Chapter 1421: The special prize (1)

As soon as Xia ruofei finished speaking, the employees were all excited.

“The chairman is so cool!”

“What a good leader of China!”

“I love you to death, Chairman ...”

Xia ruofei’s results were the best in this round. He had earned more than 30000 Yuan.

Now that he had drawn out an extra employee, it meant that he did not even need to participate in the game segment to get the highest bonus.

Was there anything more awesome than this?

Liu Qian came to Xia ruofei with the lucky draw box and asked pitifully, “Chairman, can those who have won the prize before still participate in your special lucky draw?”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “you’re thinking too much, Liu Qian!” You’re going to conjure up a lottery ticket for me?”

The winning vouchers would not be put back into the lucky draw box, but would be handed over to the staff for safekeeping.

The staff in the audience also burst into laughter.

Liu Qian was actually just trying to lighten up the atmosphere. The annual meeting was meant to have fun, and she was not an insatiable person. She had already won the prize before, so why would she want to win another one?

Xia ruofei said, “I’m going to start the lottery!” To those who have not won the prize, please announce your numbers!”

“Number 77!”

“Number 307!”

“Number 285!”

The employees’ voices rose and fell, one louder than the other. One of the young men even shouted until his voice cracked, which caused another round of laughter.

Xia ruofei reached into the lottery box and stirred it a few times before pulling out a lottery ticket.

In an instant, everyone’s eyes were focused on this small lottery ticket.

Xia ruofei laughed and held the lottery ticket tightly. Even the camera could not capture the close – up image.

Then, he carefully opened the corner of the ticket, took a quick look at it, and then immediately closed it.

The employees couldn't help but laugh. It was rare for them to see Xia ruofei. Today, not only did they see him sing on stage, but they also saw him participate in the money – making game. Now, they saw Xia ruofei's funny side. They suddenly felt that the image of the chairman was much more friendly.

"Do you want to know the winning number?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"I want to!"

"Chairman, quickly announce it!"

"Don't keep us in suspense!"

"Don't learn from Liu Qian!"

Liu Qian, who was at the side, didn't know whether to laugh or cry. This young lady had been shot while lying down!

"If you want to know the number, then let me hear your applause and cheers!" Xia ruofei said unhurriedly.

"Clap clap clap ..." A thunderous applause immediately rang out, mixed with all kinds of cheers of different heights. It was as if even the ceiling of the banquet hall was shaking.

Xia ruofei nodded in satisfaction and smiled. "Why don't we ... Let Liu Qian announce this number?"

"No, no, no!" Liu Qian quickly waved her hand. I didn't do anything, but I'm already the bad example. I don't want to offend anyone again ..."

"Hahaha ..." The employees all laughed heartily, and the slightly tense atmosphere suddenly eased.

Xia ruofei did not keep her in suspense and said, "Let us congratulate ... No. 111!"

As he announced the winning number, he also showed the lottery ticket in his hand to the camera.

A close – up of the lottery ticket appeared on the big screen. It was indeed number 111, a very regular number.

"Where's the employee holding lottery ticket No. 111?" Xia ruofei asked loudly.

Initially, Xia ruofei thought that there would be a happy response from the staff. Unexpectedly, the moment he finished speaking, the staff below the stage were also looking around, but no one stood up.

At this time, a staff member quickly flipped through the record book and then said a few words into the walkie – talkie.

Liu Qian held her headphones with one hand and listened carefully. She quickly nodded slightly and said to Xia ruofei, "Chairman, the staff confirmed that the owner of lottery ticket No. 111 is Geng bin from the security Department. He was on duty at the farm today and did not come to the scene."

Xia ruofei was slightly stunned. He did not expect Geng bin, who was on duty at the farm, to win the prize instead of so many people.

However, he quickly revealed a smile and said, "That's not bad either! I think it's more meaningful for the brother who gave up today to win this special award! Don't you guys agree?"

Although the staff felt a little regretful that they did not win the prize, they still responded to Xia ruofei's words loudly.

"Yes!"

"The chairman is right!"

"Brothers from the security Department, you've worked hard! He should win this award!"

Xia ruofei nodded and said to Liu Qian, "Can you try to video call Geng bin?"

"Alright!" Liu Qian said, and then quickly went down the stage to make arrangements.

Originally, if the staff outside the venue won the prize, a few of them would be selected for the live connection.

Xia ruofei was the one who had contributed to the award and it just so happened that the staff from the security Department had won it. Naturally, they had to connect the two.

Liu Qian also knew that Xia ruofei had a good relationship with the Veterans of the security Department, so she didn't dare to delay. She immediately used her phone to call the number of the farm's Gate guard.

When Geng bin learned that he would be video – called at the annual meeting, he was also a little confused. After he came back to his senses, he quickly agreed.

After he added the WeChat account that the staff of the annual meeting had specially applied for, he soon received a video call request.

Chapter 1422: The special prize (2)

As soon as the video call was connected, Geng bin saw that the screen of his mobile phone was filled with people, and the thunderous applause also shocked him.

At this time, Liu Qian was holding her work phone and the camera was facing the staff.

This phone was also connected to the computer, and the image was directly projected on the big screen.

Liu Qian smiled and said, "Geng bin, now everyone can see you on the big screen. Say hello to everyone!"

Geng bin was a little stunned. After hesitating for a second or two, he subconsciously saluted to the camera and said, "Hello, my fellow colleagues! I'm Geng bin from the security Department!"

Liu Qian did not explain the reason for the call, and Geng bin did not know that he had won the Special Award for Xia ruofei's contribution. He was still guessing why a security guard like him would suddenly be called at the annual meeting, but soon his thoughts were interrupted by thunderous applause.

"Geng bin, you must be wondering why I suddenly video – called you!" Liu Qian said with a smile.

Geng bin smiled and scratched his head. "I'm indeed a little confused right now ..."

"Then you'll be even more confused after this!" Liu Qian smiled and said, "I'll let the chairman tell you!"

Xia ruofei was also on the stage at this time. After Liu Qian turned the camera to him, Geng bin immediately saw Xia ruofei on the phone.

Geng bin subconsciously straightened his back and shouted, "Good day, Chairman!"

These ex – soldiers called Xia ruofei "brother Xia" in private, but in formal occasions, they all followed the rules and would not mess around just because they had a good personal relationship with Xia ruofei. On the contrary, the security department's employees had always been the model of paradise Corporation in terms of discipline.

Xia ruofei smiled. "Geng bin, we're all gathered here on New Year's Eve. It's been hard on you guys who are on duty!"

"Chairman, this is our duty!" Geng bin quickly said. "It's not hard!"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "there are two main purposes for today's call. The first is to represent the company and say hello to the staff on duty." As for the second reason ... Do you still have the lottery ticket I gave you today?"

"Yes," Geng bin nodded and said, "the higher – ups told us to carry it with us!"

"Then take it out and show it to the camera!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Geng bin quickly took out the lottery ticket from his shirt pocket and aimed the camera at it.

Number 111. This was the lucky number printed on it.

The crowd burst into applause again.

When Geng bin pointed the camera at himself again, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Geng bin, I believe you've heard the applause. I'm very happy to inform you that in the lucky draw that just ended, your number won!"

"Really?" Geng bin chuckled and said, "I didn't expect my luck to be so good!"

At this time, Liu Qian also came to Xia ruofei's side. She held her phone in one hand and said, "Geng bin, this award is very special! Originally, it was the chairman who won the prize. He even got the best result in the game segment and received a total of 31800 Yuan. Then, he personally contributed this prize and drew an employee on the spot to get this prize. This luck finally fell on your head!”

Geng bin was even more excited when he heard this and quickly said,””Thank you, Chairman!”

30,000 Yuan was equivalent to several months of his salary. It was even higher than his year – end bonus. This was undoubtedly the best reward for him who had worked hard for a year.

Xia ruofei smiled and said,”you’re welcome!” You’ve made a lot of contributions to the company this year. This is the reward you deserve!”

“Thank you, Chairman!” Geng Bing said. I’ll definitely work harder! I won’t let down the expectations of the company’s leaders!”

Xia ruofei nodded, pleased.””I’ll get my brothers in the security Department to bring the bonus back for you! Please send your regards to the other brothers who stayed behind!”

“Yes!” Geng bin said.

After the video call ended, the fun and exciting second prize lucky draw segment officially came to an end.

The annual meeting was coming to an end, and the first and grand prizes were announced.

The first prize was a ten – day, nine – night luxury tour to the Maldives, and the company would pay for the entire family. The lucky winners could have a maximum of four spots, bringing their parents and wives (husbands). If the lucky winners had children, they could apply for an extra spot and bring their children along. All the expenses were covered by the company, which was very humane.

There were a total of five spots for such a grand prize.

The only grand prize was even more luxurious. It was a family luxury tour to Europe, and the quota was the same as the first prize.

Feng Rao went on stage to draw the first prize, while Xia ruofei naturally drew the grand prize.

In the end, three people won the first prize, and the other two first prizes were won by the more than 100 employees of paradise pharmaceutical factory who guarded the production line.

The grand prize went to a staff member of the marketing department who was present.

Regardless of whether they won the prize or not, everyone felt that tonight’s annual staff party was extremely exciting.

However, many people had the same feeling. Although the first and special prizes were tempting, the most exciting part was that Xia ruofei drew his number, participated in the game, and generously contributed the prize.

That scene had left a deep impression in the hearts of many employees. Many years later, when they talked about today’s Annual Meeting, this scene would be the first thing they would think of.

The grand prize was worth more than 150000 Yuan, which was definitely a Super Grand prize.

The employee who won the prize was a girl in her 20s named Lin Jiaxin. When this super lucky thing hit her head, she felt dizzy and even seemed to be dreaming after she went on stage.

Xia ruofei also stayed on stage after the draw. He would personally present the award to Lin Jiaxin, then give a speech and announce some decisions regarding the company's reorganization.

The first and grand prize naturally could not be moved to the stage, but the preparation team for the annual party had made some colored cardboard in advance, on which the awards and prizes were written.

After Lin Jiaxin went on stage, Liu Qian, as usual, had to do a live interview with the only lucky person of the night.

"Congratulations, Jiaxin, for becoming the biggest winner tonight!" Liu Qian said with some envy.

"Thank you ... So I'm not dreaming, right?" Lin Jiaxin said in a daze.

The staff in the audience couldn't help but laugh. Xia ruofei, who was standing at the side, couldn't help but smile.

"Of course it's not a dream!" Liu Qian said. It seems that our Jiaxin is a little caught off guard by this award! Actually, you can give it to me! I don't mind ..."

"I mind!" After Lin Jiaxin regained her senses, she immediately said, "sister Qian, you can't suppress the newcomer!"

"Alright, alright!" Liu Qian said, "then how do you feel now? Can I share it with everyone?"

"I ... I just feel a little unreal ..." Lin Jiaxin seemed to want to continue being silly and cute, "I've never won a prize since I was young. I've never won a small two Yuan prize when buying scratch – to – win tickets. I didn't expect to win the grand prize this time!"

Liu Qian couldn't help but laugh and said, "It seems like you've saved up all your luck and then used it all at once!"

"Jiaxin, how many slots are you planning to apply for?" Liu Qian asked.

Lin Jiaxin muttered to herself for a moment and said with some embarrassment, "It should be three people! If my parents can take leave, I'll take them to Europe!"

Hearing this, Liu Qian reminded her, "Jiaxin, family also includes your boyfriend 's!" You don't have to get married!"

"I know!" Lin Jiaxin said with a smile.

Liu Qian immediately reacted and said, "That means Jiaxin is still single!"

She then said to the staff in the audience, ""Why are the single young men in the audience hesitating? Hurry up and attack! Take a gamble, and the bicycle will change ... No, no! If you succeed, not only will you have such a cute and obedient girlfriend, but you'll also get a free luxury tour in Europe!"

The employees also started to make a fuss, and Lin Jiaxin's face suddenly turned red.

Xia ruofei joined in and said, "I think it's possible!" I can reserve this family member position for you for a month ..."

"Everyone, did you hear that?" Liu Qian immediately said, "the chairman has given us a month's time. Our single male colleagues have to make good use of it!"

Then, Liu Qian showed a flattering smile to Lin Jiaxin and said, "Jiaxin, you don't have to consider men! In fact, if there's a luxury tour in Europe, I can also accept girls ..."

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment, then he couldn't help but laugh out loud. The audience was also laughing ...

Chapter 1423: Big news (1)

Lin Jiaxin was still a young girl who had just graduated not long ago. She blushed at Liu Qian's bold words and didn't know how to respond.

Xia ruofei laughed. "That's enough, Liu Qian. Jiaxin is as pure as a little white rabbit. You have the cheek to tease her like this?"

"Alright, alright!" Liu Qian said with a smile. Jiaxin was really pitiful! Even the chairman can't help but stand up for her, I can't afford to offend her ... Then let's invite the chairman to present the award to Jiaxin!"

Xia ruofei nodded and took the display board with the words "grand prize" printed on it from the staff. He turned around and handed it to Lin Jiaxin.

Lin Jiaxin's face still had a hint of red as she said in a low voice, "Thank you, Chairman!"

Xia ruofei laughed and replied, "you're welcome!" By the way ... The one – month promise is still in effect. If you find a boyfriend within this period, you can apply for one more slot from the company. "

Xia ruofei glanced at Liu Qian and said, ""Forget about being a girlfriend!"

His words made everyone burst into laughter again.

"I understand, thank you, Chairman!" Lin Jiaxin said with a red face.

Lin Jiaxin walked down the stage under everyone's envious eyes. Liu Qian also put away her playful expression and said seriously, "Finally, let's invite the chairman to give us his instructions!"

After that, Liu Qian walked down the stage and left the stage to Xia ruofei.

The employees in the audience also focused their attention on Xia ruofei. Liu Qian had left some suspense since the beginning of the annual meeting. She said that Xia ruofei was going to announce an important decision of the company, so everyone was very curious about what it was.

The audience was silent. Xia ruofei held the microphone and said with a smile, "It's not really an order. I'm just using this occasion to announce something!"

Xia ruofei thought for a moment and continued, "The first thing is, for the sake of the company's development, after boss Feng and I have discussed and decided to make some adjustments to the company's structure, we will set up two branch companies, Taoyuan agricultural products company and Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory. Cao tieshu and Xue Jinshan will be in charge of the branch companies! "In addition, the company's leadership will be expanded. Xiao Qiang will be promoted to the Chief Marketing Officer, pang Hao to the Chief Financial Officer, and Feng Jing to be the president. The company will also set up two vice presidents and one Chief Administrative Officer positions, which are currently vacant!"

At this point, Xia ruofei paused for a moment to give everyone some time to digest the information.

The employees in the audience were also excited after hearing this, especially those who had been promoted to the company's leaders and the head of the branch office. Although they had already accepted the pre – Appointment talk a few days ago, after the official announcement of the appointment, they still couldn't help but feel excited, as if they were full of motivation to start a business.

Xia ruofei continued, "due to business needs, the company will set up two new departments directly under the company, the overseas business department and the e – commerce business department. Jiang Limei and Luo Xing will be the directors of these two departments." The directors of the finance and marketing departments will be held by pang Hao and Xiao Qiang!"

Xia ruofei saw that the audience was still silent, so he smiled and said, "The structure and position adjustments have been announced. I suggest that everyone give a warm round of applause and congratulate our newly appointed colleagues!"

The employees finally came back to their senses and applauded enthusiastically. Xiao Qiang and the others also quickly stood up and bowed slightly to express their gratitude.

"We have limited time today, so I won't invite the above few colleagues to come on stage to give their inauguration speeches." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "after you go down, all the departments will have a meeting to straighten out the working relationships as soon as possible. After the spring Festival, our company will officially start to operate according to the new structure!"

Xia ruofei continued, "as for the second thing, I believe everyone has noticed it. Recently, the employees of the Human Resources Department have been very busy. They have gone to various departments to do a large number of surveys and assessments. Some of them have even been asked to check their files. I'm sure everyone is guessing that the company has made some important move. Today, I'll reveal it to everyone!"

"The next step will be a personnel reform. All personnel will be divided into ranks!" Xia ruofei said, "according to the nature of the position, it is divided into management and technical positions. Each position has 10 levels, corresponding to different salaries and benefits! The employees in the Human Resources Department have been working overtime recently to complete the first level – ranking work!"

After the staff in the audience heard this, they couldn't help but start discussing.

The company's management was standardized, and the personnel ranking system was imperative. However, this was related to everyone's vital interests. Everyone was concerned about what rank they would be set and whether their salary and treatment would be affected.

Xia ruofei gestured with his hands and said, "everyone, stop discussing!" Let me finish! There would be a very detailed and scientific standard for the ranks of personnel. It would be issued in the form of company documents, and everyone could read it! Moreover, there were also very clear assessment criteria for the promotion of ranks, so everyone could clearly see their own channel of Ascension. "Also, please don't worry. After the first ranking, the results will be published on the company's internal website. If you have any questions, you can directly report to the HR department!"

"Also, I can tell you clearly that under the new hierarchy system, most of our colleagues' salaries have been increased. Xia ruofei continued, "the personnel grading system is just to clarify everyone's career development path and to promote everyone's enthusiasm for work. It's not to reduce the benefits!"

Chapter 1424: Big news (2)

After Xia ruofei's explanation, the employees gradually relaxed.

After all, paradise corporation's treatment had always been higher than some of the companies outside, and the benefits had always been good. During the new year and festivals, the company would give out various benefits. Most importantly, the company's development momentum had been quite good since this year. Under such circumstances, the company was unlikely to take measures to reduce the salary.

Of course, after the personnel grading system was adopted, various assessment standards would be clearly set. It was basically impossible for those who wanted to muddle along in the company in the future. However, this basically had no impact on the employees who really wanted to do something in the Paradise company.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "alright, I've finished talking about the two important things. Now, let's talk about something happy!" In the past year, under the joint efforts of all the employees, the company's development had been booming, and the results were quite outstanding. All these achievements were inseparable from everyone present and the colleagues who stayed at home, especially the company's leaders and some of the core employees, who had put in hard work! So, I've decided ..."

At this point, Xia ruofei paused and kept her in suspense before continuing, ""To the company's leadership, branch company heads, and department directors, there will be bonus rewards! "In addition, ordinary employees who perform particularly well will also receive additional bonuses. This year, the planned reward range is about 50 people!"

As soon as Xia ruofei finished speaking, the audience burst into enthusiastic cheers.

Only Xia ruofei and Feng Jing knew about this. Xiao Qiang, pang Hao, and the others were not aware of it. This was a huge surprise.

No one could live on their dreams alone. Even the most career – minded people had to support their families. Moreover, to be able to get a bonus was also a reflection of their personal value.

The newly appointed Chief Financial Officer, pang Hao, knew the company's financial situation the best. This year's profits were so high that even a small amount of dividends would be a huge income for them!

In addition to the middle and senior leaders who were within the scope of the dividends, the ordinary employees were also full of anticipation because 50 of them would also receive a bonus reward. In a company with about 300 people, this ratio was quite high.

Especially the business backbones of those departments, they felt that they had great hope, and their hearts were full of anticipation.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "the company's profit this year is about 300 million Chinese dollars. I plan to take out 5% of the profit, which is 15 million Yuan as a bonus!" Of the 15 million, 3 million would be used to reward ordinary employees, and 12 million would be used for dividends for the company's management. The only difference is that ordinary employees will receive an additional reward in addition to the year – end bonus, while the company's Leadership Bonus will be directly distributed in the form of dividends!"

After Xia ruofei announced the specific amount of dividends, the crowd became even more enthusiastic. It was as if they were going out of control and everyone couldn't help but start discussing.

Everyone naturally felt that this distribution ratio was very reasonable. In any company, the most precious wealth was the management with outstanding abilities. It was also a common phenomenon for them to receive high dividends.

In comparison, ordinary employees could still get a reward of 3 million Yuan, which was 60000 Yuan per person. Moreover, the employees who received this reward could also receive a year – end bonus. These two things added up to more than a year's salary. What was there to be dissatisfied about?

As for pang Hao and the others, who knew that they would no longer receive their year – end bonus after receiving their dividends, they did not care.

At their level, it was basically impossible for their year – end bonus to exceed one million Yuan. However, according to the current bonus plan, they could get at least 1.8 million Yuan, which was equivalent to double or even triple the year – end bonus. Where else could they find such a good thing?

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "as the company has not implemented a hierarchical system this year, the selection of the 50 employees will also be evaluated by the Human Resources Department according to the assessment criteria. The top 50 employees will naturally receive a bonus reward. The evaluation results will also be announced on the company's internal website. Everyone is welcome to supervise!"

Thunderous applause rang out from the audience. Regardless of whether they had any hope of winning the award, the employees were all very excited.

Xia ruofei continued, "the profit sharing system will continue for a long time!" And I promise that this dividend ratio will only increase and not decrease! This year's profit was 300 million, so the dividends were 15 million! If the profit next year reached 3 billion, then he would get 150 million in dividends! I'll say the same thing again, the company will naturally give you the same amount of return as the amount of contribution you've made to the company!"

"Alright!"

"Long live the chairman!"

"Long live the Paradise Corporation!"

The staff below the stage were so excited that they started to shout "long live!". Xia ruofei felt a chill down his spine.

He gestured with his hands and said,""From next year onwards, the bonus system will become more regular and will be linked to the employee's level. Whether you are a technical or management employee, as long as you reach a certain level, you will be able to participate in the bonus. The bonus ratio will be different depending on the level!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said,""Therefore, the personnel grading system is very important. Everyone should study this system carefully after you go down. This is because every promotion assessment is related to your own personal interests, especially the big cake of year – end profit dividends. Only the elite employees are qualified to share it!"

Xia ruofei's words had incited the employees' fighting spirit. Some of them were still worried about the grading system, but now they threw this worry to the back of their minds. They could not wait to see the specific policy.

Xia ruofei said seriously,"finally, I want to tell everyone that the personnel grading system can be used to promote or promote. It doesn't mean that you can rest easy just because you have reached the level where you are eligible to receive dividends. To put it simply, the assessment will be carried out in a quarterly cycle. Those who have passed three consecutive assessments with excellence will be qualified to apply for a promotion assessment. Similarly, if you have passed three consecutive assessments of the same level and only passed the assessment as competent or failed one of the assessments, you will be demoted!"

Xia ruofei's words cooled down the employees' fiery mood. Everyone began to review whether they could adapt to the requirements of their positions and began to feel a sense of crisis in their hearts.

This was the effect that Xia ruofei wanted to achieve.

The annual meeting officially ended after Xia ruofei announced the three things.

For the employees of paradise Corporation, this was destined to be an unforgettable day.

When everyone started to get up and leave the stage, Liu Qian took the microphone and said,"Dear colleagues, those who didn't win the prize just now, don't forget to claim the general prize that the company has prepared for you at the exit!"

The staff's lottery tickets that won the lottery would be taken back, so those who still held the lottery tickets were naturally those who had not won any general before.

Since it was an Annual Meeting, they naturally had to be fair. They couldn't let the employees return empty – handed, so the general award was also very necessary.

"General assistant Liu, what's the company's general award this year?" one of the employees asked loudly.

Liu Qian smiled and said, "1000 Yuan, jingbei shopping mall's E – Card!" Everyone gets a share! The colleagues who didn't come today can collect it from the administration department tomorrow! Please pass on the message to each other when you return!"

"Awesome! Even a general award is this big!"

"The company must have spent a few million Yuan on this Annual Meeting!"

"What a great deal!"

"This consolation prize is more valuable than many company awards ..."

The employees discussed excitedly as they walked out. They had been a little depressed because they didn't win the prize, but now their depressed mood was swept away.

Xia ruofei walked out with Feng Jing. He heard Xiao Qiang and Cao tieshu discussing this year's dividends. His heart skipped a beat. He said to Feng Jing, "Director Feng, have you seen pang Hao?"

"It seems to have gone out in front of us!" Feng Jing asked, "why are you looking for him?"

"Okay, give him a call and ask him to wait for us at the door!" Xia ruofei said, "there's something I need to know!"

Chapter 1425: Not a single one less_1

After Feng Jing gave pang Hao a call, the two of them continued walking out. They soon saw him waiting at the entrance of the banquet hall.

"President Xia, what are your instructions?" Pang Hao asked jokingly.

Pang Hao's mood was rather brilliant when he found out that he would be receiving a year – end bonus of one to two million Yuan.

A year ago, he was still a specialized student in a third – rate college, doing odd jobs in the finance department of a small company. His monthly salary was so low that it was not even enough for him to spend.

After he came to paradise Corporation, not only did he manage the entire finance department alone, his salary increased several times, and his year – end bonus was so big that he couldn't believe it.

With this year – end bonus, he could buy a house in the city soon. It might be a little difficult to pay in full, but it was definitely not a problem to pay the down payment. Now that his monthly income was so high, a few thousand Yuan monthly payment was not a problem.

Who would dare to look at him with colored glasses in the future?

In the past, at the end of the year, when relatives and friends gathered, pang Hao always felt a little inferior. Other families' children graduated from prestigious schools and received high salaries in large companies, but he could not even support himself. The intentional or unintentional comparisons between his relatives made him feel like he had a dagger on his back.

This year, however, he was looking forward to the reunion dinner. Dear aunties, please tremble in fear ...

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "let's talk while we walk!" You and President Feng can take my car back."

The Paradise Corporation had purchased quite a number of vehicles, including two buses, mainly for the Paradise pharmaceutical factory, which had more employees. However, Xia ruofei was used to driving by himself and did not ask the company to assign him a driver.

After all, he was used to being free, and he often had to go to the warehouse in the city to deal with some things related to the spirit map space, such as iron maple, Tea Green, Drunken Eight Immortals wine, and so on. If a driver followed him, it would be inconvenient for him to do things.

The three of them walked out of the hotel together.

Xia ruofei asked, "fatty, I just want to know how much liquid funds we have in our account. If we want to take it out, how much can we take out?"

As the financial manager, pang Hao was responsible and responsible. Some data came out of his mouth without any need to think.

He said without hesitation, "this year's net profit is about 300 million Yuan. However, the annual meeting expenses are about two million Yuan. In addition, according to the bonus plan you announced, there is another 15 million Yuan to be spent at the end of the year. So, it's about 280 million Yuan!"

At this point, pang Hao changed the topic and said, ""But we don't have that much cash on our books. Some of the money has already been used on other projects, including the down payment for the production line of the pharmaceutical factory and the purchase of the property. We still have about 180 million in liquid funds on the company's books! Of course, I'll have to go back to the company to confirm the exact figure, but this figure should be close. The up and down fluctuations should not exceed five million. "

Xia ruofei nodded and asked, ""Then, is the 80 million in liquid funds left by the company enough? Will it cause pressure on the capital chain?"

Feng Rao, who was standing at the side, jumped in shock. Before pang Hao could reply, she hurriedly asked, ""Chairman, you want to transfer 100 million? Was he planning something big again? It's still dangerous for a company to have too little liquid capital, especially when we're about to undergo structural adjustments and the finance of the two branch offices need to be independent. This 180 million is all the liquid capital of the company's headquarters and the two branch offices!"

The Paradise Corporation had developed to its current scale, and its daily expenses were quite high. For example, the employees' salaries were a huge expense. In addition, although the profits of the pharmaceutical factory were frightening, the expenses were not small either. The pharmaceutical factory was still a labor – intensive industry, with a large number of employees. Moreover, the production line was running 24 hours a day, so the daily electricity bill was not a small amount.

In addition, there were various taxes, management fees, purchase fees of raw materials, and so on ...

Xia ruofei smiled. "I'm not planning to do anything big. I'm just short of money recently. Considering that the company has made quite a lot of money this year, I want to take out some of the funds for my own use ..."

"What do you need such a large sum of money for ...?" Feng Jing suddenly realized Xia ruofei's purpose and quickly said, "Chairman, I don't lack money. You don't have to take such a large sum of money for me!"

When Xia ruofei said that he wanted to take the 100 million from the company's account, Feng Jing was mainly worried about the company's cash flow and didn't think about anything else. However, she quickly realized that Xia ruofei wanted to give her a bonus.

Xia ruofei did not lack money at all. Feng Jing knew that Xia ruofei had a large amount of US dollars in his overseas account. It was at least tens of millions, which was equivalent to hundreds of millions of Chinese dollars. Why would he need to take any profits from the company? What's more, what kind of thing would require a hundred million Yuan?

The only possibility was that Xia ruofei wanted her to get a share of the profits.

After all, there were two shareholders in the company legally. Although her 2% shares were very small, she was still one of the shareholders.

If Xia ruofei took out 100 million Yuan of profit, he would have to give 2% to Feng Jing, which was equivalent to dividends.

Xia ruofei was not short of money, but if he did not take any dividends, Feng Jing would not be able to get the same amount of dividends.

Chapter 1426: Not a single one less (2)

Two percent of 100 million was exactly two million. This figure was one to two hundred thousand more than the dividends that Pang Hao, Xiao Qiang, and the other company executives could get, which was exactly in line with President Feng Jing's status.

It could be said that Xia ruofei had put in great effort.

Xia ruofei smiled. "Mr. Feng, I really need the money. Of course, we're both shareholders, so we'll have to split the profits accordingly. I'll take 98 million and you'll take 2 million. It's fair!"

Xia ruofei's motive was obvious, but he would never admit it.

He had his own considerations. Feng Jing had worked hard for a year. If there was no bonus at the end of the year, Xiao Qiang and the others would have received one or two million Yuan in year – end bonus happily. As the president, Feng Jing would be empty – handed. Even if Feng Jing did not have any thoughts about it, Xia ruofei would not be able to get over it!

Of course, this year was a special case.

This year, there were fewer senior executives who participated in the dividends, and the personnel grading system had not yet been implemented, so relatively speaking, everyone received more money. By this time next year, there would be no difference between ordinary employees and senior executives. When they reached a certain level, they would be able to get dividends according to the corresponding ratio. By then, the Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer would be in place, and the money that senior executives could get would be diluted.

Of course, if the company's profits increased several times next year, everyone would definitely be able to get more money, but that was another matter.

"Chairman, isn't this a little too much?" Feng Jing said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

"How can this be a game? The Company Law has stipulated the way for shareholders to pay dividends!" Xia ruofei pretended to be confused and said, "I'm the major shareholder. As long as it doesn't affect the company's normal development, I have the right to ask for dividends. Even if it's a vote, I have 98% of the voting rights. That's an overwhelming advantage!"

"Chairman ... Aren't you being a scoundrel?" Feng Jing stomped her foot. I really don't need that much money! Besides, wouldn't he be able to earn more money if he kept the money for the company's development? You said it yourself, I'm also a shareholder of the company! How can you be so short – sighted?"

Xia ruofei didn't give him any room to explain. "This is a special case. We'll talk about the future later!"

"You ..."

Pang Hao, who was standing at the side, could not even get a word in. When he saw that Feng Jing was rendered speechless by Xia ruofei's words, he said, "President Xia, President Feng, can I say a few words?"

"Don't tell me that 80 million isn't enough!" Xia ruofei shot a threatening look at pang Hao.

"Chairman, you can't use your power to oppress others!" Feng Jing said, "you have to respect the opinions of the professionals. The company has to be standardized. First of all, you can't mess around as the chairman!"

At this point, Feng Rao turned to pang Hao and said in a friendly manner, "President pang, don't worry and speak your mind. As long as it's an objective opinion, the chairman won't dare to do anything to you!"

The way Feng Jing addressed him as 'President pang' made pang Hao burst with joy. It was the same as reminding him that he was now one of the company's leaders.

"Director Feng," pang Hao said with a grin. "Actually, I wanted to say ... 80 million in liquid capital is more or less enough!"

"Ah?" Feng Rao hadn't expected this to be pang Hao's opinion.

All her efforts had been in vain ...

"It's really enough!" Pang Hao quickly explained. Of course, the premise was that the company didn't have any major spending plans in the near future! In fact, our company's cash flow has always been very abundant, and our partners can return the money very quickly, so there's no need to keep too much money. I've calculated that 60 to 80 million is enough!"

"President pang, don't give up on your principles just to please the chairman!" Feng Rao asked doubtfully. The problem with the capital chain is very serious!"

In fact, it was not that serious. The boss of the company, Xia ruofei, was a nouveau riche himself. He could easily transfer hundreds of millions of funds.

If the company's capital chain was in danger, it would be easy for Xia ruofei to inject capital into it.

However, Feng Jing did not want Xia ruofei to spend so much money on her. That was why she had hoped that pang Hao could help to persuade Xia ruofei. She had not expected this to happen.

"Director Feng, you shouldn't doubt my professional integrity ..." Pang Hao said with a smile.

"President pang, that's not what I meant ..." Feng Jing quickly explained. "I'm just thinking that the next step is for the subsidiary company's finance department to be independent. That way, only the e-commerce Department will be left at the headquarters to generate cash flow ..."

"Just because the company's finance department is independent doesn't mean that it's completely divided!" Pang Hao said with a smile. "By then, the profits generated by the two branch companies will have to be handed over to the head office with sufficient development funds left. Furthermore, it will be settled on a monthly basis, so there shouldn't be much difference in the capital chain ..."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "President Feng, did you hear that? We have to trust the professional's opinion!"

Feng Rao didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Her previous words had dug a hole for herself.

"Alright, it's decided then!" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "fatty, oh no... I should call you President pang now!"

"Aren't you making fun of me, ruofei?" pang Hao said with a bitter smile. I don't dare to call myself 'boss' in front of you!"

“You’re already the company’s leader! You have to establish your prestige!” Xia ruofei laughed and said, “President pang, as the major shareholder, I would like to ask for a bonus of 100 million Yuan. Please settle the relevant documents and procedures when you go back. I hope that President Feng and I will have our bonus in our private account before the Spring Festival!”

“No problem!” Pang Hao immediately nodded in agreement.

Seeing that Xia ruofei had already made his decision, Feng Jing did not try to persuade him anymore.

Although she kept rejecting him, Feng Rao felt warm inside because Xia ruofei was very considerate of her feelings. It felt good to be noticed and cared for, especially when the person who cared about her was the person she liked.

The three of them arrived at the parking lot as they talked.

When Xia ruofei reached out to open the car door, he suddenly smacked his head and said, “Aiya! I forgot to call her Qiao’er ...”

Feng Rao couldn’t help but laugh, “you just remembered! It seems like your sister doesn’t hold a high position in your heart ...”

Xia ruofei couldn’t be bothered to argue with Feng Ye. He hurriedly took out his phone and was about to call Lin Qiao.

“Chairman, stop calling!” Feng Rao said with a smile. Lin Qiao had already been dragged away by Luo Xing and other colleagues from the e – commerce Department to sing! They wanted to celebrate the e – commerce group’s official upgrade to a Department directly under the head office! Lin Qiao is also a senior member of the e – commerce Group, so she definitely has to participate!”

“This girl, why didn’t you tell me?” Xia ruofei couldn’t help but say.

“Luo Xing told me about this. Lin Qiao should have sent you a WeChat message, right?” Feng Jing laughed. “Could it be that you’ve muted your phone?”

Xia ruofei looked at his phone and smiled in embarrassment. “It really is ...”

Lin Qiao told him on WeChat that she was going to go to karaoke with her colleagues after the annual meeting and asked him not to wait for her.

Xia ruofei had been on the stage the whole time during the last stage of the annual meeting. After the event, Lin Qiao was dragged to the KTV that they had booked, so she sent a WeChat message to Xia ruofei in a hurry.

Xia ruofei replied to Lin Qiao’s message on WeChat, reminding her to be careful and to go home early.

Besides, Xia ruofei also sent a WeChat message to Luo Xing, asking him to ensure Lin Qiao’s safety and to send her home safely after the gathering.

After sending the WeChat message, Xia ruofei opened the car door and said with a smile, “Get in the car! Let’s go home!”

Xia ruofei, Feng Jing, and pang Hao drove back to Taoyuan farm. What they did not know was that what had happened at the annual meeting had already spread rapidly on the internet.

In this day and age, everyone had a smartphone, so employees would naturally take photos and record videos at the annual meeting. Some people shared them on their WeChat moments, and those who won prizes would inevitably show off on Weibo and forums.

As a result, the content of the annual peach blossom company party quietly spread ...

Chapter 1427: An unintentional Willow (1)

The Banyan Tree forum was the largest forum in the three mountains.

Although it wasn't well – known in the country, it was a place that netizens of the three mountains often visited. After all, there was a lot of local news here, and it also had many convenient functions such as checking for illegal rent and so on.

That night, a post on the Banyan Tree forum had unknowingly become popular. In just a few dozen minutes, the number of views had exceeded 10000, and the system had automatically added the word “popular” as an icon.

The website administrator on duty had also monitored the reading data of this post from the back end. After checking the content manually, he immediately pinned the post to the top with his authority and linked it to a recommendation spot on the Forum's home page.

This time, even more people saw it.

The post was called “the nouveau riche Company of the Year is born ahead of schedule. It's going to be so bright that I'm going to be blinded.”

This was a post by a netizen with the online name “tricycle driver”, and it was the content of the annual meeting of paradise Corporation.

The tricycle driver wrote in the post, “Today, I saw a picture of the company's Annual Meeting posted by my high school classmate on my WeChat moments. It was so bright that I was blinded. The general prize of their company's Annual Meeting is a 1000 Yuan shopping card, the sixth prize is 3000 Yuan shopping card, the fifth prize is 5000 Yuan shopping card ... The special prize is actually a family luxury tour in Europe, which is estimated to be worth 150000 Yuan!

The main point is that I asked my classmates to find out that this company has a total of about 300 employees. Other than the general award, the official award winning rate is more than 30%! Basically, one – third of the people would be able to win at least a 3000 – Yuan shopping card!

There was also an award where a large amount of 100 – Yuan bills were scattered in The Glass Room, and the winning employee would go in and use a net bag to fish for money. However much money he got in the stipulated time was his. It was said that the least one had earned more than 20000 Yuan!

I just want to ask, are there any more rich companies like this? Give me a dozen!

The post was accompanied by many pictures, which were probably downloaded from his high school classmate's moments.

This post attracted a lot of onlookers as soon as it was posted.

Usually, at the end of the year, companies of all sizes and various units would hold annual meetings. Such posts would be seen on the forum every three to five days. Many of the revelations were tidbits and did not attract much interest.

However, the ID of the “tricycle driver” gave the post a lot of bonus.

Because this person was also a frequent visitor of the Banyan Tree forum, the netizens who often visited the forum were very familiar with him.

The “tricycle driver” was actually a Civil Aviation pilot. The landing gear of the plane was one in front and two in the back, so this ID was actually a kind of joke.

He would often post some interesting things about his flight on the forum, as well as some high – altitude photography works he took in the cockpit during the aircraft's cruising phase. This was a great satisfaction to the netizens' curiosity, so he was also a well – known netizen on the Banyan Tree forum.

A post from such a person would naturally be more convincing than a newly registered passerby.

Besides, although the “tricycle driver” was only a young co – Pilot, the salary and benefits of Civil Aviation pilots were very good. Even he felt that this company was very rich, so the netizens were naturally more interested.

That was why the post had more than 10000 views in just a few minutes.

The “tricycle driver” post also caused a heated discussion among the netizens.

Many netizens expressed their envy.

“Is this the legendary ‘other people's company’? I'm so tired ...”

“The grand prize for our company's Annual Meeting was only a 2000 – Yuan shopping card. I was so unlucky that I didn't even win a small prize. In the end, I went home with a consolation prize of a barrel of oil ...”

“Upstairs, be content! Our company doesn't have an Annual Meeting at all. The boss said that this year's profits are not good, so according to the contract, we'll pay a month's salary as the final bonus of the year. Nothing else!”

“Op, why don't you tell us what kind of company this is? I also want to apply for the job!”

“That's right! Op, what's the difference between this and sending a picture without balls?”

“Yes, yes, yes! Express company’s name! Let us poor ghosts worship him!”

Of course, it was impossible for there to be only one voice on the internet. There were praises and criticism.

Very quickly, there were many sour comments in the post.

“You’re playing to the gallery! A small company with two to three hundred people doing this is definitely to attract attention!”

“Hehe! Even BAT’s Annual Meeting wouldn’t be so generous. Why do I find it so hard to believe that this company would spend a few million Yuan at a single Annual Meeting?”

“They are either trying to attract attention, or...This company might be a multi – level marketing company! I’ve heard that such a company even organized a thousand – person tour group and booked the entire cruise ship!”

“I see that the original poster is an old ID, and the comments on his previous posts are quite good. Did he receive money to post this today?”

In response to these noises, someone quickly came out to refute.

“I don’t want to comment too much on what you said about that company. After all, I have no right to speak without investigating. But the tricycle driver is everyone’s old friend, and I think everyone in the forum knows what kind of character he has. If you say that he would help others create hype for money, I’ll be the first one to not believe it!”

“Hahaha! Those who said that the coachman was a water Army were obviously newbies. Who among the old altar members didn’t know that the coachman was a pilot? Do they need to ruin their ID for money?”

“Also, I don’t agree with this company’s hype. The coachman already said that this was posted by his classmate on his WeChat moments. They’re only moving it over. Who would hype it up on their own moments?”

Chapter 1428: An unintentional Willow (2)

“There’s no shortage of haters on the internet. Without any investigation or evidence, they just come at us! Who did this company offend? I’ve said so much, but I actually want to ask the coachman, what company is this? Are they still recruiting?”

As the post reached the top, more and more netizens clicked on it, and the number of comments quickly exceeded a thousand. Everyone’s comments were mixed, and there were all kinds of opinions. However, the “tricycle driver” didn’t say anything else after he posted.

The old forum members all knew the nature of the job of a “tricycle driver.” If there was a flight mission the next day, he had to ensure that he slept. He might go to sleep after posting the post.

The self – discipline of a pilot was quite good.

Just as everyone was discussing the post, a comment popped up.”Everyone, go to the main post and refresh it. The coachman editor has updated the content of the main post!”

The netizens who saw this comment immediately returned to the first page. After refreshing the page, they saw that the post had been edited by the original poster a minute ago.

The tricycle driver wrote in bold red in the post: I didn’t expect that a random post would cause so much discussion. I’ve seen everyone’s comments. In response to the netizens ‘doubts, I’ll give a simple explanation!

First, I’m definitely not a water Army. The netizens who know me know that although I’m not very rich, at least I’m not a fifty – cent party.

“Second, I won’t comment on whether this company is creating hype or not. At least, so far, I haven’t seen similar content anywhere else on the internet.

“Thirdly, I naturally know the name of the company, but to avoid suspicion of hype, I won’t say it.

Fourth, tomorrow’s flight will be earlier, so I should go and rest, so I won’t be able to see your replies and private messages for the time being. I can only reply after my plane lands.

“Fifth, for the sake of the harmony of the forum, please pay attention to your manners. You are welcome to express your opinions, but if you want to curse, please turn left. This post does not welcome you.

Above.

The “tricycle driver” ‘s response was very short, but it caused a wave of praise from the netizens. The anti – fans who had previously “argued with the group of scholars” also disappeared, mainly because there were too many people scolding them.

The “tricycle driver” still had a very good foundation in the Banyan Tree forum.

Of course, the netizens were also against the “tricycle driver” ‘s behavior of not announcing the company’s name. They all expressed that they would not post the pictures but the balls, some kind of spending ten thousand people to stab ...

However, the “tricycle driver” really went to sleep after updating the post. No matter how the netizens called for him in the post, there was no response.

However, the netizens couldn’t do anything if the “tricycle driver” didn’t announce it? That would be underestimating the “human search” godly weapon.

There were many talents on the internet, as if they were all Conan. Soon, someone found some clues in the eight or nine pictures given by the “tricycle driver.”

“Everyone, pay attention to the third picture. You can see half of the on the upper right corner. Although the image quality is not very clear after compression, you can still see the general outline after zooming in. I have used Photoshop to draw the outline of this half of the . Don’t you think it looks a little familiar?”

Then, this resourceful netizen posted another picture. It was the complete that had been removed from the official website of paradise Corporation.

With such a comparison, the netizens found that it was really quite similar. All of a sudden, the reply speed of the post went up.

“What a godly man! I’ve studied these photos for a long time, but I couldn’t find anything wrong with them. How could you find half of the in such an inconspicuous position?”

“It’s definitely the Paradise Corporation! Because everything makes sense now!”

“Yes, yes, yes! In the past year, the most popular company in Sanshan was undoubtedly the Paradise Corporation!”

“Hehehe!” Static electricity reporting for duty!”

“After this big brother mentioned it, I also saw some traces! Everyone, look at the eighth card. It’s a picture of someone bending over to fish for money. Although it’s quite far away, he really looks like boss Xia from the Paradise Corporation!”

After Deputy – Mayor Jiang Liangyu’s speech at the heart – nourishing soup conference was released by the official media, Xia ruofei had also become a little popular, especially in the three mountains.

Many people had seen some of the publicly released photos, and some fangirls had collected these photos.

After all, Xia ruofei had the masculinity of a soldier. At the same time, after cultivating the great Dao formula, he gave off a very clean and friendly feeling. He was very pleasing to the eye.

After this netizen’s comment, many people also expressed their agreement.

“I think it’s President Xia!”

“He can’t run! He’s my most beloved retired soldier brother!”

“Brother Fei is so righteous! He’s so good to his own employees!”

“Wuwuwu! I also want to apply for the job, but I don’t know if they’re still recruiting!”

“Previous poster, I’ve already inquired about it. The Paradise company will continue to recruit after the new year, but they’re mainly going to the pharmaceutical factory, and most of them are for worker positions!”

“Ah? If I go to the factory, I won’t be able to see the soldier every day! I don’t want to ...”

“You’re thinking too much. Do you think you can see President Xia every day just because you’re at the farm? You’re too naïve, I have a friend from Paradise Corporation. He said that President Xia is always so elusive and often doesn’t show his face for many days!”

“Waa! He’s not always at the company, so doesn’t that mean he has a lot of time to spend with his girlfriend?”

Chapter 1429: An unintentional Willow (3)

“Haha, I’ve captured a wild flower addict alive!”

As everyone chatted, they unknowingly went off topic ...

It was impossible for such news to be spread in a small circle all the time. The convenience of the internet made the speed of information spread infinitely faster. In fact, it was only a few mouse clicks away in the San Shan and Jing.

Soon, someone posted the content of the post on Weibo and even took some pictures of the controversial comments.

Originally, on such a national platform, the content produced every day was countless, and most of the content would quietly sink to the bottom without causing any waves.

However, there had been a lot of news about the peach blossom company recently, and the person who reposted the post also often used Weibo. Not only did few big V’s, but he also added a few topics related to the peach blossom company, such as #Jadeshi cream #, which really attracted a lot of traffic.

Coincidentally, the editor on duty on the Weibo platform also happened to see this Weibo post in the vast back – end content.

The editor still remembered how popular the topic of the Jade skin cream was last time. When he saw that the content on Weibo was related to the Paradise company, and it was an eye – catching content like the nouveau riche’s Annual Meeting, he immediately gave a hot recommendation.

All of a sudden, the number of views on this Weibo page shot up.

Unlike the Banyan Tree forum, Weibo’s audience came from all over China, so its influence was naturally much greater.

Xia Ruofei and the others had just returned to the farm and were still unaware of what was happening on the internet. On Weibo, the topic #peach blossom company’s annual gathering of local tycoons #had already reached the top ten most searched topics.

The number of views on the first Weibo post went from 10000 to 100000 to 1000000, and it took less than an hour.

There were also countless new Weibo accounts that used this topic to discuss.

The content on Weibo's hot search naturally radiated its influence. For a time, the content of the annual meeting of paradise Corporation appeared on all the platforms such as today's headlines, Tianya forum, Mao PU forum, Phoenix News, and so on.

Xia ruofei had no intention of hyping up the content of the annual meeting. In his opinion, everyone had worked hard for a year, and the Spring Festival was coming soon. It was very normal and necessary to show some sincerity to everyone.

However, the peach blossom company once again ignited the hot topic of public opinion, which was unexpected.

Xia ruofei sent Feng Jing and pang Hao back to the dormitory and returned to the small villa. Just as he was about to take a shower, change his clothes, and go to bed, Feng Jing called.

"Sister che, don't tell me you're going to talk about the dividends?" Xia ruofei smiled as soon as he picked up the phone. "I'm telling you, there's no room for discussion! I've already decided!"

"I can't be bothered to tell you!" Feng Rao said, pouting. It's a good thing to have money!"

"Then why are you looking for me?"

"I can tell you don't know anything!" Feng Jing chuckled on the other end of the phone. "I suggest you turn on your computer and go to the Banyan Tree forum to take a look ... Or you can just scroll through Weibo's Trending Searches on your phone!"

"What's the situation?" Xia ruofei asked in confusion.

"You'll know when you see it!" Feng Rao said with a mischievous smile before hanging up the phone.

"Why are you being so mysterious?"

Xia ruofei mumbled to himself as he opened the Weibo APP on his phone. After clicking on the hot search list, he scanned it from top to bottom and couldn't help but exclaim, "What the hell!"

Chapter 1430: It makes sense to act cute (1)

The topic of the peach blossom company's annual party was on the top of the search rankings. When one clicked on the topic, it was filled with shock and envy ...

Xia ruofei couldn't count how many times the topic of paradise Corporation had been on the hot search.

When did it become so easy to get on Weibo's hot search? He made Weibo look like it was owned by his family. How could those big and small celebrities, who had spent a lot of money to hype it up just for the hot search, endure this?

Xia ruofei didn't mind the free publicity.

This kind of thing, the more the better!

He happily flipped through the Weibo posts.

The one with the highest views and comments was naturally the one that was first posted, the one that reposted the entire Banyan Tree forum.

This Weibo post was also pinned at the top of the annual meeting topic page.

Everyone's comments were naturally very enthusiastic, and netizens from all over the country expressed their opinions on the peach blossom company's nouveau riche behavior.

Of course, it was also inevitable that it would be like the Banyan Tree forum, saying that the Paradise company was sensationalizing and hyping up the news. This topic quickly became a hot search and became the best evidence.

Xia ruofei just laughed it off.

At the very least, he didn't create any hype. Even if he did, so what? Can't you see how many half-famous celebrities are hyping up their own scandals and scandals every day? Even those male idols who had their own traffic could not help but create topics to maintain the popularity of their fans.

In this impetuous era, for a little bit of exposure, many people could sell their moral integrity by the ton.

Moreover, an upright person was not afraid of a crooked shadow. No matter how much these people said, the Paradise Corporation would not be affected in the slightest. On the contrary, it would gain even greater influence.

However, when Xia ruofei saw a comment, he could not help but be stunned.

This comment wrote, [many netizens said that the person in the money-making picture is the boss of Paradise Corporation. Should I say that the boss is very friendly and gets along with his employees?] Or should he be said to be fighting for benefits with the people? This award is not a small one, right? The least one was more than 20000 Yuan! How could he, a boss, take up the spot to win the prize?

Xia ruofei didn't expect to be criticized for this.

However, Xia ruofei was in a good mood today, so he was not angry. Instead, he had a strange thought and used his Weibo account to reply to the comment.

He wrote, "the boss is also one of the employees!" What could he do if he just happened to be drawn? The boss said, "baby's heart is bitter!"

This comment wasn't eye-catching and didn't attract much attention in the beginning.

After all, Xia ruofei's popularity on the internet was not as high as Feng Jing's. Feng Jing had the advantage of being young, beautiful, and gender. Last time, her exposure was much higher than Xia ruofei's. It could be said that if Feng Jing wanted to debut in the entertainment industry now, many management companies would be willing to extend an olive branch.

Xia ruofei was just joking. However, he had forgotten that Qin Zhuan company had once applied for a mass verification of their employees 'private Weibo accounts. As the company's number one, he naturally had someone to help him with it. Therefore, his Weibo account was now verified as "Chairman of paradise Corporation."

Any trace on the internet would be discovered by people. After all, the population base was too large.

Very quickly, someone realized that the owner of this reply was actually the person in question.

In an instant, the topic of the peach blossom company's Annual Meeting immediately soared to an order of magnitude, firmly entering the top eight most searched topics.

"Catch a wild Chairman alive!"

"What a cute shop owner!"

"Boss Xia, is your company still short of people?"

[I've suddenly become a fan after seeing boss Xia's reply!]

"Passerby fan +1"

"Black turn!"

.....

After Xia ruofei replied to the Weibo comment, he threw his phone aside and went to take a shower.

When he came out of the shower, he habitually swiped on his phone screen to take a look at Weibo. He was suddenly shocked by the red corner sign at the bottom. In a short while, there were thousands of new notifications.

What was going on?

Xia ruofei opened the messages in fear and realized that most of them were notifications from new fans. In such a short time, he had gained more than 3000 fans.

Originally, he didn't post much on Weibo, and he had very few fans. Most of them were followed by his company's employees.

It could be said that even his friends didn't pay much attention to his Weibo. After all, he rarely posted anything.

Originally, an alternate account with a total of two to three hundred fans had gained more than three thousand fans in a short ten minutes. Even if one spent money to buy hardcore fans, it would not be so fast!

And the red corner sign was still constantly popping up, with new fans following it every second.

The other messages were about his account being tagged.

Xia ruofei opened it and realized that most of the comments were replies to his previous comment.

He couldn't help but be dumbfounded. How did his identity get exposed so quickly?

When he saw the certification mark on his Weibo account, he came back to his senses and suddenly felt like he had been F * cked.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel lucky that he didn't pretend to be a righteous passer – by and spoke up for justice. The tone of the comment was basically the boss's own tone. Otherwise, it would really become a big joke.

Looking at everyone's comments, he was also very happy.

The popular phrase “the baby's heart is bitter” had an inexplicable sense of humor here. Many people became fans because of this sentence.

Of course, this was also due to his status as a rich boss.

If a loser acted cute and said this on the internet, everyone would probably ignore it. However, it felt completely different when a rich boss who spent millions at an Annual Meeting and gave a year – end bonus of ten to twenty million said this.
