

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 656-660

Chapter 656 Need to Figure Out Some Way

Gloria bit her lips and said nothing

Indeed. Nydia was right. In his slatenate, no one wanted to give it, Icl alone make concessions,

That was all it was.

Food was soon served Nydia inhaled the fragrance steaming from the delicious beef noodles in the bowl. Tlien she smiled and said, "It smells so good! Let's have dinner."

Gloria smiled and nodded, "Alright."

They said nothing more about George. After the meal, Nydia could not help looking at Gloria and said, "Gloria, what happened to Jordy just now, he..."

Nydia didn't know how to put it. It seemed it was so complicated that she didn't know what to say:

Gloria frowned and answered, "He wants to get back together with me."

Nydia's eyes were wide with shock.

She suddenly said loudly, "Oh my God! Is it true? Why does he want to..."

Speaking of this, she stopped and covered her mouth with one hand for fear of bursting out what she originally wanted to say.

Because her loud voice had made many diners turn their heads to look in their direction.

Gloria was also nervous for a moment. Seeing Nydia didn't continue to say anything, she sighed helplessly. "You..."

Nydia was so embarrassed that she quickly took Gloria's arm and said, "Come on, let's go. Let's get out of here first."

The two of them quickly got in the car. Gloria was about to start the engine. Then Nydia immediately held her hand and said, "He must have other purposes if he tells you he wants to remarry you, Gloria. You..."

"I know." Gloria was clear about his intention.

Nydia still looked quite incredible will shock in her eyes,

“Although he is up to something else, I’m still quite shocked. We all know Jordy is a lout. He would never allow others to challenge his strong self-esteem. I can’t believe he would take the initiative to propose to you li.”

This would not look like Jordy’s style.

Although Nydia didn’t know Jordy quite well, she and Gloria had known each other for a long time and Nydia naturally learned something about London Gloria

Gloria bit her lips without paying particular attention to what she said

Gloria soon started the engine and drove home

That day, Nydia stayed at Gloria’s place because she had just like the one movie: Nydia decided to spend one night with her

Gloria had moved back into the villa that had previously belonged to her father

She had cleaned up the rooms of her uncles and aunts, while she kept her father’s room untouched

Upon entering the house, Gloria seemed to be melancholy and unconscious.

Seeing her calmness and reticence, Nydia smiled secretly and said, “Gloria...”

Gloria raised her eyes and smiled at her. “Well, I know. It’s just that I still need to get used to this place.”

Nydia nodded, but she still said with sympathy. In fact, you moved out originally because you wanted to avoid them, didn’t you? But... it’s easy for them to find out where you are.”

“I know, but if I lived there, the noise would disturb the neighborhood. If I live here, things will be much easier.” Gloria was afraid that Jordy might come to smash her door every time he came to seek her. He never cared about other people. Or it was because he took advantage of Gloria’s fear and politeness so that he dared to do whatever he wanted.

“Well... I feel sorry for you. You have to deal with Jordy as well as Jonathan and Bryson. I feel so sorry about your miseries.”

Gloria didn’t answer her.

Nydia then coughed awkwardly. “I’m sorry. I’ll stop talking about this. But anyway, you still need to figure out some ways to deal with it.”

Chapter 657 Helplessness

But she said so, Nydia sank into helplessness for Gloria, Slic should figure out any feasible way.

Gloria had refused Jonathan several times without hesitation, but there seemed to be so many disappointing things they could control at work.

On the other hand, Jorciy continued to pester Gloria regardless of her resistance.

It was the same as Bryson.

Anyone would be troubled deeply if they ran into the same situation.

Even if you already refuse with determination, they will still come to you. What's the solution to this?

Nydia sighed and expressed her sympathy for Gloria. 'I'm sorry for you. You're really in a dilemma.'

Gloria raised her fingers to gently press against her temple. "It's fine. We'll just walk and see. I believe we can solve the problems one by one."

Indeed, that was the only way they could do.

Nydia nodded. For a moment, she didn't know what to say. They just sat on the sofa and Gloria turned on the TV set.

Before she could sit down and watch anything, her mobile phone suddenly rang, Seeing it was Bryson's call, Gloria's face turned grinn. Even Nydia felt worried.

"He... Could he have already known?"

Did someone hoarding ulterior motives take any picture of Jordy and Gloria when the two were sitting together just now!

Although Gloria didn't label Bryson's phone number with his name, Nydia could still recognize that it was Bryson's phone number since they were all friends.

Gloria pressed her lips tightly together, and didn't say anything. But soon she answered the phone.

"Bryson?"

"Gloria, what are you doing right now?" Bryson was as tender as ever.

Nydia could hear his voice through the speaker, which made her heart race as if she were guilty.

"I'm at home with Nydia. I just moved in today."

"Move in?" Bryson was a little surprised. He couldn't help but say, "Why didn't you tell me that you are moving today?"

“Oh, the moving company has taken charge of all the stuff today. Nydia helped me arrange everything. Besides, how can I ask you to help since you are not feeling well?” Gloria chuckled, “the most important thing for you to do now is to take care of your health. We’ll discuss everything in the future.”

“Alright, I just miss you.”

Owing to his health issues, he couldn’t see Gloria very often. Besides, Gloria had been very busy, and he was afraid that he might disturb her.

The most important thing was that he was quite nervous and afraid at that time. He was afraid that Gloria only promised to be with him because she pitied him with his poor health. He was afraid she needed to be with him only to avoid hurting him.

Because he felt their relationship didn’t look like that between lovers.

Ami not romantic enough? No, clearly she doesn’t like me. He could arrange all kinds of surprises for her and said all kinds of sweet compliments to please her, but Gloria always avoided him with different excuses. He thought about all the happiness they could have but he couldn’t make it.

ent, he really wanted to ask if Gloria was with him because she pitied him.

But he didn’t dare to ask. He was afraid to receive the answer that he didn’t want to hear.

“What are you two going to eat tonight? Why don’t go to see you two and cook for you?”

In fact, he intended to say he wanted to cook for Gloria, but he was afraid that it would be too much to say so.

He could only make a minor attempt.

Gloria smiled and said, “I just told you to take good care of yourself. Now you said you want to cook for us. You are really naughty.”

These words sounded like whispers as well as accusations.

Gloria was a master of saying ambiguous words, keeping a proper distance from Bryson, making him elusive about how close their relationship was.

But Gloria was quite guilty indeed. It was not what she wanted to suspend her relationship with Bryson.

Chapter 658 A Brand New Place

“Oh...” Bryson seemed to sigh a little helplessly. “In fact, you know they will escort me all the way to your place, and there will be no problem at all for me to cook for you. Gloria, you know my situation and you should trust me. I’m not that vulnerable.”

Nydia thought the situation was quite complicated. She opened her mouth but didn't know what to say

In contrast, Gloria whispered, "Wait until you get well, Bryson. You should take care of your body."

Bryson's eyes twinkled with tears. He finally answered, "Alright then."

The phone was not hung up yet, but both of them suddenly became silent.

Gloria didn't know what to say. While Bryson had a lot to say, he didn't know how to put it.

Nydia felt a little embarrassed when she sat aside. The next moment, she ran away as if she thought of something and yelled, "Gloria, come, I need your help! How can I sort out your luggage?"

Gloria smiled faintly. She knew Nydia wanted to help her out at this critical moment. What a reliable friend of mine! Bryson would certainly hear this on the phone

As she expected, Bryson said, "If you are busy, you can go. We'll talk later in the evening."

"OK, remember, you need to rest and not work too hard."

"Okay."

Gloria said nothing and hung up the phone,

Bryson, holding his mobile phone in his hand, felt quite sorrowful and dejected,

Looking at the beautiful picture of Gloria on the screen, sadness brewed in his heart

Gloria...

Am I going to lose you?

To be specific, have ever died you once!

Three days had passed.

Gloria had been sent to work in Jordy's company.

Although the White family and Mr. Collins were cooperating with each other, it was only Gloria that Jordy wanted to come over to help.

All the staff in the company were those on Jordy's side.

Gloria felt like a leader out of nowhere. Everyone in the company except Jordy should obey her commands.

That was the first day for Gloria to work at Mr. Collins.

Jordy was very generous and offered her an office of her own.

It was much more luxurious than her owl office back in the White Group

Besides...

Gloria frowned Why does the layout here look like that of Jordy's office?

As soon as Harold turned his head, he saw Gloria slightly frown in her office. He immediately looked away as if he were guilty and said nothing

After lancing round, he finally said. "Miss White, this will be your office. If you need anything.

you can tell me."

Gloria nodded and answered, "It's nice of you."

Harold nodded and said, "Thank you. You may take it first. Mr. Collins will come to discuss issues of work with relevant personnel in about half an hour. What do you think of the arrangement schedule

Gloria said calmly, "I have no objections."

Harold nodded. He was pretty confident in Miss White's capability. He smiled and said, "Okay. I'll leave this to you then."

"Okay."

After Harold left, he helped Gloria close the door. Gloria continued to check out of her office again.

It looked like a room of 50 square meters. There was a desk, which was about 1.2 meters wide and two meters broad, leaning against the window elegantly and brightly.

There was a lounge on the right hand, and on the edge of the wall sat a set of dark, high-class sofas and a coffee table.

On the left side, there was a water dispenser and some daily necessities such as a coffee machine.

ec

Moreover, there was a dining table hanging on the wall that could be placed down. The room was equipped with all the facilities she might need, which was a very satisfactory environment.

But here...

Chapter 659 Strange Office Environment

She had been to Jordy's office before. And it looked almost the same as her own.

She knew he never liked having his own things to be the same as others. She wondered what this was all about then,

Gloria raised her eyebrows in doubt with suspicion in her eyes.

Jordy has made such a great sacrifice so as to marry me again

Gloria didn't have time to check out the lounge. She just went to her chair and sat down. She turned to her computer and inserted the USB to check out the data. After she found nothing wrong, she took out her own data folders.

Then the telephone on the desk suddenly rang, pulling Gloria back into reality. She quickly picked it up.

"Hello."

"Miss White, we have already informed all attendees. You can come to the conference room on the top floor right now. The meeting will start in about ten minutes."

Harold's voice sounded as polite as ever, and Gloria answered, "Okay."

After hanging up the phone, Gloria arranged the materials in her office and went to the conference room on the top floor.

When she entered the conference room, almost everyone was there.

Harold saw Gloria, and immediately smiled at her and said, "Miss White, this is your seat."

Gloria looked at where he pointed and her eyes sparkled with surprise. It was the first seat on the right side of the host.

Everyone was looking at Gloria

She was wearing a work uniform which was a small black suit that day. Her long hair was simply coiled up on her head, and her delicate and beautiful face looked calm and serious. Her demeanor like that of a queen, which gave a daunting feeling to others.

Everyone knew the identity of Gloria. They knew she and Jordy used to show up together in front of the press. Probably Harold didn't have to introduce her to everyone.

However, there were still many newcomers in the company who might not pay attention to the News. After all the attendees came, Harold made a brief greeting to the crowd, wearing a smile, "Ladies and gentlemen, you must all know Miss White. She is the niece of the chairman of the White Group. Miss White is the main leader in our cooperation with the White Group. We all need to follow Miss White's guidance in many of our future arrangements at work."

Though Harold already started as he thought everyone was there, still there was one person who hadn't come. That was Jordy's.

People didn't say anything after Harold finished. They just looked at Gloria silently, Gloria nodded to the crowd. "Hello, everyone. I'm Gloria."

They all nodded at her self-introduction.

People looked at her with different expressions.

Some looked at her with admiration, but some wore doubts and suspicions on their face. They couldn't believe the company would let a woman without experience take charge of the project this time, which was even such an important one.

Isn't Mr. Collins crazy?

Weren't there any arguments between the two of them before?

Or is it because for businessmen, benefits and interests are more important than personal enmities? How come everybody thinks there is something hidden behind all this?

Just as everyone was examining her, Jordy walked in the room calmly. Then everyone stood up spontaneously. Gloria remained standing there in her previous position.

Seeing Jordy coming over, she didn't speak.

Harold had personally pulled the chair for Gloria and said, "Please sit down."

Suddenly a tinge of surprise crossed Gloria's eyes. Then she still nodded without saying anything and sat down. Jordy happened to sit down at the same moment.

Only then did others dare to sit down one by one.

Jordy obviously had a strong aura around him, which made other people feel afraid.

His handsome face was so emotionless. He didn't hurry to say anything when sitting there. He just leaned back silently.

Harold was sitting in the first seat on the left of Jordy. Practically he was the host of the meeting. Jordy only made arrangements for schedule or made decisions on whether to pass their proposals during the whole meeting.

Chapter 660 What Capability Do You Have?

Harold looked at the attendees and spoke calmly. "Ladies and gentlemen, now I'd like to invite Miss White to tell you about the plan we have for this cooperation. If you have any questions or comments, you can put them forward after Miss White has finished."

The attendees remained silent. Harold looked at Gloria and nodded to remind her to start her report Gloria inserted the USB drive into her laptop and projected her screen onto the meeting room screen.

Jordy's glance naturally rested on her delicate white hands. They made him unconsciously remember the day when he saw those same hands when at her home when she cracked down the company system to get confidential materials.

Gloria didn't look at Jordy at all. Instead, she started to explain the plan to others directly.

They all listened carefully, and some people were even impressed by Gloria's ideas. They nearly marveled at her plan.

It is said that Gloria had come up with this plan all by herself.

At that time, the cooperation between the two companies had caused quite a stir. Even if no one had announced it officially, the Collins Group and the Brown Group already knew partially what happened. Even the people in the White Group were discussing it.

However, they did not know the concrete contents of the plan until that day..

Gloria had talked for nearly two hours.

From time to time, Jordy's gaze rested upon Gloria, seeing her mark her laptop with the mouse, and rise to write the plans on the white board behind her. At that moment, she looked as if she was sparkling with all her charm in Jordy's eyes. Even her eyes looked so wise and deep as if there was an ocean in them.

She looked completely different from the one she used to be. One could say she turned into a totally different person.

After she had finished, Gloria whispered to summarize, "That's all that I want to say. Do you have any questions or doubts?"

As she finished, the meeting room suddenly became quiet.

Everyone seemed to be pondering over or marveling at her plan. It was indeed a really wonderful plan.

After a while, an elite woman seemingly in her early thirties pushed up her silver spectacles, through which she looked at Gloria. Then she whispered, "Miss White, I live on."

Everyone looked at her quickly. The speaker was Hakey, the important leader not because she was senior, but because she was the best for her capabilities.

reply. It was

by Jordy

Her words were often sharp, her eyes piercing. She displayed a queenly bearing. Naturally, her prestige in the company was well recognized.

Her sharp manner made people start to worry that Gloria may be overwhelmed by her cunning question.

Harold immediately introduced Haley to Gloria and told her which department Haley worked in.

People looked at Gloria and saw her holding Haley's gaze calmly and saying, "Please ask."

Haley looked at Gloria and asked, "Are you the one who designed the whole plan?"

Without saying anything, Gloria found out the original plan from her disk

A simple plan was immediately projected on the screen

. It was a four-page plan, which could be displayed on the screen,

Gloria said calmly, "This is the original plan. I have made adjustments according to this plan and presented it to all of you just now."

People didn't say anything, but they quickly looked through the original plan,

Jordy still carried the kind of composure with him without even blinking his eyes. No one knew what sensations were going on beneath his pair of deep calm eyes

It was a totally brand new plan. Therefore, it would be totally reasonable if Gloria said the plan was written by herself.

Besides, the original plan was still quite immature, even a little crude as is written by a child. So it had no value at all.

Gloria, after making adaptations according to the requirements put forward earlier, brought the whole plan back to life. It even became a treasured plan that everyone wanted to take

By doing this, now everyone knew that Gloria had designed the plan all by herself and it literally had nothing to do with others,

Haley nodded and said, "I really admire you, Miss White, for writing such an excellent plan. You have said how to carry it out very clearly, which I think is marvelous. But still, I am worried about one thing. If you are going to be in charge of the implementation of this plan, what capability do you have to lead everyone to do it right?"
