

God level 2771

Chapter 2771

Nangong Hongjun suddenly lost his target, and his eyes were filled with white.

His expression immediately changed, and he secretly said, "Not good!"

But at this moment, a sharp stabbing pain suddenly came from his head, and his whole body suddenly felt enlightened.

It turned out that he was hit by Qingtian Qi's God-Destroying Stab.

When Nangong Hongjun woke up from his trance, there was a rapid sound of breaking through the air, and a five-color energy light knife struck him on the head with a fearful aura.

Nangong Hongjun was horrified, so he couldn't take precautions and hurriedly activated the flame shield.

However, Qing Tianqi's Five Elements Heavenly Slash slashed through the defense, and the person was even knocked away.

At that moment, the sound of a fierce fight between the two came from the thick fog.

Not a moment later, Nangong Hongjun's screams could be heard in the thick fog.

Outside the thick fog, no one knew what happened in the thick fog, but they all knew in their hearts that Qingtian Qi must have the upper hand.

At this moment, the expressions on everyone's faces were wonderful.

Especially the eighth-level bosses sitting in the VIP seats, all looking at each other.

If Qingtian Qi could come back and defeat Chu Hongjian yesterday, it might be an accident, but such accidents cannot happen continuously.

At this moment, everyone realized that Qingtian Qi's strength had really reached the level of a fifth-level warrior, and he was not weak at all.

"I never imagined that there really are such geniuses in this world! Only as a fourth-level warrior can he compete with a fifth-level warrior!"

"yes! What a shame! It seems that I have underestimated Xuanyuan Zhantian before."

Just when the eighth-level bosses were sighing, a scream suddenly came from the field, and a figure flew out from the thick fog, vomiting blood, fell to the edge of the arena and passed out.

But at this moment, there was a big footprint on his chest, which was very clear!

Seeing Nangong Hongjun passed out, Long Jinghui in the air took a deep breath, and then with a wave of his hand, he blew away the thick fog on the field.

After the fog dissipated, a tall white-haired young man appeared in front of people's eyes.

At this moment, everyone looked at Qing Tianqi with awe in their eyes, which was awe of the strong..

Qingtian Qi glanced at everyone calmly, and finally his eyes fell on the players' bench.

The young strong men on the players' bench looked at Qingtian Qi with different expressions.

Some were full of fighting spirit, some were appreciative, There are those who are jealous, and there are those who are in awe.

And Chu Hongjian's expression is the most complicated. His almost twisted face shows a mixture of resentment, jealousy, and more of fear. What he is afraid of is, Every time he saw Qingtian Qi, it was different. The opponent's strength was always getting stronger every time, which made him feel a deep fear and a sense of powerlessness deep in his heart.

At this time, Qing Tianqi's eyes stayed on He also saw Chu Hongjian's complicated expression clearly on Chu Hongjian's face, but he just smiled softly and stopped looking at him. Then he turned and walked towards Nangong Hongjun, who was unconscious on the edge of the arena. Arriving at Nangong Next to Hongjun, Qingtian Qi took back his blue-patterned sword, then put the swords back into their sheaths. He didn't look at Nangong Hongjun again, but looked up at Long Jinghui in the sky. Long Jinghui didn't see Qingtian Qi. As for Nangong Hongjun doing something outrageous, he felt relieved, and then announced loudly:

"Xuanyuan is victorious in this round! Xuanyuan Zhantian won the last top ten rookie spot. Nangong Hongjun won the eleventh place among rookies. This concludes the top ten finals for this rookie. The ranking battle for the top ten will be held below, and the drawing of groups will be held shortly."

Hearing this announcement, the huge stone that Qingtian Qi had been suppressing in his heart for a long time was finally lifted, and he secretly said with joy

"I finally succeeded, I finally made it into the top ten of the rookies. The first task of capturing an Apocalypse Pill has been completed. The next step is the second task, which is to kill Luo Changxiu!"..

Chapter 2772

At this moment, at the highest point of the stands, Long Xing showed a meaningful smile.

"This little guy named Xuanyuan Zhantian always surprises the Lord of the country. I originally thought he would be ranked No. 11 among rookies. Unexpectedly, he defeated Nangong Hongjun and entered the top ten among rookies. This was beyond my expectation. By the way, Aomori, this little guy Xuanyuan Zhantian's wood cultivation level seems to have improved a lot overnight!"

Long Xing gave Aomori a meaningful look.

Aomori smiled slightly and did not reply.....

However, he was also very surprised. He obviously just helped Qingtian Qi's Mu Yuan Qi to break through to the fourth level peak warrior, but he didn't expect that Qingtian Qi had already reached the fourth level of perfection after not seeing each other overnight.

"Anyway, this little guy finally completed the first test I gave him. Next, let's see who performs better between him and Lin Quan?"

At this point, the competition for the top ten spots for rookies has ended.

Next, there is the ranking competition for the top ten rookies.

First, the two fifth-level Dzogchen warriors Long Xiaotian and Ye Jingyu were regarded as seed players, and the remaining eight people started Draw lots into groups.

After the grouping, Qingtian Qi directly announced that he would give up all subsequent games.

Therefore, Qingtian Qi was ranked tenth among rookies.

After all, his mission was only to capture an Apocalypse Pill, as long as he could enter the top ten, so He has no interest in the top ten ranking competitions. He does not come here for these false reputations.

So as soon as the rankings were announced, Qing Tianqi quietly left the field.

He didn't care at all about the following games. He just wanted to return to the game. He practiced in seclusion in the inn.

Because he wanted to take advantage of the competition period to combine the roar of the fire dragon, the roar of the green dragon, and the roar of the ice dragon into one, and re-fuse it into a new fusion martial skill, which would also be his strongest offensive martial skill. , that would be of great help to improve his strength.

After all, he also has another arduous task, which is to kill Luo Changxiu and seize the pass order for the Luo family's forbidden land. However, with his current strength, he is not enough to kill Luo Changxiu. Kill Luo Changxiu.

But what Qingtian Qi didn't know was that when he quietly left the scene, there was also a pair of eyes in the crowd, quietly looking at his back, showing doubts. The owner of these eyes was none other than Luo Changxiu

"strangeness! Why does the top-grade spiritual bow used by Xuanyuan Zhantian look familiar to me? Why does it look so much like Uncle Qi's Night Bow?"

"But the Mingye Bow is the precious treasure of Uncle Qi, even I have only seen it once or twice, and usually no one will touch it. How could it fall into the hands of Xuanyuan Zhantian? Is there a second Dark Night Bow in this world? Or a similar weapon?"

The Seventh Uncle in Luo Changxiu's mouth naturally refers to the Seventh Uncle of Luobei."

"By the way, not long ago, I received news from my clan that Uncle Qi had disappeared while trying to capture alive a young man who was suspected to be a descendant of the Wu family. Could it be that something happened to Uncle Qi, and the Mingye Bow in his hand finally fell into the hands of Xuanyuan Zhantian?"

"If this is the case, what is the relationship between Xuanyuan Zhantian and that young man? What's the relationship with the Wu family?"

Thinking of this, Luo Changxiu's eyes suddenly flashed, and he said to himself in a deep voice:"It seems that there are some things that I must find out!"

After returning to the inn, Qing Tianqi closed the door and fell asleep.

After all, he had been practicing the 'God-Destroying Thorn' during this period and refining the 'Hua Qing Dan' last night. He had never been able to sleep well. At this moment After successfully entering the top ten rookies, he was much less stressed and finally relaxed.

He also wanted to take a nap and regain some energy.

When Qing Tianqi woke up, it was still only the afternoon.

After successfully cultivating the self-destroying thorn, Qingtian Qi's energy was much stronger than before, and he recovered his energy much faster, so he woke up after only three hours of sleep, and he was full of energy and had completely reached his peak period. After waking up, Qingtian

Qi Qi was in a very happy mood. He adjusted his mood and began to learn the 'Ice Dragon Roar'.

But he didn't learn it for long, and Lord Qingtian also came back. It turned out that today's game was over..

Chapter 2773

As soon as Qingtianjun came back, he took the initiative to find Qingtianqi.

Qingtianjun was surprised and happy that Qingtian Qi could defeat Nangong Hongjun and enter the top ten today.

Just when Qingtian Qi and Qingtian Jun were talking about the current situation, what surprised Qingtian Qi was that Luo Changxiu actually came to the door.

In the hall, Qing Tianqi asked Luo Changxiu in surprise: "Brother Luo, I wonder why you suddenly came to the inn today to find me?"

"Ha ha!! Brother Xuanyuan, to be honest, Luo was very impressed when he saw Brother Xuanyuan's performance on the field today. Thinking of his attitude towards Brother Xuanyuan last time, Luo felt a little ashamed, so he wanted to come and visit Brother Xuanyuan this time.

Qing Tianqi smiled and said, "Brother Luo is joking. I don't remember what happened last time." As for the result of this competition, it was just a fluke that I made it into the top ten. Luo

Changxiu chuckled: "Brother Xuanyuan is being humble. With Brother Xuanyuan's current strength, he is not weak even among fifth-level warriors." It's just that Luo is a little strange, why did Brother Xuanyuan give up the next game? If Brother Xuanyuan continues to participate in the top ten ranking competition, he may not necessarily end up in tenth place. Qingtian

Qi shook his head slightly: "Brother Luo thinks highly of me. I'm very lucky to get the tenth place. Who dares to dream of getting a higher ranking?"

"Brother Xuanyuan is indeed humble. If nothing else, just say that if you can defeat Nangong Hongjun, that is a great thing. Nangong Hongjun's strength is very powerful among fifth-level warriors."

"By the way, Brother Xuanyuan, it's interesting that you injured Nangong Hongjun's pet's spiritual bow today. It seems to be a top-quality spiritual weapon. I wonder what the name of that spiritual bow is?"

When Qing Tianqi heard the probe, he felt a thump in his heart and thought to himself, why did Luo Changxiu suddenly come to me? It turned out to be to inquire about Ming Ye Gong. It seems that this guy has suspected me. Huh! This is better. I was worried about how to trap you after the rookie conference, but I didn't expect you to come to the door yourself.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi said: "Brother Luo is right. My spiritual bow is indeed a top-quality spiritual weapon. As for its name, I don't know because the friend who sold me the bow didn't tell me the name, and this spiritual bow is new to me. I bought it not long ago and haven't had time to name it yet."

"It turns out that this spiritual bow was newly obtained by Brother Xuanyuan, which is really gratifying. In fact, Luo is very fond of bows and arrows. I wonder if Brother Xuanyuan can part with his love and lend me the spiritual bow?"

"Why not?"

After a while, he was horrified and said in his heart: "The appearance of this spiritual bow looks exactly the same as the Seventh Uncle's Mingye Bow. , is it really Ming Ye Gong? If it was really the Ming Ye Bow, how did it get into the hands of Xuanyuan Zhantian?"

"By the way, Xuanyuan Zhantian just said that he got this bow newly. And my seventh uncle also disappeared not long ago. Is this bow really the seventh uncle's Night Bow?"

Thinking of this, Luo Changxiu vaguely knew that he had grasped some doubts.

At that moment, his expression remained unchanged, and he returned the Mingye Bow to Qingtian Qi, pretending to admire: "It is indeed a good bow! Brother Xuanyuan is really lucky. He actually got such a top-grade spiritual weapon. Even Luo is a little envious."

"Doesn't Brother Luo also have a top-quality spiritual weapon? Why be envious?"

"Ha ha!! Brother Xuanyuan joked, the more treasures like the best spiritual weapons, the better. By the way, Brother Xuanyuan, who is so generous that he is willing to sell you a top-quality spiritual weapon?"

Qing Tianqi pondered for a while and said, "Actually, it doesn't hurt to tell you!" My friend is rich and has several top-grade spiritual weapons. He has no use for this top-grade spiritual bow, so he sold it to me."

"There are several top-quality spiritual weapons. It seems that this person is not a child of an ordinary family?"

Chapter 2774

Qingtianqi replied: "I don't know what the background of my friend is. Because my friend is not from Dakun Country, he is from Baixi Country."

After hearing the word Baixi Country, Luo Chang Xiu was shocked and thought to himself: "Then the Wu family's home base is in the Baixi Kingdom! Since the friend Xuanyuan Zhantian mentioned is from the Baixi Kingdom, he is probably from the Wu family. It seems that the seventh uncle is very Maybe he was poisoned by a disciple of the Wu family."

Thinking of this, Luo Changxiu said again:"I see, I wonder where your friend is now? Does he have anything on him that he wants to sell? If so, Luo also wanted to trade with him!"

"To be honest, Brother Luo, you are asking the right person. My friend does have a top-quality water-based spiritual weapon for sale, but he only wants to exchange it for the Apocalypse Pill because his cultivation has reached the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen. , I am worried about breaking through the bottleneck."

"In fact, my friend was willing to sell me this spiritual bow because I promised him to help him get some Apocalypse Pills.

Luo Changxiu's eyes lit up and he said with a smile,"Haha!!" Then I think Brother Xuanyuan doesn't have to worry about it. After this rookie conference, I will be rewarded with an Apocalypse Pill. Then you take me to meet your friend, and Luo will exchange the Apocalypse Pill with him for a top-quality spiritual weapon."

"Brother Luo, the value of an Apocalypse Pill cannot be exchanged for a top-quality spiritual weapon. If Brother Luo just wants to use an Apocalypse Pill to exchange for a top-quality spiritual weapon, I'm afraid his trip will be in vain. If Brother Luo really wants to exchange for a top-quality spiritual weapon,I need at least three Apocalypse Pills"

"Ha ha!! Luo knew this very well. When Luo goes to see your friend this time, he will definitely not bring only one Apocalypse Pill."

"Many of the top ten masters in this new show are acquaintances of Luo. When the time comes, Luo will exchange a few pills from them. Not to mention three Apocalypse Pills, I can get them even if they are four or five. of"

"It seems that Brother Luo really wants to trade with my friend. If this is the case, then I will pull the strings from him! After the rookie conference, I took Brother Luo to meet my friend. Hearing this

, Luo Changxiu was overjoyed:"Thank you very much, Brother Xuanyuan. Luo is grateful!""

"Brother Luo, you're welcome! However, there is one thing I want to make clear to you in advance. My friend was seriously injured recently. He is recovering from his injuries in a private place, so he is very careful with outsiders. He will not meet people casually, and I am also responsible for my friends."

"If Brother Luo really wants to trade, you must first let me see your sincerity. As long as Brother Luo can show me three Apocalypse Pills after the Rookie Conference, I will take you to see him."

"No problem with that. After the Rookie Conference, I brought a few more Apocalypse Pills over to let Brother Xuanyuan witness Luo's sincerity."

"So good!"

At that moment, the two reached an agreement on this. Both sides had their own agendas and were secretly happy in their hearts. What Qingtian was happy about was that he could use this method to trick Luo Changxiu into a secret place, and then join forces with Qingtian Jun and Qingtian Ling. Together with Qiuqiu, he will work together to kill Luo Changxiu. Not only will he be able to obtain the Luo Family Forbidden Land Pass, but he will also be able to obtain three Apocalypse Pills.

This is of great benefit to him.

After all, the Apocalypse Pills will be obtained on that day. Although it can help fourth-level Dzogchen peak warriors break through the bottleneck and reach fifth level, there is only a 20% chance of breakthrough. Therefore, taking only one Apocalypse Pill may not necessarily lead to a successful breakthrough. Naturally, the more the better.

And Luo Changxiu was secretly happy. Yes, he could use Qingtian Qi as a clue, follow the clues, and finally catch the Wu family disciple behind the scenes.

At this time, Luo Changxiu thought of something again, and asked pretending to be curious: "Brother Xuanyuan, that friend of yours should also be a young and handsome man, right?"

To be honest with Brother Luo, my friend is indeed a young hero with extraordinary talent. Although he is only fifteen years old this year, he has already reached the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen."

Hearing this, Luo Changxiu felt determined. , The secret path was indeed the case, but on the surface he pretended to be amazed and said:"You have cultivated to the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen at the age of fifteen. It seems that your friend is indeed a rare genius. Luo Mou is a little helpless. I can't wait to get acquainted with him"

"Ha ha!! Brother Luo, don't worry, I will make your wish come true!"

At that moment, the two chatted for a while.

But when he walked out of the inn, his smiling face immediately turned gloomy.

He is fifteen years old and a member of the Baixi Kingdom. Judging from these two pieces of information, the friend Xuanyuan Zhantian mentioned should be the young man from the Wu family that Uncle Qi was tracking.

Moreover, the young man was seriously injured, presumably during a fight with Uncle Qi. It seemed that Uncle Qi was in for a disaster.

Thinking of this, Luo Changxiu's expression became even more gloomy, and soon there was a malicious look in his eyes.

A little blood slave of the Wu family dared to kill my seventh uncle. He was simply seeking death! snort! This time, when I catch that damn blood slave, I will cut off his limbs and sacrifice him to my ancestor. This will not only avenge the seventh uncle, but also make a great contribution to the family. More importantly, You can also get several top-quality spiritual weapons from the Wu family blood slave. This can be said to kill three birds with one stone!

However, if I want to kill the blood slave of the Wu family, Xuanyuan Zhantian will definitely stop him. In this case, I will simply kill him too. Who asked him to make friends with the Wu family.

However, I can't be careless.

No matter what method the little beast of the Wu family used to kill Uncle Qi, his strength must not be weak. Coupled with Xuanyuan Zhantian, he is still relatively tricky. I am not 100% sure that I can take down both of them. Look. I need to find a helper, so I will be more secure."

Thinking of this, Luo Changxiu had an idea.

But in the inn, Qingtianqi sent Luo Changxiu away, and then returned to his room to continue practicing Ice Dragon Roar.

These ten days In the sky, Qingtian Qi had already learned the roar of the ice dragon, and read the experience diary obtained from Chihuo'er about the fusion of the roar of the rock dragon and the roar of the fire dragon several times. Regarding the fusion of these superior martial arts, Qingtian Qi has done research before, and now he has integrated the successful experience of others, and the integration is much smoother.

Now, he finally successfully integrated the 'Fire Dragon Roar' and the 'Green Dragon Roar', and is currently continuing to fuse the 'Ice Dragon Roar'.

If The three were successfully fused, and the power of the three dragons roared by the fusion was infinitely close, even if it did not reach the level of top martial arts.

And in the past ten days, something happened that made Qingtian Qi very happy.

That was After more than ten days of retreat and research, Qingtian Ling finally successfully integrated the Mirror Flower Water Shadow and Phantom Fire Shadowless Steps. The fusion became a new body and martial arts technique, which was named: Phantom Tracking Step.

This Phantom Tracking Step is indeed what Qingtian Qi said The material can increase the speed by 50%, which is indeed very powerful.

As soon as Qingtian Ling successfully integrated the Phantom Tracking Step, he taught it to Qingtian Qi.

Qingtian Qi knew how powerful this 'Phantom Tracking Step' was, so he immediately put down what he was doing. , and tried his best to learn the Phantom Trace Step.

After Qingtian Qijing learned the Phantom Trace Step, he was shocked to find that after the speed bonus of the Blood Shadow Escape Technique and the Phantom Trace Step, his speed had actually reached that of a fifth-level Dzogchen warrior. level.

This greatly increased his strength again. At the same time, the ranking competition of the Rookie Conference also ended.

To everyone's surprise, it was not Long Xiaotian who won the first place among the rookies this time, but Ye Jingyu.....

No one had thought of this beforehand. They had not expected that the mysterious cultivator Ye Jingyu was so powerful.

However, what shocked Qingtianqi the most was that Luo Changxiu actually won the third place among rookies. This shows that Luo Changxiu is very powerful.

In general, the top ten ranking results of this rookie conference are as follows: first place is Ye Jingyu, second place is Long Xiaotian, third place is Luo Changxiu, fourth place is Zifeng, fifth place is Yi Chenxi, and third place is The six are Fang Xueer, the seventh is Yingzong, the eighth is Lin Quan, the ninth is Zhou Xuwen, and the tenth is Qingtian Qi.

However, now that Qingtian Qi has learned Wan Zongbu, his speed has greatly increased, and his strength has also increased greatly. Now, even if he doesn't use the Night Bow, he has a high chance of winning if he wants to fight Nangong Hongjun and his pets alone.

If the ball is released to help, his true strength should be able to enter the top five rookies.

As soon as the top ten ranking competition ended, Qingtian Qi and the other ten people were summoned into the palace and began to receive the rewards for the top ten rookies..

Chapter 2776

In the palace hall.

Because of his special status, Emperor Qing was also arranged to sit on the Grand Master's chair below.

There were two rows of officials standing on both sides of the hall, all of whom were powerful men of seventh level or above.

These powerful men are the leaders of the three provinces and six departments of the Dakun Empire, but not all of them are from the Long family.

Dakun Country is a country governed by martial arts, and it is also a country dominated by martial arts families.....

These martial arts families are further divided into: super martial arts families, top martial arts families, great martial arts families, intermediate martial arts families, elementary martial arts families, and ordinary families.

As long as there are no warriors above the fifth level in the family, it is called an ordinary family and does not have fiefdom or taxation authority.

If the strongest warrior in a family is a fifth-level warrior, he will be named an elementary martial arts family.

The strongest is a seventh-level martial artist, which is an intermediate martial arts family; an eighth-level warrior is a great martial arts family; one who has more than five eighth-level warriors is a top martial arts family; one who has ninth-level warriors is a super martial arts family.

Every martial arts family will have its own fiefdom, and have the authority to collect taxes and appoint and remove officials within its own fiefdom.

However, only top families and super families are eligible to participate in national-level political affairs and management, and the rest of the martial arts families are not eligible to participate.

The entire country's institutional system is also built by selecting children from top families and super families.

In other words, in Dakun Country, those who gain the greatest benefits are those top martial arts families and super martial arts families. At this moment, all the powerful men in the hall looked curiously at the ten young people in the center of the hall.

These ten young people are the top ten young talents in this rookie conference, and they are also the ten most outstanding young people of this generation in Dakun Country.

However, the ones that attracted the most attention among these ten people were Ye Jingyu and Qing Tianqi.

Ye Jingyu attracted people's attention because he was the strongest player in this rookie conference and a casual martial artist who suddenly appeared. Before that, he had been unknown and no one knew about him.

Qing Tianqi attracted attention because he was the only fourth-level warrior among the ten strong men. He was also the first person to defeat a fifth-level warrior as a fourth-level warrior since the rookie conference.

He is also a fifth-line warrior who is rarely seen in legends for hundreds of years. Such many identities naturally make people curious about him.

At this moment, Qing Tianqi stood in the crowd, silently looking at Long Xing who was sitting on the dragon chair.

"Is he Long Xing? Is he the same Long Xing who conspired with the Holy Lord to murder the ancestors of my five races, and finally massacred countless children of my five races?"

As if feeling Qingtian Qi's burning gaze, Long Xing cast his gaze on him.

When Long Xing looked over, Qingtian Qi was shocked, He quickly lowered his head, not daring to look at him. He was afraid that the other party would see some flaws in him, which would be bad.

When Long Xing saw Qing Tianqi lowering his head and not daring to look at him, he also showed a trace of deep thought, and then stopped going. Don't worry about it, but glanced at the young and powerful men before saying loudly

"The ten of you are the ten strongest people in this rookie conference. You are also the strongest among the young people of our Dakun Country. You are also the future of our Dakun Country. The Lord of this country appreciates you very much."

"According to the rules of previous rookie conferences, in order to inspire the younger generation of warriors, our Dakun Conference will reward the top ten players, and this year will naturally be no exception. Jing Hui, please give the awards to the ten of them first!"

"yes! Lord of the country!"

One of the strong men walked out from the two rows of the main hall, it was Long Jinghui. As soon as Long Jinghui walked out, he coughed, looked at the blue sky and said to the ten people

"Everyone, let me first talk about the rewards related to the top ten rookies."

"According to the rules, the reward for the fourth to tenth place rookie is one Apocalypse Pill; the reward for the third place rookie is two Apocalypse Pills; the reward for the second place rookie is one Apocalypse Pill plus an offensive top-grade spirit. device"

"The reward for the first place rookie is an Apocalypse Pill and a top-grade defensive spiritual weapon. Do you all understand? I wonder if you have any questions? If there is no doubt, then I will award you the rewards now."

Subsequently, ten maids entered the hall, each holding a gold tray, and awarded the awards to the young powerful men one by one..

Chapter 2777

When Qing Tianqi got the 'Apocalypse Pill' he had dreamed of, he couldn't help but feel excited.

Is this the Apocalypse Pill?

I heard that the main function of this Apocalypse Pill is to have a certain chance of making people enter the state of enlightenment. Relying on the enlightenment, people can break through the bottleneck of the fourth-level Dzogchen Peak in one fell swoop, condense the Void Pill, and convert the vitality in the body into spiritual energy, so this The Apocalypse Pill is effective for any type of warrior."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi happily put away the Apocalypse Pill.

In fact, among these young powerhouses, except for Qingtian Qi, Ye Jingyu, and Long Xiaotian, who were delighted with the rewards they received, the rest were not There wasn't much excitement.

Because that day the Qidan was only useful to the fourth-level Dzogchen peak warriors. It had no effect on them. It could only be traded and auctioned, or dedicated to the family.

For them, what they cared more about was getting the rookie. Ten honors, and the mysterious opportunity that Long Jinghui mentioned last time.

Seeing that all the young experts had received their rewards, Long Xing spoke again.

"The rewards for the rookies this time have been awarded to you. Next, our country will announce something to the ten of you. This matter is an extremely rare and great opportunity for the ten of you. For our country, Dakun, It is also a good opportunity to improve the strength of Dakun Country."

When all the young experts heard this, they were all shocked. They pricked up their ears and listened carefully. Even Qingtian Qi immediately became interested.

In fact, this is what the ten of them are looking forward to the most.

That Long Xing He continued:"Actually, this matter is not only related to the interests of our country, Dakun, but also to the interests of dozens of countries in the Eastern Alliance."

At that moment, Long Xing told the cause and effect of the matter.

It turned out that the ancient period was a period of gods, a period when gods ruled the world. At that time, there were many powerful people on the continent.

However, in ancient times, the Five Elements on the continent The vitality is extremely rich, and there are many kinds of spiritual objects.

Unlike today, the five elements of vitality are thin, and spiritual objects are very rare.

I just don't know what happened later. Those ancient gods either fell or disappeared mysteriously.

In the country of Yuesheng, not far from Dakun Country, there is a mysterious place called the Forgotten Valley.

Normally, the Forgotten Valley is no different from other ancient places. , but every three hundred years, a space enchantment gate will appear deep in the valley.

Legend has it that the ancient jungle world was arranged by the ancient gods specifically for the disciples. It is a place for newcomers to experience, so it is also called the ancient training ground.

There are many spiritual fruits and spiritual grasses there, and many spiritual objects that are rarely seen in the outside world are very common there, almost everywhere. In particular, some legendary ones Spirit fruits that have been extinct for thousands of years can be found there, which is naturally extremely precious. Not only are there many spiritual objects in the ancient training ground, legend has it that it also contains various martial arts from ancient times, and even gods. Skills, some people even say that there are artifacts in it.

Of course, these are all legends, and some things have not been confirmed.

But it is undeniable that the ancient training ground is a big treasure place, making countless people crazy about it.

Although some things have not been confirmed , but one thing has been confirmed.

That is that there is a spiritual fruit called the Nine Yuan Fruit in the ancient training ground. As soon as the Nine Yuan Fruit came out, the bosses of many countries could not sit still because in the outside world, the Nine Yuan Fruit Yuan Guo has been extinct for nearly ten thousand years.

Jiu Yuan Fruit is the main material for refining Jiu Yuan Dan.

Jiu Yuan Dan is one of the top elixirs that humans can refine, and is worth tens of billions. It can be said to be a priceless treasure..

Chapter 2778

Because of the effect of this Nine Yuan Pill, there is a 30% chance that a seventh-level Dzogchen peak warrior can break through to the eighth level.

It is extremely difficult to break through from the peak of the seventh-level Dzogchen to the eighth level. Even with pseudo-spiritual qualifications, it is difficult to break through without nearly a hundred years of hard training.

In fact, many seventh-level warriors with elite genius qualifications have been stuck in this bottleneck for hundreds of years, and they may even die of old age unable to break through this bottleneck.

Therefore, the Nine Yuan Pill is extremely effective and can drive countless seventh-level warriors crazy.

For any country, eighth-level warriors are the backbone of the country.

To judge whether two countries are strong or weak, if the number of ninth-level warriors is equal, it depends on which country has more eighth-level warriors.

Countries with more eighth-level warriors will naturally have stronger overall strength.

Therefore, facing the Nine Yuan Fruit that can increase the number of eighth-level warriors, all countries cannot sit still and want to get a share of the pie.

After a heated argument, an agreement was finally reached.

This agreement is that more than 20 countries, led by Dakun and Dajin, form the Eastern Alliance, declare to jointly own and protect the ancient training ground, and prohibit other countries from getting involved.

Regarding the collection of Nine Yuan Fruits at the ancient training ground, each country also selects a certain number of people to collect them. How much or how little is collected depends on their strength.

However, because the number of Nine Yuan Fruits collected will be directly related to the size of the benefits a country will gain.

The greater the quantity collected, the greater the benefits will naturally be obtained.

In order to strive for a greater balance of interests, various countries have restricted each other and have strictly limited the number of people sent to the ancient training ground.

Specifically, it is determined based on the number of ninth-level warriors in a country.

If the country has only one ninth-level warrior, then the country can only send two players to the ancient training ground.

If this country has two ninth-level warriors, it can send four people.

Dakun Country has five ninth-level warriors, so there are ten places to enter the ancient training ground.

However, not everyone can enter the ancient training ground.

Because the ancient training ground was developed by the gods to cultivate new talents, there is a big restriction if you want to pass through the enchantment gate, that is, you must be under thirty years old to enter, otherwise you will not be able to pass through the enchantment. door.

Even a ninth-level warrior cannot forcefully pass through the barrier gate. After all, it is a place created by the gods.

At that time, many countries discovered the restrictions on entering the barrier gate, and after returning, they held rookie conferences in their own countries.

Its purpose is to stimulate young people to practice hard, so that after the ancient training ground is opened, the strongest young experts in the country can be found in time to enter the ancient training ground and strive for the greatest benefits for the country.

At the moment, Long Xing said again: "It can be said that the ten of you are very lucky, because the ancient training ground only opens once every three hundred years, and only young people under the age of thirty can enter. Even if the master of the country wants to enter, he cannot."

"For you, this should be the only opportunity in your life to enter. If you miss this opportunity, you will never go in again, so you should cherish the opportunity."

"Of course, if you work hard to collect the Nine-Yuan Fruit for the country, the country will not treat you badly. The country will give you corresponding rewards based on the number of Nine Yuan Fruits you collect."

"According to the old rules, for every three Nine-Yuan Fruits you turn in, you will get one Nine-Yuan Pill. I think you all know the value of Jiu Yuan Dan, right?"

"Although several of you have pseudo-spiritual qualifications, you can break through to the eighth level without relying on the Nine Yuan Pill and practice hard for a hundred or two hundred years. However, if you take the Nine Yuan Pill, it will save you one or two hundred years of hard work."

"In fact, saving these two hundred years of hard training is not a big deal. You should have heard of this rule in martial arts. This rule is: the sooner a warrior enters the eighth level, the greater the chance of entering the ninth level. , and this has nothing to do with qualifications, it is related to another secret of martial arts. As for what the secret is, you are not aware of it yet."

"Generally speaking, the sooner you enter the eighth level, the greater the benefits will be to you in the future. Besides, not every one of you is a pseudo-spiritual body. Without the help of Jiu Yuan Dan, some of you may have a hard time cultivating to the eighth level in your lifetime."

After hearing these words, all the young and powerful men were greatly moved and excited, even Qingtian Qi was no exception.

Chapter 2779

Seeing the excited expressions of Qing Tianqi and others, Long Xing knew that they were all moved, so he smiled and said

"Except for the Nine Yuan Fruit, all other harvests belong to you personally, and the state will not interfere with you. Of course, there is one thing that the leader of this country must state first. Entering that ancient training ground is extremely dangerous. Because there are many ferocious beasts from ancient times inside. Those ancient ferocious beasts were much more powerful than today's ferocious beasts"

"However, what is more terrifying than the ancient ferocious beasts are humans. Because there are more than 20 countries that will send people in, there is a mixture of fish and dragons, and there is no one to restrain them, and the number of the Nine Yuan Fruit is also limited, so it is very common to kill people and seize treasures."

"It can be said that after you enter, you will always face a life and death battle. According to past conditions, only one-third of people can come out alive. That means six or seven of your ten people might die there."

"Of course, all this is done voluntarily. If you feel that it is too dangerous there, you can choose to give up this opportunity now, and we will find someone from the back of the rookie list to come up as a substitute. Everyone, please take a stand!"

"Report to the king! The boy is willing!"

"I do too!"

Ten young strong men expressed their opinions one after another, but no one backed down.

Long Xing immediately said happily: "Okay! The little guys are all good, and they are worthy of being the good sons of our country. There are still two months left before the ancient training ground opens the gate. The master of this country will give each of you a month to go home and settle down before reporting to Kyoto. After all, this time you enter the ancient training ground, it's still unclear whether you can come back alive."

"It's also good for you to let your family know, and more importantly, it's more about making preparations in your own mind. If a month passes and you still fail to report, our country will treat you as if you have given up and I will choose someone else to take your place. Do you all understand?"

"clear!"

"We will gather in Kyoto in one month and everyone must arrive on time. After everyone has arrived, Emperor Qing will lead the team and take you to Yuesheng Kingdom. When you arrive at Yuesheng Kingdom, the barrier gate of the ancient training ground will probably open."

At that moment, Long Xing gave a few more instructions and asked Qingtian Qi and others to go back and prepare.

After Qingtian Qi and others left, Long Jinghui stepped forward and asked: "Excuse me, Lord of the country, what are the numbers of this term? Can people be candidates?"

Long Xing pondered for a while and said: "Nangong Hongjun, Chu Hongjian, Qin Zhongyu. All three of these people can be candidates. Go and notify them."

"yes! Lord of the country!"

But on the other side, as soon as Qingtian Qi walked out of the palace gate, a person came up behind him and called him to stop. It was Luo Changxiu.

"Brother Xuanyuan, do you still remember what Luo told you last time?"

"Brother Luo is talking about wanting to trade top-quality spiritual weapons with my friend, right? Of course I will remember this next time"

"Ha ha!! Brother Xuanyuan, just remember. By the way, when does Brother Xuanyuan plan to leave Kyoto? Qing

Tianqi pondered for a while and said

"It may take a few days, because I have some trivial matters to deal with. Hearing this

, Luo Changxiu said happily:"That's just right." Luo was still worried that Brother Xuanyuan was in a hurry to leave Kyoto. After all, Luo only had two Apocalypse Pills in his hand, and it would take some time to raise more than three. Since Brother Xuanyuan is not in a hurry to leave Kyoto, it just gives Luo more time to raise money. I just don't know how long Brother Xuanyuan will stay in Kyoto?

Qingtian thought for a while and said,"About five days!"

"good! Five days were enough for Luo to raise three Apocalypse Pills. Let's do this. After Luo gets the Apocalypse Pill, how about he goes to Yuelai Inn to find Brother Xuanyuan?"

"no problem! Then I'll be waiting for Brother Luo at the Yuelai Inn."

"That's it, Luo takes the first step!"

Looking at Luo Changxiu's leaving figure, Qingtian Qi did not leave immediately, but stood there and pondered..

Chapter 2780

Looking at Luo Changxiu's leaving figure, Qingtian Qi did not leave immediately, but stood there in deep thought.

I wonder how suspicious this guy is of me?

Would he suspect that I was the one who killed Luo Beiqi and not someone else?

Seeing how serious this guy is in raising the Apocalypse Pill, I guess he really believed what I said.

If my guess is correct, this guy also has the Xuanwu Order. He must have found that the Xuanwu Order did not respond to me, so he is sure that I am not a child of the Wu family, so he does not doubt that Luo Beiqi was killed by me.

Fortunately, before I came to Kyoto, I asked Senior Teng to cover up the aura of my Xuanwu True Blood, which saved me a lot of trouble."

At this moment, Qingtian Qi didn't think much and rushed back to Yuelai Inn.

After the three people gathered together, Qingtianqi took out the Apocalypse Pill

"It turns out that this is the Apocalypse Pill!."

Qingtianjun also gave a rare smile.

But at this moment, Qingtian Qi took the Apocalypse Pill and handed it directly to Qingtian Jun:"Brother Tianjun, this Apocalypse Pill is for you!"

Seeing Qingtian Qi's move, Qingtian Jun was stunned. He felt very sad. Accident.

Qingtian Ling was even more surprised and said:"Tianqi, what are you doing? Is this Tianqi Pill of great use to you? Isn't your fire energy about to break through? If you don't need this elixir, why did you give it away? ?"

Qingtian Qi shook his head and said:"Although I need this Apocalypse Pill very much, I think Brother Tianjun needs it more than me."

After hearing Qingtian Qi's words, Qingtian Jun said resolutely:"Tianjun thanks the young patriarch for his help. Good intentions, I can't take this pill. The young patriarch worked hard to earn it, and I'm not qualified to ask for it. Besides, the young patriarch's cultivation of fire energy also requires an apocalyptic pill. How can I take it away from others? ?"

Qingtian said together:"Brother Tianjun, you don't have to shirk. The reason why I gave you Tianqi Pill is because I want Brother Tianjun to help me. Because to deal with Luo Changxiu, Qiuqiu and I can't do it alone."

"And neither you nor Brother Tianling have advanced to the fifth level, nor do you have much help. If Brother Tianjun can break through to the fifth level in these two days, it will be a big help. When you, me, and Qiuqiu join forces, we will have greater confidence in killing Luo Changxiu."

Qingtian Jun still frowned and said:"But, Young Patriarch, if you take this Apocalypse Pill and break through your fire energy to the fifth level, based on my understanding of your strength, your comprehensive strength will definitely reach The level of the fifth level peak is even stronger. At that time, you can still deal with Luo Changxiu if you join forces with Qiuqiu."

"I've thought about this too. But to be honest, it didn't take long for my fire energy to break through to the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen. But Brother Tianjun reached the peak of the fourth level of Dzogchen one step earlier than me. You are stronger than me in terms of energy accumulation, so it is easier for you to break through after taking Tianqi Pill than me."

"Besides, the function of this Apocalypse Pill is to have a certain chance of making people enter a state of enlightenment, and then break through the existing bottlenecks from the enlightenment. Enlightenment has a lot to do with environmental factors"

"If I want to break through the fire energy, I must find a place where the fire energy is extremely strong and take Tianqi Dan, which will have better effects. Judging from the current situation, it is impossible for us to find such a place in Kyoto"

"If the Apocalypse Pill is taken by Brother Tianjun, I can use my Wood Spirit Tree to change the surrounding wood energy environment and create a good wood environment for Brother Tianjun, making it easier for Brother Tianjun to break through. Therefore, if Brother Tianjun takes this Apocalypse Pill, it will be easier for me to break through."..
