Chapter 1411: If you don't leave me, I'll definitely ..._1

According to Feng Jing's salary comparison table, the M9 position that she was assigned to only had an annual salary of 600000 Yuan, which was almost the same as the M8 position. The only person in the M9 position was the company's president, so it was obvious that she had set her salary low on purpose.

"It's not low," Feng Rao said. "600000 Yuan a year is definitely a high salary for a company of our size. You'll know if you look at the companies outside ..."

Xia ruofei glanced at Feng Rao and said, ""You know what I'm talking about. How can you compare it to the outside world? "Let's make a parallel comparison. This salary level is only the standard of a senior M7 or M8 position in the company. You're a CEO ..."

"Ruofei, my income is high enough. Besides, the majority of my income is being shared!" Feng Jing said, "a bonus of 2% a year is much higher than your salary ..."

Feng Jing held 2% of the company's shares as a reward from Xia ruofei. According to this year's profit, she would be able to get 6 million Yuan in dividends.

Xia ruofei glanced at Feng Rao and said, ""Sister ran, do you really think I'm a rookie? You do hold 2% of the shares, but how is that the same as the profit bonus?"

To put it simply, the dividends of the other executives were the company's rewards and were distributed among everyone. However, Feng Jing and Xia ruofei were shareholders, so they couldn't share all the profits. If Feng Jing got six million, Xia ruofei would get more than two hundred million.

In this case, would the company still have any development funds left?

Furthermore, even if it was a full bonus, the rewards for the top managers and outstanding employees amounted to about 15 million Yuan, which was split from the profits. This 15 million Yuan would naturally be deducted from Xia ruofei and Feng Jing's share as well. The two of them had to bear the 15 million Yuan in proportion. If that was the case, Feng Jing would not get 6 million Yuan.

In fact, at the end of the year, everyone would agree on a dividend ratio. For example, 10% of this year's profits would be used as shareholders' dividends, and the rest of the funds would be used as the company's liquid funds.

If the company was in a period of rapid development and had a greater need for funds, it was possible that there would be no dividend at all. It was even possible that not only would there be no dividend, but the shareholders would also have to increase the capital in proportion and continue to invest in the company.

Hence, Feng Jing's 2% shares didn't mean that she would receive 2% of the profits every year. In fact, she didn't get much money.

Of course, her shares were still very valuable. Even if they were valued at about one billion Yuan, her assets would still reach 20 million Yuan.

In other words, she had already become a rich woman after working at paradise Corporation for more than a year.

It was just that this money couldn't be easily cashed out.

Feng Jing smiled. "Ruofei, I've already taken enough. Besides, I don't have many places to use the money. What's the point of saving so much money?"

"I'm preparing the dowry!" Xia ruofei chuckled. "Who would complain about having too much money?"

Feng Rao couldn't help but glare at Xia ruofei. This guy was really rubbing it in!

Who didn't know that at the end of the year, what older single women were most afraid of was the topic of marriage, as if the whole world was forcing them to get married ...

"Don't talk nonsense!" Feng Rao said, "600000 Yuan is not a low salary. Moreover, you're an M10! The salary is only a symbolic one Yuan!"

Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "how can that be the same?" The whole company is mine, so I can decide how much I'll be paid, right?"

"I'm also a shareholder of the company!" Feng Rao said, unconvinced.

"Sister che, your sense of being the host is very praiseworthy." Xia ruofei tried his best to persuade her. "But you're doing actual work after all. Besides, once the salary standard is set, it'll be difficult to change it in the future. You don't care if it's a hundred or two hundred thousand less, but others do! Could it be that his other colleagues would always have M6M7? In the future, if they perform well in their evaluations or make great contributions to the company, even if they don't become the president, they may still get the salary of M9. Although this may be a rare case, if they can be promoted to this level, they must be excellent employees. We can't dampen their enthusiasm!"

"This ..." Feng Jing hesitated after hearing Xia ruofei's words.

Xia ruofei struck while the iron was hot, "it's settled then!" M9's annual salary will be based on the standard of 800000 to 1000000 Yuan, and you'll enjoy the benefits of dividends. Since you have the shares, I'll cancel the dividends for you. However, as a senior M9 member who has made great contributions to the company's development, your salary will be based on the upper limit of M9's salary, and it will be calculated according to the annual salary of 1000000! No objections, right, sister che?"

"Ah? 1 million! Isn't that too much?" Feng Rao couldn't help but feel a little speechless.

This was almost double the standard she had set before.

"Not much, not much!" Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "not at all. Sister che, I can't wait to offer a million – dollar annual salary to keep a talent like you!"

"No, I won't leave!" Feng Rao blurted out.

She did not even think before she said that. She said it subconsciously and her face immediately turned red as if Xia ruofei had discovered her secret. She felt guilty.

However, Xia ruofei did not think of it in any other way. Instead, he laughed happily.

Chapter 1412: If you don't leave me, I'll definitely ... (2)

He said, "I know that sister ran will definitely not leave me and the company behind!" That's why I can't treat sister ran badly! The million Yuan annual salary was set! When you first joined the company, the company didn't have much money. Now that we're making money, we'll definitely raise your salary, so don't reject it!"

Feng Jing could tell that Xia ruofei sincerely wanted to give her better treatment, and her heart was filled with warmth.

She gently nodded and said, "alright!" I'll go back and make some changes to the salary standard for M9!"

Xia ruofei said happily, "that's right!" I have no objections to the three proposals you came up with, except for the M9's salary. You have to give me some face for that, right?"

"This isn't child's play ..." Feng Rao didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Alright, alright, didn't I already agree to it?"

Feng Rao's tone was a little doting, and Xia ruofei's heart couldn't help but flutter. He couldn't help but look up at her and see a faint blush on her delicate face. Her delicate skin made her even more attractive, and Xia ruofei couldn't help but be in a daze.

Feng Rao felt Xia ruofei's gaze on her and her heart was racing. She quickly stood up and said, "Ruofei, I'll go back and revise the plan!"

Xia ruofei also came back to his senses. He stood up and said, "Alright! "Sister che, since we've decided to implement these plans, there are some things that we have to do first, especially the first appointment of personnel. This concerns everyone's immediate interests, so we must strictly follow the standards. The staff in human resources will have to work harder these few days. If necessary, make them work overtime!"

"I understand!" Feng Jing smiled. "I'll personally follow up on the personnel allocation. I won't allow any favoritism or fraud."

"I have absolute confidence in you. With your words, I can rest easy!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "by the way, our company's Annual Meeting is coming up in a few days. I've put forward a few changes to the proposal that the administrative department sent over last time. Tell them to change it quickly. I still want to take a look."

"Good! I'll get Liu Qian to pass down the message. " Feng Rao said with a smile.

Xia ruofei also took the company's first formal Annual Meeting very seriously. This was the first time he took the initiative to ask for a review of the annual meeting plan.

Hence, the administration naturally paid more attention to it. They had specially pulled out a team to handle the annual meeting and had even formulated a rather complete plan for Xia ruofei.

However, to Xia ruofei, their thinking was still not broad enough, especially in some key aspects, which seemed a little petty. So, he wrote down a few hundred words on the plan and then typed it back.

Xia ruofei personally sent Feng Jing to the door of her office and treated her well.

Back in his office, Xia ruofei leaned back in his office chair and heaved a long sigh.

This year was a year of leap – forward development for paradise Corporation. It could be said that through the accumulation of the previous year's half a year, the company's performance this year had also ushered in a huge explosion. At the same time, it had also laid a more solid foundation.

It could be imagined that the company's business would also show explosive growth next year.

At such a critical juncture, Feng Jing's three plans were timely and necessary.

Xia ruofei believed that as the headquarters moved to the city center and the three proposals were implemented one by one, the rise of paradise Corporation would be unstoppable.

He closed his eyes and rested for a while. Then, he heard a soft knock on the door.

Xia ruofei rubbed his eyes and sat up straight. "Please enter!"

It was the marketing director, Xiao Qiang, who came in. He was very efficient. Xia ruofei decided to start the pre – Appointment conversation today, so the first thing she did when she returned to her office was to inform Xiao Qiang to report to her.

Xiao Qiang didn't know why Xia ruofei was looking for him.

From what he could remember, this Big Boss didn't really manage the company. Feng Jing was in charge of almost all the company matters.

So at this moment, Xiao Qiang's heart was still a little nervous.

"President Xia, President Feng said that you were looking for me?" he asked carefully.

Xia ruofei had a gentle smile on his face. He pointed at the chair opposite his desk and said, "Director Xiao, please take a seat!"

He and Xiao Qiang didn't have any personal relationship and today was a very formal conversation, so Xia ruofei naturally wouldn't invite him to make tea.

"Thank you, director Xia!" Xiao Qiang quickly said and sat down on the chair opposite Xia ruofei. He looked at Xia ruofei seriously and pretended to listen.

"It's been almost a year since director Xiao came to our company, right?" Xia ruofei smiled.

"Yes! Time really flies!" Xiao Qiang replied while guessing Xia ruofei's purpose for looking for him.

"How does it feel in the company?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile as if he was having a casual conversation.

Xiao Qiang thought for a moment and then said, "President Xia, it feels great to work here! The company's management is more humane, and it's full of energy from top to bottom. The company's development momentum is so good that everyone's working very comfortably."

"Director Xiao, you've worked for the company for more than half a year. Your results are obvious to all." Xia ruofei nodded and said.

"President Xia, you're too kind. I'm just trying my best to do my job." Xiao Qiang replied humbly.

His heart was pounding. Xia ruofei was so friendly, and the content of their conversation was to ask about his years of work, to understand his feelings, and even to praise him.

According to common sense, it was not a good thing to say something nice at this time.

Could it be that the company wants to kick me out? Xiao Qiang couldn't help but feel a little panicked.

Logically speaking, the company's development was so good that almost every department was short of people. They had to hold a recruitment once in a while, so it was unlikely that they would lay off staff at this time!

Just as Xiao Qiang was worrying about his personal gains and losses, Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "Director Xiao, if the company decides to give you more responsibilities, how do you feel? Are you competent enough for the more important positions?"

Xia ruofei's words were like the sound of nature to Xiao Qiang. It was as if he had been hovering at the gates of hell a moment ago and had suddenly returned to the clouds. He was a little dizzy.

Fortunately, he had been a company executive for a long time, so he had a strong mental fortitude. He quickly reacted and said, "President Xia, I'll follow the company's arrangements!"

This could be considered a standard answer. Yingluo couldn't possibly say that he was definitely up to the task, right? The leader would not like such an arrogant person.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "to be honest, the next step of the company's structure adjustment is to absorb more middle – rank core members into the company's leadership. CEO Feng recommended you to me. He thinks you're more suitable for the position of como."

The big stone in Xiao Qiang's heart finally fell to the ground, and what replaced it was indescribable ecstasy.

Chief Marketing Officer. Although his scope of work was basically the same as the current marketing department, he was still the company's management, unlike now when he was only a Department Director.

Moreover, this was the first step of the company's organization. He was chosen for the first position in the company, instead of recruiting more experienced and capable people from outside. This also showed the trust the company's leaders had in him.

The salary and benefits of this job at paradise Corporation were good, and the most important thing was that the company's development prospects were too good. To be able to stay in the company and even be promoted to a more important leadership position, how could Xiao Qiang not be overjoyed?

“Thank you for your trust, President Xia and President Feng!” Xiao Qiang suppressed his excitement and quickly said, “I will definitely not let down the expectations of the company’s leaders. I will strive to achieve great results in my new position!”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. Then, he said some words of encouragement and put forward some requirements for Xiao Qiang’s work in the future. At the same time, he emphasized confidentiality. Before the company’s Annual Meeting, this matter could only be known to himself and could not be spread.

Xiao Qiang’s attitude was also very proper. When Xia ruofei gave instructions, he quickly wrote it down and nodded in response from time to time.

Xia ruofei acknowledged Xiao Qiang’s ability and quality. Otherwise, he would not have agreed to Feng Jing’s suggestion so readily.

Therefore, he didn’t talk too much about the specific work. After a few simple instructions, he said, “”Director Xiao, let’s stop here for today! Please call director pang from the finance department over. ”

Chapter 1413: The start of the annual meeting (1)

When Xiao Qiang heard this, he knew that pang Hao would be appointed as the Chief Financial Officer, which was the CFO. He couldn’t help feeling envious.

In fact, as someone who had come from a famous school, Xiao Qiang looked down on pang Hao, who didn’t have a high educational background. This was also a common problem among the elites of famous schools, which was to judge people with colored glasses.

However, pang Hao and Xia ruofei were classmates. Xia ruofei’s position in the company was stable, second only to the General Manager, Feng Jing. Xiao Qiang could not be envious of this.

He quickly adjusted his attitude, stood up, and said respectfully, “”Alright, President Xia, I’ll inform him immediately! Then I’ll go down first ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. He stood up and said, “”President Xiao, work hard in the future! The company won’t mistreat meritorious officials!”

Xiao Qiang’s heart was filled with excitement, and he felt somewhat flattered.

Director Xiao and President Xiao might only have a difference of one word, but their meanings were completely different.

The director was the Head of the Department, while President Xiao was the head of the company.

“Of course, of course!” Xiao Qiang quickly replied. President Xia, please wait!”

After he finished speaking, he hurriedly bowed slightly to Xia ruofei and left the office in quick steps. He did not dare to let Xia ruofei personally send him out.

In fact, Xia ruofei was just pretending to get up. He had no intention of seeing Xiao Qiang out.

After Xiao Qiang left, Xia ruofei sat down and started scribbling in his notebook. He was mainly jotting down his judgment of Xiao Qiang from the conversation just now.

Now, Xia ruofei was becoming more and more like the head of the company. Even though he did not do anything most of the time, his prestige in the hearts of the employees had never diminished. Even Feng Jing could not compare to him.

Very quickly, pang Hao knocked on the door and entered the office. He said, ""President Xia, you're looking for me?"

After more than a year of experience, pang Hao had become more mature. He did not feel superior just because he was Xia ruofei's classmate. On the contrary, he had always been in a state of vigilance, reminding himself not to be arrogant because of the favor he received, and even more so, not to embarrass Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "fatty, there's no one else in the office. Why do you have to be so formal?" Sit, sit, sit, I'm just looking for you to have a casual chat ..."

Pang Hao was much more relaxed after hearing that. He sat down on the chair opposite Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei pushed the cup of tea over and said, ""Have some tea, we'll chat while drinking!"

He used the large teacup that was used to serve guests. After all, today was a formal conversation between the two of them. He did not want to make it too casual. It was not okay for the two of them to make Kung Fu Tea and chat at the same time.

"Ruofei, if there's anything you need, just give me a call and give me instructions!" Pang Hao said with a smile.

Xia ruofei chuckled. "Fatty, I called you here today to tell you that our company will be undergoing structural adjustments and optimization soon. Hmm...In general, we'll be using the Company group's structure, so the number of people in the company's leadership has also been expanded. I've discussed with director Feng and we've decided that you'll be the company's CFO, which is the Chief Financial Officer."

When pang Hao heard this, he could not help but reveal a surprised expression. His mouth was slightly agape, and the amiable smile on his face seemed to have frozen.

It was obvious that the good news came too suddenly for him.

Xia ruofei found it funny and waved his hand in front of pang Hao. ""Hey! My soul has returned!"

"Ruofei, you're not joking with me, are you?" pang Hao snapped back to his senses.

"Nonsense! How can I joke about such a serious matter?" Xia ruofei said unhappily, "what? You don't seem to be willing?"

"Of course I'm a hundred, a thousand times more willing!" Pang Hao laughed bitterly. Who doesn't like to be promoted?"

Pang Hao was closer to Xia ruofei, so he didn't have to think for a long time before speaking like Xiao Qiang. He didn't need to figure out the meaning of Xia ruofei's words because Xia ruofei would definitely not beat around the bush when speaking to him. Whatever she said would definitely be what it was, without any hidden meaning.

Pang Hao then changed the topic and said, "Ruofei, I'm just worried that I'm not capable enough. Will it delay my work? You see, President Feng, director Xiao, and the others all graduated from famous schools, while I'm only in a Junior College ..."

"I don't like to hear that. So what if you're a Junior College student?" Xia ruofei said, "haven't you been doing well for the past year? I don't see you making any mistakes in your work! Besides ... Aren't you also self-studying finance?"

"That's different ..."

"Different my ass!" Xia ruofei ruthlessly interrupted Pang Hao's words and said, "according to your theory, I should be guarding the door. After all, I haven't even gone to college ..."

"You're the boss, how is that the same?" Pang Hao smiled and said, "the big bosses like Bill Gates and Zuckerberg dropped out of college!"

"I think you just don't have the confidence!" Xia ruofei said, "isn't it just a CFO? Wasn't the work about those things? Could it be more complicated than being the financial director now? Are you afraid of people gossiping?"

"Not exactly ..." Pang Hao said with a bitter smile. "There's also the worry about his ability. After all, the company is developing faster and faster, and the scale is getting bigger and bigger. The complexity of the financial work is also increasing exponentially ..."

"You brat, your brain must be flooded!" Xia ruofei said resentfully, "you're the leader! Leader, do you understand? Leave the specific work to the subordinates. Your responsibility is to helm the ship! The entire finance department has to help me look after this! If you think the work is too complicated, then just continue to build a strong team! Our company is hiring every few days, so why don't you report your requirements!"

Chapter 1414: The start of the annual meeting (2)

"I understand!" Pang Hao said. Ruofei, I won't say anything else. Since this brother trusts me so much, then I'll definitely keep an eye on the money bag of our paradise Corporation!"

"This is right!" Xia ruofei finally smiled and said, "this is the attitude I want! I'm not asking for your opinion today, I'm just informing you! Don't you dare think of leaving!"

Pang Hao was one of Xia ruofei's few good friends in middle school. Besides, Xia ruofei knew him very well and trusted him absolutely. He had to help such a good brother.

Xia ruofei did not wish for his Good Brothers to fall behind one by one when the company's scale grew bigger and bigger, including ye Lingyun and the Veterans.

Pang Hao revealed an excited expression and said, "I understand! Don't worry about the finance department, ruofei!"

Xia ruofei nodded with relief and said, "If you really feel that you're lacking in ability, you can also apply for further studies. You can pick any of those famous schools overseas! The company will be responsible for all your expenses!"

"If there's a chance in the future, I'll definitely go there for further studies!" Pang Hao replied, "but not in the near future! Since the company is going to start restructuring and set up a branch company, the finance department will also have to be separated from each other. There's too much work, and I won't be able to leave for a few months. "

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "then let's wait until we have some free time!" By the way, little fatty, the company's reshuffling is still in a confidential stage. Just keep it in mind and don't spread it around!"

"Alright! I'll definitely keep my mouth shut!" Pang Hao said.

Very quickly, Xia ruofei ended the conversation with pang Hao. The two of them were good friends, so they did not have to make any requests or make any hopes.

Just as pang Hao was about to stand up and leave, he suddenly thought of something and plopped back into his seat.

"Ruofei," he said, "Guanping doesn't seem to be very happy in the company recently ... He came to me for a drink last week and complained!"

Guan Ping was Xia ruofei's classmate who was working as a real estate agent in a second – hand house trading company. When Xia ruofei bought the villa on the farm, Guan Ping had been busy with all the relevant procedures and helped Xia ruofei settle them for free.

At that time, the landlord of the villa was overseas, so he entrusted a friend in the country to manage it. Xia ruofei still remembered that the agent, Zhao Xueqing, was quite good – looking and Guanping seemed to be interested in her.

Xia ruofei had once extended an olive branch to Guan Ping, but at that time, Guan Ping's job was quite stable. Moreover, the income of the second – hand real estate agency was not bad in recent years, so he did not take the initiative to work at peach blossom company. Xia ruofei could not keep asking.

After that, Xia ruofei was busy with the company's Affairs and they did not contact each other as much as before.

However, from pang Hao's words, it seemed that he had quite a few connections with Guan Ping.

When they were still studying, Xia ruofei, pang Hao, and Guan Ping were the closest to each other. To Xia ruofei, the only classmates who still kept in touch after graduation were pang Hao and Guan Ping.

Xia ruofei frowned and said, "This kid never told me! Do you still treat me as your brother?"

Pang Hao laughed. "You can't blame Guanping. You're usually too busy, always running around. Even I rarely see you in the company. He might be too embarrassed to disturb you!"

"Bullshit!" Xia ruofei said, "I think this kid is treating me as an outsider! Later, you can arrange for the three of us to have a meal together. I have to give him a good scolding!"

"Alright!" Pang Hao said, "I'll try to arrange for everyone to get together before the new year. Just the three of us!"

Pang Hao knew that as long as he mentioned it, Xia ruofei would definitely take it to heart. By then, he would not need to say anything. Xia ruofei would naturally come out to help Guan Ping.

The Paradise Corporation was developing rapidly and there were many jobs that were lacking. Guan Ping was Xia ruofei's good friend and he was quite capable himself, so he was very suitable for the sales position at the Paradise Corporation.

"En!" Xia ruofei nodded and said, "let me know the time after you've made the reservation. I'll arrange the place!"

"Understood!" Pang Hao nodded and said, "then I'll take my leave first!"

With that, Pang Hao stood up and left Xia ruofei's office.

In the next few days, the Human Resources Department of Paradise Corporation began to get busy.

They began to draw up various evaluation tables, and then went down to various departments, farms, and pharmaceutical factories to conduct staff evaluations.

At the same time, there was also a group of people working overtime to check everyone's files. From time to time, someone would receive a notice to check the information or to fill in the information.

The people below were also discussing animatedly. Some said that this was in preparation for the year-end bonus; Some said that this was to promote a group of people to middle-ranking leadership positions. In short, there were all kinds of speculations.

However, most of the speculations were on the bright side. After all, the company was developing well, the employees were working hard, and the internal atmosphere was harmonious. It was unlikely that there would be layoff or other negative news at this time.

Xia ruofei, Feng Jing, and the others were aware of the discussion, but they did not interfere as long as it did not affect the order of work.

In fact, including Xiao Qiang, Pang Hao, and several people who were going to be promoted to the director of the new department and the leader of the branch, they were all aware of the company's possible actions. However, they were asked to keep it a secret, so they could not disclose it to their subordinates. They just wanted everyone to work with peace of mind and not be distracted by these things.

Time flew by, and it was soon the new year.

The annual meeting of the Paradise Corporation was held as scheduled in the grand banquet hall on the third floor of the Shangri – La hotel.

Apart from the necessary staff on duty and the workers at the pharmaceutical factory who ensured the production line ran, most of the employees of paradise Corporation came to attend the Annual Meeting.

There were more than 20 tables in the big banquet hall.

Of course, the employees who could not attend the Annual Meeting could also get a number on top of the high overtime pay. They could also enjoy the lucky draw benefits at the annual meeting.

As for whether he could win the grand prize or only the general award, it would depend on his character.

The banquet hall had been redecorated in advance, with many s of the Paradise Corporation set up. There was also a huge spray – painted background board on the stage. In addition to the Paradise corporation’s and some of the main products ‘images, there was also a line of striking big words: “paradise corporation’s New Year Meeting.”

The company’s executives were all dressed to the nines. Xia ruofei had also changed into a hand – made suit that was only worn for formal occasions. His well – proportioned and strong figure was set off by the custom – made suit that was exquisite in every detail, making him stand out even more.

At around Sixo’ clock in the evening, the employees began to enter the venue.

Before entering the venue, everyone would receive a lottery ticket. When they entered the venue, the secondary ticket had already been placed in the lottery box.

Tonight’s Annual Meeting had a lot of lucky draws. Although no one knew what the prize was, everyone knew that Xia ruofei was a generous boss. It was the company’s first annual meeting and the prizes would definitely not be shabby.

Therefore, everyone was looking forward to it. After taking their seats, they looked around and greeted those familiar with them while discussing in low voices.

Xia ruofei also got along with the staff and greeted them with a smile and a nod from time to time. The annual meeting had not started yet, but the banquet hall was already filled with a joyous and harmonious atmosphere.

Xia ruofei was talking to Feng Rao in a low voice when a few more people entered the banquet hall.

He looked up and couldn’t help but reveal a trace of surprise, looking quite surprised ...

Chapter 1415: The atmosphere is hot (1)

Xia ruofei saw Luo Xing, who was about to be promoted to the director of the e – commerce business department, walking into the banquet hall with another person.

This person was Lin Qiao. As soon as she entered the door, her eyes had accurately found Xia ruofei. She smiled at Xia ruofei sweetly with a trace of pride.

Xia ruofei was stunned. Didn't Qiao'er say that she would only be back tomorrow? Why did he return to San Shan tonight and even appear at the company's Annual Meeting ...

Feng Rao seemed to know that Lin Qiao would come. Seeing Xia ruofei's dazed look, she couldn't help but smile and touch Xia ruofei. "Chairman, what are you doing? Aren't you going to welcome him?"

Xia ruofei turned to look at Feng Rao and asked, "What's going on? So you guys were secretly playing tricks and kept me in the dark?"

While Xia ruofei and Feng Jing were talking, Lin Qiao and Luo Xing had already walked over.

Hearing Xia ruofei's words, Lin Qiao couldn't help but smile and said coyly, "Brother ruofei, what are you saying? I'm still considered half an employee of paradise Corporation, right? Don't you have the right to attend the Annual Meeting?"

Xia ruofei replied unhappily, "I'm not talking about that!" You little girl ... Didn't you send me a WeChat message a few days ago, saying that you're going back to Sanshan tomorrow morning? Can you explain why you're in the three mountains now? I really believed your lies ..."

Feng Rao laughed and said, "Chairman ... I've discussed this with Lin Qiao!" I just wanted to give you a surprise!"

Lin Qiao also smiled and said, "brother ruofei, I didn't lie to you!" I can't buy a high – speed rail ticket back today. I originally booked a ticket for tomorrow morning! Later, when I talked to President Feng about this, she said that it would be a pity if I couldn't attend the company's Annual Meeting today. She had a friend who drove back to Sanshan from Heron Island today, so she dropped me off ... If you don't believe me, I can show you the ticket refund record!"

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry as he said, "no need, no need ... You guys have really kept it from me for so long!" Isn't this too well – kept?"

Lin Qiao stuck out her tongue and said, "President Feng told me not to tell you in advance. Then, I suddenly appeared in front of you to see if you were scared ..."

Feng Rao couldn't help but say, "Lin Qiao, you're being a little unkind!" How could you sell me out so easily?"

Xia ruofei said, "Okay, okay, you two don't have to sing the same tune!" The annual meeting is about to begin. Qiao'er, you can find a place to sit by yourself!"

Luo Xing quickly said, "director Xia, everything has been arranged on our side. Lin Qiao is very familiar with our colleagues in the e – commerce Department. Let her sit with us!"

Xia ruofei glanced at Luo Xing and said, "So you knew in advance that Qiao'er was coming back today?"

Luo Xing scratched his head in embarrassment and laughed awkwardly.

“Alright, alright, you can bring Qiao’ er over!” Xia ruofei said.

“I know!” Lin Qiao said with a smile. Brother ruofei, you can’t be mad at President Feng and manager Luo!”

“Now you know how to be a good person?” Xia ruofei glanced at Lin Qiao and said, “I must punish President Feng and Luo Xing!”

Feng Rao couldn’t help but laugh, “alright! Why was such a Big Boss competing with a little girl! Lin Qiao, ignore your brother and go with Luo Xing!”

“I know!” Lin Qiao winked at Feng Jing as she spoke. Then, she giggled and glanced at Xia ruofei before following Luo Xing to the e – commerce Department.

Most of the staff had arrived. At this time, the warm music gradually weakened, and the general assistant of tonight’s host, Liu Qian, walked onto the stage in an evening dress with a smile.

Liu Qian was a multi – talented girl. She had hosted campus singing competitions, freshmen welcoming parties, graduation parties, and so on when she was in University. Hence, after discussing with Xia ruofei, Feng Jing decided to let her host the annual meeting.

As soon as Liu Qian went on stage, the employees slowly quieted down. Whether they were chatting or playing with their mobile phones, they all stopped and focused their attention on the stage.

It could be seen that the discipline of peach blossom company’s employees was not bad.

Liu Qian held the microphone and said with a smile, “Good evening, my fellow colleagues! Welcome, everyone, to the venue of our paradise corporation’s annual party! I’m tonight’s host, Liu Qian!”

As soon as she finished speaking, the audience immediately broke into a warm round of applause.

A few young people who were familiar with Liu Qian in the company headquarters even screamed.

Liu Qian played it off, “yo!” Why are there still people jeering? Don’t hide, I’m talking about you! Xue Xiang! Do you still want to win the lottery later?”

Everyone burst into laughter. Xue Xiang, who was called out by Liu Qian, pretended to be very afraid and kept bowing.

Liu Qian chuckled, then immediately returned to the main topic.

She said, “tonight, all the employees of paradise Corporation are gathered together. Everyone has worked hard for the past year. Today, President Xia and President Feng will be celebrating the New Year together!” They have also prepared very generous prizes for everyone, which will be given out in many of the lucky draw segments tonight! President Xia will also announce several important decisions that are related to everyone’s interests!”

When everyone heard this, their interest increased. They all perked up their ears and stared at Liu Qian, afraid to miss any important content.

Chapter 1416: The atmosphere is hot (2)

Unexpectedly, Liu Qian giggled and said, "You don't have to look at me like that. Actually, I don't know what the prize is, nor do I know what big news President Xia is going to announce. Every word I said was written on the cue card! I'm more interested in the details than any of you!"

The employees laughed when they heard that. The tense atmosphere suddenly became relaxed.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. He found that Liu Qian was very suitable to host such an Annual Meeting. She was very relaxed on stage and was good at adjusting the rhythm.

Liu Qian continued, "in order to prepare for tonight's Annual Meeting, the colleagues from all departments of the company have carefully prepared programs. While everyone is tasting the food, they can also enjoy the wonderful programs of their colleagues!" Now, let's invite the staff of the pharmaceutical factory to bring us a C – Li C – li dance!"

In the midst of the applause, ten employees of paradise pharmaceutical factory walked onto the stage. They were wearing the pharmaceutical factory's uniform, but when the magical "Panama" song started playing, the ten employees immediately started dancing in unison.

This song was sung by a Romania singer. Recently, it had been choreographed online and made into a video that was posted on some Short Video platforms. It went viral very quickly.

The rhythm was very light, the dance was very simple, and the melody was full of magic. It could be said that it was suitable for both young and old, and it became the divine song of the new generation without any suspense.

It could be seen that the staff of the pharmaceutical factory had rehearsed seriously. Although their expressions were a little reserved, their dance moves were on point, and their steps were very accurate, so their movements were also quite neat.

After the dance, the atmosphere of the annual staff party became even more lively.

At this time, Liu Qian also came up to the stage, leaving the lead dancer who was about to leave.

Liu Qian did a short impromptu interview on the spot. The lead dancer was called Jiang Xiaojuan, born after the 90s. She first learned today's program online, then taught it to her co – workers and took them to rehearse together.

Liu Qian asked Jiang Xiaojuan to stay on the stage, then said with a smile, "Dear colleagues, today's first round of the lucky draw has arrived. I suggest that we let Jiang Xiaojuan draw for everyone, what do you think?"

"Alright!"

"No problem!"

“Beauty, you have to pick me!”

The staff answered one after another, and they all began to look forward to it.

Liu Qian blinked and said, “I’ve finally gotten a new teleprompter card. Let’s see what the first prize is.”

As she spoke, she slowly unfolded the teleprompter card with a very nervous expression on her face.

This scene made everyone laugh. Everyone knew that even if Liu Qian did not know what Xia ruofei was going to announce, as the host of the party, she would definitely know what the prize was.

Liu Qian was only acting to adjust the atmosphere.

Although her acting was a little exaggerated, everyone was quite happy to see it.

Liu Qian looked at it and quickly closed the cue card, then said, “The first batch of prizes to be drawn will be tonight’s sixth prize! There are a total of 50 winners, and we will first invite Jiang Xiaojuan to pick 10 lucky ones!”

“Oh ... I think I forgot to see what the prize is ...” Liu Qian patted her head and said.

Everyone burst into laughter, and several employees who were more familiar with Liu Qian couldn’t help but cheer.

“Liu Qian, you’re such a drama queen!”

“You’re addicted to acting!”

“General assistant Liu! Stop acting! Your mom is calling you home for dinner!”

“Hahaha ...”

Liu Qian wasn’t affected at all. She carefully opened the cue card and quickly glanced at it before saying, “Amazing, it’s just the sixth prize and there’s ... A kyokuboku shopping center E – Card worth 3000 Yuan! Then what about the fifth, fourth, and third prize ... And even the special prize? I’m really looking forward to it ...”

After Liu Qian revealed the answer, the staff were also very excited.

The kyokuboku E – Card was actually a shopping card that could be used in full at kyokuboku shopping mall. Kyokuboku shopping mall was already the second – best e – commerce company, and they had a rich variety of goods, especially for their own businesses. Not only was the logistics fast, the quality was good, and the after – Sales quality was also very high. Therefore, this 3000 Yuan kyokuboku E – Card was worth 3000 Yuan.

This was only the sixth prize, and there were already 50 winners, which was definitely a huge sum of money. After all, there were only about 300 people in the entire paradise Corporation.

Liu Qian personally brought the lucky draw box up and placed it on the small stage in the middle of the stage. Then she said to Jiang Xiaojuan, “Xiaojuan, please help us draw 10 lottery tickets!”

Jiang Xiaojuan nodded and nervously reached into the lottery box. After stirring it a few times, she pulled out a lottery ticket and put it on the tray next to the lottery box.

Then, she did the same thing. Before each draw, she would mess up the lottery tickets in the box and quickly pulled out all ten lottery tickets.

“Alright, let’s give a round of warm applause to thank Xiao Juan again!” Liu Qian said.

Jiang Xiaojuan left the stage amidst the applause, while Liu Qian began to announce the winning numbers.

“No. 012! Number 213! “No. 162 ...” Liu Qian announced the winning number while showing the secondary ticket in her hand to the camera.

The camera gave a close – up shot, and everyone could clearly see the lottery ticket number on the big screen.

The employees who were called all walked up to the stage happily.

Among the first ten sixth – Prize Winners, eight of the employees were present, and two of the winners were on duty at the Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory.

In terms of probability, this was a more reasonable result.

Liu Qian also made a special live link and video – connected with the staff outside the venue who won the prize, so that everyone could interact with each other.

The worker who won the prize was also very surprised. When he heard that he had won an E – Card worth 3000 Yuan, he thought that he had won the annual meeting’s grand prize and was quite excited. The employees who knew the situation couldn’t help but laugh.

Later, when the worker found out that his 3000 Yuan E – Card was only the sixth prize, he didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. However, he quickly realized that the sixth prize was a 3000 Yuan E – Card. What kind of grand prizes were those? Therefore, he quickly expressed his gratitude to the company’s leader.

After the connection ended, the second program began immediately.

This was a female choral performance brought by the beautiful women of the marketing department, which also won the hall.

After the performance, Liu Qian asked one of the employees to stay as usual and began the second round of the lucky draw.

“In the second round of the lucky draw, we’ll first draw ten sixth – Prize Winners with 3000 Yuan E – cards and five fifth – Prize Winners. We have a total of 20 fifth prize winners, and they will be drawn in batches ...”

The lucky draw segment for this year’s Annual Meeting was the highlight. The team in charge of the preparations for the annual meeting had discussed it many times and finally decided not to use the conventional procedure of starting from the lowest – Level prize and finishing the draw in one go.

This was because it would lead to a large number of people who won the prize, but the attraction was relatively low. When it came to the grand prize, although the attraction of the prize was great, the probability of winning was very low, causing everyone's psychological gap.

Therefore, after some discussion, the final plan was to draw the various awards alternately, roughly following the order from the lowest to the highest.

That was why they had made such an arrangement.

"Lu Meimei will draw the sixth prize for the second batch of 10 winners, and then we will ask manager Luo from the e-commerce Group to draw the fifth prize for the first batch of 5 winners." Liu Qian said, "let's invite manager Luo on stage!"

After Luo Xing went on stage, he walked straight to Liu Qian and took her microphone, "General assistant Liu, on behalf of the colleagues in the audience, I would like to ask you something. You've been blabbering for so long, what exactly is this fifth prize?"

Liu Qian was stunned for a moment, and then she said in a daze, "I didn't say that just now?"

Everyone burst into laughter.

"Alright! Liu Qian said, 'let's see ... The fifth prize is ...'"

Chapter 1417: Personally on the stage (1)

Liu Qian deliberately paused for a moment, then quickly glanced at the cue card in her hand, and then said in an exaggerated tone, "20 fifth-prize prizes, and it's actually a 5000 Yuan kyokuboku mall E-Card! This was too big of a deal! I can't wait for the grand prize, just let me win the fifth prize ..."

Liu Qian's funny tone made everyone smile. At the same time, they were looking forward to the lucky draw even more. As Liu Qian said, the fifth prize was already very attractive. There was a whole 5000 Yuan E-Card, and there were 20 spots. The probability of winning was quite high.

The employees who didn't win the lottery before were also starting to hope for their good luck. After all, they had only drawn 10 sixth-prize prizes, 40 3000-Yuan sixth-prize E-cards, 20 5000-Yuan fifth-prize cards, and even more big prizes were waiting for them!

Liu Qian quickly asked the female employee surnamed Lu to draw 10 sixth-Prize Winners, but she did not announce it immediately. Instead, she put the vouchers on the tray and asked Luo Xing to draw five fifth-Prize Winners.

After the lucky draw, Liu Qian expressed her gratitude to the two of them and asked them to take their seats. Then, she began to announce the winners of the two awards.

This time, they did not keep him in suspense. After all, there were still many segments to the annual meeting. It was fine to adjust the atmosphere occasionally. Otherwise, the pace would be a little delayed.

Every time Liu Qian announced a number, the camera would give a close – up of the lottery ticket. Everyone could clearly see the number on the lottery ticket on the big screen.

Out of the 10 sixth prize winners, nine of them were won by the staff in the venue, and the five fifth prize winners were all won by the staff in the venue.

Xia ruofei was sitting at Table 1. He smiled at Feng Jing, who was beside him.”CEO Feng, it seems like the employees who didn’t make it here are not very lucky ...”

Feng Rao giggled,”the grand prize is coming!” I also hope that the staff who are on duty or working overtime today can win more prizes. They are really working too hard. ”

Xia ruofei nodded in agreement as he watched the employees go on stage to receive the prizes.

The E – cards for the two awards were specially made physical cards. After the card secret was removed, one could top – up any account in kyokuboku mall.

The of paradise Corporation was also printed on the card. E – cards with different amounts of money had the same pattern, but the color was different.

The cooperation between Taoyuan company and kyokuboku shopping mall was very close, so it was naturally easy to coordinate and customize a specialized E – Card.

The annual meeting continued.

In the third round of the lucky draw, he drew the 20th place sixth prize, which was an E – Card worth 3000 Yuan.

Similarly, as many as 17 employees won the prize, and only three employees who were not present won.

The pace of the annual meeting was very fast. Not only were snacks such as peanuts and melon seeds provided, but there were also steak, foie gras, and other Western food. Although the combination was a little strange, it ensured that no one would go hungry. After eating, they would crack melon seeds, peel oranges, and chat. This made the atmosphere better.

Every department had carefully prepared small programs, and the large departments with more employees had also prepared many programs.

Basically, there would be a round of lucky draws after a performance.

In the fourth round, the last ten sixth – Place prizes were drawn, and the fifth – Place prize was drawn.

After the next round of performances, the fourth prize was finally revealed.

“My dear colleagues, the fourth prize is the latest iPhone 8, and there are 15 winners in total!” Liu Qian said excitedly. If I had known earlier, I wouldn’t have prayed that I would hit the jackpot. I’ve wanted to change my phone for a long time!”

Everyone couldn't help but laugh when they heard that. Liu Qian would always nag during every round of the lucky draw, and her prayers had really come true in the last round. She had won an E – Card worth 5000 Yuan.

In this round, the remaining 10 5000 – Yuan E – Card winners and 5 iPhone 8 winners were selected.

Just as Liu Qian was announcing the winning numbers, Xia ruofei heard a cry of surprise from behind.

“Argh! I ... I won the lottery?”

It was Lin Qiao's voice. Xia ruofei couldn't help but turn around and see Lin Qiao waving her hand with the lottery ticket in embarrassment. “I'm No. 169. I think I've won the iPhone 8!”

Luo Xing chuckled and said, “Lin Qiao is so lucky! Hurry up and go on stage to receive your award!”

Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile. He didn't expect this girl's luck to be so good. 15 out of more than 300 people. The probability wasn't too high, but she actually won.

Lin Qiao said with embarrassment, “This ... This isn't very good! I'm just here to join in the fun. Besides, I'm not an employee of the company! It's a little against the rules for me to win the prize ...”

“Who dares to say that you're not an employee?” Luo Xing asked. You've done so much for the company during the summer and you're only getting that little bit of internship allowance. It's basically free work!”

The employees of the e – commerce Department also echoed and urged Lin Qiao to go on stage to receive the award.

Although these employees didn't know that the e – commerce Department was going to form an independent business department, they usually worked together, so they all sat at one or two tables nearby. They were all colleagues who were familiar with Lin Qiao.

Xia ruofei also turned around and smiled. “Qiao' er, don't let the emcee wait too long. Go up and receive your award!”

Lin Qiao blushed and said, “Brother ruofei, I ... I have an iPhone! I don't need it anymore. Why don't we get them to draw another one ...”

“Yours is from the previous generation!” Xia ruofei laughed and said, “the prize this time is the latest one. It's much more powerful! Quickly go and receive your award!”

Chapter 1418: Personally on stage (2)

“Oh ...” Lin Qiao stuck out her tongue and walked up to the stage with a red face under everyone's kind laughter. She received the prize with several other lucky employees.

“Brother ruofei, how about ... I give you this phone!” When Lin Qiao passed by Xia ruofei’s table, she stopped and said, “my phone is still new. I don’t need to change it ...”

“I don’t need it either ...” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “I think you should just get a new phone!” You can give godmother the one she used before. Teach her how to use the internet and video chat while you’re at it. I think it’s necessary for her to get a new smartphone so that she can video call you when she misses you in the future.”

Lin Qiao felt that Xia ruofei’s suggestion was good, so she smiled and said, “Alright then! I’ll listen to you!”

The annual meeting continued and the lucky draw segment came one after another. Everyone was both nervous and excited.

The employees who had won the prize before were also laughing and watching the show, paying attention to whether their colleagues around them had won.

After the 15 iPhone 8s, the third prize was 10 Mac laptops. The value of the prize had reached more than 10000 Yuan.

As expected, Feng Jing was right. For the next few awards, the off – site staff’s winning rate also increased. Out of the 10 Apple laptops, five of them were won by off – site staff.

The number of staff present today was almost twice that of the staff who were not present. Half of the third prize was drawn by the off – site staff, which was a very high probability.

After the third prize was given out, Liu Qian returned to the stage.

She looked at the staff in the banquet hall with a smile and said, “My dear colleagues, I can see that the atmosphere of the annual meeting is already very lively! Next, let’s add some fuel to the fire! Let’s give a round of warm applause to the company’s chairman, Mr. Xia ruofei. President Xia will be personally bringing a performance to everyone!”

As soon as Liu Qian’s voice fell, thunderous applause sounded in the hall, accompanied by screams, as if a big star had appeared.

Xia ruofei smiled and stood up. He adjusted his suit and buttoned it up. Then, he walked onto the stage and took the microphone from Liu Qian.

Xia ruofei didn’t say anything. He only nodded at the staff in charge of the mixer.

A melodious folk song started playing. Xia ruofei slowly brought the microphone to his mouth and his expression became extremely calm.

Mom was sitting in front of the door.

Humming the flower and youth

Although many years had passed,

He remembered her tears.

.....

This was a familiar folk song by Xu Wei. Xia ruofei's voice was a little low, similar to Xu Wei's, but not a complete imitation.

Especially after he had cultivated the great Dao Arts, his voice had naturally become more touching. It was just like how his appearance was not considered handsome, but it made people feel very comfortable.

Everyone was unknowingly attracted by Xia ruofei's voice.

Soon, they came to the chorus. Xia ruofei, who had been singing in a low voice, suddenly raised his pitch.

Life is not as simple as the present.

And poetry and the distant fields

You came to the world empty – handed

In order to find that sea, he would do anything.

.....

I walk further and further away alone

There's a teenager at my knees.

The young man grew up day by day.

One day when I have to leave home

.....

When Xia ruofei sang this part, Feng Jing and Lin Qiao, who were in the audience, felt their hearts skip a beat as if they had seen the future. Their hearts started to beat faster and their minds were controlled ...

It wasn't until the song ended and the staff applauded that the two of them came back to their senses, and their faces were flushed.

The reviews for this song on the internet were mixed. The main criticism was because of the lyrics, and many people began to make fun of it, such as "life is not just a temporary one," "a long – term one" and so on.

However, it was undeniable that the song had a positive meaning and Xia ruofei's performance was very successful. The applause was not because of his status as the chairman, but from the bottom of their hearts.

Xia ruofei waited for the applause to die down before he smiled and said, "This song is dedicated to all of our colleagues. I also hope that we can accompany each other all the way and walk together into the distance that belongs to our paradise Corporation!"

"Thank you, director Xia! Well said!" Liu Qian said.

Then, she revealed a sweet smile and said, ""Next, we will invite President Xia to draw the five second prize winners for us. Of course, before that, I would like to ..."

"Student Liu Qian, if you keep us in suspense, you're going to anger the public!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "that's why I've decided not to give you the chance. I'll announce the second prize myself!"

"Hahaha!"

"There's finally someone who can deal with her!"

"Well done, President Xia!"

The employees were also making a ruckus.

Liu Qian pretended to be aggrieved and said, "President ... I'm doing this for the show's effect,"

Then, she immediately smiled and said, "President Xia, please tell everyone what the second prize is tonight!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "okay!" I'm sure everyone has seen the special glass room next to the stage, right?"

There was a small glass room at the side of the stage. It was similar to a shower room in the bathroom. Everyone noticed it as soon as they entered the banquet hall, and many wondered what it was for.

Now that Xia ruofei had mentioned it, it seemed that the second prize was related to The Glass Room.

The employees started to make guesses.

Xia ruofei didn't beat around the bush and said directly, ""Our second prize will be given out in cash directly. However, how much you can get will depend on your ability!"

Xia ruofei pointed at The Glass Room and said, ""The colleague who is chosen will get a chance to enter The Glass Room to 'fish for money'. We will put in at least 150000 Yuan in cash. The winning colleague needs to use a net bag. However much money he can get in 30 seconds is his!"

"Waa!"

"Awesome!"

"President Xia really doesn't lack money! This award is interesting!"

The employees all started clapping.

Xia ruofei laughed. "This award is purely about giving out money. There won't be any air blower or anything like that. There won't be any net either. In short, there's no trick. How much you earn will depend on your skills!"

Everyone laughed out loud, and a bolder employee said, ""President Xia, let's draw the lottery! We can't wait!"

"God, please let me hit the jackpot!"

"I was wondering why I didn't win anything earlier. So this award was waiting for me!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "let's cut the chit – chat and start the lottery!" Liu Qian, bring the prize box over!"

"They're coming!" Liu Qian quickly walked to the center of the stage with the lottery box in her arms.

Xia ruofei took the lucky draw box and shook it a few times. Then, he reached in and stirred it a few times before he finally pulled out a ticket.

Xia ruofei pretended to pass the lottery ticket to Liu Qian. Just as Liu Qian reached out her hand, Xia ruofei pulled it back.

"I've decided to announce the winning numbers myself!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Seeing Liu Qian, who had been keeping everyone in suspense the whole night, being played by Xia ruofei, the staff felt that it was especially funny.

Liu Qian also showed a wronged look and said, ""President Xia, if you don't want to give me the lottery ticket, can you not reach out to me?"

Xia ruofei blinked and said innocently, ""I just wanted to raise my hand to see what time it was ..."

"Hahaha!" The staff couldn't hold it in any longer and burst into laughter.

After making a small joke, Xia ruofei returned to the main topic. He switched the ticket to his left hand and reached in with his right hand. He stirred a few times and drew the second ticket.

Then, the third, fourth, and fifth.

All five vouchers were drawn out. Everyone's heart started to beat faster and their eyes were all on the vouchers in Xia ruofei's hands.

Chapter 1419: RUO Fei fishing for money (1)

"Number 33 ... Number 8 ..."

Xia ruofei started to announce the number of the winning ticket. The audience cheered from time to time. The staff who won the prize were so excited that their faces turned red. The colleagues at the same table also urged them to treat. The atmosphere was very lively.

However, when Xia ruofei finished announcing the fourth number and picked up the fifth ticket, he stopped and had a strange look on his face.

Everyone was confused. At first, they thought that Xia ruofei had learned from Liu Qian and was trying to keep them in suspense.

The cameraman was still working loyally. Although Xia ruofei was stuck, the close – up shot of the ticket was still transmitted to the big screen.

Everyone naturally turned their attention to the big screen. At first, it was silent, but after a few seconds, they all laughed out loud in unison.

There was a number printed on the lottery ticket, "Cricket 1".

Everyone knew that lottery ticket No. 1 corresponded to Xia ruofei, and lottery ticket No. 2 corresponded to Feng Jing.

So Xia ruofei had drawn his lot just now!

No wonder he looked like he had seen a ghost. There were hundreds of lottery tickets in the lottery box, and he actually drew his own number. This was too much of a coincidence!

Xia ruofei's brain worked quickly, and then he smiled and said, "As everyone can see, I'm the last second prize winner. I'll follow the rules of the game and be the last one to go in and make money!"

The staff laughed. Indeed, according to the rules, Xia ruofei was one of the participants. In theory, even if he won the grand prize, he could still receive the award.

Therefore, no one felt that there was anything wrong with it. Even if Xia ruofei had picked himself, no one would think that there was any shady business behind it.

A Big Boss like Xia ruofei was not short of money. Judging from the banquet and the level of the prizes, the annual meeting would cost at least a few million Yuan. With so much money given out, how could Xia ruofei play any tricks on the prize money that was only tens of thousands?

Besides, the annual meeting was just for fun. The chairman, who was usually elusive, would personally go into the glass Room to make money later. This was a rare "wonder"! The employees were all looking forward to it.

The other staff members who had won the prize also came up to the stage. One of the four winners was a worker working on the production line of the pharmaceutical factory. The worker had just contacted him and told him the news of winning the prize. He had also appointed a colleague at the scene to go in and earn money in his place.

The three employees who won the lottery and the agent of one of them went up to the stage and stood beside Xia ruofei. They looked a little reserved, but at the same time, they could not suppress their excitement and expectation.

Xia ruofei smiled gently and said, "Don't be nervous, everyone. We'll go in according to the order of winning the prize announced earlier."

"We'll immediately transfer the same amount of money that the previous lucky winner has earned," Xia ruofei continued. "We'll make sure that everyone is playing the game under the same conditions!"

Xia ruofei gestured to the staff at the side of the stage.

The staff of the finance department immediately walked up to the stage with fifteen stacks of hundred – Yuan bills that had been counted. These were the new bills that had been specially withdrawn from the bank today, and each stack was the standard ten thousand Yuan.

The staff of the finance department opened all fifteen stacks of cash in front of everyone on the stage and scattered them in The Glass Room.

In a short while, the floor of The Glass Room was covered with a layer of red hundred Yuan bills, which looked very visually impactful.

The cameraman even gave a special close – up, which made the staff who didn’t win the prize very envious.

However, this was only the second prize. Generally speaking, there were still the first and special prizes. According to the rules, these two prizes were definitely bigger. Although the probability of winning was a little low, there was still hope for everyone.

As for the employees who had already won the prize, they looked at the stage with a relaxed attitude, as if they were watching a show.

Xia ruofei said to the first lucky winner, “You can go in now! The rules were very simple. The time limit was 30 seconds. After entering, you can’t use any part of your body to touch the money and step on it. After the time limit was up, all the money in the net would belong to you! Do you understand?”

“Understood!” The staff member said excitedly.

“Go in!”

The staff member took the long – handled net bag from the staff and walked into the glass Room.

This was just a normal net bag used to catch fish. The hole was quite big, and the company didn’t play any tricks on it.

Xia ruofei personally acted as the judge. “Time ... Start!”

A thirty – second countdown suddenly appeared on the big screen. The staff who won the prize immediately began to use the net to fish for money in a hurry.

“Good luck! Good luck!”

“Hurry up! The money on your left is more ...”

The staff in the audience were all cheering for the lucky winner.

Today, the finance department had prepared all the new notes, so they were smoother. In addition, the notes were scattered very wide, so the opening of the net was a bit thick. In the first few seconds, although the employee was flustered, he only managed to grab a few notes.

Everyone was laughing and cheering, and the atmosphere was quite warm.

The staff member who won the lottery quickly came to his senses. He was not in a hurry to get money directly. Instead, he used the net bag to drive the money together. After increasing the thickness, the effect was much better than before.

Chapter 1420: RUO Fei fishing for money (2)

Through the close – up shot taken by the photographer outside the glass Room, everyone could clearly see that the thick stack of cash had been successfully captured. Although the cash was piled up messily and took up a bit of space, it was at least a few thousand dollars.

The employee continued to put the money together. In the process, because the net would be used, the movement was slightly more exaggerated. Some of the money that had been put in previously fell out of the net again. This scene made everyone laugh.

Soon, the countdown reached the last few seconds. Everyone saw that the employee was still trying to rush the money, so they quickly reminded him loudly.

The staff also realized that there wasn't much time left, so they quickly tried to use the net to fish out as much money as possible.

"Time's Up! Stop!" Xia ruofei announced loudly when the countdown reached zero.

The staff member was also very disciplined. He immediately stopped what he was doing. The Glass Room was transparent on all sides, and there was a camera recording the whole process. Under the watchful eyes of the public, he naturally wouldn't break the rules just to get one or two more banknotes.

The finance staff took the net bag from him and took it to the center of the stage to start counting.

Although it was only a short 30 seconds, the lucky winner was sweating profusely, and his carefully styled hair was all messed up. He looked a little embarrassed.

Everyone thought it was a little funny, but when they saw the huge stack of cash in the camera's close – up shot, they felt extremely envious.

Of course, the staff anticipated it even more when they thought of Xia ruofei's appearance. They all had a malicious thought in their hearts. She wondered if the chairman would be in such a sorry state later ...

Soon, the finance staff counted the cards. There were 236 cards in total, which was 23600 Yuan.

Xia ruofei personally handed the neatly arranged cash to the lucky winner. The audience burst into a round of applause. The lucky winner couldn't stop smiling and thanked Xia ruofei. Then, under everyone's envious gaze, he took the 20000 Yuan and returned to his seat.

The finance staff quickly added 236 hundred – dollar bills and scattered the bills in The Glass Room so that they were as evenly distributed as possible on the floor.

The second lucky draw employee was eager to try. He took the net and walked into the glass Room. After Xia ruofei announced the start of the game, he immediately waved the net and tried to make money.

Speaking of which, the first person to appear was at a disadvantage because he had no experience to learn from. The content of the award was also announced at the last minute, and he did not even have the opportunity to check the online strategy for similar events in advance.

Those who appeared later could conclude some effective methods from the first person's process of making money.

For example, the second employee didn't rush to get the money directly after the beginning. Instead, he tried to put the money together as much as possible. This was obviously a summary of the gains and losses from the first employee.

The result was obvious. The second employee's final score was 248,200 yuan short of 25000.

The third and fourth employees naturally used the same method.

However, there was still a gap in individual operation. Some people had better physical coordination, while others were relatively weaker.

So the third employee got 218 notes, and the fourth employee got 251.

Four employees won the lottery in a row, and the final prize amount was far more than 20000 Yuan.

This was similar to the judgment of the team at the company's Annual Meeting.

In fact, in the team's initial proposal, the prizes were not as rich as this. However, Xia ruofei rejected the proposal and criticized them for being too conservative. He made it clear that the prizes had to be upgraded and could not be used to save money for the company. He even set the standard of one million Yuan and said that if the revised version's total value of the prizes was lower than this figure, he would severely criticize the team leader.

Therefore, the preparation team for the annual meeting revised the plan overnight and redesigned the prize plan. In the end, the total value of the prizes was about 1.2 million.

As for the money – making segment, the team had conducted many experiments. Even those who had practiced it many times could basically make between 25000 to 30000 dollars in 30 seconds.

The final result was indeed as such. The staff members of the preparation team, who were paying attention to the progress of the annual party, were secretly relieved.

Everyone looked at Xia ruofei with anticipation.

According to the order, he was the last winner, and now it was his turn.

Xia ruofei took off his suit jacket and passed it to the staff. Then, he did some leg presses, wrists, and ankles as a warm – up. Everyone burst into laughter.

Liu Qian had finally regained her authority as the emcee. When Xia ruofei entered the game, she would be the judge.

When Xia ruofei rolled up his sleeves, took the net bag, and walked into the arena, Liu Qian asked with a smile, ""Chairman, are you ready?"

Xia ruofei stood in The Glass Room and nodded to Liu Qian with the net in his hand.

“The timer has started!” Liu Qian immediately said.

She gave the order so quickly that Xia ruofei was still in a daze. The countdown on the big screen had already started.

Everyone knew that Xia ruofei had been tricked by Liu Qian and could not help but laugh.

Xia ruofei quickly came back to his senses. He immediately bent down and picked up the net to fish for money.

Xia ruofei’s movements did not look very fast, but he was actually very efficient.

In fact, if Xia ruofei wanted to, he could have put all the money into the net in 30 seconds. This was because of his true energy and mental energy that had never failed him.

This was a game. If Xia ruofei used his genuine Qi and spiritual power, he would be cheating. Naturally, he would not do that.

However, cultivation improved his physical fitness in all aspects. His body coordination was many times better than the previous employees, and his perception of subtle movements was far better than ordinary people.

Hence, Xia ruofei’s movements did not seem fast, but every time, he could accurately pick up a handful of cash. The movement of the net was very slight.

Xia ruofei had also subconsciously learned some techniques to deflect the force so that none of the bills that were put into the net would come out again.

The employees in the audience did not notice these details. They only saw Xia ruofei’s unhurried movements. He did not seem to be as nervous as the previous four employees.

The staff all thought that Xia ruofei had deliberately held back and had not used his full strength.

Soon, it was time. The finance staff took the net bag from Xia ruofei and was ready to count the money.

The professional financial staff had a keen sense of the weight of the notes, and they had already counted the four people’s notes before, so when he held the net bag, he immediately felt a slight weight in his hand.

Not only did the Finance Officer look surprised, he had also watched Xia ruofei fish out the cash from the side. In his opinion, Xia ruofei’s slow movements should have the lowest score among the five.

However, as soon as he held the net bag in his hand, he felt that the weight was not right. It seemed to be more than what the people before him had fished out.

How was that possible? The finance staff felt that it might be because they were too high today, so there was a problem with the touch.

However, he quickly denied it again. As the counting process continued, he realized that Xia ruofei had indeed fished out more cash than the previous few.

318 cards! This was the result that Xia ruofei had achieved within 30 seconds.

When the staff in the audience saw this result, they were also in disbelief.

“The chairman is too awesome!”

“You have the demeanor of a martial arts master!”

“I’m convinced by our director Xia this time! He actually won the championship without a sound!”

.....

While everyone was discussing, the finance staff had already checked again and confirmed the results.

Just as Liu Qian was about to “present” the award to Xia ruofei, Xia ruofei put the microphone to his mouth and said, “Everyone, this mini – Game has ended. I have also participated in the game according to the rules, which means that the lucky draw segment has been completed!”

Xia ruofei paused and turned to Liu Qian. “Liu Qian, go get the lucky draw box!”

When everyone heard this, they had already guessed Xia ruofei’s intention.

As expected, Xia ruofei continued, “I’ll personally add a small project. I’ll draw a lucky colleague and give him the bonus I just received!” This shouldn’t be against the rules, right?”
