

Go Away 831

Chapter 831 Don't Try to Deny It

Gloria frowned slightly and sneered.

Jordy is a really good actor

Gloria didn't speak her mind out. Nydia seemed to guess what was in her mind and said, "But only George and I were there. Jordy didn't have to pretend anything. He could have just pretended not to know you were gone and gone out to work as usual. It didn't matter to him where you were."

Gloria pressed her lips together, refusing to talk about it anymore. She said quietly, "Forget it. He can do whatever he wants. I don't want to be a part of anything. I just hope he'll never control me anymore. It doesn't matter to me what he does as long as he can leave me alone."

Gloria was all by herself, and there was no one Jordy could use to threaten her. Besides, she knew he was not that kind of person. He was overbearing and bigoted, but he was a good man.

Gloria didn't want to dwell upon it and said calmly, "The whole thing has nothing to do with me. They will not be going away for a while. Go get some sleep. You probably didn't sleep well last night."

Jordy's frown deepened, and his face was full of annoyance. His cold eyes darted to George, which suggested that he didn't want to hear any more of this.

But George didn't care what Jordy was thinking and continued, "Maybe you've been in love with her for so long, and meanwhile, you've got her wrong. Very wrong. You've always thought she and her father forced you to marry her. You hate being mercenary, but what you need to know is..."

George suddenly paused, and Jordy looked at him coldly.

"Enough!"

There were cameras around. Jordy didn't want another word from George's mouth, but George insisted regardless of whether this would be captured by the cameras. That meant George wanted Gloria to know about this.

George seemed totally unfazed and said, "It's not what you think. I think you've misunderstood her."

Chapter 833 He Was Thinking Too Much

Gloria chuckled and spoke softly.

"Go downstairs and cook then. Or you can order takeout."

"Okay, but what if they're not leaving?"

Gloria smiled a scornful smile.

"Pride won't allow Jordy to stay here all the time. Don't worry. They'll be gone in a minute."

Gloria learned a few things about Jordy. After all, she had spent three years trying to figure out what he liked and satisfy him. She had tried her best to make him the best food in the world and give him everything,

More specifically, she had a crush on him. She gave him everything she had got, but it was all for naught. Now Gloria felt tired.

Chapter 834 An Ungrateful Woman

Nydia's face darkened. She looked at George irritably. "Get out of here! This is Gloria's house, and I'm sort of in charge of it! You are not welcome here!"

George laughed angrily, dropped his leg, and snarled through his gritted teeth, "Even Gloria didn't kick me out. You're nothing!"

Anger choked Nydia's words. She turned and stomped over to the kitchen!

Cool down!

It's not worth it! He's such an idiot!

Just ignore him.

After washing her hands, Nydia took some ingredients from the fridge and started cooking.

Nydia believed she would make herself a good meal. She didn't think George could cook. Even if he could, she wouldn't eat a bite of anything he made. She didn't want to owe him anything!

When Nydia just reached the door of the room, she heard George's words. She was so furious and even wished she could cut him to pieces!

But she suppressed her urge She couldn't be angry with a moron!

Otherwise, she would be the moron.

Then she went straight into the room. George might be a good helper if she wanted to lose weight' She lost his appetite and didn't want to eat anymore!

George downstairs was still in a fret!

Damn woman! Damn woman! It had been such a long time since she ate She must be hungry!

Chapter 838 She Did Things on Her Own

He pretended not to see Jordy's hint and turned to one side calmly.

In fact, Gloria could get someone here to change her dressing, but they had called the doctor for her, so she didn't call her own doctor for fear that they would meet each other.

After they waited for a while, the doctor came.

What shocked Gloria was that it was the female doctor who changed the dressing for her yesterday.

So, it was Jordy who called her here?

Gloria looked at Jordy.

Jordy said calmly, "The same doctor knows your wound better."

Nydia gave Jordy a confused look. Jordy was so thoughtful? Did he really have feelings for Gloria?

When Gloria was not here this morning, Jordy seemed really worried. He banged the door and snatched her mobile phone violently. He did those things out of instinct and seemed to be very worried about Gloria.

She knew what kind of person Jordy was before. Gloria was his wife and she saw him many times in public.

In his opinion, she was just trying to be brave.

But...

Gloria never asked him to do anything for her. It was he who took the initiative to help her.

Jordy suddenly frowned, and his face darkened.

Nydia said, "It's painful! Although I have never felt such pain, I can't bear the pain that is many times lighter than this! You might feel better if you scream."

The female doctor kept silent and let them talk. Gloria could be distracted in this way and feel less pain. She also tried her best to be gentle with the wound and ease her tension.

Gloria said with a smile, "I'm fine. Don't worry about me."

Gloria's voice was very soft, and they couldn't see any wretched look on her face.

George looked sullen, "Why are you staying?"

He suppressed his anger, and mouthed to her silently, "You want to stay here as a third wheel? You want the air between them to become more and more rigid?"

He mouthed slowly, and Nydia could read his lips and guess. She almost understood what he meant.

She froze for an instant and seemed to be torn.

Should she stay?

It didn't seem to be a good idea?

If she left, Gloria would be here alone. What if Jordy did something extreme?

Gloria hadn't recovered. Jordy was stronger than her. Who could stop him by then?
