

God tier Farm 1391

Chapter 1391: The lazy boss (1)

In fact, Xia ruofei had really wronged Feng Jing.

He had lunch with Zhao Yongjun and the others in the city, then sent them to the airport. It was almost time for work when they returned to the farm.

When Xia ruofei's flashy Knight XV off – Road vehicle drove in, it was coincidentally seen by Feng Jing, who was going downstairs to work. She had a few things to report to her, which was why she called just now.

Feng Jing was waiting at the door of Xia ruofei's office. When she saw Xia ruofei, she smiled and asked, "Chairman, I hope I didn't disturb your rest."

"You're asking the obvious ..." Xia ruofei said gloomily. "I haven't even sat down for long when I got home, and you called me. Why are you resting?"

Feng Rao couldn't help but smile and said, "Chairman, it's normal to be busy at the end of the year, you have to get used to it! Besides ... If I could make a fortune like you, I'd be willing to be ten times busier!"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and shook his head. He opened the office door and walked in.

Although he hadn't been here for a few days, the office was still spotless. The administrative office arranged for people to clean it every day.

Xia ruofei sat down on the chair and added some spring water into the teapot. Then, he turned on the heat.

He raised his head and said, "sit!" Right, didn't we agree to call my name when no one is around? Why did he keep calling her Chairman? Sister Che!"

Xia ruofei's half – Smile made Feng Rao's face heat up. She then said coyly, "I'm still not used to it."

Xia ruofei laughed, "I'm just joking!" Sister ran, tell me, what important work do you have to discuss?"

Feng Rao glanced at Xia ruofei and said, "Can't I report something not important to you? Are you still the boss?"

Xia ruofei laughed drily, "I have a capable general manager like you." Alright, alright, I misspoke. Let's talk about work, talk about work ..."

Seeing Xia ruofei's embarrassed look, Feng Jing couldn't help but burst out laughing. However, she quickly held back her laughter and flipped open her notebook with a serious expression. She started to report to Xia ruofei.

"First, I have a few things to report to you." Feng Jing said seriously, "the handover procedures for the Hengli building have been officially completed. Now, the entire building belongs to our paradise Corporation. All the remaining payment has been settled. This work can be considered to be completed successfully!”

Xia ruofei nodded. This was within his expectations. The contract had been signed and the money had been paid. Even if the paperwork for the transfer of ownership went through normally, it should have been done after so many days.

“How’s the renovation going on for the few floors we plan to use?”he asked.

“Everything’s going as planned, but our requirements are a little high,” Feng Jing replied.”Plus, you’re so influential, so they won’t dare to mess things up. It might take some time.”

In the end, the renovation of the office building was handed over to Liang Weimin’s jianda company. His real estate company had a renovation company that met the requirements and was very experienced. Xia ruofei did not go through the bidding process and directly handed it over to Liang Weimin, who he trusted.

It wasn’t their first time working together, so Liang Weimin naturally attached great importance to Xia ruofei’s project. He sent the best construction team and repeatedly reminded them to ensure the authenticity of the materials and the quality of the project.

Xia ruofei chuckled.”Slow work makes fine work. I’m not in a hurry!”

Feng Jing nodded with a smile.”It’s almost the Spring Festival, so the renovation company might be a little tight on manpower. They’re already working overtime. I’ve already spoken to the construction team. If they really can’t handle it, they can finish it after the spring Festival.”

“En!” Xia ruofei nodded and said,”it’s not particularly urgent for us. The company is still operating on the farm. It’s just that everyone’s office environment is a little cramped. We’ll just have to overcome it for the time being.”

“Understood!” Feng Jing nodded and said,”regarding the sales of the pomfrets, we followed your plan and did some promotion on the internet. We also hired some paid posters to write some articles and contacted a few powerful distributors. In short, everyone is very interested.”

“I noticed it,” Xia ruofei said with a smile.”When I was on Heron Island the day before yesterday, I saw a Food Guide. It also promoted Ling Ji’s private kitchen ...”

“That article was published by the three mountains Evening News, and it was written by a proper reporter!” Feng Jing said with a smile. However, we contacted some online media and internet trolls to repost it ...”

“It’s fine even if you exceed it!” Xia ruofei said,”this is the money that should be spent. You can’t save it!”

Xia ruofei was not an old – fashioned person and did not have any moral mysophobia. It was normal to ask the media to help promote and give them some money for their appreciation and transportation. He did not reject it.

Xia ruofei then brought the topic back to the right track and said, ""As for the choice of suppliers ... I'm inclined to only cooperate with one of them. As for who to cooperate with, it will depend on the conditions they offer and the subsequent negotiations."

Feng Rao thought for a while and nodded. "After all, the production of Pomfret is limited. I agree with your opinion. It's enough to find a strong enough distributor!"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "I think so too. Whether it's an e – commerce or a physical hypermarket, we'll only choose one." Of course, as you said, in addition to whether the other party's conditions are favorable or not, our judgment should also be based on the other party's strength and target customers. As for the convenience supermarket, at least in the sales of pomfrets, I have no interest in cooperating!"

"Understood!" Feng Jing said, "I'll personally follow up on this project."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'm assured that you'll do it!" Just tell me the result!"

Feng Rao smiled bitterly and nodded in resignation, ""I know! I won't let you down ..."

Xia ruofei laughed out loud.

At this time, the water in the teapot was boiling. Xia ruofei poured some water to heat up the purple clay teapot and washed the teacups. Then, he took out the tea box, scooped some tea leaves with a spoon, and put them into the purple clay teapot. He started to brew the tea skillfully.

"Sister ran, please continue. I'm listening!" He said without raising his head.

"There are still a few things that I need you to decide," said Feng Rao.

She glanced at the notebook and continued, ""The first is the news conference for the heart – nourishing soup. It's scheduled for the morning of the day after tomorrow. We've rented the venue at the Sanshan conference hall. The media invitations have already been sent out. Factory manager Xue would like to invite you to attend as well ..."

"Sure, but I won't say anything," Xia ruofei replied without thinking.

The heart – nourishing soup was an important product of his company. Furthermore, the release of this medicine on the market was definitely a good thing for doing good. He naturally had to be there to express his support. Even if he did not say anything, as the big boss, his presence was a great encouragement to the staff of the pharmaceutical factory.

Although Xia ruofei did not ask about the preparations for the press conference, he still continued to pay attention to it.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded, “the pharmaceutical factory must be very busy these days, right?”

“Isn’t it? The production line of the jade skin ointment is almost non – stop except for routine maintenance and overhaul. The workers work in three shifts. ” Feng Jing replied, “although the Yangxin soup hasn’t had a product launch yet, it’s already a Chinese medicine that has been approved for the market. That’s why we’ve already received a lot of orders from hospitals that have participated in the clinical trials.”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but laugh when he heard this. This was great. He didn’t even need a pharmaceutical sales representative. He didn’t even need to go to the public relations department or the hospital leaders to produce a drug, and they took the initiative to send an order. He just had to ask if he was convinced!

“I’m afraid that after the conference, the number of orders will continue to grow!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “Xue Jinshan should be mentally prepared.”

“I think he’s well prepared.” Feng Jing said, “on one hand, we have a lot of stock in stock, so it should be enough for a while. On the other hand, factory manager Xue has also started to prepare for the future. He has already submitted the report for the additional production line and the recruitment of new workers.”

“Mm! If you really need it, then buy it and hire it!” Xia ruofei said, “let me know if you don’t have enough liquid funds. I still have a lot of money ...”

The purchase of the Heng Li building had almost used up all of paradise corporation’s working capital. Even the money from the first sale of Cordyceps sinensis had been used on it. In addition, the renovation of the new headquarters was still in progress. The more familiar Xia ruofei was with Liang Weimin, the more he couldn’t owe him for the construction and materials. Therefore, he had also instructed pang Hao from the finance department to settle the payment on time.

In addition, the company was getting bigger and bigger, and the daily expenses such as the salaries of the staff were not a small amount.

In this case, unless they rushed to buy the jade skin cream again, they would be financially stretched for a period of time.

However, the frequency of buying jade skin cream was too high. On the one hand, the production capacity could not keep up, and on the other hand, the essence of hunger marketing could not be lost.

That was why Xia ruofei was worried that the financial department would not be able to handle it well.

Feng Rao smiled. “There’s no problem with the funds for the time being ... Ruofei, don’t forget that we have a lot of profitable businesses. The vegetables we earn every day are enough to sustain our expenses. Besides, the sales of our online flagship store is getting higher and higher. The profits of the store such as iron – Skin fengdou and Peach Garden Da Hong Pao are very high.”

"That's good! Just let me know if you're short of money." Xia ruofei said, "I have money here."

Originally, Xia ruofei did not have much money in his private account, so most of his money was in his overseas account.

However, Ding Feng winery's dividends would be in his account soon. Xia ruofei would be able to get about 50 million Yuan. More than half of the money for the investment club had been settled. If the company needed it, he could use this money at any time.

"I know you're rich," Feng Jing said with a smile. "Why don't you give me a few million?"

"If sister che is short on money, it's not a problem!" Xia ruofei said without hesitation.

"I'm just joking!" Feng Rao quickly replied. What do I need so much money for?"

Although Feng Rao was just joking, Xia ruofei agreed without hesitation. She was touched.

"Hehe, there are people who don't love money?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"A gentleman loves money and takes it in the right way, okay ..." Feng Rao rolled her eyes.

"Isn't it right for me to give you money?" Xia ruofei widened his eyes and asked, "I'm not your sugar daddy ..."

Feng Jing's face turned red. Xia ruofei felt that his joke was a little ambiguous, so he quickly changed the topic. "Sister ran, let's continue talking about work! Other than the news conference of the heart nourishing soup, what else is there?"

Feng Rao glanced at Xia ruofei with her watery eyes before she continued, "There's still the company's Annual Meeting."

Xia ruofei first handed the tea to Feng Jing, then sat up straight and said, "The annual party is more important, so we have to do it well!"

This was the first time that paradise Corporation had organized a formal Annual Meeting. Now that the number of employees had reached several hundred, and the company was getting bigger and bigger, this first annual meeting must be done well.

"I've already entrusted the details to a company that specializes in the ceremony," Feng Jing said. "There are two problems we need to settle first. One is the time, and the second is the location."

Feng Rao paused and took a sip of tea before continuing, "Ruofei, I suggest we do it after New Year's Day and before the Spring Festival. After all, most people think that New Year's Day is the last day of the year, and New Year's Day is obviously not as significant as the Spring Festival."

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "sure. Many companies in China treat the Lunar New Year as the end of a year. Why don't we do it on the eve of the Lunar New Year?" Let's have a good time with the whole company. "

"Alright!" Feng Jing jotted it down as she said, "it's the holidays for the new year. We can't delay the annual meeting so late. Many employees still have to return home for the new year!" It's not bad for everyone to spend the new year together! But I don't know if it'll be easy to book a hotel ..."

Xia ruofei smiled. "Ask the administrative department to make the reservation as soon as possible. Let me know if they can't make it. We'll hold the annual meeting at the Ling Ji restaurant."

Feng Rao looked at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile and said, "I almost forgot that your girlfriend's family owns a hotel. I was worried for nothing ..."

"Then there shouldn't be a problem with the location," Feng Jing continued. "At least there's the lingji restaurant as an alternative."

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "of course, it's not that I don't like Qingxue's restaurant." But if you can book a better hotel, and in a hotel at that, you don't have to worry about the money. Everyone has worked hard for a year, and we can't save the money that should be spent!"

After all, Ling's restaurant was still a restaurant for the common people. The food was very authentic, but objectively speaking, the environment was definitely not as good as a star hotel. The quality of Ling's private kitchen was higher, but the place was so small that it could not accommodate hundreds of employees.

The best place would naturally be the grand banquet hall of a star hotel.

"Alright!" Feng Jing nodded and said, "since the time has been set, I'll get the administrative department to follow up on this."

"Mm! Also, other than not saving money for the hotel, we should also give out better prizes for the annual meeting so that we can have a wider coverage. " Xia ruofei said, "get the administration to come up with a proposal. I want to approve it personally!"

"Understood!" Feng Jing said, "there's one more thing ..."

Xia ruofei forced a smile and said, "why isn't it over yet?" Can't we have some tea together?"

"One last thing!" Feng Rao said helplessly.

I've never seen such a lazy boss! Feng Jing thought to herself.

"Alright, alright!" Xia ruofei said listlessly, "hurry up and tell me. I'll go home and take a nap after you're done. I'm so sleepy after driving for hours ..."

"I thought our company's management still hasn't been fully equipped?" Feng Jing said, "actually, I've been asking a headhunting company to help me look for someone. I really did find something this time ..."

"Oh?" Xia ruofei also became more spirited and said, "tell me!"

Chapter 1394: Chief Executive Officer (1)

“Two days ago, the headhunting company recommended a candidate for the Executive Director position!” Feng Jing said as she passed a resume from her notebook to Xia ruofei. She then continued, “you can take a look at the resume first!”

Xia ruofei took the resume with a smile. Before he opened it, he glanced at the photo on the cover and subconsciously frowned. “It’s a woman?”

Feng Rao was unhappy when she heard that and said, “So what if she’s a woman? What era are we living in now? you’re still being sexist?”

Xia ruofei suddenly realized that he had said something wrong. Wasn’t this lady in front of him a beauty as well? She was also a standard career woman. Many men were not as good as her in the management of the company!

“I didn’t mean it that way, sister che,” he quickly said with a smile. What I want to say is that the company’s executive Director is in charge of the daily affairs. There are more miscellaneous things and a heavier workload. If a woman were to take on the role, would it ...”

“A lot of big companies are run by women!” Feng Jing said, “women have many advantages in this position. For example, they are friendly, attentive, and so on ...”

Feng Jing couldn’t help but glance at Xia ruofei. “You should look at your resume first! If you think it’s okay, I’ll go and get in touch with them first. They might not even agree to come over yet!”

“Alright,” he said. Xia ruofei laughed drily and opened the resume.

This woman, Dong Yun, had an eye – catching resume and was comparable to Feng Jing. Yingying was also an overseas graduate and had a master’s from a prestigious University. She also had a Master’s in Business Administration from Harvard, which was a well – known brand in the world. After graduating from Harvard, he entered a well – known company on Wall Street. After that, he had been developing in the United States and had been the director of many companies.

“How is it?” Feng Rao observed Xia ruofei’s expression and asked with a smile.

Xia ruofei closed the resume and said, “it looks good ... Two questions!”

“Go ahead,”

“Firstly, there’s no doubt that Dong Yun’s resume is brilliant. However, I noticed a phenomenon. The company she’s been in for the longest time was one year and eight months, while the shortest was only one week. In the short span of five years, she’s already changed companies more than ten times.” Xia ruofei said unhurriedly, “I’m worried that she won’t be able to work for long even if she’s here. Besides, I have reason to doubt her attitude towards work.”

Feng Jing smiled. "Ruofei, I know Dong Yun a little. She's very famous and capable. Of course, she has her own personality. Basically, she chooses her job based on what she likes and dislikes. Those jobs that she jumps to in a short time are either because she doesn't agree with her boss's ideals or because the environment makes her uncomfortable. Moreover, Dong Yun is a very serious person in her work. Even the company that she worked at for only a week couldn't find any fault with her work."

Feng Jing looked at Xia ruofei meaningfully and said, "So, if you can recruit this general and keep her here, it will depend on your ability ..."

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment, then he smiled and said, "Woof! You still want to checkmate me! Sister ran, how many bosses like me are there in the world? If even this can't keep the talent, then it's definitely not the boss's problem ..."

Feng Rao was amused by Xia ruofei's shameless words. She looked at Xia ruofei and said, "Would a good boss boast like this? Alright, alright! Let's talk about your second question!"

Xia ruofei shrugged and pointed at the resume. "It's very obvious! She was still in America! Besides, she hasn't returned to the country since she graduated from her MBA. The chances of us successfully recruiting her are not high, right? Is there any meaning to it?"

"I was also surprised when I saw this resume," Feng Jing said. However, since the headhunting company gave us this resume, it means that there's hope for them to poach her. It's even possible that Dong Yun herself wants to return to China to develop her career, so she revealed the information to the headhunting company."

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "I agree in principle!" You can contact the headhunting company! Try to touch it ..."

Now, paradise Corporation was no longer the ignorant fool from before. Through the Jade skin cream, truffles, and abalone auctions, more and more people had learned about the development potential of paradise Corporation. Therefore, the dilemma of high – end talents not being willing to come at the beginning of the company's establishment no longer existed.

The company's HR department often received resumes that recommended themselves.

However, Xia ruofei also hoped that the company's senior management would be excellent, so he was very careful when recruiting directors. Ordinary people would not catch his eye.

"That's right!" Xia ruofei said, "didn't I ask you to look for a candidate for the Vice President? Our company's value is over one billion, how can we not have a few vice presidents? You're basically the only one busy with the company's matters, big and small. Your body won't be able to take it in the long run."

Feng Rao felt warm inside. She smiled and said, "I'm looking for one! But you also said that it's better to have less than enough than to have too much! How can it be so easy to find a real talent?"

Feng Jing smiled and said, "Moreover, if we can get Dong Yun to join us, she would be the best candidate for the company's vice president!"

Chapter 1395: Chief Executive Officer (2)

“Things haven’t even started!” Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and said, “even if we recruit her, giving her the position of Administrative Director is the best we can do. After that, it will still depend on her performance. If she is promoted too quickly, what will the elders think? Let’s not talk about the others, but Xiao Qiang was the first to be unconvinced!”

As the company grew bigger, Xia ruofei’s considerations became more and more comprehensive. After all, the company was like a small society. Sometimes, they needed to know how to manage things.

The Paradise Corporation was different from other companies. As long as Xia ruofei was there, even if he started a new company, it would still be successful. To put it bluntly, the core competitive force was Xia ruofei. However, this did not mean that he could completely ignore the rules of the company’s management.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have had to hire a high – Level professional manager like Feng Jing, nor would he have had to get Feng Jing to look for candidates everywhere for a few high – Level positions.

Feng Rao seemed to have absolute confidence in Dong Yun. She smiled and said, “If we can successfully recruit Dong Yun, I believe she will soon prove her strength. Even if she becomes the Vice President, she will definitely make others speechless.”

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, “then I’ll wait and see!” But the most important thing now is to get in touch with her. What if she doesn’t like a small company like ours?”

Feng Rao chuckled, “ruofei, this isn’t like you!” Haven’t you always been very confident?”

“Confidence can’t be eaten, but it can’t stop others from being biased!” Xia ruofei said helplessly.

“Alright ...” Feng Jing said with a smile, “I’ll do my best!” Just wait for my good news!”

Then, Feng Rao exhaled and said, “I’ve finally finished reporting my work! You can also be liberated! Why don’t you go back and rest! I’m going back to my office too ...”

Xia ruofei chuckled and said, “let’s have some tea before we leave!” This tea is really not bad ...”

Feng Rao glanced at Xia ruofei and said, “Don’t be so fake! You can’t wait for me to leave! You’ve already found me annoying just now ...”

Xia ruofei laughed in embarrassment. “To be honest, you’re still very cute when you’re not talking about work!”

Feng Rao’s face heated up, and her heart beat faster for no reason.

She glared at Xia ruofei and stood up. “I find that you’re getting more and more talkative! I’m not going to talk to you anymore, I’m going back to work for you, capitalist ...”

Xia ruofei laughed as well. He stood up and walked Feng Jing to her office door. After that, he came back for some tea and cleaned up the tea set. Although there were professionals in the company who were responsible for the cleanliness of his office, he didn't want to let others do such a simple task.

Then, Xia ruofei picked up his handbag and skipped work with a peace of mind.

Back at the villa, Xia ruofei played with Blackie and lightning for a while before returning to the house.

He had thought that he should clean the house since he had not been home for a few days, but he found that the house was very clean, almost without a speck of dust.

Xia ruofei shook his head with a bitter smile. It must have been ye Lingyun and his men.

He was going to be away for a few days. Little black, lightning, and the blood Dragon in the fish tank in the living room all needed someone to take care of them, so he left the keys with ye Lingyun.

Xia ruofei had absolute trust in ye Lingyun.

Of course, his biggest core secret was the spirit map scroll that was hidden in his palm. There was nothing to hide in this small villa.

Seeing that there was no need to clean up, Xia ruofei went upstairs to take a shower and sleep.

When he returned to his bedroom, he saw a thin layer of dust on the table. It seemed that ye Lingyun had a good sense of propriety and did not enter his bedroom at will.

Hence, Xia ruofei rolled up his sleeves and cleaned his room. He took a hot shower, changed into his home clothes, and went to sleep.

The next day, Xia ruofei patrolled around the farm, including the water tower at the hilltop, the water tower in the pomfrets cultivation workshop, and so on. He added some spirit Heart Flower petal solution without anyone knowing.

Then, he drove to the new headquarters of the company in Hengli building to check on the renovation.

Liang Weimin received a call from the foreman and knew that Xia ruofei had arrived at the balance power building. He put down his work and rushed over personally, making Xia ruofei feel a little apologetic. He kept blaming Liang Weimin for making a mountain out of a molehill, but Liang Weimin just laughed and let Xia ruofei complain without explaining.

The progress of the renovation was satisfactory. The workers were obviously experienced veterans. Furthermore, Liang Weimin had personally instructed them, so they worked very hard. Many details were perfect, and Xia ruofei was very satisfied with them.

Xia ruofei didn't mind that the construction might be delayed because of the Spring Festival.

After walking around, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Uncle Liang, I'll treat you to lunch! We haven't seen each other for a long time, and you even dropped your work to come here today. I'd feel bad if I didn't treat you to a drink or two!"

Liang Weimin laughed and said, "ruofei, I won't be polite with you!" Since you're treating, I'll definitely go!"

“That’s great!” Xia ruofei said, “it’s almost time. I’ll give Ling Ji private kitchen a call and ask them to prepare in advance. We’ll drive over now!”

Chapter 1396: Chief Executive Officer (3)

Ten minutes later, Xia ruofei and Liang Weimin arrived at Ling Ji private kitchen.

It was still the private room in the backyard that wasn’t open to the public. Liang Weimin was full of praise for the environment here. He said, “It’s not the first time I’ve come to Ling Ji’s private kitchen, but I’ve never been to this courtyard before! The decorations here are really not bad! It’s grand but not luxurious, it’s very tasteful!”

Xia ruofei gestured for the waiter to serve the dishes and smiled. “Uncle Liang, if you need this when you hold banquets in the future, I can help you arrange this private room.”

“Sure!” Liang Weimin nodded. At that time, I might really have to trouble you.”

Even though he said that, Liang Weimin also knew that this kind of courtyard was not open to the public. It must be reserved for the owner’s own use. It was fine if he asked Xia ruofei for help once or twice when there were especially important banquets, but if it happened too many times, it would definitely arouse suspicion.

As Xia ruofei had called in advance, the dishes were served very quickly.

When Liang Weimin saw the ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’, his eyes couldn’t help but light up. He said, “RUO Fei! I didn’t expect to be able to eat ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’ at the last minute. You’re the one with the most face!”

“Uncle Liang, did you know that Ling’s private kitchen has recently developed a new dish?” Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

“I haven’t been here for some time, so I’m not too sure.” Liang Weimin asked curiously, “what’s the new dish?”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “you can try it later. I promise it won’t be worse than the ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall.’” “If you think it’s not bad after eating it, you can help to promote it when you go back!”

Liang Weimin knew about Xia ruofei’s relationship with the Ling family, so he naturally agreed with a smile.

“Oh, right, uncle Liang.” Xia ruofei suddenly asked, “how has brother Liang been? Does he call home often?”

Liang Weimin had a strange expression on his face. He smiled and asked, “RUO Fei, aren’t you Qi Chao’s boss? You should be very clear about his situation!”

Xia ruofei chuckled and scratched his head. "I've left the matters in Australia to brother Liang and elder Tang. We trust him a lot and don't ask too much."

Speaking of which, it had been a long time since Xia ruofei called Liang Qichao to ask about Paradise Farm in Australia.

Liang Weimin chuckled and said, "that kid doesn't care about politics at all!" Can't you take the initiative to report if you don't ask? You don't take after me at all!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "Uncle Liang, you're being a bit boastful! But you're wrong about brother Liang. I'm the one who agreed to the big strategy for the farm's operation. Brother Liang knows my style, so he basically doesn't tell me everything about the execution."

Coincidentally, when Xia ruofei and Liang Weimin were talking about Liang Qichao, Xia ruofei's phone on the table vibrated. He picked it up and saw that it was a call from Liang Qichao.

This man had not contacted Xia ruofei for at least ten days. He did not expect that the first call would be when Xia ruofei was eating and drinking with his father.

Xia ruofei showed Liang Weimin the caller ID on his phone and smiled bitterly. "You can't talk about others behind their backs in the future, this is too much of a coincidence ..."

Chapter 1397: Paradise Farm's answer sheet (1)

Liang Weimin couldn't help but be stunned.

Then, he remembered that this kid had not called home for a long time. Now that his son had called Xia ruofei, he could not help but feel a little jealous.

The boss was more important than her parents? Even though Liang Weimin knew that there was no comparison, he still couldn't help but come up with this idea.

Naturally, Xia ruofei did not notice Liang Weimin's thoughts. He pressed the answer button and said with a smile, "Brother Liang, I haven't contacted you in a long time! Do you have any good news for me?"

On the other end of the phone, Liang Qichao naturally didn't know that his father was right beside Xia ruofei. He said in a bad mood, "Ruofei, you're too relaxed as a boss. I didn't call to report, and you're not going to ask? So the farms in Australia aren't worthy of your attention?"

Liang Qichao's voice was quite loud. Liang Weimin, who was sitting beside Xia ruofei, could also hear him. He was speechless.

I thought this kid had improved! She didn't expect him to speak to her boss in such a tone. She was so angry ...

However, Liang Weimin quickly noticed that Xia ruofei was not afraid and was still smiling. He knew that his son and Xia ruofei had a good relationship. Their relationship was not just that of a boss and employee. Perhaps they were already used to this kind of interaction.

When he thought of this, Liang Weimin couldn't help but feel a little gratified.

Liang Weimin was well aware of Xia ruofei's power. Other things aside, Xia ruofei's connections in the three mountains were really wide. He also had a vague feeling that what he had seen was only the tip of the iceberg. Xia ruofei's true power might be even deeper.

As a father, he was happy that his son could be good friends with someone like Xia ruofei. At the same time, he was worried that Liang Qichao was too careless and might make Xia ruofei unhappy. All kinds of conflicting thoughts were intertwined.

Xia ruofei didn't know that Liang Weimin had such complicated thoughts. He still smiled and said, "Brother Liang, let's not talk about this for now. But today ..."

Xia ruofei looked at Liang Weimin. He was about to tell Liang Qichao that he was having dinner with Liang Weimin, but he was interrupted by Liang Qichao.

"Ruofei, my matter is more important. Let me go first!" Liang Qichao said.

Xia ruofei and Liang Weimin couldn't help but be stunned. Liang Weimin couldn't help but roll his eyes.

Xia ruofei looked at Liang Weimin apologetically and smiled bitterly. "Okay, then you go first ... What's so important that you can't even wait for a moment? Don't tell me that you've already settled things with Daphne and can't wait to share the good news with me?"

Daphne was the deputy manager of Paradise Farm. Not only was she very capable, but she was also a big-breasted beauty with blonde hair and blue eyes. The last time Xia ruoxin flew to Australia, she felt Liang Qichao exchanging flirtatious glances with her. For a moment, she forgot that Liang Weimin was still beside her, and she could not help but crack a joke.

When Liang Weimin heard this, he couldn't help but prick up his ears, and he subconsciously straightened his back.

What was going on? This kid didn't work hard outside, but actually went to pick up Western girls! If he dares to bring a foreign girl back, I'll break his legs!

As Liang Weimin thought about this, he couldn't help but grit his teeth in anger.

Xia ruofei looked up and saw this scene. He suddenly realized that he had spoken too much ...

However, Liang Qichao didn't seem to notice. Instead, he laughed and said, "What kind of good news is this? If I, young master Liang, were to make a move, how many Western girls would be able to resist my charm?"

Xia ruofei could not stop him in time. He could only look at Liang Weimin innocently, who was about to go crazy. At the same time, he was praying for Liang Qichao in his heart ...

Liang Weimin was a very old-fashioned person. He was very strict with his son's private life. In the past, when Liang Qichao wanted to go out for a drink in China, he had to be sneaky and try his best to find an excuse. If he had really picked up a foreign girl, his stubborn father would probably fly to Australia and bring him back.

Liang Weimin gestured at Xia ruofei, indicating that he wanted to talk to Liang Qichao.

Xia ruofei couldn't refuse and could only helplessly hand the phone over.

Liang Weimin took a deep breath, then took the phone and said calmly, "Liang Qichao, you've become more capable now!"

The other end of the phone was dead silent.

Liang Qichao would never have thought that his father would be with Xia ruofei. Apparently, his father had heard his joke and took it seriously.

After a long while, Liang Qichao seemed to wake up from a dream. He quickly said, "Dad! Why are you with ruofei? I ... I was just joking with RUO Fei!"

"Who's Daphne?" Liang Weimin asked indifferently, unmoved.

"She's the deputy manager of our farm, just an ordinary colleague," Liang Qichao explained hurriedly.

"Last time I asked you about your colleague, didn't you tell me that the deputy manager was a bald man?" Liang Weimin asked, his tone still calm.

However, Xia ruofei and Liang Qichao could feel that a volcano was brewing under the calm.

Liang Qichao wanted to cry, but no tears came out. He was worried that his old – fashioned father would be worried, so he told a white lie last time. This time, he would never be able to clear his name.

Chapter 1398: Paradise Farm's answer sheet (2)

Besides, Liang Qichao felt guilty for no reason. This kid was not a cat that did not steal fish. Although he had not achieved a home run with Daphne, they still flirted with each other often during their daily contact.

Of course, he still knew how to control himself and would not harass his female colleagues.

He didn't expect Liang Weimin to hear him just by bragging to Xia ruofei. In addition to his previous lie, this was practically solid evidence!

"Dad! This ... Daphne is a new employee ..."

"You're still lying to me!" Liang Weimin's voice suddenly became louder.

"I really didn't! I can't even wait to work hard outside! How would I dare to mess around?" Liang Qichao said, "besides, it's not like Daphne likes me! I'm so fat, and I don't have much money ... If you don't believe me, you can ask RUO Fei!"

Liang Qichao was now praying that Xia ruofei would speak up for him. Otherwise, he would definitely be wronged.

Liang Weimin snorted and said, "At least you still have some self – awareness! I won't say so much to you today. Don't you have something to report to RUO Fei? You guys talk about work first, I'll settle this with you later!"

After he finished speaking, Liang Weimin looked apologetically at Xia ruofei and passed his phone over. He said, "Ruofei, I'm sorry ..."

"I'm fine, I'm fine!" Xia ruofei quickly took the phone and said, "uncle Liang, brother Liang was just joking with me ..."

"You don't need to cover for him! I understand my own son!" Liang Weimin said, "you guys talk about work first! I'm going out for a smoke ..."

Liang Weimin then stood up and left the private room.

Xia ruofei put the phone to his ear with a bitter smile and said, ""If you're not courting death, then what are you?"

Liang Qichao shouted angrily, "I'm courting death?!" RUO Fei, you're too unkind! You're clearly with my dad, yet you didn't tell me!"

"I wanted to tell you right away!" Xia ruofei said innocently, "you didn't want to hear it and interrupted me. Your matter is more important. Try to recall carefully, is this the case?"

Liang Qichao thought about it seriously, and it seemed to be true. However, he quickly came to his senses and said indignantly, ""Something's wrong! Even if it's because of my own reasons, I didn't have time to let you speak at first, but you were the one who brought up the topic of daibora later on ... Aren't you trying to trick me?"

Xia ruofei smiled awkwardly and said, ""I wasn't paying attention. Besides, if you didn't brag, would such a thing happen? You should first reflect on yourself!"

Xia ruofei was feeling a little guilty at first, but the more he spoke, the more confident he became. Liang Qichao was so angry that he almost smashed his phone.

However, he was thousands of miles away and he couldn't do anything. In fact, even if Xia ruofei was in front of him, he couldn't do anything. He couldn't beat her and he didn't have as much money as her. Most importantly, he was still his employee. Just thinking about it made him feel aggrieved ...

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "alright, brother Liang, let's talk business!" I'll help you explain it to uncle Liang later. It's fine ..."

"You have to talk to him properly, you have to prove my innocence!" Liang Qichao said with grief and indignation.

"I know, I know," Xia ruofei laughed to himself as he replied perfunctorily.

"What do you want from me?" he asked.

Liang Qichao asked, ""What day is it today? Have you forgotten?"

Hearing this, Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel a chill down his spine. He couldn't help but have a bad thought. For example, Liang Qichao twisted his chubby body and pouted, ""You don't even remember my birthday, so bad, so bad ..."

Xia ruofei shivered and quickly said, ""If there's something, say it! Don't beat around the bush!"

Then, he couldn't help but ask curiously, ""What day is it? Why are you so resentful!"

"I'm full of resentment!" Liang Qichao could not help but curse, "it's Christmas today! Did you forget about the Christmas promotion I told you about last time?"

Xia ruofei slapped his head and came back to his senses.

On the way to the hotel today, the atmosphere seemed to be more festive. Many shops on the street had Christmas trees, Santa Claus, small bells, and so on.

Xia ruofei had no concept of these festivals, and he was practically non – existent to them.

If Ling Qingxue had more free time, the two of them might have taken the opportunity to "arrange a battle". However, Ling Qingxue had been busy recently. Without anyone to remind her, how could Xia ruofei remember?

"Oh, oh, oh!" Xia ruofei quickly said, "so this is what you're talking about! How's the situation?"

Previously, Xia ruofei and Liang Qichao had agreed to launch the Taoyuan vegetable series in Australia at the end of the year.

Before this, Liang Qichao had brought Paradise Farm's products to several exhibitions, and the reception was naturally quite good.

Following black friday's promotion, Paradise Farm also tested the waters.

Tang Yitian also spared no effort in promoting Paradise Farm. It could be said that the promotion work had been done to the extreme.

Of course, due to the limited production capacity, the real distribution of goods all over Australia to launch the brand war of Paradise Farm was set to be on Christmas, the most important holiday in the West.

"I've never seen such a big – hearted boss ..." Liang Qichao couldn't help but complain. Then he said, "the promotion started at eight this morning, and it's been going on for half a day. Guess what the results are?"

Australia was three hours ahead of China. It should be around four in the afternoon in Australia. The day had not ended yet, and Liang Qichao could not help but call him. His results should be quite good.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, ""Where do you expect me to go to guess? Just tell me the result!"

"You're so boring!" Liang Qichao said.

However, he couldn't suppress his excitement. He even temporarily put aside the monstrous anger he was about to face his father.

Liang Qichao cleared his throat and said, ""Boss Xia, please listen carefully! As of half an hour ago, out of the 1653 Meiya supermarkets in Australia, the total sales of our Taoyuan vegetables has reached 2000 tons! The sales have already exceeded 60 million Australian dollars!"

Although Xia ruofei was mentally prepared, he was still shocked when he heard the number.

60 million Australian dollars was equivalent to about 47 million US dollars.

Even if the labor costs, transportation costs, and taxes in Australia were relatively high, the profit could at least reach 15 million US dollars. It had only been less than a day!

Were the spending power of the Australians that high? Xia ruofei's eyes were opened.

He could not help but ask, "2000 tons? That's equivalent to an average of more than a ton per store? And in less than a day? Isn't this a little too exaggerated?"

"What's so strange about that?" Liang Qichao said triumphantly, "Mr. Tang has given us a lot of resources and put in a lot of effort in the early stage of publicity. He also left the best display spots for us!" And that's just the average number. Some of the larger stores in the central cities have already exceeded five tons of sales!"

"That's great ..." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "brother Liang, you've finally shown your face in front of Mr. Tang!" Have you reported to him?"

The reason why Liang Qichao was so serious about running Paradise Farm was not only because of Xia ruofei, but also because of Tang He. This old man had no children, so it was up to the younger generation to decide how to distribute his tens of billions of dollars 'worth of family property in the future and who to give the majority to.

Therefore, Liang Qichao was also trying his best to compare himself with his cousin who was far away in the United States.

There was no doubt that Liang Qichao was in the lead this time.

Liang Qichao laughed and said, "yeah!" The old man doesn't usually praise people, but he really did praise me this time!"

"Then keep it up!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Mm! The Christmas promotion will last for three days, and I'll try to break the sales record of 200 million Australian dollars!" Liang Qichao said confidently, "this time, it's a hit. In the future, our sales of Taoyuan vegetables will be even better! The channel has been completely opened ... Oh, ruofei, you have to thank Mr. Tang properly!"

This time, if it wasn't for Tang Yitian's help, Paradise Farm's vegetables might have performed well, but they would definitely have gone a long way. They wouldn't have been able to shine as brightly as they were now, even becoming the focus of the Australian media.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "don't worry!" I know what I'm doing ... Right, you should think about how to deal with your father's anger!"

Liang Qichao, who had been talking happily, was stunned for a moment, then he cried out in grief and indignation, "Can't you wait until I'm happy enough before you bring this up ..."

Chapter 1399: The heart – nourishing soup launch (1)

In the end, Liang Weimin let Liang Qichao go.

It was not that he believed Xia ruofei's explanation, but he was shocked by the results that Paradise Farm had submitted.

In less than a day, sales exceeded 60 million Australian dollars, and the average sales in all of Australia exceeded one ton. This was an amazing result!

Liang Weimin had no doubt that his son had fought a beautiful battle this time, and his importance in Tang He's grandfather's heart would undoubtedly increase by a large margin. It could be said that he was ahead of all his competitors.

In comparison, Liang Qichao flirting with foreign girls was a small matter. He just had to knock some sense into them. There was no need to take it too seriously.

Liang Weimin was more traditional, but traditional men had a deep – rooted notion that men should put their career first and that success in their career was more important than anything else. Liang Qichao's performance obviously made Liang Weimin satisfied.

After lunch, Liang Weimin left in a hurry.

In fact, after Liang Qichao finished his call, Liang Weimin was a little distracted while eating. Even the delicious Chinese perch only managed to distract him for a while before he started to daydream again.

On one hand, he was thinking about how Liang Qichao's future would develop. On the other hand, he could not wait to share the good news with his wife.

After Xia ruofei left the Ling's private restaurant, he did not return to the farm directly. Instead, he gave ye Lingyun a call and asked him to send the company's small trucks to the warehouse in the city to meet the needs of business development. The company had already purchased a few small trucks.

Then, Xia ruofei drove to the warehouse and took out the iron – Skin Dendrobium strip and Da Hong Pao tea leaves that Xia Qing had prepared in advance. When the small truck arrived, he transported all these things back to the farm and handed them to ye Lingyun and the others to make iron – Skin maple and Peach Garden Da Hong Pao tea leaves.

The small truck started and returned to the farm. Xia ruofei also drove back. However, he only stayed in the villa for a short while before carrying a box of fish fry to the breeding workshop.

The rays in the spirit map space were all free – range, and they usually lived in the sea of the space. When it was breeding season, they would rise up to the river and lay eggs in the space.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei had strong control over the entire space and his mental energy was strong too. Hence, even though the sea was vast, Xia ruofei could still easily use the invisible spatial force to gather the clam fish.

Jiang Hua was already used to Xia ruofei sending new baby clam fish over every once in a while, so he skillfully arranged for people to take over these precious baby clam fish.

Xia ruofei also asked about the situation of the Chinese perch. As the business partner had not been confirmed yet, there was not much sales of the Chinese perch other than the daily supply of the lingji private kitchen.

Of course, since they didn't need to be transported far away, they didn't freeze the Pomfret in a cold storage. The Pomfret that hadn't been sold for the time being could be kept. Although there wouldn't be any more pomfrets after they grew to this extent, the cost of raising them wouldn't increase much.

In any case, the taste of fresh pomfrets was definitely better than those that had been frozen and unfrozen. All the hype and articles on the internet were just for sales. If there was no need to, there was no need to freeze the fish.

Xia ruofei took a look at the pomfrets cultivation workshop and praised Jiang Hua for his work. He encouraged him to keep up the good work because the sales of the pomfrets would be on the right track soon. After confirming the channel partner, the task here would be even heavier.

The next day, after Xia ruofei had breakfast in the staff canteen, he left the farm with Feng Jing and drove to the Sanshan conference hall in the city.

Other than Xia ruofei and Feng Jing, the Paradise Corporation also sent a business car. Pang Hao, Xiao Qiang, and other company leaders also went to show their support.

Now, paradise pharmaceutical factory was a celebrity team in paradise corporation's system. Not only did it generate a lot of revenue, but it was also quite famous.

The heart – nourishing soup was the first Chinese medicine launched by the Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory. The company's internal staff also knew that this medicine had epoch – making significance for the treatment of autism. The release of this medicine on the market was a great thing with boundless merit.

Therefore, as long as they were not too busy with work and couldn't leave, everyone had to be there. Not to mention that the chairman and the General Manager were both present, so they had to go and support them.

Even Cao tieshu, who spent all day in the large shed, changed into a new suit that his wife had specially bought for him from the mall and followed them to join in the fun.

Now, Cao tieshu was also the pillar of the Tao Yuan company. Both husband and wife were working in the company, and their salaries had also increased several times, making the villagers extremely envious.

The director of Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory, Xue Jinshan, had arrived at the Sanshan conference hall early in the morning.

He was both excited and nervous. Ever since he joined the Paradise Corporation, he had been looking forward to the day the heart – nourishing soup would be released on the market.

As a top student with a professional background, Xue Jinshan had been questioned by many when he chose paradise Corporation, a complete layman in the pharmaceutical industry.

Whether it was his classmates or his family, they all thought that his decision was not considered and was very unwise.

But Xue Jinshan was already completely entranced by the heart nourishing soup.

Back then, it was only a small – scale experiment, but Xue Jinshan could not help but feel overwhelmed.

The process of releasing a new drug into the market was very cumbersome and difficult. Even Chinese patent medicines had to go through various difficulties, whether it was animal testing, clinical stage one, clinical stage two ... Any one of them could get stuck, and all the previous work would be for nothing.

Xue Jinshan could be said to have witnessed the heart – nourishing soup being listed on the market and listed as a guiding drug in such a short time.

Xue Jinshan wasn't as excited as he was today, even when the jade skin cream was selling like hotcakes.

After all, he had a professional background. No matter how well the jade skin cream sold, it was just a skin care product. The heart nourishing soup was the best medicine that was truly beneficial to the country and the people.

Such a good medicine that was destined to become a phenomenal product was personally led by him. The sense of accomplishment was incomparable.

"President Xia, President Feng!" When Xue Jinshan saw Xia ruofei and the others, he quickly went up to them.

"Kanayama, you've worked hard!" Xia ruofei laughed and continued to ask, "is everything arranged?"

"No problem! We've rehearsed the entire process several times." Xue Jinshan said confidently, "the media reporters are also here. There are quite a number of them!"

Nowadays, Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory was definitely a star enterprise in Sanshan city. The jade skin cream was well – known both domestically and overseas, and every rush to buy it would cause a craze. Therefore, the invitation sent by Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory was still very interesting to the media reporters.

Moreover, there were also some well – informed media outlets that had already grasped a certain amount of information during the trial stage of the heart nourishing soup. They were also very interested in this special medicine that filled in the gaps and had sent out their elite troops.

Xia ruofei looked at the reporters who were signing in not far away. He smiled and nodded. "Then it's up to you later! We're here today to cheer you on. You have to rely on yourself to set up the stage and perform!"

"President Xia, are you really not going to say a few words?" Xue Jinshan could not help but ask.

He knew very well that the recipe of the heart – nourishing soup came from Xia ruofei. He had also participated in the entire process of the factory production. Even now, the key steps of the heart – nourishing soup were still in his hands.

It could be said that the heart – nourishing soup was created by Xia ruofei. Now that he was famous, Xia ruofei was actually so low – Key. He even personally rejected the contents of Xue Jinshan's PowerPoint presentation about his invention of the heart – nourishing soup, which made Xue Jinshan a little confused.

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand, "what do I have to say?" You're the one who's been following up on the heart – nourishing soup project the entire time, so you know everything like the back of your hand. The reporters will definitely not be interested in how handsome I am as the boss ..."

Xia ruofei's joke made everyone laugh. Xue Jinshan could only force a smile and say, "Okay then ... Director Xia, director Feng, leaders, please come in!"

With that, Xue Jinshan personally led Xia ruofei and the others into the hall that had been set up.

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing's seats were naturally in the middle of the front row, and the middle management of paradise Corporation were also arranged to be in the front row.

Xia ruofei looked around the venue and saw that it was well – arranged. Other than some necessary posters, there were also a few banners placed at the entrance and around the venue.

This was also Xia ruofei's request. The Yangxin soup and the jadi ointment were in different positions. Yangxin soup was a kind of charity, at least in China. The price of Yangxin soup was far more suitable for its unique effect in the treatment of autism. Hence, Xia ruofei's request for the press conference was to be beautiful and Grand, but not wasteful, not gimmicky, and not to invite young and fresh meat to the stage.

Many reporters had already arrived at the media area, and everyone was looking at the brochure and draft that they had received at the signing Time with great interest.

Some reporters also noticed that Xia ruofei, Feng Jing, and the others were more famous than Xia ruofei on the internet. Feng Jing also had a group of die – hard fans. Her fans affectionately called her "beautiful President", while her fans called themselves "Jingdian." She even set up a fan base on Baidu Tieba, so the reporters who often ran entertainment news naturally knew Feng Jing.

Although the VIP area and the media area were separated, the reporters were definitely not people who followed the rules. Otherwise, they wouldn't be able to get any news.

Hence, a few of the reporters went over the invisible isolation belt and came to Xia ruofei and Feng Jing.

"Boss Feng, is there any strategic consideration for your company to launch this new drug?"

"President Xia, Taoyuan company started with the sales of agricultural products, but now it has suddenly stepped into the professional pharmaceutical industry. What do you think?"

"CEO Feng, I'm a reporter from daily Japanese entertainment. Say a few words to your fans!"

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing looked at each other. They didn't expect to become the focus of the media even though they were just here to be an audience. They were really caught off guard ...

Just as Xia ruofei was considering whether to remain silent and not steal Xue Jinshan's limelight, or to say a few words to dismiss the reporters, there was a small commotion in the media stands ...

Chapter 1400: You're done singing, I'm on stage (1)

Xia ruofei looked and quickly said, "everyone!" Everyone! There seems to be some news over there! You guys should head over first! President Feng and I can't run away. We'll definitely be interviewed after the press conference ..."

The reporters hesitated for a moment. They seemed to think that Xia ruofei's words made sense. Their colleagues had already stood up. They did not want to miss out on any valuable news in the end.

Hence, they quickly smiled and bade Xia ruofei and the others farewell before leaving.

"Chairman, are you really going to accept their interview later?" Feng Rao said with a smile.

"With our beautiful President blocking the fire, wouldn't it be easy for me to escape?" Xia ruofei smirked. "I think these reporters are your 'static electricity'!"

Feng Jing pouted and wanted to hit Xia ruofei. However, she immediately realized that they were in a public place. Not only were her colleagues sitting behind her, but there were also many media reporters!

So, she stopped and glared at Xia ruofei. "It's all your fault!"

Back then, if Xia ruofei had not insisted on her appearing on screen, she would not have become an "internet celebrity" for no reason. Although she did not like to shop like other girls, and Tao Yuan farm was located in a remote area, she rarely had the opportunity to go out other than when she needed to work, her life was still inevitably affected.

Just like today, as long as she appeared in public, it was inevitable that she would be chased by reporters. She really didn't get tired of it.

Xia ruofei chuckled. "Sister che, you can make a living with your looks, but you insist on taking the path of a strong woman. You're making it so that those who don't have good looks have no way out!"

Feng Rao's face turned red and she said, "I can't be bothered to talk to you ..."

Xia ruofei laughed as he teased Feng Rao. His attention was also drawn to the reporters' seats.

Many media reporters had already stood up and left their seats, walking towards the entrance.

Feng Rao also noticed this and couldn't help but ask, "What happened?"

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "who knows!" Ignore them!"

Just as the two of them were guessing, a person walked into the venue surrounded by media reporters.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh when he saw this. It was an old acquaintance who was teasing the southeast province's Deputy Director of the Food and Drug Administration, he kun. He was the leader of the southeast province's Drug Administration, and he kun was in charge of the Chinese Medicine Department.

For such a leader to attend a company's drug conference without a care for suspicion, it was no wonder that the reporters were like cats that smelled blood and all swarmed over.

"Bureau chief he, may I ask why you are attending the conference of the new drug by the Tao Yuan pharmaceutical factory?"

"Bureau chief he! Are you representing yourself or the provincial Drug Administration?"

"Bureau chief he, what do you think of the new drug from Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory?"

He kun had a kind smile on his face. Even though the microphone was almost pointing at his face, he still didn't take it to heart. However, he kept his mouth shut and said, "Friends of the media, today's star is Tao Yuan pharmaceutical factory. It's factory manager Xue, I'm only here to attend the ceremony!"

Although the reporters did not dare to ask too many questions because of he kun's official identity, anyone with eyes could understand the meaning between the lines. They wanted to know what special relationship he kun had in private. Otherwise, why would he kun attend the press conference with such a sensitive identity?

He kun's avoidance of the question made the reporters' imaginations run wild. Even if some content media did not dare to report it, self – Media was so developed now. Who didn't have a few Weibo accounts?

Wasn't it a simple matter to post it online?

However, what they didn't know was that he kun had come here today on behalf of the Food and Drug Administration. The only reason he didn't say anything was that he didn't want to steal the limelight from Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory.

He kun quickly noticed Xia ruofei and the others. His eyes lit up and he said, "Dear reporters, please make way. After the press conference ends, I will be accepting interviews. Now, please return to your seats!"

He kun had been in a high position for a long time, so he still had some momentum. These reporters, who were called uncrowned Kings, were still people of the system. Their questions just now were already a little presumptuous. Now, they naturally did not dare to stop he kun, so they all made way for him.

"President Xia, long time no see. You're still as elegant as ever!" He kun walked over quickly and said with a big smile.

Xia ruofei also stood up and shook hands with he kun. He smiled and said, "Bureau chief he actually came to our press conference in person. I'm a little flattered!"

"No, no, no!" He kun quickly said humbly, "your company's new medicine is a great service. It's only right for me to come and support you!" Our chief li just happened to be in the capital for a meeting today, otherwise he would have attended it himself. "

Xia ruofei didn't know who chief li was, but from he kun's tone, he was most likely one of their leaders.

The media reporters who often read Medical News knew very well who he kun was talking about, and they could not help but be shocked.

Regardless of whether the meeting in Beijing was real or just an excuse, since he kun had said so, it meant that director li attached great importance to the Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory.

The reporters had some bad guesses in their hearts, but now they began to question their own judgment.

Xue Jinshan had accompanied he kun here. Everyone was familiar with each other. When they had gone to the capital for Yangxin soup, he kun had personally gone with Xia ruofei to the capital.

Later on, through layers of approval, Xue Jinshan had often dealt with he kun.

He arranged for he kun to sit next to Xia ruofei and said with a smile, "Director he, please take a seat and rest for a while. The press conference is about to begin."

He kun laughed and said, "factory manager Xue, go do your work!" I'll talk to President Xia for a while!"

"Alright!" Xue Jinshan said.

At this moment, a staff member hurried over and whispered a few words to Xue Jinshan.

Xue Jinshan's expression changed slightly. He hurriedly excused himself from he kun and walked towards the entrance.

The media reporters seemed to have also received some news and followed him out.

Seeing this, he kun let out a sigh of relief and said, "The reporters have finally left ..."

Xue Jinshan had been standing beside Xia ruofei just now. With Xia ruofei's hearing, he had naturally heard what the staff member said.

He laughed and said, "yes!" Someone has diverted their attention, so director he can relax a little. "

“Oh?” He kun immediately came to his senses and looked at the entrance with interest. “Which leader is here?”

The answer was soon revealed. The person who came was Jiang Liangyu, the Deputy Mayor of Sanshan city in charge of science, education, Culture, and health.

Although Jiang Liangyu was at the same level as he kun, their authority was different.

He kun was only an assistant in the provincial unit, while Jiang Liangyu was the Deputy Mayor of the provincial capital. He was not only in charge of the health industry, but also in the fields of science, technology, Education, Culture, and so on.

Even though he wasn’t ranked very high among the Deputy mayors, he was still a high – ranking Deputy Director. Moreover, he attended this press conference as an official, which meant that he represented the first level of government.

Therefore, the reporters’ enthusiasm was even higher.

Not only were the writing journalists eager to ask questions, but there were also many photojournalists looking for a position to take photos.

The Deputy mayor’s activities had to be reported in the local media, so Jiang Liangyu also brought reporters to the press conference this time. This way, more people surrounded him, and the scene was a bit chaotic.

Fortunately, the experienced veterans that Xia ruofei had temporarily transferred to maintain order were very experienced. They quickly opened up a passage and escorted Jiang Liangyu and Xue Jinshan into the venue.

“Mayor Jiang, this is the chairman of our paradise Corporation, Xia ruofei. This is our general manager, Feng Jing!” Xue Jinshan explained.

Jiang Liangyu wasn’t old. He looked to be in his forties, and he had a refined temperament.

Xia ruofei had accidentally seen Jiang Liangyu’s resume and had some impression of him. He knew that the Deputy Mayor used to be a teacher and had worked in the education system for a long time. After he was promoted to Deputy Mayor, he was still in charge of science, education, Culture, and health.

Jiang Liangyu immediately extended his hand to Xia ruofei with a smile and said, “I’ve heard that you’re young and promising, President Xia, but I didn’t expect you to be so young!”

“You’re too kind. I’m young, but I don’t deserve to be called a promising young man!” Xia ruofei smiled. “Mayor Jiang, you’re overpraising me!”

“Paradise Corporation is the star company of our city! President Xia is the celebrity entrepreneur of our San Shan!” Jiang Liangyu teased, “if this isn’t considered young and promising, we old men really don’t have the face to live anymore ...”

Then, Jiang Liangyu smiled and shook hands with Feng Jing. One could see that he was a modest gentleman. His eyes were very clear, and when he shook hands, it was like a Dragonfly touching the water. He did not do anything overboard just because Feng Jing was a beautiful woman.

After exchanging a few pleasantries with Xia ruofei and Feng Rao, Jiang Liangyu smiled and said to he kun, ""Bureau chief he is here too!"

He kun had worked in Sanshan city for a long time and was very familiar with the situation within the Sanshan system. He also knew Jiang Liangyu and Qianqian had worked together for a period of time.

"Hahaha! Since Mayor Jiang took time out of his busy schedule to attend, as the higher authorities, we can't fall behind!" He kun said half – jokingly.

Jiang Liangyu smiled."Bureau chief he is right. An enterprise like the Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory should be taken care of by the local government and the authorities!"

The media reporters couldn't help but look at each other. Wasn't this a little too obvious? Wasn't this not popular anymore? Aren't you guys afraid of people gossiping behind your backs?

Jiang Liangyu and he kun came to the press conference without saying goodbye. Fortunately, Xue Jinshan was well – prepared and had adjusted his seat at the last minute. Jiang Liangyu sat in the middle, Xia ruofei sat on his left side, he kun sat on his right side, and Feng Jing sat beside Xia ruofei.

Xue Jinshan saw that it was almost time and there shouldn't be any higher – ranking leaders attending, so he walked up to the stage and gestured to the staff.

The lights on the stage gradually dimmed, leaving only one spotlight on Xue Jinshan.

The clamor in the venue naturally slowly died down, and everyone's eyes were focused on Xue Jinshan.

Xia ruofei was also paying attention to the situation on the stage with interest. Although he had instructed that the press conference should not be too Grand, he was still very curious about how Xue Jinshan would manage the press conference.

Xue Jinshan took a deep breath and reached out to adjust the position of his headset. Then, he said with a smile,"Welcome, Mayor Jiang and bureau chief he! Welcome, Chairman Xia ruofei and general manager Feng Jing of paradise Corporation! Welcome to all the media and colleagues of paradise Corporation! On behalf of all the employees of the Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory, I would like to thank everyone for taking the time out of their busy schedules to attend today's new drug launch!"

After a simple opening speech, Xue Jinshan paused for a moment. His eyes swept across the room before he continued,"Before we start introducing the new drug that will be released today, I would like to invite everyone to watch a video clip!"

As soon as Xue Jinshan finished speaking, the only spotlight on the stage went out, while the big screen behind him slowly lit up ...
