Chapter 3: Zombie Rampage

“Amazing!”

Yue Zhong looked at White Bones’ stats, it made him excited.

White Bones’ growth rate was higher than Yue Zhong; it’s attributes increased by 6 points from just 1 level. Compared to an average person, it was now 10% higher. With such a powerful ally, his chances of survival has increased by a bit.

Without hesitation, tolerating the stench coming from the corpses, it strongly pushed the computer desk, blankets, and pillow in the room to block the door and window.

Even though it cannot withstand the zombie’s attack, it can still delay them.

Level 1 zombies; besides being strong, they have a very obvious weakness, which is their slow movements. If you did not encounter multiple zombies, with just a long weapon, even ordinary people can deal with them.

But if surrounded by 10 zombies, you will surely die.

Blocking the door, Yue Zhong let out a sigh of relief in this stench-filled room . The earlier experience made it difficult to accept; if he didn’t receive the skill to summon White Bones, at this time he would have become a zombie.

A zombie in such a confined environment, Yue Zhong still had difficulty dealing with it. Attacked by 3 zombies, he would simply be overwhelmed.

After a slight sigh of relief, Yue Zhong immediately rummaged through the dorm to find resources he could use. He soon found a bundle of mountain climbing ropes, a mountaineering backpack, 4 packs of instant noodle, a half eaten bag of custard pie.

With the narrow room, taking advantage of the terrain, Yue Zhong and White Bones working together were able to deal with the zombies. However, there is a key issue, this boy’s dormitory has 8 floors, each floor has 20 dorm rooms, each room has 12 people inside; a total of 1920 boys living there. Although it was Sunday and a large numbers of people went out, the ones that stayed still numbered more than 600 people. Even if one third of these people became zombies, it would be terrifying.

The most important point, is that the dorm rooms didn't have much food or water supplies. Yue Zhong did not know if the water system had been infected or not, other than his water bottle, he dared not to drink anything else.

Yue Zhong quickly tied the rope to the bed, then threw the climbing rope outside the window.

Seeing that the climbing rope landed, Yue Zhong then pulled over and sat on the seat. Took out binoculars to look out, observing the situation outside.

White Bones was right beside watching over him.

At this time it looked as though the whole school was in a frenzied; some students rushed out of the dormitory, following in their wake were staggering zombies.

Many students had a bandaged wound on their body, with a look of pain, apparently injured.

A boy running did not pay attention to what was under his feet; after passing a corpse, all of a sudden, the corpse grabbed his leg, causing him to stumble. He quickly fell to the ground.

"Zhang Ming, save me!"

With a terrifying look on his face, he looked at his friend in front and shouted.

Zhang Ming looked back and saw that behind the boy were the zombies; with eyes full of fear, he turned around and fled without looking back.

"Zhang Ming! Zhou Feng! Help! Save me!"

That frightened boy screamed loudly.

Zhou Feng, 1.8 meters tall, heard the boy's anguished voice, and hesitated for a moment. He turned around and glanced back, and only saw 8 zombies attacking the boy on the ground. Crazy being bitten, only the boy's wailing voice could be heard.

Zhou Feng, seeing this scene, was so scared that his leg went limp. He then didn't look back, and faced forward and fled.

The 8 zombies were gnawing on the boy's body; soon the boy's cries disappeared.

The rest of the boys crazily fled outside.

At this point the entire campus has become a mass of chaos, students everywhere are frightened and running away from the zombies chasing them.

There were not many people on the street, but all of a sudden there were a lot of students and a large number of zombies. From time to time there were students whose bodies twitched, then suddenly fell to the ground; when they stood up again, they had turned into zombies.

The campus was filled with an atmosphere of panic.

Yue Zhong was watching everything below; he was shaking on the inside. At this time on the streets below, the zombies were attracted by the students, running around everywhere.

On the street leading to the small supermarket on campus, there are 20 zombies standing there on the street, blocking the way to the small supermarket and the way outside the school.

Six boys from the dormitory saw that the zombies were blocking the street leading to the gate.

As if they could feel the life force, 6 zombies promptly turned and walked towards the boys; the street to the school was not very wide, with 6 zombies already having the street almost entirely blocked, only leaving a small gap.

8 zombies behind the boys had just finished eating and staggered towards the 6 people.

At this time there were zombies in front and behind, blocking the way.

At this critical moment, two boys with a look of horror, loudly shouting, rushed toward the zombies in front. Each of them, armed with a novice stick, stabbed a zombie each; each zombie was knocked to the ground.

A student took the chance to go through the gap.

He was then blocked after a bit, a step too late; a big hand stretched out and firmly grabbed his arm.

“No! Help! Help!”

The student in a panic, used his novice stick to hit the zombie, cutting off the arm of the zombie.

The 3 remaining zombies took this chance to grab him, and opened their jaws to bite hard on his neck.

“Ah! Help!!”

The student immediately let a sharp scream.

The 3 zombies, firmly holding the student, began eating him bloodily.

The 2 remaining zombies were attracted by the smell of blood; they headed towards the student's body, lunged forward and began biting his body.

The other student ran past the zombies; not too far, he was soon surrounded by the zombies; submerged in dead corpses, he let out a miserable moan.

The remaining 4 students witnessed the scene, eyes filled with terror.

“We're Done!”

One student was so scared and collapsed on the ground.

“Up the tree!”

A relatively calm tall boy; he looked at the surroundings, and quickly crawled up the side of a tree.

In the main campus of the University of Yun Hua, there are trees and plants planted everywhere.

The other two boys also had deft hands and feet and headed toward the trees and started climbing.

“Save me! Chen Gang! Give me a hand!!”

The boy that was paralyzed on the floor, under his survival instincts, stood up; seeing the other 3 climbing the tree, he let out a shout. He did not know how to climb trees.

Attracted to the scream of the boy, the zombies within 100 meters slightly shook, and began to move toward the sound.

Over 10 zombies that formed an army was sufficient to tear any resistance in the university.
