

God level 2701

Chapter 2701

Qingtian Qi didn't know about this series of sensations.

At this moment, he was immersed in the joy after the breakthrough of water energy, and he was looking at his sea of energy with all his heart.

I saw a ball of fierce black flames floating in his Qi Sea, which was his natal spiritual fire 'Earth's Core Flame'. In addition, there was a mini tree, but it was a wood-type natal spiritual plant. 'The Wood Spirit Tree'.

Today's Wood Spirit Tree is stronger than when it was first conceived. It is obvious that his Wood Spirit Tree has become much stronger than before.

As for the original natal water spirit, it has now turned into a ball of surging light blue energy. This is the natal spiritual energy he has just given birth to.

Looking at the surging blue water vapor that refused to listen, Qingtian Qi thought to himself.

This is the natal spiritual energy he has just given birth to. Judging from its appearance, which looks like mist, clouds and water, it should be a low-grade spiritual energy.

It's interesting to think about it. Among the five elements, the water element breeds real fire, the wood element breeds real plants, and the water element breeds water mist and clouds. So what do the metal and earth elements breed?

If the five elements are fully developed and combined together, wouldn't it be a small five-element world?.....

Just as Qingtian Qi was looking at his sea of qi, Qingtian Ling, who lived next door to him, also felt the strong fluctuations of water energy and opened his eyes in surprise.

"What a strong water energy fluctuation! This is... Hey! It came from Tianqi's room. Could it be that Tianqi made a breakthrough?"

Qingtian Ling seemed to have thought of something, and a look of surprise immediately appeared on his face. He jumped up from the bed and rushed towards Qingtian Qi's room.

As soon as Qingtian Ling entered the room, Qingtian Qi sensed it and quickly opened his eyes. With his eyes, he re-entered the body with the spiritual energy that was scattered outside the body.

In just a moment, all the strange phenomena in the room disappeared, and the space was not as humid as before.

Seeing this, Qingtian Ling smiled and said: "Haha!! Tianqi, your water energy has indeed broken through! I'm here to congratulate you!"

Qing Tianqi was ecstatic, but said: "It's just luck!" By the way, Brother Tianling, how are you learning the Phantom Fire Shadowless Step?"

It turns out that Qingtian Qi also taught Qingtian Ling his 'Phantom Fire Shadowless Step' in order to improve Qingtian Ling's strength.

Of course, in order to cope with this rookie conference, Qingtian Ling also has his own trump card.

"Tianqi, thank you very much! I have learned the Phantom Fire Shadowless Step, and now my speed is even faster than that of a fourth-level Dzogchen peak warrior!"

"Ha ha!! It seems that during this retreat, your and my strength have increased!"

Qing Tianling smiled bitterly and said, "Compared with your progress, my progress is nothing." You perverted guy, now that the water energy has advanced to the fourth level, your strength should have increased a lot."

Qing Tianqi smiled slightly embarrassedly.

"According to my estimation, my current basic combat power should be able to reach the strength of 7,000 people!"

"Oh my God! The power of seven thousand people! This is too appalling."

Qing Tianling couldn't believe his ears, showed a dumbfounded expression, and then exclaimed

"Tsk tsk!! Although the basic combat power of seven thousand power is not as good as the strength of ten thousand people of a fifth-level warrior, with your speed advantage, you should be fully qualified to compete with a fifth-level warrior, right?"

Qing Tianqi shook his head and smiled bitterly:"It's hard to say this!" Many fifth-level warriors have their own trump cards, all of which can only be known after a real battle."

"However, my strength has indeed increased a lot. If Chu Hongjian and I fought a few days ago, maybe I would be completely at a disadvantage after a hundred moves. But now it is not that easy for him to defeat me. I am afraid that there is no way to tell the winner within three to four hundred moves. Maybe it's hard to say who will win, unless he has another trump card"

"Um! This is true, it seems that your hope of entering the top ten has increased a lot! By the way, you have now reached the fourth level in the water, wood, and fire systems, and your talents in these three systems are all above the advanced level. You should be able to transform the power of wind, right?"..

Chapter 2702

Qing Tianqi shook his head and smiled bitterly:"Although I have met the conditions, I have no idea how to transform the power of the wind. All I can do is ask the elders after I return to the Valley of Ten Thousand Flowers."

"Um! That's all!"

"By the way, Brother Tianling, I have been in retreat for the past three days to hit the bottleneck. I wonder how the rookie conference outside is going? Qingtian

Ling said with a smile:"Registration for the Rookie Conference ended one day ago. The first round of the second-level warrior selection competition for the Rookie Conference has begun."

"However, because most of the young warriors participating in the rookie competition are still at the level of second-level warriors, there are too many people. It is said that there are seven to eight thousand second-level contestants, so this first round of competition is expected to last seven days. The first round of preliminary rounds may end. There is nothing to do with us in these seven days."

"Oh, all right!"

"In fact, the current situation is like this."

Qing Tianling continued to explain

"Since the registration ended, various statistical results have come out. In this rookie conference, there are twelve contestants of level five or above."

"There are actually twelve?"

Qing Tianqi had a look of surprise on his face, which was beyond his expectation.

"yes! I didn't expect this at all. Before the rookie conference was held, there were only nine fifth-level warriors on the rookie list. After the conference, there were three more, and now there are twelve people in total."

"As the top twelve seeded rookie players, these twelve players will not appear in the competition until the last round."

"So, I have to defeat at least one fifth-level warrior before I can enter the top ten among rookies!"

"yes! This is the current situation"

"It's just that I'm still confident of defeating the fifth-level warrior!"

There was a trace of worry on Qing Tianqi's face.

Although this breakthrough greatly increased his strength, he was not sure whether he could defeat a fifth-level warrior. After all, all this can only be known after actual combat.

This At this time, Qing Tianling continued to explain

"In addition to the fifth-level warriors, there are a total of fifty-two fourth-level warriors competing this time. There are 416 third-level warriors, and there are seven to eight thousand second-level warriors. This number is terrifying."

"According to the rules of the competition, there are fifty-two fourth-level warriors plus twelve fifth-level warriors, a total of sixty-four people. These sixty-four people have basically secured their position in the top sixty-four of the rookie list. Of course, this is only a theoretical estimate. , these sixty-four people do not need to participate in the battle in the early stage."

"At present, the first round is to select 84 outstanding strong men from the seven to eight thousand second-level warriors and give them the qualification of 'Bronze Order Player'. These eighty-four outstanding second-level warriors will be combined with 416 third-level warriors, that is, five hundred Bronze Order players.'"

"Thirty-six winners were then selected from the five hundred Bronze Order players, and these thirty-six people were given the qualifications of 'Silver Order Players'. Calculated in this way, these thirty-six people plus the fourth-level and fifth-level warriors who signed up for the competition amount to exactly one hundred people. These 100 people are the top 100 players on the rookie list."

"What follows is the ranking battle for the top 100 rookies. First, the thirty-six people compete for ranking. After the ranking is completed, the ranking of the six strongest people is to be determined. The rankings of the remaining thirty people are from the 100th to the 70th place."

"The six strongest people will be given the qualification of 'Silver Order Players' and arranged to participate in ranking competitions with fourth-level warriors. By analogy, this time the four strongest players will be selected from all Silver Order players and their rankings will be determined. The rest of the rankings are from 69th to 17th."

"And the four strongest people will be given the qualification of 'Golden Order Players'. Those four people will be arranged together with the twelve fifth-level players to participate in the top sixteen ranking matches. Tianqi, with your current strength, it is no problem to qualify as a 'Golden Order Player'..."

Chapter 2703

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi also nodded slightly: "That's right! It shouldn't be difficult for me to qualify as a Golden Order player. It's just that for the ranking competition of the top 16 you mentioned, have the rules of the competition been announced?"

Qingtian Ling replied: "There are rules! Among the twelve fifth-level warriors, there are two fifth-level Dzogchen warriors, four are fifth-level peak warriors, and the remaining six are fifth-level warriors"

"According to the rules of the competition, the four strongest people will be selected from dozens of fourth-level warriors and combined with the six fifth-level warriors, making a total of ten people. Then select the four strongest people from these ten people. These four people were selected into the top ten rookies."

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi somewhat understood.

"In this way, I will first compete with six fifth-level warriors for the four top ten spots. In other words, if I want to enter the top ten, I must defeat three of the six fifth-level warriors."

"good! Here's the theory!"

Qingtian Ling nodded repeatedly.

"In fact, you already know three of the six fifth-level warriors, namely Zhou Yanzhi, Chu Hongjian, and Yi Chenxi. Needless to say, Chu Hongjian, you have fought against him and know some details. And that Mr. Duobao Zhou Yanzhi is not easy to deal with!"

"Long Xiaotian said last time that even the fifth-level peak warrior couldn't do anything to him. As for Yi Chenxi, it is even more difficult to deal with. He is a fifth-level gold and water warrior. He is known as the first among fifth-level warriors. Even the top fifth-level warrior may not be his opponent."

"You should not be able to deal with these two people. As for the remaining three fifth-level warriors, I have no relevant information about them. Generally speaking, except for Yi Chenxi and Zhou Yan, you must defeat three of the remaining four to have a chance to enter the top ten!"

"Um! I see!"

Qingtian Qi couldn't help but take a deep breath, and suddenly there was a pressure in his heart.

At this time, Qingtian Ling was afraid that Qingtian Qi would be burdened, so he changed the topic and said

"Tianqi, the competition is currently in full swing. Many people want to improve their strength before participating in the competition. Nowadays, major auction houses hold auctions every day, and many people participate every day."

"Why don't we go to the auction in the next few days? Maybe we can find some treasures at the auction, which will increase our strength. This way you have a greater chance of entering the top ten."

"Anyway, our fourth-level warriors are in the third round, and it will be our turn to compete in at least ten days. There is still plenty of time! Hearing this

, Qingtian Qi's eyes lit up and he said with a smile: "Yes!" Nowadays, there are many people participating in the auction, and there are many treasures being auctioned. Maybe there is something we can use! Besides, I also have golden grape seeds and the best fire jade lotus seeds with me."

"These two things are treasures that break through the bottleneck. If they are auctioned during this time, they will definitely fetch a good price, and maybe I can make a lot of money."

"Ha ha!! makes sense! Then we will send those things for auction this afternoon and go to the auction site tomorrow morning to take a look!"

"OK!"

It turns out that the auction is only held every morning, and in the afternoon, we receive orders from customers.

At that moment, the two of them made a plan.

At this time, Qing Tianqi suddenly thought of something and took the He took out a brocade box and handed it to Qingtian Lingdao

"Brother Tianling, here is a Nine Yuan Heavy Water Pill for you! It will be of great use to you in the future!"

"What? Are you going to give this to me?"

"Of course! You are my brother. If I don't give it to you, who will I give it to? Do you want me to auction it off? Isn't that a waste?"

Qing Tianling was immediately overjoyed:"Haha!"! Tianqi, then my brother accepted it unkindly! It's a pity that my water energy is only at the third level, otherwise I would have refined it."

Qingtian Ling was not pretentious and accepted the pill with a happy face, but his heart surged with infinite affection for Qingtian Qi.

It's just that this emotion was hidden deep in his heart.

Chapter 2704

In the afternoon of that day, Qingtian Qi and Qingtian Ling went to the auction house and sent three gold grapes and three top-quality fire jade lotus seeds to the auction house.

Qingtian Qi did not put all the golden grape seeds and fire jade lotus seeds up for auction at once, although he had no use for these two items.

As the saying goes, rare things are more valuable. If you take out too much at one time, this will inevitably cause the auction price to plummet.

In order to obtain more benefits, Qingtian Qi decided to send out the auction in several batches.

Although Qingtian Qi is not short of money now, the more money, the better.

Moreover, he now also wants to collect a lot of gold coins.

Because of the support of a large number of gold coins, he can also buy the treasures he wants at auctions.

Because there were so many second-level warriors participating, the first round of competition was divided into ten small competition areas, distributed in every corner of Kyoto.

Although they were scattered to ten places, there were still a large number of people watching the game, and every small arena was packed.

After all, this rookie conference is a grand event that happens once in ten years in the entire Kun Kingdom.

Qingtian and Qi watched for a while in one of the small arenas. Although the participants were all second-level warriors, the fighting was very fierce and fierce, and they were completely risking their lives.

The game that Qing Tianqi went to watch was already the nineteenth game. Bloodstains could be seen everywhere on the field, so one can imagine how brutal the competition was.

Even Qingtian Qi was frightened when he saw it. At that moment, he didn't understand, so he asked Qingtian Ling in a low voice.

"Brother Tianling, this rookie conference is just a game, at most it only gets some honors. Why are these people working so hard? It's like a life and death fight! Fighting so fiercely! Qingtian Ling said with a smile: "You have been in retreat these days. It's no wonder that you don't know some things!" In fact, they dare to fight so hard and bloody because they have something to rely on."

"Because at every rookie conference, in order to allow the contestants to fight with their true strength and give them no worries, the Long family recruits wood-type warriors from the 'Reincarnation Technique' across the country in advance. Now every small arena has one A wood-type warrior who knows the art of reincarnation is in charge."

"In addition, a large number of elixirs that can heal injuries and restore vitality have been prepared, as well as hundreds of doctors. As long as these contestants have half a breath left, they can be saved in time, so the contestants dare to work so hard!"

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi suddenly realized

"That's it. I asked these people how could they work so hard when participating in a competition! However, it can also be seen from this that the Long family's financial, material and manpower are indeed extremely strong now!

Qing Tianling added: "Actually, this competition also has some restrictions. First, it cannot attack people's heads, and second, it cannot attack people's hearts. Because these two places can cause the opponent to die instantly, even those wood warriors who know the 'Reincarnation Technique' will be unable to do anything at that time."

"Another point is that if a limb is mutilated during the game, the Long family is irresponsible. They are only responsible for your survival, but they don't care about your disability. Because it would be too difficult to restore a mutilated limb, unless a ninth-level wood warrior takes action, so there is still a lot of risk in such a competition."

"Therefore, there are other regulations in the competition. You cannot break someone's limbs maliciously. If it is unintentional, it is a different matter. Whether it is malicious or not will be judged by a specialized referee. On the field, as long as one side admits defeat, the game must be ended immediately."

"That's it! That said, we'd better be careful in the following games and don't make ourselves disabled!"

Qingtian Ling said:"That's not entirely the case. I heard that in the ranking battle for the top 16 rookies, as long as the brain and heart are not attacked, it doesn't matter even if the limbs are disabled. Because of the ranking battle for the top 16 in this rookie conference, Long Xing invited Qing Lin, the 'Qing Emperor', to watch the battle. With his presence, broken limbs can be reborn."

"“Qingdi Qinglin, he is here!"

Qing Tianqi couldn't help but show surprise on his face. It turned out that the five ninth-level masters of Dakun Kingdom were named one emperor and four emperors..

Chapter 2705

This emperor is the Dragon Emperor Long Xing, and he is also the supreme ruler of the Dakun Kingdom and the king of the Dakun Kingdom.

The remaining four ninth-level masters were named 'Emperors', and their status was one level lower, but these four people commanded a force.

‘Qingdi Qinglin was originally born as a casual cultivator, but his talent was extremely outstanding. He entered martial arts through medicine, and finally broke through the bottleneck and entered the ninth level four hundred years ago. It can be said that he is the best among the five ninth-level masters in Dakun Kingdom. A young man, he is also the role model that all casual martial arts practitioners in Dakun Country should pursue.

After entering the ninth level, Qinglin formed his own force, which was the 'Heavenly Medicine Sect'.

The disciples of the Heavenly Medicine Sect are not only very powerful, but their medical skills are also extremely good.

For Qinglin, Qingtianqi has no hatred, but great admiration and respect.

After all, Qinglin is not the enemy of the five tribes, and Long Xing's rebellion a thousand years ago has nothing to do with him.

"yes! After all, the top 16 rookies are all the future pillars of the Kun Kingdom. Long Xing doesn't want them to make any mistakes, so he naturally asks Qing Emperor to take care of them. However, it would be nice to have this opportunity to meet Qing Emperor! Qingtian Qi also nodded with emotion and said, "I have heard of Qingdi's name for a long time. It would be an honor to meet him this time!" I just don't know if you and I can be like him in the future and reach the pinnacle of warriors!"

"This is so difficult!"

Qingtian Ling shook his head and smiled bitterly. Is it so easy to become a ninth-level warrior?

Even if he is a descendant of the Qing family and has the qualification of the hidden spirit body, it is extremely slim for him to become a ninth-level warrior.

Even Qingtian Qi It is also extremely difficult to become a ninth-level warrior

"alright! Brother Tianling, let's go back! Looking at this scene, I believe that our competition will be more fierce. Let's go back and make more preparations!"

"Um!"

Then the two of them rushed back to Yuelai Inn and waited for the auction to start the next day.

Early the next morning, the two of them rushed to the auction venue.

By the time they arrived at the auction venue, the venue was already crowded. From this, it can be seen that the popularity of this auction conference is very high.

Qingtian and Qi went straight into the box reserved yesterday and waited for the opening of the auction conference.

After about a cup of tea, the entire auction house was packed with seats, and there were Many people were standing around without seats.

At this time, the person who presided over the auction came in and announced that the auction had officially begun. The person who presided over the auction was a middle-aged man who called himself "Master Han".

As soon as Director Han announced When the auction meeting started, the originally noisy venue immediately fell silent, and everyone turned their attention to Director Han.

Director Han glanced at the people in the audience with satisfaction, then smiled and said loudly

"Everyone, this is the seventh auction held by Wanbaoxuan. Han would like to thank everyone for coming here to support us! There are many old customers here. As for some of the auction rules, I think you all know them, so Han won't go into details."

"I think many people can't wait now, so let's start the conference transaction first! The first item in this auction is a 'Golden Elixir' that can greatly improve the cultivation level of second-level gold warriors. Please get it quickly!"

Then a graceful maid brought a silver plate with a walnut-sized white elixir on it, which was the 'Duijin elixir'.

"Everyone, this white pill is the 'Duijin Pill'. It is a low-grade pill that will greatly help improve the cultivation of second-level gold warriors."

"Generally speaking, refining this elixir is equivalent to three months of your usual practice. This saves you a lot of practice time, so all the second-level gold warriors here should pay attention. Don't miss this. What a great opportunity!"

"Auction, the base price is 10,000 gold coins, and each bid increase must not be less than 1,000 gold coins!"

As soon as these words were said, many people immediately made offers.

"I'll pay eleven thousand gold coins!"

"I'll pay you twelve thousand gold coins!"

"Fourteen thousand gold coins!...."

For a time, the bidding in the field was very hot.

Now that the Rookie Conference is about to begin, all elixirs that can improve one's cultivation are in high demand, so there are naturally more people bidding.

Chapter 2706

Naturally, Qingtian and Qi didn't participate in the bidding. Although the 'Golden Elixir' was good, it had no effect on either of them.

After all, Qingtian Qi's Jin Yuan Qi has been cultivated to the third level.

But Qingtian Ling did not cultivate Jin Yuan Qi.

In this way, the two of them watched quietly, waiting for a treasure that would be useful to them to appear.

After waiting until the auction of more than ten items was completed, the treasures they needed were not seen.

However, Qing Tianqi discovered that the auction prices for all elixirs and martial arts skills that were helpful in improving cultivation were very high, and those elixir refining materials and weapon refining materials were widely in demand.

In fact, in this period, people who come to the auction to hunt for treasures are all here to improve their strength. Naturally, no one wants to waste gold coins on buying alchemy and weapon refining materials.

After all, although the materials for elixir refining and weapon refining are good, it takes a long time to refine elixirs and spiritual weapons, which is not very helpful to the current situation. It is better to save the gold coins and bid for some to quickly improve yourself. A spiritual creature of strength.

When the thirteenth treasure was photographed, the person in charge cleared his throat and said

"Everyone, the next spiritual item is very rare and very practical. For many metal warriors, it is the most urgently needed item at the moment. As for what exactly it is? Please take a look first!"

As he slipped, a maid came onto the stage carrying a silver plate.

After the maid came up, Director Han walked to her side, looked at everyone and smiled.

"Everyone, what kind of spiritual thing is on this plate? Please take a good look!"

This time, he revealed the spiritual object in the silver plate, which was actually a grape-like shape and exuded a faint white color. The strange fruit of aura.

As soon as they saw the strange fruit, the audience suddenly exclaimed.

"Oh my God! That's gold raisin! It is a spiritual fruit that can help break through the bottleneck of the second-level Dzogchen Peak!"

"yes! I didn't expect to see such a strange spiritual creature today!"

"What? Is that a golden grape? Ha ha!! That's great! If I can get it, I can immediately break through to the third level. This first round of preliminary trials is not easy to win! Ha ha!! I had to take a picture of it!"

"Boy, stop dreaming! That's mine. My cultivation has reached the second level of Dzogchen. I've been stuck at this bottleneck for two years."

"When I came to Kyoto this time, attending the Rookie Conference was secondary. The main reason was to find spiritual objects that could break through the bottleneck. These days, I come to the auction house every day, but I get nothing. I didn't expect that I would finally wait for it today. How could I miss it? How could I give it to you?"

"snort! Do you think you are the only one who comes here every day? I won't do the same! Don't think that thing is yours, whoever takes the photo will belong to you!"

The scene was in a state of commotion, and many people started chattering.

Especially those gold-type warriors who had reached the peak of the second-order Great Perfection stood up excitedly, and their eyes gleamed, as if they had suddenly seen something. The ferocious beasts who saw the delicious meal were eager to rush forward and fight for it.

All this was as he expected.

In the previous auctions On the Internet, any spiritual object that can help break through bottlenecks will inevitably cause a big sensation.

Because spiritual objects that can assist in breaking through bottlenecks are rarer and more practical than spiritual objects that can improve cultivation.

After all, the strength of a warrior, Every time you upgrade to a level, there will be earth-shaking changes. Even if you upgrade to a small level, it will be greatly improved. What's more, the golden raisin assists the improvement to a large level, which can help the second level of the metal system to reach the peak of great perfection. A rare spiritual object for warriors to break through to the third level.

Although there is only one step difference between third-level and second-level Dzogchen warriors, their strength is vastly different. The temptation is naturally very great..

Chapter 2707

Therefore, before Chief Han could speak, many people on the spot urged Chief Han to make a price quickly.

Seeing that so many people were impatient, Manager Han felt even happier. The better the auction price of this item, the more commission he would get, so he was naturally happy.

At that moment, Director Han said loudly: "Everyone! Don't be anxious, I can understand your mood! Before the auction, I will introduce the functions of the items according to the process. Maybe there are people here who don't know the use of this golden raisin."

"alright! Mr. Han, if you want something, please tell me quickly. We can't wait any longer!"

"yes! Mr. Han, stop nagging!"

Many people rushed to hurry up.

"Friends, the effect of this gold grape is that it has a 10% to 20% chance of helping a gold-type warrior at the peak of the second level of Dzogchen to break through the bottleneck. Although this probability is a little lower, for those friends who have accumulated a lot of cultivation and insights, maybe just one can help you break through the bottleneck."

"Besides, these kinds of spiritual objects are extremely rare. Maybe there won't be that store after passing this village. Friends in need, don't miss this opportunity."

"OK! The auction begins now. The base price of this gold raisin is 90,000 gold coins, and each increase in price will not be less than 5,000 gold coins! Get started now and place your bid!"

As soon as this was said, many people immediately rushed to bid.

"I'll pay you 100,000 gold coins!"

"I want it, my 110,000 gold coins!"

"One hundred and thirty thousand gold coins!!"

Because he was the one who sent the gold raisin for the auction.

In the end, the gold raisin was sold to a young man for the high price of 230,000 yuan. The woman took the photo and walked away, and the other people who were not photographed all lowered their heads in frustration.

In fact, the price of 230,000 gold coins is almost the same as the value of an ordinary spiritual weapon, far exceeding the value of the gold raisin itself..

However, such a high price can only be auctioned during this period. In normal times, it would be impossible. This also made Qingtian Qi a huge profit.

However, the matter did not end there.

After the auction, the After the golden grapes, the fourteenth auction item was quickly brought up.

Manager Han said with a sinister smile:"Friends who didn't take the golden grapes just now don't be discouraged, because these fourteen auction items are still A gold raisin."

As soon as these words came out, those who were originally discouraged suddenly saw hope, and their eyes brightened again.

Seeing this, Director Han's face once again showed joy:"Okay! The second gold raisin is being auctioned now. The base price is still 90,000 gold coins. Each increase in price will not be less than 5,000 gold coins. Please bid!"

"I'll pay you 100,000 gold coins!

""One hundred and ten thousand gold coins!"

The second wave of bidding fever started again.

This time, the gold grape was still bought by the same young woman at the price of 230,000 gold coins. After all, a gold grape did not necessarily guarantee that she could break through the bottleneck.

Every additional one brings one more chance. It is also obvious that the young woman is from a big family and has a very rich net worth. Many people are unable to compete with him. After the second gold raisin is auctioned, the next step is to auction the second gold raisin. Three gold raisins.

Three gold raisins appeared in succession, which surprised everyone present.

Of course, many people felt lucky because they felt hope and knew they still had a chance.

However, this time The three gold grapes only fetched a price of 190,000 gold coins. They were bought by a tall young man.

Maybe some people thought that there might be more later, so the bidding was not as fierce as the previous two times, and the price was higher than the previous two. It was the second lowest price.

However, the high price of 650,000 gold coins for three gold grapes still surprised Qingtian Qi.

Normally, three gold grapes can be sold for 3560,000 gold coins. It's very good. The current price of 600,000 gold coins has naturally made him a lot of money.

But Qingtian Qi didn't know that when three gold grapes were auctioned in a row at the auction, in a merged box at the auction venue, A very ugly young warrior showed a look of surprise.

If Qing Tianqi were present, he would definitely find that the ugly young warrior was none other than Jin Yuancheng, who was kicked to pieces by him. At this moment, there were not only people in the box but Jin Yuancheng, there is a middle-aged man with a gloomy face beside him.

That middle-aged man is none other than Jin Yuancheng's father Jin Zhongzhen, a fifth-level Dzogchen master..

At this time, Jin Yuancheng whispered to his father: "Father, did you see that three gold grapes were auctioned in a row? Could it be the same person auctioning them?"

Jin Zhongzhen pondered for a while and said: "It's hard to say! This golden raisin is a rare spiritual object. It's not easy to take out three golden raisins at once!"

"Father, do you think it is possible that someone from our Jin family secretly took out the gold grapes and auctioned them for money?"

Jin Zhongzhen shook his head and said: "Unlikely!" Although our Jin family has a golden grape tree, its output is extremely limited, and many children with poor qualifications cannot get one. Who has extra golden grape trees to put up for auction? Even if someone comes to sell them, it will only be one or two at most. It is impossible to take out three at once."

Jin Yuancheng also nodded and said: "Dad, I also know that this is impossible, so I think this gold raisin was probably auctioned by that bastard Wang Tianqi, because he won seven of them from grandpa last time."

"Maybe he had a breakthrough in his gold cultivation, and there were three left, so he brought them here for auction."

After saying this, Jin Yuancheng's face was full of resentment.

Now, his lower body still hurts.

Whenever he has pain in his lower body, his heart feels extremely painful.

It was Qingtian Qi who cut off the source of his sins. , in his heart he wished he could tear Qing Tianqi into pieces. Only in this way could he relieve the hatred in his heart.

Therefore, as soon as he entered Kyoto, he and his father searched for 'Wang Tianqi' everywhere in Kyoto, hoping to take revenge. Naturally, the result was nothing, which made him a little depressed.

But now, seeing someone auctioning gold grapes at this auction, it reminded him of Qingtian Qi, and it also cheered him up.

And Jin Zhongzhen listened to Jin Yuancheng After saying this, he pondered for a while and said

"It's hard to say. After all, gold grapes are not unique to our Jin family. There are also gold grape trees in some places. We can't suspect that Wang Tianqi brought them for auction just because of these gold grapes."

"But, having said that, the possibility of it being him is not small. However, in order to protect the employer, the auction will never release the employer's information. We can't investigate who put it up for auction even if we want to!"

"That's it!"

Seeing this, Jin Zhongzhen comforted him: "Yuancheng, don't worry! Although we haven't found any news about Wang Tianqi yet, as long as he participates in the competition, we will find out about him sooner or later"

"After all, with his status as a fifth-line warrior, it is difficult not to attract people's attention. When the time comes, my father will secretly get rid of him and vent his evil anger on you."

"father! I'll leave that child to you! Jin

Zhongzhen clenched his fingers into a fist and gritted his teeth and said with hatred: "That bastard Wang Tianqi actually did that to you and cut off your descendants. Then I will pay for it with his life!"

Qingtian Qi didn't know about the scene that happened in the box.

Outside the box, the auction continued. After the gold grapes were auctioned, the next thing to be auctioned were Qingtian Qi's three top-quality fire jade lotus seeds. Originally, they could only bid at most. The top-quality Fire Jade Lotus Seeds worth one million gold coins, during this special period, allowed Qingtian Qi to make another huge profit, earning more than 1.8 million gold coins.

In total, Qingtian Qi earned nearly 2.5 million gold coins this time. Ten thousand gold coins, this is a very huge fortune.

In the next auction, Qingtian Qi always wanted to buy something useful to him.

Unfortunately, it backfired. Until the end of the auction, Qingtian Qi didn't find anything useful to him. Useful items, which greatly disappointed him.

Instead, Qingtian Ling spent more than 500,000 gold coins to take a shot of a fire spirit flower that can greatly improve the third level of fire element cultivation.

Qingtian Ling, as the young master of the Huo family back then, The master is a descendant who is highly regarded by Qing Yanhai, and his net worth is also rich. He can still afford more than 500,000 gold coins.

However, these more than 500,000 gold coins have basically wiped out his net worth.

In fact, this The next time Qingtian Ling came to participate in the Rookie Conference, Qing Yanhai also gave him a spiritual weapon sword. He also told Qingtian Qi privately about this.

With the help of this spiritual weapon, and Qingtian Ling learned it not long ago The special martial skill 'Phantom Fire Shadowless Step', its overall strength is not weak, much stronger than Liu Qizhi's. As soon as the auction ended, the two quietly went to the backstage of the Chamber of Commerce to collect the money, left the auction house, and moved to next current..

Chapter 2709

Qingtian and Qi's goal is another auction house.

In fact, there are five auction houses in Kyoto, all of which are owned by Wanbaoxuan.

The two of them went to another auction house, naturally to consign the remaining golden grape seeds and top-quality fire jade lotus seeds on Qingtian Qi's body.

After all, if they put it up for auction in the same auction house, the target would be too big and it would easily attract the attention of interested people, so the two planned to switch to another auction house to place their trust.

When he arrived at the next auction house, Qingtian Qi sent the last two gold grapes on his body and four top-quality fire jade lotus seeds for auction.

After doing this, the two returned to the inn.

In the next few days, Qing Tianling retreated in his guest room and concentrated on refining the 'Fire Spirit Flower'.

Although that Fire Spirit Flower can greatly improve the cultivation level of a third-level fire warrior, it will still take three or four days to completely refine the elixir.

So in the next four days, Qing Tianqi went to the auction to search for treasures alone.

In the past four days, Qingtian Qi changed to four auction houses in succession. Golden grape seeds and top-quality fire jade lotus seeds were all auctioned. Qingtian Qi naturally gained a lot.

However, maybe there were too many top-quality Fire Jade Lotus Seeds auctioned by Qingtian Qi in the past few days, and the price of the Fire Jade Lotus Seeds in the end was naturally much lower than at the beginning, so Qingtian Qi finally gained There were not as many gold coins as expected.

In the past four days, Qing Tianqi's only harvest at the auction was two 'Spiritual Breath Fruits' that could greatly enhance the cultivation of third-level earth warriors.

However, looking at the two Spiritual Breath Fruits in his hands, Qing Tianqi still smiled helplessly in his heart.

Although these two Spiritual Breath Fruits can greatly improve his earth element cultivation, they are still far from allowing him to break through the earth element energy to the third level. They only allow his earth element energy to make some progress.

If he cannot break through the earth energy to the peak of the third level in a short time, it will not be of much help to his current strength, it will be like a drop in the bucket.

Therefore, Qing Tianqi decided that instead of wasting such time refining the Spiritual Breath Fruit, it would be better to continue searching for treasures at the auction.

However, Qingtian Qi was still very happy to get two Spiritual Breath Fruits.

At least those two Spiritual Breath Fruits can save him nearly a year of training time in the cultivation of earth energy, which is an extremely rare thing.

After all, his earth element qualifications are only average. If he practices in a normal way, it may take ten years to reach the peak of the third level.

On the fifth day, Tian Ling finally refined the Fire Spirit Flower completely. His Fire Yuan Qi naturally improved greatly, but it still did not reach the peak of the third level. The two went to the auction together again to hunt for treasures.

The auction the two of them went to this time was still the same auction house they went to for the first time. The person who presided over the auction was Director Han.

However, as the auction continues today, there are obviously fewer people participating in the auction. Because the first round of competition has been going on for five days and is not far away from the end, there are fewer and fewer second-level warriors participating in the auction, but there are more third-level warriors.

Despite this, the filming venue was still full of people and the venue was still noisy. Qingtian and Qi booked a box.

Soon after the two entered the box, Director Han walked onto the stage and began to make an opening statement

"friends! Welcome to attend this auction. This auction will still be hosted by Han! Now I declare that this auction conference has officially begun."

With Director Han's announcement, the noise in the venue gradually stopped, and it became quiet after a while, and everyone began to pay attention to the stage.

In the box, the blue sky watched quietly through the gauze curtain. Looking at Director Han in front of him.

At this time, Director Han showed a professional smile and said: "Dear friends! The first item to be auctioned today is a bit special, because it is a mysterious secret technique, and it is also an offensive secret technique."

As soon as he said this, the people in the audience were surprised, and everyone showed curiosity. Even Qing Tianqi was shocked, and he pricked up his ears to listen carefully.

Of course, he was more curious in his heart.

The so-called secret techniques can be learned by warriors of any type, but general secret techniques are auxiliary, and offensive secret techniques are extremely rare and extremely precious.

Generally speaking, their value should be comparable to a superior martial art, or even higher.

If the first item in the auction is a strange offensive secret technique, it is extremely precious and should not be the first item in the auction, but now it is regarded as the first item in the auction.

This naturally made Qing Tianqi feel strange..

Chapter 2710

In fact, not only Qing Tianqi had such an idea, but everyone in the audience also thought so.

When Manager Han saw that his words had aroused everyone's interest, there was a trace of pride in his eyes. At that moment, a beautiful maid brought up the first auction item.

When the maid brought up the silver tray, she saw an old book with a somewhat torn cover inside the silver tray.

Everyone in the audience looked at the shabby book curiously, and wanted to know what secret technique was recorded in that book. It turned out to be a rare offensive secret technique.

At this time, Manager Han picked up the shabby book, looked around for a week, and then introduced with a smile: "Everyone, I don't think Han needs to say more, you also know that this book records the secrets that are about to be auctioned. Technique. As for what secret technique it is? Hehe!"

Manager Han deliberately chuckled again and paused.

At this moment, everyone in the audience became anxious and urged Director Han to introduce him quickly.

"In fact, this secret attack skill is called: God-Destroying Thorn! An extremely rare method of attacking with the power of mind. After mastering this secret skill, one can condense the power of a person's thoughts to form a spiritual thorn, which is colorless and invisible. It can directly attack the opponent's brain and make the opponent lose consciousness for a moment."

"It can even cause some weak-willed people to have a mental breakdown in an instant and become crazy. This kind of attack method is extremely difficult to defend against, and it can even be said to be impossible to defend against at all. It is extremely powerful."

As soon as he said these words, everyone in the audience opened their eyes in shock.

Many people were even amazed.

"Oh my God! It turns out to be the secret technique of mind power attack! The power of thought is invisible and colorless, and you can't tell what it is at all. If you use this secret skill in a fight, you can make it difficult for the opponent to guard against it!"

"yes! This secret skill is so powerful! It can be said to be weird and unpredictable!"

"No way! Mr. Han, why is such a powerful secret skill the first item to be auctioned? It stands to reason that even if it is auctioned as the grand finale, it is not an exaggeration!"

"yes! Is there any fatal flaw in this secret technique that you didn't tell us?"

Mr. Han laughed.

"Of course, the power of this kind of mental attack also depends on the person who performs it. The stronger the mind of the person who performs it, the stronger its attack power will naturally be. However, if the target being attacked also has strong mental power, the influence of the God-Destroying Thorn will also be weakened. In fact, these are not its shortcomings. The only flaw with these secret martial arts is that there is a restriction on practicing it!"

After hearing this, many people immediately started asking curious questions.

"limited? What are the restrictions? Director Han cleared his throat and said, "The only restriction is that you must be a soul mutant to practice it. That is, the power of your mind has been transformed into reality, and ordinary people cannot practice it.""

As soon as he said this, he immediately poured cold water on everyone who was originally full of hope.

Everyone's faces showed disappointment.

Many people even complained.

"I asked how could such a powerful secret skill be used as the first auction item? It was originally just something that could only be seen but not learned! That's not even a piece of waste!"

"yes! Soul mutants are extremely rare! This secret skill is useless even after we bought it!"

"Emotional Director Han has been teasing us! You are really wasting all our feelings!"

"that is! Mr. Han, what you do is so irritating!"

At that moment, Director Han smiled awkwardly.

"Everyone, think about it, if this secret skill did not have such restrictions, would Han take it out for auction as the first auction item? In fact, Han wanted to try his luck and see if there were any soul mutants among the people present."

"Or, among all of you present, do you have any friends or acquaintances who are soul mutants? If so, you can also help him take pictures of this secret skill, or sell it to him directly at a high price. This is also a good thing!"

Hearing this, there was a slight commotion in the venue.

At the same time, Qing Tianqi in the box clenched his fists and looked excitedly at the secret book in Director Han's hand..
