Without sacrificing his life force, Zeke had emanated the energy of a King Class and didn't even get hurt at all!

Besides, the Seven Star Tiger Punch attack launched by a King Class warrior was so much stronger than an Archduke's attack as it was enough to destroy the universe!

Is this what a King Class warrior is capable of? He's really strong! Luna thought as she was fearful.

A vicious, deadly aura surrounded her so she turned to escape.

However, it was too late.

Zeke's Tiger Roar was so powerful it had created an earthquake.

The whole valley started shaking violently as rocks rolled down from the mountain, filling up half of the valley.

Luna was crushed by the heavy stones, so she wouldn't have survived the ordeal.

As Tiger Roar was too powerful, even Zeke's body was affected after he used it.

His head felt heavy and dizzy.

In his state of dizziness, Zeke sensed that the Ultimate Power was right in front of him.

It felt like he could touch it if he stretched his hand out.

As he reached out instinctively to touch the Ultimate Power, a powerful force pressed down on him.

The mysterious power was so strong it felt like the sky was exerting its strength on Zeke himself.

The Power of the Universe!

Is this the legendary Power of the Universe?

In ancient manuscripts, as becoming an Ultimate Class was going against the law of nature, the Power of Universe would condemn those who were going to achieve this level.

Those who survived after being crushed by the Power of the Universe could achieve the Ultimate Class.

But, Zeke was still too weak.

He couldn't even put up significant resistance when facing the Power of the Universe.

It felt like his internal organs were being crushed. Thus, he couldn't even breathe as the pain was too unbearable.

When Zeke was on the verge of passing out, a voice rang in his mind abruptly, Save me.

Hmm?

Zeke's body shuddered as the familiar voice belonged to his teacher, Pietro White.

NH

Is my teacher in danger? Where is he?

Zeke had no time to think further as the Power of the Universe was making him confused and in daze.

Without hesitation, he revoked the third attack of Seven Star Tiger Punch.

At once, the Power of the Universe disappeared.

With that, Zeke coughed out blood and lay motionless on the ground.

His entire body was in severe pain. It felt like his body had been crushed over before being brought back to life.

Nevertheless, he couldn't be bothered with the pain.

There was only one thought running through his mind.

Why did I hear Pietro's voice when I was about to pass out?

Is Pietro nearby?

He glanced around, but there was no one there.

After pondering the strange event, Zeke finally guessed what had happened.

Perhaps Pietro has tried to achieve the Ultimate

NH

Class, but the Power of the Universe crushed him so badly that he left an SOS message within the Power of the Universe which I heard a while ago.

I wonder if he has become an Ultimate Class.

Zeke might have failed to reach the Ultimate Power, but he had proven that the Ultimate Class actually existed.

As he had surpassed King Class, he was only one step away from achieving the Ultimate Power.

Meanwhile, a figure was hurrying over to him.

It was none other than Mr. Collins himself. He rushed over when he heard the huge commotion.

Mr. Collins was shocked to see Zeke coughing out blood.

Oh dear, I can't believe someone had just hurt a King Class warrior!

I wonder who that person was?

He immediately helped Zeke up and asked, "Great Marshal, are you alright?"

Zeke nodded. "Mm, I-I'm fine. Collins, do me a favor. Help me make this scene look like an explosion had just happened."

"Why?" Mr. Collins asked curiously.

Zeke said, "I was the one who caused the rocks to fall and crush Luna to her death while filling up the valley at the same time."

He added, "I can't let others know I'm a King Class warrior now because I need to use Ares' impersonator as a bait to lure the Hidden Sect out of Mount Final."

"Make it look like an explosion had just happened here to mislead Ares' impersonator," he concluded.

Mr. Collins' whole body shook with fear.

"Did you just say that you filled the entire valley alone? Damn, you must be skilled in magic!"

Zeke shot him a smile. "I've already surpassed the King Class, so I'm only one step away from making it into the Ultimate Power."

"I assume no one below the Ultimate Class can defeat me now."

Mr. Collins inquired eagerly, "That means you are very sure the Ultimate Class exists?"

"Yes."

In reply, Mr. Collins sighed. "Comparison is a killjoy, huh? When I was your age, I didn't even make it to a lower rank Archduke."

Mr. Collins complained as he arranged the scene to make it seemed like an explosion had just happened. Then, he left with Zeke.

Not far away, Ares and Julian were inching closer to the scene.

They had just heard a huge explosion which made the ground shook, so they knew Luna and Zeke had just fought here.

The reason Ares and Julian were heading there was because they wanted to collect Zeke's body.

Ares' impersonator knew that in the event of an emergency, Luna could unleash a power strong enough to destroy the earth by injuring herself.

If he guessed it correctly, the strong explosion they heard was caused by Luna after she had injured herself.

When they finally reached their destination and saw the battle sight, they were utterly stunned.

The rocks caused by the landslide had filled up the narrow valley.

Indeed, Luna was very powerful!

Julian spotted a pool of blood underneath his feet.

He knelt down and checked it cautiously before saying, "This must be a man's blood. Zeke was most probably crushed under all these rocks."

Ares was delighted. "Let's dig his body out."

With that, he moved the rocks away immediately.

It was rather easy for an expert Archduke like him to clear away the rocks.

When the rocks were cleared, and the body crushed under the rocks appeared in their sight, both of them nearly had a nervous breakdown.

The body under the rocks wasn't Zeke but Luna.

"This is impossible!" Ares narrowed his eyes in shock. "How did Luna die in Zeke's hands?"

"Could it be Zeke had never lost his power? He must still be the Great Marshal!"

Previously, when Solis was killed by Zeke, Ares grew suspicious.

Right now, as he saw Luna dead body in front of his eyes, his suspicion grew even more.

Julian said, "Sir, look. There are traces of explosions here. I think Zeke has used explosives to kill Luna."

Ares looked at where he pointed and saw there were indeed traces of an explosion.

However, that discovery didn't dispel his doubts.

In a low voice, Ares said, "It's normal for Zeke to kill one or two warriors. But now, Black Dragon, Solis, and Luna have all died in his hands. Don't you think that is suspicious?"

Julian replied, "Sir, you're overthinking. If Zeke is that powerful, why would he cough out blood? He must've coughed out blood because Luna wounded him badly. Hence, he had no other choice under such circumstances that he resorted to using explosives to kill her.”

NH

Ares sighed, “Never mind. Let’s stop talking about this.”

“For now, we should report our contribution in exchange for the Spirit Stones to heal your injury.”

Julian was worried. “Sir, what if Zeke claims the credit for himself?”
