

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 636-640

Chapter 636 He Only Liked Gloria

Sheila coughed awkwardly and said nothing

"I'm sorry, I shouldn't have had that look..." Sheila continued with a guilty look, "You are a very good girl. I don't want you to be hurt. I want you to guard against them. You are smart and excellent, so I guess you know what to do."

Gloria nodded with a smile, "Yes, you don't have to explain it to me."

Sheila nodded with a smile, "Okay. Then read these documents when you have time, and let me know if you need anything."

Gloria nodded, "OK."

Sheila didn't stay any longer but just left after saying something else.

Gloria stared at the door closed by Sheila for a while, and then continued to work

She only felt that this day passed by quickly.

In the following week, she went to see Karen three times. She told Jordy every time before she went. She didn't write down how many times she still needed to go. In her opinion, this was not a task. She should visit grandma frequently.

Moreover, Karen was in a better mood after being visited by her and she even built anticipation.

But...

Gloria often saw a complicated look flash across Karen's eyes. Karen hesitated to tell her something several times.

Gloria thought that maybe it wasn't convenient for her to say it, so she pretended not to see it, for fear that Grandma would be in a dilemma.

Anyway, she liked the current situation. She was at ease and comfortable,

This week, Bryson had been trying to ask her out, but she always refused with excuses.

Then it was finally the day that Gloria needed to meet Bryson's mother.

They made an appointment before, but it was called off because Gloria was busy with some things. So they met on this day.

At 11000

Gloria, Nydia and Jennifer arrived at the restaurant early.

Jennifer and Gloria sat on one side, and Nydia sat opposite Gloria.

Jennifer was nervous. She glanced at Gloria and said with flusters, "Gloria, Mrs. Lloyd doesn't know the details. Will she blame you? I'm worried that..."

Nydia immediately shook her head with a smile, "No, she's very kind and understanding. Have you forgotten how gentle she was to us?"

"You forgotten what she did when Bryson was hurt?"

The three of them recalled that scene instantly.

It was in their high school days. Bryson was beaten by a local ruffian.

Because the sophomore that the ruffian liked was into Bryson and always pestered him. The ruffian was upset and called a bunch of ruffians to beat Bryson up.

Although Bryson was not seriously injured, his mother was angry and made the thing bigger. All those who beat Bryson were sent into prison, and the crimes they committed before were also found out. Then they were sentenced to imprisonment for life.

Since then, no one in the school had thought about hurting Bryson, and everyone knew his true identity after that thing happened.

They knew that he had a powerful family background and no one could afford to offend him.

Bryson was handsome, had a good figure, a distinguished family background, and was an excellent student. More girls liked him and many of them wanted to throw themselves into his arms, but everyone knew that he only liked Gloria.

Chapter 637 A Spoony

Gloria pursed her lips silently.

Nydia shook her head again, "It's different. We grew up together and our families had been friends for generations. None of us wanted that to happen. Mrs. Lloyd won't take it to heart."

Jennifer sighed, "I'm just worried. I know in theory she won't."

Jennifer bowed her head after saying that. In fact, she was still guilty. She shouldn't have blamed Gloria that day, but... Mrs. Lloyd cared more about Bryson than she did. After all, Bryson was her son.

Jennifer became more and more worried,

Gloria was calm, "I should be blamed for what happened that day. I think it's normal even if Mrs. Lloyd blames me, Jennifer, don't think too much. Sometimes we have to bear the consequence for what we do."

Nydia frowned. "We're friends. You are ashamed, because you regard Bryson as a friend. But a relationship's about two people. He had been chasing you. Gloria, you can refuse if you don't want to be with him, can't you? It was just a coincidence."

Jennifer sighed, as if she wished that Mrs. Lloyd would also think so. She nodded, "Yes! You're right!"

While they were waiting, a middle-aged woman with sunglasses and a good figure slowly came in. She was wearing a blue and white sports suit and her curly hair just reached her neck.

Her bangs were parted in the middle, showing her smooth forehead.

She did not look like in her forties.

They quickly got up and greeted her respectfully, "Mrs. Lloyd."

Melissa nodded, went to Nydia and sat down. She said in a soft voice, "Sit down. Don't be so constrained."

They nodded obediently and sat down.

All of them were in the box, and Melissa was not in a hurry to speak

But she was exuding a strong aura.

Melissa was an able woman, and she wasn't trying to give them pressure.

Nydia passed the menu to her with a smile, "Mrs. Lloyd, take a look and see what you want to eat."

Melissa just smiled, "I'm cool with anything. Just order the food you like."

Nydia didn't insist. She read the menu and ordered some food casually. Then the waiter went out.

Only the four of them were in the box.

Melissa sighed, and then she said softly, "Actually, I know why you guys wanted to see me."

Nydia and Jennifer both opened their lips but they hesitated to speak.

Gloria raised her eyes slightly at her, "Mrs. Lloyd, I'm sorry. It was my fault. But..."

Melissa interrupted her, "Don't put pressure on yourself or blame yourself. Gloria, everyone has their own rights and can make their choices. It needs to be consensual before two people start a relationship."

Melissa's voice was very soft and she was being understanding

Gloria pursed her lips silently, waiting for Melissa to continue.

Then they heard her sigh.

"It's just that my son is a spoony. He has been in love with you all these years. In fact, I have always known that. But as I just said, everyone can make their own choices. This is something between you two, and I can't interfere at all."

In fact...

In the past, she thought Gloria could be with her son

Chapter 638 You Are the Fattest

When Bryson was in high school, Melissa knew that he liked Gloria. She also thought that they could be together. After all, they were perfect for each other in all aspects.

However...

Melissa sighed inwardly and said nothing.

Gloria also sighed slightly and looked at Melissa. Melissa didn't look indifferent as usual but had a soft smile on her lips. The guilt and complicated emotions in Gloria's eyes were stronger.

"Mrs. Lloyd, you know my current situation. I am not worthy of Bryson."

Light flickered in Melissa's eyes, and she looked at Gloria, "We don't mind."

Gloria widened her eyes slightly. Jennifer and Nydia were both surprised.

Although they were good friends with Bryson, they didn't have much contact with Bryson's family. They were elders, so they didn't know them very well.

Melissa's attitude was obviously implying that she didn't mind that Gloria was a divorced woman. She would agree as long as they wanted to be together.

This was also the reason why she didn't stop them when Bryson told her that they were together.

Gloria took a light breath, shook her head slightly and said with a wry smile, "Mrs. Lloyd, I have complicated connections with men. Some people even think I'm indiscreet. You trust me like that?"

"I watched you grow up. I know your character, don't I?" Melissa looked at Gloria as if she wanted to persuade her, but she never liked to force others, so she could only stop here.

Gloria sighed slightly, and then said in a soft voice, "Mrs. Lloyd, thank you for trusting me, but I'm... sorry."

An understanding look flashed across Melissa's eyes, and then she said with a smile, "Have you decided?"

Gloria nodded and said with guilt in her eyes, "I am not worthy of Bryson and I don't think of him as my boyfriend. He is a family to me."

Melissa sighed, "Maybe you are not meant to be together."

Nydia and Jeriniser were sitting aside. They couldn't even get a word in and didn't know what to say.

It suddenly quieted down in the room.

Gloria didn't know what to say.

The waiter suddenly knocked on the door, which broke the silence.

They brought in all the food they had ordered and politely said "enjoy your meal" to them, and then left the room one after another.

Then the box was quiet again.

Nydia quickly picked up her chopsticks and said, "Come on, let's eat! This restaurant is famous. I was thinking about it for a long time!"

Melissa couldn't help laughing, "You greedy pig. You were the one who loved tasty food the most when you were small."

Nydia burst into laughter and said, "If one doesn't like tasty food, he hasn't lived! I love enjoying food!"

Jennifer immediately looked at her with a disapproving look, "Look at you, you are the fattest among us. Control your diet!"

"What? It's just because you are skinny! I'm well-built! I'm 1.65 meters tall, 47.5 kilograms. I'm not fat, okay?"

"No, you are not. You are just well-built!" Melissa rarely had a smile on her lips.

The atmosphere was enlivened by Nydia, and they talked with a lighter mood. After they finished eating, Melissa looked at Gloria with a soft smile,

"Gloria, you asked me to come here for this thing and you wanted me to talk to Bryson about it, right?"

Chapter 639 Months of Disappointment

A guilty look flashed across Gloria's eyes, "I'm sorry. I'm the one who caused the trouble, and you have to deal with it for me. But... I have no other choices. I'm afraid he'll fall apart if I say these words to him."

Jennifer sighed, "She's right, Bryson can't be shaken up in this condition, but in the long run, he will know the truth. I hope he can be mentally prepared, in case he will fall apart when he knows

After taking a sip of orange juice, Nydia said helplessly. "Bryson is really very affectionate. He has loved Gloria for so many years and his love for her has never changed. In fact... if he looks around, he could find that there are people who are as affectionate as him and have been in love with him for a long time."

Light flickered in Melissa's eyes slightly, and she looked in the direction of Nydia's gaze. Then she rested her eyes on Jennifer in surprise. Jennifer lowered her head slightly. Melissa was sure the person Nydia was talking about was her.

She looked at Jennifer with shock, "Jennifer, you..."

Jennifer's attention was drawn back, "Huh?"

Melissa was sure that Jennifer was into Bryson!

Looking at her flushed face and the embarrassed look in her eyes, Melissa smiled softly, "You like my son?"

Jennifer's expression changed slightly. She opened her lips but words failed her.

Melissa was a little surprised. She said with a smile looking at Jennifer, "I thought you just didn't want to be in a relationship. It turns out that you were already in love with my son. Why don't you be my daughter-in-law?"

Nydia and Gloria were both a little surprised. Jennifer herself was dumbfounded. She responded after a long daze, "Mrs. Lloyd, you..."

Melissa smiled and said, "You are a good girl. We should keep you to ourselves. I didn't know it before. I watched you three grow up, so I know your characters very well."

Jennifer looked surprised. Then she said with a wry smile, "Bryson never liked me, and I should give up."

With that, she lowered her head, hiding the sadness in her eyes.

"It's not good to force people to be together, but no one knows what the result will be if we do that." Melissa said with a casual look.

Gloria, Nydia and Jennifer all looked at her with complicated faces.

Melissa was aloof and noble, just like a queen.

But now...

What was she doing?

Trying to convince Jennifer? For fear that she would become someone else's daughter-in-law?

It really surprised them.

"Why are you looking at me like this? Was I wrong?"

"No..." Nydia picked up the juice and took another sip, "Not at all! You had a point!"

Gloria said with a smile, "You are right."

Jennifer lowered her head shyly and didn't know what to say.

Melissa's smile widened, "I know you were surprised, but what I said is true. Everything can be done step by step. And Bryson, alas, he's stubborn. I'll talk to him."

"Well... thank you. I really don't have other choices."

Melissa nodded and continued, "You can be colder to him. After months of disappointment, it would be easier for him to accept it."

Chapter 640 The Sudden Meeting

"Okay, I know what to do." Gloria nodded, and they talked about other things for a while. Melissa had a lot of regrets. She regretted that Gloria married another man before, and that she could not fall in love with her son.

However, she suddenly knew Jennifer liked her son, and then her sadness seemed to be dispelled.

She would be very satisfied if any of them was her daughter-in-law.

She would be glad to see that.

It was a pity that she didn't have two sons, otherwise she would also make Nydia her daughter-in-law.

They chatted for a while. Melissa said with a smile, "Well, I've been outside for so long, and I have to go back to the company now. Thank you for taking care of Bryson. I'll invite you to dinner another day."

"Hahaha, that's very nice of you. We are good friends with Bryson. You know, we grew up together!" Nydia was quite lively and could be a good talker.

However, Gloria needed to avoid suspicion, and Jennifer was too shy to say anything,

Melissa smiled, said goodbye to them and left.

She tried her best to be easygoing and gentle in front of them, which didn't make them feel uncomfortable.

After she left, the three of them also got up. The lunch break was over.

Nydia glanced at Gloria and patted her on the shoulder, "How are you feeling? Are you relieved now?"

Gloria curled her lip, "I can't be relieved before it's solved."

Bryson was her friend. She didn't want to hurt him. If it were before, she would have solved this matter decisively, but she didn't dare to do that because of his head injury.

Jennifer also sighed and whispered, "It's getting better. Mrs. Lloyd knows the truth now. She will find a way to tell Bryson the truth little by little. We only needed to be cooperative by then."

Gloria nodded helplessly, "Right, that's all we can do. It's time for work. I'm going back."

"Okay, see you around."

"Okay, bye."

After returning to the company, Gloria started to work

But...

The landline on the desk suddenly rang and she picked it up.

"Hello."

"Miss White, the president wants you to go to the conference room on the top floor for a meeting. You don't need to prepare anything."

Gloria looked calm, "OK, got it."

After hanging up, she went to the conference room on the top floor with her mobile phone.

Several other people had arrived. They were all shareholders of the company

When they saw her, they had a rather complicated face

Gloria took a seat in a corner. The meeting room was very quiet. Even no sound could be heard when they pulled open the chair and sat down.

The footsteps of people walking in could be heard.

After waiting for about ten minutes, all the people were here.

Claude was in the main seat as usual.

He glanced at Gloria, who was sitting quietly in the distance, and thought of his daughter, who was suffering, in the mental hospital. He hated Gloria even more.

“Mr. White, may I begin?” He remained silent for a long time, and Ted said to him with a smile.
