C14 Pursuing and Escaping

After Huo Tian left, Wang Yueming frowned, "Butler, are you telling the truth? Is there a problem with the organization of Prime Minister's Mansion?"

"Young Master, yes. The organization is incomplete. They are all incomplete. Also, the number of assassins in Prime Minister's Mansion has decreased by quite a bit..." The butler said worriedly.

What? The number of assassins has decreased as well? Could it be that... quickly go and investigate and see if the person who was killed by Huo Tian is our assassin...

"Wang Yueming was instantly enraged.

"Yes, young master, I will send someone to investigate right now!" Guan Family's heart trembled as he said.

"Wait a minute. Go and kill Huo Tian. You must kill him and get all the evidence back. As for the identity token of the killer, don't make any mistakes. Put it down first. In addition, the weapons are all equipped with the weapons you bought." Wang Yueming had a cold smile on his face as he thought of Huo Tian's miserable death.

The departure of Huo Tian made Li Yang of the Minister of War smile. "You went to Prime Minister's Mansion to find trouble, and you were alone. How could Wang Yueming let you go? It seems like there will be a good show to watch. This show has been done well enough."

At this moment, Huo Tian didn't know that the reason why he came to Prime Minister's Mansion alone was because Wang Yueming was afraid of him. If he really provoked him, he wouldn't have to leave today.

If he was left here, no one would know about him. Who would know about the prisoners?

However, just as Huo Tian left the city, those people sent by Huo Ming and Old Master Huo Ye were also paying attention to Huo Tian's movements at all times.

Naturally, they didn't care about killing people within ten kilometers of the city. As soon as Huo Tian left the city and the assassins appeared, the people that Huo Ming and Old Master Huo Ye had sent over noticed him.

After Huo Tian left the city, he also sensed the killing intent. However, it wasn't just a killing intent, but also the killing intent of the two major powers. To Huo Tian, this was no stranger.

However, this caused Huo Tian to furrow his brows. Could one of these two powers be Li Yang's? And the other one belonged to Wang Yueming of Prime Minister's Mansion?

The two assassin forces had let Huo Tian know that danger was approaching. Once they surrounded him, he was afraid that there would be no way for him to retreat. He had to try his best to run to the other cities outside the city.

However, the main road was outside the Imperial City. This place was a prefecture, which gave Huo Tian hope.

Huo Tian had increased the speed of his horse to the maximum, but the assassins chasing after him made Huo Tian even more worried.

However, the assassins obviously didn't want to let Huo Tian go. The darts and hidden weapons were also aimed at Huo Tian. Even the horse under him was hit by the hidden weapons, and its speed was greatly reduced.

Just as Huo Tian was about to run away, the two groups of assassins started to fight. This made Huo Tian feel very strange. They continued to run away, but these assassins also broke out of the encirclement and continued to chase after Huo Tian.

More than ten people had died in a single battle. This made the other group of assassins feel even more pressured. However, with the orders of the steward today, Huo Tian was going to die.

They had no choice but to chase after Huo Tian with all their might. This sudden sneak attack had also caused them to suffer heavy losses. However, their mission was to kill Huo Tian. The strength of these people was the same. They could only try to stop them one by one and then break out of the encirclement to kill Huo Tian.

A hidden weapon pierced into Huo Tian's shoulder. Immediately, Huo Tian's shoulder felt numb and he felt miserable. This hidden weapon was poisonous.

After a great chase, the two great assassin forces chased after each other. They chased after each other from dawn until dusk. At night, the poison in Huo Tian's body completely erupted and he fell off his horse.

As for the horse, it was poisoned to death. As for Huo Tian's strength, he was temporarily half-dead. However, the assassins sent by Wang Yueming were completely wiped out. In this place, the assassins sent by Huo Ming and Old Master Huo Ye had taken Huo Tian away.

When the prime minister came back in the afternoon, he saw the blade on the plaque in front of his house and immediately became furious. However, with just a glance, the blade was actually used by the assassins under him. He quickly ordered his men to remove the blade and immediately sent someone to change the plaque.

When he returned to the house, he was told that it was actually Huo Tian's doing. Just when he was furious, Wang Yueming's words calmed the prime minister down.

So it turned out that all of this was a frame-up, but when he heard that Wang Yueming had sent people to kill Huo Tian, it made the prime minister even more furious. Once Huo Tian was killed, this matter really couldn't be solved...

"Father, if Huo Tian doesn't die, all of this will be exposed. Then the Prime Minister's Mansion must be attacked by someone first..."

"Bastard, are you an old fool? Although this Huo Tian is big and thick, He has a fiery temper and isn't good at scheming. " When he was used by someone, that Huo Ming kid... He was over ten years old, and he was even more ignorant of the world. Being hunted down by someone, it was obvious that someone was trying to frame Prime Minister's Mansion. Can't you tell? You bastard, you are so stupid that you sent someone to hunt Huo Tian down... "

"Father, what should we do now?" Wang Yueming asked.

"What should we do? "You don't know. In the morning, the Monarch knocked several ministers to the ground because of his anger. Fortunately, I am old and am not involved. As for the prison incident, I have sent people to investigate thoroughly..."

"Uh, then father, this Huo Tian..." Wang Yueming continued to ask.

"Huo Tian, it's best that he's not dead. If he's dead, that b * stard Li Yang will also report to the Monarch that we tried to assassinate Huo Tian. Although that old man Huo Ye is old, I can still tell from the Monarch that this guy is an old fox..."

"Once he knows that he will definitely cooperate with Li Yang to report to us, Prime Minister's Mansion will definitely become the target of public criticism..." The prime minister sighed. After leaving, he had encountered such a thing.

"Alright, then I will do it now!" Wang Yueming bowed to his father and left immediately.

After Huo Tian was taken away by Old Master Huo Ye's men, he headed towards Huo City. In the end, he left Huo Tian under the city wall at night. He was discovered by the patrols and brought back to Huo City.

The entire Huo family was immediately lit up by the news that Huo Tian was brought back to the Huo City. Lan Ling'er had a face full of tears. Looking at the unconscious Yun Tian, she almost fainted again.

However, she finally remembered something and ran towards Huo Ming. After finding Huo Ming, Lan Ling'er told him about Huo Tian's condition. Huo Ming's heart twitched and he quickly ran to Huo Tian's place.

This plan was just a fake, but he did not expect Huo Tian to be involved in it. Huo Ming naturally could not say anything. Huo Tian was his father, so he could only save his life.
