Chapter 376 He Cut Ties With His Father

“What a bitch!!!” Angela was getting mad now! She didn’t expect Jordy to have dinner with Gloria at all And she didn’t expect Gloria to not care what Jordy thought and that she would be so foul-mouthed! Isn’t Gloria afraid that Jordy will hate her even more after hearing what she said? Did Gloria sacrifice herself to hurt me? After Gloria did this, she couldn’t keep Jordy to be with her by being hospitalized. It might make Jordy start to suspect her! Besides, Angela could feel that Jordy didn’t target Gloria at all when Gloria was talking just now. How could he be like this? Why did things turn out this way? Angela roared, “Gloria!!!” You are such a bitch! Angela’s chest rose and fell. She was clutching her phone tightly, and her face was getting paler. She was panicking now. No! She could never let Gloria go on like this! Gloria finished dinner and cleaned up before going to her room to take a shower. When the phone rang again, she answered it Trene’s voice sounded a little heavy. “Norma things are a little tricky. I only got a little clue. Gloria’s eyes flickered. She understood Irene and said, “It’s alright if you can’t find out because she’s always careful and cautious.”

Irene frowned and said, “Wait for me. I will continue to look into it. I want to see if they are involved. But this time, things might be..” “Well, that’s okay. She’ll play another dirty trick on me “You...” Irene’s face was getting ugly. “How could she have gone so far? Gloria let out a soft laugh. “No, she’s not to blame this time. It’s my fault “What?” Irene instantly figured it out and frowned. Did you provoke her?” “Yup.” Gloria laughed, because Irene knew her so well. Sometimes, Irene could realize her intentions before she told her the whole story Irene got a little worried and said, “Gloria, you are making such a risky move. Although you may be a little slower in the way you did it before, we can win the game by taking one step at a time anyway, but now you are...” After pausing for a short while, Irene said helplessly. “You’re too impulsive. Now we don’t have enough power Gloria curled her lips and said, “Irene, trust me.” Irene pursed her lips and finally let out a sigh. “If you need anything, call me anytime. No matter what I’ll be on your side. You mustn’t bear the burden on your own.” Gloria smiled and said, “Don’t worry. I won’t forget you until the end of time, but you can help me check these things out now. Make sure to keep the evidence.” Seeing that Gloria could still make jokes Irene wanted to criticize her again, but Gloria had made up her mind, so Irene couldn’t continue to judge her. Finally, she felt helpless and sighed as she said. “Okay. “Thanks, Irene.” “You must look for less trouble in the future. You have to protect yourself!”

Chapter 377 Gloria Sleeps Soundly

“And then what? Harold paused for a moment before saying softly. “I still have to check the specifics. I can’t be sure if this matter has anything to do with Miss White so I can’t draw a conclusion.” Jordy’s cold face looked calm. His expression kept changing “I see.” After saying that Jordy hung up the phone. Silence returned to the room. Jordy held the phone. There was a glint in his cold eyes. Gloria finished her work as usual for the next two days. She spent almost all of her time with Jordy during the day. And she ate three meals a day with Jordy. Gloria and Jordy did not communicate with each other except during work. The seven days of travel were finally over. After she stayed here tonight, she would go back tomorrow. Gloria was wondering why Jordy didn’t leave tonight, but since Jordy wouldn’t give the order, she couldn’t say anything to him. The next day, they left together. Gloria and Jordy still sat in first class while Harold sat elsewhere. Gloria didn’t want to talk too much to Jordy, so she put on her blindfold and went to sleep. She treated Jordy as an invisible person from beginning to end.

Jordy’s expression became more and more gloomy, but he had a lot of work to do. He read the documents and occasionally glanced at Gloria, who was dead asleep out of the corner of his eye. He looked grimmer. Gloria had been busy with work last night so she didn’t sleep well. At that moment, she was sitting on the plane while her head was shaking. Jordy, who was working suddenly felt a sinking in his shoulder. Then he turned his head and saw Gloria sleeping soundly. His cold eyes gradually calmed down at that moment. Then, he looked at Gloria sleeping beside him. Jordy pursed his lips, withdrew his gaze, and continued to work. And he didn’t even realize that his body was stiff and afraid to move. It was like he was afraid to wake up Gloria sitting next to him. When Gloria leaned on Jordy’s shoulder, she felt her neck was not so sore. She was sleeping more soundly. Suddenly, the captain’s voice reached everyone’s ears. Something went wrong! At that moment, Gloria woke up! The passengers were all in a panic because a foreign warplane suddenly appeared across the plane! They were armed and had started to attack their plane! But the captain didn’t make things too clear, because he was afraid the passengers would panic.

Chapter 378 The Shock

Then, the next thing they heard was what sounded like something blowing up! Jordy immediately grabbed Gloria's hand and headed out Gloria's eyelashes trembled slightly. She let him pull her along Soon, they arrived at the captain's cabinet At this moment the captain looked a bit panicked. However, when the captain heard the chaos outside, he hurriedly reassured the passengers again The captain's reassurance to the passengers this time was useless. At this point, the passengers heard a banging sound. And someone had already seen what was going on through the window! "Someone is attacking our plane! They're shooting!" "Ah!" At this point, people were screaming Everyone was panicking! Some flight attendants were already crying and kept saying, "What are we going to do? How could this happen? Can we still live?" "I'm so scared! At that moment, one of the flight attendants suddenly screamed out. Her screaming was transmitted through her microphone. The passengers suddenly panicked even more! There were three green helicopters surrounding their plane.

Many of them were holding guns and pointing in their direction The captain immediately turned off the microphone and looked at the flight attendant as he said, "Anyone can panic at this time, but we can't The flight attendant was too frightened to shout again Some of the flight attendants were afraid to speak up and said in a panic "What should we do! Should we let the passengers parachute out of the plane? "No!" The captain immediately said in an angry tone "Our plane has been surrounded by helicopters. And they all have guns in their hands. What if the passengers are killed once they jump?" "But they are getting closer and closer. If we don't do something, we'll be screwed..." The flight attendant looked flustered and didn't know what to do. The captain's face became paler, but he didn't say a word. Bang! Bang! Bang! The sound of bullets hitting the plane was getting louder and louder. And everyone was panicking and shouting. Even if the captain spoke again to comfort the passengers, he could no longer let the passengers calm down! If this went on the captain was afraid that the passengers would want to parachute out of the plane. As Gloria was thinking about this, the passengers were already rushing toward the captain and yelling Quick! We want to parachute! We want to get out of here! If it keeps going like this we're going to get killed!" The situation was chaotic. And there was nothing the captain could do. Jordy walked up to the microphone with a frown And the captain's face changed slightly,

Chapter 379 He Is Responsible for Hundreds of Lives

Gloria only felt that this moment was like being in a dream_ She looked at Jordy with surprise. Although he usually looked indifferent and seemed distant when he came into contact with anyone now he took the initiative to maintain order and calm down the other passengers For a moment, she felt like Jordy was a warm-hearted person Jordy turned off the microphone. Then the captain looked at Jordy with gratitude and said, "Thank you so much, sir!" Although he was able to stabilize the passengers for the moment, he could not completely calm them down. Then the captain said in an anxious tone. "The plane is still flying, but we're in a not very stable situation. I'm afraid the pilot can't take it anymore." This was his fifteenth year working on the plane. Although he was a very experienced pilot, he had not experienced anything like this. Jordy immediately said, "I'll be the pilot, but I need someone to navigate me." The captain and the flight attendants all looked at Jordy in amazement, and there was a look of disbelief in their eyes. "Sir, you Does he even know how to fly a plane? Harold hurriedly said. "Everyone this gentleman is certified to fly, and there are few who can match his flying skills." "Well..."

The look in everyone's eyes looked even more amazed. Even Gloria looked at Jordy with some surprise and there was a shocking look in her eyes. Has Jordy taken the flight test? It seemed that she still knew too little about him, but that was normal because he had never given her the chance to get to know him either. "Well..I can get someone to navigate you. And there is a commander on the plane, but right now the situation." People were in a state of panic If one mistake was made in command, it would put the plane in danger. And the plane might crash, and we'll die at once. At that moment, no one dared to make a move. Seeing this scene, Gloria said in a calm tone, "I'll do it." Everyone looked at Gloria again, and they stared at Gloria with a more and more amazed and frightened look in their eyes. However, Harold seemed to realize something. Then he immediately looked at Jordy and said, "Mr. Collins, she can do it." This was Harold's recognition of Gloria. At this point a surprising look flashed across his eyes but Jordy had trust in Harold. Then he immediately looked at the captain and said, "Please give the order. I'll fly the plane." The captain's face changed "Excuse me. Are you Mr. Collins? And may I ask if you are Miss White?" Someone recognized Jordy and Gloria and there was a look of shock in all their eyes! When the captain found out who they were, he was stunned, but he felt more surprised. Then,

Chapter 380 He Even Knows How to Fly a Plane

If anything went wrong this time, he would be an evil sinner who had abandoned the lives of hundreds of passengers Although it was not a big deal if he died, he could not let so many people lose their lives because of his mistakes. The captain's arrival came as a surprise to the pilot Immediately after the captain looked at the pilot and said, "Jason, thank you for your hard work. Next, you will let Mr. Collins and Miss White fly and control the plane. Please let Mr. Collins sit on your seat. You must take control of the plane before you get up." Jason's eyes showed a stunning look. "Well... Is that

"okay?" Jason was surprisingly relieved when he heard that someone was going to take over flying the plane on his behalf. The captain nodded at Jason and said, "Yes! Come on." Jason muttered a reply. He took control of the plane and immediately looked at Jordy and said, "Mr. Collins, please." When Jason said Jordy's name, he was still shocked. Because he had seen Jordy and Gloria on the screen, he was extremely shocked at this point. Who would have thought that Jordy could fly a plane? When Jordy sat down and steadily steered the plane, Gloria also began to command. When they heard her words, the captain and Jason were completely relieved. Although they had never worked in this industry before they looked more professional than the professional staff: The plane was still wobbly just now, but it was flying smoothly.

Harold took the captain's place at this point. He opened the microphone and communicated with everyone to reassure the passengers. The plane stopped shaking and started to fly smoothly. Listening to Harold's steady voice, even with the sound of bullets crashing outside and the passengers in fear, the plane flew steadily in the air. By now, the plane was approaching Los Angeles. According to the previous schedule, they would arrive at the airport in another half hour. Those planes were still surrounding the plane. With Gloria's command and Jordy's smooth flying skills, the two of them increased the flying speed of the plane by two times.
