Chapter 1101: Green eyes (2)

Those who could sit with elder song in the backyard must be high – ranking leaders or children of the song family. Xia ruofei looked like he was not related to either of them. He was also so young, but the usually serious elder song was so kind to him. Everyone was curious.

After Xia ruofei sat down, elder song smiled and asked, “Xiao Xia, I heard from Xiao Rui ... That you’re in the capital for a business trip?”

Xia ruofei nodded. “Yes, sir. Our company has recently developed a new skin care product. We’re here mainly to find a brand ambassador.”

“Your company actually produces skin care products?” elder song asked curiously. “Aren’t you the main agricultural products?”

Xia ruofei scratched his head in embarrassment and said, “It’s a pure Traditional Chinese Medicine skin care product. I got the prescription by accident and tried to make some for my relatives and friends. It’s very effective, so I thought of a way to mass – produce it ...”

“Oh ... It’s pure Chinese medicine! With an expert like you, the effect will definitely be very good!” Elder song said with a smile.

Those who didn’t know Xia ruofei well were surprised to see elder song so concerned about such a small matter and even asked a few questions. They couldn’t help but look at Xia ruofei a few more times.

Tian Huilan’s eyes lit up when she heard this, and she couldn’t help but ask, “Ruofei, this skin care product you’re talking about, could it be ... Jade skin cream?”

After Xia ruofei had made the jade skin ointment, he had given quite a lot to Tian Huilan and Lu You, so she was very clear about the magical effects of the jade skin ointment. However, she was an elder after all, so she was too embarrassed to ask Xia ruofei for more after she had used up the jade skin ointment.

Xia ruofei smiled. “Auntie Tian, it’s the Jade skin cream. We’ve already found a way to mass produce it. If nothing goes wrong, it should be on the market soon.”

Elder song’s daughter, Song Zhi LAN, had also used the jade skin ointment before. Of course, she had only received one portion, and it was also a gift from Tian Hui LAN.

Song Zhilan’s eyes immediately brightened up after she heard that. She said, “The jade skin cream is finally going to be mass – produced! That’s great ... Little Xia, when can you buy it?”

Eccentric song couldn’t help but laugh, “Xia, it seems that your company’s jade skin cream is really effective! Even Hui LAN and Zhi LAN can’t hold it in anymore ...”

Tian Huilan was a high – Level official, and although song Zhilan didn’t enter politics, she was in charge of the song family’s business. The capital in her hands was easily in the hundreds of millions. The fact that the two of them were so interested in the news of the Jade skin cream showed how attractive this product was.

Xia ruofei touched his nose in embarrassment and said, "I'm still confident in the product's effects. However, we'll still have to wait for the market to test the sales after it's launched!"

Xia ruofei then said to song Zhilan, "Auntie song, the approval process for the jade skin cream was completed by Ma Shan. Now, all the preparation work is going smoothly. It should be available for sale in a month at the latest. However, our early production capacity is limited, so we might not have a lot of stock in Beijing."

"Is that so ..." Song Zhilan said, "it's alright, I'll ask Xiao Rui to buy more for me from the southeast province!"

Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat. He smiled and said, "Aunt Tian, aunt song, I brought some products with me from Beijing this time. I'll ask song Rui to bring some to you tomorrow. You can share them with your relatives and friends. If they're good, help us promote them!"

Although Xia ruofei had given Tian Huilan a lot of jade skin cream and it had been popular for a while, he had not wanted to mass – produce it immediately at that time, so he had only made a small amount.

Now that it was ready for the market on a large scale, he had prepared a lot of hand – made jade skin cream in the spirit map space. One of Feng Jing's sales plans was a hand – made limited – edition jade skin cream, so Xia ruofei had already asked Xia Qing to start making it in the spirit map space to stock up.

Xia ruofei suddenly realized that upper – Class ladies like Tian Huilan and song Zhilan would be very good promoters of the jade skin cream. He was very confident in the efficacy of the jade skin cream. As long as he took out a small amount of jade skin cream, this magical product would become popular in the upper – Class circle first. After a while, when it was on the market, it would have a very good effect.

Even these upper – Class people were flocking to it. This was simply the best advertisement.

"Xia, you've got a good mind for business!" Elder song laughed.

None of the people present were simple people. They understood Xia ruofei's intention after some thought and smiled kindly.

"I'm just a blacksmith," Xia ruofei chuckled. "I'm confident in my product ..."

"That's right!" Elder song agreed. "If the product was not up to standard, even if the publicity was good, the users would not buy it! It's like this in business, and it's the same in politics. "

Elder song's children and the military and political officials all had thoughtful expressions.

Elder song was just sighing and didn't really lecture him. He looked at Xia ruofei and asked, "Oh right, I remember that you've also developed a special medicine for treating autism. How's the progress of that project?"

Chapter 1102: Green eyes (3)

Xia ruofei quickly replied, "it's still in the clinical trial stage. The approval process is relatively complicated. However, everything is going smoothly. It's not far from the official launch ..."

"Very good!" Elder song said, pleased. This was a great thing that would benefit the country and the people! Every year, a large number of children with autism are born in our country. So far, there is no medicine in the world that is effective for treating autism. Your company's development of this medicine is equivalent to filling the gap in the world's medicine! You must do this well. If you have any difficulties, you can directly report to me!"

Xia ruofei's expression turned serious and he said respectfully, "Yes, chief!"

Tian Huilan, who was standing at the side, also looked at Xia ruofei with some emotion. She could empathize with the pain of an autistic family because her sister, Tian Huixin, had encountered such a misfortune. It was also because of Xia ruofei that Huanhuan could walk out of her lonely world and become a cheerful and lively normal child.

Elder song continued to ask about Xia ruofei's company. The more they heard, the more they felt that Xia ruofei was not a simple person. It was not because he had such a big business at such a young age. In fact, Xia ruofei's business was very small in the eyes of everyone in the room. However, it was the first time that they saw elder song care about Xia ruofei's small matters. They were even more shocked.

Elder song usually dealt with major national affairs. It was not an exaggeration to say that the appointment of a Department – Level or even a Deputy – Level leader was not a big deal to elder song. Even though he had retired, his influence was still huge. Perhaps one word from him could determine the direction of a policy.

Now, he was so concerned about a small company in the southeast province. This young man's future was limitless!

Elder song chatted with Xia ruofei for a while and then smiled. "Ruofei, go ahead and find song Rui and the others! It's time to eat in a while! I guess you'll feel uncomfortable with us old men ..."

Xia ruofei was a little embarrassed as he said, "Okay, chief. I'll go down first ..."

"Go!" Elder song waved his hand. When we eat later, you have to drink a few more glasses with me!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said. Then, he greeted the big bosses in the house and left the central room.

In fact, Xia ruofei was not afraid at all. Ever since he had the spirit map space and stepped on the path of cultivation, Xia ruofei's mentality had changed a lot unconsciously. In this room, there were high – ranking officials of the border and leaders of the Ministry. Perhaps ordinary people would feel uncomfortable in the face of their power, but Xia ruofei had always been very calm.

Of course, Xia ruofei was more willing to be with song Rui than with the elders. After all, they had more common topics to talk about.

Xia ruofei walked into the courtyard and heard song Zhilan remind him, "Xia, don't forget about the jade skin cream!"

The sound of everyone's friendly laughter came from the house. Xia ruofei stopped and turned around with a smile. "Don't worry! Auntie song, I'll ask song Rui to get it from the hotel with me!"

After leaving the backyard, Xia ruofei gave song Rui a call. "I'm out. Where are you?"

"Over here in the southern room!" Song Rui said, "just come over! Eat here later!"

Hence, Xia ruofei walked towards the south room. He pushed the door open and realized that the room was huge. It must have connected several rooms in the South.

There were five large round tables in the southern room, and there was a small table behind the table in the middle with a large "longevity" character hanging behind it.

The table closest to the door was already filled with eight or nine people. Song Rui waved at Xia ruofei and called out, "RUO Fei, this way!"

Xia ruofei followed the voice and was stunned when he saw the people at the table.

Song Rui's table was the closest to the door. The people who sat with him were all young people. Some of them looked similar to song Rui and were probably his uncles and sisters. There were also a few who were probably the nephews of the leaders that Xia ruofei had just met.

These young people naturally did not surprise Xia ruofei. He was stunned because he saw Lu You, who was sitting beside song Rui.

Xia ruofei didn't expect to meet Lu You here. However, after thinking about it, he understood that ran ran and Tian Huilan were hoping to become in – laws with song Zhengping. Although they no longer forced Lu You to date song Rui, Tian Huilan would definitely call Lu You over for an occasion like elder song's birthday. This would at least allow Lu You and song Rui to get to know each other better!

Song Rui, who was sitting beside Lu You, felt very uncomfortable. When he saw Xia ruofei enter, his eyes rolled around. He stood up and waved. "RUO Fei, come and sit here!"

He then nudged the young man beside him and said, ""Song Wei, move to the side ..."

There happened to be an empty seat next to this young man called Song Wei. He thought that song Rui wanted to sit with Xia ruofei and hurriedly stood up to move an empty seat to the side. Song Rui was the eldest son of the eldest son and had a lot of prestige among the younger generation.

To Song Wei's surprise, after he gave up his seat, song Rui also moved over and sat on the seat that he had just been sitting on.

This way, there was an empty seat between song Rui and Lu You.

Song Rui smiled and pointed at the seat. ""Ruofei, what are you doing? Come and sit down!"

Xia ruofei glanced at song Rui speechlessly. He knew exactly what song Rui was thinking. However, he did not hesitate or decline. He strode over and sat down.

The young people at the table were all stunned.

What was going on?

Everyone in their circle knew that song Zhengping hoped to be in – laws with Tian Huilan. In their opinion, as long as the elders had this intention, then song Rui and Lu You would definitely get married in the end. Whether the two of them were willing or not, like or not, the result would not change.

It was the same for them. Marriage served the family and politics. It had nothing to do with feelings. They could have eight to ten mistresses outside. They could also indulge in debauchery. Their wives might even have a gigolo outside. However, they had to maintain their relationship on the surface.

Therefore, it was normal for song Rui and Lu You to sit together.

Now, song Rui had given his seat to this 'RUO Fei' who looked a little unfamiliar, and this young man actually did not decline modestly and really sat down. He was stuck between song Rui and Lu You. No matter how one looked at it, the combination of these three people felt strange.

After Xia ruofei sat down, he turned to Lu You and smiled. ""Long time no see! How have you been?"

Lu You took a sip of red wine and said calmly, ""I'm just an ordinary student. All I do every day is do experiments and write papers! It's not as exciting as a Big boss's life!"

The young people at this table couldn't help but widen their eyes, their faces full of disbelief.

After Xia ruofei sat down, he did not speak to song Rui. Instead, he went to chat with Lu You. To everyone, this was an act of openly stealing someone's girlfriend! Song Rui didn't seem to mind. He sat there with a smile and seemed very happy.

In fact, these young people did not know that Xia ruofei and song Rui were so close. There was no need for small talk. On the other hand, it had indeed been a long time since they had contacted Lu You. Before Tian Huilan had gone to the capital, she had even asked him to help take care of Lu You. However, the lazy Xia ruofei had almost never contacted Lu You, so he felt a little uneasy. Moreover, he and Lu You were considered good friends. It was normal for them to exchange a few words after not seeing each other for such a long time.

If Xia ruofei's Public Act of 'stealing' someone's girlfriend had made these young people's jaws drop, then Lu youfei's reaction was even more shocking.

Everyone in the industry knew that Lu You's personality was very cold and she had never been polite to the opposite sex. However, even though Lu You's tone was cold when she spoke to Xia ruofei just now, she had said so much. Moreover, it seemed that the two of them were very familiar with each other. This was really beyond everyone's expectations.

Xia ruofei did not care about the strange looks from the young people. He smiled and said to Lu You, "I have a small business, how can I be considered a Big Boss! Don't make fun of me ..."

Lu You's beautiful eyes revealed a faint smile. She glanced at Xia ruofei and said, "You're much richer than me anyway ..."

Lu You's cold outer shell seemed to have melted in front of Xia ruofei. In fact, after being saved by Xia ruofei at the bar, Lu You's feelings for Xia ruofei were very different from before. After being saved by Xia ruofei, Lu You vomited all over and got drunk. Xia ruofei even helped her change her undergarments. Every time she thought of this man seeing her body, Lu You would always have a strange feeling.

Today, Lu You did not know that Xia ruofei would be attending the birthday banquet as well. Hence, when she saw Xia ruofei walk into the southern room, she could not help but look surprised. However, everyone's attention was on Xia ruofei, so no one noticed.

Seeing that Xia ruofei did not greet anyone after sitting down and was instead chatting enthusiastically with Lu You, the marriage partner of Song Rui, as if no one was around, the young people at the table suddenly felt a little bored.

One of them was a young man with shiny hair and was wearing an Armani shirt. He glanced at Xia ruofei and asked, "Brother, you look a little unfamiliar! Show everyone your name!"

Xia ruofei looked at him indifferently and said with a smile, "I'm Xia ruofei."

"Xia?" The young man mumbled to himself, "I don't think there's any leader with the surname Xia who has been transferred to Beijing recently ... Could he be from the local government? Which province had a leader with the surname Xia? Let's help him think, this brother is quite mysterious!"

Song Rui couldn't help but laugh. He said, "Liu Jian, don't think too much. You won't be able to guess it even if you spend your entire life guessing! RUO Fei's parents are no longer around ..."

The young man named Liu Jian's face couldn't help but change slightly. He said, "Could it be that brother ruofei's grandfather is ..."

Song Rui's words made Liu Jian misunderstand. Since ran ran's parents were no longer around and she was so close to song Rui, she must have a very prominent grandfather's generation.

Coincidentally, there was indeed an old chief with the surname Xia. Before his retirement, his position was slightly lower than elder song, but he was definitely a heavyweight leader. Moreover, this chief Xia really had a son who died of illness in his forties.

Hence, when song Rui said that, Liu Jian immediately thought of chief Xia.

Not only did Liu Jian misunderstand, but many young people at the table also thought that Xia ruofei was chief Xia's grandson. They immediately stopped looking down on him.

Song Rui couldn't help but laugh and said, "You guys ... I'll tell you! RUO Fei doesn't have any relationship with Xia Mingjun's grandfather, so don't make wild guesses. RUO Fei isn't from our circle ..."

"Ah?" Liu Jian couldn't help but cry out.

Song Rui had made it clear that Xia ruofei was not in their circle. He also said that Xia ruofei's parents were no longer alive. It was impossible for her to sit at the same table as them because of her parents' status.

In other words, Xia ruofei might just be a commoner.

However, he was able to attend elder song's birthday banquet, and even the eldest grandson of the song family's third generation, song Rui, was so familiar with him. All of this seemed so unbelievable, but it really happened in front of them.

Liu Jian laughed drily and looked at Xia ruofei. "Bro, don't keep us in suspense. Tell us what you do for a living ... We're all very curious!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "Young master Liu, I was in the military for a few years. After I left the military, I started a small company in the southeast province."

Liu Jian was still listening, but he realized that Xia ruofei had shut up.

"That's all?" asked Liu Jian after being stunned for a moment.

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "that's all ..."

"Alright then!" Liu Jian nodded helplessly. He exchanged glances with the young men beside him and stopped pestering Xia ruofei.

However, they couldn't help but look down on Xia ruofei. Although Xia ruofei looked mysterious, from Liu Jian's probing, they knew that Xia ruofei didn't have any background. Perhaps he had a good relationship with song Rui, so he just happened to be there.

Although it seemed a little unreasonable for song Rui's good friend to attend elder song's birthday banquet, these people didn't think too much about the young scions of the aristocratic families. It had become a habit to compare the status of the other party's family elders when interacting with people. Basically, their status in the circle was proportional to the status of their parents.

Hence, after confirming that Xia ruofei was not the child of some big leader, they lost interest in him.

However, the eyes of a young man in a Tang suit sitting beside Song Wei lit up after hearing Xia ruofei's introduction.

Although he was called a "young man," he still looked a little old with his dark skin and a face full of stubble.

He grinned at Xia ruofei and said forthrightly, "Brother, you've been in the Army before! Then we'll have to drink more later!"

Song Rui said to Xia ruofei, "ruofei, this is Zhao Yongjun, brother Zhao. His father is uncle Zhao Cheng from the capital city's military!" He was a soldier before. "

Zhao Yongjun chuckled. "My father wanted me to take over his career. Unfortunately, I'm not cut out for it. I retired after five years in the military!"

Xia ruofei had always had a good impression of soldiers. In addition, he had treated Zhao Cheng's diabetes before and had even obtained a realm stone from Zhao Cheng's house. Hence, he was naturally closer to Zhao Yongjun than the other young people.

Xia ruofei smiled at Zhao Yongjun and said, "Then I'll have to call brother Zhao old class monitor! I'll definitely give you a few more toasts later!"

"Hahaha! No problem!" Zhao Yongjun said straightforwardly.

Xia ruofei had a close relationship with the song family, but most of the third generation of the song family had not yet reached the core of the family's decision – making circle. Song Rui was the only one who knew about Xia ruofei's relationship with elder song.

As for the younger generation of the leaders outside the song family, it was impossible for them to understand the relationship between Xia ruofei and the song family.

Even Zhao Yongjun didn't know that Xia ruofei had cured his father's diabetes and saved his father's career.

So the young people at this table, including some of the song family's descendants, saw Zhao Yongjun and a grassroots boss chatting so passionately, they all felt a little disapproving.

They were all chatting and their attitude towards Xia ruofei was neither warm nor cold.

These rich men's topics were nothing more than luxury cars, women, and so on. Xia ruofei was not interested in them, so he took a sip of red wine from time to time and chatted with song Rui and Lu You.

Not long after, footsteps were heard. Everyone looked up and saw a group of people escorting elder song into the small banquet hall.

The people who came in were all the elders of this table of young people, and among them was the extremely prominent elder song, so everyone immediately stopped chatting. The other tables were the same, and the banquet hall suddenly became quiet.

The birthday boy, elder song, was in a good mood. He was usually serious, but today, he had a smile on his face. After walking to the main seat, he said, "Thank you, director Zhongyang, for your concern and well wishes. Thank you, director Zhang, for coming personally despite your busy schedule!"

A slightly balding leader at the main table quickly said, "You're too kind, chief. The central government's director and Lin Zhi were supposed to come in person, but you've informed them two months in advance, so they sent me as a representative. I wish the old chief good fortune and longevity!"

Director Zhang was the director of the central government's criminal investigation office, a true Deputy of the national level. He was also the chief butler of the central government. His appearance naturally represented the attitude of the current leadership.

The people of the song family were very excited and proud. As long as elder song was healthy and alive, the song family would definitely be able to prosper. And those leaders who were close to the song family today were naturally even more determined in their stand.

"Director Zhang, you're welcome. Please have a seat!" Elder song said with a smile.

Then, he looked around and said, "Thank you, everyone, for coming to celebrate my birthday with me. Everyone here is family, so don't feel restrained. Just eat and drink well ..."

Elder song's eyes stopped on Xia ruofei. He smiled and said, "Xiao Xia, why did you go to Xiao Rui's table? Come over, come over and sit with us!"

As soon as elder song finished his words, the whole place fell silent. The young people at Xia ruofei's table opened their mouths wide and looked at Xia ruofei in shock. They were all dumbfounded.

Chapter 1105: The absolute main character (1)

Other than song Rui and Lu You, who were familiar with the relationship between Xia ruofei and elder song, the young people at this table looked as if they had seen a ghost.

The other members of the song family who were sitting at the other tables, including some branch families and some leaders who were close to the song family in the capital, did not notice Xia ruofei who was sitting at the younger generation's table. Now that elder song had said this, they all looked in the direction of the voice.

Although many people did not know Xia ruofei, they were very familiar with the younger generation at the table. The only person who was unfamiliar to them was Xia ruofei.

In an instant, Xia ruofei had become the center of attention.

At this time, a dignified middle – aged leader beside elder song also smiled and said, "Little Xia, what are you doing? The chief asked you to come over and sit!"

Liu Jian, who was sitting opposite Xia ruofei, could not help but gasp.

This was because the leader who spoke was none other than Liu Jian's father, Liu Xiangbin. He was the executive Vice Minister of a certain Ministry. He was also qualified to talk to elder song in the central room in the backyard.

Liu Xiangbin had already seen Xia ruofei's position in elder song's heart from the backyard, so he naturally invited Xia ruofei.

However, his intimate words to Xia ruofei made Liu Jian's heart tremble.

Even though Xia ruofei was very calm, he still felt a little uncomfortable under so many people's gazes. He smiled bitterly to himself and stood up. "Chief, I'm fine here, but I don't want to go to your place to join in the fun ..."

After everyone heard Xia ruofei's words, they felt that it was even more unreal. Elder song had personally invited a young man, and he had actually rejected?

What was even more unbelievable was that elder song didn't seem to be offended. He just waved his hand and said, "Hahaha! Whatever you want! Xiao Rui, drink a few more glasses for me and Xiao Xia!"

"Yes, Grandpa!" Song Rui replied respectfully.

In front of elder song, the unruly song Rui was a pure and obedient baby.

At this moment, song Zhengping and Tian Huilan naturally noticed Xia ruofei's strange seating arrangement. They looked at each other and saw a trace of helplessness in each other's eyes.

It seemed that the one – sided love of the parents of both parties did not seem to be able to make song Rui and Lu You call. They could only smile bitterly to themselves.

However, the two ministry leaders would not blame Xia ruofei. Firstly, Xia ruofei had a good relationship with song Rui and Lu You, and they knew that. Secondly, song Rui and Lu You did not see eye to eye with each other. This was the main reason. It did not matter much whether Xia ruofei sat in that position or not.

If it was an ordinary wealthy family, the will of the younger generation would not have much effect on this political marriage, but this matter was a bit special.

Lu You's father had passed away a long time ago, and Tian Huilan had been busy with work most of the time, so she had always felt that she owed her daughter. Although she really hoped to marry into the song family, she couldn't force Lu You too much if she was strongly against it.

On song Rui's side, elder song was more assertive in his children's marriage arrangements. However, for his grandchildren, he was still relatively Democratic, perhaps because of the generational gap. If song Rui firmly disagreed with the marriage, elder song would probably make other considerations. There were many girls from other families of the right age, and they would eventually find someone that song Rui liked.

Of course, they did not know that song Rui had taken a fancy to Song Wei's classmate, Zhuo Yiyi, who came from an ordinary family. Otherwise, they would have tried to stop him. Democracy was always relative. Marriage in a rich family should be based on a match between families of equal social status.

"Youyou," said Tian Huilan with a smile, "you should also give RUO Fei some respect on my behalf."

Lu You's expression was calm. She nodded slightly and said, "I know ..."

Tian Huilan's words made the young people at the table even more dumbfounded. They had originally wanted to watch a show and see how Tian Huilan and song Zhengping would react when they discovered the strange seating arrangement of the three. However, they had never thought that this was possible. Tian Huilan was not angry at all, and song Zhengping, who was beside her, was not surprised at all. Instead, he smiled and nodded.

The popinjays felt that their brains were lacking.

They were getting more and more confused about this young man who had suddenly appeared among them. As they got to know him better, the mystery surrounding Xia ruofei became thicker and thicker.

However, there was no doubt that Xia ruofei was not on the same level as them. Previously, they had thought that it was hard for Xia ruofei to be on the same level as them. Now, it was completely reversed. It turned out that Xia ruofei was really not on the same level as them. He was directly on the same level as their parents ...

Director Zhang of the central office saw this scene. Although he didn't know Xia ruofei's identity, elder song's obvious attitude made him pay more attention to Xia ruofei. At the same time, he decided to go back and find out more about Xia ruofei's situation. After all, a young man who could be so valued by elder song must be extraordinary.

Chapter 1106: The absolute main character (2)

Xia ruofei's incident was just a small interlude. After elder song and the other leaders arrived and took their seats, the birthday banquet began.

The staff served steaming hot and delicious dishes one after another, and everyone at the table began to toast.

However, there were many leaders present today. In addition, there was a mysterious Xia ruofei. Hence, the atmosphere at the younger generation's table was somewhat dull. Everyone was a little cautious.

On the other hand, general Zhao's son, Zhao Yongjun, had a forthright personality. He did not look down on Xia ruofei because of his humble background. After that, he did not fear Xia ruofei like the others because of elder song.

Zhao Yongjun saw that everyone was a little reserved, so he laughed and raised his glass to Xia ruofei. "Brother Xia, let's have a go!"

Song Rui said lazily, "Big brother Zhao, you should really toast to RUO Fei on behalf of uncle Zhao!"

"Xiao Rui, why do you say that?" Zhao Yongjun asked curiously. Could it be that brother Xia has dealt with my dad before?"

The young people at the same table also perked up their ears. They were very curious about Xia ruofei's situation. Even Lu You couldn't help but turn to look at Xia ruofei.

Song Rui smiled evilly and said, "Brother Zhao, I won't lie to you anyway. You should just toast to RUO Fei. As for why, you can ask uncle Zhao when you get back."

Everyone was disappointed. Zhao Yongjun smiled and said, "You little brat, still keeping me in suspense ... But even if you don't say it, I still have to give brother Xia a toast!"

Xia ruofei picked up his glass and stood up. "Brother Zhao, don't listen to song Rui's nonsense. Come, come, let's drink this glass of wine together. It doesn't matter who toasts who, let's just consider it a mutual toast!"

"Yes, yes, yes! Mutual respect! Respect each other!" Zhao Yongjun laughed out loud.

The two of them were separated by song Rui and Song Wei. After they clinked their glasses, they raised their heads and drank the white wine in their glasses.

Zhao Yongjun wiped his mouth and said, "those who used to be soldiers drink so quickly!" Brother Xia, I'll be your friend! Don't forget to contact me when you come to Beijing in the future!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "as long as brother Zhao has wine, I will definitely come to the capital to harass you every time!"

"Hahaha! Enough of the Maotai!" Zhao Yongjun laughed.

After Zhao Yongjun started, the young people at the table started to relax. Liu Jian, who had been a little rude to Xia ruofei, walked over with a glass of wine and said, "Brother Xia, I apologize for my offense just now. Here's a toast to you. I'll drink it, and you can do whatever you want!"

Xia ruofei's personality had always been more easy – going. Liu Jian and the others had just been giving him the cold shoulder. They did not bully him. Now that they had taken the initiative to lower their stance, he naturally would not put on airs.

Xia ruofei also picked up his glass and stood up. After clinking glasses with Liu Jian, he said, "Young master Liu, you're too kind. We're all young people. It'll be boring if we talk and do things like old men!"

"Brother Xia, please don't call me young master Liu!" Liu Jian quickly said. I don't deserve it! You can call me Xiaojian, that's what brother Rui and the others call me ..."

"Alright, Jian, let's have a go!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Then, he raised his head and finished a small glass of white wine.

Young people cared about their reputation the most. Although Liu Jian had lowered his attitude and asked Xia ruofei to do as he pleased, he still felt honored that Xia ruofei had finished his drink. After all, Xia ruofei was someone that even elder song valued. He was the only one of his generation!

“Brother Xia, I should be the one to drink first!” Liu Jian quickly said.

After saying that, he hurriedly drank the glass of wine, then immediately poured another glass and said, “I’ll add another cup!”

Then, as if he was afraid that Xia ruofei would stop him, he drank it in one gulp without a second word.

Xia ruofei smiled and patted Liu Jian’s shoulder. “Don’t drink the wine too quickly, have some food to calm it down!”

Maotai, which was at more than 50% alcohol, was quite strong. Liu Jian downed two glasses in a row and felt the smell of alcohol. He smiled gratefully at Xia ruofei and returned to his seat to eat a few mouthfuls of food.

Seeing that Xia ruofei was so approachable, the other young people at the table also became lively and came to propose a toast one by one.

Xia ruofei’s alcohol tolerance was already shocking, and after his cultivation, it became even more amazing. He could probably drink a few catties of this white wine without a problem, and it did not matter if it was a two – pound cup. Therefore, no matter who came to propose a toast, he would finish it in one gulp and feel very refreshed.

In the eyes of these rich men, alcohol tolerance represented character. Xia ruofei’s forthright drinking style had won their favor.

Song Rui was supposed to be the star of this table, but Xia ruofei had stolen all the limelight. However, he did not care at all. Instead, he watched happily as Xia ruofei dealt with the rich kids one after another.

After Xia ruofei finally dealt with this group of people, he was about to take a break when Lu You, who was beside him, joined in the fun and raised her cup at Xia ruofei.””I’ll also give you a toast. ”

Xia ruofei put down the chopsticks he had just picked up and picked up the cup without a second word.””A toast from a beauty, I must drink this cup!”

Song Rui jeered,”ruofei, change to a bigger one!” This small cup is too insincere!”

The good – for – nothings didn’t understand the situation between the three of them, so they didn’t join in the fun. However, they all turned their attention to this side with great interest.

Chapter 1107: The absolute main character (3)

"No problem!" Xia ruofei chuckled."I'll have a big one!"

There were also glasses of red wine on the table. One glass was about two taels. Xia ruofei took the bottle and filled the glass without hesitation.

Lu You hesitated for a moment."Don't drink so much," she said."Just a small cup will do!"

The rich kids' gazes suddenly became strange. Miss Lu actually cared about someone, and it was in front of young master Song. This scene was too strange ...

Xia ruofei smiled and said,""I'm fine! I can still drink a glass of wine! Lu You, a toast to you!"

After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei took the initiative to clink his glass with Lu You's. Then, he finished the large glass of white wine in a few gulps and showed the bottom of the glass to Lu You.

Seeing that Xia ruofei did not listen to her, Lu You could not help but glare at Xia ruofei. There was a hint of coquettishness in her eyes, which made the rich Playboys' jaws drop. The fire of gossip in their hearts grew stronger and stronger ...

However, since Xia ruofei had already drunk it, Lu You had nothing more to say. She could only drink the wine in her glass.

She was drinking red wine, and after drinking half a glass, her pink face had a hint of red, making her look even more beautiful.

Lu You picked up a small towel and wiped her mouth elegantly. Then, she leaned towards Xia ruofei and asked softly,""Have you ever helped uncle Zhao Cheng with anything?"

Lu You was also very curious about what song Rui had just said. Although she could feel that the rich Playboys at the same table were looking at her and Xia ruofei with a flirtatious gaze, she could not help but ask.

Xia ruofei also leaned closer and whispered with a smile,""Why don't you guess!"

Lu You couldn't help but glance at Xia ruofei and said,""Do you think I won't be able to guess if you don't tell me? Although you're a little bad, your medical skills are not bad. You've probably treated uncle Zhao, right?"

Seeing that Xia ruofei was smiling but not saying anything, Lu You couldn't help but say in a low voice,""The only thing you can show off is your medical skills and your company's Taoyuan vegetables. It can't be that you gave uncle Zhao a basket of vegetables, right?"

When she said this, Lu You couldn't help but burst out laughing. The usually cold young miss Lu had such a charming smile on her face, which made the other rich kids at the same table widen their eyes.

Even though they had witnessed too much of Xia ruofei's incredulity today and their minds were numb, they could not help but exclaim "F * ck" in their hearts when they saw this scene.

Liu Jian and the others also had a sense of respect for Xia ruofei. Brother Xia was really a super awesome person! In front of so many people from the third generation of the song family, he openly poached song Rui's woman. It was really too fierce!

Lu You also felt the ambiguous look in everyone's eyes. She couldn't help but blush and asked in a low voice, "Is it true or not? Say something!"

Xia ruofei nodded and said in a low voice, "You're smart. The last time you came to the capital, you were just in time to help treat general Zhao Cheng's diabetes. I'm afraid of trouble ..."

"I'm not a child, do you think I'm that stupid?" Lu You said.

Lu You sat up straight in satisfaction after she got the answer. However, the way she and Xia ruofei had leaned in and whispered to each other had already fallen into the eyes of these young fops. Even the people at the other tables had seen it.

Although Xia ruofei wanted to keep a low profile, he had become the center of attention time and time again. He could only smile bitterly in his heart.

Chapter 1108: old but vigorous (1)

Everyone ate and chatted. After a while, the song family members from the other tables went to the main table to propose a toast to elder song.

Song Rui smiled at Xia ruofei and said, "Ruofei, why don't you take everyone to propose a toast! The host table's aura is too strong, we can't even hold it when we go alone!"

Liu Jian and the others nodded like chickens pecking at rice. The people sitting at the main table were all their elders, as well as a "divine beast" level chief like elder song, director Zhang of the central Criminal Investigation Department, and others. These usually fearless Playboys didn't even dare to breathe loudly in front of them. Therefore, in the past, they would always "group up" to toast at such occasions.

Song Rui was supposed to be the 'leader', but now that he suggested that Xia ruofei bring them there, they didn't think it was unreasonable. Instead, they felt that it was very appropriate.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and nodded. "It's good to go over and offer a toast. "

Everyone waited for a while and saw an opening. Xia ruofei stood up and led them to the main table. Even the cold Lu You was no exception. She held her wine glass and followed Xia ruofei.

This group of people was a big target and immediately attracted everyone's attention.

Xia ruofei walked over quickly and said with a smile, "Chief, let's toast to you. We wish you good health and a long life!"

Eccentric song laughed and joked, "Little Xia is quite qualified to be the 'table leader'! I need to be praised!"

The leaders at the main table also let out kind laughter.

Xia ruofei took the lead, and the other young people also came over to say a few auspicious words. Elder song was in a good mood. He smiled and nodded his head to thank them, then drank a glass of wine with them.

Then, Xia ruofei led everyone to toast to the other leaders at the main table.

At the level of these leaders, it was natural for them to make toasts one by one. However, they were all the elders of these young people's families, and today's main character, elder song, had already made a private toast. So, other than director Zhang, who represented the central Scout Academy to celebrate elder song's birthday, the rest of the leaders made a toast together.

In front of their own juniors and the leader was the amazing young man, Xia ruofei, these leaders naturally did not put on any airs and everyone had a drink together.

General Zhao chuckled and said to Xia ruofei, ""Xiao Xia, don't rush back this time. Let Yongjun show you around the capital!"

Zhao Yongjun knew that song Rui was not lying. Xia ruofei had a deep relationship with his father. He was even more curious, but he could not ask in front of so many people. He could only keep it in his heart and ask his father when he got home.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "general Zhao, I came to the capital city for the company's matters. I'll have to rush back after I'm done. Our new product will be launched soon. There's a lot of work to do!"

"Xiao Xia," Zhao Cheng said with a smile. "You call director Tian 'Auntie' and Secretary song 'uncle'. Do you have to treat me like an outsider and call me general Zhao?"

The last time Xia ruofei had treated Zhao Cheng, he had called him general Zhao. Zhao Cheng had thought that Xia ruofei was only a highly skilled Traditional Chinese Medicine practitioner, so he had called him "doctor Xia". Today, he had found out that Xia ruofei had a close relationship with the song family, so he had naturally grown closer to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment. He smiled and said, ""Then I'll call you uncle Zhao!"

Zhao Cheng laughed and said, "that's right!" RUO Fei! The company's matters can be handled by the people below. You're the boss, so what's the problem with going back a few days later? It's rare for you to come to the capital, so let Yongjun play with you for a few days!"

Seeing Zhao Cheng's enthusiasm, Xia ruofei could only nod and say, ""Alright, thank you, uncle Zhao!"

Tian Huilan reminded him with a smile, "Jaded skin cream!"

"Yes, jaded skin cream!" Zhao Cheng slapped his thigh and said, "get me some of it too. It's time for my husband to take good care of himself ... Also, the Drunken Eight Immortals wine you sent me last time ... I can't even taste Maotai after drinking it! Send me more when you're free!"

Xia ruofei's heart warmed. He immediately said, ""No problem, uncle Zhao. I'll give the jaded skin cream to brother Zhao tomorrow. As for the wine ... I'll mail it to you after I return to the three mountains!"

With Zhao Cheng's status, how could he not have any skincare products and white wine? Moreover, the Drunken Eight Immortals was currently being sold all over the country. Even if there weren't many of them in the capital, how could Zhao Cheng not be able to buy them if he really wanted to? Xia ruofei knew that Zhao Cheng was helping him promote and at the same time, expressing his gratitude. He was very grateful.

Sure enough, after the other leaders at the table heard Zhao Cheng's words, they couldn't help but look at Xia ruofei.

Zhao Cheng was a high – ranking military officer and had a high status among the leaders who were close to the song family. Since he treated Xia ruofei differently, Xia ruofei's importance in the hearts of the other leaders increased.

After the toasts, they returned to their seats. Liu Jian and the other Playboys were even more impressed with Xia ruofei.

Just now, when they went to the main table to toast, they were all like obedient babies, not even daring to breathe loudly. Only Xia ruofei was still very calm. He even spoke with confidence like the god of death, general Zhao. This group of young people was just short of worshipping Him.

Chapter 1109: old but vigorous (2)

After she returned to her seat, Lu You came over and asked in a low voice, ""Is the jade skin ointment ready for mass production?"

"Yup!" Xia ruofei took a sip of his juice and said, "everyone said that it was effective, so we're ready to put it on the market."

Lu You said, "I also want a few portions of jade skin ointment!" Even general Zhao's wife has a share ..."

Xia ruofei laughed. "I'll get some for Auntie Tian tomorrow. Why don't you ask your mother for it?"

Lu You's nose wrinkled cutely and she said, ""That's different! That's for my mom, not for me ..."

"Alright, alright, alright!" Xia ruofei forced a smile and said, "as long as you don't find it troublesome, I'll contact you tomorrow!"

"It's a deal!" The corners of Lu You's mouth curled up into a beautiful arc.

Liu Jian and the rest were already used to Xia ruofei and Lu You's whispers, so they were not surprised. However, their gazes were still ambiguous.

After three rounds of drinks, the birthday banquet was coming to an end. After all, elder song was 85 years old, and his rest time was very regular.

In the end, elder song gave a few simple words and the birthday banquet officially ended.

The guests took their leave one after another, and some of the song family's descendants who lived outside also respectfully said their goodbyes to elder song. In fact, many of the song family's descendants who worked in the capital had bought real estate outside. After all, living in the old house meant that they did not have freedom.

To Xia ruofei's surprise, song Rui's father, song Zhengping, also bade farewell to elder song and took a car to the airport.

Song Zhengping was now the head of the Xiang Nan Province. He was busier than when he was the provincial judge. This time, he came and went on the same day, even in a hurry to celebrate his father's birthday.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel emotional.

Xia ruofei also noticed that no one had given him any gifts. Perhaps this was elder song's rule.

Xia ruofei did not have the chance to take out the gift he had prepared in the backyard before the birthday banquet started. If he gave it now, it would be even more conspicuous, so Xia ruofei could only wait.

Even Lu You had gone home with Tian Huilan, but Xia ruofei had not left.

Song Rui was staying here, so he was not in a hurry. He sat down and chatted with Xia ruofei.

After a while, most of the guests had left. Xia ruofei saw elder song walking over and quickly stood up.

"Xia, we have a lot of guests today," elder song said with a smile. "I didn't manage to serve you well!"

Although it was a family banquet, it was difficult for someone at elder song's level to control the birthday banquet to only be attended by family members. Moreover, even if only the song family members were attending, if even the branch family members were present, there would probably be more people than tonight.

Xia ruofei quickly replied, "you're too kind, Sir. I'm getting along well with song Rui and the rest. We're all young people. We have common topics."

Eccentric song nodded with a smile, "Let's stay here tonight! I'll get the staff to arrange a guest room for you."

Xia ruofei said, "no, No, sir. I'll go back to the hotel later. I'm staying here because I thought that since I'm already here, I should check your body."

Elder song patted Xia ruofei on the shoulder and said, "Good, good, good, child, you're so thoughtful ... Let's go! Let's go to the backyard ..."

Elder song brought Xia ruofei back to the backyard. Elder song's daughter, song Zhilan, and song Rui were with them.

Song Zhilan was in charge of managing the song family's business and spent most of her time in the capital. She had her own villa outside, but today was her father's birthday, so she decided to stay the night at the old house.

Xia ruofei's medical skills were no longer the same as before, and he even had the help of his spiritual power. Hence, the pulse check was not just for show.

After a round of inspection, Xia ruofei revealed a gratified expression and said, "Chief, you've been maintaining your health very well. Your qi and blood flow are very energetic, and you don't have any of the chronic diseases that are common for the elderly."

Hearing this, eccentric song laughed in relief. "This is all to your credit, miracle doctor Xia! Every day I live is a profit ..."

Back then, elder song had been diagnosed with terminal cancer and was on the verge of death. It was Xia ruofei who had saved him from the gates of hell.

With such a serious illness, the old man's body had naturally suffered great damage. Later, he went to Gu Ling courtyard to rest and recuperate for a long time. It was also Xia ruofei who sent him the diluted petal solution of the spirit Heart Flower regularly that slowly recuperated his body to its best state.

Elder song was already 85 years old, but he was in good health. He was around 60 or 70 years old. For an old man who had been diagnosed with late – Stage cancer, this was a miracle.

"Chief, as long as you recuperate properly, you'll be able to live past a hundred years!" Xia ruofei smiled.

"Hahaha! Then I'll have to borrow your auspicious words!"

After hearing Xia ruofei's words, song Zhilan was overjoyed. Elder song was the pillar of support for the family. As long as elder song lived, the song family would prosper. The longer elder song lived, the longer the song family would prosper. If elder song could really live to a hundred years old, song Zhengping and the others would be the new pillars of the song family.

Of course, if it was someone else who said this, elder song and song Zhilan would at most take it as a lucky word. However, Xia ruofei was different. His medical skills had long won the admiration of elder song and song Zhilan. In the field of Traditional Chinese medicine and health maintenance, they naturally believed Xia ruofei's words without a doubt.

Xia ruofei continued to tell elder song about the things to take note of in health.

"Chief, I saw that you've planted a lot of vegetables in your backyard during the day." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "proper exercise is good for the body!"

"Xiao Xia, what do you think of my skill?" elder song laughed and asked.

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment. "You've taken good care of the vegetable field. I can tell that you're an expert!"

"When I was young, I herded cows, chopped wood, and planted crops ... I've done all kinds of things. Although I haven't planted vegetables for many years, I still have the skills!" Elder song said proudly.

"That's right, that's right, old but vigorous, old but strong!" Xia ruofei jokingly said, "Oh right, chief, I'll send you some seeds of our paradise vegetables when I get back. You can improve the species!"

Elder song, who had eaten the vegetables in Taoyuan before, couldn't help but be invigorated when he heard this. He immediately asked, "Little Xia, can those seeds of yours grow such beautiful and delicious vegetables in my place?"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "Theoretically, there should be no problem. Our seeds have also been successfully planted in Australia."

"Good, good, good!" Eccentric song was overjoyed and said, "prepare more seeds for me!" I'll plant some Taoyuan vegetables to improve everyone's meals ..."

Song Zhilan was previously quite opposed to her father growing vegetables in the backyard of his house. She felt that it was somewhat disgraceful for the leader and director of the former country's Chu family to roll up his sleeves and become an old farmer.

However, now that Xia ruofei had said that it was good for old master's health, song Zhilan couldn't say anything more. However, when she saw the old and the young talking about growing vegetables, she couldn't help but smile bitterly.

However, when elder song was recuperating in Gu Ling courtyard, Song Zhi LAN also ate some Taoyuan vegetables when she went to visit him.

Even song Zhilan, who had lived like a Prince, had a very deep impression of the peach Garden vegetables, which were first class in appearance and taste.

So now that she heard that her father was going to try to grow Peach Garden vegetables in the backyard, song Zhilan's heart was faintly filled with anticipation.

"No problem! I'll give the vegetable seeds to song Rui!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Then, Xia ruofei got to the main point. He took out the box containing the spirit – gathering Jade Guanyin from his bag and said, "Chief, I've prepared a birthday gift for you, but I didn't dare to take it out because no one gave it to me at the banquet just now ..."

Chapter 1110: Could it be a magic tool (1)

Song Rui accompanied them after serving tea. He was shocked when he saw Xia ruofei take out a birthday gift – it was an old rule for elder song not to accept gifts on his birthday. Even song Zhengping and his siblings came empty – handed today.

Song Rui quickly said, "ruofei, Didn't I tell you?" Grandfather doesn't accept birthday gifts!"

Song Rui was also a little nervous. He was afraid that elder song would be angry and even blame him for not explaining things clearly to Xia ruofei, so he sounded a little anxious.

However, elder song was still smiling. He looked at the gift box in Xia ruofei's hand and said to song Rui, "Xiao Rui, Xiao Xia's gift is a token of her sincerity. Even if we don't accept it, you can't be so anxious!"

Song Rui looked embarrassed. He scratched his head and laughed. "Grandpa, I ... Hehe, RUO Fei doesn't know about the rules you set. Don't be angry!"

Song Rui did not emphasize elder song's rules to Xia ruofei. He only said that the old man did not accept gifts, so Xia ruofei did not expect song Rui to have such a big reaction. He was also a little confused.

There was a smile in elder song's eyes as he explained to Xia ruofei, "Little Xia, I've set a rule many years ago, and that is to never accept gifts on my birthday. At that time, I was also worried that improper conduct would spread, so even Zhengping, Zhilan, and the others wouldn't allow me to give them. So, this rule has been preserved for so many years."

Xia ruofei was enlightened and he couldn't help but feel respect for elder song.

"So that's how it is!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "chief, you're overdoing it! For example, I'm just sincerely expressing my blessings today, and I don't have any utilitarian heart!"

Song Rui and song Zhilan couldn't help but secretly click their tongues. They dared to say that he was overdoing it in front of the old man. No one had the guts to do that! Even though elder song had retired, he was still very powerful. Even a high official like song Zhengping didn't dare to be so bold in front of his father!

What made song Rui and song Zhilan jealous was that elder song didn't get angry after hearing Xia ruofei's words. Instead, he laughed.

"Little Xia, rules are rules. Don't tell me that Zhengping and Zhilan's birthday gifts to me would be mixed with a utilitarian heart? That's impossible! But I have to settle this with a bowl of water! Otherwise, if the rules are flexible, then they can't be called rules!" Elder song said with a smile.

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and smiled slyly. "Chief, if you put it that way ... Then what I'm giving you today isn't a birthday gift! It's just a small token of my appreciation for coming to the capital to visit my elders. Of course, it's your birthday today, so it's easy to cause misunderstandings. I'll send it over tomorrow!"

Elder song was stunned for a moment, then he laughed and pointed at Xia ruofei. "You little rascal ... Alright, alright, I'll make an exception for you today! However, I won't accept the gift if it's not good! Hahaha ..."

Song Zhi LAN and song Rui couldn't help but open their mouths wide, their eyes revealing a look of shock.

They didn't expect elder song to make an exception. At first, they thought that even though elder song valued Xia ruofei, he wouldn't be angry at Xia ruofei's gift. They didn't expect elder song to break the rule that he had set himself and accept the birthday gift for the first time in more than ten years.

Song Lao looked at song Zhilan and song Rui and said, "Today is a special case. Don't spread it when you go out, understand?"

Song Zhilan and song Rui couldn't help but look at Xia ruofei with jealousy. Then, they quickly nodded in agreement.

"Little Xia, open the birthday gift you brought!" Elder song chuckled and said, "I'm also very curious about what kind of gift you, a young Divine Doctor, will prepare for me!"

"Yes, chief!" Xia ruofei said as he opened the gift box and placed it aside.

The spirit – gathering Jade Guanyin in the box appeared in front of everyone.

Song Zhilan and song Rui also stretched their necks to look over. After seeing this Jade Guanyin, song Zhilan couldn't help but feel a little disappointed.

She had thought that Xia ruofei would give elder song some expensive Chinese medicine or tonics. After all, Xia ruofei's medical skills were so amazing. The most suitable gift for elder song was from the perspective of health.

Although this Jade Guanyin looked expensive, it was nothing in the eyes of a lady from a wealthy family like Song Zhi LAN.

Her eyes were not bad. She could tell at a glance that the Jade Guanyin was made of glass. However, the colorless Jade was far from the top grade. In fact, even the best King's Green could only meet her eyes.

Eccentric song revealed a trace of fondness.

Elder song's judgment was naturally different from song Zhilan and song Rui. Song Zhilan was used to judging the value from the perspective of a businessman, while elder song valued Xia ruofei's sincerity more.

Moreover, elder song could tell that the carving of the Jade Guanyin was extraordinary.

He laughed and said, "little Xia, the carving of this jade pendant is very good!" It gives off a natural feeling!"

"Chief, you're too kind ..." Xia ruofei chuckled.

"What?" Eccentric song's eyebrows shot up.

He was praising the carving of the Jade Guanyin, could it be ...

As expected, Xia ruofei continued with a smile, "This Jade Guanyin was personally carved by me because I feel that only things that are personally made can express my sincerity!"
