Chapter 4: Hard Battle in the Dormitory

The first boy to climb up the tree, Chen Gang, heard the distress sound of the boy below, hesitated.

In just the few seconds of hesitation by Chen Gang, the zombie claws caught the boy below, and viciously bit his neck.

“Ah!!!!”

The boy uttered a cry of misery, and soon was torn up by 5 zombies.

The extremely piercing cry echoed in the area, brought fear to people heart.

Seeing a scene like this, the 3 students did not dare stop, rushing to climbed the tree to escape. With eyes full of fear quietly watching the three zombies below.

Dozens of zombies surrounded the tree, formed a fearsome army, blocking the escape route to the outside world.

“Trouble!”

Yue is watching the situation outside, frowning, the only exit to the outside world was blocked, to escape from here, it looks extremely difficult.

Those zombies only weak point is the head, but with so much power, with only a small wound will kill a person, is extremely difficult to deal with. If they were not slow, without a firearm even elite forces would have a very difficult time dealing with them.

At this moment a violent sound came from outside the room, 2 zombies from outside pile in.

White Bones was guarding the front door of the dorm, viciously strike down with the ax, cutting down the head of a zombie.

Yue stared at White Bones, saw a ball of white light from the zombie body fly into White Bones.

One zombie has been killed, the remaining zombie struggled into the room but its head was soon cleanly chopped off by White Bones ax, black blood staining all over the floor. A ball of white light once again flew into White Bones body.

Yue frowned, thinking:

“Summon monsters kill seems to only able to gain their own EXP and none for the master. Seems like in order to get stronger, I have to kill the monsters myself!”

This discovery have cause Yue original plan to failed, he originally wanted to use White Bones to deal with the zombies because it was not afraid of being infected. Allowing him to be safely in the back while gaining EXP, now no longer possible.

If Yue himself did not fight, he would never be able to get stronger.

What will become the future of the world Yue did not know, but it was very clear to him, that the world would become extremely cruel. If he did not get stronger, even surviving is difficult.

As if attracted here by the sound, 3 zombies staggered from the side of the door and crawled through the broken hole.

“White Bones, you take care of the 2 on the left!”

Yue ordered.

Having received the order, White Bones step forward, swinging the ax and chopping off a zombie head, foul blood splattered everywhere.

The remaining 2 zombies without fear, still crawled inside.

In the doorway is a pile of debris, a zombie stagger forward, stumbling over the debris and fell down to the ground. White Bones wielding his ax mercilessly hack the zombie head, quickly killing the zombie.

The remaining zombie's face was bitten beyond recognition, face full of holes, the white eyes zombie struggle to crawl through the hole. Heading towards Yue.

Yue overcame his fears, took a step forward and lifting his novice stick overhead, smashing down on the zombie head. Causing the zombie head to tilted to the side, a ball of white light from the zombie flew into his body.

Yue taking no chances, allow White Bones to chopped off the head of the zombie.

Yue tries to catch his breath since no zombie was left, outside the zombies were staggering in, attempting to break in from both the windows and door.

“A lot of zombies!”

Seeing those crazy zombies crowded into the room, couldn't help but gasped, this time together there was more than a dozen zombies crowding outside his door. Those whiten eyes zombie devoid of life gave him an oppressive feeling.

Melee combat was consuming a lot of stamina, and when fighting zombies, even a small scratch was deadly. The feeling of facing over a dozen zombies was completely different than facing one zombies.

Fortunately, the entrance was small, allowing only at most 3 zombies through. 3 zombies crowded in front of the door were struggling to get inside.

Another zombie was trying to crawl through the window.

Besides those 4 zombies, the rest of the zombies were crowded outside the door. A sense of having to kill countless zombies made him weak.

“White Bones, the 3 at the door are yours!”

Yue ordered, and ran towards the window, his eyes flashing with a determine light, using the novice stick to smash at the zombie head, causing the head to be twisted to the side.

White Bones after gaining a level, his action is now better than in the past, it tramples the corpse of the zombie at the door, with one strike neatly cutting off the head of a zombie.

The remaining 2 zombies squeeze through from behind their comrade's body trying to get through.

The 2 zombies right after get through, stumble over the debris and fell to the ground.

Yue took the opportunity to advance forward, hitting the zombie on the head, smashing the head crooked.

White Bones with a swing of his ax, cut off another zombie's head.

Yue haven't been able to catch his breath, but 4 more zombies were already trying to through the door and window.

Yue gritted his teeth, advancing forward, towards the window where a zombie with his eyes bitten off. Striking severely at the zombie head, smashing it to the side. A ball of white light flew into his body.

White Bones, standing before the door, skilfully waving his ax and cut a zombie head in two, the foul blood splattered everywhere.

At this point the zombie corpses and all kind of debris have clogged the door, but the zombies are still aggressively trying to break through. However, the remaining 2 zombies were stuck in the door, continually struggling.

Yue quickly took the opportunity to advance to the left with the stick in his right hand, smashing the zombies, killing both of them.

The 2 zombies corpses got stuck in the door, foul blood flowing, the rancid stench filled the entire room making it unbearable.

The corpses crowded the entrance, with the 3 zombie corpses blocking the entrance, 2 more packing on each side.

2 zombie stick their head in, yue quickly trample on the head of a zombie and use his novice stick to kill it. White Bones use his ax to kill the other one.

Another zombie was trying to get through the window. It had gotten just partially through before Yue stride forward and smash it in the head.

After killing the zombie, a ball of white light flew into Yue body, voice sounded in his mind:

"You have advance to level 3, please assign the 2 stat points."

"Power, Stamina!"

Yue heavily panting made the selection. Fighting the zombies had greatly decrease his stamina. There is not enough power that he wanted to knock the zombies head crooked so he had to use more stamina.

Between his thoughts, a trickle of warmth flow through Yue body, began to strengthen his body.
