Chapter 211 Don't Be So Shameless

"What! How exciting is that! It's rare for the two of them to show up at the same time.

The two bosses become rivals. Oh, I'm not going to miss this show."

Most audience were quite surprised, and couldn't help gossiping.

"Oh, the two are joining the game together. This game would be an important one."

"Sure! But the race itself is not the point. What is more important is what comes as follows."

Everyone shared their comments on this event.

Jordy and others couldn't hear their gossip. Jordy looked at Jonathan coldly. Seeing that Jonathan was alone this time, he seemed to be quite relieved.

"Mr. Brown, I didn't expect to see you here."

"Of course I couldn't miss this since you've come." Jonathan smiled with an easy-going look.

Jordy looked aloof and did not intend to talk to him again.

The audience looked at where they were, searching for opportunities to leave them. The audience even wanted to sit near them.

But everyone's seats were allocated in advance. The organizer had already arranged and set up the seats.

George looked around and pointed at one direction, saying, "Jordy, let's go there."

Jordy looked where he had pointed and spotted several girls sitting there together. They were talking hotly with a smile, and he saw Gloria sitting between Jennifer and Nydia at once.

He frowned slightly, and felt that she looked quite familiar.

Obviously, Jonathan noticed her as well. He frowned with a tinge of suspicion.

But the two men didn't show their feelings on their faces. No one could find out what they had just seen and thought about.

Soon, both Jordy and Jonathan came over, and then Jonathan's assistant came as well with another racing competitor.

They took their seats in the first row. As long as Gloria turned her head slightly, she could see Jordy's figure there.

At this moment, Patrick threw away his worries about his son's condition as he saw the big shot like Jordy sitting beside him. Soon, Patrick started to flatter him respectfully.

Yet Jordy remained silent. Patrick felt quite embarrassed, but he didn't show it on his face.

Gloria suddenly shivered. She noticed that she and Jordy were sitting across her, separated by Jennifer, Bryson, and Patrick. She seemed to be afraid of being recognized by Jordy, but the next moment, she sneered secretly. Even if he recognizes me, what am I to be afraid of since I didn't do anything wrong?

What am I to be afraid of then?

Later, Gloria continued to chat with the people around her, completely ignoring him. But somehow, Jordy always felt Gloria looked familiar. But he couldn't recognize her at all because she had changed her makeup. He couldn't even recognize her when he heard her speak because she had deliberately changed her voice.

He subconsciously and secretly glanced at Gloria. It automatically reminded him of another woman.

Jordy's face slightly changed. His eyes flickered with coldness. It's impossible! What's wrong with me? Why am I always thinking of that flirtatious woman?

George also noticed that Nydia was there, and could feel Nydia's glance. He immediately smiled, revealing his white teeth and waved to Nydia, "Good morning, dear Nydia."

Nydia felt repulsed and said with antipathy, "I don't think we know each other. Don't be so shameless."

Jennifer glanced at Nydia in surprise and said, "You two..."

Chapter 212 What A Young Woman!

"He's a shameless man. Don't bother about him." Nydia rolled her eyes on George and ignored him.

George's face suddenly distorted with anger, "Damn it."

If it weren't for that thing, how could I try to please this ugly woman?

Gloria couldn't help laughing. She chuckled and said, "You're so loose-lip. There are many people here."

Jordy looked at Gloria, and could see the dignity in her gestures that she couldn't hide. He frowned tightly.

Even Jonathan, who was several seats over, looked in their direction. Obviously, he was a little curious about Gloria.

Much audience spontaneously looked at Jonathan and Jordy time after time, but were unable to talk to them. They started to envy Patrick, whom they ignored previously.

Time was ticking on Soon, it was time for the race."

The host walked to the middle of the track with a microphone and held the audience's horrid gaze. He smiled at everyone and bowed politely.

"Good morning, everyone. I'm the host of this game and I feel it a great honor to have you guys at our annual race. I believe most of our racers are ready for the game?"

Many racers raised their hands in response. Seeing this, the host smiled and nodded, "We have 280 racers registered this time. Now we'll have the first round knockout match. All of the matches won't be synchronized, we will have a timer for each racer. 180 people will be eliminated in the first round of the competition. The rest can enter the second round."

There were many rules in car racing, and the track was quite different. Each round would be more difficult than the previous one by setting the tracks with more obstacles. Certainly, the timing would be limited.

The host introduced the rules quickly, and everyone listened carefully for fear that the rules would be different from what they knew.

And just after the host finished, he smiled at the crowd, "Now, everyone, this is all about the rules. Racers, please get ready, and stand in your own order."

Before they came to the venue, they had written their names, or the teams and enterprises they represented on their name plates with their own number on them.

With that, the racers stood up one after another and took their number plates.

Nydia and Jennifer both looked at Gloria. They cheered for her warmly.

"Come on! Sweetheart!"

"We are waiting for you to return with a gold medall"

Bryson looked at her quietly, with a smile on his face, "I'll wait for you to come back."

Patrick remained silent.

Even though his son had told him it would be a surprise. Yet instead, he felt a nervous feeling. He didn't like this girl at all. He always felt that his son was so mischievous that this girl was also the same. It was going to be a ceremonious game, but the girl didn't seem to realize this.

He restrained his anger.

Gloria didn't say anything and walked over to the track directly.

Jonathan and Jordy noticed her rising up, and both of them were shocked. They could believe the Lloyd family had invited this girl to represent them in this racing game.

Obviously, much audience's attention was drawn by Gloria's dignified and graceful manner. They focused on her movements after they knew that she had been a racer before. They were quite shocked by that

"What? She's actually a racer? Does the Lloyd family already know that they couldn't win the race, so they deliberately send this girl on their behalf?"

Chapter 213 Mr. Collins Would Join the Game Himself

"It's possible. Maybe they thought it was fine to have this young woman practice the game."

"Bul. I she wajils to practice, she could register using her own name. Why would she join the game on behalf of the Lloyd family?"

"Really? No one has said she would represent the Lloyd family. Maybe they just happen to be old acquaintances."

For a moment, everyone lalked hotly about Gloria

Jordy gazed at her, feeling that there was something not quite right. He grew more and more familiar with her looks. But he always refused to admit it. George rose from his seat without seeing Jordy looking at him. George was suddenly irritated, "Damn! I'm going to play the game on your behalf, but you only care about showing it off for yourself." But..

Just as he said this, he suddenly found Gloria's figure, and he became alert, "Oh, damn, it's her!"

Jordy turned his eyes to George, frowning slightly, "What are you talking about?" George suddenly sat down, his face stern, "I can't beat her. I found her a little familiar when I looked at her face. Now I see her back, a figure that I will never forget for the rest of my life. I've seen this figure last time when I got out of the car after losing the game." That day, Gloria competed with a woman whom Nydia called over. When he drove to the destination, he happened to see Gloria getting out of the car as well. That became a figure he would never forget for the rest of his life. He couldn't believe that he had been defeated by a woman.

"What are you talking about?" Jordy seemed to frown again.

There was suspicion in George's eyes. He said, "It's strange. How come she looks a bit different from last time?"

Jordy became more curious and serious, and George immediately looked at Jordy, "Jordy, I want to help you. In fact, I'm willing to join the race for you, but listen, isn't this game really important to your family? Your father..."

Speaking of this, he stopped mentioning this topic. Seeing Jordy frowning, George immediately said, "I'm 100% sure that I can't defeat this woman. Perhaps only Hannah can compete with her. If you want to win this game, you must do it yourself."

Jordy was surprised.

While sitting beside them, Patrick heard George's whispering words on and off and was completely surprised. The next moment, Patrick looked at Bryson in shock, but found Bryson only sneering and looking at Gloria's back.

Is... this woman really an excellent racer?

George continued, "Remember the last time I complained to you that I had lost a game to a woman. It was her! Although she looks a little different this time, maybe it is because of her makeup. You know women always like to have a new look each time they do some new makeup. It must be her. She is really a powerful opponent, and you must concentrate on the game."

Jordy frowned slightly. He didn't speak, while George gazed at him, "So, do you want to do it yourself?"

Holding George's stern gaze, Jordy finally took the number plate from his hand.

This number plate had a number on it, and on its back was written "Representing the Collins Group". George's name was not on it.

Therefore, before the game began, people could decide who would participate in the game.

When Jonathan saw Jordy taking the number plate himself, he was obviously shocked,

"I can't believe Mr. Collins would join the game in person."
Jordy glanced at him aloofly, "Just to practice."
With that, he took the number plate and left determinedly.
Jonathan squinted his eye. He had discovered how George and Jordy had been whispering to each other.

Chapter 214 Where Did You Get Such a Powerful Racer?

George and Jordy saw the woman rise as a participant and immediately afterwards they had whispered so inconspicuously to each other.

So, what happened? Who is that woman?

Jonathan didn't ask to join the game by himself. He just continued to sit where he was.

After Gloria got ready for the game, another person showed up behind her. Gloria suddenly felt a familiar feeling which made her turn around to see what was going on. Unexpectedly, she saw Jordy. It made her eyes wide open with shock. Is he going to join the game in person?

Jordy was also gazing back at her with a powerful bearing and a pair of emotionless eyes.

Gloria felt ironic. She turned around and had wanted to take out her mobile phone and play with it for a while. Yet as she was afraid that Jordy would find her mobile phone familiar, she stood still and didn't dare do anything else

Bul..

When Gloria lowered her head, Jordy saw the tiny mole on the back of Ule's earlobe. And Jordy was suddenly dumbfounded,

Even the eyes were wide open with tremendous shock

It's her!!

It really is her!

Gloria could feel the hot, torrid gaze behind her.

She felt as if she was going to be pierced by his gaze. She raised her head slightly and looked forward. The host had begun to make preparations for the game. Soon, everyone began to enter the venue.

Jordy looked worse. He clenched his fists tightly. It is Gloria! Good for you, Gloria!

As for Gloria, she had no idea that Jordy would recognize her. All the time, she had pretended not to know this man.

That way everyone entered the venue one after another and got in their own cars. They wouldn't start the race together because the organizer specially ordered that the racers should be divided into two groups. One group would start the race first and the other later.

It happened that Gloria and Jordy were divided into two groups. Gloria happened to be the last member of the first group while Jordy Collins was assigned to the second group. He stood there, watching Gloria get into her car. Soon, she raced onto the track.

Jordy stared at her closely, his eyes swelling with coldness and rage

I have been cheated by this woman all the time!

All the time!

He should have trusted his intuition earlier. He couldn't believe he had disproved his own guess. He remembered Jennifer, Nydia and Bryson were all there. They were such good friends with Gloria No wonder Gloria will join the game for Bryson.

Just now he was still wondering why Gloria didn't come He also wondered why that woman had a similar bearing to Gloria's Jordy looked aloof. He realized that Gloria's car was rushing forward on the track The rules of the game would be to judge the time spent by each race. Whoever had the shortest time, he or she would win There was a timer in each car and another above the track, which aimed to improve the precision of timing Gloria was previously the last one who drove onto the track, yet soon she rated fifth among the competitors.

Many people marveled as Gloria's car drove past, their eyes brimming with surprise.

"Oh my God! Doesn't the white car rank the last at the beginning?"

"It's her! It's the woman who plays for the Lloyd Group!"

Just as her number plate revealed the name of the Lloyd Group, everyone was certain about it this time.

"I've recognized this woman. It's her! She is really an excellent racer. I thought she joined the game for accumulating experience. I was wrong. Where did the Lloyd Group find such an excellent racer?"

"You don't have to put her on a pedestal. We've only saw the first group. No one would know whoever more powerful comes next. Don't you realize such laws."

Chapter 215 Good Friends

For a moment, Gloria became the center of everyone's gossip. They stared at her direction, and suddenly found that she had niiclied to the first place in the game when she was just among the top three.

Jordy kept gazing at her car until it disappeared from his sight.

Gloria!

He closed his eyes as if restraining his anger

George had been informative about the game. But as he saw Jordy was so worried like that, George became a little curious. What happened to Jordy?

If it weren't inconvenient, he would have gone over to ask Jordy what happened. Obviously, Jonathan had been keeping an eye on Jordy's emotions. He frowned again and was wondering who the woman was, the one who joined the game on behalf of the Lloyd Group. He was also curious about what made Jordy behave like that.

Besides, the woman looked quite familiar to him.

Jonathan bit his lips and remained silent. Soon, the second group started their race.

The venue was silent because everyone was trying to see the best in the game. As the first one who drove onto the track, Jordy ranked first among the second group of racers.

Naturally, he finished the track first and was not surpassed by anyone during the game. Instead, Jordy had left all the other racers behind.

George smiled. He was proud of Jordy.

Excellent, determined as usual.

Jordy used to come to the field quite frequently. But afterwards, as he grew up, he had to attend other affairs and had gradually given up racing.

But that day, Jordy suddenly decided to join the game, which made him feel excited again. After all, it would be a challenge for him to face such a powerful opponent.

George knew how important this game was to Jordy. Otherwise, George wouldn't let go of the nice opportunity to compete with the woman.

"Wow! My sweetheart is back, the first one who finishes the race!" Nydia shouted excitedly.

The first group of racers got out of their cars one after another. And before the second group of racers returned, the third group started to run on the tracks again.

Although there are 280 contestants, it wouldn't take too much time for them to finish the game.

Because everyone was professional and it only took 12 to 20 minutes to finish one round of the track. The slowest racer wouldn't take more than 30 minutes. Therefore, it takes only two or three hours for all the groups of racers to finish the game.

The preliminary contest would take place in the morning, and the results would be announced a while later. In the afternoon, the elimination game would continue for a second time.

120 out of 180 contestants would be eliminated from the game.

At that moment, Patrick's eyes were full of excitement. Because any professional racer would take more than ten minutes to finish the track whereas that woman only took nine minutes.

That is so awesome!

But Patrick didn't know Gloria actually didn't exert all her efforts. She drove casually because she didn't want to draw too much attention. Otherwise, it would only have taken her five minutes, or even three minutes to finish it.

Patrick completely changed his attitude towards her. He looked at Gloria who was approaching, and couldn't help but say to her, "My dear, you are so marvelous. I guess I have underestimated you. I'll apologize to you. In our days, the fact is that the younger generation are way more excellent than the older."

Gloria only smiled and said, "It's alright, Mr. Lloyd. Bryson and I are really good friends."

Patrick was so excited that he quickly laughed and nodded.

Jonathan looked up and down at Gloria, noticing the ease in her eyes. Then Jonathan seemed to be pondering something with deep concerns.

He carefully examined Gloria's delicate face that he had never seen before.
That face...
He spontaneously took a breath.

Chapter 216

Chapter 216 Hannah, the Girl Who Disappeared

Who is she?

How come she looks so familiar?

Judging from her capability, would she be Hannah, the girl who had shown up all the time?

Hannah was a woman's name

Jonathan's eyes were lit. He glanced at Bryson while Bryson raised his eyebrows. It turned out that Bryson and Hannah had been friends. No wonder how hard Jonathan and Jordy tried, they still couldn't succeed winning Hannah over on their side.

Before long after, Jordy finished the track as well. It took him seven minutes.

It was two minutes faster than Gloria

Gloria glanced at the timer on his car and she looked quite calm. She realized that Jordy must have restrained his true strength.

Bryson found that Gloria was peeping at Jordy's timer, and immediately reminded her, "don't worry."

Gloria chuckled, "I've never worried."

It was common to witness victory or defeat in a battle. No one would win all the time. But she would spare no effort until she could finally battle against Jordy. When that came, she would like to compete with Jordy with her real strength.

When she was still married before, she had heard George saying that Jordy's racing skills were so outstanding that even Hannah wouldn't defeat him.

It would be a huge excitement for Gloria to defeat this man

Then, Jordy didn't wait at the destination. He took a meaningful look at Gloria and left directly.

George followed him immediately. They left the people from the Collins Group to stay and keep an eye on the field.

Gloria looked at Jordy's back which was straight and determined.

Soon, Jordy and George got into the car. George immediately asked Jordy, "Do you have other affairs to attend to? Do you want to come back to the game in the afternoon?"

"Yes."

They both sat in the backseats and the driver started the engine. George looked at Jordy's gloomy face and asked, "Is there anything wrong?"

Jordy's face was stern cold and he didn't speak.

George became more curious. "I know that woman didn't exert all her efforts, but neither did you. Are you worrying that her skills are better than yours? Jordy, did you feel uncertain about yourself?"

Jordy revealed a linge of coldness on his face and did not speak

George became even more curious, "Gee, what happened to you? Why do you look so gloomy?"

Jordy bit his lips thoughtfully and finally said in a deeper voice, "That woman is Gloria."

Suddenly, silence overwhelmed the atmosphere in the cas.

The driver was confused and didn't dare speak because he didn't know what exactly was going on

But George was dumblounded upon hearing this sentence "What? Don't be kidding mc, Jordy. How could she be Gloria? How could Gloria know how to join the race, you..."

He suddenly paused when he saw Jordy's serious face, which didn't make him look like he was kidding

George was confused

He tried to search for some explanations from the traces on Jordy's face and said, "Wait a minute, didn't get it wrong? You said that the woman on behalf of the Lloyd Group and who I couldn't defeat was Gloria?"

Without having Jordy's answer, George was shocked into silence all of a sudden and didn't know how to react.

But the next moment, Jordy's words brought anouier round of sensation, "She is Hannah as well."

"What?" George couldn't know what response he should give.

Even the driver almost lost control of his steering wheel as he heard the news. How could that happen?

Once she was still Mrs. Collins, and an influential lawyer. Now she becomes Hannah, the woman who was said to have disappeared for years.

How ridiculous is that!

George seemed to realize something at that moment, and he immediately looked at Jordy.

Chapter 217

Chapter 217 He Remembered His Issue with Her

"Oh my god, it really could be her. Otherwise, low come Gloria didn't show up today since she is a good friend with Jennifer and Nydia. Besides, Jennifer and Nydia seemed to be quite intimate with that woman just now."

Thinking more about it, Jordy's face seemed to tum sterner. Everyone would be daunted by the sharp look in Jordy's eyes

George gritted his teeth and said, "11 does make senso Ulat she could be Hannall.

After marrying you for three years, she had been in the Collins family and only went out several times, which was normal. But after she married you, Hannali seemed to have disappeared, including Norma And Norma didn't continue to file a lawsuit any more...”, The air seemed to freeze in the car.

Even the driver couldn't help shivering

George calmed Jordy down and said, “Jordy, you need to control your temper”

After the divorce, Gloria had been fighting against Jordy as if conducting a deliberate revenge. George smiled and comforted him, “The game is very important to you today. I know you won't be defeated by her. Besides, Gloria must have an obsession to join the game, otherwise why does she always fight against you? There is no doubt that she is trying to attract your attention.”

Jordy looked at George and sneered, “Attract my attention?”

George nodded, “Yes, that's what she is doing.”

Driver felt speechless and doubtful as he heard that,

Women wouldn't destroy what men like in order to attract men's attention.

Gloria had asked for a divorce on the spot, because of which the Collins Group almost missed a project. Also, she had filed a lawsuit, which made the Collins Group miss the project for sure and had to reimburse ten billion dollars. It was a huge amount of money. And people wouldn't call it attracting the Collins's attention.

Jordy cared so much about this game. But out of the blue, Hannah appeared. Though George intended to consort Mr. Collins, he still felt he had failed to do so.

George also felt a little embarrassed comforting him. He coughed gently and said, “So... what will you do next?”

Jordy shut his eyes, raised his hand, and pressed his hand against the bulging veins on his forehead. He said, “whatever.”

But from then on, he would always remember this issue with Gloria.

But from then on, he would always remember this issue with Gloria

The race in the morning was finally over. Jordy ranked second while Gloria ranked third. The first place was taken by a racer who had exerted all his efforts and scored a record of six minutes.

But in fact, Gloria and Jordy could easily surpass him

Patrick was very happy to see Gloria having such an achievement. Besides, it was just the beginning and there was quite a chance of winning. Moreover, he just noticed that Gloria seemed to have deliberately stepped on the brake once as if she wanted to slow down

Now that the results had been announced, those who were eliminated would not be able to proceed, whereas those who pass would celebrate their victory.

Patrick looked at Gloria and others with great pleasure, “Girls, don't leave, let's have lunch together. It's my treat.”

Bryson smiled to others and said, “Come on.”

“Sure.” Nydia responded with a smile.

Jennifer nodded but didn't speak. At that moment, they all turned to Gloria with a smile. Gloria didn't refuse either. She beamed and said, “Mr. Lloyd, thank you for your kindness.”

“You're welcome. I still want to apologize to you. Come on, let's have lunch.”

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 218

Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 218

Chapter 218 It Was Brilliant!

As they were talking, they got into the car.

They took two cars to lunch. Because Patrick wanted to talk to Gloria, he asked Gloria to sit with him in the same car Bryson sat in the co-driver seat, while Gloria and Patrick sat in the backseats.

As for Nydia and Jennifer, they took another car

Patrick looked at Gloria with a smile and said, "Young miss, what's your name?"

Gloria's eyes flickered and the next moment she smiled and said, "My name is Hannah."

"Hannah!" Patrick was shocked with his mouth wide open. He didn't anticipate such an answer. He could never believe that the woman in front of him was someone with a wide reputation.

However experienced and restrained Patrick was, he still couldn't hide his inner surprise at that moment.

Bryson turned his head. He noticed that his father didn't say anything as if he was still digesting this shocking news. Bryson smiled and asked, "Dad, how do you feel? Is it a surprise for you?"

He said he would make a surprise for his father. And he did.

"It's a surprise" Patrick couldn't help laughing, "I really didn't expect that you could invite Miss Hannah here."

Just now, he was calling her "young miss", but now he didn't dare to address her like that. All of a sudden, he addressed her with respect.

One should know, in this competition, everyone was waiting to see whether Bryson was able to invite Hannah on their behalf.

The act of giving out an invitation was not so difficult, because Hannah was extremely famous. Many people were shoving to invite her to join them. In fact, the Collins family and the Brown family were the first to do so.

Therefore, if anyone wanted to defeat Jordy, they had to win all the other groups first. It would be a test for Bryson's capability. If he didn't have intelligence and capability, how could he manage to take over such a large group.

In fact, Bryson didn't have to win the game. As long as Hannah took the first place, Bryson's capability would be officially recognized.

Patrick was in such a good mood that even if his son lost the game to Jordy afterwards, Hannah would still keep a great record in the game. That way, his son would still be applauded.

Gloria remained silent but only smiled.

Patrick's deep gratitude became stronger, "Hannah, I really want to thank you this time and apologize to you as well”

Gloria shook her head quickly, “Mr. Lloyd, you don’t have to apologize. Bryson and I are very good friends. You don’t have to do this at all. Please.”

Patrick was surprised upon hearing this. He realized that the woman was not arrogant at all and was doing so well in her communication with himself. She was calm and dignified, instantly winning over people’s affection.

Moreover, he even felt that such an excellent girl would be a good match with his son.

Bryson nodded and echoed, “Yes, Dad, she is my good friend. You don’t have to do this. Otherwise, Hannah will feel stressed.”

God knew that he almost slipped his tongue by saying that Hannah was his beloved.

When he said the word “friend”, he felt inexplicably bitter and effortless.

Gloria’s eyes brightened a little but she acted as if she didn’t notice anything.

Patrick was unaware of that, and he immediately burst out laughing, “Brilliant! This is brilliant!”

Patrick was quite a serious senior in private. But after that, he regarded Gloria as his son’s savior as well as his son’s wife-to-be.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 219

Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 219

Chapter 219 Coming from a Noble Family

Patrick grew more benign towards Gloria, shedding off all his arrogance as a president. One should know Bryson’s group, though not as big as that of the Collins and the Brown, was still a powerful presence in Los Angeles. Otherwise, he wouldn’t be assigned the order in the game just after Jordy.

They chatted for a while before arriving at their destination

Soon they got off the car one after another after arriving, and the two drivers drove away together.

They talked and laughed, walking into a reserved box and sealed themselves. This time, Bryson pulled the chair for Gloria and said, “Hannah, please.”

Gloria’s eyes flickered subtly and she sat down cooperatively. The next moment, Bryson sat beside her.

Patrick glanced at Bryson in surprise. He knew his son’s temperament quite well and knew Bryson was doing this especially for Hannah.

Maybe he’s already taken a fancy to this girl

Patrick was happy at heart. He guessed Hannah must come from a noble family judging by her bearing and the fact that she had hidden her identity. She had a noble bearing that was even greater than that of Jennifer and Nydia.

He was quite optimistic about him and Hanna.

Seeing this, Nydia protested, “Hey! I guess you are treating her better than us. We’ve at least accompanied you all morning. But you only pull the chair for Glo-for her?"

Jennifer pretended to be disappointed and deliberately bantered with jealousy. "Never mind. We're nobody to him. Come on, let me pull the chair for you."

Bryson was a bit awkward. Even Gloria felt speechless.

Patrick had witnessed the two girls growing up into young women. Knowing that they were deliberately joking with Bryson, Patrick laughed, "Come on, let me pull your chairs."

With that, Patrick walked over to help them get seated. But the two girls didn't dare to let a senior help them do that. So, the two of them quickly helped themselves get seated. Jennifer hurriedly said, "Mr. Lloyd, don't be surprised. We often tease each other like this."

Patrick laughed, "It's fine. Young people are more energetic than my generation. If you are stern-faced, then what's the point of life? You have been friends since you grew up together. And I like you all, so it would be natural for me to help you pull your chairs."

"Hahaha..."

Everyone talked and laughed. The atmosphere was quite harmonious.

"Come on, you can order whatever you want to eat" Patrick was amiable, letting no one feel any pressure.

They each ordered a dish, and Patrick added a few more. Then the waiter took the order and went to prepare it.

While everyone was waiting for the dishes to be served, Patrick looked at Gloria with some suspicions, "Hannah, I didn't know you were still good friends with Bryson. I don't think I had seen you before."

Nydia and Jennifer paused, and Bryson's eyes slickered as well. Just as he was thinking about how to put it, Gloria smiled and said, "Mr. Lloyd, I have been abroad all these years. We've been contacting on WhatsApp."

Patrick suddenly remembered that Hannah had not competed in any game for three years. It seemed that it suddenly dawned on him. "I see."

Gloria only smiled and nodded, and soon the waiter came to serve the dishes, and everyone ate with laughter and joy.

Whereas, Jordy and George were having a quiet meal.

The two of them sat at the table. And George felt the coldness given by Jordy, which almost generated a cold atmosphere at the table.

George coughed softly, "Have... have you recovered from it yet? Really? Anyway, you're divorced, and now you are having your own life. Whatever she does is her own choice. We'll see what we can do. Besides, she is just a woman and she has no one behind her. Why are you still worrying about being defeated by her?"

Jordy sneered. Just a woman? This woman has made me lose tens of billions of dollars.

It wasn't a small amount.

George also thought about this. But he coughed softly, and hurriedly explained, "I was being too careless. I said I was going to appeal again, but you stopped me. I might have won the lawsuit."

Jordy put down his fork. He didn't eat much during the meal, and George continued, "You don't have an able stomach. If you still don't eat, you would harm your own body. Besides, it's not good to waste food."

With that, George handed him a new fork.

Jordy frowned and didn't want to take the fork. But George insisted. "Jordy, you should know better than this. Do you want me to urge you to eat? You are not a child."

At that moment, George's eyes brimmed with worries.

Jordy pressed his lips and finally took over the fork again.

What they feared most was that his stomach would have more serious problems if he didn't eat in time.

He didn't speak and ate silently. George felt relieved.

Obviously, he didn't dare to mention Gloria again, and quickly switched the topic, "By the way, I'm leaving in two days."

Jordy glanced at him, "where are you going?"

George raised his eyebrows, "my father asked me to go on a business trip to the beach. I'll come back and bring you some local gifts."

Jordy didn't speak. He was obviously not interested.

The atmosphere was always quite suffocating. They only waited for the elimination game in the afternoon.

This time, the game would be more intense than the first round. Jordy and Gloria would be in the same group this time. Gloria still kept her true strength in restraint. Jordy didn't sprint either... Therefore, it's still the same ranking as in the morning, with Jordy ranking the second and Gloria the third.

The one who always occupied first place was the racer found by Jonathan.

He was surprised and delighted that he could keep this achievement until now!

Mr. Brown said that if he could maintain first place, he would give Jordy 100 million!

This is not a small amount!

It's too expensive!

Even if he had to try his best to get the first place, which might lead to a car crash, he was willing to do so. Therefore, his family would no longer have to worry about their future life.

There were fewer participants this time than in the morning, so the third round also began soon.

This time, the game would eliminate 30 participants out of 60.

The Brown Group ranked the first, the Collins ranked the second while the Lloyd ranked the third.

Patrick was a little worried at that moment. Is the first-place winner so powerful? Is it going to be a little tricky?

Jonathan frowned slightly. It was obvious that he had just guessed that the woman should be Hannah. Besides, Hannah would score higher than her current grades. Clearly, she had preserved her true strength to prepare for the later outbreak. And Jordy was also a hidden danger. Jonathan narrowed his eyes slightly. He knew they were doomed to lose the game, and he knew that he could not win without Hannah. He didn't really come here today to win. Soon the game would eliminate 20 out of 30 and there were only 10 lefts. But this time, both Jordy and Gloria didn't restrain their own power again. In the end, Jordy came first and Gloria came second. The two people had fought hard against each other in time.
