Chapter 1531: The girl's Secret (2)

In the stone room of the cave, Song Wei slowly raised her left hand and held the phone up to one of her fingers ...

After trying it a few times, he successfully unlocked the phone when he reached the index finger of his right hand.

Xia ruofei put his hand into his pocket and took out his phone from the spirit map space. He held it in his hand and then took it out of his pocket.

He took a look at the battery and realized that there was only about 10% left. Luckily, Song Wei was using an iPhone, which was the same as his phone charger. This saved Xia ruofei the trouble of rummaging through song Wei's luggage for the charger.

Xia ruofei reached into his bag and took out his charger from the spirit map.

Every seat in the VIP lounge had a charging socket. Xia ruofei plugged in the charger and charged Song Wei's phone as he checked.

As expected, there were more than Ten New Messages from Song Wei.

Xia ruofei opened it and browsed through it quickly. Some of them were probably from his friends or classmates. He did not reply to messages like Yingying a few days later. It would not be a problem even if he did not reply.

There were three other messages from a person named "mother."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but raise his eyebrows and open the chat window.

"Wei Wei, be careful when you travel! Also, it's cold in the South these two days. Don't catch a cold!"

"This girl, she doesn't even reply to her mom's WeChat messages when she's out playing?"

"Wei Wei, why aren't you replying?"

The three messages were sent at different times. The first one was sent at Teno' clock the night before, the second one at nineo' clock the day before, and the last one at eighto' clock the night before.

Judging from the text, Song Wei's mother was already worried when she sent the last message.

Xia ruofei was a meticulous person. He looked through the chat history and found that Song Wei had naughtily called her mother "mother" in WeChat.

"Thank God I didn't reply to her just now. If not, Song Wei's mother would be suspicious ..." Xia ruofei broke out in a cold sweat.

He mimicked Song Wei's tone and replied to her message. The gist of it was that he was in Xiang Nan Province with his University classmate, Xu Yuan Yuan. They went to the mountains for a trip yesterday and their cell phone had no signal.

Song Wei's mother replied in a second. She sounded like she was complaining that Song Wei had too much fun outside and wanted her to go home early.

Xia ruofei had no choice but to reply, saying that he was traveling to Dian province with his classmates. The plane was about to take off and the stewardess had asked to turn off her phone.

Xia ruofei's information was half – true and half – false. Even if he used his phone to locate her, there would be no flaws.

Xia ruofei was about to turn off Song Wei's phone after he replied.

He sighed. This was not a long – term solution. He had to help Song Wei recover from her soul injury as soon as possible. Otherwise, her family would definitely be suspicious in a few days.

Just as Xia ruofei was about to turn off his phone, his hand accidentally touched the note icon on the home screen.

Before Xia ruofei could react, the notebook had already opened.

Xia ruofei quickly reached out and wanted to close it. After all, this could be a private message from Song Wei. It was not appropriate to open it on his own.

However, he still saw the content on the screen from the corner of his eye. His finger that was already on the home button paused for a moment and he didn't press it.

It seemed to be Song Wei's diary. She had written it three days ago, so it should be the most recent one.

"I'm going to Yuezhou with that guy tomorrow. He actually found out the location of the ancient tomb from Xu Yuanyuan's husband. But ... He's so smart, how can he not see my feelings for him? Do men become slow when it comes to this kind of question? Sigh ... No matter what, I'm really looking forward to going through an adventure with him ..."

Xia ruofei was dumbfounded. No matter how slow he was, he could tell what the girl's Secret was.

He was stunned for a few seconds, then he hurriedly closed the notebook and quickly cleaned up the background. He didn't even bother to charge the phone and sent the phone back into the spirit map space like a child who accidentally got into trouble.

Then, Xia ruofei sat on the sofa in a daze, his mind in a mess.

It was the hardest to enjoy a Beauty's favor. Whether it was Lu You or Song Wei, or even Lu You's cute best friend Jiang Yue, they were all rare beauties. However, to Xia ruofei, this represented a lot of love debts.

Especially Song Wei. If things were the same as before and they didn't interact much, Xia ruofei wouldn't have any psychological burden.

However, the current situation was that Song Wei had gone through so much danger with him in the underground palace because of him. In the end, because he did not take good care of her, the two of them were separated and Song Wei's soul was damaged.

Xia ruofei was already filled with guilt. Now that he had accidentally discovered Song Wei's Secret, he felt even worse.

Xia ruofei had been sitting there in a daze. He did not even hear the announcement that the flight to Hongzhou had started boarding. It was only when a waiter in the VIP lounge came to remind him that he woke up from his dream and quickly got up to go to the gate.

Soon, Xia ruofei boarded the plane through the covered bridge. As he sat in the first – Class cabin and waited for the plane to take off, he was more anxious than ever.

Xia ruofei had also made up his mind. No matter how much Jade he needed to upgrade the realm, he would buy it at all costs, even if it meant that he had to clear all his assets!

The Airbus A320 he was on was finally allowed to take off. After taxiing to the end of the runway, it stopped for a while and quickly accelerated to take off.

After about two hours of flight, the flight landed smoothly on the runway of Hongzhou airport at around 12 noon.

Xia ruofei carried a simple backpack and walked out of the departure hall.

As soon as they walked out of the restricted area, Xia ruofei saw a man in his thirties with a crew cut holding an A4 paper with his name printed on it.

Hence, Xia ruofei walked over quickly. Before he could say anything, a middle – aged man with a big belly next to buzzcut smiled and asked, "You must be Mr. Xia ruofei!"

"I am." Xia ruofei looked at the middle – aged man and asked, "you must be President Yu!"

"I'm Yu mingdong. Mr. Xia, please take care of me!" The fat middle – aged man smiled like a Maitreya Buddha and even handed over his business card with both hands.

Xia ruofei took the name card and smiled gently. "I don't dare! I've decided to buy a batch of Jade at the last minute, so I've caused you trouble!"

"Where? It's just a small matter since Chairman MA has personally instructed it. " Yu mingdong quickly said politely, "Mr. Xia, let's go to Ruizhou first! The car is just outside!"

"Alright, I'll listen to President Yu's arrangements when we're here." Xia ruofei said.

The three of them walked out of the airport together. On the way to the parking lot, Xia ruofei and Yu mingdong had a brief chat. He found out that the man with the crew cut was called Shi Lei. He was Yu mingdong's driver and bodyguard. He was also a retired Special Forces soldier and was very skilled.

Yu Ming Dong smiled and said, "this area is close to the border. The people here are tougher. Some places are even quite chaotic. I will feel more at ease with Lei Zi."

In fact, almost all of the Jade owners who came to Dian province brought bodyguards with them. On the one hand, rich people cherished their lives more, and on the other hand, Ruizhou and Hongzhou were really chaotic.

Yu mingdong brought a Mercedes – Benz business car over. After the three of them got in the car, Yu mingdong smiled and said, “Mr. Xia, it’s time for lunch. I’ve made a reservation at the Junhao hotel in Hongzhou city. How about we have a simple meal before going to Ruizhou?”

Xia ruofei didn’t want to have these social events, but it was indeed almost one o’ clock. He couldn’t let Yu mingdong and Shi Lei accompany him on the road, right?

“Then I’ll have to trouble you, director Yu,” he said with a slight nod.

Xia ruofei continued. “Director Yu, I need this batch of Jade materials urgently. Can you take me to the supplier directly after dinner?”

Chapter 1532: The public bid in Ruizhou (1)

Yu mingdong’s face suddenly showed a hint of embarrassment. He said carefully, “Mr. Xia, it’s like this ... The public Jade bid in Ruizhou will officially begin this afternoon. This public Jade bid is more important to me ...”

Yu mingdong looked at Xia ruofei carefully and said quickly, “Mr. Xia, don’t worry. I’ve already contacted the supplier. You’ll get the goods by tomorrow morning at the latest! If everything goes well at the public Jade bid, we can even do it tonight!”

It was obvious that Ma Zhiming had a very important place in Yu mingdong’s heart. He even had some respect for Ma Zhiming. Therefore, Yu mingdong did not dare to neglect the task that Ma Zhiming had entrusted to him. He was also very careful when he spoke to Xia ruofei.

Although Xia ruofei was anxious, he didn’t want to force her. He nodded and said, “Yes, it’s more important for President Yu to do your own things well!”

“Thank you for your understanding, Mr. Xia!” Yu mingdong then explained, “in fact, the supplier also has to participate in the public Jade bid, so even if I don’t go to the public Jade bid this afternoon, we may not be able to buy the Jade material ...”

“President Yu, you don’t have to explain.” Xia ruofei laughed and said, “I’ve already caused you a lot of trouble by coming over this time. How can I delay your important business?”

“You’re too kind, Mr. Xia.” Yu mingdong heaved a sigh of relief and continued, “Mr. Xia, this must be your first time in Ruizhou! In fact, the public Jade bid is also very interesting. Mr. Xia, you may want to go and have a look in the afternoon. By the way, I’ve hired a very good stone gambling consultant this time. I’ll ask him for advice. Mr. Xia, you can also buy a few stones to play with! Just treat it as entertainment!”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded, "sure!" Then I'll go with President Yu to gain some experience!"

The car quickly drove from the airport to the Junhao hotel in Hongzhou city, which was also the most high – Class hotel in Hongzhou.

Because they had to rush to Ruizhou in the afternoon to participate in the public Jade bid, this was really a "casual meal". Yu mingdong had already ordered a few local signature dishes in advance. As soon as everyone arrived, the dishes were served immediately. The three of them did not drink any alcohol. They quickly finished lunch and continued to drive on the road.

The distance from Hongzhou province to Ruizhou province was over 90 km. After more than an hour, the three people had arrived at Ruizhou province.

It was probably not Shi Lei's first time accompanying Yu mingdong here. He was also very familiar with the roads of Ruizhou. He skillfully drove the Mercedes – Benz business car through the streets and alleys of Ruizhou and soon came to the end of a Street.

There was a large parking lot near the end of the street. After the car drove in, Xia ruofei saw that there were many luxury cars parked in the parking lot.

Yu mingdong said, "Mr. Xia, that's the Jade Street in Ruizhou. The public Jade bid is in the middle and back of the street. We have to walk in."

After Shi Lei parked the car, the three of them got off and walked into the jadeite Street of Rui Zhou.

This was a pedestrian street. The shops on both sides of the street were all selling Jade, and most of them were selling raw stones. Many shops had signs with the words "stone gambling" hanging outside.

Although stone gambling had the word "gambling," it was actually legal. The essence of stone gambling was actually a transaction of raw jade stones.

As the surface of the Jade was covered by a layer of weathered skin, the inside of the Jade could not be seen, and no instrument could detect it.

Therefore, people could only infer that there was Supreme – grade Jade inside by the external characteristics of the shell. Most raw jadeite stones were traded in this way, which was commonly known as "stone gambling."

Yu mingdong saw that Xia ruofei was quite interested in the raw stones displayed at the entrance of these shops and laughed. "Mr. Xia, these shops are all small and full of tricks. It's okay to play with them occasionally, but there's a public Jade bid these days, so there's no need to waste time in these small shops."

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "It seems that the scale of this public bid is not small?"

Yu mingdong said, "the scale of the annual public Jade bid is naturally not small, but Jade is also a non – renewable resource!" In recent years, Jade has been quite hot, and Myanmar a little over – Mining. Both the scale and quality of the raw stones have declined a lot compared to previous years ..."

Yu mingdong sighed and said, "This year's competition will definitely be very intense. I wonder how high the price will be! This line of work is getting more and more difficult ..."

Xia ruofei had seen Yu mingdong's business card and knew that he was the boss of a Jade company. He could not help but smile and ask, "President Yu, isn't the high price a good thing for you?"

Yu mingdong smiled bitterly and said, "in theory, if the price of raw stones is high, the price of jade products will also rise. But for a small company like us, the financial pressure is a bit big!" And if I'm wrong, I might lose everything ..."

"It seems that no industry is easy!" Xia ruofei exclaimed.

"Who said it wasn't!" Yu mingdong looked at the shop next to him and said, "those who do raw stone transactions are more stable. As long as they have a channel to get the goods from Myanmar, they will definitely make a profit!"

The two of them chatted as they walked forward. Shi Lei followed behind them quietly and never interrupted them.

Soon, they arrived at the scene of the public Jade bid in Ruizhou.

Chapter 1533: The public bid in Ruizhou (2)

This place looked more like a large warehouse. It looked rather simple and crude. There was no gorgeous decoration. The roof was made of colored steel tiles. No matter how he looked at it, it looked like a simple warehouse. It was very different from what Xia ruofei had imagined.

What gave people a sense of local tyrants was the constant flow of well – dressed people walking into the "warehouse." In addition, there were seven or eight escort vehicles parked side by side at the door, and even a few sentries holding guns.

Yu mingdong smiled and explained, "these are all gun permits. They were invited by the conference organizer from a security company. After all, some of the raw stones inside are worth a lot!"

At this time, an old man with a head full of silver hair wearing a dark red Tang suit walked towards Yu mingdong from not far away. His face even showed a trace of dissatisfaction, "President Yu, the public Jade bid is about to start. Why are you only here now?"

Yu mingdong smiled and said, "I'm sorry, old he!" I was delayed on the road!"

Then, Yu mingdong immediately introduced, "Mr. Xia, let me introduce you. This is the Honorary Director of the Dian province Jade Association, He Ping, old master he. He's a stone gambling consultant that I've specially invited. Old master he has a lot of experience in the appraisal of raw stones!"

Yu mingdong turned to He Ping. "Elder he, this is Xia ruofei, Mr. Xia. He is a friend of Mr. MA from Hong Kong!"

Initially, He Ping didn't pay much attention to young people like Xia ruofei, but when he saw Yu mingdong introducing him in such a serious manner, he didn't think much of it.

However, when he heard Yu mingdong say that Xia ruofei was “Hong Kong’s Mr. Ma’s friend”, he couldn’t help but narrow his eyes. His expression softened a little and he nodded at Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei also smiled gently and said, “Old he, please give me your guidance!”

“Mr. Xia, you’re too kind,” He Ping said indifferently.

Even if he was Ma Zhiming’s friend, He Ping wouldn’t show as much enthusiasm as Yu mingdong. He only responded with a sentence and immediately said to Yu mingdong, “President Yu, let’s hurry up and enter the venue! The bidding for the first batch of raw stones today ends at five in the afternoon. We don’t have much time left.”

“Good, good, good! I’ll leave it to old he later!” Yu mingdong said with a smile.

He was someone who did business, and he paid particular attention to amiability to make money. Moreover, he also knew that experienced stone gambling experts like he Ping were all a little prideful, so he naturally wouldn’t fuss over the problem of the other party’s attitude.

The group of people came to the entrance. After he Ping showed his invitation to the public Jade bid, he also went through a strict security check before he was allowed to enter the public Jade bid.

After entering, Xia ruofei realized that this “warehouse” actually took up a large area. It was much larger than the parking lot at the end of the street. In addition, although the roof was made of colored steel tiles, there were many lighting devices installed, so the entire public square was as bright as day.

As far as the eye could see, rows of black and yellow raw gemstones of different sizes were densely packed, giving the feeling that there was no end in sight.

These raw gemstones were placed in different positions according to their size and appearance. The smaller ones were placed on display, while the larger ones were placed on the ground.

Each raw stone had a number, and in front of them was a bidding box with the same number.

When they entered, everyone received a stack of two – way slips that had been prepared in advance. Each two – way slip was printed with a unique number. If you liked a raw stone, you just had to write your price on the first page of the two – way slip and put it in the bidding box.

After the bidding closed, the lists in the bidding boxes would be counted up immediately, and the highest bidder would naturally obtain the right to purchase the raw stone. At that time, as long as the second of the two lists was used to pay the purchase fee, they would be able to receive the raw stone.

The rules were very simple, but in the face of such a vast amount of raw stones, it was naturally everyone’s eyesight that had to be tested.

Of course, unlike open auctions, this kind of auction also involved psychological games. One had to guess how much the competitor would pay, and at the same time, calculate the price one could afford to give an appropriate price.

Of course, the starting price of the corresponding raw stone was also attached to each bidding box. Any bid lower than this price would naturally be invalid.

There were so many raw stones here that it was impossible to count them. Of course, many of them could produce Jade. After all, the raw stones that could be sent to the public Jade bid were also selected. However, being able to cut out Jade didn't mean that one could make money. Some of them might not even be worth the starting price, and some of them didn't even have a single piece of Jade. In the end, it all depended on one's eyesight.

This was also the reason why experienced stone gambling consultants were so popular. Xia ruofei was lagging behind just now and had secretly asked Shi Lei. Yu mingdong had asked He Ping to help him take a look. The reward for three days was two million. If the raw stones bought increased in value, there would be an additional bonus.

Perhaps it was because Ma Zhiming's reputation was big enough, but Yu mingdong still attached great importance to Xia ruofei. After entering the public Jade bid, he had been introducing the situation to Xia ruofei.

After all, Xia ruofei's entrance was like Granny Liu's entrance to the Grand View Garden. It was obvious that it was her first time at the public Jade bid. He was also worried that Xia ruofei would be affected by the atmosphere and lose everything in the heat of the moment. If that happened, he would have a hard time explaining to Ma Zhiming.

"Mr. Xia, don't be fooled by the number of people here. In fact, there aren't many people who are here to gamble on stones." Yu mingdong laughed and said, "most of the people here are in the same line of business in the domestic jade industry. Everyone is here to participate in the public bid to hoard as many raw materials as possible. After all, the price of Jade has been rising in recent years."

Xia ruofei nodded. "That is to say, even if the price rises, they will keep the Jade that they cut out for themselves."

"Yup!" Yu mingdong smiled and said, "it's the same for my company. We've always been short on raw materials. We're counting on old He's help this time to buy a few more pieces of good material! Otherwise, we'd really be out of stock."

While he was chatting with Xia ruofei, he did not forget to flatter He Ping.

The silver-haired He Ping also looked like a master from beyond the world, and he was still indifferent to Yu mingdong's compliments.

The group walked past many display shelves but did not stop. Xia ruofei asked curiously, "President Yu, there are so many raw gemstones here, Won't You Be dazzled by the selection?"

Although he did not know much about stone gambling, he had seen it once at the three mountains. Those people who gambled on stones could turn a raw stone over and over for half a day. Even if they were experienced, their efficiency would not be too high!

"This batch of raw stones has already been exhibited for two days. Today is the deadline for the bidding. It can be said that everyone basically already has an idea of which raw stones to choose." Yu mingdong smiled and said, "we're just doing a final confirmation in the afternoon. We also need to weigh the strategy of bidding."

“No wonder ...” Xia ruofei said in his heart. Yu mingdong must have already decided which pieces to compete for, so he and he Ping went straight for their target.

“President Yu, I don’t think the price of this raw stone is low. How will the person who wins the bid trade?” Xia ruofei asked again.

“After the bidding, the qualification to win the bid will be reserved for half an hour. The organizer of the public bid has a special payment office. Cash, credit card, bank transfer, or check are all available!” Yu mingdong said, “the local government supports every public auction. The bank will send people to work on the spot. Precious raw stones can also be directly entrusted to security companies to escort. Even the hospital will send doctors and ambulances over. Every year, there are people who can’t take the public auction because it’s too exciting ...”

Speaking of this, Yu mingdong couldn’t help but laugh.

This was really not a joke. Stone gambling was known as “one knife to the poor, one knife to the rich, one knife to the linen”. It could make a poor person become a millionaire in the blink of an eye, and it could also make tens of millions or hundreds of millions of funds evaporate in an instant. The degree of excitement was no less than real gambling.

After Xia ruofei had a brief understanding of the situation, he had an idea of what was going on. He turned around and looked at the dense raw stones. His heart was burning ...

Chapter 1534: shopping (1)

In fact, when Xia ruofei found out that there was a large – scale public bid for raw jade stones in Rui Zhou, he was already slightly moved.

Although there was no equipment that could see through the stone Skin and detect the Jade content inside, Xia ruofei had a way to determine whether there was Jade and how much Jade content there was in a raw stone. He could even roughly judge the quality of the Jade.

This method was naturally to use the spirit map scroll.

Xia ruofei had used this trick when he was at the three mountains. As long as he touched the raw jade stone with his hand, the scroll would tremble slightly if the raw jade stone contained the Jade needed for the spirit map scroll. The more Jade it contained and the higher the quality, the more intense the reaction would be.

In fact, Xia ruofei had also obtained the world stone by accident. This was also the time when the spirit map scroll had the most intense reaction. He did not even need to touch the world stone and the scroll would tremble on its own. It seemed to be very urgent.

As the saying goes, “even the gods can’t see through an inch of Jade.” Even an experienced stone gambling consultant like he Ping could only make an estimate based on the appearance, color, cracks, or the “window” of the material. At most, the probability of winning was just a little higher than the average person.

Even the best stone gambling consultant couldn’t guarantee 100% accuracy. If it was really so magical, who would be a consultant for others? Wouldn’t he be rich if he bought it?

On the other hand, Xia ruofei’s spiritual map scroll was like a cheating device. Even if he knew nothing about stone gambling, he could still win every bet. Those stone gambling experts and stone gambling consultants could not compare to him.

Take a good gamble!

This thought became even more intense after Xia ruofei entered the public Jade bid.

Buying Jade and raw stones was the same. In comparison, the raw materials that had already been cut out were much more expensive.

Moreover, gambling on raw gemstones was likely to be a bargain.

Perhaps he could get enough Jade to upgrade the spirit map space with a small amount of money. Xia ruofei’s mind was still filled with the idea of upgrading the space as soon as possible. After all, Song Wei was still unconscious!

There were still more than two hours before the bidding would end. Although there were countless raw gemstones on the spot, Xia ruofei did not need to think about it. He could get the answer immediately by touching the raw gemstones. A raw stone could be appraised in less than a second, so there was still enough time.

As for using one’s hands to touch the raw stone, naturally, no one would care. The stone gambling experts had to use a spray bottle, wet cloth, and a strong flashlight. They all wished they could lie on top of the raw stone. To appraise a raw stone, contact was naturally necessary.

These raw stones were not precious antiques. As long as they were not taken away secretly, the security guards at the scene would definitely not interfere.

The only problem now was that these raw gemstones were not being sold through bidding. Instead, everyone would write down their own prices and put them in the bidding box. There was a great deal of coincidence in this.

It was very likely that the raw stone that Xia ruofei had high hopes for would also be favored by many people. It would be hard to say if it would win the bid.

After all, Xia ruofei knew nothing about this line of work. He did not understand the people in the industry at all. He could not judge the price at all and could not guess the approximate price others would offer.

If Xia ruofei also had a stone gambling consultant, it would be fine. After all, there was someone who knew the industry to provide professional advice. However, he was alone now, and he couldn’t let He Ping help him to help Yu mingdong. Time was a little tight.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei quickly thought of a solution and this problem was solved.

He stood in front of a bidding box and tried to use his spiritual force to check it out. He immediately revealed a trace of joy. The list in the bidding box was completely read. Naturally, the price written on it could not escape Xia ruofei's spiritual force.

This was like opening another cheating device. Nothing could stop Xia ruofei from stirring up trouble at the public Jade bid today!

Xia ruofei pondered for a moment and said to Yu mingdong, ""President Yu, you guys are helping you. I'm just looking around!"

Yu mingdong's mind was also filled with the few raw stones that He Ping had his eyes on, so he immediately nodded and said, ""Good! Mr. Xia, if you want to buy a few pieces to play with, don't bid so easily. I'll ask old he to help me check!"

"No need, no need." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you're so busy. Even if I wanted to buy something, I'd just buy it for fun. I don't want to trouble old he."

Yu mingdong and he Ping really didn't have time, so he said readily, ""That's fine, but you'd better not compete for raw stones that are too expensive. The waters in this industry are very deep!"

Xia ruofei knew that Yu mingdong had good intentions. He smiled and nodded. ""I know, President Yu!"

Yu mingdong continued, "Mr. Xia, if there's really a raw stone that you like, you should sell it. The organizer of the duelists has already registered it. I have already paid the deposit. You just have to fill it out and put it in the bidding box. It will definitely be valid!"

In fact, to participate in the public Jade bid, one had to pay a certain amount of security deposit. This was to prevent people from bidding maliciously and disrupting the order of the trade.

Yu mingdong was very thoughtful. When he entered the door just now, he specially took an extra double order book and registered it under his name. It was prepared for Xia ruofei.

Anyway, even if Xia ruofei could not afford it, Mr. MA from Hong Kong would not let him suffer a loss.

Chapter 1535: shopping (2)

"Understood!" Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

After that, Xia ruofei did not walk with Yu mingdong and the rest anymore. Instead, he strolled in another direction.

Yu mingdong looked at Xia ruofei, who was walking further and further away. He saw that Xia ruofei was indeed like a rookie who was participating in a public bid for the first time. Along the way, he touched the raw stones in front of him from time to time, his eyes filled with curiosity, but he never stopped in front of a single raw stone for a moment.

Yu mingdong smiled and said to He Ping, ""Old he, let's continue!"

.....

After leaving Yu mingdong and the rest, Xia ruofei was not very conspicuous in the crowd. As he strolled along, he couldn't help but secretly click his tongue. Throughout the journey, the spirit maps and paintings had almost no reaction. Only a few pieces would tremble slightly.

This meant that the raw stones that didn't react contained very little Jade, or even no Jade at all.

Xia ruofei even stood in front of a raw stone that had no reaction in the painting for a while and used his spiritual power to check the situation inside the bidding box.

This was because the starting price of this raw stone was not low, it was 80000 Yuan.

In the end, Xia ruofei found that there were already more than a dozen orders in the bidding box. The highest price was 200000 Yuan.

In other words, if no one else made a higher bid, then the highest bidder would have used 200000 to buy an ordinary stone.

Even if this stone came from old Keng, it was still too much of a scam!

There were many of such raw stones, which showed how high the risk of stone gambling was.

Xia ruofei smiled and shook his head. He continued to stroll around the public Jade bid as if nothing had happened.

He would touch every raw stone he passed by, intentionally or otherwise.

Occasionally, Xia ruofei would stop in his tracks and jot down notes in a small notebook. There were quite a few people like him in Xuxu's field, so his actions were not eye – catching.

Naturally, only the spirit paintings had a huge reaction to Xia ruofei's presence.

He was mainly recording the number, position, and the highest bid price of the raw gemstones.

Although the public Jade bid was huge and there were a lot of raw stones, Xia ruofei's efficiency was high!

He spent almost an hour to "appraise" all the raw gemstones.

Although some people noticed Xia ruofei who was strolling around, they only thought that he was a young man who came out to see the world with his family elders and did not pay much attention to him.

No one knew that Xia ruofei's little notebook was now filled with notes.

Similarly, Xia ruofei could not see the inside of the raw gemstone. He was making a comparison and judgment based on the reaction of the spiritual map in his body.

Hence, in these records, there were many special symbols that only Xia ruofei could understand.

These symbols represented different levels of priority.

Besides, Xia ruofei's spiritual power had already reached the stage of the palpitations. His brain was more developed than the average person's. Even if he couldn't remember everything he saw, it wasn't too far off.

If an ordinary person's brain was like a normal home computer, Xia ruofei's brain's analytical ability was at least a large server or even a normal supercomputer.

Hence, Xia ruofei quickly sorted out the data.

In a short while, Xia ruofei had already identified eight targets. These were the results of Xia ruofei's continuous selection.

After all, there were too many raw stones in the public bid and many of them contained Jade. No matter how big Xia ruofei's appetite was, it was impossible for him to eat all of them in one go.

Whether he had enough money or not was secondary. The key was that if he did this, the raw stones that others bought would all be a pile of waste stones. Once this strange situation happened, even a fool would know that there was a problem.

Even if he bought a raw gemstone and did not open it on the spot, the organizer would keep a record. By then, other than him buying a large number of raw gemstones, if everyone else lost, it would definitely be noticed by people with ulterior motives.

Therefore, being too greedy was not good.

In addition, to be honest, Xia ruofei did not have enough money.

Xia ruofei was considered to have some assets, but in this public Jade bid, there were a few giant raw stones with the potential to be the king bid. The starting price was easily tens of millions. Even if he had a big appetite, he could not buy all of them.

Therefore, he had to make a choice.

First of all, Xia ruofei eliminated those that would definitely have Jade but would not have a high Jade content.

Secondly, although some of the spirit paintings also had intense reactions, they had already opened up a window. Their performance was quite good, and the starting price was ridiculously high. Xia ruofei had to bear the pain and rule out those. The reason was simple – they were not cost – effective.

Xia ruofei bought the raw stones for the realm to absorb and upgrade. He was not going to sell them for a higher price after opening them. He would not open them on the spot. Therefore, in a situation where he had many choices, he naturally excluded those that cost too much.

Xia ruofei's main focus was on the raw stones that the organizers and stone gamblers did not think highly of but were actually of high quality.

To put it bluntly, he was picking up scraps.

Naturally, there were not many opportunities to pick up the scraps. However, with the support of the huge number of pieces, Xia ruofei still found a few.

Out of the eight raw gemstones that he had finally decided on, seven of them were the kind that did not show off. Some of them were even ignored by almost no one, but the reaction of the spirit paintings was very obvious.

Chapter 1536: shopping (3)

Most importantly, these seven raw stones were quite cheap.

Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to look into the bidding box. The highest bid for the seven raw stones so far was only slightly more than three million. In other words, as long as he seized the opportunity, he could win it for more than three million.

Even if Xia ruofei didn't want to make it too obvious and just happened to be above the highest price, the total price would not exceed 3.5 million.

Although Xia ruofei could not calculate the exact value of the Jade contained in these seven raw gemstones, he could tell from the reaction of the spirit painting scroll that it was more than ten times the value of the other raw gemstones. It was definitely a business with a high profit.

As long as he did it well, Xia ruofei could buy jade worth 30 to 40 million Yuan with only three million Yuan.

With so much Jade, it might even be enough for the spirit map space to upgrade.

All Xia ruofei wanted to do now was to quickly upgrade the realm, so he was also tempted.

As for the last raw stone among the eight he had chosen, it was not cheap.

The starting price of this raw stone was five million Yuan. Although it was a raw stone that was completely gambled on, it was still very popular.

First of all, this raw jade stone was quite big. Judging from its size, it could be ranked at least in the top 15 of the public Jade bid this time. It was almost the size of an eight – seater table. A conservative estimate of its weight was more than 1000 pounds. It would probably take a forklift to move it.

Perhaps it was because of its good appearance, but Xia ruofei did not understand. However, there were many stone – gambling experts who had been observing the raw stone carefully, which explained the problem.

When Xia ruofei was shopping, there were already dozens of bids for the raw stone No. 1896. Xia ruofei carefully checked and found that the highest bid was 8.3 million.

There was still an hour or so before the bidding deadline, and the price might be updated again.

Although this raw stone was very popular and the price was terrifyingly high, Xia ruofei was not willing to cross it out of the book after much consideration.

The reason was simple. This raw gemstone was capable of causing the spirit painting scroll to tremble violently. The intensity of the reaction was at least among the top three raw gemstones present.

As for the other two raw gemstones, which had a stronger reaction, Xia ruofei gave up without much hesitation.

Both raw stones were semi – gambled, and the starting price was higher. The competition was more intense. There were at least two to three hundred bids in the bidding box for the raw stone in the first place, and the highest bid was seventy to eighty million.

If everything went as expected, that raw stone would be today's highest bid.

In fact, from the reaction of the spiritual map, the Jade contained in this quasi – Mark King was definitely not ten times that of the raw stone that Xia ruofei had left behind.

Let alone ten times, it would probably be difficult to even double or triple.

Therefore, the raw stone that might cost eight to nine million Yuan to buy was the most valuable.

Xia ruofei thought about it for a long time and felt that he would not be willing to give up any of the eight raw gemstones.

He finally made up his mind to try to get them all!

So, he took out his phone and transferred 10 million US dollars from an overseas account. Then, he began to pay attention to the eight raw stones that he had his eyes on. He was ready to write down the most suitable price to invest before the bidding deadline.

Chapter 1537: 100% accuracy (1)

The seven raw gemstones that Xia ruofei had chosen were not as popular, so there were fewer bidders. Xia ruofei kept an eye on the situation in the bidding boxes as he “strolled”.

On the other hand, the big rough stone with the lowest starting price of 5 million Yuan was more popular. People had been looking at it carefully, especially as it was approaching the bidding deadline. From time to time, people would put in their written forms.

Hence, Xia ruofei's main focus was on this raw stone.

Yu mingdong and he Ping were also nervously paying attention to the few targets they had chosen. Among them, there were a few pieces that had not been decided on the final price, so naturally, they had no time to care about Xia ruofei.

Time passed by.

When the live broadcast indicated that there were ten minutes left before the bidding deadline, Xia ruofei started to act.

He quickened his pace and came to the first raw stone he had chosen. After using his spiritual power to probe it, he quickly wrote down a price and tore the first couplet off before putting it in.

Xia ruofei did not stop and continued to walk towards the other raw stone he had chosen.

In a short while, Xia ruofei had thrown the first seven raw stones.

If he could get all seven raw gemstones as he wished, Xia ruofei would have to pay about 3.3 million.

In the end, Xia ruofei returned to the front of the largest raw stone.

Of course, he had been paying attention to the first seven raw gemstones. He would be a little nervous when someone passed by the raw gemstones. Fortunately, these seven raw gemstones were really unpopular, so no one bid for them in the last few minutes.

As for the large raw stone that Xia ruofei was most concerned about, there were still new orders coming in in the last few minutes.

Hence, Xia ruofei's main focus was still on this side.

Fortunately, this bidding model was not an open bidding, so everyone had their own judgment on the value of the raw stone and the bidding strategy of potential competitors. Therefore, although there were many people competing, the highest price would not be too outrageous.

Xia ruofei was standing right next to the raw gemstone. His spiritual power was covering the bidding box, so he knew everyone's bid.

It was like other people were fighting a battle of wits and courage in this bidding model, while Xia ruofei was facing a completely open and transparent card.

There were still three minutes before the bidding deadline, and the highest bid for the raw stone was 8.52 million.

Xia ruofei did not hesitate. He wrote a price of 8.6 million Yuan, tore off the first couplet, folded it, and stuffed it into the bidding box.

There was no rule that one could only bid once, so Xia ruofei first wrote a price to ensure that he would win the bid. If someone else offered a higher price in the last three minutes, he would raise the price again.

After Xia ruofei threw the stone, he stood near the stone and observed the eight stones he had chosen.

The seven raw gemstones were still uninterested, but there were still people who came to bid for the largest stone in the last few minutes.

The performance of this raw stone might really be good, and there were many people who thought highly of it.

However, people in the industry had a general standard of judgment, and this was a raw material that was all gambled on, so everyone's bid was not too outrageous.

Up until the bidding deadline, no one had offered a price higher than 8.6 million.

Xia ruofei heaved a sigh of relief when he heard the announcement and the staff came to maintain order.

If nothing unexpected happened, he would have all eight raw gemstones!

The organizer's staff began to clear the venue. They needed to put all the bidding boxes together and calculate the bidding situation under the supervision of the notary.

Xia ruofei quickly found Yu mingdong and the rest. Yu mingdong had a relaxed smile on his face and looked very confident.

"Mr. Xia, let's go find a place to have dinner!" Yu mingdong laughed and said, "at 7:30 p.m., The bidding results will be announced one after another. We'll come again then!"

"Alright, I'll follow your arrangements, President Yu!" Xia ruofei smiled.

Except for the organizer's cars, special vehicles such as escort vehicles and ambulances, no other cars were allowed to enter jadeite Street. Therefore, the bosses with assets worth hundreds of millions walked out.

Xia ruofei and the rest chatted as they walked.

"Mr. Xia, what do you think of the public Jade bid?" Yu mingdong asked with a smile.

"It's my first time here, so I can't really describe the feeling. But the scale is really quite big." Xia ruofei said.

"That's right! This is one of the largest public Jade auctions in Dian province, and all the jewelers and Jade businessmen in the country are gathered here!" Yu mingdong said with a smile, and then asked casually, "did Mr. Xia bet a few pieces to play?"

"I did join in the fun and place a few orders for fun ..." Xia ruofei smiled faintly.

Yu mingdong asked with some interest, "Oh? How much did Mr. Xia invest?"

Xia ruofei thought for a moment and said, "more than 20 million!" I didn't calculate the exact number. "

He had made a higher bid because he was sure that the eight raw stones he had invested in would definitely win the bid after spending about twelve million Yuan.

Otherwise, if he said that he had invested more than 12 million Yuan and won the bid for every piece, it would be a little hard to explain.

What Xia ruofei did not expect was that the number he reported would give Yu mingdong a big shock.

"More than 20 million!" Yu mingdong was speechless.

He had only invested less than 40 million Yuan today. After all, a small and medium – sized Jade merchant like him could not compare to the Hengfeng group.

Chapter 1538: 100% accuracy (2)

The MA family's Hengfeng group had a stable supply channel, and they often purchased goods in the hundreds of millions. For example, they simply didn't send anyone to participate in the Ruizhou public auction this time.

For Yu mingdong, more than 40 million was not a small number. After all, this was a gamble. If he was unlucky, more than 40 million might be lost.

The possibility of losing everything was low, but it was normal for the capital to shrink by ten or twenty times.

He did not expect that Xia ruofei, who knew nothing about stone gambling and was only here to watch the show, would dare to invest more than 20 million.

Yu mingdong was even a little worried for a moment. After all, Xia ruofei's bid was registered under his name. If Xia ruofei really won the bid and couldn't pay the money, he wouldn't be able to get back the security deposit he paid.

However, this was just a thought that flashed through Yu mingdong's mind. As long as he thought about how Ma Zhiming had personally called in the middle of the night to help Xia ruofei contact and buy jade, the uneasiness in his heart disappeared.

Birds of a feather flock together. How could a person who had such a close relationship with Mr. MA from Hong Kong not be able to pay 20 million?

Moreover, even if Xia ruofei really did not have the money to pay and caused his security deposit to be deducted, Mr. MA would definitely not ignore it.

However, Yu mingdong still felt that Xia ruofei was too bold.

"Mr. Xia," he could not help but say, "the risk of stone gambling is still very high. You don't know much about this industry. If you invest so much rashly ..."

He Ping, who was at the side, could not help but shake his head. To him, Xia ruofei was just a rich young master. He knew nothing about this industry, yet he dared to throw money like this. He was really ignorant and fearless.

Xia ruofei chuckled. "President Yu, it's just a bid. We don't even know if we'll win!"

"That's true ..." Yu mingdong nodded.

He felt a little more at ease because he knew that the price of the raw stone was difficult to grasp even for people in the trade. The starting price might not be of any significance, so it was not surprising that the winning bid price was several times higher than the starting price.

After all, this was not a public auction. Xia ruofei had invested more than 20 million in the order. It was hard to say how much he would win in the end.

If Xia ruofei only used the starting price as a reference, the probability of winning the bid would be very low.

However, Yu mingdong still reminded him and said, "Mr. Xia, you have to be more careful in the future. Actually, you can ask old he and me for our opinions. In the business of stone gambling, it's hard to figure out the way without rich experience ..."

Xia ruofei smiled. "Okay. Thank you for the reminder, director Yu."

Yu mingdong saw Xia ruofei's nonchalant look and guessed that Xia ruofei probably didn't lack money at all. He didn't care about ten or twenty million at all, so he didn't say anything more.

Because the bidding results would be announced at Seven o'clock, the group did not go far after they got their cars. They found a well-decorated restaurant nearby, ordered a few dishes, and hurried back to the Jade public square after eating.

In a short two hours, the public Jade bid had been completely renewed.

The area where the raw gemstones were originally placed had been isolated. A long service Desk had been set up at the forefront, and all the staff were in place.

The huge screen at the most eye-catching position on the venue was also turned on. In a while, the bidding results would roll on the big screen and be announced.

Since there were more raw gemstones to be traded this time, the bidding results that had already been announced would be posted at the venue. In addition, the organizer had provided a few computers so that customers could also check the bidding status of the raw gemstones of a certain number through the computers.

When Xia ruofei and the others arrived at the public Jade bid, many people had already arrived.

Everyone was waiting anxiously, and many people were craning their necks to look at the empty big screen.

After a while, there was a commotion in the crowd.

"He's out! It's out!"

"It's in serial number! I have a raw stone with a number that's quite close to the front, quickly match it!"

"Guan Yin Bodhisattva, please bless me. You must let me get a few pieces! There's no rice in the factory to go into the pot ..."

Xia ruofei also looked up at the big screen. As expected, the latest bidding information began to appear.

The information was in the form of a table. There were three very simple columns, which were the raw stone number, the winning bid price, and the corresponding winning bid ticket number.

Yu mingdong also looked at the big screen nervously, and from time to time, he took out his notebook to look at it.

Out of the eight raw gemstones that Xia ruofei had chosen, two of them had the first 100 numbers. At this rate, the bidding information would probably appear on the next few screens.

However, Xia ruofei was very confident and was not very anxious. Instead, he was interested in the reaction of the people around him.

Although stone gambling was a legal raw stone trade, the people who participated in the trade were really like gamblers at the moment. They all widened their eyes, stretched their necks, and stared at the big screen.

To be more precise, these people were more like the stock investors in the stock exchange Center who paid attention to the market before the internet became popular.

“I got one! Cool!”

“Al! I wrote 20000 Yuan less, and it was actually taken away ...”

“I’ve been looking at raw stone number 36 for more than an hour! That’s a conservative bid!”

Chapter 1539: A hundred shots, a hundred accuracy (3)

The people around him cheered or sighed from time to time. Xia ruofei looked at Yu mingdong beside him and realized that he was also extremely nervous. He held the little notebook tightly in his hand and stared at the big screen without blinking.

Soon, the results of Xia ruofei’s bidding for the two raw stones with the smallest numbers were out.

Without a doubt, Xia ruofei had made the right choice.

He had already memorized the number of the raw stone and the bidding list in his heart. He didn’t need to look at his little notebook from time to time like Yu mingdong and the others.

Someone had already walked to the service desk, showed the second couplet of the bidding slip, and started to swipe his card for the transaction.

In the area where the raw stones were placed, the staff began to get busy. They shuttled back and forth, picking up a piece of raw stone from time to time and returning it to the service desk.

A few small forklifts were also moving around the area to pick up the larger raw stones and move them to the service desk.

Xia ruofei was not in a hurry. He decided to wait until all eight of his raw stones were opened before settling the bill.

The largest raw stone was numbered 1896. It was also the largest one among the eight raw gemstones.

It would take a long time to drive out more than 1000.

At this moment, Xia ruofei realized that Yu mingdong, who was beside him, had clenched his fist tightly. His face revealed a trace of joy.

“President Yu, you bought it?” Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

“Mm! Old he is very optimistic about this raw stone. I’m 10% higher than the normal valuation, and I’ve finally won it!” Yu mingdong said happily, “I’ve already missed two raw stones in front ...”

“Congratulations!” Xia ruofei said.

“I hope it’ll be a good result after it’s opened ...” Yu mingdong laughed.

“Mr. Yu, which one is it?” Xia ruofei asked casually.

Yu mingdong smiled and said, “number 633!” This raw stone was not small! Its appearance and performance are also very good!”

Xia ruofei remembered immediately. He had some impression of raw stone No. 633. It was about the same size as raw stone No. 1896 that he had chosen at the end.

At that time, the spirit map scroll also reacted to raw stone No. 633, but it was much less than the reaction of raw stone No. 1896. It was almost the same as the reaction of the basin – sized raw stone he had previously chosen.

The price – Performance ratio was too low, so Xia ruofei quickly excluded number 633.

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei could not help but look at the big screen. At this time, the information on the screen just happened to scroll to the screen of raw stone No. 633. He looked at the bid price -21.35 million!

Xia ruofei’s face twitched. It was so high!

He was sure that the value of the Jade contained in this raw stone was definitely not comparable to that of the raw stone No. 1896 that he was about to buy with 8.6 million Yuan. At best, it was about the same value as the other small raw stone that he was going to buy.

Xia ruofei had only spent 350000 Yuan on the basin – sized raw stone, which was a fraction of the price of raw stone No. 633.

Although Xia ruofei didn’t know much about Jade, he could still make a good judgment.

He looked at the happy Yu mingdong and said in his heart, “This guy might be screwed today ...

However, he couldn’t say it out loud. He didn’t know how to help Yu mingdong recover his losses, so he could only wish him good luck.

Soon, Xia ruofei turned his attention back to the big screen.

In a short while, the bidding results for the raw stones that Xia ruofei had chosen were out one by one.

Number 708, won the bid!

Number 836, won the bid!

Number 992, won the bid!

.....

After waiting for more than half an hour, the bid for No. 1896 finally appeared.

“Winning bid: 8.6 million HxB!”

Xia ruofei secretly heaved a sigh of relief. He had won all eight raw stones with less than 12 million Yuan!

To Xia ruofei, the results were clear.

He took out a small stack of second couplets of bidding slips from his pocket and walked towards the service desk that had already begun to get busy.

Yu mingdong, who was beside Xia ruofei, saw this and quickly asked, “Mr. Xia, where are you going?”

Xia ruofei smiled. “I was lucky. I bought a few pieces. I’m going to pay for the goods!”

Yu mingdong was stunned for a moment and felt a little surprised. He quickly smiled and said, “Let’s go together! I still have a few pieces with lower serial numbers, so I can’t get them out so quickly!”

Chapter 1540: Upgrade threshold_1

“Mr. Xia, how many did you win?” Yu mingdong asked with a smile as he walked.

Until now, he still treated Xia ruofei as a newbie who did not know anything about stone gambling. This newbie might be rich, but in this public bid where there were so many experts, even if he won, it would probably be a blind cat’s luck or he would only get one or two raw stones that did not look good.

Xia ruofei smiled. “Let me see ... If I’m not mistaken, it should be eight pieces!”

“Oh, eight pieces, not bad ...” Yu mingdong said casually, then his eyes widened and he shouted, “what? Eight pieces! You actually managed to hit eight ...”

Then, Yu mingdong asked nervously, “How much is it in total?”

“Not much, about 12 million!” Xia ruofei said casually, “there are still a few raw stones that I didn’t manage to get!”

Actually, Xia ruofei had only invested these eight Yuan, but he had to say it!

Yu mingdong was a little dumbfounded and a little worried at the same time. Many of the raw stones on the public bid were uncertain. Even he didn’t dare to make a decision easily, so he hired He Ping as a consultant with a high salary.

It was no exaggeration to say that even a Jade merchant like him, who had been in the business for many years, could lose everything here if he was not careful.

Previously, when Xia ruofei said that he had invested more than 20 million, Yu mingdong was only a little surprised. After all, he might not win even if he invested, so he did not say much.

But now that he had actually won, he would have to pay real money!

That was 12 million Yuan!

Yu mingdong felt that Xia ruofei probably didn't understand the tricks behind this, so he invested an outrageous high price. That was why he could win the bid among so many people in the industry.

If Xia ruofei were to lose a few million at the public bid, it would be hard for Yu mingdong to explain to Ma Zhiming!

Yu Ming Dong suddenly felt a headache.

"Mr. Xia, which raw gemstones did you choose?" he asked urgently.

Although Zhongdu had won and it was too late to say anything, Yu mingdong still wanted to understand the situation. To be precise, he wanted to evaluate Xia ruofei's losses.

Xia ruofei told her the serial numbers of the raw gemstones that he had won the bid for.

Among these eight raw stones, the first seven were very unremarkable, and there were thousands of raw stones of various sizes in the entire public bid. Yu mingdong naturally had no impression of these numbers.

However, when Xia ruofei reported the number of the eighth raw stone, No. 1896, his eyes could not help but shine.

"So you got number 1896!" Yu mingdong said, "if I remember correctly, the winning bid was 8.6 million Yuan!"

This raw stone was also the focus of Yu mingdong's attention. However, after many comparisons with He Ping, he felt that the possibility of a big increase was not high. He Ping believed that number 633 had more potential.

Although No. 633's starting price was higher and the competition was more intense, Yu mingdong still decided to take a gamble in the end. In the end, he got his wish and won the raw stone at a price of 21.35 million.

As for whether it was a profit or a loss, Xia ruofei was the only one who knew.

Yu mingdong thought about it. Number 1896 was not bad. The price of 8.6 million was much higher than he had expected. After he had discussed with He Ping, he felt that 7 million was the upper limit. If it went any higher, there would be no profit. In addition, the competition was more intense, so he gave up.

But in any case, it was unlikely that this raw stone would suffer a huge loss. Even if he was unlucky, according to the current performance of this raw stone, he should be able to get an Imperial Jade worth three to four million Yuan.

When he thought of this, Yu mingdong also heaved a sigh of relief.

Xia ruofei said that he won eight pieces for a total of 12 million. However, this number 1896 had already cost him 8.6 million for one piece. This meant that the other pieces were very cheap. Even if he lost all of them, he would not lose much.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "Yup! I thought this raw stone was good at first glance, and I saw that many people were interested in it, so I simply set a higher price. I didn't expect to really win!"

Yu mingdong was speechless. This was more than eight million Yuan, not eight hundred Yuan! He didn't understand stone gambling at all and had actually placed his bid so casually.

However, it was already a foregone conclusion. Xia ruofei seemed to be quite happy, so he probably wouldn't go back on his word. Besides, even if he lost money, it wouldn't be a big loss. Yu mingdong didn't say anything more.

Xia ruofei didn't know that he had already become a silly but rich second generation in Yu mingdong's heart.

The two of them walked to an empty Service Desk.

At this time, many people who won the bid had already come over to pay and hand over the goods. The staff was also busy shuttling back and forth in the raw gemstones display area.

When Xia ruofei and Xia Xiaofei arrived, a good – looking staff member immediately welcomed them with a smile.

Xia ruofei first showed the second couplet of the eight biddings. After the staff checked it on the computer, he immediately smiled and said, "Sir, congratulations on winning the bid. I also wish that the number of raw stones you buy will increase greatly!"

"Thank you!" Xia ruofei said and asked, "can I use my card?"

"Of course, please wait a moment!" The staff member said.

She quickly calculated the total amount of the transaction and took the bank card from Xia ruofei. She swiped the card swiftly. Xia ruofei entered the password and signed. Twelve million was spent without even blinking.

"Please wait for a moment. Our staff will send your raw stone over very soon."
