Chapter 1311: meeting in a thousand years (1)

Xia ruofei looked at the caller ID. It was Zhao Yongjun from the capital. He let out a long breath and temporarily removed the accumulated negative emotions.

"Big brother Zhao!" Xia ruofei said.

"RUO Fei!" Zhao Yongjun's tone was as forthright and enthusiastic as ever. "I haven't contacted you for a while. How have you been?"

"It's alright! He's busy all day!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "brother Zhao, what's the matter?"

Zhao Yongjun didn't answer Xia ruofei. Instead, he asked, "Ruofei, why do I feel that you're a little down? What happened?"

Although Xia ruofei had tried to control his emotions, he felt as disgusted as if he had eaten a fly today. His tone was more or less low. Zhao Yongjun was also a person with rich social experience, so he could tell.

"Oh ... It's nothing!" Xia ruofei replied, "it's just a small problem in the business. Brother Zhao, don't worry about it. I can handle it myself!"

Zhao Yongjun immediately said unhappily, "ruofei, are you treating me like an outsider?" If you encounter any problems, just tell me. Let's not talk about whether I can help you or not. At least I have more experience than you, so I can at least give you some ideas, right?"

"Hey! I'm really fine!" Xia ruofei said, "brother Zhao, if you're willing to listen, I'll tell you ..."

Xia ruofei happened to have a stomach full of anger as well. Since Zhao Yongjun was so insistent on getting to the bottom of it, he might as well not hide it and told him the whole story.

After he finished, Xia ruofei said gloomily, "Brother Zhao, don't you think this matter is quite infuriating? You've gotten such a bug from munching on melon seeds!"

Zhao Yongjun couldn't help but be speechless after hearing this. He said, "Who's this grandson? It was so awesome! He had never heard of such a person in the capital! Ruofei, big brother will help you vent your anger later! He's just a small manager of a state – owned enterprise, but he's already so good. If I didn't know better, I would have thought that he was the chairman of Tongren Hall!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "it doesn't matter if I vent my anger or not. To be honest, I don't have to worry about sales at all. It's just that it's a little slow to get back the money if I sell it myself. At that time, Tongren Hall was willing to buy in bulk, and I wanted to save time, so I gave them a chance to make money and become famous. I didn't expect this to happen! If it wasn't for the fact that I'm on good terms with the Regional Vice President of Tongren Hall, and that I'm in urgent need of money recently, I'd have completely terminated the cooperation!"

"You're in need of money?" Zhao asked. I still have some money on hand, so I'll give you some first!"

"No need, big brother Zhao!" Xia ruofei said.

Then, he briefly told Zhao Yongjun about buying the building. When Zhao Yongjun heard that Xia ruofei's capital gap had reached 100 million, he couldn't help but click his tongue.

He said, "I'm so far off! Then I really don't have ..."

Although Zhao Yongjun had some assets, it was impossible for him to take out 100 million in cash.

He continued, "ruofei, I have a few friends in the bank. How about ... I help you contact them?" Your company's current valuation should not be low, especially after the sale of the jade skin cream. The bank should be more optimistic! By the way, your company doesn't have a lot of loans, right?"

Xia ruofei said, "brother Zhao, I appreciate your kindness. I can solve this problem. I still have a place to make money." Don't you worry!"

Zhao Yongjun laughed, "Alright then! Then I won't bother about the money! But ... About the Tongren Hall ..."

"You don't have to worry about this!" Xia ruofei quickly replied, "it's normal to have some hiccups in business ..."

"I understand ..." Zhao Yongjun said noncommittally.

"Oh right, brother Zhao," Xia ruofei asked again, "we've been talking for a long time. You still haven't told me what you need from me!"

Zhao Yongjun laughed and said, "it's not a big deal!" We've been quite free recently, so we thought of going to the southeast to play for a few days. We haven't been to your farm either, have we? Everyone wants to see you too! Take a look around, you're familiar with the people here, just Liu Jian, liangzi, and a few others!"

Xia ruofei said happily, "welcome!" You guys can come over anytime! I'll welcome you with open arms and accompany you for the entire journey, including food and lodging!"

"Hahaha! We won't stand on ceremony with a big tycoon like you!" Zhao Yongjun laughed heartily. "I'm just saying hello to you first. If there's nothing else, we'll fly over to find you in the next two days! If you have any work in the near future, arrange it in advance. Don't be too busy. "

"No problem!" Xia ruofei replied, "I'm free anytime!"

"Alright! Then we'll meet at the three mountains!" Zhao Yongjun said.

Xia ruofei said, "sure!" I'll be waiting for you guys!"

After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei thought about how Zhao Yongjun and the rest would arrange their visit.

In terms of accommodation, it was quite good at Taoyuan farm. In any case, what kind of luxury hotel had these second and third generations not stayed in? On the other hand, Taoyuan farm had a beautiful environment and was by the sea, so it was easy to arrange food. The authentic Sanshan specialty dishes, with Taoyuan vegetables as ingredients, were definitely of high quality.

As for whether they would stay in the three mountains for the entire trip or go to some other places around, including the famous tourist city Heron Island, it was up to Zhao Yongjun and the others.

However, he had to rent a high – Class car in advance. The Toyota Coaster should be good.

Xia ruofei scribbled on a piece of paper as he thought about it. For a moment, he forgot to make a call to an overseas bank to make an appointment for a transfer.

By the time he remembered it, he realized that the bank over there should have closed due to the time difference.

Therefore, this matter could only be discussed tomorrow.

Fortunately, the time limit given by bojun real estate was a week. There were still a few days left, so he was not in a hurry.

After Xia ruofei had mentioned the incident with Chen shun at Tongren Hall, he had been suppressing his anger and scolding this B * stard. He was obviously there to find trouble! Xia ruofei was Zhao Yongjun's brother. Since when could a mere purchasing manager bully him?

Zhao Yongjun sat in his chair, deep in thought.

It was fine if he didn't know about this, but since he did, he would definitely help Xia ruofei vent his anger, and he would do it to his heart's content.

Zhao Yongjun grew up in the capital. Other than serving in the Army for a few years, he spent most of his time in the capital. In terms of connections, he was even stronger than song Rui.

Moreover, he was well – known in the circle, and with his forthright personality, he had many friends.

Zhao Yongjun also needed to think about who he should find to do this with the least effort and complete it beautifully.

Names and their backgrounds flashed through his mind. Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something. He frowned and tried to recall.

Then, Zhao Yongjun took out his phone and called Hou Liang.

Hou Liang's father was the leader of the SARFT. Even though the SARFT was not an influential Department, Hou Liang was a decent person. That was why song Rui and Zhao Yongjun were willing to bring him along. Previously, when Xia ruofei flew to Beijing, she had hired a small – time celebrity to represent her in jadeskin ointment. However, when she changed her mind at the last minute, it was Hou Liang who had helped her settle it without saying a word. Now, that small – time celebrity was still in the cold storage, and her future as a star was basically ruined.

After the phone rang twice, Hou Liang picked it up. His voice was very enthusiastic. "Brother Jun! You're looking for me?"

"Yeah," Zhao Yongjun said, "Liangzi, when we went bowling at Junhao last month, did you bring a guy with the last name Wei?"

Hou Liang was stunned for a moment, then he immediately said, "Oh! Brother Jun, you're talking about Wei Jun, right? The one with a small split, the one who's not very tall ..."

"Yes, yes, yes, it's him!" Zhao Yongjun immediately said.

"What's wrong, brother Jun?" Hou Liang asked uneasily. Did this kid make you angry? I'll help you teach him a lesson!"

Other than this reason, Hou Liang couldn't think of another reason why someone like Zhao Yongjun would suddenly care about Wei Jun.

This was because there was a huge gap between Wei Jun's social circle and Zhao Yongjun's. His father was only the president of a city – owned state – owned enterprise, and he was transferred from outside of Beijing. Wei Jun's father, Wei Jianming, was so unremarkable even in Beijing, where there were many high officials, let alone Wei Jun. He had just entered Beijing with his father and had no foundation at all.

Wei Jianming had worked with Hou Liang's father before and was even his leader for a short period of time. However, Hou Liang's father's career was much smoother than Wei Jianming's. He quickly became Wei Jianming's leader and was then transferred to the Ministry.

That was why Wei Jianming brought his wife and child to visit Hou Liang's house as soon as he was transferred to Beijing.

Hou Liang's father was quite a nostalgic person and took care of Wei Jianming. He also told Hou Liang to take care of Wei Jun more often.

Wei Jun had long yearned for the circle of the second generation in Beijing, so he was very respectful to Hou Liang. He had revealed many times that he wanted to get to know the big shots in the circle, and Hou Liang would only occasionally bring Wei Jun to some gathering activities with great difficulty.

In Hou Liang's memory, Wei Jun had probably met Zhao Yongjun when they were bowling at Junhao. For such an insignificant person to suddenly call Zhao Yongjun in such a serious manner, Hou Liang felt that Wei Jun must have been insensible and offended Zhao Yongjun, so he was also quite scared.

Zhao Yongjun snorted and said, "Liangzi, you're always teaching this and that, you're from the underground society, aren't you? I'm just asking!"

"Hehe, brother Jun, I was wrong ..." Hou Liang quickly said with a cheeky smile.

"This Wei Jun, his family ...?" Zhao Yongjun asked indifferently.

Last time at Junhao, Hou Liang had introduced him, but Zhao Yongjun didn't have a deep impression of him. Every day, there were so many young children like Wei Jun who wanted to squeeze into their circle, so how could Zhao Yongjun remember to come?

Zhao Yongjun vaguely remembered that Wei Jun's family seemed to have some connections with Tongren Hall, so he called Hou Liang to ask about the situation.

"Big brother Jun, Wei Jun's father was transferred to the capital a few months ago. He's now the chairman of the Tongren group ..." Hou Liang quickly said.

Zhao Yongjun's eyes brightened. It seemed that his memory was not bad. Although this kid's background was not that great, he was the most suitable person to do this.

Thinking of this, he immediately said, "Liangzi, give this Wei Jun a call and tell him I'll treat him to tea!" See you at the front gate of Xiangfu teahouse in half an hour!"

Chapter 1313: meeting in a thousand years (3)

Hou Liang couldn't help but be stunned when he heard this. Brother Jun is treating Wei Jun to tea? What did this kid do?

"Big brother Jun, just tell us if there's anything you need, Wei Jun wouldn't dare to be slow!" Or I can ask him to come to you immediately ..."

"Why are you talking so much nonsense?" Zhao Yongjun laughed, "it's settled then! By the way, you should come along too!"

"Alright! I'll inform him immediately!" Hou Liang could only say helplessly.

After ending the call with Zhao Yongjun, Hou Liang didn't dare to delay and quickly called Wei Jun.

"Liang bro!" Wei Jun called out respectfully.

In fact, Hou Liang was younger than Wei Jun by a year, but Wei Jun could call him "brother Liang" quite smoothly, without any psychological burden at all. It was because Hou Liang's father was more awesome. Moreover, Hou Liang had a reputation in the circle and was a thousand times better than an outsider like him. He was also very willing to call him brother.

"Wei Jun, where are you?" Hou Liang asked.

"Liang bro, I'm just about to go play Go – Kart in the western suburbs!" Wei Jun quickly said, "there's a new car park there. The conditions are quite good! Liang bro, do you want to come over and play?"

"Don't go, turn back immediately!" "Yes." Hou Liang said, "I have an important matter here!"

"Alright!" Wei Jun said without hesitation, then carefully asked, "Liang bro, can you tell me what it is?"

Hou Liang was also somewhat puzzled. He said, ""I can't explain it clearly over the phone, but it should be a good thing for you. Come back soon! It shouldn't be a problem to get to auspicious fortune store in front of the gate within half an hour, right?"

"No problem, no problem!" Wei Jun quickly said, "I haven't left the city yet! There's no traffic jam now!"

"Alright, I'll wait for you at the entrance!" Hou Liang said.

Half an hour later, Wei Jun arrived at auspicious fortune store in a hurry. Seeing that Hou Liang was already standing at the door, he hastened his steps and said, "Liang bro, I'm so sorry! I even asked you to wait for me here!"

Hou Liang waved his hand nonchalantly and said, "Come in with me!"

"Alright!" Wei Jun followed closely behind him and asked carefully, "Liang bro, what are your orders? Tell me about it first!"

"To be honest, I don't know what's going on either. It's brother Jun who's looking for you today, so be careful of what you say later!" Hou Liang said.

Wei Jun trembled in fear and said in a trembling voice, ""Jun bro? It's ... It's Zhao Yongjun, brother Jun?"

He really couldn't believe it, so he couldn't help but ask.

"Other than him, who else can make me call him brother Jun?" Hou Liang looked at Wei Jun and said, "but you don't have to worry. It shouldn't be a bad thing. If Jun bro has something for you to do, you have to do your best. This is a good opportunity for you!"

"Understood!" Wei Jun quickly replied. Understood! Thanks for the reminder, Liang bro!"

He was just worried that he wouldn't have the chance to enter Zhao Yong Jun's circle! Today Zhao Yongjun took the initiative to ask him to do something, this was a once in a thousand years opportunity! Thus, Wei Jun couldn't help but feel excited.

Of course, he also secretly made up his mind. No matter how difficult the task Zhao Yongjun asked him to do, he would do everything he could to complete it, and he would do it beautifully!

Very quickly, Hou Liang brought Wei Jun, who was unable to suppress his excitement, to a small room. Hou Liang gently knocked on the door and called out, "Big brother Jun!"

Wei Jun's heart thumped. He heard a steady voice coming from the room, ""Come in!"

Chapter 1314: High regard_1

Wei Jun was both excited and nervous as he followed Hou Liang into the private room.

This private room was not big, but the environment was very elegant. The faint sound of guzheng music lingered in the private room.

Wei Jun saw a middle – aged man sitting behind a simple tea table. There was a chessboard and an incense burner on the table. The air was filled with the faint smell of sandalwood and tea. In the smoke, the middle – aged man’s face was not very clear.

“Big brother Jun!” “Wei Jun!” Hou Liang called out respectfully. Then, he frowned slightly and lightly tugged on Wei Jun’s sleeve.

Wei Jun came back to his senses and quickly greeted Zhao Yongjun respectfully.

Zhao Yongjun was focused on making tea. He looked up with a gentle smile on his face.””Liang, Wei, you’re here! Sit down!”

“Thank you, Jun bro!” Hou Liang quickly said.

Then, he pulled Wei Jun to the seat opposite Zhao Yongjun and sat down.

“Big brother Jun, I’ve already spoken to Wei Jun. If you have any orders, you can just tell Wei Jun directly. He’ll definitely do his best!”

“That’s right, brother Jun!” Wei Jun quickly said. It’s my honor that you need my help!”

“Wei, I heard from Liang that your father is the chairman of the Tongren Tang Group. Do you know a purchasing manager called Chen shun?” Zhao Yongjun asked.

Wei Jun’s face revealed a trace of shame as he said,”Big brother Jun, I don’t know many of the internal staff of Tongren Hall. This Chen shun you’re talking about ... I’ve never heard of his name.”

“But I can go and ask around after I get back. It’s more convenient for me to do things in Tongren Hall,” he added.

“Big brother Jun, if there’s anything you need, just tell me!” Hou Liang said. No matter how difficult it is, as long as it’s related to Tongren Hall, Wei Jun will definitely be able to help you settle it properly!”

Zhao Yongjun slightly widened his eyes and said,””Do I look like the kind of person who would make things difficult for others?”

Hou Liang quickly smiled apologetically and said,”what are you saying?” Who in the industry didn’t know that brother Jun was the most loyal? To his own brother, there’s nothing to say!”

Zhao Yongjun glanced at Hou Liang, then turned to Wei Jun and said,””Little Wei, I’m looking for you this time for something. It’s related to Tongren Hall. It’s a matter of a good brother of mine. I’ll tell you what it is first. If you think you can do it, then please help me. If you have any difficulties, don’t be embarrassed. Just tell me. I won’t blame you!”

“I know, Jun bro!” Wei Jun quickly said.

Zhao Yongjun pondered for a moment, then said,””This friend of mine has a batch of quality Cordyceps. I’m not very familiar with this area, but I’m sure that it’s definitely better than the so – called special herbs sold in the market. He had already reached an agreement with Tongren Hall's East China region to purchase it ..."

Zhao Yongjun briefly explained the situation.

When Hou Liang heard this, he couldn't help but interrupt, "'F * ck! You're not talking about ruofei's company, are you, Jun bro?"

Zhao Yongjun nodded and said, "congratulations, you're right!" I called ruofei today to tell him that we're going to the three mountains in two days, and only then did I find out that something like this had happened. As a brother, how can I not do anything about it?"

"Who cares! He had to! This is too F * cked up!" Hou Liang said.

Then, he immediately said to Wei Jun, "Wei Jun, you have to help me with this no matter what!" RUO Fei's identity is a little special, and he's on very good terms with us. He's even a life – and – Death friend of brother Jun. If you do this well, I, Hou Liang, will owe you a favor!"

Zhao Yongjun nodded, "what liangzi said is also what I wanted to say." Little Wei, if you're confident, I hope you can help us with this. After this, I, Zhao Yongjun, will owe you a favor!"

Wei Jun quickly stood up and said, "brother Jun, brother Liang, you're too polite ... What's with the" favor "?! "Don't worry, brothers, leave this to me! Just tell me to what extent you're going to do it. I'll definitely implement it to the letter!"

Zhao Yongjun pondered for a while and said, "that Chen shun will definitely be taught an unforgettable lesson!" However, the most important thing now was to help RUO Fei solve the problem of funds. Tongren Hall was being too mean! I've already made an appointment with old Wang of the year of the crane Hall to see if they can buy this batch of goods. You can decide what to do after I've talked to old Wang ..."

Wei Jun almost panicked when he heard this. He quickly said, "Brother Jun, aren't you slapping my face? This matter was caused by the people under Tongren Hall, so the aftermath would definitely be handled by Tongren Hall! Isn't it just a batch of aweto? Plus, Jun bro said that the quality of this batch is so good, how can we let an outsider have it?"

The year of the crane Hall was also a large medicine Hall in the capital. It had a long history, dating back to the Ming Dynasty. It could be said to be as famous as Tongren Hall in China. It was just that its development in recent years was slightly inferior to Tongren Hall, and its reputation was not as great as Tongren Hall. However, it was still very powerful.

Moreover, the two companies were absolute competitors in the field of Chinese medicine sales. Wei Jun's father was the chairman of Tongren Hall, so he naturally knew more about the industry. So when he heard that Zhao Yongjun was going to hand the business to he Nian Hall, he immediately became anxious.

Wei Jun continued, "big brother Jun, give me a day ... No!" I'll get this done in half a day's time. I'll definitely give your friend an explanation, but I hope that Tongren Hall can continue with this business. The competition in the high – end Chinese medicinal herb Market is too fierce ..."

Zhao Yongjun said that on purpose. Although he had contacted the year of the crane Hall, they were still a bit weaker than Tongren Hall. It was not easy to buy over a hundred million worth of goods in one go.

The best choice would naturally be to continue cooperating with Tongren Hall.

So when Wei Jun said this, Zhao Yongjun went with the flow and said, "Alright then! Little Wei, I'll leave this matter to you!"

"You're too kind, brother Jun!" Wei Jun was a little flattered. "Brother Jun, since time is so tight, I'll go back and take care of things. I'll take my leave now!"

"Alright! Go do your work!" Zhao Yongjun smiled gently. "Liangzi, stay and have some tea with me!"

"Good, big brother Ying Jun!" Hou Liang stood up and said, "wait a moment. I'll send Wei Jun out ..."

Zhao Yongjun nodded slightly.

Thus, Hou Liang brought Wei Jun out of the private room. Once they reached the door, Hou Liang said solemnly, "Wei Jun, you must treat this matter as your top priority! You can never imagine how important Xia ruofei is. Let me put it this way! He's a few levels higher than me and Jun bro ..."

Wei Jun couldn't help but take in a cold breath as he looked at Hou Liang with a hesitant expression.

In his eyes, Zhao Yongjun and the others were already the top second generation. This Xia ruofei was even a few levels higher than Zhao Yongjun. Was there such an amazing person in the circle of second generation in China? Even Zhao Yongjun's father's status wasn't that high, right?

Hou Liang was well aware of Wei Jun's thoughts. He patted Wei Jun's shoulder and said, "It's not convenient for me to explain it to you. It's fine as long as you know it in your heart!"

Wei Jun's heart trembled, and he hurriedly said, "I understand, don't worry Liang bro! I know what to do!"

Hou Liang nodded and said, "alright, go!" Hurry up! If there's any news, give me a call immediately. I'll be with Jun bro the whole day. "

"Understood!"

He didn't look for anyone and drove directly to the headquarters of the Tongren Tang Group.

When he went to the chairman's office to ask, his Secretary told him that his father, Wei Jianming, was in a meeting, and the meeting was expected to be long.

Wei Jun became even more anxious when he heard this. He was like an ant on a hot pan. He paced back and forth in front of Wei Jianming's office a few times before he finally made up his mind to take out his phone and call Wei Jianming.

In the group's meeting room.

Wei Jianming was hosting a rather important meeting, mainly to discuss the group's next strategy.

He was listening to a report from a middle – rank manager when his phone on the table suddenly vibrated.

Wei Jianming glanced at it and saw that it was his son, Wei Jun's number. He frowned slightly and hung up.

After a while, his phone vibrated again.

This time, it was a text message.

Wei Jianming frowned slightly. He opened the message and saw that it was also from Wei Jun. Dad, I have a very urgent and important matter to talk to you about. I'm at the door of your office right now. It's very important. Can you come out for a moment?

Wei Jianming thought, what could Wei Jun be looking for me for?

Although his son's ability was not very outstanding, he was generally reliable. He was much better than some second – generation rich kids who spent their days drinking and playing. The two "very" in the message seemed to be quite urgent.

Wei Jianming put down his phone without a change in expression. He still looked like he was listening attentively, and he even wrote and drew in his notebook from time to time.

After a few minutes, the middle – Level officer finally finished his report.

Wei Jianming put down his pen and said with a pleasant expression, "Comrade Jianzhong's speech was very comprehensive, and the points of view are also very high, giving me a lot of inspiration! Comrades, we've been in a long meeting, so let's take a break now. We'll continue in 15 minutes!"

As the head of the company and the host of the meeting, Wei Jianming could naturally control the pace of the meeting.

Moreover, the meeting had been going on for a long time, and everyone was getting drowsy, especially those who smoked heavily. They had long been looking forward to the break so that they could go out for a smoke.

After Wei Jianming finished speaking, everyone relaxed. Some sat in their seats and closed their eyes to rest, while others walked out in groups of two or three, distributing cigarettes to each other on the way.

After Wei Jianming closed his notebook, he stood up unhurriedly and walked out of the conference room.

Only when he turned the corner did he pick up his pace. In reality, he was also a little anxious, worried that Wei Jun would cause trouble outside, but he could not show it in front of his subordinates.

When he arrived at the door of his office, Wei Jianming saw Wei Jun waiting there like an ant on a hot pan.

"Dad ..." Wei Jun quickly called out when he saw Wei Jianming.

"Let's talk in my office!" Wei Jianming interrupted Wei Jun and said.

The father and son walked into the office. Wei Jianming turned around and said to his Secretary, "I have something important to do here. No one is allowed to disturb me!"

"Okay, President Wei!" The Secretary quickly replied.

Wei Jianming closed the office door and glanced at his son. He asked, "Speak! What happened?"

"Dad!" Wei Jun quickly said. There's an urgent matter that you might need to personally ask ..."

Wei Jun didn't try to hide anything and told him everything that happened in the morning at peach blossom company. Of course, he didn't forget to emphasize that Zhao Yong Jun and Hou Liang personally asked him to do this. He even told him everything that Hou Liang said to him at the door of the teahouse's private room without holding back.

Wei Jianming's expression changed slightly after he heard that. He said, "The Zhao Yongjun you're talking about ..."

"He is the son of general Zhao!" Wei Jun quickly said.

Wei Jianming's expression became even more cautious.

Although he had never heard of Xia ruofei's name, Hou Liang's father was his old leader and was now in a high position. Zhao Cheng was also famous in the capital. The sons of these two had come together to ask Wei Jun for this matter. Moreover, Hou Liang had even emphasized those words to Wei Jun in private. It could be seen how important Xia ruofei was.

"Who handled this matter before?" Wei Jianming asked.

"Brother Jun said it's a purchasing manager called Chen shun, but I'm not sure which Department he's from ..." Wei Jun said.

Wei Jianming thought for a moment and said, "I've never heard of this person. He's probably from the chain company ..."

Wei Jianming pondered for a moment, then walked to the desk and picked up the landline to dial a number. He said, "Comrade Wei Ran, please come to my office."

Wei Jun immediately knew that his father was calling Tang weiran, the Vice President of the Tongren Tang Group, who was in charge of the chain companies. He immediately felt a lot more at ease. He knew that his father had decided to take care of this matter and attached great importance to it.

Wei Jianming put down the phone and said to Wei Jun, "President Tang will be here soon. Please go to my lounge and wait for a while!"

"Alright!" Wei Jun said.

The chairman's office was a large suite, and one of them was a bedroom specially used for resting. Wei Jun walked into the resting room with familiarity and closed the door.

Then, Wei Jianming used the internal line to inform his Secretary to bring him in as soon as Tang weiran arrived.

After a short while, there was a knock on the office door.

"Please enter!" Wei Jianming sat up straight behind his desk and said in a clear voice.

The office door was pushed open, and a slightly fat balding man walked in and said, "President Wei, you're looking for me?"

Tang Wei Ran was the first senior executive of the group to lean towards Wei Jianming after he took office. So, Wei Jianming, who had just arrived, could only control the chain companies. He was secretly glad that this incident happened in the chain companies. If it had happened in the other subsidiaries, even if he was the chairman, things might not have gone so smoothly.

Wei Jianming smiled kindly and said, "Wei Ran is here! Please take a seat! There's an urgent matter that might require you to personally handle ..."

Tang Wei Ran sat opposite Wei Jianming and smiled. "What are your instructions, President Wei? I'll definitely carry it out!"

"Haha!" Wei Jianming laughed and said, "I might need you to go on a business trip. Also, it's time to reorganize the chain companies!"

Chapter 1316: giving in (1)

Tang Wei Ran's eyes flashed and her expression became serious.

Could it be that something bad had happened to the chain companies?

Normally, the chain companies were under Wei Jianming's control, and they were under Tang weiran's charge. If he really wanted to burn his past three fires, he wouldn't do it to the chain companies!

Wei Jianming saw Tang weiran's expression and immediately knew what he was thinking.

Wei Jianming smiled kindly and said, "Wei Ran, don't be nervous. It's like this ..."

Then, Wei Jianming repeated what he had learned to Tang weiran, and then said with a serious expression, "Wei Ran, this Mr. Xia is not an ordinary person. His background is far beyond our imagination. So, if this matter is not handled well, it may even bring a lot of trouble to the whole group!"

"Also...Putting aside Mr. Xia's identity," he said seriously, "in our chain company's business strategy, high – end Chinese medicinal herbs that represent our brand image are very important. Under normal circumstances, even if we have to pay a certain premium, we must get this high – Quality Cordyceps!"

Wei Jianming took a sip of water and continued to speak with a dark expression, "What is this purchasing manager called Chen shun doing? Was he not capable enough, not sensitive enough, or ... Was he deliberately going against the company's strategy? What is his intention?"

Wei Jianming's tone had already turned cold when he said the last few words.

These words were already a little harsh.

Tang Wei Ran's forehead was covered in sweat. He said carefully, "President Wei, this matter is indeed very serious, but we still don't know enough about the situation. Should we investigate it in detail?"

Wei Jianming didn't know Chen shun well, but as the head of the chain company, Tang weiran knew him. After all, Chen shun's uncle, Chen Weinan, was the Vice President of the chain company. He was a member of the chain company's leadership team, so he had a lot of opportunities to deal with Tang weiran directly.

However, Tang weiran didn't have a good relationship with Chen Weinan. On the contrary, Chen Weinan was close to another vice President of the group. In many businesses of the chain company, he had caused a lot of constraints to Tang weiran.

If she could use this incident to get rid of Chen Weinan, Tang weiran would be more than happy to do so.

At the very least, he could knock on the mountain to scare the Tiger.

Therefore, Tang weiran didn't shirk her responsibility, nor did she plead for Chen shun. Instead, she suggested a detailed investigation of the matter. This was the rhythm of a serious investigation.

Wei Jianming was very satisfied with Tang weiran's attitude.

He gently nodded and said, "An investigation will definitely be carried out, and those that need to be dealt with must be dealt with seriously! However, the most important thing now is not to find out who is responsible."

Wei Jianming paused and continued, "Right now, the Paradise Corporation is ready to completely terminate their cooperation with our Tongren Tang ..."

Tang Wei Ran was also shocked and said, "It's that serious? If I remember correctly, the quality of this company's iron – skinned fengdou is very good, and the supply is very stable. In the internal rating of the chain company, this company has a very high weight. It's just that they have been working with the Qiantang store before, so not many people in the group know about it."

Tang Wei Ran swallowed her saliva and continued, "We've already formed a certain brand effect by selling paradise brand's Ironhide Kaede fight on our behalf. We've gathered many high – end customers with strong spending power. If we stop all cooperation, we'll suffer a huge loss!"

Wei Jianming's face darkened. "That's not all. According to a reliable source, the other party might turn to seek cooperation with the year of the crane Hall. Wei Ran, if this matter really comes to this, it will be a heavy blow to the chain companies, and even the entire group!"

"Yeah!" Tang Wei Ran's face slightly changed. President Wei, we must try our best to keep this business partner!"

Wei Jianming nodded and said, "Wei Ran, this is also the reason why I asked you to come here today. You don't have to worry too much. I've also negotiated with some people on my side. The other party will not contact the year of the crane Hall for the time being. As long as we lower our stance and show our sincerity in cooperating, it is very likely that paradise Corporation will stay as a business partner."

"President Wei, I got it. I'll handle it myself!" Tang Wei Ran nodded.

"That's what I meant," Wei Jianming nodded. Go to the Chinese Medicine Research Institute and ask for an experienced researcher to accompany you. Book an afternoon flight to San Shan city immediately. I don't think I need to teach you the specifics, do I?"

"Understood!" Tang Wei Ran nodded. As long as the quality of the other party's aweto is above the standard, we will buy it at a premium! Don't worry, President Wei, I'll definitely humble myself and apologize sincerely!"

Wei Jianming nodded in satisfaction and said, "That's what I meant! In addition, investigate Chen shun at the same time. Arrange for someone you trust to do it! It's best if you can come up with a preliminary solution when you're negotiating with the Paradise Corporation at San Shan!"

"Alright!" Tang Wei Ran nodded.

"Wei Ran, when you're dealing with Mr. Xia, you must be polite. We can't afford to offend him ..." Wei Jianming couldn't help but remind her again.

Chapter 1317: giving in (2)

"President Wei, don't worry! I know my limits!" Tang weiran said, "as long as he doesn't mess up this time, I'll even worship him like a little ancestor!"

Wei Jianming couldn't help but laugh as well. "Then you go! Although this matter is a crisis, it might not be a bad thing. It might be a chance for us!"

"Okay, President Wei. I'll go and prepare now ..." Tang weiran got up and said goodbye to Wei Jianming.

Wei Jianming smiled and nodded. He stood up and walked Tang weiran to the door.

Then he closed the office door. At this time, Wei Jun also walked out from the resting room.

"Did you all hear that?" Wei Jianming took out a cigarette and asked.

Wei Jun's face had a trace of excitement as he said, "Mm! Dad! You're too awesome!"

Wei Jianming patted Wei Jun's shoulder and said, "Little Jun, you handled this matter very well! You should immediately reply to Hou Liang and Zhao Yongjun!"

“Alright!” Wei Jun said happily, “dad, then I’ll be leaving first!”

Although the matter wasn’t settled yet, Wei Jun knew that it shouldn’t be a big problem since Wei Jianming placed so much importance on it, so he was prepared to inform Zhao Yongjun and Hou Liang first.

It had only been about an hour, and he had already done this much. No matter what, he was a man who attached great importance to this matter, and his attitude was quite correct.

“Mm! The water in the capital is very deep. You need to speak less and see more. If you don’t understand, you can ask Hou Liang.” Wei Jianming said.

“I know, dad!” Wei Jun said obediently.

After Wei Jun left, Wei Jianming sat there for a while, deep in thought. Then, he snuffed out his cigarette, stood up, and returned to the conference room.

Sanshan city.

Xia ruofei returned to the small villa after lunch. Then, he entered the spirit map space in his room. Although there were some problems with the sales of the Cordyceps, he still placed great importance on the harvest.

He stayed in the space for a while and watched Xia Qing excavate the wormgrass skillfully. He couldn’t help but be eager to join her in excavating the wormgrass.

After more than an hour of hard work, Xia ruofei finally left the cordyceps cultivation garden. He wasn’t tired, but he wanted to take a nap in the afternoon. After all, he couldn’t work continuously without sleep like Xia Qing.

After Xia ruofei returned to the bedroom outside, she went straight to the bathroom to wash off the mud on her body. After changing into her coral fleece home clothes, she slipped into her Cotton Slippers and entered the bedroom.

After he lay on the bed, he picked up his phone from the bedside table and saw that there were two missed calls.

Both calls were made by Zhao Yongjun, and there was about ten minutes between the two calls. It seemed that he had called while he was in the spirit map space.

Hence, Xia ruofei immediately called back.

“Ruofei, you finally picked up the phone!” Zhao Yongjun said.

Xia ruofei chuckled and asked, “brother Zhao, what’s the situation?” What’s the matter?”

“It’s still about aweto,” Zhao Yongjun said. “I’ve helped you find someone and passed a message to the higher – ups of the Tongren Tang Group. The other party attached great importance to it and immediately sent a Vice President to San Shan in person to deal with this matter! I think he’ll contact you this afternoon!”

Xia ruofei was a little surprised, but at the same time, he felt a trace of warmth in his heart. He said, ""Brother Zhao, why would I trouble you to use your favor for this? This is not appropriate ..."

"What kind of bullshit is this!" Zhao Yongjun said, "do we have to be so distant between us brothers? Then you helped my father, so I won't be able to repay you in this lifetime, right?"

"Fine, I was wrong!" Xia ruofei readily accepted his advice and immediately said, "brother Zhao, I won't stand on ceremony with you ..."

"That's the way!" Zhao Yongjun said, "ruofei, their Vice President Tang is in charge of the chain company. His words are very effective! When the time comes, you don't have to be so polite with him. If they still want to cooperate well, just state the price. Also, if you're not satisfied with Chen shun's way of handling things, don't give up so easily!"

"Alright! I got it!" Xia ruofei said and continued to ask, "by the way, why is the situation at Tongren Hall so complicated? How much higher is this Vice President compared to manager Chen shun?"

Zhao Yongjun couldn't help but laugh, ""Ruofei, have you not done a basic understanding of your business partners?"

"Hey! I'll just sell things to them and then collect the money. Anyway, if my things are good, they're also rushing to buy them. Why would I know their situation?" Xia ruofei said nonchalantly, "I like the food of a restaurant. I don't need to know the capital structure of the restaurant or the resume of the chef, right?"

"That's true!" Zhao Yongjun laughed. "The person who came today is the Vice President of the Tongren Tang Group. Strictly speaking, the one you dealt with before is a subsidiary of the Tongren Tang Group, which is the Tongren Tang chain. It's mainly a chain of pharmacies in various regions and cities. In addition to this chain company, the Tongren Tang Group has more than ten subsidiaries, including the Research Institute and Chinese medicine hospital. There are two listed companies under its banner, which are very large in scale. He is the Vice President of a big group and is in charge of the chain company. How much older do you think he is than that bullsh * t purchasing manager?"

Chapter 1318: giving in (3)

"It's fine as long as the official is high enough! Otherwise, you'll be wasting my precious time!" Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "brother Zhao, when are you coming to the three mountains? I've already swept this side of the bed three times ..."

Zhao Yongjun laughed. "Soon, Liu Jian still has some things to deal with. In two or three days at most, we'll be here!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said, "then I won't talk to you anymore. I'm going to take an afternoon nap."

"Then just turn off your phone and go to sleep!" Zhao Yongjun said, "in case the people from Tongren Hall come over and disturb your sleep."

"Hahaha! That makes sense!" Xia ruofei said.

After hanging up, Xia ruofei thought for a while and called Mr. Lin, who was staying in the temporary accommodation on the farm. He asked him to refund the return ticket and stay for one more day. As for his retinue, they could go back first.

Although President Lin did not understand Xia ruofei's intentions, he agreed readily because he trusted Xia ruofei and did not want to face a lot of things when he returned to Jiangsu and Zhejiang Province.

After the call with CEO Lin, Xia ruofei really turned off his phone and went to bed to sleep.

Xia ruofei woke up naturally at around four in the afternoon. He got up from his bed, put on his clothes slowly, washed his face, and then went back to his bedroom to turn on his phone.

As soon as he turned it on, he received several text notifications for missed calls.

An unfamiliar number from Beijing, as well as Feng Jing and Liu Qian's, had called him.

A smile appeared on Xia ruofei's face. After some thought, he used his phone to call Feng Jing back.

"Chairman!" Feng Jing immediately asked, "can you come to the office for a while? Tongren Hall ..."

"Tongren Tang Group sent a Vice President over to discuss the acquisition of Aweto, right?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"Have they arrived?" Xia ruofei laughed.

"They arrived at our farm half an hour ago!" Feng Jing said, "this is President Tang. He wants to restart the negotiations for the acquisition of the Cordyceps and wants to personally appraise the quality of the Cordyceps. Since I couldn't contact you, I didn't dare to make a decision on my own. I told them to rest in the reception room."

"Okay, I got it." Xia ruofei replied calmly, "I just woke up and am a little hungry. I'll make a bowl of noodles and come over after I'm done ..."

"Chairman, isn't it a bit inappropriate to keep them waiting?" Feng Jing couldn't help but ask.

She was just short of saying that the God of Fortune had taken the initiative to come and visit, and he still had the mood to eat instant noodles?

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I haven't settled the score with them yet!" What's the big deal with making them wait for a few minutes? Boss Feng, don't worry about it, I know what I'm doing!"

"Alright then!" Feng Rao could only say helplessly.

She felt that Xia ruofei had his reasons for doing so.

As she did not know how long Xia ruofei would take to eat instant noodles, Feng Rao could only reply ambiguously when she returned to the waiting room, "President Tang, I'm really sorry. Our President Xia has some matters to attend to. He said that you can wait for a while. He will rush over as soon as he is done with his matters."

Feng Rao didn't know if Tang weiran would feel neglected by her words.

That was why she was a little nervous.

However, to her surprise, Tang weiran immediately stood up and said, "In that case, let's go downstairs to welcome President Xia! Otherwise, it would be too rude ..."

"This ..." Feng Jing was dumbfounded. "President Tang, you're a guest, so there's no need to welcome you. You can just rest here!" If our President Xia comes, I'll invite him here immediately. "

"It's necessary, it's necessary!" Tang Wei Ran said, "President Feng, please lead the way. I'll go downstairs now ..."

Chapter 1319: The sincerity of Tongren Hall (1)

Feng Jing felt a little dizzy. She was not like Xia ruofei, who did nothing. As a business partner of Paradise Corporation, she had a detailed understanding of the situation of Tongren Tang Corporation.

Tang weiran was the Vice President of the group. Although it was a business, she was still a Deputy Director. Moreover, there were so many subsidiaries, research institutes, hospitals, and two listed companies with billions of assets. Feng Jing felt it was unbelievable that the Vice President of such a big group would be so humble.

However, she saw that Tang weiran was very sincere and didn't seem to be faking it, so she could only nod helplessly and go downstairs with Tang weiran and his retinue.

Tang weiran's follower was a senior researcher from the Research Institute of Traditional Chinese Medicine under the Tongren Tang Group. His name was Zheng Xu and he was in his forties. He was also an expert in the research and identification of Traditional Chinese Medicine and had a lot of experience.

Feng Jing secretly sent a WeChat message to Xia ruofei. "Chairman, President Tang of Tongren Hall is already waiting for you downstairs. Please hurry up!"

After a while, Feng Jing felt her phone vibrate. She swiped the screen open and saw Xia ruofei's message. He knew.

Feng Rao was speechless.

She had already given Xia ruofei a reminder. She could only support Xia ruofei unconditionally in whatever he wanted to do.

Feng Jing accompanied Tang weiran and waited for more than ten minutes. It was quite cold on the three mountains in December and the wind by the seaside was quite strong. Tang weiran and Zheng Xu, who were used to the dry environment in Beijing, felt that the wind was going to penetrate their bones. Even if they covered their clothes tightly, it was no use.

It was only when she saw Xia ruofei walking over unhurriedly from a distance that Feng Jing heaved a sigh of relief. She was worried that if she waited any longer, the two of them would catch a cold before they could even start the negotiation.

Compared to Tang weiran and the others 'bulky clothes, Xia ruofei was much more casual. He wore a pair of blue jeans with a pair of white casual shoes and a white long – sleeved T – Shirt with a dark green pilot jacket. He looked like a young man on the street. If someone said that Xia ruofei was a college student, people would definitely believe it.

Tang weiran came in a hurry, so she only contacted Wei Jun through Wei Jianming. Wei Jun then got Xia ruofei's phone number from Zhao Yongjun. He didn't know much about Xia ruofei's situation.

That was why he didn't notice Xia ruofei who was walking over. He thought that she was just an ordinary employee of paradise Corporation!

Feng Rao reminded him in a low voice, ""President Tang, our President Xia is here!"

Tang weiran suddenly realized that the young man in casual clothes was the Mr. Xia with an unfathomable background that Wei Jianming had mentioned.

He quickly put on a warm smile and walked up to her. ""President Xia, Hello! I'm tang weiran from Tongren Hall!"

Xia ruofei stopped in his tracks. With a calm smile on his face, he said, "Hello, President Tang! I've made you wait ..."

"I wouldn't dare!" Tang weiran quickly said, "President Xia, we're the ones who disturbed you!" Previously, the employees of the chain companies under our group were not familiar with the business. I'm sorry to have offended you ..."

"You're just not familiar with the business?" Xia ruofei asked.

Tang Wei Ran's smile suddenly became a little awkward. He said, ""This ... Before I came, I already instructed the group's Discipline Inspection department to investigate this matter. The results should be out soon ..."

Xia ruofei nodded noncommittally and said, ""President Tang, let's go upstairs and sit down before we talk!"

"Alright, President Xia, please go first!" Tang Wei Ran said.

Xia ruofei did not stand on ceremony. He nodded and took the lead.

When they passed by Feng Jing, Xia ruofei said, ""Inform President Lin to come to the meeting room."

“Alright!” “Yes,” Feng Jing replied. Then, she gestured to Liu Qian and slowed down her pace. She and Tang weiran followed Xia ruofei into the complex. Liu Qian took out her phone and informed President Lin.

After entering the building, Tang weiran felt a little warm. He couldn’t help but smile bitterly. He hoped that Xia ruofei would feel his sincerity. He was the Vice President of a big corporation. It was indeed a little hard for him to be so humble.

When they arrived at the conference room, CEO Lin, who had received Liu Qian’s call, came down from the guest suite upstairs. He met Xia ruofei and the others at the entrance of the conference room.

President Lin was stunned when he saw Tang weiran, who was half a step behind Xia ruofei and had a warm smile on her face.

Tang weiran didn’t know President Lin, but President Lin was familiar with her.

Because Tang weiran was the group leader in charge of the chain company, although President Lin had never met Tang weiran, he was very familiar with her from the news on the company’s website and the frequent video conference calls.

“Good day, President Tang!” President Lin quickly greeted him respectfully.

Tang weiran looked at President Lin with some doubts. Xia ruofei smiled and said, “Big brother Lin is coming down!”

“President Tang, let me introduce you. He’s an elite soldier from Tongren Hall!” He said to Tang weiran. He’s Lin Zhongming, the Vice President of your chain company’s East China District. ”

Tang weiran suddenly understood. At the same time, he paid more attention to Xia ruofei’s “brother Lin”.

A kind smile appeared on Tang Wei Ran’s face. She took the initiative to reach out to Lin Zhongming and said, “You’re comrade Zhongming! I’ve heard of your name a few times in the capital. You were an expert in business at the Qiantang shop! You were the one who facilitated the cooperation with the Paradise Corporation on the tin can maple, am I right?”

Lin Zhongming quickly extended his hands and shook Tang weiran’s hand. Then, he said humbly, “You’re too kind, President Tang! That’s my job!”

Lin Zhongming looked at Xia ruofei gratefully. He could tell that Xia ruofei was trying to save his face.

“President Tang, big brother Lin, let’s go in and talk!” Xia ruofei laughed.

The group then walked into the conference room and took their seats.

After Tang Wei Ran sat down, she immediately said with a sincere expression, ""President Xia, first of all, I would like to apologize to you and your company! Because of a few employees, there was a misunderstanding between the two sides, and even the cooperation was put on hold. This is the negligence of the group's leaders!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "President Tang, you're being too serious. It's just business!" It's normal for there to be disagreements in negotiations ..."

The more Tang weiran heard, the more she felt that something was wrong. Xia ruofei was being so generous. Was he not going to pursue the matter? However, Xia ruofei did not have such an attitude before he entered the room!

Just as Tang weiran was worried, Xia ruofei suddenly said, ""It's not necessarily a bad thing that we didn't come to an agreement with Tongren Hall. I'm still confident in the competitiveness of our company's products. I believe that the traditional time – honored brands such as henian Hall, Changchun Hall, and Huichun Hall will be very interested in our company's Ironhide maples and Cordyceps. We've also been actively contacting these potential partner pharmacies in the past two days. In fact, we didn't lose much in business, so President Tang doesn't have to apologize ..."

Tang Wei Ran broke out in a cold sweat after hearing this. He quickly said, ""President Xia, our Tongren Hall still places great importance on our business partner, Tao Yuan company. After the group's Chairman, comrade Wei Jianming, heard about this matter, he personally instructed the discipline Inspection department to start an investigation and sent me to represent the group to continue discussing the cooperation with your company. President Xia, please consider continuing to cooperate with our Tongren Hall ..."

Xia ruofei had already gotten the information from Zhao Yongjun and knew the purpose of Tang weiran's trip. He smiled and said, ""President Tang, it doesn't matter which company we work with. In addition to benefits, we value long – term cooperation more. In the past, brother Lin and I worked together quite happily on the sales of iron dukedom!"

Tang weiran smiled bitterly in her heart. Xia ruofei's words were already very obvious.

His previous cooperation with Lin Zhongming had always been very pleasant. This time, the cooperation with aweto was basically just lacking a signature. If it wasn't for the issue of authority, Lin Zhongming would have already returned to Jiangsu and Zhejiang Province with a bright performance.

Now, the situation had completely changed, and it was only because of Chen shun alone.

It seemed that if he didn't show his sincerity and deal with Chen shun seriously, this negotiation wouldn't be able to continue.

And this matter couldn't be delayed. Didn't Xia ruofei just say it? They had already gotten in touch with the strong competitors of Tongren Hall, such as the year of the crane Hall. The longer they dragged on, the more likely it would be for changes to happen.

Tang weiran didn't think that Xia ruofei was bluffing, because he had gotten the exact news from Wei Jianming that Xia ruofei might turn to work with the year of the crane Hall.

After a moment of silence, he said, ""President Xia, please wait for a moment. I'll go out and make a call ..."

Xia ruofei smiled and gestured for her to go ahead. ""Please go ahead, President Tang!"

Tang Wei Ran walked out of the meeting room and immediately made a phone call to the capital to ask about the results of the secret investigation.

In fact, this matter was very simple, and it could be found out without much effort.

The results of the investigation showed that Chen shun was sent by Chen Weinan, the Vice President of the chain company. He was sent very urgently without going through the company's collective meeting.

The family relationship between Chen shun and Chen Weinan was no secret at all.

After Tang weiran understood the situation, she called Lin Zhongming out and asked kindly, ""Comrade Zhongming, there's something I'd like to know from you. Can you tell me the details of Chen shun's involvement in the negotiation?"

Lin Zhongming had been angry with Chen shun for a long time. Although he was not clear about the current situation, he had seen Tang weiran's attitude towards Xia ruofei.

Therefore, Lin Zhongming didn't have any scruples. He directly appointed Chen shun to take over the negotiations, and then deliberately put on airs during the negotiations. He even offered a price that was far lower than the actual value of the purchase, and so on. He told him everything in detail.

Tang weiran's face became uglier and uglier after she heard it.

Naturally, he could easily analyze that Chen Weinan had sent his nephew to pick the peaches. If the negotiation was successful, this cooperation would definitely be signed in the name of a chain company with paradise Corporation. At that time, Lin Zhongming would have nothing to do with it, and all the performance would belong to Chen shun.

However, what Tang weiran didn't understand was why Chen shun did such a simple task. Was this guy an idiot?

However, Tang weiran didn't want to know why. He gently said to Lin Zhongming, ""Comrade Zhongming, I understand the situation. I'm sorry for making you suffer this time! Don't worry, the group won't let this kind of evil spread. We'll definitely deal with those with ulterior motives seriously!"

"Thank you, President Tang!" Lin Zhongming said with some excitement.

Tang weiran asked Lin Zhongming to return to the meeting room first. He called Wei Jianming immediately and reported his initial contact with Xia ruofei as well as Chen shun's situation.

After Wei Jianming heard this, he couldn't help but slam the table and say, "You're simply a disgrace to Tongren Hall! If all the business managers below are of such quality, no matter how well we do our development strategy, it will all be a castle in the air!"

"President Wei, I'm responsible for this matter as the leader of the branch. I would like to reflect on my actions ..." Tang Wei Ran said.

“What responsibility do you have?” Wei Jianming interrupted Tang weiran and said, “it’s obvious that a middle – Level leader is ignoring the group’s interests for his own benefit!”

His words were equivalent to a conclusion. Not only would Chen shun be dealt with seriously, but even Chen Weinan would not be able to get away with it.

“President Wei, Mr. Xia probably wants to see our sincerity. Otherwise, the negotiation can’t go on ...” Tang weiran said.

“Yes!” Wei Jianming said without hesitation, “Chen shun will be fired. Chen Weinan has an unshirkable leadership responsibility. We’ll deal with him seriously after the group studies it. Let’s follow this tone and talk to Mr. Xia first!” I’ll talk to the discipline Inspection team and speed up the progress!”

“Understood!” Tang Wei Ran said, “President Wei, I’ll go in first. I’ll report to you as soon as I make any progress.”

“Mm! Thank you for your hard work, Wei Ran!” Wei Jianming said.

“No, no, it’s my duty!” Tang Wei Ran was flattered and quickly said.

After hanging up the phone, Tang weiran returned to the meeting room and said to Xia ruofei, “President Xia, I’ve just contacted the group’s Discipline Inspection department and found comrade Zhongming to understand the situation. The truth is basically clear. The chain company’s individual leaders were trying to seek benefits for their relatives, which led to the whole incident. Our group’s Chairman, comrade Wei Jianming, has personally instructed that Chen shun’s punishment should be severe. The initial decision is to punish and dismiss him. In addition, the chain company’s Deputy General Manager, Chen Weinan, who is responsible for the leadership, should also be investigated immediately. The corporation will deal with it seriously after the research!”
