

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 631-635

Chapter 631

I'll Leave Him to You

"You know nothing! The Three Musketeers are among the best in the world. Even if the Collins Group has excellent technology, they can't compare with the Three Musketeers."

Martha was unconvinced, "You think the Three Musketeers can shake the Collins Group?"

"Of course!" Claude looked disdainful, "The Three Musketeers are capable!"

"But..."

"Oh, she has broken into the 19th floor! Then it will be the 20th floor!" Before Martha could finish speaking, Claude looked at the evidence sent by Gloria excitedly.

He replied with joy.

Claude, (I'll pay you right now!]

Then he ordered his staff to transfer money.

Martha felt like she was going to fall apart!

"You have owed half a billion! How are you going to repay it?"

Claude said in a flat tone, "My shares will be profitable, okay?"

Martha was speechless.

She had a bad premonition, and asked, "Is it really the last floor?"

"Sure! As long as we get the secret information of the Collins Group, we won't have to be so humble anymore! No one will dare to bully us, and Angela will be discharged soon."

"We'll be safe as long as nobody looks into this! We'll have our only chance after getting the secret information of the Collins Group!"

Martha frowned deeply, and she was getting more and more uneasy. Words failed her and she was just worried.

"This whole thing is fishy! Claude, you're ruining our family!"

Claude didn't want to argue with Martha. He kept staring at his mobile phone and held his hopes up. They would enter the last floor and get the secret information soon. Now he was waiting for the good news from Black Rose.

Ten minutes had passed. Twenty minutes had passed. An hour had passed. He still got no response. Martha and Claude waited all night.

Martha frowned, "Why does it take so long? Are they playing any tricks?"

Claude's expression changed slightly, but the next moment he spoke in a deep voice,

"No!"

The Three Musketeers were famous. They would never give up halfway, let alone deceived their clients.

"It must be very difficult to break into the last floor. Stop it. You know nothing!"

"Are you serious? Come on, you are just fooled!"

"Can you just shut up?" Claude was already uneasy, but Martha kept chattering beside him.

He really wanted to silence her with a slap, so it would be quiet here.

Claude did not know that the hacker whom he thought was going to break into the last floor was sitting in front of the computer without touching the keyboard.

The man beside her was still here.

Gloria looked at him and asked with doubts, "When will you leave?"

Jordy said calmly,

"I've helped you so much with your work. I guess I have the right to know the follow-up."

Gloria was speechless.

She didn't drive him away but spoke calmly, "What are you going to do with Claude?"

"Since you want to avenge yourself on him, I'll leave him to you." Jordy sounded relaxed.

Gloria looked at him silently. She didn't believe what he said.

Chapter 632

How Can We Accept That?

If he only watched her deal with Claude, it could save his time and effort.

However, Gloria didn't intend to say anything. She just sent a message to Claude with the computer.

Black Rose, (Failed)

It was a simple message even without a full point.

Jordy seemed to sympathize with Claude at this moment.

He lost two billion for nothing.

It was almost dawn, and Claude was still waiting. When he received the news, he said with excitement.

"She must have got it done!"

Although Martha had been scolding Claude and thought he was fooled, her expectation was kindled and she immediately stepped forward to look at Claude's mobile phone.

However...

She saw only one word.

Claude was dumbfounded. Martha reacted faster than him, crying and kicking his leg angrily.

"This is the 'success' you want! They did this on purpose! Claude, you are such a fool. Why did I marry a fool like you?"

Martha was going mad, and even her eyes were filled with confusion and fear.

Claude looked extremely pale. He shook his head in disbelief and looked carefully at his mobile phone. He felt something wrong and said in a deep voice.

"It must be a joke. We can't fail. I paid for each floor on time. How can she be so perfunctory? Moreover, she has broken into nineteen floors. Why did she fail on the last floor?"

Martha beat him in a rage, but Claude had forgotten the pain and continued, "We have offended the Collins Group by doing this. What's the point of her giving up like this? No! It must be her joke!"

While thinking so, he sent a message to Gloria.

Claude, [You must be kidding, right? In fact, you have succeeded, right? Or do you just want more money?]

Claude even wished that the other party just wanted more money. It was better than a failure!

Martha kept crying beside him, but he didn't feel noisy. He just fixed his eyes on his mobile phone.

The fear in his heart was stronger than any other emotion.

While he was waiting, his mobile phone suddenly beeped.

Claude looked at it quickly, and Martha also came forward for a closer look.

Black Rose, (I failed. I have broken into nineteen floors. There's no need to stop on the last floor, isn't it? The last floor is too difficult. Sorry, I am incompetent.)

Claude was dumbfounded.

How was that possible? How could this happen?

His hands were shaking.

Two billion dollars. It was a huge sum of money. They just lost it for nothing? Who could accept such a result?

He texted Gloria in a panic, and kept begging her to get it done.

But Gloria only said she couldn't do it. In the end, she simply ignored Claude's messages.

Claude was really going crazy. Martha was also devastated. She robbed Claude's mobile phone.

"What are you doing?" Claude looked at Martha angrily, and Martha yelled like a madman.

"Then she should give us a refund. She took us so much money and told me she couldn't do it? How can we accept that?"

Chapter 633

To See Her Take a Bath

Seeing that Martha had picked up his mobile phone to type, Claude immediately got up and rushed to her to snatch his mobile phone back.

"You fking psycho! Give me back my mobile phone!"

Martha immediately gripped the mobile phone and refused to give it back to him. She said angrily, "You are a psycho! She failed it, and we can't even have a refund? That's 2 billion dollars! You are owing so much money, and you even sold our houses for this. Claude, you have been a shareholder for so many years, and you just gave your money to her so easily? You really think it's so easy for you to earn two billion dollars? That's all the money you saved all these years!"

Claude shouted angrily with a frown, "That's because I didn't have so many shares and this status. I have made bundles of money this year, haven't I? Martha, don't text her! Maybe she just wants to make things difficult for me. She'll break into the last floor!"

Martha spluttered, "She didn't want to offend the Collins Group, but she has got your money, so she gave up. Why are you so stupid? Are you a moron?"

"You bitch! Crazy bitch!" Claude snatched the phone back!

"Give it to me! Give me your cell phone! Ask for the money back! You made our family a mess! Oh, God!" Martha rushed up to snatch his phone crazily.

However, men were stronger than women. Claude pushed Martha down on the sofa and held his mobile phone tightly.

Seeing that she was about to get up and continue to snatch his mobile phone, Claude said angrily, "This is all because of you! Martha, go back and take care of Angela! Don't make me hurt you!"

"Claude! You lunatic! You are crazy!"

Seeing that Claude was about to return to the bedroom, she immediately rushed up. However, Claude had closed the door and locked it from the inside.

No matter how Martha knocked on the door outside, he didn't respond.

At this moment, Gloria had turned off her computer. It was almost dawn. Jordy stayed with her for the whole night.

The air between them could actually be so harmonious.

During the three years of marriage, he never stayed with her in the same room for so long.

Now... Gloria thought it was a hallucination.

However, she knew that he did this for a purpose.

It was pathetic.

Jonathan was like this. Now the man who hated her so much also changed his attitude towards her gradually for his purpose.

Should she be complacent that she was so valuable, or should she feel sad that she had no other merit except being used by others?

Gloria looked at Jordy beside her. Seeing that he was still sitting in his chair and didn't intend to leave, she said calmly, "You've seen the end. Mr. Collins, what else do you want to see?"

Jordy looked at her opening and shutting cherry lips as his eyes suddenly darkened.

A sentence that shocked him flashed in his mind!

I want to see you take a bath.

Jordy's breathing suddenly became disordered. He became indecent. He must have been affected by George!

Gloria was confused.

She looked at Jordy whose expression changed suddenly with suspicion, "Are you okay?"

Chapter 634

His Face Was Covered with Sweat

Jordy's attention was suddenly drawn back. He frowned, "Yes."

With that, he got up directly.

He needed to chill out!

Then he said in a deep voice, "Don't forget what you've promised me."

Gloria nodded, "I'll visit grandma 20 times. I'll do it even if you don't say it."

Jordy headed outside without saying anything else.

He came quickly and left quickly. Gloria seemed to have got used to it. She didn't get up to stretch herself until she heard the door close.

Then she picked up her mobile phone, took a bath, and then went back to her bedroom to lie down.

Looking at the messages Claude kept sending to her in the background, Gloria blocked him.

Losing two billion dollars was just a small lesson.

However... this wasn't over. She would teach them another good lesson and make them pay the price.

And Claude...

He couldn't sleep!

He stayed up all night. He had lost 2 billion dollars!

He couldn't accept this!

"Claude, let me in!"

Martha was still punching and kicking at the door outside. Claude was annoyed to death, but he knew that she would not leave before he opened the door. He locked his mobile phone and took a deep breath before opening the door while suppressing his anger.

Martha rushed in to find his mobile phone. Claude looked at her coldly, "Stop looking for it! I've locked it. You don't have the password!"

"Claude!" Martha was angrier, "Are you crazy? You don't blame her for failing the task, and you don't even ask for the money back?"

"No!" Claude held his breath, and finally told Martha what he had been reluctant to tell her, "She said at the beginning that she wouldn't give us a refund if she failed."

Martha was shocked.

She looked so furious.

A surge of anger suddenly seized her again. She slapped Claude across the face, "She said such things, and you still told her to do this for you? Claude, you are a fking idiot!"

"That's enough! How would I know this would happen? They would say that before they took any orders. I thought they did that just in case."

"Yes, they did! Since they couldn't promise they could succeed, then they were very likely to fail. You... Why did I marry you? Afking idiot!"

"Go out! Get out of here! I didn't want to see this happen, either!" Claude gnashed his teeth.

He obviously had held a grudge against Black Rose.

But...

What was the use of that? He could do nothing with her!

Did he dare to offend her? She had superb skills! She could break into the program of his company in minutes.

But what could he do?

At this moment, Claude suddenly felt exhausted. He lost all his money and his status in the company was declining. Black Rose had failed, and the Collins Group would investigate who broke into their program. If they were more professional than Black Rose, would they find out that it was him behind the scenes?

Claude's face was covered with cold sweat instantly. What should he do?

His heart trembled uncontrollably, and he was flustered. If so, he would be finished!

However, the man he was afraid of was sitting on the bed, completely leaving him behind.

Chapter 635

Saw It for the First Time

He didn't care about this matter at all.

Claude was just a nobody. He wasn't interested in dealing with him.

Jordy was driving. If Harold was the co-driver, he could tell that Jordy was in a good mood.

He drove to the company and even felt that time passed quickly today.

When he got to his desk, he didn't feel sleepy but decided to continue working.

But...

When he saw the computer, he thought of Gloria who was sitting in front of the computer and concentrating on cracking the program of their Collins Group

The floors of locks seemed to be nothing in front of her. He knew that as long as she wanted to crack them, no one could stop her.

The twentieth floor might be a simple game for her, and she didn't even need to spend much time on it.

How many other things were Gloria hiding from him?

When he knew that she was Black Rose, no one knew how complicated his feelings were.

In the past, he thought that the woman he married was a vain eye candy with no merit.

But now...

After knowing her identities, Jordy felt he was wrong...

He frowned deeply and pursed his lips.

The strange thoughts made him look cold gradually.

The next day.

Gloria went to the company as usual.

The office was still very small, but it was very warm. After all, it was well-lighted.

Just as she was going to deal with her work, her mobile phone suddenly beeped.

She unlocked it and found it was a message from Jordy.

Jordy, (Remember to tell me before you go to see grandma.)

Gloria was speechless.

She frowned, but she had promised Jordy that she would go. Moreover, he helped her earn 2 billion dollars yesterday and didn't ask her for dividends, so she agreed directly.

Gloria, (OK)

She put down her mobile phone and continued to work. The door was knocked.

"Gloria, it's me." Sheila's gentle voice came to her ear.

"Come in."

Sheila opened the door and stepped in.

"Are you busy?"

Gloria smiled, looked at the documents in her hands, and said in a calm voice, "I'm dealing with some work."

Sheila nodded, put all the documents on Gloria's desk and said with a smile, "These documents have been handled. You need to read them before submitting them to Manager Johnson."

Gloria nodded, "OK, I'll send them to her as soon as I finish reading them."

Sheila nodded with a smile, "Okay! I found that someone was upset after you became the deputy manager. Gloria, you should be careful!"

Gloria's eyes were calm, but she knew whom she was talking about.

"What is Sarah doing recently?"

"You took half of her work. She said that she was very leisurely, and she was grateful for your promotion." Sheila had a sneer on her lips.

She had always been a gentle person, and Gloria saw this look on her face for the first time.

She frowned slightly but said nothing.

Sheila also noticed that she was being frivolous and quickly wiped the sneer off her face, "Cough... Gloria, I was just..."

Gloria nodded with a smile, "I understand."
