Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1361—A hint of ruthlessness and warning flashed across Gloria's eyes.

The Asher also noticed it and did not want to make her angry again. "You're right. My phone number is also my WhatsApp account. I'll wait for you online if you've figured it out."

"That day won't come."

Gloria White denied it.

After saying that, she got up and was about to leave.

Asher in front of her consciously retreated to the side.

This caused Gloria White to loosen her grip. She was just thinking that if the man dared to stop her, she would take action.

But she went very smoothly.

However, the smoother it was, the more Gloria White felt that things would not be peaceful in the future.

She had a feeling that the man's motive was not simple.

Are you all right, Miss White?

Seeing Gloria White walk out, Harold Ross immediately went forward to welcome him.

While they were conversing, Harold Ross paid close attention to the whole process.

Especially when he noticed Gloria White's expression. He was still making preparations earlier. If Gloria White and that man were to fight, he would rush over and join them.

"I'm fine."

Gloria White said coldly.

She already had a plan in mind.

"Miss White, I think he may have led you here on purpose and wants you to do something for him."

That man was not simple at first glance, and he was very dangerous!

Because when the man approached Gloria White, the smile on his face made Harold Ross feel creeped out.

"I don't know what his intentions are, but for now, we have to be careful. Let's go back to the hotel first." Gloria

White did not bother with this matter.

Seeing this, Harold Ross did not say anything else.

After returning to the hotel, Gloria White entered her suite.

She turned on the computer and typed the name of the cafe. In less than a minute, she hacked into the cafe system and recorded the video of her meeting with the masked man.

Then, captured pictures when the masked man took off his mask showing his face.

The photo of the man's face was posted to the Shadow. She was busy looking for him. In less than three minutes, his identity was displayed on her computer screen.

However, there was only a brief introduction, Asher from America, 29 years old.

Other details were unknown.

At this point, Gloria White already had an idea.

As she expected, the man's identity was not simple. Even the Shadow failed to identify him in detail. Moreover, she went to attack the system of America. The system was heavily guarded and she cracked it layer by layer. In the end, she directly made a Trojan virus, which directly attacked his system.

As long as she succeeded, she would receive a text message.

Over at Jordy's side, at this moment, Harold Ross had already reported everything that happened when Gloria

White and that man met.

Jordy Collins did not reply, but Harold Ross could tell that his face was covered with a layer of eternal frost, and his eyes were filled with a deathly stillness.

"Go and investigate that man.

As soon as Jordy Collins uttered those words coldly, Harold Ross knew that no matter who this man was, Mr. Collins was determined to fight him to the death.

He could tell how much Jordy Collins cared about this!

After all, from Harold Ross's point of view, Jordy Collins would never allow anyone to hurt or spy on Gloria White!

"There is no need to check. I have already found out who he is. His name is Asher. But I found that there was not much information about him. A lot of his information has been hidden."

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1362—Hearing Gloria's words, Harold Ross was a little surprised.

Jordy Collins had just mentioned that he was going to investigate a man, but he had yet to do so. Yet Gloria

White had already said that he had. Wasn't this speed a little too fast?

When Jordy Collins heard Gloria's voice, he looked toward her.

He didn't answer, but his brows were tightly knitted

At this moment, the scene of Gloria White meeting the man called Asher appeared in his mind subconsciously

Harold Ross pursed his lips and said, "Mr. Collins, let me go and investigate. No matter how hard he tries to hide his identity, we'll find out eventually!"

His eyes were full of confidence.

He had already noticed the coldness in Jordy's eyes. If he didn't find out who this man was, he would die!

After all, he was also a man.

Men understood men best.

He could tell that Mr. Collins was feeling threatened because of this man.

At this moment, he was furious and had a strong desire for possession.

Harold Ross knew better than to disturb their conversation. "Um, Mr. Collins, Miss White, I'll make some arrangements now. Would you like something to eat?"

He intended to leave.

Gloria White waved her hand, "There's no need to prepare those for now. I'll go back and rest for a while. I'll brew the medicine for you when the time comes."

After speaking, Gloria White turned around and walked into her suite.

Then, Harold Ross and Jordy Collins were the only ones left in the spacious living room,

Coincidentally, the person in charge of the domestic market, Windy Miller, sent Harold Ross a few documents and text messages:

Windy Miller: "Assistant Ross, show Mr. Collins these proposals. I'll be following them in San Diego. If they work, we'll start bidding."

Harold Ross read through his WhatsApp and clicked on the business plan. There were five different files.

Glancing at Jordy's darkened face, Harold Ross forced himself to repost the document to him. "Mr. Collins, Windy Miller sent me a few business plans. Take a look and see which one is the best."

Jordy's calm expression didn't change at all when Harold Ross brought up work.

Harold Ross felt a little uncertain as he watched.

The next second, Jordy Collins took out his phone.

In less than a minute, Jordy Collins sneered and said, "These are the only things that deserve to be called a business plan. Are they made by primary school students? Go back and make them again. If you can't hand over a business plan that satisfies me by 9:00 tonight, then have them get out of the Collins Group."

In the end, Jordy's anger soared.

Harold Ross did not dare to reply.

The business plan came from a top designer in the Collins Group, who was also approved by Windy Miller.

Even if it was not to Jordy's satisfaction, it was not at the level of a primary school student.

Perhaps when he calmed down, he would pass on the five proposals to him, and then he would pick out the ones that satisfied him. But he had no idea that they had never changed.

With such thoughts in mind, Harold Ross sighed inwardly.

"Mr. Collins, I'll hurry them. Have a good rest and calm down."

After speaking, Harold Ross left the room.

Jordy's face darkened, and the coldness in his eyes was about to engulf the entire room.

The lack of oxygen and coldness made him terrified.

Harold Ross was still feeling cold behind his back even after he had gone far. He even had the urge to use ginger soup to get rid of the cold.

As for Gloria White, after returning to her room, she did not give up, but...

The Trojan virus she recently developed did not break through the mortar of America. She even received a message from the other party:

[Stop trying. You won't be able to find what you want. Why don't you ask the person yourself?]

Read Novel Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1363

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1363—These words aroused Gloria's interest.

She was attacking the system of America. Could Asher be some high-ranking official in America? Otherwise, how could a commoner not be able to find out?

And now there was a message like that.

Gloria White was even more certain that Asher was an important high-ranking official in America.

She realized that she had to withdraw the Trojan virus

At this time, after seeing Gloria White withdraw the Trojan virus, the senior person in charge of the America system immediately made a call

“Prince Asher, I’ve done exactly as you instructed. She had withdrawn her Trojan virus”

“Got it”

Asher smiled lightly as well, and the corners of his mouth instantly unfolded evilly.

He never thought that Gloria White would have such an expert by his side, a world-class hacker

However, an idea came to his mind.

Could Gloria White be this top hacker?

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have retreated as soon as he saw the message. Only the person could do it so quickly

After all, on this trip to the UK, she only had Jordy Collins and her assistant Harold Ross with her. He didn’t think they were any hidden hackers.

After being eliminated, only Gloria White remained.

Thinking of this, the smile on his face deepened.

He played around and picked up his phone to call Gloria White.

Seeing that it was a call from Asher, Gloria White thought twice before answering, “If it’s still because of that matter, uk you can give up now.”

“Why will I give up? My dear Miss Black Rose.”

Asher broke out a low laughter, hoarse and alluring.

Hearing his words, Gloria White quickly furrowed his brows and his face darkened. However, she immediately sneered, “I can see that you are still delusional. I have nothing to do with you, please don’t give me a nickname.”

“Really?”

Asher’s tone was rough and long.

In the few seconds when Gloria White did not reply, he was already very certain.

Gloria White crossed his arms. The man was still unwilling to explain his motive and she had no patience, "I'm not interested in listening to your nonsense. Tell me directly, what is your motive?"

He called and found that he was just testing her.

Someone like him, someone like America's... President? Secretary of State?

The two positions that flashed across Gloria's mind were quickly eliminated. A person with such a status would not be as free and charming as, Asher.

If so, there was only one possibility: The Prince of America. That was why America protected his identity.

She realized it, but she didn't want to expose herself that she was Black K at the moment.

"Forget it, I can't guess your purpose. We don't need to contact each other in the future."

After that, Gloria White hung up the phone.

To her surprise, she received a text message as well.

Asher, [You will need me one day.]

Gloria White took a look and deleted the message. She pulled the black him.

"Who did you just call?"

Jordy's low, questioning, and indifferent voice suddenly came from the door. Gloria White was shocked and her heart skipped a beat, but her expression quickly returned to normal.

"It's Asher. I know who he is now. Prince of America, we should be careful," Gloria White did not hide the truth from him.

After all, they had such an identity. If they were not careful, they would be in trouble!

However, when Jordy Collins heard the words 'Asher', his face became even colder. Just as he was about to say something, Gloria White suddenly remembered something.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1364—"I'm going to decoct medicine."

With that, Gloria White turned and left, leaving Jordy Collins behind.

Jordy Collins didn't say anything. His face was cold and indifferent, and his eyes were colder.

While taking the medicine, he frowned. "Why is this medicine so bitter?"

"What medicine doesn't taste bitter? Besides, I didn't hear you say it this morning. If you feel bitter, why don't you call Harold Ross and ask him to send you some candy?"

Jordy's words were immediately refuted by Gloria White.

Gloria White looked at him calmly, but in reality, those words were mocking him.

He wasn't a child. Why would he need the candy to take medicine?

Moreover, he was the CEO of Collins Group.

"Didn't you go out with Harold Ross this morning?"

Jordy's frown deepened.

That's it!

"Then I'll call Harold Ross."

As he spoke, Gloria White took out her phone.

"I don't want a third person to know," Jordy Collins said coldly, telling her to put away her phone.

Then she had to do it.

"I'll get you a glass of honey water."

With that, Gloria White ignored whether Jordy Collins had agreed or not and directly called room service.

When she made her request to the hotel, the five people who had been waiting in the dark finally found an opportunity.

"Boss! After a while I will dress up as a waiter to bring them honey water, you guard outside the door, I successfully kidnapped them, I will call you! Let's have an inside-out."

One of the men took the initiative to introduce himself.

“Then you go.” The boss did not intend to miss this opportunity.

Thus, this man disguised himself as a waiter and knocked on Gloria White and Jordy’s door with honey water.

Seeing the honey water, Jordy’s face darkened.

“The honey water has been delivered to you. Drink it quickly and I’ll continue to give you acupuncture.”

Seeing that Jordy Collins was unmoved, Gloria White stepped forward and handed him honey water. Jordy Collins didn’t take it.

“I’ve finished drinking all my medicine.”

“I’m sorry, sir. We got someone to deal with it as soon as we got the phone call. I delivered it to you as soon as I got it. If you think we’re too slow, I’ll apologize to you.” Seeing Jordy’s cold and stern demeanor, the man quickly lowered his head to apologize with a very good attitude.

“Is an apology useful?”

Jordy Collins snorted; his face was still ice–cold.

Upon hearing this, Gloria White subconsciously glanced at Jordy Collins.

‘Is he sick?’

He was the one who had complained about the suffering of the medicine, and he was also the one looking for trouble now.

However, Gloria White instantly realized that he was unhappy because she was not going in person.

This stinky man....

“Are you drinking or not? If not, I’ll ask him to withdraw.”

Gloria White placed the honey water in front of him once again and his face darkened.

“No.”

Jordy Collins said coldly and sternly. In the next second, the flames of war fell on the man opposite him. "You're too slow. Get your manager here. How dare you call yourself a star service?"

Jordy's face darkened, and his entire body reeked of hatred.

Gloria White narrowed her eyes slightly and stared at Jordy Collins in front of her. Something was wrong. This was different from his usual self. Did he find any clues or something?

Thinking of this, she turned to look at the man.

The man panicked instantly. They wanted the honey water and now they did not drink it. Could it be that they had already discovered his identity and were acting out for him?

But now, he couldn't care about others. He was in now. If he didn't take action now, it would be difficult for them to find such a suitable opportunity!

Thinking of this, the man's face turned cold. He instantly took out a sharp dagger from his pocket and rushed towards Gloria White.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1365—Gloria White did not expect that the waiter was a man in disguise and that he had hidden a sharp weapon.

The man's speed was so fast that Gloria White did not have time to react before he dragged her over. The sharp dagger was pressed against her neck!

"Let her go."

Jordy Collins narrowed his eyes and threw out a warning.

Gloria White grabbed the man's hand, but the man noticed her intentions. The dagger in his hand moved closer to her neck.

Gloria's face darkened, but just now, she could have completely dodged. However, she wanted to see what this person's purpose was.

The moment he attacked, Gloria White already knew that this person's martial arts skills were not good enough

This man could never have imagined that the moment he kidnapped Gloria White, the two of them had already exchanged glances.

Otherwise, no one would have let him successfully kidnap Gloria White.

The man revealed his true face and threatened, "Hand over the Misty Spirit Grass or I will slit her throat!"

"Do you think that by killing me, you will be able to obtain the Misty Spirit Grass?" Gloria White was not afraid. Instead, she even smirked. As expected, he had come for the Misty Spirit Grass.

Jordy Collins didn't answer.

His cold black eyes fell on the man.

"Cut the crap. Jordy Collins, don't blame me if you don't give it to me!" The man grabbed Gloria White and retreated, Jordy Collins, following closely behind.

At the door, the man raised his voice and said, "Brothers, I got it!"

"Bang."

The four guards outside kicked open the door.

The moment they rushed in, they surrounded Jordy Collins.

Jordy's entire person was shrouded in a cold, murderous aura. At this moment, he looked like a Shura that had just walked out of hell!

The four men shared a quick look before charging at Jordy Collins. The man's words were meant to stall for time.

His true goal was to snatch the Misty Spirit Grass from Jordy Collins and Gloria White no matter what!

Even if the four of them were to attack him together, Jordy Collins would still look down on them.

When they attacked, he dodged.

Even the speed of his punches caused two people to suffer from his punches and kicks and be steadily defeated.

Although he did not panic, something that worried Gloria White still happened.

He had been working on Chinese Medicine for so long last night, and now these four people were still fighting with him. He quickly took a step back because of physical exhaustion.

This was the best opportunity for the four of them!

However, when they thought they would succeed, Harold Ross walked in and immediately took out the gun at his waist.

One of the men collapsed to the ground, and Jordy Collins took advantage of the chaos to attack.

On the contrary, the four of them were subdued by them!

“Stop! Don’t you believe that I will kill Gloria White?” Seeing his comrade being hurt so badly by Jordy Collins, the man immediately became anxious.

He pressed the dagger in his hand against Gloria’s neck a little more but was unable to hurt her. He did not realize that his hand was slightly trembling.

Gloria White gave a faint smile and raised her hand to feel the man’s pulse.

She had initially intended to restrain him. But who would have thought...?

Gloria’s expression froze slightly. The man’s pulse was very erratic. It was a clear sign of poisoning, and he had been poisoned for three years!

Every time this poison took effect, it would cause heart–wrenching pain. Without an antidote, the victim would die of pain!

She didn’t seem to realize that she had been kidnapped. Instead, she sneered and said, “Is your master afraid that you will be disloyal and poison her?”

Heart Piercing Poison, the poison tears at the heart, so it is called Heart Piercing Poison.

The man was instantly shocked and asked subconsciously, “How did you know?”

They secretly went to the doctor, and the doctor said that the poison was specially made. If they wanted to detoxify it, they had to take the antidote.

The antidote and the herbs were precious and hard to find.

They had been tormented by the Heart Piercing Poison for many years

Upon hearing this, Gloria White smiled. She had guessed correctly

She said casually, "I just touched your pulse by accident."

"You know medical skills?" The man was even more surprised. At this moment, he was a little confused.

Gloria White raised her eyebrows slightly. She held his pulse on the hand that he grabbed the dagger and said indifferently, "Yes, not only can I do it, I can also help you detoxify it."

The man fell silent instantly.

On the other side, several people who were subdued saw that their only hope had been deceived and confused. They immediately shouted at him, "Zack, don't listen to this woman's nonsense. We have seen the doctors so many times that it can be solved, but the doctor said that the antidote is precious and difficult to find. How can this woman have it?"

Another colleague also reminded, "Have you forgotten how this woman fooled us?"

Zack was stunned and immediately thought of what had happened before.

The two men led them into the police station and tricked them back to the casino.

This woman could not be trusted!

Gloria White stood beside Zack and said calmly, "We bought the Misty Spirit Grass for 16 trillion dollars. Of COL we would not give it to you so easily. But why can't I cure this little poison?"

When she first practiced medicine, she was studying poison.

Therefore, she had seen all kinds of poisons.

The Heart Piercing Poison was something that she had broken through when she was 18.

The man holding her hostage frowned and said coldly, "But you won't help us so kindly."

Gloria White did not deny the man's words. She smiled again, "You are right. We are total strangers and I will not help you. However, I am now your prisoner. If I do not help, I will die by your hands."

Seeing that he was hesitating again, Gloria White gave a faint smile, "Do you want to go back and continue to be controlled by your masters, or do you want me to dispel the poison for you so that you can be free in the future?"

The five of them fell silent, but it was undeniable that they were tempted.

After being tormented by the Heart Piercing Poison for three years, how could they not wish to one day be able to cure the poison and regain their freedom?

"I'll give you three minutes to think about it. If I'm not sincere, I'll put you down in one move when you hesitate."

Gloria's voice was full of temptation. Seeing the man's face change color, she smiled lightly.

"As long as you're smart, you should know that all of you are going to fall into my hands today, and will die regardless. Why not make a bet, submit to us and choose a life path?"

Harold Ross looked at Gloria White with a complicated expression. For some reason, every time he saw Miss

White, he had a whole new level of respect for her.

Even though he already knew that she had several skills, there were still tricks waiting for him.

Perhaps that's why Mr. Collins...

Thinking of this, he subconsciously turned his head to look at Jordy Collins.

The man's face was cold. He stood at the side and pursed his lips tightly without speaking. He kept on staring at Gloria White, afraid that something had happened to her.

After waiting for a long time and getting no response from Zack, Gloria White said plainly, "Friend, have you still not thought it through? If you don't think about it carefully, I might get impatient."

Zack looked a little flustered. Looking at his brothers who had been subdued, he suddenly had an idea and said, "If, if you are sincere enough, let my four brothers go first."

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1367– Can't You Cure Him in the living room?

Gloria White did not say anything and gave Harold Ross a look.

Seeing that Jordy Collins did not say anything, Harold Ross followed Gloria's instructions and released the four of them. However, the moment he released them, Harold Ross sneered coldly, "Consider yourselves lucky!"

The four men did not reply and looked guiltily at the companion holding Gloria White hostage.

In the end, his eyes were still filled with resolution and certainty.

The man calculated the time in his heart. A few minutes later, he grasped the dagger in his hand tightly and used all his strength to stab at Gloria's neck with all his might.

With a "clang", the dagger in the man's hand fell to the ground. Suddenly, he opened his eyes wide and stared in shock at Gloria White who had already broken free from his grasp.

"You"

Gloria White crossed her arms and a mocking smile appeared on her lips, "I'm just playing with you. Do you think I'm not your match?"

Jordy Collins took a step forward as well, his black eyes glinting coldly.

"Throw him into the sea to feed the sharks."

Jordy Collins looked at him, but his words were directed at Harold Ross.

At this moment, the man thought of the guilt in his four colleagues' eyes before they left and the resolute look in their eyes.

He closed his eyes in despair and faced death calmly.

"I don't want to turn myself into a murderer, and if I let your four brothers go free, I am not going to kill you."

The man admired Gloria White's honesty.

But what she wanted was not the death of the man.

Gloria White's words immediately caused the man to open his eyes. The man star at Gloria White in shock, his eyes fu confusion, "Then what do you want?"

Gloria White smiled, "It's very simple. Your master sent you to snatch my things. Although it did not succeed, it affected me. I am not someone who causes trouble, but I am not afraid of trouble."

In just a few sentences, Gloria White had already revealed his motive.

When she spoke, the corners of her mouth curved into a sly and calculating smile.

"Be direct, what do you want the five of us to do for you?" The man asked straightforwardly. He knew very well that if he did not accept Gloria's arrangements, he would die.

Jordy Collins, in particular, had already found some clues about him as soon as he entered the room.

"It's very simple, treat him as he treats others." As he said this, Gloria's smile deepened and the schemes in his eyes became more obvious.

Didn't their master want the Misty Spirit Grass?

Then let him enjoy the disappointment brought to him by Misty Spirit Grass!

"Okay."

The man knew that he had no way out. He nodded, which was also a compromise.

"Come here, I'll detoxify you."

Gloria White gave him a look and the man was still suspicious.

However, he still chose to stand up and walk towards Gloria White, deciding to give it a try.

After all, with their current abilities, if they could not obtain the antidote to the Heart Piercing Poison, they might have a try with the help of Gloria White.

If they can be cured, after helping Gloria White with her mission, they would be able to regain their freedom.

If things didn't go well, then he would live on his own in exchange for the lives of his other brothers. His brothers who'd gone through thick and thin with him had expressed their attitudes towards him before leaving, that they would avenge him!

It was worth it no matter which choice he made.

"Follow me."

Gloria White spoke to the man.

However, when he saw Gloria White bring the man to her room, Jordy's face immediately darkened and he asked unhappily, "Can't you give him the antidote in the living room?"

"Everything is in the room."

Upon hearing Jordy's words, Gloria White frowned in displeasure.

His expression and words clearly meant that he was interfering with her life.

But they were no longer husband and wife. What right did this bastard have to interfere with her life? She could do whatever she wanted.

"Let's go."

Gloria White left Jordy Collins in the dust.

She didn't care about him!

The poisoned man was a little panicked. Should he go? But after hesitating for a moment, he still chose to follow. In any case, his life was more important.

Harold Ross noticed that the temperature around him was dropping, and Jordy's face darkened.

If looks could kill, the man would have died at least a hundred times in the past one or two minutes!

"Mr. Collins, Miss White is just detoxifying that man. Besides, as you can see, Miss White looks down on this man. He is no match for her at all..."

Before Harold Ross could finish, Jordy's sharp gaze swept over him.

Even though he did not say a word, Harold Ross did not dare to make a sound.

In the bedroom,

Gloria White first gave the man a small white pill, then cut a small wound on his wrist and pricked him with a needle.

After a while, Jordy Collins walked in.

Gloria White heard footsteps but did not look at him.

In less than five minutes, Jordy Collins had been left aside, while Gloria White was busy with the man and paid attention to him!

“Have you done yet?”

Jordy Collins had run out of patience. He furrowed his brows tightly, his expression cold and his eyes sharp.

“Why are you in a hurry?”

Gloria White rejected his words coldly.

After taking the medicine, it was not time for dinner.

“I don’t feel well.”

Jordy Collins immediately replied to Gloria White in a low tone.

Gloria was speechless.

She frowned slightly and looked at Jordy Collins. She had a feeling that Jordy Collins had done it on purpose.

She glanced at him coldly and then looked at the poisoned man. She had already detoxified him.

Seeing the full bowl of black blood, Gloria White removed the silver needles from the man’s body and said in a stern voice, “If you don’t believe me, you can look for the doctor who treated you previously. However, I didn’t save you for anything. You must do that for me!”

“Well, tell me, what do you want me to do?” The man opened his mouth weakly, but he could feel the joy all over his body!

Gloria White saw that the man was so direct and she did not want to beat around the bush, “It’s hard for a person to do things alone, and you can see many people and things clearly in the face of death. The pill you just ate was a poison that I made!”

"What I want is very simple. You and your four bros will have perfect cooperation in the Crockfords Club and bring the Misty Spirit Grass back to your master. At that time, you and your four bros can be free."

On the other hand, if the man did not come back to find her, the small pill he had taken would also kill him!

The man thought for a moment and remembered his situation. In the end, he said, "Sure."

Soon, the man and Gloria White exchanged numbers.

Jordy's face darkened at the sight of Harold Ross's words.

"Then what deal did you reach with Asher?"

Read Novel Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1369

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1369—He knew very well that Gloria White would never let them bring the real Misty Spirit Grass back.

He understood her plan.

But, with his identity and what he had said around Gloria White, the moment he thought of these, he felt as if a huge rock had been placed on his chest, making it hard for him to breathe!

"What kind of deal can I make with Asher?" Gloria White asked lightly. She packed up her things and did not look at Jordy Collins.

However, Jordy Collins approached her.

By that time, the man had already left, leaving only the two of them in the room.

"You've made use of these people."

Jordy Collins spoke coldly.

He was right beside them. Gloria White did not raise his head to look at him, but he could feel that the surrounding air pressure was very low. His face must be black and smelly!

Jordy Collins didn't say anything, but his meaning was clear.

If she could make use of all these people, how could she miss out on the Prince of America, Asher?

The moment Gloria's emotions arose, her face darkened. She looked coldly at Jordy Collins, "His motive isn't pure and his identity isn't simple either. I don't need to make any deals with him. Are you feeling uncomfortable? Is it your mouth or your heart?"

Towards the end, Gloria's tone was full of mockery.

"My whole body."

He uttered two words coldly.

Seeing him like this, Gloria White was speechless.

However, her hand still took his pulse. The medicine in her body had not been completely removed. Her pulse was indeed ak, but it was not as good as he said!

"Take your medicine for a few days and maintain a good mood. Exercise more and bask in the sun more." Gloria White withdrew her hand and gave him the doctor's advice.

"Well,"

Jordy Collins answered in a low voice, looking indifferent.

Gloria White thought that he would leave, but who knew that he was still standing in the same place like a mountain?

"Is there anything else?"

Gloria White noticed an important point. Although the man did not say anything, his actions were getting weirder and weirder.

Jordy Collins picked up her words in the next second, but asked her instead, "Didn't you just say that all your belongings are in your room?"

Although his expression was not as cold as before and his brows were no longer furrowed, his attitude gave Gloria White the urge to attack.

"Then what do you think..."

Before Gloria White could finish her sentence, her cell phone rang.

It was a video call from Karen Shaw.

Gloria White answered:

Karen Shaw's eyes curved into crescents, and a benevolent look appeared on her face. "Gloria. Take your phone. I want to see what Jordy Collins is doing now. Grandma called him, but he didn't answer."

Upon hearing this, Gloria White immediately glared fiercely at Jordy Collins.

Instead of answering her grandmother's call, why did he come looking for her?

However, in the next second, she responded to Karen Shaw with a smile on her face. Her smile was gentle and sweet.

"Grandma, he is next to me. I was doing acupuncture for him just now."

To prevent Grandmother from worrying about Jordy Collins and to maintain a good mood, Gloria White could only tell her this.

"Oh, that's right." Karen Shaw nodded in understanding, but then came up with an idea. "Well, next time you give me a video, I'll watch it. It must be hard for you to give him acupuncture. Jordy Collins, come out here."

Under Karen Shaw's command, Jordy Collins appeared in the camera cooperatively.

"Gloria helps you so much. Help grandma take her out to buy some clothes and jewelry, and then see what she wants to eat. You have to satisfy all her requests!"

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1370—Karen Shaw's words were serious and carried orders.

Gloria White was about to refuse when Karen Shaw directly hung up.

On the other end of the line, Karen Shaw was chuckling.

She knew what Gloria White was thinking. She didn't want her to worry, so even though they were divorced, she would still help Jordy Collins. She had succeeded in testing her today.

After they returned home, she would try to help them be together again. She didn't believe that they could escape from her plan!

Thinking of this, to ensure that the two would proceed as she said, she sent a text message to Gloria White and Jordy Collins:

Karen Shaw: "Gloria, if Jordy Collins buys something for you later, remember to take a photo for grandma."

Karen Shaw, [Jordy Collins, if you dare to disobey me, don't go back to the Collins family!]

Seeing the text message, Gloria White didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Jordy Collins showed the text message directly to Gloria White. Although he did not speak, his cold expression and tightly pursed lips explained everything.

"Let's go.

For the sake of making Grandma happy, they could go shopping and buy some things together.

At this moment, in the living room, Harold Ross was worried about how to bring up Windy Miller's request to Jordy Collins and Gloria White without disturbing them. The two of them then walked out of the room.

Seeing this, Harold Ross had no choice but to step forward. "Mr. Collins, the business plan is ready. Why don't you take a look now? Windy Miller told me that the bidding period for the government in San Diego is 8 p.m."

Harold Ross didn't dare to look at Jordy Collins when he spoke, fearing that he would be held accountable.

"Send it over."

He uttered the words coldly.

Harold Ross took a deep breath and mustered the courage to repost the five documents to Jordy Collins.

In less than three minutes, Jordy Collins selected one of the five documents and reposted it to Harold Ross.

"This one."

Jordy Collins made up his mind, looking indifferent.

When Harold Ross heard his reply, his entire body tensed up.

"What are you waiting for? Go and drive a car

Jordy's brows furrowed when he saw how motionless Harold Ross was

"Yes, I'll go right away."

Seeing that Jordy Collins was getting impatient, Harold Ross immediately responded.

God blesses. I hope Mr. Collins never finds out about this. I hope he and Miss White can get back together as soon as possible. That way, he can be happy every day, and his subordinates won't be implicated anymore.

Harold Ross quickly sent them to a nearby mall.

Jordy Collins tossed his phone to him and ordered, "Follow us to record videos."

"Huh?" Harold Ross was dumbfounded.

"You don't understand?"

Jordy's brows furrowed into a deep frown

In the end, it was Gloria White who explained to Harold Ross, "Grandma wants to watch, later you can take a picture and we can buy things together. We can just pay the bill in a few seconds"

However, they just showed it to grandma, so there was no need to take photos deliberately and beautifully

Harold Ross was speechless

He rubbed the tip of his nose Old Mrs Collins was wise. He quickly nodded and did as he was told

At this moment, someone had already reported something to the boss here

The phone that the boss was holding happened to be a photo of his subordinate

Gloria's expression was calm as she went shopping with Jordy Collins Behind them, someone was leisurely taking photos and videos. He narrowed his eyes
