

God of Life 1901

Chapter 1901: Fang Yue's foresight

"This Fang Yue's analysis is quite reasonable. For a long time, the forces of various races within a certain area have reached a hidden balance. The successive defeats of the Black Demons have already lost their soldiers and replaced them. Balanced system, if they send troops to crusade against the human race again, regardless of victory or defeat, they will inevitably lead to another loss of clan power and the crusade and prying eyes of other races! At that time, the victory of the black demons is unknown, but they will definitely be regarded as fat by other races Eat meat! Fang Yue is gambling, and he dare not make a bet on the Black Demon! Although his bet is a bit bolder, his calculations are accurate!"

Gu Qiuyun was speechless by Fang Yue's rebuttal. He never thought that Fang Yue would actually take one step and look at three steps. It was already so much for him!

"Even so, Fang Yue, you can't kill me. Although I have a relationship with the Black Demon Race, only the Judgment Division in Tianque City can convict me. If you kill me, you are rebelling. Waiting for you to betray the Human Race!"

Gu Qiuyun has already felt the awe-inspiring murderous intent on Fang Yue, he wants to find a way out for himself!

As the second city lord of Tianque City, Gu Qiuyun's strength is amazing. He is also a strong man at the Great Sacred Realm level, and he is not much worse than Black Wing in terms of combat power and methods.

If it was a normal battle, he would not be afraid of Fang Yue, and even Fang Yue's Yin-Yang level cultivation realm would be worse than a powerful ant in his eyes.

However, at this moment, he was unfortunate enough to enter the urn, and his whole person's strength could not even be displayed. His cultivation level was suppressed under the saint. He was not as good as Black Wing, and even worse than Fang Yue.

"The law enforcement department who has become your lackey? Gu Chengzhu, do you think I will be stupid enough to let the tiger go back?"

Fang Yue chuckled, as if he was watching an idiot.

"After I kill you, it will disrupt the universe, and no one can guess the cause of your death! What is your life and death to me? Originally, I also prepared evidence of your collusion with the black demons, waiting for me to repel the black demons. After the clan, you used it when you attacked me. Unexpectedly, you and the Dark Demons came together to launch an ambush against me. It seems that I don't need evidence to convict you!"

"Fang Yue, you can't!"

Gu Qiuyun yelled in horror at the other Yue, but before his voice broke, Fang Yue had already appeared behind him, hitting Gu Qiuyun's neck with an elbow, and Gu Qiuyun slipped to the ground like a mud loach without bones.

The second city lord in Tianque City, who is known for being strong, was so easily surrendered by Fang Yue, which made Mosquito Dao Ren and Chen Pingping also feel a sense of grief.

"People shouldn't look like, if Fang Yue really breaks out of the control of the League of People, in order to come, I am afraid it will really make the climate and become a hero!"

The mosquito person laughed.

"It's just taking advantage of the situation to kill people. If you get out of the scope of this Tianshi Mountain, Fang Yue's desire to capture Hei Yi and Gu Qiuyun is not that simple!"

Although Chen Pingping felt a little turmoil in her heart, she was still tough.

The big fish was eaten, and the remaining small shrimps were quickly caught alive by Fang Yue.

In addition to the Black Wing, the Black Demon Race also came with eight saints and 256 powerful masters!

Now that Fang Yue has swept it all out, the impact on the Dark Demon Race Tianyuan City can be imagined.

"If Tianque City can grasp it well, and actively operate, the vertical and horizontal alliance may really cause a strong blow to Tianyuan City this time! It's just not easy to say whether anyone in Tianque City has such courage and courage!"

The mosquito road man showed a regretful expression: "If I knew it, I promised Fang Yue a higher position from the beginning, at least let him become the fifth guardian in Tianque City, and he has some say in Tianque City! Now, This Fang Yue is a corner of Yongfeng Town. Although he has amazing talents, he doesn't display it! He has created such a situation, but he is likely to be wasted by some fools!"

The battle has ended, and the mosquito road man and Chen Pingping also walked out of the dark.

"Fang Yue this time you exposed the conspiracy of the Black Demon Race. You captured a great sage and eight saints from the Black Demon Race. Hundreds of masters in the master realm have killed hundreds of warriors in the Yin-Yang realm. A great accomplishment! This time the credit alliance will not obliterate you, if you have any conditions, just say it!"

The mosquito man is quite generous, Fang Yue's achievements are brilliant, such a record is comparable to the results of a small battle between the two races.

What's more important is that the human race has never lost a bit of man.

"These results will be converted into combat exploits for me! Heiyi, Gu Tianyun, and other Black Demon Clan saints and leaders of the leader level I will give them all to the League! There are many Black Demon Clan in their bodies. The secret, if you dig carefully, you should be able to find some other clues!"

Fang Yue was not greedy for power. He actually knew more about the secrets of Tianshishan and the mystery of the destruction of the mysterious gate, but Heiyi was right. The more he knew, the faster he would die! It's better to pretend to be stupid and let the mosquito man and Chen Pingping go to trial and control!

These secrets have involved some high-level games and battles among the various races.

Fang Yue plans to stop participating, otherwise, if he becomes a * in the high-level game of the various races in the underworld, the power system involved at that level is too high, and he may be annihilated and vanish if he is not careful!

"You know how to advance and retreat! Seeing that you are still aware of the current affairs, I will promote you to the twelfth level of the People League, and give you three hundred silver merits, one thousand bronze merits, and thirty thousand black iron merits. reward!"

This time Chen Pingping's generous surprise surprised Fang Yue.

Even the mosquitoes can't help but look, why Chen Pingping, who has always been disfavored by Fang Yue, has given generously this time!

However, the mosquito person never asked carefully. Chen Pingping had Chen Pingping's plan. After all, he was only a real immortal, and his status was much worse than that of Chen Pingping, who was a spiritual immortal!

"However, Fang Yue, you have to remember that this incident has not happened from now on! We will arrange another statement after Gu Tianyun's death. Don't worry about this! There are some things you can participate in. But some things are not something you can participate in!"

Chen Pingping warned Fang Yue very solemnly.

Fang Yue nodded fiercely to express his understanding!

Afterwards, Chen Pingping left in a hurry!

The mosquito person frowned: "This black demon is colluding with the evil demon outside of the sky. According to the truth, Chen Pingping's character should be called to ask Renmengxing to ask the crime! But she was able to swallow this breath and make you serious. Small things, small things! There must be something tricky in it!"

The gossip heart of the mosquito person rose up in an instant.

Fang Yue pursed his lips: "Since we are not allowed to participate in this matter, let's not discuss it! Master Chen Pingping is right. Not knowing some things is not necessarily a good thing! However, it is a good thing to be able to produce oil on the stone mountain this time. What a good thing!"

"Oil? Good thing?"

The mosquito person can't help but froze.

"Is the oil you talking about the sticky black liquid that you sent someone to dig under this Tianshi Mountain?"

"Yes, it is oil. Many precious raw materials can be extracted from oil! Other than that, a fuel can be extracted from oil that can replace the yin stone lamp! The brightness of the two is almost the same, but with this Fuel to replace the Yin Stone Lamp can save a lot of Yin Stone resources needed for daily practice."

As Fang Yue said, he took out a kerosene lamp from the storage bag for fear that the mosquitoes would not believe it.

His fingertips lit up, and a cluster of kerosene lamps lit.

Sure enough, after a few breaths, the lamp was lit and the flame flickered, and its brightness was not inferior to that of the Yin Stone Lamp!

"Fang Yue, what are you doing with this stuff? You can't kill the enemy, nor can you improve your strength. Your energy is precious and should be used in more important areas!"

Unexpectedly, the mosquito person saw the kerosene lamp and did not appreciate it at all, but the other party Yue Bei groaned, with a look of hatred for iron and steel!

For the human race in the underworld, they are already in a crisis-ridden state. What they need most is not a daily necessities such as kerosene lamps, but more powerful and violent weapons or training of more advanced talents. system!

Fang Yue had done extremely well in these areas before, but at this time, why did Fang Yue start to be concerned with kerosene lamps, such an insignificant daily necessities?

In the incomprehension of the mosquito man, Fang Yue laughed softly: "My lord mosquito man, what does the human race lack the most to cultivate the human race?"

"Resources, all kinds of resources. Although the bloodlines of the human race are humble, the frequency of mutation is scary. On average, there will be at least three people with bloodline and physical mutations in every one hundred ordinary human races! These bloodlines Some of the mutants with physique have mutated in bad directions, but more people have mutated in better directions! There is no shortage of geniuses in the human race, and there is no shortage of talented people. However, the human race is weak, but it is There are not enough resources to screen and train these talented people! This is also the biggest regret of the older generation of us!"

The mosquito person explained and reviewed the current situation to Fang Yue without hesitation.

"The kerosene lamp I made is gradually solving the problem of lack of resources. Although the yin stone lamp is popular, on average, a yin stone lamp will burn a low-grade yin stone every three days! And this kerosene in my hand Lamps can be used to replace yin stone lamps, saving a lot of yin stone! The yin stone resources saved by one two yin stone lamps may not be much, but the yin stone saved by thousands of yin stone lamps over time The stone is a terrible number! And the burning of the petroleum buried in the stone mountain is comparable to the light energy produced by the burning of hundreds of millions of lower grade Yin stones!"

Fang Yue's voice fell, and the mosquito path man suddenly became clear.

"Hundreds of millions of inferior Yin Stones?" The mosquito person's voice trembled. Although the inferior Yin Stones are not valuable, if measured in billions, they are enough to cultivate hundreds or even thousands of human talents!

"Yes. Hundreds of millions of Yin Stones, and oil is a resource buried in the underworld. If all of them are mined, they can be widely promoted in the Human Race, and more Yin Stones can be saved. Revolutions at the bottom can often be possible. Decide the development of the entire ethnic group! Only the resources saved by the Yinshi Lantern can make people have an unimaginable number of masters every year!"

Fang Yue's words made the mosquito person's mood completely excited!

It turned out that Fang Yue had a long-term plan, and his consideration has been so long-term!

Yes, if this is a plan to promote the development of the entire human race, it will be an extremely great pioneering work.

The declining strength of the human race will even recover a little bit and rise!

Chapter 1902: The secret of the mysterious door

"Yin stone lamp is only one of them! The role of oil is far more than that! Asphalt can also be produced in oil, oh, asphalt is a special liquid that can harden pavement. Using this liquid can make people The roads of Terran have become flat and firm, and the efficiency of transportation has been increased several times! The trade between different cities of Terran will also become smoother, and even Terran and other ethnic groups can build roads to exchange existence! In trade In the process, the human race's economy will be more prosperous! Wealth can be exchanged for more resources to provide spiritual resources for the descendants of the human race!"

Fang Yue's thoughts are far-reaching. Although this oil has many uses, it is currently Human Race's top priority to make fuel and road hardening!

The construction of internal affairs requires not only the commonly used strategy of Bo Fu Qingji, but also technological progress.

"Okay, okay, okay! Your thoughts are really clever! If what you say can be promoted, you will be the future guide of the Human Race and a great hero of the Human Race! I will record all the things you said and report them to you. The high-level human race, when the time comes, your human race will inevitably give you the merits and awards!"

The mosquitoes are excited and have the urge to dance and dance!

"The race between races is on the surface a battle of force and a battle between the strong, but its real essence is a battle for resources and a battle for heritage! However, all the high-level people of all races still focus on the force. The knowledge of internal affairs resources is relatively shallow! If we can grasp this characteristic and strive for the upper reaches, the time for Human Race to rise again will not be too far away!"

Fang Yue said to the mosquito person.

After hearing this, the mosquito person nodded frequently, thinking that what Fang Yue said was quite reasonable!

There has been a series of wars among the ten thousand races, and the consumption of practitioners at any level of the race is astonishing. Part of the consumption of this practitioner is the consumption of the population, and the other part is the consumption of various resources for training practitioners. , If the shortage of resources can be made up, the human race will have more upper hand in the war of the underworld!

"Fang Yue, I suddenly felt that it would be too awkward for you to only act as the guardian of this Yongfeng County! If you were to take charge of the Human Race domain, the corresponding realm would probably be at an astonishing speed. Rise rapidly to glory!"

The mosquito person said this, not a compliment, but a heartfelt speech. Let Fang Yue act as the guardian of this Yongfeng Town, but his limited rights restrained Fang Yue's infinite talent.

"This is no problem! In fact, the potential of Yongfeng Town is very large, and it can be tapped! If Yongfeng Town is not enough for me to display my talents, I can also release my talents through other channels! For example, this Tianshishan. I plundered it from the hands of the Dark Demons. There is also an Anhua Mountain five hundred miles away. There is also a large amount of oil resources in the mountains. The oil reserves are about one-tenth of the Tianshi Mountain. The resources collected in Shishan Mountain were exhausted this day, so I captured Anhua Mountain as a new mining area!"

Fang Yue smiled.

The hairs on the back of the mosquito man exploded.

He almost forgot that this Fang Yue was not a pure internal affair talent, or a living bandit, and a robber.

He is braver and bolder than all the generals in Tianque City combined! He dares to do everything that others dare not do!

In the eyes of others, the Black Demon Race may be an unprovokable existence, and in Fang Yue's eyes, the Black Demon Race is just a fat sheep to be slaughtered.

Fortunately, Fang Yue's cultivation level is still low and he is taking the path of cultivating at the same time. If his cultivation level rises, how can other people survive!

After chatting for a few words, the mosquito person turned and left!

He was worried that talking with Fang Yue for a long time would hit him too hard, causing him to be unlovable in the end.

When the mosquito person left, Fang Yue did not leave Tianshi Mountain.

He whispered: "I've been hiding for so long, it's time to come out and meet!"

In Tianshi Mountain, a figure faintly appeared.

A large number of clouds and mist lingered between the sky and the earth, and finally turned into a figure!

This is a middle-aged man with a smile on his face, his eyes twinkling like stars.

"Xu Yuansheng, the third-generation head of the mysterious door, has seen Daoist Fang Yue, thank you for the flesh and blood sacrifices sent by Daoist Fang Yue!"

"It's nothing more than a black demons at the Yin and Yang level, it's nothing! But it's okay for a powerful person at the dignified fairyland level to mix with you!"

Fang Yue's words were not forgiving, and Xu Yuansheng seemed unheard of.

"In those days, young and thin, I don't know the depth, so I can't blame others for these things!"

Xu Yuansheng saw it very openly, and he didn't have much resentment for what happened back then.

"On the contrary, my disciples and disciples were involved with me. In the end, they were all trapped on this stone mountain and became a lonely ghost. It is difficult for me to survive. It makes me feel guilty and unable to support myself!"

"What happened to the Xuanzimen? A famous door was destroyed by others overnight?"

Fang Yue asked positively, saying that he was not curious about what happened that year. It was all fake.

"Back then, an elder of the mysterious magnetic door discovered the secrets on this stone mountain, and found that there were three evil demons sleeping in the stone mountain, and there were three sacrificial vessels. The elder was not greedy enough, and even hit the sacrificial vessel. The above, eventually caused the evil demon outside of the sky to wake up and almost caused a catastrophe to the mysterious magnetic door, but fortunately, my mysterious magnetic door still has some background. The first and second generations of elders who have fallen into a deep sleep have all recovered and joined hands. The three alien evil demons suppressed it. I thought that the catastrophe would have passed but the black demon clan's Xuxian didn't know where to get the sacrificial artifacts of the alien evil demons in the mysterious magnetic door. They came to ask for it, and finally a conflict broke out. I waited to kill the three powerful imaginary realms among the Black Demon Race, and defeated the Black Demon Race. However, at this time, the elder who discovered the mysterious gate of the evil demon in the sky suddenly solved the three evil spirits. The suppression released everything. The inner and outer circle cooperated with the Black Demon Race to slaughter my entire mysterious door up and down, without leaving one. In order to conceal the truth of their cooperation with the Heavenly Demon, there was another one in the Black Demon Race afterwards. When the true celestial descended, he used the method of annihilation to strangle all the heroic spirits and undead souls in my mysterious magnetic door, but he did not expect that this day Shishan gave birth to an invisible suction when he used the method. Wait for the soul to be incorporated into the mountain, so that the soul I waited for can be preserved!"

Xu Yuansheng told Fang Yue all their experiences back then. After Fang Yue heard this, he didn't understand. If there were only these things, neither the Dark Demon Race nor Chen Pingping would be so nervous, unless there was something unexpected about Xu Yuansheng!

"Xu Yuansheng, are there other omissions in what you said? Who left the stone monument in front of the town of Yongfeng Town?"

Fang Yue asked.

Xu Yuansheng shook his head slightly: "My mysterious magnetic door was destroyed overnight, where is there any leisure to leave a stone monument in front of Yongfeng Town to inscribe the truth of the year?"

"That stone stele was not left by the people of Xuanzimen?"

Fang Yue's face changed slightly, and he was shocked for a while.

"It should not be!"

Xu Yuansheng hesitated for a moment, and then said: "This Tianshishan mountain is quite weird, and it seems to be alive. Although my mysterious magnetic door has been established on Tianshishan for thousands of years, I have never understood the essence of Tianshishan! Tianqiao, the founder of the magnetic gate, once left a warning that the disciples in the gate should not pretend to watch the secrets of the mountain! Back then, if I hadn't violated the ancestral motto, greedy those three sacrificial vessels would not end up like this!"

Xu Yuansheng's voice fell, and it was full of regrets.

Fang Yue didn't think too much about Xu Yuansheng's regrets, and his more attention fell on this Tianshishan again!

"Master Xu, you stay trapped on this Tianshishan mountain for a while. After I find out the secrets of this Tianshishan mountain, I will release the souls of the heroes in the mysterious door with the creatures of the Dark Demon Race as a sacrifice!"

"Then there will be little friend Yue Fang!"

Xu Yuansheng bowed to Fang Yue and held his fist, his figure gradually disappeared.

Fang Yue then went down the mountain, but his face became more solemn!

In the next half a month, Yongfeng Town almost became Fang Yue's speech.

Fang Yue's tough law enforcement department has been widely circulated. Not only did the people in the law enforcement department remain silent, as if nothing had happened, they even sent some precious gifts during holidays and courtesy. !

At the same time, Fang Yue's unaccompanied danger in order to rescue hundreds of human warriors trapped on Tianshi Mountain was also spread by interested people. He alone suppressed the heroes of the Black Demon Race. It is said that the Black Demon Race was on Tianshi Mountain. After setting up an ambush, several saints showed up, and after this incident, those saints who showed up on Tianshi Mountain had no news. This matter has been spreading among the surrounding ethnic groups.

However, both the Human Race and the Dark Demons were silent on this matter.

Therefore, the outside world has only speculation on this matter but no conclusion!

But in any case, Fang Yue's name of bravery was spread. All the big clans in Yongfeng Town were all the other parties expressing their surrender. Although some were convinced and some were oral, Fang Yue didn't care, as long as they were obedient. That's it!

Ever since, the entire Yongfeng Town has undergone tremendous changes in half a month!

Kerosene lamps have entered thousands of households, and yin stone lamps have been replaced, saving a lot of yin stone resources.

The five main roads in the town have also been paved with a thick layer of asphalt, turning them into asphalt and gravel roads. The carriages and horses flow more freely!

Three schools have risen from the ground to provide children from poor families who have no wealth to go to school with the conditions for learning culture and martial arts. Students who perform well in the school can also receive corresponding resource rewards to encourage progress, and the teacher's salary and school All kinds of expenditures are borne by the taxation finance of Yongfeng Town!

Chapter 1903: Elder assessment

If it were before, the financial and tax revenue of Yongfeng Town could not cover the expenses of these three schools, but with the arrival of Fang Yue, two more mineral veins appeared in Yongfeng Town, and the monthly taxation skyrocketed several times. The expenditure of the three schools has become a trivial matter, and the entire Yongfeng Town has been operating in an orderly manner!

"This Fangyue's talent for internal affairs is indeed amazing! The hardened road in Yongfeng Town of Tingsuo has begun to pave to the nearby goblin tribes! The goblin tribes are sparsely populated, and the territory is very narrow, but this tribe is good at various weapons and armors. Forging! After laying the road in Yongfeng Town, you can sell the various minerals produced to the goblin clan, and at the same time buy the finished armor weapons from the goblin clan. Such a cycle can make the armor weapons in Yongfeng town the best With the fast update iteration, the force value of the defense town can be steadily raised to a new level! As for the armor that was replaced, Fang Yue did not waste the slightest, and all were sold to other towns in Tianque City at high prices. , No matter how bad it is, it will be sold to some groups that have feuds with the Dark Demon Race, such as the Scavenger Race and the Ocean Race. The strength of the two races can better restrain the development of the Black Demon Race. This vertical strategy is definitely not an ordinary human race. Juniors can think and master!"

An old man dressed in a white robe with sunken eye sockets and long beard and chest was strolling on the streets of Yongfeng Town. He looked at the gradually prosperous Yongfeng Town and kept nodding slightly.

Beside the old man in the robe is a middle-aged man. This middle-aged man has a face like a wolf tiger and eyes like a lion. Even if he has not spoken, he has a feeling of no anger and power.

If the mosquitoes were present, they would definitely recognize the identities of these two people.

The elder in the robe is Yuan Qing, the elder who is responsible for the assessment of internal affairs in the human race, and the middle-aged man is the elder who is responsible for the assessment of martial arts-Chen Ming!

Both Yuan Qing and Chen Ming belonged to the outer elders in the League of People. Although they were named elders, their status in the League of People was not very high. Their identities are all at the level of the twenty-fourth-level members. The cultivation base of the virtual fairyland level can be regarded as a master in the underworld, but if they are in the league, they belong to the lower middle level!

They came this time to assess Fang Yue's talents in internal affairs and martial arts.

During this period of time, Fang Yue's performance in Yongfeng Town was dazzling. Both his martial arts cultivation and his internal affair talents far exceeded the expectations of the League!

Some high-level figures in the League of People began to pay attention to Fang Yue gradually. This time the two came to give Fang Yue a chance to leap into the Dragon Gate.

Whether it is internal affairs or martial arts, as long as Fang Yue is good enough in the assessment process, he can get the treatment of the potential seeds of the League. In every realm, Fang Yue will be given a large amount of resources and opportunities that others dream of!

"Let's go, let's see what this so-called young genius looks like, is it worthy of the focus of the League of People's League training!"

Chen Ming is impatient, he hastened his pace, wanting to see this legend in Yongfeng Town soon.

In the first academy just built in Yongfeng Town, Fang Yue was personally demonstrating martial arts on the playground. Five hundred students lined up in front of him, watching Fang Yue's every move intently!

"Martial arts practice lies in the foundation! The stronger the foundation, the broader the prospects for the future! From the acquired realm, you must exercise your physical fitness! The energy and blood can feed back to the spirit, so the physical energy and blood are the roots of martial arts! Among them, I recommend two martial arts, one is Taijiquan, but Xingyiquan! These two martial arts have both form and spirit. On the one hand, they can nourish the viscera and increase vitality. On the other hand, they can let you understand the way of nature! "

Fang Yue lectures, not advanced metaphysics, because the students present are of different ages and martial arts, and there is a big difference in understanding and understanding of martial arts!

Therefore, Fang Yue decided to start with the most basics of martial arts. As for whether he can comprehend the essence of it, how much he can comprehend depends on their respective good fortune!

"Oh? This Fang Yue's understanding of martial arts is indeed different from that of ordinary practitioners! Ordinary cultivation is in pursuit of realm, but this Fang Yue is taking a steady and steady path!"

Chen Ming couldn't help but brighten when he saw Fang Yue's martial arts skills. He chirped his mouth and pondered for a moment that Fang Yue's skills seemed to be interesting.

Chen Ming stepped forward and Fang Yue said: "This Houtian realm is the first realm that practitioners will experience, and the first threshold, but this realm is still a mortal body, even if it is the good fortune that can be obtained by practicing day and night. Quite low! It's better to improve your realm, transform your innate, you can go a long way, whether it is physical strength or spiritual growth, its speed is faster than the acquired realm!"

Chen Ming stood up, seeming to be arguing against Fang Yue, but what he said was what other students wanted to say but dared not say.

"There are all aspects to martial arts practice, but the foundation is the most important aspect. If you don't have a good foundation, even if you have a high talent, the more solid the foundation, the more exciting the future! The human race is inherently a weak race. If it can't use the acquired realm to fight steadily and pragmatically, how will it be able to compete with the creatures of other races in the years to come? This solid acquired realm is a method of patching up the sky! With a solid foundation in the realm, these people may be able to compete with creatures whose bloodline levels are three or four higher in the future!"

Fang Yue retorted in a loud voice.

He could not agree with Chen Ming's view!

Only cultivating the realm and not the soul is the first ill of all practitioners he discovered from the universe!

Originally, Fang Yue thought that only the practitioners of the Ten Thousand Universe had this problem, but he did not expect that the practitioners of the underworld would also have this problem!

"The martial art realm, advance step by step! If the foundation is unstable, the subsequent realm will be difficult to advance!"

Fang Yue's words are sonorous and powerful, and every bit of understanding is his experience.

"It is the so-called sharpening of knives and not chopping wood! Delaying a little time in the early stage will not affect the progress of the subsequent stage, and it can even provide a good foundation for it, with half the effort! Even this acquired stage, I still divide There are more detailed realms, which are divided into four small realms: vigor, hard and soft, brave, and refining! Each small realm has a task for each small realm. If all these four small realms are cultivated to perfection, the physical aspect It is absolutely comparable to a creature of the sixth level of Huang Pin!"

Fang Yue's words surprised Chen Ming!

If Fang Yue said that it can be so magical, then the martial arts of the human race will face an unprecedented revolution!

"If you don't believe me, I can give you a little demonstration of the first small realm of Qi Jin of the acquired martial arts! This Qi Jin can actually be divided into three small levels: Ming Jin, Dark Jin, and Hua Jin! The general acquired martial artist, Being able to cultivate to the level of Ming Jin is already quite remarkable! However, this level of Ming Jin is still the most obvious!"

Fang Yue said, with a flick of his finger, a finger of wind broke through the air, breaking the rocks.

The stones collapsed and the dust was everywhere.

Fang Yue only uses the most common acquired martial artist level strength, but the power he has shown has already made most practitioners of the acquired realm feel beyond reach!

"This is the most common level of Ming Jin, pay attention to the strength of the whole body, condense a little, and suddenly make a move, killing people!"

Fang Yue slowly explained that the martial arts he spoke of and the martial arts demonstrated by him were two kinds of flavors!

"It's difficult to cultivate at the level of Mingjin. It needs to get through the eight channels of the odd meridian and the 13 acupoints. However, once it reaches the level of Mingjin, at least 800 kilograms of physical strength is more than enough!"

Professor Fang Yue's traditional martial arts on the earth, these martial arts may not be so unpredictable, but in terms of laying the foundation, the traditional martial arts on the earth is far more sophisticated than the many martial arts in the underworld.

Fang Yue just taught the essentials of Ming Jin, and the disciples who came to study art in Yongfeng Town were fascinated and changed their previous views.

With a physical strength of 800 kilograms, it has exceeded the limit of ordinary acquired techniques, and it is difficult for a practitioner of the same level to break through the cloud and crack the stone!

"Yes, yes, it's a bit interesting! After cultivating Ming Jin, if you break the innate ability, it can be slightly higher than other innate strength of the same level by 10%!"

Chen Ming's eyes glowed. Originally, he wanted to assess Yue's martial arts cultivation attainments. He personally tried to test and fight with life and death to see if Fang Yue was as described in the rumors. hand.

But now, it seems that Fang Yue's martial arts accomplishments are not only in fighting and fighting, but more importantly, his martial arts has been able to form a line of its own! If you can grasp it well, perhaps Fang Yue can teach a group of young talents, and say that they are exaggerated in Sendai, but it is not a problem to turn these disciples into a few young talents!

"The level of Ming Jin is just the fur of martial arts. Only the poorest of you will choose to break through at the level of Ming Jin! Those with a little aptitude must master the essence of the dark energy! Look at this trick is what I call dark energy. !"

Fang Yue raised his palm and pushed forward slightly!

A breeze is blowing, and spring is fluttering.

The willow leaves on the ground were rolled up and dancing in mid-air. This trick seemed to be without any mystery. At least those disciples in Yongfeng Town who followed Fang Yue's learning skills could not see the slightest clue!

However, a moment ago, the fallen leaves spun and hit the surrounding trees.

A tall tree surrounded by several people was crushed by willow leaves and turned into several segments and collapsed.

The fracture of this tree is as smooth as a mirror and can almost reflect the shadow of a person!

At this time, the hearts of those disciples were awe-inspiring.

Chen Ming was even more shocked in his heart.

"This is to hide your own strength in the willow leaves, making the willow leaves like a knife, suddenly exerting strength! The essence of this dark energy is about surprises. It can kill people by being able to beat cattle across the mountain or picking leaves and flowers!"

Chen Ming praised Yue's secret power again and again, and he was shocked!

This dark energy technique is generally only mastered by martial artists at the heaven and earth realm level, but Fang Yue's martial arts system can be used in the acquired realm.

Chapter 1904: Powerful use

"Yes, Anjin is more powerful than Mingjin. Anjin starts with a thousand kilograms of physical strength. If it is at the peak of cultivation, it may reach 1,500 kilograms. More importantly, Mingjin and dark energy can be superimposed on each other. Double strength, the peak power can break two thousand kilograms! If you practice the dark strength to reach the state of transformation, you can leapfrog and kill the ordinary innate!"

Fang Yue revealed the magical effect of secret strength, making all the disciples in Yongfeng Town all hearted!

Killing immortals retrogradely and killing people beyond the ranks are legendary genius methods. They had never thought that they might have the opportunity to use such a heaven-defying method!

"This dark energy level is not the true peak. The true acquired peak is Huajin. Once Huajin is released, it can borrow the power of the world, and the whole body is surging like a tide, and the physical strength can reach three thousand kilograms! Huajin, Huajin It can resolve all kinds of strengths. If they are equal to each other, the opponent can beat you very hard to resolve most of them. In the end, only 50% of the damage is left! The three strengths of Ming Jin, Dark Jin, and Hua Jin are superimposed on each other, one The tricks can kill the innate and open up the mountains and the sea!"

Fang Yue didn't use Huajin, because the level of Huajin is elusive. It can be like Bodhidharma's Grandmaster Reed crossing the river or standing three inches from the ground without falling in the air.

These are all supernatural powers only available in the heaven and earth realm, but they can be cultivated at the level of the acquired heaven realm first.

Among them, the difficulty is self-evident. Among these five hundred people, one person who can reach the level of Huajin is the good luck of Yongfeng Town!

"Ming Jin, An Jin, and Hua Jin are three powers, three levels! Ming Jin cultivation is one in a hundred miles, and An Jin refining is one in a thousand. Whoever can cultivate Hua Jin is one in a thousand. After being assessed, they can be included in the periphery of the League for promotion and training!"

"It's no wonder that Fang Yue doesn't seem to have any background, but he has such a talent. It seems that all his martial arts achievements are inseparable from a solid foundation!"

Chen Ming nodded secretly in his heart. This Fang Yue was able to share his secrets and cultivate the descendants of the human race. This kind of high morale is commendable. If everyone can be the genius of the human race, the human race has long been prosperous and the future can be expected!

"There is such a reason in this vigor, and there should be many wonders in the three small realms of rigidity, softness, bravery, and refining! I thought that the acquired realm was just an excess, but I did not expect that I underestimated this world. The exquisiteness of martial arts!"

Chen Ming was generous, and directly admitted his shortsightedness!

Fang Yue laughed loudly: "Everyone has his own way, and his experience is different, but the way is different! There is no right or wrong in this. I just hope that I can share my experience with you, so that everyone can avoid detours!"

Fang Yue didn't take credit for arrogance. He knew that the martial arts he knew was still very shallow. All the things he introduced just now stood on the shoulders of his predecessors! If he was asked to create a unique martial arts system, his accumulation and experience would still be far from enough!

"Don't be humble, to be able to be at your age, in your realm, with such a broad mind and martial arts attainments. Searching the entire underworld may not be able to find the second one! The human race can have a genius like you as a practitioner, but the entire human race For the time being! Your martial arts cultivation base will be aside for the time being, just this set of Qi Jin theory is enough to pass the assessment of the human seed cultivation list at the Yin Yang level!"

Chen Ming suddenly made a major decision to stop Fang Yue from performing assessments. Fang Yue's various achievements were carried out under the eyelids of the two great figures of Mosquito Dao Ren and Chen Pingping. There is no way to fake it, and his martial arts skills are not tolerated. Doubt, and now it is proposed that the Qi Jin theory is widely spread to benefit one party. If such a person cannot be included in the human seed, then who can become the human seed and the hope of the human league in the future!

"Human seed? I don't know if you are Senior?"

Fang Yue answered Chen Ming's question just now and didn't elaborate on the origin of Chen Ming's identity, but when he heard the words Human Race Seed, his heart trembled suddenly.

"Hahaha, I'm the examiner of Renmeng Martial Arts——Chen Ming! Coming here today, I originally wanted to test your martial arts skills and potential for good fortune. I didn't expect that choosing a day would be better than hitting the sun. I happened to see you. The scene of teaching younger generations! Not to mention, just your selfless spirit of teaching younger generations is worthy of advocacy and praise! I may not be able to do other things, but with what you do today, let you become the seed of the Yin-Yang level human race. Still have this qualification!"

Chen Ming's voice was sonorous and powerful. His voice fell, and Fang Yue clasped his fists and said: "Thank you seniors for the wrong love, but juniors are not at the level of Yin and Yang. These days are just to confuse spies from other ethnic groups. Such a realm! The real realm of the younger generation is at the level of the leader realm!"

After Fang Yue said that, he fully opened his breath, and a strong qi and blood turned into a real dragon, filling the sky and stirring the situation!

The entire sky seems to be transformed into a sea, and a true dragon with blood and blood burrows into it like a dragon returning to the sea!

The sky was dark and gloomy.

Only one true dragon has blood like a rainbow, illuminating all directions, replacing the sun and the moon!

"Unlocking the cultivation base, disturbing the sky! Good, good, good! Your martial arts achievement is higher than I imagined, even more amazing!"

Chen Ming was overjoyed! The cultivation value of Fang Yue at the master level is much higher than Fang Yue at the Yin Yang level.

What's more, the heaven and earth vision of Dragon Return to the Sea, which was born when Fang Yue had just released his cultivation base, was extremely legendary. Even if the powerhouse of the Great Sacred Realm deliberately displayed magical powers, it might not be able to do this! This is enough to prove that Fang Yue's potential talent is amazing, and he is more qualified to become a human seed!

"As an examiner, whether you are in the Yin-Yang realm or the leader realm, as long as I say that you are the seed of the human race, you are the seed of the human race! However, the seeds of the human race are also divided into four levels, I can only decide that you can enter. The sequence of the human race is now a yellow-level human race seed. If you want to enjoy higher treatment, you need to go through the barriers and work hard!"

Chen Ming directly gave Fang Yue the identity of the seed of the human race.

Once this identity came out, it represented that Fang Yue's position in the League of People was completely different from then on!

The seed of the League of People, each with amazing talents, is cultivated by the League of People! The resources they get every year are ten times a hundred times that of other practitioners in the same realm!

The higher the status of the seed of this alliance, the more amazing the amount of resources obtained!

But even if it is only the seeds of the Yellow-level Human League in the master realm, the cultivation resources each year are enough to cultivate a saint!

What is even more commendable is that they will be exposed to the various core powers of the League, and the redemption range of merit points will be greatly expanded!

"Haha, I didn't expect that Chen Ming, a person who is so strict and rigid, would have a presumptuous day! But you are presumptuous, presumptuous good, presumptuous wonderful! Originally I was still considering how to consider Fang Yue, but after seeing you, I also There is no need to evaluate Fang Yue! Fang Yue exploits oil, establishes a business, and teaches himself personally. If such a person cannot pass the Human League seed assessment, who can become the seed of the Human League in the future?"

"Fine, nothing! Seeing this change in Yongfeng Town is the most satisfactory answer that Fang Yue has handed over. This change is better than any words and phrases! I also used my authority once to give Fang Yue's name The list of members who are included in the human race seeds in internal affairs! Martial arts and internal affairs are all human seeds, which will make Fang Yue's weight in the human league heavier!"

Although Yuan Qing was old, his voice was still sonorous and powerful.

Any judge in the Human League always takes the two words of fairness and justice in mind, so as to ensure the inheritance and continuity of the human race.

Fang Yue's heart suddenly felt moved.

This underworld human alliance may not be the same as the Galaxy Star Alliance and other organizations, this is an organization that really exists for the inheritance of the human race.

Whether it is the mosquito man, Yuan Qing, or Chen Ming, they are always thinking from the perspective of the overall situation of the League, without any selfish thoughts!

Even Chen Pingping, who makes Fang Yue a bit annoying, is the same. Although she looks down on Fang Yue and thinks Fang Yue has a boundless future, she can still be fair and fair in the face of the real overall situation!

"However, I haven't figured out the various methods of His Highness Fang Yue. If His Highness doesn't dislike it, can I wait for a few days in Yongfeng Town!"

What Yuan Qing said again was an unrelenting invitation!

As an elder in internal affairs, he is quite curious about Fang Yue's various construction methods and resource utilization.

He hopes to be able to study for a while in Yongfeng Town!

"Naturally, I can't ask for it! Both of them are masters in martial arts and internal affairs, and I am just a young man in the early spring. If there are two help, my Yongfeng Town will definitely be able to develop more brilliantly!"

Fang Yue did not refuse the request of the two! On the contrary, he was extremely happy. No matter how he developed this Yongfeng Town, it was built on the basis of talking about soldiers on paper. In fact, there was no real practice. The intervention of Yuan Qing and Chen Ming just made up for his last The shortcomings!

"If this is the case, we two are more respectful than our fate!"

Yuan Qing laughed and stayed with Chen Ming temporarily!

Time is like water, time is like passing by.

In the blink of an eye, three months passed in an instant.

The development of the entire Yongfeng Town was promoted by Fang Yue, and with the assistance of Chen Ming and Yuan Qing, it was quickly on track.

The whole Yongfeng Town is developing in the direction of prosperity!

In addition to the construction of schools and roads, factories are also rising!

These factories are engaged in different businesses. Some are responsible for making all kinds of daily necessities such as soaps and perfumes that are not available in the underworld. Although the prices are not high, they sell well in all ethnic groups. Some are in the category of arsenal and simple production. The gunpowder, mine bombs and even some soil guns, artillery and the like.

Chapter 1905: War preparation

These simple thermal weapons themselves did not have any lethality on the underworld creatures with a high level of cultivation, not even scratching them.

But Fang Yue used runes to transform these thermal weapons! Make its power soar suddenly!

For example, Fang Yue branded three acceleration runes in the barrel of the soil gun, and its power can easily penetrate the armor of the golden body level!

Afterwards, Fang Yue superimposed two armor-piercing runes on the bullet, and a peanut might not even be able to hold the creatures in the Yin-Yang realm!

Fang Yue's many other thermal weapons were also slightly modified with the means of the cultivator's civilization, and their power greatly increased, at least in the battle at the Yin and Yang level, which can affect the tilt direction of the victory of Tianping!

Mass production of weapons in the arsenal.

Fang Yue also, through his cooperation with the avatar on the earth, transported a large number of high-tech weapons from the earth, and X bombs and particle cannons are just a part of them!

A premonition has been born in Fang Yue's heart, and the dark demons, who have always been known for their arrogance and strength, are bound to brew a more violent outbreak after a short period of calm!

Only when you are fully prepared to give the opponent a head-on blow can you break the conspiracy of the Dark Demon again!

Just as the whole Yongfeng Town was thriving and developing towards a strong one, a piece of news broke the peace of the whole Yongfeng Town.

"Gui Yao, the lord of Yongfeng Town, takes the order!"

A sharp male duck voice spread throughout Yongfeng Town.

Then a group of people gathered together!

All the strong ghosts came out, all headed by Gui Yao fell on one knee in front of the person who preached the decree!

"The prince of Anlan Dynasty ordered Yongfeng Town to strengthen prevention. If someone from the Black Demon Race enters my Anlan territory for half a step, I will kill you!"

"According to the purpose!"

This drake is dressed in a python robe and is full of spirit. He is a great * in the mansion of the great prince of Anlan Dynasty!

There is brilliance in his eyes, like flashes of electric light, breathtaking!

"Guiyao, as the town lord of Yongfeng Town, you have the responsibility of supervising battle and defense! Now the situation of Anlan border has changed, and the rest is not necessary to say! As long as you can hold Yongfeng Town for three days, the army of Anlan Dynasty It will come to Tianque City! If Yongfeng Town is breached within three days, you guys from the ghost family won't have to flee, and you will be buried directly!"

The eunuch's words were rather harsh, but his words were powerful, not like threats!

At this time, Fang Yue also felt that an inexplicable strong man had come to Yongfeng Town, and several figures appeared beside the great eunuch.

The chief * glanced at Fang Yue, and said without a smile: "This should be Fang Yue, the new guard envoy sent by the League of People to Yongfeng Town! The miscellaneous family has also heard some of your names in Kyoto. Be tough, hit the black demons, introduce new ones, reform the internal affairs! Some people in the dynasty are also saying hello and praising you, but those are hardliners, and there are many conservatives who accuse the black demons of this time. My Anlan Dynasty launched a surprise attack because you touched their bottom line, so you retaliate with your own personal revenge! In short, no matter how deep your talents and martial arts are, you are advised to be conservative. Otherwise, it is easy to always stand on the cusp of the storm. I was shot dead by the waves!"

The chief * spoke very ugly, but Fang Yue heard a bit of loyalty.

Fang Yue slightly arched his hands and said, "Thank you, my lord, for your suggestion, juniors are taught!"

The * coldly said: "Don't be so polite, the miscellaneous family is just a running dog under the prince's hand, and it's just a moment of prestige in front of the town lord of Yongfeng town! But he can't control the guardian's head! The miscellaneous family just feels sorry for the prince. , I don't want a hardliner whom he had high hopes to fall away. This life is very long, the journey is long, and there is no dispute about right or wrong, or there may be mountains and rivers!"

The voice of the great * settled, and his figure had disappeared!

Fang Yue sighed lightly, looking forward to the great scene of Yongfeng Town, he didn't expect the Black Demon Race to attack suddenly. If it is not said, the great prospect of Yongfeng Town will be ruined here!

"Master Fang Yue, don't know how I should deal with the situation afterwards?"

The ghost family has long declared allegiance to Fang Yue, but Fang Yue's horse is the leader.

"In these days, I have received news that the Dark Demon Clan's soldiers are divided into 18 groups, starting raids from the 18 points bordering the Anlan Dynasty! Tianque City is one of them. There was a surprise attack yesterday. Fortunately, the guards in Tianque City rushed to help, and after a fierce confrontation, the soldiers in the Dark Demon Race were repelled!"

Fang Yue was fairly well grasped about the news of Anlan Dynasty.

Especially the dynamics of military divisions in the Anlan Dynasty, he was able to grasp first-hand information all the time.

In the League of Humans, various dynamics of the Underworld Human Race can use feats to purchase corresponding secret reports.

The security level of Anlan Dynasty was not very high, and Fang Yue's current status was enough to buy it.

"There is no natural danger in Baji Town. There are few people in the town and there is no important industry. If Tianque City wants to use Baji Town as a fortress to start a tug-of-war with the Dark Demons, I am afraid that there will be more defeats and less victory, which is not conducive to the game between the two sides. If what I expected is not bad, the people in Baji Town will be evacuated from Tianque City in the near future, and the troops will be reduced to defend Tianque City!"

Fang Yue's judgment is not optimistic. In fact, except for Gu Qiuyun, the several city owners in Tianque City are not bad in character!

But in the face of this kind of ethnic game, they should still be conservative, in order to prevent the offensive, choose a fortress Tianma to do a small price in exchange for the greatest victory!

"If Tianque City abandons Baji Town, I am afraid that my Yongfeng Town will be in danger. All three lines of defense will be exposed to the army of the Black Demon Race. If the Black Demon Race takes advantage of the situation, my Yongfeng Town will even have room for retreat. No!"

Gui Yao's eyes were wide open, and he did not expect that the form would suddenly deteriorate to such an extent.

Originally, under the guidance of Fang Yue, the prosperity of Yongfeng Town had gradually become formal, and the ghost family had also grown its clan power. In a short period of time, the family background had grown by almost 10%.

But a sudden war might disrupt all their plans! All these variables are unexpected.

Gui Yao's heart was slightly flustered.

"If the ghost family believes me, then give all the command of the entire Yongfeng Town to my hands! This game is about the life and death of Yongfeng Town, I may have to make a desperate one! This black demon wants it. I will not let them easily succeed when the soldiers approach the city to demonstrate to the Terrans! Terrans are no longer the cowardly ants before. Even if the Dark Demons can really win this war, they will have to break a few teeth!"

There was a hint of cruelty in Fang Yue's eyes!

This black demons has repeatedly targeted him and has been included in the blacklist by him!

If they didn't move anymore, Fang Yue wouldn't bother to pay attention to them, but they clearly wanted to threaten the Anlan Dynasty when they attacked the palace this time, and killed him with the help of the Anlan Dynasty's royal family!

If you dare not resist at this time, it is definitely not Fang Yue's character!

It is artificial, but he is definitely not a fish!

"What is the authority of a person?"

Fang Yue stood on the small mound at the junction of Yongfeng Town and the Black Demon Race. On the mound, a dead tree stood alone, trembling in the wind!

There were Yuan Qing and Chen Ming beside Fang Yue. Yuan Qing said softly: "The authority is that someone can stand by your side and shout for you when you are in trouble!"

"At your peak, your friends, your subordinates, and your servants all respected and feared you because of your position, and once you leave this position, people will follow. The tea is cold, even falling into trouble!"

Chen Ming also sighed with emotion in his life.

"That's why I yearn for authority, because I am essentially an insecure person! How many people will be in awe of me when I don't seek the peak, I only hope that no one will kill me when I am lonely!"

Fang Yue sighed softly, and there was no lack of emotion!

Chen Ming looked at Fang Yue, silent.

"Take it! This time the Terran can only win but not lose. The Terran has no retreat. Once the final disguise is torn apart, only the weak nature remains. The next scene is the wolf eating the tiger, no one caring about the Terran anymore. The majesty of the past!"

Fang Yue seemed to talk to himself. His voice made Chen Ming's voice tremble slightly.

"Has the situation really deteriorated to this level?"

"It's worse than expected! Otherwise, if I set up two mineral veins in Yongfeng Town, it won't provoke a joint attack by the four major ethnic groups! If it weren't for my counterattack from Tianshi Mountain and Sanshengfeng, this time Soldiers approach the city, and it is not just the Black Demon family who besieged Tianque City!

Fang Yue's voice was illusory.

"In fact, the biggest crisis of the human race is not the lack of strength but the collapse of the human heart! If all races can unite and fight against foreign enemies, no matter how strong other races are, they still cannot shake the foundation of the human race! The most feared is the foreign race. Before this, the self-improvement of the human race has been shattered! The wolves devour the tiger, the people of my generation cannot protect the former glory of the human race!"

Fang Yue's voice fell, and then he walked down the hill.

As the setting sun sets, the setting sun is like blood, laying on the ground, withered vines and rotten wood, and black crows sobbing.

This was an ancient battlefield, where countless human race predecessors fought for the human race to defend the frontier! They used bones to forge the walls of the human race, and wrote a chapter for the human race with blood!

Fang Yue seemed to be able to hear the shouts and fights of countless sages on this battlefield!

Fang Yue bent down and stroked the ground under him inch by inch.

"If there is one day when the human race is lost, I would like to sleep with you here!"

Fang Yue's voice was very soft, but it felt creepy in Chen Ming's ears.

"Fang Yue, what do you mean?"

Chen Ming spoke, his voice trembling.

"Nothing, just leave a step behind, I just hope that this step will never be used!"

At this time, a messenger arrived on a horse.

Chuan Lingbing arrived in front of Fang Yue, got off his horse, and knelt down on one knee.

"Report the guardian envoy, the Dark Demon Race really drove straight into the Baji Town as the adults expected. The defenders in Baji Town have been evacuated by Tianque City, and there is no one in the town! Baji Town is now occupied by the Dark Demon Race The black demons are raising their glasses to celebrate in Baji Town!"

"Well! The people in Tianque City didn't even have the courage to fight! The foundation laid for them by their ancestors in the past, and the prestige they established, has wiped out their determination and courage!"

Fang Yue was a little disappointed, but everything was as expected!

"Next, what do you plan to do, Fang Yue? Do you really put Yongfeng Town in a situation where it faces three enemies?"

Chen Ming finally understood why Fang Yue came here to mourn the ancients.

He was not only mourning the ancients, but also lamenting the present.

Chapter 1906: Tianque counterattack

"What am I going to do? Of course it is on offense! The Black Demons only think that there are only cowards in the human race, but forget that there are heroes in the human race!"

"Master Chen Ming, follow me!"

Fang Yue turned sideways and looked in the direction of Bajin Town.

Suddenly, the earth trembled, shook violently, and the sky turned around, like the end of the world!

Purple thunders fell from the sky!

The purple light is gorgeous, embellishing the sky!

The boundless light of thunder laid down on the ground, and the vast expanse of thunder was like a sea!

For a time, this situation and scene were magnificent.

Both Chen Ming and Yuan Qing could feel the splendid place of thunder and death!

"What is this arrangement?!"

Chen Ming is horrified!

The power of this thunder is infinite, and it is definitely not a means that can be displayed under the saint!

This boundless thunder, shaking the sky, has reached the level of the Great Sacred Realm.

"This is the Purple Lightning Thunder! A formation that I realized when I was practising the thunder method! Using nine, ninety and eighty-one thunder crystals as a guide, smelt nine principles, transform the thunder like a sea, and wash everything!"

Fang Yue's voice is light, without the slightest murderous!

It is hard to imagine that such a slightly gentle Fang Yue turned out to be the instigator of the blow just now!

"Fang Yue, do you know that this time three thousand troops were dispatched from the Dark Demon Race, among which the highest achievers were only at the level of saints! You used this method to flatten the three thousand army of the Dark Demon Race, the bones are gone, the soul is scattered, of course, it is relieved. Means that exceed the limits of war are tantamount to unspoken rules established between provoking the various races! This is tantamount to escalating the war, giving the Black Demon Race a reason to let the Great Saint Realm powerhouse take action!"

Chen Ming felt a little helpless, Fang Yue was still young and vigorous, and eventually broke the rules of war.

"My thunder crystals are ninety-nine and eighty-one, each of which is at the level of a saint, and the nine gods are all planted by a practitioner at the level of my leader, which is beyond the limit of the rules. ?"

"If the Dark Demons are not convinced, you can go back in time and restore the war scene with great magical powers!"

Fang Yue bent down and pulled out a broken sword that had sunk into the yellow sand, and wiped off the loess on it!

When Fang Yue said this, Chen Ming couldn't help being dumb!

It turned out that Fang Yue had calculated it a long time ago. If this were the case, Fang Yue's arrangement would not be considered a violation!

"A no-one Baji Town trades for the elite of the 3000 Dark Demon Race. I think this deal is a good deal!"

Fang Yue blows off the floating soil on the broken sword, and a touch of cold light reappears in the world!

"The Black Demons have lost three thousand elites, and their spirits are frustrated. There is no time for three to five days, so it shouldn't be relieved!"

Chen Ming gave a sigh of relief for Yongfeng Town. As long as Yongfeng Town persisted for three days, the prince of Anlan Dynasty would lead an army to lead Tianque City.

With the great prince escorting Tianque City, Yongfeng Town should no longer have a crisis.

"Three thousand elite, too few died! Sacrificing a Baji Town, only in exchange for this little result, how do you ask me to explain to the residents of Baji Town?"

A cold smile appeared at the corner of Fang Yue's mouth.

"Charity is not in charge of soldiers, and righteousness is not in business! What I want this time is Tianyuan City of the Black Demon Race!"

Fang Yue's eyes were like swords, piercing the clouds and mist, and his gaze was far away, aiming at the Dark Demon Race's Tianyuan City.

Chen Ming's heart was slightly stagnant, and Tianyuan City was a big city that was not inferior to Terran Tianque City, and even the strong in the city had more combat power than Tianque City!

The lords of the past dynasties of Tianque City have become the lord by guarding, and if they can maintain the territories of the human race, they can already be included in the list of famous generals.

This Fang Yue was so daring to counterattack Tianyuan City! He knows how dangerous there is in Tianyuan City!

"Fang Yue, it's a big deal at this time, I still hope you can proceed with caution!"

It's not that Chen Ming is cowardly, but Fang Yue's thinking is really too bold!

Even if Fang Yue just said that he took the opportunity to go to a small town or a square territory of the Black Demon, he would not have such a fierce block!

It's just that this Tianyuan City is simply not something Fang Yue's current power can conquer!

"Master Chen Ming, do you remember that I asked you just now, what is the authority of a person?"

"The answer I gave is that a person's authority is all the power a person can use in order to complete the will and goal of the word!"

"When I want to destroy the Dark Demon Race, I don't think about the types and methods of power I use, let alone where it originated, and what impact it will have in the end!"

Fang Yue's words became more and more obscure.

Chen Ming and Yuan Qing looked at each other.

"If the direction of the Black Demon Race will use the power above the level of the virtual fairyland, the two of me will personally * the Human Race! But if the other party does not have the same level of power to end, I forgive me for considering the overall situation of the Human Race. To give you more help on the battlefield!"

Chen Ming put the ugly words on the front, this time they didn't want to participate, but they couldn't participate!

Their identities limit their actions!

"I understand this naturally!"

Fang Yue nodded slightly.

Then he returned to Yongfeng Town!

In less than half an hour, the battle report of Baji Town was already raging!

Three thousand black demons died in a sneak attack, and three thousand elite pieces were not left!

This is indeed a rare victory for the human race.

Countless people rushed around in the streets to tell each other, but at the same time, strange voices rose rapidly.

Fang Yue is cruel, innocent, bloodthirsty, unruly king, and adept at advocating, and ambushing the Black Demons at the expense of the entire Baji Town. His heart is shameful and he should be blamed!

This voice rose rapidly in Tianque City and quickly became the mainstream!

Dozens of big family clans headed by the Luo family jointly protested to ban the title of Fang Yueyongfeng Town Guard Envoy and put him in jail for trial!

"Fang Yue, your situation is not optimistic!"

The mosquito road man came in, during this time, he was dealing with some chores in the alliance, and he had no time to take into account Fang Yue's situation!

As a strong man in the real wonderland, there are many responsibilities on his shoulders. Even if it was just a clone, there were many things waiting for him to handle, and it was impossible to follow Fang Yue all the time.

This time, he still heard that the Black Demon Clan soldiers were approaching the city, and Fang Yue killed three thousand elites in Baji Town. Only then did he find some time to come to Fang Yue and bring him the merits of the Alliance!

The Renmeng and Anlan dynasties dealt with problems very differently!

What the Alliance guarantees is the safety of the entire Human Race, and the Human Alliance believes that life is at stake!

A Baji town with little resources, if it is destroyed, it will be destroyed. Nothing to be a pity!

When Baji Town was destroyed, it was able to take away three thousand elites from the Dark Demons, and even five saints among them, and forty powerful masters in the leader realm. This is already a great victory for the League of People, which deserves praise and encouragement. !

"There is nothing to be optimistic, but just some clowns! My cake in Yongfeng Town has become bigger, and naturally there are people who want to get a share of the pie! As for the destruction of Baji Town, it is just a cover! Their target drunkard The intention is not to drink, even if there is no Baji Town, they will not spare me lightly!"

Everything is expected.

Fang Yue continued to drink and have fun in the palace in Yongfeng Town. The wine he drank was a light wine exchanged in the League of People with meritorious deeds. It was quite extravagant, so that the mosquito man used the tooth flower to call the prodigal!

"How is it? Do you need a drink? You must have fun in your life, don't let Jinzun empty to the moon!"

Fang Yue not only drinks but also writes poems. How can he be embarrassed by others!

"Fang Yue, are you really not afraid of killing the enemy on the front line, and someone stabbing you at the back? You know that the Luo family's appeal in Tianque City is so powerful that it can even interfere with the decision of the city lord of Tianque! If it is the lord of Tianque city If you really want to arrest you for trial, you will be rebellious if you resist. If you don't resist, you will be taken to Tianque City. With the influence of the Luo family, you will be convicted casually, and you will be able to drink a pot!"

The mosquito person is more anxious than Fang Yue.

He knew that the people in this world were sinister, but he didn't expect it to be so sinister. This black demon race was already coming to the city, the big forces in the city of Tianque and leisurely came to throw * on Fang Yue!

"Will be out, you are not affected by your life! What's more, this Black Demon Race is here, can Tianque City really be alone?"

Fang Yue's smile is strong, he has a plan!

On this day, there are many clans in Quecheng, with strong soldiers and horses. If he wants to defeat the Dark Demons, how can he forget such a powerful army? Don't make a move because the time has not arrived!

Now that the calculations are done, it's time to let these masters in Tianque City bleed!

Time is like water, time is like shuttle.

Three days have passed since the incident in Baji Town, but these three days did not make people forget the incident in Baji Town. Instead, the call for punishment of Fang Yue in Tianque City is getting louder and louder!

For a time, Fang Yue has become a target of public criticism.

But no matter how happy the chaos in Tianque City is, Yongfeng Town still carries out production and trade step by step, as if it has not been affected by the invasion of the Dark Demons and the sound of the crusade against Fang Yue in the Tianque City!

Fang Yue did not respond to any voice in Tianque City, as if this matter had nothing to do with his half-cents!

Fang Yue had nothing to do with production in Yongfeng Town, and even went back to the Tianquemen to follow the diagrams, practice various exercises in the Tianquemen, and ponder the places where the half-step Tianzun Taoism is located.

Fang Yue's actions angered all the big men in Tianque City to death.

The public opinion of their painstaking organization oppressed Fang Yue as if it was a breeze blowing on his face, and it could not affect Fang Yue's mind at all.

Originally, they were waiting for Fang Yue to find them to negotiate and compromise, and then they feasted and carve up Yongfeng Town! But people simply ignore your stubbornness, and make them feel like they are punching!

Finally, after holding back for three days, Tianque City had a big move.

The big city lord of Tianque City finally gave an order to capture Fang Yue and bring him back to the Yan Family in Tianque City for trial, and let Fang Yue give an explanation to Tianque City and the people in Baji Town!

With an order, the families who had already sharpened their swords at Yongfeng Town finally took action against Yongfeng Town!

A series of orders were passed into Yongfeng Town, and Fang Yue was ordered to be captured with no effort, and returned to Tianque City to wait for the dispatch.

This is the courtesy first, then the soldiers!

Fang Yue, as a guardian envoy, is a member of the League after all!

This arbitrarily takes people and arrests them. If the League is angry, no one can bear this responsibility!

This order was introduced to Yongfeng Town for a long time before Fang Yue slowly responded.

Chapter 1907:

"The black demon army is oppressing the realm, and Yongfeng Town is in danger. Forgive me for incompetence and do not obey! You will be out, and the military order will not be affected!"

Fang Yue's reply was sent back to Tianque City.

There was an uproar in the entire Tianque city!

"What black demon army is suppressing the realm! Since the first battle in Baji Town, the black demon army has been sluggish, and there is no possibility of the army suppressing the realm!"

"This Fang Yue clearly used this as an excuse to hide the evil heart, and his heart is punishable!"

"Fang Yue's rebellious officials and bandits openly rebelled against the city lord's order. If you don't kill them, how can you subdue the people's hearts!"

The message of the crusade against Fang Yue was flying all over the sky all night!

The City Lord's Mansion hasn't made any movement yet, and the major families in Tianque City can no longer hold it back!

Dozens of big clans dispatched their elites and joined forces to conquer Fang Yue. A total of 1,000 people have a strong leader from the fifth floor of the virtual fairyland. They will go to Yongfeng Town to fight against Fang Yue. Captured back to Tianque city to accept trial of all races.

On that day, the crusade army was marching to Yongfeng Town.

The distance of eight hundred miles between Tianque City and Yongfeng Town is only a half-hearted journey for the army!

When the army came to Yongfeng Town, they suddenly discovered that the surrounding area of Yongfeng Town had been laid out with countless array patterns, hunting flags, and fluttering in the wind. The whole army was forced out, and no one dared. Take a step forward!

"Fang Yue, how dare you dare to resist?"

As the leader, Luo Chunqiu, the third elder of the Luo family, stood outside Fang Yue's formation and shouted!

The sound rang and spread thousands of miles, and the entire town of Yongfeng was covered by this sound!

"The elder of the Luo family personally came to my Yongfeng Town as a guest. Fang Yue was overjoyed. It turned out to be a guest. Someone on our side would naturally untie the formation blockade and greet us by sweeping the couch!"

Fang Yue was late, and he personally came forward to the entrance of Yongfeng Town to meet the capture team in Tianque City!

With a wave of Fang Yue's sleeve robe, all the formations were dim, and a passage through which dozens of people could pass side by side naturally emerged.

"Everyone, please come in, and I forgive Fang Yue for not being able to welcome him from afar. This is a guest from afar. Now that you come to my Yongfeng Town, someone from our side will naturally give it a treat!"

Fang Yue's words were quite polite, and did not show the slightest rebellious taste.

Fang Yue smiled and waited for the army to enter, but at this time, Luo Chunqiu's heart was secretly beating a drum, and hesitated.

What are they here for?

It's here to capture Fang Yue!

Isn't it just for the purpose of arresting Fang Yue and bringing him to justice?

But this Fang Yue seemed to be meeting guests and welcoming friends, opening the door to them, is this normal?

It must be abnormal!

If they had entered Yongfeng Town at this time, Wan Fangyue had sealed the formation, wouldn't they have become the turtles in the urn, and it would be difficult for them to fly?

This Yongfeng Town can not enter!

But you can't get out!

Luo Chunqiu thought he had seen everything, and a smile of contempt was raised on the corner of his mouth.

"Fang Yue, I am waiting to come this time to * you back to Tianque City for the purpose of the city lord! I am waiting for time to be precious, and I have no time to enter your Yongfeng Town and waste your time! You quickly get from Yongfeng Town Step out of the self-appointed cultivation base and wait for me to return to Tianque City for trial!"

Luo Chunqiu's tone was tough.

Fang Yue looked innocent: "Didn't I understand what I said when I replied to the letter before? Now that the Black Demon Clan soldier is near the city, he will not be subject to orders from foreign troops! If you come to Harbin for this reason, please come back! Feng Town is at stake, and I must coexist and die with Yongfeng Town!"

There was a sense of awe-inspiring and awe-inspiring words from Fang Yue's mouth!

Luo Chunqiu was itchy roots of Fang Yue's angry teeth!

"The surrounding area of Yongfeng Town is peaceful and peaceful. Where did the Dark Demon Clan soldiers come under the city? Where did you say what you said is at stake!"

Luo Chunqiu felt that Fang Yue was unreliable, but he couldn't be so unreliable either!

Are there any black demons around here?

Not even a hair!

"Look carefully again!"

Fang Yue reminded once again that the surrounding environment suddenly changed, and the black and crushed heads moved around Yongfeng Town.

Luo Chunqiu's hairs were about to explode, because he really saw a large number of black demons coming from all directions. Each of these black demons were armed to their teeth, and they were all elites. Besides, There are also several Dark Demon Races at the imaginary fairyland level, and the figure of the Great Sage emerges from time to time. Every 500-person army of the Black Demon Race will have a powerful saint level sitting in the town. It seems that this posture is quite a bit. The feeling of coming out of the nest.

Luo Chunqiu's scalp burst, is this black demons crazy?

Such a lineup is definitely the soldiers and horses from Tianyuan City coming out!

"Hand over Fang Yue and sacrifice to the sky with his head to comfort me the heroic spirits of the Dark Demons!"

A strong man in the Great Sacred Realm of the Dark Demons said solemnly, and his long sword pointed straight towards Luo Chunqiu's direction.

In Luo Chunqiu's heart, ten thousand grass-mud horses galloped past!

He has absolutely reason to believe that all the situation before him was deliberately calculated by Fang Yue!

This is introducing the monarch into the urn! From the beginning, this Fang Yue knew that these dark demons had come back, and even the point of time was in Fang Yue's deliberate calculations rather than a coincidence!

"The black demon army is pressing the border, closing the formation entrance, and fighting with all its strength!"

Fang Yue, who was in Yongfeng Town, suddenly changed his face. He shouted, and the entrance to Yongfeng Town's formation was suddenly closed!

Luo Chunqiu's team was locked outside of Yongfeng Town. He and his army and the army of the Black Demon were almost close at hand.

"Master Luo, I'm really sorry! You have been given the opportunity to enter Yongfeng Town just now, but unfortunately you refused. Now that the army of the Black Demons is oppressing the territory, the number of soldiers in my hand is limited, for the residents of Yongfeng Town I have no choice but to make it difficult for the adults to defend the human race outside of Yongfeng Town!"

Fang Yue spoke, his words were full of apology, but there was no hint of sorry in his tone.

"Fang Yue, I will break your corpse into ten thousand pieces!"

Luo Chunqiu hated the opponent Yue to the extreme!

He has seen something sinister but has never seen such a sinister!

A faint smile at the corner of Fang Yue's mouth provoked: "Master Luo, no matter how you plan to treat me, it is a contradiction within my human race. Now that the army of the Black Demon Race is under pressure, you can solve the problem of the Black Demon Race first!"

"Fang Yue, these dark demons are here for you! If they want to attack me, they will kill you first! If I fight hard, you will not be alone!"

Luo Chunqiu understood the current situation. Regardless of his personal grievances with Fang Yue, the first thing he had to solve was the problem of the army of the Black Demon Race.

So he was going to join forces with Fang Yue to fend off the enemy, and then settle accounts with Fang Yue after repelling the army of these dark demons!

"No, no, no, the goal of the Black Demons this time is to seize the border cities of the human race, such as Tianque City! If they can destroy my Yongfeng Town smoothly, they naturally don't mind it, but now Yongfeng Town is heavily guarded, with heavy formations, and it is a hard bone to chew. What's more, with the lessons learned from Baji Town, do you think the people of the Dark Demons will set foot in Yongfeng Town under my leadership at will?"

Fang Yue's words made Luo Chunqiu's heart tremble slightly.

He saw the surrounding black demons slowly gathering towards him, their eyes were full of greedy luster, but these black demons turned a blind eye to Yongfeng Town where Fang Yue was located!

"Fang Yue, Fang Yue, open the formation and let me in! You and I are both human races, you can't die without saving!"

Luo Chunqiu spoke again, but his attitude changed abruptly and there was a big turn of 180 degrees!

"Sorry, Master Luo Chunqiu, I forgive me. You have also seen the endless army of this black demons. The formation of Yongfeng Town is my only reliance! If the formation of Yongfeng Town is temporarily closed, The army of the Dark Demon is raiding me in Yongfeng Town, how will I face the people in Yongfeng Town? Master Luo Chunqiu is invincible, I believe Master Luo Chunqiu can lead you to attack the Dark Demon!"

Fang Yue cheered for Luo Chunqiu and others.

The words fell into Luo Chunqiu's ears, especially ironic and harsh.

Luo Chunqiu felt that his lungs were about to explode!

This Fang Yue was clearly killing someone with a knife!

You believe me, believe in a fart!

I don't believe I can do these dark demons anymore!

We have only a thousand people, but how many are the army of the Dark Demons? I can't see the head at a glance, and there are at least a few imaginary immortals in the Dark Demons who sit together and beat me together, and the one who can beat me will definitely not even know my mother!

Luo Chunqiu had many thoughts, but the biggest thought was sincere regret!

If he had known that Fang Yue was so insidious, he would definitely not come back to this muddy water!

This Fang Yue is a typical Poppy, a rascal and a scourge!

It is impossible to deal with Fang Yue according to normal methods, and it may even fall into Fang Yue's various conspiracy calculations.

At this moment, Luo Chunqiu's heart had completely understood that Fang Yue had deliberately ignored Tianque City.

Perhaps in the eyes of other towns' guards, this Tianque City is the judge of life and death who can determine their life and death, but in Fang Yue's eyes, this Tianque City may only be his chess piece!

If it were true according to Fang Yue's estimation, the Black Demon Race had spared Yongfeng Town to attack Tianque City, and with the strength of Tianque City, even if it was able to survive this calamity, its vitality would be greatly injured, but a tragic victory.

From then on, Tianque City would no longer have the power to attack Fang Yue, so Fang Yue never regarded Tianque City as his imaginary enemy from the end!

"This son is treacherous, don't fail to prevent it!"

Luo Chunqiu yelled, and at the same time a thousand paper cranes flew out of his hand. This thousand paper cranes entrusted his divine consciousness, and this divine consciousness recorded everything he encountered.

Even if Luo Chunqiu died in battle, Fang Yue's conspiracy would be exposed and ruined!

"Hahaha! Master Luo Chunqiu is really naive. Now that I have set up a net here, I am not afraid that Master Luo Chunqiu will spread the news!"

At this time, a saint from the Black Demon Race walked out of the Black Demon Race, and with a flick of his finger, a black finger wind directly smashed the paper cranes that had just spread out in the sky.

The saint of the Black Demon Race was Zuo Sha who became the undercover agent of the Black Demon Race after being surrendered by Fang Yue.

This Black Demon Race can appear outside Yongfeng Town just right to encircle Luo Chunqiu and others, and there is no lack of this Zuosha's credit.

Chapter 1908: audacious in the extreme

Luo Chunqiu's face was completely dark, like the bottom of a pot!

Is this black demons a fool?

I sent the letter to tell the human race that this Fang Yue is not a thing and needs to be severely punished!

From a certain perspective, our interests are the same.

You jumped out and cut me off. The Paper Crane will not be the spy sent by Fang Yue to the Dark Demon Race!

Of course, Luo Chunqiu was just complaining, he couldn't even think of it, his complaint turned out to be infinitely close to the truth! That's right, this Zuo Sha is the spy that Fang Yue dispatched to the Dark Demon Clan undercover, and this is still a big spy that can influence the decision-making of the entire Dark Demon Clan!

Luo Chunqiu led his subordinates and the army of the Black Demon into a fierce battle, while Fang Yue was responsible for moving a small horse, eating melon seeds, and watching the show!

Doesn't the Black Demon Race want the opponent Yue to start?

They want to die!

But the Dark Demon is useless no matter how much you think about it.

It's because they haven't tested how strong Fang Yue's formation is.

The round saint went in, and a scorched corpse came out!

If you want to kill Fang Yue, you need conditions to allow it!

So the normal fighting style has also changed!

Fang Yue changed from the fighting side to the watching side!

For the Dark Demons, as long as it is a human race, kill it!

In any case, the murderers are right!

Regardless of whether you are Luo Chunqiu's subordinate or a citizen of Yongfeng Town, killing one is not a loss, killing two is enough!

Yongfeng Town couldn't get in, so naturally he had to take Luo Chunqiu's sacrificial sword first, but Luo Chunqiu was beaten out of tears. This matter had nothing to do with his hair ball, so why didn't this black demon race? All reasoning is coming to him!

The heart of the Black Demons is also wronged. The Yongfeng Town of Fangyue is protected by formations. I won't cut you off, who am I?

As a result, the war presented a weird situation. The initiator, Fang Yue, who was a public enemy of life, stayed out of the situation, while the Dark Demons, Luo Chunqiu and others started a chaos.

At the same time, the other army of the Black Demon Race had swept away in the direction of Tianque City. The real soldiers were approaching the city and wanted to take Tianque City.

For a time, within the scope of Tianque City, wolves were everywhere, and flames blazed into the sky.

All the heroes of the human race are fighting * battles.

In Yongfeng Town, the palace of Fang Yue's guardian envoy has become a rare paradise in this battlefield, extremely quiet and peaceful!

Seeing Fang Yue eating fruits slowly and carefully, Chen Ming and Yuan Qing were particularly painful!

They had known that Fang Yue was unique, but they didn't expect that Fang Yue could be so unscrupulous in order to win!

The entire Tianque City was dragged into the quagmire of war by Fang Yue, and none of the masters were spared!

Is it serious this time?

Quite serious!

But Fang Yue, who was the initiator, was able to take care of himself, staying out of the way, and peeling and eating fruits here!

"Fang Yue, this Black Demon Race has already dispatched the entire army, and the entire Tianyuan City has been plunged into the quagmire of war! As the guardian of the Human League, you should contribute your own strength at this time! If it is the entire Tianyuan If the city falls, it will be difficult for you to finish the egg under the nest, and it will be difficult for you to finish your life by then!"

"Ok, I know!"

Fang Yue responded lightly, turning a deaf ear to Yuan Qing's painstaking persuasion!

"Fang Yue, I know that Tianyuan City is going to treat you unfairly, but you should know how to advance and retreat, knowing that what you want to protect is not the noble family in Tianque City, but the Li people of countless human races in the city!"

Chen Ming also stood up and tried to discourage Fang Yue with the righteousness of the human race.

Fang Yue glanced at Chen Ming: "I'm sorry, I'm not that noble. Quecheng has abandoned me this day, and I am not interested, let alone any reason to risk saving my enemies!"

Fang Yue's voice was extremely cold, even cold!

This made Yuan Qing and Chen Ming dumb.

"Luo Chunqiu outside this town is the best example. He came to kill me, and he couldn't kill me. Will I still save him?"

"Repaying grievances with virtue is not my style, but it is my style to pay back a tooth!"

"Everything today is theirs!"

Fang Yue's words and sentences are all piercing people's hearts, and he makes no secret of it!

Yuan Qing sighed slightly, "Que City is indeed self-inflicted on this day. Fang Yue is clearly capable of attacking the Black Demon Race, but he is slandered by the Human Race himself as a traitor! Anyone who replaces it will be resentful, no wonder Fang Yue, no wonder Fang Yue! "

"But despite saying that, if Tianque City is defeated this time, it will expose the emptiness of the human race, which will cause the greed and ambition of other races at that time! A dark demons is not terrible, but the terrible thing is the group. The situation of wolf eating tiger!"

Chen Ming is worried, he can understand Fang Yue emotionally, but he cannot indulge Fang Yue's waywardness in the overall situation.

"Don't worry, Human Race will not lose this time!"

Fang Yue finally stopped the movements of his subordinates and spoke slowly.

"Although the people in Tianque City don't know what's good or bad, and don't know what is right or wrong, I can't be like them. The soldiers under my command have already set off, borrowing the dwarves to copy the den of the black demons!"

"Are you going to copy the den of the Black Demon Race?"

Chen Ming was stunned at Fang Yue's crazy plan. This is almost crazy, how strong is Fang Yue's house of the Dark Demon Race. Tianyuan City has been erected for thousands of years. After the management of the powerful people in the Dark Demon Race, it is already inexhaustible. It was said that anyone was able to break it, and Fang Yue was actually preparing to attack the den of the Black Demon Race. Isn't this crazy and what is it?

"It's the so-called encirclement of Wei and rescue Zhao. If the soldiers and horses under my hand are put into the frontal battlefield, it is not enough for the black demons to kill. Instead of throwing it into the frontal battlefield to make sacrifices, it is better to outflank the black. The den of the Demon Race! As long as the rear of the Black Demon Race is in chaos, the front must be sent to support! Then the forces of the Black Demon Race will be scattered and chaotic naturally. They can be broken one by one. It is no longer so difficult to deal with!"

Fang Yue told his plan and plan.

Chen Ming's eyes widened, and his eyes were about to come out.

This Fang Yue was so daring that he actually hit his idea into the den of the Black Demon Race.

"Fang Yue, you have to think twice before you act! Even though this black demon race is dispatched by a large army, it may not be overwhelmed. If there are still heavy soldiers guarding the Tianyuan City, the people under your hand may not be opponents of others!"

"I've been thinking about it for a long time! This action is imperative! Once it succeeds, it will be able to uproot the Dark Demons in this area! Not only can it relieve the crisis in Tianque City, but it can also raise the power for my human race! "

Fang Yue's sonorous voice shows that he is confident.

What else Chen Ming wanted to say was that a middle-aged man with a golden tattoo took a big step into fashion and walked into the mansion.

The middle-aged man had his bald head, flashing a faint golden luster in the sun.

There is also a tattoo of a desert poisonous scorpion on the back of his left hand exposed to the air. The tattoo of the desert poisonous scorpion is lifelike, just like real.

"Little Zuo Dong came to report to the guardian of the situation in the army!"

When the middle-aged man saw Fang Yue, he knelt down on one knee, his face was solemn, without any other expressions.

"Zuo Dong? This name seems to be familiar. Ten years ago, it seemed that there was also a person named Zuo Dong in the League of People. He defied the order of the League to avenge his father and brother and beheaded ten leaders of the Black Demon Race. The strong then returned to the League of Nations to plead guilty!"

When the middle-aged man heard Zuo Dong's name, he immediately thought of a series of messages. Zuo Dong was also a key training object of the People's League back then. He was a young man with great strength and unparalleled blood. He was in the Yin-Yang realm. The level has once been against the powerhouses of the top level of the leader realm, and within less than five years of entering the level of the leader realm, he can compete with the powerhouses of the saint realm!

Someone in the alliance had a strong person in the virtual fairyland who took the initiative to point Zuo Dong Xiu and believed that this son will be able to achieve greatness in the future! It's a pity that things went counterproductive in the end! Zuo Dong was deprived of his status as a member of the League for defying the order of the League, and became a slave, serving his sentence in the Wind Leita.

Now seeing Zuo Liu Dong again in Fang Yue's palace, Chen Ming feels like a world away!

Back then, many people thought that Zuo Dong was punished by the People's League as being persecuted, but few people spoke for him because Zuo Dong's punishment was a secret promotion by some people in the People League. Although Zuo Dong is a human race Tianjiao of Tianjiao has unlimited potential in the future, but he is not worth it. Let the big men in the alliance offend the criss-crossing network of relationships hidden underwater in the alliance for him.

But what others dared not do was done by Fang Yue. Chen Ming had known that Fang Yue was bold enough, but he did not expect to be so courageous that he even offended the unoffendable forces in the People's League. Just a few days after joining the People's League, he redeemed this Zuo Dong. , He has done what many people dare not do!

Zuo Dong's talent is good, and he is very loyal. If Fang Yue uses it well, it will be a good sword.

But this is also a double-edged sword. If the people in the League of People who have entrapped Zuo Dong and blame Fang Yue for this reason, maybe Fang Yue would steal a chicken instead of eroding a handful of rice, and then not only Zuo Dong can't protect it. , And even erect a bunch of enemies in the League for himself! But in the end, all the causes and effects still need Fang Yue to bear the responsibility of others, even if they want to help Fang Yue, they don't have that ability!

"What's the situation in the battlefield ahead? General Zuodong said it's okay!"

Fang Yue stretched out his hand to let Zuo Dong report the battlefield situation.

Zuo Dong said one word at a time: "On the battlefield today, the two sides are fighting fiercely, but our army has spared the front battlefield, outflanked the rear of the Black Demons, and successively broke through three important places of harm. The rear of the black demons has been occupied by me."

As soon as Zuo Dong's voice fell, Chen Ming showed a surprised expression.

The speed of Fang Yue's shots was considered fast enough. After a long time, he had already captured the three important areas of the Black Demon.

As long as Fang Yue can take the other party's baggage and transfer it back to Yongfeng Town, it is tantamount to cutting off the back of the Black Demon Race. Tianyuan City wants to raise grain and grass again, and it will take a long time to transport it!

The supply of food and grass in the front is insufficient, and the black demons who have fallen into Tianque City either choose to retreat, or choose to go all out, regardless of all those Tianque City. However, these two choices are definitely the most taboo of the Dark Demons. It was tantamount to letting the Dark Demons fall into absolute passiveness.

The content of Fang Yue's calculations vaguely appeared in Chen Ming's heart!

You must save the enemy!

Chapter 1909: Flesh and blood sacrifice

This is the best way to break through the siege of Tianque City!

This Fang Yue is not a general but a handsome talent!

Chen Ming sighed secretly in his heart.

However, it will take time to verify whether Fang Yue's strategy will take effect in the end!

"Fang Yue, you don't have many soldiers, and the storage area of the Black Demon Race must be heavily guarded. How did you easily conquer this area of the Black Demon Race and transport all the resources in it?"

Chen Ming was curious about Fang Yue's methods.

"The number of pawns under me is indeed not many, but the individual who wins is higher in quality!"

A look of arrogance appeared on Fang Yue's face, "The so-called elite soldiers and strong generals in Quecheng on this day may not be comparable to my soldiers! Do you know that all of my soldiers have reached the minimum level of yellowness? Each of the bloodlines of rank 7th have the talent of fire. They can combine battle formations to defeat the strong, and I have specially studied a set of methods for them to gather interest. They can shuttle freely within the detection range of the black demon. I was found by others!"

When Fang Yue's voice fell, Chen Ming couldn't help being stunned.

"I have long heard that you have medicines that can raise the bloodline level in your hand, but those medicines are generally precious anomalies, but you can't ask for it. You actually used these medicines to raise the bloodline level of your soldiers? What an extravagant thing this is!"

Chen Ming was shocked and speechless by Fang Yue.

This Fang Yue's method gave him the feeling of encountering a peerless prodigal!

If he were Fang Yue's elder, he would have the urge to hack this unscrupulous descendant to death.

"Bloodline potions are really good if you use them on your own body. Otherwise, if they fall into the enemy's hands and the enemy uses them backhand to deal with me, wouldn't I be crying to death?"

Fang Yue said that it made sense, and it made Chen Ming sound like it!

However, such a precious blood potion was used on a group of soldiers, which always made Chen Minghui feel like a violent creature!

But this bloodline potion is Fang Yue's bloodline potion after all. How to control and use it is also Fang Yue's own business.

Since Fang Yue used these blood medicines to strengthen the soldiers at the bottom, Chen Ming as an outsider had nothing to say.

"Then how many soldiers did you send this time to copy the old bottom of the Dark Demons!"

Chen Ming asked again.

A faint smile turned up at the corner of Fang Yue's mouth.

"Five hundred soldiers!"

"Five hundred soldiers?!"

Chen Ming's eyes widened and he looked like you were joking. He knew the power of the Black Demon Clan, and he knew that the five hundred soldiers couldn't even stuff the teeth between the teeth of the Black Demon Clan's army!

Even though Fang Yue said that he used five thousand soldiers to kill the Dark Demon and copy their nest, Chen Ming felt that Fang Yue might be a peerless genius in the art of war, and the five hundred soldiers outflanked the Dark Demon's nest. Ming felt that Fang Yue's perfunctory answer was simply an insult to his IQ, a great insult!

"Fang Yue, I didn't come to make a joke with you! I asked you very seriously, how many soldiers did you send to win the rear battlefield?"

Chen Ming asked again, his expression serious and serious.

Fang Yue reluctantly spread his palm and said, "I really didn't lie, I just used five hundred soldiers to destroy the three large gathering spots of the Black Demon Race!"

The black demons are not as terrible as you think. Most of the soldiers in this group are practitioners of the heaven and earth level. They also have life-threatening doors, but they also have birth, old age, sickness and death, and the war on the battlefield is not just a single individual. Superposition and competition of force and number of people! As long as you grasp this point, you can defeat the fear of the Dark Demons in your heart!

Fang Yue began to explain his thoughts and tactics to Chen Ming, hoping to use Chen Ming's mouth to spread widely among the human race. The problem with the human race now is not lack of strength, but lack of courage, even a small black demon. He didn't dare to look directly and face it, blindly defending himself passively and letting him cut his flesh. This would only make other races oppress the Human Race even deeper, so that they no longer have the courage to fight back, making the Human Race poor and weak, embarrassing the important task.

The most important thing for the Human race now is not to improve its own combat power, but to break the myth that the Dark Demons in the heart is invincible and cannot resist, and to erect the courage of the heart again.

"If you don't believe me, I will take you outside to show you how these dark demons were killed by me!"

Fang Yue looked at Chen Ming's little puzzled eyes, took the initiative to explain his doubts, and asked Chen Ming to show his method of defeating the Dark Demons outside.

"it is good!"

Chen Ming nodded, and Fang Yue summoned ten guards at the Yin-Yang level.

After that, Fang Yue led his guards and left along an underground passage in his palace.

The exit of the passage was a small hill outside Yongfeng Town. Fang Yue stood on the hill and looked down. Under the dunes of the hill, there were huge sand dune monsters more than one meter long.

These dune monsters have a height of nearly half a meter, and their body surface is covered with a faint black scale armor. The black scale armor reflects an indifferent luster under the sun.

The dune monster is similar to a scorpion, and a pair of eyes flashes with a faint purple glow.

"This is the back hand prepared by the Dark Demon Race for Tianque City. Each sand beast has the strength comparable to that of a practitioner of the Yin and Yang realm. Their wisdom is not high, but their strength is quite astonishing. , If you want to stand up against them under the fifth floor, you may not be able to beat them. These sand beasts are cannon fodder prepared by the Black Demon Race, and they are the appetizers of war. In fact, they attacked Tianque City this time. It was a long-planned plan and not a temporary intention, because I killed so many people from the Dark Demon Race so I ended up taking revenge."

Chen Ming's figure quickly appeared behind Fang Yue, his expression indifferent, and his eyes gleaming like water, who could have imagined that this Black Demon Clan had such a troop hidden outside Yongfeng Town.

The number of the sand beast troops is not very large, and there are no more than a thousand in total. However, each sand beast is very powerful, and their breath is full of blood.

Every sand beast is bloodthirsty, and a strong blood reveals its breath.

These sand beasts were obviously raised by blood, naturally bloodthirsty and good at killing. If all these sand beasts are released into the battlefield, it will cause great shock and loss to the soldiers of the human race by surprise!

"In fact, these sand beasts are both a threat and a welfare, depending on how they are used!"

Fang Yue had never thought that there would be a sand beast here, he just vaguely felt a great threat in his spiritual sense.

The power of the rules of the underworld is exceptionally strong, and the release of divine consciousness is greatly affected.

Fang Yue was worried that he would not dare to release too strong thought detection. Originally, Fang Yue thought it was a group of soldiers from the Dark Demon race, but he did not expect that he would eventually miscalculate. There was only a group of sand beasts.

The sand beasts are all ferocious, and when they are released on the battlefield, they are an absolute killing weapon. They are like the black demons, and their thinking and consciousness are also enslaved by the black demons.

If the Black Demons let them attack the human race, these sand beasts will definitely slaughter the human race violently at all costs, endlessly!

"It's welfare? Fang Yue, do you want to surrender these sand beasts?"

Chen Ming asked inexplicably, these sand beasts were already regarded as killing weapons in Chen Ming's eyes, and how difficult it was to use them.

Since the Black Demons used these sand beasts in the race battlefield, it proved that they had perfected the means of manipulating the sand beasts.

How difficult it is for Fang Yue to turn it into his own subordinate.

"Subdue these sand beasts? It's just a group of low-IQ toys. Is there that value? I mean, I know a sutra that can transform the flesh and blood of living creatures into sacrifices and summon powerful demons from the abyss of darkness. Let those demons fight for me!"

A faint red light flashed in Fang Yue's eyes.

This body of his body is formed by the power of flesh and blood. Fang Yue often studies the inexplicable passage of scripture in his body. Although he has not yet fully understood the true meaning of the scripture, he has learned about hundreds of schools during this time. Dharma has realized many side-by-side methods in terms of the way of flesh and blood. These side-by-side methods may not be on the stage in the eyes of big people, but they can be used in this level of battlefield to achieve a multiplier effect.

"Sacrifice of flesh and blood? Fang Yue, I warn you, your future is boundless, and your qualifications are extraordinary, but you must never embark on an evil path! This dark abyss is not to be provoked, and the sacrifice of flesh and blood is even more weird. There are some practitioners who want to use the method of flesh and blood sacrifice to quickly improve their cultivation, fight all directions, and smooth the obstacles for the human race. However, the final fate of those people is not good. Some people have been invaded by the devil and become the devil's body. Some of the flesh and blood puppets have incurred ominousness and curse, utterly confused, and eventually fell, disappeared from the underworld, and there is no more trace of existence in this world!"

Chen Ming painstakingly discouraged Fang Yue. This sacrifice of flesh and blood is actually not a particularly rare method in the underworld. However, the sacrifice of flesh and blood is included in the ranks of taboos among all ethnic groups. The general disciples and elders are very It's hard to get in touch, and few people will practice this kind of method until the moment of life and death.

Because this method is tantamount to dedicating one's own future to the demon * in the dark abyss, becoming a part of the darkness.

This is a method similar to suicide. Once it is performed, there will be no turning back.

"If the sacrifice of flesh and blood has not been thoroughly studied, it is indeed a trick to kill a thousand and self-defeating 800. However, once the essence of the dark abyss is grasped, it means that the power of darkness and flesh and blood can be used arbitrarily without being subjected to any Containment!"

Fang Yue was full of confidence. The Avenue of Flesh and Flesh was originally weird and unpredictable. Fang Yue realized that although he hadn't grasped the essence of it, he was already much more proficient in this way than other flesh sacrificers!

Chen Ming was slightly surprised, "Fang Yue, I know that your talent is amazing, and you have your own research and achievements in many ways, but you must not be too arrogant and take yourself in!"

Fang Yue smiled and said, "Don't worry, I cherish this little life more than you!"

Fang Yue said so, and Chen Ming also had nothing to say, and stopped admonishing Fang Yue.

"Go ahead! Destroy these desert monsters!"

Chapter 1910: Scepter seal

Fang Yue gave an order, his guards all shot, and a half-meter-long arc fell from the sky, and the voltage in each arc was as high as 100,000 volts!

When the arc fell, the sand beasts were all scorched by the electricity. Under the attack of the arc, they did not even have the ability to resist!

Under the attack of the electric arc, the extremely strong sand beast was madly harvested and fell down like wheat.

Fang Yue watched these sand beasts fall one after another, and soon they were covered in corpses!

"These yin and yang level sand beasts were killed by you like this?"

Chen Ming rubbed his eyes and felt an incredible feeling from the depths of his heart. The individual strength of these sand beasts was not weak, but they fell into Fang Yue's hands as if they were harvested as easily as wheat, without the slightest resistance. force.

Of course, Chen Ming also understood that the superb strength of Fang Yue's fighters had nothing to do with their combat effectiveness. The real reason was the peculiar weapons in the hands of these fighters.

He has never seen this kind of weapon. It does not consume the slightest qi, does not use any law to draw the power of thunder from the void, and transform into a powerful electric arc. The thunder power contained in these electric arcs is huge, even if it is a handless chicken. If a scholar of Zhili mastered this weapon, he would be able to kill the strong at the Yin Yang level by surprise.

Of course, this weapon also has its own fatal flaw, that is, it takes a long time to prepare and can only be used for surprise attacks. If it is detected by the opponent in advance and prepared for defense, the final result may be rewritten.

However, the wisdom of these sand beasts is naturally not the opponent of Fang Yue's soldiers. They don't have the slightest sense of guard, so they can only become lonely undead under the cold electric arc attack.

The sand beast fell and became a scorched corpse.

However, this does not mean the end of the battle, but just the beginning.

Fang Yue didn't know when a golden scepter appeared in Fang Yue's hand. He raised the scepter in his hand, and the scepter shone crimson light under the sun.

This scepter was also exchanged by Fang Yue from the Human League. In order to exchange this scepter, Fang Yue spent three thousand black iron merits.

This scepter was refined by a strong man in the virtual fairyland of the human race. It incorporates three different law runes of blood, darkness, and undead. The material of the scepter is also quite special. This golden scepter is made of The main body is refined from the spine of a great saint realm strongman. If you use this scepter for sacrifice, you can increase the effect and power of the sacrifice.

This golden scepter should be regarded as a half-step virtual wonderland level magical weapon according to the truth, and its price is definitely not as high as this. However, this thing represents ominousness. The nine hosts who obtained the scepter have no good end, so This scepter was no one in the treasury of the League of Humans, so it was reduced in price several times, so that Fang Yue exchanged it with the value of three thousand black iron feats.

Three thousand black iron feats, according to normal principles, generally that can be exchanged for a saint-level magical item, it is just a wish to exchange a half-step virtual fairyland-level magical item!

"This scepter is the curse of the Golden Elder!"

Chen Ming recognized the origin of this scepter at a glance. It was not because of how powerful this scepter was, but the reputation of this scepter in the League of People was quite prominent.

The curse of the golden elders specifically restrained its masters in the past. I don't know how many people are ultimately defeated because they can't bear the curse of the golden elders, and the end is quite miserable.

This scepter has survived to this day, and it has actually fallen into Fang Yue's hands.

How big is Fang Yue's heart? He knows what the golden elder's curse means, but he still dares to use this scepter as his own weapon to kill the enemy.

"Sacrifice of flesh and blood!"

Fang Yue waved the scepter in his hand, and blood-red runes fell from the sky like snowflakes. These runes fell on the corpses of the giant desert beasts, and the corpses of the giant desert beasts were all turned into ashes. , Fell into the ground.

A cold wind blew through the air.

The ashes dissipated.

A huge altar emerged out of thin air.

The inscriptions on the altar are ancient, engraved with patterns of ancient demon gods fighting, and there are some extremely ancient monsters, even Fang Yue can't tell the origin and origin of these monsters.

On the top of the altar, the doors of space emerged.

In the space gate, a little demon with black skin, half-high, black skin, a round moon scimitar in his left hand, and a small silver shield in his right hand ran out from it, and made a creaking sound!

The whole body of little demons is surrounded by black smoke. These smoke have a powerful corrosive effect. As long as they encounter fresh flesh and blood, they can quickly assimilate and swallow them, and transform this flesh and blood power into themselves. Part of combat effectiveness.

The little devil's face was hideous and cruel, and sharp teeth pierced from the edge of their lips.

When Chen Ming saw these little demons, he felt his scalp numb, and he felt Fang Yue opened the door to hell. If these little demons are not woven, they will become a scourge affecting the human race!

Regardless of the fact that these little demons are also at the level of Yin and Yang, they have the special attributes of darkness, corrosion and even self-explosion, and their combat power is much stronger than the sand beasts carefully cultivated by the dark demons.

Soon the altar dissipated, and a total of three hundred little devil appeared in front of Fang Yue. In the center of the little devil was clustered a little devil one meter high, waving a black torch and wearing a long goat beard. Patriarch.

This little demon elder has absolute control over the little demons in the group, and he can bless all kinds of buffs for the little demon in the group.

The little devil elder himself also has the ability to perform various offensive and defensive spells.

The gap between the little devil group with little devil elders and the little devil group without little devil clan elders is simply indescribable.

The little devil being summoned did not have the taste of the opponent Yue Youma's head. Instead, these little devil opponents Yue Zhizhi yeah, waving the blade in his hand and shouting, as if it was a bit provocative.

"Fang Yue, the little demons you summoned seem to be not very obedient!"

Chen Ming looked at Fang Yue with a smile, his lips curled up with a faint smile.

He sincerely wanted to see Fang Yue's joke.

I would say that this flesh and blood sacrifice is not reliable!

Take a look, take a look, if you don't listen to the old man's words, you will suffer!

Fang Yue glanced at Chen Ming: "Now it is only the first stage of the sacrifice of flesh and blood, and the second stage has not officially started yet!"

Fang Yue didn't take Chen Ming's ridicule at heart. Facing such an uneducated person, he needed to use cruel reality to gradually unravel him.

"This flesh and blood sacrifice, all the creatures that are summoned are the creatures in the masterless dark abyss. The creatures in these dark abyss are all rebellious and will naturally not obey the arrangement of the summoner. Many flesh and blood sacrifices are It was the creature in the dark abyss that I had summoned to die back! But since I already know this thing, it won't let this happen to me!"

Fang Yue's voice fell, and he raised the golden elder's cursed scepter high, and the dark red gems on the scepter flashed a faint * light under the sunlight.

The light shines brightly, illuminating all directions.

Under the irradiation of this * light, those dark creatures turned out to be all bowing their heads, and the opponent Yue Bi was respectful, and there was no longer the rebellious, five-person and six-person appearance that was just now!

Chen Ming was involuntarily stunned when he saw this scene!

This golden elder's curse has been shelved in the treasury of the League for many years, and because of its tasteless and unknown attributes, it has been rejected by everyone.

But such an invulnerable weapon fell into Fang Yue's hands. How could such a magical effect be developed?

The creatures of the Dark Abyss are rebellious and rebellious, which is also one of the main reasons why the method of flesh and blood sacrifice is rejected by everyone.

And this Fang Yue actually used the scepter of Golden Elder's curse to deter the creatures in the dark abyss. This is really unscientific!

Who is this Fang Yue sacred? He actually possesses such a powerful coaxing ability. Even such a weapon that is regarded as a chicken rib has been developed by him so powerful. If those in the League of People who are good at dark methods know this The effect of the scepter. I'm sure to beat my chest and feet because I missed a treasure, and I'm very upset.

"The refiner of the golden elder's curse was amazing. He left nine seals on the scepter! I just solved the first seal, and I can use the power of this scepter to deter And control all the dark creatures below the saint level. If I can unlock the second seal, the effect of this scepter will be improved again!"

Fang Yue opened his mouth and introduced the effect of this scepter in detail.

However, what Fang Yue didn't say was that he felt a smell of death scripture on this scepter. If Fang Yue guessed well, this scepter refiner should have also practiced the "Death Scripture", but the smell is quite similar. Faintly, even Fang Yue couldn't guess why the refiner of this scepter produced this scepter that looked so tasteless.

"There is actually a seal on this scepter?"

Hearing Fang Yue's words, Chen Ming was even more stunned. This golden elder's curse was a well-known weapon in the League of Nations, and he did not know how many masters he experienced.

Many of its masters were amazing and brilliant, but in the end all the masters of this scepter died tragically. No one has studied the secrets contained in this scepter, let alone anyone who can tell the nine contained in this scepter. Road is sealed!

"Now that you have these dark creatures, you can be regarded as an amazing weapon. If you can make good use of it, you may be able to cause unexpected damage to the Dark Demons!"

Chen Ming became more aware that he could not treat Fang Yue in a normal way.

This Fang Yue's methods and insights are far beyond the limits of his cultivation realm.

With Fang Yue's weird means, maybe he and Yongfeng Town can really resolve the danger and evil of this Black Demon Clan's attack.
