

God level 2721

Chapter 2721

The two also started talking about the announcement of the announcement.

"Brother Tianling, the Long family spread the list of people who entered the rookie list to every corner of Kyoto. They should be thinking of spreading the list of people who entered the list to every corner of Dakun Country through the people's mouth, right?"

Qing Tianling nodded and said, "Yes!" I heard that after the rookie conference, the Long family will spread the list of the entire rookie list to all cities in Dakun Country. In fact, this is a way for the Long family to inspire all young warriors to work hard and improve the overall strength of Dakun Country."

"And as a young person, who doesn't want to be famous? Entering the rookie list is a great opportunity to become famous all over the world! Also set a good example for those young people who did not make the list!"

"yes! Otherwise, there wouldn't be so many people attending the Rookie Conference."

Qingtian Qi also nodded in approval.

At this time, Qingtian Ling said again: "Tianqi, in fact, the most popular thing about this rookie conference is the ranking battle of the top ten rookies. When the top ten ranking matches start, everyone will go to watch the match. The whole of Kyoto is packed with people, and the arena is extremely lively"

"After all, the top ten rookies in each class will become the overlords of their party in the future, and almost all will become eighth-level warriors. Who doesn't want to pay attention to the top masters in the future? Not to mention that we young people are paying attention, even all forces are secretly paying attention to the top ten rookies."

"Each time the top ten rookies compete, the competition ends. Those forces began to work hard to win over the top ten rookie masters, especially the casual warriors who entered the top ten. They were vigorously attracted by the major forces from all sides.

Qingtian laughed and said, "I've heard of this too." I heard that Qingdi 'Qinglin' was once the top player in a certain rookie competition."

"I've heard of this too"

"By the way, Brother Tianling. You told me last time that in this second round, there will be thirty-six winners on the list. Thirty of them were ranked, and the strongest six and the remaining fourth-level warriors entered the third round."

"But now there are only twenty-nine people on the list, seven people missing instead of six. What's going on?"

Qingtian Ling replied: "Actually, whether six or seven people will be selected to enter the third round will ultimately be evaluated by a special panel of judges.""

"If the judging panel feels that the seventh contestant is qualified to fight a fourth-level warrior, they can make an exception and select one more contestant, so this time seven contestants were selected to enter the third round. Because these seven people all have a glimmer of hope of defeating the fourth-level warriors, their rankings cannot be judged prematurely.

Qing Tianqi suddenly realized: "So that's it!""

Qing Tianling added: "Actually, some players have shown strength far beyond the same level at the beginning and have the qualifications to cross-level challenges. The jury will let them enter the next round in advance, so they do not have to participate in the ranking competition of that round and waste their time. Much energy. Tianqi, in fact, you can also do this, which can save a lot of time.

Qing Tianqi pondered for a while and said with a smile: "This is a good idea!" I don't have enough time to practice the 'God-Destroying Thorn'. It seems that I will be stronger in the next round of competition so that I can win early."

"yes! Tianqi, you still have to seize the time to learn the 'God-Destroying Thorn'. Tomorrow will be the third round of the competition for our fourth-level warriors. Your time is running out!"

Qingtian Qi sighed helplessly, and became a little anxious in his heart.

In the blink of an eye, another seven days passed.

The third round of the fourth-level warrior ranking competition was also over.

Qingtian Qi revealed his identity as a fifth-level warrior at the beginning of the competition, and strength far beyond the same level.

As a result, he was approved by the jury to enter the next round of competition in advance..

Chapter 2722

Qingtian Qi showed his identity as a fifth-line warrior in the early stages of the game and his strength far beyond the same level.

The results were approved in advance by the jury to advance to the next round of competition.

Like Qing Tianqi, there were three other people who entered the next round ahead of schedule.

The first one is Shadow Moon, the wind elephant warrior who is known as the number one person below the fifth level.

The second one is called Yun Dian, a fourth-level warrior at the pinnacle of the fourth level of Dzogchen.

The third person's name is Chi Huo'er, a fire and earth warrior at the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen. In addition, he also has a pet at the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen.

Except for these three people who were approved in advance to enter the competition for the top ten spots in the next round, the rest are not eligible to enter the next round.

However, the rankings of the other fourth-level warriors have also come out. Qing Tianling only ranked 20th among rookies. Qingtianjun only finished 18th among rookies.

In addition to these two people, Qingtian Qi also saw the rankings of two acquaintances.

One turned out to be Ye Chen from Tianshui City, but now that Xingyan had another chance, his cultivation had actually reached the fourth level of Great Perfection, and this time he ranked twenty-third.

There is also Liu Qi, ranked twenty-fifth.

Seeing Ye Chen appear, Qing Tianqi was very happy and wanted to go up and recognize him. At the same time, he was also curious about why the other party's cultivation level improved so fast?

But now that he has transformed into Xuanyuan Zhantian, he naturally cannot reveal his identity.

At the end of the fourth round, both Qingtianjun and Qingtianling failed to enter the final battle for the top ten spots.

On this day, the final round of the rookie competition officially began.

In the first few rounds of competition, in order to speed up the progress of the competition, several venues were arranged at the same time.

But in this last round of competition, only one arena was opened, and it was the largest arena in Kyoto, the Tianlong Arena.

The Tianlong Arena is located in the center of Kyoto and can accommodate hundreds of thousands of spectators. Generally, only extremely important events will be held here.

And now the final round of the rookie conference competition is about to start here.

On the Tianlong Arena, Qing Tianqi sat on the player seats.

Sitting with him were twelve fifth-level warriors including Long Xiaotian, and the other three strongest fourth-level warriors.

The surrounding stands were already filled with people, and there were crowds of people everywhere. It was a dense and dark place, at least five to six million people, and the scene was extremely grand.

These are the people who came to watch the game after hearing the news. At this moment, there was a lot of noise in the stands.

Especially the young people, all of them looked very excited.

After all, this last round of competition is a battle between the sixteen strongest among the younger generation of Dakun Kingdom. It is the battle of the strong that all the young warriors want to see the most. Naturally, I am very excited.

"It's finally time to wait for the final top 16 ranking match!"

"Well, I don't know who among these sixteen people can make the top ten? You must know that only the top ten masters will be rewarded, and it is also the reward of Tianqidan. Tianqidan is an extremely precious thing!"

"yes! Although there is only one difference between the tenth rookie and the eleventh rookie, their treatment is completely different! Getting the eleventh place can only get you some fame, but getting the tenth place will not only get the Apocalypse Pill, but also be interviewed by the king, as well as some rewards that outsiders don't know about."

In a corner of the stand, Qingtian Ling and Qingtian Jun were sitting together in silence.

After a while, Qingtian Ling suddenly sighed:

"Why! Unexpectedly, neither of us could make it into the top 16 rookies this time! Originally, we thought that one of the two of us would be able to make it into the top 16, so we could secretly help Tian Qi and let him enter the top ten smoothly. Now it seems that all this can only be done by Tian Qi himself!"

Qingtian Jun still had a serious look on his face, and after a while he said in a deep voice

"What do you think the chances are for the young patriarch to make it into the top ten this time?"..

Chapter 2723

Qingtian Ling pondered for a while and said: "The hope is not very high, only 30% at most. After all, this time, 12 of the top 16 are fifth-level warriors. However, if Tianqi can put those' After learning the God-Destroying Thorn, maybe the chance can be increased to more than 40%."

After hearing this, Qingtian Jun frowned slightly

"In this way, it is very difficult for the young patriarch to enter the top ten. Is our mission to capture an Apocalypse Pill this time going to fail like this?"

"It's hard to say, so let's read on!"

At the same time, at the highest point of the stadium stand, which is also the highest VIP seat.

A team of guards are closely guarding the VIP seat.

And there are only two people sitting in the highest VIP seat.

One has a majestic appearance, which makes people look at him. An opaque middle-aged man.

This middle-aged man is none other than Long Xing, the leader of the Dakun Kingdom.

And beside Long Xing sits a handsome young man.

This young man is dressed in a green shirt and has a gentle and elegant temperament.

He was none other than the invited Qing Emperor 'Qing Lin', the youngest ninth-level warrior in Dakun Country.

At this time, Long Xing smiled and said: "Qing Lin, what do you think of this generation of newcomers? Qinglin smiled and said:"

Master of the country, among the young warriors who have participated in the rookie conference, there are only eight to nine who can reach the fifth level of cultivation, but this time there are twelve fifth-level warriors at once.". This shows that this generation of young warriors are much stronger than those of previous generations!"

"This also shows that under the leadership of the king, Dakun Country is getting stronger and stronger. I think it is only a matter of time before our Dakun Country wants to become the most powerful country in Tianfeng Continent!"

"hehe!"

Long Xing smiled and shook his head.

"The strength of a country depends not on anything else but how many ninth-level experts the country has. But it is really difficult to train a ninth-level warrior. From this point of view, is it so easy for our country, Da Kun, to become the most powerful country in Tianfeng Continent?"

"However, the young people of this generation are indeed much better than the young people of the past. There are several young people with pseudo-spiritual qualifications among them, which makes the leader of the country happy. I hope that in a few hundred years, our country, Da Kun, will produce another ninth-level warrior, taking our country's strength to another level!

Qinglin complimented:"What the king said is exactly what he said!""

Long Xing smiled and nodded:"Okay! I think the game can begin. Qinglin, let us get to know the young and powerful people of this generation!"

After saying this, Long Xing gestured to a white-haired old man standing behind him.

The white-haired old man immediately understood, saluted Long Xing, then stamped his feet, soared into the air, and flew directly to Above the arena.

It turned out that the white-haired old man was actually an eighth-level warrior.

As soon as the old man flew into the air, the aura of an eighth-level warrior instantly spread out. In just a moment, his aura enveloped the entire arena.

Below As soon as the audience felt the terrifying aura of the eighth-level warrior, they felt an inexplicable fear in their hearts. They all raised their heads and looked at the old man in the air in surprise. In just a moment, the entire arena became quiet.

The old man in the air glanced coldly. After a week, he said loudly: "Everyone! The ranking match for the top 16 rookies is about to begin, and I am the referee of this round, Long Jinghui. First, please invite the sixteen contestants of this round!"

Following Long Jinghui's announcement, Qingtian Qi and the other sixteen people, led by an auxiliary referee, walked into the arena from the players' bench. As Qingtian Qi's sixteen people entered the arena, some sounds suddenly sounded in the stands. The enthusiastic exclamations of the young warriors..

Chapter 2724

"Long Xiaotian! That's Long Xiaotian! The one standing first is Long Xiaotian!"

"did you see that? The second place is the mysterious powerhouse Ye Jingyu!"

"hehe!! You don't need to tell me about these two people, I know them both. By the way, do you know the four people walking at the end?"

"I know you! They are the four fourth-level warriors among the top sixteen, named Yingyue, Xuanyuan Zhantian, Yun Dian, and Chihuo'er. These four people are also top masters, and their strength is far stronger than that of warriors of the same level. By the way, the one named Xuanyuan Zhantian is said to be a fifth-line warrior who has been rare for hundreds of years!"

"Oh my God! He turned out to be a fifth-line warrior rarely seen in hundreds of years! I never thought that I would be able to meet the legendary five-line warrior!"

After the sixteen people from Qingtian entered, Long Jinghui in the sky spoke again.

"Everyone, the Rookie Conference has progressed so far, and the sixteen strongest players are in front of you. I think many people here already know something about these sixteen people. I don't need to introduce them one by one. Now I will announce the rules of the top 16 ranking matches."

Having said this, Long Jinghui paused and looked at the players.

"In order to make the ranking of the rookie list more fair, and also to give some weaker players more opportunities to perform. We will first select the strongest six among you sixteen as seed players."

""Of course, whether these six seeded players are the final top six will not be determined until the end. Let's first select these six seed players: Long Xiaotian, Ye Jingyu, Zifeng, Luo Yuanchen, Fang Xueyan, and Yingzong."

Long Jinghui slowly read out the list of six people.

Among these six people, there are two fifth-level Dzogchen warriors, namely Long Xiaotian and Ye Jingyu.

That Long Xiaotian is the number one super family in the Great Kun Kingdom. The disciples of the family have amazing cultivation. But Ye Jingyu is a mysterious martial artist, and he is also a newcomer who suddenly appeared in this rookie conference.

Except for these two people, the other four are all at the top of the fifth level. Warrior.

After reading these lists, Long Jinghui said again

"The six seeded players I just mentioned can directly enter the top ten ranking matches without participating in the following events. The next step is to select four people from the remaining six fifth-level masters and four top fourth-level masters to enter the top ten. How to choose depends on your strength."

After saying this, Long Jinghui looked at Qingtian Qi, Yingyue, Yun Dian, and Chi Huo'er. Their expressions were very cold, and his eyes were full of disdain.

"Xuanyuan fights the sky, the shadow moon, the cloud tops, and the red fire. The four of you all showed strength far exceeding that of the fourth-level warriors in the round of competition."

"Our judging panel also believes that the four of you are qualified to fight against the fifth-level warriors, so we let the four of you enter this round of competition. However, the real strength of the four of you is still far behind that of the fifth-level warriors."

"In order to speed up the progress of the game, in this round of the game, first choose the two strongest among the four of you. Those two people then competed with the remaining six fifth-level warriors for the four spots in the top ten! Okay, Xuanyuan Zhantian, Yingyue, Yun Dian, and Chi Huo'er, the four of you will stay, and the rest of the players should go back!"

After Long Xiaotian and the other fifth-level players left, the four Qingtian Qi people showed complicated expressions on their faces.

All four of them felt that Long Jinghui was much colder to the four of them than the other twelve. Obviously, they feel that the cultivation of the four of them is too weak and they are not qualified to compare with fifth-level warriors, but this is also true..

Chapter 2725

Next, Long Jinghui said coldly to the four of them:

"Next, the four of you will be divided into two groups by drawing lots, and they will fight against each other. The winner will be the two strongest people to be determined."

"The two losers then play against each other, and the winner fights against another winner. The winner will go directly to the next round, and the loser will be eliminated. Okay, now let's start drawing lots!"

Following Long Jinghui's announcement, an auxiliary referee came over holding a closed carton.

The carton contained four numbered balls.

Then, Yingyue was the first to draw lots.

Qingtianqi was the second to draw, and he The number drawn was No. 1.

After everyone finished drawing lots, Long Jinghui in the air said: "Now the four people have drawn their respective numbers. According to the rules, No. 1 vs. No. 2, and No. 3 vs. No. 4. The first game is No. 1 vs. No. 2. Who drew No. 1?"

"Report senior, it's me! Qingtianqi replied respectfully

"Um!"

Long Jinghui still looked cold.

"Who is number 2?"

"I!"

Among the four, a rebellious red-haired young man came out.

The appearance of this red-haired young man is very different from ordinary people, because not only does his hair and eyebrows are red.

He is one of the four fourth-level people. Among the contestants was Chi Huo'er, a fire and earth dual element warrior at the peak of the fourth level of Great Perfection.

Seeing Qing Tianqi and Chi Huo'er both standing up, Long Jinghui announced: "Then in this first match, Xuanyuan will fight The sky is against Chi Huo'er, please come on!"

At this moment, with Long Jinghui's announcement, Qingtian Qi and Chi Huo'er walked into the center of the arena.

Ying Yue and Yun Dian both retreated to the players' seats.

At this moment, only Chi Huo'er and Qing Tian Qi were left in the entire arena.

The spectators on the surrounding stands instantly calmed down. They knew that the first game was finally about to begin, and the young warriors' eyes shone with excitement.

"Ha ha!! The first game is about to begin! It's really exciting!"

"yes! Who do you think will win this first game?"

"It's hard to say! I don't know the strength of these two people."

However, compared to the excitement and excitement of these young warriors, the scene somewhere is completely different.

In the second VIP seat high in the stands, there are more than a dozen warriors with extraordinary momentum sitting.

These dozen people, Most of them are gray-haired old men, and a few are middle-aged.

It turns out that these dozen people are eighth-level warriors who came to Kyoto and the forces near Kyoto. They are all peerless people who call themselves ancestors. This time because of the rookie They came to watch the top 16 ranking competition.

In fact, these people also have their own purposes. They just want to find some top talents who can be used in this rookie conference.

But at this moment, these dozen eight The warriors looked at Qing Tianqi and Chi Huo'er with indifferent expressions, as if they had no interest in them.

"hehe! How boring! What's so exciting about a fight between two fourth-level warriors? I don't understand. Why should fourth-level warriors also participate in this competition for the top ten? Could it be that the strength of these four people can really defeat a fifth-level warrior?"

At the VIP table, an eighth-level old man looked impatiently at Qing Tianqi and Chi Huo'er in the center of the arena.

"That's what Mr. Wang said. The fifth-level warrior condenses the virtual elixir, transforms the vitality in his body into spiritual energy, and increases his strength tenfold. He is basically a two-level existence from the fourth-level warrior. It is almost impossible for a fourth-level warrior to defeat a fifth-level warrior!"

"However, I heard that the reason why the Long family did this was to show the fairness of the rookie rankings. After all, in theory, it is still possible for a fourth-level warrior to defeat a fifth-level warrior. Of course, some outstanding fourth-level warriors must be given some opportunities."

"hehe! In fact, the Long family did this just symbolically for outsiders to see! I think our Dakun Country has held so many rookie conferences. Who among you has heard of a fourth-level warrior defeating a fifth-level warrior at that rookie conference?"

"Ha ha! I have never heard of it, let alone seen it"

"hehe!! This one might be a little different. I heard that this class has a fifth-line warrior who is rare to see in hundreds of years. It seems to be the Xuanyuan Zhantian in the field! Maybe he can bring us some surprises".

Chapter 2726

"Ha ha!! The old man Xuanyuan Zhantian had secretly observed that among his five elements, only the fire element had reached the fourth level of Dzogchen Peak, and the other four elements were very weak. With his strength, it is impossible to defeat the fifth level. If he can cultivate all five elements to the peak of fourth level Dzogchen, there may be some hope."

"hehe!! Although five-line warriors are as rare as spiritual qualifications, they are actually nothing more than that. After all, no matter how strong the five-element warrior is, he can only dominate the same level. Once he encounters a warrior of one level higher, he will be powerless."

"And this Xuanyuan Zhantian has been observed for a long time. It seems that he is twenty-seven or eighty years old. He has only cultivated to the peak of the fourth level at such an old age. His qualifications are at best elite genius qualifications, and he absolutely cannot be a false spirit. Physical qualification"

"yes! With his qualifications, there is little hope of cultivating to the eighth level in the future! I think his future is just a seventh-level warrior. As for those fifth-level players, it can basically be said that they are all future eighth-level warriors."

"No matter how strong a fifth-level seventh-level warrior is, he cannot be an opponent of our eighth-level warrior, so paying attention to Xuanyuan Zhantian is not as good as paying attention to those fifth-level players."

"This is true! It's a pity that Xuanyuan Zhantian's qualifications are not very high, and such a good talent as a fifth-line warrior is wasted."

At the same time, Qing Tianqi and Chi Huo'er were confronting each other on the field.

"I'm Xuanyuan Zhantian! Please give me more advice!"

Qing Tian Qi bowed his hands to Chi Huo'er opposite.

Chi Huo'er held a fiery red spear in his hand and smiled proudly at Qing Tian Qi.

"I'm Chi Huo'er! Xuanyuan Zhantian, don't worry, I will teach you well! In fact, Chi had never thought about fighting those fifth-level warriors. He just wanted to win among the four of us and be satisfied with becoming one of the two strongest. I am not sure about Shadow Moon, but I am somewhat sure about you! Do you know why?"

Qing Tianqi showed a hint of surprise on his face:"Why?"

"Ha ha!! For this ranking battle, I have collected your information a long time ago. Although you are a warrior of the fifth element, you only have the fourth level of Dzogchen Peak in the fire element, and the other four elements are not very high, so your overall strength should be very limited."

"It can be said that I was lucky today. I drew a good lottery and avoided Shadow Moon. Next, I want to feel my first victory."

Hearing this, Qing Tianqi smiled softly.

"Just based on your strength as a fire and earth warrior at the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen?"

"of course not!"

A mysterious smile appeared on Chi Huo'er's face

"I'm not fighting alone, I have a partner!"

After saying this, Chi Huo'er suddenly whistled to the audience.

Then a red shadow flashed out from the audience, jumped into the arena, and ran to Chi Huo'er. It turned out to be a puppy with flaming red hair. Er.

As soon as the puppy arrived at Chi Huo'er, he immediately roared and transformed in an instant under the surprised eyes of everyone. In the blink of an eye, it turned into a three-foot-long unicorn with a single horn on its head and fangs on its mouth. The giant wolf, whose whole body was burning with flames, danced wildly in the wind, and looked extremely ferocious.

As soon as the giant wolf successfully transformed, the aura of the ferocious beast at the peak of the fourth-order Great Perfection spread out from it, instantly covering the blue sky. The blood-red wolf eyes stared coldly at the blue sky.

"It's so strong. It doesn't seem to be an ordinary fourth-level ferocious beast. Is this your pet?"

Seeing Qingtian Qi's face changing slightly, Chi Huo'er immediately felt proud.....

He thought Qingtian Qi was afraid, and immediately sneered: "Yes! This is my pet. My little wolf is a ferocious beast that can grow to the seventh level, so naturally it is not comparable to the ordinary fourth-level ferocious beasts. And there is this handle in my hand. With the help of the spiritual weapon and the spear, it will be no problem to deal with you."

After saying this, Chi Huo'er jumped on the back of the giant wolf, pointed the spear directly at the blue sky, and said proudly: "Xuanyuan Zhantian, today I will fight with the little wolf. Let's join forces to deal with you and draw out your sword to welcome your defeat!"

Qingtian Qi sneered: "I don't need to use weapons to deal with you!"

Upon hearing this, Chi Huo'er was furious:"Arrogant! It's you. You don't need weapons, don't blame me for not giving you a chance! Little Wolf, let's go together and teach this guy who doesn't know whether to live or die a lesson!"

"Roar!"

The giant wolf roared immediately and rushed towards the blue sky..

Chapter 2727

At the same time, Chi Huo'er also jumped up from the back of the giant wolf and stabbed into the sky with one spear.

Qingtian Qi's figure flashed, avoiding the combined attack of one person and one wolf like lightning.....

Chi Huo'er was immediately shocked:"It's so fast!"

However, he didn't wake up from the surprise before.

Qing Tianqi had already ducked behind the giant wolf and punched the giant wolf in the back.

His speed was too fast, and the giant wolf had no time to turn around and dodge.

And Chi Huo'er was in mid-air, her feet hadn't even touched the ground, and she had no time to stop her.....

At the moment, Chi Huo'er was in a hurry.

Suddenly, his heart suddenly changed. He stopped caring about the giant wolf. Instead, he twisted around in the air, stabbed Qixu in the sky, and shouted:.

"The two dragons roar!"

As soon as the spear was thrust out, a two-headed dragon flew out from the shadow of the spear and rushed towards Qingtian Qi with a destructive momentum.

It turned out that Chi Huo'er wanted to force Qingtian Qi back by surrounding Wei and saving Zhao.

Qingtian Qi felt the terrifying momentum of that shot, and his heart was moved. He quickly looked up and saw a two-headed dragon composed of flaming meteorites rushing towards him.

Qingtian Qi immediately thought of something, and his face suddenly showed great joy. Color.

Because the two-headed dragon in front of him is a fusion martial art, which is a fusion of the superior martial arts Fire Dragon Roar and Rock Dragon Roar.

Qingtian Qi was worried that he could not find a way to fuse the superior martial arts Fire Dragon Roar and Azure Dragon Roar. He had spent several months researching the method, but had failed, but there was an opportunity right in front of him.

He could get experience and methods from Chi Huo'er, which would save him a lot of research time, and maybe he could gain insights based on this. The fusion method of 'Five Dragon Roar'.

Although the fusion of the fire dragon's roar and the green dragon's roar is slightly different from the fire dragon's roar and the rock dragon's roar, the two situations are not much different, and they have the same purpose.

Qingtian Qi is delighted in his heart At that time, the roaring twin dragons were approaching.

Qingtian Qi did not panic. With a thought, he condensed the 'Five Elements Shield' and easily blocked the roaring attack of the twin dragons.

At the same time, Qingtian Qi's punch also hit the giant wolf's back.

The giant wolf screamed suddenly and flew more than ten feet away.

However, the giant wolf was not seriously injured. Qingtian Qi had shown mercy. He punched the giant wolf away, Qingtian Qi's figure flashed again, and punched him again. Chi Huo'er, who had just fallen from the air, was hit in the chest.

Chi Huo'er was shocked. Before he could think about it, Qing Tianqi's attack came again before he could stand firm.

"Could this guy be a wind warrior? How could it be so fast?"

At that moment, Chi Huo'er's gun moved sideways and hit Qing Tian Qi's fist.

Unexpectedly, Qing Tian Qi changed his fist into a palm and separated the spear with one palm. At the same time, he punched Chi Huo'er's chest with another fist.

This time , Chi Huo'er was able to avoid it. While feeling frightened in his heart, he quickly formed a rock shield to block it in front of him.

But the rock shield was easily broken into pieces by Qing Tianqi's punch, and the last punch fell on Chi Huo'er. chest and blasted him away.

In just three encounters, Qingtian Qi used his bare hands to knock out Chi Huo'er and his pets.

The onlookers around him were shocked, and countless people cheered.

"Oh my God! That Xuanyuan Zhantian is too strong! In just three rounds, Chi Huo'er and his pets were eliminated without using any weapons."

"yes! Xuanyuan Zhantian is indeed worthy of being a fifth-line warrior! His strength is so strong!"

"I think he is probably stronger than Shadow Moon, and he should be the first person below level five!"

"This is hard to say. However, he defeated Chi Huo'er so quickly. His strength was beyond my expectation."

Actually, Qing Tianqi made reservations, otherwise with his true strength, he could kill Chi Huo'er and his pets in just one round. Most people don't know all this. At this moment, countless young warriors in the stands They all looked at Qing Tianqi with fanatical admiration.

On the contrary, all the players on the player bench had indifferent expressions, and they were indifferent to the battle in front of them..

Chapter 2728

Especially the player sitting next to Chu Hongjian had a disdainful sneer on his lips.

This player is about 26 or 27 years old, fair and handsome, but there is a look of arrogance and violence between his eyebrows.

At this time, the player suddenly laughed and said:"Hongjian, is this the Xuanyuan Zhantian you are talking about? Listening to what you said, I thought he was very powerful, but now it seems that his strength is no more than in this way"

"Against a character like Chi Huo'er, he actually used it for three rounds, but he still couldn't make the opponent lose his combat effectiveness. If it were me, it would only take one round to kill Chi Huo'er and his wolf dog."

Chu Hongjian pondered for a while and said:"Brother Nangong, don't underestimate that Xuanyuan Zhantian, his strength is really not weak. He also had reservations about today's battle. In fact, the most troublesome thing about Xuanyuan Zhantian is his speed. His speed is too fast."

"Yeah?"

Nangong Hongjun still showed a trace of disdain on his face.

"I think his speed just now was nothing more than that, the speed of a fifth-level warrior, so there was nothing to worry about. Red Sword, I really can't figure it out. You fought him for seventy or eighty rounds that day, but you couldn't win him down. It's really a shame!"

Hearing this, Chu Hongjian's face turned red with embarrassment, and he defended

"I had reservations that day in order not to expose my full strength. Otherwise, I would definitely be able to defeat him within seventy or eighty rounds. However, Brother Nangong, I would like to remind you that Xuanyuan Zhantian's speed is not only the speed shown today, his speed can be compared with the fifth level peak warrior.

Nangong Hongjun still didn't care and sneered:"So what if his speed can reach that level?" It can be seen that his fighting ability is not strong, and I have many ways to deal with him.

Chu Hongjian smiled and said,"Yes!" Brother Nangong is much stronger than me, so he will have no problem dealing with this kind of thing."

"In fact, what I want to do most right now is to teach this Xuanyuan Zhantian a lesson with my own hands, let him know the true strength of Chu Hongjian, and make him regret going against me. It's just that I'm worried that in the next round of competition, he will be eliminated before he meets me, which will make me lose the opportunity to teach him a lesson."

"Ha ha!! Don't worry, Hongjian. Considering that you and I have known each other for many years, Xuanyuan Zhan Tianruo will meet this young master in the next round of competition. I will teach him a lesson, make him worse than death, and give you a bad breath"

"Ha ha!! The red sword is here now. Thank you to Brother Nangong."

"hehe!! You kid, you don't need to be polite to me. After all, your Chu family and our Nangong family are also family friends. Leave that Xuanyuan Zhantian to me! He's lucky if he doesn't meet me, but unlucky if he does!"

It turns out that Nangong Hongjun is a child of the Nangong family, one of the four super families of the Dakun Kingdom. The ancestor of the Nangong family,

Nangong Yao, and the ancestor of the Chu family, Chu Tiannan, were both ninth-level warriors who followed Long Xing and rebelled against the five ancient clans.

This Nangong Yao's hands are also covered with the blood of the five ancient clans, and he is also one of the enemies of the five ancient clans.

It is precisely because of this relationship that the Nangong family and the Chu family have become family friends.

Back then, Long Xing took Nangong Yao and Chu Tiannan with him. The Holy Lord colluded and massacred the children of the five races. Now the descendants of these three people also appeared at the rookie conference.

However, in the field, Qingtian Qi knocked Chi Huo'er and his pet away.

Afterwards, Qingtian Qi slowly walked away. Walked in front of Chi Huo'er.

When Chi Huo'er saw Qing Tianqi approaching, Chi Huo'er's face changed slightly, and she covered her stinging chest and tried to stand up.

But Qing Tianqi did not take the opportunity to take action, but whispered: "Chi Huo'er, you lose!"

After hearing this, Chi Huo'er's face turned very ugly, and he quickly turned to look at the little wolf not far away.

Seeing him, the little wolf was also lying on the ground with a dejected expression, unable to get up for a long time.

However, looking at the little wolf, He didn't seem to be seriously injured. Seeing this, Chi Huo'er breathed a sigh of relief, and then a wry smile appeared on his face.

Then, he slowly got up and looked at Qingtian Qidao with an awkward look.

"good! I lost! It seems that Chi Mou underestimated Brother Xuanyuan. Brother Xuanyuan's strength is indeed astonishing, and my younger brother is convinced that he lost! Thank you also to Brother Xuanyuan for showing mercy. Qing

Tianqi smiled slightly and didn't say much.

At this time, Chi Huo'er raised his head and said to Long Jinghui in the air: "Senior, I will admit defeat in this round. There is no need to continue fighting!"

Chi Huo'er knew clearly in his heart that the strength gap between him and Qingtian Qi was too big, and there was no need to continue fighting..

Chapter 2729

Long Jinghui nodded slightly and announced:"This is the first match between Xuanyuan and Tiansheng. You two should return to the contestants' seats! Next is the second match, Yingyue vs. Yun Dian." At that moment, Qingtian Qi and Chi Huo'er returned to the contestants' bench together.....

Shadow Moon and Yun Dian also entered the battlefield respectively.

But after Qingtian Qi and Chi Huo'er returned to the contestants' table, Qing Tianqi suddenly whispered to Chi Huo'er:"Brother Chi, I want to negotiate a deal with you. I wonder if you are interested?"

Chi Huo'er was immediately surprised."What deal?"

Qingtian Qi smiled mysteriously.

"Now is not the time to talk about deals. After the morning game is over, you and I can find a quiet place to talk.

Chi Huo'er hesitated for a while, then nodded and said,"Okay!"

Seeing Chi Huo'er agreeing, Qingtian Qi's face immediately showed a look of joy. But at this moment, a cry of exclamation suddenly occurred in the field.

Qingtian Qi immediately looked towards the field, only to see that the winner of the field had already been decided.

The shadow moon stood proudly in the field, looking calmly forward with a cold face.

In front of him, Yun Dian lay on the ground and passed out.

At this time, countless exclamations came from the stands

"Oh my God! The speed was so fast that Yun Dian was defeated before I could see clearly what was going on!"

"yes! After just one face-to-face meeting, the winner has already been decided. This Shadow Moon's strength must be too strong! Simply incredible!"

Hearing the discussions around him, Qing Tianqi was slightly horrified, secretly thinking that Ying Yue was indeed not simple and should not be underestimated.

At that moment, Long Jinghui announced that this second round was Ying Yue's victory.

Then, there was another seventh-level wood type The warrior revived Yun Dian from the coma.

In fact, Yun Dian was just knocked unconscious and was not injured.

After a short rest in the field, Long Jinghui announced the start of the third game.

The third game was between Yun Dian and Chi Huo. Er.

The two sides were matched in chess, and they fought very fiercely, making the onlookers around them excited and excited.

The two fought for more than 300 rounds in a row. In the end, Chi Huo'er made a mistake and allowed Yun Dian to win by a narrow margin.

The third game ended, and then came the following. It was the fourth game.

The fourth game was between Yun Dian and Qing Tian Qi.

Yun Dian had seen Qing Tian Qi's strength. He knew that his strength was comparable to Chi Huo'er and was definitely not Qing Tian Qi's opponent, so he immediately chose to give up. Qingtian Qi won this round.

At this moment, all the results of the first round of competition came out.

Shadow Moon and Qingtian Qi entered the next round together, competing with the other six fifth-level warriors for the four spots in the top ten of the rookies. Yun Dian and Chi Huo'er were ranked fifteenth and sixteenth respectively.

In the end, Long Jinghui announced to Qingtian Qi and Yingyue in a cold tone.

"Congratulations to both of you for entering the next round. I hope you both have good luck and go far in the subsequent competitions. Okay, this morning's game is over. In the afternoon, the eight of you will start drawing lots to be divided into groups for the second round of the game."

With Long Jinghui's announcement, this morning's game was considered over, and everyone in the audience began to leave.

Qingtian Qi and Chi Huo'er also left the field together, and came to the resting area specially arranged for the players at the back of the field.

There were twenty people in this resting area. There are multiple rooms, and each player is assigned an independent lounge, which is mainly used for players to rest and heal.

If the players do not want to watch the game on the court, they can always practice in their own lounge, as long as it is their turn to play. Just go out to fight.

At this moment, in Qingtian Qi's lounge, Qingtian Qi and Chi Huo'er were talking

"Brother Xuanyuan, you said you wanted to negotiate a deal with me earlier. What kind of deal was it?"

Qingtian Qi said: "Brother Chi, the power of the 'Double Dragon Roar' you used earlier has reached the level of pseudo-top martial arts. It should be a fusion martial skill, right? Did you combine the two superior martial arts skills of 'Rock Dragon Roar' and 'Fire Dragon Roar'?"

"How did you know?"

A look of surprise immediately appeared on Chi Huo'er's face. He soon figured out something and asked in surprise: "Do you want to trade my fusion martial arts?"..

Chapter 2730

Qing Tianqi said in a deep voice: "To be precise, I want your fusion skills, that is, how you fuse these two superior martial arts together. As for the two superior martial arts of Rock Dragon Roar and Fire Dragon Roar I already have it."

Chi Huo'er immediately looked at Qing Tianqi in surprise, and after a while he asked carefully

"Brother Xuanyuan, you can get my fusion experience, but what are you going to trade with me for? If you can come up with something that makes my heart move, I can naturally trade with you. If you can't come up with it, then the deal will be over!

Qing Tianqi whispered: "Brother Chi, you will definitely be interested in what I take out?"

"Yeah?"

Chi Huo'er's face showed a look of doubt.

"Brother Xuanyuan, let's talk first and see if I'm interested in that thing?

Qing Tianqi whispered confidently: "The superior fire defensive martial art 'Fire Feather Aegis'"

Hearing this, Chi Huo'er was shocked, his eyes immediately lit up, and his face was full of surprise.

Then he was surprised and said: "Hey! Brother Xuanyuan, how did you know that I am in urgent need of superior defensive martial arts?"

Qingtian laughed and said: "When you and I were fighting just now, at the last critical moment, Brother Chi used the 'rock shield' to resist My attack, that rock shield is just an intermediate martial skill"

"In such a critical moment, Brother Chi only used one medium defensive martial skill to resist my attack, instead of other stronger defensive martial arts. This shows that Brother Chi's strongest defensive martial skill is the 'Rock Shield', so I speculate that Brother Chi is in urgent need of a superior defensive martial skill. Chi Huo'er immediately looked Qingtian Qi over in shock, nodded and said, "Brother Xuanyuan, your guess is absolutely correct!" Qingtian said together:"

Then Brother Chi, are you willing to trade with me?"

"trade! Of course it's a deal! If I can get a superior defensive martial skill, my strength will be greatly enhanced. Why don't I trade? If I had learned the Fire Feather Aegis, I would not have lost to Yun Dian in the previous game, and the fifteenth rookie position should be mine.

Chi Huo'er immediately agreed readily.

Qing Tianqi was overjoyed:"Haha!"! Then let's trade now!"

At that moment, Qing Tianqi took out a previously prepared 'Fire Feather Aegis' manuscript and gave it to Chi Huo'er.

Chi Huo'er took it and took a look, recognized it and accepted it happily.

Then, he also Then he took out a notebook and said

"Brother Xuanyuan, here are my experience notes on the fusion method of martial arts fusion. They are all based on my own speculation. It not only records the fusion method of 'Rock Dragon Roar' and 'Fire Dragon Roar', but also some other details. The fusion method of riding martial arts"

"Time is running out now, so I can't copy them all down one by one, so I'll just give them all to Brother Xuanyuan. I've already recorded these things in my mind."

Qing Tianqi took the notebook and looked at it a few times. It was indeed true, and he was immediately overjoyed.

"Then thank you very much, Brother Chi!"

At that moment, the two successfully completed the transaction.

After sending Chi Huo'er away, Qingtian Qi happily put away the notebook and was secretly happy.

With this notebook, he should be able to fuse the green dragon's roar and the fire dragon's roar together very soon..By the way, my water energy has been cultivated to the fourth level, and I can practice the 'Ice Dragon Roar'.

If we can fuse these three superior martial arts into one, its power should be able to reach the level of the best martial arts!

That will be compared to The power of 'Five Elements Heavenly Slash' is even stronger.

Unfortunately, it will take a long time to integrate these three martial arts. It is definitely too late to practice now. I'd better let it go for a while and practice again after the rookie conference is over.

Maybe it will be useful when dealing with Luo Yuanchen in the future.

Forget it, I don't want to think about it so much. I still hurry up and practice the 'God-Destroying Thorn'. In the next round of competition, I will probably fight against a fifth-level warrior. I still The key is to learn the 'God-Destroying Thorn' first!

At the moment, Qingtian Qi abandoned the distracting thoughts in his heart and began to practice the 'God-Destroying Thorn' in the room, and then waited quietly for the afternoon game to start.

Time passed quickly, After only an hour's rest at noon, the game started in the afternoon...
