

Chapter 111: The strong Wu Liqian (1)

Deng Ming, who had an unforgiving look on his face, immediately frowned when he heard this. The look in his eyes as he looked at Wu Liqian became complicated, and his mind was spinning rapidly. He had indeed invested a few million Yuan in a project in Changping County a few days ago. Wu Liqian's words carried a faint threat, and Deng Ming immediately became vigilant. Could it be that she really dared to cause trouble for my project? Deng Ming said in his heart. He quickly analyzed the situation and was very depressed to find that Wu Liqian seemed to really have the confidence. Behind her stood Tian Huilan, a member of the Standing Committee of the Provincial Party Committee and the leader of the three mountains, while his father was only a Deputy Mayor who was ranked at the bottom. If Wu Liqian really wanted to stand up for him, his father, the Deputy Mayor, might not be able to do anything. A county official was not as good as the current one. No matter how powerful Deputy Mayor Deng was, he couldn't directly interfere with the Deputy County Head of Changping County, especially when the Deputy County Head had such a terrifying background. After weighing the pros and cons, the expression on Deng Ming's face changed again and again. In the end, he said with great unwillingness, "County Head Wu, since you've stepped in, I'll give you face. Let's end this matter here!" Wu Liqian finally smiled and said, "Thank you, Xiao Deng." Deng Ming looked at Xia ruofei and the rest with a dark expression, then said to his scoundrel friends, "Let's go!" Wu Liqian pondered for a moment and said, "Xiao Deng, wait a minute. Let's talk in private." "Do you have any other instructions, Mayor Wu?" Deng Ming asked, frowning. Obviously, he was very dissatisfied with Wu Liqian's use of his project in Changping County as a threat. Wu Liqian smiled and motioned for Deng Ming to follow her. When they arrived at a place where no one was around, Wu Liqian said in a low voice, "Xiao Deng, I really hope that today's matter will end here. You know what I mean." "County Head Wu, isn't that all?" Deng Ming asked. I've already followed your instructions and endured being slapped in the face. What else do you want?" When he spoke, the hatred in his eyes was obvious. Wu Liqian knew that a pampered man like him would definitely use all kinds of means to deal with Xia ruofei. He would also make it so that no one could find any evidence that he was the one who did it. The reason why she called Deng Ming to the side was to help Xia ruofei solve the problem. Therefore, Wu Liqian said to Deng Ming with a meaningful tone, "If that's the case, that's naturally the best. Xiao Deng, I just wanted to give you a reminder. There's no other meaning. By the way ... Secretary Tian also admires RUO Fei very much. There are some things that you have to consider carefully before doing." Deng Ming's eyes narrowed slightly when he heard Wu Liqian's words. Wu Liqian didn't do much. She patted Deng Ming's shoulder and walked toward Xia ruofei. Deng Ming stood in a daze for a moment before he called his friends to return to the private room. Xia ruofei smiled and said to Wu Liqian, "Sis Wu, thank you for helping me out!" "It's nothing," Wu Liqian said with a smile. By the way, this Deng Ming is the son of the government's Deputy Mayor Deng. He's a bit extreme, so if he comes looking for trouble with you again in the future, you must tell me, and I'll help you to coordinate." "Alright! Thank you so much, sis Wu!" Xia ruofei said. "Mm! I still have a few old colleagues over there, so I'll go back first." Wu Liqian said with a smile. Wu Liqian did not hesitate to help Xia ruofei today, even if it might offend Deputy – Mayor Deng. She was very clear about Xia ruofei's position in the Tian family. On this trip back to the three mountains, Wu Liqian had also gone to Tian Huilan to report her work. Tian Huilan had also mentioned that Xia ruofei was running a farm in Changping County. Although she had not explicitly instructed Wu Liqian to take care of him, her meaning was clear. Based on Wu Liqian's understanding of Tian Huilan, Xia ruofei's position in her heart was definitely not a small one. As Tian Huilan's most trusted subordinate, Wu Liqian naturally had to support Xia ruofei. After Wu Liqian left, Xia ruofei said to pang Hao, "Little fatty, I'm leaving too. You tell Yuan Lili and the others." "Ah? You're leaving just like that?" Pang Hao said in surprise, "they're still waiting to offer you a toast!" Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. "I can't drink anymore ... Please help me apologize to Yuan Lili. Tell her that I have something to do. I'll go back first." By the way, you have my number. We'll contact each other later!" "Alright then ..." Pang Hao said, "ruofei, thank you for today!" "We're brothers, no need to be so polite!" Xia ruofei patted pang Hao's shoulder and said. "Lingyun, let's go," he said to ye Lingyun. "Yes! Instructor Xia!" Ye linyun replied. The two of them walked side by side toward the elevator, while pang Hao returned to the private room. In Deng Ming's private room, his gang of scoundrels were adding fuel to the fire with one sentence after another. "Young master Deng! Today's matter is too depressing!" "Yup! We can't just let it go like this ..." "Who's that kid? How arrogant!" "I'll ask Ah Biao to bring a few people to deal with him!" Deng Ming was a little annoyed by the People's words. He waved his hand and frowned. "Alright, alright, let me think about it!" "Young master Deng, you're not going to just take this lying down, are you? What did that female County Head say to you to make you so afraid?" "She said that the kid is very close to Secretary Tian ... But I think she's probably bluffing!" Deng Ming said after taking a deep puff of his cigarette. "Absolutely! I've never heard of him in Sanshan city. How could he know Secretary Tian?" "She's using the Tiger's skin as a banner! Young master Deng. " "I think so too!" Deng Ming nodded. Ah Hua, find someone to investigate this kid's background and find out who he is!" "Alright!" Ah Hua grinned. Deng Ming threw the cigarette butt on the ground and stomped on it, "He better have some background, otherwise ... I'll definitely teach him an unforgettable lesson!" Xia ruofei and ye Lingyun walked out of the West River Moon Club side by side and arrived at the parking lot outside the third workshop and Seventh Street. "You didn't drink, right?" Xia ruofei asked. "No, I didn't!" "Alright then, you drive!" Xia ruofei said as he threw the car keys to ye Lingyun. "Yes!" Ye Lingyun didn't say much and didn't ask where Xia ruofei was going. He just took the keys and started the pickup. Xia ruofei set the navigation route back to Taoyuan farm on his phone and clipped his phone on the stand above the central console. Ye Lingyun nodded in understanding and drove the pickup truck forward according to the navigation. Xia ruofei passed another cigarette to ye Lingyun and took one for himself. The two of them smoked without saying a word and the car was silent. Xia ruofei stubbed out his cigarette in the ashtray when the car was on the highway. He asked, "Ling Yun, tell me, why did you suddenly retire from the military when you were doing well? And you've even become someone's personal bodyguard. This isn't your style!"

Chapter 112: The head of security is in place (1)

"Instructor Xia, I'm sorry to have disappointed you ..." Ye Lingyun said in a low voice. "That's nothing. Didn't I leave the Army myself? What right do I have to criticize you?" Xia ruofei laughed at himself and said, "and I believe you must have your own difficulties." Xia ruofei knew very well that ye Lingyun was born to be a Special Forces soldier. From a local youth to a qualified Special Forces soldier, it only took him six months. In less than two years, he had grown into the backbone of the Special Forces. His natural sensitivity to the Special Forces and his love for the Army were unquestionable. As ye Lingyun drove, he revealed a reminiscing expression and told Xia ruofei about his retirement. It turned out that ye Lingyun was planning to stay in the team this year. The Special Forces needed a backbone like him. Even if there was only one sergeant transfer quota this year, they would definitely give him one. However, just as ye Lingyun was training hard for the officer promotion examination, his father was found to have late – Stage dystocia. Ye Lingyun was the only son in the family, and his mother passed away from lung cancer when he was born. For many years, his father did not remarry and raised him alone. Since ancient times, loyalty and filial piety could not be both at once. Ye Lingyun's family savings were quickly used up. Although his comrades from the Special Forces also organized donations and even the leaders of the Army Group personally sent him some money, cancer treatment was like a bottomless pit. The money was not enough at all. The most important thing was that there was no one to take care of his seriously ill father. After an intense mental struggle, ye Lingyun, as the only son in his family, finally decided to apply for retirement. He wanted to bid farewell to his beloved Green Army uniform and the Green Army camp that was a straight line plus a square. He knew about his family's special circumstances and the Army's Special Affairs. It was not time for him to leave the Army yet, but he was allowed to leave in advance. Ye Lingyun did his best to take care of his seriously ill father when he got home. Even if his father wanted to give up on treatment after knowing his condition, ye Lingyun would not allow it. He had spent all his retirement allowance and sold everything in his family. He also had a huge debt. In the end, ye Lingyun couldn't save his father. Not long ago, his father had left. After burying his father, ye Lingyun took a train to the South and arrived at Sanshan city. He hoped to earn money as soon as possible to pay off the hundred thousand Yuan He borrowed from his relatives and friends. However, he had been in the Army for more than four years, and all he had learned was killing. He didn't have a college degree, so he was rejected time and time again. Fortunately, he was quite lucky. When he went to Deng Ming's company to apply for a security guard job, he was recruited as a private bodyguard by Deng Ming due to his good skills. His monthly salary was 20000 Yuan. He had only worked for a week, but because of today's incident, he was directly kicked out of the house by Deng Ming. After ye linyun finished, he continued,""Instructor Xia, your comrades already know that you're sick. At that time, everyone was discussing how to find time to visit you at the military general Hospital! I didn't expect you to leave the Army so soon ... Oh right, your illness ... How's the situation?" Xia ruofei smiled."I've tried Chinese medicine after I came back. It's quite effective. There shouldn't be any major problems." "Oh, really? That's great!" Ye Lingyun, who always had a cold face, couldn't help but show a happy expression. "Ling Yun, what are your plans for the future?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile. "I haven't thought about it yet, I'll just take it one step at a time!" Ye Lingyun said,"I owe 140 to 150 thousand Yuan for my father's treatment. I'll definitely find a job and work hard to earn money first. I'll think about other things after I pay off the money." Xia ruofei nodded and said,"hmm...Work for me!" We brothers – in – arms know each other very well, it's better than being bodyguards for a private boss!" "Instructor Xia, you ..." Ye Lingyun was a little surprised. After all, Xia ruofei had just retired from the military for a few months and was so seriously ill. It was probably a problem for him to support himself! Xia ruofei smiled."I started my own business after I retired from the military. I have my own farm now. If you don't mind, you can come and work with me." "Of course I'm willing to!" Ye Lingyun said, then hesitated before continuing,"but instructor Xia, I don't know anything other than what I learned in the Army! With your skills, you don't need me to be your bodyguard ..." "I don't need it, but the company does!" Xia ruofei laughed. You'll be fully responsible for the company's security in the future! I'll give you a monthly salary of 20000 Yuan! Is there a problem?" Ye Lingyun subconsciously puffed out his chest and said,""No problem, instructor!" "But ... 20000 a month is too high ..." He hesitated. "What's so high about 20000 Yuan a month for our Special Forces elites?" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said,"the company is still in its infancy. I'll give you a raise when it's developed well. The head of security at paradise Corporation should at least have an annual salary of a million!" "No need, instructor Xia. Twenty thousand a month is already a lot ..." Ye Lingyun chuckled. As the two of them spoke, ye Lingyun had already driven to the holiday villa in Changping County according to the navigation. Looking at the construction site that was in full swing, ye Lingyun asked, "Instructor, is this your farm?" "En!" Xia ruofei nodded and said, "it should be finished before the Spring Festival. You can work for me in peace from now on! We brothers will conquer the world together!" "Yes! Instructor!" Ye Lingyun's tone was also a little excited. Xia ruofei smiled. "Ling Yun, we've already left the Army. We're no longer soldiers. You don't have to call me instructor Xia anymore. Just ... Call me brother Xia!" "Oh ... Okay." "Brother ... Brother Xia!" Ye linyun said. He was clearly not used to this new form of address. Xia ruofei used the remote control to open the villa's courtyard gate. Ye Lingyun drove the car into the villa's courtyard and parked it. The two of them got out of the car. In the corner of the yard, lightning heard the sound and immediately came out of its kennel. It threw itself in front of Xia ruofei affectionately and looked at ye Lingyun with vigilance. Xia ruofei pointed at ye Lingyun. "Lightning, he's my brother. We're on the same side. You're not allowed to be so fierce, you know?" Lightning was already very understanding. It immediately wagged its tail at ye Lingyun, obviously trying to please him. Xia ruofei smiled and patted Lightning's head, telling it to go back to its nest. Then, he brought ye Lingyun to a guest room on the first floor. He opened the cabinet and took out a brand new quilt and mattress. "Ling Yun, you can stay at my house for the time being!" "Sure, brother Xia." Ye Lingyun scratched his head and said with a smile, "this is my first time living in a big villa ..." "Work hard, and you'll be able to buy your own big villa soon!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "alright, you can go and wash up first!" "Thank you, brother Xia!" Xia ruofei went upstairs to his bedroom. After carefully locking the door, he summoned the spirit painting scroll from his palm and took out a small travel bag. The bag was filled with stacks of cash from the vegetable transactions with Xi Jiang Yue and Ling Ji restaurant. Xia ruofei, who had the spirit map space, did not deposit the money in the bank but kept it in the spirit map space. It was much safer than a bank. Xia ruofei counted 150000 and put it in a big plastic bag. Then, he went to the bathroom to take a shower before he took the money and went downstairs.

Chapter 113: Recruiting soldiers and buying horses Part 1

When Xia ruofei arrived at the guest room on the first floor, ye Lingyun had already finished bathing. When he saw Xia ruofei, he quickly stood up and called out, "Brother Xia." Xia ruofei smiled and handed the plastic bag to ye Lingyun. "Take it!" "What?" Ye Lingyun subconsciously took the plastic bag. When he saw the stacks of hundred – Yuan bills inside, he put the plastic bag down as if he had been electrocuted. "Brother Xia, why are you giving me so much money?" "Use this money to pay off your debt first." Xia ruofei said. "No way!" Ye Lingyun quickly said, "brother Xia, I haven't even done a day's work! How can I take so much of your money? This is not appropriate!" "I didn't give you this money for free!" Xia ruofei said, "I'll take it as an advance payment." "This ..." Ye Lingyun was troubled. "What's this and that?" Xia ruofei said angrily, "what's wrong with a soldier being so wishy – washy? I told you to take it, so just take it!" "Yes!" Ye Lingyun puffed out his chest and said, "then ... Thank you, brother Xia ..." Xia ruofei smiled and nodded, "yes, rest early!" Go pay the money back tomorrow, then come back and work in peace!" "Okay ..." Ye Lingyun said. He then asked, "brother Xia, what exactly do I do?" Xia ruofei laughed. "The company has just been established. Are you afraid that there's no work?" "Hehe ... I'm getting such a high salary. I'll feel bad if I don't work ..." Ye Lingyun scratched his head. "Don't worry! There's a lot of things waiting for you to do!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "the first task is to set up the security system of the entire farm! I've made a list before and asked the construction company to help purchase the equipment. Your first task is to ensure the quality of the security equipment. The second is to supervise the installation and debugging process. There can't be any problems!" "Don't worry, brother Xia!" Ye linyun puffed out his chest and said,"I promise to complete the mission!" Ye Lingyun was definitely an expert in this job, so he was full of confidence, just like how he expressed his determination to his leader in the Army. Xia ruofei smiled and patted ye Lingyun's shoulder.""Of course I'm not worried about you! Alright, let's rest!" With that, Xia ruofei left ye Lingyun's room and returned to his bedroom upstairs. The next morning, Xia ruofei passed the car keys to ye Lingyun and asked him to go to the bank in the city to return the money he owed. Meanwhile, Xia ruofei completed the transaction of the vegetables supplied to the two families and then went to the construction site for a round of inspection. The main project of the entire farm was basically completed. Now, the workers were mainly doing some equipment debugging of the greenhouse, the laying of road pipelines, the installation of the farm fence, the greenery of the field area, and other finishing work. As Xia ruofei patrolled, he was also calculating in his heart. Although it was a spur of the moment decision to recruit ye Lingyun yesterday, it also served as a reminder to Xia ruofei that it was time for him to recruit some people. The company's structure wasn't urgent, but the farm workers had become a priority. He couldn't take care of such a big farm alone, could he? If that was the case, he might as well plant it in the spirit map space! The experimental planting of the cabbage in the backyard was very successful. After soaking it in the petal solution, the growth rate of the cabbage in the outside world was much faster than that of ordinary species. Moreover, the taste was similar to that of the ordinary space vegetables from before, completely meeting the requirements of mass production. Xia ruofei's initial plan was to plant these common vegetables and fruits in the outside world. His main goal was to spread the brand 'paradise'. The precious food, herbs, trees, flowers, and the like were mainly grown in the space. The rarer something was, the more expensive it would be. It was impossible to get a lot of these high – end species at one time. Even if they were planted in the space, it was relatively easy to cover up if they took out a small amount each time. Therefore, there was no need to plant these things in the outside world. Planting them in the realm would undoubtedly increase the efficiency and quality. In fact, Xia ruofei's spirit map space already had a lot of precious crops. The Phoebe zhennan, the ginseng from the Changbai Mountains, and the pair of Red Arowana would all bring him great benefits in the future. Xia ruofei did not want to delay the recruitment any longer. After ye Lingyun completed the transaction, Xia ruofei brought him to manager li, who was supervising the construction site. He introduced ye Lingyun to him and asked ye Lingyun to check the security system, install, and test it. Then, Xia ruofei drove the pickup truck away from the farm. On the way, he gave the Secretary of the Dongkeng village, ruan Fugui, a call and explained that he was looking for people. He also said that if there were suitable candidates in the village, he would give priority to the recruitment. Ruan Fugui was overjoyed when he heard that. He quickly said that there must be villagers who met the requirements. In this small coastal fishing village, many young people had gone out to do business or work, while many of the older generation lived in the village. Many of them were old and could no longer go out to sea to fish, so they could only idle at home. These people were actually not too old, so they would have no problem working on the farm. Not only were these people fishermen, but many of them were also experienced farmers. Hearing this, Xia ruofei immediately expressed that he would rush over immediately and asked ruan Fugui to inform the villagers that those who were interested could go to the village council. When Xia ruofei drove to the village committee of Dongkeng, ruan Fugui had already gathered many villagers to wait. The moment Xia ruofei got out of the car, he released a puff of smoke and instantly won the villagers' favor. Ruan Fugui lit up the Zhonghua cigarette that Xia ruofei had given him and took a deep breath before saying,""Boss Xia is here to hire workers today. Let's welcome boss Xia's speech!" The villagers applauded. Xia ruofei smiled and pressed his hands down.""Everyone, I'm sure you already know that I rented a piece of collective land in our village to open a farm, so we're considered to be from the same village!" The villagers immediately laughed out loud. They felt that this boss was quite good and didn't put on any airs. Xia ruofei continued, "since we're family, I won't beat around the bush. I'll get straight to the point." For the first batch, I'm going to recruit 15 workers. The main work will be in the field, such as planting vegetables, fertilizing, raising fish, and so on. My requirements are that they are hardworking, honest, and have farming experience. If you have any questions, you can ask me now!" "Boss Xia!" An old farmer in his 50s raised his hand like a primary school student and asked, "how much are you paying?" Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "a normal worker's monthly salary is 5000 Yuan. There are five insurances and one housing Fund. In the future, it can be increased according to the farm's performance and personal performance. In addition, there will be bonuses during the holidays." The moment they heard that the salary was raised to 5000, the villagers became even more interested. One of them immediately asked, "There are five insurances and one fund? Wouldn't that be the same as the White – collared workers in the city? Boss Xia, is your bag full of food and accommodation?" Xia ruofei smiled. "Lunch is provided on the farm. We have an eight – hour working system. Everyone works during the day and can go home at night. If they had to live on the farm, it was fine. I'll just ask them to build a staff dormitory later. But don't you want to go home and hug your wives?" Xia ruofei's words immediately attracted a burst of laughter. Everyone's impression of this young boss Xia became even better. Then, more people asked a lot of questions, and Xia ruofei answered them patiently. When he saw that everyone had understood, he smiled and said, "Alright, those who are interested in the job can go to uncle ruan to sign up! If you have any specialties, you must write them down! I'll give you priority!" As soon as Xia ruofei finished speaking, the villagers immediately surrounded ruan Fugui and his wife. Most of the villagers were idle at home. Now, they could earn 5000 a month by working on the farm, and they only had to work during the day. The various benefits that Xia ruofei had promised were also very good. These conditions were too tempting. Who would not want to do it? "Fugui, register mine first! I know how to rear abalones!" "There's me, there's me! I've been farming for more than ten years, how can you people who go out to fish every day compare to me?" "Fugui, remember me!" The villagers didn't know how to line up, so they just swarmed up, making ruan Fugui flustered and constantly shouting to maintain order. Xia ruofei looked at the heated scene in front of him and smiled. He walked to the side, lit a cigarette, and started smoking leisurely.

Chapter 114: Helping brothers (1)

The villagers quickly finished registering, and about 30 to 40 people had applied for the job. Xia ruofei took the stack of information and said, "Everyone, please wait outside for a moment. Those whose names are called, please enter. I have a few simple questions to ask." "Boss Xia, is this the interview that everyone is talking about?" A villager asked. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "almost!" I just want to know how everyone is doing. " With that, Xia ruofei gestured to ruan Fugui and the two of them walked into the village council. The villagers were waiting nervously at the door. Xia ruofei's offer was so good that everyone naturally wanted to get hired. Actually, Xia ruofei avoided the crowd mainly because he wanted to hear ruan Fugui's advice. After being the party secretary for so many years, ruan Fugui knew the villagers very well and would definitely understand the situation the best. He could not say anything in front of the villagers, but he would not offend anyone if he said it in the village committee. Xia ruofei directly asked ruan Fugui to help him choose first. First of all, he would not want people with bad conduct. Xia ruofei would also not consider those who liked to play tricks and did not put in much effort. In addition, those with special skills in certain areas would be given priority. The last time they had rented the land, ruan Fugui already knew that Xia ruofei had a powerful background. Later on, Xia ruofei had even brought them to eat at the West River Moon Club, which had broadened his horizons. Thus, he didn't dare to hide anything from Xia ruofei. The preliminary screening was completed very quickly. Then, Xia ruofei called the villagers in for an "interview" one by one. It was nothing more than to ask about their personal situation, how old they were, how many people were in their family, and what their specialties were. The interview process was completed quickly. With ruan Fugui's opinion, Xia ruofei decided on the list of 15 people. He walked out of the village council with the name list and announced the results of the recruitment to the villagers. The villagers who were chosen were naturally overjoyed, while those who were not were somewhat disappointed. Xia ruofei smiled. "Don't be discouraged. Our farm will continue to expand production in the future. When we need to recruit workers in the future, we will give priority to our Dongkeng village. I hope that everyone will be enthusiastic about applying." Under the envious gazes of the villagers, the 15 villagers who had been chosen stayed behind, while the others gradually dispersed. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "alright, everyone is now my employee at Taoyuan farm. Tomorrow, everyone will go to the farm to sign the employment contract. Then, you can officially start work!" "Hmm...I'll start to pay you today!" "Boss, let's go work today! I heard from Secretary ruan that your farm is in the middle of construction, so you'll definitely need manpower." One of the villagers rubbed his hands and laughed. "We don't feel good if we don't work and get paid!" Xia ruofei's new employees all agreed. These villagers were really simple. Their simple concept was to get paid according to work. Since the salary was calculated today, they had to work for the boss today. Otherwise, they wouldn't take the reward for no work. Xia ruofei laughed, "there's a construction team for construction!" Everyone, go back and settle your family matters today. You can come back tomorrow to sign the contract!" "This ... Alright, thank you, boss!" The new employees went home happily. Xia ruofei expressed his gratitude to ruan Fugui and drove away from the village committee. After returning to the villa, Xia ruofei gave Ling Qingxue a call and asked her to send him a copy of the employment contract for lingji F & B. Then, he made some changes based on the actual situation of Tao Yuan farm and printed 15 copies. After she was done, Xia ruofei saw that there was nothing else to do so she picked up her phone and gave pang Hao a call. "RUO Fei!" "Little fatty, did you guys have fun last night?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile. "Very good! President Zheng later got someone to send over a lot of fruit platters and snacks." Pang Hao said, "you're the one who ran away at the last minute. The ladies in the class expressed strong indignation and requested that you treat us next time to make up for it." Xia ruofei laughed and said, "sure!" No problem!" "Oh right, Lil 'fatty," he asked, "there were so many people yesterday, so it wasn't convenient for me to ask you. What's your job now?" "What good job can a third-rate University Graduate like me have?" pang Hao smiled bitterly. I've been working as a salesman in an insurance company for the past two years!" "How's the treatment?" Xia ruofei asked. "The base salary is so low that it's outrageous. I can only barely make a living by relying on business commissions." Pang Hao said, "that's why I have to run the business as hard as I can ... Sigh! Anyway, let's just mix around first!" Xia ruofei teased, "little fatty, you sound like you're living in deep water and fire!" However, I'm very curious about the fact that you can still maintain such a chubby body despite the pressure of life. This little brother really admires you!" "Your sister!" Pang Hao laughed and scolded, "you're rubbing it in, aren't you?" "Haha ..." Xia ruofei laughed happily. Then, he asked, "seriously, what are your plans for the future?" "I'd be lying if I said I didn't have any thoughts." Pang Hao said, "I kind of regret playing games all day long when I was in college and neglecting my studies. Although the school is average, many of my hardworking classmates are doing well." Pang Hao paused for a moment before continuing. "I majored in finance in University, so I'm studying now. I'm preparing to get an accountant's certificate. I'm thinking of changing my career in the future if I have the chance." "What future are you waiting for? Come to my company!" Xia ruofei said directly, "you're just in time for finance. I'm lacking an accountant! When the company's structure is ready, you'll be the financial director!" "Ah? RUO Fei, you're not joking, right?" Pang Hao asked hesitantly, unable to react in time. "Little fatty, can I joke about this?" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "being the Finance Director of paradise Corporation is better than being an insurance agent, right?" Xia ruofei had called pang Hao with the intention of recruiting him. That was why he wanted to know about pang Hao's current situation. If pang Hao was doing well, Xia ruofei would not have mentioned it. However, since pang Hao was not satisfied with his current situation, Xia ruofei decided to pull him in without any hesitation. When Xia ruofei used people, ability was one thing, but he valued character more. Pang Hao had been his good brother in junior high. After getting to know him the day before, he knew that the little Fatty's character was still the same as it had been in the past. He had not changed at all. He could be said to be from the bottom of society, but in order to stand up for Xia ruofei, he did not hesitate to go against Liu Hang, the son of a government official. This was also an important reason why Xia ruofei trusted him. Pang Hao naturally knew the name of the Paradise Corporation by now. He said, "Of course I'm happy. But ruofei ... I haven't even passed the accountant's exam yet. If I go to your company ..." "You can take your time to learn if you're not familiar with the business. Besides, aren't you already preparing for the exam?" Xia ruofei said without hesitation, "it doesn't matter to me whether I have a certificate or not. The key is that an important position like finance must be filled by a brother that I can trust!" Pang Hao was also very touched when he heard this. He immediately said, "Alright! Ruofei, just because of what you said, I'll resign in a while! Don't worry, I'll make sure everything is in order. If there's any mistake, you'll fire me immediately!" "It's not that serious ..." Xia ruofei said with a smile. "Okay, I won't say more. I'll send you the location on WeChat later. Come over first thing in the morning!" "Alright, see you tomorrow!" The next morning, ye Lingyun went straight to the construction site. The security equipment he ordered had arrived that day, and he was going to get busy. After Xia ruofei sent the two vegetable trucks away, he saw pang Hao and the 15 new employees who had been recruited yesterday arriving at the villa almost at the same time. "Good Morning, boss!" "Hello, boss Xia!" The new employees all greeted Xia ruofei and looked around from time to time. They were very surprised by the modern farm. Xia ruofei smiled and greeted them. Then, he walked over to pang Hao and said, "Little fatty, you're early!" "The opportunity to make a meteoric rise is right in front of us," pang Hao said with a chuckle. "How could it not come early?" "You brat!" Xia ruofei lightly punched pang Hao's chest and said, "wait for a moment. I have to deal with some things." "Alright!" Xia ruofei asked pang Hao to bring a small table to the courtyard from the living room. Then, he took out the contract that he had printed in advance. Some of the new employees were literate. Although they couldn't fully understand the contract, they could still understand the benefits and treatment. Therefore, everyone quickly signed the contract and pressed their thumbprints. Xia ruofei also signed and stamped the contract with his company's seal. This employment contract was officially in effect. Initially, Xia ruofei wanted to give the new employees a few more days off. After all, there was still some work to be done on the farm. A few days' worth of salary was nothing to him. However, these simple fishermen and farmers didn't do anything. In their minds, they were paid to do things. Xia ruofei had no choice but to let them help out at the construction site. This way, they could more or less improve their work efficiency. After handing the new employees over to manager li, who was supervising the construction site, Xia ruofei handed all the things from the company's finance department, including the account details, the finance seal, and bank transfers to pang Hao. At this stage, pang Hao's job was to properly organize the finances of paradise Corporation, including creating a payroll for new employees and settling the construction funds with the construction party in stages. The settlement of lingji food and drink and Xijiang Moon Club should also be gradually changed to public to public transfers. This was enough to keep pang Hao busy for a while. Xia ruofei decided to give him five thousand Yuan to buy a decent desktop in the city. Then, he would let pang Hao use the other guest room on the first floor as the finance department's office. Just like that, everyone was busy with their own things, but Xia ruofei had a lot of free time. On the morning of the third day, Xia ruofei was playing with lightning in the villa's courtyard when ye Lingyun suddenly appeared at the door and said, "Brother Xia, there are two cars over there. They seem to be looking for you." "Oh?" Xia ruofei stood up and walked out of the mansion. Ye Lingyun followed closely behind him. In the distance, a black Mercedes – Benz and a silver Mercedes – Benz business car drove over one after another. The car drove straight to the entrance of the courtyard. The door of the Mercedes – Benz opened, and a few capable young Men in Black suits quickly got out of the car. Xia ruofei could tell at a glance that these Men in Black suits were very agile and were definitely trained. He couldn't help but frown. However, when the electric door of the MPV slowly opened with two beeps, Xia ruofei's brows immediately relaxed. This was because he saw Tian Huixin carrying Huan Huan and getting out of the car first, followed by Ma Zhiming. Lu You also came out of the car. When Huan Huan saw Xia ruofei from afar, she immediately broke free from Tian Huixin's arms and ran towards Xia ruofei with a happy and innocent smile ...

"Uncle!" Huan Huan shouted happily from afar. This time, his pronunciation was much clearer than it was a few days ago. A gentle smile appeared on Xia ruofei's face. He squatted down and opened his arms. Huanhuan jumped into his arms and rubbed her pink face against Xia ruofei's. "Huanhuan, did you miss uncle?" Xia ruofei asked as he hugged Huanhuan. "I really want to!" Huan Huan answered very seriously. "How much did you miss me?" Huan Huan tilted her head and thought for a moment. She then opened her arms and gestured, "I did think so!" After that, the adults who followed them all laughed happily. Even Lu You had a rare smile on her face. Xia ruofei stood up with Huanhuan in his arms and greeted them, "Mr. MA, Ms. Tian, Lu You, how are you?" "Xia Sheng, the environment of your farm is not bad!" Ma Zhiming smiled and said, "it seems that you're doing very well in your career!" Tian Huixin also smiled and greeted Xia ruofei. Lu You also nodded at Xia ruofei in greeting. Her expression was much gentler than before. She no longer looked like Xia ruofei owed her a few million dollars. She even had a slight smile on her face. It was obvious that her impression of Xia ruofei had changed greatly. Xia ruofei smiled and said to Ma Zhiming, "It's just a small fight, it's not enough to catch Mr. Ma's eyes!" Then, he pinched Huanhuan's little face and asked, "By the way, Mr. MA, Ms. Tian, has Huanhuan finished her medicine? How's the situation?" "Little Xia, the effect of your Chinese medicine is very obvious!" Tian Huixin said excitedly. "That's right, Xia Sheng. You're a godly doctor!" Ma Zhiming was also very excited. "We're here to thank you!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "come, come, come. Let's talk inside!" Ye Lingyun was dumbfounded. He had never heard of instructor Xia having medical skills, and it seemed like he was very good at it. But why did instructor Xia always go to the health team when he had a headache in the Army? He must have taken a fancy to a beautiful female soldier in the health team! Ye Lingyun guessed in his heart. Xia ruofei naturally didn't know that the quiet ye Lingyun's heart was also burning with the flames of gossip. He led the group into the villa's courtyard. Ma Zhiming's bodyguards in black stayed outside the courtyard. Seeing so many people coming in, lightning, who had been lying there lazily in the sun, suddenly got up. It glanced at the crowd with vigilance and made a whimpering sound. "Lightning, these are my guests. Don't be rude!" Xia ruofei was worried that lightning would scare people, so he quickly shouted. After hearing Xia ruofei's words, lightning immediately resumed its languidness. It glanced at the crowd indifferently, then strolled to the other side of the courtyard where there was more sunlight. It lay down comfortably and continued to bask in the sun. When Huan Huan saw lightning, whose fur was as smooth as silk, she was elated. She pointed at lightning with her pink little finger and shouted, ""Doggie ... Doggie ..." "Huanhuan, that dog's name is lightning," Xia ruofei smiled and said, "do you want to play with lightning?" "I want to!" Huan Huan said without hesitation. "Alright!" Xia ruofei placed Huanhuan on the ground and said with a smile, "go!" "Little Xia, this ..." Tian Huixin couldn't help but worry about the lightning. It had been very fierce just now. Xia ruofei smiled. "Madam Tian, don't be afraid. Lightning is very gentle!" Then, Xia ruofei said, ""Lightning, play with Huanhuan. Don't scare her, okay?" Lightning raised its eyelids and slowly wagged its tail, indicating that it understood. Huan Huan ran to lightning happily and stroked its smooth fur. Tian Huixin's heart almost jumped out of her throat. However, lightning seemed to enjoy it. She closed her eyes slightly and let Huanhuan touch her. It even gently touched Huanhuan with its nose, looking quite docile. The more Huanhuan played, the happier she became. In the end, she simply put her arms around Lightning's neck and mumbled something to lightning. She was trying to remind lightning that her language skills were still worse than those of other children her age. Tian Huixin looked at it for a while before she slowly relaxed. Xia ruofei left Ye Lingyun in the courtyard to look after Huanhuan while he brought Ma Zhiming, his wife, and Lu You into the villa. Everyone took their seats in the living room. Xia ruofei made tea for the three of them, then sat down and said with a smile, ""It seems like Huanhuan's condition has improved greatly." Tian Huixin excitedly nodded and said, "that's right, little Xia!" Huanhuan's condition improved a little every time she took the medicine. It was like a dream to us!" Tian Huixin glanced at her daughter, who was playing happily with lightning in the yard, and continued, ""Huanhuan's eyes are fine now. She can look into adults' eyes and she can listen to us seriously. She can even communicate normally. It's just that she needs time to recover her language function ..." As she spoke, Tian Huixin's eyes turned red again. She had been worried sick about her daughter for the past few years and had experienced countless times of hope, disappointment, and even despair. Now that Huanhuan had changed so much, it was hard to describe the feelings she had. Ma Zhiming put his arm around his wife's shoulder and patted her gently, saying, "Xia Sheng, we took Huanhuan to do a long – range dynamic encephalogram yesterday, and the results were very normal. The epileptic waves that had always existed before have all disappeared! The doctor said that this is an important sign that the brain nervous system has returned to normal!" "That's great!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Huanhuan was a cute little girl, but she had always lived in her own world. Now that she had recovered, Xia ruofei was naturally happy for her from the bottom of his heart. "I'll prepare another course of Chinese medicine today to consolidate the effects!" Xia ruofei said, "I think the problem will be completely solved after one or two more treatments!" "Xia Sheng, I can't thank you enough!" Ma Zhiming said as he held Xia ruofei's hand tightly. Then, Ma Zhiming took out a check from the inner pocket of his suit and handed it to Xia ruofei. He said, "Xia Sheng, I know that you didn't treat Huanhuan for money, but this is a gift from the MA family. You must accept it!" Xia ruofei took the check and saw that it was a million Chinese dollars. He pondered for a while and said with a smile without being pretentious, ""Alright, then I won't stand on ceremony." After that, he put the check away. In Xia ruofei's opinion, a million Yuan for a complete petal of a strange flower was not too expensive. When Lu You saw this, she muttered in her heart, "This fellow was truly impolite, not even rejecting the offer ... However, even though she said that in her heart, Lu You realized that she did not feel disgusted by Xia ruofei's behavior like she did in the past. On the contrary, she felt that he was a genuine person and not pretentious. She didn't even realize that her impression of Xia ruofei had changed. Xia ruofei said, "you guys stay here and play with Huanhuan for a while. I'll go to the county's Traditional Chinese Medicine pharmacy to get some medicine and boil it. When the time comes, you can just bring it back and keep it in the cold storage." "Alright, alright. Sorry to trouble you, Xia Sheng!" Ma Zhiming quickly said. Xia ruofei looked at Lu You and asked with a smile, "Young miss Lu, do you want to come with me to buy medicine today?" Lu You's pretty face heated up slightly and she said, "I'm too lazy to follow! What if you're going to go to ... That, I'll have to wait for you for a long time!" Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. He picked up the car keys on the coffee table and walked out. At this moment, Ma Zhiming's phone suddenly rang urgently. "Hello? 'I'm ..." Ma Zhiming said in Cantonese. No one knew what the person on the other end of the phone said, but Ma Zhiming's face suddenly changed and he asked hurriedly, "what?" How did this happen? My dad's been in good health ... Is he in danger? Hurry up and tell me ... Okay, I know ... I know ..."

Chapter 116: Life – saving straw (1)

Although Xia ruofei did not understand Cantonese, he could tell that something major had happened when he saw Ma Zhiming's expression change. Hence, he also stopped in his tracks and looked at Ma Zhiming. Tian Huixin waited for Ma Zhiming to hang up the phone and immediately asked anxiously, "Zhiming, what's wrong with dad?" Ma Zhiming was a little dejected, and his eyes were a little red. He calmed his emotions and said to Tian Huixin, "Father ... He had a sudden cerebral hemorrhage. He's in a deep coma ..." "Ah?" Tian Huixin reached out and covered her mouth. After a long while, she muttered, "how could this be? Father ... He's always been in good health ..." "Huixin, we have to return to the port immediately. Dean Qin said that dad's condition ... I'm afraid he won't be able to hold on for long ... The plane sent by my family has already applied for a return flight. It's now on its way to Sanshan. Let's go to the airport now!" Ma Zhiming said with a sad expression. "Alright ... Let's go!" Tian Huixin was also a little flustered. Although her father – in – Law had gradually begun to delegate power to Ma Zhiming, he was still the pillar of the family business. If her father – in – Law was no longer around, Ma Zhiming would immediately face a situation of internal and external difficulties. Ma Zhiming gently wiped the tears from the corner of his eyes and said to Xia ruofei, "Xia Sheng, I'm sorry. My father had a sudden cerebral hemorrhage and we have to rush back to Hong Kong immediately. I'll have to trouble you next time to treat Huanhuan." "Oh, I'm fine ..." Xia ruofei said, "you guys should go back!" The old man's matter is more important!" "Alright," he said. Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin walked out. Tian Huixin went to the courtyard and picked up Huanhuan, who was still not done playing. Everyone walked out of the courtyard together. Naturally, Xia ruofei sent them all the way to the door. At this moment, Lu You suddenly looked at Xia ruofei and asked, "Xia ruofei, do you ... Do you have any way to save my uncle's father?" Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin immediately stopped in their tracks and looked at Xia ruofei with hope. Just now, they had been so worried that all they could think of was to get back to Hong Kong as soon as possible. After Lu You's question, Ma Zhiming and his wife immediately remembered that Xia ruofei's medical skills were very brilliant. Anyone with a little medical knowledge would know how dangerous professor Tian's acute myocardial infarction was, not to mention Huanhuan's autism. This was a world – Class medical problem, but Xia ruofei had successfully solved it. On the phone, Dean Qin of his family's private hospital had basically announced that his father, MA Xiong, had no hope. Ma Zhiming was in a hurry to go back. On one hand, he wanted to see his father one last time. On the other hand, he wanted to go back to stabilize his situation and prepare for the various pressures from inside and outside the family after MA Xiong's death. It was as if he had found a life – saving straw and placed all his hopes on Xia ruofei. The couple looked at Xia ruofei intently, hoping that he would nod. Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. “Chinese medicine does have a way to treat cerebral hemorrhage. However, it also needs to be analyzed in detail. I haven’t seen the patient yet and I don’t know the condition at all. I can’t make any guarantees ...” When Lu You heard this, she immediately said, “Xia ruofei, please help auntie and uncle!” We don’t need your guarantee, we just need to try our best ...” When Lu You spoke, she looked at Xia ruofei with her big, watery eyes. “Xia Sheng, if it’s convenient for you, please come back to Hong Kong with us,” Ma Zhiming quickly said. “We’ll be very grateful regardless of whether the treatment is successful or not!” Xia ruofei was not against treating MA Xiong’s illness. He had a good impression of this well – known rich man. He was also familiar with the inspirational story of MA Xiong’s poor self when he was young. Moreover, helping the MA family would definitely be of great help to his career in the future. However, Xia ruofei did not know how serious MA Xiong’s condition was, so he was hesitant. He thought for a moment and said, “it’s fine if you want me to go with you ... But I don’t have a Hong Kong and Macau Pass!” A pass was required to go to Hong Kong. Even if it was an urgent application, it would take five to seven working days. By then, it would be too late. “I’ll get my mom to coordinate it immediately!” Lu You said without hesitation, “you guys go to the airport first. Leave the Hong Kong and Macau Pass to me!” “Xiao Xia ...” Tian Huixin looked at Xia ruofei with pleading eyes. Xia ruofei no longer hesitated. He nodded and said, “Alright! I’ll go with you! But you’ll have to wait for me for two minutes. ” With that, Xia ruofei returned to the villa and entered the garage. The garage door was locked every morning, except for when he was carrying the vegetables. Xia ruofei summoned the spirit painting scroll in the garage. Then, he took five days’ worth of vegetables each for the two restaurants and placed them on both sides. Then, he took out a small suitcase from his space and put a few clothes in it. He then dragged the suitcase out of the villa. From Ma Zhiming and the others’ point of view, Xia ruofei must have gone into the house to pack his luggage. Xia ruofei gave ye Lingyun some instructions, mainly about Xi jiangyue and Ling’s restaurant coming over to pick up the vegetables. He also entrusted him with the farm’s construction site. In the end, Xia ruofei also gave ye Lingyun the keys to the villa and the pickup truck. Then, Xia ruofei also gave some instructions to lightning. He wanted it to listen to ye Lingyun’s words when he was out for a few days. Time was of the essence. After Xia ruofei quickly settled these matters, he followed Ma Zhiming’s family into the Mercedes – Benz business car. Lu You, on the other hand, took the Mercedes – Benz that Ma Zhiming’s bodyguard drove back to the city. On the way to the airport in the business car, Xia ruofei called President Zheng and Ling Qingxue respectively, telling them that he was going out for a few days and that the Taoyuan vegetables to be supplied for the next five days had been prepared in advance. He asked them to send a car over to transport them immediately. Both families had their own cold storage, so it was not a big problem to keep the vegetables for a few days. In the end, Xia ruofei sent ye Lingyun’s contact information to the two of them. When Ling Qingxue heard that Xia ruofei was going out, she asked about the situation out of concern. However, this was Ma Zhiming’s family’s private matter, so it was not convenient for Xia ruofei to say too much. He only said that he had an emergency and had to be away for a few days so that she could rest assured. The airport was also in Changping County, so it took about half an hour for the car to arrive at Changping airport, which was located by the sea. This time, the MA family had sent a private jet to pick them up, so Xia ruofei and the others did not take the normal passageway. Instead, they came to a small building next to the main terminal. There was a passageway for private jets. As soon as they arrived at the airport, Lu You called to tell them that Xia ruofei’s Hong Kong and Macau Pass was settled. The Secretary had personally come forward. This could no longer be described as efficient. Ten minutes ago, Xia ruofei had sent the required documents to Lu

You in the car. The entire set of documents had been completed in less than half an hour. Ma Zhiming's bodyguards took Xia ruofei's Hong Kong and Macau Pass and drove to the airport. Xia ruofei and the rest could only wait. Fortunately, the private jet from Hong Kong had yet to land, so it was not a waste of time. It was about a 50 – minute drive from the city, but from the time Lu You called to the time when the bodyguards rushed to the private plane terminal, it only took about half an hour. It was estimated that these few brothers had also been running with all their might along the way. Xia ruofei received a brand new Hong Kong and Macau Pass and immediately went through a simple security check with Ma Zhiming's family of three. They entered the private plane terminal's restricted area. There was a limited number of passengers on the plane, so the bodyguards did not follow them in. They were taking the fastest civil flight back to the port. Xia ruofei and the rest went to the designated parking spot on the tarmac and waited. After a short while, they saw a jet business plane much smaller than a passenger airliner slowly approaching from the distance and quickly and steadily landing on the runway ...

Chapter 117: at the end of the line -1

The plane quickly left the runway and glided along the runway to Xia ruofei and the others. As soon as the plane stopped, a flight attendant immediately opened the cabin door and lowered the accommodation ladder. Then, he quickly walked down and stood respectfully beside the plane. As time was of the essence, the beautiful flight attendant immediately closed the cabin door after Xia ruofei and the rest boarded the plane. As soon as everyone sat down and fastened their seat belts, the captain's voice came through the radio, telling everyone that the plane was about to slide to the runway again. From the moment they landed to the time they got on their computers and slid out again, not a single minute was wasted. The Gulfstream business jet waited at the runway for two to three minutes before it was granted permission to take off. The plane slowly turned and began to add take – off thrust after it was aligned with the runway. Xia ruofei suddenly felt a push on his back. The scenery outside the porthole was rapidly passing by, and the plane was rapidly increasing its speed. Soon, Xia ruofei felt the plane's body shake slightly. The plane jumped up lightly and flew into the sky. When Xia ruofei was in the Army, he had taken military transport planes and attack helicopters. However, this was his first time taking such a high – end business plane. He could not help but look around curiously. This Gulfstream G660 was also a high – end product among the private planes. The cabin was decorated extremely luxuriously, with full – wrapped leather seats, spacious sitting space, and dazzling multimedia facilities ... Everything was beyond the reach of ordinary Civil Aviation first – Class cabins. This was the life of the rich! It was convenient, fast, and traveling was more of an enjoyment. Xia ruofei said in his heart, "One day, I will buy a plane like this! He had been in the Army for seven years and had risked his life for the country. It was time to enjoy life after he retired. Ma Zhiming and his wife were both worried. Only Huan Huan, who was still young, seemed very happy because Xia ruofei was also on the plane. The Gulfstream plane's cruising altitude was 40000 feet, which was 30000 feet higher than the general civil aircraft. Cruising in the stable stratosphere, the plane naturally did not have any bumps. About an hour later, the plane began to descend slowly and soon landed at Hong Kong International Airport. The plane taxied to the parking lot, and a luxurious Toyota nanny car was already waiting there. The MA family even coordinated with the immigration officers to quickly handle the entry procedures for Xia ruofei on the tarmac. Then, the group got into the Toyota. Xia ruofei thought that the car was heading straight for the hospital. Unexpectedly, the car did not leave the airport. Instead, it was led by the guide car to the helipad on the other side of the airport. The private helicopter arranged by the MA family had already started its engine, and the group got on the helicopter again. The helicopter quickly took off and flew toward the southwest of Hong Kong. On the plane, Ma Zhiming explained a little. Xia ruofei then realized that they had arranged this to avoid the traffic during the peak hour and to reach the hospital faster. Looking out the window at Hong Kong's bright lights and listening to the roaring helicopter engine, Xia ruofei could not help but sigh with emotion about the life of the rich. Soon, the plane landed on the tarmac on the roof of a hospital building. The hospital was owned by the MA family's Hengfeng group and was one of the most high – end private hospitals in Hong Kong. It had the best medical conditions in Asia. Xia ruofei and the others got off the helicopter. The MA family members were already waiting on the tarmac. He led them directly to the elevator on the eighth floor, to the TICU. Hengfeng hospital's director and other people were gathered outside the ICU. The big boss of Qin Zhuan group was on the verge of death. They were naturally very nervous. Other than a group of doctors in white coats, there was also a group of people who were dressed in a way that showed that they were either rich or powerful. They gathered outside the ICU and waited. These people had different expressions on their faces. Some were anxious, some were looking forward to it, and some were even gloating over his misfortune. As soon as Ma Zhiming's group appeared, the people who were gathered at the entrance of the ICU all went up to them. Hengfeng hospital's director was an old man with white hair. Before he could say anything, Ma Zhiming asked anxiously, "Dean Qin, how's my dad doing?" Dean Qin frowned and said, "young master Ming, Mr. Ma's condition doesn't look good!" He's in a deep coma now and has lost a lot of blood. He has symptoms of intracranial hypertension and his cornea reflex has almost disappeared ... You ... You have to be mentally prepared ..." The two of them conversed in Cantonese. As it involved the patient's condition, Tian Huixin quietly translated it for Xia ruofei to speak Mandarin. Ma Zhiming's eyes suddenly turned red. He asked, "Dean Qin, is there really no other way?" Dean Qin shook his head and said, "Mr. MA is already so old, and his cerebral herniation has been here for a long time, so he's no longer in the condition for surgery. Conservative treatment is basically useless for such a serious condition ..." Ma Zhiming's body swayed, and he almost fainted. He reached out to hold the wall and took a few deep breaths before he recovered. "Young Ming, you have to hang in there!" "Uncle is blessed by the heavens, he'll definitely be fine." "Second uncle is sick now. Hengfeng still needs you to support it!" The relatives next to him all tried to comfort Ma Zhiming. Although MA Xiong only had one son, Ma Zhiming, his family was still very big. MA Xiong had a total of six siblings, and most of the people present today were Ma Zhiming's cousins. However, even though these people were saying words of comfort, they did not have too much sadness on their faces. This was how rich families were like. Hengfeng group was founded by MA Xiong, but most of his relatives held important positions in the group. Many of them even controlled some of the high – Quality assets of Hengfeng. Now that the Hengfeng group's head, MA Xiong, was about to die, many people's thoughts had already turned to how to split the family property. Ma Zhiming turned his head abruptly and looked at Xia ruofei with hope. He asked, "Xia Sheng, you must have a way to save my daddy, right?" "Mr. MA, I can give it a try, but I can't guarantee the result ..." Xia ruofei said calmly. "Thank you! Thank you!" Ma Zhiming quickly said, "Mr. Xia, I'll leave it to you! No matter what the result is, I will thank you properly!" Xia ruofei nodded and said, "There's no time to lose, Mr. MA. I need to prepare some Chinese medicine immediately. Please send me to the nearest Chinese medicine shop!" "Our Hengfeng hospital has a Chinese medicine room!" Ma Zhiming quickly said. Dean Qin, take Xia Sheng to the Chinese medicine room immediately. No matter what herbs he needs, you must prepare them immediately!" At this moment, an elegant middle – aged lady looked at Xia ruofei suspiciously and asked with a frown, "Ming, who is he?"

Chapter 118: The brain is a good thing (1)

This middle – aged lady was called Ma Jia, and she was the daughter of Ma Zhiming's uncle. She was also working at Hengfeng group, and her position in the group was second only to Ma Zhiming. Ma Zhiming slightly frowned and said, "Sister Quan, this is Xia Sheng, an expert I invited from the mainland." "An expert?" Ma su raised his head slightly and glanced at Xia ruofei. He sneered. "Could it be that this little brat knows sorcery? This is the first time I've seen such a young mage!" "Sister Quan, don't talk nonsense!" Ma Zhiming quickly said, "Xia Sheng is a brilliant Chinese medicine doctor!" "He's such a young Chinese medicine doctor!" Ma Jia cried out exaggeratedly, "Ming, you're not being tricked, are you? We understand that you're concerned about second uncle's illness, but you can't be so ridiculous! What kind of medical skills can a young child know?" Ma Jia had been speaking to Ma Zhiming in broken Mandarin. It was obvious that she had deliberately said it for Xia ruofei to hear. After she finished speaking, she glanced at Xia ruofei and said loudly on purpose, "Ming, there are too many scammers in the mainland, you have to be careful! There are some scammers who specifically target rich people like you!" Tian Huixin couldn't help but frown when she heard this. Ma Jia's words were really too harsh. Ma Jia then pretended to misspeak and covered her mouth, saying, "Sister – in – Law, don't misunderstand. I'm not talking about you!" Tian Huixin was from the mainland, so Ma Jia obviously had a hidden meaning in her words and deliberately said it for Tian Huixin. Tian Huixin looked at Xia ruofei, who was beside her. Seeing that he was still calm and collected, she felt a little more at ease. Then, she frowned and said, "sister Quan, Xiao Xia is my father's good friend. She is also an important guest that Zhiming and I have invited. Please be more polite." Ma Jia's eyes widened exaggeratedly and said, "Sister – in – Law, I'm doing this for you, Zhiming, and Hengfeng! What if Ming – Zai gets too worried and gets cheated of a large sum of money to treat second uncle's illness? that would be Hengfeng's loss!" Hengfeng was founded by MA Xiong. Although he had distributed a small number of shares to the younger generation of the family, the majority of the shares were controlled by him and Ma Zhiming. And Ma Jia's words made it sound like she was the master of Hengfeng. Ma Zhiming suppressed the dissatisfaction in his heart and said, "Sister Quan, don't say anymore! My dad's condition is so critical that every minute is dangerous! I'm going to ask Mr. Xia to treat dad immediately. It's settled." After he finished speaking, Ma Zhiming saw that Ma Jia was still preparing to speak, so he directly added another sentence, "The one lying in the ward is my father! I'll be responsible for any problems that arise!" Then, Ma Zhiming looked at Xia ruofei sincerely and said, "Xia Sheng, sorry to trouble you ..." Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. Director Qin of Hengfeng hospital quickly led the way and was ready to take Xia ruofei to the Chinese medicine room. When Xia ruofei passed by Ma Jia, a playful smile appeared on his face. He stopped and looked at her, "Big sister, let me give you a sentence: The brain is a good thing ..." Ma Jia was somewhat baffled by these nonsensical words and asked impatiently, "What did you say?" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "A brain is a good thing, I hope you have one too ..." Then, Xia ruofei followed Dean Qin. Ma su was stunned for a moment, but when he came back to his senses, he was furious and screamed, "Damn you! You dare to say I'm brainless?" Xia ruofei stopped in his tracks and turned around to look at Ma Jia coldly. His bone – chilling gaze caused Ma SU's heart to turn cold. Xia ruofei's cold killing intent disappeared as soon as it was released. Then, he said indifferently, "The patient is Mr. Ma's father, and I'm the Doctor that Mr. MA invited. Do you think anyone with a brain would jump out and talk big at this time?" He paused for a moment, and before Ma Jia could say anything, he continued, "Also, you'd better put away your inexplicable sense of superiority, especially your mouth full of vulgarities. That will only expose your lack of manners!" With that, Xia ruofei left quickly without looking back. Ma Jia was so angry that her whole body trembled. She asked loudly behind her, "If you can't cure second uncle's illness, what will you say?" Xia ruofei turned around again and laughed, "what a joke!” When did I promise that I could cure it? Hengfeng hospital had so many brain experts and first – Class medical facilities in Asia, but they were all helpless. Why do I have to be cured? Even Mr. MA didn’t say anything, what right do you have to point fingers!” After that, Xia ruofei ignored the unreasonable woman and quickly followed Dean Qin, disappearing around the corner. Ma Zhiming frowned slightly and looked at Ma Jia thoughtfully. He didn’t pay attention to her, but took his wife and daughter to the long bench next to him and sat down. He had placed all his hopes on Xia ruofei. All he could do now was wait. Since Ma Zhiming valued Xia ruofei so much, Dean Qin naturally did not dare to neglect him. He respectfully led Xia ruofei to the elevator and to the Chinese medicine room on the first floor. Then, he asked, “Mr. Xia, we’ve arrived at the Chinese medicine room. What can I do for you?” “Dean Qin, I’ll have to trouble you,” Xia ruofei said with a smile. Please ask the staff to leave. I can make the medicine myself. It won’t take up any of your time. ” “No problem, no problem.” Dean Qin quickly said. Dean Qin wouldn’t say anything even if he closed the Chinese medicine room for a whole day, let alone a few minutes! He followed Xia ruofei’s instructions and called for the staff to come out. Then, he respectfully invited Xia ruofei into the pharmacy. Xia ruofei walked in and took a look. Hengfeng hospital was indeed powerful. Rows of neat cabinets were filled with small drawers, and each drawer was labeled. It was a spectacular sight. Even the provincial Hospital of Chinese medicine might not be as big as this pharmacy. Xia ruofei had already checked and memorized a prescription for calming the mind and nourishing the brain. This prescription naturally couldn’t cure a cerebral hemorrhage, but taking it would definitely not be bad for the body. Xia ruofei didn’t take the herbs according to the prescription. Instead, he took more than 40 kinds of herbs. Besides the seven or eight herbs he needed, the rest were just for cover. The Qingqing pharmacy had surveillance cameras. Xia ruofei had always been cautious. Xia ruofei walked out of the pharmacy with a big tray of Chinese medicine. Dean Qin immediately came up to them, but he knew how to avoid suspicion, so he didn’t look at the herbs. “Mr. Xia, have you gathered all the medicinal herbs?” Dean Qin asked. “Mm! You have quite a wide range of medicinal herbs here. ” Xia ruofei smiled and continued to ask, “is there a place to boil medicine?” “Yes, yes, yes, it’s just next door. Please follow me!” Dean Qin quickly said. The room where the medicine was being brewed had already been cleared, so Dean Qin walked him to the door and stopped. Xia ruofei locked the door and checked that there were no surveillance cameras in the room. He was finally relieved. He skillfully found the herbs he needed from the tray and started to brew the medicinal soup.

Chapter 119: Doctor Xia makes a move (1)

Hengfeng hospital’s Traditional Chinese Medicine clinic was very professional. It had all the necessary facilities to decoct Chinese medicine. There was a charcoal stove, a claypot, and unrooted water that was stored in a specially pure water bucket. Xia ruofei put the herbs into the claypot, added an appropriate amount of rootless water, and started to boil the medicine. The process of boiling the medicine was very boring, but he could not be distracted at all times. Although it was just a medicine to fool the public, Xia ruofei still followed the procedures listed on the internet strictly and spent more than half an hour to boil the medicine. He poured the medicinal soup into a porcelain bowl that was specially used to store Chinese medicine. Then, he poured the remaining unused medicinal herbs and the dregs into the furnace and burned them all. In this way, even the most brilliant Chinese medicine doctor would not be able to find out the specific prescription of his medicine. Xia ruofei checked again vigilantly. After confirming that it was safe, he summoned the spirit painting and took out the preservation box from the medium. After a few days of accumulation, he had 13 petals now. This was under the condition that Xia ruofei increased the frequency of using petals to two every three days.

Otherwise, he could have saved more. Although the amount of exotic flower petals would increase greatly after the farm started operating, and there might even be a situation where they would be short of money, Xia ruofei still insisted on strengthening himself. After experiencing the torture of the terminal illness, Xia ruofei was very clear – headed and realized that only the improvement of his personal strength was real. Otherwise, everything else was just floating clouds. Xia ruofei used a pair of tweezers to carefully pick up one of the blue petals and put it into the medicinal soup. The flower petals dissolved into the medicinal soup without a sound. He stirred the medicinal soup with a spoon and did the same thing as last time. He placed the porcelain bowl into the spirit map space and used the difference in the flow of time to cool down the medicinal soup in a few minutes. Xia ruofei took out the medicine that had cooled down from the medium and kept the painting in his body. Then, he walked out of the room with the porcelain bowl. Dean Qin had been waiting outside the door for more than half an hour. He didn't even sit down; he was anxiously pacing back and forth. Dean Qin quickly walked over when he saw Xia ruofei. "Mr. Xia, is everything settled?" "En!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Dean Qin, let's go to the ICU!" "Okay, thank you ..." Dean Qin quickly said. The two of them hurried to the elevator. A cerebral hemorrhage was a very dangerous disease, especially since MA Xiong had fallen into a deep coma so quickly. Under such circumstances, the death rate was more than 90%, and they all died within a few hours to a few days, so the two of them felt a sense of urgency. As soon as he saw Xia ruofei and Dean Qin, Ma Zhiming immediately walked up to them. Most of Ma Zhiming's relatives were watching from a distance with complicated expressions. Ma Jia, who had been spitting sh * t just now, even sneered and looked at Xia ruofei with disdain. In fact, not to mention Ma Jia and these relatives, even Dean Qin and the hospital's brain experts also felt that Ma Zhiming was desperate. With such serious symptoms of cerebral hemorrhage, he could die at any time. How could Chinese medicine be effective? "Xia Sheng!" Ma Zhiming shouted. "The medicine is ready," Xia ruofei smiled and said, "there's no time to waste. Let's give it to old master Ma immediately!" "Okay, okay ..." Ma Zhiming quickly said. He personally accompanied Xia ruofei and entered the ICU under Dean Qin's guidance. Everyone put on sterile clothes and went through a full set of disinfection procedures before they finally entered MA Xiong's ward. This was the first time that Ma Zhiming had seen his father since he returned to Hong Kong. The White – haired MA Xiong was lying on the hospital bed with his eyes closed. He looked extremely Haggard. His body was connected to all kinds of wires, and advanced medical equipment monitored his body's various indicators at all times. Xia ruofei couldn't help but take a few more glances at the skinny old man on the bed. He couldn't associate him with the tycoon who was famous in the business world of Hong Kong. MA Xiong started from scratch and accumulated tens of billions of assets after decades of hard work. He was the 'King of jewelry' in Hong Kong. At the same time, the Hengfeng group founded by MA Xiong had been involved in many industries such as food and beverage, medical care, and finance in recent years. It was a true business Kingdom. However, such a business giant still seemed so vulnerable in the face of a sudden illness. Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel the fragility of life. So what if he was rich? If the King of Hell wants you to die at midnight, you really won't live to see five. "Daddy ..." Ma Zhiming's voice was a little choked. "Master Ming, Mr. MA is in a deep coma. He doesn't respond to external stimuli ..." Dean Qin said in a low voice. Xia ruofei carefully placed the medicine on the bedside table and said, "There's no time to waste. We'll feed the medicine to old Mr MA immediately." "Mr. Xia, Mr. MA doesn't have any swallowing reaction," Dean Qin quickly said. "Should we perform a gastric intubation?" It was also very important to be careful when administering medicine to a patient in a deep coma. This was because a normal person would let the food enter their esophagus through swallowing, but there would be no swallowing reaction in a patient in a deep coma. The amount of Chinese medicine was relatively large. If it was taken directly, the success rate would be very low, and it was even likely to choke the lungs. However, if intubation was needed, the patient would suffer because the catheter usually entered through the nostril and was directly placed into the stomach. The process was naturally very painful. Of course, unconscious patients generally wouldn't feel this kind of pain. Xia ruofei pondered for a moment. "Not for now. Let's try it in small amounts first. If it really doesn't work, we'll intubate again." "Ah? "This ..." Dean Qin was shocked. "Mr. Xia, this is too dangerous. No, no..." Dean Qin didn't expect Xia ruofei to make such a layman's decision. He didn't have any hope for Chinese medicine to begin with, and now Xia ruofei's decision made him even more suspicious of Xia ruofei's medical skills. That was because Xia ruofei did not even know what was common sense! If it wasn't for Ma Zhiming, Dean Qin would have scolded him. Ma Zhiming said without thinking, "Dean Qin, listen to Xia Sheng!" "This ... This ... Alright!" Dean Qin sighed and spoke. This was the case with private hospitals. They were the young owners, so they had the final say. Professionalism was useless. Dean Qin stood aside and watched as Xia ruofei made a scene. Xia ruofei lifted the head of the bed and scooped a small amount of the medicine. He gestured for Ma Zhiming to come over and help hold MA Xiong. Then, he held MA Xiong's jaw and used a little force to make MA Xiong's mouth open a slit. He used his other hand to hold the soup spoon and put the small amount of medicinal soup into MA Xiong's mouth bit by bit. Dean Qin shook his head. Xia ruofei's actions were too unprofessional. However, Xia ruofei was still very calm. After feeding her a small mouthful, he waited for a while before scooping up a large spoonful and preparing to feed her a second mouthful. Dean Qin almost couldn't help but stop Yingying. It didn't matter if the first mouthful was small, but the second mouthful was full. If Xia ruofei continued to mess around, the patient would be in danger. However, to Dean Qin's surprise, Xia ruofei successfully fed him the entire spoonful of medicinal soup and quickly scooped another spoonful. Dean Qin took a closer look. When Xia ruofei was feeding him the medicine, MA Xiong's throat was obviously swallowing! Dean Qin's eyes almost popped out ... What was going on? Why would MA Xiong, who was in a deep coma, suddenly have a swallowing reaction? Could it be that his coma index has increased? Dean Qin pounced on the devices that were monitoring MA Xiong's vital signs ...

Chapter 120: It's time to go on stage, let's talk about what's on our minds (1)

Steel Spear's first book, "rebirth: long wind and waves", was released on May 28, 2006 on Qidian Chinese website. He remembered that the domain name at that time was still "CMFU." It had been going around for more than ten years, during which he had suspended writing for a period of time due to work reasons. Later, he followed his old team to write 4.6 million words "super top – grade popinjay" in the creation world. This time, he finally released a new book on Qidian. Speaking of which, steel gun could be considered an old driver of Qidian. However, ten years had passed, and everything had changed. That's why steel gun wrote his new book with the mentality of a newbie. Just like what I signed on QQ: Not impetuous, not slacking off, not forgetting his original heart. Time flew by, and in the blink of an eye, "God – Level farm" had been released on Qidian for nearly two months. After its new book period, it would welcome an important moment to be put on the shelves the next day. If a new book was a process of accumulating popularity, then putting it on the shelves was a test of the new book's results. Subscription and monthly votes were undoubtedly the two most important indicators. At this moment, steel spear was both excited and nervous. They were excited because their two months of hard work was finally beginning to pay off, while they were nervous because of the uncertainty of the results after the publication. A book, a few months of preparation time, a lot of effort, steel spear couldn't help but worry about the gains and losses. Therefore, today, steel spear didn't complain or stir up emotions. He only sincerely asked for help.
