

God level 3231

Chapter 3231

As soon as Qing Tianqi saw the line of golden text, he read out casually: "The second level, the eight thousand miles of ice and snow fantasy world. Could it be that this ice and snow world is eight thousand miles long?"

"Huh! It turns out that you also know Chinese characters!

The middle-aged man was slightly surprised, then smiled bitterly and said: "Not bad!" It is eight thousand miles long. Friends, do you think a sixth-level Dzogchen warrior can travel through such an eight-thousand-mile land in ten days?"

"In fact, even if they don't sleep for ten days, it is unlikely that a sixth-level Dzogchen warrior will be able to cross eight thousand miles. Moreover, due to the influence of the power of Xuhan, the warrior's speed will be greatly reduced, and in the later stages, the more serious this impact is"

"Based on my estimation, it is impossible for a sixth-level Dzogchen warrior to pass through this ice and snow fantasy world in less than half a month. But if you really had to walk inside for half a month, even a sixth-level Dzogchen warrior would have been frozen into an ice sculpture and died inside."

"If you are a sixth-level Dzogchen pinnacle warrior, or have any special abilities, you may still have a chance to compete. Why! In fact, this ice and snow fantasy world used to be only 800 miles long. I don't know why it suddenly grew to 8,000 miles this year."

After listening to these words, Qingtian Qi finally understood why these people did not dare to enter the ice and snow fantasy world ahead, because among these people, there was not a sixth-order Dzogchen peak warrior.

Of course, Qingtian Qi also knew why the ice and snow world had changed. It's eight thousand miles long. That's because the God of War deliberately increased the difficulty.

"It's eight thousand miles long. At my current speed, I don't know how many days it will take to cross it? I now only have seven days left to live. I hope to pass this level within seven days."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi became anxious involuntarily.

At that moment, he handed over to the middle-aged man and said, "Thank you for your reminder. However, I still have to try my hand at this fantasy world of ice and snow. I'll take my leave now!"

After leaving these words, Qingtian Qi hurriedly left.

His figure flashed and he entered the dim world of ice and snow.

The snowflakes flying in the air quickly cut off everyone's sight, leaving Qingtian Qi's figure disappeared into the world of flying snowflakes.

As soon as he entered the fantasy world of ice and snow, Qingtian Qi felt the unstoppable force of cold coming from all around, and instantly penetrated his body.

At the same time, he also heard the sound coming from behind him. Some people are talking

"Huh! This guy is really not afraid of death! With his sixth-level Dzogchen cultivation, he actually dared to try it"

"yes! Even a sixth-level Dzogchen peak warrior may not be able to safely walk out of this ice and snow fantasy world. That guy is really desperate for his life. I think this guy will probably die in there"

"Why! It seems that Brother Lin's well-intentioned dissuasion just now was all in vain."

"Forget it, this is his own choice, let him destroy himself, and he can't blame others."

Hearing the discussion coming from behind, Qingtian Qi no longer has the intention to pay attention to what others think. He is now just anxious to get out of the eight thousand miles fantasy world as soon as possible.

Eight thousand miles, this is a long distance, and fortunately Xuhan The power had no effect on him and did not slow him down.

However, at his current speed, it was still too slow.

That damn Wei Yuanzhong actually snatched away his flame boots, which slowed me down a lot. Young Master.

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi felt angry again in his heart.

"No need to think so much, I still summon the ball. The most important thing is to get out of here as fast as I can."

At that moment, Qing Tianqi stopped and immediately summoned Qiuqiu.

As soon as Qiuqiu saw Qing Tianqi's appearance changed, he was naturally surprised and sad..

Chapter 3232

Qingtian Qi didn't have time to explain to it in detail, so he had to comfort it with a few words.

Then, Qingtian Qi said again:"Qiuqiu! I tell you now, I only have seven days left to live.""

"Woohoo!"

Qiuqiu screamed immediately. It never expected that Qingtian Qi was about to die after not seeing him for a few days.

"alright! Don't be sad, little guy."

Seeing Qiuqiu's sad look, Qingtian Qi felt inexplicably hurt in his heart.

"Ball ball! In fact, I still have a chance to survive. As long as I can enter the life spirit pool on the second floor of this temple, I will live. However, this illusory world of ice and snow is eight thousand miles away. I am worried that my lifespan will have ended before I even get out of this illusory world of ice and snow. I want to merge with you now and walk out of this illusion world as fast as I can"

"Woohoo!!"

Qiuqiu screamed a few times in grief, nodded repeatedly, and then quickly transformed.

At that moment, Qingtian Qi didn't waste any more time, and immediately completed the psychic fusion with Qiuqiu, instantly transforming into a body with a back and two wings. The momentum instantly increased to the strength of 2.56 million people.

As soon as the integration was completed, Qingtian Qi immediately activated the Blood Shadow Escape Technique and Sky Step. His speed instantly increased to the extreme, and immediately turned into an afterimage and rushed forward.

Lost. Without the flame boots, but with the assistance of the Blood Shadow Escape Technique and Sky Step, Qingtian Qi's speed also reached the speed of 3.5 million people.

Of course, Qingtian Qi can achieve such a fast speed because of the virtual The power of cold has no effect on him.

In fact, even the speed of a seventh-level warrior in this fantasy world of ice and snow, due to the influence of the power of cold, can only reach the strength of four million people in the early stage. , because the damage of the power of Xuhan deepens, the speed will also decrease.

In other words, at this moment, Qingtian Qi's speed in this ice and snow fantasy world is infinitely close to the speed of a seventh-level warrior.

In this way, Qingtian Qi launched at full speed , rushing towards the end of the fantasy world of ice and snow.

Four days later, on a certain section of the road in the fantasy world of ice and snow, two warriors were facing the wind and snow, rushing forward with difficulty.

But at this moment, the two warriors' bodies were tangled. There is a layer of ice slag on it, and the movements are very stiff.

"We have been walking in this world of ice and snow for six days, and we don't know how far we have walked?"

"This is not clear. However, you and I should still be in the top two"

"yes! After all, we came out of the maze on the first day, and it seemed like we were the only two. We came out at least one day ahead of them. It would be difficult for those behind us to catch up with us!"

"Ha ha! Of course, unless there are seventh-level warriors behind us, it will be difficult for anyone to catch up with us."

And just when these two people finished saying this, there was a sudden sound of rapid sound breaking through the air behind them. Then, a figure surpassed them in a 'Whoosh!' and disappeared in front of them in the blink of an eye.

"What a terrifying speed!"

The two of them looked at the disappearing figure in front of them in horror.

After a while, the two of them looked at each other in shock and doubt. They both saw the answer in each other's eyes.

"He is a seventh-level warrior!"

"good! Only seventh-level warriors can reach that speed. This should be the first seventh-level warrior we have seen. It seems that we have to speed up quickly to avoid being overtaken by more people."

At that moment, the two of them also sped up and rushed forward.

In fact, the person who just passed them was not the seventh-level warrior, but Qingtian Qi.

In just four days, Qingtian Qi hurried on without sleep. Along the way, he Calculating silently, he found that he had exceeded sixteen people.

However, two of them turned into ice sculptures on the way and froze to death there.

In the blink of an eye, two days passed, which was the first time Qingtian Qi entered the temple. After nine days, he finally successfully passed the ice and snow illusion.

In just six days, Qingtian Qi passed through the eight thousand miles of ice and snow illusion. Even a seventh-level warrior could only do this.

At the exit of the ice and snow illusion, Qingtian Qi silently said I looked at a stone tablet somewhere.

I saw it written in ancient characters: Eight Thousand Miles of Ice and Snow Fantasy Assessment, on the ninth day, 1 person passed.

"There is only one person who has passed. It seems that I am the first one to pass. I am currently ranked first. But I only have one day left to live. I hope that after passing this level, there will be no other tests later, so let me quickly enter the Life Spirit Pond."

Qingtian Qi prayed silently in his heart and walked forward again.

In front of him, there was another passage.

Qingtian Qi immediately followed that passage and walked forward..

Chapter 3233

Soon, Qingtian Qi reached the end of the passage.

But what disappoints Qing Tianqi is that at the end of the passage is not a door leading to the second floor, but a lifeless and cold world.

Looking at the gloomy world ahead, Qing Tianqi smelled the breath of death, and felt inexplicably depressed in his heart.

"how so? Why is there another level?"

Qingtian Qi roared in his heart, and turned his eyes to the side.

There was a stone tablet there, and it was suddenly written in ancient characters: The third level: Eight Thousand Miles of Nirvana. As soon as he saw that line of words, Qingtian Qi's face suddenly turned pale, and then he laughed sadly and said: "Haha!! Eight thousand miles! Another eight thousand miles! Do I have to die here today?"

Eight thousand miles, at Qingtian Qi's current speed, it will take at least six days to pass.

But Qingtian Qi now only has one day left to live.

It is absolutely impossible for him to pass eight thousand miles in one day, not to mention that the Nirvana Realm must be like the Ice and Snow Illusionary Realm, with special harm to the examiner.

In other words, Qingtian Qi has completely fallen into a desperate situation, and the road before him is only a dead end.

Helplessness, sadness, despair Gradually it enveloped Qing Tianqi's heart. He looked at the dark world ahead with sadness and anger, and his heart was full of unwillingness. He saw that the world in front of him was barren and barren. The world was surrounded by darkness, and the smell of death was exuding everywhere.

After a moment, Qing Tianqi His face gradually returned to calmness

"There are many choices in a person's life. Sometimes, whether you choose or not choose, the outcome is already determined. Just like me now, whether I can enter this realm of annihilation or not, I will end up dead!"

Thinking of this, Qing Tianqi's eyes showed a trace of solemnity, and then he laughed sadly, and stepped into the realm of annihilation with determination.

Some people, knowing that the outcome is doomed to fail, will persist in their struggle.

In their dictionary, there is never There is no word 'give up'.

It's like a moth flying into a flame, maybe fearless, maybe tragic, but very poignant!

Qingtian Qi is this kind of person, he will not choose to give up until the end of his life.

"This...how could this happen!"

But as soon as Qingtian Qi stepped into the realm of annihilation, he looked at his hands in horror.

He was horrified to find that his originally dry hands were now rapidly drying up and aging. The backs of his hands were covered with age spots. become older

"Ha ha!! I see! Annihilation! Annihilation! It turns out that this is a world of death that absorbs all life essence. It seems that God is going to kill me! But I'm not convinced!"

Qingtian looked at his hands that were aging at a speed visible to the naked eye. Anger and grief burst out from deep in his eyes. He roared, then started running at full speed and ran towards the end of the world. In the cold and gray world, a naked eye The afterimage that could not be seen clearly was running forward.

One minute, two minutes.

Qingtian Qi clearly sensed that the only one day of life he had left was passing at an extremely fast speed, and his body functions were also changing at an extremely fast speed. Extremely rapid aging and necrosis

"I can't die! I can't die! I'm going to get through here!"

Qingtian Qi roared desperately in his heart. He had clearly felt that his body was on the verge of old age and death. His muscles were gradually dying, his bones were dying, his blood was dying, and even the bone marrow in his whole body was dying.

"Ha ha!! I can't die! I won't die either!"

Qing Tianqi laughed tragically, ignoring the dying of his body with the endless way, exerting all the energy in the last moment of his life, and running wildly in this world of death at an extremely fast speed.

Three minutes, four minutes.

Boom.!

A loud noise!

Qing Tianqi's eyes widened angrily, and he stepped into the ground, leaving a deep pit on the ground.

And at that moment, all his movements stopped suddenly, and the expression on his face froze instantly, His eyes were fixed on that moment forever.

His breathing stopped, his heart stopped, and his blood stopped flowing.

Qingtian Qi's life ended at this moment..

Chapter 3234

In just four minutes, Qingtian Qi only had one day of life left before he was sucked dry by the Nirvana Realm, and his life ended.

In the sky, a cold wind howled, carrying the power of death.

Silence, deathly silence.

In this desolate world, there is nothing but a body of Qingtianqi, maintaining a running posture and standing quietly on the road, his eyes always focused on the distance.

Even in death, he maintained a strong and indomitable attitude.

There was a cry of mourning, and a spiritual shock of extremely sad grief filled the air...

Then, a white light flashed from Qingtian Qi's body, and the ball automatically disintegrated and separated from Qingtian Qi's body.

This change caused Qing Tianqi's body to lose balance and fall to the ground.....

‘Woohoo!!

Tears welled up from Qiuqiu's eyes. It screamed and approached Qing Tianqi's body. Its soft tongue licked Qing Tianqi's face, but it could no longer wake up the once magnificent young man. It could only Feel the gradually losing temperature and the slowly cooling body

"Why!

A long sigh came from the depths of the temple

Then, the sighs stopped suddenly, and the cold world became extremely silent again.

Between heaven and earth, only Qiuqiu is left looking at Qingtian Qi's body, grief-stricken!

‘Woohoo!!"

Looking up to the sky and wailing, the huge sadness shattered Qiuqiu's heart at this moment. It lay desperately next to Qingtian Qi's body and cried silently.

At the same time, the 'War God's Order' sealed in Qing Tianqi's hand was unsealed silently and floated automatically, suspended above Qing Tianqi's body, emitting a faint red light.

Qiuqiu glanced at the War God's Order sadly, then ignored it. His helpless eyes looked at the corpse beside him, which he wanted to protect to the death.

In fact, strictly speaking, Qingtian Qi at this moment has not completely died, because his soul has not yet collapsed.

Generally speaking, after the death of the physical body of warriors below the seventh level, their souls will collapse.

But Qingtian Qi is different. He is a soul mutant. He has also practiced the 'Sixth Transformation Heavenly Soul Technique' and has completed the second transformation. His soul body is more solid than that of an eighth-level warrior, and it will not change with him. The physical body dies and immediately collapses.

I think back then, Tuoba Soul only completed the first turn, and the soul body was able to break out of the body and go around harming people like a ghost.

At this moment, Qing Tianqi's soul body was trapped in his body and could not get out.

Because he did not crush his Heavenly Spirit Cap before his death like Tuoba Hun, his soul body was still trapped in the sea.

In the sea of consciousness, Qingtian Qi's soul body has opened its eyes, looking ahead sadly.

At this moment, the light of the soul body has become extremely dim.

Without the support of the physical body, even if Qing Tianqi practiced the "Six Transformations of Soul Art", it would be a matter of time before his soul collapsed, but he could only support it for ten days longer than ordinary warriors.

At this moment, Qing Tianqi is waiting for death. As soon as his soul collapses, he will be completely dead.

"It seems that I will not escape death after all!"

With a cry of grief and anger, Qingtian Qi's soul body silently looked at the two dim lights in front of him.

Those two lights were the Tao Soul of Fire and the Tao Soul of Wood.

At this moment, the two Tao Souls also became dim.

Especially the Taoist Soul of the Wood, which originally looked like the Qi Mu Ling Tree in the Blue Sky, was verdant and very lush.

But at this moment, the leaves on the Wood Spirit Tree were withered and yellow, and the three white jade immortal flowers were also withering. The entire Wood Soul showed an appearance of gradually withering.

That was the sign that the Wood Soul was about to collapse.

Looking at the withering Wood Soul, Qing Tianqi was silently and inexplicably touched and enlightened. He In his mind, he couldn't help but recall the memories of the Everlasting Tree's life, as well as the years he had gone through in this life.

People always like to reminisce before they die.

After a while, he sighed in his heart: "The morning dew and night-blooming night flowers are so close to each other, and the world is so close, and the way of humanity is like the Yellow River." Ten songs will eventually flow eastward. Eight thousand years old, withered and prosperous overnight, I asked the sky why I need this life? Maybe you don't know what 'death' is when you are alive? Only after death can we know."

Thinking of this, Qingtian Qi's heart suddenly calmed down, and he stared at the withering Wood Spirit Tree in front of him.

Unknowingly, he connected his soul thoughts with those of the Wood Spirit Tree, and quietly Immerse yourself in the experience of death taking away everything...

Chapter 3235

At the same time, in that gloomy and silent world of annihilation.

Qiuqiu changed back to its original appearance, lying pitifully next to Qingtian Qi's body, guarding silently with tears. It could vaguely feel that Qingtian Qi's soul seemed to be still alive.

Time passed minute by minute.

In this realm of annihilation, every day you stay, your lifespan will be reduced by one year.

The life of the ball is slowly passing.

Of course, Qingtian Qi doesn't know anything about the outside world.

Because the death of the physical body cuts off all contact with the soul.

As time goes by, Qingtian Qi's soul body is slowly collapsing.

In the blink of an eye, four days passed.

This day is the thirteenth day since the temple was opened.

In the realm of Nirvana, two figures are rushing forward quickly

"Huh! Brother Xiao, look there is a corpse in front of you!"

Among the two, one of them saw a body lying on the ground not far ahead at a glance.

"yes! Sure enough there was a body. By the way, this guy should be the first one ahead of us. Ha ha!! I don't know how he died here"

"Brother Xiao, look at that corpse with something floating on it. Could it be some kind of treasure?"

"I don't know, let's go over and see what it is?"

At that moment, the two people rushed towards the corpse in front.

In fact, the corpse they saw was naturally Qingtian Qi's corpse.

The suspended thing was the War God's Order.

Soon, the two people rushed to Qingtian Qi's corpse Next to the corpse.

At this time, they also saw clearly the War God's Token floating on Qingtian Qi's corpse.

One of them immediately asked in surprise:"What on earth is this token? It will automatically float in the air, it seems that it is not an ordinary thing. Another person sneered:"No matter what it is, this guy is dead anyway. His things are ownerless things. We can take them away.""

"Ha ha!! It's true what you said, and everything else on him is also ours."

At that moment, the man laughed, stepped forward, and grabbed the War God Token with one hand.

But at this moment, there was a sudden roar, and then a white shadow rushed out from Qingtian Qi's side, and rushed towards the person.

"Huh! What is it?"

Unexpectedly, the visitor had no time to get the War God's Token, and immediately screamed and backed away. Only then did the two of them see clearly that what was stopping them was actually a small animal covered in white fur.

That small animal was naturally a ball. Qiuqiu.

When he saw that it was Qiuqiu, the person who was stopped by Qiuqiu immediately said angrily:"What is stopping me? It turns out to be a little beast!"

"Brother Xiao, it seems that this beast should be the pet of the dead guy. It can be seen that this evil beast is loyal. If we want to get that token, we have to kill this evil beast first."

"snort! Then kill this evil beast!"

After saying this, the man roared and struck Qiuqiu with his sword first.

This immediately made Qiuqiu furious. It quickly dodged to avoid the sword, then roared, transformed instantly, and attacked Qiuqiu. It actually emanates from the whole body

"Huh! not good! This beast is not simple!"

As soon as they felt the terrifying aura emanating from Qiuqiu, their expressions changed drastically, and they turned around and ran away.

But at this time, Qiuqiu had completed his second transformation and turned into a two-headed beast, and his aura instantly reached a level of The power of 1.5 million people.

During this period, Qiuqiu has digested the energy of the two pieces of Ziyun Gold, and its combat power has also been increased to the power of 1.5 million people.

Once the transformation is completed, Qiuqiu is fierce As soon as he pounced, he caught up with the slower running man and pierced his chest with a claw.

The man screamed and died on the spot.

The other man took the opportunity to run more than ten meters away.

But he didn't have time. After running further, Qiuqiu's third eye between his eyebrows opened, shooting out a divine light of destruction, killing that man on the spot.

In just a blink of an eye, the two sixth-level Dzogchen peak warriors were all killed by Qiuqiu...
