

God tier Farm 1071

Chapter 1071: unspeakable secret (1)

Speaking of the jaded skin cream, as Xia ruofei expected, Feng Jing immediately became energetic. All the troubles brought about by her unexpected popularity were thrown out of the window.

Her eyes lit up and she said, "Chairman, I was just about to give you a suggestion!" We have to speed up the progress of the Jade skin cream project! The popularity on the internet comes and goes quickly these days. The opportunity is fleeting!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "yes!" In an era of information explosion, it's hard for people's attention to last long, because there are new eye – catching events happening all the time. "

At this point, Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile and say, ""Boss Feng, you're quite clear about this ... But if that's the case, why are you still worried about becoming famous? Maybe after three to five days, everyone will forget about it!"

"I'm talking business with you!" Feng Rao pouted. Why are you pulling me in again? Can't we talk about work properly?"

Xia ruofei looked at Feng Jing and sighed. ""Every time I see you working so hard that you forget to eat and sleep, I think: His success was not by chance. Those who don't work hard will have an endless supply of street stalls and an endless supply of food in the market ..."

Feng Rao looked at Xia ruofei in amusement and said, ""Chairman, are you having a fever? You're actually giving me Chicken Soup for the Soul?"

Xia ruofei said seriously, "I'm not done yet!" For someone as talented and hardworking as you ..."

"How is it?" Feng Rao giggled. "Will you be successful and reach the peak of your life?"

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes. "You're thinking too much. Someone as talented and hardworking as you wouldn't have the time to shop at street stalls. That's why you can only work overtime and order takeaway to shop on Taobao."

The smile on Feng Rao's face froze. After a while, she rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and pouted. "I hate people who give me poisonous chicken soup with a straight face!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, ""I saw that you've been too nervous these past two days, so I wanted to ease the atmosphere ..."

Xia ruofei stood up and pointed at the sofa in the guest area. ""President Feng, let's talk over here ..."

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing sat down on the sofa in the reception area of the office. He fiddled with the tea set and made tea as he said without looking up, ""Chief Feng, you've been back for a few days. You should have understood the situation at the pharmaceutical factory, right? What's the situation now?"

"Overall, it's progressing very quickly." Feng Rao organized her thoughts. We're not short of funds now, so we've directly ordered six production lines as we've discussed before. They've already been shipped to Germany, and the pharmaceutical factory has also been building factories according to the standards of the manufacturers.”

Xia ruofei gently pushed the cup of tea in front of Feng Rao. Feng Rao said, “Thank you ... Chairman, including the transportation, installation, and debugging time, it will take about two months for all six production lines to be put into production. Factory manager Xue had already personally brought the materials to Beijing for approval. The approval process for skin care products was relatively simple, and now that he had the connections, it shouldn’t be a big problem. I called Kanayama and he said that if everything goes smoothly, he would be able to complete the process in about half a month. Even if there were any delays in the middle, a month would be enough.”

“What about the raw materials?” Xia ruofei nodded.

“After your instructions last time, I approved a million Yuan of funds to the pharmaceutical factory, all of which will be used to purchase the Chinese medicinal herbs needed for the jade skin cream.” Feng Jing said, “the pharmaceutical factory’s raw material warehouse is already stocked with a lot of medicinal herbs, and the acquisition is still in progress. There shouldn’t be a problem for it to be put into production in the early stages.”

“We still have to cooperate with the villagers in the future.” Feng Jing continued, “by the way, Chairman, the last ingredient in the formula for the jade skin cream will be provided by you ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “don’t worry!” I’ve already made arrangements to provide sufficient medicinal herbs at any time!”

That day, after deciding on the production mode and secret method of the jade skin cream, Xia ruofei had already instructed Xia Qing to open up a special area in the mountain and sea realm to plant the green maple vines in batches.

Furthermore, to prevent the green maple vines from not being able to be supplied in time when they were in production, Xia ruofei even got Xia Qing to find a place in the Archean realm, where time flowed 30 times slower, to plant some first. He would harvest the matured batch and grind them all into powder before continuing to plant.

When the jade skin ointment was officially put into production, Xia ruofei would definitely be able to provide a sufficient amount of green maple powder.

The green maple vines in the mountain and sea realm were planted in batches every half a month or so. Once they were harvested, they could be produced in an endless stream in the Xuanji spirit map space. There were no seasons, so they could be planted at any time.

“Then there’s no problem!” Feng Rao said happily.

After a moment of silence, she said, “Chairman, I have an idea ... We have a sufficient stock of heart – nourishing soup. There’s still a certain stock in addition to the supply for clinical trials. Can we set up a production line to produce the jade skin cream in advance?” It’ll take at least two months for the new production line to be put into production, but the approval for the jade skin cream will probably be completed within a month. There’s a time difference between this and the production line. By then, we'll definitely face the situation where the approval will be received, but the production line isn't in place yet. ”

“Will early production violate the policy?” Xia ruofei asked.

Chapter 1072: unspeakable secret (2)

“That’s not a big problem ...” Feng Jing said. “As long as the quality of our products meets the standards, it’s fine. It’s just a matter of pushing the boundaries!” It wouldn’t matter if we’re not in a hurry to launch the product, but since we want to strike while the iron is hot, we definitely need a certain amount of advance. ”

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, “Can the production of the heart – nourishing soup keep up?”

Feng Rao had obviously thought about this before. She replied without hesitation, “Now it seems that the jade skin ointment will be approved before the heart – nourishing soup is officially approved on the market. If it’s only for clinical trials, one production line is certainly not a problem. At most, the workers will produce it in three shifts.”

Xia ruofei nodded and said, “Alright, you and Kanayama can discuss this.” However, I need at least a week to prepare the last ingredient. ”

A week’s time, including Xia ruofei’s arrangements that had been made four to five days in advance, was about ten days. That meant that he would have less than a year in the Archean realm.

Normally, one could harvest at least one or two batches of green maple vines in the Archean realm. When that time came, there would not be a big problem with normal production.

“Okay!” Feng Rao said excitedly.

“Let me know after you’ve decided. I’ll prepare the medicinal herbs in advance.” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

“Yeah!” Feng Rao nodded. I’ll contact Jin Shan immediately. If it really doesn’t work out, I’ll ask him to come back. He won’t have to personally look after the documents. ”

Then, Feng Rao said eagerly, “Chairman, I’ll go back to my office first. “I’ll have to contact Kanayama. Also, there’s still a lot of work to be done in the early stages of the listing. Sales channels, publicity, and other things have to be done first ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. “Okay, thank you for your hard work. Oh, don’t forget to let me know when you get a new number.”

Feng Rao was stunned for a moment, then she said in a low voice, “I know!”

She was still resentful about being pushed to the front stage by Xia ruofei for no reason.

Xia ruofei laughed. "I've already told ye Lingyun to strengthen the security and patrol. You don't have to worry about the paparazzi or enthusiastic fans sneaking into the farm. However, if you leave the farm, you have to be more careful. It's best to bring two veterans with you to be in charge of your safety ..."

Feng Rao said faintly, "now I don't even have personal freedom ... Sigh!" I can't care so much, I'm not planning to go out recently anyway ..."

Feng Jing couldn't help but glare at Xia ruofei before she left the office while Xia ruofei laughed.

After Feng Jing left, Xia ruofei packed up and went back to the small villa.

Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao were both at home. In a few days, Lin Qiao would be going to Egret Island to attend university. At the request of Hu Zi's mother, she also officially ended her internship and stayed at home to accompany her mother. After all, she would be going on a long journey in a few days.

When Xia ruofei returned home, the two of them were naturally very happy. Hu Zi's mother hurriedly went to prepare a few more dishes for Xia ruofei's welcoming dinner, while Lin Qiao pestered Xia ruofei for gifts.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei was well prepared. When he accompanied Huanhuan to the Ocean Park and Disneyland, he bought a lot of small gifts, so he passed the test smoothly.

Xia ruofei's life returned to normal. However, he felt that he had missed out on something, but he could not recall what it was.

.....

Late at night, in a luxurious mansion on the top of Taiping Mountain in Hong Kong.

In the large master bedroom, Tian Huixin, who was wearing silk pajamas, was still blushing, but her expression was a little helpless.

Meanwhile, Ma Zhiming's mood was also very low. At the same time, he said in a low voice with a trace of embarrassment, "Honey, I'm sorry ..."

Tian Huixin secretly sighed and hugged Ma Zhiming from behind. She said softly, "It's okay ... I'm probably just too tired from work! Maybe he'll be fine after some rest. "

"I hope so ..." Ma Zhiming sighed.

After Huanhuan had fallen asleep, the couple returned to their room and prepared to make out, but no matter how hard they tried, Ma Zhiming couldn't pull himself together.

Tian Huixin was at the age where her needs in that area were the strongest, so it was impossible for her to not feel awkward.

And this was not the first time. It had been the same for more than a month. Ma Zhiming even went to see the doctor secretly and prescribed medicine for him, but it was completely ineffective.

Now, Ma Zhiming was almost traumatized.

He wasn't even forty years old yet, so logically speaking, it was impossible for such a situation to occur. However, the truth was that it was a joke.

"Hubby, rest early!" Tian Huixin said faintly.

The two of them lay side by side on the soft bed, covered with their own blankets, but they did not feel sleepy.

After an unknown period of time, Tian Huixin, who was in the dark, suddenly turned around and asked, "Zhiming, didn't RUO Fei tell you to go find him after the auction? You didn't go after that?"

Ma Zhiming patted his forehead and said, "I totally forgot about that!" A few days ago, there were a lot of things to do at the company ... Huixin, why are you suddenly asking about this? It's all in the past. Besides, Xia Sheng said that he wanted to give me a gift, so I didn't feel good about taking the initiative to look for him. Since I've forgotten about it, then forget it ..."

Tian Huixin sat up and said, "No! I was just thinking ... Could RUO Fei have noticed that you ... Have a small problem in that area?"

Ma Zhiming also sat up at once when he heard that. Then, he said dejectedly, "That's not possible, is it? Even dad doesn't know about this, and Xia Sheng didn't help me do a checkup? Could it be that he can read fortunes?"

"It's hard to say. You know RUO Fei's medical skills very well. He's at the pinnacle ..." Tian Huixin said.

Ma Zhiming frowned and said, "this isn't scientific at all ... Huixin, even if Xia Sheng's Chinese medicine is very advanced, he should at least check her pulse, right?" That day, he only looked at me a few times and he found something wrong with me?"

Ma Zhiming lay down again, somewhat dejected, and said, "Huixin, let's not think too much ... Tomorrow, I'll go to doctor he for a full – body Urology examination ..."

"Alright ..." Tian Huixin said faintly.

It was a quiet night.

At noon the next day, Ma Zhiming returned home dejectedly. After leaving Huan Huan in the care of the servants, he pulled Tian Huixin back to the room.

"Zhiming, how's the checkup?" Tian Huixin asked nervously.

"There's nothing wrong with the test results!" Ma Zhiming scratched his head and said. But ... But there was clearly a problem! How could this be?"

Tian Huixin was disappointed. The couple were only in their thirties. If Ma Zhiming's unmentionable disease could not be detected by the best Urology expert in Hong Kong, then wouldn't she be a widow at such a young age?

Moreover, disharmony in this aspect would have a huge impact on the relationship between husband and wife.

Tian Huixin lowered her head and thought for a while, then said, "Zhiming, why don't you ... Try contacting RUO Fei? I feel that he must have seen through the problem with your body that day, but it wasn't convenient for him to say it in front of dad and CEO Feng ..."

"No way, right?" Ma Zhiming hesitated.

"There's no good way now anyway. Why don't we try contacting him?" Tian Huixin said, "even if RUO Fei didn't do it for this matter, you ... You can also ask him for help! After all, his medical skills are so good."

Tian Huixin's words made Ma Zhiming finally make up his mind.

Although Xia ruofei could be considered their junior, and it would be a little embarrassing to ask Xia ruofei for help because of this problem, Ma Zhiming still decided to go all out for his own "happiness."

It was noon. Ma Zhiming hesitated for a long time before he finally took out his phone. He found Xia ruofei's number and dialed it.

Xia ruofei was helping Lin Qiao with her luggage when he received the call.

Lin Qiao was going to report to Egret Island tomorrow. Xia ruofei and Hu Zi's mother were going to accompany her.

Seeing Ma Zhiming's number, Xia ruofei greeted Lin Qiao and answered the call as he walked upstairs.

Chapter 1073: specialized in treating difficult – to – treat diseases (1)

"Mr. MA, how are you?" Xia ruofei greeted him with a smile.

This auction had brought the Paradise Corporation great fame. Xia ruofei was very grateful to MA Xiong and his son. Hence, he was very enthusiastic when he received Ma Zhiming's call.

However, just like Ma Zhiming, he had also forgotten what had happened that day.

After the huge success of the auction, Xia ruofei accompanied Huan Huan during the day and went to the hotel at night to pay attention to the follow – up reactions of the auction. He had really forgotten about Ma Zhiming.

The main reason was that Ma Zhiming's problem wasn't complicated in his eyes. There was a prescription for it in the large number of medical books stored in his mind, which was the essence gathering pill.

Xia ruofei had given the task of making the gathering elemental pills to Xia Qing. Therefore, after the impact of the auction, he had no impression of it.

"Nice to meet you, Xia Sheng!" Ma Zhiming also felt a little embarrassed. After all, it was a secret that was hard to say. He didn't know how to say it. After thinking about it, he stammered and asked, "that ... When we were eating that day, you asked me to look for you after the auction ..."

As soon as Ma Zhiming mentioned this, Xia ruofei immediately remembered.

He couldn't help but Pat his forehead and reveal a bitter smile.

"I was busy with the company for a few days, so ... I forgot about it ..." Ma Zhiming continued.

"Haha, that's right ... I forgot about that too ..." Xia ruofei said awkwardly.

"Then ..." Ma Zhiming looked at Tian Huixin, who kept giving him meaningful looks at the side. He didn't know how to start.

On the other hand, Xia ruofei did not know what to say either. After all, Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin were his elders. He could not just ask Ma Zhiming directly if there had been any disharmony between the couple's life recently.

The atmosphere was a little awkward ...

In the end, it was still Tian Huixin who pinched Ma Zhiming hard. Ma Zhiming then stammered and asked, "Xia Sheng, I wonder ... Why did you look for me that day?"

"Mr. MA, have you been feeling unwell lately?" Xia ruofei asked tactfully.

Ma Zhiming's phone was on speaker mode. Tian Huixin, who was at the side, immediately nodded heavily after listening to him and kept winking at Ma Zhiming.

Although Ma Zhiming felt a little embarrassed, he still said, "Xia Sheng, I won't hide it from you. I've been having some problems with my body recently, mainly ... In terms of sex ..."

Xia ruofei heaved a long sigh of relief. Since the other party had taken the initiative to say it, it would be easy.

"Mr. MA," he quickly said, "I did find something when I observed your complexion that day. It seems that my judgment was right!"

After Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin heard this, they opened their mouths wide in unison. They were so shocked that they even forgot about the awkwardness.

That day, Xia ruofei had only glanced at him a few times, and he could actually see through such a hidden problem? His medical skills were too terrifying, right?

At first, Ma Zhiming was at his wits 'end. He was only thinking about whether he could ask Xia ruofei to help treat him. After all, Xia ruofei's previous display of medical skills had convinced them. Furthermore, Western medicine could not detect any problems at all. This kind of difficult and complicated illness was often more effective to use Chinese medicine to treat it.

He did not dare to imagine that Xia ruofei had already noticed the problem that day.

"Xia Sheng, do you have a way to help me?" Ma Zhiming didn't care about the awkwardness and asked eagerly, "to be honest, I've already found the best urology doctor in Hong Kong, but he couldn't find the cause ..."

Xia ruofei could hear the urgency in Ma Zhiming's voice. He immediately consoled him, "Mr. MA, since I can find the problem, I naturally have a way to treat it."

"Actually, I had already prepared the medicine that day ..." Xia ruofei said, a little embarrassed. "It's just that you didn't come to look for me after the auction and I forgot about it ..."

"Xia Sheng, I'll fly over immediately today!" Ma Zhiming said anxiously.

"Uh ... Actually, I can mail the medicine to you." Xia ruofei said, "there's no need to make a special trip, right?"

At that time, Xia ruofei had half – jokingly said that he had prepared a gift for Ma Zhiming. In fact, it was to treat this unmentionable disease. Although Ma Zhiming himself had forgotten about it later on, Xia ruofei would still feel a little apologetic if he had to make him fly over just because of this. After all, he had also forgotten about this matter. Otherwise, it would not have been delayed. 1

"It's fine, it's fine. It's very convenient for me to come back," Ma Zhiming quickly said.

He didn't want to wait any longer. Besides, he would be more at ease if Xia ruofei could help him take a look in person.

Xia ruofei had no choice but to say, "alright then ... After you land on the three mountains, come to the farm!" I'll help you check it again since I didn't take your pulse that day. "

"Alright, alright!" Ma Zhiming said excitedly, "I'll arrange the flight right away. Xiasheng, let's talk when we meet!"

After hanging up the phone, Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin hugged each other excitedly. The haze that had been pressing on their hearts these days had also dissipated.

.....

Ma Zhiming had already arrived at the farm at around three in the afternoon.

Calculating the time, he should have arranged for a private jet immediately after the phone call. He might have even used some of his connections when he booked the flight route. He basically came to San Shan without stopping.

Chapter 1074: specialized in treating difficult – to – treat diseases (2)

This time, Ma Zhiming came alone. After all, this kind of thing was a little hard to say, and Tian Huixin would also feel a little embarrassed.

Xia ruofei warmly welcomed Ma Zhiming into his small villa.

After a brief introduction to Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao, Xia ruofei brought Ma Zhiming upstairs.

“Mr. MA, it’s not a big problem. It’s similar to my judgment.” After Xia ruofei took Ma Zhiming’s pulse seriously, he smiled and said, “don’t feel any psychological pressure. You should be able to recover after taking the energy gathering pill for two weeks.”

“Elemental gathering pill?” Ma Zhiming asked.

Xia ruofei smiled as he took out a porcelain bottle and handed it to Ma Zhiming. He said, “This is a Traditional Chinese Medicine honey pill that I secretly made. It’s more effective in treating your illness.”

Ma Zhiming quickly and carefully put away the porcelain bottle. He had no doubt about Xia ruofei’s words.

“Xia Sheng, are there any precautions to take when taking this energy gathering pill?” Ma Zhiming asked with concern.

“Three pills a day,” Xia ruofei said, “take it with warm water after dinner.” Things to take note of ... Nothing else, but it’s best not to have sex during the treatment. Er ... I suggest that you and aunt Huixin sleep in separate rooms for the next two weeks. ”

Xia ruofei was very clear that after taking the energy gathering pill, it would stimulate one’s physiological functions. The desire in that area would be stronger than usual. During the treatment, it was best not to have any sexual activities, or it would affect the effect.

So, this could be considered a side effect that was neither big nor small!

Although Ma Zhiming was a little embarrassed after hearing that, he still kept it in mind. He nodded and said, “Alright, I got it.”

To be honest, Xia ruofei still felt weird about treating an elder in this aspect. After he had explained everything, he felt much more relaxed.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “that’s all. Under normal circumstances, your body will recover completely after this treatment. If you have any more problems, just give me a call.”

“Thank you, Xia Sheng!” Ma Zhiming said sincerely.

Then, he hurriedly took out a check and handed it to Xia ruofei with both hands. He said, “Xia Sheng, this is the consultation fee I prepared. It’s also a small token from Huixin and me ...”

Xia ruofei pushed the check back and said seriously, “Mr. MA, I’ve said that these pills are my gift to you. I can’t take the money.”

“How can we do that?” Ma Zhiming said anxiously. Even the most famous Urology expert in Hong Kong couldn’t find a problem with this disease. If it wasn’t for Xia Sheng’s kind heart, I ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “Mr. MA, why are you treating me like an outsider again?” If that’s the case, what about our company’s auction last time? What about the Presidential Suite that I stayed in with CEO Feng in Hong Kong?”

“This ...”

“Mr. MA, this is my gift for our first meeting.” Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, “it’s the same as the tea leaves I gave to old master Ma, the Jade skin cream from aunt Huixin, and the jade pendant from Huanhuan. It’s all a token of my appreciation. Do you think I can accept your money?”

Seeing that Xia ruofei had put it this way, Ma Zhiming knew that if he insisted on paying, it would hurt their relationship.

He helplessly put away the check and said, touched, “Xia Sheng, since you’ve said so, I won’t regard you as an outsider anymore ... In the future, if there’s anything that you need me or the MA family to do for you, please don’t stand on ceremony with us!”

“Hahaha! Definitely, definitely!” Xia ruofei said, “we’ll be working together in many areas in the future!”

Xia ruofei had wanted to have Ma Zhiming stay for dinner, but it was obvious that he was in a hurry to return to Hong Kong to take his medicine. Hence, he took the energy gathering pill and left.

Ma Zhiming didn’t even go to the city to visit his old father – in – Law, professor Tian. Instead, he went directly to the airport from Taoyuan farm and then flew back to Hong Kong.

It could really be said that he came and left in a hurry.

He had used his private jet and applied for a flight route at the last minute just so he could come to San Shan in person and ask Xia ruofei to check for him. In less than half a day, he had flown between Hong Kong and San Shan. One could only say that rich people were capricious!

The next day, Xia ruofei drove to Egret Island with Hu Zi’s mother and Lin Qiao.

The high speed rail between Sanshan and Egret Island was very convenient. Initially, Hu Zi’s mother wanted to take the high speed rail there. However, Xia ruofei considered that it would be more convenient to have a car on Egret Island. Moreover, Lin Qiao had a lot of luggage. It would be troublesome to go in and out of the station by gaotte, so he decided to drive there.

Considering that Heron Island was a tourist city and that hotels were rather tight at the start of the school season, Xia ruofei had already booked a room at a hotel near Heron Island University a few days in advance.

After they arrived at Egret Island, Xia ruofei and the rest settled down in the hotel before he brought Lin Qiao to the school to register.

They took a taxi there, leaving the Knight XV in the hotel parking lot.

After all, it would be too ostentatious to drive this car on campus.

As soon as the young and beautiful Lin Qiao arrived at the registration point of the advertising college, she was immediately surrounded by enthusiastic senior brothers. Soon, the registration procedures were completed smoothly. Then, someone took her to her dormitory.

After settling down in the dormitory, Xia ruofei took Lin Qiao to the canteen to apply for a meal card and topped up a few thousand Yuan into it. He also told her not to be too frugal since she was going to school alone on Egret Island. She had to spend the money she needed and ask him for more if it was not enough.

Lin Qiao also enjoyed the feeling of being pampered by Xia ruofei, so she nodded obediently.

For the past two days, it was the new students who came to register. Lin Qiao had nothing else to do after finishing the procedures, so she followed Xia ruofei back to the hotel.

On the way, Lin Qiao's counselor called to inform her that she would have a class meeting the day after tomorrow. After that, she would officially start her college career.

There was still more than a day left, and Lin Qiao didn't want to go back to school. Hence, Xia ruofei decided to take Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao on a tour of Egret Island.

The Fort at Huli Mountain, the beach of Heron Island University, Zeng Zhenzhen ... In the end, they even took a boat to Gulangyu and stayed on this beautiful island for half a day. Then, they took the last ferry back to Heron Island.

On the third day, Lin Qiao reluctantly said goodbye to her mother and Xia ruofei and returned to school.

Xia ruofei didn't give her a Kasaya on purpose. After all, Lin Qiao would be living in this city for at least four years. It was time for her to cultivate her independence.

Xia ruofei and Hu Zi's mother stood at the entrance of the hotel, watching Lin Qiao's taxi gradually disappear into the distance. Hu Zi's mother's eyes were also a little red. This was the first time her daughter had left her side, and her heart was full of reluctance and worry.

Xia ruofei smiled. "Godmother, don't worry. Qiao'er has grown up. She will take care of herself!"

Hu 'er's mother nodded and said, "yes, this child has been sensible since young ..."

Godmother, do you want to stay on Egret Island for a few more days or go back to the three mountains directly?" Xia ruofei asked.

"Let's go back!" Hu Zi's mother said, "the forestry Bureau's residence has not been occupied for a long time. We need to clean it up. In two days, the primary school will start again. I still have to help Yue 'e pick up Nan Nan!"

Previously, Xia ruofei had looked for the municipal government's Secretary, Song Qiming, to help Lin Yue 'E's child, Nan Nan, get admitted to the school. In the end, he arranged for her to stay at the No. 2 primary school in the clock tower. Hu Zi's mother had also taken the initiative to take care of the child.

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said, "then please rest in the lobby. I'll go check out!"

Very quickly, Xia ruofei completed the procedures and drove away from Heron Island with Hu's mother.

As the car crossed the sea bridge, Xia ruofei's phone vibrated.

He took a look at the LCD screen in the car. It was already connected to the phone via Bluetooth, and the screen showed that the caller was the big boss of the Australian retail industry, Tang Yitian.

Xia ruofei gently pressed the green answer button on the LCD screen and said with a smile, ""Hello, big brother Tang!"

Chapter 1075: Women's money is so easy to earn (1)

Tang Yitian's hearty laughter suddenly came from the expensive sound system in the car, ""RUO Fei, what are you busy with? It's been so long and you didn't even think of calling big brother!"

This rich man who could shake up the entire Australian retail industry with just a cough did not put on any airs in front of Xia ruofei.

One must know that Tang Yitian was one of the few people in the world who vaguely knew Xia ruofei's identity as a cultivator. Moreover, Xia ruofei was also Tang Haoran's teacher.

The identity of a billionaire might be very prominent in front of others, but he would not hold back in front of Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei laughed as he drove. ""I'm just busy! A small business can't be compared to big brother Tang, who has a lot of chores to do all day long!"

"Hahaha! "Ruofei, you're too humble ..." Tang Yitian said with a smile. "Your company's abalone auction has caused such a big commotion. I've heard about it in Australia!"

Then, Tang Yitian complained again, "brother, you're not a good friend!" Why didn't they send me an invitation to such an interesting auction? If I can also participate in the remote auction, I'll definitely help you!"

Xia ruofei smiled and explained, "the details are all handled by the people below. I'm not too sure." Big brother Tang, I'll definitely criticize the person in charge when I get back. How could I neglect you?"

"Come on!" Tang Yitian said, "you're willing to criticize your beautiful boss? Hahaha ..."

Xia ruofei was speechless. He didn't expect Feng Jing to be so famous that even Tang Yitian, who was in Australia, knew about it.

Also, I'm on speaker ... Can you be a little more tactful? Xia ruofei glanced at Hu Zi's mother, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, and smiled bitterly.

"Big brother Tang, you're not looking for me just to condemn me, are you?" he quickly changed the topic.

Tang Yitian laughed and said, ""Ruofei, I'm going back to China to attend an Entrepreneur Summit in a few days. I'm going to bring Jennifer and Haoran back with me. Haoran has been talking about you all day!"

Xia ruofei was also very happy to hear that. He was also very happy that Tang Haoran had found an extremely talented disciple.

Moreover, Tang Haoran had been cultivating on his own. Xia ruofei was worried that something might go wrong with him. It was good to see him and check on his cultivation progress.

“Big brother Tang, doesn’t Haoran need to go to school?” Xia ruofei asked.

It was September now, and the children in China were about to start school.

Tang Yitian laughed. “The school holidays in Australia are different from those in China. It’s usually divided into four semesters, and there are two weeks of vacation between each semester. Haoran’s school starts in early October. He’s still on vacation when I came back to China!”

Then, Tang Yitian said with emotion, “Basically, as long as there’s an opportunity, I’ll bring Haoran back to visit more often so that he won’t forget that he’s a Chinese. Although he was born in Australia and was an Australian citizen, the blood flowing in his body was the Yan Huang bloodline! No matter how far you go or how high you fly, you can’t forget the place where you started!”

In fact, Tang Yitian himself was born in Australia. However, he had received a traditional education since he was young, so he had a strong sense of identity with his motherland.

Unlike some people who went abroad to study and even forgot about their ancestors, it was not surprising that their children had become white – hearted Banana Men.

Hearing this, Xia ruofei was also filled with respect. He said seriously, “You’re absolutely right, big brother Tang! You can’t forget your roots, I support you!”

If he wanted to do something, he had to be a person first. Xia ruofei had very high expectations of Tang Haoran’s character. Otherwise, if he had mastered the cultivation method and did as he pleased to harm society, it would be a great destructive power.

That was why Xia ruofei did not hesitate to use his spiritual power to leave a mark in Tang Haoran’s young heart. Tang Yitian and his wife also attached great importance to Tang Haoran’s personality education, which Xia ruofei was very satisfied with.

“Big brother Tang, when are you guys coming back?” Xia ruofei asked.

“I haven’t decided on the exact schedule yet, but it’ll be in about a week!” Tang Yitian said. Ruofei, this Entrepreneur Summit is held in Beijing. After the summit, I’m going to take Haoran to visit the Forbidden City and the great Wall, and then we’ll fly to the three mountains to meet you!”

Xia ruofei nodded and agreed. Let me know after you’ve set your schedule!”

After returning to the three mountains, Xia ruofei resumed his carefree life.

However, Hu Zi’s mother moved back to the forestry Bureau dormitory the next day. The daguantian real estate that he had bought from Liang Weimin’s jianda group had been completely renovated according to Lin Qiao’s suggestions. However, even though they had used environmentally friendly materials, the newly renovated house still needed some ventilation, especially in the hottest period of summer when the formaldehyde was the strongest. Xia ruofei would definitely not let Hu Zi's mother move in at this time.

Moreover, the house rented by the forestry Bureau's residence was relatively closer to the bell Tower No. 2 primary school where Nan Nan studied. Therefore, Hu Zi's mother was not in a hurry to cancel the rental.

Chapter 1076: Women's money is so easy to earn (2)

Xia ruofei planned to leave the new house with a Pavilion for ventilation for half a year. He would move in when Lin Qiao had winter break and let the mother and daughter spend the new year in the new house.

Hu 'Zi's mother had moved back, and Lin Qiao had gone to college on Egret Island. Xia ruofei's Villa suddenly became quiet.

Xia ruofei lived alone and was too lazy to cook, so he just went to the company cafeteria for every meal.

Feng Jing had been cooped up in the farm for the past few days. Fortunately, she had only become famous on the internet and wasn't considered a superstar. Hence, the paparazzi at the entrance had left after a few days.

The sneaky people around the farm were also gone.

Feng Jing was in charge of the farm, so everything in the pharmaceutical factory was basically remotely controlled. Xue Jinshan had also been summoned back from Beijing by Feng Jing to research the early production of the Jushi cream.

There were no technical difficulties in the mass production of the jade skin cream. What he needed to study was the category of the first batch of jade skin cream to be listed, the pricing strategy, the publicity plan, and so on.

In the end, after everyone's discussion, it was basically decided that the first batch of jade skin cream would only be launched with the minty fragrance type. However, through different packaging and concentration ratios, it was divided into three grades.

The most expensive Jade bone ice Skin Series basically had the same concentration as the hand – made Jade skin cream. The packaging was also the most exquisite and exquisite, and the price was tentatively 3888 Yuan a bottle.

The second – grade congealed fat series had been diluted to a certain extent, and its medicinal effects were slightly worse than the Jade bone ice Skin Series. It was priced at 1888 Yuan a bottle.

The popular version was more diluted, and its efficacy might not even be half of the Jade bone ice Skin Series. It was named snow match, which was mainly targeted at ordinary consumers, but the price was still as high as 588 Yuan a bottle.

Xia ruofei was shocked when Feng Jing's team came up with the pricing plan.

Even if it was an undiluted jade skin ointment, the cost of each bottle would not exceed 30 yuan. If it was mass – produced, the cost would be even lower. However, it was simply a money – snatching act to sell it for 3000 to 4000 Yuan per bottle!

However, Feng Jing had casually taught Xia ruofei a lesson.

Do you think that the cost of those luxury brands 'perfumes, skin care products, essence liquids, and cosmetic products that cost thousands of Yuan is high?

The high – end cosmetics on the market that were pursued by various fans now might not even have one – tenth of the effect of jade skin cream, but the price was very high and still sold well around the world.

The cost of these cosmetics was also very low, and the advertising cost accounted for a large proportion.

All in all, after Xia ruofei heard it, he only had one thought: It was really easy to earn money from women these days ...

No matter what, Xia ruofei still agreed to Feng Jing's proposal.

In just one day, Feng Jing's plan had been adjusted again. This time, Xia ruofei was so shocked that his jaw almost dropped.

Feng Rao suggested that, in addition to the three grades of jade skin cream that were normally sold, they should also introduce a limited edition of jade skin cream.

Feng Jing's suggestion was to release only 300 sets of this luxurious version of jade skin cream every year. Each set was personally brewed by Xia ruofei and added with expensive essential oil.

She even designed a luxurious outer packaging. The bottle was made of 33 layers of natural crystals, supported by three platinum rings.

In short, it was as luxurious as possible.

This luxury version of the Jade skin cream, which Feng Jing had named "skin code," was sold in China for 100 bottles at 880000 Yuan a bottle. 200 bottles were sold overseas at a price of 150000 euros each.

Although Xia ruofei was already immune to the high price strategy, he was still shocked by the outrageous price.

Feng Jing explained to him that the luxury version of "skin code" wasn't going to be released immediately. She planned to release it after the three series of jade skin cream were released.

She had expected that the jade skin cream would immediately take the world by storm, even leading the industry trend and becoming a high – end brand that everyone would fight to buy.

At this time, he could take the opportunity to launch the limited luxury version of “skin code.”

In Feng Jing’s words, the 300 copies of “skin codes” a year were purely for the sake of improving the brand’s style and earning some money at the same time.

After hearing Feng Jing’s explanation, Xia ruofei nodded in agreement after some thought.

This surprised Feng Rao.

She thought that with Xia ruofei’s lazy personality, he would not agree so readily if she asked him to brew three hundred portions of jaded skin ointment every year.

Feng Jing didn’t know that hand – made medicine could also be mass produced. Besides, Xia ruofei was the one who made the medicine. Did he really make it himself?

Xia Qing was Xia ruofei’s loyal spirit puppet, and his skills in making Jade skin cream were better than Xia ruofei’s. If he made it, it would be equivalent to Xia ruofei making it himself.

No matter what, Xia ruofei’s agreement to this plan made Feng Jing very happy.

She immediately began to arrange various tasks.

Xue Jinshan was going to stop the production line of the heart – nourishing soup in a few days. After a thorough cleaning, he would be ready to start the production of the jaded skin ointment.

Meanwhile, the approval was still being sent to the capital. Xue Jinshan had sent over the assistant factory manager that he had hired previously.

The heart – nourishing soup project had already connected with the State Food and Drug Administration. In the southeast province, there was he kun from the provincial Food and Drug Administration looking after them. Xue Jinshan did not need to personally look after the approval of a skin care product.

On the other hand, Feng Jing began to frequently call for meetings with the staff of the marketing department to formulate a marketing plan for the jaded skin cream.

At the same time, she also found a famous Italy fashion designer, Simon, through her classmate to design a crystal bottle for the limited edition “skin code”.

Hence, before the jaded skin cream was even on the market, a large sum of design fees had been spent.

However, Xia ruofei didn’t mind. He trusted Feng Jing’s ability. Once Yingluo’s limited – edition jaded skin cream was sold, the design fee would be returned with a few bottles.

The company’s focus had shifted to the mass production of jaded skin cream and Xia ruofei had started to slack off openly.

This time, he had a very good reason to prepare 300 portions of Yushi ointment, and he had to decoct it himself. The preparation work in the early stage was very heavy.

Feng Jing was also helpless about this, but she was already used to her Chairman’s lazy style and didn’t have the energy to complain.

It was now the middle of September.

The approval for the jade skin cream had entered the final stage. If nothing unexpected happened, it would be approved very soon.

Meanwhile, Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory had already used a production line and officially started producing the jade skin cream.

The green maple vines that Xia Qing had planted in the Archean realm were also harvested as expected. In the prescription that Xia ruofei had provided for the first batch of ground green maple vines, the amount of green maple vines used was very little. A production line consumed about 10 to 15 kilograms of green maple vines every month. Xia ruofei was able to supply a sufficient amount.

When the green maple vines in the mountain sea realm were harvested in batches, they would be even more abundant. Even if they had to provide green maple vines to ten production lines at the same time, there would not be any problems.

Tang Yitian's family also took a private jet from Australia to the capital. Before they left, Tang Yitian called Xia ruofei and told him about their schedule for the next few days.

The entrepreneur Summit that Tang Yitian was going to attend would last for two days. After the summit, he planned to bring Tang Haoran around the capital for two days before the family of three flew back to Sanshan.

Hence, Xia ruofei, who had been slacking off for many days, cleaned the villa personally and told his disciple to come over as a guest. It would not be good if the house was too messy.

Just as Xia ruofei was busy cleaning the house, Feng Jing called him and said that she had something to report to him.

Xia ruofei had not been to the office for a few days, so he was too embarrassed to reject her. He took a quick shower and went to the office in the complex.

"Chairman, we've finished the publicity plan for the jade skin cream." Feng Jing immediately said when she saw Xia ruofei, "please check!"

Feng Jing handed Xia ruofei a proposal that was at least twenty pages long.

Xia ruofei had a headache when he saw the dense text. He flipped through a few pages and said, "President Feng, I won't look at the specific plan. You can pick the main points and tell me!"

Feng Jing nodded helplessly and flipped open the same proposal in her hands.

Feng Jing had personally led the backbone of the marketing department to work overtime to come up with this proposal. After many discussions and revisions, the proposal was finally finalized.

Feng Jing was also very familiar with the contents of the publicity plan, so she quickly picked out the key content and reported it to Xia ruofei.

Chapter 1077: Temporary visit to Beijing (1)

The plan was very detailed, from poster production, video shooting to TV advertisements, online advertisements, outdoor advertisements, and even the preliminary structure of the press conference PowerPoint.

However, Xia ruofei was getting drowsy.

He had absolute trust in Feng Jing's abilities. Since it was something his general manager could do, he naturally lost interest.

However, Feng Rao had reported to him out of respect, so Xia ruofei could only listen patiently. In reality, his mind had already wandered.

Just as Xia ruofei was nodding and thinking, he suddenly heard Feng Jing say, "Chairman, regarding the product endorsement, we've contacted the recently popular singer of the Jade lady sect, Dong Xinyu, and she has agreed to meet us in Beijing tomorrow. 'I hope you can come with me. On one hand, it's to show that we value it. On the other hand, I've considered that the endorsement fee may be a relatively large expense. If you're present, you can make the decision directly ..."

Xia ruofei had been absent-minded the whole time, so he habitually nodded and said, "Alright ..."

Then, he immediately reacted and sat up straight, saying, "I'm going too? There's no need for this, right? Your general manager is personally taking action, isn't that enough? As for the final decision ... As long as you think the price is right, you can just set it. I believe you. "

"Chairman," Feng Jing said with a bitter smile, "the endorsement fee isn't a small sum. I can't make the decision."

Feng Jing really didn't have the energy to criticize this lazy Chairman anymore. He actually wanted to leave such a big matter to others.

Moreover, many men would want to get close to the female celebrity, Dong Xinyu. Xia ruofei, on the other hand, avoided her like a snake. It was really enough that a man could be lazy to this extent ...

Xia ruofei touched his nose and said with a smile, "If you really don't think you can make the decision, you can ask me directly on WeChat! Boss Feng, I believe in your ability!"

"Chairman ..." Feng Jing said helplessly, "the spokesperson part is very important in the entire publicity plan. It directly determines the product's image. I think you should look into it yourself ..."

In fact, this was the only thing that required Xia ruofei's personal attention in the entire publicity plan. Feng Jing had already delegated the rest of the work to everyone.

Who would have thought that Xia ruofei didn't even want to do the only job, which was to meet beautiful celebrities?

Xia ruofei touched his chin and said, ""CEO Feng, I think ... You can actually be the spokesperson! You also have a lot of fans online now! I think she's even more famous than that so – called female singer, Dong Xinyu ... At least, I've never heard of her name before, but I've heard of your name like thunder ..."

Feng Rao was embarrassed and quickly said, ""Chairman, this ... I won't trouble you to talk to Dong Xinyu personally. I ... I'll handle it myself ..."

After speaking, Feng Jing stood up and left the office.

This Chairman really touched on a sore spot. The strange ideas in his mind were simply driving people crazy.

Feng Jing was already feeling a little uncomfortable with her sudden popularity. If she were to continue being an ambassador, she might as well just be in the entertainment industry and not a professional manager ...

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh out loud. It seemed that this trick was still effective!

Just as Feng Jing was about to walk out of Xia ruofei's office, Xia ruofei suddenly had an idea. He shouted, ""President Feng, wait a moment ..."

"Does the chairman have any other instructions?" Feng Jing turned around helplessly. "Don't ever mention that I'll be your spokesperson. There's no room for discussion!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "you're meeting Dong Xinyu in the capital tomorrow, right?" I'll go with you ..."

Xia ruofei suddenly remembered that Tang Yitian's family was also in the capital at this time. Tang Yitian should be done with his work tomorrow. If he went to the capital, he could meet them. If there was no need, they wouldn't have to fly to the three mountains.

As for discussing the contract with Feng Jing, it was just a side trip.

Feng Rao looked at Xia ruofei hesitantly. She did not know what Xia ruofei was up to. Why did he change his mind so quickly after all the excuses he had just made?

"Chairman, you're not joking with me?" Feng Rao asked suspiciously.

"When have I ever joked about work?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

Feng Jing cursed in her heart, you were just joking around with me about the endorsement a minute ago ...

She could not help but ask, "no additional conditions?" Don't tell me you want me to be your spokesperson?"

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "if you agree, I have no problem with it." The endorsement fee will be excellent ..."

"Don't! Don't! I don't want to!" Feng Jing asked, "Chairman, you really don't have any other requests?"

Xia ruofei forced a smile and said, "why don't you believe me?" Weren't you the one who insisted that I go with you? I've already agreed to it, why are you asking so many questions? Do you want me to go or not? Before I change my mind, you better make your decision quickly!"

"I want it!" Feng Jing hurriedly said, "it's settled then. I'll get the administrative office to book the plane tickets immediately!"

She had decided that no matter what Xia ruofei had up his sleeve, she would agree to it first. Anyway, if she were to be the spokesperson, she would rather die than do it ...

Feng Jing quickly left Xia ruofei's office as she was afraid that Xia ruofei would ask for more.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh out loud as he looked at Feng Rao's sorry figure.

He took out his phone and sent a text message to Tang Yitian, telling him that he was going to the capital for a business trip tomorrow, and that they could meet directly in the capital.

Xia ruofei was worried that Tang Yitian was at the entrepreneur Summit and it would be inconvenient for him to answer the phone, so he sent him a text message to inform him.

She didn't expect Tang Yitian to call back so quickly.

"Brother! Why did you suddenly decide to come to the capital?"

"Big brother Tang," Xia ruofei said with a smile, "there's something I need to do in the company. I need to go there personally."

Tang Yitian was worried that Xia ruofei would make a trip to the capital for their family. Xia ruofei was a God – like figure! Moreover, he was Haoran's master. If he had to trouble him to make a trip personally, he would definitely feel a little apologetic and even feel a little scared.

After hearing that Xia ruofei had other matters to attend to in the capital, Tang Yitian was relieved. He said happily, "Then I'll tell Haoran the good news. He'll be very happy!"

"Ruofei, when will you arrive in the capital tomorrow?" Tang Yitian asked. We'll treat you to a meal as a family of three!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "the schedule hasn't been confirmed yet." Big brother Tang, I'll be busy with work after I get to Beijing. I'll contact you again after I'm done!"

"OK! Then I'll see you in the capital!" Tang Yitian said straightforwardly.

.....

The next morning, Xia ruofei and Feng Jing took a flight at around 9:30 am and arrived at the Capital International Airport at noon.

The administrative office had already booked a hotel in advance.

Now that the company's various businesses were making a lot of profits and had abundant cash flow, the company management's accommodation standards and travel subsidies for business trips were very high. This was also decided by Xia ruofei himself.

If he could make money, he should be able to spend it. Only by doing a good job in employee welfare would everyone have a sense of ownership and work hard for the company.

Furthermore, Xia ruofei was also on a business trip this time, so the administrative office had booked a Business Suite at the five – Star Hilton Hotel for the two of them.

The Hilton Hotel provided pick – up service. When the two of them dragged their suitcases out of the airport, they saw a Mercedes – Benz with the hotel on it. A driver in a suit and white gloves was standing next to the car, holding a sign with their names on it.

Taking the Mercedes – Benz provided by the hotel, the two arrived at the Hilton Hotel in Wangfujing and successfully checked in.

After Feng Jing put her simple luggage away, she went to Xia ruofei’s room.

“Chairman, I’ll contact Dong Xinyu’s manager first to confirm the location for the meeting tonight.” Feng ke said.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

Feng Rao quickly found a number on her phone and dialed it.

“Hello, Sister Fang, I’m Feng Jing from paradise Corporation! We’ve contacted each other before ... It’s like this, our company’s Chairman Xia and I have already arrived in the capital. We want to confirm the time and place of the meeting tonight ... What? This ... But we’ve already agreed on this ... I’m sorry, sister Fang, I didn’t mean it that way ... I know, I know...Then when will miss Dong be free ... Okay! We’ll keep in touch then ...”

After the call, Feng Jing looked a little embarrassed and her brows furrowed slightly.

Xia ruofei, who was standing at the side, heard everything. He asked calmly, “Boss Feng, what’s the situation? Did they stand us up?”

“Dong Xinyu’s manager said that she has to film an important show tonight, so the meeting has been canceled!” Feng Jing said with a sigh. I asked her when she would be free to meet up again, but her attitude was very cold ...”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but pout. “Do these celebrities have any professional ethics? Didn’t we already agree on this?”

Feng Rao was a little embarrassed. “I’m sorry, Chairman. I didn’t expect him to suddenly break the appointment. I even made you follow me to Beijing, but you couldn’t even see him ...”

Xia ruofei waved his hand. “It’s nothing. However, if you can’t decide on a spokesperson, I’m afraid that the publicity plans you’ve made before will not be able to be carried out, right?”

Chapter 1078: An unexpected encounter (1)

Feng Rao was also worried. She nodded and said, "Yup! The shooting of promotional posters, short advertisement films, and the launch of new products could not be carried out without an image spokesperson. And time is especially tight right now ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "if you really can't ... President Feng, you can do it yourself!" Your image and temperament are very in line with our company's product positioning, and you're very popular on the internet now!"

Feng Rao glared at Xia ruofei and said, ""The chairman is still joking at a time like this ..."

"Hehe, I just wanted to ease the atmosphere because I saw your sad face ..." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "CEO Feng, if it really doesn't work, we can find another spokesperson. At most, we can delay the release of the product!"

"I'm just trying to take advantage of the popularity of the last auction to launch the jade skin ointment," Feng Rao said with a frown. If this trend passed, the effect would be much worse. "Moreover ... Dong Xinyu's image is more in line with the requirements. Moreover, if we were to look for another person at the last minute, those celebrities' schedules would be more tight. I'm afraid ..."

Feng Jing couldn't help but sigh, ""Chairman, I'll get the marketing department to look for other candidates first. I'll try to contact Dong Xinyu again. I still feel that she's the most suitable candidate, but ... She'll have to stay in the capital for the next two days."

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said nonchalantly, "I don't have anything important to do anyway. I'll stay and accompany you!"

Feng Rao revealed a grateful expression and said, ""Thank you! Chairman, it's my fault for not doing my job well ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said generously, ""The other party changed his mind at the last minute. What does it have to do with you? Don't think too much! Let's have a good rest in the afternoon! I'll treat you to dinner tonight! If there's anything, we can talk tomorrow!"

"En!" Hearing Xia ruofei's words, Feng Jing's depressed mood improved a lot. She nodded heavily.

Xia ruofei walked Feng Jing to the door of his room and returned to his room with a bitter smile.

He could tell that Feng Jing was quite dejected. This was also the first time Feng Jing had suffered such a setback since joining paradise Corporation.

In Xia ruofei's opinion, it would not be a problem for the product to be released a few days earlier or later. It would be best if he could make use of the popularity of the auction. However, it would be fine if he could not make it in time. He was very confident in his product.

Of course, Feng Jing was a perfectionist who pursued perfection in her work. This could be seen from how she had tried her best to persuade Xia ruofei to come to the capital with her to discuss the endorsement contract. Everything had been planned and this was the most important part. Who would have thought that the discussion would go smoothly before they arrived in the capital and suddenly change their mind? this was indeed a big blow to Feng Jing.

Hence, Xia ruofei decided to treat her to a big meal that night, hoping to dispel her depressed mood.

Xia ruofei was not familiar with the capital. He used the computer in his room to look up the high – end restaurants in the capital, but he did not have any good choices. It was mainly because it was difficult to distinguish the authenticity of the information on the internet. The reputation of the restaurant could be faked, so he did not have much confidence.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and decided to call song Rui. This guy grew up in the capital and only followed his father to live in another city. He was a typical rich man in the capital and should know the food map of the capital very well.

Just as Xia ruofei took out his phone and was about to call song Rui, Tang Yitian's call came in.

"Big brother Tang!" Xia ruofei answered the call with a smile.

"Ruofei, you should be in the capital by now, right?" Tang Yitian asked.

"Yup! I just checked into the hotel. " Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Which hotel are you staying at? Haoran, this kid, knows that you're here, and he's making a fuss about coming to pay his respects to master! "Haha ..." Tang Yitian said,"if you have a job, then another day is fine!"

Xia ruofei smiled."It's okay. There was a sudden problem at work. I don't have any plans for today."

"Is that so?" Tang Yitian was also surprised."What's the problem? Can I be of any help?"

"Hehe, it's just a small problem. It's okay." Xia ruofei smiled and said,"big brother Tang, I live in Jing Hilton at the Wang Residence. I'm free anytime today!"

Tang Yitian saw that Xia ruofei didn't want to talk about it in detail, so he didn't continue to ask. He said,""I still have to attend a summit forum in the afternoon. How about this? Jennifer and I will treat you to dinner tonight!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh when he heard this. He was still thinking about where to arrange dinner! Now, there was a solution.

Hence, he smiled and said,"sure!" But big brother Tang, I still have a colleague who came here with me. It's not good to leave her alone, so I brought her along!"

"No problem!" Tang Yitian laughed heartily. You can bring as many people as you want! Then it's a deal! I'll book a place and text you later!"

"Alright, see you tonight!" Xia ruofei said.

.....

In the evening, the lights on the streets of Beijing were lit.

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing got off the taxi at the entrance of Zola's restaurant, which was near the front gate.

When she heard that Xia ruofei had an appointment with a friend, Feng Jing had planned to order a meal at the hotel herself. After all, it would be uncomfortable for her to go over to a friend's place. Moreover, although she had encountered some difficulties in the endorsement, there was still a lot of work to be done in the company. She felt that she might as well stay in the hotel and read her email instead of going out for a meal!

However, she could not stand Xia ruofei's constant persuasion and finally came out with him.

Xia ruofei was also worried that she would be in a bad mood at the hotel alone, so he brought her out to relax.

So, even though he and Tang Yitian had agreed to meet at 6:30 am, he and Feng Jing left at 5 am. The two strolled around Qianmen Street for a while, then took a taxi to Zola's restaurant, which wasn't far away.

Although it wasn't the appointed time yet, the two of them were a little tired after shopping for a while, so they decided to wait at the restaurant.

This Western restaurant was very stylish. The decoration was very exquisite, and all kinds of atmosphere lights and soothing piano music created a very warm atmosphere.

As soon as the two of them entered the restaurant, a waiter came up to them.

"Good evening, you two!" The attendant bowed slightly.

"Mr. Tang Yitian has already made a reservation," Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Please wait!" The waiter immediately checked the iPad he carried with him and immediately looked much more respectful. "So you're Mr. Tang's guest. This way, please!"

With that, the waiter stepped aside, made an inviting gesture, and led the two into the restaurant.

After taking a few steps, Xia ruofei realized that Feng Rao had suddenly stopped. He turned around in confusion.

Feng Rao was staring at a booth in front of her with a slight frown.

"Boss Feng, what's wrong?" Xia ruofei asked softly.

"I saw Dong Xinyu ..." Feng Jing raised her chin and said.

"That small – time celebrity?" Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and said, "didn't you say that she was recording a show tonight?"

Xia ruofei followed Feng Rao's gaze and saw three people sitting in the booth. A young woman in her thirties and a girl in a white sleeveless dress were sitting on one side. Opposite them was a fat man in a suit.

The girl in a white dress and a pair of large sunglasses in the dimly lit Western restaurant was most likely the Dong Xinyu that Feng Jing had mentioned.

From the way she dressed, she should be a rather pure girl. However, Xia ruofei also knew that this was all the packaging of the entertainment company. Dong Xinyu had been walking the path of a pure girl ever since she started her career. Naturally, she had to create such an image.

"I'll go over and say hello!" Feng Rao said with a slight frown.

Seeing that Feng Rao seemed to be very angry, Xia ruofei quickly informed the waiter and quickly followed her.

Feng Rao walked over to Dong Xinyu's booth in a few steps and asked, "Are you miss Dong Xinyu?"

Dong Xinyu was talking to the fat middle-aged man opposite her when someone interrupted her. She was very unhappy.

She took off her sunglasses and glanced at Feng Jing. "Zola is one of the top 10 French restaurants in the capital. How can they let their fangirls in?"

"Miss Dong, you've misunderstood. I'm ..." Feng Rao was taken aback.

Dong Xinyu said impatiently, "Alright, alright, no need to explain! You want an autograph? Hand it over! I'll help you sign it! But forget about taking a group photo! We're eating!"

Feng Jing did not expect that Dong Xinyu, who always had an obedient image in public, would behave like this in private.

She smiled bitterly at Xia ruofei and said, "Miss Dong, I'm Feng Jing, the General Manager of paradise Corporation. We've talked on the phone."

When Dong Xinyu heard this, an unnatural look flashed in her eyes. She then said indifferently, "Oh! So it's President Feng ... What's the matter?"

Feng Rao suppressed the unhappiness in her heart and said calmly, "Miss Dong, I've come all the way to Beijing to talk about the Dai ..."

"Let's talk at the company tomorrow!" "I'm off work now!" Dong Xinyu interrupted Feng Jing rudely.

Feng Jing could not help but feel shocked. Dong Xinyu was the one who stood her up and said that she had an important program to film at the last minute. Now, she found out that she was not recording any program at all. Instead, she was having a meal with someone at a Western restaurant. Dong Xinyu did not seem to feel guilty at all. Instead, she acted as if it was only natural.

What kind of people were these?

Feng Jing was a very strict person. In fact, she had already reached an agreement with Dong Xinyu before she came to Beijing.

The two parties had communicated on the phone many times. Not only did Dong Xinyu's manager speak to her, but even Dong Xinyu herself had spoken to Feng Jing. After a few phone calls, they had basically finalized the details of the cooperation.

Dong Xinyu's manager had even charged 100000 Yuan from the Paradise Corporation in the name of "sincerity money."

Although both parties had not signed a written agreement, the cooperation was basically settled. That was why Feng Jing had asked Xia ruofei to come along. She thought that the trip to the capital was just for show. The Chairman's personal appearance would show that the company valued Dong Xinyu more.

He didn't expect things to turn out this way.

Xia ruofei, who was standing at the side, could not help but frown. He stepped forward and asked, "Miss Dong, didn't you say that you're recording an important program tonight? You even rejected the meeting with President Feng. Why did you appear in the Western restaurant?"

Dong Xinyu was immediately displeased when she heard this. She slammed the table and shouted, "Who are you? Is it your turn to meddle in my Affairs? No rules!"

Chapter 1079: righteous (1)

Then, Dong Xinyu looked at Feng Rao with an unfriendly expression and said, "Boss Feng, is this the quality of your company's employees? If that's your attitude, then there's nothing to talk about!"

Xia ruofei was relatively young, and his skin had become very fair after his cultivation. He had also been standing behind Feng Rao the entire time, so Dong Xinyu had assumed that he was Feng Rao's subordinate.

"Ms. Dong, this is Mr. Xia ruofei, the chairman of our company. He's my superior," Feng Rao said with a frown.

Dong Xinyu was stunned for a moment. She glanced at Xia ruofei in surprise, then pouted and said, "So it's the chairman! No wonder he's so arrogant!"

Xia ruofei was so angry that he almost laughed. "Miss Dong, President Feng and I flew all the way from San Shan to Beijing to talk about cooperation. We had an appointment to meet tonight, but you stood us up for no reason. I just wanted to ask. Can't I do that?"

At this moment, the fat middle-aged man sitting opposite Dong Xinyu looked at Feng Jing and Xia ruofei with interest. His gaze lingered on Feng Jing's beautiful face for a moment before he asked with a smile, "Miss Feng, I'm Li Yao, the General Manager of the Huaxia region of the Yafu group. What business does your company do? Are you also interested in working with miss Dong?"

Feng Jing had just introduced Xia ruofei as the chairman of their company, but Li Yao was acting as if Xia ruofei did not exist. He was smiling cheekily, obviously not taking them seriously.

Feng Jing's expression changed slightly when she heard the words 'Yafu group'.

This was a famous cosmetic brand in the Wei nation, and it was definitely a well – deserved giant in the cosmetic industry.

Dong Xinyu had stood them up and was having a meal with the people from the Yafu group. It was obvious that the Yafu group also had their eyes on Dong Xinyu, who was clearly on the rise in her career.

Feng Rao's mind raced, but she still said calmly, ""So it's boss li, nice to meet you!"

"Miss Feng, this is my name card." Li Yao elegantly handed over a business card and said, "if your company is also interested in cooperating with Ms. Dong, I might be able to help!"

As he spoke, his burning gaze kept darting around Feng Jing's face, making her feel very uncomfortable.

Feng Jing didn't take the name card, but said, ""Thank you for your kindness, boss li, but I'm afraid you can't help us with this. The product that our company is looking for miss Dong to endorse is ..."

"President Feng!" The woman with heavy makeup sitting next to Dong Xinyu quickly interrupted Feng Jing, "can we discuss the cooperation tomorrow? Right now, Xinyu has something important to discuss with CEO li. I'll have to trouble you to go back first!"

"You must be sister Fang!" Feng Jing smiled faintly. "You seem to be afraid that I'll introduce our company's business to boss li?"

The woman with heavy makeup was Dong Xinyu's manager, Fang Hongli. After hearing Feng Jing's words, a trace of panic flashed across her eyes, but she pretended to be calm and said, ""What are you saying?"

In fact, Fang Hongli was indeed worried.

This was because Li Yao was also looking for Dong Xinyu to discuss the matter of the endorsement.

On the other hand, the same celebrity naturally could not endorse different brands of products of similar nature. This Yafu group was also a cosmetic company. If Li Yao knew that Dong Xinyu had the intention to cooperate with other cosmetic companies, he would most likely not be too happy.

Dong Xinyu said impatiently, ""Sister Fang, why are you wasting your breath on them?"

Then, Dong Xinyu glanced at Feng Rao and said, ""President Feng, you guys can go back first! If there's anything, we can talk about it when I'm free ..."

Dong Xinyu had risen to fame through a talent show. Although her popularity had risen rather quickly recently, her Foundation was still lacking.

Previously, Feng Jing had personally spoken to them a few times on the phone, and the two sides had basically agreed on a one – year endorsement contract. The total value was three million Chinese dollars, but it had to be paid in three installments.

This was already a considerable amount of income for Dong Xinyu. Her manager, Fang Hongli, was also encouraging her from the side, so she had basically agreed.

She didn't expect that just yesterday, the Yafu group would actually come to her door and want to invite her to be their spokesperson. Moreover, it was the General Manager of the Huaxia region, Li Yao, who personally came forward.

Li Yao also promised to sign a three – year contract with her. The first year would be three million Yuan, and there would be a certain increase every year.

This caused Dong Xinyu to change her stance.

No one would go against money.

Not to mention that Yafu group was much stronger than the little – known paradise company.

When a celebrity chose an endorsement contract, they also had to look at the strength of the partner.

International luxury brands like coach and LV were highly sought after by celebrities, because being able to endorse such top brands also represented the influence of a celebrity.

This had nothing to do with economic benefits.

Of course, the endorsement fees of these international brands were not low.

Similarly, between the Yafu group and the Paradise Corporation, Dong Xinyu had chosen the Yafu group without any hesitation.

As for the agreement to cooperate with the peach blossom company and even receiving a “sincerity gold” of 100000 Yuan from the company, Dong Xinyu did not take it to heart at all.

Hence, she treated Feng Jing and Xia ruofei coldly and rudely.

Chapter 1080: self – righteous (2)

She did not consider Feng Jing and Xia ruofei's feelings at all. They flew all the way from San Shan, but she stood them up and was caught in contact with other cosmetic companies. However, she did not feel guilty at all. Instead, she acted as if she was in the right and felt that it was natural.

This made Xia ruofei, who was watching coldly from the side, frown. His impression of this Little Star, who was so different from the image she had packaged herself as, became even worse.

However, other than dissing Dong Xinyu at the start, Xia ruofei did not say anything after that. He believed that Feng Jing would be able to handle the situation.

Li Yao was already a little unhappy that he was ignored when he handed his business card to Feng Jing. He said, “No hurry, no hurry ... Miss Feng, you haven't finished your words! What do you think your company's main business is? Maybe we'll have a chance to cooperate!”

Feng Rao glanced at the exasperated Fang Hongli and said, ""Boss Li, our paradise Corporation is about to launch a new skin care product. We've already discussed the endorsement deal with miss Dong's manager."

Li Yao's face slightly changed. He glanced at Fang Hongli indifferently with a trace of displeasure in his eyes.

However, he was also very shrewd. He quickly put on a smiling face and clapped his hands. "Hahaha! I didn't expect it to be a peer! I'm really sorry, but our Yafu group also has high hopes for miss Dong, and we'd like to invite her to be the spokesperson for our new product!"

"Mr. Li, our company has already reached an agreement with miss Dong," Feng Jing said with a slight frown.

"Hahaha! Is that so?" Li Yao turned his gaze to Dong Xinyu's manager, Fang Hongli.

Fang Hongli panicked and said, ""Boss Feng, you can't just say that. We only agreed to have a talk with your company!"

Dong Xinyu raised her face and sneered, "that's right!" What do you mean by reaching an agreement? that's just wishful thinking on your part! Did I sign an agreement with you?"

"Yes!" Feng Jing replied, "we've already paid the 100000 Yuan in full. I've also brought the bank statement!"

"It's just an intent gold. Any company that wants to work with Xinyu has to pay an intent gold. This doesn't mean that Xinyu has to work with your company!" Fang Hongli immediately replied.

In fact, Li Yao didn't pay any money.

Even if Fang Hongli had more guts, she wouldn't dare to ask Li Yao for an intent fee! For a company as large as the Yafu group to be willing to use a newbie like Dong Xinyu was already an opportunity that they did not even dare to dream of.

Originally, they could have signed the contract when they met tonight.

Although Li Yao looked at Dong Xinyu with a burning gaze, and his words hinted that if Dong Xinyu could 'accompany' him properly, this endorsement contract would definitely not be a problem, Dong Xinyu herself would not care about such things.

Her management company had packaged her as a pure and innocent girl, and she also had an image of an obedient girl on screen. However, how many people in the entertainment industry were truly pure? At the very least, Dong Xinyu was not.

As long as Li Yao was willing to pay, Dong Xinyu did not mind spending the night with him.

Seeing that they were about to come to an agreement, Feng Jing came to the restaurant and exposed everything, Fang Hongli was furious.

Dong Xinyu also sneered and said, "you have the nerve to take out 100000 Yuan?" Don't you know the rules? We just want to confirm your company's sincerity. If it's a shell company that can't even come up with 100000 Yuan, do you think I'd waste my saliva talking about a cooperation?"

Li Yao leaned back in his chair, looking at Fang Hongli and Dong Xinyu's face with interest.

He laughed and shrugged at Feng Rao. "Miss Feng, it seems like miss Dong has made her choice!"

In fact, Feng Jing had already made her decision, so she didn't show much emotion.

She didn't pay any attention to Li Yao. Instead, she looked at Fang Hongli calmly and said, "If that's the case, please return the 100000 Yuan to us!"

Fang Hongli said coldly, "don't worry!" There's no need for us to be greedy for this 100000 Yuan. However, our company's finance department has to go through the process to approve it. You can go back and wait!"

"How long do you need? can you give me a time limit?" Feng Rao asked.

Fang Hongli said impatiently, "At least 30 working days! Wasn't it just 100000 Yuan? Do you think we're embezzling money?"

"A small company is just a small company. It's full of petty people ..." Dong Xinyu said with disdain.

Xia ruofei was so angry that he laughed out loud. Dong Xinyu was the one in the wrong. She was the one who went back on her words, and in the end, she was still so righteous. Back then, when she wanted the 100000 Yuan, she had to ask the company to transfer it within a day. Now, because of her, the cooperation had been canceled, and the refund had to be done within at least 30 working days. Moreover, Dong Xinyu and Fang Hongli looked at her with disdain. It was not easy for their character to be so bad.

Feng Jing felt guilty. She had inspected so many celebrities and had only chosen one of such quality. She had even dragged Xia ruofei to the capital, so she felt even more guilty.

Without waiting for Feng Jing to reply, Xia ruofei said, "I'll give you three days to return the money. If you don't ..."

"How is it? Bite me!" Dong Xinyu interrupted Xia ruofei with a sneer.

Xia ruofei looked at Dong Xinyu calmly and said, "I'm afraid I'll dirty my mouth if I bite you. Don't worry, if you don't get a refund after three days, you'll be begging to send the money to our company soon. "

"Woof! Your tone isn't small!" Li Yao said jokingly, "those who don't know better might think that your company is opened in ****!"

Xia ruofei didn't even look at Li Yao. He took Feng Jing's hand and said, "President Feng, let's go!"

Dong Xinyu was also stunned by Xia ruofei's words. She only regained her senses after he had pulled Feng Rao away. She was so angry that she spat, "Bah! What kind of person was that! Two country bumpkins from other provinces, acting like they're worth 20000!"

Then, Dong Xinyu said to Fang Hongli, ""Sister Fang, in the future, don't bother with such a small and messy company! If we want to cooperate, we have to find a multinational group like Yafu!"

"You've made a wise decision, miss Dong!" Li Yao laughed.

Dong Xinyu quickly winked at Li Yao and said, ""President li, this company came to us a few days ago. At that time, we didn't know that there was a chance to work with Yafu, so we reluctantly got in touch with them. You won't blame me, right?"

"How can I blame you?" Li Yao laughed. But ... You have to make it up to me tonight ..."

Dong Xinyu said shyly, "boss li is so bad!" How do you want me to compensate you?"

Li Yao's burning eyes swept across Dong Xinyu's body unscrupulously. He stuck out his tongue and licked his upper lips. He chuckled and said, ""You'll know when the time comes!"

Fang Hongli's face was a little embarrassed, but she was secretly relieved. Fortunately, Dong Xinyu had fully utilized her advantage and explained in a soft and coquettish tone, which also removed The Grudge in Li Yao's heart.

Li Yao raised his glass of red wine and said with a smile, ""Miss Dong, miss Fang, I wish us a happy cooperation!"

After the three of them clinked their glasses and took a sip of wine, Li Yao continued, ""By the way, I heard that miss Dong is going to play the second female lead in 'the angel of doom' soon? I still have quite a few friends in the industry. When the time comes, I'll help you call them and let the crew take care of you!"

Dong Xinyu was overjoyed when she heard this. She quickly said, ""Then I'll thank brother li in advance!"

After a while, "boss li" became "brother li", and the change was very natural.

Li Yao laughed and said, "you have to seize the opportunity yourself!" It was easy for her to become famous if she acted in such a big film produced by an international company and played such an important role as the second female lead! The more famous you are, the more effective your endorsement for our company will be!"

"Definitely, definitely!" Dong Xinyu hurriedly said.

"Come, come, come, let's eat, let's eat!" Li Yao said, "Zola's caramelized pudding is quite special. Try it, miss Dong ..."
