Chapter 19 - Lord Yun Que -

C19 Lord Yun Que

"I'll fight him sooner or later. Therefore, from now on, I plan to cut off those foolish and loyal thoughts of mine. The Huo family has been loyal for generations, following the late emperor and conquering the world. From a small city to the current Baizhu Country, you might not know that there are some small countries outside the Baizhu Country, but there are still supreme big countries above the Baizhu Country!"

"The Baizhu Country is one of the hundred countries. This place holds an extremely high position in many small countries. It is also because back then, the Huo family swore to die for the country. That's how things are today..."

"Even if it is a feudal state, it is still much better than me, the founding general. I will not take that land that has accumulated poverty and accumulated weakness, even if it is given to me..."

"I'm afraid that only those who have no brains would accept such a place. What I have to spend half of my life to do so. Since Yun Que doesn't take it seriously, why should I put my life on the line?" Old Master Huo Ye heaved a sigh of relief. He looked at Huo Ming as if he was looking at another future.

"This time, Wang Yueming will definitely do something to those people. Right, I will send some people to control the entire Imperial City and set down some spies. This way, it will be better than nothing. For us, it will be more proactive..."

"Although this Wang Yueming won't tell Yun Que about this matter, it's hard to say if he won't attack us after attacking Yun Que. We need to be prepared for this!"

Old Master Huo Ye's analysis was also what Yun Tian was worried about. It was hard to guarantee that Wang Yueming and the others wouldn't bite them after successfully attacking them. This was extremely painful.

"How about this, grandpa? You should also keep an eye on the situation. Once the situation changes, you should get out of here immediately. However, since this Yun Que dared to bring his men here, Then it proves that he is very confident..."

"At the same time, it is hard to guarantee that Yun Que will succeed without the protection of any experts. If he fails, Wang Yueming will stab us out. This will be troublesome..."

Huo Ming's analysis was excellent. Old Master Huo Ye nodded happily. "Alright, that's it. It's better not to talk about Huo Tian anymore. Otherwise, he, this big guy, will be brave and reckless, and in the end, something bad will happen to him..."

The next morning, when the gong and drums sounded, Old Master Huo Ye and the others immediately rushed out.

"Greetings, Monarch!" Old Master Huo Ye and the others bowed to the king Yun Que, but Huo Ming looked around helplessly, as if he didn't know who the king Yun Que was.

"This is..." Yun Que suddenly saw Huo Ming looking around and asked.

"Monarch, this is my grandson, Huo Ming..." Old Master Huo Ye pulled Huo Ming over and wanted him to bow. He didn't expect Huo Ming to be so uncooperative.

"Forget it, it's fine. He's young, and he's like this. Alright, I'll go pay my respects to the old prime minister first..." Yun Que waved his hand and strode in.

Looking at the people beside Yun Que, Huo Ming's expression changed slightly, but he was naturally not noticed by others.

Huo Ming could naturally tell that this man was very strong. He was around the Spiritual Infant Stage realm, which was much stronger than his grandfather. If he were to face this man, he was afraid that he would only be able to catch him by surprise.

This man had an extremely strong killing intent. Normally, very few people would be able to get close to him. Once they got close, they would be killed without mercy.

This should be the personal guard of the Sovereign King, Yun Que. His strength was extremely strong, and he was constantly protecting the safety of the Sovereign King.

Towards this Sovereign King, Yun Que, who had an extremely noble aura and a faintly discernible aura, Huo Ming could sense the aura of death and danger from his body.

The aura of death, he had no idea where it came from. However, this sense of danger came from the Sovereign King Yun Que's body. It was as if he was a poisonous snake waiting for him to approach.

Wang Yueming walked into the main hall. He was wearing a white robe and was kneeling down. When he saw Yun Que, the Sovereign King, walk in, he was about to stand up when he heard Yun Que stop him. "There's no need to do this. Just do what you need to do. I will offer my condolences. Men, bring the Imperial Decree!"

"Old Prime Minister, Wang Chongxi, since he was thirty years old, entered the government residence. Through the examination, he became a civil official. After ten years of hard work, he became the Prime Minister. Due to your contributions and hard work, he allowed you to be buried. Everything that belongs to you will be buried in the grave. As for your position, I will keep it and give it to your son, Wang Yueming..."

"You have a good journey! Light some incense and pray, send your blessings!" Yun Que said slowly.

"Well, this is another imperial decree. It is to give you the position of Prime Minister! This is also because of the hard work of the Prime Minister. This is the reward. I hope that from now on, Prime Minister Wang will make a better contribution to the country..." Yun Que patted Wang Yueming's shoulder and slowly said.

"Yes, thank you for your kindness, my lord. I can't thank you enough!" Wang Yueming cupped his fists and bowed to Yun Que.

"Good, Your Majesty is also very sorry about this matter. Many days ago, Your Majesty met the old prime minister in the Imperial Court. It has only been a short while, and the old prime minister has passed away from the world. How unfortunate!" Yun Que sighed.

"Your Majesty, there is no need to say much. Your father must be grateful for your kindness. He will die a thousand times!" Wang Yueming bowed and said.

"I have heard a lot of things like this. By the way, I'm very curious about your father's death. As for the old marshal, why are you all in Prime Minister's Mansion? "I heard from Minister of War Li Yang that you seem to have brought an army here?" Yun Que frowned and finally got to the point.

"The matter with the Monarch is like this. Old Marshal Huo has been searching everywhere for his grandson, but for some reason, when he appeared again, he was hunted down and heavily injured. He has only recovered a few moments ago..."

"As for those people, they secretly left behind the weapons and tokens of Prime Minister's Mansion. They wantonly framed him, so the Huo Tian Family Head was extremely angry. They came to our doorstep to seek justice, but our Prime Minister's Mansion... Of course there's something to say. On the way back to the Huo City, the Huo family's master was being hunted down. And those people left behind some things that belonged to the Prime Minister's Mansion... In this way, Old Marshal Huo found out about this matter. He had also brought people to denounce them. As for the army that they were talking about, That was something that did not need to be done. It was just that he brought some people with him. It was easier to protect them so that there would not be another sneak attack..."

"Coincidentally, when we came to Prime Minister's Mansion to denounce them, someone killed my father in the dark that night. That's why I let my father stay away from the world for the rest of the night..."

Wang Yueming's words were reasonable and logical. He didn't even ask Old Master Huo Ye to add anything.

"Why didn't you report this to me? Why did you suppress it? This caused the thief to take advantage of the situation and make the Prime Minister sacrifice himself?" After Yun Que heard this, he immediately became furious and looked at the few of them.

"This, Monarch, this is something that can't be helped. Our Prime Minister's Mansion is heavily guarded, and some of the generals' soldiers did not find out about father's death..."

"Alright then, let's leave this matter at that. Are the father and son of the Huo family alright? Zhan Yun, remember to find a few imperial physicians after you return to the palace to help the Huo family's master and little Huo Ming see how their injuries are. Also, bring some things to replenish their bodies along with them..."

"Thank you, Your Majesty. Huo Ye will thank you on behalf of the father and son pair..."
