Chapter 1261: Fanatical horse racing (2)

Xia ruofei had invested 10000 Hong Kong dollars in Kasaya for entertainment, but it was impossible for him to only buy 10 Hong Kong dollars. That would be too embarrassing.

As for who they bet on, they naturally bet on Guo Hongjiang's "star of Hong Kong" to win.

Even if this horse wasn't favored, Xia ruofei wouldn't buy another horse. If that happened, his emotional intelligence would be too low.

Guo Hongjiang laughed as he helped Xia ruofei place his bets. He handed the ticket that was printed from the terminal to Xia ruofei and said, "Mr. Xia, the odds for 'star of Hong Kong' are not high, but it's a stable win. There shouldn't be any suspense in this match. It shouldn't be a problem to make a few thousand Hong Kong dollars!"

"Hahaha! Thanks to you, director Guo!" Xia ruofei laughed.

Night fell.

Guo Hongjiang ordered for a sumptuous dinner and even opened a bottle of his precious red wine. He treated Xia ruofei and MA Xiong to a meal in the private room of the horse track.

Of course, there would be more than one race at the night. In fact, there were a total of eight races tonight, with each race being half an hour apart. Guo Hongjiang's "star of Hong Kong" would appear at about 8:30 in the evening.

As everyone was eating, the competition had already begun.

Xia ruofei had finally experienced the excitement of the Hong Kong race.

The ordinary stands were full. When the horses were ready to go, the crowd could no longer sit still, and almost everyone was standing.

The moment they set off, the entire race track was in an uproar.

Everyone was waving the horse tickets and horse classics in their hands, shouting in all kinds of languages. Some were in English, some were in Cantonese, and of course, some were in Mandarin. Hong Kong's horse racing was an indispensable tourist attraction for mainland tourists.

Even in the member's box that had good soundproofing, Xia ruofei could feel the entire grandstand shaking. The shouts from below could be heard.

"come on!"

"U get it!"

"Number seven! Number 7! Charge!"

"Number five! Go! Go! Go!"

Cheers, whistles, and shouts resounded through the clouds.

The track wasn't long, and the race time was actually very short. In the blink of an eye, the horses had already crossed the finish line.

At this moment, it was as if there was an invisible big hand controlling it. Everyone looked at the big screen in the middle of the field. Without the help of the camera, it was impossible to tell who won and who lost. In the screams and shouts a minute ago, no one knew whether the horse they had bet on was half a body's length ahead of the others.

The results were quickly displayed on the big screen.

Those who won were naturally overjoyed, especially since the winner of this match was an unpopular horse, the odds were frighteningly high.

Many people raised their heads and laughed, or hugged their companions.

Of course, there were even more people who were extremely disappointed and sat down dejectedly. There were also people who walked towards the indoor trading hall without a word. The next match would start in half an hour, and they had to hurry up and place their bets.

There was a sharp contrast between the crazed crowd in the stands and the calm scene in the private room. Xia ruofei could not help but feel a little emotional.

During the race, Guo Hongjiang didn't forget to comment on the horses. He was a little surprised when the big screen showed that No. 2, who had been looked down on before the race, had won.

Guo Hongjiang laughed. "We've lost big this time. I bet on number 5 to win alone ..."

"Director Guo, you bought this one?" Xia ruofei asked, surprised.

"I'm just playing around!" Guo Hongjiang shrugged and said.

"You've had quite a bit of fun too, haven't you?" MA Xiong chuckled.

"A million or so!" Guo Hongjiang said nonchalantly, "I didn't expect No. 5 to be so disappointing. The horse is actually a good one, but it's not well – trained. I don't think it can keep up. The later part of the race obviously slowed down, and the rider almost lost ..."

Xia ruofei could not help but secretly shake his head. This Guo Hongjiang really liked horse betting. He had actually bet millions of Hong Kong dollars. And this was not even his own horse. He did not know if he had bought anything from the "star of Hong Kong" competition. He must have bought a lot too.

However, Xia ruofei would not ask about this.

After the meal, Guo Hongjiang asked the people to take the things away, but the bottle of red wine was still in the private room. The three of them were also holding their glasses and chatting, occasionally clinking glasses and drinking. The atmosphere was very relaxed, in sharp contrast to the madness in the stands.

Guo Hongjiang raised his hand to look at his watch and said, "It's almost time, Mr. Xia, let's go down and take a look at the 'star of Hong Kong', shall we?"

“Alright! A BMW worth tens of millions of Hong Kong dollars, I have to take a look at it up close!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

So the three of them put down their glasses and left the private room under Guo Hongjiang’s lead. They went down through an internal staircase.

The “star of Hong Kong” competition was in the next round, but in order to give everyone more time, there would be a 30 – minute interval between the two rounds. Now, the horses were all preparing.

Xia ruofei only found out when she was downstairs. Although she said that she was looking at it up close, it was actually not that close.

The horses were about to participate in the race, and to prevent any accidents, no one was allowed to get close to them at this time. Only the participating horse and the rider were allowed to stay together.

Xia ruofei, Guo Hongjiang, and MA Xiong saw the star of Hong Kong ten meters away from them.

Chapter 1262: Fanatical horse racing (3)

It was a brown stallion. Xia ruofei couldn’t tell what it was, but he felt that the fully – equipped rider next to it looked very impressive.

“Xia Sheng, director Guo ‘s’ star of Hong Kong ‘is pretty good!” MA Xiong said. Look at its shiny fur, and the muscles on its chest and butt are clearly defined, especially its hind legs. It’s obviously full of strength, and its eyes are bright and full of energy. It’s indeed a good horse!”

MA Xiong might not like horse racing, but as a Hong Kong citizen, his knowledge of horse racing was far beyond Xia ruofei ‘s.

At this time, Guo Hongjiang was not modest. He smiled and said,”“Mr. Xia, my horse’s hooves and legs are the standard ‘dia’ structure, which is almost the perfect horse racing structure. Look at the horse next to him, it has the ‘bow kneed’ structure. Although this little flaw will not affect the race, for a horse race where victory and defeat are on the line, this little flaw may be the difference between the champion and the last place!”

Xia ruofei looked carefully at the horse that Guo Hongjiang had mentioned. He compared it with the “star of Hong Kong” for a long time but could not see any difference in the structure of the legs and hooves.

Guo Hongjiang also knew that he was being too professional. He laughed dryly and said,”“Mr. Xia, just listen to what I’m saying. In short, my ‘star of Hong Kong’ is almost perfect. In addition, I’ve hired a top team to train me, so I’ve achieved a lot of good results this year.”

Xia ruofei nodded and said,”it seems like I can make a small profit tonight ...”

“I don’t think you’ll lose money!” Guo Hongjiang laughed.

Then, the three of them looked at each other for a while. Xia ruofei listened to Guo Hongjiang's comments on the competitors of "star of Hong Kong". He felt that they either had flaws here or there. Anyway, "star of Hong Kong" seemed to be winning for sure.

It was not until the race was about to start, and the horses and the riders were all heading to the starting point of the track, that the three returned to the private room. After all, they couldn't see clearly from downstairs, but the view from the private room was the best, and the entire track could be seen at a glance.

Although he was full of confidence, the game was about to start. Guo Hongjiang was inevitably a little nervous, which could be seen from his eyes.

After Guo Hongjiang returned to the private room, the first thing he did was to walk to the floor – to – Ceiling glass. He quickly found the location of the "star of Hong Kong" and then raised his binoculars to look at it carefully.

After a period of waiting, the match officially began.

The horses rushed forward like arrows under the control of the jockmen, leaving a cloud of dust behind them.

The cheers and whistles sounded again. Xia ruofei felt the shaking of the stands.

Although Guo Hongjiang did not lose his composure like the ordinary audience, he clenched his fists tightly and stared at the track as if he was giving the "star of Hong Kong" strength.

Guo Hongjiang was right. The "star of Hong Kong" was born with superior conditions. He was in the lead from the start. Although the lead in the horse race was usually not very big, it was still obvious to the naked eye that the "star of Hong Kong" was in first.

Just when Xia ruofei thought that the "star of Hong Kong" was going to win the competition, something unexpected happened ...

Chapter 1263: Cruelty or humanity (1)

Halfway through the race, the star of Hong Kong was only one horse's head ahead. Although it didn't seem like an obvious advantage, in a short – distance race, this kind of advantage that could be seen with the naked eye was actually very big.

However, accidents often happened in an instant.

No. 4, who was in second place, seemed to be running out of stamina and was gradually caught up by No. 2. The rider of No. 4 tried his best but couldn't find a way to make sure that the horse wasn't as good as it was. It couldn't accelerate in the back, so he could only sigh in vain.

The jockmen could only use their experience to try and grab the advantageous position.

Although the rules stated that one could not deliberately obstruct or affect other participating horses, the rules were often vague. Experienced riders could take advantage of the small changes in direction through prediction.

The rider of horse number four was an experienced rider.

He had used his experience to stop horse number two from overtaking him several times in a row, and he had done it without leaving a trace. Even the video playback could not determine that he had violated the rules.

The rider of horse No. 2 was relatively young, and after suffering a loss, he gradually became angry.

In addition, they were about to reach the finish line, so in the third attempt to overtake, the tactics became a little more aggressive. Although horse number four occupied a very favorable position and used himself and the position of the “star of Hong Kong” to block the position of horse number two, the rider of horse number two still urged his horse to rush up, hoping to squeeze into the narrow gap to complete the forced overtaking.

The result of this reckless action was that the three horses crashed into each other.

The “star of Hong Kong” had been in the lead since the start of the race, so the rider was also focused on running to the finish line. He didn’t know what was going on behind him, and was caught off guard.

Horse No. 2 had run into horse No. 4, and then the star of Hong Kong.

The “star of Hong Kong” lost his balance, and horse No. 2 fell down after two collisions.

With that, the “star of Hong Kong” was also brought down.

Horse No. 2 smashed heavily on the star of Hong Kong’s back leg.

It was a complete mess ...

Although the horses behind them tried their best to avoid it, two of them still couldn’t avoid it in time and crashed into it. The speed of the other horses was naturally affected. On the contrary, horse No. 4 was only slightly affected and was the least affected. It immediately gained a huge lead.

The rider of horse No. 4 was overjoyed. He galloped straight across the finish line.

This time, there was no need for a replay on the big screen to see that the champion was horse number four.

However, everyone was stunned by the incident just now and no one cheered.

Guo Hongjiang was even more stunned. His mouth was wide open as he stared at the scene.

After a long while, he finally reacted and rushed out of the private room, running towards the field.

“This is bad ... I hope he’s fine ...” MA Xiong said with a frown.

“Let’s go and take a look!” Xia ruofei quickly said.

“Let’s go!”

MA Xiong and Xia ruofei also ran out of the private room and chased after Guo Hongjiang.

Guo Hongjiang's concern for the "star of Hong Kong" was beyond Xia ruofei's imagination. He ran as fast as he could. When a staff member came to greet him, he waved his hand and said, "Don't mind me! Go and prepare the first aid!"

The tournament's organizing committee also urgently stopped the preparations for the next match. The medical team was urgently dispatched, and staff members dressed in all kinds of clothes rushed into the arena.

Guo Hongjiang was indeed anxious. Xia ruofei and MA Xiong had only been in the room for a short while. They did not manage to catch up with him, and he had run away quickly.

Of course, Xia ruofei was worried that MA Xiong would not be able to handle it, so he had been taking care of MA Xiong's speed. Otherwise, even ten Guo Hongjiang would not be able to outrun Xia ruofei.

The two of them were stopped by the staff on the sidelines.

Guo Hongjiang was the horse owner of the "star of Hong Kong," and he was also the chairman of the horse racing Association. Naturally, he could get in without any trouble.

Although MA Xiong was also a member of the horse racing club, he only came here a few times a year. In addition, the venue was so busy that it was normal for the staff to not recognize him.

MA Xiong looked at Xia ruofei helplessly and said, "Xia Sheng, let's just wait here ..."

Xia ruofei asked, "Mr. MA, how's the rider?" I want to go in and see if I can help ..."

The danger of a speed race was even greater than that of an F1 race.

This was because the maximum speed of a participating horse race could reach up to more than 60 kilometers per hour. A purebred horse weighing 500 kilograms at its maximum speed could achieve a maximum kinetic energy of 89000 Joules in an instant. The impact and destructive power of this momentum were equivalent to the power of 20 m2 armor – piercing bullets!

Therefore, once there was a collision, casualties were not uncommon.

MA Xiong understood Xia ruofei's medical skills. He hesitated for a while before saying, "Let's wait! Xia Sheng, actually, this kind of thing depends on the rider's luck. If they're unlucky, they'll basically ..."

"Understood ..." Xia ruofei nodded and said, "then let's not cause any more trouble. We'll wait here and see what happens!"

"Alright!" MA Xiong looked at the scene worriedly and nodded.

The two of them did not wait for long. Guo Hongjiang probably realized that he had left MA Xiong and Xia ruofei alone. Hence, after about five to six minutes, Xia ruofei and Xia ruofei saw a staff member rushing over.

Chapter 1264: Is it cruel or humane (2)

"Are you Chairman MA and Mr. Xia?" The staff member asked loudly from afar.

"It's US!" MA Xiong replied.

"I'm sorry, director Guo asked me to pick you two up!" The staff member came forward to greet the people maintaining order, then continued, "please follow me!"

MA Xiong and Xia ruofei looked at each other and quickly followed the staff into the field.

Four horses were involved in the accident. Horse No. 2 and the star of Hong Kong were in the worst situation. The other two horses were also injured because they couldn't avoid the attack in time.

MA Xiong and Xia ruofei soon met Guo Hongjiang.

"Director Guo, how's the situation? Are you alright?" MA Xiong immediately asked.

Guo Hongjiang's expression did not look good. He frowned and said, "He's been sent to the hospital. He's not very lucky. He was hit when he fell to the ground. The doctor said it might be internal bleeding, but he's still conscious. His life shouldn't be in danger."

MA Xiong looked at Xia ruofei subconsciously.

Xia ruofei shook his head discreetly when he heard Guo Hongjiang say that the rider's life was not in danger.

MA Xiong immediately understood and did not mention Xia ruofei's treatment.

Guo Hongjiang looked at Xia ruofei and said, "Mr. Xia, I'm sorry! I wanted to invite you here to have some fun, but I didn't expect something like this to happen and cause you to lose money ..."

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly, "director Guo, why are you still talking about that small amount of money?" It was just for entertainment! I'm not hoping to make a fortune from this ..."

Guo Hongjiang waved his hand and said, "yes, yes, yes. Let's not talk about this ..."

MA Xiong noticed that Guo Hongjiang was not in a good mood, so he asked, "Director Guo, is the 'star of Hong Kong' not doing well?"

Guo Hongjiang's face revealed a resentful expression as he said, "It's all that hothead's fault! Harm others and harm yourself!"

After cursing the rider of horse No. 2, Guo Hongjiang said sadly, "Preliminary examination ... It should be a fracture in the hind leg ... It was broken by horse No. 2!"

Xia ruofei heaved a sigh of relief. When he saw the scene in the private room, where the horse fell to the ground and kicked up a large cloud of dust, he thought that the "star of Hong Kong" would die on the spot! Now, it seemed that the situation was better than he had imagined. He only had a fracture in his hind leg.

However, Xia ruofei immediately felt that something was wrong.

This was because he saw MA Xiong's expression change when he heard the results.

"How ... How could it be so serious?" MA Xiong mumbled.

Xia ruofei looked at MA Xiong and then at the dejected Guo Hongjiang. He asked curiously, "Mr. MA, if the star of Hong Kong only had a fracture in his hind leg, his life shouldn't be in danger, right?"

MA Xiong sighed when he heard that. However, before he could speak, a staff member ran over in a hurry and whispered something to Guo Hongjiang.

Guo Hongjiang's expression became even more dejected. He nodded and said, "I know!"

Then, Guo Hongjiang said to MA Xiong and Xia ruofei, "Chairman MA, Mr. Xia, let's send the 'star of Hong Kong' off on his last journey!"

"Alright!" MA Xiong immediately nodded. We'll go with you!"

Xia ruofei was stunned. He asked in surprise, "Director Guo, what ... What last journey?" Didn't the star of Hong Kong only have a broken leg? What are they doing?"

MA Xiong looked at Guo Hongjiang and gave Xia ruofei a look. He said, "Xia Sheng, let's talk while we walk ..."

Guo Hongjiang was obviously not in the mood to entertain MA Xiong and Xia ruofei, so he walked straight out of the arena.

MA Xiong also signaled Xia ruofei to follow him.

Xia ruofei was confused. As he walked, he asked, "Mr. MA, what's the situation? Why are we going there?"

MA Xiong sighed. "Xia Sheng, you might not know much about horse racing, so don't say anything. Director Guo must be in a bad mood right now."

"I definitely won't say anything." Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. "But what's going on? You have to explain it clearly!"

"We're going to send the star of Hong Kong off for the last time. He'll be euthanized soon ..." MA Xiong said.

Xia ruofei was shocked and couldn't help but cry, "What? Euthanasia?"

Guo Hongjiang, who was walking in front, obviously heard Xia ruofei's words. He stopped in his tracks and his back trembled. However, he immediately continued to walk forward.

"Lower your voice ..." MA Xiong said with a bitter smile.

Xia ruofei quickly lowered his voice and asked, "No... Old master Ma, I really don't understand. Isn't it just a fracture in the hind leg? Why was there a need for euthanasia? Could it be because it can't participate in the competition after it's cured? But ... But isn't that too cruel?"

“Of course not!” MA Xiong quickly replied. If they really can’t continue to participate due to injuries, they will generally be allowed to retire with dignity and then recuperate until they die of old age.”

“Then why is that?” Xia ruofei asked in confusion.

As MA Xiong walked forward, he explained in a low voice, “Xia Sheng, you just said that it’s too cruel to euthanize a horse with a broken leg. In fact, it’s the exact opposite. This is the most humane way.”

“I’d like to hear the details.” Xia ruofei said.

He also realized that there might be some difficulties that he had to face. After all, he knew almost nothing about horse racing.

As expected, after MA Xiong’s patient explanation, Xia ruofei finally understood the truth.

First of all, running was a horse’s nature. A horse that couldn’t run was like a bird that couldn’t fly. It was always in a very unpleasant state.

Of course, this was only a small factor.

The main point was that, compared to the psychological pain, it was more of a horse with a broken leg that would suffer great physical pain.

It took 100 days to recover from a fracture. It was a very long process. If it was a small pet like a kitten or a puppy, it was possible to recover if the injured area was fixed.

But for the horses, it was an impossible task.

The horse was huge and had infinite strength. Humans could not hold it at all. Therefore, if they insisted on treatment, it would only cause the horse’s broken leg to be fractured again before it could heal.

This process would cause them great pain, both physical and mental.

The amputation plan was not feasible either.

The horse itself was too heavy, and the structure of its legs was also very precise, so it could bear such a large weight on its thin legs.

If one of his legs was cut off and he could only stand on three legs for a long time, not only would the broken leg not recover, but the good leg would also be damaged due to the long period of time.

All in all, if a horse’s leg was broken, it was basically impossible to heal it. If one insisted on treating it, it would only bring a long period of pain and eventually die a worse death.

Therefore, the most humane approach was to euthanize it.

This was also the best solution that had been summed up over the years. Otherwise, with Guo Hongjiang’s wealth, as long as there was a little chance, how could he be willing to see his beloved horse die like this?

After Xia ruofei understood the reason, he looked at Guo Hongjiang’s back and understood his feelings.

Xia ruofei's mind flashed back to the photos of the "star of Hong Kong" winning all kinds of awards in the private room, as well as his outstanding grace after the opening.

Even though it was his first day meeting the "star of Hong Kong," he couldn't help but feel sad when he found out that such an excellent horse was about to be put down.

However, Guo Hongjiang was the owner of the star of Hong Kong and he had bought it when it was still a pony. He must have had a deep relationship with it.

One could only imagine how depressed Guo Hongjiang was at the moment.

As Xia ruofei thought about it, an idea suddenly came to his mind. "The star of Hong Kong can't be cured with normal medical treatment, but I can!"

Chapter 1265: Chu Yin's heart rises, and he makes his move (1)

Once a horse's leg was broken, the best solution was euthanizing it. The reason for this was that the recovery period of a fracture was very long, and horses were Born to Run, so during the long recovery period, they would almost certainly break the bones that had not yet healed. After all, no one could restrict the movement of a horse for a long time. It would take at least three months!

If he could heal the broken bones of the horse in a short time, wouldn't this problem be solved?

Xia ruofei obviously had the ability to do so as long as he was willing to pay the price of the petals of the spirit Heart Flower.

Most of the time, he used a diluted petal solution. He didn't use a lot of it. Now that there were more and more petals in the spirit map space, Xia ruofei didn't think it was a big deal to use one or two to save the "star of Hong Kong."

It could be said that he was fated to be the "star of Hong Kong". After all, he had come here for the "star of Hong Kong". He had even bet 10000 Hong Kong dollars on the "star of Hong Kong" winning the game!

Of course, the main reason was that Xia ruofei could not help but feel sympathetic after hearing MA Xiong talk about the reason why the horses had to be euthanized after their legs were broken.

Although it was beyond his ability to cure all the horses that had encountered such injuries, since he had encountered them, what was the harm in spending one or two Spirit Heart Flower petals?

After making up his mind, Xia ruofei also quickened his pace and chased after Guo Hongjiang.

The facilities in the arena were complete. There was a stable not far away. When Xia ruofei and MA Xiong followed Guo Hongjiang into the stable, it was already surrounded by many staff.

These were all people who worked for Guo Hongjiang.

The star of Hong Kong's series of dazzling results was definitely due to the support of an entire team.

Guo Hongjiang had equipped it with a professional trainer, an experienced rider, and a complete team of veterinarians. With some other staff, the whole team was quite large.

“Director Guo!”

“Director Guo!”

Everyone greeted Guo Hongjiang one after another, but everyone’s mood was a little low.

Such a champion horse, because of an accident, everything before had become a fleeting cloud.

The members of the team had spent almost all their time with the “star of Hong Kong”, but now they had to send it to heaven with their own hands. It was hard to describe the feeling.

Guo Hongjiang nodded with a gloomy expression.

The “star of Hong Kong” was now tied to a rack with a rope. The horse was very strong and was struggling in pain. It was impossible to control it with human strength.

Its shiny fur was now covered with mud, and the fracture on its hind leg was obviously twisted and swollen.

The star of Hong Kong screamed in pain from time to time. He struggled hard, and the hemp rope cut into his flesh, leaving blood marks.

The muscles on Guo Hongjiang’s face trembled as he walked to the “star of Hong Kong.”

The “star of Hong Kong” seemed to have felt something and looked up at his master.

Xia ruofei and MA Xiong did not say anything. They just stood quietly beside Guo Hongjiang.

At this moment, Xia ruofei was shocked to see that “star of Hong Kong” had tears in its eyes. It seemed to have predicted its fate. However, after seeing its master, it stopped struggling and looked at Guo Hongjiang with tears in its eyes.

Xia ruofei was shocked.

Guo Hongjiang didn’t say anything. He just stared at the “star of Hong Kong” for a few minutes.

The staff at the side didn’t dare to say anything. They didn’t even dare to breathe.

The veterinarians in white coats had already prepared the injection to euthanize the “star of Hong Kong”, but they didn’t dare to remind Guo Hongjiang at the moment. They just waited carefully with a large syringe.

The colorless and transparent liquid in the syringe was shocking under the light of the stables.

After a long time, Guo Hongjiang sighed and turned his head away from the star of Hong Kong. He said softly, “Let’s start!”

The veterinarian who received the order immediately came forward.

“Wait!” Xia ruofei quickly shouted. Director Guo, please wait!”

Guo Hongjiang frowned slightly and turned to look at Xia ruofei in confusion.

MA Xiong couldn't help but pull on Xia ruofei's sleeve, trying to remind him.

However, Xia ruofei didn't seem to notice it. He still said to Guo Hongjiang with a slightly anxious tone, "Director Guo, don't euthanize the star of Hong Kong yet! There might be a way!"

At this moment, Guo Hongjiang was in a terrible mood. However, he was still considered to have some self – restraint. Furthermore, Xia ruofei was a guest that he had invited. If it was someone else who had said this, he would have turned hostile on the spot.

The horse racing industry had been in Hong Kong for more than 100 years. For horses with broken legs, the most humane and scientific treatment was euthanizing them. This was common sense in the circle.

Even with the rapid development of science and Technology in recent years, this problem was still an unsolvable problem.

When MA Xiong heard Xia ruofei's words, he knew that things were going to be bad.

He quickly said, "Xia Sheng, didn't I just explain it to you?" A broken leg is fatal to a horse. If there's a way, director Guo will do everything in his power to save the star of Hong Kong!"

Chapter 1266: Chao Yin's heart rises, and RUO Fei makes his move (2)

Seeing that MA Xiong had stepped out to speak, Guo Hongjiang did not say anything else. He could understand Xia ruofei. After all, Xia ruofei had never come into contact with horse racing before. It was also his first time seeing such a cruel reality. It was normal for him to be unable to accept it.

However, Xia ruofei did not let MA Xiong's words make him give up.

He looked at Guo Hongjiang and said seriously, "Director Guo, if there's a way to cure the star of Hong Kong, and even let him return to the field, would you like to try?"

When Xia ruofei had stopped them, the veterinarians in Guo Hongjiang's team were already unhappy that the "star of Hong Kong" had met with such a misfortune. They were already in a bad mood.

After MA Xiong's explanation, Xia ruofei's words were still unreliable. The vet who was about to euthanize the star of Hong Kong could not hold it in anymore.

He spoke in Mandarin with a heavy Cantonese accent, "Sir, if you don't know anything about animal medicine, please don't talk nonsense at this time!"

Xia ruofei did not get angry. Instead, he asked, "How can you be so sure that I'm just speaking without thinking?"

The vet snorted coldly and said, "you don't even know the most basic common sense, and you're still talking nonsense?" I advise you to go and look through the information! There had been countless cases of horse leg fractures in history, but there had not been a single case of recovery! There was no point in trying to save him in this situation! It will only increase the pain of the 'star of Hong Kong'!"

The vet's assistant also said in dissatisfaction,""We've been with the 'star of Hong Kong' for more than two years, and our feelings for him are deeper than anyone else's. If there was another way, we wouldn't have made this choice! Can you stop causing trouble for us at a time like this?"

Guo Hongjiang frowned and said,""Doctor Li, Cheng, stop talking! Mr. Xia is my guest!"

After he finished speaking, Guo Hongjiang turned to Xia ruofei and said,""Mr. Xia, I know you mean well, but ... There's really no other way in this situation ... How about this? It's getting late. For something like this to happen today, please forgive me for my negligence. You can go back with Chairman MA first! We're going to euthanize the star of Hong Kong, I think ... In this situation, you should ..."

"Director Guo! I'm not being emotional. " Xia ruofei said,"I know that there have been no cases of successful treatment in the past, but just because others can't, it doesn't mean that I can't. I still hope to try hard. Just treat it as giving the 'star of Hong Kong' a chance to live!"

Xia ruofei immediately added,"And I can promise you that I won't bring any extra pain to the star of Hong Kong! If I really can't help it, it's not too late for you to euthanize it!"

Guo Hongjiang could not help but hesitate when he heard this.

On the other hand, MA Xiong's heart skipped a beat as an idea flashed through his mind.

When the auction ended, MA Xiong even jokingly told Guo Hongjiang that if the horses had health problems, Xia ruofei might be able to help.

Now, he had a rather absurd idea: Xia ruofei's medical skills were amazing. He might really have a way to save the "star of Hong Kong".

If it was a highly skilled Western Doctor Who said those words, MA Xiong might not have believed it at all. However, Chinese medicine was different. Chinese medicine did not have such a clear division of domains like Western medicine. Who said that Chinese medicine could only save people and not horses?

Furthermore, Chinese medicine had always held a unique position when it came to dealing with injuries.

Although it was said that it would take a hundred days to recover from a serious injury, even if one went to see a Traditional Chinese Medicine practitioner, those were all ordinary Chinese medicine practitioners. Xia ruofei's medical skills were obviously not ordinary. He could even cure such a serious cerebral hemorrhage without any residual effects. Even the world's medical field had not found an effective treatment for autism, but he had successfully cured it. Moreover, it was said that the special medicine for autism was about to be mass-produced. It didn't seem impossible for such a magical doctor to cure a horse's fracture in a short time.

These thoughts flashed through MA Xiong's mind. He quickly said,""Chairman Guo, why don't you let Xia Sheng try? He would never say something he wasn't confident in. Since he took the initiative to suggest it, he must have thought of something ..."

Guo Hongjiang's eyes widened as he looked at his old friend. He did not expect that even MA Xiong would accept such a ridiculous suggestion.

Xia ruofei looked at the 'star of Hong Kong' and then said to Guo Hongjiang, ""Director Guo, I can't bear to see such an excellent horse race being euthanized because of a fracture, so I decided to give it a try. Of course, the decision is yours. If you insist, I can leave now. "

If Guo Hongjiang did not trust Xia ruofei at all, then Xia ruofei would definitely not be in a hurry to help him.

To be honest, if Xia ruofei had not seen the "star of Hong Kong" with tears in his eyes, he would have just mentioned it. If Guo Hongjiang did not accept it, he would have left immediately.

When did the petals of the spirit Heart Flower become so cheap?

Guo Hongjiang finally made up his mind. He nodded and said, ""Mr. Xia, I'm counting on you. I don't dare to hope that the 'star of Hong Kong' can return to the competition. As long as its broken bones can be healed, it'll be fine. If it really works, I'll definitely reward you handsomely!"

Chapter 1267: Chu Yin's heart rises, and RUO Fei makes his move (3)

"Mister Guo!" The vet exclaimed in disbelief.

Guo Hongjiang waved his hand and stopped the vet from speaking further. He said indifferently, ""I've already decided. You don't have to say anything more!"

The vet could only helplessly hand over the syringe that he had prepared earlier to the assistant and then glared at Xia ruofei in dissatisfaction.

In his eyes, Xia ruofei was just messing around. In the end, he would only increase the "star of Hong Kong" 's pain.

He really could not understand why Guo Hongjiang would agree to such a ridiculous thing.

Xia ruofei did not care about the dissatisfied looks from the veterinarian and the other team members. He smiled faintly and said to Guo Hongjiang, ""Director Guo, my treatment method is a bit special. I hope that we can have a relatively quiet environment. Also, we need a few more Chinese medicines. Please send someone to prepare them as soon as possible. "

Although Guo Hongjiang still did not believe that Xia ruofei could save the "star of Hong Kong", he would give his full support since he had agreed to let Xia ruofei try.

Therefore, Guo Hongjiang said without hesitation, ""No problem! Mr. Xia, please write down the herbs you need. I'll get someone to prepare them immediately!"

"Sure!" Xia ruofei nodded.

Since Guo Hongjiang had spoken, someone quickly found a pen and paper and handed it to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei did not hesitate. He picked up his pen and wrote down the names and quantities of at least 50 medicinal herbs on the paper.

These were all medicinal herbs for treating injuries from falls, and their purpose was naturally to deceive people.

Xia ruofei handed the list of herbs to Guo Hongjiang and said, "In addition to buying the medicine, we also need to buy a clay pot to boil the medicine. In addition, prepare some charcoal, gauze, tape, and other things for bandaging."

"No problem!" Guo Hongjiang handed the list of herbs to the veterinarian and motioned for him to prepare the herbs immediately. Then, he asked, "Mr. Xia, do you need any equipment such as a splint?"

"No need for now!" Xia ruofei said, "let's talk if you need it."

The staff rushed out to buy the herbs while Xia ruofei walked to the "star of Hong Kong".

The fractured back leg seemed to swell even more. The "star of Hong Kong" was getting more and more anxious and kept struggling.

Although the staff was very experienced and tied its four hooves to a special frame, they could not completely restrict its hind legs. Under a series of movements, the pain would definitely increase.

The ropes used to tie the horses up were stained with blood, and the horses were also covered in wounds.

He had only been tied up for a little more than ten minutes, and he was already covered in wounds. It could be imagined that it would take at least three months to fully recover with traditional treatment methods, so it was simply an impossible task.

Guo Hongjiang saw that the "star of Hong Kong" was in great pain every minute and his heart couldn't help but waver.

He felt that he might have gone crazy. How could there be any other way in this situation?

He should have been more determined! Guo Hongjiang said in his heart.

In such a situation, every second that he lived was torture for the "star of Hong Kong". It was better to just put him down with a needle.

However, since he had already promised Xia ruofei, Guo Hongjiang would not go back on his word.

Just as Guo Hongjiang was feeling conflicted, Xia ruofei had already walked to the front of the "star of Hong Kong".

He gently patted the head of the anxious and pained "star of Hong Kong", and then seemed to causally rub its head for a while.

Then, to Guo Hongjiang and MA Xiong's surprise, the "star of Hong Kong" seemed to calm down immediately. He even squinted his eyes slightly. His gentle look made them feel like they were dreaming ...

Chapter 1268: Subverting one's knowledge (1)

The originally noisy scene suddenly quieted down.

The horse trainers and veterinarians were even more dumbfounded, unable to believe their eyes.

They had been with the "star of Hong Kong" for more than two years, so they knew his temperament like the back of their hands. He was not an easy horse to serve, and it was hard to control him normally. This time, he had suffered such a serious injury, and under the severe pain, it was impossible to comfort him.

Unexpectedly, this young man who knew nothing about horse racing didn't seem to do anything. He just gently stroked the horse's head a few times, and the "star of Hong Kong" calmed down.

They felt like they had seen a ghost.

Guo Hongjiang's eyes widened, and he could not help but feel a glimmer of hope.

He did not dare to disturb Xia ruofei, so he pulled MA Xiong aside and asked in a low voice, "Chairman MA, is Mr. Xia good at animal taming?"

"I'm not too sure," MA Xiong said with a bitter smile. "However, Xia Sheng has always been good at creating miracles. I won't be surprised no matter what amazing things he does."

Guo Hongjiang took a deep breath.

This was not a low evaluation, especially when it came from MA Xiong's mouth. It was even more difficult.

Guo Hongjiang looked deeply at Xia ruofei, who was not far away, and his eyes shone with a strange light.

Xia ruofei didn't know that his small action had already made Guo Hongjiang and his entire team look at him in a new light.

He just couldn't bear to see the star of Hong Kong struggling in pain, so he released his spirit power to comfort it.

Xia ruofei didn't understand animal language, but his spiritual power didn't require verbal communication. Perhaps he couldn't use his spiritual power to communicate with the "star of Hong Kong" in a complicated way, but he could still convey his goodwill and comfort.

Now that the star of Hong Kong had calmed down, Xia ruofei had to check on his wound.

Before the herbs arrived, Xia ruofei had to have a comprehensive understanding of the star of Hong Kong's injury.

Therefore, while he continued to release his comforting and warm thoughts, he went around to the other side and walked directly behind the "star of Hong Kong".

The horse's leg on this side was very swollen, clearly caused by a fracture.

Xia ruofei slowly reached out to the swollen part.

Guo Hongjiang's eyelids twitched when he saw this. He quickly said, "Mr. Xia, be careful ..."

He wasn't worried that Xia ruofei would hurt the star of Hong Kong. Since Wan Wan had decided to let Xia ruofei deal with her, he wouldn't interfere. It was just that the fracture was in extreme pain and he was worried that the star of Hong Kong would struggle again and hurt Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled. "It's alright. I'm just checking its injuries."

"The medical team has just used a portable X – ray machine for an emergency examination," Guo Hongjiang said quickly. "I'll get someone to bring you the film."

Xia ruofei smiled. "It's okay, director Guo. I believe in my own abilities."

Guo Hongjiang could not help but smile bitterly at MA Xiong.

This was the case for many Chinese doctors. Even though they had the assistance of various sophisticated instruments such as X – rays, CT scans, or even more sophisticated MRI scans, which could clearly show the parts that needed to be checked, many Chinese doctors still insisted on the traditional methods of looking, listening, asking, and feeling. Instrument examinations were only used as a supplement or verification.

"Mr. Xia, please be careful. The star of Hong Kong is very strong." Guo Hongjiang said.

"I see. Thank you for the reminder, director Guo." Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Everyone fixed their eyes on Xia ruofei, afraid that the "star of Hong Kong" would suddenly hurt someone. Although her body was fixed on the shelf, her leg, especially her injured leg, could not be completely tied.

However, what everyone was worried about did not happen.

Xia ruofei's hand gently touched the swollen wound. The star of Hong Kong only trembled a little and then obediently lay on the shelf without even struggling.

Everyone present had a better understanding of horse racing than Xia ruofei. They could not help but be amazed at the scene.

Xia ruofei's eyes were slightly closed. His movements seemed relaxed and casual, but in fact, he had already sent his spiritual power into the leg of the "star of Hong Kong". The condition of the injury quickly appeared in Xia ruofei's mind.

He pulled many muscles and ruptured tendons. Of course, the most serious one was a fracture.

The star of Hong Kong was not just dislocated. It was smashed on the leg by a horse that weighed almost the same as it. The calf bone in the middle of the three – Section spine was broken. The broken bone pierced into the muscle, and there was a lot of bone residue at the fracture. It was the most serious injury.

It was no wonder that after the medical team's examination, they did not make any unnecessary attempts at all and directly proposed euthanasia.

According to normal zomanology experience, this was the least painful and most humane solution for the "star of Hong Kong."

After checking the star of Hong Kong's condition, Xia ruofei had an idea of what to do.

He opened his eyes and looked up at Guo Hongjiang.

Guo Hongjiang was also looking at Xia ruofei nervously. He asked, "Mr. Xia, how is it?"

Even though he did not believe that Xia ruofei could find out the situation just by touching him, he still had a glimmer of hope. After all, Xia ruofei's way of comforting the "star of Hong Kong" was not something that even the most experienced trainer could do.

Chapter 1269: Subverting one's knowledge (2)

Xia ruofei smiled faintly. "He has a fracture in his calf and two torn tendons. He also has multiple serious muscle strains. The problem is quite serious."

Guo Hongjiang and the medical team were stunned.

The veterinarian who could not help but question Xia ruofei just now looked at his assistant. After a long while, he asked in a low voice, "Cheng, did Mr. Xia watch the film just now?"

Ah – Cheng, the veterinarian assistant, said with a blank face, "That's not possible! After the film was released, only the few of us watched it for a while, then we kept it in our bag!"

The vet couldn't help but gasp. If the scans had been kept, it meant that it was impossible for Xia ruofei to have accidentally seen the scans when he came in.

In other words, the accurate examination result just now was really the result of Mr. Xia's simple touch of the horse's leg!

This was too unbelievable, right?

Guo Hongjiang turned to the vet and asked, "Doctor li?"

Doctor li immediately understood what Guo Hongjiang meant and quickly said, "Director Guo, Mr. Xia's judgment is completely correct!"

He sounded a little bitter. Just now, he strongly doubted Xia ruofei, who was an “amateur”. It had only been a short while, but whether it was to appease the “star of Hong Kong” or this magical inspection, they had completely subverted their understanding.

Dr. Li felt her face burning, and she wanted to find a hole to hide in.

He felt like a frog at the bottom of a well, completely unaware of the vastness of the sky.

Xia ruofei did not care about the little episode just now. He had no intention of embarrassing Dr. Li.

Xia ruofei smiled and said to Guo Hongjiang, “Director Guo, although the situation is a bit serious, I can still try. Whether or not I succeed, I can at least guarantee that the ‘star of Hong Kong’ won’t suffer any extra pain.”

Guo Hongjiang finally revealed a trace of excitement. Xia ruofei’s casual display of her skills had really shocked Guo Hongjiang.

“Mr. Xia, I’ll leave it to you then!” He nodded repeatedly.

“You’re welcome ...” Xia ruofei smiled.

He had been standing beside the “star of Hong Kong” the whole time, patting the horse’s head from time to time, constantly comforting it.

The star of Hong Kong no longer struggled as violently as before. Although the pain made its body tremble from time to time, it was still very docile.

In the eyes of the trainer, he was even more docile than before he was injured!

The staff who were sent out to buy Chinese medicine were also very efficient. In less than half an hour, they had returned with big and small bags of Chinese medicine.

At the same time, he also brought back some charcoal, a clay pot for boiling medicine, and a matching charcoal furnace.

Xia ruofei got what he wanted and immediately said, “Director Guo, I can’t go too far away from the star of Hong Kong, so I can only stay here to prepare the medicine. The process of brewing the medicine ...”

Guo Hongjiang immediately understood and quickly said, “Mr. Xia, thank you for your trouble! We’ll wait outside!”

After he finished speaking, Guo Hongjiang immediately called MA Xiong and the other staff to leave the stables.

Naturally, there were 24/7 surveillance cameras in the stables.

However, after Guo Hongjiang and the others left, Xia ruofei walked over and turned the camera to the corner without hesitation.

After that, he set up a charcoal furnace and a claypot, and started a fire to boil the medicine.

Although the stables were breezy on all sides, there was a ready – made faucet here, and the equipment prepared by the staff was very complete, so it was not a big problem to boil the medicine on the spot.

Xia ruofei didn't just randomly prescribe a few Chinese medicines. He had a lot of lost prescriptions and this time, he was brewing an ointment for injuries caused by falls.

Even without the spirit Heart Flower petal solution, this ointment's effect was much better than those sold in the market.

Of course, in the face of such a serious injury, even with the use of this ointment, it would take at least two months to recover. Therefore, the petals of the spirit Heart Flower were still necessary.

Xia ruofei was very experienced in brewing medicine now.

He skillfully picked out a dozen kinds of medicinal herbs from a large pile. These were the medicinal herbs needed to decoct the ointment, and the rest were used to deceive people.

Xia ruofei put the herbs into the claypot, added some water, and started to boil the medicine.

It took a long time to brew the medicine. If the patient was a human, Xia ruofei could use acupuncture to seal the nerves so that the person would not feel pain. However, Xia ruofei did not know the meridians and acupuncture points of horses, so he could only let the "star of Hong Kong" bear with it.

After all, he had to do this without arousing suspicion. Xia ruofei could never be too careful.

Time passed by.

Guo Hongjiang and the others did not leave at all. They were waiting anxiously not far from the stables.

Guo Hongjiang couldn't sit still either. He kept pacing back and forth on the field nervously.

"Director Guo, let's take a break! It's not that fast to brew Chinese medicine!" MA Xiong said.

"It's okay, I can't sit still right now ..." Guo Hongjiang said with a bitter smile. "Chairman MA, how confident do you think Mr. Xia is ..."

"I really don't know about this." MA Xiong said, "however, Xia Sheng rarely takes the initiative. I think he's moved this time out of compassion. No matter what, this is the only chance for you and the 'star of Hong Kong'."

"I understand." Guo Hongjiang sighed and said, "no matter what the result is, I will thank Mr. Xia properly."

The staff members on Guo Hongjiang's team were also whispering to each other. They were also not confident at all.

Even though Xia ruofei had shown off his amazing skills, the staff still could not believe that such a serious injury could be treated with Chinese medicine.

Weren't Chinese medicine made from grass roots and tree bark?

Especially in the eyes of some of the younger staff members, Chinese medicine and witch doctors didn't seem to be much different. Chinese medicine wasn't even considered a plant medicine.

While Guo Hongjiang was suffering, Xia ruofei, who was in the stable, was relatively more relaxed. He only had to watch the fire.

After more than an hour, almost all the water in the claypot had evaporated, and a layer of black ointment appeared on the bottom and inner walls.

This was the final step.

Previously, the medicinal herbs were put into the claypot in batches. First, the medicinal soup was obtained. Then, the dregs were poured out, and the medicinal soup was poured back into the claypot to continue heating. At the same time, the last three medicinal herbs that were ground into powder were put in, and they were constantly stirred. Finally, they got a little bit of paste – like substance, which was almost enough for one use.

Xia ruofei scraped off all the ointment and carefully checked to make sure that no one was watching. Then, he took out a small porcelain bottle from the spirit map space.

This was the solution of the spirit Heart Flower petals that he had asked Xia Qing to prepare in advance.

The flower petal dissolved when it came into contact with water. This flower petal solution was the most concentrated one that Xia ruofei had ever concocted since he obtained the spirit map space. He only used a little bit of the spring water.

He opened the porcelain bottle and poured all the solution into the medicine bowl. Then, he mixed it well with the ointment.

Because there was very little solution, the ointment only became slightly diluted, and still appeared to be an ointment.

After he was done, Xia ruofei immediately kept the bottle in the medium and heaved a sigh of relief.

He comforted the “star of Hong Kong”, then walked out of the stable and gestured to Guo Hongjiang.

Guo Hongjiang and the others quickly walked over.

“Director Guo, I’ve already prepared the medicine.” Xia ruofei said, “in order to ensure that the ‘star of Hong Kong’ can cooperate with the treatment, I need to make it unconscious for two to three hours. Can you do that?”

Xia ruofei was doing this to make the medicine take full effect. Before that, he had to set the star of Hong Kong’s bones. The process would be very painful and Xia ruofei could not guarantee that nothing would happen.

Guo Hongjiang immediately turned to the vet, doctor Li.

When doctor Li saw this, he quickly said, “in this case, we can only perform general anesthesia. Under normal circumstances, it’ll be fine to just use formaldehyde Aqua, but ...”

When doctor Li said this, he stopped.

Guo Hongjiang frowned slightly and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Chapter 1270: Magical hands (1)

Doctor Li hesitated for a moment, then said, "Director Guo, it's nothing. I can give the star of Hong Kong general anesthesia without any problem! We can do it immediately!"

"Doctor Li," said Guo Hongjiang with a slight frown, "if you have any difficulties, just say it. Why are you hesitating?"

It would have been better if doctor Li had not said it, but he swallowed it back halfway, making Guo Hongjiang feel even more uncomfortable.

"Director Guo, I was just thinking. I was going to say that general anesthesia is not good for a top – tier horse, and it might affect its performance. But ... 'Star of Hong Kong' should be fine ..." Doctor Li said with a bitter smile.

After the horse's leg was fractured, they were ready to euthanize it. Even if Guo Hongjiang asked Xia ruofei to try it once, it was just a last resort.

Even if Xia ruofei could create a miracle this time, the "star of Hong Kong" would probably not be able to return to the competition. He was lucky to be able to retire after such a serious injury.

Guo Hongjiang's face showed a hint of sadness. He nodded and said, "You should get ready as soon as possible! Don't let Mr. Xia wait too long ..."

"Understood!" Doctor Li said quickly.

He nodded to Xia ruofei and started to prepare the medicine with his assistant.

With Xia ruofei's comforting words, the star of Hong Kong was very cooperative during the anesthesia. It did not struggle at all. After a while, it slowly closed its eyes and fell into a coma.

Doctor Li went up to check and nodded to Xia ruofei. "Mr. Xia, that's enough ..."

Xia ruofei nodded and walked to the "star of Hong Kong".

Everyone was standing not far away, staring at Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei calmly pressed on the horse's leg that was obviously twisted after the star of Hong Kong was injured. Then, he held the upper part of the horse's leg with one hand and the lower part of the leg with the other. He decisively twisted and pushed it back. The whole movement was very fast and clean. There was no sloppiness at all.

Xia ruofei's bone – setting technique shocked everyone. He was so decisive that he could have broken the horse's leg if he was not careful.

Especially MA Xiong. He knew Xia ruofei's condition very well. He knew that Xia ruofei only knew Chinese medicine and had never heard of Xia ruofei being a veterinarian. If he didn't even know the bone structure of a horse's leg, how could he set the bone?

To MA Xiong's relief, the star of Hong Kong's injured leg was no longer twisted after Xia ruofei's reckless treatment. Although the swelling was still very serious, it showed that Xia ruofei had successfully set his leg.

Xia ruofei did not remove his hand immediately after he had set the bone back in place. Instead, he continued to feel around the wound for a while before he finally heaved a sigh of relief and stood up.

"Mr. Xia, have you fixed the star of Hong Kong's bone?" doctor li asked immediately.

After the previous incident, doctor li did not dare to suspect Xia ruofei anymore. His tone had also become very polite.

Xia ruofei nodded slightly and walked straight to the bowl of ointment that he had spent more than an hour to make.

"Mr. Xia, we have a portable X – ray device here. Should we check the effect of reduction ..." Doctor li immediately said.

After saying that, doctor li immediately realized something and quickly explained, "Mr. Xia, please don't misunderstand. I'm not doubting your ability, I just want to be safe ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand. "No need. I'm confident!"

No matter how good the X – ray equipment was, it would not be as clear as his mental power. There was no need to check if the bone was reset.

Besides, in order to shorten the time for recovery, Xia ruofei had specially used his essential Qi and mental strength to move the small pieces of bones near the broken bone to the original position after he had set the calf bone back in place.

Under the investigation of his mental power, he could see the situation of the injury at a glance. Except for the extremely small bone residue, the small pieces of broken bones were basically pieced together to the position of the fracture.

As for the tiny bone fragments, they would usually be absorbed during the treatment process and would not be affected.

If an X – ray scan was used, all of this would be seen.

It was easy to explain why the bone – setting technique was so brilliant, but if even such a small piece of broken bone could be recovered at the same time, it was really a little shocking.

Hence, Xia ruofei would definitely not let doctor li do the examination now.

Doctor li could not help but show a puzzled expression and subconsciously looked at Guo Hongjiang.

"If Mr. Xia says there's no need, then there's no need!" Guo Hongjiang frowned slightly.

“Yes, director Guo!” Doctor Li didn’t dare to say anything more. He could only suppress his doubts and step aside.

Xia Ruofei didn’t say anything else. He carried the bowl of medicine to the star of Hong Kong and started to apply the medicine on his wound with a small brush.

Once the ingredients from the petals of the spirit Heart Flower came into contact with the skin, they would be absorbed immediately. Hence, Xia Ruofei was very careful and absolutely avoided touching the ointment with his hands.

The black ointment didn’t seem to be anything special except for the strong smell of Chinese medicine. Guo Hongjiang saw that Xia Ruofei had also used the traditional method of setting the bone first and then applying the medicine. He couldn’t help but feel slightly disappointed.
