Chapter 1671: God's arrangement (1)

Brook's nerves were still tense. He stared at the speedometer and saw that the plane's speed was rapidly decreasing under the effect of the reverse push and brake. When the speed reached 70 knots, Brook shouted, "Xia, reverse the slow car!"

Originally, Brook was worried that the running track would be too short, so he was prepared to take a risk and push back later.

However, Xia ruofei's landing this time, other than being a little heavier, was perfect. The landing gear touched the ground as soon as he entered the landing area. It could be said that he had made the best use of the runway.

Considering the fact that Xia ruofei had never flown a plane before, the landing could be said to be perfect, or even a miracle.

Brook felt much more at ease when he saw the plane's speed drop. He followed the procedure and reminded Xia ruofei to place the propeller in slow motion at 70 knots to protect the engine.

"Understood!" Xia ruofei said. Then, he followed what Brook had taught him and slowed down the car.

The anti – thrust deceleration effect decreased, but the plane's speed did not increase significantly. It was still slowly decreasing, and soon it dropped to taxiing speed.

This time, Xia ruofei didn't need Brook's reminder and immediately turned off the power source.

"Xia," Brook said after some thought, "do you have the confidence to fly the plane onto the runway?"

Saipan airport only had one runway. If the plane was forced to land on the runway, it was equivalent to the closing of the airport. Now that everything was so smooth, Brook naturally wanted to make it more perfect by letting the plane enter the runway so that it would not occupy the runway.

Xia ruofei was full of confidence. He smiled and said, "We've already descended from such a high place, what's the point of entering the slippery track? No problem!"

"OK!" Brook immediately contacted Taitai. "Taitai, flight QF108 has requested to leave the runway from the next exit!"

"I agree!" Taitai said bluntly.

The usually calm tower administrator was also unable to suppress his excitement.

He had seen very clearly from the tower that the Airbus A350, which had lost its right windshield, had landed steadily on the runway. He could not believe that it was piloted by a passenger who had never been in contact with a fixed – Wing plane.

This administrator had once dreamed of flying, but he was eliminated during his aviation theory study stage. Later, he really couldn't bear to leave the aviation field, so he changed his career to undergo administrator training. He had paid a lot of effort to be able to take on this extremely stressful job.

Seeing the scene of Xia ruofei's landing, the officer found it hard to suppress his dream of flying.

Later, he really re – signed up for the company's Pilot Recruitment. In the end, he successfully passed through a series of training and became a pilot, obtaining the career he had dreamed of.

Of course, this was all a story for later.

Xia ruofei naturally did not know that his actions would affect the life of an ordinary supervisor.

At this time, he was carefully controlling the plane, leaving the runway from the next exit and driving it onto the runway.

Fire engines, ambulances, and police cars were already lined up on the slippery track parallel to the running track. All sorts of police lights were flashing.

When the plane was taxiing, these special vehicles followed the plane on the runway.

When Xia ruofei controlled the plane to turn steadily into the runway, a guide car drove in front of the plane while the other cars stopped at the entrance of the runway. After the plane turned into the runway, they followed it.

The guide car brought the plane to an empty tarmac, and the staff sent a signal for the plane to stop.

When the plane landed steadily on the tarmac, Xia ruofei followed Brook's instructions and quickly turned off the engine and the electric doors.

Even now, Brook still felt like he was in a dream. Now that his feet were on the ground, he still couldn't believe that it was a passenger who had never flown a plane before who landed the plane. Even though he had seen it with his own eyes, he still couldn't believe it.

Xia ruofei heaved a long sigh of relief, unfastened his seat belt, and turned around to smile at Feng Rao. ""Sister ran, we're finally on solid ground! I'm really afraid that I'll slip and crash the plane ... If that's the case, I'm really sorry. I was kind enough to let you go to Australia to relax, but I almost got you killed ..."

Feng Jing's eyes were still teary. She could not explain what she was feeling. She did not pay attention to what was happening outside during the entire landing. She maintained an awkward position and stared at Xia ruofei without blinking. That was why her waist was sore and in pain.

When the plane touched the ground, she suddenly felt touched and couldn't stop her tears.

At this time, the plane had been surrounded by all kinds of special vehicles. The crew members were organizing the passengers to evacuate. Everything was busy but orderly.

With tears in her eyes, Feng Rao burst into laughter and said, ""You're really stupid and bold! You've never even flown a plane before, yet you dare to sit on it!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "sister ran is on the plane!" I can't just sit here and wait for death! I can only bite the bullet and do it!"

Feng Jing's face reddened. Xia ruofei didn't mean to say anything flirtatious. He even said it in a joking tone. However, after experiencing life and death together, Feng Jing's heart throbbed even more intensely. Even a casual word from Xia ruofei could make her imagination run wild ...

Chapter 1672: God's arrangement (2)

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing were conversing in Chinese, so naturally, Brook could not understand what they were talking about. However, he could not help but admire Xia ruofei's strong mental fortitude when he saw that Xia ruofei was still so calm and composed after completing such a magnificent feat.

While the two were talking, Brook finally found a chance to interrupt. He said sincerely, "Xia, you've created a great miracle! I think this must be God's plan. You're the angel he sent to save us!"

Brook was a devout Christian, and his personal experience made him believe that this was God's arrangement.

If not for Xia ruofei, they would not have been able to open the cockpit door. Brook, who had received professional training, knew very well that even if they hacked at the cockpit for an hour with an explosion – proof axe, there would not be much damage to the cockpit door. However, it was impossible for Wilkinson, who was in control of the plane at that time, to give them that much time.

However, Xia ruofei had split the cockpit door open with just a few slashes. Then, he had used his body to break the door open. If he had not seen it with his own eyes and had been described to him by someone else, Brook would have thought that this person had gone crazy.

What happened next was even more amazing. Wilkinson's death wish came true, and he was sucked out of the plane that was 10000 meters in the air. The in – charge Captain, Johannson, had been poisoned to death, and the only pilot, Brook, had both his arms injured. No one could control the plane. They had thought that this was the end of the line, but they did not expect to see a glimmer of hope.

This young man with extraordinary strength had actually mastered the basic control of the plane very quickly. Then, he had unbelievably piloted the giant Airbus A350 and successfully landed. Even the plane was basically undamaged.

If this was not God's arrangement, what else could be explained?

Xia ruofei laughed and said in English, "Captain Brook, I'm Chinese and I'm not a Christian. I don't think your God knows me. If it's really God's arrangement, it should be the gods of our Huaxia who sent me here ..."

"No, no, no, God is everywhere!" Brook said, "our piety must have touched God, so he arranged for you to board this plane!"

Facing a devout believer, Xia ruofei felt that it was useless to waste his breath on him. So, he simply shrugged and did not refute Brook's words.

Xia ruofei saw that Brook's bandaged left arm was starting to bleed again, so he said, "Captain Brook, let me help you treat the wound on your arm!"

“Xia, you’re a doctor?” Brook asked in surprise.

Xia ruofei shrugged his shoulders. “I’m not a medical practitioner, but I do know some medical skills. I’m a Chinese doctor. If you don’t mind, I can help you with the preliminary treatment. After all, you’re bleeding!”

Originally, Brook didn’t really believe in Chinese medicine. However, he had absolute trust in Xia ruofei. He replied without hesitation, “Of course not! Xia, please help me!”

Xia ruofei nodded and leaned over from the pilot’s seat. He first undid the blood – soaked bandage on Brook’s arm, then gently tore off his left sleeve. As it was summer in Australia, Brook changed into a short – sleeved flight uniform after the plane’s air – conditioning started working. Xia ruofei easily tore off the sleeve.

Brook’s arm was hit by two steel balls. He didn’t know if he was lucky or unlucky. The steel balls hit the thick windshield and flew everywhere. If they had hit his head instead of his arm, he would have been dead. However, he was unlucky enough to be hit by two steel balls on the same arm.

Xia ruofei stretched out his hand and quickly pointed around Brook’s wound. The bleeding stopped immediately. What was even more amazing was that Brook felt less pain.

In fact, Xia ruofei could have used his genuine Qi to force the steel ball out of Brook’s arm. However, he did not want to make a scene and decided to leave it to the hospital.

Hence, after stopping Brook’s bleeding and pain through his acupuncture points, Xia ruofei asked Feng Rao to find a first aid kit from the back of the seat. She then used gauze and bandages to bandage Brook.

As a veteran who had received battlefield first aid training, Xia ruofei was naturally fast and good at bandaging his wound. He finished it in a short while.

Brook said excitedly, “God!” From now on, I won’t believe those rumors that say Chinese medicine is witchcraft and a scam anymore! Xia, your medical skills are amazing ...”

Indeed, from the perspective of Western medicine, it was difficult to explain why a few simple taps could stop the bleeding and pain. This was because in the theory of Western medicine, acupuncture points and meridians did not exist. The theoretical foundation of Chinese medicine was groundless in the perspective of Western medicine.

Xia ruofei smiled. “I can’t do much. I’ll leave the rest to the professional doctors.”

“You’re a hundred times better than those professional doctors!” Brook was not stingy with his praise!

“Hahaha! Then I can consider opening a Chinese medicine clinic after retirement!” Xia ruofei said.

“Then your business will be very good!” Brook said with certainty.

As they were talking, someone walked into the cockpit. Brook saw the person and immediately said, “Hey! Alex! I’ve never wanted to see your annoying old face as much as I do today!”

Chapter 1673: God's arrangement (3)

Alex was a little old man in his early fifties. His white hair was very sparse, and the staff uniform on his chubby body was tight. He had a hearty smile on his face.

"Brook! I'm the same!" Alex said, "when I saw you in the past, I wanted to step on your face a few times! Today, I'm the exact opposite. I'm looking forward to seeing you alive. I didn't even look forward to it this much on our first date when we were young ..."

The two of them burst out laughing. Xia ruofei felt that if Brook was not injured and could not raise his hand, the two of them would have hugged each other. The thought of that scene was full of gay love ...

After exchanging a few words with Brook, Alex turned to Xia ruofei and said, "You must be Mr. Xia! Let me introduce myself. I'm the station master of the Quosé airlines station in Saipan. My name is Alex! On behalf of Quasé airlines, I would like to express my gratitude to Mr. Xia for his heroic feat! The company's senior management is on their way to Saipan, and they will thank you in person!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Mr. Alex, I just don't want to fall into the sea with the plane!" Captain Brook has been a great help. Otherwise, I'm afraid I wouldn't have been able to handle such a complex and sophisticated control equipment alone!"

"Brook will get a medal that belongs to him!" Alex said.

At this moment, Brook's expression darkened. He asked in a low voice, "Alex, have you seen Captain Johansson?"

The smile on Alex's face faltered, and a hint of grief appeared on his face as he said, "Brook, I know what you want to ask. The doctor got on the plane immediately and examined Johansson, but unfortunately, he passed away a long time ago ..."

Brook closed his eyes sadly and mumbled, "Old man ... You're going to retire in three months ..." He said.

Alex patted Brook's shoulder, and said, "Alright, don't think too much! The first thing you need to do now is to go to the hospital and get your wound treated. Everyone is looking forward to seeing you return to the blue sky!"

"I know ..." Brook whispered.

The passengers had all been evacuated. Xia ruofei, Feng Jing, Brook, and Alex had all walked out of the cockpit. Xia ruofei asked, "What are the passengers' arrangements?"

Most of the passengers on this flight were Chinese. Xia ruofei was naturally concerned about the situation of his fellow Chinese.

"Don't worry, Mr. Xia," Alex said. "Our company has already sent a plane to land in Saipan!" If the passengers wish to continue the journey, they can change to our company's flight. If they feel uncomfortable, they can also choose to stay in Saipan. Our company will be responsible for their accommodation during this time! Of course, all the passengers will be compensated by our airline!"

Xia ruofei nodded. He was quite satisfied with this arrangement.

By the way, can Chinese travelers enter Saipan?"he asked. Xia ruofei asked.

"Saipan is a tourist Island in the U.S.," Feng Rao said with a smile."Since November 2009, Chinese people have enjoyed a 45 – day visa – Free treatment in Saipan. They can enter the country as long as they have a Chinese passport!"

"That's good!" Xia ruofei said,"I also want to play in Saipan for a few days! However, the situation in Australia is more urgent, so ... Let's take an Australian plane and continue to fly to Australia!"

"I'll listen to your arrangement. You're the boss!" Feng Rao said with a smile.

"Mr. Xia," Alex said,"the airport Police will ask you and the crew about the situation in a while. The senior executives of Quto airlines will also express their gratitude to you in person, so...You may have to stay in Saipan for a day or two. You won't be able to take a later flight to Australia."

"Let's just take things as they come,"Feng Rao chuckled and said," in the words of Captain Brook, this is God's arrangement ..."

Chapter 1674: Popular all over the country (1)

Brook was sent to the ambulance first, and the police sent someone to the hospital to record his statement.

Before they got into the car, Xia ruofei said to Brook,""Captain Brook, if the injury is too serious, please remember to contact me. Maybe Chinese medicine has a better solution!"

Xia ruofei had a good impression of Brook. Although he was the one who saved the situation, Xia ruofei would not have been able to create such a miracle without Brook's guidance.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not want to see Brook being injured and have to bid farewell to flying.

"Okay, Xia!" Brook said gratefully. Thank you very much!"

Xia ruofei smiled and patted Brook's shoulder before sending him to the ambulance.

Other than Brook, several passengers had suffered minor injuries during the explosion and the violent jolts. All of these needed to be handled by the A.I. Staff.

Alex stayed behind to accompany Xia ruofei to deal with the police's questions.

After the ambulance left, Xia ruofei prepared to follow Alex to the special passage specially opened by the Australian Airlines. They would go through the immigration procedures first, and then cooperate with the police to make a statement.

At this moment, a voice came from behind,""Sir, please wait a moment!"

Xia ruofei heard the familiar Chinese and immediately turned his head. He only heard the sound of the shutter clicking a few times. Then, he saw a young face behind the single – lens reflex camera.

"I'm a passenger on this flight!" The young man said excitedly, "we all heard that you saved the entire flight! Thank you!"

Although Xia ruofei did not want to expose his identity, he was in a foreign country and they were Chinese people who had gone through thick and thin together. Since the other party had already taken a photo, he would not ask them to delete it.

He could only smile and say, "you're welcome. I can't live if the flight got into an accident. I only did it to save myself."

After the passengers on the flight were evacuated, they gathered in this area to queue up for the entry procedures.

A special passage had been opened at the customs of Saipan, but many people were still waiting there because of the large number of people.

The Chinese passengers gathered around and expressed their gratitude to Xia ruofei. Many of them even took out their phones to take pictures. Some even took pictures with Xia ruofei and asked for his signature.

Xia ruofei was desperate. He could understand the feelings of his fellow countrymen who had just survived the disaster. He cooperated with everyone's request for a group photo, but of course, he declined to sign an autograph.

The smile on Xia ruofei's face was almost frozen. Finally, Alex and the other staff of Quang came to help him out of the situation. The Chinese people finally let Xia ruofei go. When he left, whether it was the Chinese passengers or the other foreign passengers, they all gave Xia ruofei a warm round of applause.

As they walked into the special passageway, Feng Rao asked with a smile, "Ruofei, how does it feel to be a big star?"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and said, "sister ran, don't you know me?" I really don't want to be in the limelight!"

Social media was so developed nowadays. Xia ruofei could foresee that these photos would soon spread to every corner of China. By then, he would be in the spotlight. He did not know how long it would take for the popularity to drop.

Feng Jing couldn't help but chuckle. She thought of how Xia ruofei used to push her to the front and even made her a slightly famous "internet celebrity". Now that Xia ruofei was going to enjoy the same "treatment", she couldn't help but feel a little mischievous and wondered how Xia ruofei would react.

Under special circumstances, Xia ruofei and Feng Jing were able to get their entry procedures done quickly after showing their Chinese passports.

According to the principle of local jurisdiction, the incident would be the responsibility of the local police of Saipan. Of course, most of the passengers were Chinese and Australian. As the main parties involved, China and Australia would also participate in the investigation of the incident. Of course, the Civil Aviation investigation Department should be the main party involved.

After entering Saipan, Xia ruofei was quickly invited by the local police to understand the situation. Feng Jing was also in the cockpit at the time, so she also made a statement.

In addition, as Saipan was the territory of the United States, the American Civil Aviation investigation Agency had already set off. By then, the Civil Aviation teams from China and Australia would also be there. Xia ruofei still needed to cooperate with their investigation.

Hence, after they left the police station, Alex had already arranged for Xia ruofei and Feng Jing's accommodation and other related matters on behalf of qplease airlines.

Qishang did not arrange for a designated hotel in Saipan base, but specifically chose the best local hotel, the Grand Hyatt Hotel.

The Kaiyue hotel in Saipan was located on the legendary Micro Beach, surrounded by 14 acres of tropical gardens and reef lakes. It was a luxurious and tranquil place unique to the Northern Mariana Islands.

The hotel was about 11 kilometers away from the airport. After the group came out of the airport, they arrived in about 20 minutes by car.

The hotel was located on the beach. Naturally, Xia ruofei and Feng Jing's rooms had an ocean view. Alex even specifically asked if they were a couple because it involved booking a few rooms, which made Xia ruofei and Feng Jing blush.

Chapter 1675: Popular all over the country (2)

In the end, they naturally booked two rooms. Alex personally escorted the two of them to their rooms, and then tactfully took his leave.

He knew that after going through such a life and death situation and going through such a struggle after landing, the two of them must be physically and mentally exhausted. What they needed the most was rest.

On the other hand, Xia ruofei was still in good condition. Feng Jing was really exhausted. Hence, Xia ruofei stood at the door of her room and spoke to her for a while before letting her rest.

Xia ruofei went to his room and took a shower.

The bathroom also had a large floor – to – Ceiling glass, which faced the beach. Of course, this glass was one – way.

Soaking in the bathtub, all he could see was the White, soft beach and the boundless sea. Taking a bath in such an environment really gave him a relaxed and happy feeling.

In fact, Xia ruofei had long wanted to bring Ling Qingxue on a trip to an Island like Saipan or the Maldives and live there leisurely for a while.

He did not expect that before this wish was realized, he would unexpectedly “wander” in Saipan.

The encounters in life were really wonderful!

After Xia ruofei finished his bath, he changed into the pajamas provided by the hotel and leaned against the bay window of his room. He lit a cigarette and started smoking while admiring the beautiful sea view.

Xia ruofei didn't know that all the major new media platforms in the country were in an uproar.

An APP that provided real – time flight information first discovered that Xia ruofei's flight was experiencing a deviation and a strange drop in altitude. It immediately posted it on Weibo and even provided a comparison chart of the estimated flight route and the actual flight trajectory.

This news didn't attract much attention at first. Of course, a small number of people began to speculate about the incident with Malaysia Airlines. After all, there were many Chinese passengers on the plane. It was inevitable that people would think of the strange disappearance of the plane a few years ago.

After a while, the flight APP once again released first – hand information: “the answering machine for flight QF108 has been changed to 7700!” This meant that there was an emergency on the flight.

The moment this message was released, many people who were paying attention to this matter felt their hearts tighten.

As there was a certain delay in information, when QF108's answering machine code was changed to 7700, the flight was already approaching Saipan airport. It was also Xia ruofei's busiest time.

What really ignited the hot topic of public opinion was a Weibo post.

The blogger only had more than 200 fans, but it was this Weibo post that suddenly attracted everyone's attention to the quodan incident.

The title of the Weibo post was “I was supposed to go to Australia, but now I'm in Saipan, basking in the moment of life and death I've experienced.”

The blogger wrote in this long Weibo post:

Today, I happily boarded the flight to Australia with my girlfriend. This was our first time traveling abroad and our first time taking an international flight. After boarding the plane, I was really excited. However, just two hours after the plane took off, while we were still looking forward to the Gold Coast of Australia, something that would be engraved in my heart for the rest of my life happened.

At that time, everything seemed normal. The plane was flying smoothly. My girlfriend said that she heard an abnormal sound in the front cabin. I even laughed at her overthinking. However, the next moment, the plane trembled violently, followed by a violent bump. The things in the cabin flew everywhere, and all the oxygen masks drooped down. At that moment, I was completely dumbfounded. Everything in front of me was like the end of the world.

After that, the air stewardess used all her strength to ask everyone to put on their oxygen masks. My girlfriend and I hurriedly put on our masks and felt the plane rapidly descending.

At that time, he really thought that he was done for. The sea was right below the plane! I seemed to have become slow. The only thought I had was to hold my girlfriend tightly. At that time, I thought that even if the plane crashed, I would still hold her tightly. At least we wouldn't be separated after death.

After a while, the plane gradually stopped descending. However, the noise in the cabin was very loud, and the flight became very unstable. Many people were so scared that they cried out loud, and some wrote their wills with trembling hands.

I spent almost an hour in this torture, Yingying. I took a look at my watch, and the seconds counted like years. It felt like it was far longer than this. Yingying, the plane finally tried to land.

The first landing failed. The plane swayed over the runway and then rose quickly. Our mood was like a roller coaster.

The second time the plane landed, it finally landed on the runway. After it came to a stop, a bunch of police cars and fire trucks surrounded it. It was like a huge scene.

We didn't know that the plane had landed in Saipan until we got off.

"If you think this is the biggest news of the day, then you're all wrong. After Xuxu got off the plane and was waiting for the immigration procedures, a few Chinese people in the first class cabin told us that there seemed to be a problem with the pilot. It was a passenger in the first class cabin who landed the plane, and this passenger was a Chinese compatriot!

We didn't believe it at first, Yingluo. This is simply a fantasy story! But soon, we saw a young Chinese man walking over accompanied by an Australian staff member. When we asked, he really did land the plane safely!

I'll just ask you, aren't you awesome?

"Finally, the last photo I took with this amazing person, I have a feeling that he will be famous all over China!

Anyway, my girlfriend asked me to go to the beach for a swim. I was going to Australia, but now I'm going to enjoy the sunny beach of Saipan! By the way, all the expenses will be covered by Quto!

When this blog post was published, it was originally difficult to attract any attention with his number of fans.

However, this blogger had tagged a few big V airline names, and one of them had helped him repost it. Such a twisted and bizarre incident naturally attracted a lot of attention, so it quickly became a hot search.

Of course, many people were skeptical of the content of the blogger, and some even scoffed at it.

Among them were many aviation professionals who were certified by Weibo, including pilots and even captains, as well as administrators.

These people were naturally more concerned about the news in the industry.

One of the captain's remarks was very representative:

"The blogger's article is full of mistakes. I don't dare to say it's definitely fabricated, but it's really hard to believe that such a thing would happen.

First of all, this kind of transnational flight was equipped with at least two captains, and some even two crew, which meant that there were at least three pilots. The probability of all three pilots losing their abilities at the same time was lower than winning the lottery, right?

Secondly, flying was an extremely professional matter, especially with the high degree of precision of modern passenger planes. Even a private licensed pilot who had been trained to pilot small planes would have difficulty landing an Airbus A350 smoothly, let alone a complete layman.

Could it be that the passenger in the first – Class cabin was a professional pilot who happened to fly the Airbus series? Wasn't this too much of a coincidence?

Therefore, I'm guessing that there might be some accidents on the plane, so I prepared to land in Saipan. As for the Chinese fellow who flew the plane, I think the possibility is extremely low. I hope that everyone will not spread false rumors. "

Many people in the aviation industry supported the captain's point of view. In all fairness, this was also a relatively objective judgment.

However, many things could not be explained professionally.

Not long after the captain's Weibo post was posted, it was "slapped in the face" by the power of Quto's official Weibo.

Australian Airlines placed more importance on the Chinese business and had opened a verified account on the Weibo platform a long time ago.

This quinhang incident had not yet fully fermented, and public opinion was still in chaos. The quinhang official Weibo suddenly posted a very official Weibo.

The content of the Weibo post was: "today, flight QF108 from Beijing of China to suddeny, Australia encountered an extreme accident in flight. In the case of the pilot's loss of ability, the Chinese passenger, Mr. Xia, with his outstanding courage and extraordinary technology, helped the crew complete an epic forced landing. Qishang expresses its deep gratitude for this!"

There was also a picture attached to the Weibo post. It was the original text of the official announcement from Quto, with the signature of the CEO of Quto at the back.

As soon as this Weibo post was posted, it immediately caused a huge wave of public opinion ...

Chapter 1676: Everyone's high_1

The official Weibo account of qihang didn't have many fans, but when this blog post came out, it instantly gained hundreds of thousands of fans and the comment area was extremely popular.

There was too much information in this short paragraph of text, such as the loss of ability of the pilot, forced landing, and so on. Most importantly, the key person was Chinese, which naturally attracted the enthusiastic attention of Chinese netizens. Everyone left messages to ask about the situation.

The captain from before also reposted the Weibo post immediately and said humorously, "I take back what I said before. It seems like nothing is impossible in this world. What I'm most concerned about now is, is the passenger who was ordered to fly the plane in the face of danger our colleague?"

In the face of the netizens' enthusiasm, qiuhan's official Weibo was also somewhat unexpected. After about half an hour, it updated its Weibo: Thanks to the concern of the netizens, because the incident had just happened, the official investigation had not yet started, so many details could not be disclosed for the time being. What I can tell you here is that all the passengers on board are safe. Only a few have suffered minor injuries. After examination, they are not in any serious condition. Please rest assured. In addition, according to Xiao ao's private understanding, the passenger who was forced to land was not a professional pilot!

At the end of the Weibo post, the A.I. Official Weibo editor naughtily tagged the captain.

The captain did not have a flight mission today and was very concerned about the incident, so he saw the update on the Australian Airlines' official Weibo immediately.

He immediately reposted the Weibo post and attached three facepalm emojis.

This Captain was a Captain instructor who had been converted from a military to a civilian. He was usually very active on Weibo. He would often post some beautiful scenery he had taken while in the cockpit and share aviation knowledge with everyone. Therefore, he had quite a number of fans on Weibo and was deeply loved by everyone.

After the captain reposted the Weibo post, his fans also commented one after another. Most of them were "gloating".

"Hahaha! Instructor yang has been slapped in the face, I'm happy to see that!"

"Captain yang, does your face hurt ..."

"I feel bad for instructor yang for three seconds. However, even us aviation noobs find it hard to believe. No wonder instructor yang made the wrong judgment!"

The captain – in – command instructor was selected from the senior captains. Usually, they would take on more flying tasks. Above them were the inspectors. The operation assessment for the co – Pilot to the captain was the responsibility of the inspectors.

Captain yang was an instructor, so it was right for the fans to call him instructor yang or Captain yang.

Moreover, those who called him that were all true fans who knew him very well. Most of the comments were just teasing and did not have any malicious intentions, so Captain yang was naturally not angry. Instead, he showed his phone to his colleagues next to him, and everyone laughed.

Then, the pilots naturally began to discuss this rare incident from a professional point of view.

Captain yang pressed the 'no' button, and the Weibo post of the person who was on the flight with his girlfriend also went viral.

Because compared to the official statement of qstro airlines, this Weibo post was posted by someone who had personally experienced it, and there were many details in it.

The most important thing was that the Weibo post was accompanied by a photo of the blogger and Xia ruofei!

In the beginning, everyone was still guessing which was the blogger and which was the hero who flew the plane to land, because the blogger did not make it clear on Weibo. Besides, he rarely posted on Weibo, let alone taking selfies and the like.

However, Xia ruofei was quite famous. Even though he was not famous in the country, he was still quite well known in the southeast province.

Therefore, the netizens quickly recognized him.

"Isn't that boss Xia from the Paradise Corporation on the right? He can actually fly a plane?"

"Boss Xia? Is he famous? What's his background?"

"Copper ball science!"

"Copper ball +1"

There was a neat row of replies below, and finally, someone left a message: If you're not sure about boss Xia's shoes, you can go to Baidu and search for the Jade skin cream or Drunken Eight Immortals.

Some bored people went up to search for it and immediately came back to leave messages.

"I'll go! The Jade skin cream and the eight Drunken Immortals were both under the name of this boss Xia! It's really blinding my eyes ... There's actually ... A paradise vegetable! I had the chance to eat it a few days ago, and it was so delicious! It's a pity that it's too expensive."

"Hahaha! Upstairs, you're so ignorant! The Paradise Corporation is a star company in our Sanshan, and boss Xia is a self-made, young, and promising individual! But we don't know when he got the skill to fly an Airplane!"

"Worship! President Xia, is there anything you don't know?"

"I know, I know! He can't give birth to monkeys!"

"The person above is being naughty! President Xia was a young hunk! Although he doesn't know how to give birth to monkeys, he can definitely make others give birth to many monkeys for him ..."

However, Xia ruofei was the main character of this emergency. This matter was confirmed. After all, the official Weibo of qiuhan also said that it was the passenger, Mr. Xia, who helped the plane land. This person even posted a group photo. Wasn't Xia ruofei the one with the surname Xia? What other possibilities could there be?

At first, the Paradise company didn't know.

They couldn't be blamed for being slow to react. The main thing was that everyone was actually very busy working in such a thriving new company. Who would go and check Weibo during working hours?

It was only when many busybodies reposted the Weibo post and tagged the peach blossom company's official Weibo that it attracted the attention of the operations Department.

Xia ruofei's good friend, Guan Ping, who was a new employee, happened to be on rotation in the public relations department these few days. The public relations and sales of the misty paradise company were under the jurisdiction of the big marketing department. As soon as Guan Ping entered the company, he hoped to be familiar with the situation in multiple positions. Hence, Xia ruofei asked Xiao Qiang to give Guan Ping more rotation opportunities.

Guan Ping saw so much information about the background 's company's official Weibo and knew that something big must have happened, so he quickly clicked on it.

When he saw the contents of those Weibo posts, Guan Ping couldn't help but be stunned.

RUO Fei's plane had an accident? He even helped to land the plane? Guan Ping felt that it was a little like a fantasy.

His first reaction was that it was an online rumor. However, after tracing the source, he found that even the official Weibo of Air Australia had confirmed the matter. Even the official Weibo of many mainstream media outlets had forwarded it immediately.

After Guan Ping recovered from his shock, he realized that this might be a good opportunity for free publicity.

He calmed himself down and did not let the sudden gift bag get to his head.

Guan Ping took out his phone and called Xia ruofei. As the boss's good friend, Jian Jia had this advantage. If it was any other employee, they would have to report it to the higher – ups and would not be able to confirm it with Xia ruofei immediately.

While the discussion on Weibo was brewing, Xia ruofei had just finished his statement at the police station and was resting at Kaiyue hotel. His phone had activated international roaming, so Guan Ping's call was picked up very quickly.

"Ruofei, are you in Saipan now?" he asked. Guan Ping asked impatiently.

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment and said,"even you know?" This matter has spread so quickly?"

“So the news on the internet is true?” Guan Ping said excitedly.

“What’s the news on the internet?” Xia ruofei was confused. “I’ve just settled down. I haven’t had time to go online yet!”

“The internet is saying that the plane you were on had an accident, and then ... Then you landed the plane!” As Guan Ping spoke, he felt that it was a little too bizarre, and he could not believe it.

He was afraid that Xia ruofei would laugh and refute this ridiculous statement.

Fortunately, what he was worried about did not happen. Xia ruofei said, “There is such a thing, but the news spread too fast! It must have been those passengers who asked me for a photo, right? Otherwise, my identity wouldn’t have been exposed ...”

“That’s great!” Guan Ping excitedly called out.

Xia ruofei looked depressed and said, “ping Zi, are we still brothers?” I’ve had an accident here! I was almost buried in the sea, and you’re still calling it good? I didn’t expect you to be like this, Guanping!”

Guan Ping laughed, “haven’t you already turned misfortune into fortune?” I mean, this is a great thing for our company! You don’t know how popular it is on the internet now! It’s such a waste if we don’t make use of such a good free advertising opportunity!”

“This feels like a blessing in disguise,” Xia ruofei said.

“Isn’t it?” Guan Ping said, “alright, leave the rest to us. You can enjoy the sunny beach of Saipan! However, I might need your cooperation later on ...”

“Don’t go too far!” Xia ruofei said, “going too far is as bad as not going enough!”

“I know! Don’t worry!” Guan Ping said.

After he hung up the phone, he couldn’t help but clench his fists in excitement. Then, he quickly pulled out the keyboard, created a new document, and began to write the proposal with his fingers flying.

Guan Ping, who was in an extremely good state, only took about 20 minutes to write a simple proposal. Then, he ran directly to the office of the marketing director, Xiao Qiang, and then reported to Dong Yun, who was temporarily in charge of the daily affairs of the company.

Soon, the publicity department of paradise Corporation got into action.

The netizens refreshed the news on major platforms with great interest. In fact, the real news was the official announcement of Quto and the Weibo of the first person who experienced it. After that, there were some other news posted by the passengers on the plane. In fact, they were all similar.

There were also many people who posted it on their moments, but soon the screenshots of their moments were also posted on the internet.

Just as everyone was at their peak and constantly looking for new news, the official Weibo of paradise Corporation finally updated a blog post.

“After confirming with President Xia, who is on a ‘vacation’ in Saipan, the information circulating on the internet is basically accurate. The story was as follows: This morning, President Xia and the company’s president, Feng Jing, had agreed to fly QF108 to Australia to inspect the company’s Paradise Farm in Australia. The flight had encountered some unexpected changes during the flight, causing all the pilots to be unable to fly the plane. In order to save the passengers on board and also to save himself, President Xia bravely stood up and successfully landed the plane in Saipan airport under the full technical guidance of the Qinba Captain, Mr. Brook. The plane and passengers are all safe and sound.”

It was a standard blog post with a picture of paradise corporation’s .

Soon, the netizens reposted it one after another. In just a short time, the number of reposts reached more than 10000, and there were also thousands of comments.

If you think that this is the only Weibo post Tao Yuan company will post, then you are too naive. To Guan Ping, who has been deeply immersed in marketing, how could he not make a fuss about such a great opportunity?

Therefore, within a few minutes, the official Weibo of paradise Corporation released another Weibo post.

“Sister Tao saw the netizens ‘comments. Someone asked if there’s anything our President Xia doesn’t know. Sister Tao made a special overseas call to President Xia to verify it. President Xia said that he really can’t give birth to monkeys ... In fact, in the eyes of our employees, President Xia is really omnipotent! The jade skin cream that’s selling like hotcakes on the internet, as well as the heart – nourishing soup that has benefited countless people with autism, were all independently developed by President Xia! He alone could be considered the core competitive strength of the Paradise Corporation! You’re asking why our President Xia is so awesome? That’s because he eats Taoyuan vegetables all year round and drinks Taoyuan Brand Da Hong Pao. When he’s free, he would also drink Taoyuan brand iron – Skin Dendrobium and Cordyceps sinensis to nourish his brain!”

Nowadays, personified operations were popular on social media and official Weibo. Peach blossom company’s official Weibo had always called itself “peach sister” Wan Wan. In fact, a few cute girls were in charge of the operations, but Guan Ping just happened to be on shift today.

Guan Ping used a girl’s tone to post such a Weibo post, and it didn’t feel out of place at all.

As soon as this Weibo post was posted, the netizens got excited again.

“Pfft ... I won’t give up, I’ll give up on the operations of Tao Yuan’s official Weibo!”

“This advertisement is simply traceless!”

“Previous poster, can’t you see such an obvious advertisement? are your eyes blind?”

“The teacher above me, can’t you have a sense of humor?”

“Al! We’ve all received nine years of compulsory education. Operations girl, how can you be so smart?”

After Guan Ping posted this, he did not rest. Instead, he quickly used his official Weibo account to reply to the netizens ‘comments. He tried to use a relaxed and happy tone, as well as some popular online phrases, to quickly close the psychological distance between everyone.

After about half an hour, Guan Ping copied the proposal he had prepared in advance into the Weibo post box again. He selected the poster picture that the art team had made at the last minute, checked it carefully a few times, and then clicked the post button.

Now, many netizens were watching the official Weibo of paradise Corporation, teasing the operations girls while looking for new news.

“Just now, sister Tao called President Xia again to ask for instructions. In order to celebrate President Xia’s escape from death, we have decided to hold a big promotion at eight o’ clock tonight! For the details of the promotion, please look at the poster! We also have the Jade skin cream that everyone has been looking forward to!”

Chapter 1678: I’ve become a WiFi (1)

After the phone call with Guan Ping, Xia ruofei was also paying attention to the domestic online public opinion in Saipan. He was mainly worried that Guan Ping and the others had gone too far and caused the opposite effect, so he had to keep an eye on them.

Xia ruofei was also shocked by the popularity on Weibo. The topic #Passenger flying the plane #had reached the top of the hot search list in just one or two hours. A B – list celebrity had spent a lot of money to create a scandal and had finally made it to the top ten of the hot search list. However, it had been squeezed out in an instant. He was probably crying in the toilet.

Other than Weibo, Xia ruofei also saw the related notifications on the mainstream media’s WeChat official account. Although they were all piecing together the current news, the impact was incomparable.

The official WeChat accounts of these national media outlets were all Big V’s with tens of millions of fans, and their accounts were specially authorized by Penguin company, so they were not restricted to one push per day. They could push hot news immediately, and their fan activity was quite high.

Naturally, Xia ruofei paid the most attention to the updates on peach blossom company’s official Weibo.

When Guan Ping and the others released the promotion plan, he saw it immediately.

The new media’s tone was lighthearted and lively. This was the only way to get closer to the users. Hence, Xia ruofei only smiled at the content of the blog and didn’t think it was inappropriate.

The promotion plan was also considered satisfactory. The Paradise Corporation launched a promotion at the flagship stores of jingbei shopping mall and Tomcat shopping mall at the same time. In the additional sales this time, in addition to doubling the sales quota of the popular products such as the Jade skin cream, there were also certain discounts for iron – skinned dendrobes, Cordyceps, and Taoyuan Dahongpao.

In addition, the Paradise Corporation would also release 500 80% discount vouchers on each of the two e – commerce platforms, with a maximum discount of 10000 Yuan. In addition to these 80% discount godly vouchers, there were also a number of discount vouchers, and the number was relatively large.

The promotion would start at eight o' clock in the evening, and the vouchers would be opened at six o' clock sharp.

Meanwhile, Kyokuboku shopping mall and Skycat shopping mall also coincidentally provided a free eye – catching display spot on the front page of the promotion event held by Paradise Corporation's official flagship store.

The daily cost of such advertising spots was more than 100,000 to 200,000 Yuan. The fact that Heavenly Cat and Kyokuboku were able to provide it for free showed how much importance they attached to Paradise Corporation.

President Liu of Jingbei shopping mall had met Xia Ruofei in the capital, so he naturally knew a little about Xia Ruofei's background. In addition, as a self – made legendary elite, he also had a sense of appreciation for Xia Ruofei. Of course, with his keen business sense, he was very clear about the development prospects of Paradise Corporation.

As for Chairman Ma from the Heavenly Cat company, although he had never met Xia Ruofei, he had already seen the sales miracles of the Jade Skin Ointment. Since Kyokuboku shopping center was trying to build a good relationship with Paradise Corporation, naturally, the Heavenly Cat company would not be left behind.

In fact, it was a miracle for a small company like the Paradise Corporation to be favored by tens of billions of Giants at the same time.

The netizens were naturally in high spirits. They didn't know how difficult it was to get the Jade Skin Cream normally, and there was already more than one young lady who left a resentful message on the official Weibo of Paradise Corporation. Today, not only did the supply double, but they even had the opportunity to buy it at a 20% discount. How could everyone not be happy?

They were all rubbing their fists and preparing to buy vouchers at 6 pm and 8 pm.

Xia Ruofei looked at the comments on Weibo and couldn't help but smile. He was very satisfied with the marketing department's quick response. If Feng Jing wasn't already on her break, he would have asked her to come and take a look. He wanted to let Feng Jing know that she didn't have to keep an eye on the company. In the future, she wouldn't have to do everything herself and might even be able to let go of her responsibilities.

Just as Xia Ruofei was scrolling through Weibo, his phone rang again.

Seeing that it was Guan Ping calling again, Xia Ruofei couldn't help but have a headache. He thought to himself, "this kid is definitely up to no good!"

As expected, when Xia Ruofei picked up, he heard Guan Ping asking with a smirk, "Boss Xia! Are you paying attention to the situation on our Weibo? The publicity seems to be very effective!"

"I'm about to turn into a Wi – Fi," Xia Ruofei said unhappily. "Who doesn't want to use the hot spots!"

What he said was not wrong. It was not a big deal for their own company to freeloader on the hot topics, but this matter had evolved into a Carnival on the internet. Many third – and fourth – tier, and even eighteenth – tier small stars had also begun to freeload on the hot topics. Anyway, there was no time for it.

A small – time model posted a very revealing photo and publicly expressed her love for Xia ruofei on the internet. She said that she had admired such a hero since she was young and that she was just short of offering herself to sleep with him ...

Guan Ping couldn't help but burst out in laughter.

The peach blossom company was also taking this matter very seriously. After all, it involved the company's chairman and general manager. Therefore, Dong Yun had arranged for someone to monitor the public opinion on the internet 24 hours a day. All the public opinions related to Xia ruofei had to be collected and sorted out to form an analysis report.

Hence, Guan Ping naturally knew about these details.

Xia ruofei had always wanted to keep a low profile, but this time, he could no longer keep a low profile. It was only because his friends were of a higher social class that he was able to keep a low profile. Otherwise, many media reporters would have found his phone number and called him for an interview.

Hence, Xia ruofei was indeed feeling a little depressed. He said, ""Is there anything? You should be very busy right now! You still have the time to call me? If there's nothing else, I'm hanging up!"

Chapter 1679: I've become a WiFi (2)

"No, no, no!" Guan Ping quickly said. Of course there was something! That ... President Dong and President Xiao have discussed it. We need to add more fuel to the fire, so ... We need your cooperation ..."

"You guys have made a big deal out of it! How else do you want me to cooperate?" Xia ruofei asked.

Guan Ping laughed. "It's actually very simple. We just want you to record a short video and send it back to us after you're done. We'll post the video on Weibo!"

"What? And you want me to record a video?" Xia ruofei said without hesitation, "no! You can go find whoever you want!"

"Don't!" Guan Ping said, "ruofei, do you know how many fans you have now? It's just that you don't have a Weibo, otherwise, I'm afraid your backstage would be jammed! Our company's official Weibo gained millions of followers in just one or two hours! This is all directed at you!"

"So what?" Xia ruofei asked.

"The fans are very concerned about you!" Guan Ping said exaggeratedly, "they all want to know how you are now! The text and pictures are too pale. If we directly record a video, the effect will definitely be explosive!"

Guan Ping paused and said, "ruofei, it's not an exaggeration to say that this is a once – in – a – century opportunity to gain fans for the company!" After all, you can't take a plane every day, and it's even more unlikely that plane accidents happen every day, right?"

Xia ruofei laughed and scolded, "are you hoping for something to happen to me?" How can you speak like that?"

"Don't mind the details. I'm just saying that!" Guan Ping said, "the popularity on the internet comes and goes quickly. We must make full use of such a good opportunity! Of course, your popularity won't die down too quickly. After all, there will be a lot of follow – up reports, and there might even be honors and awards in the country. "

"Commendation and reward?" Xia ruofei said in confusion, "I'm not surprised that qiuhan sent me a big red flower or something. But what does it have to do with our country?"

Guan Ping chuckled, "even the China Civil Aviation Administration of China has made a statement, it seems like they want to give you a commendation and reward!" After all, you're making a huge contribution to Aviation Safety! And there are so many passengers on the plane!"

Xia ruofei was speechless.

Guan Ping continued, "moreover, Sina Weibo contacted our company as soon as possible. They hope that you can create a Weibo account. You don't have to worry about your identity verification. They will also send someone to maintain this account. They are even willing to give you a signing fee of no less than one million Yuan! This is the treatment of a celebrity!"

"What the ... There's such a thing ..." Xia ruofei was also shocked.

He had underestimated the influence of this epic – Level forced downgrade. In fact, except for some big stars and some foreign stars, the now – developed Sina Weibo rarely invited others to join them. As for the feira people who paid for the contract, they were even rarer. Only when Penguin Weibo was still fighting with them did they frequently spend money to recruit people.

"Ruofei, I hope you have a clear understanding of your influence," Guan Ping said. "Of course, we don't want you to open a Sina Weibo account immediately, lest you take away the traffic from the company's official Weibo account ..."

"I don't have the time to open a Weibo account, okay?" Xia ruofei ridiculed.

"Of course you don't need to maintain your own Weibo account, right?" Guan Ping said, "you're too outdated! The self – Media accounts of those big – shot celebrities were all updated and maintained by their managers or assistants! In the future, our company will definitely send someone to manage your Weibo account!"

At this point, Guan Ping said, "Hey, hey, hey, can you stop interrupting?" International roaming is so expensive! Let's talk about the video!"

Xia ruofei also realized that the impact of this incident might be far beyond his imagination. He began to seriously consider Guan Ping's request. At this time when the public's opinion was at its peak, his personal appearance would definitely bring about a big wave. This was without a doubt.

“How do you want me to cooperate?” he asked helplessly.

Guan Ping said happily, “I’ve already written the lines for you!” President Dong personally did it! I’ll send it to you on WeChat later. You just have to find a place with good scenery and recite the lines once! Of course, don’t be too stiff! Make a natural expression ...”

“Alright, alright, alright! I don’t need you to teach me this ...” Xia ruofei said, “hurry up and send it over!” I might have something to do soon!”

“Alright!” Guan Ping said.

After about half an hour, the netizens found that paradise Corporation had updated its Weibo again.

Xia ruofei was also paying attention to his company’s official Weibo. When he clicked on the video, he could not help but be stunned.

How could it be this version?

At the beginning of the video, there was a beautiful beach, the sea in the distance, and people playing under the setting sun. The environment was very peaceful.

Then, Xia ruofei appeared in the camera. In fact, he was going to set up the camera with the tripod, turn on the camera function, and then walk over.

Xia ruofei smiled at the camera and said, “Hello everyone, I’m Xia ruofei! Thank you for your concern, I’m very well now! Look, behind me is the most famous Michael Beach in Saipan. Although I came to Saipan by accident, the scenery here is really good! This trip was not in vain!

Chapter 1680: I’ve become a WiFi (3)

“I can’t disclose too many details about the forced surrender incident for the time being. After all, the official investigation has not ended yet. But I can tell you that the Australian airline crew was very professional in the entire emergency process. Without their full help, I couldn’t have completed such a task alone. Of course, our luck was also very good ...”

Just as Xia ruofei said that, two Chinese people walked into the camera. They were stunned when they saw Xia ruofei and then exclaimed in surprise, “Mr. Xia! It’s really you!”

Xia ruofei, who was recording the video, was also stunned. He asked hesitantly, “You guys are?”

One of the female passengers cried out in surprise, “Mr. Xia, we were on the same flight as you!”

The male passenger also said excitedly, “Yup! I even took a photo with you at the airport! Have you forgotten? By the way, I posted our group photo on Weibo. It’s all over the internet now!”

It was so chaotic at the airport and there were many people taking photos with Xia ruofei. Naturally, he couldn’t remember it. However, when the kid mentioned Weibo, Xia ruofei remembered.

So you’re the one who exposed me on the internet!

What a coincidence. This was the first person to post the message on Weibo. He and his girlfriend were originally going to Australia for a trip. After the plane landed, they were shocked because of their girlfriend. Moreover, the two of them were originally out for a vacation. Since they had arrived at the tourist destination, Saipan, they decided to stay.

Qplease airlines was also very generous. After all, the passengers had suffered a great shock this time, so everyone was arranged to stay at Kaiyue hotel.

The couple arrived at the hotel slightly later than Xia ruofei. After they settled down, they were in high spirits and went to the beach to play. They did not expect to meet Xia ruofei again.

Xia ruofei squeezed out a smile and said, ""Oh! It's you guys!"

"Yeah, yeah! We're really fated!" The girl said, "Mr. Xia, let's take another photo!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said.

Hence, the three of them took a photo in front of the camera, which was faithfully recorded by Xia ruofei's camera.

After the photo was taken, the two of them politely shook hands with Xia ruofei and left.

Xia ruofei cleared his throat in front of the camera and continued, ""At eight o' clock tonight, our paradise Corporation will be holding a joint promotion in the official flagship stores of heavenly cat and Jingdong. We'll start releasing 20% off divine vouchers at Six o' clock sharp ..."

Xia ruofei had originally planned to finish recording the video and send it to the back for editing.

To their surprise, the couple saw the other Chinese passengers after a few steps. They quickly called out, ""You guys, come over quickly! Mr. Xia is here!"

These six or seven people were passengers who had chosen to stay in Saipan. They had come to the hotel in the same car as the young couple. When they heard that their Savior was here, they were naturally quite excited and ran over.

Xia ruofei was just two sentences away from finishing the recording. He quickly shouted at the camera, ""Please continue to support our paradise Corporation ..."

Before he could finish, he was surrounded by enthusiastic passengers. Some were expressing their gratitude, and some were asking for a picture. The scene in the camera was a little chaotic.

The video ended there.

Xia ruofei was dumbfounded after watching the video in his hotel room. When he sent the video back, he even mentioned what had happened during the recording and asked if he needed to re – record it.

Back then, Guan Ping had said that it was fine and that they could edit it well.

But ... What happened to the editing? Xia ruofei couldn't help but complain. This was not even cut, okay?

Could it be that the art design team of the Paradise Corporation was slacking off? However, wasn't this a little too exaggerated? Or did they make a mistake when they sent the video? He uploaded the original material as a finished product?

Just as Xia ruofei was about to call Guanping to ask about the situation, the doorbell rang ...
