Chapter 1171: Skills that astonishes four people (2)

Hearing this, everyone couldn't help but laugh. Seeing the stone puppet's deflated expression, they felt like laughing.

Xia ruofei smiled. "The symptoms of qi deficiency can be gradually alleviated through diet therapy. In addition, I can help you get rid of the symptoms of chest tightness immediately."

"Really?" The stone puppet asked, its eyes wide.

"It's effective with one shot!" Xia ruofei smiled faintly, with the air of a famous Chinese medicine practitioner. "Do you want to try?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Shi Yang hurriedly said.

Compared to the others, Shi Yang had no doubts about Xia ruofei's medical skills. Although her chest tightness and shortness of breath were not fatal, it had troubled her for a long time. She had to take deep breaths from time to time, which made her feel very uncomfortable.

"How do you do acupuncture?" Shi Xiao asked with anticipation. Do you need a room?"

After speaking, Shi Yang's face became slightly hot. If she had to take off her clothes for acupuncture, she would not be able to accept it in front of a young man like Xia ruofei.

The crowd looked at Xia ruofei with an ambiguous look. They felt that this guy was really good at picking up girls! With just a few light words, he could get close to a beautiful woman ...

On the other hand, Song Wei and Lu You's gazes were more threatening.

Xia ruofei felt like he was sitting on pins and needles. He quickly waved his hand and said, "No, no, it's not that complicated! This place will do!"

With that, Xia ruofei stood up and walked to the side. He searched in his bag. In fact, he took out his set of silver needles from the medium.

He then walked to the stone puppet's seat. Liu Zhe, who was beside the stone puppet, quickly stood up and said, "Brother Xia, you sit here!"

Xia ruofei did not stand on ceremony. He nodded at Liu Zhe and sat down. Then, he slowly opened the box.

Looking at the long silver needles, the stone puppet was a little afraid. Xia ruofei smiled gently and said, "Don't be nervous. Stretch out your right hand. It won't hurt!"

How could it not hurt when such a long needle was in her hand? Shi Yang didn't believe it at all, but she had already developed blind trust in Xia ruofei's medical skills, so she still gathered her courage and stretched out her hand.

The others stared at Xia ruofei without blinking.

Xia ruofei did not seem to be embarrassed under the gazes of so many people. With a faint smile on his face, he picked up a silver needle.

The stone puppet saw the shining silver needles and closed its eyes in fear.

Xia ruofei easily reached out his hand and inserted the silver needle into the Neiguan point on the stone puppet's right wrist.

The stone puppet only felt as if it had been bitten by a mosquito, and then a tingling feeling came from its arm.

She mustered her courage to open her eyes and saw that the silver needle was already stuck in her arm. As Xia ruofei twisted it, the end of the needle was shaking slightly. She was so frightened that she quickly closed her eyes again.

If there were any Chinese medicine experts present, they would be amazed by Xia ruofei's technique.

However, all the people present were laymen, so they could only knock for fun at most.

Even so, they felt that Xia ruofei's technique was quite wonderful. Although they could not tell what was good about it, it was so comfortable and harmonious, as if the person and the needle were one.

This was not an illusion.

The realm of human – Needle unity was not an exaggeration. However, there were very few people who could reach this realm. Even those well – known Chinese medical Masters might not be able to reach this realm.

Xia ruofei was able to do this not only because of his high spiritual cultivation, but also because of the precious Traditional Chinese Medicine books in the human jade talisman.

The stone puppet was extremely nervous. She felt her arm become more and more sore, as if a warm current was entering her body from the acupuncture point. Her whole body felt like she was bathing in a hot spring, so comfortable that she was about to moan.

After a while, Xia ruofei reached out and easily retrieved the silver needle without any hesitation.

The stone puppet's eyes were still tightly shut. Xia ruofei's voice rang in her ears. "Alright! Done!"

Shi Yang opened her eyes and realized that Xia ruofei had already kept the silver needle. She asked in surprise, "It's done? It really doesn't hurt at all!"

Xia ruofei arranged the silver needles and smiled. "It's just a small problem. One needle is enough. Feel it ..." He said.

Only then did the stone puppet come back to her senses. She tried to take a few breaths, and then pressed a few times on her towering chest in disbelief, causing the men present to almost drool.

Shi Yang revealed a pleasantly surprised expression and loudly said, "It's really not boring at all! Brother Xia, you're too godly!"

Xia ruofei closed the box of silver needles, stood up and smiled. "It's just a small trick, not worth mentioning ..."

Lu You saw Xia ruofei's smug look and couldn't help but roll her eyes at him. What a pretentious prick ...

Xia ruofei's display of his skills had completely stunned these people. They had never seen such magical medical skills before. After a moment of silence, these people scrambled to say, "Brother Xia, please help me take a look too!"

"There's me, there's me ..."

Xia ruofei returned to his seat, cleared his throat, and said, "Don't worry, I said that I'll do voluntary diagnosis for you today! One by one ..."

Song Wei turned her head and looked at Xia ruofei deeply. She was worried that these rich men would not say anything because of her, but they would not think much of Xia ruofei. Now it seemed that she had worried too much.

Xia ruofei was such an amazing person. No matter where he went, even if he wanted to keep a low profile, he would inadvertently become the focus of everyone.

Moreover, he had the intention of showing off his skills today to shock these young masters and young mistresses.

These usually arrogant young masters and young mistresses all lined up obediently while Xia ruofei sat firmly in his seat.

When he saw Song Wei and Lu You standing up, he quickly said, "I say ... You two don't have to join in the fun, right? I'm about to become your private doctor! If there's something wrong with the two of you, wouldn't that be a slap to your brother's face?"

Lu You and Song Wei looked at each other and smiled.

"We're just making space for miracle doctor Xia!" Song Wei pouted. I don't want to delay your treatment!"

Xia ruofei looked up and laughed, "I like to hear that ..."

"Brother Xia, I'll go first, I'll go first!" Liu Zhe was the first to speak.

Xia ruofei took Liu Zhe's pulse and whispered into his ear, "Liu Zhe, you've been having a bit of a ringing in your ears recently, and you have headaches occasionally, right? Your problem isn't that big, but it's not that small either. I'll give you a prescription to recuperate, but you have to control that area. This is a sign of kidney deficiency!"

Although Xia ruofei's voice was very low, it was still heard by Shi Xiao. This girl had already finished reading and did not go to line up. She was standing beside Xia ruofei in secret!

She immediately laughed and said, "haha!" Liu Zhe's kidney is weak ..."

Everyone burst into laughter, and a few girls also laughed with their faces red. However, they all looked at Liu Zhe with a strange expression.

“Shi gan, you and I are irreconcilable!” Liu Zhe’s face turned green.

Xia ruofei didn’t care too much. He wrote down a prescription and handed it to Liu Zhe. Then, without looking up, he said, “Next!”

In truth, he had long since discovered that the stone puppet was eavesdropping, but he had intentionally lowered his voice to just enough for the stone puppet to hear.

Who asked Liu Zhe to be the first one to come out and ask about him? Hehe ...

“You’re in good health, and you have the habit of running long distances, right? That’s a good thing, but you have to pay attention to the wear and tear of your knees due to excessive exercise. It’s best to stop running for a while.”

“It’s chronic gastritis. I’ll give you a prescription, and you’ll see the effects in a week!”

“There’s nothing wrong with it, but you sprained your ankle two days ago, right? Come, come, come, I’ll be fine with a needle!”

.....

In a short while, Xia ruofei had looked through everyone.

These, these popinjays were completely convinced.

Xia ruofei only needed to take a few glances or check their pulse to accurately tell their situation without any mistakes.

A few of them who received treatment on the spot also felt the effects immediately.

This was a true godly doctor!

The way everyone looked at Xia ruofei changed. They all kept the prescription carefully.

No one doubted Xia ruofei’s magical medical skills anymore.

Chapter 1172: conspiring for good things (1)

“Alright,” Song Wei said loudly, “you’ve seen her. Can we eat now?”

“Let’s eat! I have to give a toast to brother Xia later!”

“Of course! Brother Xia, from today onwards, you’re my idol!”

“Don’t fight with me for my idol! I’ll fight whoever tries to snatch it from me!”

The rich Playboys laughed and returned to their seats.

Although the atmosphere was still as warm as before, the feeling was different.

Previously, everyone was only polite to Xia ruofei because of Song Wei.

Even if Xia ruofei's company was very big and could easily buy a courtyard house in the capital that was worth hundreds of millions, it was still not enough in the eyes of these rich men.

To put it bluntly, this was still an official – based society, especially the way of thinking of these wastrels. Unless they were as rich as Tang He and MA Xiong, it was difficult for ordinary merchants to gain their respect.

However, after Xia ruofei displayed his amazing medical skills, everything was different.

Who didn't have a headache or a fever? They might not be interested in ordinary doctors, but they could tell that Xia ruofei's medical skills were superb even if they were laymen. It would be great to make friends with such a miracle doctor.

Moreover, Song Wei had personally introduced Xia ruofei to everyone. Even if he did not have a strong background, his relationship with Song Wei was enough to make everyone think highly of him.

Therefore, everyone was passionate from the bottom of their hearts.

After the banquet started, one by one, people started to toast Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei had developed a habit of drinking freely in the Army. He would not refuse anyone and would drink three glasses with anyone who was willing to. This made the rich men like him even more.

After the meal, all the rich men were calling Xia ruofei 'brother'. The ladies looked at Xia ruofei differently.

However, with Song Wei and Lu You on his left and right, Xia ruofei could only sit still and did not dare to show any expression of being bewitched.

After the guests and the host had their fun, the party ended with Song Wei's suggestion.

Song Wei heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. She had completed the task her father had given her.

That's right. This gathering was organized by Song Qiming. Song Wei's purpose was the same as what Song Rui did in the capital city a few days ago. She wanted Xia ruofei to get to know more friends.

Although not many of these rich Playboys were in politics, and even their ranks in the system were generally not very high, they were more reliable than anyone when it came to handling matters.

The group left the Chen family restaurant. Liu Zhe had originally proposed to hold another party and sing something.

But as soon as he said it, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Young man, don't forget my doctor's advice! Temperance, temperance ..."

Liu Zhe fled in the midst of everyone's laughter.

However, he really listened to Xia ruofei's words because Xia ruofei's medical skills had already convinced him. He did not dare to disobey!

As the host, Song Wei saw everyone off at the door. In the end, only Song Wei, Lu You, and Xia ruofei were left at the entrance of Chen family restaurant.

“Ruofei, I’ll leave the difficult task of sending us home to you!” Song Wei said with a smile.

“As you command! I’ll go get the car now ...”

“Can you still drive?” Lu You quickly said, “why don’t we call a designated driver? You’ve drunk so much tonight ...”

“I’m fine!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “Who am I? The doctor! I secretly massaged a few acupuncture points just now, and the smell of alcohol has already dissipated!”

“Really?” Lu You was a little skeptical. “This is not a joke! Drunk – driving is a serious crime these days!”

“Why Would I Lie to You? If you don’t believe me, you can smell it. There’s no smell of alcohol at all!”

Xia ruofei said as he breathed out at Lu You.

However, he regretted it immediately after he did it because it was too ambiguous.

Especially when he saw Song Wei looking at him with a half – Smile, Xia ruofei felt even more embarrassed.

Lu You’s face also turned slightly hot, but she felt sweet in her heart.

She quickly pretended to be nonchalant and said, “It really doesn’t smell like alcohol! Sister Weiwei, do you think Xia ruofei’s words can be trusted?”

“You should know him better than I do!” Song Wei said with a smile. Since he said there’s no problem, then there won’t be a problem!”

Xia ruofei clapped his hands and said, “Look at Song Wei’s words, it’s so comfortable to hear! Fine! Then it’s decided. You guys wait here for a while, I’ll go get the car!”

With that, Xia ruofei jogged to the parking lot.

Song Wei and Lu You stood still. After a moment, Lu You reacted and called out, “I was wondering why he was so forthright when he drank with others! Even the smell of alcohol had dissipated! No wonder he didn’t get drunk! Liu Zhe and his gang had even foolishly forced him to drink, and in the end, they had gotten themselves drunk! This guy is too cunning!”

With a smile on her face, Song Wei said gently, “Don’t the girls nowadays like this kind of bad guy?”

Lu You blushed and said, “That’s just those insensible little girls. A real mature girl is not so childish! I say ... Sister Weiwei, don’t tell me you’re in love with Xia ruofei?”

Song Wei blushed and said in a panic, “What nonsense are you saying! How is that possible?”

Chapter 1173: Conspiring for good things (2)

At this moment, the Knight XV SUV drove past. Xia ruofei rolled down the window and asked with a smile, "I saw you two sisters chatting so happily from afar! What are you talking about?"

This time, Lu You and Song Wei both blushed and said in unison, "It's not your fault!"

"Heh ... I didn't have to ask ..." Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment.

The two of them burst into laughter at the same time.

The two of them didn't choose the front passenger seat and sat in the back seat.

The Knight XV SUV roared and left the Chen family restaurant.

After a while, Song Wei looked outside and said, "RUO Fei, you're going the wrong way, right? If you drive east from Jiangbin road, can't you go to the municipal committee's family housing area first?"

Xia ruofei's expression didn't change as he replied, "really?" I'm not familiar with the road! I'm following the GPS. I thought it was closer to Sanshan University! So ... I navigated to Sanshan University first ..."

Lu You's eyes revealed a trace of resentment. She bit her lower lip and looked at Xia ruofei's back. Then, she smiled and said, "Sister Weiwei, Xia ruofei wants to send me back to school so that he can have some time with you ..."

"Don't talk nonsense!" Song Wei blushed and said.

Actually, that was what Xia ruofei really thought. However, he did not want to use this opportunity to get close to Song Wei. The main thing was that he did not want to be alone with Lu You. He really did not know how to resolve the awkwardness.

Of course, if he had the chance, he could also mention Song Rui and the ancient tomb. It was the best of both worlds.

Xia ruofei said innocently, "I'm more wronged than Dou E!" I'm really not familiar with this area. Why don't we not use the GPS? How about this, you guys show me the way, and we'll send whoever's closest to us off first. That should work, right?"

Lu You was both angry and amused as she said, "We're almost at Sanshan University, what's there to change? Let's do this!"

"Yes, sir!" Xia ruofei chuckled to himself and felt his foot stepping on the accelerator lighter.

They arrived at Sanshan University very quickly. Xia ruofei drove directly to the female dormitory where Lu You was staying. He even got out of the car and opened the door for Lu You, looking like a Lackey.

Lu You looked at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile and said in a low voice, "There's no use hiding from me! You can't hide forever, hehe ..."

After saying that, Lu You turned around and walked into the dormitory building with light steps.

Xia ruofei shook his head with a bitter smile and returned to the car.

After restarting the off – Road vehicle, only Xia ruofei and Song Wei were left in the car. Lu You had said those half – joking words earlier, so the atmosphere seemed even more awkward.

“Then ... Thank you!” Xia ruofei broke the silence.

Song Wei sat in the back seat and lowered her head slightly. She said softly, “You’re welcome ... I don’t know if I can help you. ”

“I can! Your friends are really capable!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “my company’s headquarters is in Sanshan city. I’ll need their help sooner or later!”

“That’s good ...” Song Wei said.

“Oh, that’s right!” Xia ruofei said, “I still have something to ask you!”

“Speak!” Song Wei raised her head and said.

“Your uncle song Rui ... He’s taken a fancy to your best friend and classmate, Zhuo Yiyi. You should’ve noticed this long ago, right?” Xia ruofei asked.

“Yeah ...” Song Wei pursed her lips and smiled.

“Then I won’t beat around the bush!” Xia ruofei said, “this kid returned to the capital some time ago and is always trying to get close to Zhuo Yiyi. You don’t say, their relationship has really gotten closer, but it seems to be a little off – Track ...”

“He ran off course?” Song Wei was confused.

“Your silly best friend seems to be a little slow when it comes to relationships ... When song Rui came to look for her, she thought that he was her best friend! There’s no sign of them becoming a couple at all, and the hope is getting slimmer and slimmer!” Xia ruofei said with a bitter smile.

Song Wei burst out laughing.

Based on her understanding of Zhuo Yiyi, this was indeed something that this silly girl would do.

Xia ruofei’s expression turned serious as he said, “Song Wei, I know song Rui quite well. He’s not a bad person at heart, just a little spoiled. It’s not a big problem. According to my observation, he’s really in love with Zhuo Yiyi, and he even has the intention of getting married ...”

“I believe you, so you mean ...” Song Wei nodded.

“I’m just thinking that if song Rui continues to chase us like this, it’ll probably be difficult to get any results.” Xia ruofei said, “aren’t you on good terms with Zhuo Yiyi? Besides, you guys usually keep in contact, right? That’s why I wanted to ask you to help me, or to make fun of her and song Rui in that aspect, and then say more good things about song Rui ... You know. ”

“So you want me to be the matchmaker?” Song Wei laughed.

“Oh, right! This is what it means!” Xia ruofei asked, “how is it? Are you going to help me with this?”

Song Wei leaned back in her seat and said with a smile, "What's in it for me to help? In the end, I didn't even get any benefits and even turned my best friend into my aunt. Wouldn't that be a huge loss for me?"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "You really reminded me. If song Rui really ran out of ideas, I think we can let him confess to Zhuo Yiyi. If he's rejected, I'll let him tell Zhuo Yiyi that once she's with him, she'll become Song Wei's aunt. That'll raise their status. I think Zhuo Yiyi might agree to song Rui because of this!"

Chapter 1174: Conspiring for good things (3)

Song Wei could not help but pat Xia ruofei's shoulder and said, "Are you looking for a beating?"

Xia ruofei raised his head and laughed, "then who asked you to do that?" It's a win – win situation. Look at me, I didn't want anything in return. I took the initiative to help song Rui match – make this happen ..."

"You two are just bad friends! If you don't help him, who else will you help?" Song Wei pouted.

"Hey! Is there anyone who would talk about their own uncle like that?" Xia ruofei said, "I'm good friends with song Rui. Shouldn't you call me ..."

"No way!" Song Wei was embarrassed. "Do you still want my help?"

"I want to, I want to!" Xia ruofei said, "then I'll leave this to you! You can't just do your job without putting in effort!"

Song Wei pondered for a moment and asked, "ruofei, are you sure my uncle song Rui is serious?" I ... I'm afraid that Yiyi will get hurt ... She might have graduated from University and is usually very carefree, but she's actually very innocent, especially in terms of relationships. She's like a blank piece of paper ..."

"Don't worry," Xia ruofei said seriously. "If song Rui dares to let Zhuo Yiyi down in the future, I'll be the first to deal with him!"

Song Wei nodded her head heavily and said, "Alright, I'll take this job!"

"This is right!" Xia ruofei said happily, "if the two of them really get together, it'll be a great thing!"

"I can't guarantee that I'll succeed, but I'll definitely try my best." Song Wei said.

"There won't be a problem if you do it!" Xia ruofei said confidently.

"You're pretty confident in me, aren't you?" Song Wei pursed her lips and smiled. But come to think of it, you're so good at coaxing girls. If you just teach my uncle song Rui a few tricks, wouldn't that silly girl Zhuo Yiyi be able to get her? Do you still need to come and beg me?"

"What are you saying!" Xia ruofei said, "I don't know how to coax girls."

"You're still so modest!" Song Wei said with a half – Smile,"Lu you and I both saw it tonight! Good girl...You've managed to coax that little girl Shi Yang so much that she's almost willing to devote herself to you ..."

"Hold on, hold on ..." Xia ruofei said hurriedly."I'm just trying to liven up the atmosphere! Besides, I'm not just treating the stone puppet. Didn't you see that Liu Zhe kept my prescription like a treasure?"

Song Wei couldn't help but blush and laugh when she thought of Liu Zhe being teased by Xia ruofei.

At this time, the car had arrived at the municipal committee's family courtyard. Xia ruofei felt as if he had been pardoned and wanted to continue the topic. Who knew what song Wei would say next!

He quickly jumped out of the car and opened the door for Song Wei.

Song Wei glanced at Xia ruofei and asked,""Do you want to go in and have a cup of tea? My dad hasn't seen you for a long time. He was just talking about you yesterday!"

Xia ruofei quickly waved his hand and said,"next time!" It's too late, let's not disturb uncle song ..."

"Alright then!" Song Wei laughed. Thank you for sending me! Goodbye!"

After she finished speaking, Song Wei walked towards the small villa.

"Don't forget what I've just told you!"Xia ruofei said.

"Don't worry!" Song Wei waved her hand and said without turning her head.

Xia ruofei watched as Song Wei entered the courtyard. Then, he got back into the car and started the engine to return to the farm.

As the car was on the road, Xia ruofei tapped the steering wheel lightly and muttered to himself,""Hey! How could I have forgotten about the ancient tomb? It's all Song Wei's fault for always interrupting ..."

The world stone was very important to Xia ruofei. However, he knew that the ancient tomb had been sealed off after the incident. Furthermore, the tomb was filled with an invisible and odorless 'poisonous gas'. No one would be able to get there in a short period of time.

In addition, the Jade skin cream and heart – nourishing soup would be on the market in a few days, so it was indeed not suitable for him to go far at this time.

Since he didn't have the time to mention it this time, he would find another opportunity next time! Xia ruofei said in his heart.

He stepped on the gas pedal as he thought about it. Knight XV made a powerful roar and sped out of the city.

Chapter 1175: Da Hong Pao, the Paradise card (1)

The next day, ye Lingyun was arranging the next month's shift schedule in his office as the head of security.

Now that the scope of Tao Yuan farm had expanded a lot, the daily patrol workload had naturally increased a lot. In addition, there was a need to send people to guard the pharmaceutical factory 24 hours a day, so the shifts had to be arranged in advance every month to ensure that everything was equal.

It was going to be the National Day holiday soon. As usual, the company would have a seven – day holiday. Of course, some of the security personnel would be left behind.

Some of the Veterans had already gotten married and had children. They wanted to take advantage of the holiday to go home and visit their families. After all, they were earning more than before. It was only natural for them to go home to see their wives and children during the holidays and show filial piety to their parents.

There was also one person who had eaten his fill and was not hungry. Most of them volunteered to stay on duty.

According to the company's system, everyone could enjoy different lengths of leave according to the number of years they had worked. During the Chinese New Year, these single men generally would not fight for leave. Instead, they would wait until the "off – season".

Ye Lingyun was now a statistical staff, arranging the shifts during the National Day period.

As a director of the company's management, he didn't need to do such things personally. He could have gotten an assistant. However, he didn't think it was necessary. He could do such a small task by himself. Compared to his brothers who were patrolling the front line, he was much more relaxed.

Ye Lingyun wasn't very familiar with the use of EXCEL tables. He clumsily arranged the duty schedule for the National Day holiday, then checked it against his own book again. After confirming that there were no problems, he pressed the print button.

The printer buzzed and spat out the freshly printed duty roster.

At that moment, ye Lingyun's phone on the table vibrated.

He saw that it was Xia ruofei's number and quickly picked up. "Brother Xia!"

"Where are you? Go to the front of the complex and unload the things!" Xia ruofei's voice was heard from the phone.

"Unload the car?" Ye Lingyun was stunned for a moment, then quickly replied, "Okay, okay, okay. Brother Xia, please wait a moment. I'm in the office, I'll be right down!"

Ye Lingyun didn't care about the shift schedule and jogged downstairs.

Xia ruofei was smoking beside the pickup truck. There were four large fiber bags in the truck.

After seeing ye Lingyun, Xia ruofei said, "Move the things away! Hurry up and deal with it, don't let it break ..."

“What’s that, brother Xia ...” Ye Lingyun asked.

Then, his eyes lit up and he asked with a happy expression, “This ... This can’t be Cha Qing, right?”

“What do you think?” Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said, “I’ve already prepared the things for you. It’s just a matter of how good your craftsmanship is!”

Ye linyun was overjoyed and quickly said, “Don’t worry, brother Xia! Just wait and see!”

Ye Lingyun wasn’t worried about the quality of Xia ruofei’s tea leaves at all. How could they not be quality?

He had learned the traditional tea – making skills from Mr. Li Zhifu, and he was worried that he would not be able to put them to good use!

Ye Lingyun grabbed a bag of green tea and easily carried it on his shoulder. Then, he quickly ran to the tea – making workshop not far away.

Carrying a bag that weighed more than a hundred pounds on his body, it was as light as a feather.

Xia ruofei laughed from behind him. “Don’t worry! Didn’t I ask you to call a few of your brothers over to help you?”

“I’m fine! I’ve already prepared the manpower!” Ye Lingyun said without turning his head, “I’ll get people after I move the things over!”

Xia ruofei smiled and shook his head at ye Lingyun’s energetic look. He picked up the bags one by one and walked towards the tea – making workshop.

Ye Lingyun put down the bag and came out. Seeing this, he quickly shouted, “Brother Xia, just leave it there. I’ll move it!”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “there’s one more over there!” You can move it! After you’re done, call your people over to start work!”

Xia ruofei grabbed a bag of things that weighed more than a hundred pounds in each hand as if he was playing with them.

“Alright!” Ye linyun replied.

After moving all the tea leaves into the tea – making workshop, ye Lingyun immediately called the Veterans and got ready to start making tea.

Xia ruofei threw the keys to the pickup to him and asked him to park the car. Then, he walked home with light steps.

He didn’t care how ye Lingyun made the tea. This bit of Tea Green was nothing to Xia ruofei. By now, even those at the mountain sea realm had already cut out a forest of tea trees. Meanwhile, there were quite a number of tea trees in the Archean realm. Under the speed of time that was thirty times faster, they could be harvested once every ten days.

If the quality of ye Lingyun's handmade tea leaves could reach a higher level and be more stable, Xia ruofei was prepared to increase the supply of Tea Green and launch the Taoyuan Brand Da Hong Pao tea leaves.

In the next two days, ye Lingyun and a few veterans who helped him made all the tea leaves into finished tea leaves without stopping.

The process of making tea was completely done by hand using the ancient method, without the help of any machine.

After the tea leaves were made, ye Lingyun brought them to Xia ruofei immediately.

Xia ruofei made a cup and tasted it. He immediately smiled and said, "Not bad! Ling Yun, it seems like you've inherited old Li's true teachings ..."

Ye linyun scratched his head in embarrassment and said, "It's mainly because the tea you provided is of high quality, brother Xia. Also ... This is the first time I've made tea on my own without a master's supervision. I feel that the heat control is still a little lacking ..."

Chapter 1176: Da Hong Pao, the Paradise card (2)

In fact, Xia ruofei had also tasted it. Although they were the same tea leaves, the tea leaves made by ye Lingyun were still a little different from the tea leaves made by Xia Qing in the medium.

Of course, Xia Qing's cooking skills were not worse than li Zhifu's. Moreover, there was such a rich spiritual energy in the space. It was already very good that ye Lingyun was able to do this.

At least, compared to the Da Hong Pao that cost thousands of Yuan per 500 grams outside, it didn't taste bad at all. Moreover, it was less flamboyant, which was very rare.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "it's already very good!" Ling Yun, I'll prepare some Tea Green for you in two days. You can try it out. "

"Good! Thank you, brother Xia!" Ye linyun said happily.

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "these are all additional work. You're contributing to the company! I'll provide you with more tea leaves when the quality of the tea leaves is stable. Our company can also launch our own brand of tea leaves!"

"Yes! Brother Xia, I'll definitely complete this mission beautifully!" Ye linyun patted his chest and said.

He had been learning the ancient tea – making methods from li Zhifu for a long time and had fallen in love with this industry. He was so happy in Xia ruofei's company. If he could do the job he loved, it would be perfect!

In the next few days, Xia ruofei brought some tea leaves to make tea for ye Lingyun.

Ye linyun was indeed talented.

The quality of the tea leaves he made got better and better, and his control of the fire also quickly stabilized.

In the past few days, they had produced a total of seven to eight catties of tea leaves. Xia ruofei asked ye Lingyun to distribute them to the farm employees so that they could have a taste and give more suggestions.

Although the tea leaves made by ye Lingyun didn't have beautiful packaging, they were very fragrant. When they were brewed, the room was filled with the fragrance of tea. Even the villagers who didn't know how to taste tea couldn't stop praising them.

Of course, they didn't give any suggestions. In fact, even Xia ruofei couldn't give any suggestions.

There was still a certain difference between these tea leaves and the ones made by Xia Qing, but it was all determined by the technique and the fine control of the fire. It couldn't be improved in one or two days.

In any case, the tea leaves made by ye Lingyun had completely reached the market sales standard and could definitely be called high – Quality.

Xia ruofei was very satisfied with ye Lingyun's work. He immediately ordered the finance department to give ye Lingyun and a few other employees a bonus for participating in the tea – making.

He was prepared to provide ye Lingyun with a large number of tea leaves in a while and let him set up a relatively fixed team to handle the tea.

Of course, he still had to hold the position of head of security.

The main reason why they did not start mass production immediately was that Xia ruofei needed time to prepare the tea leaves.

Although there were many tea trees in the mountain sea realm, without the flow of time, even if the environment was far better than the outside world, they could only be harvested three to four times a year.

On the other hand, tea trees at the Archean realm could be harvested once every ten days or so. However, the number of tea trees was relatively small, so he needed some time to stock up on the tea leaves. After all, once the tea leaves were harvested and placed in the origin space, as long as they didn't come into direct contact with the soil in the origin space, they could be kept fresh for a long time. Once they were taken out, they would be the same as when they were just harvested.

Of course, there was another reason. Xia ruofei had to go to the capital city again. The preparation for the launch of the Xuanji jaded skin cream had been completed and they were ready to hold a new product launch.

Therefore, he planned to deal with the tea production after he returned from Beijing.

After all, to market the tea leaves, they also needed to promote it, design the packaging, contact the sales channels, and so on. It was not as simple as producing the product.

Feng Jing had been staying in the capital. After the post – production of the promotional video was completed, she sent it to Xia ruofei for review. The results were very good.

At first, Xia ruofei was worried that Duff was a Westerner and would not match the Chinese style of the promotional film. After watching the film, his worries disappeared.

The background was an ancient town that looked like an ink painting. In the midst of the flying petals, a white – robed Duff walked up the river barefooted, looking like a flower Fairy.

The team provided by Jennifer was indeed a gold medal team in Hollywood. Even an advertisement was shot with the effect of a blockbuster.

Xia ruofei was very satisfied.

After about half a month, Xia ruofei took a plane back to the capital.

As soon as he walked out of the airport, Wu Qiang, who had been waiting for a long time, quickly walked up to him.

“Boss!” Wu Qiang greeted Xia ruofei respectfully as he took Xia ruofei’s small suitcase.

“You’ve worked hard!” Xia ruofei smiled.

After getting into the car at the parking lot, Xia ruofei asked, “How’s the renovation of the courtyard house going?”

“The old platoon leader had personally informed us, and there aren’t many areas that you need to change, so the progress is still very fast.” Wu Qiang said while driving, “most of them are done, but there are still some work left to clean up. I’ll ask them to stop for two days so as not to disturb your rest.”

“Good! You’ve worked hard during this period of time.” Xia ruofei said.

“You’re welcome. This is my job!” “Boss, where are we going now?” Wu Qiang quickly replied and asked.

“Let’s go back to the courtyard house first!” Xia ruofei said, “I’m going to take a nap. Call me when we’re there.”

Chapter 1177: Da Hong Pao, the Paradise card (3)

“Alright!”

Xia ruofei leaned against the back of the Land Rover. Just as he closed his eyes and was about to take a nap, his phone vibrated.

Xia ruofei glanced at the phone screen and picked up the call with a smile. “Qiao’ er, why did you suddenly think of calling your brother?”

Lin Qiao snorted and said, "brother ruofei, you're so mean!" It's not easy for me to return to the three mountains, but you actually ran to the capital!"

Xia ruofei just remembered that today was the first day of the National Day holiday. With the seven – day holiday, Lin Qiao would definitely go back to the three mountains.

She had probably gone to the farm at the first moment, but she had come up empty – handed, so she had called to "condemn" her.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'm here for work, not for a tour ... Do you think I'm suffering?" The whole country is on holiday, and I still have to work!"

"I don't care!" Lin Qiao said angrily, "you're standing me up ..."

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly, "what should we do?" Why don't you come to Beijing for a few days? I'll pay for the plane tickets!"

"Really?" Lin Qiao's voice suddenly became much happier. However, after pondering for a moment, she said in a low mood, "forget it! I haven't been home for more than a month. I have to spend some time with my mom!"

Xia ruofei felt relieved and said, ""It seems that living independently is really tough! Our Qiao' er has grown up and knows how to be filial to the elderly ..."

Lin Qiao snorted, "bad brother!" Don't flatter me!"

"I'll try to come back as soon as possible," Xia ruofei said quickly. "If you're already back in school by then, I'll go to Egret Island to see you!"

"Really?" Lin Qiao said, "then you have to keep your word!"

"That's for sure!" Xia ruofei said, "I'll bring you some special pastries from the capital, okay?"

"This is more like it!" Lin Qiao's displeasure turned into joy. "Then you can go back to your work! My mom is calling me!"

She hung up the phone after she finished speaking.

Xia ruofei shook his head with a bitter smile and kept his phone.

If they were delayed for a few more days, by the time Lin Qiao returned to school, Xia ruofei had also planned to go to Heron Island. He had not given Lin Qiao the Jade Leaf that he had prepared!

If Lin Qiao was still at San Shan by then, it would be easy. He could just give both her and Hu Zi's mother their share.

After returning to the courtyard house, Xia ruofei gave Feng Jing a call and asked her to come over in the evening. Then, he walked around the courtyard with great interest to see the progress of the renovation works in the past half a month.

Zhao Yongjun's friend was quite reliable. He was indeed a professional in the restoration of ancient buildings. The project was very detailed and had a sense of antiquity, unlike the ancient buildings on the urban pedestrian streets, which were completely impossible.

This included the new side door in the backyard and the two garages that had been renovated. Everything was done almost perfectly, and the entire courtyard did not lose its sense of harmony.

Xia ruofei saw that the main renovation project was almost completed. There were some minor repairs that had not been completed, but it had been cleaned up. The construction tools were also placed neatly in the corner of the courtyard. The whole courtyard was in good hygiene. It did not look like it had just undergone civil engineering.

Obviously, this was all thanks to Wu Qiang. Xia ruofei also praised him.

In the afternoon, Xia ruofei rested for a while in the master bedroom in the central courtyard. He got up and went to the courtyard. After making a cup of tea, he took a book and leisurely flipped through it on the lounge chair.

Listening to the birds chirping on the pomegranate tree and the pigeon's whistle in the distance, the sun shone through the gaps of the leaves and onto his body, making him feel warm and comfortable.

In this courtyard house, it seemed as if time would flow longer.

When it was past four o'clock, Xia ruofei heard melodious music coming from the control system of the smart home. The control terminals were all over the courtyard so that the owner could control it at any time.

Of course, Xia ruofei had the highest authority. At the same time, Wu Qiang had some basic authority.

"Wu Qiang!" Xia ruofei shouted. "My friend must have arrived. Please go to the front yard to welcome him!"

Chapter 1178: if you want to do something, do it big_1

Wu Qiang replied and quickly walked toward the front courtyard.

Xia ruofei picked up the purple clay teapot on the stone table and took a sip of tea. After coming to the capital, he followed the local customs and stopped making kungfu tea. He just put the Dahongpao tea leaves into the purple clay teapot and poured it into hot water. It had a different taste.

After a while, Xia ruofei heard the sound of footsteps.

"Woof! Chairman, you're really carefree!" Feng Jing joked, "we're all as tired as dogs, but you're just drinking tea and lying down like an old man ..."

Xia ruofei straightened up and saw a group of people coming in. He couldn't help but laugh and said, ""Shua shua! Why are you all here? Are you guys here to eat a rich man?"

Other than Feng Jing, Duff also came to join in the fun. There was also Feng Jing's assistant, Liu Qian, as well as a few other staff members from the company's administrative office. They were all called to Beijing later to prepare for the jade skin cream's launch.

"That's a must!" Feng Jing laughed. "It's not easy for our stingy Chairman to treat us to a meal. Don't we have to mobilize all our members?"

Duff also greeted Xia ruofei with a smile. ""Mr. Xia, we meet again!"

Liu Qian and the rest were a little reserved as they greeted Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei chuckled and nodded. "Hello, everyone! Don't be so restrained, just treat it as your own home!"

Then, he stood up and stretched. ""CEO Feng, what you said just now was a little unkind! Although I don't really care about things as the chairman, I'm not stingy! When have I ever mistreated my own employees?"

"Yes, yes, yes, you're the most generous!" Feng Rao laughed. Chairman, what are you treating us to tonight?"

"It must be the best!" Xia ruofei said, "everyone has been working hard recently. I'll go out and buy some ingredients now. I'll personally cook today and make a delicious meal for everyone!"

"I'll go, boss!" Wu Qiang quickly said. I'm familiar with all the food markets nearby, so I can cook!"

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. "It's okay. It's okay. I'm rewarding my employees today. This is what I want!" Wu Qiang, you're in charge of receiving everyone. Now, bring them for a walk!"

"Alright then!" Wu Qiang hesitated for a moment before he replied. I'll do as you say!"

"Give me the car keys!" Xia ruofei said, "I'll go buy the ingredients now!"

"Then, let's thank the chairman!" Feng Jing cheered.

Liu Qian and the rest knew that Xia ruofei did not put on airs and did not stand on ceremony. They all smiled and expressed their gratitude to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei drove to the nearby Sam's Club and bought some ready-made braised dishes, cooked food, meat, and seasonings. He also bought a few extra shopping bags when he paid the bill.

Back in the car, he took out paradise vegetables and Drunken Eight Immortals wine from the origin space and put them in empty shopping bags. Then, he drove back to the courtyard.

The garage in the backyard was ready to be used after the renovation. Xia ruofei entered the backyard from the side door and parked the car in the garage.

Wu Qiang was showing everyone around the backyard. When he saw the situation, he quickly ran forward and took the shopping bags from Xia ruofei's hands.

Xia ruofei passed the car keys to Wu Qiang and said with a smile, ""I've really put in a lot of money today! He bought a lot of Taoyuan vegetables from Sam's shop ... What do you think this is? It's obviously our company's product, but we have to pay a high price to buy it from the supermarket in Beijing ..."

Feng Rao and the others couldn't help but laugh.

At the same time, everyone was well aware of the delicious taste of the Taoyuan vegetables produced by their own company, so they couldn't help but be full of anticipation for tonight's dinner.

"Chairman, do you need any help?" Feng Jing asked with a smile.

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "no need, no need. You're in charge of eating today!" If you're free, you can go to the theater to watch a movie. I think we can start eating after the movie!"

"Then we won't be polite!" Feng Rao said. Dear colleagues, since the chairman has spoken, let's go! I'm telling you! The Chairman's siheyuan's cinema was very advanced, not worse than a professional cinema! I'll bring you guys to experience it!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "go ahead!" "Wu Qiang, you go over there as well and find a new movie for everyone. You don't have to worry about this!"

"Okay, boss!"

After everyone had left, Xia ruofei rolled up his sleeves, put on his apron, and started to work in the kitchen.

Actually, although Xia ruofei was a little lazy, he was still quite motivated when it came to food. He felt a sense of accomplishment when he saw the dishes that looked, smelled, and tasted good.

An hour later, Xia ruofei heard footsteps from the courtyard and Duff's surprised voice. ""It smells so good!"

Xia ruofei finished the last dish and poked his head out of the kitchen. He smiled and said, ""Don't just watch! Come and help serve the dishes!"

Everyone had just finished watching a movie and was famished. They cheered and swarmed over, quickly bringing Xia ruofei's food to the dining room.

The large round dining table could fit around ten people. Xia ruofei took off his apron and hung it in the kitchen before calling for everyone to eat.

Wu Qiang subconsciously thought that it would be better to deal with it in the kitchen, but he was stopped by Xia ruofei.

Chapter 1179: if you want to do something, do it big_2

Xia ruofei said, "Wuqiang, remember this. There are not many rules in my house. Let's eat together!"

Wu Qiang's eyes flashed with a touch of emotion as he nodded heavily and said, "I know, boss!"

After they sat down, Xia ruofei asked Wu Qiang to help him pour the wine.

Then, he raised his glass and said with a smile, "Everyone has worked hard during this period of time! Especially President Feng and Duff. They've been working hard for more than ten days for this endorsement commercial. Let me give a toast to everyone!"

As everyone present was a company employee and only Duff was a foreigner, Xia ruofei spoke in Chinese. However, Feng Jing was sitting beside Duff and had been translating in English for her in a low voice.

Daphne also smiled charmingly. She raised her glass and said in English, "Come, cheers!"

"Cheers!"

"Cheers!"

Liu Qian and the rest were all young people. Xia ruofei had never put on airs, so everyone was not too reserved and raised their glasses.

After the first glass of wine, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Everyone, try my cooking! Today is to reward everyone, eat to your heart's content! I'll make more if it's not enough!"

The aroma of the food had already made everyone drool. After Xia ruofei spoke, everyone raised their chopsticks in unison ... As well as knives and forks. After all, Duff was not used to Chinese chopsticks, so Xia ruofei had specially prepared Western utensils for her.

"Delicious!"

"It's so delicious!"

"Chairman, your cooking is amazing!"

Everyone praised Xia ruofei as they ate. Even Duff gave Xia ruofei a thumbs – up.

The people in charge of cooking all had this feeling. They didn't have much appetite for the food they made, but if the people who ate praised it, they would be happier than eating it themselves.

Xia ruofei was like that. He grinned and said, "Eat more if you like it, just treat it like you're at home."

While they were gorging themselves, Liu Qian, under the urging of Feng Jing, led the employees to toast Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei was fearless and naturally did not reject anyone.

After the meal, Xia ruofei was fine. On the other hand, Liu Qian and the other girls were all red from drinking. They sat in their seats in a daze, looking very cute.

Xia ruofei saw that everyone was almost done drinking, so he smiled and said, "Let's call it a day! Don't leave tonight, everyone. My place is big anyway, so you can stay here!"

Under the influence of the alcohol, Liu Qian shouted happily, "Good, good! Long live the chairman!"

Xia ruofei smiled and asked Wu Qiang to arrange accommodation for everyone.

He had bought a lot of bedsheets last time, and they could be put to good use today.

In the middle courtyard, beside the stone table under the grape trellis.

Xia ruofei re – brewed a pot of tea and even took two purple sand cups. Since Feng Jing had not returned to her room, she followed Xia ruofei back to the central courtyard to report to Xia ruofei about the preparations for the press conference.

That night, Feng Rao was busy toasting to Liu Qian and the others. She didn't drink much, so she was quite sober. However, her face was red, and she looked cute under the street lamp in the courtyard.

"Chairman, we're having a product launch tomorrow. Will it affect our work ...?" Feng Jing asked worriedly.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "it's fine!" Wasn't the press conference at two o'clock in the afternoon tomorrow? You've already prepared for the early stage, so it's fine! Besides, aren't you guys going to sleep when you get back to the hotel?"

Feng Rao shook her head helplessly and said, "What you said makes sense! Who asked you to be the chairman?"

Actually, based on Feng Jing's personality, she would have definitely called for a meeting to discuss the details of the press conference tomorrow.

Even though they had rehearsed all the segments multiple times, as long as the press conference wasn't held, Feng Jing wouldn't be completely at ease and would have to repeat the process with her team.

However, Feng Jing was also very happy to see Xia ruofei today. She was the one who urged the employees to give Xia ruofei a toast. In the end, Xia ruofei acted as if nothing had happened, while Liu Qian and the other young ladies had all drunk too much.

Hence, Feng Jing couldn't blame anyone for what happened today.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "I'm very confident in you. Don't give yourself so much pressure. You need to be relaxed." You should relax when you need to!"

"I know!" Feng Rao said with a sweet smile.

"Chairman, I'll report to you the general situation of the preparation!" She said to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

Hence, Feng Rao organized her thoughts and said, ""We've hired a professional team to take charge of the venue's layout and planning, but ... Chairman, do we really need such a large venue?"

"Just tell me, have you booked the venue?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"I've already ordered it as you've instructed," "But ..." Feng Jing said.

Feng Jing's original plan was to rent a hotel's conference hall. However, when she called Xia ruofei to ask for permission, Xia ruofei told her to book the capital city University of Technology's Stadium ten days in advance.

This was a comprehensive Stadium with a total area of more than 30000 square meters and more than 15000 seats during the competition. Putting aside the high rent for the time being, for a small company like paradise Corporation, which was not well – known in Beijing, to hold such a large comprehensive Stadium for its first new product launch, how embarrassing would it be if only a few dozen or a hundred people participated in the empty Stadium?

Feng Jing had also raised her concerns, but Xia ruofei told her not to worry about it and to set the venue.

Furthermore, Xia ruofei had asked Feng Jing to start setting it up a week in advance so that it would be high – end and classy. He did not need to be afraid of spending money.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "it's done!" Have you arranged the venue as I said?"

"Yes," Feng Jing said with a bitter smile. "We've found the most professional team as you instructed. This team has been in charge of the venue layout and scheduling of several famous technology companies' new product launch conferences. They're more experienced in big occasions like this."

Feng Rao took a sip of tea from her purple sand cup and continued, "The venue's decorations have been completed. I went to check it yesterday and rehearsed the flow, so there shouldn't be any problems. We've specially designed posters and s, and the PowerPoint presentation of the press conference was made by a professional company. It's definitely high – end! According to your request, the Super large stage has been built. It uses the largest back – Projection screen, which is comparable to the max screen in the cinema ..."

Feng Jing smiled bitterly and said, ""When I was rehearsing yesterday, it felt so empty on stage. If there are only a few people at the press conference tomorrow, it would be a joke ..."

Xia ruofei raised his head and laughed, ""Don't worry! Have you sent out the invitations I asked you to?"

"Yes." Feng Jing nodded. "They've been sent out three days ago, but ... Chairman, will the central media companies like red Star and Huaxia really send people over?"

According to Xia ruofei's request, hundreds of media invitations were sent out. However, Feng Jing was not confident at all. There were many central media companies in the capital. Wouldn't small companies like this receive dozens or even hundreds of invitations a day? When they were free, they would send one or two newcomers to earn some transportation fees. If they were not free, it was normal for them to throw the invitation into the trash can.

"You just need to send out the invitation," Xia ruofei said. "Don't worry about the rest!"

"Alright then!" Feng Jing knew that Xia ruofei had a lot of power, so she didn't dwell on this matter. She shrugged and said, "we've also posted the ordinary audience's request on our official website, Weibo, and WeChat, but ... Not many people responded ..."

This was what Feng Jing was most worried about.

The Paradise Corporation was quite famous in the southeast province. If the press conference was held in Sanshan, it would not be difficult to gather one or two thousand viewers.

But the press conference was held in Beijing!

No matter how much fans in the southeast province like your brand, there are probably only a few who can travel thousands of miles to Beijing to attend the press conference.

Moreover, even if one or two thousand spectators were to be gathered and scattered into the stadium, they wouldn't even be able to fill a square.

According to Feng Jing's team's statistics, there were less than 1000 people who had signed up for the show, and many of them had come for the gifts provided by paradise Corporation.

At this point, Feng Rao couldn't help but look worried.

They had booked such a huge venue and decorated it according to the standards of a big name's press conference. If it was empty, they would be slapping themselves in the face ...

Chapter 1180: Jaded skin cream press conference (Part 1)

Xia ruofei smiled."It's okay. Just give me the statistics by tomorrow morning. Tell me how many more viewers we need."

Feng Rao looked at Xia ruofei and smiled.""So, even though you're not in the capital, you've already planned a strategy and decided a victory from thousands of miles away!"

"That's right! I can't let CEO Feng do a one – man show on stage!" Xia ruofei laughed.

"You're still talking about it!"Feng Rao pouted. This kind of occasion should be attended by a Big Boss like you, but now you're pushing it all to me ..."

Xia ruofei chuckled."Capable people do more work. Capable people do more work. I'll be responsible for being your strong backing!"

Feng Rao's face turned red for no reason.

Xia ruofei didn't notice it. After teasing her, he smiled and asked,""Is everything settled for the live broadcast?"

Feng Jing nodded."I've already discussed with a few big video websites. We've bought the first tier advertisement spots on their front page. Also, our official website has temporarily added a server. We'll be broadcasting the video live at the same time."

Actually, Feng Jing didn't think it was necessary at all.

Big companies' new product launch conferences were usually live – streamed on the Internet, and they would usually only choose a large video website. This was a win – win cooperation, and generally, the website would not charge a fee, or only charge a small fee.

However, their peach blossom company's press conference was all about spending money to buy advertising space, and they even had to hire a professional production team, so the money spent was simply too much.

The press conference this time could be said to be the biggest investment paradise Corporation had ever made in publicity since its establishment. This was under the premise that the spokesperson, Duff, was helping for free. Otherwise, it would have cost even more money.

Although Feng Jing knew the importance of publicity, she didn't expect Xia ruofei to make such a big move at once. In total, he had spent two to three million Yuan, which made her a little scared.

"Very good!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "CEO Feng, don't be afraid of spending money. Our product is good, but if we want to create a strong public opinion effect in a short time, we can't save money!"

"I know, don't worry! There won't be any mistakes at the press conference!" Feng ke said.

She was also very clear that the jaded skin cream would become an important profit point for the Paradise Corporation. According to cost calculation, this was the first profiteering product of the Paradise Corporation, so she could understand Xia ruofei's thinking of throwing money into publicity.

However, she was worried that the money spent would not have any effect, especially if there were only a few people present. When the time came, she would not know how to set up the live broadcast machine. Was it possible to face the empty stands?

Of course, since Xia ruofei had said that he could handle the audience, Feng Jing did not have to worry about it.

"Is everything alright with the gifts and the experience area?" Xia ruofei asked.

"They were all in place yesterday!" Feng Jing said confidently, "the pharmaceutical factory rushed to make a batch of experience suits, and each one can be used two to three times. In addition, we also rushed to make 100 sets of formal suits at different prices, so we made an extra 500 sets basic style. These products were sent to Beijing through the logistics channel the day before yesterday."

"OK! That means everything is ready except for the crucial wind!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "President Feng, it's all up to you tomorrow!"

"As long as the audience is taken care of, there won't be any problems." Feng Jing smiled bitterly. "But I can't guarantee the publicity ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "don't worry!" I'm here for everything! It's getting late, you should go back and rest! I'll be busy tomorrow!"

"That's great. Chairman, you should rest early too!" Feng Rao stood up after speaking.

After Feng Jing left, Xia ruofei took out his phone and made a few more calls. He then went back to his room to rest.

.....

The next afternoon, at the entrance of the Beijing University of Technology's Stadium.

Flags with the of the Paradise Corporation and the image of Duff were placed on both sides of the road, fluttering in the wind.

It was around one o'clock in the afternoon, more than an hour before the press conference.

From time to time, there would be people walking on this road, and their destination was the stadium ahead.

Most of them were carrying camera bags, wearing waistbands, holding recording pens, and wearing waistbands or recording pens. There were also various media symbols on their waistbands, recording pens, and microphones. At a glance, one could tell that these were reporters known as the uncrowned Kings.

Other than the reporters, there were also some people walking towards the stadium in groups of two or three.

These were the audience members who were participating in the press conference. They had all obtained an electronic invitation through online recruitment.

Many of them knew each other and started to greet each other from a distance.

Huang Yu was a professional moneymaker. Every day, he would search for all kinds of prize – winning activities on online forums. Whether it was a competition that required voting, some big promotions on e-commerce platforms, or events like today's conference where the organizers would provide gifts, he would actively participate.

Huang Yu happened to see the news of peach blossom company's new product launch on Weibo. When he saw that the venue of the launch was the capital University of Technology's Stadium, he immediately took the attitude of giving it a try and helped to repost Qin Zhuan's registration requirement on Weibo. The only requirement was to repost friends.

From Huang Yu's point of view, anyone who could hold a press conference in a big Stadium like the capital city University of Technology's Stadium was usually very generous. If they could get an invitation, they would definitely get a lot of rewards.
