

Chapter 141: Spatial truffle (1)

"Of course I'm interested!" Xia ruofei asked excitedly, "old master Ma, when does the truffle tasting auction start?" "The third day of the first month!" MA Xiong said, "the traditional truffle production season in the Alba region of Italy is around November and December, but truffles grow in March. I heard that there will be white truffles of very good quality in this auction. It should be the last truffle auction this season. The next time we want to try it will be at the end of the year! That's why we can't miss it!" "Then all the more I want to participate!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "We'll arrive at Sanshan city tomorrow. We'll fly to Shen Cheng the day after tomorrow!" MA Xiong asked, "xiasheng, is your schedule easy to arrange?" "I'm fine with it!" Xia ruofei said without hesitation. "Hahaha! Then I'll see you tomorrow!" MA Xiong said happily. "See you tomorrow!" After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei's mind began to wander. According to the time in the medium, it had been almost a year since the last truffle cultivation. If his method worked and he successfully cultivated a high – Quality truffle, he might be able to make a lot of money from this auction! Even if the truffle was not successfully cultivated, it would still be good to attend the tasting meeting with MA Xiong. The taste of the truffle, especially the alluring fragrance, was still lingering in Xia ruofei's mind. Xia ruofei didn't want to wait any longer. He went straight back to the villa and locked the door and windows in his bedroom. After making sure it was safe, he summoned the spirit painting from his palm and entered the medium. He strode to the oak Forest. The oak trees grew very quickly. They were all about 20 centimeters in diameter, and the whole forest was lush. Xia ruofei came to an oak tree and started digging with a shovel. Truffles were actually a type of fungus. They were associated with the roots of oak and beech trees. Hence, if Xia ruofei wanted to find truffles, he had to dig down and find the roots. Truffles produced in winter usually grew half a meter to one meter deep under the soil. Xia ruofei dug a few spots and found the roots. However, he did not find any truffles. When there were no truffles around a meter, he would fill the hole with soil and continue digging in another place. On the fifth time, when Xia ruofei had dug more than 70 centimeters, he suddenly found a black block at the root of the oak tree. He quickly stopped and carefully pushed away the surrounding soil with his hands. Very quickly, a black lump the size of a tennis ball appeared in front of Xia ruofei. He carefully pulled it out and cleaned the dirt on its surface. Its surface was uneven and looked like a pine fruit, but its texture was finer and not as hard as a pine fruit. The most obvious thing was the smell. After digging it out, Xia ruofei smelled a special fragrance. People who liked it would be fascinated by it, and those who didn't would feel nauseated. Xia ruofei had only touched truffles in Hong Kong previously. Obviously, he was one of the former. Without a doubt, it was a piece of black truffle. Xia ruofei's mood relaxed. Although this black truffle was of average size and weight, its appearance confirmed one thing – the soil method he used to cultivate truffles previously was effective. Since he had found one, it meant that there were more and better ones underground. On this point, Xia ruofei had an almost superstitious belief in the spirit map space. Moreover, the roots would be infected with truffle fungus, so they would be able to produce truffles continuously in the future. However, Xia ruofei was a little worried. Truffles were half a meter to a meter deep underground. It was too inefficient to dig aimlessly and he might miss a lot. No matter what, Xia ruofei could not accept letting the precious truffles rot underground. He had done some research before. In foreign countries, truffle hunters would bring specially trained truffle dogs to look for truffles. In the early days, some people took sows to search for it, because the hormonal smell of truffles was a fatal temptation to sows. Even if it was buried one meter deep underground, it still could not escape the noses of sows. However, once truffles were found, the sows would dig up the soil with all their might. Many times, The Truffle Hunters were unable to stop them in time, and the precious truffles would be eaten by the sows. As a result, they slowly switched to using specially trained truffle dogs. A better truffle could be sold for thousands of dollars. Xia ruofei thought for a while and decided to let lightning try. Although lightning was not a professional truffle dog, it had absorbed the petals of a strange flower and was more intelligent than ordinary dogs. Its sense of smell must be more sensitive than ordinary dogs. Xia ruofei placed the black truffle in an empty box and left the spirit map space. He didn't store the painting in his body. Instead, he put it in his pocket. Then, he opened the door and walked to the balcony. He whistled toward the courtyard. Lightning, who was basking in the sun by the wall, heard Xia ruofei's whistle and immediately stood up. She looked up at the second floor. Xia ruofei beckoned to lightning. Lightning immediately understood and rushed into the villa. It ran up the stairs to the second floor. Xia ruofei opened the door and lightning immediately rushed in. It stood up and pounced on Xia ruofei affectionately. Xia ruofei patted Lightning's head and said, "Come down, come down. Wait for me to lock the door. I have an important task for you!" Lightning let go of Xia ruofei obediently and lay on the floor. Xia ruofei went over to lock the door and draw the curtains. Then, he took out the spirit map scroll and entered the spirit map space with lightning in his arms. Lightning had been to the spirit map space before, so when it entered and felt the rich spiritual energy, it was very happy. It began to run around Xia ruofei's feet and wagged its tail at Xia ruofei, expressing its excitement. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "follow me! I have work to do!" With that, Xia ruofei walked towards the oak Forest with lightning following closely behind him. Xia ruofei walked to the box and picked up the black truffle. He put it in front of Lightning's nose and smiled. "Take a good sniff of this smell. It's all up to you if you can find all the truffles underground!" Lightning could understand such simple instructions. It sniffed the truffle very carefully, then looked at Xia ruofei and wagged its tail a few times. "This is it?" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "then let's go! Find all the truffles in this forest!" Lightning immediately sneaked out and circled around an oak tree a few times, sniffing with its nose. Soon, it came to a position and started to dig with its front paws. "I'll do it, I'll do it. You just have to be responsible for finding the location!" Xia ruofei quickly said. He picked up the shovel and began to dig at the spot where lightning was digging, while lightning lay quietly on the side. Ten centimeters, twenty centimeters ... This time, Xia ruofei dug for a full meter and finally saw a huge truffle. This time, it was the more precious white truffle ...

Chapter 142: Giant truffle (1)

Xia ruofei carefully dug the soil beside the truffle with a shovel and finally dug out the White truffle with his bare hands. After roughly cleaning the soil on the surface of the truffle, Xia ruofei weighed the truffle in his hand. It was about 400 to 500 grams and the size of a pomelo. What a good start! Xia ruofei was very happy. He knew that the heavier the weight of truffle, the more precious it was. In 2015, a piece of 900 grams of white truffle was sold at an auction for 100000 euros, which was equivalent to 680000 Chinese dollars. This piece of white truffle was about 500 grams. Compared to the price of a piece of white truffle that was about the same weight as the one sold at the auction, it was worth about 200000 Chinese dollars. And this was under the condition that the quality was the same. Xia ruofei would never believe that the White truffle produced in his interspace would be inferior to the White truffle grown in the outside world. It was already a great honor that the White truffle did not surpass them by a few streets. The White truffle greatly boosted Xia ruofei's confidence. He thought for a moment and left the medium with lightning. He asked lightning to wait in the room, then went downstairs to the small storage room, locked the door, and put a few bags of rice into the medium. After returning to his bedroom, Xia ruofei brought lightning into the medium again. He tore open the rice bag and poured a layer of rice into the two large sorting boxes. Then, he carefully brushed off the soil on the two truffles with a small brush and buried them in the rice in the two boxes. The reason why Xia ruofei did this was because the truffle was constantly emitting a strong fragrance. Although he knew that things would not go bad in the interspace, he did not know if the fragrance would dissipate. Therefore, it was safer to store it in the rice and seal it in the sorting box. After that, Xia ruofei brought lightning to search for the next location of the truffles. Although lightning had not been trained, its sense of smell was far better than truffle dogs. It could understand humans and could understand Xia ruofei's orders. Therefore, it was very efficient in finding truffles. It was Xia ruofei who had slowed down the progress. This was because he had to be very careful every time he dug. After the truffle was dug out, he had to carefully clean the soil on the surface and put it into the tidying box. So every time lightning found a place to rest, Xia ruofei would be busy. Pieces of truffles were dug out from the ground by Xia ruofei. There were black truffles and even more precious white truffles. After they were cleaned, they were put into tidying boxes continuously. Soon, the two large tidying boxes were full. Xia ruofei found another two tidying boxes and poured in the rice. After more than ten hours, Xia ruofei finally dug out the last piece of black truffle. He asked lightning and confirmed that there was no truffle left in the oak Forest. He then heaved a sigh of relief. This work not only tested one's physical strength but also one's patience. Although Xia ruofei was exhausted and covered in mud, he felt a sense of achievement when he saw the four boxes of truffles. The amount of black truffles and white truffles was basically the same. The two large boxes were full, and the other two were also half – filled. As for how much harvest they had, they would only know after weighing it on a scale. However, Xia ruofei could roughly estimate it. Among the truffles, there were seven or eight of them that were as big as the first white truffle that lightning had found. According to last year's auction market, they were worth at least two million. In addition, there were three pieces of truffles that could be considered giant. The largest piece was slightly bigger than a basketball and weighed about four pounds. The other two pieces were about two to three pounds. If Xia ruofei remembered correctly, the largest piece was probably bigger than the world's largest white truffle in 14 years. The White truffle was 4.16 pounds, or about 1.89 kilograms. The piece that Xia ruofei had dug out was definitely a giant. The value of such truffles could no longer be measured by the market price, especially if they were to participate in an auction. It was even more likely to be sold for a sky – High price! The black truffle was in a similar situation, but black truffles were generally smaller than white truffles. The largest piece of black truffle that Xia ruofei found was nearly 1.5 kilograms, which was also very rare. Xia ruofei pondered for a while in the space. He felt that there was too much truffle this time and it was not appropriate to sell it all at once. Otherwise, the auction price would not go up. He was even considering moving the oak trees to the new space. This kind of thing could only be produced in a specific season of the year, and there was no way to preserve it for a long time, so it was meaningless to produce more of it in the space. Although the original dimension could keep truffles absolutely fresh, truffles were precious when they were rare. If they were released in large quantities, it would definitely cause market turmoil, and the price would eventually fall. It was definitely not worth it. Moreover, it was extremely suspicious to suddenly sell truffles that couldn't be preserved for a long time in a season without truffle production. It would easily expose his secret. Of course, Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to decide if he should transplant them. The harvest this time was just in time for the end of the truffle season. This batch of truffles could still be sold as usual. Therefore, the most important thing now was to plan the sales of this batch of truffles. When he went to Shen Cheng city in two days, the biggest truffles would definitely be auctioned. The most suitable place for truffles of this level would be the auction. The rest of the medium – sized ones could also be used as a foil. Then, he would keep the rest for now. When he returned to the three mountains, he would sell truffles of such good quality through other channels. Now that it was the end of truffles sales season, he definitely wouldn't have to worry about sales. After making up his mind, Xia ruofei took a new tidying box and picked out the largest pieces of black truffles and white truffles. He also picked out a dozen pieces of medium – sized truffles and put them all into the tidying box. Then, he poured in the rice. Then, Xia ruofei sealed the sides of the boxes with tape. There were five big truffles in this batch, three white truffles and two black truffles. The White truffles were more than three catties, and the black truffles were more than two catties. There were also thirteen ordinary truffles, which weighed 300 pounds and 500 grams. Xia ruofei sealed the rest of them and left the original space with lightning. Although he had been busy in the interspace for more than ten hours, only a short time had passed in the outside world. Xia ruofei went to the bathroom to wash off the dirt on his body and changed into clean clothes. Then, he opened the door and brought lightning downstairs. Xia ruofei didn't see Lin Qiao. After asking Hu Zi's mother, he found out that the girl was still sleeping. Ye Lingyun, on the other hand, went to the farm to patrol. This was something he had to do every day. As the head of security, he was very responsible. Xia ruofei had nothing to do, so he brought lightning over to the farm. Before he reached the vegetable greenhouse, he saw Cao tieshu hurriedly walking out of the greenhouse from a distance ...

Chapter 143: The first batch of guests in the new space (1)

Xia ruofei saw the anxious look on Cao tieshu's face and quickly walked up to him. He asked, "Old Cao, what's wrong?" "Boss, my wife just called me, saying that she fell while shopping at the temple fair. I was just about to ask you for leave!" Cao tieshu said. I'm afraid I can't be on duty today ..." "Yo! Why would he fall? Is it serious?" Xia ruofei quickly asked. It was really depressing for such a thing to happen on the first day of the first month of the lunar year. "Al!" Cao tieshu said. Who knows ... That woman just likes to join in the fun ... There are so many people at the temple fair, it's easy to get into trouble ... She's still in the county hospital! It seems like his bones are injured, but it shouldn't be a big problem if he can make a phone call!" "Then hurry over! You don't have to worry about the shift, Ling Yun is at the farm too!" Xia ruofei said. "Okay, thank you, boss!" Cao tieshu said, "I will rush over on the fourth day of the new year when you are transplanting the vegetable seedlings ..." Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "you old Cao!" At a time like this, you still care about this! Hurry up and go see your wife! I've granted you leave. You're not allowed to go to work before your wife recovers, or I'll deduct your salary!" "This ..." Cao tieshu hesitated. "Why are you still here and there? Hurry up and go!" Xia ruofei said. "Oh! Okay ... Thank you, boss!" Cao tieshu said. Then, he ran to the shed, got his motorcycle, and rushed to the county hospital. Xia ruofei thought about it. Since he had nothing to do today, he might as well go to the temple fair. Moreover, as Cao tieshu's boss, he knew that something had happened to his family. Moreover, it was the first day of the new year. It was only right for him to go and visit. Hence, Xia ruofei returned to the villa, informed Hu Zi's mother, and drove away from Taoyuan farm. Xia ruofei did not use the Knight XV. Instead, he drove a pickup. The Knight XV was too ostentatious, and there were many people at the temple fair on the first day of the Lunar New Year. Xia ruofei did not want to be watched like a monkey in a Zoo. Some people liked to be in the limelight, while others preferred to keep a low profile. Xia ruofei happened to be the latter. The temple fair in Changping County was located at the county Cultural Square. Xia ruofei had been to the county several times and was familiar with the place. He quickly found a parking space nearby and parked his car. Then, he walked towards the temple fair. On the streets of Changping County on the first day of the new year, red lanterns were hung on the trees on both sides of the road. The street lamps were also decorated with beautiful “Fu” characters. On the road to the cultural Square, colorful flags were also placed along the road, giving off a festive atmosphere. Xia ruofei was prepared to walk around the temple fair and buy some gifts to visit Cao tieshu’s wife at the county hospital. When he walked near the entrance of the temple fair, his eyes were attracted by a man who had a stall. There was a big basket in front of the man, and there were five or six furry puppies in it. Xia ruofei’s heart skipped a beat. He was just about to raise some animals in the new space after the evolution! Dogs were undoubtedly a good choice. This was because dogs had higher intelligence. It was said that the Border Collie with the highest IQ could reach the intelligence level of a seven – year – old child. A dog that had been kept in the spirit map space for a long time would definitely have higher intelligence and would be of great help to Xia ruofei in the future. Moreover, dogs were a relatively common animal, and it was very convenient to use them in the outside world. Xia ruofei strode towards the man’s stall. “Boss, how much are you selling this dog for?” Xia ruofei looked at the dog in the basket and asked casually. The man quickly said, “50 yuan each, no bargaining!” “What breed is your dog?” Xia ruofei asked. “This ... Is a Chinese countryside dog!” Xia ruofei couldn’t help but laugh. He joked, “Isn’t that a mutt? Why are they still so expensive?” The man quickly explained, “Sir, to tell you the truth, these little dogs were given birth to by my big yellow Dog, so their breed might be a little ordinary ... But their father is amazing!” That was the big wolfdog raised by boss Chen of the Dafa abalone farm! These dogs will definitely be very fierce when they grow up, and they’ll definitely be good at guarding the house!” “So there’s still a bloodline!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “alright, I’ll take all of them ...” “Al! “Okay, okay, okay ...” The man said happily when he heard that Xia ruofei would buy all of them.” “Sir, there are seven in total. If you give me 350 Yuan, I’ll give you this basket as a gift ...” Xia ruofei was stunned. He looked at the puppy in the basket and asked, “Aren’t there six of them here?” The boss was a little embarrassed as he took out a little black dog from under his chair. This little dog was even smaller than the ones in the basket. It looked listless and had some wounds on its body. It looked like it was on the verge of death. The boss smiled apologetically. “Sir, this is also a litter of puppies. It’s just that it was a little weak when it was born, and it’s always bullied by the other puppies, so ... Hehe, it’s not a loss for you to buy it back. You can definitely raise it. And didn’t I give you a basket?” Xia ruofei looked at the puppy and felt a little sympathetic. Besides, a few hundred Yuan was nothing to him now. Naturally, he would not be so calculative. He nodded and said, “Alright, deal!” “Thank you, thank you!” “Sir, you’re really a forthright person ...” The boss said happily. Xia ruofei took out 350 Yuan from his wallet and handed it to the owner. Then, he carried the basket in one hand and the black puppy in the other and walked back. When they arrived at his pickup, Xia ruofei placed the wicker basket inside. Xia ruofei thought for a while. He couldn’t just leave the puppy in the car. It would be a disaster if it were to freeze in such a cold weather. These were seven little lives! Hence, he simply drove out of the city and stopped at an empty roadside. Xia ruofei summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm and kept the basket that contained the six puppies and the black puppy into the new space. The new space had the same flow of time as the outside world, so Xia ruofei did not have to worry about the time in the new space passing by quickly and the puppy starving to death. He kept the painting in his body and drove back to the county. After walking around the temple fair for a while, Xia ruofei bought some New Year’s toys to give to Lin Qiao. He also bought a few bags of milk powder for the puppies. Then, Xia ruofei went to a nearby pharmacy to buy some nutritional supplements before driving to the county hospital. After parking the car at the county hospital, Xia ruofei carried the gifts and went straight to the inpatient department. He heard from Cao tieshu that his wife had injured her bone, so she must be hospitalized. After Xia ruofei entered the inpatient department, he took out his phone and was about to call Cao tieshu to ask which

Ward he was in. At this moment, Xia ruofei heard a commotion from the corridor on the first floor of the inpatient department. Among them was Cao tieshu's angry and loud voice ...

Chapter 144: Boss Xia's rage

Xia ruofei's expression changed slightly. He quickly followed the voice. Very quickly, he arrived at the door of a hospital ward. He saw that this hospital ward was packed with seven to eight people. Cao tieshu and a few people who looked like farmers were in a confrontation with a few people in police uniforms. A middle-aged woman was lying on the bed with a pained expression. Her leg was in a thick cast and there were bruises on her face. Xia ruofei noticed that the men in uniforms did not have official ranks. From their armbands, he could tell that they were Auxiliary Police officers. The leading auxiliary police officer was in his early twenties. He didn't wear a police hat and had long hair. His black police uniform jacket was unbuttoned, and the tie on his shirt was crooked. With a cigarette in his mouth, he didn't look like a police officer but more like a bandit. The auxiliary police officer took a puff of his cigarette and frivolously blew the smoke in his mouth towards Cao tieshu. Then, he pointed at Cao tieshu with the cigarette between his fingers and said, "Old man! Don't be so ungrateful! It's already very easy for you to pay. If you continue to talk nonsense, I'll arrest all of you!" Cao tieshu straightened his neck, and his eyes were about to spew fire. He was so angry that his body trembled and he shouted, "If you have the ability, then arrest all of us! I don't believe that there's no place for reasoning!" "Yo! You're quite unreasonable, aren't you?" The auxiliary police officer threw away the cigarette butt, pointed at Cao tieshu, and said, "come with us to the police station! Motherf * cker, I can't deal with you! Brothers, handcuff him!" A few Auxiliary Police officers behind him immediately came forward to arrest Cao tieshu. Xia ruofei couldn't take it anymore and shouted, "Stop! What are you guys doing?" After he finished speaking, he strode into the ward and stood between Cao tieshu and the other police officers. Cao tieshu was also surprised to see Xia ruofei. He asked, "Boss, what are you doing here?" Xia ruofei nodded at Cao tieshu, then looked at the police officers and coldly asked, "What are you guys doing?" The leader of the police officers glanced at Xia ruofei and asked, "Who are you? I'm warning you! Don't get in the way of our official duties, or we'll arrest you as well!" Xia ruofei's lips twitched and he asked, "Executing official duties? You still want to arrest people? Do you have the relevant documents? Did the auxiliary Police have the power to independently enforce the law? Where's your police captain? Also, he's disheveled and isn't well-dressed. He's smoking in the ward while wearing a police uniform. What kind of character is this?! Is this how your leader leads his team?" The series of questions confused the leader of the auxiliary Police. He saw that Xia ruofei's manner was extraordinary, and he spoke with a sense of justice, so he suddenly lost his confidence. "Who are you?" he asked hesitantly. Xia ruofei smiled faintly and pointed at Cao tieshu, "Didn't you hear me just now? I'm his boss." "Boss? Where are you from?" One of the auxiliary Police officers behind the leading police officer asked bravely. "We're from Taoyuan farm!" Cao tieshu said with his head held high. The leading police officer was stunned for a moment. He opened his eyes wide and then sneered, "Fuck! I thought it was some Big Shot! So you're just a F * cking farmer! Why are you pretending to be a big-tailed Wolf! That big tone ... People who don't know you might think you're the director of the Public Security Bureau! F * ck ..." At first, he was not sure about Xia ruofei's background, so he was a little apprehensive. Now that he heard that the other party was the owner of a small farm that he had never heard of, he suddenly felt that he had been too careful. When he thought about how he had been intimidated by a farmer, the leader of the auxiliary Police felt that he had lost a lot of face in front of his brothers, so he also became angry from embarrassment and began to curse. The group of Auxiliary

Police officers behind him also laughed. "I thought you were some Big Boss! So you're a vegetable farmer!" "This guy ... Is really quite scary!" "Haha, farm owner, I'm so scared ..." Xia ruofei looked at the group of police officers quietly, as if he was watching a group of clowns. "Hey, Big Boss, listen up! These few people killed my Alsatian!" The leader of the auxiliary Police said loudly, "you're such a Big Boss, why don't you help them pay! It's not expensive, only 50000 Yuan!" Xia ruofei said indifferently, "so it's a private matter?" Then, you brought so many people here in police uniforms, and just now you were shouting about taking them to the police station. Is this considered private use?" "Private, your mother! Do you really think you're a big leader?" The leader of the auxiliary Police officers' expression changed and he cursed, "get out if you don't have money to pay! I'll catch you as well if you continue to talk nonsense!" Xia ruofei's expression turned cold as he chided, "You're the ones who should get out! This is a hospital, you can't do as you please!" "Motherf * cker! You refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit!" The leader of the auxiliary Police said with a fierce look, "brothers, handcuff this kid first! Didn't he like to talk big? Let him slowly tell you at the Bureau!" The auxiliary Police officers agreed and surrounded Xia ruofei. One of them was holding a pair of handcuffs. Seeing this, Cao tieshu also became anxious. He loudly said, "Stop! What right do you have to arrest my boss?" Those Auxiliary Police naturally did not pay attention to Cao tieshu's shouts. Xia ruofei remained calm until one of the auxiliary Police officers reached out to grab his arm. He shook his hand lightly and his body flashed like a ghost. Muffled sounds of fists hitting bodies could be heard. No one could even see Xia ruofei's movements clearly. It felt like in a few blinks of an eye, the police officers were lying on the ground and groaning in pain. All of them had bruises on their faces, and they looked extremely miserable. Xia ruofei calmly clapped his hands, walked over, grabbed one person in each hand, and threw them all out of the ward in no time. The leader of the police officers stood at the side and could not believe his eyes. It was only when Xia ruofei walked towards him that he shuddered and shouted, "You dare to attack a police officer!" "You think too highly of yourself. Are you a police officer? "It's not even enough to assault a police officer ..." Xia ruofei pouted and said, "besides ... So what if I assault a police officer?" Xia ruofei said as he walked towards the police officer. With every step he took, the police officer felt more pressured and couldn't help but take a few steps back. "Don't come over! Don't come over ..." Xia ruofei's display of skill had scared the police out of their wits. Xia ruofei looked at him in disgust and said, "Your mouth is too smelly. Slap yourself ten times and then get lost!" "What? You ... You ... Don't go too far!" The auxiliary police officer said as he retreated. He was no longer as arrogant and domineering as before. Now, he was just thinking about how to escape. Xia ruofei snorted and said, "since you're so unconscious, I'll do it for you!" With that, he rushed forward, grabbed the assistant policeman's collar with one hand, and quickly waved his other hand. Pi Li pa la! The crisp sound of a slap was heard. Xia ruofei slapped the police officer ten times, and the police officer's face swelled up at a speed that was visible to the naked eye. He was stunned by the ten slaps and even forgot the pain on his face. He just stood there in a daze with a look of disbelief on his face. Xia ruofei threw him out of the door and said indifferently, "Get lost!" The auxiliary Police officers looked at each other and showed a look of fear. Then, they helped each other and fled. At the end of the corridor, the leading auxiliary police officer turned around and shouted, "Just you wait! Don't run if you have the guts!" Xia ruofei did not care about his hollering. He turned around and looked at Cao tieshu, asking, "Old Cao, tell me! What's going on?"

Chapter 145: lawless

Cao tieshu did not answer Xia ruofei's question. Instead, he said worriedly, "Boss, you ... You hit Chen Gang. This is not a small problem ..." The other villagers in the ward also said, "Yes, boss Xia. Chen Gang is the son of Chen Jinbo, the owner of the abalone farm in the county. He has a lot of power in the county!" "Chen Jinbo is also a committee member of the county's Government Association. He knows many important people ..." "Boss Xia, please think of a way to resolve this ..." "Stop, stop, stop!" Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "I have my ways. You don't have to worry about me. Even if the sky is falling, you should at least let me know what happened, right?" Cao tieshu glared at his wife on the bed and said, "It's all because of this woman! Why are you joining in the fun? What's there to visit at a temple fair? Now that we've caused such a huge disaster ..." Cao tieshu's wife said, feeling wronged, "I didn't know that this would happen! There were at least a few thousand people at the temple fair, so why didn't they get involved? I'm just so unlucky!" "You still dare to talk back!" Cao tieshu's eyes widened as he spoke. Xia ruofei forced a smile and advised, "old Cao, what's done is done. What's the point of blaming sister – in – Law?" What had happened? I'm still confused!" Cao tieshu sighed and told Xia ruofei everything. It turned out that Cao tieshu's wife and a few villagers had made an appointment to go to the temple fair in the county. Not long after entering the county, a large Wolfhound suddenly rushed out from the vicinity of the police station in the west of the city. Cao tieshu's wife was so frightened that she fell heavily from her bicycle. She just happened to hit the stone along the road, and her tibia was fractured on the spot. That large Wolfhound was still aggressively pouncing towards Cao tieshu's wife. Her leg was fractured, and she couldn't run away. As a result, her face was scratched and had several bloody marks. The villagers who went to the temple fair with him hurried forward to chase the dog away, but the dog seemed to have gone mad. The situation was urgent at the time, and if this Mad Dog was allowed to go crazy, Cao tieshu's wife might have lost her life. One of the villagers happened to have a hoe on his tricycle, so he raised it to hit the dog. At that time, the scene was chaotic, and they couldn't remember the specific situation. They only remembered that they had hit the hoes a few times, and maybe one of them had hit the big wolfdog's vital point. The big wolfdog was killed on the spot. At this time, the place where Cao tieshu's wife's bones were fractured was already very swollen. There were also many bruises and scratches that were bleeding. The villagers did not care about finding the dog's owner to pay for the medical expenses. They quickly sent Cao tieshu's wife to the hospital and asked Cao tieshu's wife to call and inform Cao tieshu. The emergency and hospitalization fees were paid by a few villagers. Unexpectedly, after dealing with the fractures and wounds, Cao tieshu arrived at the inpatient department. Not long after he arrived, Chen Gang came to the door with a few Auxiliary Police officers. It was only then that everyone knew that the Alsatian was Chen Gang's. Chen Gang's family owned the largest abalone farm in the county. His father, Chen Jinbo, was a member of the county government's administrative Association and was considered a famous local private entrepreneur. Chen Gang had been mischievous since he was a child, and his academic results were terrible. After graduating from high school, he was transferred to the city's West police station as an auxiliary police officer through some connections in his family. With his family's power and the skin of a police officer, Chen Gang was even more arrogant and domineering. His bad reputation was known all over the country. The Alsatian was raised by Chen Jinbo in the abalone farm, and Chen Gang often brought it to the police station. He didn't know why he had run out of the police station today. Chen Gang, who was on duty today, was playing cards in the office with a few of his bad friends, so he didn't know anything. After the Wolfhound ran out, it ran towards Cao tieshu's wife. In the end, it was accidentally killed by a villager, and Chen Gang was completely unaware of it. Later, some of Chen Gang's acquaintances recognized that it was his dog and quickly ran to the police station to inform him. When Chen Gang saw his beloved dog lying dead on the spot, he immediately exploded and asked around with a few Auxiliary Police officers. Many people had seen what had happened, so Chen Gang and the others quickly found the hospital. When they met, not only did Chen Gang not apologize for his dog hurting people, but he also asked Cao tieshu to compensate him for his dog. He even asked for 50000 Yuan. Cao tieshu's stomach was filled with anger when his wife got into such a situation on the first day of the new year! Hence, both parties started quarreling and Xia ruofei arrived. Finally, Cao tieshu said indignantly, "I've long heard that the Chen family is overbearing. I've finally witnessed it today ..." "Al! Tie Shu, what do we common people have to fight with them!" An elderly villager sighed and said, "I think you'd better get out of the hospital with your sister – in – Law and find a place to hide! And this boss Xia, you should also quickly think of a solution. If you can 't, go out and hide for a few days ..." The others also tried to persuade him. "Yup! We can't afford to offend the Chen family!" "Boss Xia, a wise man knows when to retreat. Let's hide for a while ..." Xia ruofei's brows furrowed as he listened to Cao tieshu's story. Although it was only a few words, it was clear how arrogant and despotic Chen Gang was. Moreover, all the villagers were so afraid. It was clear how powerful the Chen family was in Changping County. Chen Gang's behavior today was simply lawless! Xia ruofei was not a nosy person. However, since something like this happened to his farm employee, he had to step in. Thinking of this, Xia ruofei said to Cao tieshu and the villagers, ""Old Cao, sister – in – Law, fellow villagers, you can rest assured! Sister – in – Law can't get out of bed right now, so you just stay here and recuperate. Don't worry, with me around, no one will dare to touch a single hair on you!" "Boss Xia, Chen Jinbo has a good relationship with some of the leaders in the county. You ..." The elderly villager said hesitantly. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "no matter how powerful you are, you can't beat the law. No matter how powerful you are, you can't beat the organization!" Don't worry!" The senior villager looked at Xia ruofei. To put it nicely, this young man was like a newborn calf that was not afraid of a Tiger. To put it bluntly, he was a little dazed. Chen Jinbo has been in the Chang Ping District for more than ten years and has many connections. You're just a young man who started a small farm in the village. How can you fight against such a Big Shot? The other villagers also wanted to persuade Xia ruofei. But Cao tieshu listened to Xia ruofei's words and said firmly, ""Boss, since you've said so, I'll listen to you. Let's not go anywhere and just recuperate in this hospital. I don't believe that the Chen family can be above the law!" Xia ruofei nodded in appreciation. The villagers saw that the person involved had such an attitude, so they no longer tried to persuade him. After saying a few words of comfort, they left one after another. They were also afraid of getting into trouble. Although Chen Gang had already identified Cao tieshu's family, they had killed the dog together after all. After the villagers left, Xia ruofei saw that Cao tieshu's wife was still worried. He smiled and said, ""Sister – in – Law, don't be afraid. I'll make a call now. Don't worry, I also know a few people from the top. " "Boss Xia, then you should quickly look for the higher – ups and settle this matter ..." Cao tieshu's wife quickly said. People from the countryside did not know much, but when she heard Xia ruofei say that she had connections, she seemed to be more at ease. "Boss, I'm really sorry! "I didn't expect that you would be implicated in this matter ..." Cao tieshu said guiltily. "Old Cao, don't say such things!" Xia ruofei said, "it's fine if I don't know about this, but since I know, I have to do something about it. You're an employee of our company, and you're even a middle – rank backbone. The company must make decisions for your family!" Cao tieshu revealed a touched expression and said, ""Thank you, boss!" Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. He reached out and patted Cao tieshu's shoulder. Then, he took out his phone and walked to the corridor outside the ward. The most effective way to deal with the matter in Changping County was to look for the newly appointed Wu Liqian. If even Wu Liqian couldn't handle it herself, she would naturally turn to her old superior, Tian Huilan, for help. However, the possibility of this happening was very low. If a local boss could make Wu Liqian, the executive Deputy County Head, feel helpless, then she wasn't worthy of Tian Huilan's trust and heavy responsibility. Hence, Xia ruofei took out his phone and dialed Wu Liqian's number.

Chapter 146: Deputy County Head Wu's decision (1)

The phone rang a few times before Wu Liqian picked it up. "Happy New Year, Xiao Xia!" Wu Liqian said. Xia ruofei heard some noise on the other end of the phone and asked, "Sis Wu, did I disturb you from work?" "It's nothing, I'm just visiting some units in the county!" Wu Liqian smiled lightly. We were in the meeting room just now, but we're out now. If you have anything to say, just say it. It's more convenient to talk now. " During the new year, the leaders of several groups in the county would go to various units to visit and express their condolences. They would pay their New Year's greetings to the cadres and people who still insisted on their posts during the new year. This was already a tradition in China. Party parties and governments at all levels had this tradition. As the fourth – in – command in the leadership team, Wu Liqian was definitely very busy today. She had to go to all the units and work the whole day. Hence, Xia ruofei didn't stand on ceremony and said directly, "Sis Wu, there's something I need your help with." Then, Xia ruofei told Wu Liqian everything that had happened that day, including how he had beaten up a few police officers after he had arrived at the hospital. In fact, Xia ruofei had even beaten up the Deputy Director of the county Public Security Bureau in front of Tian Huilan at the Changping County's Linhai town police station. Wu Liqian had been there as well, and she had been Tian Huilan's Secretary at the time. After hearing Xia ruofei's words, Wu Liqian said angrily, "There's such a thing? This was simply lawless! Xiao Xia, are you still in the hospital?" "Yes, I'm worried that after I leave, Chen Gang will do something bad to the CAO couple!" Xia ruofei said, "they are all honest farmers. They are already out of their minds after such a thing happened on the first day of the new year." "Don't worry, just wait for a while in the hospital. I'll definitely give you a satisfactory explanation!" Wu Liqian said without hesitation. "Okay, thank you, sis Wu ..." Xia ruofei said, "I'm sorry!" It's the new year and I'm giving you trouble ..." "You even have to do this with sis Wu?" Wu Liqian said with a smile, "develop your business well, and create more taxes and jobs for our County. That's the best way to thank me!" "Definitely, definitely!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Since Wu Liqian still had to deal with this matter, the two didn't talk much and hung up the phone quickly. The county Water resources Bureau. Wu Liqian put her phone away, a thoughtful look on her face. She glanced at Xu Jianbo, the director of the county Public Security Bureau, who was sitting on the side. During the spring Festival visit, several groups in the county were divided into several groups and acted separately. Xu Jianbo happened to be in the group led by Wu Liqian. Basically, the leader would walk around and thank the staff on duty for their hard work. He would then give them some gifts and the leader would say a few words to them. The greetings at the water conservancy Bureau had basically ended. However, Wu Liqian had just gone out to take a call, so everyone was still waiting here. Wu Liqian nodded to everyone, then said to the Deputy Director of the government office, "Our next stop is Kuake City Hospital." In fact, health, water conservancy, and public security were all under Wu Liqian's jurisdiction, so she had to visit these places during the spring Festival this year. The county government office's Deputy Director was stunned for a moment before he reminded her in a low voice, "Mayor Wu, according to our plan, our next stop is the Public Security Bureau. The county hospital is arranged to be in the afternoon ... The notice has already been sent out. If we go now, I'm afraid the hospital won't be prepared ..." Wu Liqian frowned and said, "what do we need to prepare?" It's new Year 's, so we'll go and visit the front – line medical workers. It's fine as long as they work normally. It's not like we're going to inspect them!" "Alright, I'll inform them immediately!" The Deputy Director of the government office saw that Wu Liqian was a little unhappy and quickly agreed. The director of the Public Security Bureau, Xu Jianbo, asked in a half – joking, half – serious manner, “Mayor Wu, why did you suddenly change to the county hospital? Is the tea in our Public Security Bureau not good?” Xu Jianbo was a member of the visit and comfort Group, but if they were to go to the Public Security Bureau, he was also the host, so what he said was not considered out of line. “Director Xu,” Wu Liqian said with a smile, “our colleagues in the Public Security Bureau are all working very hard. We have more time in the afternoon. We can talk more with everyone!” “Haha!” Xu Jianbo laughed and said, “I feel much better now that you’ve said that, Mayor Wu!” Wu Liqian’s eyes were clouded. Xu Jianbo had indeed been showing signs of a bad trend recently, and this was also directly reflected in his words and actions. His words just now seemed casual, but in reality, there was a faint sense of challenge. However, Wu Liqian had already cultivated to the point where she could not show her emotions. She just said indifferently, “Let’s go!” The group of people left the water conservancy Bureau and got into their own cars. The motorcade then headed in the direction of the county hospital. At the county hospital, before Wu Liqian arrived, a group of menacing people came ...

Chapter 147: extremely arrogant (1)

After Xia ruofei finished his call, he sat in the ward and chatted with Cao tieshu and his wife. The two of them were still a little uneasy, so Xia ruofei kept trying to comfort them. After about 20 minutes, the sound of noisy footsteps could be heard from the corridor. Cao tieshu and his wife’s expressions suddenly changed, revealing an extremely worried expression. “Boss, it must be Chen Gang. You ... You should leave first!” Cao tieshu said. Xia ruofei’s expression was still calm. He smiled and said, “Old Cao, don’t be impatient. If he’s coming, then so be it. What’s there to be afraid of?” “Boss, I know you’re good at fighting, but they’re from the government. We can’t afford to offend them!” Cao tieshu anxiously said. If you call again, things will get out of hand. You’d better leave quickly!” At this moment, a resentful voice came from the door, “You want to leave now? It’s too late!” The person was Chen Gang. When Cao tieshu heard Chen Gang’s voice, his face immediately turned pale. He thought to himself, this is really bad. Boss is implicated. Chen Gang was standing at the door with a smug look, but his face was swollen like a pig’s head, and he looked ferocious. “Brat, you really didn’t run. You’ve got guts!” Chen Gang stared at Xia ruofei with hatred. At this time, two people in police uniforms came out from behind Chen Gang. They were two official police officers with police ranks and numbers, completely different from Chen Gang and the other Auxiliary Police officers. One of the police officers, who was tall and thin, looked at Xia ruofei and said, “We are from the criminal Police unit of the county Public Security Bureau. You are suspected of assaulting a police officer and causing trouble. Come with us!” Xia ruofei looked at the policeman calmly and said, “Everything needs evidence. The police can’t arrest people randomly. You said that I attacked the police and provoked trouble. Show me the evidence!” “Evidence?” the tall and thin police officer sneered. You beat up Chen Gang and the other policemen from the West City Police station. The witnesses are here, and the injuries on their bodies are the evidence!” “Those people are Auxiliary Police officers, not official police officers!” Xia ruofei immediately said. The young officer next to the tall and thin officer glared at him and said, “You think you can beat up the auxiliary Police as you please? You’ve eaten the heart of a bear and the guts of a leopard!” Xia ruofei glared at the young police officer coldly and said, “Watch your mouth. Wearing this uniform, you represent the image of the People’s Police. You curse and swear every time you open your mouth. Is this the quality of a police officer?” “F * ck ...” The young police officer rolled up his sleeves and was about to teach Xia ruofei a lesson. “Little Wu!” The tall and thin police officer reached out and stopped him. Then, the tall and thin police officer squinted at Xia ruofei and said, “I didn’t expect you to be so good at talking. But even if you have a glib tongue, you can't cover up the fact that you beat up Chen Gang and his men. They were injured by you when they were performing official duties. We are summoning you on the grounds of stirring up trouble and assaulting a police officer, which is completely in line with the regulations." The young police officer, little Wu, also sneered and said in a strange tone, "If you refuse to cooperate, then don't blame us for not being polite! At that time, you'll be charged with resisting arrest, and you'll have to stay in the servant room for several years!" Xia ruofei pouted and said, "I didn't expect the police to be so good at twisting the truth and turning black into white." Chen Gang had obviously gathered the auxiliary Police to cause trouble for his family's private affairs, but it became official business here. They were the ones who started the fight, and I was just defending myself. In your eyes, this is assault on a police officer!" The tall and thin police officer said with a fake smile, "The police will naturally investigate the truth. You're suspected of assaulting a police officer and of causing trouble. I'm officially summoning you according to the procedure. You must cooperate!" The tall and thin police officer deliberately emphasized the word "suspected." Xia ruofei snorted and said, "summon?" Alright! Show your police badges and your summons! I'll definitely cooperate." Chen Gang's round trip only took more than 20 minutes. It was still the first day of the new year. How could they have gotten an official summon? Xia ruofei was sure that these two police officers were Chen Gang's bad friends. They were here to support him. To put it bluntly, they were doing private work without any formal procedures. Sure enough, the tall and thin police officer's face darkened and said, "I'm calling you verbally! We'll make up the relevant procedures after this! Now, please come with us!" "Oh! I forgot there's a verbal summons!" Xia ruofei pretended to suddenly realize something and then asked with a confused expression, "but I remember that we can only summon verbally under special circumstances. Excuse me, officer, what kind of special situation am I in?" Xia ruofei looked at Chen Gang with disdain and said, "There are signs of escape? After they left, I still stayed here for more than 20 minutes. If I wanted to escape, I would have done so long ago!" "You sure talk a lot of nonsense!" The young police officer couldn't help but curse, "if you don't want to suffer, then come with us! Otherwise, you'll be in for it when you're in the police station!" "Are you threatening me?" Xia ruofei's expression turned cold. "Fuck your mother! So what if I threaten you?" The young police officer cursed, "I'm going to hit you!" Then, the young policeman took out his rubber baton and smashed it on Xia ruofei's head. This time, the thin and tall policeman did not stop the young policeman from teasing him. His patience had run out. In this small county, they rarely talked reason with "suspects." Sometimes, even if they did not follow the procedures, they would just arrest them without anyone daring to say anything. Xia ruofei's expression did not change. He just slightly turned his body and stretched out his hand, seemingly moving slowly. However, he avoided the baton and accurately grabbed the young policeman's wrist. The young policeman suddenly felt as if he was being clamped by a pair of iron pincers. He tried to pull back a few times, but Xia ruofei did not move at all. Xia ruofei only used a little force, but the young policeman suddenly felt as if his wrist was going to split open. He could not help but scream in pain. The tall and thin police officer was on guard. He took a step back, pulled out his gun from his waist, and pointed it at Xia ruofei. He shouted, "Stop! Let go of little Wu immediately! You're suspected of resisting arrest and assaulting a police officer. If you don't let go, I'll shoot!" Xia ruofei faced the black muzzle of the gun and his eyes suddenly became extremely sharp. His whole body released a cold murderous aura, and the temperature of the entire Ward seemed to have dropped by a lot. However, when he tilted his ears to listen, the aura on his body suddenly retracted. Xia ruofei's hearing was far better than the people at the scene. Hence, when the police were unaware, he had already heard the footsteps and voices outside the inpatient department. Xia ruofei sneered and let go of his hand. The young policeman, Xiao Wu, immediately broke free from his control. Xiao Wu quickly stepped back. The tall and thin police officer was still pointing his gun at Xia ruofei as if he was facing a great enemy. He had heard from Chen Gang that the man in front of him was very skilled, so he had brought a gun. In fact, this was already illegal. "Little Wu, handcuff him!" The tall and thin man said. "Alright!" Lil Wu said with a smile. He massaged his red and swollen wrist, took out a pair of handcuffs from his waist, and walked towards Xia ruofei. He said, "Show me how awesome you can be! Fuck your mother!" Xia ruofei just looked at Lil Wu coldly. He did not resist and let him handcuff his hands. "Boss ..." Cao tieshu, who was at the side, said anxiously. Xia ruofei gave him a consoling smile, indicating for him not to panic. "Take him away!" The tall and thin police officer said proudly. He was very satisfied with the current outcome. So what if you're good at fighting? I have a gun! If you dare to resist, I'll shoot you. Even if you die, it'll be in vain! Seeing that Xia ruofei was cuffed, Chen Gang also became cocky. He walked to Xia ruofei and pushed him, saying, "Run! Damn it, wasn't he very impressive just now? I'll see how awesome you can be when we get to the police station!" Xia ruofei sneered and walked out with his hands cuffed. Just then, a group of County cadres and hospital leaders surrounded Wu Liqian and walked to the door of the ward. When Wu Liqian saw the scene in front of her, her pretty face immediately showed an extremely angry expression. She angrily rebuked, "What are you guys doing? Why did you arrest him?"

Chapter 148: furious rebuking in person (1)

When the accompanying director of the Public Security Bureau, Xu Jianbo, saw the scene before him, his heart could not help but skip a beat. Just now, he had felt that Wu Liqian's behavior was a little strange. Qianqian's next stop was the Public Security Bureau, but she changed her schedule at the last minute. She didn't even go to the health Bureau, but came directly to the county hospital. When she arrived at the county hospital, she didn't even greet the hospital leaders. Instead, she walked straight to the inpatient department building. Now that he saw the scene in the ward, even if Xu Jianbo was slow to realize it, he already knew that Wu Liqian must have received the news in advance, which was why she had rushed over without stopping. Now, Xu Jianbo could only hope that there were no problems with the procedures of these police officers. Otherwise, with Wu Liqian's attitude, a beating today would be inevitable. Wu Liqian did not even have the time to think about the politics of the government. The handcuff on Xia ruofei's wrist was so glaring that it made her angry. The tall and thin police officer saw a group of leaders suddenly appearing at the door of the ward and panicked. The people in the system naturally knew the newly appointed beautiful Deputy County Head. Xu Jianbo, who was next to Wu Liqian, was their direct superior and the boss of the Bureau. The tall and thin police officer forced himself to remain calm and saluted the leaders. "Reporting to County Head Wu, the county Public Security Bureau's Criminal Police department's police officer Chen tie is currently on an arrest mission." Wu Liqian looked at Chen tie coldly and pointed at Xia ruofei, "This is the target you want to capture? Xiao Xia is a private entrepreneur that I personally introduced to Changping County. At the same time, he's also a retired soldier with outstanding military achievements. May I ask what heinous crime he has committed? Do you need to point your guns at him and handcuff him?" Both Xu Jianbo and Chen tie's faces turned pale at the same time. Their hearts also thumped, knowing that this was bad. Xu Jianbo saw that Chen tie was so scared that he stammered for a long time and could not come up with a reason. He could not help but frown and said, "Little Chen, what's the situation? just report it to County Head Wu as it is! County Head Wu has always been impartial and would never side with anyone." When Chen tie heard Xu Jianbo's words, he suddenly had an idea and quickly said, "Yes! Chief!" "Mayor Wu,"

he said to Wu Lqian, "this is the situation. We were on duty at the criminal Police unit today and received a call from Chengxi police station. They said that one of their policemen was injured during law enforcement and asked for our help. We followed the comrades of the West City Institute to the county hospital. After the identification of the comrades of the West City Institute, the person suspected of injuring the police is this Mr. Xia, so I summoned him according to the law and asked him to go to the brigade for interrogation. However, this gentleman wasn't very cooperative and injured our brigade's police officer, Wu Liben. We had no choice but to use firearms and take coercive measures against him!" Chen tie's words were very clever. He avoided the important points and shifted the focus to Xia ruofei's assault, police assault, and non-cooperation. If Wu Lqian did not know Xia ruofei and did not receive his call beforehand, she might have been able to get away with this. When Xu Jianbo heard this, his heart immediately relaxed. He thought to himself, "so that kid attacked a police officer, then things will be easy." With this in mind, Xu Jianbo cleared his throat and said, "Little Chen, although the situation is special, you can't use firearms at will! Especially in the hospital. The process of law enforcement still had to pay attention to the methods! Hurry up and uncuff me!" Hearing this, Chen tie was delighted and quickly said, "Yes! Director, I'll definitely reflect on this when I get back!" Then, he quickly went forward to unlock Xia ruofei's handcuffs. Xu Jianbo nodded in satisfaction, then turned to Wu Lqian and said politely, "County Head Wu, I think this is most likely a misunderstanding. The few comrades from the West City Police station are not seriously injured, and this Mr. Xia is an investor in our County. Why don't we just let this matter go? the criminal Police force will not file a case. What do you think?" He felt that Wu Lqian should stop while she could. After all, Xia ruofei was the one who was in the wrong. He didn't expect Wu Lqian to just look at him indifferently and say to Xia ruofei, "Little Xia, tell me about the situation! I won't listen to one side of the story." A trace of darkness flashed in Xu Jianbo's eyes. He had not expected Wu Lqian to be so disrespectful in public. He had clearly given her a way out, but she still refused to give in. Xia ruofei looked at Public Security Bureau Director Xu Jianbo thoughtfully before he said, "County Head Wu, it's a long story. I'll first report to you what happened near the Chengxi police station this morning! Chen Gang, the auxiliary police officer of Chengxi police station ..." At this point, Xia ruofei suddenly stopped and looked at Chen Gang and Chen tie. He smiled meaningfully and said, "Chen Gang, Chen tie ... Are you two brothers?" Chen tie's face turned red and white. He quickly glanced at Wu Lqian and said, "Mr. Xia, this has nothing to do with the case ..." Xu Jianbo also had a bad feeling. He was very clear that Chen Gang and Chen tie were cousins. He had also heard that Chen Gang from the West City Institute had always caused trouble because of his father's power. However, those were all minor mistakes that did not matter much. He would not offend Chen Jinbo for this. Now that Xia ruofei was suddenly hinting at something, Xu Jianbo felt that this matter might not be as simple as it seemed on the surface. If he did not handle it well, he might suffer a loss in the dark. Xia ruofei didn't press on with the issue of their relationship. He continued, "Chen Gang, the assistant police officer of the West City Police station, brought the Wolfhound to the station for duty. He did not fulfill his duty of watching over it, causing the dog to run out and hurt people. This is the injured person at the time." Xia ruofei pointed at Cao tieshu's wife who was lying on the bed. When Cao tieshu's wife saw so many leaders, she was so nervous that she couldn't speak. Xia ruofei continued, "At that time, in order to save the injured person, the villagers had no choice but to accidentally kill the dog. They didn't even have time to ask the dog's owner for compensation. They just sent the injured person to the hospital for emergency treatment." Xia ruofei paused and looked at Chen Gang coldly. "Then, the auxiliary police officer quickly found the hospital. As the owner of the dog, not only did he not apologize or compensate for the medical and nutrition expenses, but he also made a false accusation and asked for fifty thousand Yuan! And he even threatened to take him to the police station. This is what the police officer just said!" "I can't help but ask, for your family's personal matters, you brought a few Auxiliary Police officers, wore police uniforms to the hospital to threaten the victims, and extorted a huge amount of compensation. Is this your official duty?" Xia ruofei raised his voice and said, "the auxiliary Police don't have independent law enforcement power. The few of you keep saying that you want to handcuff this one and arrest that one. Who gave you the confidence to do so?"

Chapter 149: freely retracting and releasing_1

Xia ruofei's words were loud and clear, and every sentence was straight to the point. Chen Gang's heart couldn't help but tremble, and Chen tie, who had come to help his cousin, also turned pale. Wu Liqian looked at Xia ruofei with admiration. Obviously, Xia ruofei could tell that the director of the Public Security Bureau was a bit of a thorn in his side, so he had spoken righteously and pointed out the problems in the management and style of the Public Security Bureau. The two of them had never discussed it in advance, but Wu Liqian felt that they had a tacit understanding. Wu Liqian thought for a moment, then turned around and said to the officials and officers who had come with her, "Comrades, I'm going to handle some things here. Please go to the hospital's conference room and wait for a while." Under the guidance of the hospital's leaders, the accompanying cadres all left the inpatient department and went to the hospital office building. Wu Liqian looked at Xu Jianbo indifferently, then said to Xia ruofei, "Little Xia, continue." Xia ruofei nodded and said, "okay." "County Head Wu, the victim's husband is an employee of my company, so when I learned that she was injured, I came to visit. I didn't expect to see these Auxiliary Police officers cuffing our employee as soon as I entered the door. I went up to speak a few words of Justice, but they even wanted to arrest me. They're simply lawless!" Xia ruofei paused and continued, "I immediately said that the auxiliary Police had no power to enforce the law, and that what they did was against the law! However, they were so rude that they wanted to handcuff me by force, so I had no choice but to defend myself. This is the entire process of officer Chen's so-called 'police assault'!" "You're full of nonsense!" Chen Gang said loudly, "do you have any evidence to slander me?" "Evidence? Now you're asking for evidence?" Xia ruofei looked at Chen Gang with disdain and said, "when officer Chen wanted to arrest me, he didn't give me any evidence and didn't even listen to my explanation!" Xia ruofei paused for a moment before continuing, "many people have seen the dog hurting people. There must be surveillance cameras near the police station. Won't the truth be revealed if we pull up the surveillance cameras?" As for what you did in the ward, many villagers saw it, and they can all testify!" The villagers were afraid of trouble and did not dare to provoke the Chen family, but that was during normal times. If they had the backing of the Deputy County Head, these people would definitely be willing to come out and testify. "You ... You're all on the same side, so it doesn't count!" Chen Gang said angrily. "Nonsense! You're still in cahoots! How did he become a witness in officer Chen's eyes?" Xia ruofei retorted rudely. After that, Xia ruofei ignored Chen Gang's final struggle and continued, "County Head Wu, not long after I chased away these police officers, these two police officers came to my door. They claimed that I attacked a police officer and started a fight. They wanted to cuff me without showing my police badge and summon badge!" Then, Xia ruofei pointed at the young police officer, Wu Liben, and said, "This officer Wu even took out a rubber baton to hit me. If I wasn't agile, I'm afraid I would have been injured! You saw what happened after that. Officer Chen took out his gun and pointed it at me. He handcuffed me and tried to arrest me ..." Xia ruofei said all this in one breath, then shrugged and shut his mouth. Xu Jianbo's expression became very ugly. The Chen brothers, Chen Gang and Chen tie, were even paler. Wu Liben and several other Auxiliary Police officers also did not dare to breathe. After hearing Xia ruofei's words, Wu Liqian's face turned as cold as ice. When she looked at someone in the ward, that person couldn't help but lower his eyes. Xu Jianbo felt a great deal of pressure. He glared at Chen tie in a somewhat resentful manner and asked, "Xiao Chen, is this what happened?" Chen tie's body trembled slightly as he stuttered, "Director ... This ... I don't know what happened before ... After that ... Uh ..." "You ..." Xu Jianbo was so angry that he almost cursed. "Mayor Wu ..." Xu Jianbo lowered his stance and said to Wu Liqian, "as the Bureau chief, I have the responsibility of leading this matter ..." "Director Xu, I don't think there's a need to rush the self – reflection!" Wu Liqian said, "the most important thing now is to investigate the matter clearly. I know Xiao Xia. He has always been a law – abiding citizen. Even Secretary Tian often praises him. If it's really the police's fault, we should give them an explanation, right?" When Xu Jianbo heard the words "Secretary Tian," his eyes could not help but narrow, and his heart skipped a beat. He knew all too well the weight of these three words. He also knew that even if Wu Liqian and Tian Huilan had a close relationship, she wouldn't dare to speak carelessly about this kind of thing. Since she had said so, there was at least a 70 to 80% chance of it being true. If this young man could really get on Tian Huilan's good side, then the police officers' actions today were simply seeking their own deaths, and it was very likely that they would even be implicated. Just as Xu Jianbo's mind was racing, Wu Liqian said indifferently, "Director Xu, it shouldn't be difficult to get the surveillance cameras around the city West police station, right? Also, he had to check the records of Chengxi police station and the criminal Police force to see if they were performing official duties or using them for private use! Also, could a police officer's gun be brought out so easily now? I think it's necessary to check the registration of the gun warehouse to see if there are any violations! I believe that after this investigation, the truth will be revealed to the world!" After Wu Liqian finished speaking, she thought for a while and continued, "By the way, if director Xu feels that it's inconvenient, I can coordinate with the comrades of the municipal supervision detachment to come and investigate." "County Head Wu, there's no need to trouble the higher – ups with this matter, right?" Xu Jianbo said with a bitter smile. After saying that, he glared at Chen tie and said sternly, "Chen tie, immediately report the situation to County Head Wu! If you dare to hide anything, I'll definitely punish you severely!" Xu Jianbo knew very well that he was bound to suffer today. If he did not give in now, Wu Liqian would only use this as an excuse to make a fuss, and he would be even more passive then. This little County Head Wu was not simple! She was a woman who usually looked soft and weak, but her methods in officialdom were very experienced and flexible. Even he, a wily old fox who had been in officialdom for decades, had unknowingly suffered. Xu Jianbo sighed in his heart. Now, it seemed that it was necessary to wait and see. It was even appropriate to express goodwill to County Head little Wu ... Chen tie didn't dare to hide anything and told him everything. Just as Xia ruofei had expected, they had acted on their own accord this time. Even their guns had been brought out on their own. Neither the police station nor the criminal Police force had any record of them going out. The more Xu Jianbo listened, the uglier his expression became. After Chen tie finished, he could not help but berate, "You're all bastards!"

Chapter 150: everyone is happy (1)

Chen tie quivered in fear and lowered his head, not daring to speak. At this time, his intestines were about to turn green with regret. If he had known that he would get into such big trouble, he would not have stepped into this muddy water even if he was beaten to death. How cool would it be to comfortably stay at home, warm a fire, and play cards! Now that the matter had blown up, his future was bleak ... Xu Jianbo looked at the pair of cousins in front of him, and his eyes were about to spit fire.

These two fellows who could do nothing but ruin things had caused such a ruckus on the first day of the new year. They were simply adding to the trouble! It could be said that he even wanted to bury them alive. Xu Jianbo took a deep breath and quickly adjusted his facial expression. He said to Wu Liqian sincerely, "Mayor Wu, I want to reflect on this matter. The county Public Security Bureau has problems in its administrative management and work style. This is my responsibility. I will definitely do a deep reflection in the Bureau's Party Committee and immediately carry out a major rectification of work style and discipline within the Public Security Bureau ..." Wu Liqian waved her hand and said, "director Xu, it's right for us to investigate, reflect, and rectify the problem. However, things should be prioritized. It's the Spring Festival holiday now, and everyone has worked hard for a year. Wouldn't it be a panic if we were to rectify it now?" I suggest that after the holiday is over, we can conduct a Discipline Inspection in the Public Security Bureau. Let's forget about the holiday!" When Xu Jianbo heard that, he immediately revealed a grateful expression and said, "Yes! Thank you for your understanding, Mayor Wu ..." He was also secretly impressed by Wu Liqian's beautiful play. If Wu Liqian had not relented, he could imagine how chaotic the Public Security Bureau's internal department would be during the spring Festival holiday. All sorts of inspections, self-examination, discussions, and learning could drive people crazy. Moreover, so many people had seen what had happened today. By then, the entire County would know that he, Xu Jianbo, had been incompetent and severely criticized by County Head Wu. He had even implicated the entire Public Security Bureau. The result would definitely be his prestige being destroyed. Wu Liqian's current way of handling things was basically giving Xu Jianbo a warning. Not only had she achieved her goal of beating Xu Jianbo down, but she had also left him some face to a certain extent. Wu Liqian had even sent away the accompanying personnel in advance. It could be said that only a few people in the ward knew the final outcome of today's incident. This way, Xu Jianbo's prestige would at least be preserved. In other words, although Xu Jianbo had been beaten up by Wu Liqian today, he still had to thank her in secret. Xu Jianbo could not help but secretly admire Secretary Tian's methods. He felt that the person who had been trained by Secretary Tian's side was indeed extraordinary! And the more powerful Wu Liqian's methods were, the more the scales in Xu Jianbo's heart would naturally tilt in her favor. This was what Wu Liqian wanted to achieve. Wu Liqian showed a gentle smile and said, "Director Xu, the reorganization can be delayed, but this matter can not be delayed! Little Xia has been wronged for no reason, and this sister-in-law has also suffered such serious injuries. All of these have to be dealt with immediately to give the parties involved an explanation." "Yes, yes," Xu Jianbo said. He suddenly realized that he still had to deal with Xia ruofei, the God. This was someone who had a say in Secretary Tian! Xu Jianbo quickly said to Xia ruofei, "Mr. Xia, I'm really sorry for what happened today. I apologize to you on behalf of the Public Security Bureau!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "director Xu, you're being too serious. It's inevitable that there will be black sheep in every unit. I just hope that your Bureau can severely deal with the relevant people responsible. Also, I hope that the medical expenses, nutrition expenses, and delay in work of the family members of our employees during their recovery period can be properly resolved." Xia ruofei had vaguely guessed Wu Liqian's intention, so he did not give Xu Jianbo a hard time. "Of course, of course ..." Xu Jianbo said quickly. "There is no doubt that the responsibility for this matter has been determined. All the responsibility lies with Chen Gang. We will definitely deal with the local police and Auxiliary Police seriously. We will also urge the compensation to be paid as soon as possible. Before the compensation is paid, the medical expenses of the injured will be paid by our Public Security Bureau in advance. Is this okay?" "Sure, I'll thank director Xu on behalf of Cao and his wife." Xia ruofei said with a smile. "No, no, we should be the ones saying sorry." Xu Jianbo said quickly. Then, he sincerely apologized to Cao tieshu and his wife. He then said to

Wu Liqian, ""Mayor Wu, I'd like to ask for a leave of absence. I won't be participating in the visits later. I have to go back to the Bureau to deal with today's matter." Wu Liqian smiled and nodded, ""Thank you for your hard work, director Xu!" Xu Jianbo nodded at Wu Liqian, then glared at Chen tie and Chen Gang and said, ""Hurry up and leave! What an embarrassing thing!" After he finished speaking, he walked straight out of the door, while Chen Gang and the others followed behind Xu Jianbo with ashen faces, as if they had lost their parents, and left the ward in a sorry state. After Xu Jianbo left, Wu Liqian personally came to the bed again. With a gentle smile on her face, she said, ""Sister – in – Law, I'm sorry for what happened today. I apologize to you on behalf of the county party Committee and the county government." Cao tieshu and his wife both knew that this beautiful young woman in front of them was a County Head. In their eyes, she was an extraordinary official, so the two of them were somewhat in fear and trepidation. Cao tieshu also said, "Mayor Wu, thank you for standing up for us!" You're the Lord of the clear sky ..." Cao tieshu's wife also thanked her profusely, which made Wu Liqian feel a little embarrassed. At the same time, she also felt that Yingluo's actions were originally Chen Gang's outrageous and lawless actions. She had only upheld justice, and the people were already so grateful. Looking at this simple farmer couple, she once again felt the heavy weight of the words "as an official, you can benefit the people". After saying a few words, Wu Liqian was about to leave as well. A large group of people were still waiting for her to give her condolences in the conference room! Xia ruofei personally sent her to the door, then stopped and said, ""Sis Wu, thank you for today!" Wu Liqian gave Xia ruofei a meaningful look and chuckled. ""Little Xia, I have to thank you too!" Xia ruofei pretended to be confused and said, "why are you thanking me?" I've been causing trouble for you all day. I guess you're afraid of answering my calls now!" Wu Liqian laughed and glared at Xia ruofei. "Don't give me that ... I can't wait for you to get into trouble like this a few more times ... Alright, I'll stop talking to you. I still have work to do!" "Alright, you can go back to your work!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you're welcome to come to our farm for inspection and guidance when you're free!" "Alright! I'll definitely give you some good guidance!" Wu Liqian chuckled. After she finished speaking, she waved at Xia ruofei and walked out of the hospital. At this moment, Xia ruofei suddenly thought of something and quickly called out to Wu Liqian.
