

God level 2551

Chapter 2551

As soon as Qing Tianqi returned to his residence, Qiuqiu sensed him and immediately ran out of the house to greet him.

Qingtian Qi naturally played with Qiuqiu again.

Afterwards, Qing Tianqi sent Qiuqiu out, found food for himself, ate a big meal, took a nice hot bath, then gave Qiuqiu a few words, and fell asleep.

It was really because he was too tired from the hard training in the past few days that Qingtian Qi fell asleep.

This sleep lasted a whole day and night.

When Qing Tianqi woke up, he felt relaxed and all the fatigue seemed to have dissipated.

But at this moment, a clear voice sounded outside the door

"Brother Qin Chuan, are you awake?"

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi was greatly surprised and looked outside the door.

The door dimmed, and a beautiful and graceful figure slowly walked in.

Seeing this beautiful figure, Qingtian Qi was surprised. eyes wide open

"It's you! Sister Qingyao!"

Feng Yuyao is still as elegant and refined as before, with a slight smile on her perfect face.

She smiled gently and said: "Brother Qin Chuan, I thought you had forgotten your sister! Qingtian laughed and said, "Sister, you are joking. How could my brother forget you?" I'm just curious, how does Sister Qingyao know that I live here?"

Feng Yuyao smiled gracefully, walked lightly to Qing Tianqi, and said with a smile

"Brother Qin Chuan, you are now the young patriarch of the Qing family, and your reputation has spread throughout the three clans, especially the younger generation, who secretly regard you as their idol! With your current reputation, it will be extremely easy to find your residence."

"That's it!"

Qing Tianqi smiled sheepishly. He didn't expect that he would now become the idol in the eyes of the younger generation.

Feng Yuyao added: "Actually, I have wanted to come to you for a long time. You have been here some time ago. Senior Teng just doesn't dare to look for you. I finally waited for you to come back from Senior Teng, so I took the time to see you today, but I didn't want you to be sleeping, and I couldn't wake you up!"

"In this way, Sister Qingyao has been here for a long time. I am sorry to have kept Sister Qingyao waiting for so long. Feng

Yuyao chuckled and said, "I didn't come for long. You woke up after only being here for a while, but your pet Ball never let me get close to you!"

After Feng Yuyao mentioned it, Qingtian Qi remembered Qiuqiu. At this moment, Qiuqiu was not outside the house. He suddenly felt strange and thought

"Huh! Where has Qiuqiu gone? I asked it to take care of me, why is it missing? By the way, Sister Qingyao just said that Qiuqiu wouldn't let her get close to me, but how did she get in now? But Qiuqiu disappeared."

Just when Qing Tianqi felt strange, Feng Yuyao seemed to see his doubts and said

"Brother Qin Chuan, eh! Now I should call you brother Tianqi! Brother Tianqi, you don't have to worry about Qiuqiu, he is fine now. By the way, brother Tianqi, I'm not the only one coming here this time. There is another person who has been clamoring to see you all day long."

Speaking of this, Feng Yuyao shouted outside the house

"Junior sister, don't you want to see your brother Qin Chuan? Why don't you come in quickly!"

Following Qingyao's cry, a little girl of fourteen or fifteen years old walked in outside the door.

At this moment, Qiuqiu was in the arms of that little girl.

This little girl was none other than Xiao Xiang'er.

It's just that After not seeing each other for several months, Xiao Xiang'er looks more and more pure and lovely.

When Qingtian saw Xiao Xiang'er, a look of surprise appeared on his face, and he asked happily:"Xiao Xiang'er, why are you here?"

Feng Yuyao on the side smiled and said:"Junior Sister Xiang'er is a disciple that Master likes. When I come back from the Zhou family this time, I will naturally bring Junior Sister Xiang'er with me.""

"So this is ah! That would be great. I am still thinking about what will happen to Xiang'er after we leave!"

"The fact that you still remember your sister Xiang'er in your heart shows that you still have some conscience. OK! Brother Tianqi, sister still has some things to do, so please let Junior Sister Xiang'er chat with you for a while. She has long wanted to come see you."

After saying this, Feng Yuyao said goodbye and left..

Chapter 2552

For a moment, only Xiao Xiang'er and Qing Tianqi were left in the room.

At this time, Qingtian Qi discovered that Xiao Xiang'er had lowered his head slightly from the moment he appeared until now, holding Qiuqiu in his arms and never saying a word.

Qing Tianqi was surprised. In the past, when Xiao Xiang'er saw him, he would run over happily, hold his arm and call him "brother" affectionately, but this time it was completely abnormal.

At that moment, Qing Tianqi looked at Xiao Xiang'er carefully, only to see that Xiao Xiang'er's eyes were slightly red and she looked very aggrieved.

This suddenly surprised Qing Tianqi, and he asked with concern

"What's wrong with you, Xiao Xiang'er? Is someone bullying you? Tell your brother quickly who bullied you, and he will help you vent your anger!"

Unexpectedly, when Xiao Xiang'er heard Qing Tianqi's caring words, he squatted on the ground and burst into tears.

Qing Tian Qi was dumbfounded and hurriedly coaxed: "Sister Xiang'er, what's wrong with you? Tell your brother quickly."

Xiao Xiang'er ignored him and continued to cry. After a while, she raised her tear-filled eyes and sobbed pitifully.

"Woohoo!! Xiang'er knew that brother Qin Chuan had a wife. Brother Qin Chuan has a wife and no longer wants Xiao Xiang'er. Xiao Xiang'er is reluctant to let go of her brother. Xiao Xiang'er wants to follow her brother every day from now on, but his brother doesn't want me anymore."

At the end, Xiao Xiang'er became more and more sad as he talked, and started crying again.

Only then did Qingtian Qi understand why Xiao Xiang'er was so sad, and immediately advised

"Silly girl, you are my brother's sister, you will always be! How could my brother not want you? Get up and stop crying! If you cry again, you'll turn into a slug."

"Woohoo!! But my brother already has a wife! My brother already has a wife, how can he still take care of Xiang'er? Qingtian laughed and said:"

Brother actually doesn't want to have a wife so early, but there is no way!" However, even if my brother has a wife, Xiang'er is still his good sister!"

Xiao Xiang'er wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes and said in a crying voice:"Then can Xiang'er be able to be with her brother in the future? Will my brother still want me?"

"Yes! Of course. Silly girl, with such a well-behaved and lovely sister like you, how can my brother be so reluctant to leave you?"

After hearing this, Xiao Xiang'er's face turned red and said:"Brother Qinchuan, you must keep your word. You are not allowed to abandon Xiang'er in the future. Xiang'er must always follow your brother. Brother, don't deny it! Qing

Tianqi smiled and shook his head:"Xiao Xiang'er, you will grow up one day. You can't stay with your brother forever!"

"Brother, do you still mean that you don't want Xiao Xiang'er?"

Xiao Xiang'er's eyes turned red again, and she was about to cry again.

Qing Tianqi suddenly broke out in cold sweat on his forehead, and immediately coaxed:"I don't mean that! I'm just saying that when you grow up, you will get married one day. You can't stay with your brother forever!

But Xiao Xiang'er shook her head vigorously:"Xiang'er doesn't want to get married!" Even if Xiang'er grows up, Xiang'er will still stay with his brother, always accompany him, and always help him refine elixirs. Brother, do you agree?

Qingtian Qi knew he couldn't refuse, so he said helplessly:"Okay!" Let's talk about it when you grow up!"

"Brother is so kind!"

Xiao Xiang'er burst into laughter. Suddenly she remembered something, took out a few white porcelain bottles, and said happily to the sky.

"Brother Qin Chuan, Xiao Xiang'er's alchemy skills have improved again. Now you can refine middle-grade elixirs. These bottles of elixirs were specially refined by Xiao Xiang'er for her brother!"

After saying this, Xiao Xiang'er stuffed the bottles of elixirs to Qing Tianqi.

Qing Tian Qi was suddenly moved.

Xiao Xiang'er always treated him without any regrets. How could he not be moved by this? ?

"Xiang'er, thank you!"

Qing Tianqi collected those bottles of elixirs. No matter whether those elixirs had any effect on him or not, he would keep them. After all, that was Xiao Xiang'er's wish..

Chapter 2553

When Xiao Xiang'er saw Qingtian accepting the elixir together, he felt happy and said happily at the moment

"Brother Qinchuan, when Xiang'er can refine the best elixir, Xiang'er will be the first to help you refine it, so that your brother can realize his ideal and become a peerless master sooner. wheel!"

"hehe! Little girl, so good!! You should also practice more besides refining alchemy. I think your cultivation level is only at the first-level intermediate level. You must learn from your master. You must not only become an alchemy master, but also a martial arts master. Only in this way can you have The ability to protect oneself. Xiao Xiang'er curled up her lips and said, "Practice is not fun at all, so Xiang'er is too lazy to practice." Xiang'er just wants to learn alchemy and refine the best elixir for her brother as soon as possible. Then it will be great if her brother protects Xiang'er, just like his brother protected Xiang'er when he was a child."

Qingtian Qi smiled slightly and said nothing more.

At this time, Xiao Xiang'er said happily again: "Brother, this time I not only refined some middle-grade elixirs for you, but also refined some for Qiuqiu, which he likes to eat. The elixir, you see how good it is for Xiang'er now."

After hearing this, Qingtian Qi suddenly realized, and thought in his heart: "I wonder why Qiuqiu is so obedient and willing to let Xiao Xiang'er hold him in his arms. It turns out that this little guy was bribed because he was short-tongued. ah!"

At that moment, Qing Tianqi gently knocked Qiuqiu on the head a few times, laughed and cursed: "Little guy, it turns out that you were bribed by Sister Xiang'er! I said why are you so good?"

"Gujiguji....."

Qiuqiu stretched out his chubby little paws, touched his sore little head, pouted, and screamed dissatisfied.

Qing Tianqi couldn't help but smile.

Afterwards, Qing Tianqi chatted with Xiao Xiang'er for a while.

We chatted until it was getting dark, and then Xiao Xiang'er reluctantly left.

After Xiao Xiang'er left, Qingtian Qi took out the elixirs given by Xiao Xiang'er and found that there were five types of elixirs, and they were all middle-grade elixirs, which were helpful for his current practice.

Qing Tianqi was even more grateful to Xiao Xiang'er, and then he collected the elixirs and put them into the space of the God of War Order.

At this time, he took out a black token from the War God Token space.

The black token had an extremely strange shape, with flame glyphs on one side, and various unfamiliar words constantly appearing on the other side.

This token is exactly the 'God Conferring Order' that Qingtian Qi obtained from the Xie family's forbidden area.

Qing Tianqi took out the Order of the Gods and studied it carefully for a while, but still couldn't figure it out, so he threw it into the space of the God of War Order again, and then took out a fiery red pill.

As soon as the fiery red pill was taken out, the entire room was immediately filled with violent fire energy.

Qing Tianqi's eyes also showed excitement.

This Fire God Pill is indeed extraordinary!

He had better take advantage of this time to refine it. After all, the earlier he refines it, the more beneficial it will be for his future fire energy cultivation.

However, to refine this Fire God Pill, it must be done in one go. It seems that he has to find a secluded and safe place and go into seclusion with all his strength.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi made a decision in his heart and immediately put away the 'Fire God Pill' again.

Early the next morning, Qing Tianqi went to Qing Xuan Lin and said hello to him. He lied that in order to participate in the rookie conference five months later, he was going to find a remote place to practice in seclusion. All in the future. He wouldn't show up for months.

After hearing this, Qing Xuanlin naturally agreed.

Afterwards, Qing Tianqi collected a large amount of dry food and water and put them into the War God's Order space, and then took Qiuqiu away from the Qing family's residence and entered the depths of the Ten Thousand Flowers Valley.

Finally, Qingtian Qi found a remote small valley deep in the Valley of Ten Thousand Flowers...

Chapter 2554

Qingtian Qi opened a small cave in the valley, then blocked the entrance with huge rocks, and guarded the life ball in the valley. He swallowed the 'Fire God Pill' in the cave and began to retreat and refine with all his strength.

Winter passes and spring comes, and the years pass by in a hurry.

Winter will soon come to Wanhua Valley.

But winter here is still like spring, with flowers blooming everywhere, making people wonder whether it is winter or winter?

In the blink of an eye, the winter season has passed quietly, and the outside world has entered the early spring season when the ice and snow melt and everything grows.

More than three months passed quietly like this.

For more than three months, Qingtian Qi has been refining the 'Fire God Pill' in the small cave he opened. When he is hungry or thirsty, he drinks the dry food and water he brought, or lets Qiuqiu play. Some prey comes over.

But that day, in the valley, a small white shadow flashed among the flowers, chasing the butterfly in the sky.

This little white shadow is a ball.

It turned out that this little guy was bored, so every day except sleeping, he would chase butterflies and play in the flowers.

Today, it was chasing butterflies as usual.

Suddenly, there was a loud bang in the cave where Qingtian Qi was retreating, and gravel flew everywhere.

A figure flew out of the hole.

Qiuqiu, who was not far away, was immediately startled and turned around quickly.

I saw a red-haired boy flip through the air and fall down.

This young man is none other than Qing Tianqi who came out of seclusion.

When Qiuqiu saw Qingtian coming out of seclusion, his eyes showed surprise and he immediately ran over happily.

Qingtian Qi was looking at himself, and then he laughed heartily..

"Ha ha!! I finally finished refining it, and my fire element qualifications have indeed been upgraded to a pseudo-spiritual body. That's great!"

Qing Tianqi closed his eyes excitedly and felt the fire energy around him.

At this moment, he could feel that he was absorbing and refining the fire energy several times faster than before.

This made him secretly shocked.

The improvement of his qualifications is indeed a big improvement. It's different!

Refining vitality is much faster than before. It seems that my progress of fire vitality will be accelerated a lot in the future! More importantly, after refining the Fire God Pill, my qualifications have not only been improved to a higher level, Even the cultivation of Huo Yuanqi has reached the fourth level of perfection in one fell swoop.

Thinking of this, Qingtianqi clenched his fists excitedly. At this moment, he felt that his body was full of explosive power.

But at this moment, Qiuqiu had already ran over

"Ball ball! Qingtian was overjoyed and held Qiuqiu in his arms.

"Huh! This is..."

Qing Tianqi suddenly found that his clothes seemed to have become shorter, and a lot of his arms and legs were exposed outside the clothes.

This immediately stunned Qing Tianqi.

But soon, Qing Tianqi figured it out. What happened?

It turned out that he had been in seclusion for more than three months at a stretch. When winter turned to spring, he unknowingly grew to the age of fifteen. His body finally grew by leaps and bounds for the first time. In just three short months, He has grown a head taller in the month, and the clothes he originally wore have naturally become a bit smaller.

Today, Qingtian Qi is almost as tall as a normal adult, with a tall and slender body, slightly thinner.

The childishness on his face has even receded. He is no longer the half-grown boy he once was. He has officially entered the threshold of youth at the age of fifteen.

But at this moment, because he has been in seclusion for a long time, Qing Tianqi's face is dirty, and his body is not much better. He has red hair. Her long hair was spread around her shoulders, longer and more messy than before.

Overall, Qingtian Qi looked a bit like a wandering young prodigal at this moment.

He seemed to be aware of his own embarrassment, Qingtian Qi smiled and laughed at himself.

"Ball ball!! I haven't taken a shower in more than three months. Let's find a place to take a shower together!"

"Gujiguji!!" Qiuqiu also nodded happily.

"Well, I remember there is a creek not far ahead. Let's compete to see who can get there first!"

After saying that, Qingtian Qi dropped the ball, and with a flash of red light on his body, he launched the Blood Shadow Escape Technique, and turned into an afterimage and rushed out of the valley. The speed was extremely frightening..

Chapter 2555

Qiuqiu was stunned for a moment, then roared angrily and chased after him.

But Qing Tianqi's laughter came from the front.

Not long after, Qing Tianqi arrived at the creek.

The creek was more than ten miles away from the valley, and it only took Qingtian Qi half a cup of tea to arrive.

Such an astonishing speed, even a fifth-level warrior can only do this

"Ha ha!! Now I don't need to transform or use the 'Phantom Fire Shadowless Step', my speed can reach the level of a fifth-level warrior"

"If I transform and use the Phantom Fire Shadowless Step, my speed will definitely be slightly better than that of an ordinary fifth-level warrior. Even if compared with the speed of a fifth-level peak warrior, it will be almost the same! hey-hey!! After the strength is improved, it is really different!"

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi felt happy in his heart, and walked into the creek to take a bath happily. It turned out that when he refined the Fire God Pill this time, the fire energy broke through to the peak of the fourth level of great perfection, and was far away from the fifth level. There is only one step away.

As long as you break through the bottleneck of the fourth level Dzogchen Peak, you can successfully reach the fifth level.

However, this bottleneck is extremely difficult to break through. Even if Qingtian Qi's current fire qualification is a pseudo-spiritual body, it will still take six or seven years. It is possible to break through.

However, it will be different if he has the help of Tianqi Pill.

Of course, whether he can get Tianqi Pill depends on Qingtian Qi's performance in the rookie conference.

Then again, his strength has greatly increased this time, and then In addition, he is already good at speed, and has the bonus of Blood Shadow Escape and Phantom Fire Shadowless Step, so he is confident that he can be slightly better than the fifth-level warrior in terms of speed.

Now, even if he fights against a fifth-level warrior alone , he dared to compete with it, even if he was not the opponent's opponent, he could escape from the opponent's hands.

This is the strong self-confidence brought to him after the improvement of strength.

Of course, with Qingtian Qi's current strength, he wants to It is still impossible to defeat a fifth-level warrior across levels. Even if Qiuqiu is included, it is difficult to determine who is stronger and weaker.

Generally speaking, he and Qiuqiu still lose more than they win.

But such an achievement is extremely rare, because there is no People dare to believe that a fourth-level Dzogchen Peak warrior plus a fourth-level Dzogchen Peak pet can defeat a fifth-level warrior. This goes against everyone's common sense. The further the warrior reaches the later stage, the more impossible it is to challenge higher levels..

But it was said that Qingtian Qi had been soaking in the stream for a long time before Qiuqiu panted heavily, stuck out his tongue, and rushed to the stream belatedly.

Qiuqiu was not good at speed, so naturally he could not compare with Qingtian Qi, so Just came so late

"Ha ha!! Little guy, you were too slow, you just arrived now!"

"Woohoo!!"

Qiuqiu whimpered a few times in dissatisfaction, then threw himself into the stream and started playing with Qingtian Qi in the stream.

After everyone and the beast were laughing and joking for a while, Qingtian Qi took a serious bath.

After washing, He encountered another worrying thing.

Now that he has grown a lot taller, the spare clothes in the War God Order space are all one size too small and they don't fit.

Qing Tianqi had no choice but to choose a slightly smaller set from among them. She put on something that fit her, and then the fire energy on her body surged, and her damp hair evaporated instantly.

Although the clothes didn't fit very well, even so, when Qing Tianqi put on a set of clean clothes, she had flowing red hair and a fair complexion. , the beautiful young man with sword-shaped eyebrows and starry eyes appeared in front of people.

The slightly short clothes still could not hide the youthful vitality and handsomeness of his youth.

And the long red hair that fell over his shoulders gave the young man a little elegance. The evil aura adds a different kind of charm.

Looking at Qingtian Qi's appearance after putting on his clothes, Qiuqiu also looks happy. It also seems to think Qingtian Qi is much more handsome than before.

"Ball ball!! It's time for us to go home! I wonder what's going on at home now? The Rookie Conference is only a little over a month away, so we should get ready. Let's go!"

Qingtian Qi raised a smile at the corner of his mouth, and with a flash of figure, he rushed to the Qing family's residence first..

Chapter 2556

After returning to the station, Qingtian Qi first found a suit of clothes that fit him and changed into them, and then visited his parents and grandfather. He had not seen them for more than three months, so he greeted them first when he returned.

When Qing Xuanlin and others saw that Qing Tianqi suddenly grew a lot taller, they were surprised and happy at the same time, secretly thinking that the child had grown up a lot.

Later, Qing Tianqi went to the Feng family residence to visit Qing Yao and Xiao Xiang'er.

Xiao Xiang'er was naturally happy, and Qingyao felt inexplicably happy when she saw that Qingtian Qi had grown up a lot and was actually slightly taller than herself.

After returning, Qing Tianqi began to think about how to integrate the 'Blue Dragon Roar' and the 'Fire Dragon Roar'. After all, there was still some time before the Rookie Conference.

Ever since he tasted the benefits of the five-series fusion martial arts, Qingtian Qi is very much looking forward to fusing the five superior martial arts together and cultivating the 'Five Dragon Roar'.

You must know that the 'Five Elements Shield' and the 'Five Elements Heavenly Slash', which are the fusion of five inferior martial arts, have reached the level of pseudo-top martial arts. If the five superior martial arts are fused together, Qingtian Qi cannot imagine how powerful it will be.

Therefore, in the next few days, Qingtian Quanlizuan integrated the two superior martial arts skills of 'Blue Dragon Roar' and 'Fire Dragon Roar'.

These two superior martial arts are similar martial arts, and wood and fire complement each other. According to the method of fusion, they are the easiest to fuse successfully. If these two superior martial arts cannot be successfully fused, it will be too difficult for the other superior martial arts to successfully fuse. Difficult.

But in the end, Qingtian Qi spent more than ten days and couldn't find even a clue. It seemed that the two could not be integrated at all. This suddenly made Qingtian Qi feel overwhelmed and had to give up.

He couldn't waste any more time on this because he didn't have much time.

This incident also made Qingtian Qi sigh with emotion

"It seems that successfully fusing two superior martial arts is a hundred times more difficult than fusing inferior martial arts. Now that I am wasting my time by thinking so hard, I might as well put this plan aside for now."

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi sighed, feeling a little irritated.

He decided to give up integrating superior martial arts first, or seize the time to practice, because in a few days he would leave this secret base and go to Kyoto to attend the Rookie Conference, or Try to improve your own cultivation level as much as possible.

During this period, in order to refine the Fire God Pill with all his strength, the progress of other vitality cultivation also slowed down.

With this in mind, Qingtian Qi began to rummage through the God of War Order space. He wanted to find Xiao Xiang'er gave him the elixir not long before he left, so that he could continue practicing after taking the elixir, which would also speed up his cultivation progress. After rummaging for a while, Qingtian Qi's eyes suddenly lit up and he exclaimed.

"Huh! This is..."

There was a flash of light in his hand, and he took out a martial arts jade tablet from the God of War Order space, and the four words "Rock Dragon Roar" were written on the front of the jade tablet.

Seeing these four words, Qingtian suddenly understood Thinking about it, he secretly cursed himself for forgetfulness.

It turned out that when he was in the forbidden area of the four families, he killed Nan Yufeng and an old man of the Nan family in order to destroy the teleportation array of the Nan family.

At that time, he got the power from the old man of the Nan family. An excellent earth element martial skill, it is this 'Rock Dragon Roar'.

But afterwards, all his energy was focused on how to deal with the Southern Yanwei Zhou clan, and he forgot about it for a while, until he got the elixir today. It was only when he accidentally saw this martial arts jade tablet that he remembered it.

At that moment, Qingtian Qi was secretly happy

"Ha ha!! After being depressed for several days, I finally made a good discovery today. I didn't expect that I had 'Roar of the Rock Dragon' on me. I was worried about how to find similar earth-type superior martial arts before, but now it seems I don't have to worry so much."

"By the way, I have collected all four superior martial arts skills of water, wood, fire and earth, but I am missing the gold one. The rest depends on future opportunities, whether we can find similar gold-type superior martial arts."

"As long as I gather all five series of martial arts skills and successfully fuse them to evolve into the Roar of the Five Dragons, my strength will definitely increase greatly!"

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi became even more excited. He happily collected all the 'Rock Dragon Roar' and took out some pills. After taking them, he began to meditate and practice...

Chapter 2557

Not long after Qingtian Qi entered meditation practice, Qingxuanlin sent someone to find him to discuss matters in the council hall.

Qingtian Qi immediately put aside his practice and rushed over.

When Qing Tianqi rushed over, there were already many people in the meeting hall.

Qing Yanhai, Qing Yanfei and the left-behind Qing family elders were all there.

Even Qingtian Ling and Qingtian Jun were present.

A group of people were discussing something.

When everyone saw Qingtian coming in, the elders paid tribute to him one after another.

Qing Xuanlin even asked Qing Tianqi to sit down next to him.

After all, Qing Tianqi's identity is the young patriarch.

After Qing Tianqi sat down, Qing Xuan Lin said

"Now that everyone is here, let's start the meeting! Second Elder, please tell us about your recent outing to find the whereabouts of the children of the Wu family and the Bai family."

"yes!"

A thin old man stood up, cleared his throat, and then said loudly

"Everyone, this is the current situation. Nearly five months have passed since our three clans sent their children with the Xuanwu Order to search for the whereabouts of the Wu family."

"In the past five months, our three tribes have sent out more than 30 groups of people, traveling to most places in Dakun Country. We even sent people to look for Long Xing's hometown in Kyoto. However, the result is almost no news."

As soon as these words were said, everyone in the venue didn't look very good.

Someone started talking immediately.

"It's been five months, and there's been no news from almost all of Dakun Country. Is the Wu family not in Dakun Country? If it were not in Dakun Country, it would be difficult! There are many small countries around Dakun Country. Who would have thought that the children of the Wu family would be hiding in that small country!"

"yes! It's been half a year at the earliest, and there's not even any news about the children of the Wu family, who are the easiest to find. Wouldn't it be even harder to find the children of the Bai family? I am worried about whether the whereabouts of the Wu family and Bai family children can be found within two years?

"That's right! This is really worrying! If we cannot find the whereabouts of the two children within two years, we will have to give up the golden spirit bead. Why!"

Just when everyone's hearts were sinking, Qingtian Qi stood up and said

"Elders, don't be so anxious, you should listen to what the second elder has to say first. The second elder just said that there is almost no news about the children of the Wu family, and the word used is 'almost'. In this way, the five months of searching have not yielded any results. Second Elder, am I right?"

The second elder glanced at Qing Tianqi in surprise, and then praised

"The young patriarch is really thoughtful, and he can hear this detail in the words of his subordinates."

"You are right. In the past five months, we have discovered something. Some of the disciples we sent out discovered that there was something strange in the Xuanwu Order near Shenwu City, but the strange movement disappeared quickly. They then searched the area several times, but still couldn't find any of the Wu family members."

After hearing this, many people present were moved in their hearts.

At that moment, someone said:"If there is any abnormal movement in the Xuanwu Order, it means that there are children of the Wu family who have been active nearby. Since there are children of the Wu family who have been active, it means that the children of the Wu family are likely to be active. It's still hidden in Dakun's country, maybe in the Shenwu City."

After he said this, the second elder shook his head and said

"It should not be in Shenwu City, because we later checked in Shenwu City for a long time, and almost searched through the entire Shenwu City, but we never found anything unusual about the Xuanwu Order."

"snort! Things are not as simple as you think!"

Qing Yanhai, who had been silent all this time, spoke, and everyone immediately fell silent, wanting to hear what Qing Yanhai had to say.

Qing Yanhai glanced at everyone lightly before saying, "Do you know where Shenwu City is?"

As soon as these words were said, someone immediately said: "I know that Shenwu City is the fourth largest city in Dakun Kingdom today. There are many masters in it, and there are many forces from all sides. The overall strength is much higher than Fengyan City."

"Although there is no super big family with ninth-level warriors in Shenwu City, there are two powerful big families in it. These two families are the Luo family and the Dongfang family. Each family has seven or eight eighth-level warriors. Such strength Definitely not comparable to the Zhou family of Yanwei in the south of Fengyan City."

Chapter 2558

Hearing his words, Qing Yanhai smiled coldly

"What you said is also true. But that's not what I want to say. What is now called Shenwu City was called Xuanwu City a thousand years ago and was the residence of the Wu family."

As soon as these words came out, many people were stunned.

Immediately, someone said in shock

"It turns out that Shenwu City was the residence of the Wu family back then. We found unusual movements in the Xuanwu Order near Shenwu City. Does this mean that the children of the Wu family only went to take a look at the residence of their own family thousands of years ago? In fact, the children of the Wu family are not hiding in Shenwu City."

"good! This is exactly what I mean. This can also explain why our people couldn't find any trace of the Wu family's disciple no matter how they searched later. It was because he had already left."

After hearing this, everyone suddenly realized.

Qingtian Qi also showed excitement and said excitedly

"Tian Qi also felt that Supreme Elder Yan Hai's analysis made sense. If the facts are really as what the Supreme Elder Yan Hai said, that would be a gratifying thing"

"This at least shows that some of the children of the Wu family today know about the hatred from thousands of years ago, and they have not forgotten it. Not all of them are scattered among the people like my mother, unaware of their own life experience. If this is the case, then the Wu family must have secretly formed their own forces!"

Everyone was happy when they heard Qing Tianqi's analysis.

In fact, they have been worried whether all the children of the Wu family have been scattered among the people and do not know their origins. If so, even if they find those children of the Wu family, it will be difficult to find the children of the Wu family. If the inherited artifact is missing, everything will come to nothing in the end.

But now that they heard Qingtian Qi's words, they saw new hope.

As long as the Wu family still has its own power, they must know the whereabouts of the Wu family's inherited artifact.

It is impossible for the Wu family Those who gave up their inherited artifacts.

The Wu family wants revenge and wants to grow again. The first thing they have to do is to get back their inherited artifacts, just like the Qing family before.

At the moment, Qing Yanhai smiled and said

"Tianqi! I didn't expect that you are no worse than your father and can analyze the situation of the Wu family from one point, tsk tsk!! It's not simple!"

But I didn't want to, Qingtian Qi shook his head slightly and said

"All this is just my speculation. As for the actual situation, it is up to you to investigate. However, I have another idea here"

"what idea?"

Everyone immediately looked at Qingtian Qi curiously.

Now, no one dared to underestimate the young man in front of them.

"In fact, my idea is very simple. In more than a month, the rookie conference will be held. After all, Kyoto will be full of talents, and young talents from all over the country will go to participate in the conference."

"If the children of the Wu family and the Bai family are still lurking in Dakun Country, they will most likely send their young children to participate in the rookie conference. We might as well look for traces of the Wu family's children at the rookie conference!"

When Qing Tianqi said this, everyone's eyes immediately lit up.

Qing Xuanlin even nodded and said:"Not bad! They will probably send their children there. Every time in the past, our Qing family secretly sent our children to attend."

"After all, this kind of conference is only held once every ten years, and it is also the best opportunity to test my future generations. From this point of view, it is indeed a good idea to look for traces of the Wu family's children at the Rookie Conference."

Speaking of this, Qing Xuanlin said again

"Tianqi, Tianling, and Tianjun came to meet you three today because they wanted to inform you of something in advance. According to what I told you last time, the three of you will be practicing for five months first, and then rush to Kyoto in the last month."

"After all, this place is on the border of Dakun Country, a long way from Kyoto. It will take you nearly a month to get there from here. Now there are only about ten days before the scheduled departure time. You should make preparations in these ten days and set off together then!"

"Of course, I will give each of you a Xuanwu Order before departure. The task of the three of you is not only to obtain an Apocalypse Pill, but also to find traces of the children of the Wu family."

"Patriarch! we know!"

Qingtian Ling and Qingtian Jun both responded.

But Qingtian Qi thought for a while and said:"Grandpa!! Why don't you give me the Xuanwu Order first? I'll leave tomorrow! One month later, we will meet again with Tianjun and Tianling in Kyoto"..

Chapter 2559

"Are you leaving early? Why?"

Qing Xuanlin looked at Qing Tianqi in surprise.

"Grandpa, I want to go to Shenwu City. After all, it was the residence of my mother's ancestors, and the blood of the Wu family also flows in my body. Let me take a look at where the Wu family was stationed a thousand years ago. What does it look like now? Let's see if we can make any new discoveries there."

"That being the case! Then you go ahead! However, if you are traveling alone, you must be careful along the way! Qing Tianqi smiled and said:"

Grandpa, don't worry, with Tian Qi's current strength, he is already qualified to enter the mainland alone.""

"All right! Qing

Xuanlin smiled. He knew that what Qing Tian Qi said was true. He was very proud of his grandson's strength.

At that moment, Qing Xuan Lin took out a dark Xuanwu Order and handed it to Qing Tian Qi.

On the front of the Xuanwu Token is the statue of the holy beast Xuanwu, and on the back is engraved with the word "order".

However, as soon as the Xuanwu Token was taken out, it immediately made a whining sound.

"Huh! How is this going? How could the Xuanwu Order be induced?"

Qing Xuanlin looked at the Xuanwu Token in his hand in surprise, with a look of surprise on his face.

However, he soon thought of something and laughed in surprise.

"By the way, Tianqi, you have Xuanwu true blood in your body. It would be strange if this Xuanwu order doesn't react. But there is one strange thing. According to common sense, as long as it is within a few dozen meters of the Xuanwu Order, it can produce induction. But you have to get a few meters closer to it before it can sense it. It seems that you are still a little different from the children of the Wu family. Qing Tianqi thought for a while and said:"

Maybe it's because Tian Qi has the true blood of three series of holy beasts in his body at the same time, which has some shielding effect on the Xuanwu True Blood. All these Xuanwu Orders need to be very close to each other." Be attracted to me!"

"That should be the case! Tianqi, please take this Xuanwu and add a drop of your essence and blood, and any changes it causes to you will disappear on their own."

At that moment, Qingtian Qi Yiyan dropped a drop of blood essence into the Xuanwu Ling. He immediately felt a blood connection, as if the Xuanwu Ling had become a part of his body.

He also felt that his mind power could Freely penetrated into the Xuanwu Order, and then spread out to the surroundings through the Xuanwu Order, and the surrounding scenery was clearly imprinted in his mind under the scanning of his mind.

It was not seen with his eyes, but with his mind. , this is a completely different kind of wonderful feeling, one that Qingtian Qi has never experienced before

"I didn't expect that this Xuanwu Order could have such an effect!"

Qingtian Qi was surprised and silently put away the Xuanwu Order.

At that moment, the meeting continued for a while, and everyone adjourned.

After the meeting, Qingtian Qi hurried back to his residence, tidied up briefly, and then He said goodbye to his parents and Xiao Xiang'er one by one.

Early the next morning, Qingtian Qi took Qiuqiu and left Wanhua Valley and started a new journey.

Chijin City is a medium-sized city in Dakun Country, located in Dakun The border area of the country is the city closest to the Valley of Ten Thousand Flowers.

As a medium-sized city, although Scarlet Gold City is far less prosperous than Fengyan City, it is considered to be at the top among medium-sized cities.

Because there is a big family in Scarlet Gold City.

This big family is the Jin family.

The Jin family has passed down thousands of years of history in Scarlet Gold City. The ancestor of the Jin family is an old monster who has lived for more than 1,800 years, and his cultivation has reached the peak of the eighth level..

However, the Jin family's ancestor is only an eighth-level warrior.

But this is enough to make the Jin family a big family. It also makes the Jin family the only one in Chijin City, and no force can shake its status.

The Scarlet Gold City was named Scarlet Gold City precisely because of the existence of the Jin family. In fact, the Jin family is also an ancient blood successor family. Their blood inheritance comes from the ancient ferocious beast "Red Gold Jong". However, the Scarlet Gold Jong is just a nine-nine-year-old.

Just a vicious beast..

Chapter 2560

There were many blood successor families in ancient times, among which the five major families of Qinglong, White Tiger, Suzaku, Xuanwu, and Soaring Snake were the top ones, because these five families were all inherited from the sacred beasts.

Under these five major families, there are also many smaller descendant families.

What these small blood step families have obtained is the true blood inheritance of ancient ninth-level ferocious beasts. The talent inheritance they have received is naturally far inferior to that of the five major families, but it is much stronger than ordinary humans.

Just like what the Jin family has obtained is the blood inheritance of the red gold beast, and the red gold beast is a ferocious beast of the gold element, the children of the Jin family are much higher than ordinary people in gold element talent, but they are far inferior to the children of the ancient Bai family.

Not mentioned here for now.

But it is said that for thousands of years, the blood successor families, headed by the five Qingfeng, Baiwu and Teng families, led many small blood successor families to open up territories and establish countries, and established one of the most powerful countries in the Tianfeng Continent - the Five Saints Kingdom.

Later, Long Xing colluded with the Holy Lord to rebel, conspired to kill the five ancient tribes, and turned the Five Holy Kingdom into his own country, renamed it Dakun Country, and established himself as the king.

At that time, many of the small blood successor families who followed the five ancient clans to establish the country were still loyal to the five ancient clans. They were unwilling to obey Long

Xing's control, so they had to choose to leave the Dakun Kingdom and establish themselves in other countries.

Some families who did not obey Long Xing's control but were unwilling to leave were directly exterminated by Long Xing with cruel methods.

In the end, only a handful of little blood step families remained.

And these remaining little blood descendants chose to join Long Xing and became Long Xing's loyal lackeys.

The Jin family is one such family.

Of course, Qingtian Qi has heard about these historical backgrounds.

However, he did not transfer his hatred for the annihilation of the family and the country to these small blood descendants who remained in the Dakun Kingdom. After all, they were not the culprits.

Even if they later chose to join Long Xing, it was more for self-protection.

Of course, Qingtian Qi doesn't have a good impression of such a family.

But he said that on this day, in the red gold city.

The sun shines on the earth, and the early spring usher in a new year.

The streets are full of people coming and going, a bustling scene

'Yuelai Inn' is one of the largest inns in Chijin City.

In the past few days, the business of Yuelai Inn has been particularly prosperous, and the shopkeeper was so happy that he couldn't open his mouth from ear to ear.

The waiter wiped the sweat from his forehead, grinned widely, and said politely to the shopkeeper:

"Shopkeeper, look! Business has been so good these days. The guest rooms on the second floor are already full. I'm very tired recently. Can you show some sympathy to me and give me a little increase in salary?"

"go!! go! go! This business has only been in business for a few days? Are you going to tell me about a salary increase?"

"Shopkeeper, you can't be so stingy!"

"Why! I said Erzi! It's not that I am stingy, but the fact is that the improvement in business is just a flash in the pan! Why don't you take a look, who are the guests coming and going these days? If you don't believe it, look at the guests in the lobby now!"

When the waiter heard this, he glanced at the hall.

He saw that nearly half of the guests in the hall were young people under the age of thirty, and all of them were equipped with weapons. It was obvious at a glance that they were all warriors.

This It is very different from the past. In the past, this inn mainly received some businessmen.

Seeing this, the waiter was puzzled and said

"Hey, is there anything wrong with these guests?"

The shopkeeper shook his head and said with a smile:"Second son!" This means you are ignorant. Do you know why nearly half of these guests are young warriors?"

"Why?"

"Very simple! Because in more than a month, Kyoto will hold its once-a-decade rookie conference. hey-hey!! This is an extremely rare grand event in our country, Da Kun, and it is a grand event that all the younger generation of warriors yearn for!"

"For such a grand event, any young warrior with some ability would want to join in the fun. By then, thousands of young warriors will gather in Kyoto from all over the country. The scene will be unimaginable!"

"Wasn't that more than a month later? What does it have to do with these young warriors?"

"you're so dumb! This place is far away from Kyoto, so young warriors from nearby towns naturally have to come here in advance."

"Oh, so that's it!"

The waiter suddenly realized..
