

GOD! I TURNED INTO A TURTLE

Chapter 8 – Card Realm, Brush Experience And Proficiency

“My uncle’s defense has reached the fifth level, and he has the talent to fight back. If you target me, you will only ask for trouble!”

Ye Que snorted coldly and ran out of town.

“System prompt: A five-level wild monster is approaching quickly, please avoid it!”

Ye Que saw a figure rushing towards him, and a cold light appeared in his eyes.

“That 300-year-old ginseng, leave it to me!”

With a threatening sound, the figure leaped high and stepped on the turtle shell with its right foot.

“Jump so high, I’ll kill you bastard!”

Ye Que was afraid that the other party would step on the air, so he deliberately took two steps forward, and then retracted his limbs and head into the turtle shell.

“Ding! Host talent triggers, counterattack!”

Click!

It was the sound of bones breaking!

“ah!”

The figure screamed and fell to the ground.

Taking a closer look, he was a middle-aged man.

“Damn bastard, so hard! Get out of here!”

The middle-aged man stood up, and with a leap of his left foot, he was about to kick Ye Que into the air.

“I am indeed a bastard, but please don’t add a dead word in front of the bastard!”

Ye Que was in the turtle shell, retorting seriously.

“Activate the skill, the rock shakes!”

The tortoise shell seemed to have weighed hundreds of catties, and it was fixed in place emitting a faint black light, and it vibrated very slightly.

The middle-aged man kicked with his left foot!

“Ding! Host talent triggers, counterattack!”

Click!

“Ah! My left leg!”

The middle-aged man fell to the ground and couldn't get up.

This time, he not only broke his left foot, but also lost his toes!

What kind of thing is this, it can't be broken even if stepped on, and it can't be kicked away even if kicked.

It was as if he had thorns, and he crippled himself.

“Ding! The proficiency of rock vibration has increased by 20.”

“Shadow attack has not been used yet, Guisun, your grandpa Gui will take the knife on you!”

“Use skills, Shadow Attack!”

Ye Que brushed the ground and disappeared.

The middle-aged man saw the palm-sized tortoise, which seemed to melt into the darkness under the night, and felt great fear.

“not good!”

He waved his fists to fend off the turtles that might attack.

boom!

The right wrist suffered a huge impact!

The scream came from his mouth again.

But there was a hole in the wrist, and there was a cut mark on the bone inside.

The wrist was almost severed except for the bones attached to it.

“Ding! Shadow attack proficiency, increase by 20.”

Ye Que appeared in the night again, shaking the blood on his right front paw.

This guy is smart enough to block the vital points in advance.

Otherwise, it would not be as simple as the wrist being cut.

“It’s because the attack power is too weak, otherwise, with the skill, your wrist will be cut off!”

Tread Tread—

The girl followed, and when she saw someone, she panicked and said, “Little Guigui, run!”

Ye Que’s face turned dark.

“Xue Lingluo, do you know this **** who has become a spirit?”

The middle-aged man hummed miserably.

Xue Lingluo had already become a frightened bird, and when she heard the other party calling out her name, she hurriedly backed away.

“Map scanning prompt: 600 meters behind, two eight-level wild monsters appear! Five seven-level wild monsters!”

Ye Que’s expression changed, he turned around and ran away.

The gang of killers caught up.

Xueling Luomang was at a loss, seeing the little turtle running, she followed suit.

Ye Que didn’t take the right path, got into the messy wild forest, and finally entered the monster forest safely.

And the girl named Xue Lingluo disappeared after following him.

The town entrance of Qingfeng Town.

A group of people appeared.

“Black rat?”

Someone uttered doubts.

The middle-aged man lying on the ground looked for his reputation and said in surprise: “Mr. Xue.”

“Since it’s you, you must recognize Xue Lingluo. Did she run away from here?”

Director Snow spoke indifferently.

Seeing the murderous intent of these people, the black mouse didn’t dare to speak for a while.

“who is he?”

asked the leader.

Manager Xue explained respectfully: "He is the black merchant who I recommended Li Heacock to buy melting water poison."

The black rat trembled, feeling something was wrong.

The leader turned to the black mouse: "Did Xue Lingluo pass by here?"

"I... I didn't see it."

The black mouse lowered its head, fearing that it would be fatal.

"killed!"

The leader spit out two words.

"Don't kill me! I said it, I said it! Xue Lingluo just ran away from here, I wanted to stop him, but was rescued by a spirited bastard!"

Black Rat said miserably.

Seeing that he doesn't look like a fake, Director Xue guessed: "There are beast masters, save Xue Lingluo!"

"No matter who saves her, she can't survive tonight!"

The leader waved his hand and led the people towards the outside of the town.

The Xue family couple blocked many of them, but with their strength, they were enough to chase and kill Xue Lingluo.

Before Chief Xue left, he killed the black mouse with a palm: "There are some truths that you shouldn't know, rest in peace!"

late at night.

The middle part of the monster forest.

"Finally safe."

Ye Que hid in the tree hole, panting slightly.

"Eat this ginseng first."

Eat the ginseng quickly.

"Ding! The host has taken a 300-year-old ginseng plant! Gained 0.5 experience points."

"The experience points have indeed dropped. When I was in the triple realm, I could get 1 experience point by taking the three-hundred-year-old treasure."

After breaking through into a quadruple monster, not only eating treasures will have an impact, but killing monsters should also have an impact.

He reckoned that for himself now, he would not be able to gain experience points for killing a level 2 monster, but he would only be able to get 0.5 experience points for killing a level 3 monster.

In my heart, I gradually figured out a rule.

Killing monsters or wild monsters of the same realm can get 1 experience point.

Killing monsters or wild monsters that are one level lower than yourself can only get 0.5 experience points.

If you kill monsters or wild monsters that are two realms lower than your own, you will not be able to gain experience points.

on the contrary.

Killing monsters or wild monsters that are one level higher than yourself will give you 2 experience points.

If you kill monsters or wild monsters that are two levels higher than yourself, you will get 3 experience points.

And so on.

This rule is also the same when it comes to taking treasures.

Thinking of this, he didn't dare to use experience points indiscriminately, and prepared to keep them.

"First get stuck in the fourth level, and then collect a lot of experience points."

Never use it to break through unless you encounter an extremely dangerous moment.

Otherwise, if the realm rises again, he still wants to gain experience points, so he has to kill high-level monsters.

High-level monsters are rare and cunning, and they are laborious and dangerous to kill. They are not convenient for killing low-level monsters.

Check the situation on the panel.

“In addition to earning experience points, you also need to improve your proficiency!”

Climb out of the tree hole.

“Grind experience! Brush proficiency!”

“Map scanning prompt: 600 meters ahead, a triple monster appears.”

Ye Que’s eyes lit up, and he rushed forward.

“Map scanning prompt: 600 meters ahead, a quadruple monster appears!”

“I’m also at the fourth level, and the defense has reached the fifth level! I also have skills! The fourth level monsters can also be killed!”

He exerted his strength again and rushed up.
