down Abigail's cheeks. Her grief was etched into every line of her face.

She leaned against Anson and cried out loudly. If he turned around and left just now, perhaps she wouldn't be so grieved. At least, she could restrain herself and hold on for a period of time.

Anson closed his eyes slightly, and tears came out of his eyes. He bent down slightly and hugged Abigail tightly.

He took a deep breath and said in a choked voice, "Abby, I'm sorry. I won't hide from you anymore. Shall we be together?"

Seeing that she was in so much pain, he didn't want to stay away from her and miss her from afar in the future.

Unforgettable love only existed once in life.

He got to know the beauty and the sweetness of love after meeting her, and he had become a better man. He loved her deeply, so he hoped that he could dote on her and let her live a happier life.

Abigail suddenly stopped crying and looked up at him with tears in eyes, "Really?"

Anson immediately nodded. He reached out his slender finger and wiped the tears on her face. Then he lowered his head slightly and looked at her with gentle eyes, "Abby, I'm also in pain when I can't see you. This matter saddens me every night. I miss you crazily."

Anson hugged her tightly, "Abby, I'm sorry. I was really wrong. I thought that leaving you would make you live a better life, but I made a mistake. After leaving you, I'm not happy at all, and I'm disconsolate." He did not want to live with regret, and he wanted to live with the person he loved.

"Woo-woo..." Hearing this, Abigail was so excited, and she punched his chest hard, "B*stard, do you think I'll be with you just because you want to?"

Abigail was extremely mad. She understood him. She knew why he was so stubborn and knew that his tough exterior hid a very soft and fragile heart. That was why she had been persisting and waiting for him to change his mind.

Chapter 994

Anson didn't move and let her vent her anger. He only knew that he was also doleful, and he didn't want to lie to himself again.

Love would not deceive his heart. No matter how rich he was, he wouldn't be happy if he couldn't be with the one he loved.

He lived to pursue real happiness, not to force himself to smile.

He remembered when he first met Abby, he felt very delighted. Her words left a glow in his heart, and he even expected to get closer to her. This was love.

He fell in love with her at first sight, and no woman could replace her.

In this period of time, he really had a hard time concealing his deep love and hiding his intense sorrow!

However, she understood his pain and stopped looking for him. The best love in the world was to understand.

Seeing that Abigail gradually stopped punching him, he felt less guilty in heart, "Abby..." He called her in a low voice.

He wouldn't hide his love anymore. He would try his best to stand up and make her happy!

Abigail stopped crying, but tears still ran down her face. Her eyes blurred with tears, and she felt a bit dizzy. All the sorrow that had troubled her for a long time suddenly disappeared, which was unbearable to her.

Her body was still soft and weak.

"Anson, meeting you is my luck, falling in love with you is my happiness, and being with you is my joy. When I knew I loved you as well, you had lived in my heart. We hadn't been in a relationship, but you isolated me from your world, and our happy memories hurt me a lot. You are really too cruel." She was always carefree and at liberty, but her heart was broken by him severely.

Anson nodded, "Abby, it won't happen again." He helped her get up, but he felt that her body was burning hot, and she didn't look well.

"Abby, are you sick?" He asked worriedly. Her face was abnormally red.

Abigail shook her head slightly. She felt so uncomfortable that she wanted to vomit.

She pursed her lips slightly. Perhaps it was because she didn't sleep well last night, she didn't feel very well that day, but she wanted to accompany Eden to go out for a walk. After coming here, she fell asleep soon.

At this time, she had no strength and felt dizzy. It seemed that she was really sick.

"I'm... fine." Abigail tried her best to concentrate. She stood up slowly, but suddenly fell to the ground, motionless.

"Abby!" Seeing her faint, Anson was extremely anxious, and a wave of grief flooded him.

Eden happened to come here to see them. When she saw Abigail lying on the ground, she got so worried.

"Abby, what's wrong with you?"

Anson glanced at Eden and said, "Eden, hurry up and call the ambulance."

Anson couldn't walk, so he could only pull Abigail up and let her lean against him.

"Okay!" Eden nodded quickly. Abby was fine just now, Why did she faint all of a sudden?

After Eden made an emergency call, Anson contacted Mark. Mark went upstairs soon. Eden did not care about anything else and sent Abigail to the hospital with Anson.

After sending Abigail to the emergency room, they waited outside anxiously.

Eden glanced at Anson's grieved face and bit back what she would like to have said.

There was a strong smell of disinfectant in corridor, and Eden had long been accustomed to this smell.

They just sat there quietly, and no one spoke.

Half an hour later, the doctor came out of the emergency room. Anson immediately asked, "Doctor, is my girlfriend all right?"

When Eden heard the word "girlfriend", she frowned slightly. Had they become reconciled with each other?

The doctor suddenly shook his head.

Anson and Eden's hearts sank.

The doctor said, "She may have been under too much pain and pressure these days. When her sorrow eventually snapped, her body couldn't bear it, and her liver couldn't function normally. She can't be stimulated again. She will be transferred to the general ward later. After she gets better tomorrow, she will have a detailed check-up."

"Thank you, doctor!" Anson looked so dejected.

Had Abby been under pain and pressure?

Eden couldn't help but ask, "Anson, did you say something to stimulate Abby?" Abby was fine in the morning.

No, she didn't even know that Abby was sick.

Anson shook his head slightly. Looking at Eden, he said with a worried and disturbed face, "Eden, I didn't say anything to her. I just told her that I didn't want to escape anymore and I wanted to be with her. After hearing this, Abby cried out aloud. She stood up after talking to me for a while, and then she fainted."

Eden pursed her lips slightly and looked guilty, "In this period of time, what has happened to us dealt her a severe blow, and this is why she got sick. I didn't even notice that she was ill. Abby has always been strong. No matter what happens to her, she lives in a carefree way. I'm afraid that she really can't bear the double blow."

After saying that, Eden looked at Anson, "You two are deeply in love with each other. No matter what happens, you should be together. You are unique and special in each other's heart."

Every love could be dangerous, painful, desperate and sweet. However, where there was a life, where there was love.

Their happiness was within the reach, but they couldn't be happy if Anson turned a blind eye to it.

Anson nodded and looked at Eden with a smile, "Eden, I understand what you mean, and I won't escape again. Instead of protecting her in secret, it's better to protect her openly."

Eden smiled when she heard that, and her smile was as warm as sunshine, "That's right. When you started to pursue Abby, you were full of passion and romance. You should be like that."

Anson lowered his head and glanced at his legs. If that accident hadn't happened, they wouldn't have experienced such pain.

"By the way, Eden, do you have feelings in your legs?" Anson looked at her worriedly. No matter what Eden looked like, Victor would not care. As long as she was Eden, he could love her for the rest of his life.

But what about Eden?

He was afraid that she had the same thought as him.

Eden smiled and pinched her leg hard. She smiled and said, "I feel a little numb. I didn't feel anything yesterday, but today I can feel a bit sore. My leg should be fine."

Then Eden looked at his legs, "What about yours?"

Anson smiled and nodded, "When I'm not busy, I go to the rehabilitation center in the hospital. Now I can feel painful." In the past, he lost all sensation in his arms.

Chapter 995

Eden nodded happily and said with a smile, "Anson, so there is some hope. It's just a matter of time. Don't make Abby sad in the future. She cares about you so much that she can't sleep at night because of you. As you can see, she's getting thinner and thinner."

Anson nodded heavily with a serious face. His eyes were full of deep affection as he said, "Eden, I won't do it again. Don't worry. I will love and dote on Abby wholeheartedly in the future." In the rest of his life, he only wanted to be with her. No matter what would happen in the future, he could march forward courageously as long as she was by his side.

"That's right." Eden was glad.

Abigail still didn't wake up after she was transferred to a general ward.

Anson said, "Eden, I'll let Mark send you home. I'll stay here with Abby."

Eden nodded, "That's okay. Even if both of us stay here, we can only sit and watch. Something has happened to Victor's company, so I have to go back to the company. I will come here later."

"Okay!" Anson nodded and didn't ask her what had happened. Victor was capable enough to solve it!

Eden glanced at Abigail and said in heart, "Abby, although this world is cold and cruel, there would always be someone who loves you deeply and dotes on you. You've weathered the storm. In the future, you two must live a happy life and grow old together."

Mark left after sending Eden back to the 25th floor.

Eden took a look at the time. Two hours had passed, and Kenny only asked her to wait for two hours.

She waited for the result of Alwynn Group nervously.

Eden slightly lowered her head and prayed that Kenny could hold on a little longer. This time, if LP Company seized the opportunity to stir trouble, Alwynn Group would suffer a severe blow.

"Yo! Mrs. Alwynn, haven't you returned home?" Kelsi went out to the bathroom and saw Eden again.

Hearing her coquettish voice, Eden was irritated. She could meet her everywhere, which was really annoying.

She raised her head and looked at Kelsi's arrogant face. Since Kelsi could work here for half a year, her ability couldn't be underestimated.

"Do I have to report to you when I go back?" Eden looked at her mockingly with indifferent eyes.

Seeing that there was no one on the 25th floor, Kelsi braced herself to say, "Mrs. Alwynn, I'm afraid that Mr. Alwynn has got off work, and he didn't take you with him. You'd better go back earlier. You can't see him here today."

"Ha-ha..." Eden laughed sarcastically and asked, "What is your name?"

"Kelsi Iverson."

"Manager Iverson, don't you know what Mr. Alwynn is doing now?"

This was Kelsi's sore point. If she knew it, she would have shown off in front of Eden.

"Mr. Alwynn may come back later." Her voice was a little low and she looked somewhat embarrassed.

"Really? You haven't been with him yet, but you want to replace me and let me leave first. How bold you are!" Eden frowned slightly. Victor and Lucian were preparing the new products release on the 11th floor, but they didn't tell her. Lucian was cautious, and it seemed that he was on guard against her.

Just as Kelsi was about to retort, Eden's phone rang.

Seeing that it was a phone call from Kenny, Eden answered it immediately, "Kenny."

"Mom, dad is so great!"

Eden was confused, "Kenny, what's going on?"

Kenny said, "Mom, aren't you watching the news? Dad has started the new products release, but the computer system of LP Company has not been restored yet. At this time, they are waiting nervously."

"Two minutes later, I will restore their system. When they see the new products release, they will definitely be pissed off."

Hearing this, Eden finally let out a sigh of relief.

"By the way, Kenny, how did your teacher do it?" In fact, she had been very curious about Kenny's teacher. He seemed to be very awesome.

Kenny said proudly, "He did it for you. I don't want you to be framed and bullied. My teacher is a senior hacker. He controls the whole computer system of River City. As long as there is something about you and dad, he will know it immediately and then call me to tell me. In this way, I can know what has happened."

"Wow!" Eden was surprised, "Kenny, where is he? I want to thank him sincerely. He has helped us a lot."

Kenny said, "Mom, he is abroad now. After he comes back, I will tell you and dad. You can watch the news first. I'm very satisfied with what dad has done this time."

After hanging up the phone, Eden smiled. She was very satisfied with what Kenny has done, too.

Eden walked to the cabinet aside with her wheelchair. Then she picked up the remote control and turned on the TV on the wall.

The new products release of Alwynn Group was broadcast live.

In addition, millions of fans of the model studio were watching the new products release at the same time.

Victor gave a speech in person. When Eden turned on the TV, the new products release had started several minutes.

Under the dazzling light, Victor was sharp-featured and bright-eyed, looking perfect and handsome. Dressed in a white hand-made shirt, he looked imposing and commanding, giving people a feeling that he was the king of the world.

"At the beginning, the collection of this season was designed by my wife, Eden, but later she had an accident and had been lying in bed. When she was in hospital, my design team and I worked hard for the spring collection together, and today I'll show you our new product. I want to thank my wife and every employee in the company. It is your hard work that Alwynn Group can get success... "

Victor said a lot.

After that, the videos of Victor working together with others and giving advice on the meetings were played.

When Victor was in the hospital, he sat at the table and drew the design drafts carefully, and Eden was lying on the hospital bed. Such warm scenes were presented in front of others.

In order to give publicity to the spring collection, Lucian edited these videos temporarily.

Although Victor was not willing to expose himself in the videos, Lucian was stubborn and he couldn't make Lucian change his mind.

His love for Eden did not need to be known by others, as long as Eden understood it in heart.

The computer system of LP Company had been restored, and Tillie and Haven were very happy, but they saw the new products release of Alwynn Group on the computer.

As well as those warm short videos.

They were shocked, especially Tillie. She didn't expect this to happen and felt that her whole world had been ruined.

Haven had just come back and said that she had met Eden. Eden had seen the design draft, so she decided to release it in advance at that time. She didn't expect that she was fooled by Eden again.

"Ah..." Haven shook her head in disbelief, and her face turned deathly pale, "How could things become like this?"

Chapter 996

When the executives saw that the spring collection of Alwynn Group was exactly the same as Tillie's design, they looked at her angrily in an instant, "Miss Elliott, what the hell is going on?" In front of the media, he could not make it too clear.

He just looked at Tillie furiously.

Tillie's face was ashen, and she had broken out in a cold sweat. She didn't know where to look. How could such a thing happen? She had taken actions in the shortest time, but she couldn't win Victor.

Looking at Mr. Poplar who had gone berserk, she had a nasty feeling in heart. Since Alwynn Group had released their new product, it would be useless no matter how she explained.

"Ms. Poplar, cancel the new product launch first." she said weakly with a pale face.

Mr. Poplar took a sharp look at her. Tillie was known as a famous designer, and he did not expect that she would do such a thing. Over the past few years, their company didn't develop very well, but the situation would be changed if they were innovative. However, they could never achieve their goals by plagiarizing.

He asked his assistant to cancel the new product launch, left there in a hurry and held an emergency meeting in the company.

Seeing that the new product launch was cancelled, the reporters all left with disappointment.

After everyone left, Tillie sat on the ground feebly. The new products of Alwynn Group were played on the big screen.

The Alwynn Group had released the new product first, and their company would suffer a great loss. The president of the company would certainly let her bear the consequences.

Why was she so unlucky these days? Nothing went on smoothly.

"Miss Elliott." Haven walked over and helped her up.

Tillie suddenly raised her hand and slapped her in the face fiercely.

"Crack..." Haven only felt a strong smell of blood in her mouth. She lowered her head and endured the sudden humiliation.

Tillie looked at her furiously and said harshly, "It's all because of you! You can't do anything well! If you hadn't exposed the design draft, would I have such an ending? If this matter is spread out, you and I won't be able to work in the design circle anymore. You came up with this dumb idea. You're not capable at all, and all you know is to play some dirty tricks. I've suffered a lot because of you." Tillie roared with a frenzy of rage.

She had been respectful and had an extraordinary status in the design circle. This time, her career had been completely ruined.

Tillie spluttered terribly because she was very mad. Haven wiped her face quickly and looked at her exasperated face with a sneer, "Miss Elliott, you are wrong. These things were done by you, and they have nothing to do with me."

Tillie became somewhat nervous. She looked at Haven in disbelief, "Haven, what do you mean by this?"

Haven smiled gently. She felt a burning sensation on her cheek which had been slapped by Tillie. Then she looked at the big screen behind Tillie and saw Victor who was answering the reporters' questions in a charming way. Her face was full of infatuation.

After looking at Victor for a while, she looked at Tillie's shocked face again and said in a low and deep voice, "Miss Elliott, didn't you say that we should have a unique eye for clothing design and be innovative? But what did you do? After seeing the design of Alwynn Group, you wanted to steal it. Who else can you blame?"

Tillie was stunned. Looking at Haven's smiling eyes, she suddenly felt that Haven was extremely horrible.

Haven smiled again and said, "Miss Elliott, your design has long been outdated. Nowadays, what the costumers want is different. Those luxurious brands with eye-catching logos are no longer attractive to them."

"Did you know how Eden could be so successful? Because her design is unique and special, and she has a decided advantage. Compared with those luxurious brands, her design can satisfy the demands of consumers better."

"That is why she can make a name for herself in this circle. She knows how to challenge the market environment, and Victor is very good at business. His marketing strategies are outstanding. He has four allies, and he has the best secretary and the most powerful make-up artist. No one can surpass him and Eden so easily."

After that, Haven took a few steps closer to Tillie, smiled proudly and then said in a mocking tone, "Miss Elliott, I want to thank you for teaching me during this period of time. During this period of time, I've learned a lot about design, which is something that I could never get to know before. Thank you! However, we'd better attend the meeting first."

Haven turned around with a sneer and looked very confident. She had schemed it. Since Tillie decided to steal the design draft from Alwynn Group, she had been well-prepared. She wanted to replace Tillie in the company.

"Ah..." Watching Haven leave in confidence, Tillie suddenly realized something.

She staggered as she followed her.

D*mn it! Haven was even more vicious than her. Could it be that a wicked person would be harassed by another of like ilk?

On the 25th floor of Alwynn Group, Kelsi was in a state of shock.

Victor and Lucian held a new product launch, but they did not inform her.

"How could it be? Wouldn't the new product launch be held in three days?" What should LP Company do?

Eden said, "This is the business operation. Now you know where Mr. Alwynn is, don't you?" There was a very realistic problem. There were many designers in their industry, and excellent designers were not scarce. It was necessary to have their own characteristic so that Alwynn Group could develop more smoothly.

Only when they combined their creative ideas and marketing strategies could they have a place in the market.

The clothes should not only be beautiful but also be comfortable and safe. The most important thing was that the clothes should conform to people's aesthetic standards.

A good designer needed an excellent business operation. In that case, the designer and the company he worked for would have a win-win result.

Kelsi felt that she had got a slap in the face, "Why didn't they tell me?"

She was very dejected, and she was no longer arrogant in front of Eden.

Two hours ago, Eden asked Amelia to go to the 11th floor. At that time, they had started to prepare for the new product launch.

However, Kelsi had been thinking about how to deal with Eden. She didn't even know that such a big thing had happened in the company.

Eden smiled and narrowed her eyes to look at her, "In fact, I'm also curious to know why Victor didn't tell you about it."

At this time, the reporter was asking Victor a question, "Mr. Alwynn, I heard that you had been in the hospital to accompany Mrs. Alwynn in the past six months. This incident has made many netizens feel your affection towards her. Now Mrs. Alwynn has been discharged from the hospital. Will you two work hard together and make greater achievement in the future?"

Chapter 997

In the past, Victor would not answer such a question. However, in the face of the media, he looked much gentler than usual that day, "The design director in Alwynn Group is my wife, and it is because of everyone in Alwynn Group that we can develop so well. My wife makes full use of her advantage. She cooperates with me and complements me. We'll get greater achievement by our joint effort. We fight for a win-win result, and this is our enterprise spirit. Our common goal is that Alwynn Group can become famous all over the world."

Victor's clever answer won everyone's unanimous praise.

"I've never seen Mr. Alwynn be so gentle before. Look, this is the power of love."

"In the past one year, no matter Victor was happy or painful, we made it through with him. I wish him more happiness and wish Alwynn Group greater success."

"Victor is so handsome and tender that I will be his fan forever. I hope that he and Eden could reach old and grey together."

In a short period of time, tens of millions of people commented online and wished Victor happiness.

Eden looked at Victor with a smile and watched him walk down the stage. Then Lucian went up and told the media some related information about the new product.

She sat and waited quietly. In less than five minutes, he would appear in front of her.

Kelsi stood where she was and did not want to leave. She did not know why Alwynn Group released the new product all of a sudden. The new product release was supposed to be held three days later.

She sent a message to her aunt, but she didn't get any reply.

Eden counted the time silently in heart. About four minutes later, the elevator door was opened.

Victor looked up and saw Eden. He smiled gently and walked out, "Eden, are you tired from waiting for me?"

Eden shook her head slightly, "No, I even went to the hospital. I happened to come back in time."

Hearing this, Victor walked to her in a few steps, squatted down and took her hand to have a check-up for her. There was no wound on her hand, and then he asked, "Eden, are you not feeling well? Why didn't you call me?"

Seeing that he was so anxious, Eden shook her head with a smile, "You don't have to worry about me. Abby suddenly fainted, and Anson and I sent her to the hospital. She hasn't woken up yet. After you finish your work here, let's go to the hospital to see her. Anson is accompanying her now."

Victor frowned slightly and felt guilty, "Does she get sick because I didn't ask Anson to come here?"

Eden knew that Victor did that with good intentions, and Anson had change his mind because of this matter, "No, Anson has promised Abby that he would no longer avoid her. He will be with her in the future. Abby has suffered several blows during this period of time. She has been living under great pressure, so there is something wrong with her liver and she fainted. The doctor said that she was fine, but she couldn't be stimulated again."

Victor pinched her cheek with distress, "You must be so scared, right? When she went to the hospital to see you, she always shared Ricky's things with you while crying. She was very painful and grieved because you couldn't wake up."

"I know. Abby cares about me very much, and she is always afraid that I will be bullied. She often worries about me." Eden smiled happily. She was really lucky to have such a good friend in life.

Victor suddenly turned angry, "I won't let go anyone who dares to bully you!"

Kelsi, who was behind Eden, trembled when she heard Victor's cold tone.

She asked dejectedly, "Mr. Alwynn, shouldn't we hold the new product launch three days later? Why did you suddenly hold it in advance?" Her tone was very gentle. Pursing her lips slightly, she lowered her head to look at Victor who was squatting in front of Eden.

Victor said, "Do you have an objection with that?"

After that, he got up and pushed Eden to the office.

Kelsi immediately said tenderly, "Mr. Alwynn, how dare I have objections? You haven't read over and given remarks to the document I sent to your office this morning."

"Mm! I'll read it right now." Victor said in an indifferent tone. Without looking back, he pushed Eden into the office directly.

The expression in Eden's eyes changed slightly. She knew what Kelsi was thinking about.

"Humph!" Kelsi stamped her feet and thought, "You're disabled! I'd like to see how long you can stay by Victor's side!"

She glared at the door of the office and felt a little anxious. She didn't know what had happened to her aunt, because she hadn't received a reply.

Back to the office, Eden asked, "Have you found out who stole the design draft?"

Victor shook his head slightly, "Now we don't have time to investigate it. Lucian will check it out after he comes back."

Eden asked again, "Why didn't you tell Manager Iverson about the new product release?"

Victor pushed her to the desk, looked at her and said with a smile, "Lucian suspects her the most. Of course, we couldn't take her with us."

"Oh!" Eden frowned. Had Kelsi betrayed them?

Kelsi even had a showdown with her and said that she wanted to be with Victor. Would she betray Alwynn Group?

If that was the case, she would never let her off.

"Honey, what's wrong?" Seeing Eden's frown, Victor felt very distressed.

Eden shook her head with a smile, "Nothing. Continue to work."

Victor did not believe her words, "Really?"

Eden said, "Yeah!"

Seeing that she was unwilling to say it, Victor did not question her further, "Eden, wait for me for half an hour, and then we will go to the hospital to see Abigail together."

"Mm!" Eden nodded and waited for him quietly aside.

Victor concentrated on his work.

Eden lowered her head and read the comments on the Internet.

LP Company did not hold a new products release, which meant that they had won.

She looked at the comments online, only to find that those people who had scolded her before all wished her and Victor happiness.

She pursed her lips lightly and smiled. Compared with those abuses, such comments were more pleasant to the eye.

She was engrossed in reading the comments. Suddenly, a piece of paper dropped on her knees.

She looked up at Victor, and he had just reached out to take it.

Eden picked it up before him and they looked at the words on it together.

Eden knew that it was Kelsi's note that she had put in before.

Victor glanced at the content of the note and then glanced at the document on the desk. The document was sent by Kelsi.

His face suddenly became horribly gloomy. Kelsi did it on purpose.

Victor glanced at Eden. Seeing that there was no expression on her face, he was about to say something, but the door of the office was suddenly opened.

Kelsi came in with a cup of coffee.

Eden turned around and took a look at Kelsi. Her eyes suddenly darkened. Kelsi was really insatiable, and she went too far.

Kelsi looked at Victor and smiled, "Mr. Alwynn, I made a cup of coffee for you."

Victor took the note from Eden and smashed it on the table, saying in an apathetic tone, "Did you write this?"

Seeing this, Kelsi was slightly stunned. She looked at Victor's unhappy face and felt a little uneasy.

Chapter 998

"Mr. Alwynn, I..." She lowered her head shyly. Victor actually spoke so straightforwardly in front of Eden. Every man would know what she meant by writing that.

She took the cup of coffee, walked over and stood next to Eden. Eden looked sideways at her. Kelsi didn't pour the coffee on her in the morning, but what about this time?

Someone knew how to play tricks in the office.

If Kelsi poured the coffee on her, she would lose her temper like a crazy woman. At that time, Kelsi could take the opportunity to pretend to be pitiful. After all, men liked delicate and weak women.

"Get out!" Victor's face was extremely cold.

Kelsi felt that she had got a slap on the face. He didn't show her respect at all.

"Mr. Alwynn, I..."

"I told you to get out! Don't let me see you again." Victor was disgusted. He hated scheming and despicable women the most.

Kelsi lowered her head with grievances, "Mr. Alwynn, I don't know what I did wrong to make you so angry."

Victor stood up and smashed the note on her, "Now do you know what you did wrong? Do you think you're qualified..." He said in a very sarcastic tone. Kelsi had never conducted herself since she entered the company.

Amelia was often bullied by her. If it weren't for the fact that he couldn't find a suitable person to replace Kelsi, he would have fired her long ago. It wasn't easy to train a person, and he had been tolerant enough.

Kelsi immediately explained, "Mr. Alwynn, don't get me wrong, I just want to have a meal with you and thank you for your patronage. I don't mean anything else."

Saying this, Kelsi released her grip deliberately and poured the boiling hot coffee on Eden.

"Ah!" She screamed.

Eden knew that it would happen.

She closed her eyes slightly. The boiling hot coffee spilled all over her body. There was a strong smell of coffee on her ears, neck and clothes. She felt a searing pain all over.

"Eden!"

Kelsi was so close to Eden that Victor had no way to stop her in time.

He got up, took a wet tissue and wiped the coffee on her head quickly.

However, Eden turned her head slightly to avoid his hand.

Victor was anxious when he saw this, "Eden, are you okay?"

Eden did not speak and sat there quietly. She felt a burning sensation on her ears and neck, and it was indeed uncomfortable. Being splashed by hot coffee was more painful than red wine.

"Mrs. Alwynn, I'm so sorry. I didn't hold the cup firmly just now, because my hand is sweaty." Kelsi kept apologizing aside.

"Get the hell out!" Victor roared furiously like an angry lion and glared at Kelsi with bloodshot eyes.

"Mr. Alwynn, I... really didn't mean it."

Kelsi did not leave. She looked at Victor with tears in her eyes, not knowing what to do.

If her guess was not wrong, she had challenged Eden's limits.

She would definitely get angry. Kelsi had tried this trick before, and it worked very well.

Eden shook off the coffee on her hand and said blandly, "What a pity. The coffee is expensive."

Kelsi was dumbfounded. Eden didn't get mad as she had expected.

She was slightly startled, lowered her head and looked at Eden's calm face.

"Eden!" Victor was very worried when he saw Eden's unconcerned face.

Eden looked up at him, "Don't meddle in this matter."

She looked sideways at Kelsi with aloofness in her eyes.

Seeing this, Kelsi felt a little uneasy. What did Eden want to do?

Eden handed her a wet tissue, "Since you feel sorry, wipe the coffee for me in person."

Kelsi heaved a sigh of relief when she heard that. She reached out lightly to take the wet tissue and lowered her head to wipe the coffee on Eden's head.

Her curly hair were scattered around Eden. Eden reached out and pulled her beautiful hair hard. There was even a faint fragrance on her hair.

"Ouch..." Kelsi gulped in pain and cried out loud.

Victor was surprised.

"It hurts! Let go of me! Mr. Alwynn, help me..." Kelsi's voice was full of grievances.

"Ha-ha..." Eden sneered, "Kelsi, you have been provoking me for a whole day. Isn't this what you want? You want to make me angry, so that you can pretend to be wronged and get the sympathy of my husband, right?"

"Mrs. Alwynn, you... misunderstand me, really..." Kelsi did not expect Eden to do this.

She was wrong. Not every woman was the same.

"Is that so? Do you know how many security cameras are on the 25th floor? Mr. Ronen will see the surveillance video and hear what you said to me tomorrow morning, and he will tell Victor about it. Instead of knowing it tomorrow morning, why don't we have a look at what you did now?"

"What you did is very right. To break up a couple, it will be faster to aim at the woman first. But this time, you are wrong. I am grateful to my husband and I love him. I forgot to tell you that the reason why there has been no gossip about him is that he has been waiting for me to come back all these years."

"You said that I was disabled and I couldn't do anything. At the very least, you could walk. Although I can't move my feet, I can use my hands. I can't stand you anymore." Eden gritted her teeth and said. Then she pulled Kelsi's hair with great force again.

"Ah..." Kelsi lowered her head more, and the burning pain was unbearable for her.

Eden smiled and said, "When I pulled a woman's hair last time, it was four years ago. I took my three children to get vaccinations, and I had been in line for an hour, but she was so rude and insisted on cutting in line. She was very fierce, but she was beaten by me and then left in dismay."

"Who do you think you are? You challenge my patience all day long. You just want my husband to see how crazy I am, don't you? Just call for help and let him save you!"

Victor was shocked. He didn't expect that Eden could be... so domineering.

"Woo... Mr. Alwynn, I really didn't do it on purpose. Mrs. Alwynn, my head hurts! Let me go." Kelsi said with tears in eyes. She had really miscalculated. Eden actually really beat her. Shouldn't she be mad at Victor?

"Ask him to help you! Why do you shut up? Go on..." Eden grabbed her hair more and more tightly, and her expression got colder and colder.

Watching this, Victor was angry and worried. Was Eden taking revenge on her own?

"Eden, be careful. Don't hurt yourself." He stood by her side and protected her.

Kelsi almost fell to her knees when she heard this. She was the injured one, wasn't she?

Eden looked at him with a wicked smile and said, "What's wrong? Don't you feel sorry for your little lover? She has been provoking me all day because she wants you to see me like this. Don't you think I'm a vicious woman?"

"Honey." Victor looked at her madly.

"Ha-ha..." Eden smiled. As she let go of Kelsi, she pushed her away. Kelsi's high heels tilted and she fell to the ground. With her eyes brimming with tears, she looked at Victor with grievances on her face.

Eden looked at her wronged face and only felt disgusted.

"Woo-woo..." Kelsi was so aggrieved that she started to cry. There was still a burning sensation on her head.

Chapter 999

Eden's eyes were very indifferent as she looked at Kelsi who was crying sadly. She said with satisfaction, "Do you feel wronged now? When you bullied me, I felt much aggrieved than you."

"You like my husband, which is something that no wife can accept. But you said those words to me with a smile, didn't you? Now you pretend to be aggrieved in front of my husband. Does he sympathize with you as you expected?"

Kelsi stopped crying and felt extremely disturbed. She said these words indeed, but Eden repeated them all.

How would Victor think of me?

"Mrs. Alwynn, when did I say these words?" Kelsi wanted to deny it.

Otherwise, Victor would question her moral standing.

"Ha-ha..." Eden laughed mockingly and glanced at her delicate and miserable face. Her face was not attractive and gorgeous enough.

"Do you remember what I told you just now? There are a lot of security cameras on the 25th floor, and you can watch the surveillance video together with us. Even if I break up with Victor, you'll have no chance to be with him."

Kelsi went deathly pale. She glared at Eden secretly. Eden was really...

Hearing this, Victor immediately took a stand, "Honey, I don't like any woman except for you."

When Eden heard this, she was not so happy. She looked at Victor with a poker face, "I can't believe you unless we really reach old and grey together."

"Eden, don't you believe me again?" Victor squatted in front of her and looked at her. He reached out to wipe the coffee on her face. Her fair skin was red, and she must be in a lot of pain just now.

This time, Eden did not avoid him. Instead, she looked at him quietly.

"Eden." Looking at her like this, Victor was at a loss. Not long ago, she almost died, and she seemed to be more philosophical about life after she woke up.

"Eden, I'll apply some medicine for you now." Victor got up to get the scald ointment. Last time, he got scalded by accident, and then she put the ointment in his office.

"No, it's unnecessary. If I didn't feel the burning sensation, I might not be able to vent my anger. It's not a big deal."

Victor's back stiffened all of a sudden. He turned around and saw that she sat there quietly with her head lowered.

From his viewpoint, she looked quiet and melancholy. It seemed that she was trying her best to endure something, and his heart suddenly ached.

He strode over, carried her in his arms and walked to the lounge. There was a bathroom inside, and Eden had to take a shower first.

"Kelsi, stand there and wait. I'll get even with you later."

After that, he took Eden to the bathroom. He put her aside and then filled the bath.

Looking at him, Eden smiled, "Don't you think I'm a hot-tempered person? I'll be like this every few years. Just now, I was too annoyed. She dared to hurt me in front of me. I never let go such a person."

Victor squatted beside her, looked at her and rubbed her head with a smile, "You're very domineering. Since you had been bullied, you should fight back so that she won't have another chance to bully you. From now on, you don't have to do it yourself. I will take revenge for you."

"Ha-ha..." Eden laughed and felt much better.

But Victor was a little worried, "Eden, I..."

"I believe you!" Eden knew what he wanted to say and interrupted him.

If she didn't trust him, she wouldn't have done that. She would have walked away alone.

If she didn't care about him, he didn't even have qualification to make her mad.

She loved him very much, so she did that.

"Whew..." Victor breathed a deep sigh of relief, "I was so scared just now. I was afraid that you would be exasperated. What if you get ill out of anger?"

Eden smiled brightly. Her clear and beautiful eyes were as warm as the morning sunshine.

"I've lived with you for a period of time. In fact, I know you very well. Your worry is unnecessary. If you really want to betray me, I won't be able to let you change your mind even if I get sick out of anger. Therefore, you don't have to think too much." She was very peaceful and clear-minded at this time, and she wouldn't trouble herself with lots of things.

Victor's heart ached as he said, "Fool, I was so worried about you just now."

Eden glanced at the bathtub behind him, "The bath has been filled. Let me take a bath first."

"Mm!" Victor reached out to help her take off her clothes.

Eden lowered her head and blushed scarlet. She was still not used to this.

"I'll take a bath myself. You..."

Victor laughed wickedly and did not stop what he was doing, "Fool, I have seen you naked, haven't I? You're my wife."

Eden blushed even more when she heard that.

"Just help me take off my clothes. Why do you have to say these?" Eden looked at him shyly.

Victor held her in his arms and put her in the bath cautiously. He washed her hair first. Looking at her fair skin, he was suddenly sexually aroused.

They hadn't had sex for a long time.

Eden sat there quietly and allowed him to wash her body. Suddenly, she felt painful in her legs.

She said in pleasant surprise, "Victor, my legs hurt!"

Victor smiled with joy, and his movements became softer and softer, "Eden, I've told you that your legs are all right. You can't treat me like how Anson treated Abby. Otherwise, I will absolutely be pissed off."

Eden grinned, "Actually, when I woke up, I had the same idea as Anson."

"How dared you!" Hearing this, Victor's heart suddenly jumped so fast.

Eden smiled with understanding. Seeing his anxious expression, she felt a little sorry for him, "Alright, now I can feel my legs, and I won't think like that anymore. You don't have to worry."

Only then did Victor look a little relaxed, "No matter what happens, we must be together. Do you understand?"

"Mm!" Eden nodded with a smile. There was firm confidence in her eyes.

She was confident that she could be with him forever.

People who had never lost would not know how to cherish a hard-won relationship. She had lost a lot, so she did not want to lose everything she cared about in the future.

After Eden took a bath, Victor wore the clothes for her and dried her hair. Then, he carried her out.

After taking a bath, Eden became lazy and sleepy.

But Kelsi was still standing there nervously. At this moment, she was overwhelmed by fear and didn't know what to do.

She had been paying attention to Victor, so she ignored a lot of things. Victor really cared about Eden so much.

She seemed to have used a wrong method.

Chapter 1000

Victor didn't look at Kelsi and poured a cup of warm water for Eden, "Drink it first. Be careful not to catch a cold."

"Mm!" Eden took over the cup lazily and drank up the water.

She returned the cup to him and leaned on the wheelchair leisurely.

"Are you tired?" Victor ran his finger through her hair and asked her with gentle eyes.

"Yeah! I can sleep on the way to the hospital, and then I'll be energetic." She hadn't woken up from the coma for long, and she was very sleepy, especially when she was basking in the sun.

"Eden, don't go there since you are so tired."

"No, I have to see Abby. She will be very disappointed if she wakes up and can't see me." She wanted to see Abby. When she was in a coma, Abby had never given up on her.

"Alright, I'll listen to you! We'll go there in a minute." Victor got up, put aside the quilt and then looked at Kelsi who standing not far away in fear. Then he said in an extremely cold tone, "Manager Iverson, apologize to my wife."

Hearing this, Kelsi was stunned for a moment. She had been beaten by Eden. Why should she apologize?

"Mr. Alwynn, I really didn't say those words."

Kelsi didn't want to admit it. If she admitted, it would become a black mark against her forever.

Eden was drowsy and had no strength to argue with Kelsi, so she simply didn't say anything.

Victor's eyes suddenly darkened as he glanced at Kelsi sharply. Since she refused to admit, she couldn't blame him for being heartless.

He turned on the computer and found out the surveillance video. In the video, Kelsi and Eden were in the office.

Kelsi went into the office with a cup of coffee, said something provocative to Eden and then walked out.

The longer Victor watched the video, the more irritated he became. He roared angrily, "How dared you say those words to my wife!" He picked up the coffee cup on the desk and slammed it on Kelsi's face. There was coffee in the cup, and Kelsi's face was splashed with coffee.

"Ah..." Kelsi was extremely scared. Her whole body tensed up and she shrank back.

Victor looked so horrible when he flew off the deep end.

"Woo-woo..." Kelsi cried. Tears streamed down her checks as she looked at Victor pitifully, "Mr. Alwynn, I just like you too much, so I did that. Mr. Alwynn, I like you. Is it wrong? I just want to get you by my own way. Mr. Alwynn, please forgive me this time. I will never do it again."

"Apologize to her!" Victor's low voice was full of impatience.

"Mr. Alwynn..."

"Apologize!" Victor forced himself to be patience and interrupted her again.

Hearing Victor's furious roar, Eden, who had almost fallen asleep, sobered up.

She raised her head and looked at him with displeasure, "Victor, keep your voice down. I'm very sleepy."

"Okay! Eden, I'll be gentle." Victor took the blanket and covered her.

Eden said, "Even if she apologizes, she won't be sincere. We need to find out who had stolen the design draft first. The three children haven been taken back by Delmont. We have to go dad and mom's house later."

Hearing this, Kelsi trembled all over. How did Eden know that the design draft had been stolen?

Her eyes suddenly darkened. No wonder Alwynn Group held a new product launch all of a sudden that day.

"Oh! No problem! Lucian has almost finished his work. But Kelsi must apologize to you. Otherwise, I don't know what kind of terrible things I would do."

Victor's eyes were filled with hostility as he looked at Kelsi's stubborn face. His eyes were blazing with the flames of fury.

Kelsi shuddered. Only then did she remember what kind of person Victor was.

Some enterprises went bankrupt overnight just because they had offended Victor.

The most typical examples were the Gienger family and the Gerard family. They both went bankrupt overnight after offending Eden.

They used to be rich and powerful, but they fell into the depth of despair overnight.

It was said that Victor was ruthless and vicious, and he was famous because of this.

After she worked in Alwynn Group, she found Victor was indifferent indeed, but he was not as heartless as he was rumoured. He was very nice and gentle to Eden, so she always thought that the rumours were false, and the real Victor was kindhearted and warm.

It seemed that she was completely wrong. He only treated Eden well, and he was still cold and cruel to others.

All of a sudden, Kelsi figured it out and really felt so frightened.

"Mr. Alwynn, I just like you..."

"I'm asking you to apologize! Don't talk nonsense..." Victor's deep voice seemed to come from hell. His aloof eyes were full of disgust, and he didn't even bother to look at Kelsi.

"I..."

Victor picked up his phone and dialed Lucian's number.

"Hello?" Lucian had just returned to the 25th floor, and he was followed by Amelia.

"After finishing your work, bring your computer and come to my office directly. Find the thief first and then send her to the police station."

"I'm coming."

After Victor hung up the phone, he sneered and looked at Kelsi, who still did not want to apologize.

Kelsi literally had her heart in her mouth.

She immediately turned to Eden and lowered her head to apologize, "Mrs. Alwynn, I'm sorry. I was wrong. I shouldn't have provoked you like that, and I shouldn't have said those words to annoy you. Mrs. Alwynn, you're magnanimous. Please forgive me." Kelsi sobbed with tears. She had never expected this to happen.

Eden raised her head with difficulty and looked at her, "I accept your apology. However, a wicked person will be harassed by another of like ilk. I am not the last one who beats you. You used to seduce the boss of your company in the same way, but you succeeded. You did the same thing."

Kelsi was shocked when she heard that. How could it be? Why did Eden know about it?

Eden waved the phone in her hand. When she opened her eyes, she saw that the news about Kelsi online.

She clicked on the video, looked at the title and read it, "A scheming woman seduced her boss in a shameless way."

Then she clicked open the video and showed it to Kelsi.

Kelsi had done the same thing to seduce that boss, and his wife was very impulsive and beat Kelsi. However, her husband didn't feel sorry for her, but spoke for Kelsi.

"Take a good look at this woman. It's you, isn't it?"

While Eden was speaking, they suddenly heard groans in the video.

In the video, Kelsi was having sex with a man. She was stunned. Hadn't this video been destroyed? Why did someone post it online?

Eden had been with Victor for so long, and she could guess the content of the video. She blushed, turned off the phone immediately and turned her head.

She didn't know who posted this video online, but coincidentally, she saw the news just now.
