

God level 3011

Chapter 3011

But the next count surprised Qingtian Qi even more.

First, he found a 'Na Ring' in Long Xiaotian's hand, which belonged to Chen Ting.

In the 'Najie', in addition to Chen Ting's Thunder Spirit Sword, several thunder martial arts, and related elixirs, there were actually three 'Spirit Opening Pills' inside.

However, what surprised Qing Tianqi the most was what he gained from those seven or eight skeletons.

Those skeletons may have been severely injured before they died, so their spiritual armors were all broken. Only a few spiritual swords were still intact, and one of them, a golden spiritual weapon, was a top-grade spiritual sword.

It's just that these spirit armor and spirit swords are covered with the dust of time and have lost their former luster, making it difficult for people to notice their existence.

Qingtian Qi didn't care so much and put away all the spirit swords and broken spirit armors.

Then, he began to search for treasures from the items scattered around the skeletons.

He found that most of the scattered items were medicine bottles containing elixirs, dried spiritual fruits, and martial arts jade tablets.

Most of the elixirs have already deteriorated over time and cannot be used.

However, Qing Tianqi unexpectedly discovered three 'True Soul Pills' and one 'Opening Spirit Pill' among the spoiled pills.

After so many years, the 'True Soul Pill' and 'Kailing Pill' showed no signs of deterioration. They were obviously not comparable to ordinary grade pills. This discovery surprised Qingtian Qi.

This also made him understand that among the dead people in front of him, they were all top experts. One even won the first place in the second test and received two 'True Soul Pills'. Unfortunately, he still died. Being here gives me an advantage.

Afterwards, Qing Tianqi put away the 'True Soul Pill' and 'Opening Spirit Pill' with satisfaction.

Now, he has four 'True Soul Pills' and 'Opening Spirit Pills' each.

After taking inventory of these things, Qingtian Qi began to have time to study the 'god-possessed puppet'.

Just looking at the entire body of this puppet is worth a lot of money, comparable to its top-grade spiritual weapon!

With its solid and hard body, it doesn't need any defensive weapons at all.

"Huh! This silver sword turned out to be a top-quality spiritual sword. It is indeed a good puppet with both offense and defense. good! good!"

Looking at the god-possessed puppet, Qingtian Qi's eyes were full of excitement.

Then he continued to study it carefully.

After a full half-day of research, Qingtian Qi finally understood the god-possessed puppet.

He was immediately happy in his heart. Said:"It turns out that this spiritual puppet needs to be driven by gold energy, and Long Xing is a fire warrior, so he simply cannot exert the true power of the divine puppet!"

"Otherwise, with the stimulation of his fifth-level soul power, the fighting power of this puppet would be incomparable to even the sixth-level Dzogchen peak warrior! It seems that I am lucky. If Long Xing had allowed him to unleash the true power of the possessed puppet, I would have died in his hands long ago."

"Long Xing can't exert the power of this god-possessed puppet, but it's no problem for me. I am a five-element warrior and a soul mutant. This god-possessed puppet is also a gold-element soul weapon, so it can play a real role in my hands."

"I didn't expect that guy Long Xing gave me such a big gift. In my opinion, the value of this god-possessed puppet is no worse than a semi-artifact!"

Although this god-possessed puppet is powerful, many people cannot use it even if they get it.

Because the god-possessed puppet is a soul weapon, only soul cultivators or ninth-level warriors can use it. Even if others get it, it will be useless.

However, this possessed puppet is useless. The power of the god puppet in the hands of the soul cultivator will be extremely terrifying.

"Although this possessed puppet is good, I can't control it until I learn the 'Soul Splitting Technique'. I just don't know how strong the soul power of the split soul will be after I learned the soul splitting operation. The stronger the soul power of the split soul, the stronger the combat effectiveness of this possessed puppet will be."

"It seems that I have to continue to improve my soul power. Only with stronger soul power can I create stronger souls. Let's wait until I improve my soul power a little more."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi replaced the broken soul crystal in the brain of the god-possessed puppet and replaced it with a new soul crystal, making the god-possessed puppet whole again.

In the second test, Qingtian Qi He got two soul crystals, which can be used as replacements.

When he killed the humanoid stone statue before, he also got a larger soul crystal.

After doing this, Qingtian Qi took the god-possessed puppet into the space of the God of War. inside.

At the same time, he also put the 'Na Ring' on his hand.

Now, the space of Qingtian Qi War God Order is filled with various spiritual weapons and fruits, occupying nearly half of the space.

With the 'Na Ring', It also alleviated Qingtian Qi's urgent need for storage space.

After handling these trivial matters, Qingtian Qi had time to sit down and refine the soul power of the animal-shaped stone statue that he had absorbed not long ago..

Chapter 3012

This time, Qing Tianqi only spent two hours to refine all the soul power of the beast-shaped stone statue, and his soul power naturally improved a lot, which made him secretly happy for a while.

This is also because he has reached the second level of practicing the 'Sixth Transformation Heavenly Soul Technique' and the speed of refining the 'soul power' has accelerated. He was able to refine all the soul power of the animal-shaped stone statue in such a short period of time.

"It seems that it is better to hunt some high-level ferocious beasts in order to speed up the improvement of soul power! After I get out, I want to find a way to increase my soul power as soon as possible. However, now it's time to open the teleportation array and enter the 'Temple of Gods'. I've been staying here for twenty-two days."

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi looked at the teleportation array in front. Through the teleportation array in front, he can enter the temples.

At this moment, there is nothing that can stop him.....

At that moment, Qingtian Qi summoned Qiuqiu and strode to the center of the teleportation array with Qiuqiu. He pressed one hand on the rune stone pillar in the center of the teleportation array and began to slowly input vitality.

In the blink of an eye, Qing Tianqi's energy input time reached thirty breaths, and the entire rune array began to light up with white light.

Gradually, the white light became more and more dazzling, rotating at high speed outside the array, forming a white light swirl.....

The entire formation roared, and with a flash of white light, Qingtian Qi and Qiuqiu disappeared into the teleportation formation out of thin air.

The whole hall immediately became empty and very quiet.

After a long time, a cold voice echoed in the quiet hall.....

"He actually came back again, interesting! Then this time, let you two beasts die together!"

As these words fell, a strange spiritual fluctuation came in the air.

Then the earth fluctuated, and two guardian stone statues slowly rose from the ground, silently guarding the teleportation array.

But on the other side, the blue sky was just He felt a flash of white light in front of his eyes, and countless space scenes seemed to pass by him. The universe, stars and other visions appeared in front of him again.

When the vision in front of him disappeared, Qingtian Qi paused and found himself in a large hall..

Looking at the main hall in front of them, both Qingtian Qi and Qiuqiu showed shocked expressions.

The main hall in front of them was very grand, hundreds of feet high, and the carved pillars were each more than ten feet thick.

Qing Tianqi raised his head and couldn't see clearly what the top of the hall looked like. At this moment, he felt that he was as small as an ant in front of this magnificent hall, like a small ant crawling into the place where humans live.

"This is the pantheon of gods! So magnificent!"

Qingtian Qi couldn't help but sigh, and then he brought Qiuqiu down from the teleportation array.

Just as Qingtian Qi stepped out of the teleportation array, the trial mark on his forehead lit up again, and then another thought came to his mind. There was a little more information.

At the moment, Qing Tianqi finished digesting the information, and his face showed joy.

"We finally arrived at the Temple of Gods, Qiuqiu, let's go! The gods are calling us right ahead, and the rewards of the five-element divine elixir are waiting for us! Ha ha!!"

After saying this, Qingtian Qi strode forward.

"Roar!"

Qiuqiu also roared and followed closely, but there was some inexplicable anxiety in its eyes.

Not long after, Qingtian Qi came to a long corridor based on the map he knew.

I don't know if it was because he was too The reason for the insignificance was that the huge corridor was too long.

Qingtian Qi and Qiuqiu walked a full fifty or sixty miles before reaching the end of the corridor.

The gate at the end of the corridor was two to three hundred feet high. It was closed by a white light curtain, making it difficult for people to see clearly what was going on inside the light curtain.

Looking at the tall light curtain door, Qing Tianqi felt an inexplicable awe in his heart.

"Passing through the light curtain door is the main hall of the gods, and the teleportation array at the exit is also inside."

Qingtian Qi thought in his heart.

But at this moment, Qiuqiu behind Qingtian Qi suddenly flashed red eyes, roared, and rushed towards the extremely huge light curtain door with great excitement.

It seemed that the light curtain Is there anything exciting within it?...

Chapter 3013

Seeing this, Qing Tianqi's eyes showed surprise and he shouted quickly:"Qiuqiu! What are you going to do?"

"Roar!"

Qiuqiu roared, ignoring Qing Tianqi, and rushed directly towards the light curtain door.

Boom! There was a loud noise.

Qiuqiu's huge body was directly bounced out by the light screen door, and dozens of people were ejected directly. Ten feet away, he fell heavily on the bluestone floor, causing rubble to fly everywhere on the ground.

"Ball ball! Qingtian

Qi immediately looked at Qiuqiu worriedly.

He saw Qiuqiu crawling up from the ground in a panic, looking at the light curtain door in front of him in fear.

Seeing that Qiuqiu was not injured, Qingtian Qi breathed a sigh of relief.

Immediately, another question came to his mind, and he immediately became anxious.

"How could Qiuqiu not be able to pass through this light curtain door? Does this light gate have restrictions on ferocious beasts? If Qiuqiu can't go in, that will be troublesome. I can't just leave Qiuqiu here alone, right? By the way, I will first put the ball into the War God's Token space to see if I can bring it in."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi immediately summoned Qiuqiu to his side, and then whispered a few words in its ear.

Qiuqiu immediately nodded knowingly.

Then, Qingtian Qi put Qiuqiu into the space of the God of War Order, and then Taking a deep breath, he walked towards the light curtain door with some uneasiness.

He was worried that he wouldn't be able to get through. If he couldn't get into the main hall inside, he wouldn't even think about walking out of the dark hall.

However, let Qingtian Fortunately for Qi, this time he passed through the light curtain door easily.

After passing through the light curtain door, what was revealed in front of Qing Tian Qi was an extremely grand hall.

As soon as he entered the hall, Qing Tian Qi felt the surroundings. The air was filled with the spiritual energy of the five elements, and the vitality of the five elements.

As soon as those five elements of spiritual energy were inhaled into his body, Qingtian Qi felt refreshed and relaxed.

This immediately surprised Qingtian Qi. Unexpectedly, there was so much in the air around here. What is filled is not the five elements of vitality, but the five elements of spiritual energy.

The five elements of spiritual energy are one level higher than the five elements of vitality!

I heard that after a warrior reaches the seventh level, it is extremely difficult to make any progress in the vitality environment, so many warriors are in their seventies or eighties. He cultivated to the seventh level before he was 20 years old, but in the following hundreds of years, he may not even be able to reach the peak of the seventh level, and has always stayed at the seventh level. In fact, it is because the cultivation level of the seventh level warrior is in the vitality environment. It's hard to make any progress."

But in ancient times, after warriors reached the seventh level of cultivation, they would enter the 'Spirit Realm Blessed Land' to practice.

Those spiritual realm blessed places refer to places where the aura in the environment is the aura of the five elements, not the vitality of the five elements.

Only by cultivating in the blessed land of the spiritual realm can a seventh-level warrior's cultivation progress increase at the normal rate.

It's a pity that the continent is now lacking vitality, and the 'Spirit Realm Blessed Land' in ancient times has disappeared. It is increasingly difficult for seventh-level warriors to cultivate to eighth level.

But this hall is magical!

The air is filled with the aura of the five elements.

From this point of view, this is also a 'blessed place in the spiritual realm'. If I practice here for one day, I can at least practice outside for half a month!

It's a pity that this is the Temple of Gods. I can't stay here for a few days before leaving. Otherwise, if I practice here for a period of time, my cultivation will be greatly improved.

By the way, don't I still have some spiritual fruits on me?

Let's go back and practice here for a few days before leaving. Improve our strength and be more confident when facing the Northern Qin Prince. That guy must be blocking everyone's path in the 'Corridor of Life and Death'.

By the way, Qiuqiu's previous strangeness couldn't be because he found out that this was a spiritual realm, so he was so excited, right?

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi had some doubts in his heart....

However, he didn't think too much and continued to move forward.

The main hall is very large, more than ten miles wide in circumference.

Qing Tianqi stood at the door of the hall and vaguely saw a rune array in the center of the hall.

It's just that the distance was too far, so he couldn't see it clearly.

At that moment, Qingtian Qi walked towards the rune formation..

Chapter 3014

When Qing Tianqi walked to the rune array, he determined that the rune array was a teleportation array and was also the exit from the dark palace.

Next to the teleportation array, there is a corpse.

There were sword wounds on the bones, and it was obvious that there had been a fierce fight before him. All the valuable things on his body had been taken away, and there were only some useless empty bottles scattered around.

Seeing this, Qing Tianqi couldn't help but guess that it was not only Qing Emperor who passed through the teleportation array guarded by the guardian stone statue, but also another person.

It's just that another person died in Qingdi's hands.

Then, after taking another look at the teleportation array, Qingtian Qi did not stop and continued walking forward.

There is a light door ahead.

It was a light door that was only seventy or eighty feet high.

In front of the light gate, there are two thirty-foot-high golden armored guards standing on both sides of the light gate, lifeless, as if guarding the light gate.

Looking at the two golden-armored guards, Qing Tianqi felt inexplicably awe-inspiring.

However, he still did not stop.

Following the information prompts from the gods, enter the light door in front and enter the inner temple.

In the inner hall, there was the reward of the five-system divine elixir that he wanted to get.

However, there is a premise for this, that is, only one person can receive the reward.

The extra people either choose to leave through the teleportation array, or duel with each other to fight for the only spot.

Now, only Qingtian Qi survives in this dark palace, so he doesn't have to think so much.

Not long after, Qingtian Qi walked near the light door.

The two golden-armored guards guarding the light door immediately came to life, their eyes glowing red, and then they slowly lowered their heads and looked down at the blue sky below.

At the same time, the two golden-armored guards exuded extremely terrifying aura, and both had reached the eighth level.

As soon as he felt the terrifying aura, Qing Tianqi's face changed slightly, and he looked up anxiously.

When he raised his head, he was surprised to find that hidden inside the two golden helmets were two faces that looked like humans and apes. The faces were withered, as if they had been dead for a long time, and they looked lifeless.

At this time, the two golden-armored guards glanced at Qingtian Qi for a while, then each took a step back, and actually gave way to let Qingtian Qi pass.

Qingtian Qi was overjoyed. He knew that he had passed the test of the golden armored guards. He was the only one alive and the only one qualified to receive the five-line divine elixir reward.

At that moment, Qing Tianqi stepped through the light door without hesitation and entered the inner hall.

Qingtian Qi just entered the inner hall, and there was an additional message in his mind

"My child, welcome to the Five Elements Temple. You are the second person to enter this place."

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi was pleasantly surprised, but he vaguely felt that something was wrong.

As for what was wrong, Qingtian Qi didn't think much about it for a while, but looked around the hall.

He saw five elements directly in front of the Five Elements Temple. There is a stone-carved Taishi chair that is dozens of feet high.

Each of the five giant chairs sits five giants with a height of nearly a hundred feet.

Qingtian Qi is as small as an ant in front of those five giants.

When Qingtian Qi saw these five at a glance When he saw the giants, his heart skipped a beat and he was startled.

Then, after careful identification, Qingtian Qi discovered that the five giants were five jade statues, but they were carved vividly, as if they were alive. The giant statue sitting in the middle was , is an old man with yellowish hair, even majestic appearance, and there is a strange rune on his forehead.

On the left and right sides of the old man, there are two giant statues sitting on each side, two men and two women.

Both women are stunning women. , one is elegant and unpretentious, and the other is tender and charming.

Two men, one is a middle-aged man, and the other is a handsome young man.

Seeing these five statues, Qingtian Qi couldn't help but sigh.

"These five people should be the 'gods' of the pantheon of gods! Exactly five people, wouldn't they correspond to the five gods of metal, wood, water, fire and earth, right? It is said that in ancient times, the gods fell, and now there are only five statues left. The changes in the world are just like this!"

Qingtian Qi sighed in his heart, and turned his eyes to both sides of the hall.

On both sides of the hall, there are three rune stone gates on the left and two rune stone gates on the right. Each stone gate is ten feet high.

The five stone gates are connected respectively. Go to the 'Golden Temple', 'Wood Temple', 'Water Temple', 'Fire Temple' and 'Earth Temple'.

When you reach the deepest part of each temple, you can get a corresponding five-system divine elixir...

Chapter 3015

However, Qingtian Qi only had one choice, and he could only enter one of the temples.

At that moment, Qing Tianqi hesitated. He didn't know which temple he should choose.

Five series of magic pills, no matter which series of magic pills, can create a 'celestial spirit body'.

A 'celestial spirit body' warrior is a quasi-ninth-level warrior.

No matter how many eighth-level warriors the five tribes produce, they can't compare to one ninth-level warrior.

The five tribes wanted revenge on Long Xing, so they could only have a few more ninth-level warriors.

Now our five clans already have two ninth-level masters, senior Teng Xiaoshan and the head of the Bai family. Decades later, I can also have the strength of the ninth level with the power of Ling'er.

But such strength is still no match for Long Xing!

Long Xing is a peak ninth-level master. Even if three ninth-level masters join forces, they may not be able to deal with him. Besides, Long Xing also has several powerful helpers.

To deal with Long Xing and the others, our five tribes need at least two ninth-level masters.

This time, the magic elixir I brought back must help our five tribes produce another ninth-level warrior in the shortest possible time.

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi had a flash of light, as if he had thought of something.

Senior Qing Yanhai is an eighth-level Dzogchen warrior, and his aptitude is that of a pseudo-spiritual body. If he takes the 'Wood God Pill', he will probably become a ninth-level warrior in just a few years.

I think it's him! Both the Teng family and the Bai family already have ninth-level warriors, and it's time for our Qing family to produce a true ninth-level warrior.

At that moment, Qing Tianqi decided to receive the reward of the Wood God Pill.

I saw him striding to the rune stone door leading to the wooden temple.

On the stone door, there is a wooden sacred flower 'Nine-leaf Holy Lotus' carved on it, and there are golden runes engraved around it.

Qing Tianqi followed the instructions of the gods, bit his fingertips, and popped a drop of blood toward the stone door.

The stone gate immediately absorbed Qingtian Qi's essence and blood, and the runes on it began to glow with golden aura. Then a golden light shot out from the nine-leaf holy lotus and shot directly into Qingtian Qi's eyebrows.

Qing Tianqi vaguely felt that there was something more in his mind.

At the moment, he quickly returned his thoughts to the sea of consciousness to observe, but he was surprised to find that there was a strange golden mark on the forehead of his soul body.

Seeing that golden mark, Qing Tianqi felt inexplicably uneasy. He didn't know why the gods wanted to leave marks on his soul.

Then, he tried to use his soul power to clear the mark, but unexpectedly, as soon as his soul power touched the mark, Qing Tianqi felt a sharp sting in his soul, almost as if he would collapse immediately.

If he tried to forcibly remove the golden mark, his soul would eventually collapse and die.

Qingtian Qi was so frightened that he immediately withdrew his soul power and did not dare to care about it anymore.

At this time, the rune stone door in front of him made a dull sound, and then slowly opened, revealing a long corridor.

Just when Qing Tianqi was about to enter the wooden temple, his expression changed slightly and he looked at the God of War Order in his hand.

Because he felt that Qiuqiu became restless in the space of the God of War, constantly conveying to him what he wanted to say.

"Huh! What's wrong with this little guy? This seems to be the first time it has actively asked to come out."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi still released Qiuqiu.

With a flash of white light, a fluffy little guy appeared in the hall. It was Qiuqiu who had been anxious to come out. But as soon as Qiuqiu came out , , he roared, his figure skyrocketed, and he turned into a fighting state in an instant.

Seeing Qiuqiu like this, Qingtian smiled and said:"Little guy, what's wrong with you? How come it's like facing a formidable enemy?"

As he said that, Qing Tianqi was about to step forward to comfort Qiuqiu.

But unexpectedly, Qiuqiu suddenly turned around, his eyes flashed fiercely, and he stared at Qing Tianqi sinisterly, with a cold smile on his lips.

Then His expression and temperament were completely different from those of Qiuqiu before.

Seeing this, Qingtian was horrified and asked:"Qiuqiu! What's wrong with you?"..

Chapter 3016

But unexpectedly, Qiuqiu didn't bother to pay attention to him. Instead, he looked at the surrounding hall and burst out laughing.

"The pantheons! The Lord is back again! Ha ha!!"

Before Qing Tianqi understood what this meant,

Qiuqiu suddenly roared, jumped into the air, and then opened its mouth wide. The five elements of spiritual energy around it immediately poured into its huge mouth crazily. Its momentum It also improved steadily.

At the same time, a shadow of the hundred-foot-long holy beast Taotie appeared behind it.

Seeing such a scene, Qingtian Qi suddenly understood everything

"It's not a ball! It's the devil! It's the demon god's soul that has taken over Qiuqiu's body. Could it be that Qiuqiu's soul has been swallowed by the devil?"

When he thought of this, Qing Tianqi's heart suddenly ached, and he looked angrily at the phantom of the demon god in the sky.

In just a moment, Qiuqiu's body grew from three feet to more than ten feet, and his aura reached the eighth level. The level of Qingtian Qi was frightened by the momentum emanating from Qiuqiu, and he involuntarily stepped back.

"Roar!"

With a roar to the sky, Qiuqiu finally absorbed all the energy. His huge body fought in the air, and his eyes shot out two golden lights.

"It's a pity that this body is too weak and can only allow me to temporarily reach the eighth level of strength. However, this is barely enough."

After saying this, Qiuqiu slowly looked down at the blue sky below, and sneered: "You are a little human like an ant, how dare you be the master of the incarnation of this god? snort! You can die now!"

As soon as he said these words, Qiuqiu swatted Qingtian Qi with his claws, as if he was trying to kill a fly.

Qingtian Qi was frightened out of his wits. He wanted to dodge, but found that the surrounding space had been locked by Qiuqiu, and he couldn't even move. I could only watch the claw fall.

"It seems that I am really doomed this time! Qiuqiu, I didn't expect you to be devoured by the devil so quickly. I'm going to accompany you too!"

Looking at the falling giant claw, a burst of heartbroken grief suddenly surged in Qingtian Qi's heart.

But just when the giant claw was about to fall, Qiuqiu in the air suddenly roared in pain, retracted the giant claw, and hugged his head tightly. , actually rolled in pain in the air.

It was howling in its mouth:"You unworthy thing, do you really think that human being is your relative? I am your ancestor! How dare you resist me? You unworthy thing! good! good! I won't kill him! I won't kill him!"

Qiuqiu was struggling and rolling painfully in the air while holding its head tightly.

It seemed like something was fighting in its head.

This scene immediately surprised Qingtian Qi.

After a long while, Qiuqiu stood up with a sluggish expression. , slowly fell from the sky, and looked at the blue sky with a cold expression.

"Damn little thief, you are lucky this time! I don't have time to devour that little thing's soul now. After I finish processing some things, I will refine the soul of that little thing and let this body completely become my incarnation. If you don't want to die, then get out of here before I come back!"

Then with a final roar, Qiuqiu swung out a claw wind at will.

That claw wind swept Qingtian Qi into the air.

Qingtian Qi suddenly screamed, vomited blood and flew backwards.

The difference in strength between the two was too big, Qiuqiu only had one claw. The wind caused Qingtian Qi to vomit blood and get injured

"Ha ha!!"

Qiuqiu laughed proudly, and then he no longer cared about Qingtian Qi, but turned to look at the rune stone door leading to the 'Earth Temple'

"Ha ha!! I felt the breath of my second brother, but it was too weak. Is that kid still alive? I'm going to check it out now!"

Then, Qiuqiu roared again, and shot out a divine light of destruction from his forehead, which blasted the stone door to pieces, revealing the passage inside.

Qiuqiu laughed, and wanted to rush into the 'Earth Temple'. In the blink of an eye, Qiuqiu's figure disappeared..

Chapter 3017

The main hall was empty except for the terrified Qing Tianqi, who looked in horror at the direction where Qiuqiu disappeared.

After a while, Qingtian Qi slowly stood up and swallowed a healing pill.

This time, he was not seriously injured.

It turns out that Qiuqiu's soul has not been devoured yet, but it will only be a matter of time before Qiuqiu is devoured by him!

Why! This is how to do?

By the way, why is this demon god in such a hurry to go to the Earth Temple?

Does it have any hidden secrets?

Why don't I step forward to investigate, maybe I can seize the opportunity to save the ball.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi felt a little lucky in his heart.

Then, he looked back at the Wooden Temple and said secretly: "It seems that there is no time to get the 'Wood God Pill' in the Wooden Temple for the time being. I have to go to the Tutu Temple to find the ball quickly to avoid losing it."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi sighed, took out the 'Invisibility Talisman' to make himself invisible, and then directly entered the Earth Temple and followed Qiuqiu's trail.

That invisibility magic is a magical skill.

After becoming invisible, even ninth-level warriors would find it difficult to detect it. It was precisely because of this that Qingtian Qi dared to track Qiuqiu.

However, after Qingtian Qi entered the Earth Temple, he followed Qiuqiu's footsteps.

However, his speed is far inferior to Qiuqiu.

About three hours later, Qingtian Qi followed the footsteps and arrived at the deepest hall of the Earth Temple.

A large hole was blown into the wall at the front of the hall.

The roar of the ball was faintly heard from behind the hole.

However, what surprised Qing Tianqi was that there was a jade platform in the center of the hall.

There was a yellow elixir emitting spiritual light floating on the jade platform, and there was no protection around it.

As soon as he saw the yellow pill, Qing Tianqi's heart skipped a beat. He immediately thought of something and his face showed a look of joy.

"Judging from the appearance of this yellow pill, it looks very much like the Fire God Pill I got back then. Could this yellow pill be the 'Earth God Pill'? I think so, haha!! Unexpectedly, by following the Demon God this time, I got an Earth God Pill for nothing."

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi walked to the stone platform without hesitation and put the Earth God Pill into his pocket.

Maybe the demon god doesn't like this pill, but in Qing Tian Qi's eyes, it is a peerless treasure..

In fact, this Earth God Pill is a peerless treasure among any warrior.

After putting away the 'Earth God Pill', Qingtian Qi's originally dull mood finally got better.

But at this moment, something happened outside the cave. Thinking of the violent bombardment and the roar of Qiuqiu.

Hearing these sounds, Qingtian focused on Qiuqiu and hurriedly walked towards the hole. He was also curious about what was happening outside the hole.

After passing through that Through the hole in the wall, Qingtian Qi found that he had entered another world.

There was no longer a temple around, but a barren mountain range. There was black and red soil everywhere, and there was not a trace of blue. The sky and the earth were dim, and the air was filled with darkness. There was no sun, a breeze blew, and there was a fishy smell mixed with the soil.

Qing Tianqi looked back and saw a towering temple hundreds of feet high standing behind him.

Obviously, the ball had penetrated the temple. The wall has gone out of the temple.

Now, Qingtian Qi is outside the temple and no longer inside the temple.

"What happened before?"

Qingtian Qi heard a violent collision in front of him and was very curious.

At that moment, he turned on the invisibility technique, and as soon as his figure flashed, he rushed forward.

After walking for more than a thousand meters, Qingtian Qi followed the sound and came to a place Huge valley.

As soon as he entered the valley, Qingtian Qi was shocked by the sight in front of him and couldn't help but take a deep breath of air..

Chapter 3018

I saw the blue sky in front of me, and lying across the body was the skeleton of a giant beast, nearly a thousand feet long, and the end could hardly be seen.

The blue sky stands in front of it, and it is even smaller than an ant.

What shocked Qing Tianqi even more was that the skeleton of the giant beast that had been dead for who knows how many years was as white as jade, exuding a faint aura, and vaguely exuding an awe-inspiring and terrifying aura.

Qing Tianqi stood under the skeleton, feeling an inexplicable fear in his heart.

"What kind of beast is this? How terrible! Even if only a skeleton is left after death, it can still be frightening. I think this beast is definitely not a ninth-level beast. It is impossible for a ninth-level ferocious beast to have such momentum. Could it be a holy beast?"

When he thought of the holy beast, Qingtian Qi's eyes were full of disbelief.

The holy beast is a god-like existence, almost immortal.

Even the ninth-order Dzogchen peak warrior can be crushed by the holy beast with one finger. Kill.

But in front of him, there was the skeleton of a holy beast. How could this not shock Qing Tianqi?

"Oh my God! Even the holy beasts have fallen here, outside the temple of the gods. Could it be that the fall of this holy beast is related to the fall of the gods? Is it also related to the devil?"

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi vaguely felt that he had touched something.

At the moment, he did not continue to guess, but walked carefully along the skeleton of the giant beast in the direction of the collision sound, which was also deep in the valley.

Not long after walking, Qing Tianqi was suddenly attracted by something not far away

"Huh! what is that?"

Qing Tianqi looked at the ground in front of him in surprise.

On the ground, there was a small group of purple-gold liquid, emitting a faint spiritual light.

When Qing Tianqi approached, he could really feel the purple-gold liquid in the group. Containing extremely majestic energy.

At that moment, he squatted down curiously and carefully observed the purple-gold liquid.

Vaguely, Qingtian could smell the purple-gold liquid emitting a special fragrance.

However, that fragrance There was also a trace of blood mixed in it.

As soon as he smelled the blood, Qingtian Qi suddenly had a flash of inspiration in his mind, and he instantly understood what was in front of him.

Oh my God! This is the essence and blood of the holy beast.

After the death of the holy beast The blood essence and blood flowed out!

Such a big holy beast will definitely shed a lot of blood essence and blood after death.

The holy beast is indeed a holy beast. I don't know how many years it has been dead, but its essence and blood can still be well preserved. This This thing is definitely a treasure!

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi immediately took out an empty porcelain bottle and collected the essence and blood of the holy beast. The essence and blood of the holy beast is the ordinary blood of the holy beast, and it is far inferior to the quality of the true blood of the holy beast. But it is not something that ordinary warriors can get, not even ninth-level warriors. It is an adventure for Qingtian Qi to get this holy beast essence and blood.

However, this holy beast essence and blood is the same as the holy beast's true blood. It cannot be refined by ordinary warriors, and it is difficult for even ninth-level warriors to absorb and refine it.

In other words, many people will have no use even if they get the blood essence of the holy beast, but this is different for Qingtian Qi..

If he were an ordinary martial artist, he would have to increase his body strength to the limit of one hundred thousand people.

Then once the fourth gate is opened, the hidden and external veins in my body will be connected.

At that time, the hidden veins will The two qi of yin and yang flowing internally will automatically merge with the qi of the five elements flowing in the outer veins, which will definitely produce some strange phenomena!

As for what kind of phenomenon it is, I don't know.

According to common sense, the combat effectiveness must have an increase in amplitude. Yes.

However, these will not be known until the fourth door is opened.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi carefully put away the bottle containing the blood essence and continued walking deeper into the valley.

However, he was careful as he walked. He looked around to see if there was any holy beast essence and blood.

Fortunately, there was indeed a lot of holy beast essence and blood. Qingtian Qi collected more than a dozen groups of blood essence and blood along the way, which was enough to fill two small porcelain bottles. Make Qingtian Qi very satisfied..

Chapter 3019

Not long after, Qingtian Qi arrived deep in the valley.

From a distance, he saw a floating altar deep in the valley.

A cloud of gray air is trapped in the center of the altar....

There was a ferocious beast-like soul in the gray air that was struggling desperately, but it looked extremely weak.....

And there were six golden light seals spinning around it, all of which were constantly shooting golden light into the gray air, seeming to be consuming the soul of the ferocious beast.

There is also a transparent light shield covering the entire altar, which seems to be protecting the altar inside.

At this moment, the ball controlled by the demon's split soul has transformed into a body of more than twenty feet. It is constantly attacking the transparent light mask and roaring in anger.

"hehe!! Poor second brother! I didn't expect that your physical body was cut off, even your soul body was about to be killed by that old guy. According to this situation, it won't be long before you are completely dead! But don't worry! Brother, I'm here to rescue you today!"

As if hearing the roar of Qiuqiu, the soul of the ferocious beast in the center of the altar immediately sensed it, became excited, and began to struggle even harder.

Qingtian Qi, who was invisible not far away, saw this and suddenly felt heartbroken. Shocked.

However, he quickly understood something and immediately thought deeply.....

The demon called the beast soul trapped in the center of the altar 'second brother', indicating that the beast soul was once a holy beast.

It seems to be the soul body of this huge beast bone.

I don't know what kind of holy beast it is? Did he end up like this?

Not only was the physical body turned into withered bones, but even the soul body was almost consumed.

Who trapped it in this altar?

Couldn't it be the gods?

Could it be that the fall of the gods in this pantheon was due to the work of the demon god in collaboration with some holy beasts?"

Just when Qing Tianqi was secretly guessing, another violent roar suddenly came from the air ahead.....

"Break it for me!"

With this roar, Qiuqiu shot a 'divine light of destruction' towards the altar mask.

Boom!

There was a loud noise, and the mask suddenly shattered

"Ha ha!! This altar was finally broken by me!"

As soon as the light mask was shattered, Qiuqiu laughed triumphantly, and then shot out a beam of God-breaking light, destroying one of the light seals.

Immediately, the entire floating altar was shattered.

Qiuqiu immediately made a move with his giant claw, and He sucked the gray air into his claws, looked at the weak beast soul inside with his two giant eyes, shook his head and sighed.

"Why! Poor second brother! Looking at you like this, you probably won't be able to recover even after sleeping for thousands of years! It hurts to see it as a big brother!"

Hearing Qiuqiu's words, the beast soul in the air ball showed a look of gratitude.

At this time, Qiuqiu showed a sad look and said

"I think back then, our four great demon gods, Taotie, Chaos, Qiongqi, and Yaozu, were invincible in all walks of life. Even the five gods in this pantheon of gods were killed by us. It's a pity that although we won that battle and Qiongqi and Yongzhu were nowhere to be found, you were left in such a miserable state."

"But I was sealed by the God of War who arrived later, and I still can't escape the trap. I thought the four great demon gods would collapse and separate like this!"

"All of this was ultimately caused by the God of War. The treasures that the four of us worked hard to grab were all taken away by that guy. If I get out of trouble this time, I will definitely settle the score with that guy and take back our things."

Having said this, Qiuqiu paused again and pondered for a while.

"Second brother, I don't think it's better than this. Anyway, you are about to dissipate and it is difficult to recover, so you might as well fulfill my incarnation! Let the strength of my incarnation increase and save my true body!"

As soon as Qiuqiu said these words, the expression of the gray soul immediately changed....

But before it could react, Qiuqiu immediately let out a ferocious laugh and pinched the beast's soul with a giant claw, crushing it to pieces.

Then, Qiuqiu opened his mouth again and sucked the broken souls into his mouth.

However, it was said that as soon as Qiuqiu inhaled the broken soul body into his body, his whole body was illuminated with aura, his body shape skyrocketed, and his aura also increased steadily.

"Roar!"

A shocking roar shook the entire valley..

Chapter 3020

Qiuqiu's body suddenly swelled to fifty or sixty feet long, and his momentum instantly increased to the peak of the eighth-level Great Perfection.

"Ha ha!! The soul of the second brother is really a great tonic! The soul power that caused my split soul to increase a lot. The stronger my soul power is, the better I can activate the true blood power hidden in this body, haha!!"

Qiuqiu laughed heartily, then pressed his giant paw down in the air and let out a low roar.

"Use the soul as a guide, think the blood spirit as a guide!"

With this low roar, behind Qiuqiu, the huge shadows of the holy beast Taotie and the holy beast Chaos were revealed successively, exuding a terrifying momentum, only the shadow of Chaos was relatively dim.

Then, a mysterious wave appeared. Power came to the entire valley, and even Qingtian Qi was shrouded in that mysterious power, which made him feel uneasy.

Fortunately, Qingtian Qi was protected by the invisibility talisman. Under the shroud of that mysterious power, he could not Qiuqiu was not discovered by Qiuqiu.

At this time, Qiuqiu in the air roared again:"Ning!""

As soon as the roar ended, countless purple-gold mist was seen. Under the influence of the previous mysterious power, it was extracted from the black-red soil and slowly rose into the air. After a while, the purple-gold mist gathered into a large The ball kept compressing and merging, and finally turned into a large ball of purple-gold liquid, which was the chaotic essence and blood of the holy beast.

Seeing this scene, Qingtian Qi immediately understood.

It turned out that this barren mountain range was occupied by the holy beast. The essence and blood of Chaos was dyed all over, so the soil turned black and red.

Now, Qiuqiu is using the remnant soul of Chaos as a guide to extract the remaining essence and blood of Chaos from the soil.

Not long after, Qiuqiu refined a A large ball of chaotic blood essence and blood, with a diameter of ten feet.

Next, Qiuqiu presses his claws again, releasing a golden light to cover the blood ball.

The huge blood ball, under the golden light, keeps rolling and condensing.

The last drop The golden liquid was extracted from the blood mass, and the original purple-gold chaos essence blood turned into purple-black.

Seeing the drop of golden liquid, Qiuqiu's eyes showed ecstasy.

"Ha ha!! True blood! Sure enough, I extracted a drop of true blood. With this drop of true blood, my incarnation's body will definitely be greatly improved. It seems that my incarnation is also very lucky!"

"I used a drop of true blood to transform him before he was born, and now he has to absorb the true blood of my second brother. I don't know how strong this body will be? Just thinking about it makes me look forward to it!!"

At that moment, Qiuqiu laughed excitedly, waved his claw at random, and scattered the blood groups in the air.

The blood groups immediately turned into a bunch of blood mist and dispersed everywhere. Then Qiuqiu opened his mouth and sucked the blood groups in the air. The drop of true blood of chaos was sucked into his belly. As soon as the drop of true blood entered Qiuqiu's belly, Qiuqiu's body erupted with golden light.

Then, Qiuqiu roared from his mouth, and all the bones in his body erupted with "Crack! Click!" With a crisp sound, the body began to mutate and grow automatically.

The fangs in Qiuqiu's mouth were getting longer and longer, his back slowly bulged, and a row of bone spurs slowly grew, and then sharp bone spurs grew on the joints of his limbs. It was extremely ferocious.

Immediately afterwards, Qiuqiu's body continued to expand, and the scales on his body became extremely thick and dense.

In the blink of an eye, Qiuqiu's body became a hundred feet long.

The huge body seemed to be able to cover the sky and the sun. The valley was shrouded in darkness, and the aura emanating from it made people even more frightened.

However, Qingtian Qi felt the aura emitted by Qiuqiu, and was frightened in his heart, staring at the sky in a daze.

"Oh my God! This is the ninth level of aura, how terrifying! Unexpectedly, the demon god absorbed that drop of true blood and increased his strength to the ninth level in one fell swoop. It's even more impossible to deal with him now. I'm afraid he will find me if I stay here for a long time."

But at this moment, another scene happened in the air that horrified Qingtian Qi.

In the air, Qiuqiu's face suddenly showed a look of pain, and he kept roaring.

Then, in Qingtian Qi's horrified eyes, Qiuqiu unexpectedly slowly grew a second head.

As soon as the second head came out, Qiuqiu's momentum greatly increased again, and it was infinitely close to the peak of the ninth level.
