

God level 2961

Chapter 2961

In a trance, Qingtian Qi entered a wonderful state.

He felt himself trapped in memories, memories of his life.

In his memory, he was always in chaos, surrounded by darkness and a bit cold.

Until one day, a trace of heat came from the dark surroundings, which made him feel warm, and his body gradually became alive and powerful.

Finally one day, he gathered enough strength and used all his strength to break through the darkness around him.

Finally, he finally managed to break out of the egg. The first thing he saw was an eleven or twelve-year-old red-haired boy, holding the broken egg shell and looking at him with a red face.

When he first saw the red-haired boy, he felt a sense of intimacy deep in his heart. He believed that the red-haired boy in front of him was his relative and his only relative in the world.

Memories flowed, he couldn't eat anything after he was born, and the red-haired boy fed him with blood.

As he grew older, he followed the red-haired boy out of the ancient jungle, to the Mokuo tribe, to the Xie family, to Tianshui City, to the Fire Lotus Cave, to Kyoto, and to the ancient training ground.

He has been following the red-haired boy all his life, and this relative who depends on him for life.

After a long while, Qingtian Qi opened his eyes slightly. What was in his mind just now was the memory of Qiuqiu's life.

From Qiuqiu's memory, he felt Qiuqiu's feelings for him, which was a family relationship that depended on each other for life, and a dependence that was hard to let go of.

This feeling makes Qing Tianqi cherish and warm it.

He has never experienced such strong family affection. It is an emotion thicker than blood. Even his father has not given it such a strong feeling.

"Little one, I will keep you with me for the rest of my life. In this life, I will not let anyone hurt you, because you are my partner and my relative. Qing Tianqi muttered to himself silently, closed his eyes again, and the thoughts of his soul, through the connection of the 'psychic seal', continued to extend into the sea of consciousness.

This 'psychic ritual' is not just about getting the psychic beast. The recognition of the psychic beast, the lifelong memory of the psychic beast, and the connection with the soul of the psychic beast, so Qingtian Qi's soul and thoughts must penetrate into the sea of consciousness of Qiuqiu to complete the last step of heart-soul communication.

Not long after, Qingtian Qi's soul and thoughts Then we entered Qiuqiu's sea of consciousness.

That is Qiuqiu's soul body.

But at this moment, Qiuqiu is in the middle of the spiritual ceremony, and his soul body has his eyes slightly closed.

At this moment, Qingtian Qi slowly directed his soul to Qiuqiu. Extending between the eyebrows of the soul body, he wanted to plant the mark of his thoughts in Qiuqiu's soul body.

As long as this last step is completed, the psychic ritual is basically completed.

But Qingtian Qi's soul thoughts have just touched When he reached the eyebrows of Qiuqiu's soul body, there were many changes in the sea of consciousness.

Suddenly, the white light of Qiuqiu's soul body burst out, and then an invisible force came out from Qiuqiu's soul body, attacking Qingtian Qi's soul thoughts fiercely. Knocked hard.

Qingtian Qi's soul was hit hard, and he was almost knocked away by the invisible force.

This immediately frightened Qingtian Qi, and he immediately felt that something was wrong.

According to common sense, Qiuqiu had already recognized and accepted him. A lifetime of memories has been transferred to Qingtian Qi without any reservation. At this last step, it is impossible to resist.

But now, Qiuqiu's soul power has actually produced resistance, and it is obviously hostile resistance.

And in Qingtian While Qi was shocked, another change occurred in front of him.

Qiuqiu's soul body was emitted by another burst of white light, and then a small white light group separated from Qiuqiu's soul body and floated above Qiuqiu's head.

Then, the white light group rotated and turned into a handsome man with three eyes and snow-white hair.

At this moment, this mysterious white-haired man was suspended above Qiuqiu's head, with his three eyes closed tightly. The figure was looming and seemed to disappear at any time.

However, Qingtian Qi saw the appearance of the white-haired man clearly, recognized it at a glance, and was immediately frightened to death.

Because the white-haired man was none other than the devil..

Because the white-haired man was none other than the Demon God.

Back then, Qing Tianqi had seen the battle between the Demon God and the God of War in the murals among the Mokuo tribe. The appearance of the Demon God in the murals was the appearance of the white-haired man in front of him.

After a moment, he slowly opened his eyes and looked up ahead.

That direction is exactly where Qingtian Qi's soul thoughts are.

At this time, the white-haired man suddenly sneered and said with anger: "How dare you disturb my sleep and wake me up from my sleep for the first time. You are damned for interrupting my recovery like this! Today you Must die!!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the white-haired man's eyes flashed, and the blue sky suddenly turned black. His soul was hit hard and was immediately bombarded into smoke.

At the same time, in the outside world, Qing Tianqi's body suddenly screamed and fell to the ground. His eyes, ears, nostrils, and mouth were all bleeding. He was bleeding from all his orifices, and he didn't know whether he was alive or dead.

In the darkness, he felt a warm tongue licking his face, which made him feel warm and comfortable, but it also made him feel a little strange.

At that moment, Qing Tianqi began to recall what happened first. He quickly remembered what happened to Qiuqiu and the Demon God. He woke up in fright and quickly opened his eyes, just in time to see that Qiuqiu had returned to his original fluffy appearance. He looked at himself worriedly and licked his face with his little tongue from time to time.

Seeing this, Qing Tianqi hesitated.

At this moment, Qiuqiu also saw Qingtian Qi waking up, and immediately showed joy. His fluffy little head kept rubbing Qingtian Qi's chest, as if he wanted him to get up, and he even said "Goo" It kept screaming.

Seeing Qiuqiu's close dependence on him, Qingtian Qi's heart warmed and he thought to himself.

It seems that Qiuqiu is still the same Qiuqiu as before. It has not been devoured by the devil, and its feelings for him have not changed at all.

It seems that my guess is not wrong.

The demon god did indeed move his hands and feet on Qiuqiu. He actually sealed a ray of his soul and slept deep in Qiuqiu's soul. What did he want to do by doing this?"

What is the purpose of the Demon God?

By the way, the Demon God's body is now sealed by the God of War in the ancient jungle under the Mokuo tribe's altar. It will take nearly a hundred years for him to break through the seal.

But within these hundred years, the God of War has also left behind The second option is to ask his successor to strengthen the seal so that the Demon God cannot break the seal. The Demon God should have anticipated this, and he should take action.

So what are the Demon God's actions?

Could it be that he sealed a ray of his soul in Qiuqiu, and finally swallowed Qiuqiu's soul, making Qiuqiu an incarnation of him? After all, Qiuqiu has his bloodline and is very suitable to be his incarnation. As long as Qiuqiu becomes his incarnation, and he can use this incarnation to destroy the seal and release him in advance. But Qiuqiu is not strong enough yet, so he has not swallowed it.

Or maybe his soul is very weak, otherwise he would It is impossible for the divided soul of Qiu Qiu to fall into a deep sleep to recover itself, and it is also impossible for him to fail to kill me with that blow just now.

However, no matter what the situation is, the demon wants to devour Qiu Qiu's soul and kill Qiu Qiu. It is inevitable to become his incarnation, and it is also his ultimate goal.

No! I can't let him do this!

I must not let him hurt Qiuqiu, take Qiuqiu away from me, let alone let the devil break Release the seal.

But what should I do? After all, he is a demon, how can I possibly deal with him? By the way

, the demon god sealed in Qiuqiu's soul is just a fragment of the demon god, not the demon god's true body, and it is also very weak..

Maybe I have hope to deal with him.

As long as I kill this ghost, I can rescue Qiuqiu from the clutches of the devil.

Otherwise, even if Qiuqiu is not swallowed by the devil's soul, I will not be able to fight with it. I 'm psychic.

Then how should I deal with the demon's split soul??..

Chapter 2963

At that moment, Qing Tianqi began to ponder again.

By the way, since that is a split soul, we should deal with him through soul-related means.

Didn't I just get a "Soul Code"?

So far, I haven't had time to read it. Maybe I can find a way to deal with the demon's split soul from the "Soul Code"!"

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi's eyes suddenly lit up, and a hint of joy flashed across his face.

However, he quickly thought of another question.

The devil's soul has always been hidden in Qiuqiu's soul, and Qiuqiu has always been with me. My Does he also know some things?

By the way, today the demon god's soul told me that it was the first time he was awakened from his deep sleep. I think he didn't know what happened before.

But I have to be careful about him in the future. One or two.

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi slowly sat up and felt a slight tingling in his head. It was obviously the sequelae of being attacked by the demon god's soul splitting just now.

However, fortunately, he is a soul mutant, and his soul is stronger than that of ordinary warriors. Much more.

Otherwise, the blow just now would have caused his soul to fly away, which even the demon god's soul had not expected.

However, Qingtian Qi knew that the demon god's soul had been awakened, so he couldn't help but feel a little more wary..Although Qiuqiu still looked the same as before, with no signs of being controlled, Qingtian Qi knew that hidden dangers always existed, and the danger was getting closer and closer.

At the moment, Qingtian Qi pondered for a while, and rolled his eyes. Right on the pitch:"Little guy, the third test will start in three days. You first go to the God of War Order space to sleep for a while and recuperate your energy!"

"Gujiguji!"

Although Qiuqiu was unwilling, he still frowned and nodded obediently.

After coaxing Qiuqiu into the God of War space, Qingtian Qi took out the"Soul Code" to watch.

The reason why he tricked Qiuqiu into the God of War space In the command space, he just didn't want the demon god's split soul to notice, and he was looking for a way to deal with the split soul. With the isolation of the war god's command space, Qingtian Qi didn't worry about being peeked by the demon god's split soul.

Eliminating this worry, Qingtian Qi Only then did he start reading the "Soul Code" and look for ways to deal with the demon's split soul.

In this way, Qingtian Qi carefully opened the "Soul Code".

Three hours later, Qingtian Qi closed the "Soul Code", with a hint of joy in his eyes.

It turns out that the way to deal with the demon's split soul is very simple.

The duel between souls mainly depends on the strength of each other's souls. As long as my soul power can surpass the demon's split soul, I can deal with him.

It seems that I have to continuously strengthen my soul power. Judging from the current situation, my soul power is far less powerful than the soul power of the demon god's split soul!

However, fortunately, I am a soul Mutants, I can quickly enhance my soul power by learning the 'Six Transformations of Soul Art', which ordinary warriors cannot do.

They can only rely on the improvement of their cultivation to passively enhance their soul power.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi felt a burst of joy in his heart, because he had found a way to deal with the demon's divided soul, and also found a way to quickly increase his soul power.

Moreover, the 'Sixth Transformation Heavenly Soul Technique' is also an extremely powerful soul-cultivating technique. If you practice to the sixth transformation, you can achieve the 'Indestructible Heavenly Soul Body', which means you will never die or fall into reincarnation.

At that moment, Qing Tianqi decided to start practicing the 'Six Transformations of Heavenly Soul Technique' immediately.

The first step he has to do is to condense his soul body.

Whenever warriors and ferocious beasts reach the fifth level of cultivation, they will automatically form soul bodies in the sea of consciousness.

And as the level increases, the soul body will become more and more solid, and finally condensed into a solid body from atomized light and shadow..

Chapter 2964

However, Qing Tianqi's soul body has not yet formed in his sea of consciousness because he is a soul mutant.

For those with soul mutations, their willpower will become substantial, and their souls will also undergo great mutations. They cannot automatically generate their own soul bodies at the fifth level. They need to go through some cultivation methods to condense their own soul bodies..

However, once the soul mutant's soul body is successfully condensed, it will not be as ethereal as the soul body of ordinary warriors, but will exist like an entity.

Even after the soul mutant dies, the soul will not dissipate immediately, just like Ouyang Huai did at the beginning, and the solidification degree of the soul mutant's soul body can only be compared with the solidification degree of the soul body of a ninth-level warrior.

In fact, this solidity, which is far stronger than that of warriors of the same level, has little to do with the strength of the soul. This is a kind of mutation in the soul.

Regarding the above information, Qingtian Qi also learned about it after reading "Soul Code", which also solved the doubts that had always existed in his heart.

When he helped Wu Xiaoyue and the others lift the 'Soul Sealing Technique', he found that all three of them had soul bodies in their consciousness sea, but there was none in his consciousness sea, which puzzled him.

It's just that the situation was urgent at that time and he didn't have time to think too much.

Now, after reading "Soul Code", he understood the key.

At that moment, Qing Tianqi sat cross-legged and took his mind back into his sea of consciousness, preparing to temper his 'soul body'.

Only by tempering his own 'soul body' can he know how strong his soul power is?

Because soul power is also divided into levels.

Only by tempering his soul body can he officially start practicing the "Six Transformations of Heavenly Soul Art".

In Qingtian Qi's sea of consciousness, there are still three golden droplets, one large, two small, and three small. The two small golden liquids are slowly rotating around the larger golden droplet. That is the materialized power of his mind. , that is, soul power.

However, these three golden droplets are much larger than before, a whole circle bigger. It is obvious that in the second test, the soul power increased significantly, which made the three golden droplets also become larger. Much bigger

"Start condensing your soul now!"

Qingtian Qi took a deep breath, then gathered all his thoughts and shook towards the three golden droplets.

In just a moment, the three golden droplets moved and trembled violently.

Immediately, the entire consciousness The sea also moved and started to vibrate.

At this moment, the three golden liquids that shook violently exploded, and then countless silvery-white rays of light came from all around in the entire sea of consciousness, and those broken golden liquids The liquid combination condensed together, gradually condensing a human-shaped light and shadow several feet tall.

However, the human-shaped light and shadow was very faint, like light mist, and the appearance was not very clear.

Next, the huge human-shaped light and shadow began to compress automatically.

As the human shape Every time the light and shadow shrink, the body becomes more solid and the appearance becomes clearer.

In this way, after more than two hours, the huge human-shaped light and shadow was finally compressed to the size of a normal person.

At this moment, the consciousness There is a pale golden human-shaped light and shadow suspended in the center of the sea.

The body of the human-shaped light and shadow is like a solid body, emitting five colors of light. It looks the same as Qingtian Qi. This is the soul body that Qingtian Qi has just condensed.

But this The soul body's eyes are slightly closed, and it has not yet fully awakened.

However, there are some differences between Qingtian Qi's soul body and the soul bodies of ordinary fifth-level warriors.

Most of the soul bodies of ordinary fifth-level warriors only emit one color. The light.

The color of this light is closely related to the Yuan Qi they cultivate. The so-called five colors are golden white, wood green, water black, fire red, and earthy yellow.

And Qingtian Qi is a fellow practitioner of the Five Elements, so the light emitted by his soul body is five-color light.

At this moment, Qingtian Qi's soul body suddenly moved and his eyes opened slightly.

The eyes of this soul body opened , his face showed a look of joy

"Ha ha!! I finally succeeded! It turns out this is the soul body!"..

Chapter 2965

Qing Tianqi proudly looked up at his sea of consciousness, surrounded by a vast expanse of white.

However, the soul body was successfully condensed, and Qing Tianqi vaguely felt that his perception of the world was more sensitive.

He had a feeling that after the soul body was successfully condensed, it would be easier to enter enlightenment than before.

I didn't expect that after condensing the soul body, there would be such benefits.

By the way, my soul body has been successfully condensed. Now you can see how strong my soul power is?"

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi's mind moved, and three dazzling golden halos appeared around his soul body.

As soon as he saw those three dazzling golden halos, Qingtian Qi's face suddenly showed a look of joy, and his heart became even more intense. He laughed and said:"Haha!! It turns out that my soul power has reached the peak of the third level, and I am just about to break through to the fourth level."

It turns out that soul power is divided into twelve levels.

Taking the soul power of ordinary warriors as the standard, the soul power of warriors below the fourth level is weak and can be ignored. At this time, the soul power level is level 0.

After the warrior reaches the fifth level , , the virtual elixir is condensed, the vitality in the body is transformed into spiritual energy, and the soul thoughts are also transformed, and the soul body will be automatically condensed.

At this time, the fifth-level warrior also has a certain soul power, and his soul power level will be set at level one.

Wait. After a warrior reaches the fifth level of Dzogchen, his soul power increases significantly again, and his soul power is designated as level two. To put it simply: from level five to the peak of level five, his soul power is level one; At the peak, the soul power is level two; from the sixth level to the sixth level peak, the soul power is level three.

By analogy, from the ninth level to the ninth level peak, the soul power is level nine; at the ninth level of Dzogchen, the soul power is level ten.

Ordinary. The highest soul power of a warrior can reach level 10.

However, after a soul mutant practices the 'Six Transformations Heavenly Soul Art', the highest soul power can reach level 12.

Generally speaking, the initial soul power of a soul mutant is the weakest. Level three is equivalent to the level of a sixth-level warrior.

This is why ordinary fifth-level warriors can only summon fifth-level soul-seal puppets using the 'Soul Seal Puppet Technique', but soul mutants can summon sixth-level ones. Soul Seal Puppet.

This is because the strength of the summoned 'Soul Seal Puppet Beast' is related to the strength of the soul power. The summoner can only summon a Soul Seal Puppet Beast that is weaker than his own soul power, or that is equal to his own soul power. Those with stronger power than himself cannot be summoned.

But now, Qingtian Qi's soul power level is at the peak of the third level, which is equivalent to the level of a sixth-level peak warrior.

If he learns the 'Soul Seal Puppet Technique', he can summon The sixth-level peak soul mark puppet.

Qingtian Qi was overjoyed when he thought of this.

If he can really summon the sixth-level peak soul mark puppet beast, doesn't it mean that he will have a puppet with a combat power of more than 70,000 Really?

This will greatly improve his combat effectiveness!

By the way, if he raises his soul power to level four, wouldn't he be able to summon a sixth-order Great Perfection puppet?

This summoned puppet can reach The combat power of more than 100,000 people!

This will help his strength even more!"

However, although this Soul Seal Puppet Technique is powerful, he currently does not have a sixth-level inner elixir, let alone one. A sixth level Dzogchen evil beast inner elixir.

It seems that even if he learns the Soul Seal Puppet Beast, he won't be able to summon any powerful Soul Seal Puppet Beast for a while!

But no matter what, it is imperative to raise the soul power to level four.

Let's not talk too far, let's talk about the demon god's soul that I met today.

According to my estimation, his soul power has reached at least level six. If I want to deal with the demon's soul, I must at least raise my soul power to level 6. Only level six is enough.

It seems that I should quickly practice the 'Sixth Transformation Soul Art' so that I can increase my soul power faster."

Practice the 'Six Revolutions Heavenly Soul Technique'. Every time the soul power increases by two levels, you can complete one revolution.

Every time you complete a revolution, the soul body will be strengthened once, and the soul power will also be greatly improved.

The more revolutions completed , , the harder it is for the soul to be destroyed.

The condition for completing the first turn is to cultivate the soul power to the second level peak.

Now, Qingtian Qi's soul power level is the third level peak, and he can naturally complete the first turn..

Chapter 2966

At that moment, Qing Tianqi began to practice the 'Six Transformations of Heavenly Soul Art'.

Since Qingtian Qi's soul power was already sufficient, his first training was very smooth.

One day later, Qingtian Qi successfully completed the first turn.

As soon as this first turn was completed, Qingtian Qi's soul power increased significantly, and his soul power broke through the bottleneck in one fell swoop, reaching level four.

And the spirit body in his consciousness sea has also been strengthened once, and the soul body has become more solid than before.

Generally speaking, the soul body is a body of light, but practicing the 'Six Transformations of Heavenly Soul Technique' can transform the body of light into a body of true soul.

However, after Qing Tianqi completed the first turn, he remembered one more thing.

At that moment, he took out a small porcelain bottle from the God of War Order space and poured out a drop of golden liquid wrapped in vitality.

Vaguely, Qing Tianqi could feel that the golden droplets were emitting powerful soul power fluctuations.

This golden droplet was the soul of the one who killed Ouyang Huai. The soul power condensed from its dissipated soul was also the purest soul power.

Judging from the intensity of this soul power fluctuation, this drop of golden liquid contains a lot of soul power!

If he refines it, he can improve his soul power a lot!

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi was secretly happy. As soon as he thought about it, he secretly ran the 'Six Transformations of Heavenly Soul Technique'. The soul power in the sea of consciousness vibrated, surrounding the soul body, forming a huge soul power vortex, and then a huge whirlpool of soul power was formed. of suction.

The drop of golden liquid in the palm of his hand immediately turned into a golden light and shot directly into the center of his eyebrows, and was actually sucked directly into the sea of consciousness by him.

At this moment, in Qingtian Qi's sea of consciousness, a pale golden mist enveloped his soul body. That was the soul power he had just absorbed, and it was being slowly refined by his soul body.

After Qing Tianqi finished refining the soul power, his face showed joy again, because his soul power had increased a lot.

After refining those soul powers, Qingtian Qi began to learn the 'Soul Seal Puppet Technique' again.

Now that Qing Tianqi cannot communicate with Qiuqiu, he can only learn the 'Soul Seal Puppet Technique' first. If he can learn the 'Soul Seal Puppet Technique', it will be an additional 'top martial arts' for him, even better than The best martial arts skills are also practical, which greatly enhances his strength.

In the blink of an eye, two days passed.

Perhaps because he had practiced the 'Sixth Transformation Soul Technique', Qingtian Qi learned the 'Soul Seal Puppet Technique' very easily, and he learned it in just two days.

Moreover, in the past two days, Qingtian Qi also refined the remaining souls of ferocious beasts in two earth-based inner elixirs into soul seals, and sealed them in the palm of his hand.

It's just that these two inner elixirs are the inner elixirs of the fifth level of Great Perfection. The summoned soul-seal puppet beasts are not very strong and are only used as test subjects by Qingtian Qi.

For Qing Tianqi, what he is most in need of right now is the sixth-level earth element inner elixir.

As long as he has an inner elixir of level six or above, he can summon a puppet beast with the power of more than 50,000 people, which is definitely a big help.

But the ten days of rest and recuperation passed in the blink of an eye.

This day is the time when the final testers gather.

The trialists gathered here one after another.

In the past ten days, the five Qingtian Qi people have made great progress.

Wu Xiaoyue's biggest achievement is that she actually learned the 'Water Image Clone Technique'.

Now that Wu Xiaoyue possesses two top-grade spiritual weapons and has learned a top-grade martial art, her overall strength has surpassed that of a fifth-level Dzogchen peak warrior, and is infinitely close to the combined strength of two fifth-level Dzogchen peak warriors.

And Bai Jinyue has also refined a lot of spiritual fruits in these ten days, and his strength has increased a lot. Although he has not yet reached the peak of fifth-level Dzogchen, he is not too far away from the peak of fifth-level Dzogchen.

Its comprehensive strength is infinitely close to the level of three fifth-level Dzogchen peak warriors, and it is infinitely close to Lian Mingyu's original strength.

With the help of the spiritual fruit, Qingtian Lord and his natal psychic beast Qingtong Huanhu finally broke through to the fifth level of perfection. This greatly increased Qingtian Lord's overall strength and was already comparable to that of Platinum Moon..

In the past ten days, Bai Lingyu also refined the two spirit-opening pills. Unfortunately, he still failed to break through the bottleneck..

Chapter 2967

Of course, the one who has made the most progress among the five is Qing Tianqi.

After these ten days of training, Qingtian Qi's basic combat power not only increased from the strength of 50,000 to 65,000 in one fell swoop, he also practiced the 'Six Transformations of Heavenly Soul Technique' and the 'Soul Seal Puppet Technique'.

At this time, most of the trialists had gathered in the hall.

There are two gates in front of the hall, which are currently blocked by two transparent light curtains.

At this moment, there was a sudden commotion in the hall, and then someone whispered:"Look! The Prince of Northern Qin is here!" At that moment, many people turned back and looked towards the entrance.

I saw the prince of Northern Qin walking into the hall with a samurai sword in his arms and an expression of pride. Behind him were six players from Northern Qin.

Afterwards, the Prince of Northern Qin and his party chose a corner to sit down in the main hall and began to wait silently for the arrival of others.

As soon as the Prince of Northern Qin entered the hall, Qingtian Qi focused on him.

As soon as the Northern Qin Prince's people entered the hall, they all looked around, seeming to be looking for something.

The Northern Qin Crown Prince and his party searched for a while, but seemed to find nothing. One of the contestants whispered: "Your Highness, no one here looks like the Wang Xi you mentioned, and there are not even many people who look like him." There is no one who is very similar. Isn't he not here?"

The Prince of Northern Qin smiled coldly: "He must be here, but that kid will change his appearance, so we can't recognize him!"

"Your Highness, since we can't find him, what should we do? The Prince of Northern Qin pondered for a while and sneered: "Don't worry, everyone here will be killed by me anyway, and the 'True Soul Pill' on Wang Xi's body will eventually fall into the hands of this Prince.""

Hearing this, the Northern Qin player also laughed and said: "Haha!! That's right. Those who are not my descendants from Northern Qin will die in our hands in the end. Even if they get the best baby, it will still be a wedding dress for others."

"good! The prince not only wants them to keep their treasures, but also their lives. After all, those who can enter here are geniuses from various countries. If they all die, it will be a blow to their country. This will be of great benefit to our Northern Qin Kingdom's hegemony without any harm!"

But in the corner of the hall, Qingtian Qi was horrified after overhearing these words through 'Tian Ting'.

He had also thought that the Prince of Northern Qin would massacre players from other countries for the Nine Yuan Fruit.

If the Prince of Northern Qin really Just for the Nine Yuan Fruit, it's okay. If you can't defeat it, you can give all the Nine Yuan Fruit to the Prince of Northern Qin, and you can exchange for a life.

In fact, in the past trials, such things of exchanging fruits for lives often happened. The situation in front of him was different from what he had imagined.

Not only did the Prince of Northern Qin want the Nine Yuan Fruit, he also wanted the lives of all non-Northern Qin players.

He didn't expect that the Prince of Northern Qin was so vicious. He actually wanted to kill everyone. This was terrible. What to do?

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi suddenly became anxious.

The Prince of Northern Qin is a sixth-level warrior. If the Prince of Northern Qin is determined to kill everyone here, no one can get out of here alive.

Because the Prince of Northern Qin He could kill anyone here in an instant. Even Chen Ting couldn't hope to last two rounds in the hands of the Northern Qin Prince.

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi felt even more uneasy. He didn't expect that things would eventually turn towards what he least wanted to see. The direction has developed, and it is still a direction of death.

Unless he can make a huge breakthrough in strength in the next time, it is possible to turn the danger into safety.

But there will only be a month and a half at most.

Because entering this ancient time The time limit for the training ground is three months, and Qingtian Qi and the others have already been here for half of the time. In the remaining one and a half months, even if Qingtian Qi makes great progress, it is impossible to have the skills from the Northern Qin Prince. chance of survival..

Chapter 2968

After thinking for a while, Qingtian Qi still had no solution in his mind.

At the moment, he told Bai Lingyu and the other four people about the news he had received, so that they could be mentally prepared.

When Bai Lingyu and the other two heard the news, they were naturally very frightened.

"It seems that the current situation is not good! It's hard to say whether the five of us can get out of here alive!"

Bai Lingyu immediately sighed softly.

"yes! I didn't expect that the people of Northern Qin would be killed like this. Qing Tianqi pondered for a while and said:"Brothers and sisters, it's good that you know about this matter. It's better not to take action for now." If the Prince of Northern Qin hears this, he will inevitably turn against us in advance, which will only be detrimental to us and will not do any good."

Hearing this, Bai Lingyu nodded and said

"makes sense! The Prince of Northern Qin still thinks that we don't know their purpose. This gives us a chance to breathe. If he knows that we have discovered their intentions, he is afraid that he will be the first to attack us, and it will be dangerous at that time."

"Um!"

The five people nodded one after another, but there was a trace of sadness in everyone's eyes.

At this moment, the last trialist also arrived at the gathering point, and now everyone has gathered.

When everyone has finished gathering, There was a strange spiritual fluctuation in the sky above the hall.

Immediately, the forehead marks of all the testers appeared and lit up.

Then, everyone had new information in their minds, which was exactly what the gods had arranged. The information of the third test.

Qingtian Qi closed his eyes slightly and digested the new information in his mind.

Originally, the palace they were in now was called the front hall of the trial hall.

The content of the third test was that after the test The Ming Palace of the Lian Hall finally passes through the 'Corridor of Life and Death' and reaches the final 'Temple of Climbing Heaven'.

According to the rules left by the gods, any trialist who finally reaches the 'Temple of Climbing Heaven' will be deemed to have passed the trial and will be sealed. As a 'trainee disciple', there will be a very special reward.

However, there are conditions for reaching the final 'Ascending the Temple of Heaven'. The first condition is that you must pass the 'Ming Palace' within one month. Those who enter the 'Corridor of Life and Death' and fail to enter the 'Corridor of Life and Death' after the time limit will be directly obliterated.

The 'Corridor of Life and Death' is a stone corridor more than 20 meters wide and about three miles long, which is the only way to the Temple of Heaven. The road is also a very good place for robbery and killing.

The second condition for entering the Temple of Heaven is that the tester must have more than three Nine Yuan Fruits. If there are less than three Nine Yuan Fruits, it will not count. Those who successfully reach the 'Temple of Heaven' will be regarded as those who have failed the trial and will be eliminated directly.

The source of those Nine Yuan Fruits is in the Ming Palace.

The Ming Palace is extremely huge, with many secret chambers and various A place where spiritual treasures are planted, but there are also machine puppets and guardian beasts. It can be said that opportunities and dangers coexist.

There are also spiritual fruits in the 'Ming Palace', but there is only one kind of spiritual fruit, that is the 'Nine Yuan Fruit'.

This 'Nine Yuan Fruit' Guo' is actually a disguised reward from the gods to the trialists.

Because according to the rules of the gods, only eighth-level warriors can be called 'disciples of the gods', and warriors below the eighth level can only be called 'trainee disciples'.

The gods also hope that those 'trainee disciples' who have passed the trial can become 'formal disciples' as soon as possible, so they use the Nine-Yuan Fruit as a reward as the goal of the third trial.

Three 'Nine-Yuan Fruit' 'Three Nine-Yuan Pills can be refined.

And three Nine-Yuan Pills can basically allow a seventh-level Dzogchen peak warrior to break through the bottleneck and become an eighth-level warrior.

The gods use three Nine-Yuan Fruits as the minimum standard, but It also contains profound meaning.

There are currently seventy trialists left. If everyone can pass, they will need at least 210 Nine Yuan Fruits.

In fact, although there are only Nine Yuan Fruits produced in the Ming Palace, the number It is also limited and cannot meet everyone's needs.

Chapter 2969

Moreover, the map of the Ming Palace given to each trialist by the gods marked five places where the Nine-Yuan Fruit is produced, implying that the trialists would go and fight for it.

Of course, in addition to these five producing areas, there are other secret places that also produce Nine-Yuan Fruit, which requires the trialist to rely on luck and find it by himself.

However, those secretive Nine Yuan Fruit producing areas are often guarded by relatively powerful guardian beasts.

This is the third test rule.

There is a message in this, though.

That is, in addition to the 'Ming Palace', there is also a 'Dark Palace'.

Trialists can also pass through the 'Dark Hall' and then through the 'Corridor of Life and Death' to reach the 'Temple of Heaven'.

However, the information clearly stated that the danger level of the 'Dark Palace' is more than ten times that of the 'Ming Palace', and there are also sixth-order ferocious beasts in it. In some extremely dangerous places, there are even seventh-order ferocious beasts..

But in the Ming Palace, there could only be one or two sixth-level ferocious beasts at most.

The number of Nine Yuan Fruits in the 'Dark Palace' is extremely limited, and the total number will definitely not exceed one-tenth of that in the Bright Palace.

However, there is one difference in the Dark Hall, that is, there are other opportunities hidden in the Dark Hall, and those opportunities can only be explored by the trialists themselves.

Another point is that every trialist has the map of the Ming Palace, but the map of the Dark Palace is not displayed.

Even if the trialist can have an adventure in the dark hall, it is hard to say whether he can get out of the dark hall within a month. He may be lost in the center and cannot find the exit.

In the end, because the time limit is up, they will be wiped out on the spot.

As for whether to go to the bright hall or the dark hall, it is up to the trialist to choose.

At that moment, the discussion among the trialists rang out in the hall.

Everyone is discussing which path to take.

However, the testers quickly made their choices, and almost all of them unanimously chose to go to the Ming Palace.

Because the Ming Palace is less dangerous, there is a map to refer to, and there are a lot of Nine Yuan Fruits inside, the chance of survival is very high if you go to the Ming Palace.

If you take the dark hall, your chances of surviving are very slim, especially if you don't know the map.

That was a map given to him by Emperor Qing, and the content of the test given to him and Lin Quan by Emperor Qing.

The map given to him by Qingdi clearly marked the 'Dark Hall', and there were also related maps of the Dark Hall. In the deepest part of the Dark Hall, there was a mysterious palace called the 'Palace of Gods'.

The test Qingdi gave him and Lin Quan was to enter the last level of the temples to find the 'treasure', and finally come out of the rune teleportation array in the temples and directly reach the exit of the 'dark temple'.

It turns out that the map Qingdi gave him was actually the map of the Dark Hall. I think he probably chose to pass through the Dark Hall that time, so he was able to make the map.

Since I have a map, I can venture into the dark palace once, and maybe I can get some adventures from it that will greatly increase my strength.

If that's the case, maybe after I come out of the dark palace, I still have a chance to survive from the prince of Northern Qin.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi decided to go to the dark hall.

At this time, Bai Lingyu also asked:"Everyone, which way do you think we should take?"

Qingtian Jun immediately smiled and said:"Of course we should take the Ming Palace. And we don't have to compete with those people for the Nine Yuan Fruit. , we are specifically looking for the secret places where the Nine-Yuan Fruit is produced. I have the 'Spirit-Asking Technique', and it is very easy to find out those secret places of origin."

After hearing this, everyone was immediately overjoyed.

They all know in their hearts the power of Qingtianjun's spiritual skills..

Chapter 2970

With Lord Qingtian's spirit-asking technique, it would be effortless to find the hiding place of the 'Nine-Yuan Fruit'. They didn't need to worry about finding a sufficient quantity of Nine-Yuan Fruit.

Wu Xiaoyue was even more happy and said:"Hehe! Yes! Brother Tianjun has spiritual skills, so we don't need to fight those people to grab the 'Nine Yuan Fruit'. It seems that the task assigned by the family this time is easy. It can be completed."

Qingtian Qi said in a deep voice:"Maybe finding the Nine-Yuan Fruit is a trivial matter for us, but how to get out of here alive with the Nine-Yuan Fruit is not that easy! Don't forget Yes, there is a Northern Qin prince waiting to kidnap and kill us."

Upon hearing this, Wu Xiaoyue frowned slightly, feeling worried.

The faces of Bai Lingyu and others also became a little ugly.

Seeing this, Qingtian Qi said again:"So this time I decided to go to the dark palace to see if I can encounter any adventures and find a way to deal with the Northern Qin Prince. Maybe this is the only hope. You four should continue to walk through the dark hall. Palace, no matter what, we still have to get the Nine Yuan Fruit first."

Upon hearing this, Qingtian Jun immediately said in shock:"Tianqi, you want to go to the Dark Palace? It is very dangerous there. You don't even know the map of the Dark Palace. No. Even if you can survive in the Dark Hall, if you can't get out of the Dark Hall, you will be wiped out."

"yes! Tianqi, are you a little rash going to the Dark Palace like this?"

"Brother Tianqi, wouldn't you like to stay with us? You may not get any adventures when you go to the Dark Palace like this. Even if you have adventures, do you think you can improve your strength to the point of confronting the Prince of Northern Qin?"

"yes! Brother Tianqi, you'd better not go to the dark hall."

Seeing how the four Qingtian Lords were concerned about him, Qingtian Qi's heart warmed up, and he immediately didn't want to hide it anymore.

At that moment, he briefly told what Qingdi had given him to experience.

When the four Qingtian Lords heard this Afterwards, he was naturally very shocked.

After a while, Bai Lingyu sighed:"I didn't expect that Qing Emperor would give you such a task. However, since you have a map in your hand, you can still take the risk. I heard that Emperor Qing had a great adventure here back then. I think he got it in the Dark Palace. Since he arranged it this way, he certainly has his reasons."

"I think you can still give it a try. If you succeed, not only can you help us escape from the hands of the Northern Qin Prince, but you can also become the Qing Emperor's apprentice. That's a double benefit!"

Qingtian Jun said:"Even so, it is still very dangerous in the dark palace. Tianqi, you still have to think carefully before making a decision!

Qing Tianqi said gratefully:"Brother Tianjun, don't worry, I know what's going on.""

At that moment, a group of five people made a decision.

Bai Lingyu and four people walked to the bright hall, and Qing Tianqi walked to the dark hall alone.

At the same time, in another corner of the hall, a group of people from the Northern Qin Kingdom were also discussing how to go..

A Northern Qin player asked respectfully: "Your Highness, what should we do next? From the looks of it, it seems that most people go to Mingdian. Should we take action in the Ming Palace? Kill them while looking for the Nine Yuan Fruit?"

"idiot!"

The prince of Northern Qin cursed angrily.

"Even if I want to kill them, I will not kill them in the Ming Palace. In this case, who will help us find the Nine Yuan Fruit? Most of the Nine Yuan Fruits in this Ming Palace are produced in secret places. The five places marked on this map are only a small part of them."

"If our Northern Qin country wants to become stronger, the more spiritual fruits the better. This requires more people to discover the spiritual fruits in hidden places. If we kill them all, who will find the spiritual fruit?"

"What His Highness the Crown Prince is saying is, when will His Highness the Crown Prince plan to take action again? The Prince of Northern Qin smiled coldly:"

Isn't there another place called the 'Corridor of Life and Death'?" It is the only way to reach the Temple of Heaven. I will go to the "Corridor of Life and Death" to guard in a moment, and kill one by one. None of them can even think of leaving. Ha ha!!"

"Ha ha!! His Royal Highness is still smart!"

Hearing this, all the Northern Qin players were overjoyed and began to flatter themselves one after another.

The Northern Qin prince also immediately laughed and said: "Haha!! Let's do this, Liu Ying, you and I can rush to the 'Corridor of Life and Death' first and guard the pass. The remaining five of you will go to the Ming Palace to look for the Nine Yuan Fruit!"

"yes! Your Highness!"

All the Northern Qin players immediately responded..
