C5 Soldiers Set up the Formation

"Ming, what are you trying to do? Old Master Huo Ye didn't understand what Huo Ming was thinking.

"Grandpa, look. I will draw a picture for you. Take a look. This is the Imperial City of the Lord. Below it are all the civil and military officials of the court. " The closer you get, the closer you get to the Imperial City, and the closer you get to the Imperial City, the closer you get to the Imperial City, the closer you get to the Imperial City, the closer you get to the Imperial City. "

"Military power. Grandpa, you have handed it over long ago, and left it behind! There are only 30 thousand guards left. But the real one is the guards. Here, I think less than 20%. In other words, there are only 6,000 of them. But there are still more than 6,000 people here. Four thousand, no, three thousand or even less. However, there were still two thousand people... "

"Grandpa, look at this map again!" Huo Ming pointed at the hanging map. This was the national map of Baizhu Country, the center of it. Along the perimeter of the Imperial City. It is the high or low position of civil and military officials. The civil officials have always been relatively close to the Imperial City, and the generals. When you look at it, the order of this arrangement is... The positions and positions are all under the protection of the Imperial City Guards. As for the positions of the Imperial City Guard Army, although the positions are constantly changing, The Imperial City Guard Army... "

"Ming, how do you know all of this?" Old Master Huo Ye was shocked. Huo Ming was right, and there was no reason for him to refute him.

"Grandpa, actually, if you want to rebel, you might be the biggest rebel. If the Monarch wants to kill you, I'm afraid that you will be the first one to be killed..."

Huo Ming's. One sentence made Old Master Huo Ye frown, "How, how is this possible?"

"How is this possible? Grandpa, I knew you were going to say this... "Huo Ming had a smile on his face, but it was a strange smile on the face of a young man who was ten years old.

The tender voice made people wonder if it was true or not. This made Old Master Huo Ye think that he had seen a demon.

"This map of the country, the marks all over the place, as well as the marks on the edges, were all marked by you, grandpa? " There are also these extra words, for example, this is the Mist Sea, that is the Bone Land. " Also, this is Blood City... "

"I believe in these things. But here... " Grandpa, you marked them according to the things left behind by Grandpa and the others, right? And these things, if the emperor were to come up... He would not mind, but if it was someone who was good at scheming... "Then, you will be the greatest traitor in Baizhu Country!"

Huo Ming's words made Old Master Huo Ye's expression change again and again. He had never paid attention to these things. And these places, there were clearly marked things. Even the layout of the Imperial City, these were all taken from the things left behind by his father. There were also some that were marked. It's him as a marshal, as a great commander, As a military advisor, he had the instincts to do so. However, Huo Ming said it one by one. This made Old Master Huo Ye pay attention to all of this.

"In that case, are we going to accept these things..." For the first time, Old Master Huo Ye realized that if it wasn't for Huo Ming, he really wouldn't have known about these things. Even if he was framed by someone in the end, he had nothing to say. He could only accept the injustice. If the Monarch didn't agree to let him go, he was afraid that he could only be treated as a rebel...

"Then, Ming, what do you think we should do? Old Master Huo Ye completely believed in Huo Ming. He was also slowly approaching Huo Ming.

"What we can do is not wait to die. We need to train our soldiers immediately. "Huo Ming's! A single sentence made Old Master Huo Ye even more confused.

" Training soldiers? Old Master Huo Ye looked at Huo Ming strangely.

"Yes, training soldiers. As a general, how can we do without good soldiers? Huo Ming asked slowly.

"My..." Old Master Huo Ye was about to say something when he heard Huo Ming say, "Grandpa, are those good soldiers? The old, the weak, the sick, and the disabled are just some useless veterans. " Do you think the Monarch will give you good soldiers? "In my opinion, only you, Grandfather, will grow old and blind. Do you really think that you are still the same old me..."

"I'm afraid that this is also the Monarch. I really can trust you. The reason why he kept you is because he has always thought of you... At the end of the road, you are at the end of your rope, and you are at the end of your rope. So, all of this... He thinks so, and you think so too. If one day, he doesn't think so... If you are bewitched by someone else, then grandfather, you will be the first person to be killed... "

Although Huo Ming's words were somewhat unpleasant to hear, when Old Master Huo Ye heard them, he was extremely happy in his heart. Alright, I'll listen to Ming. Grandpa will go down now and let them train their soldiers..."

"Grandpa, wait a minute. Training their soldiers isn't like this. Grandpa, you should go and calculate everyone's identity, as well as the exact time of enlistment, or the time of enlistment. I will think about it first..." Huo Ming said seriously.

"Alright, let's get someone to find out everything about the army..." Old Master Huo Ye was about to say something when Huo Ming stopped him. Grandpa, we need to find someone who isn't a trusted aide. This way, the effect will be better..."

Old Master Huo Ye's body shook when he heard this. Alright, grandpa knows. Grandpa will take care of it..."

After Old Master Huo Ye left, Huo Ming's taut string finally relaxed. "Huo Ming has been calculating these things ever since he was young, even when he was a baby. It was only now that he had formed all his plans.

Now that his cultivation base couldn't be rushed, In that case, he could only put the safety of Huo family, Marshal's Mansion, and his grandfather's safety first.

In the past ten years, without his grandfather, Old Master Huo Ye, overseeing the Huo City, Huo City would have declined a long time ago. With just Huo Tian alone, without Lan Ling'er's support, the entire Huo family would not have flourished to such an extent. In the Huo family, only Huo Ming, Huo Tian, and Huo Ye were males. As for the two females, Huo Lan and Lan Ling'er, however, this kind of situation was even more terrifying...

Huo Ye was the founding general. Although it was only an inheritance, in these years, For the past few years, he had made a lot of contributions to the king. It was not as if there was no war in the frontier. And every time there was a war, Old Master Huo Ye... Always sending troops to suppress those locations, In fact, it wasn't anything else. It was when Old Master Huo Ye went to war. There were also some places among them. It was a place that loved war. The status of Baizhu Country wasn't too high.

Sometimes, other countries would invade from time to time, stealing resources and everything else. It was precisely these that made many people fear the surrounding countries.

Actually, many of those words just now were spoken casually by Huo Ming. However, just by saying it casually, he was able to see through it more clearly than anyone else. He had considered more than anyone else. This was not a lie.

It was precisely because he had become weaker that he was unwilling to move again. However, a tiger without teeth was still a tiger and would not turn into a cat.

Once it displayed its might, it was not something a mere cat could resist. In Old Master Huo Ye's hands, an army of thirty thousand soldiers would be a valiant and valiant army. It was an iron army, but it would not fear anything if it went up a mountain of blades or descended into a sea of fire.

However, Huo Ming would never believe that the Monarch said that he was not on guard. It was also because of this that Huo Ming really saw a loophole. Rather than saying it was a loophole, it would be more accurate to say it was a dead end. Because this was the place that the Monarch had been guarding against. Once this place was here, it would be more accurate to say it was a dead end. Even if nothing happened, there would be a slight mistake. Because he will definitely not wait until after the incident happens. Instead, he would make his move before the incident occurred. Just try to control it, or get rid of it.

Regardless of the status and power of the Huo family, it had shocked many people. Once Old Master Huo Ye really left, he would stay away from the world. Then the first one to attack should be Old Master Huo Ye.

That was why Huo Ming asked Old Master Huo Ye to prepare for the rainy day and prepare all the information about the three guards, as well as the time to enter the army, and everything else.

Three days passed in a flash. Three days later, in the same room as before, Master Huo Ye called for Huo Ming.

Looking at the book that was as tall as a mountain, Huo Ming felt a headache coming on. "Grandpa, this..."

"It's all here. It's very detailed. I didn't want to make any mistakes, so I found all of them. These things have actually been placed here for a long time..."

Huo Ming only took a glance and moved his hand. A spark the size of a grain of rice fell upon the book, and in an instant the books turned to ash. "These are all useless, so... This time, I still need Grandfather and I to personally take a look. What kind of people are there in this army? If possible, I will choose to put them in an important position, but if they are bad..."

"Send them home?" Old Master Huo Ye frowned.

"Of course not. These people must be left behind to create an illusion, but at the same time, we must also eliminate some people in secret. These people can be killed, but we must also kill them in secret. These people are all spies, but the reason must be reasonable. When training soldiers, there will be injuries, and we can hurt them on purpose..." Huo Ming said. Old Master Huo Ye immediately understood what Huo Ming meant.

"Alright, I understand. Then let's go now. " Old Master Huo Ye was already used to Huo Ming's style. He didn't feel anything bad about it.

By the way, grandpa, is that the most loyal army you have here? " Huo Ming suddenly asked.

Old Master Huo Ye thought for a while and then said, "It should be the Black Fist Army. However, this army has always been very arrogant. They might not accept you..."

"That's fine. This is the kind of person I want. For the time being, my identity will be kept a secret. Grandpa, get someone to find some cloaks to cover me up..." Huo Ming said to the old man in a low voice.

"Okay, I got it. I'll get someone to arrange it..."
