

God level 3021

Chapter 3021

At the same time, behind Qiuqiu, the shadows of the sacred beasts Taotie and Chaos appeared again.

Only this time, after absorbing the true blood of chaos, the shadow of chaos was no longer blurry and became extremely clear.

The phantoms of the two holy beasts echoed each other behind Qiuqiu, and their momentum seemed very shocking.....

What's even more shocking is that the aura on Qiuqiu's body is no longer simply the power of metal, but the power of the fusion of earth and metal....

The Demon God is gluttonous, he can swallow everything, and he can swallow everything in the five elements.

To a certain extent, Taotie is a cultivator of all five elements, but among these five elements, its metal element is the strongest.

As its descendant, Qiuqiu has been transformed by its true blood, and its displayed attributes are only gold....

As for Demon Chaos, it can be said that it is a complete cultivator regardless of the five elements. However, among the five elements, its earth element is the strongest....

Therefore, after Qiuqiu refined the essence and blood of the demon god Chaos, there was an extra element of vitality in his body, which was the earth element.

It can be said that today's Qiuqiu, under the transformation of Taotie and Chaos True Blood, has turned into a dual-line ferocious beast that later mutated.

Generally speaking, dual-type ferocious beasts are very rare, much rarer than the two-headed ferocious beasts that mutated in the early stage.....

There are some differences between dual-system ferocious beasts and dual-system warriors.....

A dual-system warrior is a warrior who uses his mind to forcibly fuse the energy of the two systems together to obtain an amplitude of combat effectiveness.

The dual-system ferocious beasts are born with two systems of vitality in the ferocious beast's inner elixir, and they will fuse automatically. There is no need to use mental power to force the fusion.

In fact, in addition to the two series of vitality in the inner elixir of a dual-system ferocious beast, there are also some mysterious powers. It is the existence of these mysterious powers that promotes the automatic fusion of the two series of vitality in the inner elixir.

Moreover, those mysterious powers always keep the strength of the two series of vitality balanced. No matter which series of vitality is absorbed, it is the two series of vitality that are improved.

As for what kind of mysterious power is it? In the eyes of the vast majority of people, it is unexplainable, but in the hands of a very small number of people, there is already an answer.

But even if those few knew the answer, they couldn't do it.

In addition, the vitality of the two elements of a dual-system beast is a natural fusion, not a forced fusion, so the strength of a dual-system beast is much stronger than a dual-system warrior.

As for Qiuqiu's ability to mutate into two-line ferocious beasts, it's also because of the Demon God Taotie.

Demon God Taotie has two major talents. One is 'devour' and the other is 'melt'.

Previously, Demon God Taotie used his innate skill of 'Rong' to fuse the energy of earth and metal in the same inner elixir, thus turning Qiuqiu into a dual-system beast.

This is also the reason why Demon God Taotie will devour the soul body of Chaos.

Generally speaking, ferocious beasts can only devour animals of the same type, but cannot devour animals of different types because they cannot gain the power of the other party.

But Demon God Taotie has the talent of 'melting', so he has the confidence to let Qiuqiu gain the power of the alien system, which allows him to dare to swallow the soul of chaos.

As a result, Qiuqiu mutated into an extremely rare dual-system beast.

And because Qiuqiu swallowed the broken soul body of Chaos, and there were soul imprints of two holy beasts in his body, he grew a second head, and his body also underwent later mutations.

To put it simply, there are dual line mutations and late stage mutations in Qiuqiu, a total of double mutations.

Qing Tianqi looked at the series of changes in front of him with a look of disbelief on his face.

At this moment, Qiuqiu's laughter came from the air again

"Ha ha!! After activating the power of two drops of true blood, the power of my incarnation was increased to the ninth level."

"What's even more incredible is that this body has been tempered by the true blood of the second brother, and it has continuously mutated. Not only has the ability of earth and metal, it can also undergo late mutations and undergo a second transformation, which makes this body infinitely powerful. Close to the peak of the ninth level, far better than the same level! Ha ha!! With my current strength, it should be no problem to break the seal and rescue the main body!!!"

Speaking of this, the ball in the air looked up to the sky and laughed wildly, and two huge heads roared to the sky at the same time.

Chapter 3022

Looking at all this, Qing Tianqi's face, hidden in the darkness, became increasingly ugly.

Now, he not only watched Qiuqiu being possessed by the demon, but also watched the demon break the seal.

"what to do? Is the devil really going to be born this time? Now that the senior God of War is no longer here, if the Demon God himself is born, no one in this world will be able to stop him."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi felt helpless.

But at this moment, Qiuqiu roared in the air, and his body began to shrink rapidly.

Soon, Qiuqiu shrank to the size of an adult, and then spun in the air, It turned into a human form.

Qingtian Qi immediately looked at it in surprise and saw that Qiuqiu had turned into a blond boy with sharp horns on his head, three eyes on his forehead, scales on his hands, and animal patterns on his face. Judging from his appearance, he was only thirteen or fourteen years old. It turns out that after the ninth-level ferocious beast transforms, some characteristics of the ferocious beast will still remain.

"hehe!! If I go out like this, it shouldn't attract the attention of those ninth-level masters among humans, right? In this little guy's memory, there were many ninth-level human warriors outside that exit! I should be careful though. By the way, I'd better get some human clothes to wear first."

Thinking of this, Qiuqiu showed a weird smile at the corner of his mouth, and then slowly fell from the air.

Seeing Qiuqiu falling from the air, Qing Tianqi, who was hiding aside, couldn't help but feel a little uneasy in his heart.

It seemed to be to verify Qing Tianqi's uneasiness. , as soon as the ball hit the ground, he held his hands in front of his chest, slowly turned his head to look at Qing Tianqi's hiding place, and sneered.

"Human beings who don't know whether to live or die! I originally planned to give you a way to survive and let you get out as soon as possible. I didn't expect you to follow me regardless of life or death. Since you want to seek death, don't blame me for being rude! snort!"

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi was immediately scared out of his mind. He didn't expect that his invisibility was seen by Qiuqiu.

Qiuqiu immediately snorted, and his eyes flashed.

Qingtian Qi suddenly He felt the invisible pressure in front of him, pressing towards him like an overwhelming mountain.

He was horrified and wanted to escape, but it was too late, so he immediately opened the Five Elements Shield.

Click!

There was a crisp sound!

The Five Elements Shield suddenly shattered, and an invisible pressure hit him hard. It hit Qingtian Qi's chest hard.

This time, Qingtian Qi actually vomited blood and was injured under Qiuqiu's thought.

In fact, this was because Qiuqiu didn't want to immediately Kill him.

Otherwise, the blow just now can easily kill Qingtian Qi

"hehe!! Humans, as weak as ants, just gave you a small lesson. Why don't you take off your clothes now and give them to me? Otherwise, I will make you unable to wish for death and unable to wish for death!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Qiuqiu sucked the invisibility talisman in Qingtianqi's hand with a casual move.

"snort! This kind of invisibility technique may still be of some use to ordinary ninth-level warriors, but it is of no use to me today."

At that moment, Qiuqiu sneered disdainfully, and with a squeeze of his five claws, he crushed the invisibility talisman into pieces. Then he smiled ferociously and walked slowly towards Qingtian Qi. Seeing Qiuqiu approaching, Qingtian Qi was frightened and wanted to crawl away. Get up.

But at this moment, Qiuqiu's expression changed slightly, with a trace of pain on his face, and then he held his hair tightly with one hand and said hatefully

"You unscrupulous little beast is out to cause trouble again. In this case, I have completely refined you now."

As soon as he said these words, a cold light flashed in Qiuqiu's eyes. He made a seal in his hand and pressed a finger to his eyebrows.

Seeing this, Qingtian in front of him felt his heart skip a beat. He secretly thought that something was wrong. He knew that the devil was really going to do it this time. It's about to completely swallow up the ball..

Chapter 3023

At that moment, Qingtian Qi was so anxious that he shot a god-destroying thorn towards Qiuqiu without even thinking about it.

But the God-Destroying Thorn hit Qiuqiu without any harm.

However, Qiuqiu still sensed it.

He immediately stopped what he was doing, looked up at Qingtian Qi angrily, and roared: "You humble little human, you dare to take action against me! Then you must die first!" With a roar

, Qiuqiu looked towards Qingtian angrily. Qi Yi grasped with his claws, and a scaly-clawed hand dozens of feet long immediately appeared in the sky, grabbing it towards the blue sky like pinching an ant.

Seeing the giant hand grabbing at him, Qing Tianqi opened his eyes wide in horror, but found that he was locked by the aura and unable to move. He could only watch as he was crushed into pieces by a claw and died.

But at this critical moment, a cold snort suddenly sounded from the sky and the earth.

Then, a mysterious energy wave descended from the sky, instantly shattering the huge light claw.

The mysterious power pressed directly towards Qiuqiu.

As soon as Qiuqiu felt the mysterious power, his expression suddenly changed. He roared in horror, turned around and ran away, but was knocked down from the air by the mysterious power and fell into the deep valley underground.

"who? How can this be? How come there are still people alive in these temples? who are you?"

Qiuqiu, with blood hanging from the corner of his mouth, climbed up from the ground in horror and looked at the sky around him with horror.

At this time, an old voice sounded in the air

"snort! Taotie, I haven't even gone to settle the score with you, a monster, but you have come to my door yourself. Now that you're here, don't leave."

Hearing this voice, Qingtian Qi's heart suddenly jumped, and his heart was full of horror.

"It turns out that not all the gods in the pantheon have fallen! There is still God alive! Ha ha!! That's great, maybe it can be saved this time."

When he thought of this, Qingtian Qi's heart was filled with ecstasy.

He suddenly thought about it again. When he just entered the inner hall and got the message, he suddenly felt something was wrong. He knew why?

It turned out that the message was The tone was not like a residual will, but like an old man's conversation with him, but he didn't think too much at the time.

But on the other side, when Qiuqiu heard the old man's voice, his face immediately changed, and his eyes showed disbelief. look

"It's you! It's the God of the Earth! Old guy, how can you still be alive?"

"Ha ha! Monster, are you surprised?"

As soon as these words fell, the space in the sky was distorted, and an extremely huge head of light and shadow appeared out of thin air. The head of the old man was among the five statues Qingtian Qi saw in the Five Elements Temple. The old man sitting in the center of the hall.

When he saw the old man's appearance, Qiuqiu was even more horrified.

"It's you! Weren't you swallowed by my body back then? Your soul was swallowed alive by me, how could you still be alive?"

The God of Earth sneered:"Humph! Back then, although you swallowed my soul and body, I still had a trace of my soul mark hidden in the temple. Now, after tens of thousands of years of practice, this god relied on that trace of soul imprint to reshape his soul and body, and was resurrected. I originally wanted to settle accounts with you, but I didn't expect you to come to my door yourself. Ha ha!!"

After hearing this, Qiuqiu's expression changed greatly, and he asked puzzledly:"Since you have been resurrected! Why don't you kill the soul body of Chaos immediately? Do you want to use him to seduce me?"

"snort!! I know that you are greedy by nature and will definitely devour the soul of Chaos. This god just wants to watch you kill each other. This is also a kind of retribution. Okay, you bastard, you can die now!"

As soon as these words were said, a giant hand with a length of more than ten thousand feet appeared between the sky and the earth, covering the sky and the earth, covering everything, as if the hand was the sky..

Chapter 3024

Seeing this, Qiuqiu was horrified. He jumped up and flew into the air. Then he roared violently and instantly transformed into a beast body of more than a hundred feet. Then his figure flashed and turned into a golden light before escaping into the distance.

In the sky, the sneer of the God of Earth was immediately heard

"snort! It's just a small split soul. With your strength, you still want to escape from the hands of this god? dream!"

As the words fell, the giant bare hand grabbed Qiuqiu's huge body as if it were a small flying insect.

Then, a golden light disappeared into Qiuqiu's body.

Qiuqiu immediately roared in pain. When Qiuqiu stood up, his whole body's vitality collapsed automatically, his momentum dropped steadily, and his body began to shrink automatically. As Qiuqiu's body shrank, the big hand also kept shrinking.

In just a moment, Qiuqiu's momentum actually dropped from level nine. It fell to the seventh level.

A cold snort was heard in the air, and then a huge finger stretched out and flicked, Then kill the demon god's soul.

The demon god's angry roar still echoes in the air.

"old man! When I get out of trouble, I must destroy all your temples!"

"snort! That will only happen if you break the seal!"

When the demon's divided soul dissipated, the giant hand in the air also disappeared.

At this time, Qingtian Qi raised his head in horror and looked at the phantom portrait in the sky.

"Oh my God! Is this God? Did I see God?"

However, at this moment Qiuqiu still closed his eyes tightly, motionless, not knowing whether he was dead or alive.

"Ball ball!"

Seeing Qiuqiu like this, Qingtian Qi was very anxious and quickly stepped forward to check.

At this moment, the soft voice of the God of the Earth sounded in the air again

"Don't worry, kid, this little guy is fine. The ghost of Taotie has been cleared away. It won't be long before this little guy can wake up on his own and regain control of his body."

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi was overjoyed and quickly saluted respectfully to the phantom image in the sky.

"The boy Qing Tianqi, thank God for saving the boy's life from the devil. I'm also grateful to God for being merciful and not harming the life of the boy's pet."

"Um! In fact, you don't need to thank me. This god is not helping you, but a quasi-disciple of our pantheon of gods. You are that would-be disciple."

Hearing this, a look of surprise flashed across Qingtian Qi's face. He didn't understand the intention of the God of the Earth.

At this time, the God of the Earth said again:"My child, the moment you open the stone door of the Wooden Temple, I will The mark of an inner disciple has been planted on your soul. However, whether you can become a true disciple of God depends on whether you can reach the Temple of Heaven safely."

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi finally understood why a special rune mark was planted on the soul's forehead when he opened the rune stone door. It turned out to be the mark of the disciple of God.

"Lord God, what is a disciple of God?"

"My child, you should know something from what happened just now. In the ancient world tens of thousands of years ago, our pantheon of gods was destroyed by the four demon gods. Thousands of disciples were also killed, and the other four gods all fell."

"Only this god was resurrected after tens of thousands of years, but his strength has not yet been fully restored. After being resurrected, this god will naturally revitalize the pantheon of gods and recruit disciples."

"Nine hundred years ago, when I first woke up from hibernation, I reopened this training ground in order to recruit some disciples from the outside world. I planted disciples on the foreheads of all the testers who came in. imprint"

"As long as these people survive the trial, they have passed the test and become true disciples of my pantheon. In the future, when this god's strength is fully restored, he will gather these disciples to rebuild our temples.'"

"However, there are five major temples in our pantheon. Nowadays, the gods of the other four temples have fallen, but the four temples cannot be without their masters. Therefore, I imagined that I would sit behind the scenes and select a few disciples of the gods and let them take the five-system divine elixir. In the future, I would choose from these disciples of the gods. The Lord of the Five Halls"

"The day after the Lord God Realm issued the decree to confer gods, he also recommended several palace masters to participate in the battle of conferring gods. Okay, let's not talk about this anymore. There are some things that you won't understand even if I talk about them. Do you have any other questions?"..

Chapter 3025

Qing Tianqi hesitated for a while and then said:"Lord God, this kid is not the strongest in these trials, why did you choose him to be God's disciple?"

"The standard for choosing God's disciples is not based on strength, but mainly on luck. People who can come here are either extremely powerful or extremely lucky. And you are the kind of person who has great luck. You are endowed with strong 'order' energy by fate."

"In fact, even if we are gods, we cannot escape the tricks of fate and can only follow its rules. 'Sequence' is a rule it has set in the dark, a rule that cannot be changed. All things dictated by fate, even if you predict them, cannot be changed. We can only follow them. Choosing you is also a way of following the rules."

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi was shocked and a little confused.

At this time, the God of the Earth said again:"Maybe you can't understand it yet. To put it simply, why does fire create earth, but not fire? This is the rule, this is the 'order'. You live in this world, you must obey this 'order', you can never change it"

"All life, old age, illness and death, even reincarnation, are under its control and cannot be transcended, no one is exempt. Okay, maybe that's too far. My child, you have an Earth God Pill in your body.'? "

Hearing this, Qingtian's heart skipped a beat. He knew that everything he did in the temples was seen by the gods.

At the moment, he did not deny it, and nodded directly:"Yes! The boy got an Earth God Pill."

"Um! very good! According to the rules set by this god, everyone who can open the stone door is a disciple of the quasi-god. Each quasi-god disciple can only take away one magic pill from here. And you chose the Wood God Pill, but now you got an Earth God Pill first."

"In fact, there is an 'orderly' arrangement for this, which is the so-called 'God's will'. Even if it is God's will, I will not take back your Earth God Pill."

"Go back and get the Wood Divine Pill later, and you can take away two Divine Pills from here. You can break the rules I set and take away two magic pills from here. Somehow, the energy of 'Sequence' you possess is not inferior to mine! In this case, I will help you again and help you refine the Earth God Pill. I also want to see how far you can go."

Hearing this, Qing Tianqi was stunned. Before he could react, his body flew up automatically, and then the Earth God Pill also flew out of the God of War Order space automatically, and then exploded into pieces. A cloud of yellow mist, driven by a strange energy, surged toward Qingtian Qi's body. Qingtian Qi's brain suddenly felt dizzy, and he felt as if his whole body was soaked in a warm and comfortable hot spring, and a slight tingling feeling penetrated his body. His whole body, even his bone marrow.

This feeling made him feel comfortable and crazy at the same time. His consciousness was always in a state of blur. He didn't know how long it took, but Qingtian Qi felt like those things were penetrating his whole body. The tingling sensation gradually disappeared, and the smooth feeling deep in his heart emerged spontaneously.

Suddenly, he felt that he was in a vast land, looking at the endless plains in the distance, feeling relaxed and happy.

Suddenly, he felt like he was here again On the top of the mountain, overlooking the towering mountains below

"Is this the richness of the earth?"

Qingtian Qi had an inexplicable understanding in his heart.

At this moment, a joyful voice sounded in his ears

"Little guy, you have a good understanding! The feeling of being able to touch the heart of the earth at this moment."

Hearing this voice, Qing Tianqi suddenly woke up.

At this moment, he realized that he had fallen from the sky. He clearly felt that he had an extremely sensitive understanding of the earth energy between heaven and earth, which was no less than that of water and fire.

"Huh! This is?"

At this moment, Qing Tianqi tried to absorb the earth energy, and found that his absorption rate of earth energy was dozens of times faster than before.

"Has my earth element qualification really turned into a pseudo-spiritual body? Huh! My earth energy has actually reached the fourth level of Dzogchen."

Discovering the huge changes in his body, Qingtian Qi was immediately pleasantly surprised.

You know, although the Earth God Pill is magical, it is also extremely difficult to refine. It will be difficult to completely refine it in less than half a year.

And this time, The God of the Earth personally helped Qingtian Qi refine it, and it only took a few hours to complete it. This saved him a lot of time. How could Qingtian Qi not be happy about this?..

Chapter 3026

At that moment, Qing Tianqi saluted the God of Earth with great gratitude.

"I am extremely grateful for the good fortune God has given me, so I would like to thank you!"

"Haha!! You're welcome little guy! In fact, when it comes to good fortune, the good fortune you have received today is not as good as that little ferocious beast next to you. It has received much more good fortune than you."

Hearing this, Qing Tianqi showed a look of surprise. He knew that the God of Earth was talking about Qiuqiu.

"Lord Shangshen, don't you know what blessings Qiuqiu has received? Can you tell the boy?"

"It doesn't hurt to tell you. That pet of yours. Originally with mediocre qualifications, he could only grow to the peak of the eighth level of Dzogchen."

"But this time, Taotie's split soul activated the Taotie True Blood in its body, absorbed the Chaos True Blood Tempering Body, and also activated the Chaos True Blood. Under the activation and transformation of the two true bloods, this little guy's qualifications have been greatly improved. improved. Although it cannot be said that it is 100% sure to grow into a ninth-level ferocious beast, there is a 60% chance of becoming a ninth-level ferocious beast."

"What's even more valuable is that this little guy is a dual-type ferocious beast and can transform a second time. If it can advance to the ninth level, its strength will not be comparable to ordinary ninth level warriors."

"Of course, whether it can become the ninth level also depends on its nature. Although the 60% chance is high, it is not 100% after all. Whether it can really enter the ninth level is also very difficult to say. It depends on whether it has that kind of luck in the future."

"It turns out to be such a great blessing!"

Qingtian Qi was excited in his heart. Although there is only 60% chance that Qiuqiu can enter the ninth level, for Qingtian Qi, the chance is already very high, at least much higher than him.

If Qiuqiu can really enter the ninth level, Then in the future, if he combines with Qiuqiu psychically, and with the help of the 'Sun Moon Heavenly Wheel', even the masters at the top of the ninth level may not be his opponent. At that time, he will dare to challenge Long Xing alone and kill the dragon. Xing avenged his family.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi became even more excited. Vaguely, he could already see the hope of revenge for the five clans.

"The rewards from coming to the Temple of Gods this time are really great! Not only did my earth element qualifications rise to the level of a pseudo-spirit body, but Qiuqiu's qualifications also grew to the point where they were even more terrifying than a pseudo-spirit body! By the way, now that the demon soul has been destroyed, I should be able to merge with Qiuqiu, right?"

Just when Qing Tianqi was thinking about 'psychic', Qiuqiu, who had been unconscious, suddenly moved.

Seeing Qiuqiu move, Qingtian Qi's eyes lit up, and he stepped forward in surprise and shouted: "Qiuqiu! Qiuqiu, are you finally awake?"

Qiuqiu's tired eyes showed a look of joy, and he shook his still groggy brain. Slowly stood up.

At this time, Qiuqiu also seemed to notice something strange, and looked up into the sky.

When it saw the huge shadow of the head in the sky, it immediately stepped back in horror.

The God of the Earth immediately came from the sky laughter

"Ha ha!! good! good! Tianqi boy, it seems that this little ferocious beast is kind to you. If you discipline him well in the future, he won't become a demon like that. It seems that I was right not to kill it."

"Don't worry, God-sama, I will definitely discipline Qiuqiu well and won't let him do anything harmful. Lord God, there is still something I don't understand. Didn't Qiuqiu's strength reach the ninth level before? Why has it fallen to the fifth level of perfection now? Is it even lower than its original cultivation level?"

At this time, Qiuqiu woke up.

Qingtian Qi found that Qiuqiu's state had actually dropped to the fifth level of Dzogchen, which was one level lower than the previous peak of the fifth level of Dzogchen. This made Qingtian Qi puzzled..

Hearing this, Qingtian Qi was extremely shocked.

After a long while, he exclaimed: "'Preface' is so terrifying? Isn't it possible that no one can escape from its control?"

"Ha ha!! Good boy, if you want to get rid of the preface, then I will tell you how to get rid of it. If one day you point to the sky and say that is the earth, from then on the sky will be the earth. You point and say it is heaven, from now on the earth is heaven. If you point to fire and say it is water, then fire will be water."

"If you want to destroy the sky, the sky will be destroyed; if you want to destroy the earth, the earth will be destroyed. Everything in the world exists because of your will, and the rules of the world move because of your will. Can you do this? If you can't, then don't even think about getting rid of Sequence's control. Ha ha!!! Everything in this world comes into existence due to "order", and it also perishes because of "order". Boy, take care of yourself! Ha ha!!!"

With a burst of laughter, the shadow in the sky gradually faded and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

In the field, only the blue sky was left, staring blankly at the sky.

"This world is vast, and I am just an ant! Qingtian

Qi sighed softly and withdrew his gaze.

The words of the God of the Earth gave Qingtian Qi a new understanding of the world.

Subtly, he had a different vision.

Just like a group of ants, they The sky and the earth in their eyes are what is in front of them.

They never know how high the sky is or how big the earth is.

Until one day, a lucky ant inside had the opportunity to grow wings. When it flew into the air, it saw for the first time Seeing the world in front of him clearly.

Seeing the world in front of him clearly will only make the lucky ant feel more insignificant and awe of the world.

Because he knows, he will be afraid.

Now that the sky is clear, he will I feel like I am an ant with wings, and I am afraid because I know

"Ball ball! let's go!"

After a while, Qing Tianqi sighed softly.

Qiuqiu immediately roared, his figure shrank rapidly, and in the blink of an eye he transformed into a cute and fluffy figure. However, some places were slightly different from before. If you didn't pay attention, it would be fine. It can't be observed.

Obviously, after swallowing and refining the true blood of Demon God Chaos, it has a great impact on the transformation of Qiuqiu's body. Even its appearance has changed.

Once Qiuqiu returns to its original form, it will be as usual. It usually jumps to Qingtian Qi's shoulder.

But at this moment, its expression is very sluggish. As soon as it lies on its shoulder, it can't help but doze off.

Previously, the demon's divided soul occupied Qiuqiu's body, although it did not swallow up Qiuqiu. But it also had a great impact on Qiuqiu's soul body, which made Qiuqiu unable to fully recover for a while.

Seeing this, Qingtian Qi gently stroked the fluff on Qiuqiu's body.

"Little guy, this time I was lucky enough to clear the demon god's soul from your body. You are a blessing in disguise. A few years later, you will be a ninth-level master among the five tribes. I'm afraid you will surpass Senior Tuntian back then.."

Speaking of this, Qing Tianqi showed a hint of joy in his heart.

"brat! You should have a good rest now. After you regain your energy, I will complete the channeling ceremony with you. With your current gold qualifications, I am afraid that they have already surpassed the pseudo-spiritual qualifications among warriors. After channeling you, my gold qualifications can be improved to at least the upper level."

"In this case, I can use the 'Five Qi Chaoyuan' to transform myself into a 'Wind and Thunder Double Elephant Warrior'. By then, my strength will be greatly improved! However, for now, it is better to get the 'Wood God Pill' first."

When he thought of the Wood God Pill, Qingtian Qi felt excited again.

The Wood God Pill can create a ninth-level wood-type strongman. Their Qing family is currently short of a ninth-level warrior to guard them.

Now the five tribes Among them, both the Teng family and the Bai family have ninth-level warriors, especially the emerging Bai family, whose comprehensive strength surpasses the other four families combined and is now the leader of the five families.

As the former leader of the five families, the Qing family also He was completely outcompeted.

In comparison, perhaps the children of other families would not say anything, but the children of the Qing family would inevitably feel a little shameless in their hearts.

Although Qingtian Qi relied on the power of the artifact decades later, he could still be regarded as a person with nine Warriors with first-level strength, but those are external forces after all.

Perhaps in the eyes of eighth-level warriors, Qingtian Qi at that time was unattainable, but in the eyes of ninth-level warriors, they were still a little disdainful. After all, relying on external forces and one's own strength are two different things. , and the lifespans between the two cannot be compared.

As a fifth-level warrior, Qingtian Qi has no problem becoming an eighth-level warrior, but it is extremely difficult to become a ninth-level warrior.

In other words, if he cannot become a ninth-level warrior, Warriors can only protect the Qing family for two thousand years at most.

Therefore, it is necessary to create a true ninth-level warrior for the Qing family.

If the Qing family can produce another ninth-level warrior, plus Qingtian Qi, It was only a matter of time before the Qing family regained its position as the leader of the five clans.

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi didn't want to waste any more time. He immediately flashed his figure and returned to the original road, rushing to Mu. Temple..

Chapter 3029

Two hours later, in the deepest hall of the Wooden Temple.

Qing Tianqi looked at the jade platform in the center of the hall in surprise.

There is a blue pill floating on the stone platform, exuding a faint spiritual light.

"Ha ha!! This should be the Wood God Pill, and it is also the last Wood God Pill in the Wood Temple."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi stepped forward happily and grabbed the Kemu Divine Pill in his hand.

As soon as he took the Kemu Divine Pill, it seemed to have spirituality, struggling and beating in Qingtian Qi's palm, as if it was trying to escape from his hand. It's like breaking free.

The more spiritual things there are, the more so.

After putting away the Wood God Pill, Qingtian Qi suddenly thought of a question.

By the way, the God of the Earth once said.

The trialists who can obtain the Five Elements Temple must Will become an elite disciple.

But there are five types of distinctions. Wouldn't it mean that if you choose the divine elixir of that series, you will become the disciple of God in the temple of that series?

If that is the case, there will only be two elites in each series of temples. Disciple.

The elite disciples in this wood temple are Aomori and I. Do I have to compete with Aomori for the position of the master of this wood temple in the future?

Forget it, now It's too early to think about this. I don't know how many years it will take to wait for the God of the Earth to fully recover and reorganize the temples.

The most important thing for me now is to get out of here safely. The Prince of Northern Qin is not a kind person; I want to kill everyone who is not from Northern Qin. I have to find a way to pass his level first.

It's just that the Prince of Northern Qin is too strong. He is a sixth-level warrior, and I am only a fifth-level warrior..The strength gap between him and me is too big. It's not easy to deal with him!

I originally had the invisibility talisman to help me, but now that talisman has been destroyed by the demon god's soul, I can only rely on I have to use my own strength to face the Prince of Northern Qin.

If I can't deal with the Prince of Northern Qin, Brother Ling Yu and I will never get out of here alive.

When I think that the Prince of Northern Qin is currently guarding the corridor of life and death, guarding everyone. Qing Tianqi felt a little overwhelmed by his retreat.

It turned out that he still had the invisibility talisman to rely on, but now he can no longer rely on it. He can only rely on his own strength.

It seems that I should try my best to improve my strength!

I don't know what Qiuqiu and I are After channeling, how much has my strength increased?

With the help of the Soul Seal Puppet Beast and the God-possessed Puppet, I wonder if I can compete with the Prince of Northern Qin?

As long as I can compete with the Prince of Northern Qin, then I can The method allowed the five of us to pass.

However, I have been in the dark hall for twenty-three days. According to the one-month period, I only have seven days left.

So, the most I can do is stay in this dark hall. I have to stay for six days.

I have to leave one day early to avoid Brother Tianjun and the others from worrying.

In the remaining six days, I'd better quickly refine some more spiritual fruits and improve my strength so that I can deal with the Prince of Northern Qin better. Opportunity.

By the way, the main hall is full of five elements of spiritual energy. It is an extremely rare 'spiritual realm blessed land'. I can get twice the result with half the effort by going there to practice. It is also an extremely rare good opportunity!

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi couldn't help but He rushed towards the main hall eagerly.

Looking at the extremely huge main hall, Qingtian Qi felt a surging feeling in his heart again.

Then, he turned back Looking at the two huge golden-armored guards guarding the door of the inner hall, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

This is the five elements of spiritual energy, and it really gives people a different feeling!

Qingtian Qi slowly closed his eyes and took a deep breath of air The spiritual energy in his body made him feel relaxed.

After a while, he slowly opened his eyes.

"With the help of this spiritual energy, and some spiritual fruits on my body, I believe that practicing here for a few days will improve my strength. Qiuqiu, come down first! You can rest aside, I have to seize the time to practice."

After saying this, Qingtian Qi put Qiuqiu down, gave a few more instructions, and let Qiuqiu go to rest by himself.

He sat cross-legged and started his training plan..

Chapter 3030

I saw Qingtian Qi first releasing the Wood Spirit Tree, allowing the Wood Spirit Tree to increase the concentration of the surrounding Wood Spirit Qi.

Then, he took out two spiritual fruits and ate them.

The two spiritual fruits Qingtian Qi took were the water spiritual fruit and the fire spiritual fruit.

In the past, when Qingtian Qi was practicing, he would focus on the five functions and absorb the five elements energy between heaven and earth at the same time.

But this time, Qingtianqi changed his approach.

On the one hand, he was distracted by absorbing the spiritual energy of water, wood, and fire in the main hall, and on the other side, he was distracted by refining the spiritual fruits of water and fire.

After all, his metal and earth systems are still at the fourth level. He cannot directly absorb spiritual energy, but can only absorb vitality. He has to temporarily give up cultivating these two systems of vitality.

In addition, Qingtian Qi's water and fire elements are both pseudo-spiritual qualifications, and the wood element is still a hidden spirit body. The progress of the wood element is slightly slower, so this time he majored in the water and fire elements, but Qingtian Qi just sat down and absorbed it. As the spiritual energy was refined, a look of excitement appeared on his face.

He could clearly sense that as soon as the spiritual energy of water, wood, and fire was inhaled by him, it poured directly into his sea of qi and was absorbed by his three virtual pills. There was no need for the process and time of energy transformation.

This increased his cultivation progress dozens of times.

This discovery immediately made Qingtian Qi secretly overjoyed.

"Ha ha!! My guess is indeed correct! Fifth-level warriors practice in the 'Spirit Realm Blessed Land', and their cultivation progress is dozens of times faster. such a pity! I can't stay here for a few more days, otherwise my cultivation will definitely improve greatly."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi felt a little regretful in his heart.

But at this moment, two more cool energy streams surged out of his body. However, the energy streams generated by the spiritual fruit he had just taken also poured into his body. In Dantian, just like this, Qingtian Qi is absorbing spiritual energy from the outside world and refining spiritual fruits at the same time. His three systems of water, wood and fire are improving at an extremely fast rate.

Especially the speed of improvement of his water and fire systems. It's incredible.

During these four days, he also refined a lot of spiritual fruits, and his cultivation has made great progress.

But on this day, Qing Tianqi suddenly stopped practicing, his breath disappeared, and he stood up with a face full of joy.

"Ha ha!! This time, the water energy has finally been raised to the peak of the fifth level. In this way. My water and fire vitality has reached the peak of level five."

It turns out that after four days of practice, Qingtian Qi finally cultivated the water and fire energy to the peak of the fifth level with the help of a large amount of spiritual energy and spiritual fruits.

However, his wood energy is still some distance from the peak of the fifth level. He If you want to raise the wood vitality to the fifth level peak, it will not be something you can do in a short time.

Qingtian Qi can cultivate the water and fire vitality to the fifth level peak in just four days. It is not By chance.

In fact, when he was on the second floor of the Dark Palace, during that period of healing, he spent a full seven days refining the spirit fruit, which greatly improved his five elements vitality. At that time, he Although his water and fire energy failed to reach the peak of the fifth level in one fell swoop, he was not far away from it. Now, with the help of the 'Spirit Realm' and the spiritual fruit, he finally achieved the fourth level of hard training. The Queen of Heaven has raised the vitality of the water and fire systems to the fifth level.

Qingtian Qi's water and fire spiritual fruits have been almost consumed due to this.

However, what makes Qingtian Qi fortunate is that his overall strength has also increased a lot.

Nowadays, Qingtian Qi's vitality power has been increased from the power of more than 40,000 people to the power of 53,000 people.

Coupled with the physical combat power of Qingtian Qi after his transformation, his comprehensive combat power can reach the power of 93,000 people. This kind of progress naturally makes Qingtian Qi satisfied, but it seems that he has reached the limit of his current improvement.

I have now reached the peak of the fifth level in both water and fire systems, and have reached the first bottleneck of the fifth level. I will continue to practice There is no progress if I go down.

Although I still have a few white fruits on my body, which can make the water system break through the bottleneck.

But refining the white fruits does not take a day or two!

It is impossible in less than three or five days.

And now I need more time to practice the soul-splitting technique, refine the sixth-level soul seal, and communicate with Qiuqiu.

There is no extra time for me to refine the white fruit. It seems that I can only postpone it temporarily. What a pity!

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi felt a little regretful.

As for Mu Yuanqi, although Qingtian Qi still has room for improvement, there is currently no time for him to continue practicing..
