

God level 2391

Chapter 2391

"what is the problem? Qing Yanhai asked.

Qing Yunfeng smiled mysteriously:"It means that the ninth-level master was restrained by someone and could not leave his position. As for who restrained him, I speculate that since he is here Those guarding the altar are probably restrained by the remnant souls of our five family heads and Senior Tuntian."

"In other words, the ninth-level master can only stay in Shenyan City and cannot leave, so as long as we don't go to Shenyan City, he can't do anything to us."

"Judging from the pursuit situation described by the three elders before, the man's pursuit of the three men stopped abruptly two miles outside the north gate. Based on this calculation, the man's hiding place should be one mile south of the center of Shenyan City."

"Because it is two miles and about ten miles from there to the north gate. This distance is the limit for the ninth-level avatar to leave the original position, so I infer that he is hiding in that place."

"Besides, that man has been hiding in Shenyan City for nearly a thousand years. He can't always live on the ground. Because he has survived for nearly a thousand years, he will be investigated by various forces. The best hiding place is underground. Therefore, Yunfeng deduced that the man's location was underground one mile south of the center of Shenyan City."

Everyone present was shocked by Qing Yunfeng's inference.

They didn't expect that Qing Yunfeng not only deduced the current situation of the man, but also deduced the location where the man was hiding, and they were all filled with admiration.

At that moment, Qing Yanhai was shocked again. Asked:"Boy Yunfeng, since that person can't leave Shenyan City, don't we have to leave in a hurry?

Qing Yunfeng shook his head and said:"Although the situation is not as severe as you thought before, it is still very urgent." If my prediction is correct, the old thief Yan Li must have gone to ask for help when the ninth-level warrior suddenly took action, so you can't find him when you enter Shenyang City. Because he has entered the hiding place of the ninth-level master"

"Later, when the ninth-level master failed to kill you, he would definitely let Yan Li leave. After Yan Li left, he would naturally rush to Kyoto to ask for help from Long Xing. And Long Xing is the most afraid of our five races."

"Besides, the largest number of our descendants from the five tribes died at his hands back then. If he knew what was going on in Shenyang City, he would definitely rush over with all his strength, so we had better evacuate quickly. If Long Xing catches up, it would still be extremely dangerous."

After hearing Wan's words, everyone nodded slightly and began to feel anxious.

At this time, Lord Feng also asked:"Yunfeng, what do you think we should do next? Qing Yanfei and Tianqi, and the whereabouts of the Green Dragon Pearl are still unknown."

"If we evacuate now, if Qing Yanfei and the others arrive at Shenyang City soon, they will definitely miss us. They don't know the location of our secret stronghold. Why don't we find them here first and wait for them to come before evacuating?"

"yes! We should find them first, especially tell them not to enter Shenyang City again, otherwise they will fall into a trap."

"Especially since the Green Dragon Pearl is still in the hands of the two of them, if they are caught again, it means that the Green Dragon Pearl has returned to the enemy's hands."

Now many people began to discuss worriedly

Qing Yunfeng said quietly:"Don't worry about this. Tian Qi is a very smart boy. He should have thought long ago that we will evacuate after the battle, and he doesn't know that our secret stronghold is in Huo Chu. He Definitely not acting blindly"

"From what I know about him, he will definitely be waiting at the exit of that forbidden area waiting for us to go over and look for them. So, I suggest we act in two ways. On one side, the leader of the Qing family will lead everyone to immediately withdraw to our Qing family's secret stronghold of Wanhua Valley."

"On the other side, the Supreme Elder Qingyanhai, Senior Phoenix Master, and Senior Teng Master rushed to the exit of the forbidden area, looking for Senior Qingyanfei and Tianqi, because the Supreme Elder Qingyanhai knew where the exit was, and the three He is also an eighth-level warrior. Even if something delays him on the way, his retreat speed will be much faster than that of an ordinary disciple. I wonder what you think of this plan?"

After hearing this, everyone nodded in agreement.

"good! I think this solution is feasible!"

Now, after the plan was finalized,

Qing Xuanlin took the children of the three tribes through the jungle and began to rush towards the Ten Thousand Flowers Valley..

Chapter 2392

The Valley of Ten Thousand Flowers is located in the Black Domain Forest.

The Black Domain Forest is very far away from Shenyang City, about two thousand miles away. It is located on the border of Dakun Kingdom, bordering Baixi Kingdom to the north, Ten Thousand Beast Kingdom to the south, and Dakun Kingdom to the east.

With the large-scale evacuation of Qingxuanlin and the children of the three tribes.

Qing Yanhai and the others took the time to adjust their injuries for a while, then flew into the air towards the Holy Lake and began to look for Qing Yanfei and Qin Chuan.

But on the other side, Qin Chuan and Qing Yanfei were recuperating on the Mokuo Sacred Lake Island.

Qin Chuan was a physical martial artist with a strong recovery ability. After resting for about half a day, his injuries were almost healed.

After Qiuqiu ate two pieces of Yuan Magnetic Blue Gold, he fell into a deep sleep and never woke up.

Qin Chuan knew that Qiuqiu was digesting Yuanci Blue Gold and recovering from his own injuries.

Seeing that Qiuqiu didn't wake up, Qin Chuan didn't want to disturb it, so he walked out of the house alone and wanted to walk around the village.

But as soon as Qin Chuan walked out of the house, he saw the holy well in the center of the village.

"The water in the holy well here is another sacred object of the Mokuo people, holy water. I don't know what is so special about this well that it actually contains the aura of the Yangtze River."

Qin Chuan was curious and walked towards the holy well unknowingly.

When the four guards guarding the holy well saw Qin Chuan coming, they bowed their heads respectfully and saluted.

Qin Chuan's current identity is Lord Divine Descendant. He is so respected among the Mokuo tribe that even the chief priests have to kneel down and worship him when they see him. Naturally, these four guards dare not neglect him.

Qin Chuan naturally will not embarrass them, and smiles slightly to say hello to them.

Then , he approached the mouth of the well and looked into the well.

At this glance, Qin Chuan saw a surge of fresh air, which shocked him. He couldn't help but take a breath, and suddenly felt relaxed and happy, and the hidden veins in his body were about to move, and he wanted to automatically up and running

"What a strong Yang energy! It seems that this is a Yang Qi cave. In this world, the only people who can detect the yin and yang crypts are physical warriors who have practiced at least three sects. Qi warriors cannot sense the two qi of yin and yang."

As a body cultivator, he can clearly sense the existence of yin and yang energy between heaven and earth, which ordinary warriors cannot sense.

Because he is not only a five-line warrior, but also a physical warrior.

The yin and yang between heaven and earth can only be sensed by physical warriors.

Currently, Qin Chuan has opened the third level of physical cultivation. The second door has reached the edge of opening the third door.

If he wants to open the third door, he needs the power of Yuan Yin and Yuan Yang to temper his whole body.

Where does this power of Yuan Yin and Yuan Yang come from, but Qin Chuan is confused. He doesn't know.

But he knows that if he really opens the third gate, his strength will be greatly improved.

Because as a body cultivator reaches the third gate, the hidden meridians in the body will be connected with the external meridians.

In the Dantian The power of the essence will also be transformed into the two powers of yin and yang.

Because the hidden veins and the external veins are connected, the power of yin and yang can be released.

At that time, the physical warriors did not need to rely solely on physical strength for close combat, but could also rely on the power of yin and yang. Assisting in long-distance combat.

And because of the emergence of the power of yin and yang, spiritual weapons and even artifacts using the power of yin and yang appeared in the world of physical warriors. The artifact "Sun, Moon and Heavenly Wheel" obtained by Qin Chuan is driven by the power of yin and yang..

And the power of yin and yang has not really been generated in his body yet, so even if Ming Linger gives Qin Chuan the initiative to control the sun and moon wheel, he will not be able to control the sun and moon wheel. Only by opening the third door can he He has the qualifications to drive.

It can be said that opening the third gate is the first watershed for physical warriors. At that time, there will be earth-shaking changes..

Chapter 2393

However, Qin Chuan felt refreshed after taking a big breath of the Yang Qi and looked towards the bottom of the well.

The holy well was not dug very deep, only five or six meters deep. The water inside was so clear that one could see through to the bottom of the well. There was a strange runic stone pillar as thick as a bowl at the bottom of the well.

This white gas is the extremely positive energy naturally emitted by the well water.

It seems that the rune stone pillar is a rune pillar that extracts the energy of the extreme sun from the underground. There must be a small rune array underneath. I think this is the masterpiece of the senior God of War. The people of the Mokuo tribe do not understand the rune array. of.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan smiled slightly, and suddenly he was stunned.

Because he thought of a question.

Huh! The runes on the rune pillars at the bottom of the well clearly come from the same place as the runes I learned.

If the rune pillars below were arranged by the God of War, does that mean that both physical warriors and air warriors can use rune formations? How do physical cultivators arrange rune formations? Could it be relying on the power of yin and yang?

By the way, yin and yang can transform the five elements. Since the power of the five elements can drive the rune formation, then the power of yin and yang can naturally drive the rune formation. It seems that physical warriors and qi warriors have the same goal in this regard!

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan suddenly realized.

However, in order to prove his thoughts, Qin Chuan still asked the guard on the side about the origin of the holy well.

After questioning, it turned out that this holy well was indeed installed by the God of War.

This proves that Qin Chuan's speculation is correct. The yin and yang power of body cultivators can also arrange rune formations.

Conversely, rune formations can also gather the power of yin and yang.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan was immediately overjoyed and had a plan in mind.

This plan is about the 'Seven Star Blood Soul Pearl'.

The Blood Soul Bead is regarded as a holy bead by the Mokuo people and is the key to opening the 'Transformation Pool'.

Previously, Qin Chuan could not bear to take away the blood beads of the Mokuo tribe because without the blood beads, the Mokuo tribe would not be able to open the 'transformation pool'.

However, Qin Chuan now has an idea.

The idea is to help the Mokuo people set up a rune array that can extract the two qi of yin and yang from the holy fruit and holy water, and then fill the body with the two qi. This can replace the previous role of the blood and soul beads.

In that case, Qin Chuan can take the blood beads from the Mokuo clan without any impact on their clan.

Qin Chuan was excited when he thought of this.

He has always been thinking about how to get the blood orb from the Mokuo tribe.

Although as a god descendant, it is no problem to ask for it from the Mokuo tribe, but in that case, the Mokuo tribe will never be able to open the transformation pool in the future.

This has a great impact on the strength of the Mokuo people.

As soon as he thought of it, Qin Chuan went straight to Qing Yanfei.

Because Qin Chuan has not yet reached the fifth level of cultivation, he naturally cannot arrange rune formations, but Qing Yanfei can, so Qin Chuan went to Qing Yanfei for help.

After entering Qing Yanfei's residence, Qin Chuan expressed his thoughts.

However, Qin Chuan did not say that the Blood Soul Bead was part of the divine weapon. He only said that it was of great help to his body refining and asked Qing Yanfei to help him set up a Yuan Gathering Formation to see if it could replace the Blood Soul Bead..

Qing Yanfei had no doubt that he was there and readily agreed..

Chapter 2394

Seeing that Qing Yanfei agreed, Qin Chuan was overjoyed and ordered someone to find the second priest and ask him to lead the way to another Mokuo clan station to try to set up a large formation.

After a while, the two priests rushed over.

To Qin Chuan's surprise, the high priest and the clan leader also came with the second priest. It turned out that the two of them had heard about Qin Chuan's arrival and hurried over to pay homage to the god descendant.

When the three of them met, they couldn't help but bow to each other again.

Qin Chuan also introduced Qing Yanfei to the high priest and clan leader.

Later, the high priest and the clan leader told Qin Chuan about the seal, which made Qin Chuan feel even more stressed.

At the moment, Qin Chuan said: "Clan leader, high priest. It will take nearly a hundred years for the demon to break the seal. This god descendant will definitely try his best to strengthen the seal within a hundred years, so the three of you don't have to be too anxious now.."

"The words of Lord Goddess gave me and other subordinates a reassurance in their hearts. In fact, the reason why we are so anxious to seal it is because the great god Ama once left a magical message. He once said that the demon god was so powerful that even he could not destroy it and could only seal it."

"If the seal cannot be strengthened in time within a hundred years before the demon god breaks the seal, no one will be able to stop the demon god from breaking the seal. By then, it will not be me, the Mokuo clan, who will be in ruins, but the billions of humans on the entire continent. , so all human beings will become the object of his mouth"

"This God-born Lord naturally knows the consequences of this! By the way, do you know who the devil is? Why eat people? The patriarch shook his head and said: "Master Divine Descendant, this is not something that our subordinates can know.""

"Come to think of it, even the Great God Ama can't kill those gods and demons. It's not surprising that you don't know their origins! By the way, if I want to strengthen the seal, I need to borrow your clan's holy pearl. I wonder if the clan leader can borrow it?"

The patriarch said without hesitation

"If Lord Goddess needs it, feel free to use it. This holy bead was originally a sacred object left by the great god Ama to our clan. Now that the god descendant has taken it back, it has been returned to its original owner. Besides, Lord Goddess used it to strengthen the seal and exchange the loss of my clan for the safety of hundreds of millions of human beings. This is a great righteousness and this is what our clan should do."

Hearing this, Qin Chuan sighed in his heart and had a little more respect for the Mokuo tribe.

No one could have imagined that this indigenous tribe, regarded as savages by people in the outside world, would sacrifice for the safety of hundreds of millions of people for countless years. They have been silently guarding the Demon God's seal.

They should have been praised by the world, but in the end, they were despised and ignored by the world.

But they did not care about the world's indifference. For generations, they silently guarded a remote jungle corner. , guarding the seal for thousands of years for the safety of the world.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan said:"Clan Chief, I have a way to get the best of both worlds, which can not only allow this descendant of God to take away your blood beads, but also allow your The metamorphosis pool is open as usual."

At that moment, Qin Chuan expressed his thoughts.

The clan leader and the high priest and the two priests readily agreed.

Then, Qin Chuan asked Qing Yanfei to go to the Mokuo tribe's transformation pool to help set up a Yuan Gathering Talisman array.

The group then went to another stronghold of the Mokuo tribe.

After making several modifications and adjustments, as Qin Chuan expected, Shengguo and The yin and yang vitality in the holy water can also be gathered by relying on the rune array.

After the attempt was successful, Qin Chuan also got the blood bead as he wished.

Afterwards, Qin Chuan and Qing Yan returned to the holy island and continued to heal and rest. While waiting for Qing Yanhai and others to come over to look for them.

After all, the exit of the forbidden area is near the Holy Island, and the two of them were afraid that Qing Yanhai and others would not be able to find them if they were too far away. After this round trip, it was already dark. Got it..

Chapter 2395

But he said that after Qin Chuan returned to the Holy Island, he couldn't wait to return to his house.

As soon as he returned to his house, he found that Qiuqiu had woken up.

Seeing Qiuqiu wake up, Qin Chuan knew that its injury should be healed.

At the moment, Qin Chuan felt happy. After playing with Qiuqiu for a while, he asked Qiuqiu to stay at the door while he continued to adjust his breathing and recuperate.

This adjustment of the breath will be done until late at night.

When Qin Chuan opened his eyes and woke up again, his injuries were basically healed.

The night was very peaceful.

The chirping of insects could be heard from time to time in the grass outside the house.

Under the starry sky, people's peaceful snoring still floated.

It was the midsummer season at this time, and the late night wind was very cool and quiet.

The moonlight streamed in from the door like water, and Qin Chuan felt so peaceful for some reason. He had never felt so peaceful before.

Maybe he just got a blood soul bead, which made him feel good!

"What a beautiful night! It's time to go out for a walk! Qin

Chuan slowly stood up and walked outside the house.

Qiuqiu, who was dozing at the door, immediately became alert and opened his eyes wide.

When he found out it was Qin Chuan, he immediately yawned lazily and stretched. He leaned on the door and fell asleep.

Apparently, when this guy saw Qin Chuan wake up, he could finally relieve himself of the responsibility of guarding and start to have his own sweet dream.

When he came outside, Qin Chuan gently raised his head, looking at the night sky full of stars, and the bright moon as beautiful as a jade plate in the sky.

At this time, a gust of night wind came, carrying it with him from afar The sound of the lake water undulating.

Qin Chuan closed his eyes gently and listened quietly to the sound in the night wind. He heard it very far away.

His hearing was far beyond ordinary people, and in such a quiet night , can naturally hear any wind and grass in the distance very clearly.

At this moment, Qin Chuan seemed to enjoy the quiet night and the sound of the swaying flowers and plants.

He heard the sound of the lake water lapping the shore and the sound of the water washing the beach. , there was also the sound of surging waves, and a night bird was flying against the waves on the lake in the dark night.

At this moment, Qin Chuan's ears were filled with the sound of wind and water, and his mind suddenly sublimated. He felt He seemed to touch something, something seemed to be sprouting in his heart. He gradually immersed himself in it and entered a state of perception.

"This is what is called prosperity! When the heart is calm, the wind is calm, and when the heart is beating, the wind is moving. The wind arises from the heart, and the waves arise from the wind. Could this be the result of Lang Yin's heart? The continuous flow of water and its unpredictable changes are all manifestations of the heart? By the way, this is the true nature of water's unexplained changes. I seem to understand!"

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan's spirit shook suddenly. He suddenly figured out something, and an extremely pleasant feeling spread from the depths of his heart.

At the same time, Qin Chuan's whole body also shook, and the world Qin Chuan's water vitality also experienced violent turbulence at this moment and began to rush towards him crazily.

Qin Chuan's water vitality actually had an epiphany at this moment, breaking through from the peak of the third level to the great perfection of the third level.

Feeling countless water vitality Qin Chuan gently closed his eyes and was completely immersed in the joy of enlightenment as the lake in the distance rushed toward him crazily.

"Huh!"

It turned out that Qing Yanfei had been recuperating in order to regain his strength as soon as possible. , suddenly he felt a sudden change in the water energy between heaven and earth, and immediately went out to check, but saw a scene that surprised him

"What a boy, I had an epiphany! Enlightenment is extremely rare! Some people never have the opportunity to have an epiphany in their entire lives. This little guy was able to achieve it at such a young age, so his understanding is extraordinary!"

Chapter 2396

"What a boy, I had an epiphany! Enlightenment is extremely rare! Some people never have the opportunity to have an epiphany in their entire lives. This little guy was able to achieve it at such a young age, so his understanding is extraordinary!"

Qing Yanfei glanced at Qin Chuan with great envy.

Sudden enlightenment is extremely rare for warriors.

However, every epiphany brings great benefits to warriors, which are accompanied by a great increase in strength.

As an eighth-level warrior, Qing Yan has lived for more than a thousand years, and has only a handful of epiphanies in his life.

As if disturbed by Qing Yanfei's appearance, Qin Chuan woke up from the joy of epiphany.

When he woke up When he came over, he immediately found that his water energy had reached the third level of perfection, and he was overjoyed.

After the water energy broke through to the third level of perfection, Qin Chuan's strength increased again.

Now, his comprehensive combat power has increased to about four thousand The strength of three hundred people

"Ha ha!! My water energy has broken through to the third level of Dzogchen!"

Qin Chuan was happy in his heart. He was the first to cultivate water energy and the first to reach the peak of the third level, but he has not been able to break through. It was only today that he listened to the waves of the lake at night and realized the breakthrough.

In fact, Qinchuan's water system The qualification is a genius qualification, and now he has broken through to the third level of Dzogchen, which is already very shocking at his age.

Just relying on the cultivation of water energy, Qin Chuan can He can join the ranks of the top ten young masters in Shenyan City.

After the excitement, Qin Chuan discovered the existence of Qing Yanfei and immediately said respectfully

"Tian Qi has seen Qing Yanfei as an ancestor. Senior Yan Fei, it's so late, why aren't you still resting? Are you also coming out to watch the night?"

"What are you looking at at night? I came here to see you. Little guy, you are really not simple! I didn't expect that in such an environment, you would have an epiphany, and the epiphany was about water energy."

"According to common sense, environment has a great influence on enlightenment. There is no water around this place, but you suddenly realized the water energy. It seems that your thinking is different from others! What a geek! Ha ha!! Qing

Naturally, he was very happy that the Qing family could produce a junior with such excellent understanding.

At that moment, Qin Chuan smiled slightly embarrassedly and said, "My ancestors have given me the reward. Tian Qi just luck"

"Little one, you don't have to be modest. I am very optimistic about it. I contacted you today and found out that your fire element is at the fourth level peak, your water element is at the third level of Dzogchen, your wood element is at the third level peak, your earth element is at the third level, and your metal element is at the first intermediate level. How come your cultivation is so complicated?"

"Could it be that you are a fifth-line warrior who is extremely rare in legends and whose rarity is comparable to that of a spiritual body that has been rare for hundreds of years? Otherwise, how could you cultivate the five elements of vitality? Hearing this

, Qin Chuan paused for a moment, then smiled and said: "It seems that this matter cannot be hidden from the eyes of our ancestors." The elders are right, this boy is a warrior of the fifth element."

"What?"

Qing Yanfei opened his eyes wide in horror, with a look of disbelief in his eyes, "Oh my God! Are you really a five-element warrior that is rare to see in a thousand years?"

Although Qing Yanfei had made such a guess before, he still couldn't believe it because five-line warriors were so rare.

In his more than a thousand years of life, he had never seen a five-line warrior.

"Yes!"

Qin Chuan responded in a low voice. He did not expect that Qing Yanfei would show a horrified expression after hearing his words.

Obviously, Qin Chuan did not know that the fifth element warriors were rare...

After receiving Qin Chuan's confirmation again, Qing Yanfei took a deep breath and then showed a look of ecstasy.

"Ha ha!! Very good! Very good! Unexpectedly, there is a fifth-line warrior among our Qing family disciples. A five-line warrior is absolutely invincible at the same level. Tianqi, the Azure Dragon Pearl is now in the hands of our Qing family. I have secretly tested your wood qualifications."

"Your wood qualification is a genius qualification, which means that the concentration of the Azure Dragon's true blood in your body is not low. If you go through the 'Hualong Pond' baptism, you have a 60% chance of raising your wood qualification to a pseudo-wood spirit body in one fell swoop. Qualification"

"If your wood talent can reach the pseudo-wood spiritual body qualification, as long as you are willing to work hard, your wood energy will definitely be able to reach the eighth level of Dzogchen. At that time, coupled with your status as a fifth-level warrior, even if you cannot break through to the ninth level in this life, you can still be the first person below the ninth level."

"I remember that 7,000 years ago, there appeared a fourth-line warrior who had cultivated all four-line vitality to the peak of the eighth-level Great Perfection. That man was invincible below the ninth-level. Even if he encountered a ninth-level warrior, he could withstand a full turn without dying.. Because of this, that person's name has been passed down through the ages!"

"Tianqi! You have to work hard, even if you can't become a ninth-level warrior, you still have to be the first person at the eighth level. If you can cultivate the five elements of vitality to the peak of the eighth-level Dzogchen, then you will be even more powerful than that person back then. point."

Qing Yan became more and more excited as he spoke, and his face glowed more and more as he spoke. Qin Chuan was also greatly surprised after hearing what he said.

However, Qin Chuan knew very well.

He had cultivated the energy of the three systems of water, wood, and fire to the eighth level. There is still a glimmer of hope for reaching the peak of perfection. It is absolutely impossible to cultivate the earth energy and gold energy to the eighth level of the Great Perfection Peak.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan smiled bitterly and didn't say much.

Next, Qing Yanfei said a lot of words excitedly.

Qin Chuan listened silently.

After a while, Qin Chuan said: "Senior Yan Fei, the boy just had an epiphany and wanted to Go to other places on the island to deepen your understanding."

"That's fine!"

Qing Yanfei smiled and nodded.

"Maybe the environment this night is very suitable for you to realize, go for it! I'm going back to meditate too."

At that moment, Qin Chuan said goodbye to Qing Yanfei, and then his figure disappeared into the night.

"This boy is not bad, his mind, talent, and even understanding are impeccable. I never expected that our Qing family would have such a talented person. Maybe our Qing family has hope for revenge!"

After a few words of emotion, Qing Yanfei happily returned to his residence and continued to recuperate.

However, after Qin Chuan said goodbye to Qing Yanfei, he came alone to the top of the island, under the statue of the God of War.

For some reason, whenever Qin Chuan saw the statue in front of him, When looking at the statue of the God of War, he always felt an inexplicable throbbing in his heart. It was an indescribable feeling.

Maybe this was a kind of cause and effect in his past life!

His heart was full of reverence and gratitude to the God of War.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan He smiled slightly and didn't want to think about it anymore. He sat silently in front of the statue and turned his palm over. A red bead emitting this amazing evil spirit was suspended in the palm of his hand.

This red bead was exactly what he got from the Mokuo tribe during the day. The blood soul bead.

Qin Chuan looked at the blood soul bead in his palm silently. An idea suddenly appeared in his mind, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth..

Chapter 2398

Qin Chuan remembered that Ming Ling'er once told him that in order to fully refine the power of Lei Ya's weapon soul, she had cut off all contact with the outside world.

However, Ming Ling'er also said that after Qin Chuan obtained a blood bead and dropped a drop of blood on the blood bead, the sun and moon wheel sealed in the palm of his hand would sense it and automatically transfer the seven-star blood bead. The beads are sucked in.

This made Qin Chuan doubt Ming Linger's words.

The Sun Moon Celestial Wheel recognizes him as its master, and uses his essence and blood as a guide to be absorbed by Ming Ling'er, rather than being absorbed by the Sun Moon Celestial Wheel itself.

According to Ming Ling'er, as long as he drops blood essence on the blood bead, the sun, moon and heavenly wheels will automatically generate induction and suck the blood bead in.

Does this induction come from the body of the Sun and Moon Celestial Wheel, or from Ming Ling'er.

However, one thing is undeniable, the bridge between the two is Qin Chuan's blood essence.

Because when there is no drop of Qin Chuan's essence and blood in the Blood Soul Bead, there is no induction between the two. However, a drop of Qinchuan's essence and blood will create an induction.

This also illustrates a problem.

This shows that the reaction between the two is between Ming Ling'er and the Blood Soul Pearl, not between the Blood Soul Pearl and the Sun-Moon Heavenly Wheel itself.

Thinking of this, a smile suddenly appeared on Qin Chuan's face. He seemed to have found a way to contact Ming Ling'er.

Qin Chuan has been looking for ways to get in touch with Ming Ling'er. He also tried various methods secretly, but was unable to contact Ming Ling'er, which made him very depressed.

The reason why Qin Chuan is so anxious to contact Ming Ling'er is because he can only control the Sun, Moon and Heavenly Wheel by relying on Ming Ling'er.

Otherwise, he would have a shocking artifact, but he could only look at it but not use it.

This feeling made him extremely confused.

This kind of entanglement is like a person who is about to starve to death. He clearly sees delicious food in front of him, but cannot eat it. He can only watch the delicious food slowly starve to death.

As an old saying goes, asking you how much sorrow you can have is like a group of eunuchs going to a brothel! There's no point in being anxious!

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan thought in his heart

"Maybe I can get a connection with Ming Ling'er through this method, but I don't know if she will agree to that? I think she will agree for my sake, right? I don't want to think too much about it, let's get in touch with Ming Ling'er first."

Immediately, Qin Chuan no longer hesitated, bit his fingertips, squeezed out a drop of blood and dropped it on the blood bead. As soon as the drop of blood dropped on the blood bead, it was automatically absorbed by the blood bead.

Not long after, the sun and moon mark on the heart of Qin Chuan's right hand also heated up, and then emitted a strong red light. As soon as the sun and moon mark released the red light, the blood The soul bead immediately sensed it, turned into a red light, and shot toward the sun and moon mark like lightning.

But at this moment, Qin Chuan's eyes narrowed, as if he had been prepared, and his shot was as fast as lightning, and he intercepted it in one go He found the path of the Blood Soul Bead and grabbed the Blood Soul Bead in his left hand.

The sun and moon mark on his right hand heart also became more fiery, and the light emitted became more intense. Strong, emitting extremely strong suction to the blood bead.

But all this was stopped by Qin Chuan, preventing the two from combining.

The sun and moon mark could not absorb the blood bead. , turned into a red light and flew out from the center of Qinchuan's right hand, hovering in the air and turning into the appearance of the sun, moon and heavenly wheel, but it was a reduced form. If it turned into a size of ten thousand feet, it would be too amazing.

But that day As soon as the moon wheel appeared, a white light flew out from the sun and moon wheel, and after landing, it turned into a stunning girl.

The stunning girl was dressed in white clothes like snow, and there was a mark of the sun and moon on her forehead as smooth as jade.

But at this moment, there was a faint scowl on that flawless face, staring at Qin Chuan with two beautiful big eyes.

But Qin Chuan showed a look of surprise when he saw this stunning girl.

Chapter 2399

When Qin Chuan saw this stunning girl, he showed a look of surprise.

This stunning girl is the weapon spirit of the Sun, Moon and Heavenly Wheel, Ming Ling'er.

"Linger, you are finally out!"

"snort! What on earth do you want to do? Why stop me from combining the Blood Soul Pearl with the Sun, Moon and Heavenly Wheel? Don't you know that I am working hard to refine the power of Lei Ya's weapon soul? If you interrupt my refining like this, it will easily trigger Lei Ya Cannian's counterattack. Qin Chuan smiled slightly:"I don't want to find you out!" If I don't do this, how can I let you come out?"

After hearing this, Ming Linger's expression softened, and the previous anger also disappeared.

"So that's what it looks like! Then I don't blame you. However, I didn't expect that my little husband-in-law is so smart that you would think of using such a method to contact me. I have cut off all contact with the outside world."

"If it weren't for the Blood Soul Pearl being part of the Sun, Moon and Heavenly Wheel, and it being one with me, I really wouldn't be able to sense its existence. This may be the only way you can contact me during my retreat. I didn't expect to be found by you, even I didn't think of it before."

Having said this, Ming Ling'er turned her attention to the blood bead in the palm of Qin Chuan's hand, and immediately showed a happy face.

"whee!! My dear husband, that's right. It's only been a while since you found a blood bead. Every time I get a blood soul bead, the sun, moon and heavenly wheel will be complete, my strength will be enhanced by one point, and I can save three years of retreat time."

After saying that, Ming Ling'er sucked the blood bead in Qin Chuan's hand with a casual move. After looking at it for a moment, he smiled sweetly and flicked the blood bead into a line of red light that matched the sun and moon in the sky. Perfectly combined together. As soon as the blood soul bead and the sun, moon and heavenly wheel were combined, they made a pleasant sound. Even Ming Ling'er gently closed her beautiful eyes, and a trace of comfort appeared on her beautiful face. Qin Chuan looked at this scene in surprise and said to himself: "Looking at Ling'er's appearance, will her strength really increase after getting a blood bead?"

Just when Qin Chuan was thinking about it, Ming Ling'er opened her pretty eyes and walked to Qin Chuan with a face full of joy. While Qin Chuan was dazed, she kissed him on the face.

This kiss suddenly woke up Qin Chuan. , immediately stepped back with a blushing face, and said hesitantly: "You...don't be like this!"

"whee!!"

"The little husband is so cute! Still shy! I am already your wife, why are you so shy?"

"Who said you are my wife? That's what you said yourself, I didn't agree!"

Ming Ling'er immediately became angry: "Humph! I don't care. If I say she is your wife, she is your wife. Do you still want to deny it? If you dare not agree, hum!! You know how powerful I am!"

After hearing the last threatening words, Qin Chuan was covered in cold sweat and immediately said with a grimace.

"Is there such a thing as forcing someone to be a woman? Besides, I'm still young. Can't you wait until I grow up a little and prepare me?"

"no! I just said she is your wife, and you are not allowed to mention it again in the future!"

Hearing this, Qin Chuan smiled bitterly in his heart. He knew that he couldn't get entangled in this matter any longer. Even if he was the one who would suffer if he continued to get entangled, he was not Ming Ling'er's opponent, so he might as well deal with the other party for the time being.

Besides, he still had something to ask for. He wanted to help the other party, but he couldn't offend the other party because of this matter.

Although he believed that Ming Ling'er would not do anything to him, if she got angry and entered the Sun, Moon and Heavenly Wheel and could not come out, he would have no choice but to cry without tears..

Chapter 2400

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan said with aggrieved face:"Okay! Let's not discuss this issue, okay?"

Ming Ling'er refused, opening her beautiful big eyes wide, and said with grievance in her tone

"I am the spirit of the divine weapon and the daughter of the God of War. I was wronged to marry you, but you are still picky. Do you think you have any conscience?"

As the weapon spirit of an artifact, after recognizing its master, it has a sense of intimacy and dependence on its owner.

This sense of intimacy and dependence is innate and comes from the depths of the soul. It is like the fusion of blood and milk, and will be inseparable forever, unless her When the master dies, even the soul dissipates.

Because of this, the spirit of each artifact is the most loyal to its master.

Once you recognize the master, you will never rebel in your life, and outsiders cannot change this fact. Unless the owner of the artifact dies.

It is precisely because of this that Ming Ling'er wants to become Qin Chuan's wife and the most trustworthy and reliable person in his life, but does not allow other women to share her owner.

But he said, Qin Chuan saw Ming Ling'er's eyes were slightly red, and his heart suddenly softened.

Come to think of it! Although Ling'er is a weapon spirit, she also has a soul and can be considered alive. From another perspective, she can be regarded as the god of war. She has a daughter.

And her strength is comparable to the ninth level, even stronger than the ordinary ninth level warrior. Originally, she could have chosen a more powerful person as the leader, but in the end she accepted a little person like herself as the leader. This was enough to wrong her. But I still made her sad, which shouldn't be the case.

Thinking of this, Qin Chuan sighed softly and comforted: "Okay! Linger, I will treat you as my wife. Don't be upset, okay?"

Hearing this, Ming Ling'er burst into tears and smiled sweetly.

"That's pretty much it!"

In fact, Qin Chuan said these words entirely because although he has an extraordinary mind, he is very ignorant about the relationship between men and women, so he said such words.

After all, he is only fourteen years old.

See Ming Linger's exhibition Yan Huan smiled, Qin Chuan also breathed a sigh of relief, and took the opportunity to say: "Ling'er, are you going back immediately after coming out this time?"

Ming Ling'er immediately nodded and said,"Yes!" My dear husband, the power of Thunder Ya's weapon soul is not so easy to refine. I can't relax, otherwise I will be counterattacked by him, so I must go all out to refine it.

Hearing this, Qin Chuan frowned slightly and said,"So, I have to wait for you for fifty or sixty years before you can fully refine the power of those weapon souls.""

"Yes! However, if you can find the remaining blood orbs, it will only take thirty or forty years. My dear husband, you don't have to worry. When I completely refine the power of Lei Ya's weapon soul, I will be able to restore the strength I had at my peak, and even go one step further."

"At that time, I can be with you every day. As long as I am here, no one on this continent can bully you. Huh! By the way, little husband, you went out of your way to call me out, are you missing me?"

Ming Ling'er suddenly thought that Qin Chuan spent so much effort to call her out, it was definitely not as simple as talking, and she couldn't help but be curious.

Hearing this, Qin Chuan coughed awkwardly, and then said:"This! hey-hey!! Linger, actually I came to you to ask you to do me a favor."

"snort! It turns out you were looking for help from me. I thought you suddenly realized that you missed me! It made me happy in vain."

A trace of displeasure flashed across Ming Ling'er's face, and she said again

"Tell me, what is it?"

Qin Chuan smiled awkwardly, but still told his life experience and current situation. After listening to it, Ming Ling'er naturally sighed...
