

Go After 631

Chapter 631

“Okay, I’ll wait. Belle promised. “”I promise to send your family abroad for medical treatment as long as you reveal the evidence of Zoella framing the Harvey Group and expose her. This is the condition, which is mutually beneficial.”””

Belle walked away without another word. She turned back after a few steps and reminded her. “I would advise you to consider carefully. I will not force you and you are welcome to approach me anytime when you are ready. I think you can differentiate right from wrong.”

Belle and Lomen walked away calmly.

Octavia sat in the room in a stunned state for a long time.

“Zoella fed her family chronic poison in an attempt to control her. It was so evil, she thought. She had been nothing but loyal since the beginning and trusted her wholeheartedly. She never thought of betRhysing her. If it was true that she was poisoning her family. This woman was indeed too vicious and cold-hearted. She was not worthy of her trust then.”

She clenched her fists.

Octavia planned to take her mother and brother to the hospital for a check-up before deciding what to do.

“Madam, do you think Octavia would testify against Zoella? Lomen asked with uncertainty in the Harvey family’s luxurious car, “”Will she believe what you said?”””

Belle frowned and remained silent.

“Madam, I think it would be better to kidnap Ziyon and use him to threaten her instead. Lomen was somewhat puzzled about Belle’s move.”

“No. We are no different from Zoella if we do that. Besides, kidnapping is against the law. We absolutely can’t do that. Belle looked out of the window. She thought about Calvin’s current situation and felt a twinge of pain in her heart.”

“They have to find evidence of Zoella framing the company for the charges to be lifted. Only then, Calvin’s name could be cleared. ”

She was counting on Octavia.

“She had finally found a lead after following Octavia for so long. She never believed that Zoella would treat her with true sincerity because Octavia knew too much about her history. Zoella had always been a skeptical person and wouldn’t let her off easily. As long as Octavia was able to think rationally, Belle was certain that she’d come back to find her.”

“Lomen, Octavia was born into a poor family. She was educated to a certain extent and her conscience was still alive. She would not betRhys Zoella easily since she was the one who chose her. What we are doing now is to give her a little nudge, so that she would realize what a nasty woman Zoella is, Belle explained thoughtfully.”

Lomen sighed and nodded.

“Lomen, how long will it take for the report of the will verification? Belle asked after thinking for a while.”

“It usually takes fifteen to thirty days to get the results of the handwriting identification. However, we have connections within the authoritative department we sent our will to. At the very least, it’d still take around a couple of weeks. Lomen’s voice was low.”

Belle kept silent.

“Meanwhile, in Hudson’s study.”

“Hudson was pacing back and forth in the room. The wrinkles on his forehead deepened from the stress, and his eyes revealed his tiredness.”

Dad. “Mr. Hudson.” The two of them greeted Hudson.

“Belle, you’re here. Hudson smiled amiably when he saw Belle.”

“Dad, do you have news of Calvin? Do you know where he’s being locked up? Belle asked anxiously.”

“Hudson smiled faintly. ““Don’t worry, he’ll be fine.”””

“Dad, he’s the president of the Harvey Group and The Harvey Group needs him now. He’s the foundation of Harvey Manor, as well as Jerry’s father. No matter what, he needs to be released as soon as possible. Otherwise, the damage on the Harvey Group will be insurmountable. Belle’s mood was grave.”

“We will need evidence to prove his innocence if we want to bail him out now. Everyone is equal in the eyes of the law, Hudson answered.”

“Lomen, did you find anything about Liya today? Hudson turned his head to Lomen.”

“Lomen shook his head and reported, ““Mr. Hudson, this woman has been sleeping at home during the day. She didn’t go out. In fact, there is no point in following her now as she’s now Oscar’s mistress, and she despised Zoella. It is impossible for them to collude with each other. Even if we could get anything from her, the evidence wouldn’t be strong enough for a bailout. You would have found evidence from her earlier on otherwise.”””

“Hudson nodded. Liya had altered the will secretly, which ended up setting a trap for herself. It was enough of a crime for her to be locked up in jail.”

“Dad, how is the situation in Capital City going? Belle was uneasy. Calvin and Luqman cooperated with each other. What was important was whether or not they could finally expose Yadriel.”

“Hudson smiled faintly and replied, ““Don’t worry. Yadriel had set this up to frame Calvin precisely because there was progress in the matter in Capital City.”””

Belle felt enlightened upon hearing this!

“There were two leads. Firstly, Zoella framed the Harvey Group, and secondly, Yadriel was contesting in the election. It appeared as if there was no link between the two events, but they were in fact connected. Belle was very certain about this. Otherwise, Calvin would not have paid so much attention to Capital City and personally cooperated with Luqman.”

“Belle, don’t worry. I believe that everything will come to light. It won’t be long before that. Hudson consoled her confidently. ““The most important thing right now is the child you are carrying. You have to take care of yourself well.”””

“Dad, don’t worry. I will. Belle smiled and comforted him.”

Alright. Hudson nodded with satisfaction. “You should have a good rest.”

Okay. Belle bade goodbye.

“At the study’s window, Hudson watched as Belle’s figure gradually disappeared into the distance as he let out a deep sigh.”

“Belle, Yadriel wouldn’t be so daring to engage in an arms trade if Calvin were not arrested. Calvin was Yadriel’s most hated enemy. With him under arrest, he became bold and fTristaness to commit even more crimes. That way we could gather more evidence for his crimes. Hudson thought to himself.”

“To destroy someone, one first had to make them go crazy.”

The plan was to make Yadriel go crazy for money and engage in more illegal trades! They would have a better chance of getting rid of him if he had gone crazy. They just needed to be a little more patient!

The lotus leaves in different shades of green filled the pond. The breeze carried along the fresh smell of lotus flowers towards Belle.

“Belle bent her knees, rested her head on them and put her hands together. She curled up like a baby in a fetal position.”

Experts often said that this was the position assumed when someone encountered danger or had no sense of security. It was an expression of hopelessness.

Belle was truly helpless and extremely anxious.

Calvin had been arrested.

“In the company, she had to appear as a strong woman. She was calm and did not show any trace of guilt. At home, she was the head of the family. She had to conceal her emotions in front of everyone.”

Only when she was alone would she allow herself to relax slightly.

“She remained in that position for a long time. She gently let out her feelings of helplessness, grief, worry, and stress that had accumulated throughout the day. ”

Calvin had always been the pillar of support for the Harvey family. He was also the pillar of support for her. Her entire spirit was on the verge of collapse ever since he had been taken away.

Calvin was the man in her dream who was covered in blood. Would he be safe in the hands of Yadriel and Sergio?

She wouldn't know.

That was why she was afraid and worried. She suffered so much that she could not fall asleep!

Sergio stood under a hundred-year-old lemon tree and looked at Belle from a distance.

“He witnessed the strong side of Belle after he took Calvin away. Belle didn't shed tears or cry like other women. Instead, she was unusually calm. She also went to the company to manage the executives and stabilize the situation. She even took charge of everything at home. He admired her perseverance and strength so much.”

“Sergio believed he had good taste when it came to women. The woman he liked must be unique. So, he held onto his love for Belle. He buried this feeling deep in the bottom of his heart. His heart was reserved for her. He believed that he would never fall in love again.”

“Belle, are you alright? Sergio walked up slowly to Belle and stood beside her.”

Belle was surprised to hear his voice. Her face was full of tears when she looked up at him.

“What are you doing here? Belle jumped and stood up upon the sight of Sergio. She wiped off the tears quickly, took a step back and asked coldly.”

“Belle, get some rest. Take care of yourself. Sergio was concerned, with a touch of tenderness in his eyes.”

“Belle looked at him indifferently. “”Sergio, everything is as you wish now. You finally took him away.”””

Belle... Sergio appeared slightly dignified. “I was just performing official duties. It wasn't up to me.”

“Is that so? Belle sneered. “”You know fully well that the Harvey Group was framed, and this is all a trap. But you're happy to see it and even refused to take action to rectify it. Is this what you meant by out of your control?”””

“Belle, evidence decides the case, not me. I wouldn't have taken him away if there was no evidence to support it. You should understand this, right? Sergio asked seriously.”

Belle clenched her fists. A cold smile formed at the corner of her mouth.

“Mr. Xanthe, please listen carefully. I will find you the evidence that he was framed. I will never let Calvin go to jail. Belle spoke, word for word, with a crisp voice.”

“A wave of emotions crossed Sergio’s eyes, but he was left with only heartache and sadness in the end, as those emotions settled.”

“Belle, is he that important to you? You’d protect him with your life even if it puts you in danger? He sighed. “”I told you a long time ago that you should leave him. You should have left this place but you didn’t listen.”””

“Belle’s determination to save Calvin saddened him. He would be overjoyed if she could just show that she cared for him, albeit only a tiny bit. However, Belle refused to show any mercy to him.”

Calvin was the stubborn one who couldn’t see where the times were headed. He chose to be enemies with the Xanthe family. Sergio was certain that Yadriel wouldn’t let him off.

“Mr. Xanthe, listen carefully. Calvin is my husband and Jerry’s father. This is a fact that cannot be changed. He is the only one in my heart, and no one can replace him. I will never leave him even if he is thrown to jail. But rest assured, I will definitely not allow it to happen, Belle retorted firmly. The look in her eyes was determined and piercing. He felt a coldness radiating from his heart.”

Belle moved past him and walked towards the corridor of the Ink Garden.

Belle. Sergio looked at her and tried to stop her. She looked determined as she walked past him indifferently. She acted so distant.

“No matter how she treated him, she always had a sacred place in his heart.”

Belle stood still with her back facing him.

Have you heard of the Ocean Heart? Sergio asked softly after a moment of hesitation.

These words sounded like thunder from the sky even though his voice was soft. Belle’s mind was in a tumult. She remained still and looked straight ahead.

The Ocean Heart was a priceless treasure. How did Sergio find out about it? Was he testing her?

“This was the type of treasure that had been stained with the blood and wrongdoings of many people because of its value. To keep them safe, Sophia had never told the descendants of the Harvey family about it. No one in the entire family mansion had ever talked about this treasure. How did Sergio know about it?”

What was his intention in asking?

Chapter 632

“Belle turned her face. There was not a trace of emotion in her eyes. She asked curiously, “”Mr. Xanthe, what did you say? What ocean?”””

“Sergio analyzed her expression carefully. “”Belle, the Ocean Heart is a rare treasure. Many older people have seen it and wanted to own it. That year, the auction attracted huge attention but it was taken off the auction at the last minute’s notice. It simply vanished after that. There was a rumor that Madam Lilian had sent it to Harvey Manor. Do you know about it?”””

Sergio’s voice was soft like a dream but he was indeed talking to Belle about the Ocean Heart .

“Belle clenched her fists and she smiled patronisingly. “”So, that’s how it is. You came to Harvey Manor because of rumors of a rare jewel? I have been wondering why you would move into our home when we have no business with you. I now know it is because of the treasure. Mr. Xanthe, you are indeed morally noble, to be abusing your power for your own convenience.”””

“Sergio’s face blushed slightly as Belle replied sarcastically. He was curious about the jewelry solely because Yadiel desired it. He wasn’t personally interested in it but he couldn’t explain himself. So, he replied with a snicker.”

“Belle, I am only doing this for your own good. As the head of the family, I am sure that you are aware a treasure as valuable as this would only bring trouble to the family instead of glory. It might very well end in bloodbath. I am only telling you this to serve as a friendly reminder. Hand the jewelry over if you know where it is in exchange for the safety of Harvey Manor. If you do not know where it is, then I would advise you to leave this place for your own safety. Do you understand? Sergio sounded very sincere. He did not want Belle to be involved or get hurt because of the treasure.”

Belle looked at him and smiled suddenly. Her teeth were white and her eyes were bright.

“Mr. Xanthe, you must be joking. Let’s not mention if the Harvey family actually owns the jewelry. Even if they do, why in the world will I be informed of its existence? I’m just the daughter-in-law of the Harvey family. You have a really wild imagination. You’ve stayed in Harvey Manor for quite some time now. Have you ever heard of it? This is such a baseless rumor. You are an official with a governmental title. It’s ridiculous that you are making such claims and insisted on me handing over some priceless gem off the books. Are you now in charge of private assets too? Belle felt absurd with the things Sergio had said.”

“Sergio looked at her and sighed. “”Belle, you really don’t get it. I am only doing this to keep you safe. You will understand what I meant today in the future if you insist on being stubborn.”””

“What do you want exactly, Mr. Xanthe? The way you are saying it seems like you already know where the jewelry is. Then, why bother asking me? Go and get it yourself. I am going to be frank with you. I have never heard of anything as such and I am not interested in the piece at all. I am sorry but I have to make a move as I still have errands to run. Belle’s tone was frigid and unsympathetic. Then, she walked towards the corridor.”

“Belle, I heard that Sophia had handed this treasure on to you. Sergio’s words were like a needle piercing straight into Belle’s heart from the back. It was so painful that blood drained from her face. Fortunately, she had her back towards him. Otherwise, he would have noticed her change in expression. Her entire back stiffened from his words.”

Not a single person in Harvey Manor knew about this. Even Calvin didn’t know until she had personally told him. How did Sergio find out?

The most difficult task in the world was to guard against people with ill intentions!

“Belle was in a daze. She finally realized that things were not as simple as she thought. It seemed that many people were coveting this treasure. Now, they are all waiting for an opportunity to take advantage of the chaotic situation in Harvey Group’s to steal the treasure.”

The scariest thing in the world was insatiable greed!

“Mr. Xanthe, you’re really well-informed. However, I’ve neither seen nor heard of the jewelry you’re talking about. I don’t know where you got your news from. What do you actually intend to achieve with the knowledge of my possessions? Belle turned her head and her eyes were frosty.”

“Belle, you misunderstood me. Sergio smiled and added, ““I am just saying that it won’t do any good to you if you decide to keep it. I just want to remind you of that.””

Belle frowned.

Thank you for the reminder. But I really don’t know about the jewelry you are talking about and have never seen it before. Some people are so greedy that they came out with all sorts of ideas and spread rumors about me. That’s their ignorance. Goodbye.

“Belle, please reconsider my words. What I said was definitely for your own good. Sergio looked at her from the back and warned her again with a stern voice.”

Belle’s heart was thumping wildly but she tried her best to hold it in and walked away with determined strides.

“As soon as she returned to the guest room, she threw herself onto the bed.”

“Calvin, I am so tired. Please come back soon. Belle buried her face in the quilt and muttered to herself. If Sergio’s real intention was the Ocean Heart then Harvey Manor might really encounter a bloodbath. Judging from his tone, he was not the only one who had their eyes set on the treasure.”

Belle felt scared as she thought about it. She was even more fearful of the possibility of her failure to protect the treasure.

What should I do? She held the sheet tightly and burst into tears.

“Liya slept so deeply this time! When she woke up, it was already dark outside.”

She washed up and realized she was starving. She hadn’t eaten anything all day.

Meal hours had already passed in Harvey Manor.

What should I do? Obviously I can’t order takeouts. Liya thought to herself.

Harvey Manor was surrounded by huge pieces of untouched land. Commercial businesses were prohibited in the area. It would take a lot of time and effort for the food to be delivered.

“Oscar had returned to C City for a few days. So, it’s impossible to count on him. Moreover, she was feeling tired and did not want to go out to eat.”

She took her slippers and walked out. She headed towards the kitchen of the Ink Garden to see if she could find something to eat.

“Pay attention to Belle’s movements. That jewelry is very likely with her. As soon as Liya passed through the corridor in darkness, she heard a faint voice coming from under a parasol tree.”

Treasure? She thought of the Ocean Heart that Letty mentioned to her the other day. She stopped immediately and her eyes lit up.

Are you sure? We haven't found anything after following her for days. Another shadow expressed his doubts.

"Nonsense. Of course it wouldn't be an easy task since it is a treasure. Even Harvey Manor itself barely has anyone who knows about it. What do you think us outsiders would know? Our boss had worked hard to obtain this lead. Of course it would be true. Just keep a close eye on her. Don't waste your time doubting nonsense, the man scolded in a low voice."

Liya was stunned. It seemed as though the treasure really existed and so many people were plotting for it. This was a rare opportunity to make a fortune.

"Liya heard that Calvin had been arrested. She deduced that the chances of her becoming his second wife was negligible. If she couldn't marry into the family, then she wouldn't get any benefit at all. She might as well continue staying at Harvey Manor and try to get her hands on the treasure."

The two men left quietly.

Liya watched them walk towards the guest room in the Ink Garden. She was still in shock from her encounter. She turned around to walk in the opposite direction towards the kitchen in the Ink Garden.

"She searched the kitchen for a while. It was a huge kitchen. She found some food, and proceeded to heat them in the microwave oven. After filling up her stomach, she returned to the guest room."

"As she passed by Belle's guest room, she turned her head on purpose to take a look in the room."

The door was open.

She stopped and looked around.

"Belle, she called out softly and extended her neck to look around."

"There was no one in the room, but the door was wide open. This was a perfect opportunity to sneak in."

Liya crept into the room as she thought to herself.

Belle's room was more spacious and classier than hers but the amenities inside were almost the same. Her eyes roamed the room like a hungry wolf looking for prey.

Belle's handbag was placed on the couch on one side.

"Liya looked at the bag. It was a limited edition bag. Although it wasn't luxurious, it had personality."

"There should be something in there, right? She is the head of the family after all."

She walked up to the bag and started fumbling.

"Belle, will Calvin be okay? When will he come back? This is all so heart-wrenching. She heard footsteps approaching and Rosa's clear voice rang."

Liya was startled. She wanted to escape but it was too late.

She quickly put Belle's bag back to where it was and sat down on the couch.

Why are you in my room? Belle and Rosa walked in worriedly. Belle immediately questioned her when they saw Liya sitting cross-legged on the couch with a casual expression.

"Belle, I came to find you but you weren't here. The door was open. So, I came in, Liya answered shamelessly."

Belle frowned and she looked displeased.

Was the door to her room open? Who opened it?

You should've waited outside. You don't look like you have a sincere reason to look for me. Belle interrogated Liya.

"You f*cking sl*t. How dare you barge into our bedroom? It's no wonder I smelled a stench from a distance. It seems like there's a vixen here in our room, Rosa said in disgust when she noticed how unperturbed Liya was. Rosa pointed at the door with her finger and yelled angrily, ""Get out of here, sl*t.""

"Liya had been mocked by Rosa several times and she was intimidated by her. She did not dare to rebuke her when she started scolding. She stood up and smiled. ""Come on, Belle. I really did have something to ask of you.""

What's the matter? Belle asked.

"Belle, I came to ask about Calvin. I heard that he was arrested. I was so worried that I couldn't sleep. So, I came here to understand the situation, she said with a worried and anxious expression. She approached Belle and said, ""Belle, do you think Calvin will be okay?""

Belle sized her up in a hostile manner.

Liya's eyes flickered and her coquettish face had an evil glow.

Chapter 633

"Liya, are you really concerned about Calvin? Belle approached her and asked seriously."

"Of course. Liya waved her hand and answered in a stern voice, ""Calvin is my husband. How can I not care about him?""

"I see. Belle suddenly smiled and added, ""Liya, let me ask you. If Calvin is imprisoned and the Harvey Group is taken over, Calvin is likely to be worth nothing. Do you still want to marry him?""

"As Belle spoke, she squinted her eyes and sized Liya up."

"Liya looked around and smiled. ""Belle, I love Calvin. No matter what happens to him, I'll be willing to marry him.""

"Liar. Rosa looked at the fake smile on her face and sneered. ""If something really happens, then I'm afraid you'll be the first to run away.""

“Belle smiled. ““Liya, what you said is really beautiful. You have to remember it well. Don’t be afraid of pain and danger at that time.”””

“Belle’s words sounded like a warning, and Liya was nervous. She didn’t have the mood to stay any longer. Liya chuckled. ““Of course, Belle. If anything happens to Calvin, then please let me know. I’ll definitely be the first to fight back. I won’t disturb you any longer. I’ll leave first.”””

“As she spoke, she quickly walked out.”

“As soon as Liya returned to her guest room, she closed the door, dragged a platinum necklace out of her pocket, and looked at it under the light. She was so happy.”

“Surely enough, there were still some treasures in Belle’s bag. Fortunately, she flipped through the bag. As she thought about this, a proud smile appeared on her face.”

Belle’s eyebrows knitted together as she watched Liya hurriedly leaving. A cold smile hung from the corner of her mouth.

“Belle, this woman is too arrogant. She actually barged into our room. It’s too disgraceful. Rosa stared at her distant back and uttered with indignation.”

“Don’t bother about her. Let her enjoy herself for a few days first, Belle responded lightly. Her eyes caught sight of her handbag, and she went forward to have a look and coldly snorted after rummaging through it.”

“Belle, did she steal your things? Rosa also noticed the strangeness and asked hurriedly.”

It’s alright. I just lost a necklace. Belle pulled the zipper of her handbag with a faint look.

She’s so hateful. I’ll get it back for you. This is theft. You can use this to drive her out. Rosa couldn’t bear her anger and was about to rush out.

“There’s no need for that, Rosa. Belle stopped her. ““Let her gloat for a few days first. These things are worthless, and I don’t like them anyway.”””

“Rosa saw that Belle was against it. So, she could only shake her head and give up.”

“In the Yates family residence, Zoella was lying on the bed, and her eyes were a bit lifeless. Her face was deathly pale, and her consciousness was in a daze. Her rosy lips had also turned grey and white.”

“In the past few days, she had been having nightmares, dreaming that Yaris was calling out to her in her dreams, and his tone was affectionate.”

“Zoella didn’t have the courage to see him. So, she kept avoiding him and covered her ears.”

“Nonetheless, Yaris’s voice was like a curse engulfing her, constantly ringing in her eardrums, making it impossible for her to breathe.”

“She had nightmares all day, and could neither eat nor sleep. She quickly became thinner. Her initially glamorous face also became haggard.”

“In fact, these days, she also began to wonder why she did all these. Was it meaningful? Was it worth it?”

“If Zoella thought too much, then she would have a headache.”

“If Zoella wanted to leave, then she would at least have to see that they ended up with nothing like her. At the very least, they would have to lose some of their most precious things. Only when she saw their pain would she be satisfied.”

“Since defeat was a foregone conclusion, Zoella was not willing to retreat like this.”

Zoella needed to find a way out.

“She would first get the Ocean Heart. Then, she would go abroad, and never come back. This was her only way out.”

“Hence, before Zoella left, she had to make them lose everything, little by little, and suffer from the pain. Only in this way could she be satisfied.”

“The door opened, and Octavia came in with soup.”

“Miss Yates, drink it while it’s still hot, Octavia whispered.”

Thank you. Zoella soon finished it.

“Octavia, where did you go last night? As Octavia was about to pack up the remaining bowls and leave, Zoella suddenly asked.”

“Octavia was shocked and her hands trembled, and she almost dropped the soup bowl to the ground.”

“I didn’t go anywhere. I went to see my Mom’s friend yesterday. Octavia turned around and smiled, answering casually.”

“Oh. Zoella nodded carelessly. ““Octavia, if there is any difficulty in your family, then you must tell me.”””

“Okay, thank you, Zoella. Octavia’s face turned pale. The night before, Belle’s words came to her mind. Her heart trembled and she immediately smiled.”

“I’m very grateful that you obeyed me. As long as you have any difficulties, I will help you. Zoella assured her seriously.”

“Octavia stood for a while and suddenly turned around and requested earnestly, ““Miss Yates, my mother is suddenly in poor health these days. She’s vomiting and having diarrhea, and my brother is also weak all over. I want them to leave A City for Sovento. Can you help me?”””

“She turned around with hope in her eyes. If Zoella could promise her, then it meant that she was not using her mother and brother to threaten her, and she was really helping their family. As such, Belle’s words might not be reliable. Octavia was just probing.”

“Octavia’s family was poor. At that time, Zoella mentioned that she could provide a good arrangement for her family. So, she took her mother and brother from the countryside, arranged for them to study in A City, and rented them the best house.”

“Therefore, Octavia had been following Zoella wholeheartedly. She never thought that Zoella would have brought her mother and brother over to threaten and control her. Even if she had doubts, she had pushed them away. She didn’t even believe that Zoella would poison her mother and brother.”

“She was grateful and remained by her side with her entire heart. Even if she knew that it was a crime, she was willing to do it for her.”

“Nonetheless, Belle’s words made her tremble with fear. The night before, she had been thinking about her relationship with Zoella all these years.”

She had always felt assured that Zoella would leave everything for her to handle. She would not hide anything from her.

“Therefore, she became her right-hand person. Octavia also knew many ins and outs about Zoella, including the framing of the Harvey Group.”

She had never thought that there would be anything bad about it.

“However, the day before...”

She closed her eyes.

“Octavia, are your mother’s and brother’s illnesses very serious? Zoella was a little surprised and asked with great concern.”

“Yes, Miss Yates, my mother and brother suddenly got sick, and I want to send them to S City for treatment. Miss Yates, please, can you help me? Octavia pleaded with tears in her eyes.”

“If Zoella could promise her right now that she would send her mother and brother to Sovento, cure their illness, and let them go, then she would still choose to work for her genuinely and help her execute all her plans.”

“Octavia, since they are ill, they should hurry up and invite a doctor to treat them. As for the matter of going to Sovento, it’s not time yet. Of course, the study environment in Sovento is excellent and is suitable for your brother. However, it is not so simple. Well, I promise to help you, but there is no hurry this time. At the very least, we have to wait a little longer. I have a lot of important things to do now, and you know that. I will invite expert doctors to treat your mother and brother tomorrow, Zoella replied after thinking for a while, and her expression was very solemn.”

Octavia’s heart went cold.

Zoella was trying to evade her request.

“The day before, when Octavia came home, she really found that there was something wrong with her mother and brother. If what Belle mentioned was true, then the poison in their bodies had reached the critical stage. They couldn’t wait any longer and must be treated immediately. However, Zoella’s words clearly showed that she was dragging her feet. As for the expert doctor whom Zoella offered, could he really cure them if they were poisoned by her?"

"Thinking of this, Octavia felt chills all over."

"She was ready to take her mother and brother to the hospital for examination as soon as she went home. Octavia had already made an appointment with the expert, and she did not dare to have high expectations of the expert Zoella invited."

"In fact, Octavia had long wished to send her mother and brother to Sovento. None of these things that she did with Zoella were good things. Sooner or later, their crimes would be exposed. Although she was an accomplice, many things had long been unclear. If it went on like this, then the consequences would be unimaginable. She was not afraid of anything but she worried about her mother and brother."

"Therefore, Octavia had made this request a long time ago. She was willing to risk her life for Zoella, and all she wanted was the safety of her brother and mother. However, Zoella always used all kinds of excuses."

"Zoella's prevarication turned her heart completely cold. In fact, on several occasions when she came home in the middle of the night, she found that there seemed to be someone following her. She didn't care before, but after Belle's words, she seemed to understand something!"

Octavia knew too many secrets. Zoella was suspicious and would not let go of her.

"Miss Yates, I beg you, I will obey you and do anything. But my brother and mother are sick now, and it is not suitable for them to stay in A City. All my efforts are for my brother, and the educational resources of Sovento are good. I want to transfer them to S City. Can you promise me now? You don't need to worry about these things, and I will do it by myself. Octavia's eyes were full of tears. With a glimmer of hope, she turned to look at Zoella again and begged her."

"Zoella just glanced at her lightly. ""Don't worry. I promise I will help you. Besides, it's not easy to go to Sovento. Let's first cure your mother's and brother's illnesses.""

"As Zoella answered, she looked at Octavia with cold eyes and added, ""Octavia, you repeatedly begged me for this. Are you worried about me?""

"No, it's not like that. Octavia shook her head in despair. ""I know what we do is dangerous. Hence, I don't want to bring trouble to my family.""

"Of course, if possible, no one wants to implicate their family. You know my character. If I can help you, then I will help you without you telling me. The timing is not right, and it's useless for you to beg me. You should know what I can do. Stay by my side first, and then I won't treat you shabbily. Zoella's voice was a bit unfriendly and also impatient."

"Octavia's eyes were covered with disappointment and despair, but she did not dare to show it."

"Up to now, all of this proved her conjecture."

Belle was right. Zoella was worried about her and would not let her mother and brother go. What should she do?

Chapter 634

“Octavia, you don’t have to worry too much. I understand your thoughts. I’ve thought about it these days. Everything is not important. My current goal is the Ocean Heart. As long as I get this treasure, I will immediately send your mother and brother to Sovento, and then I will give you a large sum of money to let your family live happily. How about that? Zoella also noticed the despair in Octavia’s eyes, thought about it, and comforted her in this way.”

“The Ocean Heart? Octavia started to feel depressed. The Ocean Heart was just a rumored treasure. Since the auction many years ago, no one had seen it again. Moreover, no one could tell whether such treasure existed in the Harvey Group. Wasn’t this request impossible? Zoella was really terrible! She was too greedy!”

“If Zoella was willing to let go of her mother and brother, then Octavia would oblige her wholeheartedly. However, how could she delay curing their illnesses? She couldn’t count on such a vicious and unusual woman to decide the life and death of her loved ones!”

“Thank you, Miss Yates, Octavia responded in a low voice and slowly walked out.”

Martin stopped in his tracks.

“Carmella, what can I do for you? Martin frowned as he spoke in a cold tone.”

“Martin, I’d like to ask you about Calvin. Is he alright? Carmella asked with concern. ““Calvin is a business tycoon. His accomplishments in business are worthy of the admiration of many people. I really don’t want anything to happen to someone like him.”””

“Really? That’s great. Carmella chuckled. ““Martin, I also believe that the Harvey Group is an invincible force. If the Harvey Group falls, then there will be a financial crisis in A City. As such, the authorities won’t just sit back and do nothing.”””

“Carmella thought of Sadiva, the current mayor, who was on good terms with Calvin. The Harvey family’s backing was so large that there were many people who wanted to take him down and out. However, it was probably all wishful thinking. Carmella believed in this point without any doubts.”

“Martin, Jaqueline Cole from Capital City, will be here today to visit Grandma. Carmella’s face lit up with a bright smile as she informed Martin in a casual tone.”

Jaqueline Cole? Martin’s expression turned cold. “How did you know?”

“Carmella looked at the suspicious expression on Martin’s face and chuckled. ““Jaqueline is my good friend. Back in the USA, we were both in the same university. We were great friends back then. That’s how I found out she’s coming to Harvey Manor. She even updated it on her social media.”””

“Oh, Martin replied simply and stopped talking.”

“Jaqueline is smart, intelligent, beautiful, noble, and talented. She is a well-known beauty in Capital City, and her name is known to everyone in high society there. She is Brooklyn’s most beloved great-granddaughter, and he spoiled her rotten. No matter what parties, banquets, meetings or gatherings they attend, Brooklyn would always bring Jaqueline with him. He loves her very much. When it came to Jaqueline, Carmella’s interest was piqued, and her admiration was written all over her face. All at once, she spoke as much as she could.”

Martin frowned.

Carmella was so talkative!

“It was no surprise that Brooklyn would send his favorite great-granddaughter, Jaqueline, to visit Sophia on his behalf. After all, the two families had been close to each other for generations. There was nothing to be surprised about if they were to come and visit at this time.”

“However, in the eyes of Carmella, Jaqueline was like a fairy who had descended upon the mortal world. This made Martin feel very disgusted with her superficial behavior, but he didn’t say anything. He merely replied with a hum and headed straight to Ink Garden’s office, leaving Carmella behind.”

“In the office, Belle and Rosa were busy.”

“Belle, Jaqueline is here to visit Grandma today. Madam especially told us that Jaqueline is a distinguished guest and the apple of Brooklyn’s eye. She asked us to take good care of her and not neglect her. Rosa notified Belle as she held the accounts books in one hand and the calculator in the other.”

“Belle was surprised, and she looked up with a smile. “”Rosa, do you know her?”””

“Of course I know her. She’s the famous beauty of Capital City’s upper-class society. She’s Brooklyn’s favorite great-granddaughter. Growing up, she attended various high society events and was basically raised to be well-liked and soft-spoken as well. Although she comes from a noble family and is loved by everyone, she’s not arrogant. She’s modest, polite, humble, and respectful. Not only that, she is also well-educated and talented. Hence, Brooklyn dotes on her. There are many children in the Cole family, but very few of them have Brooklyn’s favor. You can imagine how smart Jaqueline is. Rosa stared at the accounts book and sighed, saying, “”Her grace is really not something an ordinary person can learn. I’m far inferior.”””

“Belle, I heard that Brooklyn had the intention to arrange for Jaqueline to be married to Calvin. However, Grandma insisted on you to be her granddaughter-in-law. So, Brooklyn didn’t force it. He eventually laughed it off. Rosa came closer and suddenly added in a low and mysterious voice. Rosa then smiled and assured Belle. “”But don’t worry, Belle. No matter how good Jaqueline is, Calvin won’t like her. She’s 27 now, but she hasn’t found anyone to marry yet. I think she’s too pure and naive to find the ideal partner.”””

“Belle, my father went to the company today to settle some matters. Since you’re pregnant, you should take good care of yourself and rest. As soon as Martin came in, Rosa’s face became taut. She lowered her head and went to sort out the accounts books.”

Martin had no choice but to greet Belle.

“Belle thought for a while and replied, ““Martin, do we have an update on Calvin’s situation? We should send someone over to get ready and find a way to see him.”””

“Martin smiled confidently. ““Belle, don’t worry. Brooklyn intentionally sent Jaqueline to visit Grandma at this time because he wanted to deliver a letter. Please rest assured. He knows all of this.”””

Is that so? A hint of joy welled up in Belle’s heart as she nodded slightly.

“It seemed that Brooklyn would still help them in secret. Thinking of this, Belle’s heart was much more relaxed.”

“While they were talking, the office phone rang.”

“Maud called and informed that Jaqueline was reaching soon, and Hudson asked them to welcome her outside the Ink Garden.”

“Belle heard from Martin that Jaqueline had come on behalf of Brooklyn, and her visit would be beneficial to the Harvey family. She was thinking about what would happen if Calvin was taken away. So, she hurriedly took Rosa and Martin outside.”

“Hudson and Paige were also sitting in the reception room, waiting for Jaqueline’s arrival.”

Belle and a group of people had just arrived at the door when Carmella walked over gracefully with a smile on her face. She stood next to Martin.

Belle’s beautiful brows furrowed slightly. What was Carmella doing here? It didn’t seem like it had anything to do with her to welcome guests!

“Soon, the electric vehicle came from afar and stopped in front of them.”

“A noble and beautiful woman walked down, and Belle looked at her carefully. She was about 25 years old, with a faint smile on her face. She had an elegant temperament, and her every movement was sophisticated and graceful, which surprised Belle. She was not splendidly dressed, and she was not wearing expensive jewelry.”

“She wore a simple French-styled boat neck dress, which was simple and casual. She was carrying a handbag, but it did not affect her whole temperament. She got out of the vehicle and stood quietly. She was gentle and delicate, and she was very eye-catching.”

“She was indeed beautiful and unique. Even though she just got off the electric vehicle, people were already fascinated by her beauty.”

“Miss Cole, it’s a pleasure to meet you. Welcome to Harvey Manor. Belle had a good impression of her. Jaqueline seemed to have something that she was familiar with, or perhaps, it could be said that there was a kind of closeness to her. She stepped forward and smiled as she welcomed her.”

“Hello, Mrs. Harvey. Jaqueline held out her hand to Belle and gently responded. Her voice was crisp and pleasant to listen to.”

“This voice would be very comfortable, even for a man and even a woman. Even Rosa smiled.”

“This is Miss Rosa, right? After greeting Belle, Jaqueline took the initiative to say hello to Rosa. She was very meticulous and did not give anyone the cold shoulder. She acted naturally and gracefully.”

“Nice to meet you, Miss Cole. I didn’t expect to meet you here, Rosa replied with a smile.”

“She had met Jaqueline a few times, but they were not close friends.”

“After shaking hands with her in a very courteous manner, Jaqueline was about to greet Martin.”

“Jaqueline, don’t you recognize me? Carmella was standing by the side. She had been waiting for Jaqueline to greet her, but who would’ve thought that Jaqueline hadn’t even looked at her at all? It was Martin’s turn, but she had already interrupted.”

“That’s right. I’ve come specially to welcome you, but you didn’t even spare me a glance. You’re so arrogant. Carmella was deliberately teasing her.”

Jaqueline laughed. “This is the Harvey family. I didn’t expect you to be here as well. You didn’t tell me in advance either.”

I saw on your social media that you’re going to visit Harvey Manor. That’s why I’ve come specifically to welcome you. This means that you usually don’t pay me any attention. Carmella reached out to hold Jaqueline’s hand and prepared to lead her forward.

“Jaqueline giggled. ““I’m not in a hurry, Carmella.”””

“Jaqueline let go of her hand and turned to walk towards Belle. ““Mrs. Harvey, thank you for welcoming me. Let’s go and visit Grandma first.”””

Chapter 635

“Miss Cole, thank you for gracing Harvey Manor with your presence. It is my honor to welcome you here. Well, let’s go and visit Grandma first. This way, please. Belle smiled and made a gesture.”

“Soon, Belle accompanied Jaqueline towards the Ink Garden as they talked and laughed along the way.”

“After taking Jaqueline to visit Sophia, Belle took her to the reception room.”

“It’s nice to meet you, Aunt Paige! Jaqueline called out warmly as soon as she stepped into the reception room.”

“Jaqueline, you’re here. Paige immediately stood up and smiled when she saw Jaqueline. Then, she took her hand and seated her next to her. Paige exclaimed with admiration, ““Our Jaqueline is really getting more and more beautiful. I wonder which lucky man will take your hand in marriage.”””

“Paige did not hesitate to praise Jaqueline. On the one hand, she sincerely liked her. On the other hand, Jaqueline was representing Brooklyn. At this time, Paige hid all her worries about Calvin in her heart, and the anxiety in her heart could not be replaced.”

“Upon hearing this, Jaqueline lowered her head and smiled shyly.”

“Well, it’s nice to meet you, Jaqueline. Hudson was also smiling, and it was obvious that he had a favorable impression of her.”

“Uncle Hudson, Aunt Paige, you both really think too highly of me. Jaqueline chuckled decently and sat next to Paige in a docile way.”

Belle stood on one side and watched as they chatted happily. She didn’t know why she felt so sad in her heart.

Hudson and Paige both valued Jaqueline. She thought that it should be so for the sake of Brooklyn.

She was about to leave.

“Belle, come and sit down. After greeting Jaqueline, Hudson turned to Belle and invited her to join them with an amiable expression.”

Belle could not walk away. She had no choice but to walk over and sit down on a reception chair beside Hudson.

“Belle, have you taken the soup and supplement today? Paige glanced at Belle’s stomach and asked with concern.”

“Thank you, Mom. I’ve eaten them. Belle felt warm in her heart and replied quickly.”

“So, it turns out that Belle is pregnant. Hearing Paige’s question, the quick-witted Jaqueline immediately understood. She quickly apologized to Belle. ““Belle, I’m really sorry. You’re pregnant, yet you still came to receive me. I apologize for that. As a pregnant woman, you should have more rest.”””

It’s fine. This is what I should do. Belle chuckled gently.

“Well, Jaqueline, Belle is very sensible and polite. Even though she’s pregnant, she’s still doing the housework. Alas, there’s no other way. It’s really tough on her. Paige sighed with guilt in her heart.”

Belle is really a virtuous woman. She has been praised by many people outside. Jaqueline quickly giggled and praised Belle.

“That’s right. It’s our Harvey family that has treated her shabbily. Hudson sighed as well, lamenting with incomparable emotion.”

“Jaqueline raised her head and looked at Belle carefully. Her heart throbbed. A woman who could be praised by her father-in-law and mother-in-law must be extraordinary, and envy arose in her heart.”

“Dad, Mom, don’t say that. As a daughter-in-law of the Harvey Family, this is what I should do. Belle was a little embarrassed, and her face turned red.”

“Hudson didn’t say anything else. He turned his head to Jaqueline and asked with a friendly expression, ““Jaqueline, how is Brooklyn?”””

“Uncle Hudson, my grandfather is in good health. He’s quite robust, Jaqueline replied with soft laughter. ““He’s very concerned about Sophia and the Harvey family. That’s why he’s sending me here.”””

“Thank you for his concern. We really appreciate it, Hudson replied quickly.”

“Grandpa mentioned that you don’t have to worry about anything. Take good care of Grandma, and don’t worry about Calvin. He knows that well in his heart. Jaqueline smiled sweetly and passed on Brooklyn’s words.”

“Paige heaved a sigh of relief when she heard this. He grabbed Jaqueline’s hand and said, ““Thank you for his concern. I feel much more at ease after hearing what he said.”””

“Thank you, Brooklyn. Upon hearing this, Belle roughly understood the reason Hudson asked her to sit down. He was implying that she should be assured. Immediately, Belle also opened her mouth to thank Jaqueline.”

“Later, they talked about their daily life and so on. Jaqueline was talkative and knew how to grasp the elders’ hearts. Hudson and Paige were able to talk to her well, and one could hear their laughter from time to time.”

Jaqueline only stayed here for a night and left the next day.

Chapter 636

“Liya woke up in the morning and was listless. She felt nauseous and sick when brushing her teeth. She frowned. She wanted to go out and have some fun, but she was tired. After brushing her teeth, she climbed back to bed and went back to sleep.”

“Liya only got up at noon. The moment she reached the corridor, she heard a voice. Liya stopped in her tracks and hid behind the walls of the corridor. Then, she stretched her neck and peeped outside, only to see Hudson and Paige accompanying a beautiful woman as they walked towards the dining hall of the Ink Garden.”

Only then did she find out that Ink Garden had a guest again.

Harvey Manor was indeed wealthy. Every guest here was nobler and more beautiful than the last. Liya hid in the corner of the wall and secretly admired them.

“It was almost lunchtime. Liya didn’t plan to dine at Harvey Manor anymore. Hence, she returned to the guest room to get a bag and walked out.”

Liya went to a high-end restaurant and ordered her favorite food. She was ready to enjoy a good meal.

The fragrant dishes were served. Liya picked up her fork and spoon and was ready to have a good meal.

“As soon as she put the aromatic and spicy beef into her mouth, she felt revolted. Liya covered her mouth with her hand and quickly ran to the bathroom.”

“Lying on the stone platform in the bathroom, she started to vomit all over the place.”

“She was so sick that she felt weak and dizzy. Then, she walked out of the bathroom.”

“Yet, when she went to the table again, she couldn’t eat the delicious food she usually enjoyed most.”

What was going on? She was really confused.

Could it be a cold?

Liya carried her bag and walked out.

“Mr. Harvey, please stay here for a few days! In a five-star suite in Capital City, a man dressed in a black work suit informed Calvin respectfully and politely.”

Calvin swept his bright eyes across the room and pursed his lips. “Thank you.”

“Mr. Harvey, you should stay here and rest for a few days. Do wait for our update. The man in black bowed to him and was about to leave.”

Calvin turned his head and raised his high-arched eyebrows. “May I ask who your boss is? Why does he want to help me?”

“After hearing this, the man in black chuckled slightly and answered, ““Mr. Harvey, my boss...””

“He is very concerned about you. You don’t need to ask about it, and you’ll know when it’s time.”

Calvin’s handsome face darkened and his bright eyes moved around slightly. The unfathomable expression of the black-clothed man caused his heart to palpitate a little.

“Yesterday, Calvin was taken to an office in Capital City by Sergio. This afternoon, someone sent him here. What did that mean?”

“The man in black was definitely not Sergio’s man. Calvin knew this well. So, who could it be?”

Calvin smiled. He would cross the bridge when he got there.

He put down his bag and walked into the bathroom.

“Soaked in the warm and comfortable bathtub, Calvin’s whole body relaxed, and the tiredness and sleepiness disappeared. After taking a bath, he put on a clean bathrobe, and his mind was much clearer.”

“He took out the shaver to fix his unkempt beard. He slightly tidied up his black and shiny hair that was still dripping with water. His pale skin, the white bathrobe, with his slender and tall figure made him look more like a noble in a Renaissance painting. Calvin’s masculine charm was irresistible, and now he was no longer an immature youth. The mature man’s aura exuded from him, and his charisma soared to the extreme.”

“Calvin slowly walked to the edge of the couch, sat down, leaned back, and crossed his legs. He pulled out his special cell phone and was ready to call his wife.”

“The day before yesterday, he promised her that he would come back to see her the day before, but he broke his promise. This woman must be very anxious.”

Calvin dialed a few phone numbers lightly.

“However, the doorbell rang.”

He hung up the phone and opened the door.

“Sir, this is your exquisite romantic dinner. Please enjoy it. Several waiters were standing in front of the door with all kinds of Western food in their hands.”

Romantic dinner? What the h*ll!

Calvin looked suspiciously at the exquisite Western food in the waiter’s hands and looked at the waiter in front of him with doubt.

“These waiters had probably never seen such a noble and handsome man before. One by one, they couldn’t help but to fix their gazes on Calvin’s face.”

“Calvin coughed lightly. ““Waiter, who is it that sent this over?”””

“Oh. The lead waiter blushed and hurriedly withdrew his eyes. Then, he responded, ““Sir, this is a complimentary meal from the hotel.”””

“So, that was how it was.”

“Then, send it in. When Calvin heard that it was a complimentary meal from the hotel, he did not ask any further. Instead, he opened the door.”

The waiters served the Western food on the bar counter in the room one by one.

“Please enjoy your meal, The waiter spoke politely and went out.”

Calvin’s high-arched brows relaxed as he approached the meal.

It was typical French cuisine with an authentic bottle of French red wine at the side. It looked very romantic and appealing. He smiled slightly.

Calvin took out the phone and dialed the number again.

“As soon as the phone rang, Belle picked it up.”

“Calvin, where are you? Belle’s voice was a little hoarse, and there was a hint of anxiety in it.”

“Calvin’s heart sank as he answered tenderly, ““Belle, I’m still in Capital City.”””

“You... Are you alright? Did they do anything to you? Belle heard that Calvin’s voice was as relaxed as usual. Her anxious heart became calm, and she asked anxiously.”

“Silly girl, I’m fine. What could happen to me? Calvin smiled gently. His voice sounded relaxed and casual.”

“Calvin, the news is saying that you were taken away by Sergio. Is this true? Don’t lie to me. Belle’s tone was grave.”

“The corners of Calvin’s mouth twitched slightly. “”Honey, look. Am I not having a conversation with you? Don’t listen to the words of the news media, and trust me.”””

“Belle pouted and blurted out, “”I don’t believe you. You’re lying to me. You’re lying to me. They caught you. right?”””

“Then, let’s have a video call, and I’ll let you see my surroundings. Calvin felt helpless and could only say so.”

“Baby, do you see me? he asked with a smile and a doting expression on his face.”

I want to see your whole body and the environment inside the house. Belle was not satisfied with only seeing his face. She wanted to see if he was in good condition and if he was hurt.

“When Calvin heard this, he smiled teasingly. “”Honey, which part of me do you want to see exactly? Do you miss me very much?”””

“Belle’s face flushed when she heard this. Of course, she knew the meaning behind his words, but she just wanted to see him safe and sound, so that she could rest assured.”

“Calvin had no choice but to turn the camera to the room and let Belle take a closer look at the bathrobe he was wearing. Belle only believed him when she saw the luxurious guest room, and she finally felt relieved.”

“Honey, let me take a look at your stomach and our baby. Calvin chuckled as he looked at the video.”

Belle’s face turned red.

She stood up and aimed the camera of her phone at her slightly raised lower abdomen.

“At that moment, Calvin was ecstatic. He noticed that the small belly on her delicate body was slightly bulging, as if there was a flame that warmed his heart.”

“Belle was excited and grateful, as if all his hard work now was worth it.”

“Jerry was already a one-year-old child by the time Calvin found Belle. Back then, her pregnant belly was not obvious when she left him. Calvin felt as if he had missed out on the whole process a father should feel when they were expecting. This made him very unhappy, and also very regretful. This time, he wanted to protect her until she once again became a happy mother.”

“My dear wife, I miss you very much. After these few days, our family will be able to go out for a stroll. Wait for me to return. Finally, Calvin suppressed the excitement in his heart. After asking about Jerry’s recent situation, he spoke intimately.”

“Okay, I’m waiting for the day to come. Belle thought of the matter where Liya changed the will. Belle became confident. As long as this woman could be taken away, she and Calvin would have a bright future. It was just a matter of time. So, she agreed quickly.”

“Neither of them wanted to hang up first. They chatted for a while until their faces turned red. Belle uttered with incomparable affection, ““Calvin, I’m going to sleep. I’m tired.”””

“Okay, honey. Sleep well and have a good dream. Please believe that everything will be fine as long as I am here, Calvin replied affectionately, with a charming smile on his face.”

“Speaking of a dream, Belle thought of the nightmare she had that day and felt a chill in her heart. Just as she was about to speak, Calvin’s doorbell rang.”

“Honey, hurry up and go to bed. I haven’t had my meal yet. Calvin looked at the doorbell and could not help but to frown. Who had come again?”

“When he stood up and saw the exquisite Western food on the bar counter, he realized that although he hadn’t had dinner yet at this late hour, he didn’t feel hungry at all. Calvin couldn’t help but to tease her. ““Belle, it seems that chatting with the person you love is very ‘filling’. Moreover, it is also very nutritious.”””

“Don’t be so talkative. Hurry up and eat. Belle heard from the other side that Calvin had not had dinner yet, and she felt her heart ache a little. She quickly urged him and hung up the phone.”

“Calvin sensed her concern, and a gentle smile appeared at the corner of his mouth. He felt a warm and sweet feeling in his heart. ”

“He put away the phone, walked to the door, and opened it.”

“Calvin. A sweet female voice came the moment he opened the door, and it drifted into Calvin’s ears. He was taken aback.”

“A graceful and beautiful woman was standing in front of him, with a bright and charming smile on her face.”

“Jaqueline, he exclaimed. ““Why are you here?”””

“Jaqueline cocked her head and smiled. ““Calvin, are you not going to welcome me?”””

“Calvin was astonished. ““Of course, I’m not. Quickly come in.”””

“Jaqueline pursed her lips and smiled. Then, she waltzed into the room. Her turquoise dress exuded a light fragrance, which was a very pleasing smell.”

“Calvin, you haven’t eaten yet. She walked to the side of the counter, looked around, and commented with a smile, ““It seems that you’re waiting for me to have dinner together, isn’t it?”””

Calvin closed the door and walked over. He leaned against the wall and frowned.

Is this all arranged by Brooklyn? He slightly relaxed his eyebrows and asked in a thoughtful tone.

“Jaqueline turned around and gave him a bright smile, but did not answer.”

“Calvin, would you mind if I have dinner with you? Jaqueline asked graciously as she placed her bag on the bedside table and turned her head away.”

Answer my question first. Calvin straightened his back and demanded in a serious tone.

“Since you are so smart that you have already guessed it, why do you need to ask? Jaqueline smiled approvingly and replied lightly.”

The corners of Calvin’s mouth twitched slightly. He looked at the Western food on the counter. “Did you order them to send these over?”

He continued to ask.

“Jaqueline blushed slightly. She turned around and giggled. She had an exquisite beauty. She said dignifiedly and elegantly, ““Calvin, I really can’t hide anything from you.”””

Chapter 637

“At Wendell Plaza, Liya was sitting in a daze.”

She held a test sheet in her hand with a dull look in her eyes.

Liya would’ve never guessed that she was pregnant!

“That day, Liya didn’t have much appetite, and she kept vomiting. She thought that she had a cold. So, she went to the hospital to get a prescription. However, after the doctor listened to her words, he asked about her symptoms and gave her a test sheet. The result stunned her. She was pregnant!”

“She thought about it for a long time. In the end, she finally concluded that the vile child in her womb was Oscar’s!”

What should she do?

“Her morning sickness was extremely severe right now. If Liya continued to stay in Harvey Manor, then she would soon be exposed.”

“The situation was urgent. She couldn’t care less about her discomfort and didn’t dare to return to Harvey Manor. Liya sat on the chair outside of the plaza in a daze, trying to come up with a countermeasure.”

“If Liya could marry Calvin according to the will, then there was no doubt that she would have a lot of assets. Nonetheless, it seemed impossible now.”

“She was pregnant with Oscar’s child. So, how could Calvin marry her? Moreover, once the truth came out, the will would be useless. She was likely to get nothing and would immediately be driven out of Harvey Manor.”

“What if Liya blamed it on Calvin? The moment this thought popped up, it was immediately rejected by her. Calvin had never touched her before. So, how could she be pregnant with his child? Moreover, it was extremely difficult for her to meet Calvin right now. It was impossible.”

What should she do now?

She was at her wit's end.

"After a long time, Liya thought of Oscar."

"This man had promised her that he would make Calvin lose his memory. Yet, there was still no movement. Maybe he had forgotten about it!"

She took out her cell phone and dialed his phone number.

"Mr. Jones, where are you? I miss you so much. After the phone was connected, Liya's eyes turned red and she complained in a delicate voice. If it was in the past, then those tears were fake. However, her tears today were somewhat genuine. After all, she was pregnant with a small life, which made her very scared!"

"Sweetheart, don't worry, I'm coming to A City soon, Oscar answered lustfully as soon as he heard Liya's voice."

"Well, Mr. Jones, I'll be waiting for you at the Ramada Hotel. Liya sobbed and informed her in a soft voice."

"Oscar's whole body's blood was boiling, and he immediately agreed."

"In the past few days, Oscar had been locked up by Matteo and was punished, and was asked to think about his mistakes. He had not touched a woman for several days. After receiving a phone call from Liya, Oscar was burning with desire, and he immediately ran away."

"Mr. Matteo, then Young Master has run away again. When Matteo's special assistant noticed that Oscar was nowhere to be seen, he immediately walked over and reported back to Matteo."

"B*stard. Matteo threw the newspaper in his hand on the table, and a sliver of light flashed in his small eyes behind his glasses."

"Recently, the financial director reported to him that tens of millions of dollars was lost. Furthermore, this inconsistency happened in Oscar's company, which made him completely annoyed!"

"Send someone to follow him and get a thorough understanding of the situation, Matteo ordered, feeling a headache coming on."

"This unfilial son was good-for-nothing. Matteo had thought of many ways to find a capable wife for him. Yet, it seemed that this method also wouldn't work. Zoella couldn't control him at all. Matteo tried to get them together, but the consequences were getting worse and worse."

"The automotive company, N&S Group, was developing very well abroad, and their luxury car sales had been suppressed. Although they had taken advantage of the crisis of the Harvey Group and earned a hundred million dollars, now they had squandered tens of millions of dollars in such a short time because of this unfilial son. For someone meticulous in his planning, it was basically killing Matteo. "

"Especially after the assistant left, Matteo sat down on the couch in frustration, and his head was aching faintly."

“Baby, I miss you so much. As soon as Oscar pushed open the door, he hurriedly ran over and grabbed onto Liya, about to take off her clothes.”

“Mr. Jones, you finally came. Don’t rush. Liya struggled. “”I have something to tell you.”””

“Tell me, baby, I’m listening. Oscar nibbled her chest with his lips and uttered vaguely.”

“Mr. Jones, you can’t do this. I’m pregnant! Liya was so worried that she couldn’t help but cry out loudly while struggling.”

“What? Oscar finally stopped and raised his face that was filled with lust, as if he did not hear it clearly.”

“Mr. Jones, I’m pregnant! Liya murmured in a weak voice again. Then, out of fear that he wouldn’t believe her, she raised the test sheet in her hands.”

“Oscar then let go of her and doubtfully picked up the test sheet in her hand. After looking at it for a while, his face darkened and he did not say anything for a long time.”

Liya looked at him in fear.

“She wanted to see his reaction, if Oscar would say that she should take good care of herself and give birth to the child.”

“She was shaking! Perhaps Liya would give up her current abnormal life and follow him entirely. However, she heard Oscar’s cold voice, “”Get rid of the child. Go to the hospital now to get rid of it.”””

Get rid of it?

“Liya’s mind was in extreme panic. The tiny life in her belly, she had to get rid of it? Wasn’t this a bit too cruel? Moreover, she was scared!”

“Mr. Jones, I don’t want to get rid of it. Is that fine? Liya asked with her helpless eyes wide open.”

“However, Oscar’s expression turned ugly. Without even thinking, he decisively roared, “”No. We must get rid of it.”””

“Mr. Jones, I beg you. Let me give birth to him, and then I’ll live with you, okay? In despair, Liya walked over and hugged him tightly, imploring.”

Live with me? Oscar sneered. “What makes you think you could? You are just a wh*re. Can our Jones family tolerate your existence? Stop dreaming. Hurry up and get rid of it. It is good for both of us. I will give you a sum of money as compensation.”

“Oscar’s words were almost callous and ruthless, and they deeply pierced Liya’s heart.”

“She knew that it was impossible to count on Oscar, but it would be her first time to go through the procedure. She was dazed, lost, more afraid, and more importantly, afraid of the pain.”

“Liya trembled all over and felt a chill. She kept shaking her head and insisted, “”No, I don’t want to get rid of him. I want to give birth to him. He is my child.”””

“D*mn it. Are you testing my patience? Seeing that Liya insisted on keeping the child, Oscar got angry, and his eyes were full of ferocity. If Matteo discovered such a thing, then Oscar would lose his life. It was impossible for Matteo to let him marry Liya. There might be a chance if it was Zoella who was pregnant. After all, Matteo much preferred her. Liya couldn't even get close to the edge. So, she couldn't even get married to him as a second wife."

"Mr. Jones, I am not fooling around with you, and I don't want to get rid of the child either. Liya raised her head and added stubbornly, ""It's fine if you don't want the child. I will give birth to him myself.""

"As Liya said this, she stood up, and was about to walk outside."

"Oscar's eyes flashed with anger. He grabbed her hair and warned fiercely, ""B*tch, if you don't get rid of it, then best believe that I'll use force.""

"Mr. Jones, go ahead and torment me as you wish. I will upload our video to the Internet. At worst, my life will be a living hell. Nonetheless, I have nothing anyway. On the contrary, you are still the son of a rich and powerful family. If I tell the media about our incident, then you and the Jones Group will be caught in a scandal. Wouldn't the business be affected then? Will Matteo forgive you? You once promised me to make Calvin lose his memory, but he is still fine now. You are shallow. I have already seen through you. Her head was aching. Liya endured the pain, bit her lips tightly, and threatened desperately."

"Oh, you've even learnt how to threaten me and tug on my conscience? Oscar's face was gloomy, and his voice did not contain the slightest bit of warmth."

"Liya shook off Oscar's hand and stood there with difficulty. ""All in all, this matter won't be finished. I am not that easy to bully.""

She gritted her teeth and went out.

"Oscar's eyes revealed a fierce glint. He watched Liya walk out, but he didn't do anything else to stop her. This woman was already extremely vicious. He really was worried that she would go to the extreme and do things that would be a detriment to him."

B*tch. He cursed hatefully and spat at her in contempt.

"Oscar couldn't be too hasty in this matter. Fortunately, he still had time to think about how to make her reluctantly get rid of the baby."

Liya walked out of the hotel and directly went to Harvey Manor.

"When she got in the electric car, Liya was still immersed in Oscar's vicious words. She was in a trance and looked sluggish."

She didn't know what to do with the baby in his belly.

"When Liya returned to the Ink Garden, it was already very late at night. The servants had fallen asleep, and the rest of the people who did not keep watch at night had fallen asleep as well."

"As Liya hadn't eaten anything the whole day, she was famished. Moreover, she didn't have the appetite, but she wanted to eat something. After thinking for a while, she went to the kitchen."

“The moment she entered the kitchen, she could smell the pickled beans from a distance. Liya was so hungry that she started to drool.”

Liya felt hungry again and couldn't wait to eat the pickled beans.

“Just as she was wolfing down the food, she heard sounds of footsteps coming.”

“Who, who is in the kitchen? Someone shouted outside, opened the kitchen door, and turned on the lights.”

Liya's mind was hazy. She only grabbed the pickled beans and ate them. She didn't care who it was who came in.

“Miss Liya, is it you? It turned out that the person who came in was Letty. After the lights were switched on, she recognized Liya at a glance and cried out in surprise.”

“Liya also heard Letty's voice. She stuffed a handful of pickled beans into her mouth and repeatedly exclaimed, “Yummy! It's really delicious. Letty, is there anything else?””

“Delicious? Letty looked at her in surprise and sized her up and down curiously. Then, she continued. “Yes, I'll get it for you. It's so late at night. Haven't you had your dinner?””

Letty asked while walking. She was baffled at Liya's actions.

” “Okay, thank you, Letty. Do you mind giving me more?” Liya greedily ate as she looked at Letty and requested for more.”

“Well, but these dishes haven't been cooked yet. Why don't I make some food for you? Letty's eyes moved a little, and she suggested ingratiatingly.”

“No, that won't be necessary. I'll just eat this. Liya shook her head. Seeing that Letty had pulled out a large portion of pickled beans from the jar, she immediately grabbed it. Ignoring the dirt on her hands, she reached out for the bag next to her and put it away.”

“The sour and rotten smell came out of the jar. Normally, Liya would throw up as long as she smelled it. However, she didn't find it disgusting at all. On the contrary, she thought it smelled delicious, and it was so tasty. She was very interested in it.”

“Letty noticed that Liya's face was pale, her mind was muddled, and her gaze was scattered. Furthermore, the arrogance and impertinence she used to have were no longer there. Letty frowned at the sight.”

Chapter 638

“Meanwhile, in the five-star hotel.”

“With an evasive smile, Calvin walked to the couch and sat down.”

“Jaqueline, did Grandpa Brooklyn call you here, or did you come by yourself? After he sat down, Calvin asked her straightforwardly.”

“Jaqueline’s face was a little bitter. She was a famous young lady in Capital City, and many people wanted to have dinner with her. Yet, Calvin didn’t seem to appreciate it. Of course, she didn’t care.”

“That year, at the ball held by Brooklyn, all the celebrities in Capital City gathered. Brooklyn took her to meet a lot of political leaders. Jaqueline was adored, and everyone’s attention was on her. Everyone was complimenting her.”

Brooklyn laughed heartily as Jaqueline followed behind him. Her smile was bright and charming.

“Jaqueline stood on the stage and looked down. She immediately noticed Calvin standing leisurely with a smile on his face among all the young handsome men. Like the other men who would turn to look at her with admiration when they heard everyone praising her, Calvin also glanced at her. Nonetheless, there was only a hint of praise, but not a look of worship like other men’s. At that time, she remembered his eyes.”

That was all!

What if I said that I came here on my own? Jaqueline asked with soft laughter as she lifted her dress with her hands and sat down across from Calvin.

“Calvin smiled. ““Thank you for coming to see me, but it’s not a good time to visit me at this time. How about this? You should go back first, and when I’m done with my matters, I’ll treat you to Western food. What do you think?”””

“Jaqueline smiled and answered, ““Calvin, I secretly learnt that you were staying here from my grandfather. Since you didn’t visit me even when you came to Capital City, I came to look for you. Well, since you’re here in Capital City, I should treat you to a meal. Belle is not here. Hence, that’s why you dare not to eat with a woman, right?”””

“After that, she pursed her lips and stood up with a smile. Jaqueline was wearing a long skirt, and looked noble and graceful. She came from a noble family and was influenced by Brooklyn since she was a child. Brooklyn was very fond of her and nurtured her a lot. Therefore, the temperament she exuded was by no means something an ordinary woman could have.”

Calvin smiled helplessly!

You think too much. I’m just worried about your safety. Do you know why your grandfather arranged for me to be here? Calvin smiled and raised his eyebrows as he asked.

“Even though I don’t know, I know Grandpa will definitely ensure the safety of this place. As such, you can be rest assured and have dinner with me. Jaqueline was indeed clever. She tilted her head and looked at Calvin. ““Furthermore, I just returned from Harvey Manor today, and I met Belle.”””

“When Calvin heard this, he was somewhat astonished. The expression on his face turned a little nervous as he questioned, ““You went to Harvey Manor? Is Belle alright?”””

Jaqueline saw his concern for Belle from his face and couldn’t help but to smile. “It seems that you and Belle are very affectionate. I’m very envious of the both of you.”

“Calvin laughed. ““Don’t worry. In the future, you’ll have a better Mr. Right to keep you company. You’ll be happier than us.”””

“Jaqueline’s heart was slightly sour. She grew up in the spotlight, but she still couldn’t find a partner. Was she too excellent, or was fate making a fool of her?”

“Jaqueline looked up, and she giggled. ““Well, aren’t you still going to have dinner with me?”””

“Calvin was helpless and could only smile. ““If Miss Cole doesn’t mind, then I’ll respectfully accept your offer.”””

“With that, he stood up, and walked towards the bar with his tall frame.”

“Jaqueline smiled triumphantly and exclaimed, ““Don’t worry, Belle is doing well. Her belly is more obvious too.”””

“Hearing this, Calvin felt warm in his heart. Belle’s slightly bulging belly flashed in his mind, and the corners of his mouth were full of tender smiles. Calvin felt hopeful, and his mood was great.”

“Let’s have some red wine to celebrate. For Belle and the child, shall we? Jaqueline opened a bottle of red wine and waved it in front of Calvin.”

Calvin was in a good mood and agreed readily.

“The Western food was very authentic. Although Jaqueline was a lady, it could be seen that she liked to eat the food, and they suited her tastes.”

“Coincidentally, Calvin was feeling hungry as well. So, he ate a little with her.”

“The two chatted from time to time. It was all mindless gossip. Calvin had some personal matters. Hence, he refused to drink after drinking some red wine.”

Jaqueline did not try to force her way through. She bade her goodbye to Calvin and returned home later on.

The waiter came over to clean the rest of the food and wine.

Calvin took a few steps on the balcony and looked out at the bustling lights in Capital City. He was deep in thought.

He had finally completely understood what Brooklyn was thinking.

Yadriel was too cunning. Even Brooklyn had pretended to be unperturbed and ignorant for such a long time. He had to put away his sharpness and wait for the right opportunity.

“Aron, the military will start trading within these two days. All of you need to keep a close eye on them, so that you can get some solid evidence. Calvin took out his phone and ordered in a deep voice.”

“Okay, Mr. Harvey. Aron reported in a low voice, ““Mr. Harvey, I find that there are suddenly some people coming out of this area. They don’t seem to be from the anti-government military or terrorists. I don’t know where they come from.”””

“Calvin’s sharp brows furrowed. ““Aron, no matter what, we only get one opportunity, and we must get the evidence. If we can’t get it, then it’s very likely that we can no longer bring Yadriel down. I’m using the election to delay him now, but we still have to rely on this evidence to defeat him for real.”””

“What Calvin mentioned was completely correct. After the incident that day, he understood that even the venerable Brooklyn could not take down Yadiel. He pretended to be unperturbed and ignorant, and had not taken any action, but in reality, he still could not find any powerful evidence to take down Yadiel.”

“Therefore, Calvin had to be more cautious.”

“However, after that day’s incident, Calvin finally realized Brooklyn’s thoughts. Brooklyn actually disliked Yadiel, and he was finding ways to defeat him.”

“For Calvin, this was already good news. If he could get the evidence, with Brooklyn’s help from behind the scenes, then Yadiel would be miserably defeated.”

“At the same time, Calvin also understood that Brooklyn cared for the Harvey family, and his friendship with the Harvey family was sincere.”

Calvin was very happy.

“Now, he wanted to use his own abilities to bring down Yadiel, the black sheep, and turn the tables around.”

“He hid here, understanding Brooklyn’s thoughts. Yadiel wanted to catch him because he was their thorn in their side. Hence, they had to control Calvin. Only when he was at ease would they be able to do it freely. As such, he was able to fulfill his wish!”

Calvin’s lips curled into a cold sneer.

“Yadiel, I don’t believe that you can control the whole world with your bare hands! Calvin thought to himself.”

“Rest assured, Mr. Harvey. We will do our best. Aron’s tone was solemn.”

“Aron, keep an eye on him and do it boldly. I have informed Albie Williamson here. He has arranged the police force to assist you, Calvin notified Aron in a low voice.”

“Okay, Mr. Harvey. Aron’s spirits had obviously been uplifted, and his voice became loud and clear.”

“After putting away the phone, Calvin took out a cigarette from his pocket and lit it. He took a deep breath. This was the first time he had smoked after he married Belle and promised her. There was no reason to have the cigarette but simply to sober up his head.”

“Calvin wanted to be happy, and he wanted to provide happiness for Belle as well as their children. There was no room for losing this time, only winning!”

Chapter 639

“When Liya was about to leave with the pickled vegetables in her hand, Letty stopped her in time. She lowered her voice and whispered mysteriously, “”Mrs. Harvey, today is a good opportunity. Today, Paige is staying in Old Madam’s room. Ruth has asked for leave to take a night off because she is sick. So, there is no one else in Old Madam’s room. Since Old Madam is dying, everyone has let down their guard. So, now is a great opportunity. Don’t miss it.”””

“Letty’s words were clear and logical, which warmed up Liya’s refreshed mind. Her dull eyes were full of vitality.”

“The Ocean Heart? If she could get her hands on this valuable treasure, then she could do anything to her heart’s content. Moreover, she could also get rid of Oscar and Zoella. She didn’t have to be bothered about Oscar anymore, and she could be free.”

“With these thoughts in mind, Liya nodded and said, ““Letty, thank you for your reminder.”””

“There’s no need to thank me, Mrs. Harvey. Letty smiled as she watched Liya leave.”

“Liya returned to the guest room. She paced around the room and thought for a while. She was pregnant now. If she didn’t get rid of the child, then the plot would be exposed soon, and she would be kicked out then. Liya couldn’t get any benefits from it. It was better to take something now and make some money out of it. If she could get that priceless treasure, then Liya would be rich in the future and would be able to enjoy a good life.”

“With this thought in mind, Liya gritted her teeth and made up her mind.”

“In the second half of the night, it was quiet. The heat of the day had already dissipated. At night, the air in the Ink Garden was cool and comfortable.”

“Liya secretly came to the Ink Garden’s back lawn, which was situated at the back of Sophia’s bedroom.”

“Liya jumped down from here the last time. As the window here was not high, she was sure that she could climb in from there. More importantly, there was no surveillance here. She had been paying attention to this for the past few days.”

The Ink Garden was extremely quiet.

“Liya put on a pair of white rubber gloves and brought a rock from the back wall. When she stepped on it, it didn’t take her much effort to climb up the French windows. ”

She peeped inside through the glass window.

“The room was dimly lit, and there was indeed no one inside. Paige was sleeping in the lounge next door, and Ruth was not there either.”

“The glass windows were covered, and the door was not tightly closed.”

She quietly pushed open the glass window and climbed in from the outside.

“As soon as Liya entered the bedroom, she began to rummage frantically.”

“However, there were really not many expensive and valuable items in Sophia’s room, and the jewelry and other things were probably given to her descendants. Nonetheless, Liya no longer focused on those ordinary jewelry. Her goal was the Ocean Heart.”

“Before Liya came, she had searched for the Ocean Heart’s images on Google, and she was instantly captivated.”

“It was rare to find such a high-purity diamond ring in the whole world. If one could get it, then one would become rich overnight.”

“Belle had ordered that Liya would not be allowed to enter Sophia’s bedroom. Then again, what about it? She could still sneak in.”

“Suddenly, a thought flashed in her mind. How did Letty find out about this treasure? If Liya could sneak in from behind, then wouldn’t that mean that Letty would be able to do so too?”

“The only difference was that Liya was the woman who was written in the will that she could marry Calvin. Hence, she would have the chance to obtain the treasure, and she wouldn’t be talked about even if she obtained it. Nevertheless, was this the only possibility?”

“Liya couldn’t figure it out and couldn’t think about it anymore. Since she had come in, she had to find the best solution as soon as possible.”

“Just as she was carefully rummaging through the items, Liya heard the sound of Sophia gulping as she took in large mouthfuls of air.”

Liya was startled.

Chapter 640

“Paige was asleep in the lounge, but she was still alert. As soon as she heard the sound of Sophia’s gulps and rapid breathing, she woke up, hurriedly got up to get dressed, and ran to Sophia’s bedroom.”

Sophia had been in critical condition for such a long time. Everyone knew what she was most worried about at this time. Paige dared not to be sloppy.

“The lighting of Sophia’s bedroom was good. It was a little higher than the lounge. Hence, there was a small flight of stairs between Sophia’s bedroom and the lounge.”

“Paige hurried up the stairs. Just as she opened the curtain, a blow struck her.”

“Ah! Paige screamed, and her whole body was pushed to the back by a hand. She was caught off guard, and it was deep into the night. As she was not young anymore, Paige fell down the stairs with such a push. She only felt great pain from her leg. Then, the back of her head hit the ground, and she immediately fainted.”

“Liya was rummaging through the room for treasure when Sophia suddenly gasped for air. Soon after, she heard footsteps outside. She was panicking as she rummaged through the cabinet beside the door. She did not have time to escape through the window and knew that only Paige was outside the door, who was keeping watch. When Liya looked up, she saw that Paige’s hand had lifted the door curtains. She was flustered and hurried over to push Paige down.”

“Shortly, Liya heard Paige’s scream along with the sound of her body falling to the ground. Liya became afraid and panicked. She was no longer in the mood to look for the treasure. Thus, she frantically ran to the window and escaped.”

“After returning to the guest room, Liya was so alarmed that she could not sit still. She cocked her head to her side and kept an eye on what was happening outside.”

“More than twenty minutes later, she heard someone shouting outside. Liya opened the window and listened quietly. She could vaguely hear the crying in the Ink Garden, and her heart was beating fast.”

“When Belle was sleeping soundly, the doorbell of the guest room suddenly rang in the quiet night.”

“She was so shocked that she rolled over and got up. It was still dark outside the window. Belle was in a daze, and her mind was still muddled.”

“Madam, something bad happened. Madam Paige has passed out. Larry’s voice rang from the outside, and she even sounded as if she were about to cry.”

Paige had passed out? What was going on?

Belle was so shocked that she opened her eyes wide.

“The noise awakened Rosa too. She scrambled to her feet, and her eyes also widened.”

“Both of them looked at each other inexplicably and came to their senses. They got up in a hurry, put on their clothes, and rushed to the lounge of the Ink Garden.”

“Several servants in the Ink Garden were in a flurry. Larry and several servants in the Fragrance Garden were Paige’s distant relatives. When they noticed she had fainted, her face was pale and was unconscious. They were so scared that they began to cry.”

What’s going on? Belle walked over and asked in a deep voice.

Madam fainted. Everyone heard her voice and immediately made way for her.

“Belle immediately saw Paige lying on the ground. She was in a daze and unconscious. Belle was stunned and quickly bent down to hold her shoulders. Belle cried out in pain, ““Mom, what happened to you?”””

What the h*ll is going on? Why is Aunt Paige lying on the ground for no reason? Rosa was also shocked when she saw the situation. She hurriedly asked the servant next to her.

“The servants were all frightened. They all shook their heads to show that they didn’t know. They just answered, ““When we heard Larry’s cry, we saw this when we rushed over. I guess Madam fell by accident.”””

She fell down the stairs? Rosa frowned and looked at the stairwell in disbelief.

“Hurry up, help Madam to the bed first. Belle looked up and ordered the panic-stricken servants. Then, she ordered Larry, ““Larry, quickly inform Mr. Hudson.”””

“Larry had always been a close servant of Paige. In addition to taking care of Jerry, she also followed Paige. She knew that it was Paige’s turn to guard that night. So, she couldn’t sleep well with the servants in the Ink Garden. Paige also had rheumatoid arthritis, and Larry had to bring hot water to her every night. However, she didn’t expect to witness such a horrible situation when she walked in, which really shocked her.”

Everyone carefully carried Paige to the bed.

“Hudson quickly rushed over. When he saw Paige lying on the bed, his head buzzed, and he almost fainted.”

“Hudson was having severe headaches for the past few days. Paige felt sorry for him. So, she did not allow him to take the night watch shift and had insisted on replacing him. Who knew that such a situation would happen?”

“Dad, don’t worry. Let’s send her to the hospital first. Belle noticed that Hudson’s complexion looked very pale, and she was worried about his health. Belle quickly comforted him with tears in her eyes.”

Hudson nodded his head in distress.

“Meanwhile, in the government hospital.”

“Paige was lying on the hospital bed with a plaster cast on her right leg. She had already woken up, and her face was full of pain.”

“Mr. Coller, is my wife alright? Hudson asked Mr. Coller with a heavy heart as he stared at Paige’s pale face in horror.”

“Mr. Coller replied very respectfully, ““Mr. Hudson, Madam hit the ground on the back of her head. There is a slight concussion. As long as she rests well, she will recover soon. However, her comminuted fracture on the right leg might require her to rest in bed for quite some time. After all, she is not young anymore.”””

“Alright, I understand. Thank you. Hudson’s heart was heavy and he nodded.”

Mr. Coller left with a respectful expression.

“Paige, are you feeling better now? After urging the doctor to leave, Hudson sat down by Paige’s side and asked in a gentle voice.”

“Hudson... Paige’s eyes were filled with tears, and she couldn’t express herself. She could only bear with the pain in her leg and nodded.”

It’s alright. You’ll be fine after some rest. Hudson held her hand and comforted her.

“Mom, do you still remember how you fell from the stairs? Belle was puzzled about Paige’s fall. So, she leaned over and asked softly.”

“Paige had forgotten what had happened the day before since she woke up after she fainted. She didn’t remember anything. When Belle asked her this question, she was stunned, and shook her head blankly.”

Hudson sighed and signaled Belle to head out.

“Belle, do you suspect that she did not fall off on her own? After walking out of the ward, Hudson asked thoughtfully.”

“Belle’s gaze was profound. ““Dad, it is very suspicious for Mom to fall down from the stairs. Just now, Ruth called to inform that there were traces of someone ransacking Grandma’s room.”””

What!

“A gleam of harsh light flashed in Hudson’s eyes, and his whole face became serious.”

“So, someone entered Grandma’s bedroom at midnight last night. Then, Paige might have heard something, and then... He was lost in thought and stopped in the middle of his sentence.”

“Belle certainly understood what he meant, but she didn’t say anything.”

“Everyone understood it in their hearts, there was no need to express it.”

“Belle, your mother-in-law is suffering from a concussion. She won’t remember anything for the time being, but she’ll recover in a few days. I’ll ask her again then, Hudson continued gently. However, he was filled with suspicion as he added, ““If someone really went into Grandma’s bedroom, then what did they want to do?”””

“Belle thought of something after hearing Hudson’s words. However, she did not say anything.”

“Dad, you should stay in the hospital to accompany Mom for the next few days. I’ll go home first, and then I’ll ask Larry to take care of Mom, Belle suggested very thoughtfully.”

“Hudson nodded and replied seriously, ““Belle, if there’s anything you need, then get Rosa and Martin to help you. Don’t worry about it.”””

Belle understood and agreed with a smile.

“When she came out of the hospital, Lomen was waiting outside.”

“Belle got in the car, and they headed for Harvey Manor.”

“Then, Belle’s cell phone rang.”

She picked up the phone.
