

God level 1871

Chapter 1871

In front of him, he saw a ferocious beast that looked like a black cat but had a single horn, eating a corpse.

Looking at this cat-shaped ferocious beast, Qin Chuan didn't recognize it at all. Judging from the aura, it was only a second-level ferocious beast. Maybe this cat-shaped ferocious beast was a low-level ancient ferocious beast, so Qin Chuan didn't recognize it.

However, what made Qin Chuan angry was that the corpse that the cat-shaped beast was eating was that of Commander Wei.

Although he and Commander Wei were incompatible with each other in life and death, they were both human beings after all.

Now seeing ferocious beasts eating the corpses of their own kind, Qin Chuan naturally felt uncomfortable.

At that moment, Qin Chuan released a flaming knife and directly split the cat-shaped beast in half.

Afterwards, Qin Chuan took the inner elixir of the ferocious beast and buried the body of Commander Wei to prevent it from being exposed and eaten by the passing ferocious beast.

He also found gold tickets worth 40,000 gold coins and a map from the body of Commander Wei.

Including these 40,000 gold tickets, Qin Chuan's money amounted to more than 160,000.

As for that map, it was to a place called Fire Lotus Cave.

Qin Chuan glanced at it and put the map into the God of War Order space without paying much attention.

After burying Commander Wei's body, Qin Chuan searched for a safe place to stay in this ancient jungle.

As for getting out of this ancient jungle, Qin Chuan has no time to think about it now. He will at least wait for the little life in the golden egg to hatch before he can find a way to find an exit.

Qin Chuan didn't know how big the jungle was, so he had to choose a direction and keep walking forward.

Along the way, Qin Chuan also encountered many strange beasts. Most of these beasts he did not recognize, but they were all beasts below the third level. Occasionally, one or two third-level ferocious beasts will be encountered.

However, these ferocious beasts were all killed by Qin Chuan, the evil god. Along the way, a lot of ferocious beast inner elixirs were collected.

After walking for half an hour, Qin Chuan saw a hill ahead.

Qin Chuan found a cave in the hill.

There was a third-level ferocious beast in the cave. Qin Chuan killed it and directly occupied the cave of this ferocious beast.

In the cave, Qin Chuan held the golden egg in his arms and used his own body temperature to hatch the little life in the golden egg.

It seemed that Qin Chuan's body temperature was somewhat helpful to the little life in the golden egg. The originally weak life showed signs of recovery, and its vitality gradually increased.

At the same time, the little life in the golden egg used its thoughts to convey a strong sense of dependence to Qin Chuan.

This feeling made Qin Chuan feel warm, comfortable, and even more sympathetic.

I don't know how long it took, but Qin Chuan kept holding the golden egg motionless. His mind was completely focused on the little life inside the golden egg.

"It's coming out!"

Feeling the thought of the little life in the egg, Qin Chuan showed a hint of warmth and joy in his heart.

Not long after, the golden egg made a soft sound of 'click! click!', and a small opening was cracked in the eggshell.

A plush The little thing was trying hard to get out of the crack in the eggshell, and after a while, a little head came out.

It looked chubby and very cute, but Qin Chuan didn't recognize it at all.

After a while, the little thing came out. Eggshell slowly opened a pair of young eyes, and the fur on its body was still a little wet.

When it saw Qin Chuan, its eyes immediately revealed a look of intimacy and dependence, and then it hugged its little head with its feet and nestled against Qin Chuan. Feeling Qin Chuan's body temperature in Qin Chuan's arms, he fell into a deep sleep.

Seeing the little thing sleeping, Qin Chuan did not dare to disturb it, but infinite love surged in his heart.

Only then did Qin Chuan have time to look at it.

I saw this little guy, covered in white fluff, and his whole body was chubby like a ball of pompom. From the outside, he didn't look like a ferocious beast. There were also two young little wings on his back. It's just that it's hard to spot when it's shrunk in its fur.

There's a red crack in the center of its forehead, which is a sign of having a third eye.

Generally, any ferocious beast with a third eye will have a special skill. This special energy saving is usually emitted by the third eye.

However, for this beast to be able to use this skill, it must wait until it grows to open its third eye before it can have that ability..

Chapter 1872

What kind of beast is this little guy?

Unlike any eighth-level ferocious beast he knew, it seemed to be an unknown ancient ferocious beast.

Since he couldn't recognize it, it's likely that others wouldn't recognize him either.

That was fine, if no one could recognize it, no one would know its identity as an eighth-level ferocious beast, and no one would be interested in it, so he would feel more at ease.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan not only did not feel impatient because he did not know the identity of the ferocious beast, but instead felt more at ease.

I don't know how long it took before the little thing woke up again.

When he woke up, the down on his body was no longer wet.

The fluffy white fur makes the little guy even cuter. It's as white as a little white ball.

But at this moment, the little guy closed his eyes, opened and closed his little mouth, and screamed, and his little head desperately dug into Qin Chuan's arms.

Seeing it like this, Qin Chuan smiled and said:"It seems that this little guy must be hungry."

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan felt worried again.

This little thing is just born and hasn't even grown its teeth yet. What should we feed it?

Ordinary food, small things will definitely not be able to eat, you can only give it some liquid food.

Seeing the little guy's anxious look with his mouth open, Qin Chuan thought about it and couldn't think of a good way for a while, but he was worried that the little guy was starving.

After thinking for a while, Qin Chuan thought of a way.

I saw him cutting his own finger with a sword and feeding the little thing with his own essence and blood

"Little guy, you also saved my life. Today I will use my essence and blood to feed you. What does this mean?"

The little thing had its eyes closed and was sucking Qin Chuan's finger. It didn't know what it was.

In fact, Qin Chuan didn't know that his unintentional move brought trouble to the little thing. A small benefit.

Qin Chuan was originally a descendant of the Qing family, and his bloodline contained the True Blood of the Green Dragon.

Before he was born, his tribe used the Blood Transformation and Fetus Fusion technique to integrate the Holy Beast's True Blood into his body.

As for his water element On the other hand, although I don't know who the blood successor is, because even her mother probably doesn't know that she is a descendant of the blood family.

However, all the children of the blood family have at least nine levels of true blood in their bodies.

That is, It is said that Qinchuan's blood contains the true blood of the two holy beasts Qinglong and Tingting, as well as an unknown water blood inheritance of the ninth level and above.

Although these three kinds of true blood are not of the gold type, there are powerful differences in levels. , but it can bring subtle benefits to the cub.

Maybe Qinchuan's blood has no effect on the adult ferocious beast, but it has a certain effect on the newly born cub, and can improve the growth qualification of the cub to a certain extent.

For example: Many eighth-level ferocious beasts will be at most eighth-level ferocious beasts when they reach adulthood. Only a very few with good qualifications can grow into eighth-level ferocious beasts.

As for becoming ninth-level ferocious beasts, it is not such a simple matter.

But he said that the little thing sucked his fingers for a while, then hugged his little head and fell asleep.

Looking at its cute and fluffy appearance, Qin Chuan thought to himself.

"Little guy, you look like a little furball, let's call you 'Qiuqiu' from now on!"

Seeing that the little guy fell asleep again, Qin Chuan felt relieved, so he took out the healing medicine from the God of War Order space and treated his injuries.

In the next few days, Qin Chuan worried that Qiuqiu was too fragile and could not withstand the torment. So he didn't rush to find a way out, but stayed in the cave.

He wanted to wait until Qiuqiu passed the lactation period and grew teeth before leaving the cave.

However, he couldn't use his own essence and blood every day. Feed the little guy, if this continues, he will die of excessive blood loss sooner or later...

Chapter 1873

However, Qin Chuan cannot feed the little guy with his own essence and blood every day. If this continues, sooner or later he will die from excessive blood loss.

Therefore, Qin Chuan went to search around the hill whenever he had free time. He wanted to find something that could be eaten by the little thing. Finally, he was able to find a low-male beast that was breastfeeding.

However, how can such a coincidence happen in this world?

However, although Qin Chuan did not find a low-level ferocious beast that was nursing, he did find a small golden fruit.

This small fruit is a kind of gold spiritual fruit. In the jungle, Qin Chuan found a lot of spiritual fruits that did not seem to be very precious, but Qin Chuan did not recognize them.

Qin Chuan identified it and found that the metal spiritual fruit was not poisonous, but was helpful for metal cultivation.

Qin Chuan knew that Qiuqiu was a gold spirit beast, and this spirit fruit should be helpful to it.

He squeezed the spirit fruit into juice to feed Qiuqiu.

In the days to come, Qin Chuan used his own blood and spirit fruit juice to feed the little guy every day.

He also temporarily settled down in that cave.

Every day, in addition to feeding the little guy, Qin Chuan seizes the time to practice crazily.

During the day, he used the essence and blood of ferocious beasts to assist him and continued to practice the method of physical training. In the evening, I started to practice my vitality.

When he was hungry, he went out to hunt some ferocious beasts and roasted them to satisfy his hunger.

Fortunately, he had prepared a large amount of ferocious beast essence and blood and earth spirit pills before he came.

Therefore, practicing here did not delay Qin Chuan's cultivation progress.

Nowadays, Qinchuan's earth element qualifications are already top-notch, plus he has a large number of earth element elixirs to assist him.

His progress in cultivating earth energy is much faster than that of ordinary people with superior qualifications.

In the blink of an eye, three months have passed.

In the past three months, all the ferocious beast essence and blood stored by Qinchuan's God of War Order had been exhausted, but the second door in his body showed no sign of opening, which made him sigh.

It seems that it is not that easy to open the second door!

It's more than ten times harder than opening the first door for me!

I have refined so much ferocious beast essence and blood, but it seems that my body's energy has not yet reached a saturated state. It is still stuck at the bottleneck of a hundred people, and I don't know when I will reach the critical point of breakthrough.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan shook his head slightly and stopped thinking about it.

As for the cultivation of vitality.

After three months of hard training.

His energy of both water and wood systems has improved a lot, and the water and wood natal spirits in the sea of qi have quietly grown in size.

As for his earth energy, when Teng Xiaoshan changed his qualifications, he helped him advance to the second level, even if he was not far from the second level peak.

After three months of hard training and the help of a large amount of Tu Yuan Dan, he finally cultivated Tu Yuan Qi to the peak of the second level.

The biggest gain was the fire energy. After Qin Chuan took the fire jade lotus seed, although it failed to allow him to break through to the third level, it allowed him to experience the artistic conception of fire and loosened the bottleneck of his fire energy.

According to his estimate, it would have taken two or three years to break through to the third level, but now it only takes more than a year for him to break through to the third level.

As long as he works harder, he may be able to break through within a year, which will coincide with the three-year recruitment of blood guards by the Zhou family, so he still can't relax.

It can be said that in the past three months of training, his four elements of vitality have made considerable progress.

During this period, Qin Chuan also learned the 'Water Element Shield'.

However, what makes Qin Chuan most gratified is that after three months of lactation, Qiuqiu finally grew teeth and his body grew a circle, almost as big as an ordinary kitten.

Qin Chuan no longer needs to feed it blood essence and spiritual juice every day.

It can already eat those spiritual fruits with its own teeth.

Occasionally, Qin Chuan would feed it some barbecued meat, but the little guy wasn't very interested in meat..

Chapter 1874

Occasionally, Qin Chuan will feed it some barbecued meat, but the little guy is not very interested in meat and will eat whatever he likes.

This made Qin Chuan very confused.

As far as he knew, all ferocious beasts were carnivores, and there was no one who didn't like eating meat. Herbivores are found only among wild beasts

"strangeness! Qiuqiu, you don't like eating meat, so what do you like to eat?"

Qin Chuan lovingly touched Qiu Qiu's plush little head.

The little guy seemed to enjoy Qin Chuan's touch. He squinted his eyes slightly, nestled in Qin Chuan's arms, and licked his little pink tongue from time to time. Holding Qin Chuan's hand.

Seeing its cute appearance, Qin Chuan felt happy and took out a golden fruit.

"Here! Ball, this is for you!"

As soon as the little guy saw the golden spirit fruit, he immediately became excited.

He held the little fruit with his two little paws, nestled in Qin Chuan's arms and started eating.

Although Qiuqiu doesn't like meat, he is interested in the spirit fruit. I still like it very much, but it's a pity that all the spiritual fruits nearby have been picked by Qin Chuan, and this little guy is about to run out of food, otherwise he can only eat barbecue.

"This little guy is indeed an eighth-level ferocious beast. He has just passed the lactation period and has grown to the first level. Qiuqiu, you now have the ability to protect yourself to a certain extent. It's time for us to leave."

"I still have a heavy responsibility for my family, so I must leave here. I can't delay it any longer!"

Hearing Qin Chuan's sigh, Qiuqiu raised his fluffy little head, nodded slightly, and called out "chirp, gurgle, gurgling". I don't know if he understood it.

Qin Chuan smiled slightly and let him go. Qiuqiu lay on his shoulder and walked out of the cave. He was ready to leave this place.

He had been here for three months and could not delay it any longer.

Outside the cave, Qin Chuan looked above his head.

The only exit he knew now was It's just above his head.

However, with his current ability, it is impossible to fly up, and this road will definitely not work. If he wants to get out of this forgotten ancient jungle, he can only find another way out.

Although it is dark here , but the air circulation is good. Obviously this place is connected to the outside world, so there can be air circulation.

In this case, there must be an exit.

But how should he find the exit?

Qin Chuan thought for a while and then thought of a way.

This A piece of forgotten ancient jungle is located under the ground. The terrain is obviously very low. If he wants to get out, he can only walk in the direction of higher terrain. The higher the terrain, the closer to the ground.

This is just one aspect.

Another aspect. On the other hand, the air flow here is smooth, and the direction where the wind is blowing must be connected to the outside world.

Therefore, Qinchuan chose the direction where the terrain is elevated and the wind is blowing, and began to embark on the road to find an exit.

He did not know that in this ancient land After walking in the jungle for a long time, Qin Chuan's journey was relatively safe and he did not encounter any powerful beasts.

During this period, he occasionally encountered suspected beasts of level 4 or above, but he relied on his hearing to determine the opponent's movement direction in advance. Bypassed

"What a huge mountain!"

Qinchuan suddenly found a high mountain dozens of miles ahead.

That mountain was much higher than the hill he lived in before, at least five or six thousand meters high.

"That mountain is so high. If I climb to the top, will it be close to the ground? Maybe there's an exit there."

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan seemed to see a glimmer of hope in his heart, and immediately patted Qiuqiu's little head.

"Qiuqiu, let's go to the top of the mountain. Maybe we can find our way home."

"Gujiguji!"

Qiuqiu nodded his head obediently, stretched out his pink tongue and licked Qin Chuan's face.

"Let's go! Qin

Chuan smiled slightly and walked towards the mountain.

When Qin Chuan came to the foot of the mountain, he looked up at the top of the mountain and found that there was a bright light at the top of the mountain.

Seeing that light, Qin Chuan suddenly became excited.

According to He speculated that the open space on the top of the mountain was connected to the ground, so the light from the outside world shone into the underground world.

At that moment, Qin Chuan no longer hesitated and climbed to the top of the mountain..

Chapter 1875

At that moment, Qin Chuan climbed towards the top of the mountain without hesitation.

While crawling, Qin Chuan suddenly discovered a man-made stone path not far away.

Qin Chuan was surprised when he saw this trail.

This trail is obviously man-made. Is there anyone living on the top of this mountain? If there were people living there, who would they be?

Qin Chuan was suspicious and very curious.

Immediately, he walked up the path.

Not long after walking, he actually saw a garden.

What was planted in the garden was a dark green plant that was more than half a meter tall. There were about hundreds of plants in total. Qin Chuan did not recognize this plant.

I saw a walnut-sized fruit on the top of each plant.

Some of these fruits are purple and some are black.

It seems that these fruits turn black when ripe, and those purple ones are not yet ripe.

"What kind of fruit is this?"

Qin Chuan stepped forward to check out curiously, but he did not pick it for fear of offending the owner here.

Qiuqiu, who was lying on his shoulder, screamed, and looked at those strange fruits curiously.

Soon , Qin Chuan discovered that these black fruits were a kind of spiritual fruit, but they did not belong to any of the Five Elements Spirit Fruits.

But these fruits contained another energy.

Qin Chuan was very familiar with this energy, which was the heaven and earth. The extremely yin energy in the world.

As a physical practitioner, it is to absorb the yin and yang energy between heaven and earth to temper one's body. This extremely yin energy is the yin energy in the yin and yang energy, and Qin Chuan is naturally familiar with it.

It seems that this spirit The fruit grows by absorbing the extremely yin energy here.

This kind of spiritual fruit is quite strange. He has never heard of such fruits before.

However, thinking about it, this place has always been underground, so the extremely yin energy is naturally strong. It is a suitable place for growing such crops.

After leaving this garden, Qinchuan continued to climb to the top of the mountain. He saw several similar gardens along the way, but he did not see anyone living here, not even a hay shed. See.

When Qin Chuan approached the top of the mountain, he finally saw clearly what the light was before.

It turned out that the top of his mountain was not far from the ground. There was an exit about three feet wide at the top of the mountain. Those lights were the outside world. The light shines in from the exit.

The distance between the exit and the top of the mountain is only twenty or thirty meters. With Qin Chuan's ability, he can jump to such a height in one breath.

However, what surprised Qin Chuan is that on the top of the mountain, A high platform was built, and there was a long ladder in the middle of the high platform, leading directly to the exit.

It seems that the people who built the long ladder on the high platform for cultivation were the ones who planted those purple-black fruits. I don't know who they are?

No matter, now it's finally over. Having found the exit, it was better to return to the ground quickly and rush back to the Zhou family, so as not to worry his father and Uncle Wang.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan climbed up the long ladder.

When Qin Chuan quietly came out of the exit, he found that he was He was standing in the center of a high altar.

Surrounding the altar were four guards with animal skins around their waists, face paint, strange tattoos on their bodies, and animal tooth necklaces around their necks.

When they saw these four guards like this Dressed up, Qin Chuan felt a hint of surprise in his heart, and then he remembered something.

Looking at their clothes, they should be the legendary indigenous savages. Could it be that he appeared in the savage jungle now? And he happened to be a savage tribe. Where to live?...

Chapter 1876

Because the Savage Forest is not too far from the old and new mining areas, it is entirely possible for him to come out from here.

At this time, the four savage guards were guarding with their backs to the altar, and Qin Chuan climbed up quietly, so these four people did not notice Qin Chuan.

Qin Chuan glanced around again and found that the altar was in the center of a valley.

In addition to these four guards, there are more than a dozen guards at the entrance of the valley. There are also several rows of bamboo houses and a cave on the other side of the valley.

After reading this, Qin Chuan felt that the location he was in seemed a bit like a forbidden area. what to do?

I heard that these native savages are very xenophobic. If these people find themselves suddenly appearing here, I am afraid they will not spare me.

However, if he wanted to leave, he would definitely alarm these people.

Just when Qin Chuan was thinking about how to leave, Qiuqiu, who was lying on his shoulder, seemed to be very excited because he saw the outside world for the first time. He raised his fluffy little head, looked at the sky, and then Looking at the guards around him, he immediately raised his cute little mouth and shouted"Goojigji".

Its cry was nothing, but it frightened the four indigenous guards guarding the altar.

The four people turned around quickly and immediately saw Qin Chuan in the center of the altar, with horrified expressions on their faces.

For some reason, these four people looked very frightened when they saw Qin Chuan emerging from the center of the altar. They all yelled and backed away, not daring to approach Qin Chuan.

Their exclamations immediately attracted all the other guards in the valley.

In just a moment, the entire altar was surrounded by dozens of guards.

But these people looked at Qin Chuan with fear on their faces and did not dare to get close.

Some of them had the courage to ask Qin Chuan, but Qin Chuan couldn't understand their language at all.

At this time, a person in the crowd seemed to have discovered something. He pointed at the clothes on Qin Chuan's body and then pointed in a certain direction outside the valley.

Everyone understood immediately, and the fear on their faces immediately dissipated, but was replaced by anger.

At this time, a middle-aged indigenous man who seemed to be the leader of these guards came forward, pointed at Qin Chuan and asked a few questions.

Unfortunately, Qin Chuan didn't understand and just looked at him blankly.

His expression made the middle-aged indigenous man furious. He rushed up and grabbed Qin Chuan's arm, trying to pull him off the altar.

But when he pulled, Qin Chuan stood motionless.

The middle-aged indigenous man was stunned. He seemed surprised that he couldn't pull the young man in front of him.

He yelled unwillingly and tried his best again, but still couldn't pull Qin Chuan.

However, Qin Chuan was also horrified.

Because he could feel that the pulling power of the indigenous man in front of him was much stronger than that of an ordinary second-level Dzogchen warrior.

However, he didn't feel any vitality fluctuations in the indigenous man's body. It was purely based on the strength of his body.

It is said that the native savages in the savage forest are extremely powerful physically. He didn't believe it before, but today he really saw it. But why do these savages have such powerful bodies?

Is it really innate?

Just when Qin Chuan was thinking about this, Qiuqiu, who was lying on his shoulder, saw someone bullying Qin Chuan. He was furious. His hair stood up all over his body. He stared at a pair of round eyes and bared his teeth at the indigenous man in a fierce look..

When the native man saw that the little beast was showing its power towards him, he was angry and slapped him.

Seeing that he was going to hurt Qiu Qiu, Qin Chuan snorted coldly and punched the native man away first.

The indigenous man was beaten to the ground, unwilling to accept it, he got up and roared. His height suddenly increased by an inch, the muscles in his body also swelled, his eyes became blood red, and his originally black hair also turned blood red.

The whole person's momentum has been greatly improved.

Seeing his appearance, Qin Chuan's heart moved.

Why did he feel that the change of the man in front of him was very similar to his own 'war body madness'? Is there any origin in this?...

Chapter 1877

Seeing his appearance, Qin Chuan's heart moved.

Why did he feel that the change of the man in front of him was very similar to his own 'war body madness'? Is there any origin in this?

At this time, the insane aboriginal man was about to rush forward again, but an old aboriginal man with a withered face suddenly appeared behind him and held him down. The aboriginal man was unable to move for a moment.

The indigenous man looked back and seemed to recognize the old man's identity, and immediately retreated in awe.

Only then did the old man walk to Qin Chuan calmly.

As soon as the old man appeared, Qin Chuan was on guard because he sensed an extremely dangerous aura from the old man.

He could feel that he was no match for the old man. This was entirely an intuition.

At this time, the old man stopped, with an unfriendly expression on his face, and actually spoke in blunt mainland Chinese.

"Foreigners, please step down from the altar of our clan's holy place first, and don't tarnish the sanctity of our clan!"

After hearing this, Qin Chuan suddenly woke up, immediately walked down from the altar, and said slightly apologetically.

"This senior, this young man entered here by mistake and had absolutely no intention of tarnishing the holy land of nobles."

At the same time, he also had some doubts in his heart.

Does the Holy Land Altar that the old man mentioned refer to the ancient jungle under the altar? It seems that they planted the strange fruits on the mountain."

Seeing Qin Chuan coming from the altar After walking up and down, the old man's face softened slightly, and he said in harsh words:

"I am the high priest of the Mokuo tribe. I would like to ask the foreigners, did you just come out of the Holy Land?"

"You mean the holy place, the jungle under this altar?"

"good!"

"Then where did I come from?"

Qin Chuan did not deny it.

Hearing this, the high priest showed a trace of worry in his eyes and hurriedly asked

"Foreigner, can you tell me how you got in? Qin

Chuan pondered for a while and then said:"I fell in from a very high place. It's just that I was lucky and didn't fall to death.""

"Did you see seven strange rune stone pillars inside?"

"Rune pillar?"

Qin Chuan glanced at the high priest in surprise, then shook his head and said, "No!"

"Just don't have it!"

The high priest seemed to be relieved, but instantly his face turned sinister and he said coldly to Qin Chuan

"Foreigners, this priest doesn't care how you came in, but breaking into our clan's holy land is a capital offense, so you must accept my clan's punishment today!"

Hearing this, Qin Chuan's face changed drastically. He didn't expect that the old guy in front of him would turn his face faster than turning the book. He immediately became furious.

"High Priest, what do you mean? When you asked questions before, I answered them politely. After you asked, you decided to take my life. Is it true that you are useless as a boy, so you want to get rid of me, a foreigner?"

The high priest still looked cold and authentic.

"Foreigners, I can only blame you for straying into our holy land. I have to leave you behind. If I don't keep you here today, when you go back, tell the secret of our clan's holy land to the outside world. There will be countless troubles in the future"

"This is still a small matter, but I am afraid that in the future, if foreigners break into the Holy Land and destroy the sealing stone pillars inside, it will be a huge catastrophe. Therefore, foreigners, in order to save this world from a catastrophe, this priest has to leave you behind. You should not blame this priest for being cruel."..

Chapter 1878

Hearing this, Qin Chuan suddenly guessed something.

He then remembered that when he came out of the altar just now, all the natives showed extremely frightened expressions. Later, when he saw that he was wearing clothes that only people outside had to wear, he recognized his identity and immediately eliminated his fear of himself.

Later, the high priest suddenly asked Qin Chuan if he had seen the seven sealing stone pillars.

All these signs seem to indicate that there is a very important secret hidden in this holy land.

At this time, the high priest said again: "Foreigner, I think you are still young, and maybe you really broke in unintentionally. This priest also wants to let you go, but the crime of breaking into the holy place is really serious, and I have to punish you." If you don't want to be punished, there is still a way?"

"any solution?"

"This method is for this priest to make the decision and betroth a beautiful girl from our clan to you. From then on, you will be a member of my clan and must live in our clan for generations and will not be allowed to return to the outside world. Qin

Chuan glanced at the indigenous savages around him and thought that if he were like them, wrapped in animal skins and holding a bone gun for the rest of his life, he really couldn't accept it.

Besides, he also had important family responsibilities, so he had to hurry up. When he returned to the Zhou family, he would never accept this method.

Having said that, even if he agreed to this method, it would actually be equivalent to being under house arrest for the rest of his life.

"High Priest, what if I don't accept this condition?"

The high priest suddenly said with a sinister look on his face: "The only way is for you to accept the punishment of my clan." According to the regulations of our tribe, foreigners who break into the Holy Land must be punished by death! Hearing this

, Qin Chuan frowned and said, "High Priest, I know what you are worried about?" You are worried that after I go out, I will tell the secrets of your holy land. If the boy swears that he will never reveal your secrets after leaving, I wonder if you can let him go?

The high priest sneered and said: "Young man, our Mokuo tribe has already learned the cunningness of you foreigners. Do you think this priest will believe your words?"

Qin Chuan sighed helplessly and said: "In this case, then boy I had to break out!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Qin Chuan suddenly flashed and rushed towards the entrance of the valley.

The high priest snorted coldly, and with a wrong step, he stood in front of Qin Chuan, blocking his way. At the same time, his withered claws, He grabbed Qin Chuan like lightning.

This old guy was so fast!

Qin Chuan was horrified, and he quickly punched the high priest's withered claws.

When his fists and claws touched, Qin Chuan felt a huge force coming out, and his chest felt like a The heavy hammer hit, and blood surged. Then the whole person was shaken to the point of groaning, and he stepped back seven or eight steps.

What a strong force! This is purely the power of the physical body.

Look at this old guy, relying only on the strength of his body, He can compete with a fourth-level warrior.

Qin Chuan was inexplicably horrified. The punch he just made was very close to the strength of a fourth-level warrior, but he was still easily repelled by the opponent and almost suffered internal injuries. At this moment, the big opponent on the opposite side was The priest was also very horrified and sighed.

"Young man, it seems that this priest still underestimates you. Your strength is much higher than your age. You are the most potential foreigner I have ever seen. However, you must stay here today."

After saying that, the high priest said a few words to the tribesmen behind him that Qin Chuan could not understand.

Immediately, a tribesman left, seemingly to move reinforcements.

Seeing this posture, Qin Chuan was very anxious.

He couldn't even see the people in front of him. Even the high priest can't deal with it. If there are one or two more helpers who are similar to the high priest, he will definitely not be able to leave today. According to their rules, he, a foreigner who breaks into their holy land, will definitely be executed.

No! He must rush out without any further delay.

If reinforcements from these people arrive again, he will never be able to leave!

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan no longer hides his strength, roars, and immediately activates the battle body to go crazy, and his height immediately increases by an inch. , in an instant he turned into a white-haired, red-eyed appearance, and his whole body was emitting a palpitating emanation. With Qin Chuan's transformation, the surrounding native savages suddenly opened their eyes in surprise..

Chapter 1879

Qin Chuan's transformation caused the surrounding native savages to open their eyes wide in surprise.

The high priest also showed a cautious look on his face and asked hurriedly

"Young man, wait! May I ask where you learned this transformation skill? It is impossible for foreigners to learn it."

Qin Chuan rolled his eyes and thought to himself. Previously, he saw that these people's transformation skills were very similar to his own mad transformation. It seemed that there was indeed some connection.

At the moment, Qin Chuan lied and said:"I am the descendant of my family. What is said is not learned from there."

"Has it been passed down through generations in your family? Could it be... are you a descendant of God?"

Speaking of this, the high priest showed a look of disbelief on his face.

"By the way, your hair is different from the people outside. It is blood red, the same color as the hair of God Ama. And you have such strength at such a young age, which ordinary people cannot do. , only descendants of gods can have such a talent. It seems that you are truly a descendant of God Ama."

The high priest became more excited and more determined as he spoke.

Qin Chuan pretended to be impatient and said:"I don't understand what you are talking about. If you don't want to stop me, please get out of the way!"

Hearing this, the high priest came to his senses and quickly said politely

"Young man, maybe there are some misunderstandings between us. Since you are a descendant of the Great God Ama, you are not an outsider. You are the most noble guest of our clan. Naturally, we will not stop you. However, I think you must still have many questions in your mind about whether you can stay in our clan for a while.

Qin Chuan frowned and said,"What on earth is going on?" The high priest said respectfully:"Young man, come with me, and I will tell you all this." Qin

Chuan hesitated for a while, then walked over with the high priest.

The high priest took Qin Chuan to the cave in the valley.

As soon as he entered the cave, Qin Chuan saw many murals painted in the cave.

The first mural was painted He is a tall red-haired man who stands proudly between heaven and earth like a god of war. At his feet, there are countless ant-like Mokuo tribesmen worshipping him. The high priest on the side explained:

"Young man, the mural This majestic man in the picture is the patron saint of our Mokuo tribe, the great god Ama!"

"Yeah?"

Qin Chuan nodded slightly and looked towards the red-haired man in the painting.

When he saw the red-haired man's face clearly, a strange look appeared on his face.

Because this red-haired man was the one who activated the When the War God Order was issued, the mysterious red-haired man projected was the same person.

Unexpectedly, this man was the Great God Ama mentioned by the high priest. Although the high priest said that I was his descendant, it was wrong, but there was indeed something between him and me. The title of master and disciple.

It was his projection that taught me the "Seven Gods of Blood Refining" that day. To a certain extent, I am his descendant."

Seeing Qin Chuan's strange expression, the man on the side The high priest asked tentatively: "Have you seen the person on this mural?"

Qin Chuan nodded slightly and said: "Yes! However, I have only seen his projection. He only taught me some skills and then left. Yes."

After hearing this, the high priest breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that he had guessed correctly. The young man next to him was indeed a descendant of God. Otherwise, he would not have met the great god Ama, let alone receive the inheritance of the great god Ama.

At that moment, the high priest said excitedly: "Then you must be the descendant. Otherwise, the great god Ama would not have shown his power and showed up to teach you the skills."

Qin Chuan's mouth twitched, but he did not refute. I also have my own calculations in my heart..

Chapter 1880

Then, Qin Chuan continued to look down.

In the next mural, the red-haired man turns into the size of a normal person and teaches a group of uncivilized primitive people how to drill wood to make fire, how to farm, fish and hunt, how to build wooden houses, and even teaches them language.

The red-haired man seemed to be civilizing a nation, which was the Mokuo people.

The last mural depicts a battle between a red-haired man and a man with a third eye on his forehead.

The mural ends here, and Qin Chuan seems to have guessed a lot of things.

Obviously, the civilization of the Mokuo tribe was taught by the red-haired man.

Moreover, the legend of the extremely powerful red-haired man has always deeply shocked the hearts of the Mokuo people.

Therefore, the Mokuo tribe has always regarded him as their patron saint.

"High Priest, who is this man?"

Qin Chuan pointed at the three-eyed man fighting the red-haired man in the mural.

A look of great fear suddenly appeared on the high priest's face.

"That's a demon, a man-eating demon. This demon can devour hundreds of people with just one mouth. It was thanks to the intervention of God Ama that he was suppressed in the Holy Land. Otherwise, I don't know how many people in this world would have been eaten by him."

"Suppressed in the Holy Land? You suddenly asked me earlier if I had seen seven sealing stone pillars in the Holy Land. Could it be that this demon was suppressed under the seven sealing stone pillars?"

"Yes. Fortunately, the descendants did not encounter the seven sealing stone pillars in the holy land. Although the demon god has been suppressed, his will can still control those who break into the sealed land."

"If the descendant accidentally breaks in, he may be controlled by him, thereby destroying the seal and releasing the devil. Then the world will face a huge disaster."

"Then why did your people look so scared when I came out of the altar earlier? Could it be...."

"good! They had previously mistaken you, the descendant, for a demon god, thinking that the demon god had been freed from his seal, so they were so frightened when they first saw you. Later, they discovered that you looked completely different from the demon god, and you were wearing outerwear. The clothes of your tribe, that's how they know you are not a demon. Hearing this

, Qin Chuan was still a little surprised, and said,"The appearance of this demon god and me is so different. Why was I considered a demon god as soon as I came out?""

The high priest smiled bitterly and said:"You can't blame them, because for so many years, except for the people of our clan who know about the existence of the Holy Land, the foreigners don't know its existence at all, let alone the foreigners who have entered the Holy Land."

"Moreover, the Demon God's seal is already unstable, and it won't be long before the Demon God breaks out, so your sudden appearance will naturally make them suspect that you are the Demon God."

"You said the Demon God is going to break out of the seal?"

Qin Chuan had a surprised look on his face.

"Yes, this is the divine word left by the great god Ama. Back then, God Ama had a great battle with the Demon God, and finally defeated the Demon God, and sealed the Demon God in the Holy Land with seven Demon Sealing Pillars."

"Great God Ama taught us the Mokuo people, taught us the body-refining method, and asked us Mokuo people to guard the entrance of the holy land for generations, guarding the seal."

"We, the Mokuo people, have also adhered to the creed of God Ama from generation to generation and have been waiting here. In order to prevent foreigners who do not know the truth from breaking into the holy land and destroying the seal, we, the Mokuo people, refuse to interact with foreigners and will never allow foreigners to enter our territory."

Hearing this, Qin Chuan suddenly understood why outsiders thought the Mokuo people were xenophobic. It turned out that there was a story like this.

The high priest continued:"The Great God Ama said before he left that after ten thousand years, He will come back again to strengthen the Demon God's seal. If he cannot come back in person, he will send his descendants to come"

"Because the seal he arranged back then needs to be strengthened every ten thousand years, otherwise the seal will become invalid and the devil will be reborn."

"Today, there are still more than a hundred years left before that ten thousand-year period. We Mokuo people are looking forward to the return of the great god Ama every day and night, and we are also worried that the demon god will break the seal in advance."

As he said this, the high priest looked at Qin Chuan expectantly.

"Now, God Ama has not come back, but he has sent you, the descendant, back. I hope you, descendant, will once again strengthen the Demon God's seal for the sake of the common people in this world!"...
