Chapter 381: Theft

The two outer disciples swept over Fang Yue's body with indifferent eyes.

They nodded slightly to Li Qing.

"You did a good job this time! We suspect that they have something to do with a recent theft in the church! He needs to be arrested, tortured, and the truth is announced to the world!"

These two outer disciples all had aloof faces, and they didn't look at Fang Yue at all.

In their eyes, Fang Yue is a piece of fat. There is no courage to resist.

In Tongtian Sect, the hierarchy is strong. There are many rules.

When every handyman disciple meets an outside disciple, he should be as if a mouse meets a cat, fearful of his head and tail, or even like a common man in the field, seeing the emperor of the heavens, kneeling three times and bowing nine times, giving a big gift.

"It has something to do with a theft?"

When Fang Yue heard the two outer disciples buckle the charges indiscriminately and splashed dirty water, he immediately curled up with a cold smile.

He had long heard that in the Tongtian Sect, there is a mixture of fish and dragons, and there are all kinds of people and horses, but he did not expect that he encountered a wave so soon, this charge is simply unreasonable. "Yes, we strictly suspect that you are related to a theft case! Recently, in the Tongtian Sect, a treasure house of an inner disciple was stolen, and a large number of spiritual stones passed away. We were ordered to look for the treasure, and you just The entry-level handyman disciple, actually carrying a lot of money, swaggered through the market,

Have to make us feel suspicious! "

The two outer disciples of Tongtian Sect, each of them seemed to be justified, but in fact all of them were arrogant, shit!

"There are so many people with spirit stones in the world! Why are you suspicious of me! I think you are trying to rob me of wealth!"

Fang Yue also retorted. He resolutely couldn't tolerate the feces that these two Tongtian disciples clasped on their heads. Once they retreated, they would immediately fall into the bottomless abyss. Even if he made sense, he would become unclear. . "Haha, do you know who the two of us are? Actually say that we buckle our hats? Both of us are law enforcement disciples among the outer disciples of Tongtian Sect. They are responsible for enforcing the rules and laws of Tongtian Sect! You doubt our impartiality. Doubt the Law Enforcement Hall! Regardless of whether you are really a thief, just Suspecting the crime of Law Enforcement Hall is enough to make you live forever! "

The two disciples of the law enforcement hall finally got Fang Yue's charge.

The previous thefts were all nonsense by them, and if there is no evidence, they will also be severely punished.

But now, Fang Yue openly said that he doubted the justice of the Law Enforcement Hall, and that was a nailed accusation. It was hard to get rid of the water, one spit and one pit!

Fang Yue was speechless. He didn't expect that these two Tongtian Sect's outer disciples would come to a fishing law enforcement, dug a hole, and waited for him to jump here!

However, Fang Yue is not a vegetarian either.

Since they wanted to arrest, then he let these people come!

Fang Yue said coldly, "Do you really think that the Law Enforcement Hall is not great?"

Fang Yue's voice suddenly became faint.

The two disciples from the Law Enforcement Hall looked at each other, and they all felt a bit of a bad thing.

Every time the law is enforced, once the charges are fulfilled, all the handyman disciples will become angry or simply kneel on the ground and weep bitterly, begging for a lighter punishment.

But this guy is really calm and a bit scary, as if there is something terrible in his hand.

The two law enforcement disciples pondered for a long time, but they couldn't guess what kind of territory this guy was holding in his hand.

But the matter has reached this point, how could they still shrink back.

"I advise you, don't bluff in front of us, because no matter how you bluff, it is useless. In the Tongtian Church, you can find out the reputation of my law enforcement hall! You can catch the murderers and the ghosts and gods! Resist, we will definitely make you worse than death!"

The two disciples from the Law Enforcement Hall continued to interrogate Fang Yue with a superior posture.

"I advise you to explain it honestly, and you can deal with it lightly. How much wealth did you stole in the hands of that inner disciple, hand it over one by one, we will return it for you, maybe that inner disciple The adults can ignore the villains and let you go!"

The disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall gave Fang Yue a step down, and the Jianghu routines were deep. As disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall, they were not willing to offend people too much.

If only some wealth is required, and the other party is still a powerless handyman disciple, then no one will pursue this kind of matter yet.

But if Fang Yue is really killed and his life is at stake, someone from the Tongtian Sect will definitely come forward to investigate carefully and make things worse! "Hey, if you want to punish me, then you have to ask the adult I serve! If he agrees to let me go back to the law enforcement hall with you, I will definitely leave without saying anything. Ping, do whatever you want, but that is if the adult behind me disagrees, he will

Once angry, no one can clean up the place! "

Fang Yue didn't plan to do anything to clean up the two outer disciples of the law enforcement hall.

The world has the rules of the world, and the school has the truth of the school.

All killings are forbidden in the same sect. If Fang Yue dares to take this matter first, then even if he has great truth, he will become a traitor to Tongtian Sect and cannot stand among the sect.

But you must compare your background and fight for power.

Fang Yue has never been afraid of anyone.

Lift your thighs out, and you must scare the people down!

"Your lord?"

When they heard these four words, the outer disciples of the two law enforcement halls all had a bad feeling. Their law enforcement halls were typical bullying and fearful of hard work.

It is not a problem to deal with some small fish and shrimps, but if you really encounter some hard stubble with background and deep water, then you will be really unlucky!

Could it be that this kid is really a disciple that an adult valued?

"Who is your grown-up's last name? See if my brothers know each other?"

The outer disciples of the two law enforcement halls have a softer tone. If this young man really carried out a big man, none of them would have to kneel and lick.

"My adults have always been low-key, names or other things, not for outsiders! You don't know you when you say it! You just need to know that my adults are so powerful that they really come out, and the heads of the heavenly religion must be respectful. , Salute him!"

Fang Yue didn't reveal the name of Ruyizi.

The two disciples of the law enforcement hall first glanced at each other, then laughed.

Hearing Fang Yue's words, they all relaxed.

In their opinion, this Fang Yue must be bluffing, and he can't even make up the name of a big man. This kind of clumsy trick wants to fool them?

What's more, a big figure who can make the head teacher personally salute, and will not casually include a handyman disciple, even if they are close servants around them, they are generally inner disciples. Even higher status!

The two handyman disciples were full of distrust.

Fang Yue sighed faintly. Why is he telling the truth, but no one believes it?

"If you don't believe me, I can take you to my adult's residence! But if you really go there, don't let your legs feel weak!"

Fang Yue spoke.

The two laughed more cheerfully.

"No problem! As long as you lead the way, I and the other two are willing to appreciate the style of that adult!"

In their eyes, this Fang Yue has become a complete jumping clown! The reason for not debunking now is to see his embarrassing expression when the time comes and he can't invite a great figure of Tongtianjiao!

"I am willing to follow two adults too!"

Li Qing looked at Fang Yue with a sneer. A salted fish also wants to turn over? Humph, there is no door!

The two outer disciples nodded slightly and agreed to Li Qing's request. Anyway, they were all watching the show. An extra audience would make it more lively!

"Are you really sure you want to follow me to see the adults?"

Fang Yue looked at Li Qing and the others seriously, with a serious expression on his face.

"Why, now it's time to go back and give up all the wealth in your body, we can spare you a little life!"

Li Qing is not as jealous as the law enforcement disciples of the two outer sects, anyway, he and Fang Yue have completely torn their faces. Strong hostility, even if it is exposed, it does not hurt.

Fang Yue said coldly: "Since you are sure to go, don't blame me for not reminding you beforehand!"

A word fell. Fang Yue turned around and left.

His pace was very fast, a few hundred feet in an instant, and Li Qing and others followed closely behind him, not losing anything.

In a blink of an eye, Fang Yue was already a few miles away, and the more they walked, the more remote the place became. The weeds are barren and the mountains and plains are everywhere.

Occasionally a bleak sound of wind fell, like a scimitar, slashing down leisurely.

The expression on the face of one of the outer disciples became more relaxed. At the beginning, Fang Yue was so swearing and solemnly warned that he was still worried that this guy really had a big background. But now, he has determined that this Fang Yue is bluffing.

The class of Tongtianjiao is distinct and its residence is very particular.

The more the outer place, the thinner the aura. The scarcer the resources, the lower the status of the people living in them.

Fang Yue took them away from the bargaining place, getting closer and closer to the periphery of Tongtian Sect.

This place is barren and the birds don't shit.

They followed Fang Yue's steps, the corners of their mouths smiled more intensely, they wanted to see how Fang Yue was going to end.

Near the edge of the valley, Fang Yue couldn't bear it. He was sure again: "Do you really want to walk in here?"

The wisps of autumn wind fell, and the chill permeated people.

The smiles of the two outer disciples suddenly became stronger!

"We are pretty sure, where is the big man you mentioned? Quickly let him stand up so that we can worship!"

The joking voice of the two was stronger. Li Qing also said, "Huh, you guy, you dare to criticize me last month, saying that you are the disciple of Lord Ruyizi, and every handyman who is recruited by Ruyizi will end up on the 15th of that month. , The night of the full moon fell sadly in the curse, the bones became ashes, and you can live

Living up and down until now is enough to prove that everything you say is a lie! "

Fang Yue's eyes showed a hint of pity.

Since he passed the curse on the night of the full moon last time, great changes have taken place in this valley!

He really didn't want these three people to die miserably. Although they were all hateful, God had a good life. Sin does not die.

But since they are so determined to seek death, then he has nothing to say! Fang Yue stepped into the valley, and the cursing power was instantly awakened.

Chapter 382: Fell into the pit

However, on his index finger, there was a circle of red silk threads that evolved from the power of cursing, swallowing those powers of cursing without hesitation, like a bottomless pit, refining it, nothing left!

This level of curse power is not effective on him, but will become the ration of the red thread in his hand!

This red line is a good thing. Specifically for the power of the curse, it can be freely absorbed and refined.

This is tantamount to a talisman that allows Fang Yue to be immune to all curse powers.

But other people did not have the protection of this red line, and the relative ending was extremely miserable.

Seeing Fang Yue stepping into the valley. Li Qing and others have all settled down one after another, they are very confident in their own cultivation base, even if Fang Yue has arranged in this valley, it is difficult to pose a sufficient threat to them.

The moment they landed on their feet.

One by one, the big pale hands crashed into the ground, grabbing down towards their ankle bones!

In the valley, the curse took effect, and all three of them could not escape. They were caught off guard, they were all caught by the pale palm. Li Qing possessed himself, waved the steel long sword in his hand, and slashed towards the pale palm under his feet. However, his long sword and the pale palm rubbed against each other. The collision is just a series of red sparks, like metal

The handover is the same as friction!

Those pale hands are quite strong, like cast iron.

Ordinary magic weapons, even if they are sharp, are ineffective to them.

Both palms grabbed both ankles. Drag down suddenly.

Li Qing was dragged into the ground.

His face was full of anger and despair.

"Fang Yue, where did you take us! How can it be so strange and terrifying!"

Li Qing roared against Yue, like a mad lion.

Fang Yue looked innocent.

"I told you! This is the place where Ruyizi, a big figure behind me, lives!"

Fang Yue told the origin of the place, and the hearts of the two outer disciples were cold.

And Li Qing is still roaring and struggling: "You fart! The valley where Ruyizi lives does not have such a strong curse power. Only by spending a period of time with him will he be contaminated with the curse, and then it will suddenly happen on the night of the full moon and become a disaster. Ashes, no bones!" Fang Yue blinked his cute eyes and said, "Yes! I get along with Lord Ruyizi, contaminated with cause and effect, and bear the curse! On the night of the full moon last month, it was indeed an encounter. Ominous. But my luck and fate were great, and I finally passed away! The power of this curse has changed and permeated

In the entire valley, the various grains and elixir planted in it will not be affected by the power of the curse. But once animals set foot on the borders of this valley, they will be cursed and will never die!

Before you came, I repeatedly discouraged you, but you did not believe it. Alas, in fact, this doesn't blame you, people's hearts are not old, and the world is going downhill. Where is the trust between people? "

Fang Yue was cynical and exclaimed.

Li Qing was desperate, he was extremely regretful. I should have believed Fang Yue's words at the time, and understood that the handyman disciple beside Ruyizi couldn't be offended!

But it was too late. He was already half-way into the ground, and all his body below his waist and abdomen was pulled into the ground, and he had completely lost consciousness in those places!

Li Qing accepts his fate, even if he takes his life back, he is probably a disability, and his strength is greatly reduced. It would be better to die quietly.

However, the two outer disciples were still struggling. They were masters in the world realm, and their absolute strength was dozens of times higher than Li Qing.

Those pale palms, although tough, they can still destroy the magic weapon with all their strength!

Both of them are quite rich, and they sacrificed magical weapons at the peak level of the heaven and earth realm.

What one person sacrificed was a seven-story stone pagoda. Its style imitated the seven-story Buddha statue, with a relic on the top of the stone pagoda. Which releases pure Buddha power.

Streaks of Buddha light fell down, restraining all evil ghosts.

Where it was shrouded, the pale palms instantly turned to gray. The stone tower is infinitely useful. It was carefully refined by an elder of the outer disciple. Before the stone tower was cast, there were several high-ranking monks in the cycle of chanting sutras day and night, blessing the stone tower, and condensing the heart of the relic Buddha! The stone tower shuddered slightly. Then you can save thousands of creatures and tame them!

And many evils are restrained by nature.

The outer disciple seemed to have achieved brilliant results, and he had initially possessed the means to resist the curse, but his face was cold, drops of sweat spread across his cheeks, pattering, pattering, smashing to the ground, splashing crystal clear.

If a person knows that he is cold and warm, outsiders, he does have the upper hand, but only he himself understands how hard he is to sustain it!

The power of the stone tower is huge, but it can't be consumed either. With his strength on the fifth small step of the world realm, he has only driven the stone tower for a while, and the zhenqi stored in the meridians has actually been consumed seven or eight eight!

And the pale palms on the ground, like weeds in the fire, burned endlessly, and in the blink of an eye the spring breeze blew and gave birth to another crop, densely growing from the ground!

Another disciple from the outer sect was even more difficult to deal with. He didn't have a magical tool like a stone tower to restrain the evil. Fortunately, he was a sword repairman.

The way of sword repair has been the number one attack since ancient times.

The sword light swept across, there was nothing to stop!

Bunches of sword light fell one after another, gods blocking and killing gods, and Buddhas blocking and killing Buddha.

He performed the Qinglian sword art with one hand. At the very least, in terms of his moves, he is already flawless, Fang Yue is ten feet, and he can't splash ink!

Fang Yue drew a distance from the two outer disciples, and he admired that the two outer disciples of the Tongtian Sect were so powerful that they far outperformed the casual cultivators of the same realm outside the world before their combat power.

One trick and one style, everything contains extraordinary mystery.

Dharma tools, martial arts, are far from the outside world's casual cultivation.

Although neither of them has realized that Tao is nothing. But the skill is exquisite, and it has reached the point where the skill is close to Tao. Leapfrogging is easy.

When placed in the outside world, they are all the pride of heaven, and their peers look up.

"A disciple of Tongtian Sect, it really is not easy! Even if it's just two passers-by, A, B, C, it's not an ordinary trick!"

Fang Yue praised, and at the same time moved out a small Mazha, knocked up sunflower seeds.

If you can have another glass of iced Coke, it would be even better!

When the two outer disciples saw Fang Yue's leisurely appearance, playing monkeys and watching a show, they couldn't help but be angry with Qiqiao, they were fighting those evil things.

And this Fang Yue was actually watching the show next to him. The outer disciple who was driving the stone tower threatened Fang Yue and said, "Fang Yue, you still have time to look back and help us level these evil palms. We can forget the blame and treat it as nothing happened! And if you go your own way, I believe you will be more aware of the consequences than we are White! Both of us are disciples outside the law enforcement hall, and we are extremely distinguished. Once the brand is broken, someone will definitely investigate it! At that time, you will not escape suspicion, and the law enforcement hall will find out the truth and kill two law enforcement disciples. This is a matter of the nine clans! "

"Through investigation? Come on! Check it out! If it weren't for your repeated aggressiveness, do you think I would like to introduce you to my site? If the people in the Law Enforcement Hall are like you, it's unreasonable! I don't mind letting them often use the power of this curse!"

Fang Yue's face finally showed a jealous expression.

He doesn't eat soft or hard, and doesn't like threats from others!

The continuous pale hands broke through the ground, and bit by bit exhausted all the origin of the provocator's true energy.

The two outer disciples of the Tongtian Sect fell in unwillingness. They are talented and each has a proud talent. Otherwise, they would not be selected by the Tongtian Sect as disciples, step by step, start from the beginning and grow up. To the present state.

However, in front of Fang Yue, they were nothing. If it weren't for the direct killing, it would lead to punishment in the eyes of Tongtianjiao. When they barter, they would have become ashes.

Fang Yue does not cause trouble, but is not afraid of trouble.

What are the two outer disciples of Tongtian Sect? Even if the existence of the elders of the Tongtian Sect provokes Fang Yue, he dares to be tough!

Whether it was the corpses of the two outer disciples or Li Qing's corpses, they were eventually divided by those pale big hands and caught in hell.

But the magical instruments and storage bags on them all became Fang Yue's trophies.

The stone tower on the ground is of good quality, and is considered a well-made magical artifact! Every detail has been polished very delicately, which shows the degree of care of the maker of this magical artifact. The Buddha statue has a special place in the Buddhist instruments.

The seven-story Buddha statue is one of the lowest.

There is even a legend that someone once cast a three-layered Buddha, and a layered Buddha with a layer of sky!

Once the buddha came out, it covered the sky and covered the sun. It could attract sentient beings and fall into it. He would never exceed his life and become a believer in Buddhism. He was tirelessly chanting blessings for the owner of the buddha every day.

And that long sword also has its own origin.

This is an imitation of the famous purple and green double swords in history. Although there is only one sword, the edges are sharp and everything is cut. In the sword body, there is a strong wisp of sword aura all the year round, the more you swipe, the stronger the sword aura. When released, it can change the color of the sun and the moon, and the world will lose its voice.

Of course, this sword aura is the fantastic idea of the long sword forge.

The outer disciple who possesses the long sword, although he considers himself a sword fairy, he still has no way to slash the sword energy in it.

Otherwise, even if there was only one blow, he would not die so easily. Before he died, he could at least make some counterattacks, which made Fang Yue a little frantic.

Fang Yue praised, Tongtianjiao, worthy of being one of the ten martial arts.

No disciple of the outer sect can underestimate, the trump cards in his hand and the possessions on his body are all staggering.

Fang Yue converged these things. All regarded as their own trophy!

At this moment, Ruyizi opened the door.

He walked towards Fang Yue step by step, and there was a trace of fatigue in his old eyes.

Just now, he knew everything that happened on the edge of the valley.

It's just that he didn't show up, because the two outer disciples were not qualified to let him come forward to shock.

"Unexpectedly, that curse didn't kill you, but finally made you! The ordinary curse is no longer valid for you, and even weaker curses will cause you innate fear and inexplicable avoidance!"

Ruyizi's eyes towards Fang Yue are complicated, and as the contact deepens, for Fang Yue, Ruyizi no longer looks down upon the junior. Because in many ways, Fang Yue only gave him an incredible and unfathomable feeling! Fang Yue himself seemed to be a mystery, as powerful as him, and could not be solved.

Chapter 383: Curse

There is no solution to the curse, otherwise, it will not torture him for so many years. The deity sleeps in the big grave and seals itself to prevent the sense of heaven. The clone is trapped in a valley. There is no very special situation, so he dare not travel. , For fear that it will mess up the world!

On the other hand, Fang Yue had no fear of curses. In this respect, even Ruyizi admired him. He turned the power of curses into a red line.

This red thread is, in some ways, a strange thing.

"I have a sense. After the first wave of curses, there should be a second wave! The life-destructive curse is not so easy to get rid of! And behind this curse, it seems that it is not a kind of induction and rejection by Ming Ming Tian. Someone deliberately created the yin and yang order, and karma is rewarded!"

Fang Yue's inference. Ruyizi was shocked.

"Can you be sure of this?"

Regarding the curse, to be honest, Ruyizi did not understand Fang Yue as deeply. Using the red line as a guide, Fang Yue has already started to practice the way of cursing.

The way of cursing is the great way.

Ranked high in Three Thousand Avenue, but few people can understand it!

The power of cursing involves cause and effect and touches destiny. It was once regarded as a taboo force.

For this, Fang Yue also has a deep understanding of other ways, whether it is a trail, a great way, or even a heaven. He is SF Express, with few obstacles.

The level of realm is only a matter of time and horizon.

But in terms of the curse, he walked on thin ice and progressed slowly. Just getting started, even the first level of the curse has not been reached. "The way of cursing is not so mysterious in itself. It involves some inexplicable cause and effect and a kind of induction by heaven to humans! Causality is a thread, involving karma. Although it will call out some inexplicable existence, it will cause ominousness. But absolutely not, let the Yin soldiers lose their way and become a killing machine

! The water behind this cursing road is as deep as the power of faith, touching me a forbidden area that I shouldn't seem to touch! "

Fang Yue nodded to Ruyizi in fear.

But Ruyizi laughed heartily. "If someone manipulates it, it's better! It's a big deal to kill him by himself, and make a Langlang universe! My deity is asleep, and the clone is forbidden. I have lived too badly for these years! I can do nothing against the gods, because it is invisible. No quality, running the origin of heaven and earth! But if man-made,

I must make him regret it! "

Ruyizi's voice is strong and high-pitched. Full of awe-inspiring fighting spirit!

"How long is your next curse? I'll spend it with you! I want to go back to the source and find the source of this curse!"

For so many years, Ruyizi has been silent for a long time. But the fighting spirit in his heart had already boiled. Even if it really fell into the incomparable darkness, it would be a thousand times better than the current state! Fang Yue grabbed Ruyizi, shook his head and said, "Teacher, don't be impulsive! The water behind the curse is deep, and you must not set foot on it easily! And the second wave of curses I will face should be some distance away. The so-called curse is in me It seems that it's just a primer, which ignites the body's karma

. Last time, the curse struck, and my karma was burned out. Therefore, the second wave of curses will still have some time to buffer, so that I can accumulate some karma before it will come again! "

"Buddhism talks about cause and effect and destroys all predestined methods. I sounded quite ridiculous before, but nowadays, is it also related to curses? Karma is not involved, no matter how strong the curse is, there is hardly room for display!"

Fang Yue thought of something, and felt that he had fallen into boundless terror.

He seemed to have touched a dark corner of the world and set foot in places he shouldn't know.

Think of the mysterious young man at the demon barracks. Isn't his body cursed? He fell asleep and didn't know how many years, but Fang Yue was digging out from the ground!

Why is that person asleep. Why does he have such a strong curse?

Also, how did the Barren Blood Plain of Baili Secret Realm form, and where did the continuous cursed rain of blood come from?

Think carefully.

Along the way, not many years.

Fang Yue had been in contact with the curse more than once.

It's just that the experience was too shallow and didn't understand the terrifying extent.

The two talked, and the more they talked, the more terrifying it became. There were some big secrets involved, and no one could tell why.

Rumbling.

In the distance, there is smoke flying!

A group of figures stood proudly, straddling a steed, galloping!

These people are all outer disciples of Tongtian Sect. On the breastplate worn on their chests, there is a word of Fa, indicating their identities.

Killed two and attracted a group!

These people are all disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall, one is stronger than the other, and the other is more proud!

Their guide is an inner disciple of Tongtian Sect.

It is also under the command of the Law Enforcement Hall.

There was a strong breath of death in his body.

This is the result of agglomeration and contamination without knowing how many people have been killed.

"Did you kill the two outer disciples of our law enforcement hall?"

The inner disciple of the law enforcement hall, with a low voice and full of anger, interrogated Fang Yue as if interrogating a prisoner.

"Which one are you? Why should I tell you!"

Fang Yue struck his neck, his attitude towards that inner disciple was very shabby.

Anyway, the patron is by his side now. He wasn't afraid that this inner disciple would take action, and if something went wrong, Ruyi would resist it.

From the bottom of his heart, Fang Yue vaguely hoped that the disciple of the law enforcement hall would be more vicious and domineering!

When the disciple of the law enforcement hall heard Fang Yue's stern tone, he suddenly became anxious.

"Reverse, reverse! Are you trying to rebel? Do you know who I am? You dare to yell at me!" The inner disciple of the Law Enforcement Hall is a powerful person in the dignified cycle. He has a deep understanding of the law and a deep sense of Taoism. Among the many disciples of Tongtian Sect, he can already be said to be a high position. Even many of the same inner disciples dare not offend him, for fear that he will settle accounts after autumn.

, Put a hat on yourself, and then kill. But what is this guy in front of me?

Even he dare to contradict him!

The inner disciple of the law enforcement hall looked gloomy. Raise your hand to kill.

At this time, Ruyizi finally couldn't see it, her face was sullen, and she took a step.

"Asshole!"

Ruyizi stood in front of Fang Yue and blocked Fang Yue.

He whispered angrily, heartbroken. In the era when he was growing up, Tongtian Sect had a small facade, but it was brothers and sisters who loved each other. As close as a family, there has never been such a situation of cannibalism!

Although Ruyizi is in a state of cursed half-dead, but as a member of the Tongtian Sect, he still thinks about it.

Hope that Tongtianjiao will get better and better.

But this guy in front of me is a bit too much!

This is blatantly destroying the atmosphere of unity of the Tongtian Church.

In Ruyizi's opinion, character is more important than cultivation. It is like the guy in front of him. He is irritable, and if he doesn't agree with him, he shouts and screams, even if he doesn't even ask about it, even if he gives him more. Resources, cultivated is also a scourge!

After the inner disciple saw Ruyizi, he looked up and down, he couldn't sense how strong aura Ruyizi was, instead, he felt a fading and decadent aura in every inch of his wrinkled skin!

"No wonder this guy, a handyman disciple, dared to provoke the majesty of my law enforcement hall. It turns out that there is an old guy supporting you! However, I advise you to come to this muddy water, otherwise, , Will make you unable to eat and walk around!"

The inner disciple looked at Ruyizi with disdain and contempt.

Fang Yue was stunned to see this scene.

"Old stuff?" Fang Yueqiang held back his smile.

Ruyizi has always been strong, and freedom is the heroic appearance and outstanding peers. He has practiced for more than 30,000 years, and he has been well received by his peers and cared for by his elders. Whoever sees him is respectful and courteous. When would anyone dare to offend him so much and turn him into an old thing!

This name made Ruyizi's face completely pulled down. Originally, he was only going to punish and educate these disciples slightly. As long as they can reform and re-behave, it is not impossible to let them go.

But an "old thing" completely changed Ruyizi's mindset. His face was cold, and his eyes swept towards the law enforcement disciples. The sky was originally blue and the wind was beautiful. Suddenly, black sand was rolled up, covering the sky.

The hearts of those law enforcement disciples trembled slightly, and for a while, they were a little at a loss.

One thought resonates with heaven and earth!

What a realm this is, they suddenly realized that they had caused a terrible existence. Want to kneel down and beg for mercy.

However, Ruyizi doesn't want to give them this opportunity anymore! In some respects, even those at the level of Ruyizi are very concerned. Since his recovery, he has lived as a clone, with curses around his body that are difficult to resolve. No one dared to approach him for half a step!

In the outside world, there are rumors, some people say that he is an old immortal, old monster.

No matter how magnanimous the Ruyizi is, it is not the heart of a sage, and can ignore any external evaluation!

For these evaluations, he has always been brooding.

Now, these law enforcement disciples touched his dragon's inverse scales, making him angry.

Ruyizi's palm fell suddenly. However, a talisman suddenly burned on the body of the disciple of the law enforcement hall.

A beam of golden light rose into the sky and turned into a golden cover.

Ruyizi's palm was slightly blocked, and a stalwart figure appeared.

This stalwart figure is not a real body, but a clone and a shadow. His body is burly, like an immortal * of war, stepping out at will, and sweeping across the vast territory.

"Who dares to move people in my law enforcement hall?"

The voice of the figure was majestic, and a vision appeared above his head, thousands of stars floating in the sky. It seemed like the vast universe, everything was under his control.

This is a leader-level powerhouse, and his cultivation talent is unparalleled.

He is proficient in the way of stars and refined it into his own vision.

Eyes opened and closed, two beams of light fell.

Suddenly, the hills exploded and the rubble flew away. The valley full of mountains and flowers was destroyed, a mess, very bleak!

Leader-level powerhouses are extremely powerful and unfathomable. With any gesture, you can draw land as river and cut off mountains and seas!

Even if two beams of eyes fell, it could blow up a valley. Ruyizi looked around and saw that his residence was actually destroyed. The anger in his heart was scorched.

Chapter 384: Reverse scale

Long You Ni Lin, you will be angry if you touch it! He was trapped in the valley and did not dare to go out, for fear of spreading the power of the curse to Tongtian Sect. In his heart, it has been aggrieved for a long time. Nowadays, some people have even destroyed his place of residence. This is like a fuse, blasting the resentment accumulated in his heart for so many years

Click it!

"You are so bold!"

Ruyizi roared, the stars collapsed, and the sun and the moon were dull.

The surrounding sky collapsed, as if being stirred into an endless vortex.

Ruyizi's figure suddenly rises up, grounding the sky. The entire Tongtian Sect can be released by a giant!

"No! That guy who doesn't have long eyes actually got him out!"

In the hall, Li Ruhai, who was reprimanding the elders, sensed the aura of Ruyizi, and without a word, he rushed out of the palace!

Ruyizi, in the entire Tongtian Church, is almost a taboo existence. Most people have only heard his name, but no one has seen his true face!

However, when seeing the stalwart figure, the big men and giants in the Tongtian Sect, even with their feet, can understand that this existence they have never met is a figure of great status.

The means to enlarge and shrink the figure are available to most practitioners above the heaven and earth realm.

However, the size of this figure has a limit corresponding to the realm.

In the realm of heaven and earth, generally you can only enlarge or shrink your figure within three times!

And to reach the rotation level is to expand this number to ten times!

Yin and Yang realm, one hundred times taller!

Thoroughly, a thousand times the figure!

And this figure can touch the blue world and Jiuyou.

At least one hundred and eight thousand feet!

Such a figure is more than ten thousand times, at least one hundred thousand times!

Wanbei is the Tongtian Sect, the honor of saints! It is an existence at the level of the Supreme Elder!

More than ten thousand times, he is a great saint, even if he searches the entire Tongtian Sect, few people can reach such a realm!

The identity of this figure is ready to be revealed.

Great Sage!

The ghost of the leader of the law enforcement hall, two battles, almost want to scold his mother!

Looking at the entire Tongtian Sect, how many of them are the strongest of the Great Sage?

You can count with your fingers!

These disciples, who can really cause trouble for him, actually provoke an old antique of the great saint level.

"Misunderstandings, all are misunderstandings!"

The strong man in the master realm is no longer strong, and is replaced by a humble face with a smile.

The powerhouses of the Great Sage level generally retreat in the depths of time and space of Tongtian Sect, and rarely get involved in teaching things. But in general, as long as they come forward, they always say one thing! At the level of the Great Sage, he already belongs to the group of people at the top of the pyramid in the entire Xuanhuang world.

Almost no one disobeyed them when they spoke the law!

"Misunderstanding? Haha, is it a misunderstanding if you bullied to my door? You have already blew up my valley. Is this also a misunderstanding?"

Ruyizi's laughter is bleak, and the grievances of these years can no longer be suppressed, and I want to vent all of them!

One of his palms fell, and fell violently, like a sky collapsed, making people nowhere to hide!

This time, Ruyizi was really angry! He retreated in every possible way and lived in seclusion. The purpose is not to put too much burden on Tongtian Sect.

But in the end?

The world has forgotten him, even a junior in the leader realm dared to bully his residence and flatten his valley!

That avatar projection didn't even have the strength to resist, it was beaten to death by Ruyizi's palm!

His deity is buried in this valley. Within a radius of a million miles, he can mobilize all the power of the deity anytime, anywhere, by virtue of his clone!

A clone projection of the leader realm was annihilated in this way, and even a scream or a wailing was not heard!

The disciples of the inner door and outer door of the law enforcement hall are all from their heads to the soles of their feet.

They even have the heart to cry. What kind of existence did they provoke!

At this time, Li Ruhai finally took a look and arrived. Seeing Ruyizi's majestic, majestic and stalwart posture like a true * of the ancient times, he couldn't help but was slightly taken aback!

Afterwards, Li Ruhai saw the valley that was blasted flat by the master of the master realm with his eyes.

His hands and feet were instantly cold, and Li Ruhai even had the urge to scold his mother.

What kind of special code is this!

Someone who is not long-eyed wandered around and ran to this old monster's residence. And he didn't do good things, even his residence dared to bombard it!

Others don't know the identity of Ruyizi, but Li Ruhai knows his past well.

In fact, each generation of master teachers can only stay in this position for at most three thousand years!

Only by passing down the teachings from generation to generation can Tongtianjiao have a stronger vitality.

And the recent generations of master teachers, when handing over, they all emphasized the existence of this old monster!

The strength of the Great Sage, special means.

It is listed as the least to provoke and least irritable existence in the entire Tongtian Church!

Even if there is a moment of life and death of the Tongtian Sect, this Ruyizi is one of the biggest cards in the Tongtian Sect!

His loyalty to Tongtian Sect is unquestionable. As for the strength, Ruyizi has been in such a state of life and death for so many years. Some people suspect that he has even taken that crucial step. It just never showed up!

Take that step and surpass the Great Sage.

Thinking of this, Ruyizi's hands and legs couldn't help shaking.

Who is it that shamelessly dare to break ground on Tai Sui?

Li Ruhai suppressed his anger and fisted at Ruyizi and said, "Master Ruyizi, please calm down!"

Ruyizi's indifferent eyes fell on Li Ruhai's body.

"Quite anger? Do you calm down when you say anger?"

Ruyizi didn't intend to give Li Ruhai this face at all. How about the head teacher? It's just a junior in the leader realm! In his eyes, the leader realm is also an ant! Even the saints of the general heavenly realm are just stronger ants!

The Great Sage Realm is absolutely qualified to look down on the entire heavens!

Even if he is furious, even the entire sky will tremble, if he doesn't want this land to sink instantly.

The resentment in Li Ruhai's heart was deeper. Who was the guy who didn't have eyesight exploded the old monster's den! Let me know, he must be killed!

"Master Ruyizi, there are a lot of adults! Why bother with some younger generation! They are ignorant and don't know your identity, otherwise, how can they do such absurd things?"

Li Ruhai was even more humble, and even smiled.

On the ground, the disciples of the Tongtian Sect were all in an uproar.

In their eyes, how majestic and solemn the head teacher is!

On weekdays, they always look high above, making many disciples look up. When. He would also laugh at others, so imperfect.

Seeing Li Ruhai's appearance, Ruyizi also snorted repeatedly.

With the falling of this cold snort, the entire sky trembled three times.

One teaches supreme, to achieve this level, in fact, it is considered to give him a lot of face! Ruyizi knew this truth, so she didn't want to make this Li Ruhai too difficult. "This incident was caused by the law enforcement cousin's random law enforcement! They slandered my disciple Fang Yue for stealing, but in fact they coveted his wealth! Fang Yue wanted to kill a hundred policemen, but he didn't expect to kill the young man. Jump out of the old! Even the people in the leader of the law enforcement hall have come forward to protect you, this law enforcement

The disciples in the hall know the law and violate the law and are aggressive and domineering! If this wind keeps on, it will surely give me the smoky smoky air that I have taught me! At this time, do you as the master in charge or do not care? "

Although Ruyizi's voice was harsh, she actually gave Li Ruhai a step down and let him handle the matter.

Li Ruhai's ability to sit in the position of the head of the Tongtian Sect was not a dazed man.

He couldn't hear the meaning of this wish. Li Ruhai immediately raised his face and said solemnly: "This matter is indeed the Law Enforcement Hall! All people involved in this matter, regardless of the leader-level powerhouse or ordinary disciple, will be strictly investigated. The investigation must be investigated to the end. Appreciate! But the law enforcement hall has recruited disciples in recent years, a mixed bag, ordered

Clean up! In addition, all disciples of the Law Enforcement Church of Tongtian Church, from the saints to the outer disciples, will be fined 50% within ten years!

Is the result of this treatment still satisfied with Lord Ruyizi? "

Ruyizi nodded slightly, this method does not blame the public, Li Ruhai's many punishments, seemingly serious, actually lift the board high and gently drop it. Except for a fine of 50% in ten years, the other articles are superficial articles and have no actual content!

However, as the head teacher, it is already not easy to weigh the pros and cons!

"This 50% salary penalty has also been fined, so let's leave it to Fang Yue as a small compensation! This time, he was shocked! There is no substantive compensation, it can't be justified!"

Ruyizi's expression eased a little, but what he said made everyone breathless. In the Tongtian Church, how powerful is the Law Enforcement Hall, at least it can rank in the top 20 among the many forces within it! The number of them is scary. If they are really liquidated, they will be measured in units of at least one million. From the top to the sage, to the realm of heaven and earth, the salary for ten years is a huge sum.

Big numbers! 50% of the resources can definitely make people feel extremely jealous!

Is this Ruyizi crazy? Given so many resources to Fang Yue, wouldn't he be afraid that Fang Yue would be targeted and robbed?

The whole world fell into a weird silence, and people seemed to be able to hear the heart beating in their chests!

Even the sound of swallowing is clearly audible!

This decision can directly create a rich super local tyrant!

Li Ruhai is silent, this decision is very important!

Not to mention those resources, it is only the contribution point of Tongtianjiao, which is an inestimable number!

But in the end. Li Ruhai succumbed in Ruyizi's eyes, and he couldn't afford to offend this big figure who was suspected to have taken the last step.

What about the master of Tongtianjiao?

For the disciples below, he can live or die, and if he fails with a word, he will live and die. Even the saints in the Tongtian Sect, he is not afraid. After all, he has an identity, even if his cultivation is not enough, he can still use his power to suppress others.

But in the face of Ruyizi, he really did not have the courage to go against his will. If this matter is not handled properly, causing Ruyizi to have a bit of resentment with Tongtian Sect in his heart, then he is a sinner of Tongtian Sect, who will live forever. Can't stand up!

"Just as Mr. Ruyizi meant!"

When Li Ruhai's words fell, the Tongtian Sect was almost fried. The news is so exciting!

This Fang Yue was only a handyman disciple in the Tongtian Sect, how could he have such a rich wealth?

Some were jealous and panting.

Some people have their eyes flickering, and they have already begun to wonder how they can be deceived and taken away from Fang Yue's wealth.

Be guilty of his crime. Was this Ruyizi not afraid that Fang Yue would die because of these wealth?

Chapter 385: Whetstone

Li Ruhai's palm fell, and the treasure house of Tongtianjiao opened directly.

On behalf of those law enforcement cousins, 50% of the wealth resources that have been paid in ten years have turned into an incomparably huge dragon and soared into the sky!

Fang Yue stared at the wealth that was about to belong to him in the sky, and squeezed his cheek fiercely.

Damn it. It hurts. It doesn't seem to be a dream!

Ruyizi's figure shrank quickly and returned to its normal size, but he was still floating in the air, and he just picked up these resources.

At his fingertips, phantoms were intertwined.

A silver ring appeared in his palm. "This ring can be regarded as a gift from my teacher. Since you have already been in my door, as a teacher, I am obligated to deliver the necessary spiritual resources to your hands! Because of its sin, so many resources will surely attract the coveting of countless people! Therefore, I refined this ring, which has a hundred seals. As your cultivation level improves, your combat power will increase by this hundred. The seal will gradually be unlocked, and you will gradually acquire the corresponding resources! Before all the seals are unlocked, if someone snatches the ring, it will also instantly

Explode in time, let all the resources in it be annihilated! "

This Ruyizi is undoubtedly a ruthless person, he told this fact in front of the disciples of Tongtianjiao.

Let those Tongtianjiao disciples avoid greed, the arrangement of a great sage is far from what they can crack! And Ruyizi transmitted the sound to Fang Yue: "This ring was left by a * of darkness in ancient times! It is an out-and-out artifact! My sound transmission just now was just to deceive them, Bai The seal is indeed there. But if this ring is taken away, I will not blew myself! And this seal,

It is not set by me, it involves Pluto means! You need to crack it carefully, with a hundred layers of seals, every time you crack a layer, the authority will increase a little!

If you fully grasp the power of this ring, you may be able to solve the mystery of the fall of the ancient natural god's residence! "

No one can intercept Ruyizi's transmission.

Only Fang Yue can understand his painstaking efforts!

Insufficient realm and too many resources may not be a good thing!

If you rely too much on resources, you will often lose your enterprising spirit.

The 100-layer seal is actually setting Fang Yue small goals one after another, gradually achieving them, and then reaching the top!

With a wave of Ruyizi's palm, all resources like a long dragon fell into his ring.

Afterwards, Ruyizi handed the Pluto ring to Fang Yue.

A faint chill, deeply biting!

The "Death Scriptures" in his body quickly turned around.

There is an inexplicable will in the Pluto ring corresponding to it.

A mysterious breath penetrated into Fang Yue's body. Among his five internal organs, Sanskrit sounds lingered and he sang endlessly.

Three thousand phantoms of gods and demons appeared around Fang Yue.

There are ancient Buddhas who smile with flowers, and there are immortal divine residences, commanding the world, there are Shura demon gods, walking in blood, and unknown beasts, tearing the world apart!

Fang Yue let out a low growl, his entire face turned savage.

Three ancient celestial scriptures roared in his body and kept running, but this time, the mysterious aura in the ring of Hades was so strong that the three celestial scriptures could not be digested all at once. !

"What's happening here?"

Ruyizi was stunned, he had never expected such a situation to happen. Although the Pluto ring once belonged to an ancient Pluto, there shouldn't be any restrictions.

Seeing Fang Yue's hideous and painful expression, without saying anything, he took Fang Yue into the valley.

As for the teaching, they were ignored by Ruyizi.

Finally found a disciple who could resist the curse and follow him. He didn't want to ruin this disciple because of his good intentions to do bad things!

Li Ruhai touched his nose in the air and laughed at himself.

After becoming the head teacher, whoever sees him is not respectful.

He has never been left out of the public like this before.

But looking at Ruyizi's fierce figure, he knew that Fang Yue must have something happened to that ring.

So he didn't care, and dispelled the disciples in the gate who watched the excitement, and let them all go to everyone. Then Shi Shiran left the valley and returned to his master hall, continuing to hold meetings with the elders in the gate!

"What exactly is going on?"

In a palace in the valley.

Ruyizi circled Fang Yue, anxious like an ant on a hot pot!

Fang Yue's eyes were tight, his face was full of sweat, like heavy rain, and the ground was flooded in a blink of an eye.

Fang Yue knew that this time he played a big game!

His cultivation realm has already stood on the ninth level of the Xiantian realm, reaching the perfection of his realm. However, he has not broken through this big state. There is nowhere to vent the huge energy in the body. If one is not good, he might burst into death!

The mysterious atmosphere this time is a thousand times stronger than the previous two times!

It strays through Fang Yue's meridians, and is constantly eroded and decomposed by the three forces of life qi, death qi, soul qi, and three forces. However, even if the three celestial scriptures are running at the same time, they can't even consume these energy. One in 10,000.

Moreover, the three types of zhenqi that had been converted were also rushing in his body, his dantian was full, and it was hard to contain more zhenqi!

But the more life and death were at stake, the more calm Fang Yue was!

His mind is clearer than ever, looking for a way to break the game! "The problem I'm facing right now is that the energy in my body is full. As long as you vent them out, or temporarily store them somewhere, you can completely solve this problem! Even if these mysterious auras are temporarily removed, then a little A bit of cannibalization and refining, maybe,

This will also become a blessing for me. Once I break through to the realm of heaven and earth, I can immediately soar into the sky and reach the third or even fourth level of the realm of heaven and earth, saving countless years of practice! "

"But, I can't find a place to store it. The meridians and dantians in my body are already full! But there is little space! Space, by the way, space! I am proficient in the way of space, without space, then I will create a space out of thin air Can you just come?"

Fang Yue is anxious to be born with wisdom, in his dantian, with the power of divine thought, he is actually describing the formation.

This is a large space array interacting with an unknown space bubble in the universe!

Fang Yue did not dare to find a particularly large space to extend his dantian, otherwise, no amount of true energy would be able to fill it!

The volume of the bubble in this space is about ten times the volume of Fang Yue's Dantian.

After the formation of the formation is completed, the true energy in his body is constantly surging toward the space bubbles!

In the space bubble, three kinds of qi were immediately filled.

The three celestial scriptures resonate. Finally, the true Qi refined from the mysterious aura has a place to go!

They quickly transformed the mysterious aura into three true auras.

Around Fang Yue's body, the phantom heads of gods and demons also became clearer.

These are ancient gods and demons, who once stood proudly in the world, and the cosmic avenue has carved the marks of their existence.

Therefore, they can manifest their former stalwart posture.

Even if Fang Yue's cultivation is strong enough, deliberately, he can return all the ghosts and ghosts of the past!

But then it needs the means of the world, and it is definitely not what Fang Yue can accomplish with the current means!

With the space bubble, the huge pressure in Fang Yue's Dantian was relieved.

The danger of his body explosion was quietly relieved.

Fang Yue's eyebrows gradually stretched.

Calm down!

This time, it was a disaster for him, but it was a great opportunity to survive.

Mysterious breath is extremely rare, and it may be useless to other people, even if it can't even be sensed. But here, like a treasure, a single wisp can make his cultivation grow by leaps and bounds, and the foundation is solid, without any worries!

In the end, a little mysterious aura was refined, and after filling the meridian dantian, Fang Yue opened up a space bubble to store the mysterious aura!

When you need it, you can instantly refining, you can jump several realms in an instant!

The phantom of the three thousand gods and demons gradually faded, and then disappeared completely, leaving no trace.

Fang Yue's eyes opened again. He saw the anxious look on Ruyizi's old face.

"Fang Yue, what's the matter with you? Why did such a special situation occur just now! Three thousand gods and demons, each of them is a divine residence with endless prestige left between the heavens and the earth in the past. Ordinary people spend their entire lives, I can't summon it!"

Ruyizi realized that Fang Yue had a big secret. When he was sitting cross-legged just now, Fang Yue's internal organs mingled together, and a vague sound of chanting came from his body.

Accompanied by the power of rebirth, he almost saved him and rested on the ground again.

Fang Yue shook his head: "This is my secret. I can't say more about it. It involves the heavenly court and the underground palace. Once you export, you will inevitably be punished severely!"

Fang Yue's face was not red, and he made up a lie without breathing.

It's not that he doesn't trust Ruyizi, but that the three fairy scriptures of fellow practitioners are too terrifying! It involves many mysteries of life, death, soul and so on.

If Wan Xian was spread out, I am afraid that even the Xuan Huang world would not be able to tolerate him!

Every husband is not guilty, and he is guilty of his crime.

In comparison, what counts the five-year salary that the law enforcement hall was fined?

Those are three celestial scriptures, just picking up one can become a classic of town education. Create countless strong people, let Yijiao prosper, and become invincible from now on!

Tongtianjiao, no matter how good your reputation outside, you will be moved by such a great opportunity.

Fang Yue understands human nature, and in the face of absolute temptation of interest, any rules can be trampled over.

Ruyizi didn't care and didn't ask, he understood that there must be a secret in every practitioner. It is normal for Fang Yue to keep a little secret!

"After experiencing this incident, I am afraid that the Law Enforcement Hall will hold you a grudge. The reputation of the Law Enforcement Hall has been passed down to me. Although I have been locked in the canyon over the years, I occasionally wandered around to learn about the situation in the Tongtian Church! Behind the scenes, there is a deputy head teacher supporting them, and several elders who are too elders are very ambiguous! This has led to the fact that the law enforcement hall has always been arrogant and defiant. Even some of the core disciples with high status dared to shout and slay. , A word of disagreement is a big fight. This time, because

Because of you, they have suffered such a huge loss of profit. If they don't bother you on the face, they will make things difficult in the dark!

But it is difficult to become a talent without experiencing hardships. This law enforcement hall is the sharpening stone I prepared for you! "Ruyizi's expression is solemn.

Chapter 386: Contest begins

In Fang Yue's heart, 10,000 grass-mud horses rushed past.

Brother just wants to have a birthday in two days! Never thought of becoming an indomitable powerhouse!

Such an awesome whetstone, you are really funny! With his small body, you are not afraid of breaking your brother!

Fang Yue's character, pursuit of stability, is unwilling to show off his brilliance, and the world contends for supremacy!

What is the law enforcement hall? A powerful force that can be ranked in the top 20 in the entire Tongtian Church! Send out a little guy at random, I guess you can get rid of him!

Is this a whetstone?

Why not just hit him with a big rock!

Fang Yue's face was sad, and the joy of the rest of his life was diminished in an instant.

Whoever said that if you die in a catastrophe, you will have a blessing. Why is there a catastrophe waiting for him!

Fang Yue's hair is almost pale!

Seeing Fang Yue's appearance, Ruyizi couldn't help but laugh. In these days of contact, Ruyizi also roughly understood Fang Yue's character.

In terms of talent, Fang Yue definitely has nothing to say.

Even in the most brilliant and brilliant golden age, with geniuses and heroes like rain, Fang Yue can be regarded as a hero.

However, in terms of personality, he is very tired and lazy. He can sit and never stand, and he can lie down and never sit.

For some profitable businesses, such as alchemy and talisman making, he is very interested and goes all out. But in terms of cultivation, he lacks interest. If there is no major enemy of life and death, he will definitely put his practice aside, and then pursue his dream of a rich world.

If you really let this guy fall so self-degraded.

Presumably, he really had abolished himself!

Therefore, Ruyizi took great pains to come up with this idea, using the Pluto ring as the internal cause of temptation, and the disciples of the law enforcement hall as the external cause of pressure, so that Fang Yue can continue to be motivated to become stronger!

However, if the pressure is too great, it may make this arrogant person abandon him and completely rely on the valley to stop going out! Ruyizi cleared her throat, coughed dryly, and continued: "Actually, you don't need to be so anxious! I am your master. Other places are not easy to say, but in this Tongtian Sect, no one should know Too much to you! At least those who surpass your two great realms, dare not treat you

Shot! Otherwise, I slapped him! "

Ruyizi is full of bandits, looking like that, quite mighty and wild!

Fang Yue was still drawing circles on the ground, but when he heard this, his eyes lit up immediately.

Can the powerhouse beyond his two realms not make a move?

This is good news!

In Fang Yue's eyes, the ordinary innate realm has become an ordinary monster, and a fart can collapse to death. Heaven and Earth Realm, as long as it is not the monsters on the Heaven and Earth Ranking, he still has the confidence to face it!

Even if you leapfrog. He is not afraid!

Can't beat it, can't you run?

On shamelessness, Fang Yue firmly believes that if he dares to claim to be No. 2 in the world, he does not dare to say that he is No. 1 in the world!

Seeing Fang Yue's spirits up again, Ruyizi finally squeezed a cold sweat in secret!

He was really afraid that the goods would be left behind! When the time comes, his troubles and pains will be in vain.

Ruyizi was patient, and continued to follow Fang Yue to be kind to her.

"Well, in the black trial trials, every time you win, I will prepare a unique gift for you! The higher your level, the heavier the gift will be. What do you think? "

Ruyizi is willing to go. In order to get rid of this apprentice's tired and lazy character, he even prepared to take out his family!

Fang Yue was more confident after hearing this.

"What is the reward for this first victory?"

Fang Yue looked forward to Ruyizi! In those eyes, there were small bright stars.

Ruyizi really wanted to give this product to a big-footed girl to kick it out.

Does this guy really do not know how to respect the teacher?

But after thinking about it, life will be long in the future, and he still needs this guy to chat with him. Ruyizi still resisted the impulse in her heart, and the opponent Yue said patiently: "The first game, for you, should be no difficulty! If you can win, I will give you a basic rune. ? Your thinking in Fulu is very clear, any complicated

Urns are actually made up of different permutations and combinations of the most basic runes. The so-called powerful rune is just a complicated way of permutation and combination of basic runes!

However, some of the basic runes are already incomplete, and the spread in the world is not complete, and it is difficult to include them! If you can win the first game, I will give you a basic rune you never understood. Let you go deeper and farther on the road of runes! "

"Deal!"

Fang Yue cheered.

Ruyizi lowered her head, and a strange smile appeared at the corner of her mouth.

Offended the Enforcement Hall, how could they make you so easy to win in the black trial trials.

The rivers and lakes are deep, and life is long.

This Fang Yue is still too young!

The remaining time. Fang Yue spent completely in retreat.

At the bargaining place, Fang Yue was too lazy to go. He offended the Law Enforcement Hall, and it is estimated that no one dared to sell the goods daringly!

Fortunately, Fang Yue has a lot of resources in his hands.

Various types, various aspects. For the time being, the necessary supplies needed for the battle are still missing!

Time flies, passing by in a blink of an eye.

Registration for the selection contest of the black trial is over!

The competition system has also been announced!

There are only two stages in the selection contest of Tongtianjiao.

The first stage is the stage of the arena, two-by-two duel, single-loop elimination!

The second stage is the survival battle. According to different realms, all contestants will be transported to different planes and struggle to survive.

This time the schedule was carefully discussed and arranged by the big figures of Tongtian Sect.

It is specially used to screen the disciples for the black trial.

There are many disciples of Tongtian Sect, and in every realm, the number of applicants for the trials is an astonishing number.

Only in the arena can we strive for perfection and select the most outstanding disciples!

And the second stage is to simulate the environment of the black trial, so that the disciples who participate in the black trial will be prepared and find some experience.

At the bargaining place, Fang Yue wandered out again. But this time, he rented a store in a remote location, and rows of shelves were lined with strange objects.

Some are pills, some are talisman, and some are weapons of unknown origin, armor.

Part of these things is that Fang Yue is a killer and overwhelming trophies, and low-end goods are only at the level of innate realm, and it is useless for Fang Yue. Dispose of it altogether and replace it with a spirit stone, maybe it can be exchanged for some useful resources.

Some are all kinds of pill, Fu Lu, which Fang Yue has refined by himself, ready to accept the test of the market.

For the so-called trials, Fang Yue lacked interest. If it weren't for the lure of generous rewards, he might have lost the first game deliberately and hadtily.

Black trial, such a dangerous activity, you are only willing to participate when your brain is convulsed!

On the contrary, these trials are a great business opportunity for Fang Dagan.

With so many people participating in the trials, everyone is full of convulsions, even if they can't make it to the end, but as long as they can get a few consecutive victories, they may be valued by the big guy in the teaching, even if the guards follow the guards, they are considered flying. Become a phoenix on the branch.

Therefore, before the start of the game, they plan to work hard to improve their strength.

They don't care about any sidelines, as long as they can win at that time, the process is amazing, it doesn't matter!

What is Tongtianjiao?

That is one of the top ten.

Although it has declined in recent years, the background of the disciples cultivated and selected is still not to be underestimated.

Every disciple has blessings.

In Fang Yue's eyes, all were long-legged purses.

"Don't miss it when you pass by! The best iron armor pill! After taking it, the physical defense is guaranteed to double within three hours! Under the realm of heaven and earth, everything is effective. You can't kill your opponents, so you can kill them!"

Fang Yue rolled into a big horn with iron sheet. Yelling in a throat.

However, there was a rush of people and no one stopped. Fang Yue's shop seemed to be ignored. Don't even talk about a cockroach, not even a cockroach.

Fang Yue screamed for a long time.

In the end, no one paid any attention, and in the end there was only a withered leaf, rustling in the wind, passing in front of him!

Fang Yue was very embarrassed. He didn't expect to open a business with enthusiasm.

It was so cold-hearted!

Next to his shop, two passersby chatted, they didn't deliberately lower their voices.

There was a sneer in the voice.

"Unexpectedly, Fang Yue would dare to come out after offending the Law Enforcement Hall! Didn't you hear? The Law Enforcement Hall has included him on the blacklist! Although he is covered by the wishful child, no one dared to do anything against him! But in the ring match He is definitely good-looking!"
"Oh! This guy is really pitiful! Being rejected by the Law Enforcement Hall is tantamount to losing a foothold in the Tongtian Church! And it is said that he will not live long. There is law enforcement. Tang's disciple, after inquiring about ancient books, he drew conclusions. The curse in the Ruyizi Valley involves heaven and earth.

The rules are unresolvable. Even if you can survive the first time, there will be a second and a third time! The power of the curse is endless. It is absolutely difficult for Fang Yue to escape from it in the end! "

Another passerby occasionally swept away the corners of his eyes on Fang Yue's body.

There was a look of pity in it!

The two talked freely, without the slightest fear! They were not afraid that Fang Yue would attack them, because as long as Fang Yue dared to do it, then he had made a mistake first. When the time came, the Law Enforcement Hall would then attack him. Even Ruyizi couldn't say anything!

"Enforcement Hall, these guys again!"

Fang Yue's careful eye has put the law enforcement hall on the blacklist.

Hum, do you really think that you have a lot of people and I can't help you? Sooner or later, I will make you regret the day!

Fang Yue's business was destined to be fruitless if the law enforcement hall made trouble.

He cleaned up the many objects in the shop, then turned and left.

The two people who were talking just now laughed wildly.

"Doing the right thing with the law enforcement hall will not end well!"

"Ignorant guy, cherish the last years of your life! This black trial is the end and the end of your life!"

Fang Yue didn't pay attention to these two guys, just hello, they are people sent by the law enforcement hall, deliberately want to irritate him, let the handle!

Fang Yue is a professional in gangsters.

These two guys still want to frame him?

Too shallow, it is easy to get yourself in!

Fang Yue's pace was very fast, and he didn't want to talk to these two people. They were all the cannon fodder in the lead, small fish and shrimp, and it was not worth his effort to expend any energy.

However, Fang Yue wanted to avoid. The two didn't let Fang Yue's intentions go. They followed closely and continued to discuss, and their voices became louder and louder.

Chapter 387: a bolt from the blue

"If you offend the Law Enforcement Hall, no one can survive safely. In the end, it will become a corpse in the mass grave! Eventually buried!"

"Poor people, who are new to the world, don't know the depth, and on the spur of the moment they put their whole lives in!"

The two voices became louder and louder, like small speakers, lest others might not know.

Pedestrians retreated where Fang Yue passed, like a plague.

I am afraid that I will get in because I am too close to him! Fang Yue's pace was hurried and fast. And the two of them seem to be bone-attached maggots, like a shadow follow.

"Does the so-called genius boy end up being a bereaved dog? Let us expel, crush, and even have the courage to resist?"

One of them became more arrogant, and was no longer discussing with the partner beside him, but mocking Fang Yue's back.

Fang Yue didn't turn around. He sensed that there were a number of figures lingering around him, dozens of people, all of them masters of the world! There is also a powerful person in the rotation realm who personally stalks, as long as Fang Yue dares to make a little deviant behavior, he will kill him with the momentum of thunder!

The Ruyizi incident has completely lost the face of the law enforcement hall.

Punishment is only second. The important thing is that they were slapped in public, and the deputy teacher in charge of the law enforcement hall was furious!

"it's time!"

Fang Yue whispered, he finally led the disciples of the law enforcement hall to a relatively remote place.

Although there are still many pedestrians, there is a distance from Fang Yue.

At this moment, Fang Yue stopped abruptly.

Thunder bolts from the blue sky, suddenly falling!

Fang Yue let go of his breath, what should come is always coming. His cultivation realm has lingered for a long time at the pinnacle of Xiantian realm, and he can no longer suppress it!

The sky is rolling, all the time, floating above the head.

Even Fang Yue spent endless deductions and finally came to the conclusion that the catastrophe he faced this time was the nine-nine catastrophe! Nine nines into one. It is divided into nine rounds, each with nine waves!

This is just the beginning!

Under Lang Lang's clear sky, several thunders fell one after another. But none of them fell on Fang Yue's body!

This day the catastrophe is not strong, just a prelude to the beginning of the curtain.

Each heavenly calamity is equivalent to a full blow from the sixth layer of the heaven and earth realm.

Fang Yue twisted it with the way of thunder, and dropped the heavenly calamity that was about to fall in his direction onto a master of the heaven and earth realm in the dark!

"Ah! What is this?"

Those two commentators who followed Fang Yue were the first to suffer!

This was not in line with the original plan. They were only responsible for inciting Fang Yue to get angry and attacking them, but at critical times, the disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall would come out to stop it!

However, what the * is this Heavenly Tribulation?

a bolt from the blue.

This is the most abrupt attack!

The two of them simply couldn't dodge, because they both became fly ash under the thunder.

They accepted the employment of the law enforcement hall. But they are not well-known masters, and to put it in a very objective evaluation, they are just the most common innate cultivators.

Otherwise, he would not make such a dirty and nasty sound.

Under the thunder tribulation, they were like ants thrown into a fire pit, and they didn't even have the chance to resist, they fell one after another and became the ash!

There were silent expressions in Fang Yue's eyes, just looking back at the two people's fall.

"If you do more unrighteousness, you will die! There are so many bad things that God can't tolerate you!"

Fang Yue finally saw the two people off and left such an evaluation!

Those onlookers stopped, afraid to approach.

But they whispered and whispered. "What are the earth-shattering bad things these two people did! Even God can't see it! The karma deepens, and the sky is thunderbolt. That is God's punishment for the heinous! The law enforcement hall, known as the place where justice and justice are held, In Tongtianjiao, he is the executor of the canon and law! But he

The people we sent are so nasty that God can't tolerate them! The inside of the law enforcement hall should indeed be cleaned up and reorganized! "

Not everyone is afraid of the prostitution of the law enforcement hall.

The person who spoke this time was one of the hostile forces in the Law Enforcement Hall. His voice is not small, a bit presumptuous.

But the law enforcement hall can only open one eye, close one eye, and turn a blind eye!

"Killers, kill them! The law enforcement hall has too many karma, God open your eyes and punish them too!"

Fang Yue shouted in the wind, without any vitality fluctuations.

As if God felt it.

They fell one after another, and fell at the same time, smashing out the disciples of the law enforcement hall hiding in the dark!

They have reached the level of the heaven and earth realm, and each has a way to save their lives.

Even under the thunder tribulation, it won't turn into ashes instantly, without the ability to resist! But the thunder fell on them as if echoing Fang Yue's prayer just now. What is verifying!

"How many damaging things did the people in the Law Enforcement Hall have done! It made the heavens angry! God opened his eyes and smashed them to death! Let them pay for it! Never live beyond life!"

The law enforcement hall did too much evil. On weekdays, they were so fierce and mighty that people could not breathe.

Now, I finally have an opportunity to express my chest tightness. Some of the former victims of suffering have all jumped out and cursed the people of the law enforcement hall.

Everyone in the law enforcement hall was black.

They have a frightening taste.

The situation in front of me is a bit unclear. There is no formation method nearby, and no person who casts spells. For no reason, how could thunder fall in the air!

As for the many acts of unrighteousness, God's tribulation, this kind of nonsense explanation, they don't believe it!

They have done a lot of bad things, but if it was God who gave the punishment, they would have been punished long ago. I can't wait for now!

Thunderbolt in the blue sky awakens the vitality of the world.

The bartering office, the elder responsible for guarding one side, opened his eyes, and his icy eyes swept the situation in the field!

His name is Zhuang Taihe, and he is a strong man in the master realm! On weekdays, you will practice in retreat nearby, and if something happens, you will be responsible for observation and adjustment!

On weekdays, the disciples in the bargaining office are very disciplined.

No one dared to do something under his nose, arrogant!

This fluctuation in vitality made him very surprised.

Misunderstood that it was someone from other schools who tried to find fault.

But when he looked closely, he immediately understood the cause. The people in the law enforcement hall wanted to calculate Fang Yue, but in the end they got themselves in!

Others couldn't see it, but Zhuang Taihe recognized it at a glance. This was the power of Heavenly Tribulation triggered by Fang Yue. At this point, Zhuang Taihe has experienced the catastrophe more than once.

Every time a catastrophe is a lifetime of nine deaths, Zhuang Taihe has left an extremely deep impression.

However, Zhuang Taihe was shocked when he sensed this catastrophe. He was hailed as a super genius in the world of Xuanhuang, once seen in a century.

But it is also from the peak of the heaven and earth realm to cross the calamity!

And what realm is Fang Yue? He has already begun to cross the Tribulation with the Absolute Innate Realm. Is this going to be unreasonable?

The sooner the catastrophe, the more enchanting!

This is the ancient law, no one can break. The tribulation of heaven and earth is already rare in ancient times. His tribulation that year suddenly shocked his jaw!

And what is Fang Yue? Enchanting or freak?

There are few records in the entire ancient books of the innate realm crossing the catastrophe!

Zhuang Taihe's expression was serious, and he did not directly intervene.

The water here is so deep that neither side is easy to mess with.

Law Enforcement Hall, there is no need to say that there is a deputy head in charge personally, and several elders standing behind them, all of them are the honor of saints, and they speak the law!

As for Fang Yue is also very enchanting, not to mention his own talent, just the teacher Ruyizi is enough to make people feel trembling!

This old monster is dead. Once out of his valley, few people in the entire Tongtian Sect dare to say that it can suppress him.

Fang Yue is his precious pimple, because he, Ruyizi's connection with Tianjiao's head teacher has been swept away. Fang Yue's position in his heart can be imagined!

Although Zhuang Taihe was expensive as an elder, he did not dare to easily offend one of the two parties. In the end, he had to open one eye, close one eye, and simply miss one eye, and his heart was pure!

The first round, the first wave of the catastrophe, was not so powerful! It's just a bolt from the blue sky, it's so unstoppable, it's hard to resist!

After more than ten times of Thunder.

The robbery is scattered.

The disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall, like frightened rabbits, did not dare to stay for a long time, and receded like a tide. Even the strong person in the rotation realm in the dark could hear the sound of the heart pounding in his chest. !

Since ancient times, Tianwei has been unpredictable!

The ghost knew whether this Tianjie disappeared temporarily or completely let them go.

Now, the idea of killing Fang Yue in their hearts has long since faded, and their only idea is to leave this ghost place quickly.

Fang Yue did not continue pursuing. These little guys, there is not much difference between killing one and ten. It is difficult to make the law enforcement hall really hurt and feel pain.

Instead, it stopped abruptly.

It can make those disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall unknown, and even more frightened.

Watching the robbery disappear. The disciples of the law enforcement hall left safely.

Zhuang Taihe also looked at a loss and puzzled.

"This is over?"

Zhuang Taihe feels that his judgment seems to be wrong, this is not a real catastrophe. In his impression, the calamity is vast and the murderous intent is endless, it is definitely not something that can be fooled casually.

Moreover, Fang Yue did not make a breakthrough after crossing the catastrophe, and it also violated his cognition and common sense.

"Could it be that I was really wrong? Is the law enforcement hall doing too many bad things, causing the scourge?"

Zhuang Taihe whispered to himself and muttered repeatedly.

He hesitated for a long time, and finally felt that something was wrong. He patted his thigh and said: "This matter must be reported to the head teacher, let him decide!"

On the second day, the entire Tongtian Sect was fried by a message.

The black trial trials in full swing have not become the focus of attention.

Instead, the disciples of the Law Enforcement Counsel angered God's will, and the news of being struck by lightning flew to the entire Tongtian Sect like wings.

Providence, no matter what stage of the practitioners' eyes are so powerful and unpredictable!

The disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall angered God, and even the news had spread to the Tongtian Sect and fell into the ears of other sects and families.

The Law Enforcement Hall, all kinds of excessive behaviors made over the years have also been spread.

Things like bullying men and women, burning, killing, looting, and the like are all exploded. There are even a lot of things like molesting little Lori and attacking the widow village at night.

All in all, the Law Enforcement Hall is in bad shape.

Even the gods can't see it, that's why the punishment is lowered!

The Law Enforcement Hall was originally notorious, but people dared not speak up. And this incident of Heavenly Punishment caused the law enforcement hall in the Tongtian Church to be completely rotten to the root. Countless people who do it feel dark!

The high-level staff of Tongtian Sect also has a dull face, because when traveling outside, people from other sects often ask about the law enforcement hall in a mocking tone. This seems to have become the weakness and shame of the entire Tongtian Sect.

Chapter 388: Ready to move

But this kind of public anger, that is, stops at the bottom, and does not really extend the world. Want to punish and clean up the law enforcement hall, not a high-level person can have the final say! The Law Enforcement Hall involves the interests of too many people, from the saints to the disciples of the world! Once a thorough investigation is carried out, it is easy to cause unprecedented turmoil in the entire Tongtian Sect, and this

No one can bear the responsibility!

However, due to the poor reputation of the Law Enforcement Hall, their reputation in the Tongtian Sect was greatly reduced. Some people with a sense of justice have begun to gradually withdraw from the law enforcement hall and draw a clear line with them! There are also some merchants who spontaneously organize activities to boycott the law enforcement hall and do not sell their goods.

These are all torrents surging secretly at the bottom of the Tongtian Sect, and the shadows of other forces in the Tongtian Sect can be vaguely seen.

A few thunderbolts in the sky did not kill a disciple of the Law Enforcement Hall, but the Law Enforcement Hall was overwhelmed!

And countless people watched the scene of thunderstorms that day in front of the photo crystal, and in the end they didn't know where these thunders came from. Some people speculate that it was Fang Yue's calamity, but they couldn't produce substantive evidence at all! For one thing, Fang Yue's realm was too low, even if he had a aptitude for evildoers, it was impossible to trigger Thunder Tribulation at this time. Secondly, this thunder tribulation is only two or two, it is not like a heavenly tribulation, there is no such thing as endless pursuits.

the taste of!

However, it was said that the disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall suffered God's condemnation, and no one believed it at all.

Scourge, what is it? Some senior members of Tongtian Church are no strangers! Some people have even been baptized by God because of the killing and resentment. But that is something that only happens above the master realm.

What level are the disciples of the law enforcement hall? They are not qualified even if they really want to be punished by God's will.

In the end, this matter was left over!

Although the Enforcement Hall suffered a huge loss of reputation, it did not see any substantial loss in the short term.

But their hatred for Fang Yue was even stronger, and they even offered Fang Yue's reward directly on the black market!

On the second day when the reward was offered, the name of Shangyue on the black market was removed, and an elder of the Tongtian Sect personally came forward to communicate and negotiate with the black market!

Tongtian teaches disciples to fight internally, but with the help of external forces, absolutely not!

This is a bottom line question.

That self-contained law enforcement cousin who offered a reward to Fang Yue was picked out by the elder, and he slapped him into flying ash, which was instantly annihilated, in order to emulate him!

Later, it is said that the disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall were not reconciled and ran up to the elder to make a big fuss.

As a result, he was beaten back by the elder with two words!

"You can offer Fang Yue a reward on the black market, do you think you won't offer a reward?"

"Do you think that the valley where Ruyizi lives is safer, or is your law enforcement hall even less daring to go!"

The disciple of the law enforcement hall fainted immediately when he heard this.

They understand that this is the elder who is protecting them! As things got worse, Fang Yue's true identity was completely revealed.

The disguise that Chu Mengying gave Fang Yue was useless under such intense investigation.

Fang Yue's methods, the human race in the Xuanhuang world, can be regarded as leaving a lot of fame.

Free access to Baili secret realm. With the power of one person, kill thousands of demons alone!

Although he has aroused the dislike of many human forces, especially Lihemen hated him even more!

But his contribution to the human race can also be recorded in history!

In addition, there are Baicao Liquid that can add lifespan, Lightning Pills that can enhance aptitude and spiritual roots, and Super Jiazi Pill that makes the strong of the rotation realm be moved by Fang Yue's body. Add a lot of mystery!

Some inner disciples are even ready to move. He planned to make friends with Fang Yue in exchange for some super Jiazi Pills and Shouyuan. No one thought it was too long. The path of cultivation was a fight with the heavens. Being able to rely on the pill to improve their lifespan, there is no rejection in their hearts!

People don't know how strong Fang Yue's real strength is. After all, in a well-documented and reliable battle, most of Fang Yue's brilliant record depends on the power of the formation or the metaphysics of Feng Shui!

However, his rich and adversary country is real. The 50% resources of the ten-year salary of those law enforcement cousins who were punished in the Tongtian Church are not counted.

Just because he sells all kinds of pills, the money he has accumulated is a figure that cannot be underestimated!

Fang Yue's wealth, if used to deal with the entire law enforcement hall, of course, is one of the best, but if you want to offer a reward and target individual practitioners in the law enforcement hall, it is estimated that the rewarded person will be chopped the next day. Eight yuan!

After thinking about all this, the disciple of the law enforcement hall was sweating and left respectfully!

And the elder of Tongtian Sect, rubbing his temple and muttering to himself.

"A problem boy!" At this moment, Fang Yue, a problem boy, was wandering around in the gambling house. After the incident of the law enforcement hall, no one dared to attack him or want to provoke him. ! Although many people said that the thunderbolt was because the law enforcement hall was doing unrighteousness. But people's

I vaguely understand that this matter may not be related to Fang Yue!

Fang Yue is a disaster star, whoever meets is unlucky!

And Fang Yue has become accustomed to the attitude of avoiding others, and is constantly betting on himself.

It seems to be the arrangement of the law enforcement hall. The first opponent Fang Yue encountered in the ring match was a well-known existence in the Tongtian Church!

Punch eight! This is the only name that person left in the Tongtian Sect. As for the real name, it has long been forgotten by people!

The reason why he was called the eight-fist is because his shot speed was too fast, as if he had eight hands and eight fists!

He was once a murderer with a notorious reputation in the secular world. Because he was chased and killed, he was forced to throw himself into the arms of Tongtian Sect.

Tongtianjiao pityed his talent in boxing, so he accepted him. But as for character, this guy is really not good!

Among the disciples of all the innate realms of Tongtian Sect, Quanba can be ranked among the top 100. Even on the innate alternate list, there is his name!

The first confrontation Fang Yue faced was quite unpopular!

Fang Yue's odds are 3.7!

This is quite a superb odds in the trials!

If it were not for the concern that there was a great saint sitting behind Fang Yue and backing him, the gambling house would give them a little face, otherwise, Fang Yue's odds might be higher!

Gambling is not a good habit.

But if there is no risk, it may be a way to make money!

Fang Yue placed his bets in hundreds of gambling houses in Tongtianjiao. In each gambling house, he bet 100 million Lingshi!

Who doesn't want free money?

Fist eight or something, it's not so powerful when you hear the name!

In the same tier, Fang Yue had extraordinary confidence!

Just as other people are not optimistic about him, Fang Yue has an extraordinary certainty about the winning rate of this first game! The trials are held in thousands of arenas of Tongtianjiao, because there are too many disciples involved in this selection, and the number needs to be measured in millions or even tens of millions. Even if it is the largest arena of Tongtian Sect, it is difficult to accommodate these people to compete and compete at the same time. If it is really one

It is estimated that next year will not be finished even after the field is going on!

However, in each arena, there will be corresponding personnel responsible for special video recording, and there will be no concerns about the fairness of the game. If relatives and friends feel that there is a problem with the game, they can assemble the video in the photo crystal to watch it at will.

Fangyue's first arena is the 17th arena in the 128th martial arts arena.

The ring is not big, only fifty meters in diameter. But the floor is strong enough, and it is said to be refined from the Hell Black Stone. An inch of earth and an inch of gold, if refined into a weapon, it can withstand the full bombardment of the strong in the world. And the referees of Fang Yue and Quanba are a Bazi Hu, wearing little gossip, a pair of mouse eyes, and they are constantly turning! This mouse eye is the cultivation level of the peak of the heaven and earth realm. It was originally difficult to serve as a referee with his cultivation level, but there were too many games at the same time. Impossible every

The venues are personally hosted by the strong in the rotation.

That's why he was driven to the shelves by the duck and became the referee in this ring match.

The rhythm of the arena is very fast. Soon after the two took the stage, there was no opportunity for them to talk nonsense. The referee announced the start of the game!

As the referee's verdict fell, that punch has turned into a ghostly figure, and the opponent Yuexia made a killer move!

In his hand, a faintly blue dagger pierced towards Fang Yue's heart. Behind him, the phantom of a poisonous snake appeared.

This is the guardian beast that he signed a contract in the process of calling spirits through the sky.

After being summoned, his speed can be suddenly 50% faster than usual!

Boxing eight, is called boxing eight, precisely because his shot speed is too fast, once shot, it seems to have eight fists! And he has a 50% speed bonus, which is almost a killer game.

The poisoned dagger, like the fangs of a poisonous snake, pierced Fang Yue's neck.

A cold look suddenly appeared on Fang Yue's face. He could feel the cold killing intent surging in his heart.

"Do you really want to kill me?"

Fang Yue's voice was extremely cold, and the movements of the eighth fist caused a trace of hesitation because of Fang Yue's questioning.

Fist eight or something, it was not put in Fang Yue's eyes at all, it was just a clown. What is worth his attention!

At the level of Innate Realm, Fang Yue never thought he had any rivals!

He looked at Quanba as ridiculously like an ant waving a fist at an elephant!

"People die for money and birds die for food! To blame, you have offended the law enforcement hall!"
Quan Ba sneered in a low voice, and Fang Yue said.

Fang Yue understood Quanba's determination and sighed faintly.

"Under the reward, there must be a brave man! It's a pity that your application is useless in the right place!"

Fang Yue's voice rang in the ear of Quanba.

Kenba's actions stopped for a moment. He felt as if he had fallen into a huge quagmire.

Fist bowed his head and looked at his feet. I don't know when, the land under his feet has become a mud puddle!

Mud technique.

An unobtrusive spell.

It is very basic, but it can display different powers in the hands of different people!

Fang Yue's soul is powerful, and any spell can increase its power in his hands! Quan Ba fell into the quagmire and couldn't move his feet. He was clearly within Fang Yue's close proximity, but instead, his dagger could not pierce Zhong Fang Yue's throat.

Chapter 389: Shady

In the audience, some good deeds were immediately in an uproar!

They are very confident in the strength and means of Kenba. They originally thought that if Kenba was invited, normal combat should be a one-sided situation.

Of course, the situation at the scene is indeed one-sided.

But the direction of the fall was very different from what they had expected before!

"The running dog of the Law Enforcement Hall."

Fang Yue said coldly to Quan Ba. His voice was not deliberately suppressed. Since the Law Enforcement Hall had already waved a butcher knife at him, there was nothing to avoid!

In the audience, the disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall who were looking forward to Fang Yue's fall, and even splashed blood on the spot, were shocked after seeing this scene!

This Fang Yue was bold enough to insult the Law Enforcement Hall in front of so many people.

Isn't he afraid that the Law Enforcement Hall will thwart him and afflict the nine clans?

However, they didn't know that Fang Yue had such a personality. In normal times, he was indeed greedy for life and fear of death, but it really forced him to a certain extent. He is the murderer who descended on the world!

Whoever dares to move him must be prepared to pay the price of blood!

Fang Yue's palm slowly fell on the palm of the punch, and then he clenched his fist tightly!

The punch is over!

Many people have this idea in their hearts!

Sure enough, as they expected, only a click was heard, and one of the palms of Quanba was crushed by Fang Yue's hand!

Quanba's face was painful and pale, drops of sweat run down his cheeks and flowed down!

He opened his mouth, trying to admit defeat.

However, no sound came from his mouth.

Soundproofing prohibition!

This is Fang Yue did not know when to arrange the back hand, although this sound insulation prohibition is not complicated, but it is not that ordinary people can arrange it in an instant.

This requires an extreme understanding and mastery of the formation method to form this method in an instant.

The faces of the audience in the auditorium changed.

This is sincere to want that punch to stand up!

He couldn't even make a sound, he couldn't surrender, he could only watch Fang Yue ravaging himself!

Now, drops of blood are dripping in the heart of Kenba.

"enough!"

In the auditorium, a famous celebrity roared in a low voice, * eight times. He had accepted his instructions and was very optimistic. He wanted to stop Fang Yue and save Quan Ba's life.

However, Fang Yue sneered and said, "Is it enough if you say enough? How do I feel that it is still not enough?"

There was a hint of coldness in Fang Yue's voice.

His intention was obvious. Since Kenba wanted to kill himself, he needed to pay for it!

He can't take the whole law enforcement hall, but it is more than enough to kill a small punch!

The powerful person in the rotation stage in the auditorium almost broke his teeth. As an elite disciple, he did not expect Fang Yue to give him such a shame. In Tongtianjiao, becoming a famous person and being promoted to an elite disciple is almost equivalent to being a hegemon!

Thousands of disciples, shouting before and after, enjoying the endless glory, how can they be scolded by a small handyman disciple?

"Fang Yue, stay on the sidelines! Everything can't be absolute!"

At this time, the referee also began to help! Although he does not belong to the law enforcement hall, he is very close to this force.

Fang Yue turned his head, his eyes were empty and indifferent to the referee who led people to benevolence: "If I let him go, will the law enforcement hall let me go?"

"This..." The referee hesitated, his status is not enough, and he is far from being able to give such an important answer to the Law Enforcement Hall. What's more, he understands the roots of the Law Enforcement Hall. This group of people is bloodthirsty and must have hatred. Report, will never let Fang Yue go.

"Also, this punch showed a strong murderous intent to me at the beginning! Believe this scene, the referee, you also see it, but why don't you stop him, but stop me? This kind of persuasion also has relative Is it selective?"

Every word of Fang Yue seemed to be a sharp thorn, extremely sharp, piercing the bottom of the referee's heart.

At this time, various shouts were also heard in the audience.

The biggest call is to let the referee roll down!

Selective enforcement is obviously unfair! It was the hostility that Kenba first showed. From a certain perspective, Fang Yue just passively counterattacked.

How similar the selective enforcement of this referee is to the enforcement mode of the law enforcement hall! Full of the mercy of personal interests, instead of standing on the position of absolute fairness and justice!

The referee has a dark face.

"Fang Yue, are you obedient at all! If I tell you to stop, you will stop!" The referee has become arrogant. Regarding the background, who doesn't?

What's more, the Law Enforcement Hall has long promised that if Ruyizi's revenge is caused by the killing of Fang Yue, their Law Enforcement Hall will help!

Fang Yue did not respond positively, but used his actions to prove his determination.

With a click, Fang Yue's palm broke Quanba's neck. Kenba's head tilted, and the light in his eyes faded, and finally fell, his soul scattered!

In front of the referee and the many disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall killing people, there is no doubt that Fang Yue has already swept their faces to the limit!

The disciple of the law enforcement hall hasn't said anything yet, and the referee has his eyes flushed.

This is to slap him in the face!

How dare his fellow handyman disciples be like this!

The referee's palm fell toward Fang Yue's chest. He brazenly shot, extremely brutal! A ghost of the * of darkness emerged from behind him!

This is not a true * of the underworld, but a phantom produced by his exercises. But even so, this is amazing enough, the * of the underworld is an ancient god. The ability to show his specific phantom is absolutely extraordinary!

Fang Yue was not to be outdone, and waved his palm the same!

Heads of bull phantoms, stepping through the void, accompanied by a low whistle, attacked the phantom of the * of underworld!

"No, he is physical training!"

The celebrity who once pleaded for Kenba has his eyes narrowed.

Realized it was wrong! Physical cultivation, invincible close, even if it is several levels higher than them, they can't collide with their bodies!

This is the law of fighting. Since ancient times!

The referee touched a taboo area, and defeat is inevitable!

But at the moment when the two met hand-to-hand.

The corner of the referee's mouth curled up with a cold smile.

"Fang Yue, you were fooled. Do you think I really didn't investigate your identity before I acted on you?"

In the cuffs of the referee, a Xiujian whizzed out!

A faint wisp of black light hit Fang Yue's left chest with a speed that the naked eye could not capture!

The tip of the Hidden Arrow flashes with black awns and contains poison and curse!

"Death rose?"

In the audience, someone spoke again, hiding a dragon and a tiger. There are experts who are proficient in every understanding!

The desperate rose is the strongest means of an assassin organization in the black market.

Kill people specifically. Extremely fierce!

The poisonous venom tempered above is the corpse poison extracted from thousands of corpses! As long as a trace of blood is contaminated, the stabbed person can be killed!

This is not a referee at all, but an assassin who has been dormant in the Tongtian Church for many years!

"Blast me!"

Fang Yue's palm is not exhausted!

A slap is the referee assassin! Corpse poison or something, he is a ghost who practices "The True Scripture of Death" and is afraid of that stuff?

At that moment when the poisonous spread, Fang Yue had been used as a nourishment, and it was continuously transformed into death air. As for the curse and resentment, it was absorbed by the red line on the fingertips.

The so-called desperate rose, to him, is like a toy for children when they play house!

With a bang, the body of the referee assassin was shattered by Fang Yue.

But the scene of flesh and blood did not appear!

The corpses were flying, and the blood in them had already dried up!

Purple blood spots are still there.

A trace that proves that the owner of this body once existed!

This is resurrecting the soul. A ray of spiritual thought entered the corpse!

The referee's body was shattered.

And the head that soared, the look on his face was still fixed on a smug smile!

As long as the desperate rose is pierced into Fang Yue's body, his mission is considered complete!

As for the existence of this physical body, it doesn't matter.

Disrupted the order of the trials, even if Fang Yue didn't kill him, this Tongtian Sect would definitely not tolerate him!

Two kicks.

Fang Yue regressed. His face was pale.

Wow, spit out a mouthful of black blood!

This black blood is like sulfuric acid, corroding the ground constructed by the black stone of purgatory.

At the same time, his physical body lost its luster at a speed visible to the naked eye!

"Huh! The black trial trials, Li Ruhai, is this the fair fight you promised me?"

A not very tall figure paced out of the void. He directly called the name of the head teacher of Tongtian Sect, but no one dared to reprimand or refute it.

Because he is one of the few Great Sage-level powerhouses in the Tongtian Sect, even the head teacher must treat him with courtesy of juniors when he sees him.

Li Ruhai, the head of the Tongtian Sect, did not appear. After all, this Tongtian Sect is so big, how can his dignified head be on call!

Ruyizi stretched out his hand and fished Fang Yue away. He stepped out again, and the two of them had disappeared!

A faint breath of curse filled the ring around the ring.

This arena has become a taboo-like existence, and no one dares to approach it at will!

"This time something happened to the law enforcement hall! With Ruyizi's strong character, I guess I can't spare them!"

Right above the ring, a few hundred meters high in the sky, two figures suddenly appeared. It was Wang Zizai and Li Ruhai who hurriedly arrived!

After Li Ruhai knew that Ruyizi had appeared, he came personally. He was worried that Ruyizi would really appear in the public, and exude the curse of that body. Ruyizi, the curse on her body is too special, almost unsolvable! Even if he is the master teacher, he is always in fear every day, for fear that he would be bored in his own canyon that day and wander around in the Tongtian Church. Not to mention the birth of the deity, even if it is a clone, or even a curse on the projection.

The breath can be resolved by unusual means! This is a source of disaster, which makes Li Ruhai very worried. As for Wang Zizai, he is too lazy to manage so many Tongtian gates. The number of paths he walks is to do nothing. His children and grandchildren have their own children and grandchildren. They are cursed by Ruyizi. If one survives, there will be future fortunes. Can't stand it, it deserves bad luck

. Wang Zizai is more concerned about Fang Yue's safety, collecting money and eliminating disasters. Wang Domineering is his home, and he specially gave him a lot of benefits before he returned to Tongtianjiao. If Fang Yue really has a long and two short in Tongtian Sect, how would he be embarrassed to talk after seeing Wang Domineering?

what! Fortunately, there was no danger in the end, and Fang Yue was not really killed! When he finally left, he looked sickly, but using the means of wishful thinking to save him a small life, at least there is no problem!

Chapter 390: Show weakness

When the disciples of the law enforcement hall saw Fang Yue returning from a serious injury, they all felt exasperated! Fang Yue is too arrogant in the Tongtian Church. They repeatedly made them lose face in the law enforcement hall. Finally had a chance for revenge, of course they should make good use of it!

In the gorge, Fang Yue returned with Ruyizi.

Ruyizi let go of Fang Yue's body, Fang Yue staggered, sat down on the ground, and rolled around, so he couldn't get up! "I'm not participating in this black trial trial, and you have seen the situation. It's not that I want to disobey the teacher, but they are doing too much. Buying the players to kill me is justified. It's a matter of the rules. But they actually got a killer referee

, This is really tolerable, which one is intolerable! "Fang Yue clutched his chest, his face paler, he seemed to be recovering from a serious illness, I was very injured, and I looked like I was well.

Ru Yizi gave him a blank look, and didn't bother to take care of this shameless guy.

"What kind of pretense? Do you think you are capable, don't I know? That little corpse poison can hurt you? It's all a joke! The last bit of blood you vomit is waste blood in your body! Let's run it! After the Withered Wood Sutra, all the vitality in the body is hidden in the vitality pearl!"

When Ruyizi spoke, he broke Fang Yue's thoughts.

Fang Yue chuckled. No longer slumped on the ground, stood up, took out a small gourd, and drank the herb pulp in it. This baicao pulp is more effective! The prescription was jointly researched and reformed by Ruyizi and Fang Yue! One drop of Baicao Liquid will increase the lifespan of practitioners below the heaven and earth realm for one year. Within a thousand drops, no drug resistance will develop. The vitality is so impressive.

Tongue, of course, the corresponding elixir materials have also been changed, and the price has increased a hundredfold!

Fang Yue added a little bit of life.

The divine light of his eyes gathered again. Just now, for the sake of reality, he left only 10% of the blood on his body!

"However, this law enforcement hall is really too much! No one is in the eyes, not even you. There are so many people who dare to buy murder and openly violate the fairness of the trials. It's really bullying!"

Fang Yue was filled with indignation. The rivers and lakes are far away, and the hearts of the people are deep.

The actions of the Law Enforcement Hall have violated the rules of the arena. The things done are outrageous. Ruyizi sneered: "You said this was done by the Law Enforcement Hall? But do you have any evidence? If my guess is good, they must have thought about the future when hiring killers! Even if you are accusing them now, how can you sue them? When the time comes, people will push four without six, and erase all traces of crime

, And beat it up, saying that you made a false accusation, you have no way! "Ruyizi has a veteran plan, able to establish a foothold in the Tongtian Church for so many years, from the most ordinary little monk, step by step to the realm of the great sage, he is definitely not the kind of impulsive and brainless person. He opened his mouth, Fang Yue My face turned into bitter gourd, everything Ruyizi said

He knew everything very well, but he felt unwilling to let him suffer such a big loss. He grew up, whether he was on the earth or in the Xuanhuang world, when he swallowed his stomach without such a broken tooth.

Seeing Fang Yue's expression, Ruyizi calmed and said, "Sometimes it's a good thing to suffer a deficit, and you can grow up after suffering a deficit! As the saying goes, one can gain a wisdom from one bite. With this experience and lessons, I believe you in the future. Facing such things, there will be corresponding handling experience!"

"It's not too late for a gentleman to take revenge for ten years! When your strength is enough, you can naturally retaliate for the humiliation you suffered today!"

Ruyizi didn't think that Fang Yue would have the power to counterattack, he finally calmed down a few words, and then drifted away!

But Fang Yue's face was full of unwilling expressions! He is not a gentleman, and he does not want to be a gentleman. Fang Yue's principle is that the villain will not avenge overnight!

"Law Enforcement Hall, you wait for me!"

Tongtianjiao, in a rudder of the law enforcement hall.

The deacons of the two law enforcement halls are celebrating with a toast. The beauties are surrounded by Yingying and Yanyan, all of them are peaceful.

All the deacons in the Law Enforcement Hall are only disciples above the strong world realm who have understood the law can serve! Everyone is in control and can decide the life and death of countless Tongtian Sect disciples and even outer disciples!

The two deacons, Yan Qing and Li Shuang, have already stepped into the cycle of existence with half their feet. If it is not for tempering the golden core, condense the power of heaven and earth. They have already stepped into the rotation stage and have been promoted to inner disciples!

Purchasing murder and murdering Fang Yue was the idea of both of them. Of course, their purpose is not to kill Fang Yue, but to humiliate and earn a bit of face for the law enforcement hall. Let him understand that in front of the Law Enforcement Hall, his little trick is an out-and-out scam.

If Fang Yue really falls on the spot, it is conceivable that their law enforcement hall will usher in the wrath of Ruyizi, a supreme saint. This kind of anger, even the big man behind the law enforcement hall, may not dare to say that he can bear it.

So they set up such a round, which can let Fang Yue learn some lessons, without making Ruyizi really angry!

The two exchanged cups and ambitions. This time their task was completed very well and achieved the desired goal.

The rewards of the big guys above will certainly not be too little! They have already begun illusions, in the law enforcement hall, they have been appreciated by big people, and then, from then on, they have moved forward and dominated the entire Tongtian Sect, and no one has rebelled!

"Haha, Brother Li Shuang, this Fang Yue really doesn't know good or bad! Even the will of my law enforcement hall is dared to go against! If it weren't for Ruyizi, an old immortal thing, supporting him, I would have wanted to take it personally. He was killed alive!"

Yan Qing made a toast to Li Shuang, the blue light and shadow in his glass swayed slightly! In his eyes, Fang Yue was just a second-born son who relied on the shadow of his elders, a clown jumping beam, a mud-legged man who came out of the countryside, what's the point?

Without the shelter of Ruyizi, he could kill Fang Yue thousands of times!

Yan Qing didn't even notice it. A look of jealousy flashed in his eyes.

Li Shuang agreed with Yan Qing's words. "This Tongtian Sect has the rules of the Tongtian Sect. As long as there is no danger of life or death among the disciples, the elders are embarrassed to take action. Does he think that if you have Ruyi as a backer, you can run rampant in the Tongtian Sect? To be honest, he It's still far away! He doesn't understand the rules, so we two brothers

Just teach him to understand the rules of Tongtianjiao! On this one-third of acre, big fists are the last word! "

Li Shuang toasted again, and the bronze wine bottle collided with Yan Qing's wine glass again!

Just when the two talked about each other and used words to denounce Fang Yue.

An outside disciple of the Law Enforcement Hall stumbled and ran in with a muddy face and said in horror: "It's not good, your lord is not good!"

"What's wrong! Why are you so flustered! How many times have I told you that when you encounter something, you must calm down and calm down!"

Li Shuang glanced at the outer disciple who reported the letter from the law enforcement hall.
Reprimanded coldly!

He and Yan Qing's great Yaxing was ruined by this guy! An unpleasant color appeared in Li Shuang's eyes. But after all, this was a disciple of the Law Enforcement Hall, and he was only reprimanding and did not make any further severe punishment.

The outer disciple of the law enforcement hall saw that Master Li Shuang was so calm, he couldn't help calming down. He took a deep breath, straightened his back, wiped the dust off his body, and said unhurriedly: "Report Sir, the subordinates have important things to say!"

"Speak!" Li Shuang snorted coldly. Xindao, this is just the right thing to say, a great disciple must have the courage of a great disciple. Especially the people in the law enforcement hall should be like this, otherwise, it would be different from Fang Yue's muddy legs that popped out of the remote country!

Seeing that the disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall gradually gained a trace of the prestige of a big man, he was also a little bit secretly happy.

It is definitely a blessing for Tongtian Sect to find a disciple who understands rules and knows the general situation like him. Oops, the more I think about myself, the better I feel, and I feel a little embarrassed!

There is endless joy in Li Shuang's heart.

The outer disciple said slowly: "Sanlipo, Thousand Tombs, the corpse has changed, and the ancient corpses crawled out of the cemetery. Three disciples of my law enforcement hall have been killed! If the lord is not there, it will be too late. Up!"

"What? A corpse change occurred in Thousand Tombs? Why didn't you say it earlier!" Li Shuangyi immediately got furious when he heard this. He was furious and almost jumped up.

Thousands of graves are the area where he is stationed. If something happens, he will be severely punished if he leaves his post.

Hearing this news, Li Shuang's eyes went black.

My legs were trembling a bit, and I almost sat on the ground!

The outer disciple almost cried. The outer disciple of the Law Enforcement Hall is too difficult to do! Didn't you just say that you want me to calm down and don't panic?

Outer disciples' hearts are full of complaints, but they dare not speak out!

Li Shuang calmed down a little, and quickly said goodbye to Yan Qing: "Thousands of graves have changed! Forgive me for leaving temporarily! If I have a chance, I will drink with Xiongtai again!"

Yan Qing handed over.

They hurried to Thousand Tombs in a barren bull chariot.

Sure enough, heads of mummy crawled out of the ground, dragging their rotten bodies around. These corpses were all disciples of the Law Enforcement Hall in the past. They died young, but they were buried here because they made a lot of credit for the Law Enforcement Hall. Every corpse here has a great background! Although the strongest in his lifetime was only at the pinnacle level of the heaven and earth realm, the background identities are all extraordinary

They were respected before they were alive, and they still need to be treated well after death.

But these mummies are usually quiet and buried underground. It's so special that this happens only after hell, one by one crawling out of the ground, corpses actually happened.

Some corpses were still looking for the breath of flesh and blood, and some were already stained with mottled blood.

There was a broken torso on the ground, dripping red blood. Li Shuang's mind was about to explode. Because I recognize that the masters of these remnants are all law enforcement disciples who have been assigned to guard these thousand graves with him!

How could this be?

Li Shuang's heart was filled with anger.

Although these disciples are all handyman disciples, their lives are worthless, but the death in the hands of these corpses is enough to cause him to be punished for a crime of unfavorable care!

"Roar!"

A corpse roared and his eyes were scarlet. This was a corpse whose realm was the sixth level of the heaven and earth realm before he was alive. He had comprehended the principles of the Tao before he was alive, and after his death, the lines of truth and reason fell across his body.

Lead to be buried for hundreds of years, still immortal. He absorbed the earth's energy, and his body became stronger. A black-haired palm stretched out to Li Shuang's chest, and the ghostly spirit roared out! Li Shuang was caught off guard by his palm. The Qingyi on his body was shattered and turned into fly ash, and a piece of golden soft armor was exposed. The soft armor blocked the palm of the mummy, but the weird black breath came from the soft armor. Li Shuang's body penetrated into the gap!
